ANNUAL ADDRESS OF PRESIDENT.

Dear Co-Workers:

During the past twenty-seven years of occupancy of the high office of president of this Convention, I have never felt more keenly the responsibility which it involves, than I do at the present time. Circumstances and vicissitudes, both good and ill, have marked the labors of the year and brought sensibility to my remembrance the famous statement: "Uneasy lies the head that wears a crown." Experience has taught us that the work expands our problems and difficulties multiply. Two great facts have kept away discouragement: faith in God and the consciousness that we are engaged in a great work. We therefore come before you today happy and hopeful. Happy because our Master has led us by day and by night by a pillar of cloud and a pillar of fire; hopeful because of your increasing enthusiasm and gracious sacrifices. I therefore greet you, my comrades, in the name of the Lord, and stand ready to pledge anew with you our lives to carry forward the work so well done to the regions yet untouched by the gospel of Christ. It is perhaps useless to state that we are a distinct foreign mission convention, and that we are determined that nothing shall move us to change this course. Our one supreme mission is to magnify the last great command of our Lord and Master. This is the biggest object before the Christian world today. In the prosecution of this great mission, we invite and solicit the co-operation of any and all existing Baptist organizations.

CO-OPERATION IS OUR POLICY.

This organization of Baptists was founded on fraternity and co-operation. In every annual address, we have pleaded for and urged co-operation, and in constructing our constitution, we inserted "co-operation" as a leading feature. We hate no class of Baptists; we belong to no klan; we love all, and pray that we may be one, at least when we go to labor among the poor, benighted heathen. We cripple our Master's work when we wrangle, dispute, and devour one another. We must somehow cease contentions if we hope to do permanent service in non-Christian lands. We are filled with amazement to find some objecting to our co-operating with certain Baptist churches and brethren because they do not bear certain worldly "trade marks" on their backs. Our doors stand wide-open to co-operate with any and all existing Baptist churches in doing mission work, and we do not intend to allow that door to be closed. We want all Baptist churches united on Christ and not on men. True to the settled policy of this Convention and inspired by a deep desire to unite Baptists in doing work among the heathen, we entered into a mutual agreement with the National Baptist Convention, Unincorporated, to do our foreign mission work conjointly and together. We have no apology to make because of this contract. These brethren are not strangers, but our co-laborers in a great cause; and many of them are regarded and classed as foremost race leaders, and as eminent preachers in this country. We certainly feel it no disgrace to be associated with them.

HEADQUARTERS FOR THE CONVENTION.

Two or more years ago, owing to the rapid expansion of our conventional interests, we decided to make Washington City our National headquarters, and appointed a committee to look out for a home for the convention. Early in this year the committee made a selection and reported the same to the board. Their report was approved and the property purchased at the cost of $15,500.00. We are happy to report that this transaction has met with the approval of all of our constituents. We hope to have a formal opening of our "headquarters" soon, at which time a formal dedication should be held. Should it please you to approve this suggestion, the dedication should be made a notable event in the interest of missions.

A SURVEY OF THE FOREIGN FIELD.

We desire you to become thoroughly familiar with the fields where we are endeavoring to work and to keep posted on the developments therein, and also to note the difficulties under which we operate. The work is yours, and you are entitled to all the information that comes into our possession.

Our nearest mission field is Haiti—six days sail from New York. We have a peculiar interest in Haiti, because it is the only negro republic in the Western World, and because the people are inclined to be Baptists. By mutual agreement, the American Baptist Home Mission Society has consented to assist in the evangelization of Haiti. We feel that this marks a new day in the work among the two and a half million Haitians. We must, however, keep up our present interest in the island. We are deeply interested in the political as well as the spiritual welfare of Haiti, and cannot bring ourselves to believe that the United States means to crush by force the aspirations of the Haitian people and deprive them of the right to govern themselves—a freedom for which their forefathers fought, bled, and died.

Our interest in Africa has grown with the years. We are praying to see the day when her vast jungles shall be invaded by eager, tireless, consecrated representatives of the cross of Jesus. We have a small band of native workers in South Africa. These are paid by and through the board of white Baptists representing the South African Baptist Alliance. They are urging us to enlarge our activities in this section. But for obvious reasons we have decided to concentrate our efforts in Liberia. In this field, we have placed fully a score of men and women, who are not resting on their oars. In fact, both in the number of trained men and women and in the stations established, we greatly exceed the other evangelical denominations, and yet we are not doing what we can to give the native peoples the opportunity to know the Lord. We have at heart the well-being of Liberia both as to its importance as a political state, and its strategic importance with regard to the evangelization of that vast continent. We welcome to this meeting especially Rev. Mr. Bryant, one of our mission workers and a native of that country, who comes to us with information concerning the work and the perplexing problems incident thereto. We are determined to put up the proposed buildings as speedily as possible. The building program is of first importance in making permanent our work in Liberia. We must stop sending missionaries over there until we can make provision for those whom we have already employed. Our foreign mission work is largely experimental, and therefore, blunders must be expected. We are studying the problems and praying for light to the end that the greatest good may result from the efforts and means employed. We are thoroughly convinced that the building of houses and furnishing of equipment, are the main essentials at the present time.

The building program includes: (1) The Sallie Mial Building at Brewerville; (2) the equipment of a workshop and (3) installation of a lighting plant at the same point; (4) the erection of a hospital; and (5) the construction of a good building at Careysburg. Other smaller houses are also needed. We beg your patience and support while we push to completion this program.

We are meeting satisfactorily our obligations with the Russian workers. The needs there are great indeed; and it is marvelous to observe the devotion and self-sacrifice that our workers there display in their determination to preach and teach, in spite of the unspeakable dangers and difficulties. The Lord is smiling on our work.

CARE IN THE EMPLOYMENT OF MISSIONARIES.

I feel it my duty to offer some advice in the selection of missionaries. We are daily learning how to do this work. We have not been sufficiently careful in the selection of missionaries. We have been too sympathetic with persons who have merely a romantic desire to go to Africa, and have employed them without careful and prayerful examination as to their character, fitness, ability, Christian experience, adaptability and consecration. It should be known that a person who aspires to be a missionary must understand that he seeks a life of tremendous self-sacrifice, suffering, and possibly death. He is called upon to surrender country, home, friends, pleasures, conveniences, comforts and ease, for a hard pioneer's life. He sacrifices every prospect of pecuniary gain and earthly preferment. His only reward lies in the fruitage of his work, and often he realizes none of this during his life time. In fact he loses his life for the gospel's sake. If any man goes prompted by any other motive he will be deceived and will be a misfit.

I fear we have missionaries who have entered the service without counting the cost. Their time is spent largely in expressing their disappointments, manufacturing complaints, and begging money. We scarcely ever get a report telling of the eagerness of souls to accept Christ or the good they are doing to alleviate suffering and give hope to the despairing. The missionaries do not realize that complaints only tend to kill interest on the home field. We are convinced that some have been sent to the foreign field who are temperamentally and spiritually unfit. It will help the work to reorganize our mission forces. A few consecrated workers will accomplish more than a thousand complainers and self-seekers. In fact, to make a successful missionary, a man must have more than grace; he ought to be put through a missionary training course, and be brought to understand the awful responsibility he is about to assume. Going to Africa as a missionary is not a pleasure trip, but it is more like going to a slaughter. It means nothing less than the surrender of life. If a soul is truly inspired, he can gladly and joyfully accept this fate.

I mean to assert that a man whose one aim or craving is to engage in missionary work, is called to do a peculiar task, different from any other work; and to make this career a success he must exclude every other purpose from his mind, and resolve that this one thing I do. Unless we can find men and women thus consecrated, it would be best to send no more abroad to represent us.

A FINANCIAL SURVEY.

We cannot run the convention on faith and prayer alone; we must have money, and this money must come largely from our churches. The salaries of missionaries must be met promptly. We must not allow the salaries to drag behind. We must realize more fully the moral obligation that we are under to the men and women who represent us abroad. In a large measure their lives are in our hands. We agree to give them monthly a certain sum or salary out of which they must live; they make their plans accordingly; and when we fail to send their salaries on time, we cause them to suffer greatly. Let us make a self case of it: here in this country many of us need what we earn every Saturday night, and if we do not get it, we are greatly cramped. Imagine how the missionary feels who fails to get his quarterly check. We must not allow petty misunderstandings to cause us to withhold our contributions and thereby cause our workers to suffer. Each member and church is bound so long as one man or woman remains in Africa, sent there under the inspiration of your influence. First of all, we must provide for the prompt payment of salaries. Let us require faithfulness on the part of our missionaries and let us be absolutely faithful to them.

It is to be regretted that the high sense of duty has little or no weight with so many; their whims, jealousies, and selfish moods govern their benevolences and determine their obligations. A contract is binding whether we are sick or well, or whether we are mad or glad. I can conceive of no contract more binding than that made to a helpless missionary who goes to a heathen land depending on his Christian brotherhood in the homeland for support.

A PLEA TO GO FORWARD.

Christian friends, an irresistible compulsion, generated by God's Spirit, commands us to go forward. We are not only called upon to give the gospel to the simple minded heathen, whose faith feebly clings to their grotesque gods made of wood and stone, but Africa is staged for a deadly conflict between the followers of Christ and the fanatic adherents of Islam. Already hordes of Mohammedan missionaries are sweeping down from the north and combating with fanatic hostility the thinly set lines of Christian workers. Say what you will, Islam is spreading with the certainty and irresistibility of a rising tide. Already every mission station north of the equator is imperiled by Moslem agitators and prophets, and the alarming question is, will the Christian church be able to resist this tide, and check its further advance among the people? It is enough to create alarm and compel us to renew the fight, and with deadly earnestness declare, "they shall not pass."

I therefore plead for unity among us, at home and abroad, for therein alone lies success and victory. We must not let the banner trail in the dust. The Master expects every man and every church to do his or its duty. "The light of the world is Jesus"; let the love of Christ constrain us to fight this good fight of faith.

Beloved pastors, you are God's chosen leaders; you are charged with grave responsibility "to go forward" into all the world and to see to it that every creature is given a chance to know Christ. Rev. Dr. Hugh T. Kerr, of Pittsburg, speaks well, when he says: "It can confidently be asserted that the pastor is the key to the foreign missionary program. If the light which he holds in his hand burns clear, the whole church is full of light. If it is a smoking flax, his people can hardly escape being asphyxiated." The pastor's responsibility to the missionary movement cannot be successfully evaded, and yet in many cases, pastors are tempted to leave this most vital thing in their ministry to precarious chance. A pastor owes it to his people to become himself thoroughly posted on his denominational missionary activities, to ally himself actively with its foreign mission agencies, and to keep before his church an adequate missionary program. No pastor can justify himself for neutrality or inactivity in the effort to execute the Master's great and last command. His sermons should be pregnant with thrilling records and accounts of our faithful missionary workers, who are facing grave dangers to give the gospel to those who sit in darkness, and no pastor should accept a church budget that does not include foreign missions as a leading item. I quote another: "It is that burning and shining light held aloft in the pulpit that alone can light the path to triumph, and when that light burns true, missionary education, missionary recruiting, missionary budgets, will all be adequate for the business of the Kingdom."

THE WOMAN'S AUXILIARY.

As a strong and potent factor in our forward movement, let me mention with gracious commendation our Woman's Auxiliary, under the splendid leadership of Mrs. Randolph. These good women are doing their bit nobly. I mention also with appreciation the juvenile department, supervised by Mrs. Bullock. This new branch is destined to do great service in enlisting the young people in Christian service.

LOTT CAREY HERALD.

The Lott Carey Herald, edited by our honored colleague, Dr. Stokes, has done unique service and deserves the widest circulation. Each friend should subscribe and pay his subscription, and thereby help to contribute to its usefulness.

RECOMMENDATIONS.

In conclusion, I recommend:

1. Preparation for a formal opening of our "Headquarters" in Washington.
2. That we set aside a sufficient sum of money to guarantee the prompt payment of the salaries of missionaries, or establish a credit for said purpose.
3. That we proceed to recall such missionaries now in our service as cannot be used advantageously.
4. That we hasten as rapidly as possible on the buildings planned to be erected in Liberia.
5. That we take under advisement the appointment of a field secretary, who will spend his entire time developing the home field and raising funds for the Convention. We realize that it is a physical impossibility for the Corresponding Secretary to do both the office and the field work.
6. That we urge our missionaries who control boarding schools to plan to make said schools self-supporting as far as it possibly can be done.

7. That we declare our good-will toward the perpetuation of the only two Negro governments in the world—Haiti and Liberia—and offer to them our sympathy in their efforts to maintain their independence and freedom.

8. That we take up the work at "Ricks Institute," in Africa, donating for this work $500.00.

9. That we cement by resolution and service the co-operation formed between us and the National Baptist Convention, Unincorporated.

CONCLUSION.

The work as I see it is briefly placed on the trestle-board for your consideration. True to our time-honored policy, let the business of this meeting be done solely with the view of "lengthening our cords and strengthening our stakes." Take courage and go forward!

"Say not the struggle naught availeth,
The labor and the wounds are vain,
The enemy fainteth not, nor falleth,
And as things have been they remain.

"If hopes were dupes, fears may be liars;
It may be in you smoke concealed,
Your comrades chase e'en now the fliers
And, but for you, possess the field.

"For while the tired wave vainly breaking
Seems here no painful inch to gain,
Far back, through creeks and inlets making
Silent gains, flooding in the main.

"And not by eastern windows only,
When daylight comes, comes in the light,
In front the sun climbs slow, how slowly,
But, westward look, the land is bright."

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES.

REPORT ON NEW BODIES.

We, your Committee on New Bodies, beg leave to submit the following report:

First. We had before us the Metompink Baptist Church, Accomac, Virginia. Rev. J. C. Bond, pastor. Joining fee $15.13.

Second. The Loyalhana Valley Baptist Church and Educational Union of Latrobe, Pa. Rev. S. M. Homer, President. Joining fee $5.00.

We recommend that these bodies be accepted as members and the brethren given the right hand of fellowship.

REPORT ON TEMPERANCE.

We, your Committee on Temperance, beg leave to make the following report:

In this hour of extreme traffic in alcoholic beverages and noxious ingredients of morphine and narcotics; these accompanied with rampant violations of the prohibitive laws enacted by the State and statute, and seeing the great encroachment that has been made against the mandates of God which command men to be temperate in all things.

Taking the situation under consideration, we view it as appalling to the best interest of humanity and the establishment of the Kingdom of God in the hearts of men.

Therefore be it Resolved, That the Lott Carey Foreign Missionary Convention go on record as entirely in accord with all prohibition enactments by the Federal Government relative to temperance practically and the Laws of God in particular. That our ministers and churches keep this matter in view and preach it very frequently to the people.

Respectfully submitted,

COMMITTEE.

REPORT ON TIME AND PLACE.

We, your Committee on Time and Place of next meeting, beg leave to report that the Convention has been invited to sit with the Sharon Baptist Church of Baltimore, Md., and the Holy Trinity Church of Brooklyn, N. Y.

We unanimously recommend that the twenty-ninth annual session be held with the Holy Trinity Baptist Church, Brooklyn, N. Y.

RESOLUTION ON GENERAL EDUCATION BOARD.

Whereas, the General Education Board of New York has offered the Virginia Union University five dollars for every one dollar raised by that Institution (provided one hundred thousand dollars is raised), and,

Whereas, it is thought that a similar offer may be made by that Board to other schools in the South, if Union meets the condition imposed;

Therefore be it Resolved: That the Lott Carey Baptist Foreign Mission Convention hereby endorses the movement and raises the following requests:

First. That the delegates and friends of the Convention and of the Woman's Auxiliary, be requested to give this offer careful consideration, and contribute as far as may be consistent with their obligations to the Lott Carey Baptist Foreign Mission Society, to the educational institutions mentioned above.

Offered by Revs. Drs. Reed and Ransome.

RESOLUTION RELATIVE TO EXTENDING A FORMAL INVITATION TO OUR SISTER BAPTIST CHURCHES IN NEW ENGLAND TO JOIN THE LOTT CAREY CONVENTION

Since one of the aims of the Lott Carey Convention is kingdom extension on the home field as well as on the foreign field, and to enter every open door; and,

Whereas, the New England territory, embraces some of our strongest churches, pastored by some of the ablest ministers in our denomination, stands ready and willing to enlarge its activities along foreign mission lines, would consider favorably any overtures from any source properly constituted looking towards their enlargement;

We therefore recommend, that steps be taken in this meeting that will give adequate recognition to this section and that the leaders of our denomination in New England be asked to consider the question of affiliation and co-operation with the Lott Carey Baptist Convention.

Respectfully submitted,

C. C. SUMMERVILLE.

RESOLUTION ADOPTING A BIBLE STUDY HOUR.

Whereas, those of us who have followed up the voluntary Bible Study period of this body, find the study of the word of God at these sessions of the Convention of vast help to us.

Therefore, be it Resolved, That the Program Committee is hereby instructed to give this important work a place on our program each year and appoint a proficient Bible scholar to combat this part of the program.

Respectfully submitted by

MOORE.

RESOLUTION OF THANKS.

Gratitude is a Christian grace, and the servants of the Lord always feel thankful for favors shown; and stand ready at all times to give expression of the same. This week's meeting in this city of Norfolk with the courtesies and favors shown to the delegates and visitors to the Lott-Carey Convention has put the visitors under new obligations for the unstinted and abundant favors.

Our thanks therefore go out to the pastor Dr. O. J. Allen, the members of his church and congregation for the care and interest they have had in us, even to the preparation made for our entertainment even before we reached the city and have kept it up every moment since our arrival. They have been careful to see that our belongings were safe and that we found shelter in the best homes in the city.

Dr. C. P. Madison, pastor Second Calvary Baptist Church, and his members tried to vie with First Calvary to see who could show the greatest hospitality, and consequently threw wide open the doors of his church for sessions of the meeting. Dr. F. W. Williams comes in for special mention for his solicitude and care for the tired delegates arriving in the city, and prepared at his own expense a choice supper at his beautiful residence to which he invited all of the delegates to participate "without money and without price."

Standing at instant command and readiness were taxis and sight seeing cars to transport the delegates at a small cost anywhere in the city they wished to go.

Thanks are expressed to the Guide Publishing Co. for the free use of its columns for the publication of the reports of the proceedings of this body.

Your committee desires to express its thanks to the city of Norfolk for the use of the armory to hold the closing sessions at almost a gift, charging only for the janitor and lights for the same.

Because of these favors shown in so many ways, and for continued favors to us while in their midst, we desire to thank our friends one and all for these kindnesses, and beg to assure them that our good will and affection will follow them always and we pray that God will keep them safe through the years to come.

Respectfully submitted, COMMITTEE.

PROCEEDINGS

Norfolk, Va., Sept. 3, 1925.

Proceedings of the 25th Annual Session of the Woman's Auxiliary to the Lott Carey Foreign Mission Convention held at the 2nd Calvary Baptist Church, Rev. C. P. Madison, D.D., Pastor.

A soul-stirring praise service was conducted by Mrs. Susie B. Ghee, of Virginia, Mrs. Carey Session of Rocky Mount, and Mrs. Frances Murray, of North Carolina.

Opened by singing, "My hope is built on nothing less," etc. Scripture lesson Luke 10:1-19. Prayer by Sister Murray. We next sang, "Jesus is all the World to me," etc. After which Sister Ghee asked the sisters to enter heartily into the meeting that we all might enjoy the presence of the Holy Spirit. The meeting was truly inspiring.

President, Mrs. J. A. Randolph declared the meeting open for business.

WELCOME ADDRESSES.

On behalf of the First Calvary Baptist Church—Mrs. O. J. Allen.

On behalf of the Women of Tide-water, Mrs. Minnie O. Brown.

Response, by Miss Mary A. Burwell, of Raleigh, N. C.

Mrs. Octavia Parker, Baltimore, Md.

The welcome addresses were cordial and sincere and were accepted gratefully and appreciatively.

Enrollment of messengers and the appointment of the finance committee.

Prof. David Mullison, the new President of the Hartshorn Memorial College, Richmond, Va., was introduced to the Convention by Mrs. W. P. Johnson, of Richmond, Va. He made some timely remarks on the necessity of the proper influence in the home. He expressed his earnest desire that the Spirit of Christ may permeate that institution.

The hour having arrived for the President's address Mrs. C. S. Brown, 1st Vice-President, came forward and in very fitting terms presented the President, Mrs. J. A. Randolph. She came forth smiling and said, It is a privilege of supreme joy to assemble in this beautiful edifice of historic fame. Twenty-five years ago this organization was effected with Mrs. Alice E. James, first President. Success has been attained because of the quality, sincerity and spirit of the work. The work of Christian mission is the common cause of expansion. Our task is a tremendous one. We are to effect a change in the whole world. S. O. S. calls come from over the sea saying, "save our souls lest we perish." Let none hear you idly saying "there is nothing I can do" but rather say "Take my life and let it be consecrated Lord to thee." Don't be confused with this modernism but teach the young those things that will make them potent factors in the evangelization of the world. She closed her address with this entreaty, "Keep toiling on."

It was a very splendid message. A motion prevailed that five minutes be allowed to discuss the very wonderful address.

Many were the comments by the Christian women. At the close of the discussion a motion prevailed that the address be placed in the hands of a committee.

We then sang with fervor "Rescue the perishing."

Mrs. P. G. Shepard, Chairman Executive Board, was called to give the history of this organization.

We were very glad to hear of the wonderful and steady growth of this organization.

Dr. J. A. Randolph, of District of Columbia; Dr. C. E. Askew, of Pennsylvania; Dr. E. W. Johnson, of Philadelphia, and Dr. Cosby, of New Jersey, gave words of greetings and encouragement.

Dr. Cosby, father of our President, gave us a little insight into the life of our President which was really worth while.

Rev. Dr. D. W. Harris said that he had interested some of the children of his church to give to the heathens some real self-denial garments.

The report of the Corresponding Secretary was called for.

She not being ready the Treasurer's report was called for.

Mrs. A. E. Blackwell, Treasurer, came forward and in her own conscientious way made a wonderful report.

Mrs. Shepard made a strong comment on Mrs. Blackwell's Christian business-like ability.

Others spoke of her unselfish devotion to the cause.

Truly Mrs. Blackwell is a wonderful woman.

After the appointment of other committees we were dismissed with a short prayer by Sister Lucy Thompson.

THURSDAY AFTERNOON SESSION.

The Convention was opened by praise services.

The hour having arrived for the dedication of the Memorial Corner-Stone for the dormitory to be erected in Careysburgh, Africa, by the Woman's Auxiliary, the President, Mrs. J. A. Randolph took the chair and asked Dr. Madison, pastor of the 2nd Calvary Baptist Church, to come forth to be introduced to the body.

Dr. Madison spoke some very cordial words of welcome and expressed his desire to unite with us in doing Foreign Mission work for the Master.

Dr. O. J. Allen, who was next presented, made some very timely remarks of welcome.

At this point Mrs. Duncan came forward to explain the building plan that we might have some idea of the size of building we are going to erect.

The stone was unveiled by Mrs. Hattie Allen and presented to the Convention by Mrs. Randolph, which was accepted by President C. S. Brown and Chairman of the Executive Board Dr. W. T. Johnson. Following this we sang "Go preach my gospel with fervor and in tears." Truly the house was filled with the presence of the Holy Spirit.

Next came the unveiling of the tablet by Miss Nancy Bullock which read, "Dedicated in honor of the faithful women of the Lott Carey Foreign Mission Convention, U. S. A., Mrs. J. H. Randolph, President."

This tablet was presented to Dr. F. W. Williams for the Convention. Dr. Williams accepted this tablet with sincere pleasure and very fitting words, expressing a wish that our own Mrs. Randolph be sent to the dedication of the new dormitory which we are to erect.

Following this our President presented Dr. Graham who introduced Brother Charles M. Bryant, of Liberia, and accepted the tablet on behalf of the Missionaries.

Rev. Bryant told some interesting facts which thrilled us and caused our hearts to rejoice.

Dr. C. S. Brown, presented to Mr. Bryant a portable typewriter, given by Miss Clara B. Spires, Winton, N. C.

Mrs. J. S. Brown, of Rocky Mount, N. C., presented a Teachers Bible to Rev. Bryant as a gift from the Missionary Circle of the First Baptist Church, of Rocky Mount, N. C.

Dr. Mitchell delivered the dedicatory prayer.

Of all the sessions since the organization of the Convention I feel that none have been more filled with the Holy Spirit and more inspiring for Foreign Missions than this one. All who witnessed it truly felt that they were being called to service as never before.

A collection of $150.00 was taken and a pledge of $100.00 was given by Mrs. Ella Johnson, of D. C., which was received with a vote of thanks. This pledge is to be paid quarterly.

As the collection was announced our President cried out "My soul is satisfied" for the meeting had been wonderful in many respects.

The report of the Nominating Committee was received and adopted. (See report.)

Adjourned by benediction.

EVENING SESSION.

September 3rd.

Long before the hour of meeting the beautiful and spacious edifice of the First Calvary Baptist Church was filled to its utmost capacity.

At the beginning of the service we were entertained by a solo from Mrs. Hicks. Dr. Graham made some announcements with reference to Friday's program.

Dr. O. J. Allen announced that a presentation would be made to Dr. R. Spiller, the founder of the 1st Calvary Baptist Church. A purse of $20.00 was presented to him. Dr. Spiller was very agreeably surprised and expressed his thanks with much sincerity.

Just at this point, Dr. J. H. Wynn, St. James 2nd Baptist Church, Fort Worth, Texas, a member of the National Baptist Convention Unincorporated, arose in the gallery and announced his desire to contribute $50.00 toward the building fund of the Auxiliary. It was gladly accepted by all.

The President proceeded to carry out the program.

The Choir rendered a beautiful anthem. After which the President arose and in very fitting words introduced Dr. J. S. L. Hollomon to preach the Annual Sermon. Dr. Hollomon is pastor of the 2nd Baptist Church, Washington, D. C. His text was found in Phil. 2:6-11. Subject, "Universal Kingship of Christ" or "Christianity." He said, "Nothing can harness that mysterious something which one receives on Mount Sinai. Christianity can never die as long as the banner of love is carried by us. Jesus is to be a king complete. He must be carried in all of our business. He must be King not only of 1-10 of our possessions but of all. Not only of 1-7 of our time, but of all of it. We have not done our duty until we have given the greatest assistance to the greatest number. When will we bring the King? While we wait the devil is enlarging his force. Go through the gate east up a highway for the King! Hasten and make the wilderness bloom and blossom as a rose. Leave home with the glad tidings of the cross and proclaim the coming of the King."

The sermon was very instructive and was enjoyed by all.

Following the sermon the congregation sang fervently, "Shine for Jesus," and we were led in prayer by Dr. Brown, of Petersburg, Va.

Dr. J. C. Taulton, of Pennsylvania, was asked to install the newly elected officers.

A collection of $62.29 was taken up.

After which we sang Doxology and Dr. Hollomon announced benediction.

FRIDAY MORNING SESSION

September 4, 1925.

Praise service was conducted by Mrs. Annie E. Morris, of Cape Charles, Va.; Mrs. Wilson, of Chase City, Va., and Mrs. Hattie Parker, of Baltimore, Md.

Opened by singing, "Out of my bondage."

Scripture lesson from John 1:1-14.

Prayer by Mrs. Hattie Parker. After singing "Sweeter as the years go by" the meeting was then turned over to the sisters for testimonials which were many and inspiring.

Then came forward the President, and as is characteristic of her, with a broad smile said, "Good morning Sisters."

After a few remarks she read off the following committees, viz:

On Life Membership, on Herald, on Scholarship, on Resolutions, on Education, on Program, Auditing Committee, on Headquarters, on New Bodies, on President's Address.

Rev. J. H. Winn, D.D., Pastor St. James 2nd Street Baptist Church, corner 2nd and Harding St., Fort Worth, Texas, came forward and presented to the President the $50.00 for the building fund which he pledged the night before.

Dr. Winn also brought greetings from the National Baptist Convention, Unincorporated, which organization pledges to do its Foreign Mission work through us. He said he envied an opportunity to give a faint token of his interest in the work we are doing.

He then urged our President to attend the National Convention which would convene the following week in Kansas City, Missouri.

A motion prevailed that Mrs. J. H. Randolph be sent as a delegate to the National Convention, Unincorporated, at Kansas City, Mo., representing the Woman's Auxiliary to the Lott Carey Convention.

A motion of thanks was extended Dr. Winn for the contribution of $50.00 and encouraging remarks.

After the appointing of a few more committees, the President then called for the report of the Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. M. L. Penn. The report was received and adopted and buttons given to many Circles for their systematic giving through the year. See report.

Mrs. A. E. Blackwell read a letter from Mrs. A. E. Read containing $50.00 which she had raised through solicitation.

At 12 o'clock a memorial service was conducted by Mrs. Rosa Scarborough and others.

(Julia Florence Gundy Scholarship), Walker Memorial Baptist Church, of D. C.; Clarke Memorial Bap. Church, Homestead, Penn.; Woman's Auxiliary to the Roanoke Association; Woman's Convention, of Western N. C.

Mrs. Margaret D. Fitch brought up two jars of pennies which she had collected for Missions. It amounted to $31.00. An original idea.

Two little children from the 1st Calvary Baptist Church

Mission Circle presented a very beautiful quilt to the Convention for Africa.

Mrs. O. J. Allen was introduced to the Convention. After a few remarks we adjourned for dinner to meet at 3 o'clock with the Jerusalem Baptist Church, Rev. A. Hobbs, D.D., Pastor.

FRIDAY AFTERNOON.

September 4th, 1925.

Friday afternoon session opened at 3 o'clock in the handsome and spacious auditorium of the Jerusalem Baptist Church. Permit us to say just here that Norfolk can certainly boast of some handsome church edifices.

Praise service was conducted by Sisters Cornelia Webster and Lelia Johnson.

Miss Johnson led in prayer, after which she sang, "Bring the Little Ones to Jesus."

The President then asked for a selection from the choir.

Mrs. Cousin, a member of Jerusalem Church, was asked by our President to act as Mistress of Ceremony while they rendered a short program welcoming us to their church.

Mrs. Ethel Griffin in very fitting words welcomed us to the Church and every department.

Solo—Mr. Weldon Brice.

Reading—Mrs. Florence Booker.

Solo—Mrs. Benlah Dudley.

Presentation of 189 garments by Mrs. Cordelia Diggs, President of the Missionary Circle.

Acceptance speech was delivered by Mrs. A. S. Howard.

Mrs. Randolph invited Rev. Hobbs to come forward to be introduced.

In the midst of his remarks he said when we called for 100 women to work and make garments for Africa 180 responded. He felt that our coming had brought inspiration to his church.

A number of friends were introduced who expressed themselves as being very highly pleased at the Convention.

Committees reports on Scholarship, on Education, on Resolutions, on Cradle Roll, on Enrollment, on Annual Members, on Program, on President's Address, and Auditing Committee were all adopted. See reports.

The report of the Statistician was called but she having just arrived was too fatigued and said she would hand it in.

The Lott Carey Herald was represented by its Editor in a few brief remarks.

Just here the President, Mrs. Randolph, asked Mrs. Rebecca Gray to conduct a model Missionary Circle meeting. She did so with ease and it proved to be very instructive and suggestive to the Mission workers. One of the high points in this model meeting was the "Bible drill." This is an excellent method to help the members to become acquainted with the Bible.

A motion prevailed that a standing vote of thanks be extended the Jerusalem Baptist Church and pastor for the courtesies extended and the garments given.

Mrs. Webster and Mrs. P. L. Anderson were appointed to work with Mrs. Bowers during the next Convention session.

The President asked all to stand and sing, "God be with you till we meet again," and in the midst of warm handshakes we said farewell. Thus ended one of the most inspirational annual meetings held since its organization.

MRS. J. H. RANDOLPH, President.

MRS. A. ELIZABETH WEEKS, Secretary.

ANNUAL ADDRESS BEFORE THE WOMAN'S AUXILIARY OF THE LOTT CAREY BAPTIST F. M. CONVENTION.

BY MRS. J. H. RANDOLPH, President.

Dear Co-workers: It is a privilege of supreme joy and pleasure to us to assemble today in the city of Norfolk as the guests of First Calvary Baptist Church, a church that is noted for its wonderful achievements and largeness of heart; a church known far and near for its zeal and spirituality, from the days of that veteran gospel preacher, the Rev. Madison Lewis, and the Rev. P. J. Wallace, that master builder and pulpiteer of note and fame.

But we are here through the broad-hearted invitation extended by the Rev. O. J. Allen, their esteemed and beloved pastor.

We greet you who have gathered here from the different States to put over the great program which has been planned for these sessions of our Convention.

Twenty-five years ago the Woman's Auxiliary was brought into being by the members of the Lott Carey Baptist Foreign Mission Convention, at Alexandria, Va., on August 31, 1900. The President, Dr. C. S. Brown called together a group of women in attendance upon the Convention, and stated the need of a woman's organization to assist the brethren in fostering the Kingdom of Christ at home and abroad, especially in Africa. At the conclusion of the remarks, Mrs. Alice E. James was elected president and the organization effected and launched upon the denominational seas. How well she has kept the course through baffling seas, is evident by the multitude of women who are now embarked upon her; and with sails unfurled to the breezes of Gospel power. These women of faith and prayer are saying, "Sail on! Sail on!"

We find ourselves assembled today with God's approval of our attempts and efforts to continue the work, which for twenty-five years has become a definite part of our duties and cares.

The success and achievements which have been attained in this specific enterprise are due to the unbiased efforts, earnest endeavors and Christian fortitude shown, with a consciousness of God's abiding hand leading, and His boundless love overshadowing us. Again, success has been attained because of the quality of the work, the ability of the workers and a keen insight into the needs of such work; which have proven a great blessing in stabilizing the Missions Program of our Convention.

The age in which we live is regarded by those who are students of history as the greatest known to the human race; and the happy thought of living at this time, and to be engaged in the work that has done more to enlighten mankind than any other, and to inspire hope, should give to us great consolation and joy. The work of Evangelism and Christian Missions has made it possible for us to boast of being the greatest nation on the globe. Everything that makes for progress and advancement has arisen from the enlightened vision inspired by the Gospel of the Son of God.

The world today is craving for the truth, and if we would satisfy this craving we must offer them Jesus Christ, who is the Truth and the Life. We must sow the seed and God will take care of the harvest. We are commanded to proclaim Christ to all the world, for our field is the world, and we can find in it at all times men and women who are ready to be saved. The work of Christian Missions is a common cause of expansion, extending from the fireside of every well-regulated Christian home to the uttermost parts of the world. This burning zeal and fervor springs from the fountain head, the Church at home, and leads on to foreign missionary achievements and victories on this foreign field. Our task is a tremendous one; we are to effect an ethical and spiritual revolution in the whole world, and change the attitude of men toward men, nations toward nations, by giving men and women a thrill of new life in Jesus Christ our Lord. Will you do your share? The Master calls, will you obey? The S. O. S. call comes ringing over land and sea, from Africa, China, Burma, Haiti, and the Islands of the sea, pathetically saying, "Save our souls, lest we perish." What will you do? Let none hear idly saying that there is nothing we can do, while the souls of men are dying and the Master calls for you.

If we have felt the touch, and realize the call to service in the vineyard of our Master, then let us answer, "Take my life and let it be consecrated Lord to Thee; take my hands and let them move at the impulse of Thy love."

The work in which we are engaged is a dignified enterprise; it is the work that angels would gladly do, but the opportunity has been given us. The angel rolled the stone from the door, but the women had the honor of telling the story of His resurrection. May that same joy and enthusiasm that moved them to begin that stupendous task, inspire us today to toil on, until every gate to every heathen city shall be opened, and the standard of the Cross of Christ shall be planted in the darkest jungles. Then shall a new age dawn in this blighted world; and a civilization, a Christian civilization, that will make the world what Christ would have it be—a New Creation.

Let us not falter nor fear because of the contrary opinions of modernism, evolution, and the like, which tend to offer ease and complacency to those who would indulge in sin and ignore the fundamentals of the New Testament teachings and faith. These new teachers lacking in spiritual life, stressing the "letter" at the expense of the Spirit and the more weighty things of God, are only making clear the Holy writ; that the time would come when teachers would appear with shrewdness of speech and mental agility and would devour the very elect.

Be firm, my Sisters, in the faith once delivered to the saints. Indulge as little as possible in controversies over the things that do not profit in your Bible classes, but lead the young further from God through the strife of tongues. But teach them potent factors in Evangelical and modern missionary movements; that they may carry forward the work of soul-winning and Kingdom building, when we shall be called to our reward. We must lay the foundation of our missionary work on a true basis and intrust it to none other than regenerated hearts, both at home and abroad; for at best, we are inadequate to the task of meeting and contending with modern devices of unparalled combinations of human skill, without a deep sense of loyalty and duty to Him who said, "Go ye, therefore, into all the world and preach the Gospel to every creature."

The impregnable wall of Confucianism, Buddhism, the wretched systems of cast and racial prejudice, must be met, and its problems solved by the principles of the Christian religion. Therefore we must have a larger inducement of the spirit of God, with faith, love and sacrifice to challenge the materialistic tendencies of this new age, and accomplish our task of saving the world for Christ.

The Annual Address delivered yesterday by Dr. C. S. Brown, was one which gave to us encouragement and hope for better work in the future and a more satisfactory fulfillment of our plans and purposes, and especially his reference to immediate construction of our buildings on the foreign field.

We also heartily commend and approve of his recommendations pertaining to the requisites that should be required, and the training and temperamental examinations that should be given our missionaries before their acceptance for the foreign field.

In fact, if the Executive Board, of which we are a part, shall act immediately upon his resolutions referred to us for action, then, in my opinion, the future holds in store for us a bright and glowing prospect for better and more substantial work than ever before in the history of the Convention.

We are glad to have Dr. A. A. Graham, the Corresponding Secretary of the parent body, present with us, after having passed through such an ordeal of affliction during the interim of our Convention. Prayer has been offered daily for his recovery; and we believe that his presence is an answer to prayer and Divine recognition of his work for the enlargement of the Kingdom of God.

The Cradle-Roll, Junior and Intermediate Department, directed by Mrs. S. O. Bullock and her co-workers, is a large asset to our work. The inspiration which we received from their meetings annually, assures us that the enthusiasm and zeal that now obtain are calculated to give us unprecedented victories for the coming years.

The Lott Carey Headquarters, located at 1501 11th street, N. W., Washington, D. C., is an excellent building, suited for the work of our Convention, and has ample room for the Auxiliary to have a room or rooms, in which to do their work. The building is pleasing to look on, and we ask that you will do your part in helping to furnish and maintain it.

Now, my Sisters, with heads up and faces bright, let us return to our tasks of humble service to God, with renewed energy and determination to carry out the great program which is before us.

"If in the strife you suffer, keep toiling on,
The Master gave His life for us, keep toiling on.
Upon the Cross He bled and died.
And then He passed above the skies,
He bids us labor till He comes,
As servants and His ransomed ones.
So in His service every day, keep toiling on."

REPORT OF THE EXECUTIVE BOARD.

Norfolk, Va., August 30, 1925.

The Executive Board of the Woman's Auxiliary to the Lott Carey Foreign Mission Convention met with the Second Calvary Baptist Church, Tuesday Noon, August 30.

The President Mrs. P. G. Shepherd, presiding. The usual devotionals were conducted, and a beautiful and uplifting spiritual praise and testimonial meeting was held.

The house was then called to order and the most of the Board members answered to the roll call.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved with the necessary corrections.

The President of the Auxiliary brought to the Board the blue print of the prospective girls' dormitory to be built by the Auxiliary at Careysburg. She also explained the part the Auxiliary would be expected to play in the execution of the plan. The information obtained through Dr. A. A. Graham, of the parent body's intention to begin the construction of the three buildings at once, gave great joy and impetus to the hearts of those who have worked and prayed and hoped for the time when these buildings would be begun.

A motion prevailed that as the addressed names of officers of the Auxiliary, and Executive Board did not appear in the minutes, that the Recording Secretary would secure the same and see that they were printed in the minutes and that she send to the secretary of the board a copy of the names and addresses of the officers and Executive Board members.

The saw mill proposition was explained by Mrs. Randolph, and also the apportionment for the Auxiliary and the women of North Carolina. These payments were to be made on the installment plan. The amounts paid to be credited to the buildings we have sponsored. The Sallie Mial by North Carolina women, and the Girls' Dormitory by the Auxiliary. $2,000 has been paid by the women of North Carolina on their $2500. $2833 1-3 has been paid by the Auxiliary on its apportionment of $3500.

A motion prevailed, that the lending of money from the treasury of the Auxiliary, be left to the discretion of a committee composed of the President of the Auxiliary, the Secretary of the Executive Board, the Treasurer, and three other members of the board to be named by the President of the Auxiliary.

A motion prevailed after discussion of the training of our Junior Workers, that the officers of the Junior Department be changed every two years, that as many as possible have a chance for training for future usefulness.

A motion prevailed that the Auxiliary would give a certain sum to be used to furnish a delco system of light for our station at Brewerville, Africa.

It was motioned and carried, that a letter and some token of recognition be sent to Dr. and Mrs. Pegues to express the board's sympathy for them in their trials of sickness.

Mrs. Ora B. Stokes explained that a statistician was an unnecessary adjunct to the Auxiliary as Dr. G. E. Reid covered the whole ground in his report, who tendered her resignation as statistician of the Auxiliary.

Her resignation was accepted with thanks for the information.

Many other things were discussed which belong entirely to the work of the board, and much was done to get things ready for another year's work. The meeting closed with prayer.

We have passed another land mark in the history of our work. We enter a new year. We look back with joy over what has been accomplished, and the bell rings "out the old and in the new" with a deep trust that the great spirit will give us strength and a spirit of sacrifice that the work may go on.

REPORT OF CORRESPONDING SECRETARY.

Norfolk, Va., September 3rd, 1925.

Madame President, Co-workers and friends of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Lott Carey Baptist Foreign Mission Convention:

We greet you with grateful hearts, to our Heavenly Father for our spared lives; and for the great privilege of being present in this our twenty-fifth annual session, in this great seaport city of Norfolk. The addresses we have listened to have been timely, uplifting and far-reaching.

Timely because of the well chosen words selected for the occasion, dealing with practical problems that confront us. Uplifting, because of consecration to the work of service. Far reaching because they set forth the principles of the Christian religion, and the unlimited power of the same; and our possibilities to accomplish in a great way what God would have us do, to His glory and honor.

Our Convention is doing a great work in giving the gospel, not only to our brothers and sisters in benighted Africa, but to Haiti, Russia and other heathen countries. Christianity is a world faith. We believe our faith to be true. The conviction prompts us to give to all who do not possess it; and by one of the paradoxes of Christian life the more religion we give away the more we have left at home.

The saw mill and other machinery sent to Africa by our Convention, will mean much to Africa if the industrial program planned is properly executed.

During the year, hundreds of circular letters were sent. Many Circles responded regularly with increased dues for our Missionaries' Salaries, and helpful words of encouragement, for which we thank you. Our Auxiliary is steadily growing. The following Circles have joined since our last meeting, namely:

Mount Hermon Star Circle of Morgantown, West Virginia.

The Woman's Missionary Society of Calvary Baptist Church, Baltimore, Md., and Woman's Club of Union Baptist Church, New Bedford, Mass, through Mrs. Marion Banks, formerly a member of Shiloh Baptist Church, Washington, D. C.

A Scholarship in memory of the late Mrs. Eliza H. Mack, by the Woman's Auxiliary of the Co-operative Convention of Maryland.

A Scholarship in memory of their late Pastor Rev. Ananias Brown, by the Woman's Missionary Society of the Leadenhall Street Baptist Church, Baltimore, Md.

Among our many workers who have passed into the Great Beyond this year is Mrs. Emma F. Ellis, who served efficiently for five or more years as Chairman of our Financial Committee.

Mr. dear Sisters, I thank you sincerely for your prayers, your sympathy, and for your co-operation in this work of service. May God bless and keep each one of us, that we may be able to render greater service toward the upbuilding of His Kingdom.

Yours in His service,

M. L. PENN, Corresponding Secretary.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS.

We, your Committee on President's Address beg leave to make the following report:

We listened with rapt attention to the most excellent address of our beloved President, Mrs. A. B. Randolph, and we noted under her splendid leadership our organization, the Woman's Auxiliary to the Lott-Carey Convention, has grown by leaps and bounds spiritually, numerically, and financially since our last session.

We heartily desire to commend her for her untiring efforts, her great love and devotion to this great cause of Foreign Missions. Also for exercising such ableness in directing which has meant success for us.

We endorse all recommendations enounced in her address. And further recommend that we will do all in our power, by our prayers, co-operation and sympathy to continue to help her to prosecute this great labor of love.

PROCEEDINGS

The Junior and Intermediate department of the Lott Carey Foreign Mission Convention, held its fifth annual session with the second Calvary Baptist Church, Norfolk, Va., with our President, Miss Nancy E. Bullock presiding. The meeting was opened by singing, "I'll go where you want me to go." After which Rev. Dr. Newsome, of Portsmouth, Va., offered prayer. We then listened with pleasure to reports from many delegates.

At this time Miss Hattie Allen presented the welcome with enthusiasm. Onelia Davis was programmed to make the response but was absent and our Supervisor, Mrs. O. S. Bullock after expressing her regrets said that the welcome was accepted in the spirit in which it was given.

The Vice-President Miss Elizabeth Donaho, of Washington, D. C., being absent, Miss Ada Foster, of Richmond, Va., came to the chair while our President read her annual letter which was filled with thought. The President's annual letter was received and adopted.

The Corresponding Secretary, Miss Welhelmina Bullock, came forward and read her annual report, which was listened to with interest. A motion was made and carried to receive and adopt the report.

A motion was made and carried to receive and adopt the Treasurer's report.

We were then favored with a solo by Miss Edith Minor. Miss Nollie Newsome rendered a very sweet piano selection.

Mr. William Murray showed his ability to retain in a lengthy recitation.

At this time Dr A. A. Graham, Corresponding Secretary of the Lott Carey Convention was introduced, who after congratulating the young people and expressing his approval of the work so well done by this department, asked for an offering. He gave the first $2.00 and in a short time announced the amount of $81.50 but after close counting the correct amount was found to be $71.50.

The program was continued and little Miss Marie Bowers pleased every one with her recitation.

The next number was a very sweet vocal duet by Misses Mildred Lassiter and Della Mann. We enjoyed recitations by the following children—Unice Barnes, Octavia Russell, and Thelma Riddick. Florence Binford read a fine paper on "Giving". An instrumental solo by Ardsie Brown, and recitation by Zelma Puryear were enjoyed.

The report of the Nominating Committee was read.

A motion to receive and adopt the report was carried after the Supervisor asked that proper corrections be made.

Amaza Joiner came forward and read with much expression a very fine paper.

At the close of the program Dr. N. B. Brown came forward and with timely and encouraging remarks installed the officers.

We were dismissed with prayer by Rev. W. W. Williams.

NANCY E. BULLOCK, President.

HATTIE ALLEN, Secretary.

PRESIDENT'S ANNUAL LETTER.

Dear Co-workers:

Greetings on this, our fifth reunion; I feel that a large number of us was present at this Convention five years ago, when we had our birth practically in this spot. Since that time those of us who have been earnest and sincere have been working and enjoying the fruits of our labors for 1,825 days. To those who are for the first time joining with us in our efforts of altruism, we extend our hands in greetings and invite them to view with us the panorama of our five year's labor.

As has been said, we are now meeting practically in our birth place. Five years ago in Portsmouth, Va., on Friday afternoon of the Convention, Mrs. J. H. Randolph presiding at the children's hour, requested that we be organized. We elected our own officers and our supervisor was chosen by the Woman's Auxiliary.

Under the leadership of our supervisor and other interested members of the Woman's Auxiliary, the department prospered and grew and an advantageous report was made in Newark, N. J. The following years in Charlotte, N. C., and Homestead, Pa., the results were proportionately increased. Last year in Washington, we not only were improved along financial lines, but we welcomed a larger number of delegates and new circles, extending the field of our labors and forming an additional feature as an incentive to work, namely our banner.

We are hoping that our reports from the local circles this year will be an improvement on last year's record in numbers, in finance, and above all, in the spirit of altruism in each member of the circles. In offering the banner, we wish that the circles endeavoring to win the banner will not lose sight of the ultimate good in the immediate gain. While urging that every circle work hard during the year and bring up a large amount of finance to the Convention in order that it might win the banner, we are entreating that the supervisors do not fail to teach the children that they are working for the heathen. The banner is only an emblem of work well done. We are hoping that every circle will win, if not the banner, that consciousness of work well done.

New occasions teach new duties. The age old epoch in which we are living seems to call for new occasion and for new duties. Youth, glorious, vivid, energetic youth, is demanding great things of this decade. Since the great World War, the nations of the earth are more closely united than ever, and things happening in the remotest part of Asia are known within a few hours in all parts of America. The youth of these nations are awakening to certain realizations among them the need of missionary service. A more fitting discussion than the awakening of our Intermediate and Junior Cir-find to do. The lines of Lowell seem to be appropriate here: "New occasions teach new duties, time makes ancient good uncouth, They must upward still and onward, who would keep abreast of Truth, Lo before us gleam her Camp Fires, we ourselves must pilgrims be, Nor attempt the Future's portals, with the Past's blood rusted key."

Now is the time for this Auxiliary to put forth some of its best efforts, to prove itself worthy to espouse the great task for which we were organized. We believe that the reports will show that we have labored to co-operate with the parent body who set us apart. We have not accomplished all we desire, but we trust that we have done something that will meet the approval of the Great Head of our Church. We have sent out many circular letters to our Junior Circles. The following circles have reported moneys for the year 1925:

Busy Bee Club, First Baptist Church, Roanoke, Va., Mrs. Annie Burwell Supervisor. For first and second quarters, $5.00 on salaries. Third and fourth quarters, $5.00 on scholarship. Total, $10.00.

Respectfully yours,

WILHELMINA BULLOCK,

Corresponding Secretary.

REPORT OF TREASURER.

To the Junior and Intermediate Departments of the Lott Carey Baptist Foreign Mission Convention of the Woman's Auxiliary and Friends:

We have assembled here on this our fifth session under the guidance of our Lord and Savior. Our only hope is to establish Christ in the hearts of our dear little brothers and sisters in the dark benighted lands. Ofttimes we become discouraged because we cannot do our work in a short while and because we do not have the interest of all christians, but if we only pray and leave our cares in the Master's hand, the silver lining will appear.

I now beg leave to submit the following report:
