The Thirty-fifth Annual Session of the Lott Carey Baptist Foreign Mission Convention of America convened with the Shiloh Baptist Church, Rev. E. L. Harrison, D. D., pastor at 8:00 p. m.

The principal feature of the evening was a "Missionary Pageant" presented by the Juniors of the District of Columbia, Mrs. J. L. S. Holloman, directress.

This very interesting pageant carried the following divisions:

1. Prelude.
2. The Christ:
 - (a) His Incarnation.
 - (b) His Ministry.
 - (c) His Passion.
 - (d) His Death.
 - (e) His Resurrection.
3. The Sacraments.
 - (a) Baptism.
 - (b) Lord's Supper.

4. The Church.

6. Final Triumph of Christ's Church.

The large audience greatly enjoyed this excellent presentation and by motion a special vote of thanks was offered to Mrs. Holloman and her co-workers for same.

A collection of $20.32 was taken. The pastor, Dr. Harrison extended warm greetings and cordial welcome, offering his service and the service of Shiloh to the Convention for its comfort.

Dr. O. S. Bullock, pronounced the benediction.

WEDNESDAY.

9:30 a. m. Dr. A. L. James presiding.

The Convention in regular form was opened by devo-

President's Address.

Dr. J. H. Randolph, Cor. Sec., presented Dr. C. S. Brown, to deliver his annual message.

Dr. Brown, seated in his rolling chair spoke a few words declaring his presence here was a miracle.

He then presented his daughter to read his message to the body.

With unusual clearness, deep earnestness and deliberate calmness she delivered the written message, which carried with it the same vim, powerful insight and burning zeal for world-wide mission. The address contained the following outline:

Brief review of the organization of this body in this church thirty-five years ago.

Its purposes.

Plan of operation.

Important events.

Foreign Fields.

Reinforcement needed.

Two classes of preachers, good and bad. Traits of each.

Recommendations.

- ✓ 1. Full time service of Cor. Sec'y.
2. Contact with Russian Missionaries.
- * 3. Lott Carey Herald issued from headquarters in Washington, D. C.

Thanks to Shiloh for hospitality.

By motion the address was adopted as a whole and referred to the Committee on President's Address.

The following visitors were presented: Dr. W. H. Jernagan, Washington; Dr. J. H. Wynn, Texas; Rev. M. A. Hunter, Dr. Henry Allen Boyd, Secretary National Baptist Publishing Board, Nashville, Tenn.

Dr. Boyd offered to print the address of Dr. Brown, president and carry the rent of Shiloh Church (the original church building) free of cost to this body. He also made his annual donation to this convention of $300.00.

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON

3:00—Rev. F. W. Williams, D. D., presiding.

Devotions conducted by Rev. E. D. Spinner and Rev. G. W. Todd.

Rev. Simond briefly discussed the topic: "How we may best execute His Marching Orders."

Report of Executive Board and Cor. Sec., Dr. J. H. Randolph.

Dr. Randolph in his usual earnest manner presented his annual report, setting forth again the strict business basis upon which the office is operated. He gave a brief summary of the year's work.

He is anxious to make contact with persons all over the country who could be stirred to mission activity.

He also made a strong plea for regular and systematic giving. This has been a very hard year for finance, yet hopeful. Money the great need of the hour. A strict retrenchment must be pursued to stem the time of depression.

~~Closer cooperation with all Baptist boards in foreign mission work.~~

He spoke commendably of the Tide Water Woman's organization and of the Woman's Auxiliary, also of the District of Columbia. Dr. Randolph pressed his claims with unusual force for a greater interest in the cause of missions.

"March on" was the climax of his great message.

By motion the report of the Executive Board and the report of the Cor. Sec'y be considered separately.

By motion the report of the Cor. Sec., was adopted.

By motion the report of the Executive was considered.

By motion the question of a full time secretary was adopted as follows: 23 for full time 16 opposing.

1. Nebuchadnezzar's Dream.

2. The dream found and interpreted as follows:

I. The stone cut out without hands.

II. Divine Origin of coming Kingdom.

(a) Earthly Kingdoms built by human skill.

III. Insignificant beginning.

(a) Small Stone.

(b) Mustard seed.

(c) Leaven.

(d) Christ's humble beginning.

(e) Followers humble.

(f) Seat of action small, Palestine.

(g) Mode of operation small.

IV. The Spread of the Kingdom.

(a) Indestructability of truth.

(b) The Kingdom aggressive and powerful.

(c) The onward sweep of the Kingdom of Christ.

V. The Kingdom's Conquering Force.

(a) The ultimate conquest of the Kingdom.

(b) Its purifying effect.

 - (b) Holy Spirit the vitalizing power.
 - (c) Ours to proclaim, His to vitalize.

THURSDAY AFTERNOON

3:00. Devotions conducted by Rev. Clement and Rev. Ellis.

Annual Sermon.

Rev. C. M. Long presented Rev. S. H. James of Baltimore to preach the annual sermon. Rev. James chose as text Luke 16:2, 3.

Subject: "The Stewardship of Missions."

He set forth the following:

I. The Unjust steward set aside.

1. Customs of the times.
2. What stewardship implies.
3. Christ has delegated his work to us.
4. The church the evangelizing force.
5. Our poor record in Missions.

II. To whom Responsible--Jesus.

1. He has given us his program.
2. Missionary program put into operation by Christ himself.

3. Living his life through us.
4. A life of investment.
5. His love re-acts and causes us to love his work.

III. What shall we do about it?

1. Religion needs to be made real.
2. Mission work the chief object of the church.
3. Day of opportunity for missions.
4. The church weakened in her rush for material things.

IV. Conclusion:

1. Day of reckoning coming.
2. The church needs a new vision of her God appointed task.
3. Jesus Christ the world's greatest need.

This sermon like the preceding one was also very strong and powerfully delivered.

Dr. W. T. Johnson motioned that a vote of thanks be given Bro. James for the excellently prepared message.

Round Table Discussion led by Dr. J. H. Wynn, Texas. Dr. Wynn stated that the main work of the church as set forth in Luke 15 is to look after the lost sheep, the lost coin and the lost boy.

People who are lost to the churches' program are to be sought and found and placed into it. Many a church member is lost to world wide mission sitting in the pews of our churches.

Religious education needed. Few really know Christ. To know him and to know about him is quite different.

Systematic teaching the best method.

Love the motor power.

Holy Spirit has little to do now about sending preachers. God sent preachers to look after God's work.

All horn of God will hear the shepherd. God looks out for his servants.

No let up in the search.

The pastor, the key man to the church.

Strong appeal for missionary zeal.

He recommended the institute and teaching plan for financing the church and her objects.

God's work not dependent on numbers.

This address was one of deep impression and struck the hearts of the people.

Dr. F. W. Williams offered a motion that a standing vote of thanks be given Dr. Wynn for his most powerful message.

Report of Committee on Officers.

By motion of Dr. W. L. Ransome, the report was adopted with the name of C. E. Sallie, Pa., being submitted in place of J. A. Reid, Pa., for Vice President.

By motion of Dr. G. W. Watkins the Cor. Sec. be given thirty days to decide upon the question of giving full time service. This motion was amended and extended to ninety days.

Dr. O. S. Jones offered a substitute motion that in case the Cor. Sec. fails to decide within ninety days the matter be left in the hand of the Executive Committee. (Carried.)

By motion the following church was granted membership in this body; Bethlehem Baptist Church, Newark, N. J., Rev. S. A. Wilson, pastor.

Devotionals conducted by Rev. L. T. Hughes and Rev. Tyre.

PROCEEDINGS THIRTY-FIFTH ANNUAL SESSION

Minutes of previous session read and by motion approved.

Miss Sims sang a selection: "He is the joy of my salvation."

Inspirational Sermon.

By Dr. W. L. Hamilton.

Dr. Hobbs presented the speaker who expressed delight at the privilege of preaching on this occasion.

He selected as his text, "Go ye into all the world."

Subject: "Some of the Fundamentals of Missionary Endeavor."

I. He set forth the difference between a legal command and a spiritual command.

- (a) People are trying to carry out the command by substitution, but it does not excuse them.
- (b) The Holy Spirit must be given the place he is to occupy in our lives, following which he then commands.
- (c) Legal and spiritual systems discussed.
- (d) Christ came to earth in interest of souls. The history of the saints is the unfolding of this same spirit.

II. Missionary Zeal Emphasized.

- (a) The great and primary need in the prosecution of mission work is not money, but a burning zeal and love for the cause.
- (b) People will respond if their hearts are stirred by the Spirit.
- (c) We should become thoroughly acquainted with the missionary program.

III. The church's chief task is the evangelizing of all nations.

- (a) Indifference to missions is a serious back-set to Negro Christians.
- (b) If we neglect the task our churches will dry up and die.
- (c) Strong appeal for a new baptism in missionary zeal.

The sermon was forcefully delivered and Bro. Hamilton was thanked by the convention for his masterful message.

Solo by Miss Sims.

FRIDAY NIGHT

Missionary Mass Meeting.

Dr. J. H. Randolph, presiding.

8:00 o'clock. Music "I am thine oh Lord" was sung.

Prayer by Dr. S. L. Parham.

President Brown again visited the convention, being brought to the front in his rolling chair as the convention stood.

Dr. A. L. James made special recognition of Dr. Brown's presence and then presented Cor. Sec., Dr. Randolph to serve as master of ceremonies.

Dr. Randolph then with timely remarks introduced Mrs. Cora Pair Thomas, who for twenty-three years has been serving under Lott Carey Board in South Africa as missionary. Mrs. Thomas began her address by expressing thanks to God for the high privilege of serving him in foreign fields.

She gave a very glowing account of the work she and her husband are doing in evangelizing and training the children at their Brewerville Station. She assured this convention that it is doing a great work in Africa and she offered special praise to the support of the Baptist women of North Carolina, who have supported her for several years through our board.

The gospel has wrought great changes within the twenty-three years of mission work. A church-building has been erected and great crowds gather with high enthusiasm. Two hundred pupils are enrolled in the school, most all of whom are Christians. Boys and girls are very receptive to Christian training and higher culture. She made an earnest appeal for financial aid to not only carry on but to enlarge the work.

"Set your affections on things above, not on things on the earth," was her message to America, she declared. With deep earnestness she sent her message to the hearts of the vast audience.

Mrs. Boaz A. Harris, Missionary to Haiti was introduced. She was highly pleased to greet us and report great success during her eleven years with her husband in Haiti. She reported that 3,000 heathen have accepted Christ under the administration of her husband. Her remarks though brief were very much enjoyed.

Dr. A. W. Brown, presented Dr. Booz A. Harris, missionary to Haiti.

In his introductory remarks Dr. Brown gave a vivid and thrilling experience he had on a visit to Haiti last year in company with Drs. Randolph and Bullock. He also paid a very high tribute to the great influence of Rev. Harris among all classes in Haiti.

Rev. Harris thanked the supporters of his work, especially the Baptists of New Jersey and the White Rock Baptist Church, Durham, for the purpose of a site for $1,000.00 and $480.00 annually. Sixth Mt. Zion, Richmond pays the salary of a young man on his field.

He also uttered words of esteem and honor to President Brown, who influenced him to go to Haiti.

He brought greetings from sixteen stations and more than three thousand Christians.

He spoke of Christ's program and the important duty of performing it faithfully. He related experiences through which he had passed and saw clearly the hand of God sustaining him.

Great success has attended his efforts. A church building being erected to seat more than a thousand. This is a bright day for protestantism.

The address was full of information and greatly stirred the body.

REPORTS

COMMITTEE ON PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS

The Committee on President's Address begs to submit the following report:

Your committee takes this opportunity to make reference to the presence of our president, Dr. C. S. Brown, who in his afflictions of body and diminished strength has brought a benediction and blessing to this convention. The address made by him through his distinguished daughter lacked nothing in vigor of expression of a missionary statesman. The committee regards the address of our president as expressive of that which will redound to the progress and permanent good of the Lott Carey Foreign Missionary Convention.

The Committee recommends the adoption of the proposals made by the president.

1. That the position of the Corresponding Secretary shall be made a full time office.

2. That steps be taken to form contact with Rev. Polor, once a missionary of this Convention.

3. That the Lott Carey Herald shall be issued from the Headquarters in Washington and the same to begin with the October number of 1932.

PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS

Officers, Members and Friends of the Junior and Intermediate Department:

We are assembled here in the Lott Carey Foreign Mission Convention. We have come under the stress of difficult circumstances to consider the momentous things of the kingdom. It is no light thing to call such a group of people from their homes and customary duties and, therefore this gathering must have some justification, some reason that rises from an emergency or that presses itself by sheer force of obligation upon the attention of the church.

The Supreme purpose of the church of Christ is to extend itself by and through its present established leaders. To neglect or disregard the great command of Jesus is to forfeit the promise that he will be with us always, to the end of time. Our very nature as a Christian church obligates us to bring to men and women everywhere the Christian message of forgiveness and peace and to share Christian experiences and achievements with our brother throughout the whole world.

For the accomplishment of their purpose, the Baptists have established the Lott Carey Foreign Mission Convention, which through its administrative functions and by its many gifted and self-sacrificing missionaries working the United States and other lands, is lifting up Christ as the only Saviour of the world. It is bringing to the attention of the Church the sore spots and their neglected places, among the world's teeming millions. It is enlisting the youth of the church in the spiritual conquest of the world in Jesus' name. It is that of counseling the church concerning pending problems, to cry out against national and individual evils and to direct attention to materialistic tendencies and social attitudes which hinder or advance the kingdom of God. The aims and purposes of this Convention are in line with and grow out of these functions.

More specifically the objectives of the Convention are thus mentioned. Missionary activity is not the same activity that occupied our energies a generation ago; the spread of culture in now Christian lands has provided a new environment in which our missionaries must work, and give rise to new problems which they must meet. "Who is equal to the task? It can be attempted only by the whole church united and determined." Our need is not wisdom but power, not organization, but consecration, not plans but a passion for souls, not money but sacrifice, not temporal things but the touch of the living spirit of God. We must revitalize the great commission of our Lord in our own hearts and republish it through the church. We must consider and decide whether we are true to God, whether our task is finished, and what our future course will be.

Our first problem is the financing of the Christian movement. It is not amazing to discover that the economic depression has caused a serious decrease in our giving to Christian benevolence beyond our local congregation, but it was our hope that during this convention we shall see with clearer vision the imperative need and call for a program that will challenge the greatest liberality of our people for the advancement of the kingdom in the whole world.

Again, we are here to consider the missionary spirit in the church. Are we really informed concerning the condition of the world? Since we are informed are we ready to revitalize the Great Commission by going and sending? Has there not settled down upon us the influence of the materialistic and secular forces of the age? It is not easy to fit the Christian idealism and the spiritual aims of the kingdom of God into the prevailing methods and ideals of industry, commerce or politics. We have wanted to call our civilization in America a Christian civilization. I would not detract from the mighty influence Christianity has had upon our country. Many things in our national, social, economic and political life may be called Christian, but our civilization as a whole cannot be termed Christian. All about us is a mode of life and a development of society which is distinctly secular even pagan. It is organized. It is rapable of propagation and its votaries are numbered by the millions.

Its aim is the possession of material wealth and pursuit of pleasure. When this captures imagination of man he becomes thoroughly secularized and little time is left for the inponderable and invisible realities of the kingdom of God.

It behooves this great convention to face the facts that there has sprung in our midst another great foe to the Christian movement and onward advance of the kingdom of God. We must capture the forces of civilization transform them, regenerate them, bring them into subservience to the kingdom of God. Only so can we make that kingdom stretch from shore to shore and insure that the earth shall finally be as full of the knowledge and glory of the Lord as the waters that cover the sea.

I am sure the Junior and Intermediate department appreciates the encouragement given them by Dr. C. S. Brown and members of the parent body and Mrs. A. B. Randolph and members of the Woman's Auxiliary. We are very grateful to our Sup. Mrs. O. S. Bullock, for her untiring efforts in striving to develop this department.

I wish to recommend the following: (1) That we study more closely the working of the parent body so that we will be efficient when the time comes for us to enter into the adult organization. Secondly, that we ask of the parent body to furnish literature that will give us sufficient information for future guidance and development. Thirdly, that each Junior Circle have a missionary study class assembling bi-monthly enabling us to get a larger group to work on the missionary activities of the world.

Respectfully submitted,

BENNETTA C. BULLOCK.

Officers, Members of the Junior and Intermediate Department to the Woman's Auxiliary of the Lott Carey Convention:

We are most grateful and happy to meet together again and greet each other in another annual session of this great convention. In such times of financial depression and disaster we are drawn closer together that we may give thanks to our heavenly Father and encourage one another to greater effort.

This office is peculiarly acquainted with the struggles, failures and successes of the local organizations, and hence we have a deeper appreciation of the situation. In view of this fact, we desire to suggest to the representatives from various circles certain things which they should carry back to their local circles.

For years we have insisted upon quarterly contributions as being vitally necessary for the progress of the work. Because of the financial stress, and in spite of it, we must strive for this method of giving. We repeat that the need is greater now than ever before, that our missionaries must not be forgotten during the course of the year, that we must spur ourselves on to great daily effort. This can be done only through concentrated and consecrated leadership in each local body. We are making a personal and individual appeal to each delegate and officer present here today to return to the home circle with a determination to follow the work closely each day of the year. Endeavor to carry the information and inspiration received at the convention and convey it continuously to your local circle. Set forth the plan of contributions for each quarter and urge the carrying out of this plan.

Certain circles have responded nobly each quarter to the appeal of the Supervisor and Corresponding Secretary. We wish to extend to these circles our heartiest congratulations and appreciation. We know that they have struggled to carry out these requests, that they have had to overcome discouragement of all kinds. However the joy which they now feel as the result of labor well done and tasks completed, will compensate in a large way for the effort expended.

Other circles have not responded each quarter, but have endeavored to send some contribution to show that they are interested in the work. To them we give our hearty appreciation and urge them to better this year's record for the ensuing year. We all receive our blessings in proportion to our effort and interest. Let us hope that every circle will be showered with blessings for the coming year.

The following is the report of those circles which have responded to the appeal this year.

How thankful every one should be to the Almighty God for keeping and guiding us safely through another year.

TREASURER'S REPORT

Oh give thanks unto the Lord, for he is good, for his mercies endureth forever.

How thankful every one should be to the Almighty God for keeping and guiding us safely through another year.

The report for this year has not measured up as we have desired, however I am sure we are not discouraged. We realize the effects of the depression which has been known and felt throughout the land.

I wish to state to the Circles of this department who have not been able to contribute as they have desired. Look upward and trust him on high for who knows what that another year might present to us a brighter and a larger, prosperity.

I most heartily thank all who have made a contribution this year to this department.

PROCEEDINGS

Washington, D. C., Sept. 1, 1932.

The Woman's Auxiliary to the Lott Carey Foreign Mission Convention met in its thirty-second annual session with the Shiloh Baptist Church, corner 9th and P Sts., Washington, D. C., Dr. E. L. Harrison, pastor. The Auxiliary sessions were held at the Vermont Avenue Baptist Church.

At 9:40 A. M. the session opened with praise service conducted by Sisters Ella Brooks, D. C.; Josephine Mitchell, Va.; L. L. Walker, N. C.; F. D. Pratt, Pa. Opened by singing "How Firm a Foundation." Scripture lesson 103 Ps. Prayer by Sister Walker. We next sang, "Awake My Soul." We were then led in prayer by Sister Brooks.

Song, "Never Alone." We were then led in prayer by Sister Mitchell and sang "Leaning on the Everlasting Arms." Sister Brooks then announced the meeting open for general testimony.

Many sisters testified in song and prayer, and the Spirit of God was much in evidence.

At the close of the praise service Mrs. Randolph, the president, came forward and greeted the sisters in her usual way. She urged the delegates to remain in the meeting for serving on different committees.

She next asked the choir members from the different churches to form a conventional choir.

She stated that four young ladies had been chosen to furnish the music for the Convention: Miss N. E. Bullock, Miss E. Ricks, Miss Carolyn Hallman and Miss M. Ross.

The president read a communication from the Dollar Dry Cleaning Co., wishing us success in our Kingdom-building and presenting us a beautiful basket of flowers.

Miss Whetts brought two little girls dressed in white to serve as "pages" for us.

The choir sang very sweetly, "I Need Thee Every Hour" and "Bringing in the Sheaves."

The Convention adopted the programs as presented by the President.

Welcome Addresses:

On behalf of Vermont Avenue Baptist Church—Mrs. Iller L. Derricote.

On behalf of Shiloh Baptist Church—Mrs. P. H. Donoho.

In view of the absence of Mrs. Naomi Dabney, who was to respond to the welcome address, Mrs. Mattie E. Rux, B. H. A. I. School, Keysville, Va., responded. The welcomes were cordial and sincere and graciously received.

The Corresponding Secretary, Dr. Randolph, asked permission of the Convention for the men to relieve themselves of their coats because of the oppressive heat. A vote prevailed granting the permission.

Dr. E. L. Harrison, pastor of Shiloh Baptist Church and Dr. C. T. Murray, pastor of Vermont Avenue Baptist Church were introduced and spoke some very encouraging remarks and wished for us much success in winning the world for Christ. Dr. Murray closed his remarks with a beautiful poem on Women.

The choir sang, "On Christ the Solid Rock I Stand."

Appointment of Committees:

Committee on Enrollment.

Committee on Finance.

The president at this point presented the officers of the Lott Carey Baptist Foreign Mission and National Baptist Convention:

Dr. W. T. Johnson, Chr. Board.

Dr. W. L. Ransom, Vice-Pres.

Dr. A. A. Graham was presented, who spoke at will.

Dr. J. H. Hughes, Treasurer, was presented.

Dr. E. E. Ricks, Auditor.

Dr. W. H. Stokes, Editor, spoke words of thanksgiving to God and friends for having been restored to a reasonable portion of health, having been so near death. After a few remarks by the president in response to the brethren, Mrs. C. C. Weaver, Vice-President, took the chair and asked the choir to sing.

The choir sang, "Standing on the Promises."

The chairman in very pleasing terms introduced our President, Mrs. J. H. Randolph, for her annual address.

After some preliminary remarks she said, we have been convinced that we can do all things through Christ who strengthens us.

She mentioned the stations on the foreign fields and the workers who have charge of them and said if they are willing to make such great sacrifices, what about us. We grow as we labor.

She commended Mrs. Holman and the Juniors and Intermediates who put over the wonderful Missionary Pageant Tuesday night, "World Service."

She mentioned every phase of the work and gave an itemized account of the articles sent up for the Thanksgiving Shower and the boxes sent to the workers on the field.

She mentioned the fact that a bundle of clothes is laid aside for Dr. and Mrs. Boag A. Harris to take back to Haiti with them, and a gift of $20.00 sent to them.

She asked if some would rise up and pledge to support other workers on the field whose support has not been assured.

She also urged us to work on, pray on, and fight on. The God of our Salvation will bring a sure reward.

She stated that there were legal reasons why the building had been delayed.

She invited Mrs. Cora P. Thomas, the returned missionary from Africa, to demonstrate just how the children are gotten for the Mission Station.

Mrs. Thomas had a rude hut, resembling the huts the natives live in in Africa. She also had a mother and children thinly clad living in the hut.

The Missionary visited the hut carrying an armful of clothing and made acquaintance with the mother and offered to put clothes on the children. This pleased the mother and children greatly, and after each child had been dressed, then the mother and children sat on the mat and listened to the story of Jesus, and the mother gladly gave the children to the Missionary for the Mission School.

After the demonstration Mrs. Thomas made a strong appeal to all of us, urging that we do more than ever before for the cause of Missions.

Next came a report from a special committee appointed by the Chairman of the Executive Board, authorizing the President to make such a recommendation as she desired to make.

The Report, read by Mrs. Rebecca Gray:

Whereas, the president of our body has brought to our minds some very important matters pertaining to the progress of the work, We, your special committee from the Executive Board, have carefully considered what was set before us and submit to this auxiliary body the following:

Lord let me live from day to day
In such a self-forgetful way,
That even when I kneel to pray
My thoughts shall be of others.

The thought expressed in these lines seems to be one of the outstanding virtues of our president. It seems that for months she has thought and prayed over the heavy weight and responsibility resting upon the parent body and she has come to her Board asking permission to lighten that burden.

The Board, knowing that as an auxiliary, we are to help in whatever our hands find to do, gladly grants her request to do the thing which has so lain upon her heart. This Committee, therefore, desires so to report, and expresses its entire approval of the procedure to be followed as suggested by the President.

Submitted, Committee,

MRS. A. ELIZABETH WEEKS

MRS. REBECCA GRAY

MRS. W. T. JOHNSON

MRS. ORA B. STOKES.

At the conclusion of the report from the Special Committee, the president proceeded with her address and recommended that the Auxiliary give to the Parent Body $10,000, the amount they owed us for which we held notes, and that the notes be burned then and there in the presence of the Convention assembled.

Mrs. W. T. Johnson stepped forward, struck the match and burned the notes, the ashes of which are preserved in an urn and kept at headquarters.

This was made the Thirty-fifth Anniversary gift to the Lott Carey Convention.

Mrs. A. E. Weeks was then asked to present to Dr. C. S. Brown, President of the Convention since its organization, a basket of flowers as a 35th Anniversary gift to him for his faithful and loyal service. Though very feeble and brought in in a roller chair it cheered him much and gave him fresh courage.

All of this was a part of the President's Annual Address.

Dr. J. H. Randolph, Corresponding Secretary of the Lott Carey Convention, was happily surprised and so expressed himself. Dr. W. T. Johnson, Chairman of the Executive Board, spoke words of joy and appreciation for the gift and extended a vote of thanks.

Dr. C. S. Brown, though very sick, was filled with enthusiasm and caught fresh courage and made some very strong missionary remarks, and would have preached a sermon if the president had allowed. Though very sick, he said to the Convention, "I am the happiest man in the house and I believe I'm going to get well."

A motion prevailed that the President's address be placed in the hands of a committee:

COMMITTEE: Mrs. J. L. S. Holman, Mrs. W. T. Johnson, Miss M. E. Burwell, Mrs. O. S. Bullock, Mrs. W. T. Coleman.

After expressions of joy from different ones, with a rose in his hand from the basket, and while the Convention sang "Be Not Dismayed Whate'er Betide, God Will Take Care of You", Dr. Brown was rolled out by loving friends, followed by his daughter carrying the basket of flowers.

And thus passed into history the gift of $10,000 by the Auxiliary to the Parent Body.

Dismissed by Dr. G. O. Bullock.

At this point Mrs. Hobbs announced the meeting open and urged the sisters to enter heartily in the meeting with testimony and song.

The praise service was much enjoyed.

This service was beautifully carried out with the spirit of worship all through it.

The Theme of Worship: "God is the Father of all Mankind." The spirit of worship was beautifully brought out of the Negro National Anthem, by one of the ladies and Love Divine. The music displayed every touch of worship. The reading, "Why Didn't You Tell Us Sooner?" brought to the minds of us the great duty that rests upon us.

A motion prevailed that a vote of thanks be turned the ladies for the very wonderful service.

Presentation of visitors was next in order and many came forward who had never visited our Convention before. Some made a few remarks and pledged their loyalty and prayers for the success of the work.

After repeating the Mizpah, we were dismissed by Rev. Brown.

Night Session

Sept. 1, 1932.

Praise service conducted by Mrs. Kate Price, D. C.; Mrs. C. C. Weaver, N. C.; Mrs. M. J. Murphy, Pa.; Mrs. A. L. Sprattling, Ohio; Mrs. Mattie C. Braxton, Va.

Service opened by singing, "Jesus Keep Me Near The Cross" and "He Leadeth Me O Blessed Thought."

Scripture lesson 86 Ps. Prayer was offered by Mrs. Katie Price, after which the congregation arose and sang "Stand Up For Jesus."

At this point Mrs. Braxton announced the meeting open and asked the members to join heartily into the service, which they did.

At the close of praise service the President came forward and asked the officers to come forward and then invited the minister and his associates to the pulpit.

The congregation joined in, and sang with the Spirit "Jerusalem the Golden." Scripture lesson Matt. 6:19-24 was read by Dr. Boaz A. Harris, returned missionary from Haiti.

Led in prayer by Dr. G. O. Bullock. Music furnished by Senior Choir of Shiloh Baptist Church.

Choir sang anthem, "Just As I Am" beautifully.

The President, in very choice words, introduced Dr. McDowell, pastor Eighth Street Baptist Church, Lynchburg, Va., who had been chosen to preach our annual sermon.

He said he wondered if we did not think more of our Lott Carey Convention than we did of Jesus Christ. He advised that we think more of Jesus and follow Him all the way. You and I have missed so much in life for not following Him all the way, he said.

Text, Matt. 6:21, "For where your treasure is there will your heart be also. Subject, "The Church."

He said we spend so much time working on the organization we fail to tell about Jesus.

Don't wait to get fixed, Jesus helped as he passed by.

Our job is to get our heart in the cause of Mission and if we get our heart there, then there we will put our treasure.

We have turned our churches into feasting places instead of fasting places; and instead of praying places, paying places.

Only those who do the will of our Father shall be saved.

Loyalty to Jesus takes hold of the Christian and compels him to do missions.

"For where your treasure is there will your heart be also."

The Bible is the final source of religion. It was the studying of the Bible that sent the missionaries to all parts of the world.

Stop and think what would have happened if Paul had gone East instead of West. His program was to go East but God said go West. Follow God instead of your program.

After impressions, come expressions, out of the heart are the issues of life. We cannot win Africa and Haiti by giving the left-overs, the pennies, but give God the first fruit, the best. God does not want the left-overs.

Jesus says, if you put your treasure there your heart will be there also.

We find that in the earliest history some of the best scholars were Negroes or black men, but their failure was due to the fact that they lived for themselves and cared not for their brother.

Why should I give to others when I need it myself? Because I am a Christian.

Let us see to it that our treasures shall be moved from home to Africa, Haiti and other heathen lands, for where our treasure is, there will our heart be also.

The treasure of Jesus was down among the unsaved and there his heart was.

And may the Woman's Auxiliary place their treasures in Africa and Haiti, for where your treasure is there will your heart be also.

After a few comments by the President on the wonderful sermon, she then asked Dr. Hughes and Dr. Ransome to take the collection: Amount $65.68.

A motion prevailed that a vote of thanks be extended the minister for the wonderful message delivered and the choir for the most excellent music rendered.

After some announcements we sang Doxology.

Dismissed by Rev. Dr. McDowell.

Many sisters joined in short prayers. Song, "All the Way My Saviour Leads Me." Praise service ended. The president took the chair. Report from the delegates was called for.

Many delegates brought greetings from their circles and organizations which they represented. They reported much success.

Several visitors were introduced, spoke words of praise and interest. Mrs. Cora Pair Thomas told of the Mission Circle in Brewerville, which assembled just before she left and presented her with a beautiful quilt made by Mrs. J. C. Hayes, the widow of the late Rev. J. O. Hayes.

Mrs. Rebecca J. Gray, D. C., came forward and conducted a symposium.

General Theme: "Safeguarding the Future of the Church."

Holding the interest of and adding to the membership of the church was discussed by Mrs. Sarah Brown Marks, Raleigh, N. C.

How?

1. By having wide-awake pastors or ministers.
The minister is the pivot around which every auxiliary moves.
2. By making the church and services attractive and inspiring.
Be especially mindful of visitors and strangers.
Have a plenty of music. Let all the people sing.
3. Advertise your church services; make use of your newspapers and bulletin boards.
4. By recognizing the young people.
Organize Jr. and Young People's Choirs.
Use in clubs and work with them.
5. By organizing the church into Missionary groups.
Each group consists of members living in different territories.
Be on the lookout for new families moving in your neighborhood.

Once a month have all the groups to meet together.

Finally to interest and add to the church, we must be interested ourselves and find joy in service so that others may see Jesus in us.

"Lift Him up by living as a Christian ought,
Let the world in you the Saviour see;
Then men will gladly follow Him who once taught
I will draw all men unto me."

This was a very wonderful paper and well rendered, and is well worth the study of every church.

The next topic: "Religious Education and Training of the Youth of the Church"—Mrs. Fannie E. Morton, Pa.

1. Missionary Education—

The capacity for religious education is inborn.

Every normal child bears in his soul the inborn inclination for religion.

You must know what the child knows before you can train him.

2. Develop the right attitude.

3. Create skill in living.

It is simply the training.

Teach them to pray for definite needs.

Help him to know his needs.

4. Train him in giving.

Let us see to it that we guard sacredly that which He has committed to our trust.

There were many good thoughts in the paper.

After some discussion and favorable comments on the Symposium it was motioned and carried that the papers read by the two ladies be printed in the Lott Carey Herald.

A motion of thanks was extended Mrs. Gray, Mrs. Marks and Mrs. Morton for such helpful discussions.

With a few closing remarks by the president, we sang "Blest Be The Tie," etc., and tarried one with the other.

Closing prayer—Rev. E. L. Harrison, Pastor Shiloh Baptist Church.

Thus closed the 32nd Annual Session of the Woman's Auxiliary to the Lott Carey Foreign Mission Convention.

MRS. A. B. RANDOLPH, President.

MRS. A. ELIZABETH WEEKS, Secretary.

COOPERATION IN THE FURTHERANCE OF THE KINGDOM OF OUR MASTER

At Pittsburgh, last year, Dr. C. T. Murray, the pastor of the Vermont Avenue Baptist Church, in which we have the honor to assemble at this hour, expressed himself as being greatly pleased with the spirit of our organization and the work which we are doing, and when it was evident that we would come to Washington, in this session of our Convention, he and his good officers gladly opened their doors to us, and we have accepted the same and appreciate the cordiality extended to us.

Just 35 years ago, in the great Shiloh Baptist Church, then located on L. Street, between 15th and 16th Sts., N. W., was organized this body of Christian workers, who saw the need of doing Foreign Mission work in a more concrete form; and that means for such a purpose should be used in a more economic way than was previously done by the brotherhood, in general.

Perhaps our ideals along these lines have not given to us all the satisfaction desired, nevertheless, it is evident that we have made marked progress in this direction. Through faith and prayer, we have been kept by our heavenly Father in the attitude of portraying the life and work of our Saviour, as a Convention, in this and other countries; on account of which, we have been able to build an institution which has wrought well in its chosen line of endeavor.

We have gathered about us, men and women beyond the average in vision and faith, who have sought to magnify Christ by sacrificial labor and love. We thank God for the survivors present, who were in the organization of our Convention whose interest has not lagged through these years of toil and labor.

The keeping together of these survivors, reinforced by other faithful workers, and the work which has been accomplished, is a true sign that God has been, and is still with us. We have overcome difficulties by relying fully upon Him for power, patience, and perseverance, losing sight of ourselves, believing that we can do all things through Christ which strengthens us.

We have operated Foreign Mission Stations in Africa, Haiti, India, and Russia. At present, our outstanding work is being done in Liberia, West Coast Africa; Idutywa, South Africa, and Haiti. At these points the principles of the Christian religion are being disseminated by consecrated men and women, who daily apply themselves to a common program of intellectual, spiritual and industrial training of the people, as well as the personal contributions of many of them which enhance the value of their respective Stations.

If our workers on the Foreign Field are willing to make such sacrifices, how much more should we be willing to give a portion of our means for the uplift of mankind, and thereby put into full operation, a larger and finer program for World-wide Redemption. If our foundation for such a Cause is built upon love, honest convictions and a conscience void of selfishness, stinginess and greed, then the Spirit of the Master will lead us to do greater and nobler deeds.

We are His co-workers; we are His heirs; we are His armour-bearers; and Christ needs us to espouse His Cause that His program may be complete. We need Him every hour. He needs us, because He gave His life for us. He needs us, because we have accepted Him as our Saviour. He needs us to work in His vineyard—the harvest is great but the laborers are few.

He needs us to work in the homeland, and to send the Gospel to Foreign lands that souls may be saved. It is our duty to improve the precious moments allotted us in Kingdom-building, Spiritual uplift, and service, for we grow as we serve. Let us enter into the beautiful garden of prayer, where Jesus is waiting to receive us, that we might learn from Him, His will, that it may be done in earth as it is in Heaven.

OUR YOUNG PEOPLE.

On Tuesday evening the Junior Department of the District Branch to the Woman's Auxiliary to the Convention, presented, under the direction of Mrs. J. L. S. Holloman, a Pageant—"World Service"—which was well depicted by the different characters, and very appropriate for the opening session of the Convention. Much credit is due Mrs. Holloman and those who took a part.

JUNIOR AND INTERMEDIATE DEPARTMENT OF THE AUXILIARY

Another year has come and we rejoice to see such a splendid showing of our young people, who have come to present their work which has always been commendable and greatly appreciated by the Senior Body. We believe in them; we count on them; and look forward to them for future leadership and consecrated service. The Superintendent and her staff of workers should feel proud of this Department, and strive, in every way, to develop and train them that they may be influential in their homes, churches and communities in which they live.

DISTRICT BRANCH OF THE AUXILIARY

The District Branch of Washington held its Second Annual Conference April 20, 22, 1932. The speakers brought to us wholesome addresses which were enjoyed by all. The interest is steadily growing, and we feel that much will be accomplished through this Conference. The Branch, itself, is steadily growing, under the leadership of Mrs. G. O. Bullock. Under the supervision of Mrs. Holloman, the children of the Junior Department are kept together and are being trained for future service.

By invitation I attended two Meetings of the Auxiliary to the Deacon's Association of Washington, D. C., Mrs. Priscilla Ross, President. This organization is composed of 296 members; 196 active. I was asked to give the report from the Convention and to address them at their Meeting on Woman's Day, at which time a splendid sum was raised for Missions.

I attended the Woman's Auxiliary to the Baptist Convention of the District of Columbia and Vicinity and addressed them on a Program for Religious Education. The meeting was interesting and inspiring. For a number of years, Mrs. Sarah F. Lewis has presided over this body of women.

During the month of September, I had the pleasure of attending the Woman's District Convention, King William County, Va., of which Mrs. M. B. Holmes is President. The meeting, which was held only one day, was excellent, and much business was transacted. This body is ably supported by a strong band of influential women whose objectives are Educational, Home and Foreign Mission Work. This is a fertile field for broader and greater work in the extension of the Kingdom of God.

The meeting of the National Baptist Convention of America was largely attended. The sessions were interesting. I was invited to the platform by Dr. Hurse, who gave me an opportunity to speak. Their meeting will be held this year at Houston, Texas.

The food sent up for the Thanksgiving Shower was not as much as in former years; this was due to the stringent times and the needs on the home field.

SHIPMENT OF GOODS

One of the interesting features in connection with our Missionary Activities, is the preparing and sending away the food, goods and various articles sent up by you to the Convention and Headquarters for our Missionaries and Stations. I wonder sometimes, if you think of the sacrifice, and the time spent for this part of the work. It is by no means a small job, but one that requires much thought, that all concerned might be satisfied.

For a number of years, through your generosity, hearts have been gladdened by your liberal gifts. I wish that every one of you could be with us when the boxes are sent and join with us in song and prayer to God, beseeching Him to safeguard the boxes that they might reach their destination safely. Your eyes would fill with tears and your hearts give praises unto God for such a glorious opportunity to do good.

SPECIAL GIFTS

1 bed complete, by Mrs. Minnie King.

I wish to express my extermie gratitude to all of the Circles, Young People's Organizations and individuals, for these splendid gifts which are sent to cheer our workers and the large number of children who are under their care, and for contributions to the Headquarters. In the midst of the depression, God's watchful eye is ever upon them who love and fear Him. He cares for His own.

MINUTES.

This marks the second year in which Minutes have been sent out from the Office at the Lott Carey Headquarters. Number of Minutes sent out 1206; Number of Packages 375—many including the Secretary's Report. These were sent to Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Ohio, New York, Maryland, Rhode Island, Kansas, Texas, South Carolina, Indiana, West Virginia, Michigan, Georgia, Illinois, Colorado, Missouri, California, North Carolina, Virginia, Haiti, Africa, and Canada. There is still a large field in which our work should be made known. May I request you to notify the Corresponding Secretary if you do not receive Minutes and they will be sent to you.

Perhaps the readers of The Herald have seen the words "Laymen's Corner"—an appeal to contribute One Dollar, monthly, for Missions. This idea was expressed by Mr. J. H. Perkins, Elizabeth City, N. C., a member of the Convention. I think well of its because it gives an opportunity for people to give systematically. These would be individual gifts, which I would call "fit" in money. If $1200.00 could be collected by this method, soon our floating debts would be paid. Contribute to the Laymen's Corner and let the list be enlarged by your donation.

Laymen's Corner

UNFINISHED BUT NOT DISCONTINUED

Last year, in our Annual Meeting at Pittsburgh, an appeal was made for the Missionaries, who were unsupported. It was pleasing and gratifying to hear different ones say that they would support Mrs. F. B. Watson, Rev. Stubblefield, Mrs. M. L. Walker, but we have others who still remain unsupported—Rev. W. H. Thomas, Rev. and Mrs. C. M. Bryant, Miss Juah, Mr. Samuel Perkins. Who have come this year to say that we will support these Missionaries? Let us round up this feature of our work.

REASONS FOR NOT PROCEEDING WITH THE BUILDING PROGRAM IN LIBERIA, AS DIRECTED BY THE AUXILIARY AND AGREED UPON BY OUR OWN BOARD.

The investigations made in reference to the legal status of the property on which we contemplated building, is not satisfactory, because of certain stipulations in the Deed, and therefore, we regard it advisable to seek further into that matter, as well as other matters in connection with our building program in Liberia.

J. W. RANDOLPH, Corresponding Secretary.

Our circle has been broken by the demise of many of our workers, some officers, and other strong supporters in the great Cause of Missions. "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord, for their works do follow them."

FUNERALS ATTENDED

Dr. J. H. Blackwell, Dr. F. B. Mitchell, and the Chairman of our Executive Board, Mrs. Bettie G. Cousins. We loved her, but God took her unto himself—Sleep on. Through others, I learned of the deaths of Mrs. Lucy Thompson, Mrs. Frances Murray, Mrs. Josephine Jones, Mrs. Nickens—all of these faithful and contributed much for the salvation of souls.

We are happy to know that the Missionaries, who sailed, reached Africa and are now rejoicing over the work which is theirs to do.

We welcome the Missionaries, Rev. Boaz A. Harris, Mrs. Harris and the girls who have come with them. From the shores of Africa, we welcome Mrs. W. H. Thomas, who has been away for 40 years and returns to stay a short while. These Missionaries, by their presence, will add much to the success of our Annual Meeting.

My Sisters: Let us march boldly onward, expecting great things from God, for we are the children of the King, who holdeth the wealth of the world in His hands and will not let the work fail which He has entrusted to our care.

Go back to your homes with a strong determination to redouble your efforts in winning souls for Christ and gathering in means for the support of the Gospel, that the children of men may be brought to God—Work on, pray on, fight on, and the God of our salvation will bring to full fruition the desires of our hearts.

Since the organization of the Lott Carey Convention and the organizing of the Woman's Auxiliary, both have worked together for the extension of the Kingdom of God. The women have helped in every way. Today, as you meet in the church in which you were organized, and because of stringent times which confront us, as a Convention, I recommended to the Executive Board that as a Birthday Gift, we relieve the Parent Body of any, and all obligations in the repayment of all loans made to them by this Auxiliary; we therefore, present to the Corresponding Secretary of the Parent Body the cancelled notes held against them by this Auxiliary. (Corresponding Secretary accepts the notes.) To make as a visible proof of the wiping out of these debts, we request the Corresponding Secretary to place them in this receptacle. (Mrs. W. T. Johnson; Corresponding Secretary, Dr. J. H. Randolph; Treasurer, Dr. J. H. Hughes, at this time burned these notes).

I further recommend, that since we have learned of the heavy indebtedness of The Herald, that One Hundred Fifty Dollars be given to Dr. W. H. Stokes, to be paid on the debt of The Herald.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 2, 1932.

We, your Committee on President's Address, beg to submit the following report:

That we accept the address as presented to the convention, that it be published in full in our minutes. We fully endorse the recommendations to give to Lott Carey Herald on debt $150.

We further wish to commend our president for her thoughtful interest in the work as a whole in the Lott Carey Convention, and recommend that a special vote of thanks be given her for leading us up to the splendid program as given during the time of her address, in the cancelling the debt and burning the notes due us, thereby giving to the Lott Carey Convention the amount of $10,000.

We further recommend, that our president visit such missionary bodies that she feels will be profitable to the missionary cause during the year at the expense of this auxiliary. That she may infuse her missionary spirit and encourage others in the great work of kingdom-building.

MRS. W. T. COLEMAN
MRS. O. S. BULLOCK
MISS M. A. BURWELL.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 2, 1932.

We, your Committee on Education, beg leave to make its report:

The present church status convinces us that we have need to emphasize Religious Education if we hope to have our future workers imbued with the missionary spirit, and adjust their lives to Bible patterns; that they may be trained in evangelism and be willing to go forth or send forth their influence to evangelize the world.

We face alarming conditions in the field now when we note the departure of many of our coworkers from former landmarks their slothfulness in responding to missionary appeals.

Whereas, we know that the Word of God in its purity is all sufficient to bring the minds of men back to normality and truth, and,

Whereas, we realize a need of more efficient workers on both the home and foreign fields, be it resolved.

First, That we urge our people to obey the divine injunction of 2 Tim. 2:15, "Study to show thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth."

Second, That we urge our people to make an intensive and prayerful study of the Bible. Let its truths be their guide in all their activities. Let its teachings so govern our procedures that they may always be to the interest of their fellowmen and for the extension of the Master's kingdom on earth.

Third, That we continue to cherish the hope of having a Missionary Training School established in Washington, D. C., such a school as pictured in the Educational Report for 1930 and 1931.

We, your Committee on Temperance, beg leave to submit the following report:

We are living in a critical age in which our government needs our hearty support to enforce temperance.

We your committee recommend to the body that "For love of Christ and in His name," let us bestir ourselves and our constituency to action in behalf of the loftiest moral experiment in modern times, the Eighteenth Amendment of the Constitution of the U. S. of America.

As Christians we should endeavor to enlist every man and woman to stay staunchly by the Eighteenth Amendment until it has been given a fair trial backed by adequate federal enforcement support.

Let no one say this is the zero hour of the Christian forces of America. Jesus Christ expects every Christian man and woman to do his or her Christian duty.

REPORT OF CORRESPONDING SECRETARY

Madam President, Officers, Members and Friends of the Woman's Auxiliary to the Lott Carey Baptist Foreign Mission Convention:

We deem this quite an honor and privilege to greet you in annual session once more in the nation's capital, this beautiful city of Washington. We greet you in the spirit of gratefulness, love and good fellowship. We are grateful to our heavenly Father, for the many blessings He has showered upon us, thus enabling us to render an account of our stewardship. In these distressing times of depression, we feel that God has greatly blessed our endeavors of service. We thank Him, and thank the many Circles for their cooperation and for the sacrifices they have made to make it possible for us to submit to you a financial report of which we are not ashamed. We also thank our loyal friends, who have given personal donations, for their cooperation and financial assistance, namely: Mrs. Jennie B. McGuinn, Brandy, Va.; Mrs. Sophia Parker, Roland Park, Md.; Mrs. Albertine Clark, Gastonia, N. C.; Mrs. Lucy White, Mrs. Bettie Taylor, Mrs. Christina Gaskins, Colerain, N. C. Mrs. Sarah Germany, New Orleans, La., is doing a very splendid work in getting others interested in this work of giving the Gospel to those who have it not. We have been promised by our efficient Editor, Dr. W. H. Stokes, a Missionary Course of Study, through the Lott Carey Herald. We sincerely hope this will be done for the coming year. This, my friends, is what we all need, by knowing the right way to put over a missionary program, will enable us to have better results. I am asking every delegate and all friends to subscribe to our Lott Carey Herald. Please do so during this session. This progressive age demands we should study God's word more. We have wandered too far from God and we must get back to Him, if we can even hope for better time. Let us get busy and do our very best in helping to put God's program over.

We have received several very encouraging letters from Mrs. F. B. Watson, Caresburg, Africa. The home-going of Mrs. Bettie G. Cousins, beloved Chairman of our Executive Board, was a shock to all. Because of her pleasant personality, her ever ready smile, and her sincere cordial manner, she is sadly missed. The passing of Mrs. Frances A. Murray and other faithful workers is very keenly felt.

We are very proud of our Junior and Intermediate Department. They are doing excellent under the supervision of their efficient superintendent, Mrs. M. C. Bullock, Raleigh, N. C. Again thanking you, dear sisters, for your love, your prayers, your loyalty and cooperation in rendering service for God and humanity. We are grateful for having spent another year in good stewardship and Christian endeavor.

We pray that in this session our program of work may be enlarged and some plan be set up by which men and women may feel the call of humanity, and go forth willing to render service in God's name.

Yours in His service,

M. L. PENN, Corresponding Secretary.
