*Call for a National Convention of Colored Baptists

Dear Brethren: April 6, 1886, an open letter to the Baptist clergy and laymen was issued by Rev. Wm. J. Simmons, in American Baptist, asking if we should have a National Convention to discuss questions of interest to our beloved denomination. At that time the following reasons were given:

1. To promote personal piety, sociability, and a better knowledge of each other.
2. To be able to have an understanding as to the great ends to be reached by the denomination.
3. To encourage our literary men and women, and promote the interests of Baptist literature.
4. To discuss questions pertaining especially to the religious, educational, industrial, and social interests of our people.
5. To give an opportunity for the best thinkers and writers to be heard.
6. That, united, we may be more powerful for good and strengthen our pride in the denomination.

Having been solicited to write the Call by many whose names and endorsements are hereunto affixed, the Call is hereby made by their advice and solicitations for said convention to meet in St. Louis, Mo., August 25, 1886, 10 o'clock a. m., in the First Baptist Church, and the pastor thereof is hereby requested to serve as a Committee of Arrangements, with power to select his associates.

Wm. H. Steward, Louisville Ky., and Rev. R. H. Cole, 2609 Goode Avenue, St. Louis, are hereby requested to serve as a Committee on Transportation.

WM. J. SIMMONS.

The chronological report in our National Baptist Minutes is hereby corrected, viz.: The parties as they appear below were officers of the Foreign Mission or National Educational Conventions, as were their predecessors. Said conventions merged into the National Baptist Convention in 1886 or met co-jointly with it, or otherwise.

Proceedings

Kansas City, Missouri, September 10, 1947

The Laymen's National Baptist Convention was called to order at 9:30 a. m., with President J. C. McClendon, presiding. Song services were conducted by Wendell L. Johnson, Kansas. "Lift Him Up," and "Leaning on the Everlasting Arms" were sung. Bro. Henderson Green, Louisiana, read Luke 10:29-38. Bro. Jenkins, Kansas, led in prayer.

President McClendon then presented Secretary Gayle to conduct the Fellowship Hour. "Spirit of the Living God" was sung and all participated in a very deeply heartfelt fellowship service. President McClendon then presented Vice President T. J. Updack to preside. Vice President Updack presented Bro. N. S. Adkins, Kansas City, who in turn presented Dr. Wendell T. Leggins, Colorado, who delivered a most inspiring message from the subject, "Doing Our Task in the Church." Motioned by Secretary H. S. Dixon, Georgia, that Dr. Leggins be given a rising vote of thanks for this timely message. The motion was amended by Bro. John H. Johnson, Georgia, that the address be printed and distributed among the brethren. The motion carried. At the suggestion of Bro. Adkins an offering of $36.50 was taken to defray the cost of circulating the message.

"Rise Up O Men" was sung. The following committees were then appointed: Enrollment—H. D. Adams, A. D. Emerson, E. D. Hogan, A. Anderson, Wendell L. Johnson. Finance—M. F. Harris, C. M. Varnado, P. H. Jenkins, Alf. Lewis, Mrs. Ida Green.

Minutes of the Board meeting at Galveston, Texas, and the program were read and approved. By motion, the personal enrollment this year be $1.00, but $2.00 hereafter. Dr. C. L. Dinkins was presented and made announcements concerning the classes and instructors. The President appointed Bro. N. H. Owens as temporary treasurer to succeed Bro. Jas. T. Lawson, deceased.

Rev. E. W. Creigler was presented, and delivered a very inspiring and helpful address, "Helping Baptist Men Understand the Functions of the Church." By motion, a rising vote of thanks was given him for the splendid address. Benediction.

Afternoon Session

At 2:30 p. m., the meeting was called to order and turned over to the Ushers, Director T. J. Updack presided. Minutes of the same were read and approved. On State of Country

First, we are permitted to worship God according to our own chosing, a privilege denied many peoples of the earth, but let us be mindful of the fact that eternal vigilance is the price of freedom. This fact is evidenced because at this hour the President of the United States has a representative at the Vatican in Rome. The Protestant Church has, without avail, petitioned the President to remove this representative. All Protestants realize that this is a violation, in spirit if not word, of our cherished heritage, the absolute separation of church and state.

The following are some of the causes of these conditions: Wages—With every war comes an increase in the temple of earning and spending. People who were accustomed to earning $10-$12 per week, suddenly found themselves earning $50-$60 per week, and with this excess capital went out on a spending spree. The saloon was the first stop, and this was the beginning of such crimes as number racket, robbery and juvenile delinquency. As we gather here in this great Convention these social maladjustments, sin, and debauchery, hurl a challenge at every Baptist here assembled, and from the shores of Maine to the Golden Shores of California. As a remedy we suggest that each Baptist seek Christ and preach Christ.

On State of Church

The church of God and all it stands for in holiness and righteousness should lay and lift up a standard for the people. Believe that the church should set up a standard to guide the character of men and women in the Christ Spirit of Christianity, and remember always that it is the salt of the earth, a city set upon a hill that cannot be hidden.

On Courtesy

We, your committee, wish to thank everyone who had a hand in arranging for our convenience and comfort here in this auditorium for our meeting this week. We wish to express our thanks and appreciation to the committee for arranging these conveniences at this spacious auditorium where all of our activities might be carried on at one time. The ladies and Juniors are meeting in one wing while the parent body is meeting on the main floor. Our meals are also very conveniently arranged for us. In brief, the local committee has seen to it that our convenience has been looked after and our comforts taken care of.

On Findings

The Committee on Findings met, and a motion, prevailed that Bro. Henderson Green and Sister Pearl Kelly of the Ushers' Department be invited to appear before the committee and present their grievance relative to the time allotted to the Ushers on the program; and after hearing from them it is recommended that hereafter the time allotted to the Ushers on the program be given them and not to somebody else.

YOUR COMMITTEE.

Seventh Annual Message

OF THE

REV. D. V. JEMISON, B. D.

AS PRESIDENT

NATIONAL BAPTIST CONVENTION,

U. S. A., Incorporated

KANSAS CITY, MISSOURI

September 10-14, 1947

Mr. President, Officers, Members, Citizens, and Friends of the National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., assembled here in this unique City of Kansas City, Missouri:

If I would say to you at this time that words do not express the inner appreciation of my heart when I say I am glad to be here and look into the faces of many of our brethren and shake glad hands once more on this side of the grave, I would be putting it mildly. My heart is saddened because of the passing of many of our co-laborers in the Master's vineyard; however, we will not talk about this burden at this time, but will proceed to discuss the subject that is announced above.

This Convention is the greatest organization of its kind in all of this country and the world. It grows by leaps and bounds every year. You are a great people, and sometimes we are led to believe we do not appreciate fully the great opportunities which the Lord has given to us through that agency of kingdom-building.

It is somewhat painful to me when I observe and have every reason to know that there are some of our brothers who are pastoring great churches and these churches give to their pastors adequate support, and these same pastors will come to the Convention with plenty of money in their pockets and do not even represent their churches in this Convention. To such brothers, we do not feel like chiding you, but we do feel that you need prayer and instruction regarding the responsibility of leadership.

The First Step in Reconstruction

Let us now come to the subject as announced above:

We quote the following passages of Scripture from which the basis of this address will be taken at this time.

"Righteousness exalteth a nation: but sin is a reproach to any people," Proverbs 14:34.

"Except ye be converted, and become as little children, ye shall not enter into the kingdom of heaven," Matthew 18:3.

The great struggle that is supposed to have ended in Europe tried to settle some things forever. The first step is in regard to war itself. It is a dream that has come down to us through the ages that the different fragments into which the human family has been broken up can only be unified by force. The greater nation was to conquer and assimilate the lesser nations and tribes, and this way conquest and assimilation would arise and go on until one universal nation would arise that would bear all others under its sway. Thus a reign of peace would be inaugurated all over the world. And so war has amply tried it, but has failed to unify the world.

Babylon with its Nebuchadnezzar, Persia with its Cyrus, Greece with its Alexander, Rome with her Caesar, France with Napoleon, and recently Germany with Hitler, all had war the supreme effort. For forty years the most thorough and careful preparation had been made. Nothing was overlooked. By every rule of military science the Huns ought to have won in their last struggle. Why did they fail? Victor Hugo's great description of the failure of Napoleon at Waterloo will furnish the answer. "It was God."

Righteousness and justice are the foundation of God's throne. Kings may devise, and the rulers of the earth may conspire together, "He that sitteth in the heavens shall laugh, the Lord will have them in derision." The collapse of Germany was a staggering blow to the militarism of Japan. Although an ally, she expected our enemies to win. God has taught for all times in those battle-scarred fields of Europe that force is never going to make humanity one. Whenever this has been attempted the nation that tried it crumbled into ruin. Something different is needed.

We all admire education. We can never have enough of it. It is one of the glories of our age, and especially the American nation. Ignorance is a crime. And yet education, unless backed up by moral character and directed to right ends may become an instrument of destruction.

It is painful to think and to know how many bankers, treasurers, and men who were trusted with that which belonged to others, betrayed their trust and are now serving in the Federal prison and the penitentiary for taking that which belonged to others.

The races and nations should have a Christian education and that means Christ in the center of our education. Anyone who has Christ in the center of his education will do unto others as he would have others do unto him. Take a boy that is a thief and pass him through all of our schools and colleges and universities, and let his nature remain unchanged, and he will still be a thief. He will not now steal an apple, nor an orange as he did when he was a lad, that would be too small a business for him now. What he steals after this would be a bank or a corporation or a railroad.

Germany became a godless nation because she set aside the Bible, which Luther gave her. Her soldiers carried around in their pockets the raving pagan philosophy of Nietzsche. Hence, Germany went down.

The afterwash of that exploded German rationalism has found a belated place in some of the educational institutions of America. And these supposed educated people are a menace to the general public and to the Christian religion. In-so-far many of our schools and colleges have admitted this rationalism, these schools and colleges are a menace to our country.

S. B. [illegible] HISTORICAL COMMISSION
NASHVILLE, TENNESSEE

Social Service has also failed. Social Service certainly has its place. We believe in doing everything that we can for the betterment of our fellow man. But we must not put the rim of the wheel in the place of the hub. We need the people themselves lifted up and changed, so as to be fitted for right conditions. Put a pig in a parlor and come back after a week and see what has changed, the pig or the parlor.

"Righteousness exalteth a nation; but sin is a reproach to any people."
"Except ye be converted, and become as little children, ye shall not enter into the kingdom of heaven."

This world needs the Christian religion. The Christian religion is the only solution for this world's problem. Jesus said, "And I, if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw all men unto me." We need in this country and the world a great revival of religion. Righteousness is God at work in a human life to straighten it out. Sin is that which obscures our vision and hides the face of God.

What then, is the first step in the reconstruction of society? The answer is simply and overwhelmingly important. Society cannot be better than the units that compose it. Make the men and women who are the units of the community what they ought to be, and everything else will follow. The regeneration of the soul is the soul of all regeneration. In the very forefront of all Christ's teachings—first of all, because fundamental to all—Christ puts these words: "Ye must be born again." When one is born again, he is a new creature after the pattern of this passage: "Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature; old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new." 2 Corinthians 5:17. After regeneration our thinking is changed as well as our living. We are then and therefore like our Maker with no respect of person. A person may be converted and yet his life be void of no essential element which goes to make up a well-rounded Christian, for instance, if a man claims to be converted and yet possesses a prejudice of any kind he is not a well-rounded Christian. Another instance is that a man may be truly converted but live a life of discrimination and segregation. This prevents him from being a well-rounded Christian.

The Woman's Auxiliary Convention

This Convention is doing a great work, led on to successful endeavor under the leadership of Mrs. S. W. Layten, who has been the President every since its organization. The objective of this Convention is the National Training School at Nashville, Tennessee. This School is doing a great work under the leadership of Mrs. Mattie G. Anderson and Miss Bohannon. This Convention needs to pull up some on its contributions to the Training School. The records show that the expense of running this Convention is just a little too high, and we urge that the same be cut down to a reasonable point.

The Sunday School and Baptist Training Union Congress

The last session of the Congress was held at Oakland, California, under the leadership of an untiring worker, Dr. W. H. Jernagin. The spirit of this Congress was as good as ever, but the finances was off five thousand dollars of more. It is also seen that the expense to run the Congress is a bit too much. We know that there are teachers to be paid and many other things to be done, but the fact remains that this Congress can be operated for less than it has been in the past few years. Therefore we urge that the expense of running this organization be reduced to a reasonable amount.

The Sunday School Publishing Board

The Sunday School Publishing Board is the strongest subsidiary of the Convention. Here we have our literature printed and sent to our Sunday schools throughout the country. Dr. A. M. Townsend is the honored Executive Secretary of this Board, and property of the Board was paid for under the leadership of Dr. A. M. Townsend, who has proved to be an asset to the Convention rather than a liability. There is one thing that we emphasize relative to all the auxiliaries and subsidiary bodies of the National Baptist Convention. As a Convention we want the heads of each of these subsidiary bodies to feel at home in the operation of work, but don't feel like the thing belongs to you. Sometimes we forget ourselves and act as though the subsidiary body over which we preside belongs to us. As president of the National Baptist Convention we wish the heads of all subsidiary bodies to feel at home and to do well, but please do not think because you are the head of a subsidiary body that it belongs to you. All subsidiary bodies revolve around the National Baptist Convention for ownership.

The Baptist Training Union Board

This Board has the Rev. E. W. D. Isaac, Jr., as its Secretary, and Dr. J. W. Gayden as Chairman. It is natural for the Secretary of this Board to feel sometimes that this Board belongs to him and his relatives. The B. T. U. Board is doing a great work, and yet there are many complaints about getting out and sending the literature on time. All of these Boards and subsidiary bodies should seek to please the public as far as it is reasonable and possible. Therefore, we urge upon the Secretary of this Board to do his best to satisfy the patrons of this Board. We know that paper for printing has been short and hard to get, and that it was impossible sometimes to get the literature out to the patrons on time. We, therefore, urge upon you to do your best to satisfy the patrons of this Board.

The Home Mission Board

The Home Mission Board under the leadership of Dr. T. Theodore Lovelace has done and is now doing a great work. The Secretary of this Board has done well, and yet there is much room for improvement. There have been just complaints made against the Board, and there have been unjust complaints made. The one important thing that we urge at this time is truth and righteousness. Truth is immortal and never dies. Therefore the best thing one can do as the head of one of these auxiliaries or the pastor of a church is to do right and tell the truth. We urge a hearty support of the Secretary and the work which he is doing as a leader of the subsidiary body.

The Foreign Mission Board

This Board under the leadership of Dr. C. C. Adams has almost outstripped itself. Dr. Adams is one of the most untiring and conscientious Secretaries of any and all Boards. He has just returned from Africa where he has built another hospital and other interests of value in the redemption of Africa and the Isles of the Sea. Dr. C. C. Adams should be commended for his untiring efforts in bringing a signal success to the work of this Board. May the Lord's benedictions rest upon him in his godly struggle to go higher in Kingdom building in the redemption of Africa.

The American Baptist Theological Seminary

The American Baptist Theological Seminary located at White's Creek Pike, Nashville, Tennessee, is doing a great work under the leadership of Dr. R. W. Riley, as President. The ministerial student body has outgrown our housing accommodations at this time. There were ministers who applied for admission to the Seminary and were turned down because they did not have housing capacity. We have requested many of our churches to pay the sum of one hundred fifty dollars and the same will be used for the Seminary in providing housing conditions, etc. Dr. Riley is doing a great work as the head of the Seminary. The Home Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention will pay and does pay one dollar for every dollar we raise for the Seminary. Do you not think that this is a fine spirit manifested on the part of the Home Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention? We are requesting each pastor of this Convention to give something in this special collection for the Seminary, Nashville, Tennessee.

Education Board

Dr. Calvin Perkins, who has been recently elected President of Natchez College, Natchez, Mississippi, is the efficient chairman of this Board. Dr. E. Arlington Wilson is the Corresponding Secretary of this Board and is doing a great work. Last year Dr. Wilson turned over to the President of the National Baptist Convention five hundred dollars for the American Baptist Theological Seminary. This has never been done before. We desire here and now to commend Dr. Wilson for his praiseworthy endeavors for the work of this Board. Dr. Wilson informs us that this report will far exceed that of last year. We wish to thank him in advance for his interest and contribution to this Board.

Social Service Commission

Dr. Sandy F. Ray, the honored pastor of the Cornerstone Baptist Church of Brooklyn, New York, is the efficient successor to the late Dr. J. B. Adams as Secretary of the Social Service Commission. Every since the meeting of the Board of Directors in the St. Timothy Baptist Church, Cleveland, Ohio, the Rev. H. G. Lyons, Pastor, the Rev. Sandy F. Ray has been doing the work of the Social Service Commission. He has made wonderful strides as Secretary of this Commission. His efforts up to the present are indicative of the fact that he will carry the work on to higher heights. We commend him for his successful endeavor this far which bids fair to show greater success and achievements of the Social Service Commission. Brethren, when he writes you, answer his letters and send him some money.

Race Relations

As a race, we have been struggling, and in our struggle we have accomplished some things. There is one thing about the Negro race and that is: We are not ashamed of our color and neither do we wish to be anybody else. The question has been asked: What does the Negro want? The answer is: The Negro wants everything anybody else has for the protection, livelihood, and advancement of his family. The Negro knows that he should not be discriminated against because he is black. As a race we are perfectly satisfied for all the problems to be adjusted by the Bible, the Word of God. In Romans 2:11, we have the following: "For there is no respect of persons with God." If God has no respect of persons, why should man? Again we have these words in the Holy Book: "God hath made of one blood all nations of men for to dwell on all the face of the earth," Acts 17:26.

It was most unfortunate that there was anything like discrimination and segregation that showed itself in the World Baptist Alliance at Copenhagen, Denmark.

If the Gospel is preached in its purity, and Jesus Christ is represented as he is, there will be no discrimination or segregation on account of race, color, or creed. The Negro preaches the gospel in its purity and he is not afraid that his officers will wait on him and ask him for his resignation because he preaches fairness and non-discrimination on the account of race, color, or creed. On the other hand the white man is afraid to preach the gospel in its purity because his people will have a conference with him and ask him for his resignation, and for this reason the white minister soft-pedals the truth in many instances. Another thing that the Negro does not understand is that if a Negro commits a crime of murder they will find him and many times do not give him a trial but put him to death. On the other hand the white man commits a crime of lynching, murder, but he cannot be found; but the poor Negro is found and punished. This is one of the problems that remain yet to be solved.

What the Negro Wants:

1. He wants a fair trial by jury and not by a mob.
2. He wants the abolition of the Poll Tax.
3. The Negro wants his franchise; he knows that this is his God-given right and he knows that he should not be deprived of the same.
4. He wants an opportunity along with all others to educate his children. He wants a fair distribution of the monies appropriated for education.
5. The Negro is satisfied to worship under his own vine and fig tree and he does not feel that he is elevated to a superior seat when he worships with the proud Caucasian over that when he worships with his own people.
6. The Negro in the South in particular is satisfied to worship in his own church and be educated among his own people.
7. We favor the adoption of the FEPC in full.

Thus we have named above the ministers who have passed since the meeting of this Convention last year in Atlanta, Georgia. We have the question asked in Job: If a man die shall he live again? Job asked this question, and the answer was not given until Jesus came in the flesh. He said: "I am the resurrection and the life: he that believeth in me though he were dead yet shall he live: and whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die." Therefore we are encouraged in the hope that we will meet our brothers in that land where the wicked cease to trouble and the weary are at rest.

We close with the words of the poet:

"Why should we start, and fear to die?
What timorous worms we mortals are!
Death is the gate to endless joy,
And yet we dread to enter there.

"The pains, the groans, the dying strife
Fright our approaching souls away;
Still we shrink back again to life,
Fond of our prison and our clay.

"O if my Lord would come and meet,
My soul should stretch her wings in haste,
Fly fearless through death's iron gate,
Nor feel the terrors as she passed.

"Jesus can make a dying bed Feel soft as downy pillows are,
While on his breast I lean my head,
And breathe my life out sweetly there."

UNITED CONGO IMPROVEMENT ASSOCIATION

1906 Holbrook Avenue, Detroit 11, Michigan

September 5, 1947.

To the Resolution Committee of the National Baptist Convention, Incorporated, in regular annual session at Kansas City, Mo.:

We respectfully present the following resolutions and ask their adoption. Upon the adoption of these resolutions we ask that they be sent to the honorable Trygve LEI, Secretary General of the United Nations General Assembly, Lake Success, New York, Box 1,000, New York, U. S. A.

Resolution (1). Be it

Resolved, that it has come to our attention that the United Congo Improvement Association, Incorporated, has written a letter to Hon. Trygve LEI, Secretary General of United Nations, a complaint against the Belgian Government being permitted to hold the Congo Free State (NOW ILLEGALLY CALLED BELGIAN CONGO) as a Belgian slave colony in Africa, despite the fact that we, the allies fought, bled and died, and FREED the Belgian people from German slavery and restored their government.

Resolution (2). Be it further

Resolved, that we, the National Baptist Convention, Inc., have this DAY endorsed the letter and complaint filed against the Belgian Government by the United Congo Improvement Association, Inc., and recommend that United Nations place the letters on the agenda of the United Nations General Assembly for discussion at the earliest date possible.

Respectfully submitted,
DR. JOE T. THOMAS, President

To the National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Inc., Assembled in Kansas City, Missouri:

In a recent meeting of the Executive Committee of the Booker T. Washington Birthplace Memorial, Incorporated, it was unanimously decided that since your great religious body cooperated with Booker T. Washington in making his work such a great force in America, and since the spirit which characterized his life was that of "helpfulness towards others," some plan should be worked out by which your organization should benefit to some extent from the premium derived from the sales of the Booker T. Washington Memorial half dollars.

After examining this idea in many aspects and details, we wish to offer a cooperative arrangement with the National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Incorporated, whereby a Scholarship Fund may be created for the Educational Department on a basis of 40 per cent of the premium resulting from sales made by churches. That is to say, that from each sale of a Booker T. Washington Memorial half dollar the Educational Training Department would receive 20 cents, and the Booker T. Washington Birthplace Memorial would receive 30 cents. The details of this proposal can be worked out by a committee representing the National Convention, U. S. A., Incorporated, and a committee from the Booker T. Washington Birthplace Memorial, Inc.

We are confident that this program will succeed in proportion as great bodies like yours cooperate.

Yours truly,

BOOKER T. WASHINGTON BIRTHPLACE MEMORIAL

S. J. Phillips, President

Kansas City, Mo., September 13, 1947

Be it,

Resolved, that the National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Incorporated here assembled, commend the establishment of the "Walter H. Brooks Foundation" to its constituency as worthy of their support, both morally and financially. And be it further

Resolved, that the Churches and State Conventions are hereby urged to send a contribution to its chairman if possible to carry on the work among Baptist students at Howard University, Washington, D. C. And be it

Resolved also, that the Board of Directors of the National Baptist Convention shall request an annual review of the work and expenditures of the said foundation in order that the Convention constituency shall be assured of the worthiness of its operations in the future.

RESOLUTION FOR HOSPITAL COMMISSION

Whereas, since all of us are sincerely interested in the matter of health both mental, spiritual, and physical, and since our great National Baptist Convention's promotional program is definitely directed for expansion and hearty, common-sense development—development for serving its best interest of Baptists in these and other phases of life; and,

Whereas further, since we have the opportunity at this time to purchase at a great bargain, a million dollar hotel and bathhouse qualified to serve our needs and purposes in these particulars, therefore be it

Resolved, (1) That a committee of leaders be appointed to inspect carefully the Woodman Union Bathhouse and Hotel, located in Hot Springs, Ark. that such committee shall be directed to negotiate with the R. SECRETARY'S REPORT OF NATIONAL BAPTIST CONVENTION, U. S. A., INC.

(Period—July 1, 1946—June 30th, 1947)

Kansas City, Missouri, September, 19

Brother President, Officers and Messengers, Composing the 67th An Session of the National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Inc.

Your humble servant deems it a great honor to present, herewith, annual report of the secretary's office of this great Convention.

We assemble this year from the gloom of death. Our friend—the late J. M. Nabrit, with whom I was associated for sixteen years as first assis secretary, folded his tent and went home unexpectedly. I was with hi Cleveland, Ohio, the last of January. He was looking well. I have n worked with a greater character than Dr. Nabrit. For sixteen years never had a cross word in connection with our work. His fine personal his great spirit and soul demanded respect. I feel it a great honor to called upon by my comrades to take the place of so great a hero as Nabrit.

Then in rapid succession, Mrs. A. M. Townsend, the wife of our Dr. A. M. Townsend, was called home. We traveled together in 1934—o tour of Europe, Palestine, and Northern Africa; and attended the g World's Baptist Alliance in Germany. She was indeed a great soul.

Mrs. Townsend's death was followed closely by that of Dr. A. L. Boo the Vice-President-at-Large of this Convention. Dr. Boone was one of best friends in this Convention. I have gone to him for advice and encour ment through the years. He fell on his way to California to stand by m secretary of this Convention. He had a wide range of experience in dea national and national Baptist affairs. A great pastor—but, he put aside war clothes and sword, and fell asleep, a martyr to long years of servic rest with the Father, and his friend—the late L. K. Williams, in pea shall reserve his last letter to me in June as a memento.

After one of our best sessions in Atlanta, we adjourned to meet he Kansas City, in our annual session, and we are here. The office of secre of this great Convention is a great job. It serves as the Bureau of I mation and the Clearing House for the Convention. There is a constant of letters requesting information on matters pertaining to the work of Convention. Our Convention, dealing with people as it does, has to do the physical, social, economic as well as the spiritual welfare of our p Our task is a great one.

The Board met in its winter session with the St. Timothy Baptist Ch of Cleveland, Ohio, Rev. H. G. Lyons, Pastor. Dr. D. V. Jemison was e chairman; and Dr. J. M. Nabrit was elected secretary. Reports were mitted, and plans for operation for this year were completed. The b was approved, and preliminary plans for the entertainment, here in K City, were presented by Dr. D. A. Holmes.

Regional meetings were held in Galveston, Texas, in March; Pittsb Pennsylvania, in May. Both of these meetings were well attended and successful.

Kansas City, Missouri, September, 19

Mr. President, Messengers, of the National Baptist Convention:

We submit to you our annual report.

The work of the Statistical Department has increased each year s service agency of the Convention. We have served as a clearing agency information to all who have sought material or statistics of Negro Bap

In the early period of the history of the National Baptist Convention, leadership recognized the value of a statistician who would secure the tistics of Baptist churches and associations and report the same to the vention. Through the years, we have kept a record of Baptist growth development as expressed in statistics, and today we take great pride we have one of the best Statistical Departments of any denominatio color among us as a racial group.

Your Statistical Department has served during the year various institu whether educational, religious or governmental. Each day we have some of a request for information in our office. In keeping with our policy, answer all letters and requests which come to us. We are to serve all seek our services, and we strive to do this under all circumstances or ditions.

The church has never occupied a more strategic place in the world it does today. The world is looking to Christian leadership to point the for mankind to travel in a bewildered world. As we observe the extent o influence of the church in human affairs, we attempt to give the stat the church in our day to you as we appraise its contributions to soci

23rd ANNUAL REPORT OF THE HISTORICAL AND RESEARCH DEPARTMENT

Theodore Sylvester Boone, D. D., LL. D., Historiographer

To the President Officers and Members of the National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Inc:

he Historical Commission has not relented in its efforts to secure historical data about Negro Baptists. There has not been much progress made ue matter of securing cooperation from our various representatives and nizations that hold prominent places in the affairs of our denomination. ill seems that there has not been developed much ambition and desire permanently record the achievements of the pioneers. Within the next years most, if not all of the pioneers will be gone, and we shall be then confronted with a most exacting task of securing historical data. The are not too many of us who have endeavored to secure the information th had or have regarding the early days of our cause. It is desired that many more years the Historical Commission will be able to give to public at least one volume of the many volumes we need in a library Negro Baptists if we are to preserve the achievements and records the sacrifices of those who made it possible for us to enjoy the rich heri which is ours today.

"Negro Baptists Moved by Other Religions and Varying Cultures"

Those of us who think that Christianity has moved the Negro more any religion think out of harmony with that which is true. There have many pioneers in all fields of religion and culture who have left their prints upon the society of the world. Society cannot be localized or rowed to the circumscriptions of easily limited zones or boundaries in matter of its religious or cultural direction. All society—in every recess the world has been touched by religion or culture in some form. What group or inhabitants of one or several areas regard as culture may be nounced and ridiculed as ignorance by another or others.

Many of these anti-Christian religions are definitely aggressive and namic in their advances. In many instances their advocates are more vigo and forward in contending for their tenets and principles than the cates of Christianity—and certainly the Baptists.

"The region lying immediately South of the Sahara, some 700 miles and stretching from the Atlantic to the Red Sea, a distance of 4,000 is known as the Sudan. Following the Anglo-French agreement of 1904, eastern section was called the Egyptian Sudan, the western section ( from certain maritime colonies) was known as the French Sudan. That area, for the most part fertile and irrigable, was inhabited by a large num of warlike tribes. The population was placed by some authorities as as 40,000,000. The name comes from an Arab word meaning the country the blacks."

That region may be associated with the second Mohammed, who was pointed by Allah for the extermination of the infidels; the exploits of Pasha who was rescued in a most dramatic fashion by Stanley; the death of General Gordon; and the brilliant military achievements brought Kitchner his fame. The rapid advance of the Mohammedans the Sudan into prominence in religious circles. The tribes of that found themselves being annexed to Mohammedanism through the rele efforts of Mohammedan missionaries, and today by far the larger of the Sudan has been preempted for that faith. These tribes might been won to Christianity had our missionaries been on hand to presen message and cause of the Christ. But Christianity was conspicuously while Islam was on the ground in the persons of multitudes of trade fire with fanatic zeal. "According to Mohammedan ideas, every Mosle a missionary. Be he prince or slave, sailor or merchant, wherever he he is expected to proclaim his religion. In Africa as in no other part o world the Moslem approaches this lofty ideal. He is a missionary, n one sent by a society or board, such as we have in Christian lands, b one impelled by zeal for the prophet of God. The fact that the larger of the Sudan is Mohammedan ground attests the power of a witne faith."

In all probability, the greatest crisis before the Christian church today, in the opinion of many of the missionary leaders, is the Moham advance in Central Africa. This report of the world's missionary confe was made a matter of public record for every missionary land that active at that time in efforts to align Africa with the Christian for the world. "The absorption of native races into Islam is proceeding and continuously in practically all parts of the continent. This rapid as not recently begun, for over a period of more than thirty-five years ere have been observations made of the rapid advances of the Moham-edans in the African continent. There was held a conference in 1911 at ucknow, India, to consider primarily and almost exclusively the Moslem roblems with which the world was confronted. There were certain definite uggestions made in that conference with a view of having the Christian rces of the world adequately gird themselves to meet and face the crisis hich was being presented then and is still being presented by the Moham-edans. There were proposals made and also efforts undertaken by proposals place many mission stations throughout Africa, intended for the purpose holding back the Moslem advances. Every mission board under Chris-an promotion was called upon to unite in this movement to withstand the lvances of the Mohammedans. It was thought that haste would have to be ade in a very concerted way, if they were to save the situation from the oslems. There were other forces and authorities at work engaged in the me task of making known the critical situation with which Christianity as confronted and further endeavoring to institute programs by which the oslem advance might be withstood or halted. There was an article placed "The International Review of Missions" by the Rev. William J. Boone in hich he contended that the whole missionary program and strategem with ference to missions in Africa should be viewed in relation to Islam. He ged a definite study of the facts in the case, and further urged that iniries be made into the causes, and further, that plans might be attempted to nsider certain remedies which would enable Christian movements to thstand the Moslem advance.

Islam has, through the ages, had a stronghold in Africa. Upon the imdiate entry of the Arabs into Africa, even along the coast line, there was gun a movement to later project the philosophy and ideals of Islam into African interior. The Arabs found themselves very much at home in Sahara, and being born traders, they were not slow to press into the pulated sections and annex the people, possibly 800,000 of them, into their ligion and civilization. It appears from certain historical sources that y were the ones who introduced the camel into that region; at any rate, y soon opened up caravan routes from the interior to the advance coast ies and made large use of the Nile for reaching the Eastern Sudan.

When the Portugese navigators explored the eastern coast in the fifteenth ntury, they found rich Arab cities along the coast as far south as Sofia, r the mouth of Zambezi. These coast cities were undoubtedly built by migrants from across the Red Sea. A century earlier, the Arabs had crossed Sudan and had established themselves in Kordofan, Darfur, Wardi and er states. From all these centers, they actively engaged in an extensive de in two industries—ivory and slaves, which everywhere brought unl woe to the Africans.

t seems that the Moslems had made a profound impression in the Western lan before they were able to established themselves in the East. On the er water of the Niger there was a remarkable tribe with a long line of gs and maintaining a capital known as Songhai. This tribe was converted Islam about 1010 A. D. The Songhai in turn, converted the great Fula r, which occupied the region south of Timbuctoo. That took place in Twelfth or Thirteenth century. The Songhai also won over the Manos of Senegambia on the Western Coast. The Fulas, becoming aggressive, aded the region to the east of the Niger, subduing and coverting the sa people, who, as traders, were and still are a mighty factor in spread-Islam. This procedure continued until Mohammedanism dominated not than one-third of the people of the continent. All of this happened from to 300 years ago. At the very time when the crusaders of Europe were voring to wrest the original seats of Christianity from the Moslems, the lems were quietly taking possession of the Sudan. There is a history of lecked conquests which has been overlooked by those who endeavor to information about the peril of Islam in Africa, which dates back to many centuries. The tribes north of the Congo are thoroughly acquainted with religion of Islam and have been through many centuries.

Modern conditions have presented a striking and startling situation to Arabs in the matter of their religious impetus. For quite three centu the champions of Islam remained quiescent, but they are again on the m and have been for several years. The advance is so startling and strik that the untouched sections of the Sudan by the religion of Islam are be won tribe by tribe, through the influence of the dynamic Mohammedan sionaries. Their advances are pushing them southward which, if allowed continue, will in short infest the entire Congo country and also along two coasts. One of the most thickly populated, and further, one of largest sections of the African continent is Nigeria, which is now two-th Mohammedan. The Mohammedan missionaries are having untold influ over the lives of the Swahali, the dominant tribe in British East Africa.
Swahali Tribe is definitely a peril to Christianity in that it affords Artisans of East Africa, and they are in great demand in the interior. T carry their religion wherever they go.

You will find Islam projecting itself in a most dominant way in In China, Russia and the Malays. The advance in India is proving a fre dously annoying peril. The Moslems in Russia are showing a great deal the East Indies, where Islam for a long time was but a mere religious neer, this religion is becoming a more pervasive and dominant faith. I advancing rapidly and persistently, absorbing step by step the existing nants of heathenism.

Two forces are contending for Africa—Christianity and Mohammedan
The absorption of native races into Islam is proceeding rapidly and tinually in practically all parts of the continent. Mohammedan traders finding their way into the remotest parts of the continent, and it is known that every Mohammedan trader is more or less a Mohammedan sionary. Wherever a Mohammedan goes, he makes converts to Islam.

German culture, which was the cry of the Occident, less than two half decades ago, is repudiated by the followers of the Christian throughout the world. And it is being found that peoples of all other are being called upon to help correct German culture and reconstruc civilization for a world pattern based upon our present-day civilizatio the Western world. Asia and Africa not only dread what is called Ger culture, but they dread what they regard as the same tendency in all so-called Christian nations.

There have been many white heroes of modern missions, among must be named Raimundus Lullious, a nobleman of Majaca, born in Pa in 1236. He wrought marvelously as a missionary much of the time as sionary to the Mohammedans, but he was stoned to death June 30, 1315 the Mohammedans and became the first Roman martyr to die for the of the dark continent. Francis Xavier, the first Roman Apostle to the In tianity who went from his marriage altar with loins girded and sta hand to help save a lost world; Christian Frederick Schwartz, founde

the native Christian church in India; William Carey, world-wide

g champions of the Christian cause have done much to help impede the vance of Islam among people of color. But with a movement of education the field of religion being projected, even among the blacks in America
d other civilized countries, education has been developed to the point here it is looked upon as a revolutionist itself, overcoming intellectual rors and superstitious faith. Civilization in our day must be regarded as e fore-runner of missions, not only in casting up a highway and gathering t the stones, but by putting into the hands of Christian people the balance power. Christianity can best move under world-wide organization as hammedanism has moved under this type and kind of organization.
ganization is the watch-word of the ages, but has recently been regarded one of the most salient dynamics needed in the advancement of the Chris-n cause. Before the time of Christ, isolation was the law. Nations had le touch with each other. Universal empires were the aggregates of parate states held together by those higher bands which conquest imposes despotism rivets. It is true the children of light have already resorted organization efforts in missions. William Carey was the pioneer, not of ssions so much as of organization; and since his day, this has become so inguished a feature of church activity that the marked success attained ce 1792 is traceable to association and organizational work. Many and king have been the results obtained through Christian leadership in the rld and this is also true with Christian leadership in the was found by Negroes that the efforts of the heroes of missions—even eign missions—have not been such as would bring the best results, ac-rding to their thinking and even during the dark days of slavery, the roes were ambitious about definite movements which would help bring pear the type and kind of results which they thought most needful for people of color in other parts of the world as well as in the states. We in America today what we call the Negro church—a distinctive church; this church grew out of the protests of the Negro Christians against white religionists whom they regarded as engaging in perversions of principles of Christian philosophy and brotherhood when applied to peoples of black throughout the world and in the states. The principles policy of the Baptists as understood by the Negro Baptists made a most tive protest against the type and kind of Christian brotherhood expressed he experimental dealings of the white religionists with the Negroes.
fty years had passed from 1863 to 1913 and at that time, the Negro ists of America celebrated their "50 Years of Freedom" during the 33rd on of the National Baptist Convention at Nashville, Tennessee. Most und and remarkable have been the growth and development of the Negroes ey labor under the imposed pseudonym of Negro churches and especially o Baptist churches. If the Christian missionaries who labored in Africa other foreign countries had evidenced the vigorous aggressive attitude as expressed in the Mohammedans and in German culture, the Islamic would not have made the inroads that it did make upon the Africans nperiled the Christian cause. There are criticisms which must be made e term "Negro Baptist Church or Churches." And it must be thought because of such a necessity having been imposed upon a certain group ristian religionists that the cause of Christianity was not only impeded frica and other foreign climes but is being impeded within the states;
wherever there is the practice of discrimination, the cause of Christ s a serious and severe blow. The tendency toward national and racial tianity is a peril in itself and eventually will serve as the great awakenorce for righteousness in truth among the people who are heralded e propagators of the Christian religion. There is to be found in the n Baptist Church an unusual attribute; for since it is an evidence of exibility of Christianity and its tendency to adjust itself to cosmopoli-ommunities it does not lessen the fact that we are integral parts of the body of Christ in which there is neither Jew nor Greek, bond nor f Among some of the stalwart champions of the Christian cause in all cl must be listed Negroes. Some of the early pioneer Negro champions w unfortunate in that they had no names. The meanness of the institut of slavery precluded many of them from being called by names. The ea Negroes flocked to the Negro Baptist church because it was and is greatest and most promising institution in the world for temporary eternal salvation of a people. It reaches all social strata where men found and offers a helping hand to those of other colors as well as to own. The Negro Baptists have dedicated more property to the cause Christ for the advancement and development of mankind than any ot organization in the world. Negro Baptists have more educated Negr actively engaged in Christian work than any other organization. And, the other hand, it has more ignorance in its fold than any other religi organization. Both of these positions are true because the Negro Bapt have more members than any other organizations among Negroes in world. They have engaged largely in organizing local as well as natio movements, varied in types and kinds, which they operate without the to or direction of any other people in the world. They have been able to this because they have been touched by the unusual fertility of the gr which was sowed in tears by our fathers and which now is resulting one of the most precious harvests the world has ever known. The o of the culture and refinement of the Negro Baptist churches today expr in their preachers, professors, reformers, lawyers and other intellect cannot be found in the white preachers, but are to be found only in prototype of Negro princely leadership—those earnest, crude and fiery bellum cabin preachers. The tide of life and culture in the Negro has rising ever since he became acquainted with the lowly Jesus on t American shores. He should have been made acquainted with Jesus be coming to these shores, because in the flight of Mary and Joseph with child, Jesus, into Egypt, Africa was offered its first opportunity to bec acquainted with the Christ of Christianity and the Emmanuel of Salvation.

since the Negro's acquaintance with the lowly Jesus was delayed until advent upon these American shores, he has made rapid progress in the short while of his acquaintance as a Christian and sits in a commonwe of culture and refinement. We must admit that much credit is due the w men and women of the North and South for the brilliant success which Negro has achieved in America. Without a doubt, more credit is due white women and white children for the initial educational ventures of Negroes, who took the slaves at their knees and by their sides and t them the rudiments of education and the vital and essential principles Christianity, than is due the white men. But all played vital parts in ma possible for the Negroes opportunities to acquire education and Christia
What was acquired by them through their contacts with the whites d the early days of slavery was used as the foundation by our fathers which they built the initial structure for our social advancement and which we have erected the super structure as it appears in all of its splendent glory in the world today. The large effort of evangelizatio this country for Negroes and in other countries for the blacks has launched in every instance by the Negroes, principally of this co
From the very first, the Negro Baptists have been foremost in the ev zation of Negroes in America and other climes. There were four distinct ing periods in the history of Negro Baptist churches which should be shrined in our memory; the first, the Anti-bellum Period; the second, Great Revival Period; the third, the Great Church-building Period, and fourth, the present period of Denominational Enterprises. Some of the mortal figures among Negro Baptists who were moved by other religi and varying cultures must be listed among the anonymous. But, it also be known that nine years before the Baptist Missionary Soci England was organized in 1792 and sent out William Carey to India,

Baker and George Gibbons, two Negro Baptists, left America in 1783 as voluntary missionaries to the Indies. It was in Jamaica that these two Negro Baptist missionaries joined themselves with George Lisle and became the real blazers in Christian Missionary endeavors to the inhabitants of the West Indies. The American Baptist Missionary Union was organized in 1814 and sent out Judson to Burma. But twenty-four years before the organization of the American Baptist Missionary Society and the sending of Judson to Burma, Hector Peters and Sampson Colbert, two more Negro Baptists, left America in 1790 as voluntary missionaries to West Africa. Twelve years before the white Methodist Church sent out its first foreign missionary in 1833, Lott Carey had bought his freedom and, in company with Collin Teague, left America in 1821 as a voluntary missionary to Liberia, Africa.
The records reveal the startling facts that Negro Baptists were doing foreign mission work nine years before the American white Baptists, and fifty years before the white Methodists, and all of this was done under a culture in America which was fraught with the complex of superiority on the white man's part and the dissemination of the idea of inferiority on the part of the Negro. Despite the fact that the culture of America called for the separation of Negroes and whites and propagated the idea of the eternal serfdom of the Negro, historical records reveal this striking truth: "When the first gun for freedom was fired at Sumpter, South Carolina, in 1861, the Negro Baptists had been preaching for freedom eighty-seven years. When the great revival period began in 1862, the Negro Baptists were the best prepared denomination in all the world to bring Negroes to Christ."

In 1800, sixty-three years before Emancipation, Negro congregations and churches had become so strong until the legislature of South Carolina imposed restrictions on religious meetings of the Negro people that these independent Negro congregations were doing good work is shown in the fact that the Charleston Baptist Association (white) petitioned the legislature the following year to repeal the laws against them and renewed the petition the following year, 1802, with some degree of success. The Negro Baptists were organized to help themselves as early as the white Baptists, North or South, were organized to help them.

"Before the American Home Missions Society was organized in 1832, the Negro Baptists of South Carolina and Georgia had established churches from Canada to the West Indies. Before that great society began work among the freedmen of the South, our old fathers had taken the leading part in bringing 400,000 Baptists into the Baptists fold." They had the idea that organization would bring about tremendous results, and, therefore, they began a program of district, state and national organization, and this under culture and in a religious atmosphere that said that Negroes are inferior and cannot attain unto the lofty pinnacles of eminence and success enjoyed by their brothers in white. The Negro Baptists organized in 1838 the Wood River Association of Illinois. That was the first association known of record among Negro religionists. They began the organization of their conventions with the formation of the New England Convention which was organized in 1840. State conventions were later organized with the following disclosures of record: North Carolina Convention in 1866; Virginia Convention in 1867; Arkansas Convention in 1868; Kentucky Convention in 1869; Mississippi Convention in 1869 and the Georgia Convention in 1870. Within forty-seven years of emancipated life, under a culture which was distemperous to Negro organization and advancement, Negro Baptists organized 18,895 churches; 1,200 district associations; 95 state conventions and at that time, 1910, one national Baptist Convention. They also had 18,989 Sunday schools which were organized into 557 district conventions and at that time, 1910, were being organized into one great Sunday School Congress. There were then 2,000 Baptist young people's unions in the local churches, and 12,000 missionary societies. Forty-seven years after the abolition of salvery, Negro Baptists had 660 missionaries in the states; 557 Sunday school missionaries;

95 state convention missionaries; 43 missionaries working under the Ho Mission Board of the National Baptist Convention with a total then, 1910, 1,500 Negro Baptist missionaries on the home field. There were in 1910, 1 missionaries and native helpers working under one auspices of the Fore Mission Board in foreign climes. The foreign missionaries plus the ho missionaries gave a total of 1,635 missionaries, men and women, who w devoting their time, energy and abilities to the redemption of their broth and sisters in the benighted regions of the world. This number has grea increased since then, but that number gives a fine impression of the ty and kind of material out of which the early Negro Baptists were m which urged them in the face of varying cultures and religions to win themselves an immortal place in the affairs of men and nations.

REPORT OF THE NATIONAL BAPTIST LAYMEN'S MOVEMENT

James E. Gayle, Executive Secretary

Kansas City, Missouri, September 10, 194

To the President, Officers and Delegates of the National Baptist Laymen Movement, Greetings:

As Executive Secretary of the National Baptist Laymen's Movement am herewith submitting my report on promotional work and educatio campaign.

Since our last meeting in Atlanta we have tried to present the work Laymen's Movement to the nation at large. We have traveled extensively appeared before large ministerial groups and lay groups throughout the tion. We have sponsored and held laymen's institutes in connection with Religious Education Department in various sections of the country. The o look for the National Baptists Laymen's Movement is very bright and couraging judging from the sustained interest being exemplified by the m hood of our denominational group. More and more Baptist men are show greater concern about an advanced program of the church, and they are coming more willing to accept their obligation and responsibility in a way. That is, instead of having the Baptist men do a larger portion of th giving and missionary work through secular organizations, they are m inclined to do this throughout the church.

Promotion

For the past three years the National Baptist Laymen's Movement put its emphasis on a program of promotion in order to attract a la interest of the Baptist men of our denomination, through the mediu setting up local laymen's leagues in various churches, organizing city lea dsitrict, state brotherhoods or laymen's leagues so that for 1947 pressure is being placed on this promotional program in order to larger results. This is being done through newspaper publicity, radio br casts and district regional organizers. The gathering of statistics ob is being done by twenty other denominations.

Program

The Program—We have sent a delegate to the Laymen's Section o International Council of Religions Education. We have established a L. Webb Foundation and Scholarship Fund to give scholarships to wo

Baptist students and to give an award each year to the layman who has done the most outstanding thing in Religious Education or work in the Baptist church. Observes "National Laymen's Day"—Third Sunday in June.

The organization is efforting to develop a program that will attract to its attention the presidents of all Baptist church affiliated colleges so that the work being done in these colleges can be presented to the lay members in our churches which in turn will attract to these affiliated colleges a student body drawn from our churches so these colleges in turn will send back to our churches that type of young people who are in sympathy with the program of our Baptist denomination.

Department of Religious Education

In our Department of Religious Education working under the auspices of the Department of Religious Education of the Sunday School Publishing Board, National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Inc., we have set up a course of studies for the men of our churches and this training is being given in our local set up as well as our state and national set up. Last year at Atlanta, Georgia, during our annual session there were more than two hundred men from all parts of the country who spent one week in study in order to become better prepared to give more efficient service back home in their churches. One very significant thing about the Laymen's Convention last year was that exactly one hundred men attended for the first time and took these courses under the direction of Dr. Charles L. Dinkins, who supervised this work in Religious Education.

We are pleased to announce that your humble servant has been elected a new member of the Council of the International Council of Religious Education.

For the first time the United Stewardship Council, meeting in November, 1947, has invited three laymen of our denomination as members to participate in the coming session.

Foreign Delegates

The National Baptist Laymen's Movement voted to send three delegates to the World's Baptist Alliance meeting in Copenhagen, Denmark. The delegates are James E. Gayle, J. C. McClendon, President, and Arthur J. Adams, Regional Director. We circularized the laymen of the nation in an appeal for funds to defray expenses of delegates. However, we only received donations amounting to $75.00 for this trip, notwithstanding the fact that the contributions were small, we felt that the organization was benefited from this type of publicity which did awaken the laymen over the nation and called attention to our efforts.

Plans for Youth Program

Taking into consideration the large amount of juvenile delinquency, especially on the part of boys throughout the country something must be done to correct this juvenile delinquency, and that something should eminate through a well developed program in our churches so that the laymen are working with the Department of Religious Education of the National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Inc., in setting up parallel organizations to the Woman's Auxiliary of the National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Inc., in their age group organizations, viz.:

Sunshine Bands—Ages 4 to 9 years, (Boys and Girls).
Junior Red Circle—Parallel organization, the Trail Explorers, Ages 9, 10, 11 years.

Ages 15, 16, 17 years.

KEYNOTE ADDRESS TO THE NATIONAL BAPTIST LAYMEN'S CONVENTION

By Rev. Wendell T. Liggins

THEME: "Doing Our Task in the Church"

In this confused and turbulent age, we are confronted with the task of spiritualizing the world if the world is to be spared the horrors of atomic warfare which may destroy the organized existence of humanity. Science has disclosed the secrets of nuclear energy, but the problem of control is acute, and man desperately seeks for the secrets of survival. Only as the church can utilize its spiritual resources and find effective methods of evangelizing our community life can we hope to build in the world Christian society.

Roger Babson tells us that in one of the laboratories in Washington there is a great glass that measures three feet across. This great glass gathers the rays of sun that strike its flat surface and focuses them on a single point a few feet below. That point is hotter than a blow torch. It will melt thru a steel plate as easily as a red hot needle burns through paper. This terrific heat is just three feet of ordinary sunshine concentrated on a single point. Scattered, these rays are hardly felt. Concentrated, they will melt steel plate. The principle of focused energy or power applies to our church life.

The resources of spiritual energy in our churches are practically unlimited. However, due to failure to enlist, induce and integrate our laymen in the work and program of the church, a shameful dissipation of our talents with which laymen have been endowed by God has resulted.

Men and women are the spiritual assets of the church, for without discipleship there can be no leadership. The obligation that has been put in the hands of the church, the ends it seeks in ministering, the very purpose of its existence demand that the church gather these forces and utilize them faithfully to the glory of God and the weal of man. Forces to be made creative can only be effective thru organization, coordination and cooperation of the whole people in the whole program of the church.

We must first realize that the Christian laymen must accept personal responsibility for the building of the kingdom of God. "For we are workers together with God." Jesus, the Galilean preacher and teacher declares, "I am the true vine, ye are the branches: and my Father is the husbandman. Every branch in me that beareth not fruit he taketh away: and every branch that beareth fruit, he purgeth it, that it may bring forth more fruit." He further declares that his Spirit must be manifest in us, for in John 15:5, he speaks again in this vein. "He that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit: for without me ye can do nothing."

Our life must be Christ directed to serve the church and be spiritually effective. Every tree is known by the fruit it bears. The regenerated Christian, a product of a new creation in Christ Jesus is essential to make the church, mystical body of Christ, the beacon light in the world for which it has been designed. We must harness the man before we can harness the job. A dead Christian cannot contribute to development of a live church. The idle church member is the Devil's greatest joy and the church's greatest liability. It is better to put ten men to work than to do the work of ten men. "Get the man lest you lose the man" should be the theme of the dynamic, militant church. The husbandman of the vineyard is still standing at the door of the church asking "Why stand ye here idle?" Too many are rusting out in the Christian warfare rather than wearing out for God. Certainly the hymn challenges us today as we stand before the open of the church.

many of us have decided to "go in empty handed." The redemptive of the church must originate in each one of us. We are powerless and less until we have, like Philip, shown some passerby the way of life

REPORT OF THE ATTORNEY

Kansas City, Missouri, September 11, 1947

Mr. President, Officers and Members of the National Baptist Convention, S. A., incorporated.

eetings:

A gracious Providence and you, my indulgent brethren, make it possible me to appear again to render a report of my stewardship as attorney the greatest aggregation and assemblage of black religionists in the stern world. The awful weight of the responsibility which rests upon organization for the religious welfare of four million Negro Baptists kes one tremble when he contemplates the dire consequences which would w from any breach of duty on your part. I am happy to have the privilege sharing and bearing with you a part of that responsibility.

ince we last met in Convention the Great Reaper has claimed some of stellar constellations in the diadem of great personalities who have shed strious rays along the denomination's pathway and have left beacon ts behind them to guide our erring feet. God bless the memories of ial, friendly, scholarly Dr. James M. Nabrit, and courtly, sage-like Dr.
L. Boone, Vice-President-at-Large, and others of like virtues who have hered unto their Father.

During the past year I have promptly attended to every legal matter pertaining to your affairs and am happy to state that willing co-operation has been manifested on the part of all offices of the Convention with whom it was my duty to deal.

Attendance at Board Meetings

Pursuant to directions from our president I attended the quarterly meeting of the Board of Directors of the Convention at Cleveland, Ohio, on February 13, 1947, and in Oakland, California, on June 19, of this year.

Philadelphia and Africa Properties

In August of this year, while in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, in attendance on the Supreme Lodge Knights of Pythias, I conferred with Dr. C. C. Jemison, Secretary of our Foreign Mission Board, relative to the status of the Philadelphia property owned by that Board, as well as concerning the Board's property in Africa. The old deeds to this property have been misplaced but a copy is being secured from the land records in Philadelphia. The papers pertaining to the property in Africa were not available in the Secretary's office because the same had been sent to Africa for the purpose of complying with certain registration laws in that country. A complete report on that will be forthcoming later.

Dr. Nabrit's Office

At the direction of President Jemison, I prepared all necessary legal papers required to enable Mrs. Ann Traylor Hayes to carry on the work of the lamented Dr. Nabrit until the meeting of the Board of Directors in Oakland, California, in June.

Amendments to By-Laws of Subsidiaries of the Convention

At the session of the Convention held in Atlanta last year the Convention by a unanimous vote adopted the proposals in my report looking to the amendment of the by-laws of the subsidiaries of the Convention with the view of thoroughly safeguarding the interests of the parent body. President Jemison later instructed me to come to the February Cleveland Board Meeting prepared to present those recommendations in detail to that body. T was done and at that meeting the Board directed me to carry the ma through to completion.

I wish now to report that the Charter of every corporate subsidiary the Convention has been carefully studied and scrutinized and that I h prepared appropriate amendments to their by-laws which are necessa to be adopted to accomplish the desired purpose. I purpose to have thes grapted the revised by-laws of every subsidiary so that the same may available at all times for the information of this body and its officers.

Tenure of the Attorney

Your Attorney feels that there is a matter which should be mentioned this time which affects his office. The following matter is not referred in any mood or attitude of complaint nor in any spirit or tenor of critic but merely because it is felt that it is appropriate for the reasons be below stated, that mention of the cause should now be made.

The Attorney for this Convention is a Constitutional Officer, elected w and as the other Constitutional Officers are elected. Now for your Attor has served, and willingly and gratefully so, by appointment of the presi your Attorney has been required to attend to such legal matters as might referred to him by the president and to be compensated in accordance w the value of the services thus rendered. Obviously, such tenure has b uncertain and the method of compensation unstabilized.

If I should be privileged to serve you further in this office, I would to be able to do so under circumstances which would make it possible me to be of the maximum services to the convention in guarding its interests. Not only should your Attorney be subject to the call and direc of the president, with whom the Attorney is expected to work in fullest operation, regardless to the identity of the person holding that office, y Attorney however, should be charged with the duty and responsibility constantly being on the alert with reference to the legal aspects of ev department of the convention so that precautionary and preventative s may be taken in advance to forestall the possibility of anything happe which might detrimentally affect the actual interests of four million N Baptists represented by this Convention.

For the reason above mentioned the stablization of the Office of Attor is necessary if not imperative at this time.

Recommendations

(1) In the light of the growing magnitude of the work of this Conven and in view of the absolute certainty of death, it seems to me that wisd and prudence converge to dictate that in every important department the activities of this Convention the executive heads in such departm should be advised, if not directed, to have apprentices who shall be their helpers in such manner that in the event of sudden death of the sponsible officer there would be some one in the office thoroughly acquai with the minutest detail of the office. That would be true economy a recommend that you give serious consideration to this matter.

(2) In keeping with approved business principles and methods, and the purpose of further safeguarding the financial interests of this Con tion, I wish to suggest to you the desirability of requiring every respon person handling funds of the Convention and its subsidiaries to give quate surety bonds for the faithful handling of moneys coming into care and custody belonging to this Convention or its subsidiaries.

Foresight is always better than hindsight because it often prevents h aches if not disasters.

Respectfully submitted,

A. T. WALDEN, Attorney for Na
Baptist Convention, U. S. A.,

COMMENTS

Finance Commission

A thorough examination into the fiscal policies and affairs of the Finance Commission, National Baptist Convention, was made. Among other things it was revealed that the general fund received approximately $99,000. Of this sum, $52,000 came from local loans; $25,000 came from the Sunday School Publishing Board; $5,250 came from the Finance Commission Board. President Jemison's drive produced $2,527.82. The drive from Dr Bowman netted $1,528.07; and the Woman's Auxiliary, the National Baptist Convention, produced $10,876.33. Other items were small and relatively insignificant. It should be pointed out, however, that the estate of Mrs. Berta L. Ward provided for the Training School $1,487.60.

Out of the general fund, the Finance Commission spent roughly $1[illegible]000. Of this amount, some $55,000 was applied to the repayment of loans, $10,500 went to the Training School; $21,500 was returned to the Sunday School Publishing Board. The Finance Commission Board got $5,250, while the costs of the Commission, itself, amounted to $5,350. Other items were small and relatively unimportant. It is significant, nevertheless, that the Commission paid $500 for advertising and other costs concerned with the notification of bond-holders of the debenture class that they should file their securities for liquidation. After taking into accounts these receipts and payments, the Finance Commission had in its general fund approximately $6,000, the most of which was in the Third National Bank, Nashville, Tennessee, and a minimum amount in the Citizens Trust Company, Atlanta, Georgia.

The Finance Commission also has the responsibility for liquidating the debenture bonds. For this purpose it received a transfer from the general fund of $10,500. This, together with the approximate $2,000 which was in the fund at the beginning of the fiscal period made it possible for the Commission to liquidate debenture bonds in the principal sum of $9,820, together with the interest thereon and bank charges. At the close of the fiscal period, this fund amounted to $1,643.36, the major portion of which was on account to the credit of the Commission at the Citizens Trust Company, Atlanta, Ga.

At the close of the fiscal period under review, the Convention still owed debenture bonds in the amount of $10,223. It is your auditor's opinion that some of these bonds held by the Board's officers were instrumentalities of the Convention. If the outstanding debenture bonds are not presented in the current fiscal year, it is your auditor's opinion that a reserve should be created to provide for their ultimate liquidation and that the account be finally closed. Your auditor so recommends.

The records of the Finance Commission were, as such, in perfect condition. All details and analyses were available for the inspection of and review of your auditor.

The President's Office

While the President of the Convention did not file a formal report, your auditor has, nevertheless, left his office charged with $5,668, the same being the amount collected for the defense fund in the Atlanta Convention. Since no information has been filed with this office concerning disbursements of said fund, it is ultimately presumed that the fund is still intact and in the possession or control of the President of the Convention. The [illegible] account in the consolidated balance sheet takes this into account.

The Treasurer's Office

The records and finances of the treasurer were carefully examined and found to be in reconcilement with those of the secretary. All disbursements were found to be supported by vouchers; and, in your auditor's opinion, to the interest of the Convention. The financial records of the treasurer's office are now kept in a systematic order and the summaries from the records were made without difficulty.

The Secretary's Office

The operation of the secretary's office has been under constant surveillance of your auditor and his staff for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1947. It is common knowledge that the secretary, Dr. J. M. Nabrit, passed on the beyond around the middle of April of the current year. Upon notification of this office of the passing, and before he was funeralized, your auditor visited his office and made a complete and detailed audit of his fiscal transactions for the period July 1, 1946, to the date of his death. Your auditor is happy to report that the accounts and finances were in order at the date of the death of Dr. Nabrit. Schedules and exhibits herein contained detail the operations of his administration.

After the death of Dr. Nabrit, President Jemison appointed Mrs. Ann Taylor Hayes to serve in the capacity of acting secretary pending the meeting of the Board of Directors.

Your auditor caused the books of the acting secretary, Mrs. Hayes, to be audited up to June 30, 1947, and until Dr. U. J. Robinson was elected to succeed the late Dr. Nabrit. Contained in this report, however, are transactions up to June 30, 1947, only.

The Statistician's Office

The report of the statistician's office, National Baptist Convention, was filed with the office of the auditor upon the return of Dr. Smith from the World Baptist Alliance Meeting at Copenhagen. A detailed audit of the receipts and disbursements was made, and the the result of that examination is contained in the appropriate schedule.

The Sunday School Publishing Board

The books and records of the Sunday School Publishing Board as maintained under the direction of Dr. A. M. Townsend, as secretary, were carefully audited and examined by your auditor and his staff. It is significant to report that of the total assets of this Board, 13.18% was in current form. This compares favorably with a year ago, but the total current assets were slightly more than $189,000, as against approximately $111,000 a year ago. Current liabilities of this Board amounted to approximately $12,000 at the end of this year, or less than 1% of its assets. This is compared with approximately 1.4% of the total assets, of a year ago.

The largest asset of the Sunday School Publishing Board, of course, is the amount due it by the National Baptist Convention, itself, and its Boards and Departments. This alone accounts for nearly 80% of the assets of this Board.

The records of the Sunday School Publishing Board are in perfect condition. Your auditors are under obligation to report that, in all their experience, they have not encountered records more scientifically kept than those of this Board.

A detailed audit of the receipts, disbursements, vouchers, costs, comp tions, payrolls and the like, were made by your auditors and found to a with the records maintained in the office of the secretary. The resident countant of that Board, Mr. Charles H. Webster, along with the secret Dr. A. M. Townsend, is due great credit for the magnificent way in the accounts and finances are handled.

The profits of the Sunday School Publishing Board were less in the y 1947 than in 1946. This is accounted for principally by an increased in cost of goods manufactured and sold from 37.8% in 1946 to 45.0% for the rent year. Selling expenses decreased slightly, but the decrease in this g of accounts was offset by a slight increase in administrative costs. The crease in labor and materials, with which all members of this Convention familiar, brought this decrease in the net profit in spite of an increase most sales. Notwithstanding these increases in costs, the Sunday Sch Publishing Board earned an overall net income of $95,000. This profit employed in the interest of the Convention as set out in its statement of ceipts and disbursements.

The B. T. U. Publishing Board

Again, the auditor must report that the accounting methods employed this Board are entirely unsatisfactory. This showing is occasioned pa if not principally, by the fact that the bookkeeper of the Board, Mrs. Ferg passed away in October, 1946. After the death, no intelligible records maintained; and, it was necessary for your auditor to require his staf progress the books from the date of the death of Mrs. Ferguson to June

It is your auditor's opinion that bids should be let for the printing of publications put out by this Board. The situation this year, of course, is marginally different to that which has obtained over the years. It is auditor's sincere opinion that purchases from the Clarion Printing Comp could possibly be out of line with that in the trade generally. Your aud recommends that the Board charged with the supervision of the activities this unit be required to take steps which, in our opinion, would correct th unreasonably high costs.

This Board lost something over $1,500 in the fiscal year just closed. Y auditor can only repeat what he had to say in the 1946 audit—mainly, this and other business boards should show a net profit of not less than
of the net sales.

Your auditor had the complete cooperation of the secretary, Dr.
and his staff. It is worth repeating, nevertheless, that no person empl by the B. T. U. Board has the scientific competence to handle the record the Board which are necessary to reflect its true operations.

The Home Mission Board

The Rev. Theodore Lovelace has greatly improved his method of acco
ing. At least, items of receipts and disbursements are placed in cash bo which purport to classify in accordance with the criteria of the source of position. For this, Dr. Lovelace is entitled to great praise.

Notwithstanding this improvement in the records of the offices of Home Mission Board, your auditor is under obligation to report that som these receipts, somehow, did not find their way into the records provided that purpose. Your auditor has, nevertheless, included what he believes be a proper figure among the receipts, thus bringing the total into recon ment with the beginning and concluding cash balances.

The Foreign Mission Board

As usual, the accounts and records of this Board are in excellent condi
n. This is one of the two Boards which require less effort on the part of r auditor in making its examination. This Board has more cash at its posal than all other Boards put together. Its investment policy seems to r auditors wise.

During the year, the Foreign Mission Board received slightly less than 6,000, most of which was from contributions. It did, however, receive roximately $2,400 from interest and rents on its investments. It is sigicant to note that this Board paid for missions only slightly less than ,000 and for missionaries' salaries approximately $20,000. This being the pose for which the Board is created, it can only be said that it is living to its purposes. During the year, this Board spent approximately $6,500 the improvement of its printing plant. Your auditor inspected these im-vements and is satisfied that they were in the interest of the Board.

During the year, this Board made a loan to persons and groups denomina-ally affiliated with it in the Philadelphia area. Your auditor did not see horization for this loan, but it is being amortized in amounts with which were informed, was the original plan. Over all, your auditor believes t the affairs of this Board are well administered.

Office of the Editor of the Voice

Editor Barbour filed with your auditor a report of the transactions of office. This report only showed cash receipts and disbursements made him. Your auditor understands that the "Voice" is printed largely by Sunday School Publishing Board. This, together with the fact that tor Barbour was official delegate of the National Baptist Conven-to the World Baptist Alliance in Copenhagen, made it inadvisable for us nclude that schedule. We have, nevertheless, set up as a liability due to Barbour $300 covering the excess of his expenditures over his receipts the year just ended. It could be that the figure is marginally in error;
, one way or the other, the difference is unimportant.

Sunday School and B. T. U. Congress

The report of this auxiliary is prepared in an appropriate schedule. This iliary spent all its receipts for the promotion of its own purposes. At close of its California Convention in June of this year, it had a deficit
n unimportant amount. (See schedule.)

The American Baptist Theological Seminary

This school is operated under the very able direction of Dr. Ralph W.
y, its president. Schedules covering the receipts and disbursements, both he Seminary and by the Secretary-Treasurer, are made a part of this ret in the appropriate section hereof. This school is ably administered by Riley. He is meticulous in his efforts to control its finances and man-ment.

In June, 1947, your auditor was informed that the accountants of the thern Baptist Convention (white) impounded the fiscal records of this ol for the purpose of determining how much of the funds had gone into ilding which the Southern Baptist Convention was, at that time, con-ting on the campus of the Seminary. These books were returned while r auditor was in the course of making his annual examination. This, together with the fact the accounting staff of the school was generally competent, made it difficult for your auditor to prepare accounting ments which are in keeping with college reports as laid down by the Ame can Association of Colleges and Universities.

It was necessary for your auditor and his staff to reproduce on papers complete excerpts from the duplicate copies of receipts on file in office of the president, in order to determine the total income of the sch
In the course of this scheduling of receipts, it was discovered that seve times appeared in what purported to be the cash receipt book, but did n appear on the duplicate receipts. Your auditor has included such items the receipts of the school, and its cash balance reflects such inclusions.

Your auditor is in consultation with the president of the Seminary wi respect to the procurement of the services of a competent person to hand the accounts of the institution.

The Woman's Auxiliary (Convention)

President Layton of the Woman's Auxiliary filed with your auditor a of her receipts and disbursements. The same is included in this report.

This office has been in constant touch with the secretary of the Woma Convention throughout the fiscal year in an effort to produce the kind system which will insure that she has a complete accounting of all funds ceived by her, or under her jurisdiction. She has been most cooperat with this office in her efforts to develop such a system as would provide required control.

Treasurer Gibbs of the Woman's Convention, was the delegate of that fice to the World Baptist Alliance in Copenhagen, and was unable to file report until the day on which this report is dictated. Notwithstanding delay, she did file with your auditor sufficient information concerning fiscal operations of her office to make it possible to include a schedule.
is interesting to note that this office paid over to the training school in Na ville, which it operates, nearly $20,000 during the fiscal year just clo Much of this was paid through the Finance Commission, since Dr. A.
Townsend is chairman of the Board of Directors of that School.

It is recommended by Treasurer Gibbs that she be provided with a fi cabinet and a typewriter for her office. Your auditor believes this to b reasonable request, and so recommends.

The Convention Proper

Several of the officers of the Convention, proper, were unable to su your auditor with their books. This was due, we suppose, to the fact many of them were in attendance upon a meeting of the World Baptist liance. Some, who did not go, were evidently in close and regular co with those who did, and have had very little time to prepare reports for office. The omission of such reports, however, does not importantly a the overall result.

When the financial position of the Convention and its Boards, and de ments are taken as a whole, a highly sound fiscal position is revealed.
example, the current assets, that is to say, those things which the Conve owns, and which are either already cash, or could be immediately conv into cash, are equal to approximately 14 times the immediate maturing of the Convention. Or, looking at the financial position of the Conve

From another vantage point, it can correctly be said that, of every dollars worth of cash or property of every kind held by the Convention, its Boards, and departments, something over 89 cents is over and above all debts of every description.

Furniture and fixtures, and machinery and equipment are carried at $22,- .60, and $20,684.88, respectively. This is a minor fraction of the fair value these assets. A conservative policy has been followed over recent years th respect to the writing off of depreciation. During the current year, wever, except for the Sunday School Publishing Board, there was very le left to depreciate. Likewise, it was felt that buildings had been adetely depreciated in former years to satisfy what should ordinarily have n provided in the current fiscal period.

It will be interesting to the constituents of this Convention to know for at purposes the funds which they provide are expended. Of the total ome received by the Convention, its boards, and departments, 48% was ended for missions and education—32% of the total income of the Con-tion was spent for missions and 16% for education. This compares with % for this board category for the year ended June 30, 1946.

During the year just ended, the increase in net assets (net worth) re-ved 36% of the net income of the Convention, its boards, and departments against 29% the year preceding. In the fiscal year closed June 30, 1947, of the overall net income was applied in the decrease of the Conven-
's obligations. This is compared with 13% of the income for the year t preceding. Administration costs were roughly the same as the year ed June 30, 1946. At the end of the previous year, however, your au-or did not go into an analysis of administration costs. Since the over-cost of this department was roughly in line for 1946 to that of this year, is assumed that for 1946, the distribution was the same. It would show t when all costs of operation and other applications are considered, this r, 1947, is better by 7% than the year previous, when the addition to the worth of the corporation is considered as a whole.

By and large, it can safely be said that few corporations in America can ribute their overall income in such way that the administration costs uld not exceed 12%.

Inside administration costs, your auditor has seen fit to analyze this item
: Conventions, 5%; Administrative, 5%; Legal Research and Accounting,
; and Connectional Relationships, 11%. By "Connectional Relationships" eant affiliation with the World Baptist Alliance, Fraternal Council, of rches, and the like. By "Conventions" is meant costs of meetings of the ional Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Inc.; Sunday School and B. T. U. Cons, and the like. By "Legal Research" and "Accounting" is meant the s of the operation of the offices of the Statistician, legal counsel for the vention, and the auditor's offices.

SIXTY-SEVENTH ANNUAL REPORT OF THE FOREIGN MISSION BOARD

Rev. C. C. Adams, Corresponding Secretary

Mr. President; Officers and Members of the National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Incoporated:

We are happy to make this, the sixty-seventh annual report, giving an account once more of our stewardship entrusted by you. During the past year, it seems that the Lord has been especially gracious to us and our Board. Not that all of our sailing on the tempestuous sea of passing time has been smooth nor that we have not had some peculiar problems. But, despite this, we have been moving steadily forward in the execution of the work of World Missions, and now stand face to face with our greatest opportunity and challenge.

Knowing that the Lord is with us and goes before us to prosper the work, all we need is faith and courage to accept the opportunity and challenge in full confidence and follow where the Lord leads. We have had our joys, our sorrows, and our setbacks, but, thank God, no defeats.

Therefore, with deep appreciation to our pastors and churches who have supported us with their prayers and liberal donations, and with profound gratitude to God, it is a pleasure to submit the following highlights of the past year:

(1) We have returned and sent four missionaries to the foreign fields and have made arrangements to send at least four more. Money has been sent to return four missionaries to this country.

(2) The chief burden of Christian missions is to bring lost souls to a knowledge of the saving grace of Christ, and to this end it is a special joy to report that more than 10,000 souls have been brought to a saving knowledge of Christ in the past year.

(3) Our hospitals have continued in an increased manner in relieving physical distresses.

(4) The number of pupils in all of our schools exceeds 10,000 and our churches in South, East, Central and West Africa now number in the thousands.

(5) We felt the need of making a tour of all of our fields in Africa and, during our visit to South and East Africa, we organized the whole section of South, East and Central Africa under the supervision of Dr. D. S. Malekebu, president of the National Baptist Assembly of Africa.

(6) We have bought and caused to be shipped to Libera three new trucks at a cost of more than $6,000.00.

(7) We have shipped about $20,000.00 of building material and equipment to our foreign fields. Great progress is being made in our building program, and Suehn's campus has been electrified by wiring and the installation of a large Diesel engine.

(8) At Suehn, 20,000 cement blocks have already been made, much material assembled on the campus, and actual construction on the two-story girls' dormitory will begin at the end of the rainy season in October. A clinic, a carpentry shop and a tool-house have already been finished on the campus.

(9) A new 150' x 50' brick building at the Pilgrim Station in Nigeria has just been completed and is now in use. Three more buildings are under construction there.

(10) Repairs and remodeling have begun at the Carrie V. Dyer Memorial Hospital in Nigeria.

(11) A new annex of brick is being added to Dr. Malekebu's hospital at Nyasaland.

(12) The new building in Nassau, Bahama Islands, is under roof and work have been completed but for misunderstanding among the native leaders which will require another visit there by me, and the placing of an American at the head of the work there.

(13) We have developed, and are still developing, among the natives the spirit of self-help. All told in all of our fields, they have contributed by way of school tuitions, hospital fees and donations, more than $46,000 in the past year. In recognition of the work in the hospital in Monrovia the Liberian Government is now contributing $5,000.00 annually.

(14) Two years of our ten-year plan of expansion and permanent building have been met perfectly. We still have eight more years to go to realize the full objective of our ten-year plan.

(15) We have kept up all of our connections and responsibilities in the Foreign Missions Conference of North America with its world-wide missionary significance.

(16) We have maintained our record in sending out all budgets and missionaries' salaries three months in advance.

(17) We have spared no pains in trying to make and keep The Missionary Herald an informative and constructive missionary magazine.

(18) We have kept up strenuous efforts to keep our pastors and churches informed of our activities and the latest developments in World Missionary activities.

(19) We acknowledge with thanks our deep gratitude for wholehearted response from so many of our pastors and churches to our needs and appeals, but regret to say that there are still thousands of them on whose ears all appeals fall without the least response.

Therefore, in the light of the highlighted accomplishments above mentioned, and the hundreds of smaller ones, but of no less importance, we humbly but joyfully submit the sixty-seventh annual financial report.

Text: Behold, I say unto you, Lift up your eyes, and look on the fields; for they are white already to harvest. And he that reapeth receiveth wages, and gathered fruit unto life eternal: that both he that soweth and he that reapeth may rejoice together.—John 4:35, 36.

This passage represents the overflowing concern and love of Christ for the miseries of a lost and suffering world, a world neglected, lost and bruised by sin, groping in fear, frustration and fog of confusion. The heart of God's love extends in the personality and life of Christ. It was a love and a concern that evinced itself in tears, pleadings, and work that knew no end in its sacrifices. These words, first of all, have a stinging indictment of spiritual blindness and moral stupidity even against those who had the closest contact with him: those who had been selected and called to be his spiritual helpers those who had been under his special teaching and guidance by day and night. They should have, by this time, known better, seen more clearly, and understood more profoundly.

They are here accused of looking at the dust of the earth when they should have been gazing at the enraptured vision of stars and eternal verities that God has purposed in man. They were somnambulists walking and dreaming in a false world. They needed to be awakened to the stern realities of life and man's relation and responsibility to God and man. For it is only when man is awake to the truth of life that he can and will behave as the child of God, who he is.

With the teeming millions yet lost in the fog of heathen superstition, bruised and mangled by sin in Africa, India, China, Burma, Japan and the isles of the seas, this indictment from the lips of Jesus stands as an awful judgment against thousands of indifferent pastors and churches of our day who are engrossed in the side issues of the Kingdom, blind to the vision of the church's responsibility and deaf to cries of the world's lost and suffering souls for whom Christ died and charged his church with the witnessing of the blessings of salvation. Surely to such neglecting pastors and churches this indictment is repeated with its thunderous judgment. Lift up your eyes and behold the field of the suffering and lost millions who wait on them for light, hope and salvation. Man's indifference to man is born of ignorance that takes him out of a proper conception of his relationship and responsibility to God and all men as common brothers in the family of God.

This passage contains a dramatic opportunity and a challenge that glorify and immortalize labor and the best in man. This challenge appeals to the best and highest in man and to his divine nature and kinship with God. It is a challenge fired with a great and holy purpose, and is the only work big and eternal enough to properly consume the highest interest of man. In this work man becomes a partner with God in redemption and the realization of God's purpose in him. One so engaged in this work is aptly described in the sentiment of the language of an eminent ancient who said: "I'm building a statue, not in granite and stone, which the corrosive tooth of time and blight of years can mar; I'm building a monument in the hearts of the youth of Rome." In this monument the heart of Christ is enshrined, opening the vista of eternal life to the unsaved of the world.

This is a challenge to harvest the golden sheaves from the wastes of time and the gathering storms of destruction. May we catch the urgent necessity of the compulsion that Jesus felt when he said: "I must work the works of him that sent me, while it is day: the night cometh, when no man can work."

This challenge is the acid test both of our loyalty to Christ and the validity of the claim and mission of the church. It is loaded and surcharged with the dynamics of overpowering moral suasion and the church is confronted with no choice of an alternative. The urgency of the necessity is one of DO or DIE. Now is the time for action. Christ is the world's present and only future hope. It is he or chaos for nations and civilizations. He is the Light the heathen wait on and depend on us to carry, and may we join in the message of the hymn:

Lead on, O King Eternal, the day of march has come;
Henceforth in fields of conquests Thy tents shall be our home.
Thro' days of preparation Thy grace has made us strong,
And now, O King Eternal, we lift our battle song.

Lead on, O King Eternal, till sin's fierce war shall cease,
And holiness shall whisper the sweet Amen of peace.
For not with swords loud clashing, nor roll of stirring drums,
With deeds of love and mercy, Thy heav'nly kingdom comes.

Lead on, O King Eternal, we follow, not with fears;
For gladness breaks like morning where'er Thy face appears.
Thy cross is lifted o'er us; we journey in its light:
The crown awaits the conquest; lead on, O God of might.

The average age of our students, grade for grade, is much younger than average for Liberia as a whole; also they are making progress in t studies and increasing their skill in the trades more satisfactorily than others to come as soon as we have room for them.

Other Activities

Our farm and garden did well for us, furnishing a considerable pe in Liberia. From our goats we have gotten a considerable quantity of m our herd has increased. We now have 11 goats. We have had no bad with our sheep, but most of the increase have been males, which were for food for ourselves and students. We now have seven sheep. Our chick and ducks have supplied us with eggs and a good quantity of meat.

We managed to get a well dug in a convenient location, which will b great help to us in obtaining a supply of good water. The cement that ear Dr. Adams:

We were happy to have you stop by to see us on your return from the other rts of Africa. Your presence was an inspiration to all of us. We feel like en working harder because you seem to understand, approve and appreciate hat we are trying to do:

We know you must have been very tired when you returned home. In ite of many unpleasant happenings, which you know about, we have had good year. We had, seeking entrance into our school, more students than e could accommodate. All of our present teachers and workers have worked rd and have given full co-operation. The Rev. J. B. Falconer's coming to has been one of our real and big blessings, and under his leadership we are re that Suehn's building program will be realized. In fact, much has been ne already along that line.

We have now under cultivation the largest farm in our history. We feel at our food problem will soon end. The prospects for our rubber plantation e good, and we feel that in the end it will more than justify our purpose.

Our evangelist and pastor, Rev. John Lymas, devotes all his time very fectively to religious work. He makes tours and often baptizes large num-rs. We are much pleased and encouraged with the health of our work in neral.

For school and farm purposes, we have received a total of $21,889.59.

tement does not contain figures for money sent Major Falconer for buildsis, as of January 1, each year, to keep building costs divorced from

Unfortunately, we do not have before us a detailed statement of station for the year. The teachers have been doing their usual faithful with a full school, but the year has been somewhat marred by the health of Mrs. P. A. Bryan Jackson. Because of this Mrs. Jackson has arrived by plane in the United States. Her service in Africa has been faithful and effective.

Since Mrs. Jackson's break in health and departure, ill health has taken Rev. John Love Divine, who had been made principal in her abs and Rev. Lafayette Jackson is left with a great burden to carry. This accounts for the lack of a detailed statement. We have reached agree

Dear Dr. Adams:

I am happy to report the fullest and most successful year's work twenty-six years' existence of our station. God is abundantly bless
We give special thanks to God for Dr. J. C. Austin and the Pilgrim Ba Church of Chicago, and for you and the National Baptist Convention the liberal support given us.

Dr. Adams, you cannot know, nor can I tell you, what your visit to us and the whole of Nigeria. Your personal touch, sermons and dresses will long and increasingly live—your visit was just what we at the time. May God ever bless you and continue your great service.

This year, in our main station and 11 outer stations, the schools are owded with more than 3,000 students, and we have 39 teachers. Five ndred converts were baptized, and the religious tide is high.

Our farms are in a high state of development, with crops of rubber, palm uts, oranges, lemons, grapefruits, pineapples, corn, yams, cassava and any other vegetables.

Our building program is getting well in hand. This year, we finished a ent-brick building 150' x 50', with all the work done by us. Our self-help money given or raised by us for the year amounts to more than $9,000.00.

We are teaching self-efficiency by including carpentry, cabinet-making, asonry and agriculture; and at our farm demonstration station we hold veral governmental cilations. The Government sends students to pursue e study of agriculture under us.

I am happy to be able to submit to your consideration this brief report.

Yours faithfully,

SAMUEL W. MARTIN, Headmaster

I had the pleasure, recently, of visiting this promising and thriving mission
1,600 students, 15 teachers and 15 churches, to which number of churches

This station was renamed in honor of the late Dr. W. W. Brown, of New rk, who was a pathfinder in foreign missions. The school buildings are brick and built according to Government specifications. Most of the teach-s are paid by the Government, in exchange for use of the buildings. This t enables us to apply more on the building program. To be exact, 10 of 15 teachers are paid by the Government.

Brother Mahlangu emphasizes evangelism and self-help and as results, consions and baptisms are constant. The self-help idea, this year, brought s mission $3,131.50. Brother Mahlangu's salary is paid by the Nineteenth reet Baptist Church of Washington, D. C., but the institution is the special jective of the Metropolitan Baptist Church, New York City, Dr. W. Abner own, pastor. Brother Mahlangu has rendered long and faithful service d we are committed to, and are now engaged in, the act of purchasing a new automobile to serve his field. The car is to be the property of the

TRANSVAAL STATION

Lichtenburg, Union of South Africa

REV. S. N. MGQAMQO in Charge.

Brother Mgqamqo has a preaching station and a group of nine churches.
has no school. He is filled with an evangelistic zeal and goes about aching. I saw him while in the Union and had a pleasant time with him.
nder the supervision of Dr. D. S. Malekebu, we are sure his work will e more orderly shape.

PROVIDENCE INDUSTRIAL MISSION

Chiradzulu, Nyasaland, East Africa

REV. D. S. MALEKEBU, M. D., Superintendent
MRS. FLORA E. MALEKEBU, Assistant

Dear Dr. Adams:

Along with my annual report I am sending a copy of the constitution
the National Baptist Assembly, which stated we are still making progre Mrs. Malekebu is the honored president of the Women's Auxiliary and doing a fine job. Many new areas have been penetrated with the gospel sage. Men come with their wives, to be baptized; and in cases of more th one wife, they agree to give each other up, saying each has the right save their souls. Chiefs come, and send requests that the Word of God sent them. Everywhere there is a hungering for the gospel and the of education. We continue to go deep into the sections of South Africa wi the gospel has not been preached, with fine results. Much progress is be made in Southern Rhodesia. Here in Nyasaland, the base of our activi many souls are being buried in baptism. They come from all quarters our Annual Assembly, consuming many days of walk on the part of co thousands. Our Assembly meets this year from August 12 to 17, and we asking that a certain amount of money be raised to cut down deeply o debt for 800 acres of land recently purchased. We are recommending t the Assembly proceed to build a hospital on the leper colony as soo possible. The people are looking forward to a great spiritual blessing this coming session. We are telling the chiefs of the country of the need a hospital in the leper colony, and I feel sure they are going to co-oper in getting it.

The coming of our Secretary to this country was looked forward to w special interest. His failure to reach Nyasaland brought heaviness to hearts of the whole of the country. Of course, we understand the condi and difficulty of traveling here, but we take courage and look to his promi special visit to Nyasaland in 1949.

Since our return in 1944, we have completed three new buildings, one which is known as "Adams Hall," in honor of our Secretary. Our from all sources: churches, tuition, hospital fees and Baptist Assembly about $12,000.00.

Our gratitude goes to our Secretary, Dr. C. C. Adams, who, in send our salary and help ahead of time, has done much in advancing the w without so much worry and strain. The Antioch Baptist Church, our church in Cleveland, Ohio, Dr. W. H. McKinney, pastor, has done greatly her gifts and prayers to help in making the work run smoothly. To all friends in America we are grateful for whatever they have done for Afri

THE BAHAMA ISLANDS, JORDAN MEMORIAL BAPTIST TRAINING SCHOOL

Nassau, Bahama Islands

This work has successfully concluded its third year. It has greatly ulated the people of the Islands and spurred other sources to do along educational lines. Our purpose there is not to compete with an but to encourage and co-operate. This work has run smoothly and be joy, all but among the leadership of the Islands. This will necessitate placing of an American there to head the work.

We are spending much more money than we had anticipated. Our original lea was to spend $5,000.00 annually but, over and above that, we have ought ground for a school and the first unit of the building program there costing $30,000.00. But for local confusion this building would have been mpleted and ready for use.

This is a worth-while work—to touch and influence about 500 boys and ls annually. We shall not turn back. I will make another trip there in tober and endeavor to rectify matters and see that the building is finished.

CENTRAL AMERICA, JORDAN MEMORIAL STATION

Bluefields, Nicaragua, Central America

REV. D. A. TIMPSON, Principal

This station, founded many years ago under the influence of Dr. L. G.
rdan, has just this year been retrieved to our fold. It has persisted and rried on through the intervening time. Now it is on our regular list of pport. Many gifts were made to Brother Timpson, on his recent trip to e States, in money and equipment for the station. A piano, the gift of ne Memorial Baptist Church of Philadelphia, Pa., Rev. L. G. Carr, pastor, ails shipment.

SOUTH AMERICA, BRITISH GUIANA

We do not have what may be called a station here, for lack of cohesion and derstanding among the brethren in these parts. Therefore, all we have felt dified, under the circumstances, to do is to make token fellowship gifts, nually, to certain pastors of from $50.00 to $100.00, each. They are our thren, and mutual good will and fellowship is needed.

Annual Report

HOME MISSION BOARD

NATIONAL BAPTIST CONVENTION, INC.

Kansas City, Missouri, September 10, 19[illegible]

Mr. President, Members of the National Baptist Convention, assembled

My dear Friends:

I am delighted to appear before you at this time to present my [illegible] report in connection with the Department of Home Missions and Evangel[illegible] of our Convention. First, I wish to thank each and every one of you [illegible] the very fine support our Board has had in its effort to carry out the des[illegible] of the department and the orders of the Convention. We are grateful [illegible] deed also for administrative cooperation and influence.

President Jemison has been liberal in his help from every angle, and [illegible] cause of the encouragement he has given us from time to time, we h[illegible] been able to hold up our head and proceed in an orderly manner. The v[illegible] ious departments of both Conventions, men and women have demonstr[illegible] a very abiding interest in our work. For these reasons, we are in p[illegible] tion to say, and that without fear of successful contradiction, that we h[illegible] been a huge success for several years now, and to our delight by the hel[illegible] God, each year we witness an increase both spiritually and financially.

Emphasis Needed on Internal Missions

Declaring that headway has been made, it is still a well-known fact [illegible] there is a serious and detrimental lack of emphasis placed on missions [illegible] here at home. This has been so all along, and it is going to take a long [illegible] yet to sell the idea to the man at home that his first duty is where he re[illegible] First things first. It is with difficulty, indeed, that a man sees and re[illegible] substantially to the fact that a man's first and most imperative duty is [illegible] which lies nearest him.

In the first place, emphasis is needed because of the vast territory [illegible] signed to this department. It is missions at home, and home with us m[illegible] the United States of America and the Isles of the Sea under the Amer[illegible] flag. Of course, in recent years the project of Island Missions has [illegible] wisely transferred to another department of the Convention that was [illegible] yet is in better condition to finance it than the Home Mission Board.

Second, emphasis is needed in order to very, very substantially inc[illegible] the amount of money that is appropriated and collected otherwise for [illegible] promotion of missions right here where missionary endeavor is needed [illegible] than in any other country in the world. Who can deny that?

It is unthinkable that $25,000 or $30,000 (not necessarily all in cash) [illegible] sufficient amount to take care of the operating expense and then del[illegible] West, especially the desolate regions, with mission stations, consist[illegible] small buildings, or paying the rent and giving either all or a supplem[illegible] the salary of a minister qualified to carry on; to furnish the much needed [illegible] porteur and trailers supplied with literature on our denomination and [illegible] its enterprises, Bibles, tracts, and other wares with operating expens[illegible] the trailer and a salary for the colporteur; several city missionaries, [illegible]

a recent adventure of this department at a salary to each that is somewhat commensurate with the times or at least adequate for them to carry on, the conducting the phases of evangelism as it should be, covering the entire territory and using such personnel as is sufficiently qualified to do justice to the [illegible] and effort, these are the things that bear heavily on us and occasion the necessity for an increased and raised budget.

We say again that $25,000 or $30,000 is not a sufficient sum to creditably do this type of work for an institution so large as the National Baptist Convention, Inc., to be engaged in.

The West

The West today is as it was 50 years ago, desolate, when it comes to church pictures, church spirit, church membership, and qualified preachers. The West is so far removed from the center of things and it is so uninteresting to the average minister who is qualified that it is next to impossible to get one to go and stay, and certainly it is impossible so long as the department is unable to give him the type of salary that he can get in other parts and that he needs. Living conditions are as high in one section as they are in another. It is not always what the minister wants, but in many instances, it is what he must have if he is to live at any rate other than a poor dying one. And that we have to do the best we can with what we have.

In many instances, ministers have to devote most of their time to sustaining a livelihood through secular activities, and I think they serve as a blessing to the community in which they reside and labor physically, as long as we experience this condition as stated above.

New Mexico

In the state of New Mexico, there is always turmoil, but we stay as far as possible from it because our business is to help and not to boss them. We do not try to assume the attitude of a presiding elder or bishop, but we cooperate with whatever state organization is presented, and in many instances, the individual pastors wish cooperation. This is not only true of the state of New Mexico, but other states that are even better organized and better indeed.

For a while, we made a limited donation monthly to a group of pastors. Later, it was decided that that amount of money to one missionary would be of greater service to both the individual and state; hence, the change. Now I understand that during the last annual session in the month of July the Brotherhood is suggesting another change. Well, there is nothing left for the Board to do but cooperate with the State in any measure it deems best unto themselves. Our missionary there for the time being is Reverend M. D. Lee of Roswell, New Mexico, who is on a salary of $100 per month. The Board has been able to keep up with him until the last two months, which arrears will be caught during this session of the Convention and a new plan of procedure begun or a continuation of the old.

The Reverend O. L. King is our Board member and has been very active. He seems to have a pretty thorough knowledge of missionary work and has impressed us as being definitely interested in promoting the cause of mission in his state. He is to be valued by us.

Arizona

Another fertile field and one in which we have been working for some years is Arizona. But like other Western states, it is stumpy and hard to break. We have been trying to build a church in Nogales for several years, but because of strife it seems by misunderstanding, there is a standstill of the work. There is eternal squabble between the state administration and the missionary, Mrs. Tena Bell Clark of Nogales. They both are right and they both are wrong. We do give Mrs. Clark credit for gathering a little group, holding them together, keeping their enthusiasm high, for raising funds for the church construction and maintenance and the very splendid cooperation with the Home Mission Board. We also give the state administration credit for cooperating splendidly with us. Dr. A. G. Kendrick, State President, is [illegible] intelligent, he is definitely interested in the promotion of missionary [illegible] in Arizona, and has a very great desire to do the best thing for all concerned. The Home Board holds the deeds to the church. The state has requested that we turn them over to them, the state; the community has requested us to hold them. Now what in the world are we to do? We have decided to hold on to the deeds until the church's situation is corrected, and then submit the deeds to the church as existing at that time. I hope both sides will bear in mind that the Board has neither desire nor need for that property.

California

We have done some experimenting this year more than ever in the state of California. The experiments have proved helpful but not by far what we hopefully anticipated. The Department and especially the Secretary have come in for a lot of rebuking because of inattention in that section. When our group was flowing in by the hundreds and being proselyted by other denominations, we began treating with the Conventions of California headed by Rev. A. W. Ross of California Baptist Convention, and W. P. Carter of the Western Baptist Convention. We made an offer of $75.00 to the California Convention and $50.00 to the Western. The Western never recommended anyone for this salary. The California Convention under Brother Ross recommended that this money be split between 2 or 3 men. Of course we did not think much of it, but hoping to get the support and a clean bill of health, we proceeded to do as was suggested by them, only to be disappointed, in that no reports were received of the work done or even money sent from the office with the exception of one man, I. W. Boll, and so we had to discontinue right away that effort. Later on, even this year, we began a scheme of cooperation that we thought would mean much for the entire section. We contracted with A. W. Ross of Los Angeles, President of the California Convention, to serve as general missionary up and down the line, hoping that he would be acceptable to the entire brotherhood, but he was not; hence Brother Ross was instructed to confine his activities strictly to his own Convention. Upon the recommendation of the official staff of the Western Baptist Convention, the appointment of Reverend L. D. Revoal was made. Rev. Ross was quite busy with the entertainment of the Congress and not much service was gotten out of him. Rev. Revoal did his part being encumbered in the same manner as Rev. Ross. It was our hope that these two men would have influenced every church in the state to cooperate with us in our Coast Wide Evangelical Movement which began to-day on Sunday, the closing day of the Congress.

Kansas

Our Board effected a very helpful cooperation with the state of Kansas presided over by Dr. J. W. Hayes of Wichita. The plan was that the Board would furnish the trailer. The state has kept up its end, but the Board is about 2 months in arrears with its obligations with the missionaries. The budget as raised was exhausted June 30th, but we requested that they wait until the Convention at which time we would satisfy them and a new budget be made. Rev. E. B. Hicks, our state missionary, is a young man, intelligent, enthusiastic, and makes a good partner in the field of missions. Brother W. L. Shooks and wife have no superiors anywhere when it comes to missions in a raw country. From time to time they have been presented in our mouthpiece, "The Missionary."

Evangelism

We have had a rather expensive, yet helpful experience in our effort to put the Nation Wide Campaign of Evangelism. The set-up was made 2 years ago in Washington with Dr. E. L. Harrison, Chairman of the Evangelical Commission, and Director in General of the Nation Wide Campaign, but later in the year Bro. Harrison's health would not permit him to do justice to the job at such a healthy salary, so he submitted his resignation. In the reorganization of the Evangelical Commission of the Home Mission Board, Dr. J. W. Perry kindly consented to assume as far as possible the leadership in the way of Evangelism of our Department. He has done splendidly under the circumstances for a busy and big man. His first effort was to sponsor the Coast Wide Evangelical Movement which was not what we expected it to be, but profitable in many ways and sufficiently encouraging to justify the effort for similar movements in other sections and at an appropriate time. It is the desire and plan of the Board to go back to the old way of Evangelism instead of the new—just setting up individual and community wide revivals both in city and rurals, requesting each community to underwrite the expense and suggest to them some of our best preachers for that field.

City Missions

We feel that city missions should be given a greater place on our program. We should attempt to employ a few city missionaries, preferably women who are competent and consecrated as far as we know, and whose business it will be to make personal contacts on the streets, street corners, the alleys, homes, hospitals and other institutions. I can conceive of no finer nor surer way of getting across the program of our Christ than that.

We are enjoying a noble experiment in this field. Mrs. Hallie Tutt of Des Moines, Iowa, is our city missionary, and is on a salary of $65 per month to start with. She is doing a very helpful work to the community and to the churches.

Ministerial Education for the Younger Ministers

We are of the opinion that we need to turn more definitely toward practical education of the younger men in the ministry. I think they need to be given also a greater opportunity to express themselves. It would be a fine thing to have what we might term "State and Regional Conferences of the Younger Ministers," presenting to them a down to date church program, making suggestions as to types of sermons, emphasizing individual study of their congregations, and hearing from them the problems that beset and upset their pastoral life.

I think this Department should be headed up by one of the younger and thoroughly prepared young men, and I have discussed this with the Rev. S. H. James of 430 N. Pine, San Antonio, Texas, who is willing to undertake it.

THE WORK OF THE YEAR

The Sunday School Publishing Board continues to perform its tasks, and the responsibilities with which it is charged.

First: Of the getting out and distribution of the Sunday school literature, religious publications, and standard song books for our great Denominational Constituency.

Second: Of sponsoring, directing and projecting the program of Christian education of our National Baptist Convention, with emphasis on Leadership Training, and work among rural churches.

Third: In sponsoring and financing certain obligations of the National Baptist Convention, which we carry as a contingent liability.

The Publishing Board, however, notwithstanding the additional burdens, some responsibilities, and the many handicaps we have had on account of the uncertainties of printing materials and supplies, the rationing of stock paper, the labor problems, and problems incident to the attempt for unionization, threatened strikes, additional taxations, etc., has carried on its regular routine work in the publication of our Sunday school literature, supplies, etc., to the satisfaction of our patrons, as shown by the continued increase in our patronage and receipts.

Our policy and determination has been, in spite of handicaps, to maintain the Standard of Excellence in our religious publications, that we might keep pace with other religious publishers, Sunday school leaders, and workers, and maintain front line recognition and respect among all the leading and aggressive Sunday school organizations and forces.

We also sustain our membership and relationship with the International Council of Religious Education, which is the most formidable and dynamic organization of Sunday school forces in Protestantism.

Our Editor-in-Chief, Dr. George W. Harvey, is a working member of the Committee on Uniform Lessons, and to have a part in the arrangement and construction of the Sunday School Outlines, and Lessons, to be used by people everywhere, is quite an honor, recognition and privilege for our Board.

We sustain membership also, in the World's Sunday School Association, an organization for the progress and advancement of Sunday school work with the Sunday school forces of all countries.

The Secretary of the Sunday School Publishing Board, your representative, is a member of the North America Administrative Committee of this organization.

In addition, the Publishing Board has given cooperation and support to other activities of the National Baptist Convention as follows:

(a) In the paying of the Convention's pro rata of the salaries of teachers and workers of the American Baptist Theological Seminary.
(b) In the operation (both expense and salaries) of the National Baptist Missionary Training School at Nashville.
(c) The salaries, materials and labor in publishing the National Baptist Voice.
(d) In the needed repairs, and the installation of equipment for increased water supply and fire protection of the buildings on the Training School Campus, at Nashville, etc.

CONTRIBUTIONS OF THE YEAR TO THE SUNDAY SCHOOL PUBLISHING BOARD

There are always some loyal, interested and sympathetic donors who realize that the Sunday School Publishing Board needs assistance in carrying on its work, especially its work of religious Education and Missions.

The Sunday School Publishing Board makes regularly, donations of Sunday school literature, religious publications and tracts, song books, etc., to prisons, jails, detention homes, charitable and benevolent institutions, public libraries, and mission stations in Africa, and Islands of the Sea, that are connected with our Foreign Mission Board, etc. These donors thereby share with us the joy and the blessing that is ours, in thus contributing our part in the carrying out of our Lord's Great Commission, "Go ye, therefore, and teach all nations; teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and, lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world."

Our Christian Education Department

Great emphasis during the past year has been given to our Department of Christian Education which is under the direction of Rev. Charles L. Dinkins. It is the purpose of this Department to provide for the churches the best that is possible in leadership in Christian education within the limit of our resources. The following is a digest of some of the activities of the Department of Christian Education during the past year:

Leadership Education and Church School Administration

Our Department of Christian Education cooperates with the International Council of Religious Education in administering the Standard Leadership Curriculum for the training of Sunday school teachers and other workers throughout our National Baptist Convention. We maintain a fine relationship with the International Council of Religious Education, and the Secretary of our Department of Christian Education serves on its Committee of Leadership Education.

During the past year approximately 10,000 persons have completed courses of the Standard Leadership Curriculum administered by the Sunday School Publishing Board, and have received course cards for the same. Approximately 5,000 other persons have been present in classes at one time or another, but did not satisfy the requirements for the courses. Nearly [illegible] persons have received Certificates of Progress. Leadership training schools and institutes have been established in almost every state convention affiliated with the National Baptist Convention, U. S. A. Many of these schools are being cleared through state directors of Christian education.

During the year also, our Department of Christian Education has prepared a new bulletin outlining the program of leadership education, including courses, textbooks, requirements for courses, how to set up schools, suggested programs of study, etc. This Department has provided some helps and leaflets for free and low cost distribution to the churches and state conventions. This is by far the largest part of our program of Christian Education, as it has been in operation the longest. This work is growing by leaps and bounds.

Our Field Program

This Department has secured the cooperation of almost every state convention in the National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Through the efforts of our Field Department, state directors of Christian education have been appointed in nearly every state convention.

To date, four states have signed our agreement of cooperation to receive subsidy from the Sunday School Publishing Board. Other state conventions have under consideration our Plan of Cooperation and are planning at the next session of their convention to approve the cooperative agreement and qualify for subsidy from the Sunday School Publishing Board.

An especially noteworthy action has been taken by the Louisiana Baptist State Convention, under the leadership of Dr. F. M. Boley, President, and Rev. W. H. Buckner, State Director of Christian Education. In October, 1946, a Christian Leadership Training Institute was held at Shreveport, Louisiana. Interest in Christian education was awakened.

Since that time, institutes, youth encampments, leadership workshops, and other meetings in Christian education, have been held throughout the State. Louisiana has been represented in National and International Christian Education meetings. In recognition of the esteem in which the Louisiana brethren hold this program, the office of state director of Christian education was made a constitutional office, and the duties of the director defined in the Constitution of the state Convention. Louisiana has adopted a budget in which the needs of Christian education throughout the state are being cared for. The actions of this state convention point the way for others to follow.

From March 25-27, our Annual Conference of State Directors was held at the Sunday School Publishing Board in Nashville, at which time, 36 persons representing 21 state conventions were present to study new trends, to become familiar with the program, and to plan for promoting the program within the state conventions. Out of this meeting has grown our Manual for State Directors.

Our institute work in the field has been carried on under the auspices of our Field Work Program. Since the last session of this Convention, institutes have been held at Ruston, Louisiana; Forrest City, Arkansas; Meridian, Mississippi; and Jacksonville, Florida. In addition, a tour of Kentucky Louisiana in ten one-day experimental institutes were held. These have proven highly successful and from them we have evolved a technique to be used in such programs.

Our Field Department has also promoted Religious Education Week. This year, the observance will be held September 28—October 5. Free materials have been prepared outlining plans for Religious Education Week and are now available. Our Field Department has also taken the lead in cooperating with the International Council of Religious Education in sponsoring the International Sunday School Convention. Through the efforts of this division of our work 126 persons from the National Baptist Convention were registered at the meeting of the International Sunday School Convention, Des Moines, Iowa, July 23-27.

Vacation Church School Work

Our Vacation Church School Division is under the direction of Miss Elizabeth L. Pointer. During the past year, experimental units for use in Vacation Church Schools have been written by Miss Pointer and Mrs. Edna Bronson. These units have been used in Vacation Church Schools experimentally and have proved to be most interesting and helpful in Vacation Church School work.

Our Vacation Church School Division also enlisted the cooperation of the Home Mission Board of the National Baptist Convention, to place a Vacation Church School worker in the State of New Mexico during one month in the summer of 1947. This arrangement points to the possibility of other cooperative programs between the Sunday School Publishing Board and the Home Mission Board.

Plans are being investigated through this Department whereby students from the National Baptist Missionary Training School can be used during the summer months to conduct Vacation Church Schools and Bible School Institutes for workers throughout the denomination.

Our Rural Church Work

The Rural Church Division of our Department of Christian Education is under the direction of Rev. V. A. Edwards. This work was launched this year having as objective the lifting of the standard of living of our rural people through the Christian church, and to strengthen the work of 16,000 rural churches in the National Baptist Convention.

The State Conventions of Alabama, Georgia, Kentucky, Louisiana, Mississippi, North and South Carolina, Tennessee and Virginia are cooperating directly with the National Rural Church Program. Other conventions have pledged their support to the program.

This division has cooperated in institute programs of our Field Department and has prepared programs and helpful literature for distribution. This division of our work cooperated with the "Town and Country Committee" of the Home Missions Council of North America, and the International Council of Religious Education.

From March 17-28, a ten day school for rural pastors was sponsored by the American Baptist Theological Seminary and the Sunday School Publishing Board. To this school six state conventions sent two representatives each, on scholarship with a view of initiating the rural church program. In this school emphasis was placed upon:

"Interpretation of the Old and New Testaments."
"Home Improvement and Family Life."
"Health."
"Recreation."
"Cooperatives."
"Religious Education."
"The Church and the Land."
"The Church and Community Agencies."

Personal contacts have been made with representatives who attended this school to observe the activities they are now carrying on.

Plans for the Future

Our Department of Christian Education plans to expand its program in keeping with the resources that may be available. These resources include financial resources necessary to underwrite the program, and personnel necessary to carry on the program.

To this end, the General Sunday School Promotion Day of the Sunday School Publishing Board, which is the last Sunday in September of each year, has been authorized as a day when churches, Sunday schools, and other auxiliaries will lift a special offering for Christian education, and send to the Sunday School Publishing Board to strengthen financially and help to promote the program of its Department of Christian Education.

A number of churches have already made this an annual part of their program.

We are now working out plans and materials for the operation of a youth program for boys, through our Department of Christian Education. We will secure a full-time director for this work.

Other plans through our Department of Christian Education include the establishment of a visual aid program, children's work program, adult program for men and women, and a youth program for girls. We are cooperating with the Woman's Convention in Missionary Education. We also plan for cooperation in the promotion of Stewardship Education and Social Education.

Our objective is to provide and carry the best in Christian education to the churches of the National Baptist Convention. To this end, our Department of Christian Education is dedicated. The Sunday School Publishing Board solicits your full and hearty cooperation in every way, and especially in patronage of our products, and in support of our Department of Christian Education, that we may be of larger helpfulness in carrying forward the tasks assigned us for the progress and advancement of the Master's kingdom.

Respectfully submitted,

SUNDAY SCHOOL PUBLISHING BOARD,

A. M. Townsend

Secretary.

FORTY-EIGHTH ANNUAL REPORT
OF THE
NATIONAL BAPTIST TRAINING UNION BOARD

Kansas City, Mo., September, 19[illegible]

To the Officers and Members of the National Baptist Convention, U. S. A. Incorporated:

Another year has passed, and I come to make a report of our stewardship. We are pleased to state that the work of this Board is encouraging.

Would we truly live for Jesus? Then let us cherish the church he established upon earth. He looks up and down the earth now to find that ancient loyalty among his people.

No true disciple can sneer at the church for which Christ shed his precious blood. He bids us speed its progress among men. In Matthew 16:18 we find that Christ built it and entrusted great power to it. We should observe her great mission and commission, and realize her constant fight against Satan who schemes to minimize her might and ridicule her rights.

Through her, he has saved his word from perishing, and saved men all along the ages. It is to her he especially entrusts the evangelism of the world.

We should be proud of our church and encourage others to attend. If the good society, songs, supplications and sermons help you, pass the good word on. Did you get a glimpse of the Master or a clearer vision of Beulah Land there? Then tell others, for it might attract them.

The greatest asset to any place is a good wide-awake church. The community owes a great debt to it. No self-respecting, God-fearing man would enjoy rearing his family where there is no church. It proves the salt of the earth socially and morally, and the "light of the world" spiritually. It cannot be stronger than its individual members. Each should reason thus: "If every member were just like me, what kind of a church would my church be?" We should support the institution that is nearest the heart of Christ, and the only one that he has set up to represent him on earth.

Our first aim should be to bring men to Christ. Then let us persuade them to join the church where they may find a better vantage point to fish for men. How God guarantees to bless us when we come out and be separate, and neglect not our assembling together! Here is the best paying investment on earth. Give it your time and talent.

We owe loyalty to the organizations of Christ's church. We mean such organizations as help promote her best life and full rounded development, and help her fulfill her mission to mankind.

It is the will of Jesus that we love our Sunday school. With his lips and life he emphasized teaching, and his last command urges us "go teach." Many still perish for lack of knowledge. Ignorance is responsible for many an angry dispute and ugly quarrel. It is one of the biggest, blackest giants we can fight.

What a power for good the Baptist Training Union can be! To EDUCATE, ENERGIZE, ENLIST and TRAIN is its special purpose. It means our church in training for real service. The young converts who attend it will have every chance to discover and develop their talents for Jesus. Let's each strive to become a better workman for God.

We owe loyal support to our pastor not only with our purse but our personality. Join him to undertake greater things for God. Our cheerful cooperation with him draws down heaven's smile.

It is absolutely essential to the success of any organization that responsibility for leadership be laid on some definite individual. This will in no way infringe on our personal rights. As the Jews were loyal to Joshua, so let us be loyal to our pastor as he leads our church to victory.

We teach our church members that the power and authority for everything reside in the church; that they should not presume to launch any movement, to execute any program; to assume any obligation; to form any coalitions, to make any substantial changes until they have been sanctioned by the pastor and authorized by the church. Our pastor is our guide in spiritual things. He is not perfect, but he is doing his best. He may not be equal to the minister whom you remember as a paragon of excellency, but whom in that far-off day you did not hesitate to criticize. He is entitled to your sympathetic cooperation in the plans which he proposes.

Zion's Herald once gave ten commandments to the laymen who desire to make greater men and preachers of their ministers. Since our Training Union members need these commandments, we pass them on to you: (1) Pray for him. (2) Believe in him. (3) Stand by him. (4) Talk him up. (5) Give him a fair trial. (6) Treat him generously in every way. (7) Help him to conserve his time for study. (8) Listen to him with open mind. (9) Praise him when he preaches well. (10) Critize him only to his face and then always in love.

Loyalty to Church Ordinances and Doctrines

We should be loyal to church ordinances and doctrines. Though some men have made many, God only gave us two—Baptism and the Lord's Supper. They give us sublime symbols of Christ's death, burial and resurrection. By them the gospel is spread in picture to every land and language. They proclaim the very sum and substance, heart and core of the sacrificial and atoning work of Christ. We should observe and preserve them in beautiful simplicity and purity.

Our Saviour is given sweetest service when we are loyal to the doctrines of his church. The Bible long ago warned us that the time would come when men would not endure sound doctrine. It has come. He asks if "the Faith" shall be found here when he comes again, and exhorts us to contend earnestly for it, to cry aloud and spare not. He exhorts us not only to bid Godspeed to the truth, but not even to receive the false teacher.

Missions

Christ's world-wide mission program challenges us to launch out into the deep of a more faithful stewardship. Many of our noblest youth are eager now to match their lives against our dollars. Christ's commission urges us out with "all the Word to all the world." When we sing that song, "Speed away, speed away on your mission of light, to the lands that are lying in darkness and night; 'tis the Master's command; go ye forth in his name," let us not shut our eyes to the collection plate, for the gospel needs silver wings. If we don't help, we may be sure our sins will find us out. If we would claim the promise, "Lo, I am with you," (Matt. 28:20) we must be willing to take or send the light to those in darkness.

Christian Education

We owe a loyal support to Christian education. Our academies, colleges and seminaries should ever hold a prominent place in our programs. Of a people who should be intelligent, it is a great democratic body like the Baptists. The better informed we are, the more capable of self-government. Through ignorance men are tempted to mistake license for liberty.

No state institution can ever take the place of our own denominational schools, and we don't expect them to, for they cannot instill our distinctive beliefs and safeguard our young people against error like our Christian schools. The more we study our holy faith, the more loyalty we will feel.

Our Lord, the world's Master Teacher, was more often called teacher than preacher. Why not be loyal to those institutions which stand for the things he taught? Christian education is not new, but is as old as Samuel and Elisha who had their preacher schools.

Music and the Baptist Training Union

If, we are convinced, music plays an important part in every relation of life and particularly in its use in connection with religious exercises, we should be as diligent and as painstaking in finding and developing musical leadership as in finding the best group leader or chairman of a committee.

The musical leader we have in mind is not of necessity the best soloist, singer or instrumentalist. Often those with such super talents think more of their public performance than they do of getting others to participate in the use of music. A good, but well-modulated voice and a consecrated personality accompanied by a liberal allowance of grade "A" common sense, is more essential to successful musical leadership than the most charming voice or instrumental skill.

The members of every Union ought to have their attention drawn to the hymns of our faith. Those that have been tested by the use of the years and are accepted for their scriptural suggestiveness and literary value. These ought to be the common property of every member. It is a mistake for leaders to be governed in their choice of songs by the idea, "Let us sing something we know." Of course we should sing those songs that are well known, yet at the same time we should seriously undertake to learn others.

Shall we use the gospel songs? Most certainly, yes. But not to the neglect of those grand hymns that belong to the whole believing world.

Leaders should inform themselves as to the principles of reverence and worship. This does not mean that long-faced solemnity shall govern or is desirable for young people. David said, "I was glad when they said unto me, Let us go into the house of the Lord." He entered God's house with "joy" and with praise upon his lips.

With that same gladness let us cultivate a proper respect for God's house and reverence for him whom we all seek to worship. Let us seek to discover and utilize musical talent. Let us exercise discrimination in the choice of hymns and all musical material, being careful to look after the spirit and the atmosphere we are cultivating in our Unions. Let us be so devoted to the right ideals that, as in every other detail, they will lead the members to delight themselves in the effort to "make his praise glorious."

Musical appreciation is only gained through the repeated hearing of good music. Likewise the real appreciation of hymns and the joys of hymn singing can only be gained by an abundant use and hearing of the same.

About Special Music

Did you ever visit a BTU where the people seemed to have the idea that all in the world they came together for was to be entertained for an hour on Sunday evening? Leaders, have you ever heard of these cheap little shows go traveling from place to place over the country trying to find audiences for their performances? Have you thought that as a leader of young people, you may have been responsible for making just such unsuccessful wanderers? For that reason, we do not encourage the use of so many special numbers in our Unions. First, the BTU is God's workshop for Christian young people. It is their one place to come and learn how to do his work by actually doing it. Second, the BTU is training in church loyalty. The individual that can only be used for special numbers is soon in demand almost every Sunday night in this or that or some other Union for special numbers. Those members are absent from their own Unions—when their presence is surely needed as a rule. Worst of all, with interest continually divided, the visiting musicians" gradually lose interest in the individual Unions of which they are members, they lack the courage to say "no" when asked to serve elsewhere—and so the inviting Union is responsible for helping to develop young Christians into rolling stones that gather no strength and power for Christ. Nowhere are they receiving nurture for strong manhood or womanhood in later years.

But where does all this lead you ask? Did it ever occur to you that your trust is to develop the musical talent in your Union? To discover the hidden possibilities which lie in your own crowd? To get your members to help you get out and win the unenlisted whose talent you need if none among you possess it? Let's talk our music over with God—and see if we don't find that he will show us how to improve our plans.

Since my father's home-going, many passages from the Scriptures have been cited as characterizing him. The message that has most persistently coupled itself with the blessed memory of his life in my mind is "CARRY ON." the words which the president of Baylor University left his student body as a legacy of encouragement. These words were found among the private effects of my father, the late Dr. E. W. D. Isaac. If he could speak to the millions of Negro Baptists today, whose cause he ever fought, he would say, "CARRY ON."

With him it was a ruling passion to give Jesus Christ the pre-eminence in all things. Consistent to a degree, the great illuminating note of his private life was identical with that which shaped and controlled his public career. It was always to honor and exalt his Lord.

As a young man, he placed his talents completely at the disposal of his Master and his denomination, to be used to indoctrinate and develop the spiritual lives of the young Baptists of the country. The difficulties and problems he faced during the early years of his work, drove him to his knees, threw him back upon his Master, who led him to success.

With a heart as big as humanity, and sympathy as wide as the world, he dedicated all that God gave him to the Giver.

One of the greatest joys and richest experiences that can come to any man is to be given an opportunity to carry on the life work of a faithful father. We shall ever cling to the principles for which he fought, and strive earnestly for the standard he set. Within ourselves we are weak, but with Christ at our side, "WE HAVE DONE THE BEST WE COULD."

We have made an effort to answer every call of the National Baptist Convention. We have safeguarded its interests to the best of our ability. Due to overwork and acting upon the orders of my physician, I have not been able to make as many meetings as usual, for the past several years. But the work has been cared for in a proper and satisfactory manner by loyal helpers.

During my administration some new methods have been installed in the Training Union work that has increased the assets of this Board both numerically and financially.

Two new quarterlies are being printed since I became your Secretary. The Intermediate and Baptist Adult Quarterlies with a circulation of 25,000 and 35,000, respectively.

Baptist Student Union

For a number of years we have made an effort to begin the Baptist Student Movement in our schools. We are happy to announce that this movement has been launched under the auspices of your Baptist Training Union Board, with the aid of the Nashville Baptist Association (White) and the Baptist Ministers' Conference of the churches of the National Baptist Convention, and the Ministers' Conference of the National Baptist Convention, Inc.

Professor S. E. Grinstead has been selected as the Baptist Student Secretary. He is doing a splendid work. Our Baptist students are being strengthened spiritually and our churches benefited.

FOURTH ANNUAL REPORT OF THE AMERICAN BAPTIST THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

Ralph W. Riley, President

Kansas City, Missouri, September, 1947

Mr. President, Officers and Members of the National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Inc., Greetings:

I am pleased to submit my fourth annual report on the activities of the American Baptist Theological Seminary. Since 1944, when I came to the institution four years ago up to this time, the past session of the institution has been in many ways the most successful as well as the most difficult year we have witnessed. The past year has been successful as a result of the largest enrollment that we have ever witnessed, totaling 122 regular students enrolled in the institution all studying exclusively for the ministry. This represents an increase of sixty per-cent over the past years. It has been successful also in the way in which the influence and reputation of the school has been extended; for far and wide the institution continues to grow in prestige and influence and to render service comparable with other institutions of its kind throughout the country. We have experienced great difficulty in the past year as result of our limited facilities and the heavy strain upon these small resources which our large student body has placed upon our growing and progressive institution. Despite the fact that about fifty of our students here are forced to find living quarters in the community, against the disadvantage in crowded conditions and transportation facilities, these men as ministers showed a great sign of willingness, cooperation and determination to prepare themselves for a larger field of service that awaits them.

Educational Drive Close

The educational drive which began April 5, 1945, closed on April 5, 1947. The drive which was initiated by the Seminary for the American Baptist Theological Seminary and the National Baptist Missionary Training School was largely supported by the churches, associations and conventions. It was also greatly supported by the constituency of the National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Inc. It is my opinion that the Finance Committee of the National Baptist Convention which holds funds collected in this drive will make a public statement as to the total money raised in this connection. In this connection, I am happy to state, however, as far as the Seminary is concerned, sufficient funds were raised to equip the new administration building which has been recently completed, and equipment for this building has been ordered and will be paid for on delivery, through the cooperation of the loyal supporters of Christian education which make up the constituency of the National Baptist Convention.

Another Plan Needed

More and more as the private religious schools of this nation face sharper competition by state supported schools and other secular institutions, it becomes increasingly important that our facilities be increased; that there be a complete and competent faculty, and a wide and varied curriculum be inaugurated. This type of expansion and growth demands a larger income. We shall not be able to develop and maintain an accredited institution without first-class equipment and the most able faculty that can be secured. This necessitates larger gifts and greater income for our educational effort. Spasmodic giving and ocrasional contributions are not sufficient to carry on an educational program in a day like this. There is a need in our constituency for a well-regulated consistent orderly plan of financing of our institution.

It seems that a plan on the part of the churches to solicit the interest and cooperation toward the establishment of the monthly "contributory plan" by churches and associations to the American Baptist Theological Seminary and Training School could be operated to a greater advantage. This would not only bring stability to our institution but at the same time develop a type of loyalty on the part of the constituency as a result of such a unified effort, that untold benefits to all would be felt. It is our hope that the two great conventions in the near future will hit upon such a plan.

Alumni Association

There are alumni pastoring churches in seventeen states, the District of Columbia and the Bahama Islands. Four of these graduates send a monthly contribution to A. B. T. Seminary throughout the year. The Alumni Association is striving to raise funds to match our future needs. We look forward to a day when every state in the Union will have in the leadership of its churches from three to five young men located in the pastorate of our churches.

Scholarships

In the execution of a well-regulated Seminary Study-Program, more and more the student's time is so largely used up that little time is left for actual remunerative work. As a result of this condition the urgency of scholarship aid faces us in significant proportion.

The cost of board and lodging and other additional cost will, of a necessity, have to be hiked to the extent that in all probability it will not be possible for a student to earn enough, during the summer months, to provide for his expenses for the school year. We therefore urge upon people interested in education everywhere to make gifts to our scholarship fund. In the Board Meeting at Cleveland, Ohio, in February of this year, from a contribution left by the late Rev. John H. Goins of Kansas City, Missouri, a former trustee of the institution, a John F. Goins' Memorial Fund was established which totals $500.00. The same is held by the treasurer of the Convention and my understanding is that the National Baptist Convention, the custodian of these funds, will continue to build this fund in memory of Dr. Goins in huge proportion.

May I call upon you to support this endeavor? There is also a need for associations and churches to seek out promising young men for the ministry and support them in the cause for such a worthy undertaking. No greater amount of charity can ever be exercised.

State Cooperation

This year we had the finest type of cooperation from the state conventions in meetings that we have been able to visit and we received contributions from those whom we have had no representatives. The State Baptist Convention of Louisiana has inaugurated a cooperative program in which the American Baptist Theological Seminary will share its proportion of all money raised in the state and it is hoped that without any interference with the local educational obligation of any particular state. Nothing but words of great praise and high commendation can be given to our President, Dr. J. V. Jemison of the Convention, who has given his unstinted and unlimited support to the Seminary over the years. In an effort to balance our budget at the end of this year, it was he who made the suggestion that the Convention come to our rescue with $2,000.00 for the balancing of our budget for the year.

Improved Facilities

In the beginning of opening of school, September 15, 1947, through the cooperation of the Southern Baptist Convention, white; and Dr. J. B. Lawrence, its Executive Secretary, we shall begin the school year with a completely new administration building. It is complete at a cost of $90,000.00, and a central heating plant which will provide additional comfort to our institution at a cost of $67,000.00 is now ready for use. We are looking forward also, before the 1947-48 term is over, to have completed a new addition to our present dormitory, Griggs Hall, sufficient space to house at least thirty more equipment. The National Baptist Convention on this score shares with us in words of praise and commendation to our white brethren in these fine gestures of cooperation and support in the ministerial educational endeavors which occupy such a large claim upon the churches of the National Baptist Convention as a whole.

Seminary Activities

In December, 1946, during our last school year our first Seminary paper, the "Seminarian," came off press which is a monthly bulletin that has received wide commendation as a splendid instrument for molding opinion and building good will for the institution.

The Rural Leadership Pastors' Conference under the direction of Rev. I. A. Edwards, Cooperative Director of Rural Church Division of the Sunday School Publishing Board, National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Inc., brought sixty visitors and twenty-five speakers to the campus. The Baptist Student Union under the direction of Mr. S. E. Grinstead and the Y. M. C. A., and life of the student body. Students in the Seminary who participated

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE MINISTERIAL BENEFIT BOARD

* * * * * * * * * * * * *

Mr. President, Officers and Messengers of the National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Inc., Greetings.

Another year has rolled around, and I am before you to make my first annual report of the activities of the Ministerial Benefit Board. This has been a great year with a tremendous undertaking. Realizing the importance of the work of this Board and the great task which rested upon her shoulders to be accomplished we went about our work with unfaltering trust and confidence in God.

We set out at once to find ways and means by which we would be able to make the Benefit system and Retirement plan a reality made known to every one possible. That we did by compiling data and putting same in a printed booklet form. And as much as lie within our power, we tried to put that booklet in every minister and Christian worker's hands.

The matter contained in this little booklet will stand side by side favorably with any Benefit or Retirement plan printed. This effort has gone a long way in establishing confidence to the extent that the Ministerial Benefit Board of the National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Inc., does mean business.

So much, until we have been able to get the favorable ear of many state conventions, congresses, district associations, churches and individuals alone with many creditable contributions. The officers of the National Convention, Dr. D. V. Jemison, President, and Dr. J. O. Dixon, Chairman, and the members of the Ministerial Benefit Board for the most part have given the work their whole-hearted cooperation and support.

We as your Ministerial Benefit Board's Executive Secretary, have traveled extensively in the past year. We visited churches, district, state and national meetings for the most part from East to West and from North to South, many times at a very great sacrifice, but realizing that the job had to be done for it was the Lord's work, for that reason we went on uncomplainingly.

We feel that if there is one department in the National Baptist Convention that is deserving of the unstinted support of the National Baptist Convention it is this department, whose duty it is to look after the forgotten man; for every type of security is prepared for every type of laborer except the minister, the first at the house, and the last at the grave.

In our Convention, there is no permanent provision made for his comfort when he becomes inactive or must retire. He is God's indispensable man, no other set of men can take his place.

It is he upon whom heaven is depending to carry the good news and glad tidings to a lost world. Jesus said, "If they fail, I have no other alternative." It is he that men are waiting for whose souls are on their way to hell. It is he who must report to God his stewardship. It is he who God through his Son is expecting to bring a lost, dark and ruined world home to him. It is he who must report safely the Banner of Salvation to God regardless of cost, tears, blood, sacrifice or suffering.

God is calling, saying, "Where is thy brother?"

REPORT OF THE SOCIAL SERVICE COMMISSION KANSAS CITY, MISSOURI, SEPTEMBER 10-14, 1947

By Sandy F. Ray, Chairman

To President Jemison, Officers, and Members of the National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Inc.

In beginning the report of this commission, I cannot resist the urge to pay a tribute to the late chairman, Dr. James B. Adams, whose dreams and insistence lifted this department to commission status. He was deeply interested in this Convention, and his services will be greatly missed. He had built up in Brooklyn, N. Y., one of the largest congregations in the nation.

Since my election to the office of chairman of this commission, much time has been spent in checking the areas in which the commission has been working, and attempting to continue its activities without serious interruptions.

This commission emerged out of a feeling of need for social education and action on the part of this Convention. World conditions render that need more acute today, than ever before. This commission is the propaganda and pressure wing of this convention. We must make bold and sustained demands for social justice. Our approach should be made tactfully and wisely. It should not create tensions and strained relations, and should not be composed of spectacular stunts.

During the year, we have testified before a Senate Committee in Washington on FEPC, and we have voiced the feeling of our Convention on the poll tax, anti-lynch bill, justice for veterans, Federal housing, and Federal aid to education. With your support, we shall continue our fight for equal rights and first class citizenship.

Know Your Community Leaders

We urge that our leaders would acquaint themselves with the leaders of their communities who administer Federal and State aid; veterans, and housing administrators, so that we may be in a position to steer our people in seeking and obtaining the benefits of these agencies. There are many benefits which a great number of our people do not know exist.

Preachers and religious leaders should study labor movements and leaders in their communities. Labor organizations are with us to stay. Our people should be advised to join, attend and seek leadership in labor organizations, that they may participate in the policy formation of their local unions. The right to work is a basic human right, and we must work to protect that right in all areas of our society.

The Church and Politics

Just how far the church should go in politics is a highly controversial question among Baptists. It is settled among Catholics and some other religious groups. They control many city councils, police forces, some state governments, and in this country, are grappling for the control of the White House. All of our public services and most of our daily bread are tied in some way with our political system. One of the prophets, in his struggle for social justice, exclaimed: "For Zion's sake will I not hold my peace, and for Jerusalem's sake will I not rest, until the righteousness thereof go forth as brightness, and the salvation thereof as a lamp that burneth." We have a moral responsibility to use the ballot to strike political corruption, discrimination, and injustice wherever they raise their ugly heads. We commend the courageous fight of Negroes all over the South, who are fighting for their rights to vote in the so-called White Primaries. We have made significant gains, and we must keep up the fight. Negroes should never become the labeled properly of any one political party. There should be regular organization Democrats, and regular Republicans, who work in the policy-forming circles of the party, but there should be a great block of unpredictable Negroes who are always free to vote for the best possible candidate in the field. Leaders in high political office fear an aroused church.

Suggestive Community Programs

There are many activities which may be used by churches, associations, and State conventions to promote a vital social service program. Social education, forums, panels, drama, interracial discussions, good behavior campaigns, social service and action committees. Working with juvenile courts, family clinics, etc. We would suggest a strong Social Service and Action Committee in each state convention, which would keep up lively and sustained interest in Social Justice for all people. Such committees would feed the national commission with material on social needs, gains, losses, and any problem in our field, with suggestive action. From this material, the National Commission would form its major statements. While we fight for full citizenship on one hand, we must prepare to fit into the total life of the social order.

This is an hour when all oppressed peoples of the world are trying to shake off the shackles of slavery. The curse of Social Injustice is the blackest spot in the American sky today. Negro people in America are the greatest sufferers under this system. It is our moral and patriotic duty to try our strength and the strength of the Almighty God against the evils of our system. We must fling ourselves into the arena with exploited, oppressed, and suffering peoples of the world, and contend for the active operation of the principles of the Constitution of the United States, for all citizens.

When we, as religious leaders, struggle for social justice, we join the company of an illustrious band of prophets, of which, Jesus himself was a militant member. The message of Jesus in this world order, is a surging arsenal of revolution. Jesus was never the sad, dissipirited, defeatist that many would picture him. He was militantly interested in Justice, Equality, Freedom. It was in one of his revolutionary moods that he made an attack upon that deeply entrenched system of greed, graft, and exploitation in the temple. It was one of the most reckless moves that any young, unpopular leader could have made. He did not dissuss it with his disciples, for they were older men, and products of the system, and would have advised against it. But Jesus threw caution to the winds, and boldly made his attack. While his disciples shuddered with fear, and Roman guards and temple police looked on, "No man laid hands on him."

During the next session of Congress, several issues will appear in forms of bills, in which we should be greatly interested. I am asking the Convention to pass the following resolution which would empower the Commission to act whenever these national situations arise: We should not give our influence to "cracked brethren leaders," who represent nothing. Our denomination has national respect and prestige. We shall work within the framework of the Christian logic, and of the Constitution of the U. S. A.

There are many bright spots on the horizon. Many walls are crumbling under the constant pressure of preparation, liberal thought, and action, and a sense of justice on the part of some of our leaders. Mr. Branch Rickey has initiated a movement in National Baseball circles, which begins a new era for Negroes. Mr. Rickey is a fine churchman. He teaches a class in Sunday school each Sunday. Americans like Mr. Rickey should have our encouragement, for only fair-minded Americans are real Americans. There is a growing number of liberal thinkers in all sections of America. We must work with them. There is an America which is to be, and an America which is not yet. It was this "America the Beautiful" of which Katherine Lee Bates sang:

O beautiful for pilgrim feet,
Whose stern, impassioned stress,
A thoroughfare for freedom beat Across the wilderness!
America! America! God mend thine every flaw, Confirm thy soul in self-control
Thy liberty in law!
O beautiful for patriot dreams
That sees beyond the years
Thine alabaster cities gleam, Undimmed by human tears!
America! America! God shed his grace on thee,
And crown thy good with brotherhood
From sea to shining sea!

The Board of Directors
National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Inc.

My dear Brethren:

Having just returned from Europe so near the time of the Convention, I did not submit a report to the National Baptist Convention in Kansas City, Missouri. However, my Office on Chaplains is still functioning.

It is true that the war has ceased and a number of chaplains have come out of the service. Others were transferred into the regular army. Then, when the Veterans' Administration was well established, they began to call for chaplains in hospitals and many of our brethren decided to serve in hospitals. Quite a number have been certified to serve in these places. For some time, there is going to be work for this office in getting chaplains in the Reserve Corps and for hospitals. If the Universal Military Training Bill is passed by Congress, we will have to furnish a great many chaplains because all of these young men, whatever school they will be attending, will have to have chaplains, so many per number of students in military training.

I am calling your attention to this so that young men in our denomination who are qualified and can pass the test may keep in mind that their country will be calling for them for service.

At the present time, we have twelve (12) chaplains in service. During the year 1947, seven (7) were released from active duty. There are forty-six (46) now serving in the Reserve Corps; two (2) full-time chaplains in the Veterans' Administration and four (4) part-time chaplains in the Veterans' Administration; making a grand total of seventy-one (71) chaplains enrolled for service

We have not had any contributions for the expense of the office since the Atlanta meeting. I did not submit a report in Kansas City, and therefore, did not ask for any contribution because I was so worn from my trip abroad that I did not think of it. Neither did the Woman's Convention make any contribution since that time.

While the expenses are not going to be what they were during the war, we are kept busy with correspondence and furnishing information to the General Commission on Chaplains.

I shall ever keep the leaders of the denomination informed and posted if more chaplains are needed, and the qualifications that shall be described by the War Department.

Trusting that the Board of Directors will make a contribution on my expenses, I am

Respectfully yours,

W. H. JERNAGIN, Chairman Ecclesiastical Committee

JAS. E. GAYLE, Executive Secretary

New Orleans, La., February 4, 1948

To the President, Officers and Members of the Board of Directors of the National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Inc., in Session:

Brethren:

We come as a group of your servants who have prayerfully and carefully weighed the matter which we are presenting to you, from all angles, endeavoring to the best of our ability to serve our denomination, by which we have been honored to hold the positions of Board Members of the General Board of the Sunday School Publishing Board, being selected by our several State Conventions, and ratified by the National Baptist Convention.

We have endeavored at all times, and in all matters of the Publishing Board to look to the best interest of our denomination, and yet we feel as Christian brethren, we should be fair to him who has wrought well in taking the lead in making for us the biggest and greatest Religious Publication House among Negroes in the world today.

Dr. A. M. Townsend was elected Corresponding Secretary of our Sunday School Publishing Board at the annual Session of our National Baptist Convention, held in Indianapolis, Ind., in 1920, thus having served with credit and honor to the race, and to our denomination, and to himself for 28 years.

In 1920, he took up the work, with the task of strengthening our Educational Set-up and building a physical structure to meet the demands of a growing constituency. To this end—he assigned himself and gave his all—his time, his talent, his ingenuity; relinquishing a lucrative practice as a skilled physician and surgeon; laying aside his reputation as a matchless teacher, and educator, a devoted and successful pastor; denying himself the comforts and companionship of home and loved ones, and spending many weary days and bedless nights, traveling into the rurals, the hamlets, the villages, the towns, the cities, making contacts.

He endured rebuffs, insults, enmity, persecution, faithlessness, suspicion, false accusations and numerous other vexations and adversities, but in the spirit of the lowly Nazarene, he laid his ALL, on the altar of sacrifice for his God, for his race, and for his denomination, and today, we, (the National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Inc.) have a million and a half dollar Plant, upward of 200 employees, viz: officers, editors, supervisors, stenographers, clerks and skilled workers, sending out each year 4 million periodicals representing all phases of our denominational Educational Set up, serving the churches and Sunday schools of our group efficiently in keeping with the leading evangelical faiths.

The General Board of the Sunday School Publishing Board by unanimous vote petitions the Board of Directors of the National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Inc.:

That due to the demands of the times in which we live, the splendid work done, the burden of responsibility and results achieved, the salary of Secretary be raised from $7,200.00 per year to $12,000.00 per year.

Several members spoke pr... and con on the matter, after which the motion to adopt the minutes w... passed.

Mrs. M. L. The amended charter of the Trade School was read for the information ... the Committee. DATE: April 30, 1947 PLACE: Pittsburgh, Pa.

The women of the Northeast Regional Convention were called together by our First Vice President, Viola T. Hill, immediately after the men's morning session at 1:15 p. m. President Hill stated that the purpose for this call was to appoint two committees; one on Promotion and one on Finance. After much discussion it was decided that each State President present contact all of the women in her state and secure their enrollment fees, which are as follows: Individual Enrollment, $1.00; Local Missionary Societies, $3.00; State Conventions, $10.00; and District Associations, $7.00.

The following were appointed to serve on Finance Committee: Mrs. Chappelle of Brooklyn, N. Y., Chairman; Mrs. H. B. Shaw of Buffalo, N. Y., Secretary; Mrs. Morris of Pennsylvania, Treasurer; Mrs. Lewis of Ohio, and Mrs. Marian Merritt of Michigan. Mrs. Merritt was asked to serve as general secretary of this meeting. Ross, Second Vice President of the Woman's N. B. She outlined, briefly, the purpose of these regional conventions. She closed her talk by placing special emphasis on "Oneness of Love."

The Committee on Resolutions appointed by President Hill was: Mrs. Ednah Lewis, Ohio; Mrs. E. M. King, Pennsylvania; Mrs. C. E. Phillips, Michigan; Mrs. Chappelle, New York; and Mrs. Ross, Michigan.

The women then proceeded to make up a program for the afternoon session. Mrs. F. A. Chappelle of Brooklyn, N. Y., was made Chairman.
The financial report was made. The enrollment for the morning was $131.00 after which we adjourned to re-assemble at 3:00 o'clock in the afternoon.

Mrs. Anna B. Talley then spoke again on our duty to our Training School at Nashville.

Mrs. B. C. Winston of Baltimore, Md., spoke briefly concerning the program of the Young People. Rev. Talley of Indiana was presented to speak for five minutes on "Adult Leadership of Youth." At this junction, the photographers asked permission to make a picture of the officers of this Regional Convention. This was done very quickly. The President then called Dr. S. D. Ross and Dr. M. A. Talley to the front to help us get $37.00 to make our money even.

The President then called for the report of the "Findings Committee" which follows:

"We, the Committee on Findings, wish to make the following recommendation: That, the publicity of the Regional Meetings be more definite, in that the state officers be properly notified that they may seek the support of pastors, local presidents, and workers that they might help to advertise the meetings. This, we feel, is an absolute necessity.

Committee:

MRS. EDNAH LEWIS, Ohio
MRS. F. A. CHAPPELLE, New York
MRS. M. O. ROSS, Michigan
MRS. E. M. KING, Pennsylvania, Chn.

With the report of the Secretary on Finance, which was $212.63, our meeting adjourned. The benediction was given by Dr. Marshall A. Talley. We left singing "Till We Meet Again."

Mrs. Brockway presented the President of the Missionary Training School, Nashville, Tenn., in the person of Mrs. M. G. Anderson. Mrs. Anderson gave a very fine report of our Training School, and appealed to the women to send their best girls to the school, for we must do our best to rear good women, as "no race can rise higher than its women." She stated that the President of Fisk University, in addressing the students at morning assembly not long ago, said, "that a few years ago he pitied us, today he envies us."

Dr. M. A. Talley added some helpful suggestions, giving some of the advantages of the surrounding country near the school, and paid a compliment to the work of Mrs. Anderson stating that she had accomplished what he at first thought it was impossible for her to do.

Mrs. Brockway requested the Convention to allow her to carry out a plan for a love-offering for our National President, Dr. S. Willie Layton. By common consent the women marched in silence and laid on the table $31.33. A blessing was asked upon the offering by Dr. M. A. Talley.

Report of the Committee on Findings

We, the Committee on Findings, are happy to report as follows:

First. The W. C. Regional has eight States present at this meeting and ten State Presidents.

Second. We note that the presiding officer, Mrs. M. J. Brockway, and the State Presidents were very broad in their thinking as to recommend that this Convention send letters of cheer and appreciation to the officers and workers because of their impossibilities of attending this session. We especially note the individuality in the wording of each letter according to their office.

Third. We further find that the Regional Meeting has been made so interesting that it has created punctuality in attendance.

Fourth. We, the Committee, note the improvement that the various chairmen are making. They seem to have so studied their work that they self their ideas more clearly. We especially note with appreciation the information given by Mrs. Ross of Michigan, also by Mrs. Anderson in presenting the purpose and objectives of the Training School.

Fifth. We find that the State Directors and local and individual enrollment should be improved.

Sixth. We, the Committee, find in Mrs. M. J. Brockway and State Presidents a very fine spirit in being broad enough to take a love-offering for our National President, Dr. S. W. Layten.

Respectfully submitted—the Committee:

Mrs. Sula Martin, Illinois; Mrs. Wilhelmina Cole, Ohio; Mrs. Mayme Blackburn, Michigan; Mrs. Lottie Granby, Indiana; Mrs. Carrie E. Phillips, Michigan; Mrs. Zoie O. Smith, Indiana; Mrs. H. J. Wells, Illinois, Chairman.

Resolutions on Behalf of the Convention

To the Members and Friends of the West Central Convention:

We wish to express our sincere thanks for the fine hospitality extended us by this fine church, this splendid pastor and the grand State of Indiana. Everything was done for our comfort and care.

We go down from Gary, Indiana, thanking God for having been here. Words cannot express our thanks and admiration for Mrs. C. D. Shaw, the State President of Indiana. May the Lord of hosts forever keep you, and may this church and pastor, this city and state continue as a living witness to the work of Kingdom building.

We go home better workers for having been the recipients of your hospitality.

Respectfully,

ANNA MAE HUNT, Kansas.

ANNUAL ADDRESS

President S. W. Layten, Kansas City, Missouri, September, 1947

Dear Co-workers:

Superstitions are irresponsible thoughts which spring from imagination. Nearly every individual has some superstitions or beliefs based upon imagination, and these unfounded imaginations ofttimes control our beliefs into omens and prognostics.

For instance. Friday is looked upon as an ill-omen today. People hesitate to start new projects or to cut out a dress on Friday. If a black cat runs ahead of our path, we stop and change our course. Now these irresponsible ideas possess individuals and, individuals are persons who live in communities—the communities, therefore, may become colored with these superstitions. To come to the point, some folks told us when we met in Kansas City in 1929, that if we drank the water of Kansas City and slept over night in this town, we would be back again and, sure enough here we are meeting today in Kansas City, Mo.

Place of Meeting

We will here express our appreciation to Dr. Holmes for all he has done in securing this beautiful edifice in which we are now assembled. I appeal to you to use this building well and with great care. Do not eat lunches, peanuts, nor throw trash and paper recklessly on the floors, so that when we shall have gone, there will be no comments on our abusive use of the building which would place embarrassment on Dr. Holmes and his fine committee to face. But, let it be said that we were among the best patrons that ever used this auditorium.

Remember, this is an age in which every man is in the spot light. We shall be judged by what we do as well as what we are. This is an age when we are seeking favorable comments, better understanding and acquaintances with each other, black and white, in any way and every way that will bring about peace and friendly feeling.

Departed Friends

The Reaper again has gleaned among the fairest and best of the N. B. C. This is a reminder that we, too, will soon be called from the scenes of our labor to answer for our stewardship here.

I am not able to give the names of all of those who have passed, but only those who were outstanding lights in our organization. Mrs. Jewel Flucker, President of the Georgia State Baptist Convention and a member of the Executive Board of the Woman's Convention passed, Friday, December 6, 1946. She was always faithful, loyal and responded to every call of the Convention. Mrs. Ruth L. Bennett, one of our pioneers, departed this life February 24, 1947. She was a member of the Executive Board and chairman of the Enrolment Committee—whose work as a statistician could not be excelled. She has not only left a remarkable record in the Woman's Convention but in her home town as well—there remains a Memorial in structure of a Home for Girls and Wilson Day Nursery bearing her name. These institutions will live long and record Mrs. Bennett a friend to humanity. She was a dear personal friend of mine. Mrs. Willa

A. Townsend, President of the Tennessee Woman's Convention; Member of the Executive Board; Trustee of the Training School and Director of the Department of Church Music, passed to her reward, on Sunday, May 25, 1947. Mrs. Townsend's many accomplishments cannot be recorded here. She was the author of several hymnals and church song books—she was an eminent musician. Her place will be hard to fill. Faithful Sister Ida Pope, President, Wolverine Baptist Woman's Convention of Michigan, departed March 20, 1947; Mrs. Aurelia C. Johnson, West Palm Beach, Florida, August 22. There follow close friends to the Woman's Convention in the persons of Dr. J. T. Brown, Dr. J. M. Nabrit, and Dr. A. L. Boone, who were of the Old Guards, and men of strong and outstanding personality. These men were all great friends to the Woman's Convention. We shall miss their counsel and their support. We pray that God will send us other helpers as eminent as they were.

Committees

I have recommended two new committees, one, the Library Committee and have appointed Mrs. E. D. McGowan, as chairman. Associated with her are: Mrs. E. B. Bohannon, Mrs. C. H. Gaddie, Mrs. Sallie C. Wade, Mrs. W. W. Arter and Mrs. S. W. Layten. The following appeal was sent out and tells its own story:

Dear Friends:

It is the desire of the teachers and workers in this institution, the National Baptist Missionary Training School, at Nashville, Tenn., to improve the work of this institution. What we need is a better LIBRARY; more books for research work. This, our students must have to do the type of work planned in our curriculum for their training.

We see great possibilities here for young people to be trained for Christian service. They are needed for missionary and educational work in the churches, districts, and state conventions, or wherever missionary work should be done. Only trained and consecrated leaders can do well the Christian service required for a war-torn world; and students in training need the proper tools with which to study and work. We have a fine group of young women. The world needs their service and we are endeavoring to prepare them. BOOKS, BOOKS, BOOKS, are needed.

This APPEAL comes to you, for we believe you are interested in the promotion of the Christian way of living, and a trained Christian leadership. HELP US with a substantial donation to purchase these books and increase our Library facilities. Whatever amount you give will be duly acknowledged and greatly appreciated. God will bless you.

Yours in the Master's service,

MRS. E. D. McGOWAN, Chairman
MRS. E. B. BOHANNON, Dean
MRS. S. W. LAYTEN, President

I recommended also at the May Board meeting and it was approved; that a Memorial in the form of portraits be made and placed somewhere in the Training School to memorialize: Dr. A. M. Townsend, the late Mrs. Jessie C. Mapp and your President, Mrs. S. W. Layten. This committee will be named before the close of this meeting.

B. Y. P. U. Committee

It has been most difficult to secure a chairman for the B. Y. P. U. I have now secured Mrs. Edna Morris, President of my own Missionary Society, to take this chairmanship which she accepted. So far, I have named only Mrs. Sallie Wade as her assistant—other names will be submitted.

Home and Foreign Missions

Foreign Missions

I hope each of you will provide yourself with a copy of Dr. C. C. Adams booklet, "Second Trip to Africa." It gives more information on the work that is being accomplished in Africa under the N. B. C. than has been made public before. Dr. Adams is truly a great man and a wonderful Executive. He is putting our stations on a partly supporting bases which should be done. He has adjusted many of the domestic difficulties in the stations. He has also planned that our missionaries shall be paid in advance.

Under his administration our present hospital, (Carrie V. Dyer,) in Liberia proved of great service to our Government during the war. It is now in great need of repairs and is inadequate to meet the demands made upon it. The Foreign Mission Board has decided that we must erect a new hospital. The cost of this new hospital is $50,000 which must be raised inside of two years. I am recommending that the Woman's Convention assume the raising of $25,000. At this hospital we need an expert American physician for whole time. Dr. Adams says that Dr. Malekebu needs a hospital which will cost $25,000. Other Stations which need new buildings and repairs are as follows:

The W. W. Brown Station	$40,000
Bendoo-Bassa	10,000
Pilgrim-Nigeria	35,000

You see the great opportunity that God is giving us to work with him to uplift Africa. And we are going to do this just like we did when we went to Copenhagen. The British East Central Africa Station has surprised our Board by raising money among the natives to cover the expense of its extension work. Dr. Adams states that Dr. Malekebu has raised $9,000 from among the natives for this work.

Home Missions

Mrs. I. M. Cogbs, Chairman of the Home Missions Department, came to see me in August and talked over phases of their work. She with Secretary of the Home Mission Board, Dr. Lovelace, I am sure, gave you their plans in Wednesday evening's meeting. The Home Mission report came to me too late to comment on as I would like to.

The Home Mission Board has caught new visions of the need of a worker in the West. I commend the Board on its new vision of the need of a missionary and colporteur in the Far West, also, approve of ministerial education for young ministers—hope they will be able to continue their work of evangelism.

Christian Education Courses

"Some Fine Things Being Developed Through Our Christian Education Commission and Education Department"

The work of the Religious Education Department of the N. B. C., is being directed by Dr. Charles L. Dinkins; Dr. M. A. Talley is dean of the Department conducted by the Woman's Convention; Mrs. A. L. Johnson succeeded the late Mrs. Jessie C. Mapp, as chairman of this Commission; Mrs. Edna B. Bronson, director of the Education Department; the other Directors are, Miss Nannie H. Burroughs, Mrs. Maude J. Brockway and Mrs. Etta Versa Frye, Young People's Department.

I regret that ill health has prevented me from giving closer study and work with these Departments.

I desire to recommend that we continue the Schools of Mission at the Training School in Nashville, as inaugurated last year. I make mention of the short term—spring and summer. These schools will be a help to those who are not able to attend during the winter, this will enable workers to become more efficient in their local churches and organizations. In these Schools of Mission they will also get programs for daily vacation Bible school.

I would like to call your attention also, to the Emphasis Days which are published in "The Informer" and "Star of Hope"—please observe these days and carry out the program—they will help us spiritually. It will encourage the leaders who are giving us much thought and study. I would also like for you to use the material prepared by these Departments, giving suggestions for programs on these Emphasis Days. I am asking Vice-President Ross to cooperate with Mrs. Bronson in the "Fellowship Day" celebration program, also. Family Week Emphasis, Mrs. Edna Bronson is working very earnestly along these lines. Another hope, the attendance at the school will bring our workers in closer touch with President Anderson, Dean Bohannon, Mrs. Nichols and Mrs. Lucile Powell and Mrs. Alpha Mosely—all are consecrated workers and they need all the encouragement you can give them.

May Board Meeting

The Annual May Board meeting from reports was a heartening experience. Seldom in the history of our meetings has there been so full attendance and expressions on the part of the Board members and the Young People's Department to rally around the objectives of our Convention. The work of our objectives proclaims the gospel to a sin sick world.

It was a joy to me, though absent, to know that you accepted most of my recommendations. There are some things I desire to take up with you if nothing happens in the Mid-winter Board meeting, in 1948.

Copenhagen

A large number of our constituents I am informed went to Copenhagen taking advantage of that great religious gathering and to see Europe. For several of these members your President requested delegate courtesies. Others of our constituents would have had the same courtesies extended to them had they informed me that they were going—I did not know they were going until they were half way across the ocean.

As it is my right by the Constitution, as president, I appointed Dr. H. M. Gibbs, to represent the Convention and me on the business point of view—not knowing at the May Board meeting that our First Vice-President would be appointed to go. At the opportune time these official appointments, will be given time to report their mission and if we find time we will give other members time to speak of their trip.

I pray to God that these women who attend this meeting will return to us rebaptized, cleared of self and inspired to give us better service. These are the days, women, if you have been really converted, you must let the Spirit of Christ show in you and not the spirit of self-control.

"The civilization of Europe, according to the testimony of those who have had a first-hand opportunity to judge, is today being rocked to its very foundations. The outcome of the struggle to preserve it is still in doubt. The processes of reconstruction proceed at a snail's pace. A good case can be made from the view that the Continent as a whole is still crumbling more than it is recovering. The one thing, that may be predicted with confidence is that if Europe sinks into further misery and chaos, America will not escape the consequences."

"There are three different crises in Europe today: (1) a physical crisis of hunger and suffering, (2) a psychological crisis of fear and despair, and (3) a moral and spiritual crisis of loss of faith in anything."

"The crisis of physical need is far more terrible than Americans yet realize. The spiritual and psychological crisis is even worse than the physical. For those who believe in the power of spiritual forces, the most hopeful signs are the little evidences of vitality in the European Churches." That is why the meeting of the Baptist World Alliance seems vital to Christian Baptists at this time. I think President Truman expressed it well when he said: "To achieve a free and peaceful world community which all of goodwill earnestly desire, it is necessary that we dedicate ourselves not only to political and economic collaboration, but to spiritual cooperation as well."

Conclusion

Why do we recommend the Christian Education Courses, the Training School, the Mission Schools, etc.? Is it not because they are the core of Jesus' teachings, the burden of his prayer,—"Father, may they be one, even as we are one."

One World is the phrase that is on every one's lip. It is not a new idea. Christians have always nurtured it; "until recently, the One World has however been scarcely a vital idea to most people." Until August 5, 1945, Hiroshima, and a dazed humanity shook off its spell and recommended its prospect—for now One World was not just something to be earnestly desired—it was an achievement speedily to be one if there were to be any world at all. And if there is to be One World the only place to start to create it is in the human heart. Out of the heart are the issues of life, including the achievement of One World and for the achievement of One World.

The Bible is God's word—it is spirit and it is true. It takes root everywhere in the hearts of people and the truth is that it deals with the basic questions that arise in men's heart—that is; Where did I come from? Where am I going? How shall I handle trouble? Why when I know right I do wrong? Why do the innocent suffer? How can I be saved from the consequences of sin and wrongdoings? Is there any other book or any enterprise that would seem to bear more directly upon present needs of a distraught humanity than to teach God's word and to give man the Bible?

"In all thy getting get understanding and in all thy ways acknowledge him." (Bible Record).

"Finally brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things."

"We thank God that he rulest still
This goodly orb on which we dwell
That he dost still his will reveal
To those who would the dark dispel
That upward o'er the peaks of time
His plan unfolds in form sublime."

It is our business to wait on God in spite of wars and rumors of wars—in spite of nations rising up against nations, and kingdom against kingdom—in spite of famines, floods, and pestilence.

"We thank God that the truth moves on
With wireless wave and healing ray;
That yester's noon was but the dawn
Of brighter glories in our day
And now by faith, in holy dream
We glimpse tomorrow's grander gleam."

Yes, we shall have a tomorrow on this earth. It is the "tomorrow" of which Isaiah tells us when he says: "The wilderness and the solitary place shall be glad for them; and the desert shall rejoice, and blossom as the rose. It shall blossom abundantly, and rejoice even with joy and singing: the glory of Lebanon shall be given unto it, the excellency of Carmel and Sharon, they shall see the glory of the Lord, and the excellency of our God . . . The eyes of the blind shall be opened . . . the ears of the deaf shall be unstopped . . . the lame man shall leap as an hart . . . the tongue of the dumb sing: from the wilderness shall waters break out, and streams in the desert . . . A highway shall be there, . . . and it shall be called The way of holiness . . . the ransomed of the Lord shall return, and come to Zion with songs and everlasting joy upon their heads: they shall obtain joy and gladness, and sorrow and sighing shall flee away."

Therefore we say to you of fearful heart, "Be strong, fear not." God is still on his throne, whether all is well in the earth or not.

"Man cannot shell God's Temple
Nor dynamite his throne;
They cannot bomb his city,
Nor rob him of his own.

"They cannot take him captive,
Nor strike him deaf and blind,
Nor starve him to surrender,
Nor make him change his mind.

"They cannot cause him panic,
Nor cut off his supplies;
They cannot take his kingdom
Nor hurt him with their lies.

"Though all the world be shattered,
His truth remains the same,
His righteous laws still potent,
The Almighty God, still his name."

Report

We are happy to welcome home the women and men who attended the World Baptist Alliance in Copenhagen. Echoes from the meeting will be heard in both conventions. It is our hope that brotherhood and the kingdom will advance mightily as a result of that meeting. The Executive Board, in the Cleveland meeting February, 1947, voted to send your Corresponding Secretary as a delegate. She is profoundly grateful to the Board, but it was absolutely impossible for her to go. There is a tremendous amount of detail work for which the Corresponding Secretary is responsible. And her work as President of the school in Washington required her presence in this country during the practically three months that the trip would have required. Getting out two issues of the "WORKER" between June and October 1st is no small task; and working out the details for our Mission Study and Christian Leadership Training Class requires a great deal more work than appears on the surface. These are the major reasons why your Secretary could not go abroad in 1947. But she wants you to know that her gratitude to you is inexpressible; and she will be ready to go when the Baptists are called to meet again.

There was another important world meeting held abroad this summer. The Second World Conference of Christian Youth was held at Oslo, Norway. We shall hear from that Conference through one of the instructors in our Mission Study and Christian Leadership Training Class, who took an active part in the meeting.

Missouri Baptist Women

Our hostess, the Woman's Baptist Missionary and Educational Convention of Missouri, presents a galaxy of trail-blazers, overcomers, and devoted followers of Jesus Christ in this great northwest country. The Convention was organized here in Kansas City in 1892. Written in letters of gold on the roll of honor are the names of her pioneers and women of achievement who followed in their train: Mrs. Lucy Page, Mrs. Sadie McClain, Mrs. Belle F. Wood, Mrs. M. L. Saunders, Mrs. C. R. McDowell, Mrs. M. E. Goins, and Mrs. A. J. Abington.

Missouri women were represented in the organization of this Convention at Richmond, Virginia. Mrs. C. R. McDowell was there, and she acquired at once a place of progressive leadership which she held until the day of her death. Your gracious and honored late President, Mrs. M. E. Goins, was the beloved Recording Secretary of the Woman's National Convention. Your present President, Mrs. A. J. Abington, now our Assistant Recording Secretary, has represented you faithfully in our National organization. But we can never think of Missouri without thinking of Estella Diggs, Leota Caston, Ethel K. Thomas, Ida M. Taylor, Ina M. Pugh, L. E. Mixson, Alberta Owens, Luella Taylor, Emma Smith, Cassie Davis, L. E. Pacy, Nannie Goins Marshall, and G. L. Gladney. Time and space would run out on us if we were to try to call the roll of that grand army of Faithfuls who have stood by Dr. and Mrs. Clement Richardson in their fine and sacrificial equalized service at Western Baptist Seminary—the pride of the Baptists of this city.

"To die is to rise in power from the husk of the earth-sown wheat,
To die is to rise in glory from the dust of the incomplete,
Death fills the hand with fresh cunning and fits it with perfect tool,
And grants to the mind full power for the tasks of its greatest school,
Death gives new breath to the runner and wings to the imprisoned soul
To mount with a song of the morning towards the limitless reach of its goal.
To die is to throb with the surges of life that eternal abides,
And to thrill with the inflowing currents of infinite love's great tides,
To die is to see with clear vision all mysteries revealed,
All beauty to sense unfolded, and the essence of joy unsealed.
Death is the end of all sorrow and crying and anxious care,
Death gives fulness for longing, and the answer to every prayer,
To die is to greet all the martyrs and prophets and sages of old,
And to walk again by still waters with the flock of our own little fold.
To die is to join in hosannas to a risen and reigning Lord,
And to feast with him at his table on the bread and wine of his board,
To die is to enter a city and be hailed as a child by its King.—
O grave, where is thy victory? O death, where is thy sting?"

Friends, death is only a dream. There is glory beyond the dark stream. They have done their work. We must close ranks, lift high the royal banner, and press forward.

Literature

If anyone doubts whether Negro church women are improving or not, they should take the time to come to our office and compare the orders for literature ten years ago with the orders of today, and they would be convinced in a moment that our women have started to school right in their own homes. They might be in the kindergarten, but if they make the same progress in the next ten years, they will be receiving their degrees from Christian colleges that they themselves have built out of their own determination to know and to grow. The story of their progress is becoming more thrilling every day. This Convention and the conventions in the states must become more and more concerned and vigilant about supplying proper material and textbooks for institutes and local societies. We are not up to the demand. The people are crowding us. We must give them more material in their own language and understanding.

In 1936, when the Woman's Missionary Union of the Southern Baptist Convention presented the Corresponding Secretary of this Convention $2[illegible] in their St. Louis meeting and told her to use it as she saw fit, your secretary decided then and there to establish a Literature Endowment Fund for church women. Woman's Missionary Union has given $250 every year since, and today, it amounts to $2,277.50 and is in the Fund which we have reported to you each year since. The Corresponding Secretary set herself to the work of producing literature for the women in our churches. Woman's Missionary Union has never given a dollar aside from the $250 yearly. All of the literature that has been produced, and all of the money that we have in the Literature Fund has been produced and earned by the Corresponding Secretary of this Convention. That gift of $250 challenged us. We believe supremely in self-help. Because we must produce more literature, the Secretary has worked hard to increase the Endowment Fund. The Convention has never been called upon to give a dollar to promote "The Worker" nor to underwrite any other undertaking. We are trying to discover men and women who will unite with us in an unselfish effort to make this Literature Endowment Fund produce more and more books and other literature. It is our hope that THE WORKER and other literature will live and grow long after we are all gone. It is therefore necessary to lay this great challenge and responsibility upon the hearts of men and women who will carry on in the name of the Lord as writers and trustees. It is our purpose to go on each year producing material, because the women in every city, village, and hamlet need it. And our men and women of talent need the foundation as an avenue through which they can express themselves for God and the Christian church. We have worked hard. But we rejoice today in the fact that God is blessing the effort, and our dream of a secure foundation will come true.

The Worker

This little magazine is still growing. Words of thanks and appreciation come to us from women of all classes and from every section of the country. THE WORKER is doing more to help the local churches and the missionary societies than any publication that we have ever sent out. The circulation has reached nearly 37,000 per quarter. And we are sure that its growth has just begun. You have noticed perhaps that Mrs. Hazel Baskerville Nelson, of Philadelphia, has been contributing two, and sometimes three, poles a quarter during the past year. We are definitely grateful to Mrs. Nelson. Mrs. Allona Trent Johns, of Virginia, will join our WORKER family this quarter.

It is quite true that we are not charging enough for the magazine. And it might become necessary for us to raise it to $1.00 per year, but we shall not increase the price unless it does become absolutely necessary. It is costing us a great deal more to get it out, and if it were not for the fact that the Editor works for nothing, you would not be now receiving a dollar's worth for only fifty cents.

We are looking for capable women to help us realize many of our dreams. But it does seem quite strange that it is so hard to find people who have faith enough to get beyond blessing us with words and applauding us with their hands, and neglecting us when it comes right down to sacrificing for a cause. We have purposed in our heart to go into the field on a campaign of enlistment. Aren't there some women and girls somewhere who have religion enough, along with their background of intelligence, to go all out for service in the field of religion? Please pray, and think on these things.

Institutes

The summer institutes that are a part of the program of cooperation of Woman's Missionary Union of the Southern Baptist Convention with state conventions of Negro Baptist women in the South, are steadily growing in attendance and effectiveness. They are discovering workers and finding many ways to promote understanding and good-will. Workers in our Daily Vacation Bible Schools have increased as a result of contacts through the institutes. The demand for our literature has multiplied. "Making Your Community Christian," "How," and "The Worker" have become instruments of service. The Baptist bookstores of the South are handling our material, and we are deeply grateful to them for their fine cooperation. You will see from our report of sales and subscriptions that our women in the local societies are using our literature in increasing numbers. It is our hope that we have some new material. We hope you will go to our book counter in Exhibition Hall and take one or more of the study books that we are using in our morning classes. By all means, have a study class this fall. Or, you might find it quite effective to form a union study class. But by all means study, and then use what you get for the good of all the people.

The Negro Woman and the Church

The Negro woman is really a "Rock in a weary land." If it were not for her, the Negro church could not stand. It would go out of business in less than a year. For some reason, we have not been able to sell the church program and keep it sold to a large number of men. Our men's movement is not quite as large as a good size prayer meeting, and our men's club is about the size that could meet in the pastor's study. Something can be done about this situation. If a church cannot sell itself to its own members, it need not hold revivals to enlist others. The Negro woman gives time, money, talent, and faithful sacrifical service to the up-keep and on-going of her church. The women fill the pews by their attendance and the collection plates with their mites.

Woman's Day has become a fad in our churches, but woman is no fad. She is faithful even unto death. Men have a day too, but it is occasion for bell-ringing and great rejoicing when they surpass the women in giving. Not long ago on Men's Day in one of our churches, the pastor was the speaker. He chose for his text, the great question that David raised in the 8th Psalm, 4th verse: "What is man, that thou are mindful of him?" The pastor labored with this difficult text for nearly an hour. A long-suffering sister, who had been quite restless during the struggle became exasperated and mumbled loud enough for persons sitting near her to hear—"What is man? He ain't nothing, that's what he is" said she. The pastor finally gave up trying to make a good case for the men, even on their day. As a concluding reminder, he said, "Now brethren, if you are anything at all, please come on up here and show it by giving $2.00 each." The congregation laughed, and a few men shambled up to the table and made their contribution. The pastor kept his eyes on the table. "Well, according to the count on this table, there are only ten men in here and fifteen half men—and as for the rest of you, well, I don't know what you are." The pastor's face was serious. The center aisle of the church has been reserved for men only.

An indication of the spiritual ebb of the men in most of our churches is that the tide stays at low. Definite plans must be instituted to change this situation. All of our churches need men. The women should not be expected to carry the major part of the financial load. If men can support sports, the liquor stores, the dens of iniquity and all manner of places that degrade Negro communities, it is the business of the church to find a way to attract them and hold them. It can be done if what we say about the gospel of Jesus Christ is true. If we lift up Christ, and if we make our own lives living Epistles to be read by men in our everyday contacts with the world, there is no reason under the sun why the gospel of Jesus Christ cannot draw. There is something definitely wrong with our religion if we cannot make it attractive. Instead of depending on the women to carry the major portion of the responsibility, let us in this year of our Lord, have a revival for men only.

Woman's Day

This day has become the most popular day in our church calendar. It is being prostituted to raising money. It should be dedicated to raising minds. Yes, raising the mind of women, men, and children to think on the opportunities, responsibilities, and achievements of women in all of those fields of service to which they have been called. If we could elevate the day to that high place in our thinking, all of the women of the church would sense their social and spiritual importance, discover new talents, and dedicate themselves more seriously to the things of the spirit. Too much emphasis is being put on raising money, and not enough on raising standards of Christian womanhood. It is our purpose to prepare some material that will help our church women to understand the significance of Woman's Day, and enrich and expand their program so as to make it a benediction to the church and a blessing to womanhood. This must be done. The Christian church has lost many of its finest ideas and most glorious opportunities by not properly evaluating and utilizing their ideas. This happened in the case of religious plays. The church fooled around and the world took the idea, established theatres, discovered and attracted actors and actresses, and now you have Hollywood, and many other by-products. The church will lose its Woman's Day if it becomes a racket instead of an unselfish, challenging reason. On Woman's Day we should discover speakers, singers, players, and leaders for various church activities. But we sit down and listen to somebody make a Woman's Day speech, and we get up and do nothing about it. There is a danger of wearing people out with talk that is neither challenging nor constructive. All of our major programs should challenge people to dedicate themselves and to develop their talents to the highest possible degree. This is definitely the work of the Christian church.

Our Task

This Convention should be continuously engaged in either blazing new trails or broadening its present path into a highway of service. This means that we should enrich and expand our work. It would be wise for us to make it one of our tasks this year to put more women to work studying. By this means we will discover and be in position to develop more leaders. Our entire program can and should be enriched. And it can be done if we put greater emphasis on preparation for service as missionaries on the home and foreign fields, and workers in the field of Christian social service. The strength and progress of our state and national organizations are absolutely dependent upon how much teaching we do and how wisely we employ the women and young people in our churches.

The Missionary Society

The missionary society gives its members the meat of the gospel on which their souls can be fed. And it should give them messages of faith and victory fresh from the mission field to challenge them to continuous laboring and giving for the on-going of the Kingdom. A missionary society in name is not a missionary society in deed if it does not stake its very life on what the Bible says about missions. It is not a missionary society if it does not make reports from the field periodically, and does not make them so convincingly that the members will be challenged to greater faith, definite action, and consecrated giving. Listen to the report of the first missionaries that Jesus sent out: They returned saying, "Lord, even the Devils are subject to us through thy name." Reports from our mission boards are most important, and they should be made available often so that the mission fires will not burn low on the home field, and the people in the churches will have an intelligent understanding of the entire program.

The leaders should know how to present missionary information, and the emphasis should not be put on money alone, but on how the battle is going on the fields supported by the churches. The important thing about money is that it should be used for the purpose for which it is given. The ungodly personal use of money raised in the name of missions by so-called missionary societies is one of the things that God is going to burn some leaders up about. In the name of religion, what kind of doing is that? Our mission boards too are responsible for the churches and to God for the wise use of money sent up to spread the gospel. Our boards also are responsible to the churches and to the people for the character and preparation of missionaries sent to the field. Our local societies need more definite, simple, factual material sent to them regularly by the mission boards. In form, it should be on the order of the Eagle Books published by Friendship Press. Good, challenging stories for young people will give us new recruits for our youth movement.

Boiled down, missions is God's plan, and no church, society, nor organization has any business using it as their plan or appeal to raise money for themselves. Remember, God is not mocked! Missions is his plan, not ours. And it is also his plan to pay off, "whatsoever is right." Our Christian schools should go to great pains to discover and train men and women who are called of God to this service. The calling and the plan are too sacred to be neglected or desecrated. We hope there are young people here today who will think seriously of giving themselves to Christian service, either at home or abroad. We need new recruits on both fields, and we must prepare them now. Those who are going to lead in the Christian world of tomorrow must be prepared today.

Growth in Interracial Work

During the past twenty years individuals and small groups in Christian and in some welfare organizations have set themselves resolutely to the task of applying the religion of Jesus Christ in everyday contacts and relations with other races. Progress is being made. More progress has been made in the South than in any other section of our country. Perhaps this is true for two reasons. 1—There is more room for progress. 2—The Christian leaders of the South set themselves definitely to the task. They raised money to promote the cause. They took time to study the needs and to decide upon methods of approaching their definite fields of service. No group of people in any land has ever gone to so much pains to discover ways of relating themselves to interracial work.

Our office on Lincoln Heights, Washington, D. C., bears brilliant testimony to the fact that Southern Baptist women are sincerely interested in the promotion of Christian fellowship through the missionary societies in the churches and the communities. We have seen marked growth in respect for personality. For the most part, the general attitude of the white Christian women, who have taken up the cross, has changed from that of a sort of patronizing, condescending, apologetic one to that of clear-seeing, sane, progressive followers of Jesus Christ, who are acquiring the grace that goes with understanding, responsibility, and good-will. In this quality of service is the only assurance that America will become Christian. It is not the money that is put into the interracial movement that will change the two races from darkness to light on the race question, but it is whether we can continue to discover or produce men and women in both races who will work together in education, economic justice, health, and community welfare in the "CHRIST WAY." Such people lift themselves above color and race into the realm of character and class. This is happening in our country. And it is our duty to devote ourselves to the Christian type of interracial cooperation. Books, newspapers, magazines, the radio and the pulpit have done much within recent years to make the American people on both sides of the color line conscious of the fact that the two races in America will go up or will go down together. It is the business of the Christian church to do all within its power to enrich and promote this program.

The Next Step

The Christian Interracial Movement has passed the "all talk" stage. When we talk about helping people, it should be clearly understood that we are simply going to help them to help themselves. When Negroes and whites work together, the most important groups to guard against are the "gi mi" or hand-out "help us" class of Negroes, and the condescending "poor things" class of white people. The major objective of the Interracial Movement is to rid our so-called Christian nation of general traditional or legalized injustices, based on race or color; and to stimulate in the Negro a dogged determination to help himself and stand on his own feet.

Jesus Christ started the Interracial Movement. He did very little "for" people. He did a great deal "to" them. And when they responded to whatever he did "to" them, he did not take any credit to himself. He always said "Your faith did it—Your faith made you whole." Race prejudice has done something "to" the Negro's faith. The soul of the masses is wounded. Thus we see indifference, indolence, recklessness, frustration, and resentment on every hand. In things material, Negroes can do a great deal more than they are doing to help themselves. But the reaction from the injustices heaped upon them makes them too indifferent and irresponsible for their own good.

The only definite purpose that the Interracial Movement can serve is to make Christians "justice conscious" and to apply the acid test of deeds—not words—in everyday relationships. With these evidences of sincerity, it will be up to the Negro to work for the restoration of his faith in himself and in this nation. We might as well be frank: The great mass of Negro people have lost faith in America's sense of justice. What next? you ask. The necessary step toward realism will have to be simple, but concrete. In spite of all of that talk about interracialism, the fact remains that Negroes and white people are not really working together. We seem to be working apart in the hope that some day we will get sense enough to work together. Dr. C. B. Goerner, Associate Professor of Comparative Religion and Missions, Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, Louisville, Kentucky, has given us a splendid opportunity this year to study his "America Must Be Christian" together. Why not "together?" If we ever hope to become Christian, white and Negro peoples should exchange programs and round table discussions on vital questions affecting both races at least twice a year. Both races should circulate and exchange good books, magazines, and newspaper articles. Church women and young people should make scrapbooks on "Light bearers and their lights." Church women should unite in operating reading rooms for "whosoever will"—come. It is quite time for Christians interested in community welfare to operate Christian centers in strategic places. These are simple, but very practical and much needed projects for the promotion of interracial literature, information, understanding, and respect.

The second step would take both races afield to study and to improve three conditions that militate seriously against the advancement of the Interracial Movement. 1—Household employment. Conditions might have improved slightly during the war. But the war is over, and there must be a stabilization of standards, wages, and a change of attitude toward household employees. This is definitely a field of interracial work because women are the employers in this field. Workers must improve their skill and take more pride in their job. 2—Together, both races should take up the matter of unsanitary and indecent conditions that are met in all Jim Crow waiting rooms. This service, or neglect of service, is highway robbery and a disgrace to the richest nation in the world. 3—The interracial groups should take up the matter of "the iron curtain" in the diners on some of the railroads of the country. Whoever thought this nefarious scheme up meant to insult and humiliate Negroes of culture who pay first-class fares only to be insulted and humiliated. The Interstate Commerce Commission and the Pullman Company are jointly responsible for this arrangement. It is too important for people who are interested in the Interracial Movement to let it become an established arrangement. At the same time, those interested in better race relations would do well to lay before all of the railroads of this country the matter of Pullman reservations. Ticket Agents in many of our cities are actually lying for or against the Railroad Companies. They tell Negroes that they do not have reservations, when there are empties up and down in drawing rooms, bed rooms, and roomettes. The National Urban League is doing a fairly good job in the field of employment. But it should have more support from Negroes and whites who have dedicated themselves to the cause of justice in labor, general welfare, and civil rights.

The Young People's Department

Our young people are stepping up. The Department is passing its twenty-second mile stone this year. The proper growth of a child depends on four "good" things: 1—Good parents. 2—Good environment. 3—Good teachers. 4—Good church. We are the parents of the Young People's Department. Therefore, they are as good as we are. If they are not good, it is our fault. We teach, guide, direct, select, and set the example in our national gatherings and in our local churches and conventions. The national, state, and local directors are responsible for teaching the ideals and maintaining the standards set up by the parent body. It is our business to see to it that those ideals and standards are high and challenging. The churches are our young people's best schools, and it is therefore necessary that the churches offer the best in example and precept. The young people who sit in our midst today will be the real leaders in this Convention and in our churches tomorrow. They are therefore the best investment we have ever made or ever will make. We must follow through with a well planned program.

Our Young People's Department needs material and a variety of it, with which to set the field ablaze with information and enthusiasm. Young people want to know and they want to go. But we must see to it that they know where they are going. And we must guide them in the right direction. They need definite objectives in which they can see themselves and their associates benefited mentally, morally, socially, and spiritually. Have we given them the tools with which to work? The necessity for a National Camp is as great today as it was twenty years ago when we first suggested it. Anything less than up-to-date literature and a National Camp will not meet the needs of our progressive young people. We have talked and marked time long enough. What are we going to do to convince our young people that we are taking them seriously?

Points to Bear Down on in 1947-48

1—Try the CIRCLE PLAN for your Missionary Society if it is large enough to divide into circles. If your society is not large enough, get out and work and make it large enough.

2—Take greater interest in the Red Circle, or whatever your young people's organization is called.

3—Start the "Back Yard Improvement Circle." Get each member of your society to make her back yard an attractive spot. Give prizes for the best kept back yards. We have entirely too many "Queen Anne" fronts and "Sallie Anne" backs.

4—Make the room in which the missionary society meets most attractive. They are usually neglected and dark. Paint the room and have flowers or plans to give life to it. Have comfortable chairs. And above all, have necessary books and magazines in a case or on a table. See that the room is well lighted. Appoint a committee to look after the room.

5—Be sure to make a budget and follow it. Be honest with God's money.

6—Work on a definite Interracial Project. Have two good Interracial programs during the year.

7—Take an interest in everything that will improve the community. The "political pot" will boil this year. Know the record of the candidates from the United States down to your ward leader. You live on the earth, and it is the Christian's job to make it a good earth.

8—During the winter we sent out a questionnaire of the life and work of women in the churches, at the request of the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America. The women of this Convention cooperated beautifully. The following letter came from Miss Inez M. Cavert, of the organization:

> "You will be glad to know that we are getting an excellent response from the women of the National Baptist Convention, Inc. I think it is close to twenty per cent now and may possibly pass the twenty per cent line.
> "While I have not read very many of the replies, I have been impressed with their thoughtfulness. They seem to be coming from all types of churches. I have been particularly impressed with the thoughtfulness of some of the replies from women whose opportunities had evidently been very limited. I have strong hope that this may be one more link between Negro and white women."

Can We Make America Christian?

The positive answer is YES—IF—and on that "if" hangs the entire future of every man, woman, and child in this nation and millions throughout the world. That "if" means that "if" America can stop writing high sounding promises on paper and in books and go into the business of applying justice in her dealings with races that are not white. America can become Christian "if" she makes God's Word the law by which she herself lives and God's pathway to human brotherhood her chosen way. America has overspent herself in injustice to her own citizens. And it is useless for this nation to try to spend herself into peace by buying up the other nations of the world. We have come to the place where there is no peace on earth unless this so-called Christian nation makes Jesus and justice its way of life.

Where to Place the Emphasis

We can do a great deal more than we are doing with ourselves, our homes, our young people, our churches, and our communities. The one question is HOW? We must realize that the most important thing is to work definitely to improve ourselves, our homes, our young people, our churches, and our communities by finding out what is first and most important to the achievement of our desired goal, and we must lay aside anything and everything that would discourage, frustrate, or defeat us. CONCENTRATE. Do not try to cover too much territory. Christian women must work on themselves to develop the kind of faith, vision, determination, and wisdom that is needed in a day like this. They must furnish guidance, inspiration, and example for young people. They must trim their lamps and keep them burning in their homes. The church is absolutely dependent upon them, and their community is definitely their field of service. Not any of these fields can be neglected without dire consequences to the making of the new social order in which men and women of all races shall work together to make the Kingdom of Jesus Christ real in this world. It is folly to talk about a new social order, unless we concentrate on this five-point program.

"Jesus Calls Us"

Have you ever stopped to think that there are just three voices that ring out in the New Testament? The first is the voice of God. It can be heard above the noise and horrors of two thousand years—"Go ye" rings in our ears today as loudly as it rang in the ears of the disciples two thousand years ago, and reminds Christians of the one great need of mankind—Jesus Christ. Do we walk the streets blindly, or unaffected by what we see and hear? Jesus walks by our side and says to every Christian, "The harvest truly is great—Go!" God is speaking to every one of us in this auditorium—"The harvest is truly great—Lift up your eyes—Go." The great spiritual need of our brother—man—was never greater than it is today. If you are Christian, you can hear God's voice through the needs of man.

The second voice is the voice of men, women, and children throughout the world. They are in dire distress. Sin has them bogged down. They see us just as Paul saw, and we hear their voices just as Paul heard, but we like Paul, stand still, baffled and confused. Millions are standing lip toe, with their hands held high, crying, "Come over and help us." Today, and every day, the call comes ringing over the restless waves, "Send the light." God waits for the Christian to answer, "Send me"—either to serve at home or abroad, in lowly places or in a great field—"Send me." Christians, the hope of the whole world is in these six words: "Go ye"—"Come over"—"Send me."

Eighteen years ago (September, 1920) the National Baptist Convention met in this city. The women held their meeting in the Vine Street Baptist Church. Your Corresponding Secretary was absent. But thank God, she is here today. Looking out upon the world, events and conditions compell us to agree that this is the greatest day of opportunity, challenge, and responsibility the Christian church has ever faced. The war threw every door to every country in the world wide open to the gospel of Jesus Christ. And now we have come upon a time when war-weary and worn nations long for world peace as never before. All true Christians actually are begging God for one more revival. It was one hundred years ago when Horace Bushnell prayed for "exactly what the world needs and Christians are longing for today. "The Methodist Woman" sent out this prayer for "ONE MORE REVIVAL."

"One more revival, only one more is needed—the revival of Christian stewardship; the dedication of the money power to God; when that revival comes, the Kingdom of God will come in a day."

"Send it, Lord, send the revival!
Send the one for which we've prayed;
The revival of revivals;
Oh, it must not be delayed!

Let the windows now be opened,
Let the rains from Heaven fall,
Pour us out the blessing, Father,
On each one, and on us all.

Nations sit in desolation,
Cursed by wars that sprang from greed;
For our children's sake, dear Father,
Let us know our direct need.

How can peace possess our borders,
How shall strife 'twixt nations cease,
Till our wealth is consecrated
To the stewardship of peace.

We have failed thee, God, forgive us;
We have given more by far
To our armies and our navies,
To the wastefulness of war,

Than we've given to thy Kingdom
Here at home or far abroad,
Where our brothers wait in darkness
For the light that comes from God.

Send it, Lord, send The Revival,
Let it rule the market-sod,
Let it bring the dedication
Of the money power to God!

Let it bring the resurrection
Of all people from vain strife,
Let it bring the consummation
Of the reign of God and life.

* * * * * *

Oh, my sisters, once more lead us
To this resurrection place,
Where the power of Christ is waiting,
And new light streams from his face.

Just one more revival, sisters,
Hear him calling, lead the way;
You were first on Easter morning,
Be the first in our new day!"

This revival will excell all previous ones in scope, and in its deep-reaching effect. It will reach the masses and regenerate the Christians. It will be a revival in which the Spirit of God will breathe on the dry bones in our churches. In that day, which is surely coming, God's Spirit will breathe the whole habitable earth. To start such a revival, every preacher in pulpit should lift up his voice like a trumpet and call the people to concerted prayer. All the fitness God requires is that we shall feel the need of him. In such a revival, we shall not leave Africa to the mercy of ministers, but we shall carry her with us to the foot of the cross. For she, by faith, she too will receive her sight. The walls of all of Satan's strongholds shall crumble and fall. The final triumph of the gospel is as sure as the promises of God.

This war made men more God-conscious than ever before. Later on, those whose souls are lighted with wisdom from on high, will see that God was actually in this war. It is a part of his plan for the evangelization of the world. Read God's prophecy, and study the general outline of world events that have transpired during the past seven years, and you will get a fore gleam of some parts of his plan. The Christian church is entering upon the epoch of world-wide missions. God is even now looking for men and women to take the initiative. He has a world-wide plan, and only men of vision and godliness can be used by him. God permitted the war so as to remove age-old obstacles within Christian churches as well as to remove those high walls and mighty barriers between nations. Men have scorched the earth—set the wrath of nations to the bottom of the sea, and bombed everything that was in their way, except God and his throne.

Third Annual Report of the N. B. T. S. at Nashville, Tennessee

DR. MATTIE G. ANDERSON, President

Sustaining spiritual values were never more needed than today. Where patterns of life shift over night, where social life outside the home is changing—therefore the home has changed—and the change has not been radically Christian.

The young people, hemmed in as they are with wrong outlook on life, held frequently by their parents, with family emphasis on comfortable living, temporary frivolities, companionships that are evil, with rubbish of present day fiction in story and picture forced upon the eyes and mind of youth, it is no wonder that they are found seeking an outlet in wrong directions; no wonder they are unable to differentiate between that which is of spiritual value.

No longer can mother in the home shut her door in the face of bad influences, so with loss of familiar controls and securities, there has come slackening of moral and mental discipline. Adults have lost in thought and teaching, the standards by which our forefathers separated right from wrong.

The age in which we live, black is less black and often merges into white before our eyes. The conditions of modern life under which the young people are striving to work out their destinies is a challenge to leadership of the church. They are literally surrounded by unwholesome conditions. They encounter daily innumerable appeals and allurements to travel the wrong road, and many are allowed to reach conclusions in such matters without the guidance which the church and experience should give.

I am sure, out of your experience and mine in homes where children were controlled, Christian standards established, education encouraged, right social relations fostered, I am convinced that whatever spiritual values we desire for the present and future, must find their source and strength in the home and church.

The spiritual values, forces and activities do not exist for the person who is indifferent to them. It depends not so much upon what is outside of you, as upon what is inside of you—your powers of appreciation and perception—love of God and man—obedience to his commands, we are ready to conserve all that is best and purest in life here and hereafter.

Paul has given us the remedy for sustaining spiritual values in a confused world, such as in which we live. He says, "True—honest—just—pure—lovely—good report—any virtue or praise, think on these things." It is true, living rapidly, changing age—patterns of life shift over night. But of one thing we may be sure, goodness, honor, courage, truth, love, mercy, will not be outmoded nor outgrown. Humanity will always need them and will expect to find them in you and me. The world will always need men and women who are brave enough to tell the truth, do right, will not cheat nor steal, not put personal purity above phyisical satisfaction, not pretend, and ride roughshod over our ministers and missionaries.

Emphasis Week was perhaps, from all viewpoints, the best ever held. Rev. J. W. Parrish, Pastor of Shiloh Baptist Church, Columbus, Ohio, was the guest speaker of N. B. M. T. S., with exchange of time and messages with Rev. B. F. Reid, Pastor of the Zion Baptist Church, Cincinnati, Ohio, guest speaker of the A. B. T. S. Every afternoon was given over to questions by the young people who were interested in local and world problems and the relation of the church to these problems and the part they must play in their solution.

Following that week of interest, manifested by the young people, a School of Missions, directed by Mrs. Edna B. Bronson, Chairman of the Education Committee of the Woman's Convention, Auxiliary to N. B. C., Incorporated, was held for two weeks. Some of the best scholars, men and women who were experts in their various fields of religious education, were brought to the city to speak to the women who came from many states to study. Conferences were instructive, the Work Shop period most comprehensive and helpful. Altogether, it was the most timely and far-reaching project that was ever held. The students of N. B. M. T. S., as far as possible, took advantage of the class work, and all were exposed to fine Christian atmosphere.

The N. B. M. T. S., had a brilliant closing, June 2, 1947. The Commencement speaker being Dr. A. M. Townsend, Secretary of S. S. Publishing Board of N. B. C., Inc. Dr. Townsend was at his best, and the message he brought to the young women will be guideposts throughout their lives. There were three graduates, one young woman from Arkansas, who received her B. R. E. degree, after two years of study at the Training School. Two women from the Missionary Department of the Training School received their diplomas in Missionary Education, one from Michigan, the other from Louisiana. Forty-one (41) women enrolled from sixteen (16) states, and five (5) students from the Bahamas.

Field work is an integral part of the program of the Training School students. They have had the opportunity of working with different age groups in Applied Christianity at Fisk University Community Center. Eleven (11) students secured certificates in "Health and Home Nursing," with a most competent teacher of Hubbard Hospital, under Red Cross organization. Many applications are in the office already, and the outlook for the coming year is encouraging.

There are more avenues of helpfulness open to Christian men and women today than in all previous ages. The complexity of life—of society—increased knowledge of these problems—intensified in interest, aroused sympathy and a hundred other forces have thrown wide open the gates to human service.

It does not matter whether you are preaching or teaching—working or thinking—planning or building—no matter what road of service you take, let it be the choice of a mind that knows, through study, the need of the world, and of a heart that has learned, through suffering and experience, the yearning of all mankind. Then as you go in fellowship with God into your fields of service, carrying with you a sense of his presence, dominated by the desire to do always the things that please him—doing his will, will become the habit of your lives and spiritual values will unfold in all you do and say.

Our Needs

1. Our immediate need:

    1. Driveway.
    2. Building to adequately house our students.
    3. Single beds in each room for students.

ANNUAL REPORTS

NATIONAL AND REGIONAL DIRECTORS

YOUNG PEOPLE'S DEPARTMENT

WOMAN'S CONVENTION, AUXILIARY TO NATIONAL BAPTIST CONVENTION

Kansas City, Missouri, September 8-14, 1947

ANNUAL REPORT

MRS. ETTA VERSA FRYE, National Director

To the President, Officers and Delegates of the Woman's Convention, Friends:

We are happy to greet you in the Kansas Cities—twin industrial centers of our great Mid-West. These, assembled from all over the country, are aware of the fine quality and ambition of your citizens and products, because of such fine characteristics, they have gone everywhere, even the White House at Washington.

This has been a challenging year in the Young People's Department, as we come to another milestone in the history of the organization, we say with the prophet of old, "Hitherto hath the Lord helped us." The work indeed shows growth but whatever we have been able to do for our girls and young women has been accomplished only by the help of Almighty God. Our experiences have led us into a richer appreciation of what the Word means when we read "not by night, nor by power, but by my Spirit saith the Lord."

Like other organized groups that have as their goal the moral and spiritual development of young people, we have felt the impact of this leveling period—the extremes which usually follow strong disturbances to daily living. We are feeling the strain of these moral, social and spiritual adjustments in all units of our Christian society—especially in our homes and churches. These adjustments are necessary but young people are beginning to question the manner in which we are attempting to make them. They often find that lessons in Christian ethics which they get in their classes are strangely lacking when the opportunity comes for a practical demonstration of them.

Roll Call of the Faithful

No organization can succeed without a fine type of leadership. A Christian organization poses another requirement which is a "must"—leadership must be Christian along with the ability to lead. We are thanking God at this time for the fine women the states have selected to lead their young people. They are prepared for their work, anxious to learn and become better equipped for the task and above all these women are energetically interested in young people. Some have been serving the organization many years. The newcomers have ability and show promise of enriching the Department by their presence. In other words, our directors are cooperative, willing and devoted to the work. The program of the Young People's Department carries the complete roster of these workers. We hope you will get a copy and see "Who's Who" in our Department.

Junior Officers

We seem to be living up to the assertion that if given a chance, youth will take greater risks than adults—well, in the matter of our official family the young people have taken a chance on two complete sets of national officers. Now this would be suicide for any other except a young people's organization, but we have seen the risk pay off in great dividends of wholesome fellowship and mutual cooperation. The real beauty of the situation, however, is to see these two groups cooperate harmoniously throughout the week—each serving her opportunity with devotion and pride that is an inspiration to other young women. These officers represent the very finest in Christian character, for under what other circumstances could one find two sets of officers officiating over one meeting in peace and harmony? Because of their Christian spirit, their initiative and native talent, I predict for this staff of junior officers a future that will prove useful to God and the church.

Junior Council

This is a restricted group composed of girls who have served as national officers. It is human nature to feel a let-down in interest and develop a sort of blase attitude after we have reached the peak in an organization. To offset this, two years ago we organized the Junior Council. The manner in which the eligible young women are responding through continuing service proves the wisdom of such an undertaking. We are earnestly trying to keep a force a tie-in with those we have served and who have served with us.

The National Director receives many inquiries about literature for boys and young men. For a number of years we have nurtured the Crusaders or Royal Ambassadors as the organization into which the boys could advance after leaving the Sunshine Bands. Literature was available, and distributed for the benefit of these groups. Two years ago the National Director was invited to attend a conference in Nashville, Tenn., when a group representing the Laymen's Movement met to discuss measures for meeting the need for an organization among the boys to feed into the Laymen's Movement similar to the Young People's Department of the Woman's Convention. The aim of the course being to set up such age groups that would keep the boys under guidance and training from the time they leave the Sunshine Band (a co-ed activity) until they are ready-by-age to be promoted into the Laymen's Movement. It was not convenient for the National Director to make that conference but some very practical action was taken.

Dr. Jesse Jai McNeil accepted the responsibility of preparing the boys' manuals for the different age levels which are synchronized with those of the young women. The National Director was present when these manuals (in manuscript) were presented by Dr. McNeil. They are well written. There is a complete coverage of boys' interests and can be a gold mine in the hands of good leaders.

This is a very wise step and should not only be encouraged but the local churches should see to it that the great residue of Christian strength represented by the boys and young men, is saved for God and the church. Our Christian society will still be one-sided and incomplete if we make provision for our girls and young women and neglect the boys and the young men. The fact that this organization is to be a department of the Laymen's Movement is just as it should be, for when a boy reaches the adolescent period of his life he needs the counsel of an understanding Christian man. Later as he approaches and enters manhood he needs both the counsel and companionship of good Christian men. This area of boyhood, to my mind, is the greatest undeveloped resource of the church today. Only a [illegible] look at our congregation leads us to wonder—where are the young men? The obvious answer is "We lost them when we neglected the boys."

Regional Directors

The National Director gratefully acknowledges the noble assistance of the three Regional Directors, who in their special assignments are rendering fine service for God and our young people. Our Western Director, Miss Primrose Funches, and Southern Director, Mrs. Corenne Watts, were fortunate in being able to attend the World Baptist Alliance in Copenhagen this summer. We are sincerely glad that these women had such a fine opportunity and look forward to the enrichment of our work by virtue of the great experience they must have had.

Eastern Director, Mrs. Winston, has done a fine job on the home front, not only with her own responsibilities, but assisting the National Director in adjusting some of the many problems which are native to a work of this size, and by representing her at some of the meetings she was unable to attend. I am personally indebted to Mrs. Winston for the understanding, strength and comfort she gave during the period of bereavement caused by the Home-going of my own mother.

Christian Education

Our Christian Education classes, under the direction of Rev. Charles L. Dinkins, are improving each year. We are still working toward the day when every delegate in the Department will be enrolled in these classes.

The National Director has been called upon to give Woman's Day addresses —addresses before youth groups and interracial conferences. There are still other conferences scheduled where the opportunity will be given to discuss our work.

With an eye on the time when we shall be able to publish a magazine for our Department, we have improved the Young People's Topics again. For the past two years these little booklets suffered growing pains. This year, through the cooperation of Dr. Townsend and his staff, the topics have burst into a new and larger size. It is our hope that the women will encourage the use of these Topics with their young people.

Study Books

The Mission Study Theme for the year is World Evangelism. This means our missionary obligation takes us to all levels of society in every land. There will be no special mission fields during this study, for many of us will find evangelistic needs and opportunities right in our own yards.

We are making a special appeal to our young people to join in the crusade, for Christian youth can be very effective in carrying out this program among other young people.

We are recommending for Y. W. A. and J. M. A., "Christianity Where Men Work." For Senior Red Circles, "Great Is the Company" and "Tell." For Junior Red Circles, "Living Together in Today's World." In the Sunshine Bands, we are recommending, "Everywhere Preaching the Word." This book is being used during this session as one of the demonstration courses. It is one of the finest studies for Sunshiners we have had in a long time. Arranged in story form there is plenty of action, and it bristles with opportunities for dramatization and illustration.

There are many additional books to broaden our knowledge on how to be effective soul winners. Our young women will find "The Bible and Missions" a fine supplement to this year's study. "Let's Be Friends" will help the Junior Red Circle girls see how the gospel message has helped young people all over the world.

Last, but not any less effective, we are suggesting that leaders make frequent use of Bible stories and incidents on Evangelism. Here we find some of the greatest conquests through personal Evangelism.

I should like to remind you again that Christian Young People can be very effective in winning other young people. Let's give them the inspirational leadership they need and then pray for them as they try to win their friends. During this year while we are studying and thinking in terms of World Evangelism, why not put on some "Win One" Campaigns so that our young people will realize that mission study should really lead to action.

Looking Ahead

This year we are launching a three-year program in our Department which will be climaxed jointly with the celebration of the Twenty-fifth Anniversary in 1950. The three-year program will be an effort to bring more young people into the missionary work of our local churches. This increase in born will be felt in all of our organizations for them—district associations and conventions as well as state conventions and the National.

Our emphasis here in Kansas City is on the Sunshine Bands. We have geared our entire program for the week to giving leaders and potential leaders the necessary tools for enlarging their usefulness in this field of service.

In 1948, will come the appraisal of what we have been able to accomplish by way of organizations. Simultaneously with appraising our efforts with the Sunshine Bands, will be the launching of emphasis on Red Circle groups—Junior and Senior. Directors will again have special assistance through workshops and prepared leaders. The appraisal for this age level will come in 1949 when the emphasis will begin on the Adult Youth—the Young Woman's Auxiliary and the Junior Matrons' Auxiliary. By the time we reach our twenty-fifth year, the effectiveness of the three-year program should be felt in every local church, for in keeping with the missionary theme, "World Evangelism," we are going out after people—our girls are being challenged to win others of their own age and bring them into the Young People's Department.

As this three-year program is launched we acknowledge the wisdom and foresight of the women of this Convention who stood so solidly behind the Corresponding Secretary, Miss Nannie H. Burroughs, when she recommended the organization of the Young People's Department. We are grateful for the encouragement you have given year by year which has helped us to outgrow the basements and Sunday school rooms which, by reason of our small size during those early years, were quite ample for us. We are grateful for the life of our first National Director, the late Mrs. Lethia L. Craig, who efficiently pioneered the work of the Department through the years with sacrificial love and devotion. We acknowledge the need and help of God in all of our planning as is expressed in the theme for the three-year period—"Thine Is the Power." We know that unless he is in the planning there can be no worth-while fulfilment.

At a conference with Mrs. Layten, President of the Woman's Convention, in Philadelphia, a few weeks ago, I was gratified over the encouragement she gave toward our three-year program.

We are earnestly requesting the full backing of our pastors and presidents of missionary societies. We feel this is necessary to the successful consummation of the effort. And we are asking you to pray for it and give the young people and their leaders an opportunity to make it work.

It Is Tomorrow

E. Stanley Jones, in one of his devotional books, tells of a little girl going through a tunnel for the first time. After a lengthy ride through the dark when the train came out into the sunlight again, the child exclaimed "Mother, it's tomorrow."

For a number of years we have been referring to our young people as "tomorrow's church," "tomorrow's leaders," and urging them to get ready for "tomorrow's world." While we were drilling our youth on what they would be doing in tomorrow's world, the daily papers carried screaming headlines about what unchurched young people are doing today. It doesn't make good reading. Now we know that earnest, hard working, law-abiding citizens seldom make the headlines—but the fact remains that while we are constantly telling our Christian young people about tomorrow, they see others of their own age in action outside of the church. Let us harness the energies and initiative of this group and give them a chance to do something in "today's church" and "today's world." However small the service, let's help them to feel like they are contributing to the sum total of all that we are able to accomplish.

May this parting message from our Emphasis Hymn for 1947 express the aim and determination of all our young people:

Christ, the open door to service,
Prince of all, we enter there,
Thou hast charged us to go forward
Take thy message everywhere.
We will enter, we will enter,
Christ, the open door for youth!

ANNUAL REPORT

MRS. BERTHA C. WINSTON, Eastern Director

Madam President, Officers of the Woman's Convention, Delegates and Friends:

I am grateful to God for the privilege to greet you at this hour in the beautiful City of Kansas City, Missouri, the Twin City of the West, which affords such a glorious setting for the meeting of this grand Convention. From this city have come many noble workers, whose work has stood out so pre-eminently and their lights have shone so brightly that many dark corners have been transformed into brightness and beauty. Many young feet have been set on the forward march.

The noble women of this Convention have surrounded their youth with such wholesome, religious influence, that today they can stand proudly by and say, "Behold the work of thy hand, through me." The Young People's Department of our Woman's Convention, is winning many other young people to this noble cause, utilizing the doing and dreaming inclinations of youth, forming higher ideals to live by and strive for, with the right values being placed on the purpose of life.

Through our Sunshine Bands, Red Circles, Young Women's Auxiliary and Junior Matrons, young people of all ages have been enlisted for service. Like Daniel, they dare to stand; like Esther, they have the enthusiasm, zeal and ideas, they will risk their lives, for a cause.

Women of our senior missionary societies of the church, let us enlist this daring spirit. The missionary cause depends on each coming generation to carry on. You need youth and youth needs you. The church needs youth and youth needs the church. The world's need of the gospel impels us to train our young people for service, to stand with other races of the world. This can only be done by cultivating character, culture, skill and preparation for future leadership.

Youth depends on the experiences of yesterday. They have their eyes on the future tomorrow. We want things to be better tomorrow, not for ourselves alone, but for them. This is our hope and faith. Youth have the greatest stake in the world of tomorrow, let us pray that tomorrow may still be hope in the wasted frame of humanity. Youth must know that the pattern given by Christ in the Sermon on the Mount is the pattern of the world that Jesus would have men build. It must be accepted and practiced by earth as the only hope of security for the human race where the sense of justice and good will toward all predominates.

Youth must know that we live in an age of frequent changes in material values. The economic standards of values of the world shift over night. What was most valuable yesterday may be worthless today. As Christian leaders we are to provide our youth with an idea of enduring values. Only spiritual values endure the true values of life. In the midst of wreck and ruin of material values are: love, truth, justice, mercy, faith and patience, these can meet life in all its crisis with confidence, prayer, laughter and song. No home, church, business or government can endure without these values. We admonish our youth to be strong, steadfast and unmovable in a world of confusion; to keep the faith, to be an example of those principles which are being advocated by the Father and to begin action through dedication, sacrifice, service, faith, discipline and consecration to the cross. Remember, this is not man's world; this is God's world. With all of earth's beauty and splendor, with man's atomic energy, it leads nowhere without God. When duty whispers low, "Thou must," youth replies, "I can."

Duty determines destiny. Destiny which results from duty performed may bring anxiety and perils, but never failure and dishonor. Pursuing duty may not always lead by smooth paths, another course may look easier and more attractive, but pursuing duty for duty's sake is always sure and honorable. The path of honor lies through service.

Thou must be true thyself, if thou the truth would teach,
Thy soul must overflow, if thou another's soul would reach,
It needs the overflow of heart, to give the lips full speech.

The Eastern Division

District of Columbia is as usual on the front line. We, of the East, acknowledge the loss of the dear mother of our National Director, Mrs. Etta Versa Tyler. May God ever strengthen her in this great sadness. Through it all, she has carried on her work bravely and efficiently. This you will realize through the programs of this Convention which have been arranged on a high order. Our young people are being surrounded with fine literature for ideal development on Christian service.

Virginia and New York—Many valuable contacts have been made through correspondence in Virginia and New York. Mrs. Scott is the Director in Virginia now and my correspondence has been through her. I have also contacted many workers in New York. All are doing a commendable job with youth.

Maryland—The work in Maryland is growing. Young people's organizations have been set up in five new churches. Eight new Junior Circles have been organized. I was called to address the Southern Maryland District Association. At this meeting, they voted to set up a Young People's Department and Mrs. Luckett was selected as supervisor. I have spoken on five Youth Day Programs, been guest speaker on ten Woman's Day Programs and was the commencement speaker at the Maryland School of Beauty Culture. We held one week Institute for Church Youth in the month of March with fifty young people attending.

New Jersey—On July 3rd, I attended the Annual Junior Missionary Convention in New Jersey. There, I met many leaders and youth of that State. Mrs. Elizabeth Dennis, District Leader, is still thrilled over the inspiration received at our last meeting in Atlanta. New Jersey is coming up strong t Kansas.

Pennsylvania—The Youth Program in Pennsylvania is carried on in th many districts and is being backed by the efficient president, Mrs. M. E. Ki Miss Edith Weston is doing her bit to keep the work going.

Ohio—While in Ohio, I was guest and spoke at a most beautifully ar ranged Tea by Mrs. Strange and the Young People and their leaders of Clev land. They are carrying on through Youth Programs and camp activitie

Our National Camp

Our Young People are dreaming of the day when we will have a nation camp somewhere, where they can hike, swim and play with Christ's Spi over all. The chief purpose of any Christian camp is to bring togeth Christian young people in a program providing for all the phases of livi that an individual would normally need, such as the right kind of friend votions, discussion groups, Bible study, music and worth-while work pro many people hear and answer the call of life's work in such situations. O young man received his call to the ministry while attending one of Ham land's encampments. They have had several including a Stay at Bo Camp. The greatest was held on the campus at Lincoln Heights, Washin ton, D. C. There, 100 young people received great enthusiasm and we thrilled by the matchless orator and teacher, Miss Nannie H. Burrough

One hundred young people attended. LET US HAVE A CAMP!

In Atlanta, Georgia, a unique demonstration was given of camp life on th campus of Morehouse College. There was a miniature camp set up.

The young people were thrilled.

1. The Cross is such a simple thing,
   And yet it touches everything.

2. We cannot feel that such a sign
   Is other than a power divine.

3. It is a beacon ever lit

of Western Seminary. DON'T MISS IT!

TWENTY-SECOND ANNUAL REPORT OF THE WESTERN DIRECTOR OF THE YOUNG PEOPLE'S DEPARTMENT OF THE NATIONAL BAPTIST CONVENTION, WOMAN'S AUXILIARY

Eleventh Annual Report of Miss Primrose Funches, Western Director

Madam President, Officers, Members of the Woman's Convention, Directors Frye, Winston, Watts, and Delegates of the Young People's Department:

It is with deep appreciation, that I present to you an account of stewardship for the past 12 months. I have faced many unusual trials year, and have had many trying experiences. All have served as a of giving me a deeper conception of Christ, a deeper consecration to and a broader vision for service. I have been made to realize and apprecite what Christ means, when he says, "Go, work in my vineyard, and what s right, I will pay."

After our Annual Session in Atlanta, at the Mount Olive Baptist Church, Rev. W. W. Witherspool, Pastor, where we held our most outstanding meeting, we launched our ANNUAL PANTRY SHOWER for the Training School.
We are happy to report this year that this effort was a tremendous success.
We received $776.92 in cash, and with the large contribution of food staples, we placed our total receipts up to $2,000.00. We thank each state and local director as well as individuals for their cooperation. This has been one of the means by which the tables at the school have been well supplied, and we were happy indeed to witness such fine results for a project which was requested by our President S. W. Layten.

Scholarship Students, National Baptist Training School

We had in the school this year, more than 20 scholarship students. Through the efforts of our department, we reported for scholarships, $1241.72. For the Leitha L. Craig Scholarship Fund for worth students, recommended by their state and local officers, we raised $2,942.73. $269.50 of this amount, at the request of Rev. Angel of Chattanooga, Tenn., was credited to the Foreign Mission Board.

Our Queen Revue

This project was launched to enlarge funds of the Leitha L. Craig Scholarship fund. Indiana has won the plaque for two years, and if this state succeeds again this year, she will retain it as her own. Last year, Indiana reported $557.00. We take our hats off to Mrs. Jessie Riggins, the director of our Indiana State Convention. "Our baby convention," Illinois State, Mrs.
L. B. Hogan, Director, came in second with $300.00. Not only is the Queen Revue an inspiration to the youth, but it is of infinite financial value to the educational program of the National Baptist Training School.

Our Finance

This part of our work is growing rapidly, and the future will see the results of the kind of groundwork now being laid. However, much depends on your support. The West is making considerable progress, and our states are well organized. We have represented in this convention all the leading states in the West. We must now reach the undeveloped areas, and we shall not stop until we have built a solid financial front. The West is not like many states in other sections, where our good white friends give large sums of money for work among Negroes. We will have to work and develop what we have with our own money, and bring to you the fruits of our own labor.

Our Young People are trained to support all phases of our work, Home, Foreign Missions and Education. We reported last year to the Woman's Convention $8,057.72. The task of promoting finances for the Young People's Department was assigned to me by the National Director, and I have not failed to do my duty and solicit the cooperation of each state, district and local director. I did not apply for this position, but I felt it my duty to cooperate with the National Director to the fullest extent.

A Brief Resume of Activities

I have visited a number of conventions, associations and churches. The best of these programs of most interest to me was that taken by young people. Following are some of the many engagements: Tennessee young people's department, Mrs. M. M. Isaac, Director; Arkansas Regular Convention, Young People's Department, Mrs. M. P. Love, Director; Arkansas Consolidated, Mrs. A. M. Warren, Director; Illinois General, Mrs. Mildred Todd, Director; Illinois State, Mrs. L. B. Hogan, Director; Texas Baptist Convention, Mrs. C. C. Brown, Director. I also addressed two Youth Day programs in Michigan, Mrs. Georgia Jackson, Director. One was held in Detroit, the other in Flint. We had a glorious time, and more than 800 young people assembled in Flint, Michigan. It was a beautiful occasion. It is indeed inspiring to see our youth today, moving up and taking their places in the Christian world, and our department must continue to encourage them.

While working in Louisiana, I spoke there and also in Miami, Florida. All of our State Presidents are encouraging youth organizations, and this is not only commendable, but deeply appreciated by youth leadership throughout the country.

There are other fine things which I also want you to know. Our program for the Pantry Shower for our National Baptist Training School is being used as a model for our State Directors. They are using our national material and are sponsoring similar efforts for our state schools. For instance, Florida and Arkansas directors sponsored successful pantry showers for their state schools. Other states that I have visited, North and South, have used the plan of our National Queen Revue for their financial project. Through these efforts, larger sums have been reported in all young people's departments.

Time does not permit me to visit as much as I desire, but I have done my best with the time I have. The school which is dear to our hearts is overcrowded. It is a great inspiration to go there, and to see the young people preparing themselves for Christian service. Oh! That more youth would do as Christ, "Lift up their eyes and look on the fields, and see that they are ripe, already to harvest. The world needs Christ. Young people are willing to share the responsibility of helping to meet this need, if given a chance. In Gulfport, Mississippi, I discovered a beautiful young woman. After making an appeal for missions, she came forward and gave her life for missionary service. Formerly a Catholic, she is now in the National Baptist Training School, preparing for a larger service. We also have another young lady from Chattanooga, Tennessee, who is preparing for this field.

God give us young people
  Who list to thy call,
And haste to the sound of thy word
  Who gather by thousands to give to their all,
Obedient and willing, whatever befall
  To follow their Saviour and Lord.

Seeing the need for our Training School, President Layton has asked the young people to raise $2,500.00, and we hope to raise it over a period of three years, leading up to our anniversary. This money will be designated "Building Fund" and will be set aside.

Points Showing Growth in Our Finance Program

1. Scholarship funds show an increase, and more students are being encouraged to enroll for Christian service.

2. Our Pantry Shower is an established unit, without which the National Baptist Training School would be handicapped. This effort has inspired similar projects throughout the country, and suggests other possibilities for a larger service program, e. g., linen and blanket supply showers. So important and far-reaching is the Pantry Shower, that Dr. A. M. Townsend had a movie made of the shower supplies, also with students, faculty and campus activities. This will be shown at our meeting this year.

3. It is our hope to set up a permanent Student Fund through the efforts of the Queen Revue. Monies will be added from year to year to raise a large fund. This is possible under the plan for increased giving to this effort and we urge your support of the same.

4. All of these encouraging trends point to the fact that we are developing strong, intelligent, consecrated leadership in our state, district and local directors. Soon they will be experts in the field of finance, and work in this department will grow less difficult.

Recommendations

1. That some kind of informative material be placed in our Young People's Department at the National Baptist Convention, explaining in detail, the Lucretia L. Craig Scholarship Fund.

2. That no chairman be assigned to more than one committee. This will avoid overlapping and give opportunity to train more leaders through action rather than theory.

3. That the Chairman of the Finance Set up of the Young People's Department be given the power to select the chairmen of her committees. This will enable her to appoint those best fitted to do a maxium job.

4. That the duties of each director be clearly defined in writing, and that each director be given a copy of the same. The task of money raising is a job within itself and requires all of one's time. Coordination of the work of the program director with the finance and educational directors is necessary for a constructive all round development of young people, and if this were done, it would avoid constant criticism of expecting the finance director to do other than her job.

Due to the increasing number of applications for scholarships, I further recommend that a clearing house be set up for the same, thus avoiding the confusion among students and directors. Also that qualifications set up by the Training School be enforced as entrance requirements.

On recommendation of our National Director, our program was divided into three units, finance, visual aid and program. Our Southern Director was assigned to visual aid with instruction to build a department. The Eastern Director was assigned to assist the National Director in handling the program, and the Western Director was assigned Finance. As Western Director I feel I have successfully complied with this recommendation, and I wish to thank the National Director, state, district and local directors for their splendid cooperation. I also wish to thank all chairmen for aiding in their fine way with all programs for our young people. My efforts call for encouragement. If we make mistakes, we ask that you tell us, not brand us. To err is human, and it is the wise man or woman who avoids the same mistakes and corrects them. Harsh words, and unjustifiable criticism kill our spirits, but words of kindness and Christian fortitude spur our spirits and lend us on.

Baptist youth are recipients of a great heritage handed down to us. Our heritage, however, will mean little to us if we are not to gain from it, inspiration for a nobler present and a wider future. We will never be able to work together until we realize how far we are apart.

Lord of our life, and God of our salvation,
Star of our night, and Hope of every nation,
Hear and receive thy Church's supplication,
Lord God Almighty.

Lord, thou canst help when earthly armour faileth;
Lord, thou canst save when deadly sin assaileth;
Lord, o'er thy rock nor death nor hell prevaileth;
Grant us thy peace, Lord.

Grant us thy help till foes are backward driven;
Grant they thy truth that they may be forgiven;
Grant peace on earth and, after we have striven
Grant us peace in thy heaven.

A BRIEF REPORT OF MY TRIP TO THE HOLY LAND AND TO THE WORLD'S BAPTIST ALLIANCE

By Miss Primrose Funches, Western Director

On May 30th, 1947, at the Executive Board Meeting of the National Baptist Convention, in Nashville, Tennessee, I was chosen as a representative to the World's Baptist Alliance, after endorsement by Dr. D. V. Jemison and President S. W. Layten. The meeting of the World's Baptist Alliance was held in Copenhagen, Denmark, July 29th to August 3rd, 1947, and we left Chicago on June 25th to sail on the 26th with Dr. Jernagin's party for a tour of the Holy Land.

On the late afternoon of June 26th, we sailed from New York. Sixty-two persons were in our party, and at the last sight of the Statue of Liberty, we were reminded that we were leaving the comforts and security of our native land for at least two months. There were mingled thoughts of happy anticipations, and vague fears, happy anticipations of viewing unknown lands, new customs, and different people, vague fears which new experiences always excite. Leading representatives of the Baptist churches were in our party, and our guide, Dr. Myers, Art Instructor, New York University and world traveller, was our guide.

The apparently endless expanse of the Atlantic loomed large before our eyes. The days on the water deepened friendships and gave much opportunity for reflections and meditations about the great issues of life, the mystery and majesty of God, the wonder of creation, the frail genius of man. Perhaps, there is no spot on earth where God seems closer than on the heaving waters of the ocean and sea.

Our first port of call, an unspeakable welcome break in the monotony of sailing were the Azores. The port of the city of Ponta Delgada presented us with startling pictures of human life, e. g., poverty, expectancy, disappointment, gladness, curiosity. All these and other expressions were reflected in the faces of those who waited on the shore.

The city in the background is like a picture in chalk. Spotless walls, gleaming in white! What comfort to see a brave steeple rising from the topmost hill in the city, a symbol of man's eternal hunger for him, whom to know is life, and life forevermore.

With a backward look at the fading view of the city, we turned again toward the open sea. Our next city was Lisbon, Portugal. These people, in dress and manners seem no different from the people in an American city. What messenger from Hell has deceived us into believing that people are different. The New Testament has prepared us for the surprise we received at Lisbon, "Out of one blood hath God made all nations of the world."

After another day at sea, we caught sight of Geona, Italy, from which came courageous Columbus. With the fire of genius burning in his brain, he [illegible] to a new world. A minister of great courage and an unsurpassed exploring mind, we looked with reverence on the place of his birth. Geona is noted for what is perhaps the most famous cemetery in the world. In it, there are miles of sculptured beauty, fashioned as memorials by gifted hands of God, and standing as monuments to his honor through many centuries. Its breath-taking beauty reminded me of the solemn mindfulness [illegible] lives on the distant shores. We saw flowers there, wilted and dying, and were reminded that there is a place where flowers never fade and the songs are never still.

From Genoa, we set sail for Jerusalem, city of the Prophets! Jerusalem, city of David, the great King! Jerusalem, where once a Holy of holies rested behind the vale! Whose streets once felt the footprints of our Saviour and over whose plight, he once breathed a sad, yet loving lament! It grips our hearts, the memory of those words, "O, Jerusalem, Jerusalem that stonest the prophets, and killeth them that are sent unto thee! How often would I have gathered thee to myself, even as a hen gathers her brood! But thou wouldst not have it."

We walked through the streets of the old city, and precious memories walked by our side. Down to the wailing walls of the temple, through the Joppa gate, up to the Church of Dia Dolores, up to Calvary! We walked worshipping! In the Holy Land, we saw Jacob's Well, the Garden of Gethsemane, Jarash, The Manger, Nazareth, Mount Carmel, Mount Olive, the Tomb where our Lord's body was lain. We went to Jacob's Well and stood where the woman of Samaria brought a whole town to Christ. We stood by the shore of the Sea of Galilee, where Christ called fishermen to become disciples of men. Down we travelled to the River Jordan, where the baptism of our Lord took place. It was there we sang "On Jordan's Stormy Banks" and bowed in prayer. We saw the Dead Sea, travelled the Jericho road, and stood at the tomb of Mary.

I had an interesting experience in Jerusalem. I stopped at a missionary station, operated by the Southern White Baptist Convention. Rev. and Mrs. Lindsay and 20 other missionaries were at work, teaching and preaching Christ. He is the pastor of the First Baptist Church of Jerusalem. The station consisted of two large buildings, a vegetable garden and an out-door camp. We were deeply impressed, and thought of our own station in Africa, and of the great sacrifices and handicaps facing Dr. and Mrs. Lindsay. Little drinking water, very little hot water, a limited amount of food! One in America does not realize what a sacrifice it is to leave blessed America to go to poverty-stricken Europe and Africa. For my dear co-workers, the Holy Land is the most disturbed place in the world. The people are far from God. Sixteen million children had been destroyed by war, their blood had been used to make blood plasma. We saw signs of the heroic struggles made by Jewish people, and war and bloodshed were all around.

Soon our time to leave Palestine was over, and we took the bus to Haifa from there to sail to France. We landed at Marseille, and took the train for Paris.

A day and a night was spent in this much talked about city, and we saw many interesting sights. En route to Copenhagen, Denmark, travelling by train, we passed through Belgium and Germany. We were deeply touched as we rode by the war ruins. One building after another had been completely demolished. Church houses had been destroyed as many as four to six times. The Germans had specialized in destroying them, as well as stores, homes and large flat buildings. There were no frame buildings to be seen, only brick and stone. Parents, children and large numbers of all kinds of starving people were standing at stations begging for bread. People were hungry, undernourished. We felt guilty eating our lunches, and hearing children begging for the crumbs from the tables. The havoc wrought by war is almost indescribable. While we in America enjoy ourselves, live in luxury, fight and kill each other because of hatreds, starving Europe begs for your crumbs from your tables. The ground in France, Belgium, Italy and Germany were unlike the ground in Palestine. It was not barren. It yielded some food. Again, I was reminded strongly of what the world needs, and I was convinced as never before that Christ has the remedy for a sin-sick world. God bless these sad, hungry, bruised, people of the world!

Early the next morning, we arrived in Copenhagen, Denmark, where we were met by the leader of the Henderson Party. We were all carefully housed in the home of white friends, where truly no segregation existed. My home was with the mother-in-law of the pastor of the First Baptist Church of London, England. Words are inadequate for me to express the kindness I received. May God bless these friends, who though blessed with little of worldly possessions, are great spirits of Christ. They shared freely all that they had. Others were treated the same. Due to the contacts made by members of the white Convention to keep dark faces from America out the hotels, we were not allowed to share those accommodations.

Denmark is a small country, but prosperous. No pains were spared in making every effort to prove to the world that she could give the World's Baptist Alliance, the highest type of entertainment. We found in Denmark that time went around so that at 15 o'clock, it was 3 o'clock in America.

Meetings were held in a large auditorium, and in schools and churches. I can hardly describe the impressions I felt as I entered K. B. Hallen. 30 flags, representing the countries present, hung about the platform, and delegates in native costumes, seated thereon added to the inspiring sight. Thank God it was there!

The opening meeting on Tuesday was addressed by the Prime Minister of Denmark, Knud Fristensen; Mayor of Copenhagen, H. P. Sorensen; the Bishop of Copenhagen, Dr. H. Fuglsang Damgaard, and other representatives of the city and church. Words cannot bring to you the beauty of the occasion and the singing of the Danish Choir. In the evening, a program of music was given by the Swedish Choir.

On Wednesday morning, memorial services were held for Dr. J. H. Rushbrooke. Dr. W. H. Jernagin spoke for the United States, along with representatives from Sweden, England, Canada and China. A special commission was appointed in his honor. I quote from one of the many fine tributes paid Dr. Rushbrooke, "He was a cultured Christian statesman, at times, truly disappointed, but he never gave up. He was a tower of strength in the religious field. He was not only a noble Christian, but an outstanding Baptist with a firm conviction. Romania and Rushbrooke will remain together forever. He stood for freedom of conscience, not only for America, but for the small countries as well." Dr. C. Oscar Johnson, President of the World's Baptist Alliance said "Every nation interpreted him as it saw him." A fine tribute was paid to Dr. Lacey Kirk Williams, our late beloved President of the National Baptist Convention, and Vice President of the World Baptist Alliance. Dr. L. Newton, President of the Southern Baptist Convention spoke of the greatness of Dr. Williams' leadership.

The Alliance was furnished with interpreters, who spoke simultaneously with the speakers. Among the many fine evening addresses given was that by the Right Honorable Ernest Brown of London, England. His address was broadcast. For the first time at a world congress, our obligation to preach the gospel to the Jews was discussed. This was regarded as one of our important tasks. The question of religious liberty in several countries was also discussed. It was brought out that Baptists were the first to stand out for religious liberty. They have been among the most persistent, and most consistent advocates of the separation of church and state. Christians are still persecuted in some countries. Baptist religious liberty does not mean mere toleration. It means that all shall have equal liberty, and that no religion shall enjoy any special favors. We discussed the relation of the Baptist World Alliance to the World Council of Churches.

Dr. W. O. Lewis, the secretary, was asked what was his hope for the congress. I quote, "I hope," he said, "this congress will strengthen our faith, and that as a results of this meeting, we will be bound closer together in ties of brotherly love. We hope the people of the world will realize that we are a body of Christians, striving to advance the Master's Kingdom."

The Woman's meeting was held at Odd Fellow Palaeet, Mrs. George R. Martin, U. S. A. in the chair. The theme of the meeting was the "Responsibility of Church Women in the World Today." The meeting was opened with Scripture reading and prayer by Mrs. Fuller, President of National Baptist Convention, Unincorporated. Prayer was offered by Mrs. T. E. Rawley, England. The welcome address was made by a Danish Baptist woman on behalf of two hundred thousand people, 2000 Baptists representing 3 Baptist churches. The fact was brought out that Baptist women needed a chance to express themselves. In 1911 in Philadelphia, the World's Woman's Committee was organized. Among the many things said, I quote, "The war is over, still there is no peace. Mrs. Ernest Brown of England said, I quote, "Women are rapidly taking their place in the church, some teachers, deacons and some trustees. One young woman, ordained as a Baptist minister, heads the seminary in London. The greatest problem of the church is to make people see we are one in Christ. It must be said all over, the world needs love. Bring the gospel of Christ into the world, which is the deeper sufferings and may God's purpose be attained. We need an idealism that can bring us together, a tolerant attitude toward all people." The meeting was most inspiring, and it was interesting to note that each speaker urged women to give wholehearted service to our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ.

The part of the program which impressed me most, was that played by young people of the world. A young representative of the Southern Baptist Convention spoke in detail on the work of their young people's organization. The young people are represented with voting power on all boards, and have connection with Home Mission, Foreign Mission and Educational projects of the Convention. Adults of the Southern Baptist Convention expressed great faith in young people. The Youth Conference at the School on Wednesday afternoon had a full attendance. Dr. T. G. Dunning from England presided and spoke. I quote, "It is far more important to know what is right for the future than to know what was wrong with the past." Dr. Frank Leavell, USA, gave the Secretary's report. Interesting plans for the future were outlined as follows:

1. A general secretary for the Baptist youth of the world.
2. A joint publication for Baptist young people.
3. A study book, prescribing what young Baptists could and should do.

Rev. Hans Rochel of Germany gave a moving speech about German youth and greetings from the Negro Baptist youth of America and the Baptist youth of Finland were voiced by Dr. W. H. Jernagin, Dr. H. M. Gibbs and Mr. A. Sundell. From such a meeting we can look forward to a strong Baptist youth movement.

Another outstanding speaker was a young man from Canada. He discussed the subject, "Faith in Our Organizations" (use of speech, drama, cinema). In his introductory remarks, he said, and I quote, "Oh God! Please give me patience, yet courage to face every problem!" Other statements were, "A good and fluent speaker can do much to persuade people to Christ, therefore we should train our young people to be trained speakers. Public speaking is an art that can be acquired by study. Young people should be encouraged to write and dramatize their own plays, e. g., "The good Samaritan," etc. The latest method of getting things over is in the motion picture field. Most churches are using visual aid. Alert young people's organizations will keep themselves posted. The important thing is to keep in mind that it is up to us to present the most modern technique."

Dr. Benjamin E. Mays, USA, was scheduled to speak in the session on International Issues. Due to his absence, Rev. Joe Pius Barbour, Editor of the National Baptist Voice, spoke in his stead, and later, participated in a panel-discussion on the solution of interracial problems. He was a fine representative for our Convention, and one could easily see that he was a scholar and one of the best speakers on the program. Dr. Dawson of Texas, commenting on his address said, and I quote, "It should be published not only in periodicals, but should be put in pamphlet form, and distributed all over the world."

"We are being told that there is no defense against the atomic bomb. It is not true. There is a defense. The moral and spiritual regeneration of life in righteousness and faith through Jesus Christ is a real defense against the atomic bomb or anything else," so spoke Dr. Harold Cook Phillips of the United States in the Congress sermon delivered Friday morning. "The universal brotherhood of man in God is not nonsense. It is sobering common sense," the delegates were told. "We have a world of unparalelled power, but it is not a new world, it is as old as sin. Unparalelled power means unparalelled peril, when men are unregenerated. Nietzsche's philosophy says that the aim of man is to be strong and the aim of the strong is to oppress the weak. The aim of Christianity is service—Jesus is both Savior and Lord. He came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give his life a ransom for many. He establishes a Kingdom of mutual service."

The Foreign Mission Conference was held in the First Baptist Church. Dr. J. M. T. Rankins, Secretary, Foreign Mission Board, Southern Baptist Convention presiding. Addresses were made by Miss M. E. Bowser, Baptist Missionary Society, a member of the board of the American Baptist Foreign Mission Society, and representatives from the Canadian and Danish Baptist Missionary Societies. Africa was represented, and they made an appeal that more missionaries be sent. There was an open forum and all boards had representatives to speak. The meeting was interesting and impressive, and gave one new desires to rededicate oneself to the cause of Foreign Missions. In this connection, we mention the "Gift Hour" for Germany. Money and clothing were given by members of the World Baptist Alliance. $1,730.00 was raised.

It was utterly impossible to attend all meetings. Other conferences on Baptist history, church music, our obligation to preach the gospel to the Jews, theological principals and teachers, Baptist relief and reconstruction, and others were held.

On Sunday afternoon, a closing procession of all representatives to the World's Baptist Alliance marched through the city to a large open air stadium. There the International Baptist Scout Congress Jamboree took place, with a mass demonstration of bands and banners. More than 10,000 young people paraded. A missionary demonstration was held with speakers from all over the world, and the singing of the Swedish, Danish and World Baptist Alliance Choirs.

This was the most picturesque affair that I have ever witnessed, and it will long be remembered. Following the address on "The Call of This Congress" by the newly elected President, we witnessed an enjoyable musical program. We left Denmark full of enthusiasm, with a deeper insight of world-wide missions, and with a soul-rooted conviction that we knew as never before, what Christ meant when he said, "This gospel must be preached in Jerusalem, all Judea, Samaria and to the uttermost parts of the earth." No report, however long, will ever take from me, the richness and deep feeling of the kingship of God to his whole human world.

On August 7th, we left Denmark for Amsterdam, Holland where we spent one night. We were taken on a sight-seeing trip to the interesting points in Holland. We visited The Hogue where the Peace Conference was held, also Rotterdam, then on to Belgium, to Brussels, and to Sweden.

Four days were spent in Paris. We saw the Tomb of Napoleon, Eiffel Tower, Church of Notre Dame, Liberty Statue; observed the housing and hotel life and the native French people. Stores close in France for a two hour lunch period. We left Paris by bus, travelled to Nice, France, lunched at Grenoble. The scenery in the Alps is indescribable. We visited Monte Carlo where we spent one day, then to Cannes, from where we embarked for the U. S. A., on the S. S. Sobisko. After 11 days, we again viewed the Statue of Liberty and the "Home of the Brave and the Land of the Free."

For this rare experience to view the Holy Land, and to walk the road my Master trod, to be a part of a great, soul-stirring world-wide religious meeting, and to visit the countries I have read and prayed for, is indeed more than a privilege. I am indebted, first to God, then to Dr. D. V. Jemison, our unselfish President and President S. W. Layten, our noble and considerate leader, into whose hearts and minds God placed the generous thought to send me on this mission, also I wish to thank Mrs. Ama M. Hunt who signed the first appeal for me to go. To the women of the National Baptist Convention, to the pastors, to the co-workers and to my host of friends all over the country, I shall always be grateful. I am deeply indebted to Mrs. Charles H. Milton, for supervising my office and taking care of my work during my absence.

A charge to keep I have,
A God to glorify,
Who gave his Son my soul to save,
And fit it for the sky.
To serve the present age,
My calling to fulfill
O, may it all my powers engage
To do my Master's will.
Arm me with zealous care,
As in thy sight to live;
And oh, thy servant, Lord prepare A strict account to give.
Help me to watch and pray
And on thyself rely;
Assured, if I my trust betray,
I shall forever die.

REPORT OF TREASURER OF NATIONAL BAPTIST MISSIONARY TRAINING SCHOOL, NASHVILLE, TENNESSEE

Madam President, Officers and Members of the Woman's Auxiliary to the National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Inc.; Greetings:

Mrs. Henrietta Bearfield, Instructor

Course 142A—Planning and Leading Group Worship,

The National Director, Mrs. Etta Versa Frye, introduced the emphasis hymn, "Christ the Open Door." Each delegate was asked to register for a study course. Dismissal to classes.

At 10:15 a. m., classes quietly reassembled in the auditorium. Miss Sara Ann Columbus, President, Y. W. A., presiding. Worship service was conducted by Miss Zeraline Smith, Miss., and Miss Mary Lee Muse, Ill. Mrs. Etta Versa Frye presented our national president who presented the staff of officers. National directors were then presented.

Mrs. Corenne Watts, Southern Director, announced that our national director had lost her mother recently, and at this time each one bowed her head in silent prayer for our director, in that she may be strengthened.

Delegates were seated by states by Mrs. B. C. Winston, Southern Director.

Information on finance was given by Miss Primrose Funches. She stressed that our quota for 1947 was $9,000. All committee chairmen were asked to meet in the balcony.

Pictures were taken of the entire audience, junior officers and directors. It was announced that the Directors' Conference will be held in the dining room. Mrs. Ealey, Chairman of the Entertaining Committee, planned an hour of fun for the Department and all First Timers at 2119 Tracy Ave., Western Baptist College.

Mrs. Frye requested that every afternoon each committee chairman give a complete report of the day's findings, and that this report be placed in her hands before leaving the auditorium. It was announced that our worship program for the afternoon session would center around visual aids.

The speaker for the Meditation Period, Rev. A. P. Fortner, La., spoke on "Christ the Open Door." The Scripture lesson was John 10:9; John 17:16, 19. "Christ said, I am the door." For their sakes, keep yourself fit. For their sake, I kept myself fit, I set myself apart. For their sake, I gave myself away.

As Rev. Fortner praved for the youth of the nation to let Christ in, the emphasis hymn, "Christ the Open Door," rang out in the auditorium.

At the afternoon meeting, Mrs. Georgia Barber, Texas, was presented as a Sunshine Band leader. Mrs. Barber presented Mrs. L. Mixson, Mo., who introduced the textbook on Evangelism, "Everywhere Preaching the Word" by Josephine R. Medlin.

1. The gospel goes by foot. 2. The gospel goes by horseback. 3. The gospel goes by boat. 4. The gospel goes by automobile. She emphasized that it takes time and effort to get the gospel over. Mrs. Heely gave us some high points for Sunshine Band leaders; visit the home, get permission to bring the child to the Department. It takes time, patience, and prayer. An expression from Mrs. Brown on Sunshiners. Mrs. Barber gave us a few points on our theme, "Christ the Open Door."

Mrs. Grace Burt asked song leaders or persons wishing to sing to meet her after the session to organize a departmental group to lead songs.

At 3:30 p. m., the Young People's Department met with the Woman's Convention in Music Hall, Municipal Auditorium, for the Welcome Program, Mrs. F. H. Hill presiding.

At 7:30 p. m., the praise service was conducted by Miss Juanita Lewis, Kansas City, Kansas. The worship was conducted by Rev. D. Thompson, Pastor First Baptist Church. Worship through visual aid brought to us the persecution of Saul, how he was convicted and how he suffered on the road to Damascus, it searched our hearts.

Rev. Sandy F. Ray, Pastor of Cornerstone Baptist Church, Brooklyn, N. Y., addressed us from the subject, "Decolorizing the Religion of Jesus." The task of the church; there is too much formality, too scientific. Our schools are more interested in quantity rather than quality. Christianity must be bleached back to the ideals of Jesus, purity. Bleach Christianity back to its original color.

Mrs. Grace Hooper, D. C., placed a Young People's badge on Rev. Sandy Ray after this inspiring address.

President Frazier, Junior Matrons, then presented Mrs. Corenne Watts who brought echoes from the World Baptist Alliance held in Copenhagen, Denmark. Mrs. Watts gave us an interesting journey, first stop was Genoa, Italy, then Marseilles, France; she entered Hayfer, the gateway to Palestine. There she met Rev. and Mrs. Linsley, Baptist minister sent over there by the Southern Baptist Convention. He has a membership of sixteen since he has been over there preaching and teaching God's Word. Rev. Linsley wished that Dr. Jernagin and his party could have been able to remain longer than a week. She passed on the Jericho Road, the Garden of Gethsemane, the Mount of Olives, Mt. Nebo, Dead Sea, she also visited Bethlehem and walked the steep hill of Calvary. The party visited the tomb of Rachael and wrote their names there. The next stop was Denmark. The Danish people treated them very nice; there was no segregation, as had been rumored. The Danish people cried when the delegation left. The Young People's Department was carried on by the old folk. The young people are needed there, they asked that at a next meeting some young person from America would attend. Mrs. Watts said she will not rest until some young person goes to the next World Alliance. She was wonderful.

Collection was taken, and Rev. J. T. Freeman gave the benediction.

VIVIAN KYLES SMITH, Secretary Junior Matrons

THURSDAY—September 11, 1947

The second day of our great twenty-second annual meeting of the Young People's Department opened at 7:45 p. m., with regular classes. Miss Eunice Hayes, D. C., First Vice President of the Y. W. A., presided. Miss Dorothy Meekins, Md., led the meditation period.

Praise service was led by Mrs. Grace Hall, Ohio, and Miss Pearl Hutchins, Ala., with Mrs. Ethel Anderson, Ala., offering prayer. After prayer, the audience sang very quietly and reverently "Let It Breathe on Me." Announcements were given by Miss Primrose Funches. The most important announcement concerned literature, the Queen Revue and finance reports. At the discussion period the topic discussed was "Teen Agers' Problems."

Miss Modella Long who spoke on the topic, "Good Grooming," gave some very helpful and enlightening points on the care of the hair, skin, and the cleansing of the body as a whole. Mrs. Geneva Rush brought out many fine points concerning the importance of proper dress. She said special care should be taken in the way we dress for church. We are not to dress flashy as if we are ready to attend a party. We should dress to our size and age. A sensible head should be used in the buying of clothes.

Miss Dorothy Barnes spoke on "Social Entertainment." She discussed conduct and entertainment for parties. Mrs. Ida F. Henderson said that personality is needed first in social life. She said parties that are non-chaperoned and serve intoxicants should not exist. The possessor of personality is not always beautiful. It is essential to act friendly, beautifully, and be patient in order to receive the blessings to come.

Dr. Leland L. Holbert of Kansas City, Kansas, an expert on health, followed with some very interesting facts concerning health and present day health problems. Mrs. Corrine Monroe, a nurse of Kansas City, Mo., gave a few remarks concerning health.

Miss Dorothy Armentrout gave a very fine talk concerning the religion of young people. She said that religion is the one thing in life that has no requirements nor restrictions. She challenged the young people to carry their problems to Christ.

Mrs. M. W. Mitchell gave a very fine talk on grooming. She said the index to a person's personality is twofold; proper care of the body and clothing.

At the conclusion of the panel, the minutes of the previous day were read.

At 12:30, a worship with Mrs. A. Orpheus Towers, Counselor, began with prayer by Miss Barbara White, Washington. Rev. A. Prince Fortner, La., gave the meditation, "Christ, the Open Door to Courage."

She gave creative ideas to be used in the camp and told how her camp was conducted. She gave directions as to how to start a camp, and what to do at the camp. The Queen Revue was postponed, and will be held following the promotion exercises, Friday evening. A grand march was made featuring all the queens present and their attendants in formal attire. It was a very beautiful sight to see the young people walk across the rostrum in their beautiful gowns.

The finance collected for the evening totaled $9.56. The meeting was then closed with the benediction.

Respectfully submitted,

Director Frye asked Vice-President Tillman to give her time to make a few important announcements because we were going over time. Arrangements for our program in the Woman's Convention were given. Mrs. Frye explained that the Building Fund Drive would be extended until October 30, 1947. Money orders, checks, etc., were to be sent directly to her, and each state would get credit for the contributions in this year's minutes. Each person was urged to contribute something toward the Building Fund.

Mrs. Covington asked delegates to enroll because the delegation is larger than the enrollment so far.

Benediction was offered by Rev. Kelly.

The evening session was held in the Music Hall of the Municipal Auditorium with the Woman's Convention. Selections were given by the Kansas City Young People's Chorus. Miss Sara Ann Columbus presented the junior officers of the National Convention.

At this point the following resolution was passed unanimously by the young people:

Whereas, the Woman's Christian Temperance Union has for years carried on a program of education against intemperance, and

Whereas, such a program is vitally necessary, and

Whereas young people are especially effected by the evils of strong drink, and

Whereas, the hope of the church and the extension of the kingdom of God is dependent upon the young people, and

Whereas, so many young people are deprived of a life of service for the Master because of intemperance; be it

Resolved, that the Young People's Department of the Woman's Convention, Auxiliary to the National Baptist Convention of America, Inc., cooperate with the directors and go on record as endorsing the program of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union. Be it,

Resolved, That we work toward the repeal of the present alcoholic laws. The laxity of these laws is detrimental to the moral and religious development of the home and the community. Furthermore, such a laxity counteracts the effective teachings of the church. The use of alcoholic beverages decreases one's civic and religious sense of responsibility to God and man. Be it further

Resolved, That each member of the Young People's Department sign and keep the Temperance Pledge, and each member engage in a program to inform youth of the evils of intemperance.

Committee,

Sara Ann Columbus, Chairman, Louisiana; Jimmie L. Frazier, Michigan; Tiny K. Leake, District of Columbia; Zee A. Barron, Mississippi; Eunice Hayes, District of Columbia; Dorothy E.
