PROCEEDINGS

Pittsburgh, Pa., September 1, 1931.

The Lott Carey Baptist Foreign Mission Convention of America convened in its 34th annual session at the Rodman Street Baptist Church, Rev. S. A. Thurston, D. D., pastor.

Local Program

Rev. A. M. Patterson, master of ceremonies.

Devotionals conducted by Dr. M. A. Tally. Music by the choir of Rodman Street Baptist Church.

Welcome Addresses.

On behalf of the city of Pittsburgh, Mr. Earl R. Jackson. He extended a cordial welcome to the convention declaring that we were in the beauty spot of America and the workshops of the world, with 99 bridges built in Allegheny County within the last year. Colored people are law abiding and progressive he stated.

Atty. O. S. Brown presented Mr. Robt. L. Vann, editor of the Pittsburgh Courier to extend welcome on behalf of twenty Negro businesses. Mr. Vann expressed great delight in having this body assemble for its fourth time in Pittsburgh. He declared that pig iron is king here and that Negro leaders are doing well toward developing our group under trying conditions.

Rev. S. A. Thurston, D. D. pastor of Rodman St. Church, was greatly pleased to have us meet again in this historic church, made so under the leadership of Dr. O. S. Sims, deceased. His message of welcome rang true and his efforts for entertaining this body were evident on all sides.

Selection by the Jubilee Quartet.

Welcome on behalf of the Ministers of Pittsburgh by Dr. C. A. Ward, pastor of Central Baptist Church.

He stated the following reasons for extending welcome:

1st. We bear the gospel message to home and foreign fields.

2nd. Because of the spiritual values we represent.

3rd. Because of the wise investment being made by the churches of this body. He made a plea for stronger foreign missionaries and larger contributions for their support.

Dr. W. R. Brown, pastor of the Metropolitan Baptist church was presented to give words of welcome on behalf of the state of Pennsylvania. He set forth the importance of uniting our forces for the big task before us. Rev. N. L. Young, represented the Allegheny General Baptist Association with words of Welcome, declaring his abiding interest in this Convention for the last thirty years and introducing its work in this state.

On behalf of the Union Baptist Association, Rev. D. B. Russell, moderator. He declared his association is the product of Lott Carey sentiment, whose influence is still permeating the earth. Dr. Thurston introduced Rev. Paul Storeker, pastor of the Evangelical Lutheran Church (white) whose church is to be the seat of the Woman's Auxiliary session. He assured us of a cordial and heartfelt welcome and hoped for us a glorious session.

Rev. W. H. Dean, representing the other denominations of the city extended warm and cordial words of welcome.

Response by Dr. J. L. S. Hollomon, Dr. Hollomon declared that we are in a city which has produced financial giants and great preachers, and in well chosen words he gratefully accepts for the body the hearty welcome extended by each representative. In closing he set forth with great earnestness our big job—the evangelization of the world.

President Brown made brief closing remarks.

Doxology was sung.

Benediction by Dr. E. E. Ricks.

WEDNESDAY—Morning Session.

9:30—Music led by Rev. W. A. Nowlin. Devotions by Dr. A. Hobbs.

President's Annual Address.

Dr. W. L. Ransome presented President Brown to deliver his annual message.

Standing at the helm for thirty-four years and safely guiding this vessel through many a storm, this veteran leader showed no signs of defeat or discouragement as he stood forth to review her past history and further emphasize the fundamental principles upon which she stands.

* In his opening remarks he recalled the session held here sixteen years ago, naming the participants on the program and

~~the decision to send a commission to Haiti.~~ He declared that the dreams of former years are now being fully realized. His message was based upon the following points:

Human race staggering under judgment in present depression.

Economy and retrenchment in the use of God's money.

Haitian work threatened.

Splendid work of Bro. Boaz Harris.

Liberian work demands serious consideration.

Brewerville Station in good condition.

Miss Minnie Lyons' sacrifice in stinting herself to build two rooms out of salary.

Inadequate leadership severely denounced.

Our task world-wide.

Divine call irresistible.

World's greatest need is God called men and God called pastors.

Bigger Vision.

Regular collection for missions.

Mission spirits stimulated on home field.

Racial relations.

Our covenant renewed as follows:

1. Gospel for all.

2. Universal brotherhood.

3. Co-operation.

4. Acknowledgement of missions.

5. Self dedication to God.

Auxiliary bodies highly commended.

Recommendations.

By motion the address is referred to committee.

Rev. J. S. Morton was presented to represent Dr. J. W. Hurse, president of National Baptist Convention of America. He brought greetings from that body and urged closer co-operation between the two bodies.

Rev. Nelson Williams secretary of the executive board submitted the board's annual report which was adopted. (See report.)

Report of Corresponding Secretary.

Corresponding Secretary Randolph delivered his annual report which showed close application, keen insight, competent supervision and broad vision of the work. He reported his visit to Haiti, accompanied by Dr. A. W. Brown and Dr. G. O. Bullock, as being one of great delight as well as one of far reaching effect. The Haitian work seems very hopeful under the excellent leadership of Rev. Boaz Harris.

Dr. Randolph with great zeal stressed the following ideas:

The message of the church is spiritual.

Recognition of stewardship needed in pulpit and pew.

Unity and cooperation of all our forces.

Our task a divine plan.

Our body a channel for all foreign mission work if so desired by other bodies.

Words of highest praise for the interest of the Woman's Auxiliary. Review of the foreign fields and workers.

The report was very comprehensive and highly commendable.

By motion report was adopted. (See report.)

Convention adjourned with benediction by Dr. A. Hobbs.

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON.

Devotions conducted by Rev. W. Rousen and Rev. H. H. Hart.

Rev. P. A. Bishop discussed the following topic, "Are we Executing His marching Orders?" He spoke with emphasis and made a strong plea for closer application to the commands of Jesus Christ.

Report of treasurer, Dr. J. H. Hughes.

By motion the treasurer's report is adopted.

Report of statistician Dr. G. E. Reed. This report is always laden with important information and is distributed in pamphlet form.

By motion this report is approved.

Report of Haitian Commission.

Dr. A. W. Brown gave a very interesting report of his trip to Haiti, in company with Dr. G. O. Bullock and the Corresponding Secretary, Dr. J. H. Randolph.

FRIDAY MORNING.

Devotions led by Revs. L. T. Clement, J. T. Crump and E. D. Spinner.

Committee on President's address made its report and by motion report is approved.

Dr. O. S. Bullock, Raleigh, N. C., discussed the following topic: "An Adequate Missionary Program." He stated that we are not applying the program as set forth in the word of God.

His program simply needs to be put into action and results will be obtained.

God's word sufficiently strong to bear up the load of Missions. Must begin in the local church. Various systems used, but feebly executed.

Vision too small.

Early training essential. The address was very helpful and touched the basic principle of Mission work.

Rev. R. M. Pitts spoke briefly of his increased interest in the work of this body due to a recent visit to our headquarters in Washington and observing the strict business system followed.

Dr. G. O. Bullock urged the importance of the preacher in leading the people into the spirit of missions. Rev. H. E. Williams observed that mission spirit is of slow process in the churches previously pastored by non-missionary pastors.

President Brown urged the plan adopted by this body sixteen years ago, namely: the collecting of a mission offering each preaching service in all our churches.

Rev. G. E. Kelsie stated that his church has been supporting missions through this body for twenty-five years and will increase its support hereafter.

Rev. J. E. Rogers expressed joy in being here again and represented his church.

Dr. F. W. Williams declared that he has adopted the Lott. Carey plan of collecting mission money with excellent results. He takes an offering in prayer meetings for missions.

Dr. A. L. James gave as his experience in doing mission work that the more we do for missions the more we do for ourselves. He stated the best way of increasing our own support is by putting on a missionary program.

These field echoes were very helpful.

Adjournment.

Benediction—Dr. A. L. James.

FRIDAY AFTERNOON.

Devotions led by Rev. H. H. Mitchell and Bro. A. Harris.

Inspirational Sermon

Rev. C. W. T. Barnes, Reidsville, N. C. was presented to preach the Inspirational Sermon.

He expressed peculiar delight in the privilege extended him. His sermon was based upon the following text: Acts 28:15.

Subject: "Encouragement."

Outline: Few things in the world encouraging, aside from God.

Economic conditions discouraging. Paul's experience en route to Rome. Take hope because God is able to sustain.

Because of his word, which is unchangeable, final, universal and mighty.

God's ministers should be men of backbone.

Real preaching has the "woe" in it.

We are the objects of his love.

This sermon also was greatly inspiring and came from the heart of the speaker as result of prayerful preparation.

Prayer by Dr. R. L. File.

Collection, $11.25.

Benediction by Rev. Barnes.

FRIDAY NIGHT.

Mission Rally.

Dr. J. H. Randolph conducting the evening program.

Song service by Rev. W. A. Nolin. Dr. Randolph, introduced Dr. Murray, pastor Vermont Avenue Baptist Church, Washington, D. C.

Dr. Murray was highly pleased with the manner and work of this body and pledged his future support to it.

The Cor. Sec. also took special delight in presenting the speaker of the evening, Dr. E. L. Harrison, pastor of the Shiloh Baptist Church, Washington, D. C.

Dr. Harrison is deeply interested in Missions and built up a reputation for Missions before coming to Washington.

He is greatly pleased with this convention and pledges larger support through Shiloh Baptist church.

He set forth the four following aspects of the commission:

Evangelization.

Organization.

Education.

Indoctrination.

In his opening remarks Dr. Harrison stated that he comes to this body seeking no honor or praise. He has been greatly impressed with the deep earnestness and consecration of our Cor. Sec. For five years he was president of the Foreign Mission Board of Texas.

The church's threefold obligation was set forth by the speaker as being—

I. Debtor.

II. Trusteeship.

III. Ambassador.

As debtor the message must be passed on. "Woe" if it fails. Regeneration changes and recasts according to God's plan.

Our own program, selfish and national. His unselfish and universal.

This change is a complete change producing different outlook.

Christ's life in us obligates us to Him and He demands that we tell others.

This binding obligation rests upon all saved men every where and in all ages, crossing all lines, seas, mountains and social distinctions.

Knocks at every door and takes first lien on all our possessions.

Supreme ownership carried Paul through all kinds of scenes with joy, glorified in all affliction, ready in death.

Its effect on all who possess it: Inescapable obligation, perpetual and world-wide.

Perpetuation of the Kingdom.

Through the church—soul.

Through the school—mind.

Through the hospital—body.

Trusteeship makes his church a depository and dispenser, receiving and giving.

Ambassadorship makes the church his reconciling agent in the world through Holy spirit.

With unusual spiritual power the speaker sent this great message to the hearts of his hearers.

Secretary Randolph followed the speaker with an earnest appeal for pledges to mission work.

He also presented two of the field workers in the persons of Mrs. F. B. Watson and Samuel Stubblefield who gave brief interesting talks followed by a duet by the same couple.

Expressions of thanks for hospitality received were made by Dr. G. O. Bullock, with a standing vote of thanks by the body.

The convention was closed with benediction pronounced by Dr. W. L. Ransom.

Note: Dr. Henry Allen Boyd is a liberal contributor annually to this body both in money and literature for foreign fields.

REPORT OF THE CHAIRMAN OF THE EXECUTIVE BOARD

My Beloved Co-workers:

We are deeply grateful to God for permitting us to meet and greet you for this our thirty-fourth time as member of the Convention and for the thirtieth time as Chairman of our Board. We have weathered many a storm together and we have had some days of pleasant sailing.

Many of our true and faithful ones have fallen by the way and entered into the haven of rest. Others have come in to take their places to help us carry forward the work that has been so well planned and executed up to the present.

A word of encouragement to our workers would not be out of place just here, so we take the liberty to say—the age in which we live is the most wonderful that ever recorded the march of time. Never before have the people of the earth witnessed such achievements in art, science, invention and government. Never before has the human race enjoyed so many comforts and conveniences in matters which pertain to this life. Distance has been annihilated, and the nations of the earth are being rapidly drawn together as members of a common family.

But this marvelous advancement is not confined to things purely temporal. The church of God is stronger today than ever before. We have more buildings and better buildings dedicated to the service of God, more men and women who are wearing out their constitutions in the spreading of the Gospel among the children of men, and more people who have accepted the salvation of Christ than ever before in the history of the world. It is true we have many church members who do not live up to their opportunities and privileges—to say nothing of their Christian duties, yet I believe them living more exemplary Christian lives than did many leading church members many years ago.

The religion which Christ taught was one that makes man subdue self and live in large measure for his fellowman. The asylums, the orphanages, the homes for the sick, homes for the incurable and homes for the unfortunate and fallen, scattered throughout our land, bear testimony to the fact that we are living the religion of the Saviour of men.

As members of the Board we have come together to render a report of our stewardship, and we should like the seventy who reported to Christ, make our report which joy and gladness.

All Christian work should be reported. For the workers own good, he should take account of what he has done, that he may be able to do better the next time. For the inspiration of others he should lay his achievements before them, not in a boasting manner, but that they may know what God can accomplish through human weakness.

When the Apostle Paul concluded his Missionary journeys he was very careful to return to Antioch and make his report. The seventy in the time of Christ, had met with great and unexpected success, and they were full of joy in making their report; but if their journey had seemed to be a failure they would have returned and reported that also.

It is our duty to thank God for what we have accomplished and then move on to other work because there are greater possibilities wrapped up for us in the distant future.

As members of the Executive Board of the Lott Carey Baptist Foreign Missionary Convention U. S. A. it is our most pleasant task to emphasize the following facts in our churches—“Missions has rights in church work, absolute rights.

“Missions is not merely an extra, a sideline, a charity, which may or may not be given to in church work as the church may elect and as its finances may make convenient. On the contrary missions has rights of its own in a church program, rights along with current expenses of the church, inalienable, incontrovertible rights, inperious rights. The rights of missions are declared in the New Testament and may not be gainsaid.

"Indeed, the rights of missions are rights of the highest privilege. However, these high rights of missions are not often recognized, even in our Missionary Baptist churches.

Last year in the city of Baltimore, Maryland, definite policies of our convention were reemphasized by our honored President, Dr. C. S. Brown and the convention voted its approval and the board was put on notice to strictly adhere to them. Both as Chairman of the Executive Board and chairman of the Executive Committees. I have in mind all the work that you mapped out and referred to the Executive Committee.

As chairman of your Executive Committee, I have sought to have your orders executed in a way that would be most profitable to our great Convention.

The report of our Executive Committee will give you some idea of the work done by it, during the past year.

Our Corresponding Secretary has been alert and active during the year, and it has been a real pleasure to work with him. His report will speak for itself. Our honored President has performed his usual duties in a very creditable manner and he deserves the commendation of our entire Board. Our Treasurer, Dr. J. H. Hughes has safeguarded our funds through the years and proven himself to be worthy and efficient.

The report of our Executive Committee will give you some idea of reading public in a masterly way through the columns of our official organ. Notwithstanding his illness for weeks, our work of publication his not suffered at his hands. The Secretary of our Board has rendered faithful service for the past thirty-two years, and has seized every opportunity to advance the cause of missions. He has been very sick this year.

The active cooperation of other officers and members of our Executive Committee enables us to meet you today with a very encouraging report, notwithstanding the general financial depression.

Our Auditor presents a very encouraging aspect of our work and by his carefully prepared reports, we have been inspired to go forward with a new determination in the work of our great convention. We are glad to have him with us today.

Our Headquarters Building Status—

First Trust$7,000.00

Second Trust	1,177.00
Prudential Bk.	1,110.00

Total to date$9,277.00

Our Headquarters Building Committee with Dr. W. D. Jarvis as chairman has managed our obligations in a manner to save all financial embarrassment to our Board and we are very grateful to the committee for their timely work.

Aside from the regular routine work of our Convention during the year, we have had our commission to go to Haiti to inspect our work there and they brought back to us a very inspiring report which will be given to you in this convention.

During the absence of our Corresponding Secretary from his office it was my privilege to visit some places and to be in constant communication with Mrs. J. H. Randolph, who conducted the work of the office in an exceedingly creditable manner. Our Executive Committee took note of this work of Mrs. Randolph and placed itself on record as being highly pleased with her work in that capacity.

The Secretary reported a profitable visit to Baptist State Convention which was held in Rich Square, N. C. and Richmond, Va. The committee appointed to borrow $2400.00 reported as follows, borrowed from Prudential Bank of Washington, D. C. $1200.00 from the Woman's Aux. to Lott Carey Baptist F. M. Convention $1500.00. The Committee on Headquarters was requested to report at each executive committee meeting. It was decided that because of the financial depression that we hold as few executive committee meetings as possible and that members of the board use their clergy rates in attending the board meeting.

The Commission appointed to visit Haiti 1930 was asked to arrange to go in 1931. Dr. A. W. Brown of Richmond, Va. was selected to go instead of Rev. S. L. McDowell, formerly of Durham, N. C., Dr. J. H. Randolph, W. T. Johnson, G. O. Bullock. The Convention was responsible for the expense of the Cor. Secretary. Sixth Mt. Zion of Richmond, Va. and Third Baptist Church of Washington, D. C., met the expense of the other two members of the commission.

Haiti

The Haitian Commission gave a very interesting report of their visit to Haiti. They were welcomed by officials and the President, because they were there to do uplift work among the natives. Haiti has a population of 10,000,000, 85 per cent of whom are illiterate. Catholicism predominates, Baptists are second in strength, the field is now ripe for our Missionary work. The Commission was entertained in the home of Dr. Boaz A. Harris, Supt. of Missions and were thereby able to sympathize with him in the work they are doing. Rev. Harris has charge of sixteen stations, seven native preachers who visit these stations and work in harmony with him. Dr. Harris' previous training in native, vision and consecration amply fits him for the work.

The commission recommends that a house be purchased at St. Marc for Rev. Harris which is to be known as Lott Carey Headquarters and that a church be erected on the lot purchased by the White Rock Baptist Church of Durham, N. C., at a cost of $1000, and that Rev. Harris be granted a furlough to assist in raising money for the same.

The Secretary recommended that a Finance Committee be appointed in each state to raise money for the work and report at the Pittsburgh meeting. The appointment of said committee was left with the secretary. The secretary recommended that in keeping with the growing demands of the work at Careysburg under Miss Clarice Gooding that provisions be made for an assistant worker. This matter was left with Cor. Secretary. It was decided that the Cor. Secretary would confer with the Women of the Auxiliary and that a portion of the basement room of the L. C. Headquarters be used for printing our L. C. Herald and other Missionary Literature, this is in keeping with previous action of this convention.

A letter was read from Rev. Hayes acknowledging a receipt of $100 and stating that he had complied with the request of the Board. Dr. Wm. D. Jarvis, chairman of the house committee reported as follows:

Received from Prudential Bank as a loan	$1200.00

A motion passed to give Mrs. Randolph a vote of thanks for the splendid work done as acting Cor. Secretary while the secretary was in Haiti. The following committee was appointed to make recommendations on the annual donations given. The officers of the L. C. F. M. Convention, Dr. Wm. D. Jarvis, Mrs. J. H. Randolph, G. O. Bullock.

A vote of thanks was given the Sixth Mt. Zion Baptist Church of Richmond, Va., Mt. Moriah and Third Baptist of Washington, D. C., for giving their pastors a furlough and making it possible for them to visit our Mission Field in Haiti. The above is the important business transacted by your committee during the year.

Respectfully submitted,

W. T. JOHNSON, Chr.
NELSON WILLIAMS, Sec.

PRESIDENT'S ANNUAL ADDRESS

Officers, Members of the Junior and Intermediate Department and Friends: After a year of success and failure we meet together again. It is with a great deal of pleasure and thanksgiving to God that I am able to greet you in this a new session of our Convention.

The years 1930-31 are years that will be remembered by us all. The economic depression has struck us all. This depression has and will leave its imprint upon us as a group. But it is absolutely necessary that we must keep in mind that we are a group of young people in training for missionary work. We must not let the fact escape us that the situation of today must not keep us from our duties. Since we are in training a question that would naturally arise in our minds as a group of young Christian workers is, "What is the training necessary for a missionary?"

There is no matter so intimately connected with the progress and success of missions as the training of the missionaries. The work to which he goes is difficult and complicated. His first idea about it is that it is simple and uncomplicated, and that success is more dependent on zeal and missionary warmth than on special knowledge of his, hence the many mistakes the missionary makes.

Complete and thoroughly trained fitness for work, whatever that may be, is not merely the tendency but the absolute demand for the present day and the man who possesses that fitness and capacity to use it is the man who is preferred for any position.

For the missionary more is necessary than a general theological course before we can say "Now, go and preach to the heathen." If men are not sent to foreign fields for administrative work without special training nor even sent to plant trees without a course of instruction at some agricultural college, why should they be sent to plant Christianity in India, Africa and elsewhere without some training to fit them for such work?

The missionary needs to be guided before he actually enters the work, as to—How to deal with a false religion?—How to deal with a dead conscience?—How to deal best with a people who have a different environment and whose real opinion about Him individually and nationally is so difficult to reach, because so carefully concealed. That which is necessary then to aid the missionary is some course of instruction which will help him deal with two things: Heathen religion and Heathen human beings.

If any of the young people here are considering foreign mission as a life work they should consider carefully what has been said so as to be able to better the work done by our forefathers. Not only should these consider it who are actually going to the foreign fields, but those who remain should also think about what has been said so that they may catch the spirit and thereby do better work. We must also remember in thinking of this work that more is necessary for the missionary than even the spiritual life and the sacrifice of self. His influence will be what he is himself, and the order seems to be this—first, his spiritual life; second, temperament and mental ability; and third, qualifications added by training. Temperament always modifies for better or worse, a man's influence among other men; but training and temperament together produce the best results in missionary work. The departing missionary whether he carries written instruction or not should carry at least oft repeated admonition that has real force and secret of his power and success is mostly spiritual.

"For to be carnally minded is death, but to be spiritually minded is life and peace."

Both the missionary abroad must have the spirit of Christ if they are to carry on successfully.

My object will have been achieved if attention has been given to urgent necessity for the Junior Department to prepare themselves thoroughly so that they may improve upon the work that has been done before them. The supporters of missions have a right to expect that the men who are sent at their expense should be thoroughly qualified as a reasonable and practical course can make them providing the education touches the question of progress and results of mission.

God is moving on.

His march is swift, and our time is short.

No such age has ever before shone on this planet,

No such doors ever before opened to his church.

Who will fall into line with God,

Join in his majestic march,

And in the sure advance of his plan

Reach the golden fruition of the ages.

I wish to recommend the following:

That each Junior Organization send our supervisor quarterly donations for the work.

Secondly, That efforts be made for better representation of junior at the annual meeting.

I further recommend that special missionary classes be established among the juniors so that they may be better informed of the work.

SUPERVISORS' BOARD MEETING

The Supervisors' Board meeting held at the St. Peter's Lutheran Church was opened with prayer by Mrs. M. M. Lewis. The meeting was in charge of Miss Sarah Whetts. Miss Whetts called on Miss Bennetta Bullock, president of the Junior and Intermediate Department to express her views and outline the work of the Junior Circles for the ensuing year. Miss Bullock emphasized the need of quarterly dues and Junior representation in the conventions. Miss Whetts suggested a fifty-fifty basis. That is the Senior help to pay expenses of the Juniors who are to represent. Miss Holloman, the vice president, offered her suggestions next. She heartily endorsed the suggestions of the president.

Miss Whetts then explained how in order to swell the treasure of the Juniors permit the Juniors to hold a program every fifth Sunday. Miss Nelson stated that in her church the Young People have the third Sunday in each month.

Mrs. Holloman asked how to persuade the same group of Juniors to work in two or three different lines. Miss Whetts told how one class in her Sunday school is the Junior Circle and they raise the money. Miss Bullock spoke how in her church the Junior and Intermediate B. Y. P. U. have special work for missions. Mrs. Lewis again urged the systematic quarterly dues. She stated that the Junior Circle should be urged to join the convention directly.

Next we heard from the Supervisor, Mrs. O. S. Bullock. Again Mrs. Bullock urged the circles to send up the quarterly dues. She told how at Hallowe'en she gave a party. In November a sacred program was given with a Thanksgiving offering. Later a Silver Missionary Tea would be held. She also suggested a Guest Rally. The person bringing the highest amount receives a prize. Refreshments may be served.

Mrs. Bullock urged the Supervisors to train their circles in Parliamentary Laws. It was planned that next year before the meeting the president should be trained. Mrs. Bullock then read the constitution of the Junior and Intermediate Department of the Lott Carey Foreign Missionary Convention. The constitution was adopted and was to be printed so the officers might have a copy.

Mrs. Green brought $11.00 from the Blue Stone Convention of Virginia. Miss Whetts suggested that the Juniors be represented on the opening program. We were dismissed by the Watch Word.

Respectfully submitted,

JEAN NELSON.

COMMITTEE ON THE PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS

With care and discretion we reviewed its contents and offer the following as our recommendation;

That the recommendations be approved as submitted.

REPORT OF THE CORRESPONDING SECRETARY

We are now gathered into another session of our annual meeting and can look back upon another year's work completed. There is no one of us who has not felt keenly some effect of the world-wide financial struggle. The Corresponding Secretary is in a strategic position to view the efforts of all the circles and groups which send reports each quarter and can compare this year's work with that of previous years. A few circles are to be commended on their fine cooperation and prompt response each quarter. These circles, who will receive the Blue Ribbon, are those which have formed the report for each quarter and which make the amount of money reported during this year no less than the usual report of preceding years in spite of the economic crisis. But there are so many circles which have not responded to the quarterly call, that we are again urging our usual program of budgeting and making out a financial program at the beginning of each year. One purpose of this Department is to train children in systematic donation for missions. Our plan of quarterly contribution meets this need admirably. Each circle should, at the beginning of every conventional year, set a financial goal to which it works all year, and so forms its contribution that the missionaries' salaries can be paid regularly. Let us all combine in doing our duty each quarter; let every circle share the burden during the whole year; let no circle shirk its duty and allow a few circles to carry the whole load. If this is done, we can all meet together at the close of the year, rejoicing in a year of work well done.

The following is a report of circles who have contributed during the year.

Junior Mission Circle, Mt. Vernon Baptist Church, Durham, N. C.—Miss Corina Hackney, president. First and second quarters $10.00 for salaries. Third Quarter $5.00 for salaries, building fund and scholarship $5.00. Total $15.00.

PROCEEDINGS

Pittsburgh, Pa., September 3, 1931.

The Woman's Auxiliary to the Lott Carey Foreign Mission Convention met in its thirty-first annual session with the Rodman Street Baptist Church, 6111 Rodman St., E. Liberty, Pittsburgh, Pa., Rev. S. A. Thurston, D. D., pastor.

The auxiliary sessions were held with the St. Peters Lutheran church.

At 10 o'clock a. m. the session opened with praise service conducted by Sisters C. C. Weaver, Amanda Moore and Mary Harris.

Opened by singing, "Leaning on the Everlasting Arms."

Scripture lesson, Matt. 18:1-14, read by Sister Moore, prayer was offered by Sister Ella Baylor.

We next sang, "There is a Fountain Filled With Blood."

Sister Weaver announced the meeting open and asked the sisters to enter heartily into the service, she urged that none be stumbling blocks to the cause of missions.

After a spirited meeting the praise service was brought to a close.

The president, Mrs. Randolph, came forward and greeted the sisters and asked that the programs be distributed by Miss Louverne Butcher, Miss Mary Florence Dabney and Mrs. J. H. Martain.

Next a choir was formed by members of the Auxiliary, whose duty it was to furnish music for the day sessions of the auxiliary. Programs adopted, the choir and congregation sang with zeal and inspiration, "Answer Yes."

Next selection, "Jesus paid it all."

Welcome addresses:

On behalf of O. S. Simms, Missionary Department—Mrs. M. M. Lewis.

On behalf of the Women of the Church—Mrs. S. A. Thurston.

On behalf of the Woman's Auxiliary to the Allegheny General Baptist Association—Mrs. Maggie S. Austin, Rankin, Pa.

Response—Mrs. J. L. S. Holman, Washington, D. C. The welcomes were all very cordial and were graciously accepted.

At this point Dr. James asked permission to announce the committee on Time and Place for the parent body. Choir sang, "Can the World see Jesus in You?"

Enrollment of delegates, appointment of enrollment committee and finance committee was next in order.

By special request of the president the congregation sang, "In all my Lord's Appointed ways." Mrs. Webster, vice president took the chair and stated that the hour had arrived for the president to deliver her annual address and in very fitting words presented Mrs. Randolph.

The officers of the parent body had adjourned their morning session in order that they might be present to hear the address.

Mrs. Randolph stated that the obligation of giving the gospel to the world rests upon the Christian churches. She urged us to go to the mountain top of vision and catch new zeal to carry forward the Master's work.

She spoke of the great good brought about from the echo meetings held after the annual sessions of the Lott Carey Convention. She mentioned the two large shipments sent to the missionaries during the year.

She informed us of the honor conferred on her by the Woman's Auxiliary to the National Baptist Convention in electing her as honorary vice president. She beautifully spoke of the work of the Junior Department and prayed God that some of the younger ones may lay their lives on the altar for preparation to go labor in the foreign field.

Mrs. Randolph brought a very concrete outline of our missionaries on the foreign fields who have special organizations supporting them and those who have no support. It was very suggestive and impressive.

Her recommendations with reference to erecting modest buildings in Africa were received with applause.

She exhibited goods prepared in the domestic art and science departments of Brewerville, Africa, Mrs. Walker, teacher. Our hearts rejoiced to see the progress being made at our stations over-seas.

In the midst of her address, the pastor of the Sixth Mt. Zion Baptist Church, Richmond, Va., Dr. A. W. Brown arose and pledged the support of one of the missionaries on the foreign field who had not been provided for.

Dr. G. O. Bullock, pastor Third Baptist Church, Washington, D. C., pledged support for another.

The Woman's Auxiliary of the West Roanoke Association, North Carolina, Mrs. C. C. Luton, president, pledged to support Mrs. Walker, head of the Home Economic Department, Brewerville, Liberia, Africa.

Mrs. Randolph read letters from Mrs. Clarice Gooding, Carysburg; Rev. Charles M. Bryant, Caipu; and from Miss Minnie C. Lyons, Brewerville acknowledging the receipt of things sent her and expressing gratitude for the same.

She closed her address with the poem "Evangelize." Her address appears in this minute. Read it.

A motion prevailed to adopt the president's address and place it in the hands of a committee.

Mrs. G. O. Bullock and Mrs. Mattie C. Rux made some very timely comments on this most wonderful address.

Committee: Mrs. G. W. Watkins, Mrs. Luckett, Mrs. Bettie G. Cousin, Mrs. Josephine Mitchell, Mrs. Martha Murphy.

Officers of the Lott Carey Convention were presented.

Dr. C. S. Brown, president stated his joy in noting the progress this organization has made. He said there is not another organization among the Baptists in the world like ours.

Dr. W. T. Johnson, chairman Executive Board stated that we had come to their rescue during the year, financially, when they were in a delima and that they were very grateful.

Dr. J. H. Hughes, treasurer, stated that he would pledge for his church a part of the support of Samuel Stubblefield on the foreign field.

Dr. Randolph, Cor. Sec., expressed his delight in seeing the answer to prayers.

Dr. G. O. Bullock, chairman of Ex. Committee urged us to double our contributions that we may do greater work.

Dr. A. W. Brown said the address was a most peculiar one, a real school of methods and would inspire any one. He pledged to do even greater work.

Dr. Ransom said the White Rock Baptist Church is giving large donations for missions but he is going to have them give even more.

Dr. W. L. Washington, Zion Baptist Church, Washington, D. C. commented favorably on the address. Prof. Nelson Williams spoke of his failing health and said had it not been for the Woman's Auxiliary, there would be no Lott Carey Convention. After congratulating the president, he said feebly, "If I am called home before another convention, I'll gladly go."

Dr. Hill of Richmond, Va., said, "I am now in Virginia and from now on I am a Lott Carey man."

The president handed in this correction which refers to a statement in the 1930 minutes. Quote a correction.

"In the minutes of 1930, there appears in the financial report the name of Mrs. J. H. Randolph, as having given $50.00. This is a mistake. This amount was designated by me from Dr. Joseph H. Lee, for the Mt. Olive Baptist Missionary Circle, Arlington, Va., Mrs. Josephine Mitchell, president.

The president turned in monies sent her for the convention. Siloam S. S. $30.00. Third Baptist Miss. Circle, Portsmouth, Va., $25.00, Dr. Dance, pastor.

Mrs. A. Elizabeth Weeks gave a personal donation which she had gleaned of $25.00 as a scholarship for a little girl in the Brewerville Station to be named, Mariah Dorcas Cooke, in memory of her mother. She hoped to give that scholarship annually.

After introducing Dr. Reed, who was scheduled to preach our annual sermon, we were dismissed by Dr. Mitchell.

He stated that in India there are about 350,000,000 souls with about 5,000,000 of them Christian. He is returning to India after a furlough of about one and one-half years.

In his remarks he said only missionary churches are live churches.

China with a population of about 400,000,000 has not even 1,000,000 Christians.

Our mission to help although our strength is small we have one with us who has all strength.

Mrs. Watson, our returned missionary was presented, she was very happy over the fact that provisions had been made for her to return to the Foreign field. She told of the fidelity of the Africans and the joy one finds in working among them. She intends to translate the New Testament in the African tongue.

Rev. Samuel Stubberfield, a native African whom we have cared for and prepared to go back home and preach the gospel was introduced. His remarks touched our hearts and made us know that he is an answer to prayer.

He is brimming over with a desire to go back home and tell the story of Jesus to his brothers and sisters in heathen darkness.

Reading—Miss Viola Brown. "A lad without a name," was well rendered.

Dr. H. H. Mitchell who was once the pastor of our president was presented. He gave some interesting facts about the beginning of the Lott Carey Convention and said he

Thursday Evening Session.

Long before the hour for meeting had arrived the spacious auditorium of the Rodman St. Baptist Church was being crowded and Dr. W. A. Knowlin was conducting a wide awake song service.

At the close of the song service the president arose and invited Dr. Reed and his associates to the pulpit.

Music was rendered by the church choir.

Opening hymn, "Amazing Grace," etc. was lined by Rev. Knowlin, who also read Scripture lesson Acts 2:1-24. Prayer was offered by Dr. E. E. Ricks. Second hymn, "Go preach my gospel." Song by choir and congregation.

At the request of the president, the choir rendered another selection while the overflow crowd was being seated.

The president in very fitting words introduced Rev. James E. Reed, pastor Mount Rose Baptist Church, Uniontown, Pa., who delivered the annual sermon.

Text Gal. 6:9, "Let us not be weary in well doing for in due season we shall reap if we faint not." He said that in the early days of Christianity it was very necessary that the contenders of the faith be encouraged in order to be able to withstand the hardships. Weariness invites defeat. If the devil finds one weary in his Christian travels he takes advantage of it to make his attack.

When we touch some one with the spirit of God we are doing well.

At the close of the sermon, the choir sang, "We shall all be happy then." The president asked Dr. Hobbs and Rev. Wilson to come forward and lift the collection. Mrs. W. T. Johnson was asked to direct the raising of the offering. Amt. $70.00.

The dedication service of a corner stone was carried out by the Harriet Tubman Club No. 1, directed by Mrs. Watson, returned missionary.

A trio of young ladies sang very beautifully Ecclesiastes 12th chapter.

After the rendition of a beautiful poem, Mrs. Abraham Lincoln, president of the club, presented the cornerstone to Rev. Samuel Stubberfield to be builded into the First Baptist Church, among the Ghola tribes, Africa of which he is to be the first pastor. It was very graciously received by Rev. Stubberfield and he pledges to do all he can to build a life saving station in that dark land in the midst of his tribe.

The dedicatorial prayer was offered by Dr. F. B. Mitchell, Germantown, Pa. The congregation sang, "Rescue the perishing."

Mrs. Watson then requested every officer to touch the stone.

A motion prevailed that a vote of thanks be extended to the minister, choir, the trio and Harriet Tubman Club for their services rendered.

Announcements, closing selection by the choir.

Benediction by Rev. James E. Reed.

Friday Morning Session.

September 4, 1931.

Praise service was conducted by Sister Susie Robinson, Va., Mrs. Ella Butcher, Va., Mrs. James E. Epps, D. C., Mrs. Emma Fisher, D. C. Scripture lesson Ps. 46, followed by sentence prayers, song, "Stand up for Jesus" and "It is well with my soul." Many testified for the Master.

Several committees were appointed after which the minutes of the previous sessions were called for, received and adopted.

The president then deferred the report of Committee on Obituary until a later hour. Other committees were appointed.

Mrs. Maggie Jones, a representative of the Woman's Auxiliary of the National Baptist Convention was introduced and spoke very interestingly. Quite a number of visitors were introduced and expressed their interest in Foreign Missions.

Rev. Storeker introduced Mrs. Strong, one of the social workers in his church.

Rev. J. W. Hairston, pastor Mt. Zion Baptist Church, Asheville, N. C., pledged to give large support to the work of the Auxiliary. He said a soul is but a soul the young or old. He further stated that the Minister should feed the old as well as the young, the unlettered as well as the educated. 2364 members have joined his church since his pastorate there. He said it is just as much our duty to look for the child outside as for the one inside. His remarks were very much enjoyed.

Rev. N. L. Young, 351 Lemont Place, Pittsburgh, Pa., one of the organizers of the Allegheny Baptist Association stated that it was he who brought the Lott Carey to the churches in Pittsburgh.

New members who had never visited the convention before were introduced and spoke very enthusiastically of the work.

Echoes from the delegates were very praiseworthy and inspiring. Many told of goods sent up for Africa and our president stated that the shipping rules are very strict and asked that the price of each article be sent. Not too high but moderate.

After the echo period our president urged that a large number of children be sent up to the convention that they may be trained for service. She also advised that we send up as much cloth as possible instead of ready-made garments in order that the missionaries may teach the natives to sew. Save flour sacks and sugar bags, wash them and send to convention for Africa.

Mrs. Penn, Cor. Sec., read letters from some of the workers regretting their inability to be present at this session.

Rev. Patterson, president Ministers Conference, spoke and offered to sell his picture, the money from which sale to go for missions.

The President's Annual Address

Kept and sustained by our Heavenly Father, who is gracious, merciful and boundless in His love toward His children, we are permitted once more to assemble as a Convention and Auxiliary to commit ourselves unto Him for future usefulness and a stronger determination to unfurl the banner of love, to plant the word of truth, and herald the message of Salvation to all the world.

16 years ago, we met with the Rodman Street Baptist Church, the late Dr. O. S. Simms was then Pastor. We find ourselves at this Session being entertained by the Church and their efficient and progressive Pastor, Dr. S. A. Thurston.

The mission which brings us here should be one of joy, filled with the very best thoughts and plans with which to begin our work the coming Year. The assembling of ourselves gives us an opportunity to better understand and to consider the needs of the Foreign Field on which we operate; and to express definitely our convictions and aims of the manner in which we should prosecute the work entrusted to us.

We realize that the obligation to give the Gospel to all the world is the duty of the Christian Church, and that as co-workers in the common cause of Missionary Endeavor, we must not let this work rest lightly upon our minds, but thoughtfully and soberly put our shoulders to the wheel, pushing and directing until results are obtained, commensurate with the importance of our task.

It is conceded by experienced workers, that at no time in the history of Christian Missions, has the call for conscientious and unselfish laborers been more urgent than now. In consequence of which, My Sisters, we must bestir ourselves and arouse the present generation that there may be manifested in our Churches and communities, a larger desire to conquer the world for Christ.

Nothing can really be effective in human betterment, unless we are thoroughly aroused to a sense of necessity and duty to mold and shape sentiment that will inspire others to see as we see; and understand as we understand. When this has been accomplished, a new era will dawn upon our cherished ambition in Missionary achievements. The present indifference in our Missionary activities is largely due to the spirit of the world in the Church; and I suppose that you, all, to some degree, will acknowledge this to be true.

The spirit of personal sacrifice and service for the common good which characterized our Lord while on earth, is not very prevalent in any phase of our work as in days of yore. Therefore, let us go to the mountain top of vision, that we may see anew the plans and purpose of Christ in selecting us from among the women of the world to declare His Glory in this our day and generation, that we may immortalize ourselves as did the women who joyously left the empty tomb with the message of the Resurrection.

Remember, that had not someone set afloat the potent idea of Christian education and Missions in America which unshackled 4,000,000 of our people, we would not be surrounded, today, as we are, by the embellishments of the most remarkable civilization of the world, tempored and censored by the Gospel of Jesus Christ. Then, what has been done by others for us through the Gospel, should actuate and inspire us to accept the challenge of not only the Millions of Africa, and the 3,000,000 in Haiti, but mankind the world over.

It is of supreme importance at this stage of the world's needs, that we assume sane and definite attitudes toward the problems to be solved in our work at home and on the Foreign Field. In every perplexing situation, when the way seems dark, talk it over with Jesus and He will make it right, and guide our timid steps to victory.

At the close of the Lott Carey Convention, I attended the Meeting of the National Baptist Convention of America. The attendance upon the Convention was very large. The Auxiliary made a splendid showing. Women were present from a large number of the States. (They have many objectives, among them is fostering work in South Africa.) The usual courtesy of the Body was extended me, and more, in that I was elected as their 2nd Honorary Vice President. I asked the Auxiliary to send their President, Mrs. M. A. B. Fuller, to this Meeting.

Just after the Convention, there was held at the Shiloh Baptist Church, Washington, D. C., Oct. 1930, a very interesting and instructive Echo Meeting of the Lott Carey Baptist Foreign Mission Convention, under the auspices of the District Branch to the Auxiliary. Every speech by the delegates and visitors was filled with thought that inspired those who came to hear of the doings of the Convention. Mrs. J. L. S. Holloman, the Chairman, received many congratulations and words of appreciation for the splendid way in which she directed and presided at this Meeting.

There was held in Richmond, at the Ebenezer Baptist Church, under the auspices of the Over Sea Society, an Echo Meeting of the Lott Carey Baptist Foreign Mission Convention. A beautiful program was rendered by those who attended the Convention. Every effort was made to make it interesting and attractive. Mrs. Bettie G. Cousins, the Chairman of the Executive Board of the Auxiliary, sponsored this meeting and another at the First Baptist Church, So. Richmond, Va. The people were happy to have the opportunity to attend a meeting of that kind.

April 1931, The District Branch, for the first time, held a three days Conference, which was a success in every way. Addresses were delivered by some of the most influential men and women in Christian work. Lectures and pictures were shown by the Haitian Commission which enlightened the people concerning our work in that Country. The Children's Evening was in charge of Mrs. J. L. S. Holloman. This Conference will be held, Annually. This Organization has a splendid corps of Officers and workers, who contribute monthly, to the Lott Carey Headquarters. An extra donation of Fifty Cents, each, is given by the Circles to the Corresponding Secretary, Dr. J. H. Randolph, for the upkeep of the Headquarters.

MINUTES OF THE CONVENTION

Quite often there is a complaint that the Churches and Circles do not receive Minutes. This Year, the Minutes and the Corresponding Secretary's Report were sent out from the Office. Special pain was taken to send them to all who belong to the Convention and Auxiliary and others who manifest an interest in Missions. Of 350 packages, about 7 packages returned. These packages included Minutes for the Church, Societies and Sunday Schools.

On Tuesday, Feb. 17th, the Commission appointed by the Convention, sailed for Haiti, the Corresponding Secretary being a member thereof, requested that I should perform the duties of his office during his absence from the Country, which I consented to do, and found real pleasure in the work.

As usual, I have attended the Meetings of the Executive Committee during the Year, which were well attended and they were full of interest, touching all phases of the work carried on by the Convention.

In July, I attended the Auxiliary to the Baptist Convention of the District of Columbia, which convened at the Liberty Baptist Church, Rev. H. T. Gaskins, Pastor. The Model Missionary Meeting conducted by Mrs. Craig, was very helpful to all.

It was my privilege to visit Heathsville, Northumberland Co., Va., in company with Rev. J. H. Randolph, who was invited by the Rev. H. C. Roane, to deliver the Dedicatorial Sermon of the Zion Baptist Church, Lottsburg, Va. In the afternoon, I had the honor to speak in the interest of Missions. An Offering was taken and presented to the Corresponding Secretary, for Foreign Missions. We were pleasantly entertained by Rev. and Mrs. Roane and others.

OUR YOUNG PEOPLE

We delight in referring to the young people, who occupy an important place in the field of Missionary Endeavor—who have high ideals and are striving to deepen the Spiritual life of the boys and girls in Foreign lands. By their unselfish gifts, they are filling a great niche in the financial part of the work. We pray that some may present themselves at this Meeting, to study and prepare for service on the Foreign Field. May God continue to bless the Superintendent and her Assistants in their efforts to make the work of the Junior and Intermediate Department, glorious.

I wish to express to the Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. M. L. Penn, the Treasurer, Mrs. G. O. Bullock, the Chairman of the Executive Board, Mrs. B. G. Cousins, and to the entire constituency of the Woman's Auxiliary, my heartiest thanks and appreciation, for the support given to the work throughout the entire year, in sending up means through our Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. M. L. Penn.

Your prompt responses, quarterly, have gladdened the heart of the Corresponding Secretary, Dr. Randolph. At times when the way seemed dark, your gift made it possible to meet many of the needs on the Foreign Field.

My Sisters, in our work, let us daily keep in mind, the real purpose for which we gather annually. To mobilize, organize, and spiritualize our forces for a larger and better work for the coming Years. Much that we have said may be regarded, by casual reflection, as mere by-products to the supreme purpose of our Convention, in our Program of Evangelism and Missionary Endeavor. But not so, when we take into consideration the services of the wisest Teacher of men, who often reached the souls of mankind by supplying their personal needs.

So as a Convention, let us adopt the simple methods of the lowly Christ, of whom the Blessed Book declares: "He went about doing good." May I conclude in the language of William Olney, under the caption

"EVANGELIZE"

In Church and congregation there remain
 The undecided still, beneath your eyes;
 Rest not till all new life in Christ obtain,
 Evangelize!

O Church of the Redeemer! Look around:
 Within your reach a population lies
 In ignorance of Christ and unbelief:
 Evangelize!

The greatest joy the Church of Christ can have—
 The highest service—and the noblest prize;
 Is to see multitudes, brought to the cross:
 Evangelize!

Indifference is foolishness indeed;
 Would ye most truly in God's sight be wise?
 Spend strength and time to save the souls of men.
 Evangelize!

Train men for home and missionary work:
 Be urgent in the task! Time flies! Time flies!
 Trust in the Spirit's power; uplift the cross!
 Evangelize!

Our Building;

Give us a chance, Give us a chance—
 In the span of the work, To show that we do not mean to shirk—
 But give to the foreign lands a building or buildings,
 To show that the Auxiliary is working and living,
 For just such a cause as this, Give us a chance.

For years we have looked forward to having a building erected in Africa. Thus far we have not had our dreams realized. Learning that it is necessary to place some buildings at Carysburgh and Brewerville; I wish to recommend that we place a modest building immediately at Careysburgh, Mrs. Watson's Station, and that the Natives be urged to assist materially in the erection of the same as it is to serve the needs of their own children.

And—, That in the near future consideration be given in the erecting of a building at a moderate cost, at Brewerville, Dr. Thomas' Station.

I further recommend that every circle in the Woman's Auxiliary will ask each member to give individually $1.00 to help pay off the debt on the Lott Carey Headquarters—That the money be sent to our Corresponding Secretary of the Auxiliary, Mrs. M. L. Penn, 2021 Division St., Baltimore, Md.

That $150.00 be given to Dr. W. H. Stokes for the Lott Carey Herald.

MRS. J. H. RANDOLPH.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES

ON PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS

Pittsburgh, Pa., September 4, 1931.

We, your Committee on the President's Address, beg to submit the following:

We are aware that each year the President has a valuable message for us as co-workers, but in our opinion as a committee, the message which she has conveyed to us in this Convention has so touched the hearts of each present, that we feel that it would brighten as well as be a great incentive to hundreds of our workers at home, were they permitted to read it.

Therefore, Be it resolved: That we put forth every effort to carry out the recommendations of our President.

✓ First—We feel that our fondest hopes are to be realized, in that we are now going to build at Garysburg and in the near future at Brewerville.

We beg each woman here to go home and urge her members and friends to rally faithfully to this building program.

Second: We further recommend that there be conducted in each city or locality foreign mission echo meeting of our Convention thereby creating more zeal for the work.

And lastly we recommend that the president's address be published in the Herald and each member asked to secure this copy to be read in their meetings.

Respectfully submitted,

Second, That this School will also offer courses to our home workers that by actual attendance or a correspondence course they may be properly enlightened and thereby qualified to co-operate with the Lott

Carey Convention Executives and the missionaries on the foreign field, that God's missionary program may be carried out minutely.

ON TEMPERANCE

Pittsburgh, Pa., September 4, 1931

We, your Committee on Temperance, beg leave to submit the following report:

We are living in an age where men have little regards for temperance. It is true that the nation has set up a standard; but it is very essential that we as Christians give our hearty support to help our government to enforce prohibition. Intemperance in every form is not only invading our ranks but our homes and our churches.

1 Cor. 16 reads thus: Know ye not that ye are the temple of God and that the spirit of God dwelleth within you? If any man destroy the temple of God him shall God destroy.

We are admonished to be sober, to watch and pray and walk becomingly, not in revelling and drunkenness, strife and jealousy. Let us as Christian workers be guided by God's word, that whatever we do be to the glory of God.

Respectfully submitted,

Clover, Va., September 2nd, 1931.

To the Officers and Members of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Lott Carey Baptist Foreign Mission Convention,

Greetings:

Dear Co-worker,

It is my pleasant duty to again render an account of my stewardship as Organizer of this body, notwithstanding the scarcity of money throughout the country in general.

I have been able to send up during the year to Dr. J. H. Randolph

$10.95, from the following named churches: Bethel Baptist Church, Grove Clover, Va., R. F. D., $3.77; Zion Grove Baptist Church, Clover, Va. R. F. D., $1.85; St. James Baptist Church, Scottsburg, Va., $2.50; also St. Matthew Baptist Church, Clover Va., $2.83, and I am also bringing to you at this sitting $23.91, from the following named churches, Sab. School, and Missionary Circles: Bethel Grove Baptist Church, $5.05; Mt. Pleasant Baptist, $3.71; St. Matthew S. School, $3.00; St. Mathew Baptist Church, $1.15; Zion Grove Missionary Circle, $3.00; St. Matthew Missionary Circle, $8.00; to our parent body $8.00; $3.00 from the S. S. Convention of Halifax County, Va. $5.00 from the Roanoke District S. S. Union. I am also bringing up to you from the Woman's Auxiliary of the Blue Stone S. S. Convention of Mecklenburg County $19.33, and to our Junior Department from the Juniors of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Blue Stone S. S. Convention, $11.00.

I have not been able to organize any new circles, but I have tried to keep the work alive in the circles I have visited. I shall ever strive to do what ever I can for the cause of Missions.

Yours in His service,

SUSIE G. GREEN,
Clover, Virginia,
Box 42.

PRAY—GIVE—GO

Three things the Master hath to do,
And we who serve him here below,
And long to see His Kingdom come,
May pray, or give, or go.

He needs them all—the open hand,
The willing feet, the asking heart—
To work together and to weave
The threefold cord that shall not part.

Nor shall the giver count his gift
As greater than the worker's deed;
Nor he in turn his service boast
Above the prayers that voice the need.

Not all can go; not all can give
To earn the others for the fray;
But young or old, or rich or poor,
Or strong or weak—we all can pray.

Annie Johnson Flint, "The British Weekly."

Washington, D. C.—408 T. Street, N. W., Sept. 4, 1931.

Madam President, Members and Friends of the Woman's Auxiliary to the Lott Carey Foreign Mission Convention,

Greetings:

It is with pleasure that I come today to give you the fourth Annual report of our work as Treasurer.

The rapid strides of progress in all phases of present day life have so increased and multiplied the responsibilities of Christian effort that the women of our Auxiliary, fully appreciating the task of financing God's business, are organizing and working as a means of meeting this great demand. The tremendous undertaking annually confronting our group of providing adequate funds for our mission work, has ever met with the untiring efforts of a large portion of our women—success has in a large measure rewarded these efforts and today our Convention may justly regard with a feeling of pride the manifest results of the labor and liberality of the women. Yet in view of all our accomplishments it is evident that only the crust of Christian opportunity has been broken and as never before the demand for greater work and more adequate resources is recognized.

It is obvious that some systematic permanent supplying agency stands to the front as one of the great needs in our work. Our Annual contributions fail to meet the stupendous demand of our work, even in the best of years under the most favorable circumstances of material prosperity among us the funds contributed have not been sufficient to take care of the great demand of the Convention's program and responsibilities. We feel that the women should be congratulated for their loyalty to the work. You have been able to make three splendid loans to the Parent body for the fostering of this great work. We feel we have God's divine approval, notwithstanding the crisis through which this, our country, is passing. Many banks have failed but the banks in which we have carried our deposits have kept in tact.

May we continue to work for the salvation of a lost world.

REPORT OF CORRESPONDING SECRETARY

Madam President, Officers, Members and Friends of the Woman's Auxiliary to the Lott Carey Baptist Foreign Mission Convention.

We feel very thankful to our Heavenly Father, for the privilege of greeting you in this our thirty-first annual session, in this great City of Pittsburgh, to render an account of our stewardship.

We have mailed during the year more than a thousand circular letters, concerning the obligations and needs of our Auxiliary. Many of the circles have answered each quarter, thus enabling us to make a splendid financial report. We again thank the circles for their cooperation in rendering unselfish service toward the upbuilding of God's kingdom. There are five avenues of service, our lives, what we are; our lips, what we say; our money, what we give; our service, what we do; our prayers, what we ask for in Christ's name. Four of these are humanly limited by space and time, weakness and inability. But to prayer there is no limitation. Prayer is placing us potentially in touch with the world's need. A half hour of earnest prayer can change the life of a sinful man or woman. Can make God's word have a richer meaning to the Heathen, can lighten the heart of a discouraged missionary. Our attitude should be, I am ready for any service, any time, any where.

God has His best things for the few
That dare to stand the test;
God has His second choice for those Who will not have His best.

Now, my dear Sisters when our appeals reach you, please do not cast them aside; if you cannot send money, send us a word of encouragement, and pray that the efforts put forth will be crowned with success. Many of our co-workers have been called from labor to reward during the year. May we emulate their Christian virtues and work harder than ever for God and humanity. Do not forget our Lott Carey Herald; please subscribe now, because it is our medium through which we get information and inspiration concerning the work of our Convention. When in Washington, D. C., stop at our Lott Carey Headquarters, 1501 11th St., N. W., it is a wonderful building, a great asset to our work and spells progress for our Convention. In June, I had the pleasure of visiting the New England Baptist Missionary and Educational Convention in Philadelphia. We met many of our own Auxiliary workers there, and enjoyed their very splendid programs. It was indeed a great meeting.

Our Juniors are doing excellent work under the supervision of their most efficient Superintendent, Mrs. M. C. Bullard. Again thanking you dear Sisters for your love, your loyalty and cooperation in rendering service for God and humanity. May God bless you, and help us to do more efficient work, that our program of service may be enlarged.

Yours in His service,

M. L. PENN, Cor. Sec.
