If you are desirous of a true and faithful medium through which to convey your money systematically to needy Missionaries on the Foreign Field, consider the Lott Carey Baptist Foreign Mission Society. We give an official receipt for every dollar received and publish the amount and the name of the donor monthly in The Lott Carey Herald, the official organ of the Society; and besides, our fiduciary officers make a report quarterly to the Executive Committee and these reports are accurately audited by an efficient Accountant Committee and these reports are accurately audited by an efficient Accountant.

DR. C. S. BROWN, Winton, N. C. President

Dr. C. S. Brown is in the class of the few men who enjoy an unbroken record of activities in the field of education and Missions for a half century, during which he has gathered a storehouse of information as a result of his travels in foreign countries and attendance upon conventions and conferences of international concern, in many of which he has been a conspicuous figure. He has been President of the Lott Carey Convention from its incipiency, which now assembles in its Thirty-Tourth Annual Session.

ANNUAL REPORT

OF THE

Corresponding Secretary

N making this report for the fiscal year of the Lott Carey Baptist Foreign Mission Society, U. S. A., which ended July 31, 1931, permit me to express thanks to all in general for the support and cooperation given me, as Executive Secretary, in my efforts to meet current demands of our Society during this very serious and perplexing period of financial strain and depression which have broken the morale and dampened the ardor of business men and concerns, probably as in no other age of the world's history. And further, I wish to make mention of the very prompt replies and business acumen manifested throughout the year by the Chairman, Dr. W. T. Johnson, and Treasurer, Dr. J. H. Hughes, of the Society, which made it possible to expedite the business affairs of the office without friction or delay. During my absence from the country on business of the Society in Haiti, Mrs. A. B. Randolph efficiently and gratuitously executed all the duties of the Corresponding Secretary, for which I have graciously expressed my personal thanks, and am recording recognition of the same as a matter of history.

Though seriously handicapped on account of the lack of finances, The Lott Carey Herald has not missed an edition. Dr. W. H. Stokes, our very capable Editor, has supervised and edited these publications. Even though he is passing through a siege of physical disability, yet his editorials have maintained the ring of Foreign Mission enthusiasm and zeal necessary to inspire to action those who are willing to yield to their courageous persuasion. Our President, Dr. C. S. Brown, has used his pen mightily during the past year in the interest of Missions, which I am sure will be productive of much good on account of the logic and experience evinced by the author in these articles.

The individual church is Missionary in spirit; this we glean from its activities in Apostolic days. Therefore, to whatever extent we approach the spirit and service of the early church, we represent the ideal in Missionary endeavor. The task committed to our trust, as a Convention, is to correlate these vital entities of Missionary forces in the individual church and so organize and direct them that the whole lump in the aggregate may be leavened. The tendency of the church today is local in interest and often materialistic

DR. J. H. RANDOLPH
Pastor, Mt. Moriah Baptist Church,
Washington, D. C., and Corresponding Secretary.

The Christian world is on trial before the bar of International public opinion and an enlightened Christian conscience, and if the message of 'The Man of Galilee' is to win the Pagan world, America and other Christian Countries must prove that the 'Message of the Cross' is sufficient to went into mutual brotherhood, the races of the earth, without prejudice to their Nationality.

The heathen world is looking and pleading for a Religion that has made men and women on the Home Field, what the Missionary claims that it will make of them; therefore, if Christianity is to supplant Buddhism, Confucianism, and Mohammedanism, the Preachers and Teachers, with the Missionaries and the professed followers of Jesus must amplify the teaching of the "Golden Rule" in such a manner that it will be evident that there is full amplitude in the Christian Religion for all Nations, and the formaton of a social order unexcelled in civilization among the Nations of the world. This, and only this, will effect a new creation of confidence and faith in mankind, and check the rising tide of nationalism, as an issue, among the races of the world.

The militant spirit of carnage and warfare must yield to the spirit of Christian Love. However difficult the task may be or vexing the problems to be solved, we must go on, through prevailing brayer and faith in God until the gigantic task has been accomplished, for the kingdoms of this world must become the Kingdom of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.

It is alleged that in Eighty seven Foreign Countries, among whom American Missionaries are at work, many of the natives refuse to accept Christianity, on account of the attitude manifested by its Teachers and Benefactors. In these Countries, we have approximately Eight Thousand men and women proclaiming Christ and Christian Brotherhood, which the heathen finds, when he comes to our shores, that their doctrine does not square with their practice. This is the crux of the situation with the entire heathen world when called upon to accept the Christian Religion and the greatest hindrance we finally meet in the furtherance of the Kingdom of Christ among the Nations of the earth.

In many heathen Countries controlled by other Christian Nations, Missionaries of certain complexions, are not allowed to enter, even with the Gospel of Jesus Christ. With such pictures, world conditions are amazing. The call is urgent, and with a double quick tempo, we must go forward with the Message of the King in unrestrained fervor, exploring the regions beyond, until the hinterlands of heathen nations shall rejoice in the "Good News of the King'dom.''

We are not a quiescent nor passive organism, but alert and militant, for there is nothing more reprehensible in the eyes of our victorious Christ than a sleeping Church. Our sense of obligation to

BOXES TO MISSIONARIES FROM THE WOMAN'S AUXILIARY Shipped by Mrs. A. B. Randolph, President, August, 1933

Christ is seen, in a large measure, by our conception of our Missionary Task. While the Church must meet, fearlessly, every issue that may affect society, yet, her supreme duty is to give the Gospel to all men, for she, alone, has the true Message from God that will abate the feverish spirit of the age and set in order the disturbed conditions among all Nations. Her place in the social order of the world is indispensable though her authority may be questioned and her standard disregarded, nevertheless, she must cry aloud through her Ministry of every age, if we are to have a redeemed world by the return of the Spirit of Pentecost.

The task of the Church is to make a new world, and it is the duty of every Christian to address himself to this task, so that we may offer to the coming generation, a Christianity and Brotherhood, in practice, that all men will believe, regardless of their state or condition. This is the hope of the world in Christ, and it is the challenge to all who believe in Him who said: "And I, if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw all men unto me." To this end, we dedicate our highest endeavors in the prosecution of the work of Evangelism and Missions.

The principles of Christianity are at war with every manmade cult and the fight must be to the finish by our Missionary Forces as our future civilization hangs upon the outcome. The present era in China is developing unparalleled disaster to the Christian Church, because of the serious interruptions of war and violence and that her membership of 400,000 has suffered a decline of from 50 to 75,000 in recent years. The decline may be reasonably expected among all the peoples of the world until the exponents of the Christian Religion shall unselfishly espouse and emphasize with unrestrained intensity, the teaching of Jesus, that Hispeace may abide in the hearts of men.

We must infuse more Spiritual Life in our Missionary enterprises and conform more largely to the guidance of the Holy Spirit in our efforts to advance organized Christianity among the people, by appealing to the valid impulse of love to God and our fellowmen and a genuine hope of victory for Christ; otherwise, the very Cause we laud and praise with our lips will ossify in our hands. Such a motivating cause for act on will grip with amazement the derelict and win those about us who trust in self, rather than God.

We must keep before our Churches and Church Organizations the valuation of the technique of Missions and its place in the life of the Church, therefore, the appeal is primarily to a flaming Ministry in the pulpits, and those who direct the organizations in our Churches, as well as Moderators and Presidents of our Local and National Gatherings.

I wish to urge that you put first things first, by emphasizing the place of Missions—both Home and Foreign—in every Church and that we rise to the heights of great faith in God, that He may make it possible through us, collectively, to give the Gospel to lost Africa, Haiti, and the Isles of the Sea, as well as maintain our local institutions through every er sis, which may test the genuineness of our faith and the heroism of our Christian courage in the fulfillment of our task, beyond the sanguine expectation of the most ardent among us.

As an agency in Ferrign Mission endeavor, conjointly with our National Baptist Convention of America, we represent an invincible dynamic entity touching the lives of multitudes, if vitally aroused to the common task anticipated by the promoters of our "Compact," will secure sufficient co-operation and finance that will sweep us onward to the goal, long sought—the liquidation of our debts; the stabilization of our Missionary Work on the Foreign Field; adequate support for every department of our Denominational work at Home; and the creation of a spirit of Brotherly-love, unexcelled among men and women.

The Woman's Auxiliary

A timely utterance may be expressed, at this point, in reference to the Women's Auxiliary of our Convention, headed by Mrs. A. B. Randolph, of Washington, D.C. This Organization has wrought nobly throughout the year, in a most conscientious manner which challenges the praise and admiration of all who are interested in the well-being of the Convention and the work we are carrying forward on the Foreign Field. It stands, today, as a potent factor in co-operation with the Parent Body, in every phase of our Missionary Work. The general sentiment of this Body of Women has expressed itself in unprecedented helpfulness in connection with the work, during these strenuous times.

During the interim of our Convention, through its Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. M. L. Penn, Thousands of Dollars have been placed at our disposal for the maintenance of our Missionaries on the Foreign Field, for the upkeep of the Headquarters Building, and other important items in connection with our Institution. We venture to say, that their conduct of affairs in relation to the Cause of Christian Missions and the Parent Body, is unsurpassed in spirit and service by any institution in the Country. The Treasurer, Mrs. G. O. Bullock, turns over the money for the work almost on the minute. The co-operation is well-nigh perfect, and we wish to commend them, and congratulate the President on having such an efficient corps of officers.

Our Junior and Intermediate Department deserves to be mentioned in this connection, of which Miss Benetta Bullock of Washington, D.C., is President. She is leading these young people to Christian giving and service, worthy of mention, under the supervision of Mrs. O. S. Bullock of Raleigh, N.C. It is truly gratifying to behold the business-like adm nietration of the affairs carried on by these young people whose lives are destined to fill places of trust and honor in our Denominational life. The present growth of the organization is phenomenal and its achievements noteworthy.

Lott Carey Mission, Brewerville, Liberia, Africa

(REV. W. H. THOMAS, Principa!)

The work at this Station take; high rank among the institutions in Education and Evangelism; it is among the oldest operating in Liberia, and is accomplishing a work which receives annually, the commendation and praise of the Officials of the Government. His report shows a total enrollment of 192 pupils, of this number 113 are boys, and 79 girls; 80% are of the aboriginal tribes. His report further shows that the School has Eight Grades and three pupils doing High School Work, and that six pupils were given Certificates from the Eighth Grade at the Closing Exercises of the School in November; and further, that one of the pupils of the School received special recognition from the State Department for services rendered on Independence Day; and that in appreciation of Dr. Thomas's ability as an Educator, he has been placed on the Board of Education of the Republic. He commends, very highly, the spirit of his Staff of Teachers, for their sacrificial efforts in advancing the work of Education. His report further shows, that the progress of the children is excellent and that the aim of the Institution is to fit them for service among a people upon whom the light is breaking. In connection with the splendid Educational work being done in the School, which touches many Tribes of the Country, the Religious side is carefully guarded. His report shows that the Spiritual life of the children is increasing, and, therefore, the Spiritual life of the community, stimulated by the Institution. He declares that the School is essentially Christian, and that no time is lost, nor opportunity, along the line of impressing the pupils to put "First things, first." Twenty-one are reported as having been saved this year. His appeal is pathetic, for a more generous support, and it is urgently requested by us, that those interested in Christian Missions and Education will do their utmost for the Cause in the coming year.

DOMESTIC ART

Mrs. M. L. Walker is the efficient Instructor in Domestic Art, and is accomplishing a remarkable work in a most sacrificial way to develop this phase of the work. She deserves special consideration in this class of work which she is carrying forward in a building largely erected by her efforts.

MISS BENETTA BULLOCK
President, Junior and Inte mediate Department

NURSING

This department is directed by Miss Minnie C. Lyon, who has for many years labored in Africa. She has erected an annex of two rooms to the Alexander Building and is using the same as a suitable place for her Medical Work, and to this young woman, large amounts of Medicines of various kinds, with other useful articles for this department, are sent annually. We also solicit the co-operation of the friends, everywhere, on her behalf, and plead that useful material of any kind, be sent to us for this work.

Lott Carey Mission, Carcysburg, Liberia, Africa

(MISS CLARICE I. GOODING, Principal)

The work of this Station is an encouraging chapter in the annals of Missionary Work. The supervisor is an energetic and hardworking individual; she possesses the happy faculty of securing wonderful co-operation among the pup is and those about her, in the interest of the work of Education, and the development of the farmland from which foodstuff is gathered for her pupils; though she undergoes great hardships and suffer many handidaps in the prosecution of the work of the Station, yet, she seems to see no defeat in her plans and purposes to develop a great Station. This Station was previously occupied by the late Rev. E. D. Hubbard, and is known to many as the Hubbard Station.

Miss Gooding has made many changes for good, and gives a favorable account of her stewardship as an earnest worker among the heathen. The work of this Station is growing rapidly and its needs are many, notwithstanding her tact in correlating effectively native help, in its development. There are 78 pupils attending the School, 56 of this number are Boarding pupils. Her report shows, that 6 of these have no support, the oldest of which is 12 years old. Their father died and left them at the Mission to be educated, in consequence of which, much of her salary must be spent for their upkeep and to pay helpers at the Station, but she declares, "with God's grace, the doors of the Mission shall be kept open as long as Cassava or a grain of rice is in the land." She organized a Sunday School, a Junior Christian Endeavor Society, and a Students' Prayer Meeting which meets twice daily. Her reports show 40 Conversions, 26 of whom have been baptized.

In showing the Spiritual fervor of the School Body, she states that every Sunday morning before Sunday School, the young people go out among the neighbors and "Break the Bread of Life" to them from the Word of God and return with joy, on account of the evidences of the "Fruits of the Spirit." Miss Gooding stands in need of other helpers on this very promising field of Missionary activity, and we hope that those who may read this bird's eye view of her struggles there, will rise up, with courage bold, to support the work entrusted to her care.

Kia Poo Missien, Brede ville, Liberia, Africa (Rev. C. M. Bryant, Principal)

Rev. C. M. Bryant reports that his work is primarily evangelistic and that the Lord is wonderfully blessing the work under his supervision. He is a native African and has served in the Pastorate and Educational Work of the Country, throughout his public life. He reports the organization of a Church at Gandama, the name of which is Randolph Chapel, and that 10 have given their hearts to the Lord and have been beptized, in this new field. He expresses his joy in the work and declares that he shall die in the service.

C. S. Brown Mission, Careysburg, Liberia, Africa

Mrs. Watson reports having children from nine different Tribes, and that she is working hard to give the light of Truth to those under her supervision. She refers to a bey of the Mano Tribe who walked fourteen days to get to the Station and that this boy has proven to be one of the brightest of the entire School, and further, that he is willing to do any kind of work; he manifests a hunger for education. She further expreses the desire that some organization may give him a scholarship.

In connection with the Evangelistic Work of the School, she refers to a native boy of the Bassa Tribe who goes out every week to preach and that he has won many to Christ, everal of them have been baptized by Rev. Samuel Stubblefield. Mrs. Watson is pleading for more help and that the Women may assist in the erection of a building for her comfort.

The Evangelistic Work of this Station, as well as the entire district is under the direction of Rev. S. B. Stubblefield, A.B., who work; jointly with Mrs. Watson for the material and Spiritual uplift of the people. He reports 200 souls claimed for Christ through this Station and that he has held 5 Baptismal Services in which 99 persons were received into the Church. He reports 77 persons having acknowledged Christ through his preaching. He also held a meeting at Miss Gooding's Station, which resulted in 40 conversions. Great hope is held out for that entire section through this native g ant, who returned fresh from America and its institutions to his native land. His relatives and Tribe, flock to his Ministry.

Taleni Baptist Mission, Idutywa, South Africa (Rev. F. B. MDODONA, Supervisor)

The outlook is very hopeful at this Station, under the labors of love of Rev. F. B. Mdodona and his co-workers. The spirit of

2. ALEXANDER HALL—Chapel (first floor); Girls' Dormitories (second floor).

Evangelism and Education seems to take hold of these workers with an intensity that bespeaks success and victory for the Kingdom of God. The letters of Brother Mdodona are full of gratitude to God for the contact re-established on this side of the water, which he declares, has meant so much to him and the work in South Africa. In reference to his receipt of the great box from the Woman's Auxiliary of the Lott Carey Convention, through Mrs. Randolph, he said, that the people gathered on the 22nd of June for a Ten Days' Thanksgiving Service, expressing great praise to God and thanks to the good people of the Convention for their help. Articles were given to the people of 12 Tribes, among whom his workers labor. He reports the organization of two Sub-stations at Idutywa, and declares the blessings of the Lord are resting upon the work, so strongly supported by us, in America.

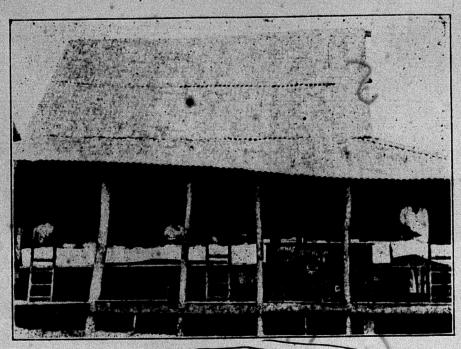

He is President of 778 Associations, with 78 Mission Stations and 312 Evangelists or Native Helpers. Three hundred and forty-two Converts were baptized during the year, with 12 Sunday Schools and 6 Day Schools. This array of workers covers a large area of this vast section. He is asking special help for the erection of a Church and Headquarters in South Africa.

Missions and Education in Haiti

(Headquarters St. Marc, Rev. Boaz A. Harris, Superintendent)

Dr. Boaz A. Harris has again settled down to his work in Haiti, though beset by handicaps, he is heroically pushing forward the work of the Kingdom. He baptized 35 persons on the 2nd Lord's Day in July. People gathered from every section; the spirit ran high while many rejoiced to behold the progress of the work and his return to service. A new Mission has begun at Petite Reviere, 22 miles from St. Marc. It was started by a shoemaker, who went out from St. Marc into that section and finding nothing but Adventists and Catholics, he, at once established a Baptist Mission in his home and now more than 50 persons have renounced Roman Catholicism and superstition and are followers of Jesus, under the old Baptist Flag.

One of his Native helpers, Brother Christian Coicou, has returned to the South, and is preparing for a great Baptismal Service as a result of renewed efforts put forth at the Sixth Mt. Zion Mission, Fonds-des-Negre. This is one of the most remarkable fields occupied by us, as a Convention. The people are receptive and appreciative of every effort put forth by us, to make known Christ among them. While we did not achieve what was in our heart in regards to Haiti, during the furlough of Dr. Harris in this country, yet, we cannot afford to allow our efforts to lag, but with increased zeal, we must tackle the gigantic task of maintaining to the limit of our resources, the work there, since it is a strategic point in our Missionary endeavor, and the only racial Governmental entity in the Western Hemisphere.

We wish to restate our determination to erect a House of Worship at St. Marc, our Headquarters, with a commodious dwelling for our Superintendent, and we call upon the true and tried to keep this thought before you, regardless of the present economic condition of the world, for it is essential for the stab lization and dignity of our Society in the Republic of Haiti. Too much has been done there, to do less.

The honor of the Afro-American Baptist State Convention of New Jersey in co-operation with the Lott Carey Convention, is at stake, with the Auxiliaries of both Organizations, and we must rally to the Macedonian Call of the Haitian people, whose country should ever remain the object of our love and loyalty in Missionary endeavor, until the Kingdom of Our Lord and His Christ shall cover the earth as the waters cover the deep.

OFFICE OF THE AUDITOR

LOTT CAREY BAPTIST FOREIGN MISSION CONVENTION
119 Littleton Avenue, Newark, N.J.

To the Officers and Members of the Lott Carey Baptist Foreign Mission Convention:

DEAR CO-WORKERS:

I hereby certify that I have examined all of the books, records, checks, and stubs of the Corresponding Secretary, Dr. J. H. Randolph; also the books and other records of the Treasurer, Dr. J. H. Hughes, and find them correct. Every item of expense of the Secretary's Office, however small the amount, has been accounted for. "Man's most sensitive nerve is in his pocket-book." This nerve center has been kept normal, which accounts for the financial soundness of the Lott Carey Baptist Foreign Mission Convention.

Too much praise cannot be given the Officers who handle the finance of the Convention, including Mrs. Bessie R. Taylor, the efficient Secretary to Dr. Randolph.

Yours in His Name, E. ETHELRED RICKS, Auditor.

Our Dead

The Lord has dealt kindly with us, during the past Fiscal Year, insofar as sustaining natural life, having taken from us, so far as I recall, only one of our immediate members, the Rev. Dr. W. L. Washington, the late Pastor of the Zion Baptist Church of the District of Columbia. His Christian faith, patience and integrity will not soon be forgotten. He was courageous and true to the principles of our organization and the Kingdom of God, in general. He was one of the Vice-Presidents of the Convention, and a member of the Executive Board. His educational and religious activities affected commendably the District of Columbia, in particular, and the Nation, in general. His noble life will serve as an incentive to the Brotherhood.
