*Call for a National Convention of Colored Baptists

Dear Brethren: April 5, 1886, an open letter to the Baptist clergy and laymen was issued by Rev. Wm. J. Simmons, an American Baptist, asking if we should have a National Convention to discuss questions of interest to our beloved denomination. At that time the following reasons were given:

1. To promote personal piety, sociability, and a better knowledge of each other.

2. To be able to have an understanding as to the great ends to be reached by the denomination.

3. To encourage our literary men and women, and promote the interests of Baptist literature.

4. To discuss questions pertaining especially to the religious, educational, industrial, and social interests of our people.

5. To give an opportunity for the best thinkers and writers to be heard.

6. That, united, we may be more powerful for gobd and strengthen our pride in the denomination.

Having been solicited to write the Call by many whose names and endorsements are hereunto affixed, the Call is hereby made by their advice and solicitations for said convention to meet in St. Louis, Mo., August 25, 1886, 10 o'clock a. m., in the First Baptist Church, and the pastor thereof is hereby requested to serve as a Committee of Arrangements, with power to select his associates.

A RESOLUTION

Presented by the Rev. J. Raymond Henderson, Minister in the Second Baptist Church, Los Angeles, California, and President of the Western Baptist State Convention of California

At the Board of Directors Meeting, National Baptist Bath House Hot Springs, Arkansas

I. Whereas the United States of America is engaged in a conflict in Korea in an attempt to preserve a democratic way of life for the South Koreans, and

Whereas millions of Negroes in the United States are still denied first-class citizenship, and

Whereas the interest of the United States in democracy in other lands, even to the point of forcing Negroes to fight and die to insure it, while denying it to them in their own country, is a disgrace to our moral pretensions and most discouraging to its loyal Negro citizens,

Be it therefore resolved that the National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Inc., in order to bring the plight of the Negro citizen dramatically to the attention of the United States and the entire world, and to Almighty God, shall designate the first Sunday in January, 1952 as a National Day of Prayer for the Complete Emancipation of the Negro in the United States, and

Be it resolved that we seek the active co-operation of all religious bodies and conventions and individual churches in the United States, requesting that special prayer that day shall be made, and special sermons preached.

Be it resolved that we importune the President and the Congress of the United States and the Governors of the states severally to sanction the Day of Prayer, and that we seek to have it memorialized by an address in Congress by one of our representatives.

Be it further resolved that the President of our convention shall appoint an appropriate Committee to both work out and carry through the details of the Day of Prayer.

And be it finally resolved, that if this resolution is adopted, it shall be given immediate and widespread publicity in the denomination journals, both white and Negro, in all other periodicals willing to carry it, to the Associated Negro Press and the Associated Press of the United States.

Following the adoption of this resolution by the body, President D. V. Jemison appointed the following committee to work out and carry out the details of the Day of Prayer:

Rev. J. Raymond Henderson
Rev. U. J. Robinson
Rev. Roy Love
Rev. S. F. Ray
Rev. J. H. Jackson
Rev. W. H. Borders
Rev. H. R. Stephen

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE APPOINTED TO CLARIFY THE PUBLIC RELATIONS PROGRAM OF THE NATIONAL BENEFIT BOARD

Mr. President, Officers and Members of the National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Incorporated: With respect to questions involving the Ministerial Benefit Board, we, your Committee, in council with Rev. Kirby made a survey and found:

1. That there had not been enough publicity and thorough information given in regards to the plans and benefits, and especially was this true of State workers who are to sell the idea.

Therefore we are submitting as to our findings the following recommendations:

1. That more time be allotted Rev. Kirby or his representative to clarify the workings of this Board.

2. That said State Representatives be thoroughly drilled in the work that they may be able to sell the idea and that state meetings be held to mold sentiment that folks may become better acquainted with the plans and benefits of this Board.

Committee,

Rev. M. Kirby
Rev. B. Nelson
Rev. W. M. Robinson
Rev. S. L. Cole

The convention assembled at 9:00 o'clock with O. V. Phillips conducting the devotional. "Jesus, Keep Me Near the Cross" was sung and T. J. Updack led in prayer. The journal of the previous day's sessions was read and approved. "Jesus, the Light of the World" was sung. Rev. E. A. H. Lord, M. D., Georgia, was then presented and delivered a very impressive address on, "The Challenging Christ." A standing vote of thanks and appreciation was extended Rev. Lord for his great message, this being his first appearance before this body. Offering, $4.66.

The following were presented for the first time in this meeting: H. Brandon and Rev. A. A. Banks, 2nd Baptist Church, Detroit; Jolly Battles, Salem Baptist Church, Brooklyn; E. S. Spriggs, New Bethel Baptist Church, Washington, D. C.; Wm. H. Robinson, Washington, D. C.; John H. Young, Minneapolis; H. S. Dotson, Houston, Texas.

On motion Rev. V. W. Douglas was elected National Organizer at Large. The Recording Secretary's report showed that Texas, having reported the highest sum of money, was entitled to the award. It was also noted that Texas had won this distinction several years in succession. Secretary Gayle explained the origin of the Laymen's Award and gave a general report on the Bath House and the organization in general. Director Henderson Green reported on the Religious Education Department. Vice President T. J. Updack accepted the award for the State of Texas. Director Green awarded certificates to those students who had qualified for the same.

Remarks by Mrs. Lewis of the Shiloh Baptist Church, followed by a motion to extend thanks and appreciation to the Shiloh Church for its gracious hospitality shown the delegation present.

The convention then closed, referring all unfinished business to the Executive Board. Doxology was sung and benediction by Rev. V. W. Douglas.

Mr. Jas. E. Gayle
310 Saratoga Street
New Orleans, La.

My dear Friend and Brother:

I congratulate you upon the seriousness with which you and the brethren are attacking the problem of awakening Baptist Laymen of your race and my race throughout the Nation toward the importance of participating more fully, more universally, more organically in God's program of religion through the pattern of Jesus Christ in our day.

I was glad to have a small part on the program publicly rendered in Philadelphia from the subject, "The Church and Human Rights" . . . .

Yours truly,

(Signed) C. F. Graves

REPORT OF JAS. E. GAYLE, EXECUTIVE SECRETARY NATIONAL BAPTIST LAYMEN'S MOVEMENT

Philadelphia, Pa., September 9, 1950

To the President, Officers and Delegates of the National Baptist Laymen's Convention, Greetings:

As Executive Secretary of the National Baptist Laymen Movement, I am herewith submitting my report on lay activities and promotional work.

If we are to have a sufficient number of laymen in the understandings and attitudes and skills which they need, we must work at leadership education, as most of us have not worked. And we must use our Christian understandings, of people and the churches as most of us have not used them.

One who is to guide others in Christian growth must be a growing person himself. The vital quality of church life, therefore, lays a foundation on which leadership education later build the understandings and skills which the person will need if he is to work well with others. But he must be a growing Christian layman if the skills are to serve their purpose.

When growing Christian life has been nurtured by a church that makes a difference, and that encourages significant participation by its people, the foundation has been laid for Christian leadership and real brotherhood.

Then the worker is ready for the further skills and understandings which the laymen's program of leadership education seeks to develop. Our church represents the highest aspirations of any community because the church is a family with all of its joy and influence and safe guards. The church is a school where the disciples are learning the lessons of life from their Divine teacher.

We look upon our church as an army to fight the battles of the Lord against all sin, all evil everywhere. It is a band of lay workers, carrying on the Lord's work and fulfilling his mission all over the world. Our convention this year is emphasizing, "THE STEWARDSHIP OF GOD," because we as lay people have a stewardship beyond our denuminational connections, the stewardship of which we speak lies in our common task of laboring for righteousness in our COMMUNITY and NATION. And as we here in the National Baptist Convention working through the Laymen's Movement, efforting to evangelize and to make Christian men by development of the spirit of Christ in their hearts and lives—we are encouraged by some results of our program.

We are all convinced that all efforts to govern men and to reform society without the church and the gospel have been stupendous failures, as sociology and economics alone will not save the world. Our church has greater potential power than any other single agency. We are members of a great and powerful fellowship.

In our efforts to "CARRY ON" in this great task of training for church membership and individual development—we are learning a way of articulating together as men in a demand for a religion that will provide real tools in every day living.

As loyal laymen, we must realize that the church going habit only takes on meaning when we put into practice—in everyday relationships of life the lessons God has taught us in the sanctuary. As we expose ourselves to this training—we must feel ourselves appointed to do what God has revealed to us in the church. As we go out to influence the individual—we must influence the group of which he is a part, group action is what we want. We should seek to enlist people who will create a congenial atmosphere towards our Cause.

Appreciation

Even if space were provided, words are not adequate to express full appreciation to all who have helped make the year 1950 fruitful and successful. Without the loyalty of each member of the staff, the work of the laymen movement could not have been carried forward.

The ministry in general have given that lift so necessary in projecting a program of this kind for which we are grateful.

May we conclude by soliciting your prayers for this work.

Yours for Kingdom Building,

JAS. E. GAYLE

The Seventieth Annual Report

OF THE

Foreign Mission Board

OF THE

NATIONAL BAPTIST CONVENTION, U. S. A., INC.

AT THE

Philadelphia Session

September 5-10, 1950

To the President, Officials and Messengers assembled:

Greetings in the name of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. The Foreign Mission Board is happy to present this Annual Report on the mandate that you have given us, and to thank you and all concerned again for the confidence you have imposed in us and the measure of support given.

The past year, like all other years, has had its problems, but none so grave that we could not meet them successfully as they came. All in all, it has been a year of peace and progress in our committed work. The expansion has been steady and new fields of service opened in various fronts. There has been no turning back, nor even hesitation. Our orders are "Forward March!" in the wake that Jesus leads, with a definite goal in view.

In making this report we submit the following high points of achievements in our work during the past year.

(1) The morale of our work and workers abroad, which is always a first concern, has been moved to a higher level by securing the services of four consecrated and missionary-minded young college and university-trained men. But we still need at least two more such men. Most of our women workers are of the highest type, but more and more the burden of leadership must be borne by men.

(2) Four additional African students have been brought to America for college training, making a total of ten for whom we are responsible. Three of this number graduated in May and are now ready to return to their homes and serve their people.

(3) Six missionaries have been brought home for rest and furloughs, some of whom are now, or soon will be returning to their work.

(4) Our most unique accomplishment was taking a Commission of ten leading pastors to West Africa to inspect and study our work there. The Commission visited Nigeria, Gold Coast, Liberia, Sierra Leone and other places. Each member of the Commission was pleased, and even surprised, by the great work and headway made by our Board in these places.

(5) During the past year we sent five new missionaries to foreign fields.

(6) We have opened or taken over five new stations in Gold Coast, Liberia, Sierra Leone and Okinawa.

(7) In co-operation with 21 board members of the Foreign Missions Conference of North America, we have taken our part in the founding of a Christian University in Japan.

(8) This year we sent our first missionary to Okinawa, in the Pacific.

(9) This year has witnessed the beginning of the enlargement and rebuilding of the Carrie V. Dyer Memorial Hospital in Monrovia.

(10) The Teacher-Training College in Nigeria has been completed, and is now headed by a fine American young man.

(11) Great strides have been made in our permanent building program. Some buildings have been completed and are now in service. Others are nearing completion and in partial use.

(12) We have purchased four new cars to replace some and add to our fleet of cars and trucks on the various fields in Africa.

(13) We have activated our co-operative plans with the Liberian Baptists and initiated a program of ministerial and church leadership training.

(14) The frontiers of our influence, respect and expectation have been greatly extended to governments and people alike in many foreign lands. This in turn increased our responsibility and made new demands upon us.

(15) To meet this increased responsibility, we have reached a few hundred more churches than ever before and will keep striving in that direction.

(16) Five years of our expansion and building program have been successfully concluded.

(17) We have maintained our custom of paying our missionaries three months in advance.

(18) Our program of native self-help is moving forward nicely to the tune of more than $5,000.00 per year.

(19) The Liberian government, in appreciation of the work done by our hospital, increased their donation from $5,000.00 to $9,000.00 this year.

(20) We have established four scholarships at the National Training and Professional School for Women in Washington, D. C.

(21) Our membership and leadership in the Foreign Missions Conference of North America are kept intact.

(22) The Mission Herald has not missed an issue and has been kept informative.

Again, we are grateful to God and all friends and supporters of missions to make the following report of money received and expended for the past fiscal year, which may be found on pages 18 and 19.

As I submit this report, I think I stand where Paul stood and feel what he meant when he said in 1 Cor. 16:9: "For a great door and effectual is opened unto me, and there are many adversaries." With the cry of need constantly ringing in his ears, the beckoning hand of duty impelling and the pressing burden of responsibility weighting his shoulders and soul, Paul was through the opened door of opportunity the luring goal of a world redeemed to Christ. He saw his personal duty to lead the way through this opened door. But adversaries and hindrances are many and powerful, active and dangerous also.

This is to remind us that no good can be accomplished without a great struggle to the overcoming point. The powers of darkness must be squarely faced, but never underestimated. Only in the name and by the power of God can they be subdued and overcome. The road and door of service are picketed by deadly foes of mankind's salvation. This opened and effectual door is made available through Christ, and no man can close it. But bedeviled men can throw up obstructions, and place hindrances to its entrance. A part of the heritage of service is to meet and beat down the adversaries, as the one and only way to enter this opened door.

Before the National Baptist Convention and the Christian Church, the world over, a great and glorious and, at the same time, an awful challenge presents itself—the opened door to world leadership for the befogged, morally bankrupt nations of earth.

The Church has the one and only answer for now and always—CHRIST! But the Church has many adversaries and hindrances to her entering this opened and effectual door of world leadership and salvation. The chief adversaries of the Church are not the world outside the Church, but the world in the Church.—Trojan horses and fifth columnists in the ranks of the Church's membership. They might be summed up under the following heads:

(1) Spiritual blindness in high places of the Church.

(2) Spiritual indifference.

(3) Lack of vision.

(4) Giving priority of interest to material and secondary matters.

(5) A church program that works in reverse to the Kingdom of God.

These adversaries must be overcome, for we have the might and power in Christ to do it. This opened and effectual door must be entered, for we have the command and responsibility from Christ to do it.

To us, the National Baptist Convention, an opened door of all Africa joins and invites with pleading voice. A long-lost continent of 200 million souls, whose ears and hearts are now eager to hear the joyous note of the Gospel, and hungry for the Bread of Life. The people of South America, the isles of the seas, Okinawa and Japan are now inviting us to fuller help. We must enter this door of larger service on a basis commensurate with our opportunities and resources. To fail would be tragically disappointing to those dependent upon us. To fail would make a mockery and shipwreck of our own faith. To fail would bring great shame and condemnation on us. To fail would be a betrayal of Christ.

But fail we must not, and will not. Let us, with renewed faith, determination and assurance that Christ still leads on, rise and enter this opened door.

REPORTS OF MISSION STATIONS IN AFRICA AND THE BAHAMA ISLANDS

WEST AFRICA

Rev. John B. Falconer, Supervisor of West African Missions

T. E. BROWN PROGRESSIVE BIBLE AND INDUSTRIAL ACADEMY

Fortsville, Grand Bassa, Liberia

MRS. P. A. BRYAN JACKSON, Principal

This station is largely supported by the Progressive Baptist Church, Chicago, Ill., Dr. T. E. Brown, pastor. Mrs. Bryan Jackson reports a year of peace and advance; a splendid student body and many souls won to Christ. She has a faithful and self-giving staff. We are gradually doing more and more for this station, as the demands are more.

This station is very much isolated. It is difficult to reach, because of intervening rivers and lack of bridges and good roads. It is located on 350 acres of good land and is beautiful for situation. It is indeed far into the interior of the country, in the heart of the great Bassa people.

It is serving one of the most needy places. The workers there must often suffer much loneliness, but are made happy by the fact that they are there in Christ's stead and also, in a real sense, in our stead. Dr. Brown and the Progressive Church realize this and they place themselves there by giving $1,600.00 per year, to which sum we add much more.

Therefore, we pray for more churches to come to our relief and help us to serve this great section and people in a more effective way.

BENDOO INDUSTRIAL ACADEMY

Cape Mount, Liberia

REV. RUFUS PRUNTY, Principal

The past year has carried Bendoo to new heights of success under the cheerful and efficient leadership of Brother Prunty. He succeeded the late Rev. J. Smith Cyrus, who gave his full measure of devotion that Bendoo would never close again, as has been done many times in its hectic history.

Brother Prunty is making a worthy successor to this great servant of the Lord. He is hard-working, happy in the Lord's work and loved by the great Vey tribe. This station is located on 150 acres of land, overlooking Fisherman's Lake, seen from afar and a beautiful sight to behold.

The school grounds have been beautified, buildings remodeled and some new ones are being erected. A large farm has been cleared and is now under cultivation. The industrial work is being organized and expanded. Brother Prunty, in addition to improving his school and extending his religious and evangelistic work, is co-operating with the Liberian Baptists. He is also teaching the people better housing and sanitary improvement and how to make a better living through farming and fishing. His staff and the chiefs love him. But Bendoo, for all its beauty of location, is isolated and difficult to reach, by lack of good roads, bridges and many intervening rivers; but Brother Prunty is satisfied and happy. In the next few months he expects to return to this country for a needed and deserved furlough and rest.

SUEHN INDUSTRIAL ACADEMY

Suehn, Liberia

MRS. MATTIE MAE DAVIS, Principal

MISS GLADYS V. EAST, Acting Principal

Dear Dr. Adams:

The Lord has given us another great year in our mission programs as the report will show. Our school and church program, as well as our rubber plantation have moved forward to new heights.

We are happy to say that our building program here rejoices our hearts. Several small buildings have been completed and are now in use. The girls' dormitory known as the J. H. Jackson Building, has one unit in full use. The second unit will soon be ready for use, and the third unit is being carried forward to completion. This is a God-send. We are thankful to God for you and the churches of the National Baptist Convention.

Yours truly,

J. B. FALCONER.

PILGRIM MISSION STATION

Issele Uku, Nigeria

REV. SAMUEL W. MARTIN, Principal

I have made three trips to this marvelous country and missions headquarters. It is indeed a missions headquarters. It is not only large in its operations, but larger by far in its influence. Its frame of work and influence has permeated the whole Nigeria, and Nigeria is a very large country in West Africa. The Commission, as a whole, was struck by its mammoth operations.

Outside the main, large school, with beautiful buildings and a recently built teachers' college, there are 12 other large schools, reaching some 20 miles in all directions from the main station and making a combined student body of more than 4,500, with about 92 teachers and workers for Christ.

There are many churches and the work of evangelism never ceases. A large rubber plantation, a modern palm-nut grove and farming program are also included in the mission's activities.

Brother Martin's usefulness and leadership are highly appreciated and acknowledged by the people and the Nigerian Government. Brother and Mrs. Martin are expected to come to this country soon for a year's rest. This is made possible by his added and reinforced staff.

C. C. ADAMS.

EAST, CENTRAL AND SOUTH AFRICA

Dr. D. S. Malekebu, Supervisor

PROVIDENCE INDUSTRIAL MISSION

Chiradzulu, Nyasaland, East Africa

1949 proved to be the most difficult year in the history of our work and the people of Nyasaland as a whole. This was due to the great drought and famine that took place there. Many people died of hunger and others from eating wild things and banana roots. The church membership did not, however, lose hope or despair, but saw the hand of God and His dealings with men. Our faithful ministers and evangelists went everywhere preaching the Gospel of peace and encouraged the people.

During the year under review, we have the following statistics:

Added to the Church by Baptism	2,589
Restoration	69
TOTAL	2,658
Total church collection for 1949-50	£ 1,426
Patients treated for 1949-50	5,200

Finally, the church was not able to keep up its obligations under the circumstances mentioned above.

UNION OF SOUTH AFRICA

The work in the Union of South Africa has been re-organized. The Middledrift Station is now back under the control of our Board. New ministers and more evangelists have been added to the staff of workers. Notwithstanding that the people are experiencing many difficulties throughout this region, the church is getting stronger and enjoying spiritual blessings from God. Indeed, throughout that section under the influence of our Board, in East, Central and South Africa the Church is growing in a very big way and the future is very bright.

I beg and pray that the church or denomination here in America will not be satisfied with what each has been giving, because the eyes of the people are already opened, and hunger for education is great. Expansions are made almost every day. Yes, the work is growing and the needs are growing.

THE BAHAMA ISLANDS

JORDAN MEMORIAL BAPTIST TRAINING SCHOOL

Nassau, N. P.

Rev. T. B. Livingston, Headmaster

Dear Dr. Adams:

Again, God has been good. Our workers have been faithful, and the Lord has crowned our efforts with success.

Some changes have been made to meet changing conditions and Government requirements. We are confident in the present and hopeful for the future, because of Him in whom we trust.

My statistical report is herewith enclosed. Because of the changed conditions and the demands for a higer degree of efficiency, I recommend an additional, well-trained American man.

Yours truly,

T. B. LIVINGSTON.

OTHER STATIONS

The following stations, for lack of formal reports made to the Foreign Mission Board, are merely mentioned in this general report. The reason for this is the newness of fields which the Board has recently taken over, or for which it is responsible. Their heads are not fully familiar with our fiscal policy.

They are:

(1) The National Baptist Mission, Accra, Gold Coast, West Africa that the Commission took over last March for our Board.

(2) The Clax Mission in Liberia, under Dr. H. H. Jones. Ricks Institute in Liberia, in which we are working with the Liberian Baptist Convention to develop and run as a basis for ministerial and church leadership training.

(3) Vine Memorial Mission in Freetown, Sierra Leone.

(4) The Mission lately regained at Middledrift, Union of South Africa.

(5) The work in Okinawa in the Pacific, undertaken jointly with the Okinawa Committee of the Foreign Missions Conference of North America.

(6) The Japanese Christian University Foundation, formed jointly by us with 21 other boards of the Foreign Missions Conference of North America, and for which we underwrote $20,000.00.

All of the foregoing activities represent new adventures of faith for a bigger and more costly service in following Him who has said: "Go, . . . and lo, I am with you. . . ."

Here it might be stated that we do not have a formal report from the Jordan Memorial Station in Bluefields, Nicaragua, but Brother Timpson, from time to time, reports progress.

FIFTY-THIRD ANNUAL REPORT OF THE SUNDAY SCHOOL PUBLISHING BOARD NATIONAL BAPTIST CONVENTION, U. S. A., INC.

A TRIBUTE

We beg to pause long enough to place a wreath of immortelles upon the memory of our comrade who fell from the ranks on October 6, 1949—Rev. William Singleton Ellington of Nashville, Tennessee. Such recognition and tribute is dictated by the filial as well as the ecclesiastical ties which bound us together—his having served the Sunday School Publishing Board for more than twenty years as an efficient writer, editor, and creative scholar standing out as a lighthouse of biblical erudition, based on his training, personal Christian experience and innate ability.

He stood adamant by his conviction for the right. He was always found on the firing line, with musket aimed, and however cocked, to defend convention ownership and control.

No one looked into his shadow for any hatred, malice, enmity, or envy.

No one looked into his shadow for deceit, or stratagem, double-shuffling, dishonesty, or disloyalty. We cannot mourn for him; for being such character as he was, we know right well whither he has gone—and his "works do follow him."

He has just gone on before, but we shall be companions again, if we, too, are faithful unto the end.

The Work of the Convention Year 1949—1950

The Sunday School Publishing Board continues to perform cooperatively and faithfully its tasks, and the responsibilities with which it is charged.

FIRST: Of the production and distribution of the Sunday school literature, religious publications, and standard song books for our great denominational constituency.

SECOND: Of sponsoring, directing and projecting the program of Christian Education of our National Baptist Convention, with emphasis on Leadership Training and work among rural churches.

THIRD: In giving cooperation and support to certain activities of the National Baptist Convention, and in sponsoring and financing certain obligations of the Convention, which we carry as contingent liabilities, such as:

(a) The paying of the Convention's pro rata of the salaries of teachers and workers, and operating expenses of the American Baptist Theological Seminary.

(b) The operation (both salaries and expenses) of the National Baptist Missionary Training School at Nashville, Tenn.

(c) The salaries, materials and labor in publishing the National Baptist Voice.

(d) In the repairs and upkeep of the Morris Memorial Building at Nashville, in addition to the Sunday School Publishing Board's paying rent for the space it occupies.

(e) In the necessary and general repairs and upkeep of the buildings on the campus of the National Baptist Missionary Training School at Nashville.

(f) And now, in the taking over of the W. O. U. Bath House, Hot Springs, National Park, Arkansas, in the repairs and re-habilitation necessary to begin operation.

Our Department of Christian Education

Great emphasis during the past year has been given to our Department of Christian Education. The purpose is to provide for the churches the best that is possible in Christian education in the limits of our resources.

(e) Vacation Church School Work

The work of this Division is to prepare adaptable materials, and to train and assist workers in the conducting of Vacation Church Schools and Bible Institutes throughout the denomination.

Audio-Visual Education

There are three aspects to our Audio-Visual Education program.

First—To provide for our churches, equipment such as slides, films, projectors, screens and other accesories in the local church.

Second—To provide help in the use of Audio-Visual material, and to train leaders for Audio-Visual education in our churches.

Third—To produce for the Sunday School Publishing Board films, slides, etc., to be used in promoting Sunday school work, the program of the Sunday School Publishing Board, and the work of the National Baptist Convention, in general.

Our Boys' Work Program

The purpose of this program is to provide a Week-day Program of Christian Education for boys from the ages of 9-17 years, and to promote this activity in our Baptist churches.

The boys are organized in three groups, The Trail Explorers, the Caravaners, and the Tabs (teen age boys). This program has the cooperation and support of the National Baptist Layman's Movement, and as the boys' program of the Layman's Movement.

The S. N. Vass Award for Outstanding Achievement in Christian Education

This Award is given by the Sunday School Publishing Board to dramatize to our National Baptist Convention, the churches and leaders cooperating with the Sunday School Publishing Board, and our National Baptist Convention, which have developed strong programs of Christian Education.

To Whom It May Concern: January 3, 1950

This is to certify that the attached schedule of inventory of the various offices and work rooms of the Sunday School Publishing Board, located in the Morris Memorial Building at 4th Avenue, North, and Charlotte Avenue, Nashville, Tennessee, has been checked by us as of this date of appraisal.

We find, after a thorough investigation, that the following, or its equivalent in new goods as today's market prices would cost to replace in new goods the sum opposite the item listed; all totalling the sum of $75,781.71

This is correct and true appraisal to the best of our belief and knowledge.

Contributions of the Year to the Sunday School Publishing Board

There are always some interested, loyal and sympathetic donors who realize that the Sunday School Publishing Board needs assistance in carrying on its work, especially the work of Christian education and missions.

The Sunday School Publishing Board makes regularly, donations of Sunday school literature, religious publications and tracts, song books, etc., to prisons, jails, detention homes, charitable and benevolent institutions, public libraries, and mission stations in Africa, and Islands of the Sea, that are connected with our Foreign Mission Board, etc.

These donors thereby share with us the joy and the blessing that is ours, in thus contributing our part in the carrying out of our Lord's Great Commission, "Go ye, therefore, and teach all nations: teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you and, lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world."

REPORT

FINANCE COMMISSION, N. B. C.

The Finance Commission—Organization and Scope

At the meeting of the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc., Houston, Texas, September, 1948, the following Resolution authorizing a Finance Commission, was unanimously adopted:

THE RESOLUTION

WHEREAS, in the rapidly increasing progress and expansion of the over-all program and work of the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc., there is imperative need and demand for an increased ingathering of finances, for the enlargement of the facilities for carrying on the work of the Convention and its objectives, and to meet its otherwise overwhelming needs and demands, and,

WHEREAS, there is also, an urgent need and demand for the systematizing and stabilizing and economical distribution of the finances of the Convention, and,

WHEREAS, the Finance Commission of the Convention with the co-operation of the Sunday School Publishing Board, has built up a substantial commercial and financial rating, and because of its authorized legal set-up to represent and act for the Convention in legal and financial matters,

BE IT RESOLVED: (1) That the Finance Commission, be and is hereby authorized with full power, the Financial Agency of the Convention, in all Convention financial transactions authorized by the Convention, or that is not committed to some other Board, or Agency, of the Convention.

(2) That the Commission supervise the receiving, handling and distribution of all the current finances of the Convention, during the sitting of the Convention, and in keeping with the orders of the Convention.

(3) That the Commission direct and promote the general financial campaigns, and transactions authorized by the Convention.

NOTE: (a) The President, Secretary and Treasurer of the Convention, and the Chairman, Secretary and Treasurer of the Sunday School Publishing Board, and the Attorney of the Convention, together with three others appointed, constitute the Finance Commission.

(b) That these legal officers of the Convention, and the Sunday School Publishing Board, respectively, are constituted members of the Commission, so that, as legal officers, they can legally represent the Convention and the Sunday School Publishing Board, respectively, in all authorized financial transactions of the Convention.

This report of the Finance Commission deals with only two of the major problems now confronting the Finance Commission and the National Baptist Convention, viz:

(1) The American Baptist Theological Seminary.
(2) The Bath House project at Hot Springs National Park, Arkansas.

THE AMERICAN BAPTIST THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

(1) The momentous problem of the American Baptist Theological Seminary is: The basis of Cooperative Agreement between the Southern Baptist Convention, and the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc., in the operation of the Seminary.

At the annual meeting of the Board of Directors of the American Baptist Theological Seminary, April 12, 1950, following the reports on the financing of the Seminary, especially as to its operative expense, the following appeal and prayer to the Southern Baptist Convention was authorized:

To the Committee
On Appropriation of Education
The Southern Baptist Convention:

In annual Board of Directors meeting of the American Baptist Theological Seminary, April 12, 1950, in a discussion of the question of employment of additional qualified teachers, and the enlargement of the proposed extension and correspondence department, the standardization of seminary credit, and the raising of the level of the institution and the total program of expansion in general, it was observed that as much progress as the institution has made in the last few years and the tremendous opportunity it has to serve ministers who are unable to attend the seminary, as well as to secure facilities necessary for the complete enlargement of the program of theological education, it was pointed out that a shortage of funds stands in the way of these significant opportunities and responsibilities.

It was further observed that in connection with the larger recently acquired obligations of the National Baptist Convention, plus the cut of from two per cent on the part of the Southern Baptist Convention, in its support of the fifty-fifty-per cent agreement for operating expenses of the institution, the Board of Directors unanimously voted that this request be considered a prayer and petition to the Southern Baptist Convention that in some way this cut be restored.

It is our sincere request that the Southern Baptist Convention in the face of this financial crisis of the Seminary, join the National Baptist Convention in increasing its pro rata operating expenses from fifty per cent to seventy-five per cent.

We view with some doubt, for a limited time, until such a time as the National Baptist Convention can revamp its methods of fund raising, somewhat on the cooperative plan which is now being studied, it will be difficult for the Seminary to operate and carry on as in the past.

We, therefore, make this as an earnest prayer and petition as representatives of the Board of Directors of the American Baptist Theological Seminary and trusting that in some way, this petition may be answered and that Southern Baptist Convention can see the wisdom of such action in their larger financial support and cooperation with the National Baptist Convention in the work of Kingdom building.

Yours truly,

(Signed) A. M. TOWNSEND,

Dr. A. M. Townsend, Chairman
Board of Directors American Bapt.
Theological Seminary

Mr. R. W. Hailey, Secretary

In consideration of this petition the following recommendation was approved by the Southern Baptist Convention in session Oklahoma City, May 11, 1950:

RECOMMENDATION

Recommendation to make flexible agreement between Southern and National Baptist Conventions on American Seminary.

WHEREAS, the Agreement adopted by the National Baptist Convention and the Southern Baptist Convention for the joint operation of the American Baptist Seminary as recorded in the S. B. C. annual, 1949, pages 50-52, has proven unsatisfactory, and has led to financial embarrassment in meeting the financial needs of the Seminary; and

WHEREAS, the Executive Committee has, in accord with this Agreement, reduced the percentage of funds allowed the Commission from 2% to 1% for the year, 1951; and

WHEREAS, such reduction will further embarrass the Commission in its promotion of the Seminary; and

WHEREAS, the Board of Directors of the American Baptist Theological Seminary recommend the following changes in the Agreement between the two Conventions;

First: That in article THREE the word "equally" be stricken out and the words, "as agreed upon by the two Commissions representing the two conventions" be substituted.

Insert I:

Which articles would then read:

(3) The Southern Baptist Convention to share with the National Baptist Convention, as agreed upon by the two Commissions representing the two Conventions, in the financial support in the operation of the Seminary.

Second: That in Article SEVEN the words "of the buildings and" and the word "insurances" be stricken out and there be added, at the end of the article, "Except the maintenance of the buildings and insurance of the same, which shall be assumed by the Commission of the American Baptist Theological Seminary of the Southern Baptist Convention.

Insert II:

Which article would then read:

(7) It is further agreed that after new buildings are erected and completed by the Southern Baptist Convention, and said buildings have been equipped, or furnished by the National Baptist Convention, that the two Conventions will assume the maintenance of the equipment, and the operation of the Seminary, including all operating expenses, teachers' salaries, administration and promotion, the dining hall and grill, and whatever other necessary operating expenses may be agreed upon by the joint commissions.

Except the maintenance of the buildings and insurance of the same, which shall be assumed by the Commission of the American Baptist Seminary of the Southern Baptist Convention.

Third: That articles EIGHT AND THIRTEEN BE stricken out:

Insert III:

(a) Article EIGHT reads:

(8) It is further agreed that to build up a maintenance fund for the purposes aforesaid, the Southern Baptist Convention will match dollar for dollar the contributions received from the National Baptist Convention, and/or through its channels and sources, and friends, such contributions being made upon the monthly reports of the President of the Seminary, subject to provisions as set forth in Article 13.

(b) Article THIRTEEN reads:

(13) The Commission of the American Theological Seminary of the Southern Baptist Convention will match funds dollar for dollar with the National Baptist Convention up to the total amount of the annual budget figure.

Fourth: That Article ELEVEN be changed to read:

(11) This budget shall include all operating expenses, teachers and administrative salaries; promotion, boarding department and grill, and such other operating expenses that may be agreed upon, except repairs and maintenance of buildings, which shall be borne by the Commission on the American Baptist Theological Seminary.

This budget shall also include a contingent fund of 5 per cent, and a reserve fund of 10 per cent of the total budget. It is understood that the reserve fund cannot be spent for any items not definitely listed in the budget. It can be used only when income for regular budget items is not received.

Fifth: That article FIFTEEN shall read as follows:

"This Agreement with these changes, upon approval of the Southern Baptist Convention, and the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc., to become effective at the beginning of the fiscal year of the Southern Baptist Commission on the Seminary, January 1, 1951."

NOTE: This Agreement with changes was approved by the Southern Baptist Convention in session, Chicago, Illinois, May, 1950.

RECOMMENDATION

WHEREAS, it is imperative that the agreement between the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc., and the Southern Baptist Convention, be made more flexible, and that there be a mutually satisfactory basis of co-operation in the operation of the Seminary:

The Finance Commission recommends the adoption of the changes in the articles of Agreement between the two Conventions, herein proposed by the Seminary Commission, and adopted by the Southern Baptist Convention, in session, Chicago, Illinois, May, 1950, which includes the enlargement of the program of the Seminary, provided the two Commissions representing the two Conventions, respectively, and the Seminary Commission of the National Baptist Convention is hereby so instructed, agree upon one-fourth pro rata of the National Baptist Convention, and three-fourths, as pro rata of the Southern Baptist Convention, of the operating expenses of the Seminary, the same to become a part of this Agreement, and to become effective as of January 1, 1951, the continuance, the maintenance, the progress and the welfare of the Seminary demanding it.

This report and recommendation adopted by the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc., in session, Philadelphia, Pa., September 6-10, 1950.

THE BATH HOUSE PROJECT—HOT SPRINGS

The National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Incorporated, in extended session February 16, 17, 1949, Nashville, Tennessee, unanimously authorized the purchase of the W. O. W. Bath House property at Hot Springs National Park, Arkansas, and authorized the Finance Commission, N.B.C., with full power to purchase the property, work out all legal aspects thereunto, to secure the finances necessary to do the repairs, replacements, equipment, furnishings, etc., necessary for the rehabilitation of the Bath House.

All legal aspects have been worked out through the Convention Attorney, A. T. Walden, and approved by the Convention.

Repairs, replacements, equipment, furnishings, etc., are in process, and we have hope and will make effort to have the Bath House in operation for the meeting of the adjourned session of the Convention in Hot Springs, Ark., February, 1951.

The building was purchased from the Government Reconstruction Finance Corporation for the consideration of $175,000.00.

Of this amount, the State Conventions affiliating with the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc., underwrote $98,700.00.

The report shows paid in on quotas at the Philadelphia session $10,000.00. The amount paid in before the Philadelphia meeting was $17,125.39, making total paid in $27,125.39.

Inestimable is the value of this investment by the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc., in providing a legacy for the healthful and general welfare of our Race group.

Respectfully sumbitted,

FINANCIAL REPORT

NATIONAL BAPTIST MISSIONARY TRAINING SCHOOL

By A. M. Townsend, Chairman

In 1924, the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc., through the leadership of Dr. A. M. Townsend, Secretary, of the Sunday School Publishing Board, redeemed to Negro Baptists for the consideration of $1,000.00, the property on White's Creek Pike, Nashville, Tennessee, the site formerly occupied by Roger Williams University.

This was authorized by the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc., in annual session, September, 1933, in Memphis, Tennessee, by Resolution, "To save to Negro Baptists, the old Roger Williams University property at Nashville, Tennessee, for educational purposes, and for the establishment of a home for our aged ministers, retired missionaries and disabled workers.

Tragically, on the eve of the opening of the school, the main building—a four story brick building, was destroyed by fire. This was a severe blow and handicap to the launching of the new project.

The National Baptist Missionary Training School, however, in another building on the campus (Townsend Hall), made adaptable, opened its doors September 14, 1936, with Dr. J. M. Nabrit, of Atlanta, Georgia as President.

Officially Turned Over to the Woman's Convention

The National Baptist Missionary Training School was officially turned over to the Woman's Convention to operate, under a Board of Directors with a woman as president, and a Charter authorized to be secured under the Act of the State of Tennessee, which provides that subsidiary bodies shall be under control of the parent body, in the following unanimous action of the Board of Directors of the National Baptist Convention, in its session at Hot Springs, Arkansas, February 16, 17, 1944:

VOTED: (1) That the Training School on White's Creek Pike, Nashville, Tennessee, be turned over to the Woman's Auxiliary Convention, to operate, under a Board of Directors with a woman as president, beginning, October, 1944.

(2) That the Training School be chartered according to the Laws of the State of Tennessee.

(3) (a) That the Board of Directors will be selected from the Woman's State Conventions, and the State Conventions affiliating with the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc.

(b) That the members of the Executive Committee of the Board of Directors be residents of Nashville, Tennessee, and other places in close proximity.

(4) That the Executive Committee of the Board of Directors be authorized to complete the unfinished business of the present Board or Committee of Operation, and to devise all other means, and carry out the business transactions that may be deemed necessary for the operation of the School.

On March 15, 1944, the following named incorporators met in Chattanooga, Tennessee, in connection with the Southeastern Regional Convention at the Mt. Paran Baptist Church, Rev. M. Kirby, Pastor, and with President D. V. Jemison present, signed a petition for a Charter for the National Baptist Missionary Training School: S. W. Layten, J. C. Mapp, W. A. Townsend, M. J. Brockway, Gertrude E. Bush, A. M. Townsend, J. M. Nabril, A. A. Bennett, E. W. D. Isaac, Jr., L. A. Bowman

On March 16, 1944, the State of Tennessee granted a Charter to the National Baptist Missionary Training School; and which is of Record in Register's Office, Davidson County, State of Tennessee, in Book 949, page 708, and also recorded on the 16th day of March, 1944, in Corporation Record Book—miscellaneous A-1, page 101, Department of State, City of Nashville, Tennessee.

Aims of the School

It is the aim of the National Baptist Missionary Training School to prepare young women for more efficient Christian service and missionary work in the churches, missionary societies, district, state, national and foreign fields, and for leadership and as directors in Christian education.

The School aims to develop Christian character by fostering the Christian spirit which will permeate the lives of the students and manifest itself in their home relationships, in their churches, in their fields of Christian service, and in their social activities.

The School aims to train its students in evangelistic leadership that they may feel and have a vital concern for the salvation of souls, and help in bringing about a better Christian social order.

The courses taught are designed to enrich the lives of the students by giving them an understanding of life, of world problems, and an opportunity to develop their talents and appreciation of art, literature, music, drama, and home-making, all to be used to the glory of God.

Recognizing that physical and mental health are essential for efficient service and personal development, attention is given to this phase of the student's life.

The School Motto Is:

"TRAINING FOR SERVICE"

The School has had a very successful year, under the leadership of Mrs. Lillian D. Edwards. Like all schools, money has been the crying need.

The budget fixed for the year was $42,000.00. It is noted that the School operated within its budget.

The Treasurer's report shows receipts	$34,806 21
Disbursements	33,096 73

THE NEEDS OF THE SCHOOL

The present urgent needs are:

(1) Increased financial support from the constituency for the operation of the school.

(2) Securing of scholarships to aid worthy students who desire the type of training offered at this institution.

(3) Increased facilities and ample equipment for meeting the demands of this growing and expanding institution.

(4) Funds for the immediate re-construction of the Administration Building lost by fire September, 1926.

(5) Interested persons to sell this school, as an accredited institution, where excellent advantages are offered in the training of young women for Missionary service, Christian Leadership service, and as Directors in Christian Education.

NOTE: The only Standard School for this type of training in our Racial group.

This report was unanimously approved.

REPORT OF THE HOME MISSION BOARD

Bro. President and Members of Convention:

This is the 19th occasion that I have appeared before you in this respect to give account of our stewardship in connection with the all-important Department of Home Missions and Evangelism of our convention. Each time we have come to you it has been with the feeling and knowledge of that of a servant of the convention and the Department, rather than owner, and this time is certainly no exception, for as usual our efforts have been with the deep sense of our responsibility and made in the greatest sincerity, praying all the while that we individually and collectively would catch the vision of Missions as it relates to the dire needs of the IMMEDIATE FIELDS.

To our delight we are happy to have witnessed a constant increase of interest from year to year so that we now can say without the slightest hesitation or fear of successful contradiction that the Home Missions Board is fast becoming one of the leading agencies of our convention.

We are grateful indeed first, to our President, Dr. D. V. Jemison who has given us evidence of a heart that beats a sympathetic chord, both for the work of the convention and your humble servant who was placed as the Executive of said department. Dr. M. C. Cleveland our chairman has also been much help to us in the way of making sentiment and gathering in finance. Certainly, we are grateful to the brotherhood at large for the responses given to our appeals, both in person and in letter form. Our prayer is now that more men and women would sense the urgency of the times and the opportunities that are presenting to us for creating in some instances and in others deepening the Religious lives of those right here on these HOME FIELDS, for these are serious times and as every body knows and can observe through the press and the radio that the times are not becoming less serious, but more. These are times that try men's souls; these are times that are the most uncertain of any age gone by; these are times when men every where ought to pray and prayer right now must not be confined any longer to "me and my wife, my son John and his wife—we four and no more." But prayer must reach further than the immediate home. It must reach your neighbors home; it must reach your church; it must reach your local government, your national government and the governments of the world. And this community without regard to denomination; it must reach your local government and the governments of the world. And this spirit of prayer must find it's lodging place in the breast of every child of God and the origin of the reformation and scope of prayer must have its starting place in the HOME.

It seems to me that the fire of religion might be burning in the breast of every man and woman and boy and girl having reached the age of consciousness as to right and wrong and who lives on this American soil. We have hardly scratched the surface when it comes to world disturbances. Our boys are even now being hurled into judgement by the minute from the fighting front and the government is fast gathering up more to send to the battlefields that they too might bare their breasts to the shot shell of the enemy—they also may be hurled to an untimely judgment.

Season of Prayer

In the light of these things—the corruption at home, the Christian indifference at home and world disturbance our Board wishes to emphasize the fact to the Convention, that prayer, real prayer, sure enough prayer changes things and we are recommending that the entire Convention will observe a week of prayer beginning the first Sunday in November and closing on Friday night thereafter. We also recommend that from every Baptist pulpit the subject, "Christ, the Solvent for Sin" be used on the first Sunday morning in November.

We wish to advise that it is our plan to circularize the entire brotherhood, submitting a program for this week of prayer and earnest appealing again for one hundred per cent spiritual support at a critical time like this. We are not asking for money but prayer, and we are begging if need be, that a report be sent to our office at the end of the season showing just what spiritual accomplishments or gains were made during it.

The West

For many years the Western Front was our pet theme and even now we are definitely interested in it, but because of heavy obligations in other fields, we simply had to temporarily supend most of our Western activities. It is our plan even from this Convention to catch a better hold on those states of the Western Front, desolate regions where churches are few and far apart. But I tell you now the west for years has been just what it is not. The Northern Baptist Convention has put 1000 of dollars in it and the National Baptist Convention has done the same and yet it remains the West. People are few, church life is cold like the climate and it matters not how much money we might put into that project it remains difficult to get longer than acceptable work can be found that in more thickly settled communities. This has been our experience and yet they must be helped. If the Lord will we hope to make some suggestions to the Western representatives who are here that we think and pray will be help in the prosecution of the masters program out there also. But not more than we are sure we can do.

Walter H. Brooks Foundation

Two years ago the Chaplaincy as first sponsored by the Walter H. Brooks Foundation of Washington was turned over to the Home Missions Board as one of it's projects. We accepted it in good faith, hoping that enough enthusiasm on the part of our Brotherhood would be generated to enable us to more or less comfortable carry on that work and at the same time not neglect the other. But this was not the case. At any rate we have carried on successfully for this period. We have maintained a Chaplain and a Secretary to the chaplain of at a cost of between $3000 and $4000 a year and I am happy to state that up to date our obligations are up and we owe no man in that connection, and there has been no confusion worthy of respectful attention. I am grateful indeed to the President of the Walter H. Brooks Foundation, Dr. E. L. Harrison who played a very helpful part, with the authority with the Home Mission Board in gathering in funds for the support of this project. In a discussion with some of the leaders about two weeks ago and our Board we find that for the time being it will be necessary to make some refreshments which will be worked out more definitely at this meeting.

It is true as many have stated that we are not looking to Howard University for Baptist Leadership but rather to schools of pronounced Baptist leadership and whose doors are kept open by Baptist money so that Baptist policy and Baptist doctrine can be [illegible]nciated without fear of handicapping criticism. But Howard Univ[illegible]ty, it must be understood is not full of students from the south than from any other section and they must be cared for. And Howard is our leading University. Hence the folly of turning our backs on them while other denominations have entered in and will become very interesting to the students whose denomination is not registered and active on the campus. One of the things greatly needed is an Off-Campus center which will cost $2500. If we could get 500 pastors to PLEDGE and PAY $5.00 each by the first Sunday in December we could easily make a payment on a beautiful center that could be about self-supporting.

Evangelism

Our department of Evangelism has been pretty much alive this year according to reports received from our Evangelists. Better than 3000 should have been added to the Kingdom's roster, with more than $5,000 raised by Evangelistic campaigns which went for the churches served and not the Evangelists' Service.

Southern Baptist Convention Evangelism

Our Convention voted two years ago to cooperate with the Southern Baptist Convention in its simultaneous revivals which will close in 1951. Our Evangelistic department therefore booked right up with the Evangelistic Department of the Southern Baptist Convention and, you might be pleased to know that we have had a full degree of success. Aside from being [illegible]ogether with them in their revivals throughout the south we were most active on May when they held their annual session in Chicago, Ill.

Our Board has the signal honor of handling their Evangelistic rally on a Friday night, especially as it related to the part that the National Baptist Convention was invited to play.

The request was for a 1000 Negro voice choir and a National Baptist Convention preacher to bring an Evangelistic message preceeding Dr. Lee, president of the Southern Baptist Convention who also was booked and did bring an Evangelistic message. Dr. E. W. Perry Vice-President of our Convention and for several years Director of Evangelism of the Home Mission Board was requested first to bring this message. It was he also who stood very close to some of the leaders in the Southern Baptist Convention and it was he who very effectively preached to them in their annual session the year before when it convened in Oklahoma City. On account of that Dr. Perry felt that it would be hogging outstanding opportunities. We then turned to our own Dr. J. H. Jackson, Regional Vice-President and Minister in the Olivet Baptist Church in Chicago, Ill., to fill this place. We recommended him to the Southern Convention because we knew he could fill it. And he did to the credit not only to the National Baptist Convention and not only to his group but to the institution of Christianity. Their revivals has been said will run over into 1951.

Preaching

I think we all right now are ready for a great Evangelistic awakening and this must be done through the power of preaching. This is a fine time to stop and lay emphasis as never before on "A Return to Religion of the Heart." What we need is the Old Time revival: the old time message with the old time ring. We must have revivals now. The mike, the public address system have made the preacher forget the value of the human voice. John the Baptist had a naturally public address system. He was a voice crying in the wilderness, saying [illegible]pent ye for the Kingdom is at hand."

What I am talking about is, ordinary language is, "whooping." There is nothing wrong in whooping out the word of God. God never told man how to get his message over for he knew that men's mental ranges would differ. Some have to be reached through the emotion and some through the reasoning faculties. After all the thing that God is interested in is the man and whatever it takes to reach the man, reach him. If it takes whooping, whoop brother, just get the man. Know the man who whoops and watch his congregation watch the increase of his membership, watch his baptismal pool and finally watch his collection plate.

These are the things for which the Department of Home Missions and Evangelism stands. We ask for your prayers and for whatever support otherwise that your heart urges to give and finally we shall have a Department of which all will feel proud.

REPORT

NATIONAL BAPTIST MISSIONARY TRAINING SCHOOL

MRS. LILLIAN D. EDWARDS, President

To President D. V. Jemison, Officers and Members of the National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Inc. Greetings:

It is with a peculiar sense of gratitude to God and you for the privilege of being President of the National Baptist Missionary Training School, one of the finest schools of its type in our Baptist constituency, we bring you our First Annual Report as President of the Training School for the school year 1949-1950, of students enrolled by states, objectives, progress attained, the Training School's future and its problems and needs. We bring you greetings from the faculty, staff and student body.

Enrollment

The student body represents twelve (12) states in the United States, and one foreign country. This year presented the largest graduation class in the history of the school, nine in number.

Objectives

The National Baptist Missionary Training School has for its objectives to prepare Christian young women for efficient leadership in Religious Education, Home and Foreign Missionary Service, Pastor's Assistants in the Churches, Teachers of Weekday Religious Education and other Religious Vocations open to professionally trained women. It is founded on the Scriptures: "Ye call Me Teacher and you are right for so I am." (John 13:13) "Go make disciples of all nations . . . teaching them to observe all that I have commanded." (Matt. 28:19-20) "Ye shall be my witnesses to the end of the earth." (Acts 1:8).

The major aims by which the school seeks to fulfill its objectives:

It aims to maintain high cultural and academic standards. The instructors are highly qualified. They have specialized in their fields of study.

The curriculum specializes in (1) Courses in the Bible, as the source Book of our Christian faith, (2) Courses in Religious Education, as the means by which the resources of the Christian faith are carried over into lives of people, (3) Courses in Home and Foreign Missions, (4) Courses in Human Relations, (5) Courses in Social Science, as a means of understanding the needs of today, (6) Courses in Business Education to give skills in typing, (7) Courses in Creativity, concentrating on Speech, Arts, Handicraft and Religious Dramatics, Rural Life Experiences, (8) Courses in Home Economics where real home life experiences are made life-related. It aims to deepen the reality and the vitality of the students' Christian experience, by every means at its disposal. It stimulates personality development through Chapel Services, Quiet Hour, Prayer Room, Prayer Meetings, Sunday School, Baptist Young People's Union, Baptist Student Union, Student Council, Bible Reading Circle.

Founders' Day

The Thirteenth Founders' Day Program and Rally was held November 24, 1949 in Townsend Hall, and Rev. Charles L. Dinkins, Secretary, Department of Christian Education, Sunday School Publishing Board, was the guest speaker.

Donations for Founders' Day were received from individuals, churches and organizations, to the amount of $1326.62.

Serving the Needy

On Thanksgiving Day and on Christmas Day baskets carrying good cheer, were carried to two needy families in the community.

Special Days

Bible Week was observed the first week in December.

Youth Week

January 31—February 5, 1950, Youth Week was observed at the Training School. The Workshop Conference theme was, "God Designs—Youth Builds."

Negro History Week

February 13-19, 1950, Negro History Week was observed. Mrs. E. P. Campbell, Social Science Instructor, was the Director. The theme for the week was, "Much More Yet."

Special features of the week were: "Words and Music" featuring the Works of famous Negro Poets and Singers, and an Open Forum, "Has the Negro Accomplished All That He Could?" If so—Why? If not—Why?

Home Life

School life at the Training School is a wholesome home life which includes work, worship and play. Daily Chapel Services, Sunday School, B. T. U., B. S. U., Prayer Meetings, Quiet Hour, and Prayer Room all deepen the spiritual lives of the faculty and student body. A Quiet Hour once a week for personal devotions affords opportunity for intimate worship, and Musicals, banquets, dramas, socials, hikes, picnics and trips are happy events at the Training School. Living is carried on through a cooperative plan. Each student gives a small amount of time daily to waiting on tables, washing dishes and home work.

Field Work Experiences

Field Work is a very important part of the total educational process. The Seniors and two Juniors who are apprentice workers have had a wide variety of experiences with different age groups and program interest through the Fisk University Social Center, under the leadership of Miss Mildred McTyre.

Glee Club

The students of the N. B. M. Training School have made distinctive contributions through the school Glee Club to many of the local churches in Nashville and near-by communities.

Dramatics

Students at the Training School have expressed themselves through the field of creative dramatics. Many worth-while original plays were written and presented.

Religious Emphasis Week

As Christian educators, our world will depend on, to a great extent, how Christianity permeats the lives of men. There must be a continuous growth on the part of all Christians throughout youth to adulthood will be transmitted into the lives of others.

Student Council

The Student Council is a self-governing body, and all registered students are eligible for membership. The motto is: "The good of the whole depends upon the good of each; the good of each depends upon the good of the whole."

The Executive Board of the Student Council consists of three Seniors and two Juniors which looks after matters concerning the students. If the Council cannot settle the problem it is taken to the Staff.

Each girl has been helped by the friendly counseling of the President, Mrs. L. D. Edwards, who always finds time to meet with them.

The Woman's Convention

One of our first responsibilities after being elected President of the Training School was to attend the Annual meeting of the National Baptist Convention, Inc., held in Los Angeles, California. At this meeting we were cordially received both in the women's and men's departments, where we had the opportunity to make ourself known and make contact and friends for the school. President Burroughs, and President Jemison and other leaders of the Convention were very gracious and courteous in their reception of me as the new President.

Throughout the year we have enjoyed the fine support of the President and other leaders of the Woman's Convention.

Our Faculty

The Faculty of the school has been strengthened this year, and there has existed a fine spirit of harmony and cooperation within the Faculty, Staff and Student Body. Dean Bolmunon and other faculty members, Miss Julia B. Foreman, Miss Ina E. Burton, Mrs. Eunice P. Campbell, Miss Milbra Senter, Miss Mildred McTyre, and Miss Bessie Walton are specialists in their fields and are contributing much to the growth of the school and the students.

In Conclusion

The past year has been a great experience. As we come to the close of this school year, our hearts rejoice with deep appreciation for the success made through your cooperation. Who can predict the future? God is willing to lead us on to greater heights. Are we ready to accept his calling?

The National Baptist Missionary Training School holds a significant place in the denomination. The challenge before us is to enhance its service; service to the denomination. Are we willing to accept the challenge?

Mr. President, Brethren and Sisters, who go to make up this great National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Inc.

I thank God for this another opportunity to appear before you as the corresponding secretary of the Ministerial Benefit Board of this Convention, the greatest religious body in the world.

I say I am glad to appear, not because my report is so great nor because the Ministerial Benefit Board has achieved any great proportions, but, I am glad because it is leading in a certain definite direction, and we shall enjoy a greater tomorrow because of the work of the Ministerial Benefit Board of today.

God is leading us on. Many of the cries of our aged ministers and ministers' widows have been met. Many of them who gave their best, others who gave their all have not been completely disappointed.

As the years go on, we are working to do more. Our retirement plan is gaining ground every day.

SEVENTH ANNUAL REPORT OF THE AMERICAN BAPTIST THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

Ralph W. Riley, President

Mr. President, Officers and Members of the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc., Greetings:

In days like these, those who serve as administrators in private, Christian schools, are faced with many crucial problems. However, amidst the great and many existing obstacles, the urgent need of education among the future leadership of our people, in many ways, compensates for our present difficulties. Despite the fact that this year has been one of the most trying in all the Seminary's history, it has been for me, one of the most thrilling and enjoyable and I am gracious for the circumstances and the providence of God which have so safely led me to this hour.

Some of Our Difficulties

The American Baptist Theological Seminary being national in its scope and purpose has placed upon it the responsibility of serving one of the largest constituencies of any school in the nation. Although it is a Baptist institution it cannot and does not close its doors to other races, creeds or classes. In the confines of the National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Inc., alone there are 5,000 untrained preachers. In this number there are those who are unclassified unfinancial, handicapped and discouraged. Each year we are faced with an increasing number of applications appealing for scholarship-assistance and work-opportunities which the Seminary is in no position to grant. Such requests come not from our own United States alone, but from Africa, India, Australia, South America, Canada, Bahamas, and the Caribbeans. We can only write these students consoling letters and pray for the day of larger facilities and means to supply the needs of some of them.

The second problem which the Seminary faces is that of an increased in-service-pastoral student demand; those who desire and need some fundamental training and who now or never will be able to leave their local situations to do residence study at the Seminary or any other established institution. The Seminary sooner or later must face this problem for our more adult and busy in-service preachers.

Another challenging problem which the Seminary faces, is that of constantly and regularly enlarging its administration and teaching staff with highly qualified and competent persons in their specific fields as an inducement to the better students who leave our colleges annually and enter other vocations rather than the ministry and if they are ministers, enter other seminaries rather than our own. As Baptists we must not only educate our ministers for the sake of education alone but for the Kingdom of God and His Christ and for all the causes Baptists hold sacred and dear.

Our Relationship to Other Baptist Bodies.

The Seminary maintains a unique relationship to one of the largest Baptist bodies in America. It is jointly owned and supported by the Southern Baptists, one of its co-founders, and has maintained a mutual and cordial relationship since its beginning. Such relationship has been manifested in the Southern Baptist Convention's sharing fifty per cent of the operating cost and matching dollar for dollar raised by the National Baptist Convention for the Seminary. For twenty-five years the National Baptist Convention has kept step with the original agreement. She shall do nothing less in the future.

Our Financial Status

In earlier days when the total student body of the Seminary, in some years, was no larger than the faculty and administrative staff are at the present, it was not difficult to operate the Seminary on a limited budget and close the year with a balance. This was true at the beginning of the present encumbered administration, but all of us know now that operating costs for all institutions have increased greatly and the situation has radically changed. The Seminary this year has faced financial stringency and without larger and regular support, we shall not only fail to keep pace with progressive steps in the field of education, but we shall find untold difficulty in operating at all.

Sustained Internal Progress

Despite the fact that we face needs here and yonder, we nevertheless continue to make some progress of which we are proud. Each year an increasing number of better trained young men leave the Seminary and go on to further study or into the leadership of churches throughout the nation. From the eighteen graduates of the class of 1950 nine are serving as pastors, eight are continuing further study, and one is serving as a chaplain in the U. S. Army. Seminary men today are found in leading churches in 28 states of America. And with God's help and your co-operation their tribe is bound to increase!

Extension Service Demands

Again I call your attention to requests for Extension-Units to be set up under the direction of the Seminary for ministers who cannot attend the Seminary. For two years now we have had classes operating in South Carolina, Kentucky, and Arkansas, and requests for the go-ahead signal to establish others in Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Mississippi, and Tennessee. Able and interested ministers in these areas are teaching local ministers many of whom drive daily 20 miles to the schools for minimum help and instruction. There is a great wealth of service the Seminary could render by the employment of a director of Extension Study who would make periodic visits to these units, supervise study, and arrange for credits to be given by the Seminary. This would not only be helping the needy ministers, but would also aid in the promotion and publicizing of the work of the Seminary and denomination in general. National Baptists in some way must in the near future take advantage of this opportunity and help her future sons and brother ministers, many of whom will be our church-leaders of tomorrow.

Facing the Future

At the present time much consideration is being given to the training of ministers, perhaps more than ever before. Definitely more of our ministers visualize trends, more are preparing themselves, and more interest on the part of even those who find it inconvenient to study are manifested than at any time in all history. Particularly the problem of the education of the Negro ministry stands out before us.

Three major denominations within the last two years have made studies on fabilities, needs, and opportunities of the Negro ministers and the most extensive one to be conducted is now being made by the three great Baptist bodies in America: The National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Incorporated, The Southern Baptist Convention, and The Northern Baptist Convention. The study is under the direction of The National Committee of Race-Relations and Ministerial Education. Dr. R. W. Riley is Chairman of the Committee, and Dr. Ira D. A. Reed, eminent socialist and Professor at Haverford College, Haverford, Pennsylvania, is conducting the study. The study proposes to open our eyes to the facts as they actually exist on our preacher-problem and the present time, and inspire us to do something about it.

In the days ahead Baptists of America will be called on to do something in a cooperative and constructive way, not only to support a great Theological School for Baptists, but make it possible that there will be ample facilities and scholarship-opportunities available to every man whom God has called in His service, and not one will be neglected; but all will receive the training and inspiration, second to none the world over, which this day and generation demands. God helping us, the task can and will be done!

Recommendations

1. That we go on record as requesting the Board of Directors, in behalf of the Convention, as inaugurating the Extension Unit Study Program of the American Baptist Theological Seminary.

2. That we grant in the approximate amount of $300 upon one foreign student annually.

Respectfully submitted,
RALPH W. RILEY, President

NATIONAL BAPTIST CONVENTION, U. S. A., INC.

FOURTH ANNUAL REPORT OF U. J. ROBINSON, Secretary

To the President, Officers and Members of the 70th Annual Session of the NATIONAL BAPTIST CONVENTION, U. S. A., INC.

Greetings:

I am grateful to our Heavenly Father who permits me to make to you today, my annual report as your General Secretary, for the greatest Religious body for Negroes in the world. As I make this report, I am not unmindfull that over 4,000,000 people in America listen through their representatives.

It gives me a degree of pleasure to be identified with this great Convention. Since 1910, I have not missed but one session of this Convention. That was, 1918, St. Louis, Missouri, when I was serving as Chaplain overseas.

In 1911, I was appointed Usher and served until 1922, when I was appointed to the Finance and Enrollment Committee, where I served until 1931, when I was elected by the Convention as First Assistant Secretary, which position held for sixteen (16) years. Thus, I worked my way up from the rank to where I am now. You may know I am happy, and thankful to Almighty God and my friends throughout the nation.

My official duties have been many this year. It has taxed my physical strength greatly. But thank God we have come through successfully.

Our Los Angeles session, in spite of the distance, was well attended. There were represented, 50 State Conventions; 7 District State Conventions; 214 Associations; 2648 Churches with 3175 Delegates.

I am pleased to give you a brief review of the various meetings held this conventional year:

1. The Board of Directors meeting in Hot Springs, Arkansas, at which time the work of the Los Angeles Session was completed and plans made for this Conventional year. The Agenda of the President was adopted. The report of the Finance Commission was made and approved. A Budget for the Conventional year, as recommended by the Finance Commission, was adopted. The total amount for conventional expenses—$20,945.00 and $39,055.00 for the Boards and Agencies of the Convention; making a total of $60,000.00.

2. There were two (2) Regional meetings held this year:

   1. In Atlanta, Georgia, with the Wheat Street Baptist Church, Dr. W. H. Borders, Pastor, March 14-16, 1950.

   2. In Brooklyn, New York, with Mt. Lebanon Baptist Church, Dr. C. L. Franklin, Pastor, May 2-4, 1950.

Both of these meetings were inspiring and well attended. To my feeble way of thinking, the meeting in Brooklyn was one of the best, if not the best, I have ever attended. These meetings do much to create a better understanding and fellowship in the brotherhood.

The Board of Directors met with Lampton Baptist Church, Louisville, Kentucky, Rev. Charles H. Owens, Pastor, June 22, 1950, at which time the program for this meeting was prepared and a comprehensive report on the progress of the work at the Bath House at Hot Springs was made by the Executive Secretary, Dr. A. M. Townsend. Plans for this meeting were discussed.

It was my privilege to attend the great Baptist World's Alliance in Cleveland, Ohio, July 22-28, 1950. Our representatives on the program gave a good account of themselves. I did not hear all the addresses and sermons at the meeting, but the ones I did hear, to my mind, Dr. Gardner Taylor of Brooklyn, New York was at the top of the class and the addresses of Dr. Benjamin E. Mays, President at Morehouse College and Miss Nannie H. Burroughs, President of Woman's Convention, Auxiliary to the National Baptist Convention, were masterful efforts.

We were proud of all our representatives. Our own President, Dr. D. V. Jemison, was elected Vice President of the Alliance.

26TH ANNUAL REPORT OF THE HISTORICAL AND RESEARCH DEPARTMENT

of the

NATIONAL BAPTIST CONVENTION, U. S. A., INC.

Historiographer, During the 70th Annual Session of the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc., Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, Sept, 1950

There were opportunities offered to Negro Baptists through the historical and cultural landmarks in Philadelphia which served to inspire them to strive for definite development which would enable them to cope with any emergencies that would confront them. There were organizations with which they allied themselves and served most commendably as organizers and supporters.

There was an association of the early days that was known as the Philadelphia Association—Pennsylvania. In 1851 there was shown a statistical table that showed the following:

Churches	Counties	Const.	Pastors	Baptized	Members
Philadelphia, 1st African, Philadelphia, 1809, Richard Vaughn				1	197
Philadelphia, Union, Philadelphia, 1832, Sampson White				13	254
Slockley, African, Philadelphia, 1827				4	80
Washington, First, Washington, 1838, G. Brown				3	216
Philadelphia, Third, Philadelphia, 1841, J. Henderson				3	75
Philadelphia, Shiloh, Philadelphia, 1842, Jeremiah Asher				11	114

The Nineteenth Anniversary of the American Baptist Missionary Convention was held August 19-25, 1859. In that meeting ministers from Philadelphia were among the prominent leaders. On the Executive Committee was Sampson White, former pastor of Union Baptist Church, Jeremiah Asher, pastor of Shiloh, Philadelphia, was corresponding secretary. When the American Baptist Missionary Convention was incorporated June 26, 1848, the name of Sampson White was the first on the Articles of Incorporation.

The Nineteenth Anniversary of the Convention was opened with Philadelphia having representation, as Jeremiah Asher offered prayer, and Edmund Kelley, of West Philadelphia, preached the introductory sermon from the 24th Chapter of Luke 46-48 verses; "And thus it behooved Christ to suffer, and to rise from the dead the third day: and that repentance and remission of sins should be preached in his name among all nations, . . ." When the officers were elected, Sampson White, formerly of Union Baptist, Philadelphia, but then of Brooklyn, N. Y., was elected president; Jesse F. Boulden, Philadelphia, Vice-president; Jeremiah Asher, Philadelphia, Corresponding secretary.

The committees had representatives from Philadelphia on almost all of them. The Committee on Reception of New Churches had Edmund Kelley and Richard Vaughn of Philadelphia. The Committee on Circular Letter had Edmund Kelley of Philadelphia. The Committee on Finance had Jeremiah Asher on it. The Committee on Fields had Jeremiah Asher on it. The Committee on Obituraries had Jeremiah Asher on it.

T. D. Miller, of New York and Philadelphia, served as assistant secretary and later (1865) corresponding secretary of the convention.

Philadelphia has every reason to be proud of Jesse Freeman Boulden, who served very conspicuously in the American Baptist Missionary Convention, and as pastor of the great Union Baptist Church from 1853 until the autumn of 1860, when he resigned and went to Chicago to assume the leadership of the Zion Baptist Church, now Olivet. All of the educational advantages of the City of Brotherly Love were poured out before him, and he joyously made good use of them. He was not only a powerful leader in Philadelphia, but he was a leader of national renown. His influence was felt in many states of the Union.

"In 1864 he was invited to visit Oak Street Baptist Church, West Philadelphia, with a view to their pastorate. While there the Pearl Street Church the old mother church organized in 1809, which has had but four regular pastors, situated on Cherry Street, also invited him to spend a Sabbath with them with the same view, after which calls were extended to him from both churches, and he accepted that of the latter, beginning services with them August 1, 1864, in whose service he still remains, the oldest pastor in continued service in the City, but one. During his pastorate, the membership has been quadrupled, he having baptized over six hundred in the successive revivals, the largest of which, in the history of the church, occurred in the spring of 1886, in his twenty-second year of service, among whom were two of his own children, a son and daughter having previously been baptized, making four of his children in the church, a blessing accorded to but few pastors. His oldest son is a very eminent Musician and is the organist of the church . . ." "He is a man of oratorical powers, a clear reasoner, forcible writer and elegant talker; a man highly respected for scholarly attainment, strictest integrity, honor and common sense."

Cathart wrote of him very complimentary in the 'Baptist Encyclopedia' the following:

"Mr. Miller was appointed to preach the introductory sermon before the Philadelphia Baptist Association in 1879, the first colored man that ever occupied that position, and he was not placed in it by political power, but as a simple recognition of his Christian work. His sermon showed the propriety of the choice."

The life of the eminent Baltimore, Maryland, pastor, Harvey Johnson was touched by the culture of Philadelphia, as he "for a while attended a school kept by Quakers in Philadelphia," after studying under an eurdite scholar by the name of Gladstone.

E. M. Brawley, Baptist editor, pastor, Sunday school agent, president of Selma University, began his education in Philadelphia in 1861, about the age of ten years. "He . . . entered one of the Grammar schools and remained three years, then entered the Institution for Colored Youth, Professor E. D. Bassett then being principal, and remained until 1866, when he had partly completed his preparation for college." In 1869 he worked as a journeyman at the shoemaker trade in Philadelphia. In April, 1865 at the age of fourteen, he early felt a call to the ministry, and became active in Sunday school work. The culture of the City of Brotherly Love was ever marked in his life from his tenth year until the close of his earthly career.

A most remarkable figure in the political life of America was a Baptist layman of most unusual renown, a temperance orator, educator and state senator, James J. Speiman, about whom Wm. J. Simmons said: "In 1872 he was a delegate to the National Republican Convention at Philadelphia, and was chosen a presidential elector."

A great layman who served as treasurer of the American Baptist Missionary Convention was eulogized during the nineteenth anniversary of the organization. The committee on obituaries made the following report:

"We are called to record the death of our esteemed brother and fellow-laborer, Deacon Frank Williams, of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, deacon of the Shiloh Church, and for the last four or five years Treasurer of the American Baptist Missionary Convention; who discharged this duty with honor and fidelity. The loss of our brother we deeply deplore, and sympathize both with the church of which he was a member and his deeply afflicted family, and pray that his family may receive the comfort, support and consolation of the grace of God, that his place in the church may be supplied with another characterized with an equal degree of patience, perseverance, steadfastness and faith with which he was possessed, and that his place in the convention be filled with another who will perform his duties with equal zeal and fidelity. May this admonition of the providence of God be sanctified to all of us, and we quickened in the discharge of every labor, until we shall go hence to join with our fellow-laborer in that world where remaineth a rest to the people of God."

In the nineteenth annual session of the American Baptist Missionary Convention the following persons were enrolled with the annual membership fee of $1.00 each from Philadelphia: James Fells, Nelly West, Nelly Denney, Ruth A. Miller, Charlotte Fitieman, Maria Wilson, John Kenny, Pamelia Logan, Samuel Parker, Sarah Parker, Charlotte Underwood, Jane Green, Jane Scott, Matilda Duncan and Susan Singleton. Edward Cook enrolled with $3.00. The Philadelphia churches that enrolled with $3.00 each were: Oak Street, Shiloh, Union and First Colored African.

A resolution was passed which authorized Rev. Brother Vaughn and Brother Burris, both of Philadelphia, to serve as agents to collect money for the convention.

To the convention there was made the "Report of The Widow's Fund."

Philadelphia, August 17, 1859.

"At the close of the session in 1858, there was in the treasury $165.61. Amount received during present session $16.62. Total $182.23.

Many remarkable acts were done by the early Negro Baptists, and the Philadelphia leaders have always been extremely active in all of the worthwhile movements prosecuted by organizations with which they were connected.

Our great Baptist forces first invaded this marvelous city of myriad blowments, opportunities and advantages in 1903 under the gallant leadership of the polished Dr. E. C. Morris as president. Professor W. L. Cansler was secretary and kept the records of this convention then. Our next national gathering trip to the City of Brotherly Love was in 1914. We were still being marshalled by the faultless leadership of the intrepid Dr. E. C. Morris. The gallant and faithful Dr. W. G. Parks, of Philadelphia, was Vice-president at large. Prof. R. B. Hudson was secretary. It was in Philadelphia, during the 1914 session that the question of convention control of its boards, auxiliaries and subsidiaries was submitted by a special commission that had been previously appointed to investigate the status of the boards, auxiliaries and subsidiaries and have them conform to the idea of convention control. The report of the commission was adopted, 361 for convention control and 209 against. Out of that session flared the dissention which ignited the next year in Chicago, Illinois, resulting in the split of the convention over board ownership and control, with the Sunday School Publishing Board the specific object of the dissention and division.

That year (1914) there were twenty Philadelphia delegates who enrolled with the constitutional requirement of $2.00 each. In that year Philadelphia was represented with A. R. Robinson, Chairman of the Foreign Mission Board; L. G. Jordan, Corresponding Secretary of the Foreign Board; J. C. Jackson, State Vice-president; C. H. Blackwell, member of the Home Mission Board; W. F. Graham, member of the Publishing Board; J. R. Bennett, member of the Educational Board.

The third meeting of the convention in Philadelphia was in 1939. At that time the erudite, polished pulpiteer, Dr. L. K. Williams, was president. Dr. J. M. Nabrit, the scholarly scribe and seminary president, was the secretary.

We find ourselves back in the City of Brotherly Love in 1950, at the close of the first half of the twentieth century and the 70th anniversary of the existence of our great convention. This time we find ourselves guided by the fearless, dynamic Dr. D. V. Jemison, as our president, who was Vice-president at large when we met here in 1939. It was President Jemison who presented the name of Birmingham, Alabama, to the convention as the meeting place for 1940. Dr. U. J. Robinson, man of culture, character and courage, is secretary at this session.

No names in the religious and civic life of Philadelphia, when the 19th century was on the wane and the 20th was young, were more widely known than those of J. R. Robinson, William H. Phillips, L. G. Jordan, William A. Credit, Wesley F. Graham, James E. East, W. G. Parks, William H. Moses, Mrs. S. Willie Layten.

Of the four men who have served as President of the National Baptist Convention since the effective consolidation move of 1896, one was a resident of the "City of Brotherly Love." That man was the polished, affable and loyal W. G. Parks. The office of Vice-President-at-large was held by Dr. Parks upon the demise of Dr. Elias Camp Morris of Helena, Arkansas, in 1922.

There have been only five corresponding secretaries of the Foreign Mission Board since 1895. Four of the five made Philadelphia the headquarters of their foreign mission endeavors. Dr. L. G. Jordan, the successor to Dr. L. M.

Luke, found Louisville, Kentucky, the headquarters for the Foreign Mission Board, but during his secretaryship, Philadelphia was made headquarters. Dr. Jordan, on account of ill health, resigned as secretary of the Foreign Mission Board. Rev. James E. East of Philadelphia was elected as his successor in 1921. The successor to Dr. East was the eloquent, erudite Dr. J. H. Jackson, of Philadelphia, 1937, whose labors were blessed with striking successes. Dr. Jackson served as secretary until 1941, when he was called to pastor the great Olivet Baptist Church, Chicago, Illinois, as the successor to Dr. L. K. Williams. The chairman of the Foreign Mission Board then was the capable, zealous, missionary-minded Dr. C. C. Adams, Philadelphia. He was importuned to accept the secretaryship made vacant by the resignation of Dr. Joseph H. Jackson, which he did.

In other national offices have men from Philadelphia served. Dr. Marshall L. Shepard has served as an assistant secretary of the National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Inc., and he is now chairman of the Foreign Mission Board, serving most capably with Dr. C. C. Adams, the corresponding secretary.

The Negro Baptist Press extended its influence in the City of Brotherly Love, when C. L. Taliaferro edited and published the "Christian Banner."

In 1905 there was organized the Baptist World Alliance. The initial session was held "in the great city of London, England, July 10-20, 1905 . . ." There were forty representatives from the National Baptist Convention. One of the number was "Rev. E. W. Johnson, D. D., Philadelphia, Pennsylvania . . . " The second meeting of the Baptist World Alliance was held in Philadelphia, in 1911.

Dr. C. T. Walker, Augusta, Georgia, and Dr. E. R. Carter, Atlanta, Georgia, were the first Negro Baptist preachers to visit the Holy Land. That first trip was made in 1891 and lasted three months. Since that time many Negro Baptist preachers have made the journey. The first Negro Baptist preacher to make the trip from Philadelphia was Dr. W. G. Parks, and the last from Philadelphia to this date was Dr. L. G. Carr.

Philadelphia is easily in the fore-front with the leading cities in the contributions that Negro Baptists are making. There must be mentioned among those of this generation whose efforts are telling for remarkable good: J. E. Kirkland, L. G. Carr, W. H. R. Powell, C. C. Adams, Marshall L. Shepard, D. W. Hoggard, Henry T. McCrary, E. Theodore Lewis, D. Manning Jackson, Austin Jefferson, Joseph W. Jackson, W. L. Bentley, B. C. McCoy, M. B. Pickett, Joseph E. Dyches, N. E. Hulsey, J. Luke Jones, W. M. Pearce, I. W. Parrish, A. R. Adkin, C. W. Gregory, J. Henry Patten, D. W. Beauford, W. M. Thompson, W. L. Moore, C. H. Churn, E. L. Satchell, William J. Harvey, Preston L. Walker, E. L. Cunningham, Allen T. Dixon and many others. By all means must Negro Baptists be proud of Raymond Pace Alexander, lawyer, Hobson R. Reynolds, distinguished in the field of mortuary science, Marian Anderson, prodigy of vocalization as a child in the juvenile musical circles of Union Baptist Church, the most colorful contralto of the last one hundred years . . . the world's greatest living singer, the personification of grace, polished demeanor and concert decorum, whose queenly bearing moves and awe smites an audience as the resonancy of her bewitching tonal supremacy lifts to heights of ecstasy all privileged auditors with the rare opportunity to be thrilled with her musical superlativeness.

Truly, Philadelphia is a great city and has made imperishable contributions to the causes for which Negro Baptists stand, work, sacrifice, suffer, weep, bleed, then are willing to die and are dying.

REPORT OF AUDITOR

(For Year Ending June 30, 1950)

And, to the Boards, Commissions, Officers and Messengers Assembled in Annual Session
Philadelphia, Pennsylvania

Ladies and Gentlemen:

We hand you herewith audit report of the National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Incorporated, its Boards, Schools, Commissions and Officers for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1950.

Our comments which follow this letter of transmittal review in a summary fashion general conclusions which we have reached as a result of our examination and our several visits to various Boards, Schools, and Commissions during the fiscal years just closed.

During the last few years, and in the fiscal year 1949-50, particularly, it has been required that we remain in constant touch with the operations and activities of some of the larger units of the Convention.

Officers, Commissions, and Boards of the Convention cooperate with us in providing information sought, and in general, strive to carry out our fiscal suggestions when they believe them to be sound.

The fiscal affairs of the Convention continue in a generally healthy condition in spite of increased cost in certain units as will be discussed more fully in our comments.

Respectfully submitted,

COMMENTS

The Consolidated Balance Sheet

The purpose of presenting a consolidated balance sheet of the Convention and all of its boards, commissions, schools, and departments as a single exhibit is that of making clear to the constituency, and other interested readers, the combined economic picture of the Convention as a whole. In arriving at the figures contained in the consolidated balance sheet, the balance sheets of the several units were combined, and debts due to, or by, one unit to another, were eliminated. This procedure is followed in order not to duplicate assets and liabilities. It follows, then, that the consolidated balance sheet is the financial statement of the National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Incorporated, as a whole, and as if only one corporation existed. Necessarily, the balance sheets of the several units are also submitted in this audit. This, for the reason that there are those who are only, or primarily, interested in the fiscal position of particular units. On the other hand, all members of the Baptist faith are interested in the overall picture. Your auditors take the view that, although, some of the boards are separately incorporated (rooted in the parent organization, of course), and technically, are autonomous units in themselves, they are all according to Convention Charter, subject to the dictates of the parent corporation, the National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Incorporated.

Taken as a whole, and after inter-unit relationship eliminations, the assets of the Convention at June 30, 1950, subject to other qualifications herein set out, amounted to $2,681,717.83. The current assets of the corporation amounted to $512,111.25, or 19.24% of total assets. The combined current liabilities of the corporation amounted to $90,409.25, or 3.39% of total assets, and slightly less than one-fourth (¼) as much as the current assets. It will be seen, then, that the working capital ratio was approximately 4.1. A ratio of which most commercial or industrial concerns would be exceedingly proud. We have not included in current liabilities maturities on the R. F. C. loan assumed in connection with the Hot Springs property, nor the quarterly maturities on other financing provided for the purpose of reconditioning that property. Such maturities are not such as to significantly modify the ratio.

According to the computations of your auditors, the net worth of the Convention at June 30, 1950, was $2,158,469.69, or approximately 81.10% as much as the total assets. This means that the Convention's equity in its combined assets (after inter-unit eliminations) amounted to approximately four-fifths (4/5) of the total. Thus, the equity of all creditors combined amounted to less than one-fifth (1/5) as much as the total assets. Again, this is a relationship not generally enjoyed by commercial or industrial concerns. Few religious organizations, indeed, can show comparable ratios.

The Office of the President

The president of the Convention submitted his report together with such support as your auditors required. We have, however, expanded his report to include those items which were paid for his office, as well as the provisions for such expenditures. When these are considered, it will be seen that the president has satisfactorily accounted for all funds with which he was entrusted. It should be borne in mind that the budget adopted in the Nashville Board Meeting, necessarily, had to apply to the year, 1950-51, since for the most part the expenditures of the president (and most officers) had been made at the Los Angeles Convention for the year 1949-50—the year covered by this audit. It is hoped, therefore, that the readers of this report will examine it in that light.

The Office of the Secretary

The records of this office were neatly and accurately kept. All funds handled by the office were fully accounted for. All expenditures were in accordance with previously adopted authorizations. The funds of this office were reconciled with those reflected on the records of the Convention Treasurer. The schedules contained in this report touching the affairs of the Secretary's office clearly, and completely, account for funds handled by this officer.

The Office of the Treasurer

This office was audited as of December 10, 1949, and again, as of June 30, 1950. In both these audits, the accounts of the Treasurer of the Convention were found in order. It is true, that the treasurer had deposited in the Convention's account some four hundred dollars, more or less, the source of which your auditors could not determine. Because the records of the Secretary's office did not show such receipts, we concluded that the treasurer had inadvertiantly placed his own personal funds in this account in error. Accordingly, we approved the disbursement of this amount to the treasurer. Naturally, we shall never be able to determine whether our decision was correct. At any rate, we believe that it was. Overall, the records of the treasurer's office were well kept, and disbursements were only on the authority of vouchers properly signed, and in accordance with previously approved resolutions. We believe that the exhibits and schedules concerned with the operation of the treasurer's office are correct.

The Office of the Statistician

This office is purely of a research nature. We examined the disbursements made by the officer and found them in order, in so far as we could determine. We have progressed his account from the point we left it a year ago. Taking into account the amount which the Board of Directors admitted that the Convention owed this officer before the Los Angeles Convention, we are satisfied that the amount shown in our current audit is correct. In the case of this officer, we have included in the amount owed to him, the allowance approved by the Nashville Board meeting. This is a rare, if not the only, exception to the rule that the Nashville (Board Approved) budget applies to other than the 1950-51 operation.

The Office of the Editor of the Baptist Voice

We believe that the schedule covering the operations of this office is self-explanatory. It is in order to mention that this officer submitted to your auditors a list of all his subscribers. We are convinced that this office is showing a growing degree of efficiency. It, nevertheless, should be borne in mind that the VOICE is the official organ of the Convention, and as such, should not be expected to earn a net profit. On the other hand, however, it should work toward self support.

Office of the Treasurer of the Woman's Auxiliary

Only the office of the Treasurer of this unit submitted its books for audit. Your auditors found the records of this office in order. It is well managed, and all funds were accounted for. The office needs an adding machine: We recommend its purchase.

The Sunday School Publishing Board

This Board continues to be one of the important sources of funds for the support of all Convention purposes. During the fiscal year just closed, this Board increased its gross sales unimportantly over the previous year, but due mainly to the passage of a new Federal Wages and Hour law, the net income from its operations was greatly decreased. This new law, among other provisions, requires all concerns operating in Interstate Commerce (in more than one state) to pay minimum wages of seventy-five (75c) cents per hour, and time and a half for hours worked above forty (40) hours per week. This law extends to Churchowned units as well as to profit concerns.

In most of the departments of the Board there were employees whose compensations were less than the new legal minimum. When the pay of these employees was brought into line, the amounts which they would then receive were as much as, or more than, other employees of higher technical competence, and with seniority. It became necessary, therefore, to increase the pay of the more competent workers, which in turn placed them along side, or above still other workers of even higher ratings, and so on. The result, then, of increases at the bottom of the pay scale, was to increase compensation all along the line, except, perhaps in the top executive levels. Not only were salaries and wages increased because of this law, but as well, the cost of materials which also reflected the increased National wage pattern. All of this is seen more clearly by a study of the following table of percentage distribution of the sales dollar for a four year period.

Net Sales	100.00%	100.00%	100.0%	100.00%
Less, Cost of Sales	48.44%	47.04%	49.6%	54.68%
Gross Profit	51.56%	52.96%	50.4%	45.32%
Deduct Selling Expense	15.58%	15.58%	15.5%	17.77%
Profit After Selling Expense	35.98%	37.38%	34.9%	27.55%
Less, Administrative Expense	15.43%	16.44%	17.9%	17.76%
Net Profit on Operations	20.55%	20.94%	17.0%	9.79%

It will be seen from the foregoing table that, while administrative expenses remained roughly at the 1949 percentage figures, the other two broad categories of expenses and cost rose importantly. Cost of sales which includes manufacturing labor, materials and expenses, increased approximately 10% over the previous year, and this increase constituted approximately 5% of net sales. Selling expenses rose by approximately 9% over 1949 which amounted to slightly more than 2% of net sales. When these increased costs are considered, it is clearly seen how the net operating income of this board dropped from approximately $90,000.00 in the fiscal year 1948-49, to approximately $58,000.00 during the year 1949-50.

The over-all efficiency of the Board was maintained, and as heretofore, the records of this unit compare favorably with American industrial standards.

A study of this Board's cash receipts and disbursements statement will answer any questions which the reader may have in his mind concerning the sources and disposition of its cash. The Board's funds are ably managed, and are fully accounted for on its records, and in fact.

During the year just closed, this Board had a complete appraisal made of its physical equipment and furniture, and the like. The appraisal showed that this equipment had a reproduction value of nearly five times that at which it is carried in our statements. We have not changed our report valuations, but felt that the constituency should be informed regarding the fair value of the assets as seen by independent experts other than ourselves.

The National Baptist Training Union Board

This Board showed considerable growth in its net worth during the fiscal period covered by this audit. Its cash records are clear and, with our adjustments, accurate. Its non-cash transactions are not well handled, when handled at all. Your auditors continue to experience difficulty in the determination of the Board's actual and contingent liabilities. For example, in our audit for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1949, we reported on the liquidation of a $10,000.00 obligation which had not theretofore appeared on the Board's books, and about which the officers of the Board had said nothing. We obtained a statement from the Secretary of the Board, excerpts of which we reported in last year's audit. (See, also pages 257 and 258 of the minutes of the 69th Annual Session of the Convention).

Again, during the year just closed, the Board paid "blind" obligations of $8,000.00. This disbursement was referred to as "notes" in the amount of $7,000 and "Secretary's Back Salary," in the amount of $1,000. It will be recalled that the Secretary had assured your auditors, only a year ago, that no such obligations existed. A conference held in the office of the Board Secretary and the undersigned, at which the Secretary's local consultant was present, the Secretary repeated the assurance. He explained this condition substantially as follows:

1. That several years ago, and for several such years, the income of the Board was very small, if any. Because of this, his Board had agreed informally to recognize back salary to him of $5,000.00.

2. That, as owner of the Clarion Printing Company, he had not charged the Board commercial prices for supplies furnished, and for work done for it. Instead, he had charged only for raw supplies and direct labor. Thus, the prices charged did not include normal expense, overhead, and profit which would ordinarily be included in the prices charged by commercial printers to unrelated customers. He estimates this to amount to several times as much as $3,000.00, but that he had considered "squaring" the account for that amount.

3. We suggested to the Secretary that, since the minutes of the Board, nor those of the Convention, showed any reference to these items, his Board should be convened to examine the items, and either pass suitable resolutions for their approval or rejection, or make recommendations to the Convention's Board of Directors with respect thereto.

After the conclusion of our audit, we were informed by a long distance telephone call that the Chairman of the Board had been appraised of these items, and had prepared resolutions which he would ask his Board to approve at this session of the Convention. Pending documentary proof of the passage of such resolutions, we have established the amount of $8,000.00 as a loan receivable from the Secretary and the Clarion Printing Company which is wholly owned by the Secretary—according to his statement.

A study of the following table which seeks to analyze the operations of the Board, percentage wise, reveals that the Board shows a satisfactory net income for the year just closed. As a matter of fact, for the first time, its net profit percentage is almost twice that of the Sunday School Publishing Board. But, if the $8,000.00 discussed above, or any important portion thereof be approved, and resolved into the expenses for the period, then a much less favorable showing will be observed.

Net Sales	100.00%	100.00%	100.0%	100.0%
Less, Cost of Sales	59.13%	36.64%	41.8%	40.3%
Gross Profit	40.87%	63.36%	58.2%	59.7%
Less, Selling Expense	20.96%	15.00%	16.6%	16.0%
Profit After Selling Expense	19.91%	48.36%	38.6%	43.7%
Less, Administrative Expense	21.74%	25.07%	27.1%	26.0%
Net Profit on Operations	(1.83%)	23.29%	11.5%	17.7%

From the above table, it will be seen that while all categories of costs and expenses decreased in the fiscal year just closed, that is percentage wise, the important decrease was in the item "Cost of Sales." While favorable, this showing is odd indeed, particularly, in light of the statement of the executive officer of the Board to the effect that, only during 1948-49, and 1949-50, has his chief supplier of raw and finished materials charged the regular commercial prices.

Your auditors are firmly of the opinion that this Board and its executive strive hard to operate the unit in the best interest of the Convention. Considering our comments, your auditors are of the opinion that all funds handled by the Board are fully accounted for. Notwithstanding this, we are of the opinion that there is still something to be desired in the record keeping of the unit. Suggestions have already been made in this regard.

The Foreign Mission Board

With respect to the management of this Board, we refer to our comments for 1949 (Page 258 of Minutes). We have no reason to change our opinion. It is well managed, and its records are good. Its funds are fully, and regularly accounted for.

The balance of the note discussed in our last year's report has been fully collected. The formal statements of this unit reported elsewhere in this report are, in our opinion, self explanatory. The fiscal functions of this Board are primarily those of collecting and expending of funds in the interest of Foreign Missions. Approximately 75% of the Board's entire income is expended directly with Foreign Missions. This is a record unexcelled by any Board.

During the year, a piece of property in Chicago which the Board received as a gift several years ago, and which was carried on the books for $2,500.00 was sold for $1,600.00. The accounts have been adjusted accordingly. Other small adjustments in valuations have been given effect to. Income and expenditures derived, and expended entirely outside the United States are not included in the records. These items do, however, appear in the published pamphlets of the Board. We have satisfied ourselves as to their accuracy.

The Home Mission Board

The principal sources of funds for this Board are, in order of importance, churches, loans, conventions, and drives. Receipts from churches accounted for more than 50% of total receipts. Approximately 25% of total receipts went for salaries, and roughly 20% of total receipts was expended for Missions and Evangelism (this percentage also includes salaries of Mission workers). We respectfully call attention to our remarks in comments of last year's audit (see, also page 259 of 1949 Convention Minutes).

This Board carried out our 1949 suggestion to the effect that loans to it as well as those liquidated by it, should be reflected in the cash records. During the fiscal period of this examination the Board made short term borrowings (principally from individuals) of $3,795.91, and made repayments on these obligations of $2,077.90. We have accordingly included in the liability section of the consolidated balance sheet the amount of $1,718.01, thus, reflecting the loan liability of this Board.

The administrative affairs of this Board are under the direction of its executive secretary. The office of the Board is located in Chicago, but the secretary is a pastor in another upper mid-west city. The Secretary states, but could not prove to our satisfaction, that his pastorial salary of $300.00 per month is included in the receipts of the Board under the caption "Churches." Now, we could not identify any such items to recognize them as having that source. Certainly, we do not say that his statement is incorrect, but, we can only report what we found. In this connection, we point out that it is true that sums received from Churches rose from a total of $6,168.46 in 1949 to a total of $10,626.00 for the year ended June 30, 1950. This is an increase of approximately $4,500.00 and could easily contain the salary of $3,600.00 claimed by the Board Secretary. It is equally true, that, if contributions by churches be decreased by $3,600.00 as suggested by the Secretary, the salaries alone would be approximately 30% of total receipts. And, if receipts be reduced further by loans obtained and included in receipts, it will be seen that salaries accounted for approximately 38% of the total income.

Our examination of this office was limited to the tracing of duplicate receipts contained in a duplicating receipt book into the cash record, and the tracing of checks (or cash vouchers) to the expenditure records. These are all in agreement. Our finding of cash in the hands of the Secretary was based on this procedure. We, of course, brought forward the balance found to obtain a year ago.

The Finance Commission

This Commission acts as the fiscal heart of the Convention. As such, it has the responsibility for the location of funds for new projects, as well as the under girding of existing ones. In addition to existing major projects such as the American Baptist Theological Seminary and the Missionary Baptist Training School in Nashville, this Commission has devoted major attention to the financing, and remodeling of the Bath House in Hot Springs, Arkansas. Major financing has been secured for this project. No real estate has been pledged to secure these funds. Although, by the time that this project is completed, and the property is ready for operation, probably something over $200,000.00 shall have been invested into it, your auditors are of the opinion that the investment is sound. Your auditor has visited this project several times during, and since the termination of the fiscal period covered by this examination. He has remained in close contact with the financing and reconditioning of the property. In our opinion this Bath House (and clinic) will be second to none in the country, in so far as its size permits. We believe that this is an undertaking of which the entire Baptist Constituency will be proud. We, also, believe that it will maintain itself, and pay a reasonable return on the investment placed in it. Certainly, it will require the highest type of business management. We believe that the Finance Commission has available, or can assemble, just such management. Indeed, courage has been exhibited in this undertaking, but judgment has also been employed.

Because the Bath House project has not been completed, we have not undertaken a detail audit of its remodeling. For this reason, we have given effect to the major financing only, and shown that figure in the assets and liabilities of the Consolidated Balance Sheet. We have left other figures of the Finance Commission as they were last year. Before printing of the minutes for the current year, the actual costs in detail will be computed and reflected in our report. This report must, therefore, be regarded as tentative to this extent.

The Sunday School Publishing Board has, also, made advances for the completion of the Bath House project. Its advances are carried on its books as advances to the Convention.

For the reasons set out above, no schedules and exhibits are contained in this report for the Finance Commission as such. The over-all effect of its transactions, are however, reflected in the Consolidated Balance Sheet to the extent possible at the time this audit report was compiled.

American Baptist Theological Seminary

The Seminary is located on its beautiful campus on White's Creek Pike just outside the City of Nashville. Dr. Ralph W. Riley is its president. During the fiscal period covered by this audit, the Seminary has had three bursars. The record of the bursar in the office in June, 1949, was not good. This, in spite of the fact that he was recommended by the head of your auditing firm. As of March 1, 1950, auditors for the Commission on the American Baptist Theological Seminary re-set the books of the Seminary. For the period, March 1, 1950 to May 31, 1950, a member of the staff of the firm which re-set the books served as bursar. His record was excellent. As at June 30, 1950, your auditors recommended a colored bursar, a graduate of Morehouse College in accounting. At the time of this audit, it seemed that this new bursar is competent, and will make an excellent fiscal officer for the Seminary. President Riley of the Seminary has been most helpful in the correct handling of the unit's finances. Also, the Chairman of the Board of Trustees, Dr. A. M. Townsend, has been unselfish in providing the Seminary with the benefit of his experience and fiscal skills.

We believe that the schedule and exhibits touching upon this unit reliably set forth the operations of the Seminary for the period set out. Also, we believe that the balance sheet (Current Funds Only) submitted is correct. It will be borne in mind that the Seminary is operated jointly by the National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Incorporated and the Southern Baptist Convention (White). Its real properties are held in a corporation known as the Commission on the American Baptist Theological Seminary. For this reason these properties are not contained in the Balance Sheet of the Seminary, as such. They are, however, included in the consolidated balance sheet with appropriate explanation.

The National Baptist Missionary School

This school is located on White's Creek Pike, just outside the City of Nashville, Tennessee. Its current president is Mrs. V. A. Edwards; its business manager is Rev. Bennett.

The books of the school are kept on a purely cash basis. Where the exhibits and schedules show otherwise, it is only because your auditors have reflected other than book transactions therein. Based on accounting for cash, starting with the amount on hand last June 30, 1950, and adding to that figure the amount received during the current fiscal year, and deducting therefrom all payments evidenced by checks or other evidences of expenditures which your auditors could respect; and after deducting from cash on hand amounts deposited in the bank, there remained a fairly large sum. This amount has been listed by us as being on hand and undeposited. We believe that our schedule showing an accounting for cash for this School is correct.

Obviously, this School should adopt an accounting system which would recognize expenditures when incurred instead of when paid. We have already discussed the improvement of the accounting system with the business manager. On a whole, and based on the cash receipts and payments basis, we believe our statement to be correct.

The Ministerial Benefit Board

We did not actually audit the transactions of this Board. The Secretary sent us a copy of his published report. We have reflected his accounting in our audit. Our audit is necessarily qualified to provide for this acceptance.

Units From Which No Reports Were Received

All units of the Convention are directed by President Jemison to open their offices for audit, or in case of small operations, to send to the auditor such memoranda of transactions as he may require. Certain units did not send any data this year. Among them are: The Laymen's Movement, the Moderators' Association, the Woman's Convention (except for the Treasurer), and several other smaller units.

REPORT—SOCIAL SERVICE COMMISSION

NATIONAL BAPTIST CONVENTION, INC.

Sandy F. Ray, Chairman

September 5-10, 1950, Philadelphia, Pa.

President Jemison, officers and members and friends of the National Baptist Convention, we are grateful for the honor of representing our convention through this commission. President Jemison and other officers have been most helpful to us during the year, through sound advice and wise council. We have had no funds.

The peculiar position of Negroes in American life, and the cosmic struggle of oppressed and socially disinherited people throughout the world have led us to concentrate our major efforts in the direction of Social action. To make our efforts more effective, we have combined our efforts with other national organizations with which we have common problems and goals.

Our first major effort during the year was in cooperation with some fifty national organizations which sponsored the Civil Rights mobilization. The Chairman of this Commission served on the steering committee, and twenty-three members of our Commission came to Washington and participated in that meeting which brought to the capital some five thousand delegates. We were represented on a small committee which was selected to visit President Truman to warm his heart, and to hear a reaffirmation of his stand on Civil Rights.

We were represented in conferences on the church and economic life in Columbus, Ohio, and in Detroit, Michigan, by Revs. James W. Parrish and Jesse J. McNeil. We were represented in a conference "On the Church and Peace" in Chicago by Rev. Louis Rauls. All of the great communions are sensitive to the need for social justice. Most of them are vocal and militant, for they feel the national and international embarrassment which these brazen injustices and inequalities present as we parade ourselves as world leaders. The Federal Council of Church of Christ is doing a very effective work in influencing changes in social patterns, especially in religious circles. Much of this work is being done through its department of Race Relations under the very able direction of Dr. J. Oscar Lee. I wes strongly urging our support of the Federal Council of Churches of Christ. I would like-wise urge our support of the Fraternal Council of Churches, the National Urban League, and the N. A. A. C. P.

Crumbling Walls

Notwithstanding the un-American attitudes of a large segment of American citizens, walls of injustice and inequality are crumbling daily before our eyes. These heartening facts are seen in employment, in high education, in housing, in travel, in entertainment, and occasionally in religious circles. These walls are crumbling because of constant pounding from the in and outside. We have the militant, irritating, disturbing radical on the outside, and the clever, tactful, industrious, thrifty element on the inside. Our continued social gains can be effectively maintained by understanding and appreciation of the sincere radicals who expose and spectacularize the evils of our society, and the wise, tactful and intelligent Negroes who march across the wreckage of crumbling walls into new areas of living. I pray your forgiveness if I over-emphasize the importance of preparation on our PART in culture, attitude and general public behavior for entrance through the doors which are opening to us. If you have any doubts that the walls are crumbling, do not listen to "a soap box orator," on Lenox Avenue in Harlem. Go to Atlanta or Birmingham, or Durham or Jacksonville or Memphis or Houston or Dallas or Charleston, Jackson, or Richmond or Tulsa, all of the villages and rural sections between, and your soul will shout, "Hallelujah." "The walls are tumbling down." Maybe some of the Northern and Eastern states should borrow Talmadge.

Negro Answers by Fire

We were asked by the House un-American Activities Committee if we felt that the Negroes would be willing to take up arms with other Americans in case of a war with the Reds. My reply was that no one Negro speaks for all Negroes, but history of American wars speaks eloquently and accurately for the Negro. His struggle for justice and equality has not disturbed his patriotism. He is a peculiar American citizen. In July, I picked up a paper and saw in glaring headlines "Negro Troops Make First Gains in Korea." I said, "There is our answer." Those who doubt our loyalty, follow the "Tropical Lightening" troops as they march across the 38th parallel. Our loyalty and patriotism are stainless, by America's own record. Our fight for the principles of America across the world, gives us the full right to fight for the practice of those principles in the United States of America. While black boys march and fight and suffer and bleed and die on bleak battlefields of Korea, we shall fight to crush bearers of injustice and inequality in our home land, so that every citizen of this land may "see by the dawn's early light."

Peace and Justice

We joined a group of National Church leaders in a call for a peaceful settlement of the Korean situation. We were branded as Reds or Red influenced. It has come to pass in America, that it is hardly possible for one to speak out for peace and justice without being called Red. The church of Jesus Christ must call for peace and justice, even in the midst of war. If circumstances push us into battlefields, as Christians, we must stand there blood-drenched, battle-scarred and bomb-shocked, and sing: "Not by might, nor by power, but by my spirit saith the Lord of hosts." Certainly we want peace, but peace accompanied by justice. Justice, not for ourselves alone. Justice for North and South Koreans, for India, for Africa, for Jews, for all people everywhere. Justice for all men is our only hope for abiding peace.

As Baptists, we have a peculiar privilege and power in this confused world order. The messages of Dr. Gardner Taylor, that matchless pulpiteer of Brooklyn, and Dr. Benjamin Mays, that educator and major prophet of Atlanta, Ga., and Dr. Nannie B. Burroughs, that dreamer and greatest leader of women on earth of Washington, D. C., had more than spiritual significance. The social import of those messages is resounding throughout this world today. We have the power to follow up those major blows with effective jabs until all enemies of world brotherhood stagger and fall helpless at our feet.

The Church and Atomic Bomb

We joined a group of religious leaders in urging the President and the United Nations to refrain from the use of the Atomic and the H bombs in modern warfare. We are grateful for the discovery by Atomic power, but we shudder to think that it is managed by military and political leaders who may not have the moral and spiritual insight to turn it into channels of service to humanity. The church must, in some way, get hold of the men who have hold of Atomic energy. In this connection, the story of Moses at the Red Sea is applicable. You recall how God inquired of him, "What is that in thy hand?" "A rod," he replied. He was ordered to drop it on the ground, and when he did, it became a serpent. Moses started to run, but God told him to take it. "But it is poisonous, a dangerous serpent." "But you take it, Moses. If it is left to crawl in the dust, it has the power to destroy the nation. If you take it, its character will change. Instead of an instrument of death, it will become a magic wand, healing back obstructive waters and opening a path to a new world." While men shake with fear of Atomic energy today, God says to religion, "You take it. If it is left in the hands of excited statesmen and greedy war lords, it may wreck civilization and crumble empires. You take it, and its character will change. You may push back horizons and see the light of a new world."

May we gather courage and hope from the gains which we have made during the past year, for we have indeed made substantial gains in many areas. May we not be frightened by the current "Red scare," and the talk of total destruction of civilization. May we remember, as Christians, that God is moving and working in this world, and faith in Him will keep us calm and confident that "all things work together for good for them that love Him."

NEW CHURCH MEMBERSHIP

President Jemison, Officers, Delegates and Members of the National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Inc.:

We, as Promotional Secretaries of this Convention, are one of its newest organized Boards on New Church Membership. We thank God for the Prophet Ezekiel who saw the conditions of the world and the church in his day. We also Thank God for our President, Dr. Jemison, who sees the conditions of the world and church today, and appointed Promotional Secretaries for this Convention.

We dedicate ourselves to the super task of helping to make the Baptists of America a living Christian Democracy through our service, in finding the forgotten church. We let the Baptists know that they must brighten the corner where they are, that the light may shine across North America, South America, Europe, Asia, Africa and Austria. We let them know if they want to see Jesus, they must wake up, pay up and keep up, because the church was organized by the direction of Jesus and was vitalized and electrified by the burning presence of the Holy Ghost.

REPORT OF THE CHAIRMAN, W. H. JERNAGIN OF THE ECCLESIASTICAL COMMITTEE OF THE NATIONAL BAPTIST CONVENTION, INC., FOR CHAPLAINS

September 8, 1950

To the President and Members of the National Baptist Convention:

Greetings:

I am glad to report the work and activities of the Ecclesiastical Committee for the past twelve months.

In order that the Army shall be prepared for certain duties that may be involved upon it in regard to religious instruction, they require each denomination to furnish annual endorsements to chaplains who may be on reserve who are likely to be called into active duty. They require the committee of each denomination, as far as possible, to keep in touch with chaplains who are on active duty. This committee has endeavored to try to do that during the past twelve months. However, there is a number of chaplains who fail to keep in touch with the chairman and make reports as they should. I must commend Chaplain Thomas of the Veterans' Bureau at Tuskegee for his regular and accurate reports that he furnishes my office each month. He never fails.

I trust that this report is going to be published in our minutes so that it will be information not only for chaplains, but for our denominational leaders in each state in regard to chaplains, because many of our denomination leaders seem to not know just what to do when a young man in their state desires to enter the chaplaincy. When a young man desires to enter the chaplaincy either in the Army, Navy, Air Force or Veterans' Administration should make an application to the General Commissions of Chaplains at 122 Maryland Avenue, N. E., Washington, D. C., with Mr. T. A. Rymer who is Director. They will be furnished with the proper blanks or given the proper information as how to proceed, or if they will write me, I will be glad to give them the proper procedure. This is very important because of the threat of war and the increase of the Army, the Government is calling upon us for a certain number of chaplains. Our present quota is twenty-four chaplains during the year. I have endorsed for:

Active Reserve Duty	13
Active Duty	1
Annual Endorsement	50
National Guard	2
Air Force With Annual Endorsement	7
Veterans' Administration	9

There is before Congress now a consideration of increasing the age limit of the chaplains, but at present the applicant must not have reached the age of 35, except they have already been in chaplaincy service and not in the reserve, and may be recalled to duty with increase ages. Therefore, the Government is calling upon each denomination to urge the young men who are in school and who have had a certain amount of Seminary training to make application for chaplain duty in the Army, Navy, Air Force and Veterans' Administration.

A number of young men who has not received the college level training feel that they are in a position to serve as chaplains, but at present the Government is not taking those who have not had some Seminary training. They are not taking those who have had only high school training.

The young men of our denomination must keep in mind that as long as they have Negro troops in the Army, regardless to how they have been treated, the Gospel must be preached to them, and we are going to need chaplains. If we can ever have an integrated Army, that will cut down the list of chaplains, but until that time comes, we must face the present situation, and with fine Christian young men who are ready to represent Christ under any circumstance and set a proper example for our men in the Armed Forces. Spiritual assistance in the Armed Forces is greatly needed.

The clerical help, stationary and stamps in this office for the past three years have been $521.00, cash that I have received was $50.00, balance due $471.00.

Respectfully submitted,

W. H. JERNAGIN, Chairman

IN MEMORIAM

—11—

Dedicated to Departed Members

—11—

Why should we weep for those who die?
  They fall—their dust returns to dust;
Their souls shall live eternally
  Within the mansions of the just.

Why should we sorrow for the dead?
  Our life on earth is but a span;
They tread the path that all must tread,
  They die the common death of man.

The soul, th' eternal soul, must reign
  In worlds devoid of pain and strife;
Then why should mortal man complain
  Of death, which leads to happier life?

—Charles Tennyson-Turner, 1808-1879

THE PROGRAM

OF THE

Woman's Convention

AUXILIARY TO THE

NATIONAL BAPTIST CONVENTION
U. S. A., INC.

SEPTEMBER 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 1950

PHILADELPHIA, PENNSYLVANIA

PHILADELPHIA, PENNSYLVANIA

The City of Philadelphia was founded in 1682. It is the largest city in Pennsylvania. The name "Philadelphia" mean "Brotherly Love" and was bestowed upon the city by William Penn, the founder.

Independence Hall, built in 1741, as the Statehouse, was the scene of the signing of the Declaration of Independence on July 4, 1776.

Benjamin Franklin was its most famous citizen. He lies buried here in Christ Church Burial Ground.

The City has grown up around the Delaware River and the Schuylkill. Its industries, of which textiles are the most important, are highly developed, with paper and printing, metals and metal products.

Among the famous cities of America, Philadelphia has stood high culturally ever since the days of Franklin. The Art Museum has few peers throughout the country; the Philadelphia Orchestra ranks with the orchestras of Boston and New York; in education and educational institutions—University of Pennsylvania College of Medicine and Theology, Girard College, Temple University and many others.

The Free Library has over a million books and documents. "Philadelphia's pride in its beautiful thoroughfares and public parks is entirely justifiable—of them, Fairmont Park is the largest municipal park in the world—occupying over 3,665 acres of beautifully landscaped grounds.

Philadelphia has always been an American bulwark, bristling with industry, staunch in good-fellowship, foremost in art, culture, and historic significance.

City Hall is 549 feet tall, one of the highest structures in the City.

Independence Hall—home of the Declaration of Independence, signed here July 4, 1776. It is located on Chestnut Street between 5th and 6th Streets. It was built in 1741 as the State House.

Holding the position of honor in Independence Hall, setting, the famed Liberty Bell announced to the world the Declaration of Independence on July 4, 1776.

The Betsy Ross House, where in 1176 she received General George Washington, Colonel George Ross and Robert Morris in her home. The Betsy Ross House is at 239 Arch Street. It is the birthplace of "Old Glory."

Philadelphia's Municipal Auditorium. "The Convention Hall" in which the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc., is holding its 1950 session is located on 34th Street, below Spruce Street. This is a magnificent building. It has been the scene of many exciting and glittering gatherings. The National Conventions to choose the presidential candidates of both the Republican and Democratic Parties have been held in this hall.

The Woman's Convention, Auxiliary National Baptist Convention, is holding its 1950 session in Irvine Auditorium of the University of Pennsylvania. Benjamin Franklin was instrumental in founding this University in 1740. Harold E. Stassen, one of the foremost Christian statesmen and educators of our day, is now the distinguished, liberal President of the University.

In the forecourt of the Rodin Museum you will see the most famous sculpture—"The Thinker"—by Auguste Rodin. Study it and go and do likewise —THINK.

Coming to our times. The Citizens and Southern Bank and Trust Company of Philadelphia, Nineteenth and South Streets, was founded by the late Major R. R. Wright. Mr. E. C. Wright is now President.

The late Mrs. S. W. Layten, President Emeritus of the Woman's Convention, lived here a number of years, at 763 South 23rd Street.

The Foreign Mission Board, of the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A. Inc., has its Headquarters here at 701 South 19th Street.

The Christian Review, owned and managed by Miss Florence Johnson is located at 1428 South Lombard Street.

The A. M. E. Book Concern has its plant here, located at Nineteenth Street, near Bainbridge.

There are any number of large Baptist churches and churches of other denominations, pastored by distinguished men.

The arrangement and fellowship, which you will enjoy, during this meeting, evince the spirit, interest and influence of the men and women, who invited the Convention to hold its 1950 session in the City of Brotherly Love.

Theme—"LAUNCH OUT INTO THE DEEP"

God has fitted our longings for the deep.

"Its streams the whole creation reach,
So plenteous is the store.
Enough for all, enough for each,
Enough forevermore."

LAUNCH OUT

Into the Deep of His Plan

"Ye were redeemed with the precious blood of Christ, who was fore-rdained before the foundation of the world, that your faith and hope might e in God."—1 Peter 1:20, 21.

Into the Deep of His Word

"Till heaven and earth pass, one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass." -Matthew 5:18.

Into the Deep of Prayer

"And being in an agony he prayed more earnestly: and his sweat was s it were great drops of blood falling down to the ground."—Luke 22:44.

Into the Deep of His Will "Not my will, but thine be done."—Luke 22:42.

Into the Deep of His Power

"Ye shall receive power, after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you; nd ye shall be witnesses unto me."—Acts 1:8.

"Launch Out Into the Deep"

The things of value in life are not around the edge or in shallow water.

Each man is Captain of his Soul,
And each man his own Crew,
But the Pilot knows the Unknown Seas,
And he will bring us through.
We break new seas today—

Our eager keels quest unaccustomed waters,
And, from the vast uncharted waste in front,
The mystic circles leap
To greet our prows with mightiest possibilities,
Bringing us—What?

Dread shoals and shifting banks?
And calms and storms?
And clouds and biting gales?
And wreck and loss?
And valiant fighting times?

And, maybe, death!—and so, the Larger Life!

For, should the Pilot deem it best
To cut the voyage short,
He sees beyond the sky-line, and He'll bring us into Port!

—John Oxenham

LAUNCH OUT INTO THE DEEP OF HIS POWER

1950 CONVENTION THEME SONG—"WONDERFUL POWER"

Wonderful pow'r of my wonderful King!
Mercy unbounded, I gratefully sing;
From all the billows that round me may roll,
Able and willing to rescue my soul.

Wonderful pow'r of the pray'r-hearing Lord;
Trials a claim on his grace will afford;
On my dear Savior I cast ev'ry care,
Able and willing to answer my prayer.

Wonderful pow'r that will guide me aright,
Lead from the shadows to marvelous light;
In fierce temptations, my refuge and stay,
Able and willing to keep me each day.

Able and willing, O Savior art thou!
Able and willing to save me just now;
When earthly pathways no longer I roam,
Able and willing to welcome me home.

Chorus

Wonderful pow'r, wonderful pow'r!
Saving me, keeping me, life's ev'ry hour;
Gladly I sing, trustfully sing,
Wonderful pow'r of my wonderful King.

THIS AUDITORIUM

Love built this shrine; these hallowed walls uprose
To give seclusion from the hurrying throng,
From tumult of the street, complaint and wrong,
From rivalry and strife, from taunt of foes—
If foes thou hast. On silent feet come in,
Bow low in penitence. Whoe'er thou art
Thou, too, has sinned. Uplift in prayer thy heart.
Thy Father's Blessing waiteth. Read within
This holy place, in pictured light portrayed,
The characters of worthies who, from years
Long past, still speak the message here displayed
In universal language nof to fade.
Leave then thy burden, all thy cares and fears;
Faith, hope, and love are thine, for thou hast prayed.
—John Davidson

Launch Out on God's Great Sea

O Maker of the Mighty Deep,
Whereon our vessels fare,
Thy faithful watch and care.
In thee we trust, whate'er befall;
Thy sea is great, our boats are small.

We know not where the secret tides
Will help us or delay,
Nor where the lurking tempest hides,

Nor where the fogs are gray.
We trust in thee, whate'er befall;
Thy sea is great, our boats are small.

When outward bound we boldly sail
And leave the friendly shore,
Let not our hearts of courage fail
Until the voyage is o'er.
We trust in thee, whate'er befall;
Thy sea is great, our boats are small.

When homeward bound, we gladly turn;
Oh! bring us safely there,
Where harbor-lights of friendship burn
And peace is in the air.
We trust in thee, whate'er befall;
Thy sea is great, our boats are small.

Beyond the circle of the sea
When voyaging is past,
We seek our final port in thee;
Oh! bring us home at last.
In thee we trust, whate'er befall;
Thy sea is great, our boats are small.

—Henry van Dyke.

A special prayer was given for Mrs. A. H. Officer whose husband was taken from her by death, Tuesday evening, February 7, 1950.

Life Membership Roll was read by First Vice-President M. O. Ross.

The Life Membership Plan as follows was read by Recording Secretary Esther Walker Tyree:

In our 1949 Mid-winter Board meeting, we suggested that we establish a TWENTY-FIVE DOLLAR LIFE MEMBERSHIP.

The proposal has been most heartily received. The records show that we have enrolled Fifty-four Life Members.

An organization, such as ours, must have its foundation undergirded by members who are going with it for life, and ALL THE WAY.

Its permanent work must be backed up by those who know the value of regular and continuous income. The organization should, therefore, see to it that its Life Membership money is used to SUSTAIN LIFE and to express the APPRECIATION of the organization to those who have gone all out in service in God's Kingdom Building program.

To this end we have been thinking most seriously of how to consecrate and dedicate our Life Membership money.

As strange as it might seem, we have been quite unmindful of the significance and value of the services of Negro women who have gone to Africa and other lands and invested their lives in the service of Foreign Missions.

There is no available information anywhere about the contributions that these women have made. They are forgotten. Some of their bones are but dust in the lands in which they gave devoted service. Others are still with us, but we know little or nothing about their labors.

For the past few months we have been collecting fragments, here and there. We are now preparing material that will come out in an attractive brochure. The booklet will be an authentic story of Negro Baptist Women in Foreign Service. They must not be thrown on the missionary scrap heap and forgotten. We owe it to them and to the people here at home to glorify their service.

The second thing that we propose to do, through our Life Membership service, is to inaugurate a FOREIGN SERVICE PENSION. Nobody has ever thought of pensioning the women who are retired, after so many years of service in Foreign Fields.

The pension will be necessarily small, but it will express the gratitude and thoughtfulness of the women in this Convention who will never forget those who go in their steads, and give their lives a ransom for the people who sit in darkness.

We want to secure ONE HUNDRED Life Members, this year.

Each committee is asked to get, at least, ONE LIFE MEMBER, each year.

Some day, somebody will leave something in their will for the Foreign Service Pension Fund.

Life Membership Certificates will be awarded in a special service of Honor, at each annual meeting.

Life Members will participate, actively, in the general work of the Convention. That is what Life Membership means.

Details for the promotion of the entire plan are being worked out, and when we shall have completed them, we will take the matter up with our Foreign Mission Board.

We have the pin and the certificate. Those who have paid their Twenty-five dollars and received them are simply delighted with them, but they will be happier still when the beautiful booklet comes out, and when the pension plan is put into operation.

The income from the sale of the booklet will go to produce other program and promotion material on Foreign Missions.

With such a plan, the Life Membership will go on blessing the world.

The Life Membership Honor Roll will be carried in the History.

President Burroughs stated that a booklet must be written on the lives of the women who made possible this organization.

The President asked the Executive Committee to retire to consider the objections passed in and make recommendations on them to the Board of Directors.

Mrs. L. A. Lambert, Chairman of Arts and Handicrafts Committee, requested that more money be reported for her committee.

The General Director of the Building Fund Committee, Mrs. M. J. Brockway, wanted to know if the reference of the question asked by Miss Funches was to her calling her committee Tuesday afternoon, February 7, in this current session. The answer—The Building Fund Committee has no more special privileges than any other committee.

U. S. A., Incorporated
Executive Session
Louisville, Kentucky, June 21, 1950

Miss Nannie Helen Burroughs, President

Dear Co-workers and Friends:

Greetings!

I regret exceedingly that again I cannot be with you in the Board Meeting at this time. I feel reasonably sure most of you know why.

Let me take this opportunity to thank you, one and all, for the hundreds of cards, letters, telegrams, calls, and other remembrances you sent me during my recent illness. All were deeply appreciated and I thank you very much.

First of all, I want to thank you from my heart for the privilege of serving you in an official capacity for the past twenty years. I served you two years as assistant to the late Mrs. V. W. Broughton, and sixteen years as recording secretary. During two years I have served as your corresponding secretary. During all this time I have honestly and conscientiously endeavored to render the best of service, in keeping with my understanding and in accordance with what I considered your expressed desires.

On April 11th of this year, I was the victim of a stroke of paralysis which has seriously handicapped me. For five weeks

I was helpless and in bed day and night. I have remained at home in charge of a trained nurse and my husband and friends. My left side was entirely out of use during that time. I am glad to say, however, that I am now recovering in a satisfactory manner. I am able to walk a little and able to proceed in a large measure in a normal way.

In view of the new ruling made in Los Angeles with reference to the corresponding secretary's honurarium, especially in the light of our past procedure respecting the said office, I herewith tender my resignation as your corresponding secretary. Again, I sincerely thank you forthe privilege and for the honor of serving through these years.

With kindest regards to each of you, I am

Sincerely—Faithfully yours,

(Signed) VIVIENNE L. PENICK

Motion met with objections from Mrs. E. D. McGowan, Mrs. Maude J. Brockway, Mrs. Etta Versa Frye, Mrs. Annette H. Officer, and Mrs. I. M. Coggs. It was voted that the resignation of Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. V. L. Penick, be not accepted.

President Burroughs appointed Mrs. Margery B. Gaillard of Birmingham, Alabama, to accept finances because of absence of Treasurer, Mrs. H. M. Gibbs, and the money to be given to Recording Secretary to be forwarded to Treasurer Gibbs.

Program construction for Philadelphia Meeting was in order. The Audit Course class work came into discussion—Chairman Brockway was of the opinion that the same set-up would be continued. DR. NANNIE H. BURROUGHS, President
MRS. ESTHER W. TYREE, Recording Secretary

Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, September 9, 1950

The Board of Directors of the Woman's Convention, Auxiliary to the National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Inc., was called to order Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, September 9, President, Dr. Nannie Helen Burroughs, presiding.

Suggestions were made for the improvement of the Convention.

Mrs. Hubbard: In making reports of the committee, the State Conventions should be designated by chairman of committee as to what convention is paying the money. Write it correctly so proper credit can be given.

Mrs. W. L. Ransome of Virginia: Make proper designations for committees so other people will not occupy the Place or Space. Also for the Secretary of Committee.

Mrs. King: Prevent the cluttering of Committee when trying to enroll. Mrs. Tyree told what efforts had been made to extend courtesies to one another while standing in line.

Mrs. Wilson: Prevent committee friends from visiting during working hours.

Inability to give receipts at time the money is being paid, delegates refuse to move on, thereby creating a bottleneck. Send extra letters to enroll before coming to Convention.

The president made an observation that no convention as large as ours, fails to register at the convention. We must make different arrangements.

Mrs. Gibbs admonished delegates: 1. To bring their receipts instead of leaving them at home when having registered in advance. Bring your receipts for protection.

2. Make postal checks to Woman's Convention, Auxiliary to the National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Inc., and please do not send postal checks to treasurer that has been made out to you, personally.

3. If money order is sent to you please endorse on back of receipt and send to treasurer.

Mrs. Haynes: Clarify the requirements for badges. Answer—Missionary society pays $10.00; and $2.00 for each woman, then they will get their kits. The $2.00 is for registration.

Mrs. McIlowan: Four or five members did not get their badges.

Mrs. Morris: Delegates could not get kits with temporary receipts when their money came in too late, for Mrs. Gibbs could not mail them their official receipts.

Answer—1. Temporary receipts cannot be taken by treasurer unless accompained by money.

2. Chairmen should turn over money as received so as to get the kits.

Question—Should money from State Convention be sent in one check or distributed to various committees?

Answer—Each individual woman should be privileged to pay her $2.00 and get her kit.

President Burroughs asked if we would accept the suggestion of organist to be included in constitution.

Motion: It was voted to include organist in constitution to be acted upon next June. Send it through correspondence to Board of Director by Corresponding Secretary.

Mrs. Borders: Is it permissible to maintain a treasury of a committee?

Answer—No. Make out what you think is a fair budget and present it to the Board of Directors. Make a budget by October and present it.

Mrs. Gibbs: The treasurer's office is without anything, and we need filing cabinets, adding machine, postage, and an increased honorarium, to run the office. Six hundred ($600.00) dollars is the present honorarium. Budget of expense has to be made on basis of expense of previous year. Pres. Burroughs stated the entire matter would be taken up at later date.

Miss Burroughs told us of her conference with Dr. Jemison about appointing a woman on the transportation commission. Mrs. Ella Versa Frye, subject to approval of the Convention, was appointed to sit in on the Transportation Commission.

Motion: It was voted to accept the opportunity of the Convention to have an official representative of the Woman's Convention on the Transportation Commission.

Mrs. Cassielle G. Davis expressed appreciation for being elected as pianist.

Mrs. M. O. Ross called the President's attention to having her transportation fee paid to meetings where she has to attend as an officer.

Mrs. Gibbs said she had sent whatever would be on Mrs. Ross' expense sheet.

Question asked by President Burroughs: If any officer shall be authorized to attend a special meeting to represent the Convention, how shall we take care of her expenses? railroad fare, round-trip, Pullman, et cetera, when necessary $5, $6, or $7 per diem. We should state whatever the expenses are to cover.

Motion: It was voted that any officer of the Convention authorized to attend any meeting of the Convention, officially delegated by the President, shall have her railroad fare, round-trip and pullman if necessary, and not more than seven ($7.00) per diem.

Should Vice President's transportation be paid to the Annual Executive Board Meeting? It was voted that the additional railroad fare of Mrs. Ross be paid.

Mrs. Gibbs explained that: Heretofore expenses were paid for: President, first and second vice presidents, corresponding secretary, recording secretary, four directors of Young People's Department and the treasurer.

Treasurer's Report

Total Receipts	$38,708 80
Advance Sales	7,622 90
	$46,331 70

Treasurer Gibbs explained that literature will bring in nice report, and that the receipts may be $50,000.00 by the close of this meeting.

President expressed appreciation for same. She expressed the need for proper equipment to operate the Convention. Nothing has been turned over to President, not even a piece of paper to operate the Convention. She set out to build an organization with only her books.

Mrs. Frye, reported the Young People having the largest enrollment ever held, at the 25th anniversary. They were out of badges and kits. She related an experience of a young girl so inspired that she changed her name from Etta Bell Teal to Etta Versa Teal.

Young People raised above 37000.00. This does not include appreciation of $300.00, and other money given Director.

Appreciation was expressed by chairman.

Mrs. Wilson explained printing of histories:

Mrs. E. A. Wilson	$186 00
Paid for printing	274 00
Expense	204 50
	186 99
Deficit	$ 17 51

Motion: (1) It was voted that the President's office be supplied for carrying on the work of the Convention

Motion: (2) It was voted that the Treasurer's office will also be supplied.

Mrs. Rose paid tribute to Miss Burroughs for so ably taking care of us at the Baptist World Alliance. Miss Burroughs was appointed on the Executive Committee and Co-chairman of Woman's Work.

Miss Burroughs related her experiences with a little white boy from South Carolina, who spent much time with her, and wrote her a long letter as to his trip to the Baptist World Alliance. This was her richest experience.

Vote of thanks for the Women of Pennsylvania for their entertainment. They have been untiring in their efforts.

Motion: It was voted to extend a vote of thanks to the Pennsylvania Committee. Our sincere vote of thanks for all they have done for us.

THE SECOND MESSAGE OF DR. NANNIE H. BURROUGHS TO THE WOMAN'S CONVENTION AUXILIARY TO THE NATIONAL BAPTIST CONVENTION, U. S. A., INC.

This message was delivered in the Irvine Auditorium of the University of Pennsylvania

We Break New Seas Today

"We break new seas today—
Our eager keels quest unaccustomed waters,
And, from the vast uncharted waste in front,
The mystic circles leap
To greet our prows with mightiest possibilities, bring us—" What?

—John Oxenham

"Fear not each sudden sound and shock,
'Tis but the wave, and not the rock,
'Tis but the flapping of the sail
And not a rent made by the gale
In spite of false lights on the shore,
Sail on, nor fear to breast the sea."

—Longfellow

Each man is Captain of his Soul,
And each man his own Crew,
But the Pilot knows the Unknown Seas,
And he will bring us through.

—John Oxenham

Christian Friends, Dearly Beloved, and Fellow Laborers:

I greet you, in the name of our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ.

This is the fourth time that the National Baptist Convention has met in the City of Philadelphia. This year, the Woman's Convention is meeting in historic Irvine Auditorium, of the University of Pennsylvania.

The setting and appointments are perfect. For the past two years, it has been our good fortune to have a spacious and beautiful auditorium in which to hold our meetings. This, however, is the first time that we have ever met on the campus of a great university.

America has a date with destiny. The founders of this Republic dreamed it and wrote it in the Bill of Rights. From time to time, God has given to this nation men and women, who move the entire nation forward on their faith, courage, ideals and devotion to the principles of Justice and Good Will. He has given to this generation such a man, and placed him at the head of this great University to guide and challenge the youth of this nation; to believe in and practice those principles of Democracy and Christianity that will make Justice and Brotherhood real.

American citizens are in this auditorium, today, because a truly great American presides over the University of Pennsylvania. We extend our profound thanks to the President, Harold E. Stassen, and to the Board of Trustees, for the privilege of meeting here.

But more than that happened, Dr. Marshall E. Shepard, a former member of the Legislature of the State of Pennsylvania—now Recorder of Deeds of the District of Columbia; Chairman of the Foreign Mission Board of the National Baptist Convention, and Pastor of the Mt. Olivet Tabernacle Baptist Church; Drs. Henry McCrary, Pastor Tasker Street Baptist Church and L. G. Carr, Pastor of Vine Memorial Baptist Church, took the matter up with President Stassen, and it was because of the interest and influence of these Pennsylvania leaders that we are in Irvine Auditorium.

We Come to the 1950 Roll Call

Death has invaded our ranks. Death! His name in Heaven is rest and peace and eternal bliss.

Six of our comrades dropped their robes of flesh. Mrs. Willie F. McKinney, Atlanta, Georgia, November 7, 1949; Mrs. S. W. Layten, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, January 14, 1950; Mrs. Sarah Fisher Brown, Newnan, Georgia, February 25, 1950; Mrs. M. C. Kyles, New Orleans, Louisiana, June 5, 1950; Mrs. Irene E. Maxwell, New York, New York, June 15, 1950; Mrs. C. D. Shaw, Ft. Wayne, Indiana, July 5, 1950.

They are now regaled in dazzling garments of righteousness, that outshine the sun. They lived and wrought nobly with us. They made the forenoon of their lives sublime; the afternoon a Psalm, and the night a prayer. They conquered death and won their crowns. What a victory!

"They are not dead who find
The sunset gate the goal
Of all their faithful years.
Not dead are they who reach
The summit of their climb
The peak above the clouds
And storms. They are not dead
Who find the light of sun
And stars and God."

Death is but life's escape from this world into the Glory Land.

In the passing of MRS. S. W. LAYTEN, our President Emeritus, the Woman's Convention lost its most distinguished pioneer. For over forty-two years she was our spokesman and leader. From the unheralded beginning of this Convention, through years of triumphant trudging, Mrs. Layten stood at the head of our organization as a symbol of grace and dignity.

MRS. IRENE E. MAXWELL, the distinguished and beloved Chairman of the Foreign Missions Committee, has answered the Roll Call.

Faithful, efficient, devoted, long suffering, patient—these great words try to spell out what our sister meant to the Woman's Convention and to the cause of Missions. The women who worked close up with her, have in their minds days of tender memories—when she challenged them to service and led all committees of the Convention in gifts to Missions. She was faithful even unto death.

Her Co-chairman, Mrs. Alice L. Browne, cheered her heart as she held high the banner for her.

We have lost several other pioneers, who stayed in active service and gave to the Convention a leadership that will not be easy to duplicate. SARAH FISHER BROWN, of Georgia, was in the organization. MRS. WILLA F. McKINNEY, the faithful pianist, gave long service. The place held by MRS. M. C. KYLES, of Louisiana, in our Young People's Department, will be difficult to fill. Efficient, dependable workers are scarce.

Death invaded the long line of state presidents, MRS. C. D. SHAW, of Indiana, stepped out of line. She was always concerned about the progress of the National and was anxious to have her state move up.

In the home-going of leaders, we must not only close ranks and go forward, but we must find new workers and enlist them. The life of our organizations must be strengthened and enriched. Every state president should make it her business to re-enforce her organization, year by year.

People of interest, ability and desire for service can be found in every church. It is the business of leaders to find them. When God calls one worker from labor to reward, he expects those, responsible for the life of the organization, to challenge others to enlist.

When Jesus Christ left the world, he challenged his disciples to proceed, at once, in a campaign of enlistment. "Get everybody to join" said Jesus. The order has not been revoked and we are unworthy of discipleship, if we do not go after the people and compel them to enlist.

What Conventions Should Do for the People Back Home

The day for organizations to meet and talk and resolve and dissolve (go home) and do nothing is "gone with the wind." Any organization that goes as far and spends as much as Negro Baptists spend to hold a National meeting should bless the people by its program and actual everyday service.

There should be definite improvement in living and giving (for causes) and serving. In a meeting, such as this, the serious question to answer is "Does the real benefit derived justify the amount of money spent?"

The challenge and program of the Woman's Convention must feed back into the local churches and communities food for the spiritual, moral and social upbuilding of the people. As a result of this meeting, the people back home should feel the lift and see the light. Otherwise, Conventions, can degenerate into nothing more than expensive annual excursions.

The addresses, reports, worship services, study classes, music, literature and fellowship should be taken back in such form and spirit as will stir the people's interest, imagination and faith—and make them see the value of their gifts.

What are you taking back to strengthen you personally? How are you going to challenge the people to greater faith and greater cooperation. We can have a mountaintop experience in meetings, such as this, and we can be strengthened and enlightened to go back down into the valley and take up the Cross.

Regional and Regular Board Meetings

Our Board of Directors held two Board meetings and two Regional meetings, this year. The Board meetings were held at Hot Springs, Arkansas, February 8-9; and at Louisville, Kentucky, June 21-22. Both of them were well attended and all business considered and disposed of. The recording secretary has the records for the minutes.

The Regional meetings were held at Atlanta, Georgia, March 15-16; and Brooklyn, New York—May 3-4. The women of Georgia were not well informed as to the purpose and value of the regional, but those who came caught the vision, and we feel quite sure that Georgia will turn out, in full, when we meet in that State again.

In the meantime, there is marked evidence of awakened interest throughout the State.

The Brooklyn, New York meeting was well attended—the best ever—by representatives from all over the New England territory. It is evident that the East is lining up behind the National program.

At both regional meetings, the pastors of the churches—Rev. E. M King of Ebenezer, Atlanta; and Rev. Gardner Taylor of Concord Baptist Church, Brooklyn—were royal hosts. The state presidents of the regions cooperated fully. They are the key persons and we believe they see their opportunity and duty and will build up the attendance at Regional meetings so that the study classes can become good schools for women who cannot attend our National meeting.

It is evident that the Regional meetings can be made a blessing to the territories in which they are held. The people need the instruction and the inspiration. It is definitely our duty to take the school to them.

We must go to the people with the light and the challenge to better and larger service. They will build the Regionals and the National into just the kind of organizations that we must have for four million Christians to be effective in service.

Congratulations to our Young People's Department

Our daughter (the Young People's Department) is celebrating her Twenty-fifth Anniversary at this meeting. We congratulate her on her growth in grace, devotion and achievements in the years over which she has traveled, and we hope and predict for her marvelous expansion and brilliant service in the years that lie ahead.

The Young People's Department has accomplished much of value in twenty-five years.

1. Their directors have set a noble example for the Young People in Christian culture, cooperation and unselfish service. They have actually given themselves to the service.

2. They have a fine sense of stewardship. They have shown that they regard the Young People's money as a sacred trust. Their chief cornerstone is the Scholarship Fund. It is of fundamental importance because it gives future security to the organization and a stake in the lives of all young women who are helped by it.

3. The National Camp project, that was their first dream, is becoming very much awake, and will be a reality in a summer or two. All state presidents are asked to encourage their young matrons to organize for this National advance, NOW. Our Young People are Scholarship set and Camp bound. Each state is asked to give ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS before July 1, 1951.

Where do we go from here? is the question on the lips of every young person in our 1950 meeting. To Camp and to Christian conquest is our answer. Our advice to our young people is this—make no little plans, they have no magic to stir your souls. Attempt great things for God. A glorious future lies before you.

To every senior in this Convention we say, Come on let's go all out for a growing, going Young People's organization. Our Young People need our sure guidance and practical encouragement in these days of temptation and evil. The days that put little or no value on human personality and design to blight and destroy young girls in the morning of their lives.

Christian organizations have no duty more divine and no service more rewarding than that of providing agencies for the protection and development of our Young People. The future of this Convention is definitely in the hands of the girls whom we train today for tomorrow's leadership.

Literature

What would our local missionary societies do without the WORKERS? We have grown from a Twenty-four page magazine and a circulation of Two Hundred Fifty to One Hundred Eight pages and a circulation of Forty-five Thousand, quarterly. We set our goal for 1950 to Fifty Thousand, and with the help of all who know the value of the magazine, we can reach it by January 1, 1951.

The other literature moves most satisfactorily. The "HOW" leads. We note that our women are becoming literature-conscious, and each day the demand grows greater.

The Poems and "WHAT DO YOU THINK" are going out to service, and doing more than we ever dreamed or expected.

Our hands are too full, but if it is humanly possible, you will have a book that has been waiting a long time to be finished. If you will help us do a TWO THOUSAND ADVANCED SALE JOB, you will come to the Convention in 1951 rejoicing.

The book will be our first fiction. Sign up to sell two copies, at One Dollar Fifty Cents, each.

Literature Endowment Fund

One of the dreams of my life is to make sure the continued publication of THE WORKER and other promotional missionary material. Attention has been called to this plan in several reports to the Convention.

A Christian organization, without promotional material, cannot be assured of growth and a place of respect among organizations that know what they are driving at and how to get it.

In 1936 Woman's Missionary Union of Southern Baptist Convention gave us Two Hundred Fifty Dollars and suggested that we do as we thought best with it. They have given Two Hundred Fifty Dollars each year since. This year, they gave Five Hundred Dollars. The Fund has grown to $3,175.78, and we have added from literature earnings year after year.

We shall invite fifteen or twenty interested women and men to meet with us this year and work out plans for carrying out our original proposal to keep the literature fires burning as long as there is a Woman's Convention.

Nothing is more sacred than gifts that keep the work of an organization growing.

Home Missions

There is as much real missionary work to be done on the home field as is to be done on the foreign field. It lies in the fields of evangelism, social service and leadership training.

The whole program should be studied by a capable committee and the work that we do should be presented to our constituency and underwritten. Capable men and women should be employed to do it.

All of our work must have a future. I hold, today, in my hand and watch its unfolding. Then in faith I release it and wait the will of God.

"When we build, let us think that we build forever. Let it not be for present delight nor for present use alone.

Let it be such work as our descendants will thank us for, and let us think, as we lay stone on stone, that a time is to come when those stones will be held sacred because our hands have touched them, and that men will say as they look upon the labor and wrought substance of them,

'See! This our Fathers did for us.'"

Last year the Home Missions Committee raised $1054.63. It was sent to the Home Missions Board to be used as follows:—Regional Institute $554.63 and Student Aid Walter H. Brooks Foundation $500.00.

Our institutes must be properly financed because we are teaching the women, who attend, how to do their work more efficiently in their local churches and communities.

Not any of the $1054.63 turned over to the Home Missions Board and earmarked for Institute was drawn on last year. This gives us $554.63 to be drawn for our 1951 Institute. We had an understanding with Dr. Lovelace that we want a part of our contribution to be used in Institute work.

The Home field is in need of cultivation and this is one of the ways by which we propose to do it.

The Rural Church Woman Needs Us

We have said to you, before, that the rural woman is the most important woman in America. She is the one strong, patient, self-sacrificing soul who gives all and get very little from her better situated sisters.

She gives the nation more than her quota of strong, young men for battle. She keeps the church in the woods alive. She furnishes most of the leaders in nearly every field and, yet, we let her go unlettered—poorly clad and without social or welfare centers to help her learn how to improve her Home and Family life. She is the one woman, in America, who by the hard way makes much out of little.

A year ago, we pledged ourselves to do something definite and constructive, as Christian women, to bring more light to our sisters who live out there where living is lonesome and difficult.

On page thirty-nine of our National Hand Book, you will see our overall plan. We do not mean to ever stop at talking about things that can and should be done. We are now at the place where our Rural Life program must move into action.

As stated in our first message to the Convention, we selected Louisiana as a most desirable State in which to set up a Rural Workshop Center, for helping country women to improve their home and church life, and become a part of the great National movement to enlist women in every phase of our service.

The leaders in that State are alive to the need, and women, pastors and laymen are ready to go all-out with us. Mrs. Alice Hills is the Chairman of the National Committee on Rural Life, and this year we appointed Mrs. Ethel Robinson, of Reserve, Louisiana, Chairman of the State Committee. She is being assisted by fifteen wide-awake women, who know Rural life.

This project must have a center. To this end, we visited Grambling College, Grambling, Louisiana, where eighteen hundred young people, from rural Louisiana, are attending school.

We consulted with Dr. Buckner and other state leaders, about the advisability of locating a rural life center, adjoining the campus. We all agreed that it would give us the greatest opportunity for service to the rural church woman, by conducting workshops and classes, designed to teach our rural women how to improve their homes, churches and communities.

This project will give us an over-all working program to guide other rural communities in improving their homes and surroundings. It will also give us an opportunity to discover talented young people who live in the country and grow up without ever knowing what wonderful gifts God has bestowed upon them. We propose to experiment with a "Library on Wheels." Our rural people have very little to read and it is our business to take it to them.

We recommend that we purchase one acre of land, adjoining the beautiful Campus of Grambling College, and erect thereon a Rural Life Center. We know we can get the necessary help to do it.

Foreign Missions

You will be delighted at the report of the Foreign Mission Committee. The gifts, in money, do not tell half the story. It is the fine spirit of the women on that Committee, and the woman who has been acting Chairman, in the late Mrs. Maxwell's illness. We salute and congratulate Mrs. Alice L. Browne on her fine leadership. In spirit and results the work of her committee is unexcelled.

The women in our churches lead in soliciting for and giving to Foreign Missions. We take pride in the fact that women are carrying more than their share of the load at the Mission stations and in the Carrie V. Dyer Hospital.

Leaders in local missionary societies should read the Mission Herald and the reports of the board, and whenever possible, invite a missionary to speak to the church. The entire church—every member is under obligation to know and to give, and we must do it intelligently. Tossing a mite in the basket is not the way to do it.

Be informed and give intelligently and prayerfully. The whole missionary program must be studied in the light of what is now going on in this war torn world. Keep your eyes and prayers on Africa. Who knows what the big, designing nations are even now planning to do to acquire her fabulous undeveloped wealth.

United Christendom has not religion enough to speak out against exploitation, greed and plunder. A Christless church is as guilty of blood, today, as was Pilate when he washed his hands, before the multitude, when Jesus was about to be killed.

All of us are guilty, before God, for being lukewarm—half-hearted and indifferent, and still call ourselves Christians and belong to the church. The cause of Missions—around the world—is before us, today, as never before.

Christians must launch out into the deep of this challenge or the world will catch on fire from hate and greed.

Life Members

Last year, at California, we reported 49 women who had answered our first call for Life Members in the Woman's Convention.

We are exceedingly anxious to make the work of the Convention permanent, progressive and challenging. It is impossible to achieve those goals without members who believe in and love the cause enough to sign up to stay by it and support it as long as they live.

In signing up, for life, one wants to know the fundamental and enduring value of the cause to which they will be expected to pin their faith and give their devotion.

It is a real joy to report that so many women are signing up for life service. They will work, pray, give, enlist others and keep before our entire constituency the history and achievements of Negro Baptist women who give their lives in service on Foreign fields.

There is no history of the women who have served as missionaries in Africa. This is a sin of omission, for which we must make amends NOW. At the Board Meeting, in Hot Springs, Arkansas, we promised to confer with Dr. C. C. Adams, Secretary of the Foreign Mission Board, on initiating a Pension Plan and using our Life Membership money for that purpose.

The Pension Plan would be operated along lines of well established Boards and only those missionaries who have given service, satisfactory to the Board, would be considered.

In fact, the Pension gifts would go through our Foreign Mission Board. Dr. Adams informed us that the Foreign Mission Board has already set aside a Pension Fund. We did not know this. He also informed us that the Board would not administer a fund set up for women missionaries—ONLY.

We, certainly, do not intend to duplicate any work. We stand, unalterably, for cooperation. As a woman's organization, we have pride in what our women have done as givers and goers. The LIFE MEMBERSHIP FUND will go to perpetuate the work of women, in foreign service, and it is now up to us to seek divine guidance of him whose work we—by these gifts rededicate ourselves.

We shall not swerve from our purpose to make this Life Membership Fund serve women, who have given their lives in foreign service.

Our churches, too often, forget ministers and other Christian workers who have made evey sacrifice and worn themselves out in the cause, only to land on the scrap heap of forgotten saints.

We propose to stand back of those women who go to foreign lands in our stead and become tired and sick and grow aged in the service. God is speaking to us about our duty to them and we propose to do it.

Why We Are Calling On a Million Christian Women To Sign Up For Prayer

At Los Angeles, we issued registration blanks, appealing to our women to sign up for active duty. The drive is now on in full.

What is the real purpose of this Census-Taking Campaign? It is twofold.

Negro Christians have never taken a full and active part in the World Day of Prayer. It is a waste of time to discuss the reasons. It is a known fact that they have not. But, they can and they ought to.

February 1, 1951, is the WORLD DAY OF PRAYER. We need God, and the same thing he did for Ezekiel he will do for us. Ezekiel says "The heavens were opened and I saw God." It will happen in 1951 if we pray.

I am, therefore, enrolling ONE MILLION WOMEN, who "believe God" and will join with other Christian women in prayer February 7th. We shall send out the call January 1—making the following requests to every pastor, every church and to every man and woman.

1. Open every church door at 7:00 a. m. on February 7.
2. Ring every church bell at 7:00 a. m.; 12:00 Noon and 7:00 p. m.
3. Let all who can be in that 7:00 a. m. opening be there. Use organ and any other instruments available. "Let everything that hath breath—praise the Lord." Those who want to pray—will pray. Those who want to sing—will sing. Those who simply want to sit and pray, in silence, can do so.
4. The churches will remain open all day. People can come in at their own convenience.

5. Those, who cannot go to church, can spend at least ten minutes—any time during the day—in prayer in their homes or at their work.
6. Parents are asked to tell their children about the day and why the world needs God.
7. The churches will close at 7:00 p. m.

All we need to make the day a benediction to millions of Christians and to a discouraged, confused and doubting world is to get our churches and church leaders enthusiastic over what prayer will do in a crisis, such as the one through which the world is passing.

All of the organization work should be done during the month of January. The publicity should make the people expectant, hopeful, believing and ready to cooperate.

God is ready to answer our prayers if we only believe him. From now until January first, we are urging all who believe God, and believe in prayer to help us enlist every member on every church roll.

Important Dates and Membership In National Meetings

Some of the members of the Woman's Convention will check the following dates on your calendar. We sent a contribution of One Hundred Dollars to the Council.

The Annual Meeting of the HOME MISSIONS COUNCIL OF North America, Cleveland, Ohio, November 27-28, 1950; followed by the NATIONAL COUNCIL OF CHURCHES OF CHRIST in the U. S. A., November 28—December 1, 1950.

We sent in the names of the following women to attend the Council: Mrs. F. A. Chappelle, New York; Mrs. Esther Walker Tyree, Ohio; Mrs. Mary O. Ross, Michigan; Mrs. Etta Versa Frye, Washington, D. C.; Mrs. Ethel Robinson, Illinois; Mrs. Elizabeth Thom, New Jersey; Mrs. Edna Morris, Pennsylvania; Mrs. Corenne Watts, Alabama; Mrs. Anna D. Locker, Ohio; Mrs. Uvee Mdodana-Arbouin, New York; Mrs. C. C. Coleman, Mississippi; Mrs. M. J. Battle, Wisconsin; Mrs. T. S. Boone, Michigan; Mrs. Lula Mills Haynes, Illinois.

The UNITED EVANGELISTIC ADVANCE—October 2—December 31. The MID-CENTURY CONFERENCE ON CHILD WELFARE will meet in Washington, D. C. in December. Mrs. Madeline Tillman, Chairman and Mrs. A. A. Banks, Co-Chairman of our Child Welfare Committee, have been appointed to attend that Conference.

THE WORLD DAY OF PRAYER—February 7, 1951.

It is absolutely necessary that we affiliate, as an organization, with other known National organizations of women, interested in the salvation of the family, the home and the world.

All programs for women must have their roots deep in the religion of Jesus Christ. The major objective must be to put the spirit of the religion of Christ into our National and International problems.

Men cry "Peace! Peace!", but there can be no peace on earth and no good will among men unless Christians can unite and establish law and order; make righteousness attractive and accept human brotherhood as a fact and glorify it in their everyday relationships. Nothing else matters in this world, now.

If men are not sufficiently civilized to achieve the goals of law, righteousness and brotherhood, we are done for on this planet.

As a member organization of the World Baptist Alliance, I recommend that we make a substantial contribution to the organization, this year, and contribute—annually—to the work of the Alliance.

The National Trade and Professional School For Women and Girls, Inc.

The 1949-1950 school year was most satisfactory. It was satisfactory in—

1. The quality of work done,
2. The type of student,
3. The physical upkeep of the property,
4. And, in the fact that we were able to pay all bills, promptly. The Financial report is published, herein.

What next! The school is in dire need of a modern dormitory. Won't you pledge to give it to us, this year? Without it we will be handicapped and embarrassed.

Next—We have been begging our friends to give us a Memorial Chapel. We hope God will speak to you, in this meeting, about this need. It is a MUST.

Next—Is the need of a great deal more room in the Administration Building. For this purpose we must put the Third Story on Trades Hall.

Since the School President became President of the Woman's Convention, every foot of office space has been taken, and we are forced to work in the halls of the Administration Building, and we have also taken over a classroom that the school actually needs.

The Woman's Convention is fortunate to have a place where its work can be carried on like other National organizations of women carry on their work. But this Convention must take time to see for itself what it has on Lincoln Heights and what is actually needed in our new expansion program, and get up and raise the money to support the school that provides all necessary space and services for the work of this Convention.

No organization, in the world, is getting so much and giving so little to its own project as is the Woman's Convention. Go to Washington, D. C., and see for yourself. Then see the fine young women in the service of this Convention, that were produced by this School.

Every missionary society in this country and every Red Circle of Young People are being helped—directly. The National Trade and Professional School is their source of new spirit, new life and new activities. If everything should have a place, the National Trade and Professional School is the only place from which they are getting real life.

In spite of this fact, less than a hundred local societies give as much as Ten Dollars, a year, to the school. Furthermore, not many of our State Conventions give regularly.

We are trying to find out what this neglect or indifferncе means, in face of the fact that practically all of these organizations are getting much of their daylight and leadership from Lincoln Heights.

The time has come when we must stop "pretending." When Jesus faced a situation, similar to this, he said "He that is not with me is against me, and he that guthereth not with me scattereth abroad."

This is absolutely true. I must lay bare the fact that the women of this Convention are getting a lion's share from us and have real values in Washington, D. C., and you should do your full duty by the bridge that is carrying you over.

The day has come when we cannot expect to use people and things to get what we want and then fail to do our duty in supporting the organization or institution that does the work.

On OCTOBER FIRST, we shall launch a nation-wide drive for THREE HUNDRED THOUSAND DOLLARS to meet the three urgent needs, herein presented.

We want ONE HUNDRED WOMEN to pledge to sign up TO CAMPAIGN for SIX MONTHS and RAISE THE THREE HUNDRED THOUSAND DOLLARS. Properly organized, publicised and directed, they can do a first class job.

If, with the valuable property and the services we have at Washington, D. C., we cannot build on a foundation that is as secure as Gilbraltar, we are not only very shortsighted, but we will throw away the greatest trust that any group of Negro women have ever had.

Virginia White Friends Make a Gift to the School

Accepting the fact that the President of this Convention is a daughter of Virginia and they want to encourage her in every way possible, the Woman's Missionary Union has been making an annual donation to the National Trades and Professional School.

This year, they gave THREE THOUSAND DOLLARS. What a lift, and the largest single gift that has come to us in a long time. Nobody, who has never carried a heavy load for others, knows how it feels to know that somebody understands, believes and cares.

I thank God for my devoted friends in the State of my birth, and I will try to always merit their love.

Scholarships

The Woman's Convention and the Young People's Department are jointly interested in aiding promising girls, who desire to take training in Christian Social Service. The need for trained workers for the home and foreign field is greater today than it has ever been.

Each State Convention should take care of at least one Scholarship, a year. What claim have we on Young People in our churches, unless we discover and enlist and train them.

We have never laid down the rules for Scholarship grants. This August, in conference with the National Chairman, Mrs. Mildred P. Williams of Oklahoma, we worked on a student application blank, and those who have students to send to either of our schools may secure blanks.

We also have blanks for the schools to report to our National Chairman. We must have a real stake in the lives of promising Christian girls, and the Scholarship Fund will give us that stake.

Four Foreign Girls In Training

Upon our request, Mrs. Mattie Mae Davis selected four of her most promising girls to come to America for training. They are Misses Anselia Mitchel. Agnes Nebo. Esther Roberts and Florence Davis. The Liberian Government paid their transportation.

The Foreign Mission Board gave One Hundred Fifty Dollars on each one's school expenses, for the year, and the President of the National Trades and Professional School is responsible for all other expenses.

Several friends have given material for dresses. These young women will receive their basic training in our School, and their professional training in Medicine or Nursing in Schools selected by us.

They seem to be promising young women. If you are interested in their future, will you see us and let us tell you what you can do to help? We are not passing the hat.

We have always believed that the very best way to do effective work, in Africa, is to bring African students to America and train them and return them to their native land for service.

The need for well trained missionaries at all of our stations is greater today than it has ever been.

National Baptist Training School Drive

This special effort to raise TWO HUNDRED FIFTY THOUSAND DOLLARS for the National Baptist Training School, at Nashville, Tennessee has been before us for three years.

Mrs. Maude J. Brockway heads the movement. She will make a report in this meeting. The new President of the School is Mrs. Lillian D. Edwards. She will tell us about the School and its needs during the Educational period.

The Bath House

The Convention quota for the Bath House, at Hot Springs, Arkansas is FIVE THOUSAND DOLLARS. Mrs. Carrie E. Phillips heads the Committee.

It is our hope that they will have a good report for this meeting. All of the work for which we have made commitments must move on so that we will not get cluttered up or bogged down with unfinished business.

Hospital Supplies

"Help Us Save Our African Babies" was the ringing appeal of Mrs. Mattie Mae Davis, before our Los Angeles Convention, in 1949.

The nation-wide response to her appeal for milk, medicine and clothing (all new and dainty) was most gratifying. Ohio women "milked all the cows" and shipped over Two Thousand cans. We sent fifteen boxes from our office and Mrs. Davis helped us to pack them.

Miss Gladys East sent a letter, rich in gratitude. Mrs. Davis carried many boxes of useful articles back with her when she went to Africa last March.

Mrs. Annette H. Officer, Chairman of the Hospital Supplies Committee, will doubtless make our hearts rejoice over what is in store for shipping in time to reach Suehn before Christmas.

Light-weight, unbleached cotton is always needsd. We hope we have made it clear that we do not want second-hand clothes, and odds and ends. Sell them and send the money to—

The World Baptist Alliance

The Board of Directors of this Convention voted that I should represent the Convention in the World Baptist Alliance, at Cleveland, Ohio, July 22-27. It was an honor which I deeply appreciated.

When I was just beginning my public life, I attended the First World Baptist Alliance, in London, England. That meeting to this day remains the most thrilling and satisfying experience in my entire life.

In reviewing the history of the Alliance, the Executive Committee of the 1950 Alliance found that Dr. W. O. Carver—President Emeritus Southern Baptist Theological Seminary: Chairman Commission on Temporary Religious Movements and Miss Nannie H. Burroughs were the two living persons who appeared on the program of the first World Baptist Alliance meeting.

They did us the signal honor of giving each of us a place on the Cleveland program. Dr. Carver read the Scriptures and I prayed.

The Women's Section of the Alliance held its meeting—presided over by Mrs. George R. Martin, President Woman's Missionary Union, Southern Baptist Convention, Monday, July 24. I was programmed to speak there on "On Him Alone We Build."

It was a pleasure to attend many of the social functions and to meet Christian women of all races and nations. The Roll Call of nations climaxed the Women's meeting, held July 25. I was invited to answer for the Woman's Convention Auxiliary National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Inc. A trio led by Mrs. W. H. McKinney, of the Antioch Baptist Church, Cleveland, Ohio, rendered three numbers, most effectively.

The programs and social functions were rich in challenge and fellowship. But one who works with the Alliance behind the scenes knows how the big organization is made to click out front. Efficient, hard working committees and commissions do the ground work—prior to the opening of the big meeting—all day and late into the night—nearly a week before the Alliance opens every important question is presented, analyzed, discussed, clarified and voted on in committee and in the Executive meeting.

It is presented to the house as a challenge, a policy or a program for action. Things move—because all the machinery has been well-greased and geared and the most capable operators are at the wheel.

Our two National Baptist Conventions had the largest delegations at the World's Baptist Alliance, in Cleveland, than they have ever had in any previous meeting of the Alliance.

Representatives of the two Conventions served on commissions and committees. Dr. Benjamin F. Mays was the distinguished Chairman of the Committee on Social Action and did a magnificent job. Dr. Gardner Taylor's message to the World Alliance was equal to that of Paul's on Mars' Hill. Charles Boddie directed the great audience in singing at a number of the sessions.

Mrs. M. C. Williams of Omaha, Nebraska, thrilled us with her singing in one of the sessions.

In the great Pageant, on Thursday night, the race was well represented and there was no discrimination in assignment of parts and places. In all meetings and functions, social and otherwise, there was no discrimination.

The representatives from Africa, men and women, did themselves proud without ostentation. For at least a week, men and women from all lands lived and acted like Christians and seemingly enjoyed it.

Cleveland furnished the atmosphere for such a setting, and Dr. Dores Robinson Sharpe, General Chairman on Arrangements, did everything, humanly possible, to make it real.

Dr. Roland Smith was a member of the Committee on National Relief; Dr. D. V. Jemison one of the Vice-Presidents of the Alliance; Dr. W. H. Jernagin is a member of the Executive Committee.

The next meeting of the Alliance will meet in London, in 1954, and we suggest that a representative delegation attend the meeting. In the meantime, let those who plan to go make an intensive study of world problems and challenges, and familiarize ourselves with the problems in some of the nations that will be represented at the London Conference.

The Negro Will Have To Solve His Own Problem

When we speak of the "Negro Problem," we mean everything that concerns, hinders, helps or hurts the Negro from within or from without.

When we speak of the "Negro's Problem," we mean our very own responsibility, opportunity, hindrance, handicap or barrier—and what HE is going to do about it—how—when—and where?

It is the Negro's responsibility to concentrate on the major personal problems. They are how to have better homes; better family life; better conduct in public places and better job skills.

It is our business to devote more time to the question—What are we going to do about all of these problems that are our very own—even though other people contribute to them? How? When? Where?

In the last analysis, races solve their own problems. They set up for themselves an over-all purpose and plan, and they dedicate themselves to their major objectives.

The Negro's Problem is—

1. How to become a first class citizen. He is not a good second class citizen, now.

2. How to qualify for jobs—not just jobs for Negroes.

3. How to get used to being Negroes and liking it and glorifying it by excelling in initiative, ingenuity and skill.

Negroes should learn trades and become too skilled to be dislodged, as soon as some aliens are imported. We lack pride in occupation and we will not only be a problem, but we will have staggering problems of our own, until we get up off of our front porches and find jobs or make them, and keep them, on pure merit.

Even if we are not sitting out and unkempt and satisfied—all such idlers and satisfied sitters are your problems. Get them up and get them to work.

In order to solve the problems that harass us, on all fronts, today—the leaders must make big and practical plans, aim high in hope and work and let nothing deter them. The race, as a whole, has a long way to go. It can reach the goal set by the Almighty. Faith, work and prayer will make what seems to be wholly impossible, quite possible.

Equality of Opportunity

A democracy is not a democracy unless it gives equal opportunity to learn and equal opportunity to earn to all of its citizens—without regard to race, color or condition.

America is not a democracy. She wrote and signed the promise, right here in the City of Philadelphia, to build "a Government of the people, by the people and for the people." She has not kept her word.

Black men have fought and died in every one of her wars in the hope that some day, this nation under God, would give Negroes a new birth of freedom, but it has not done it. And, even at this hour, when black men are dying in South Korea, just as white men are dying—in the hope that if anybody is left when this struggle is over—that this Nation, under God, shall have a new birth of Freedom, and will give a race that is willing to die—like other men—for this country, in times of war, will be given an equal opportunity to live in it and for it in times of peace.

This day, while black men lie dead on the battlefield, in a foreign land, the members of their families and of their race are buried in America under prejudice, discrimination, segregation and injustices of every conceivable kind. There is no excuse for this.

America is breaking the shackles of people around the world and we call on her to break the shackles of her own citizens, who are helping her to break the shackles of other peoples in other lands.

"Begin at Jerusalem," said Jesus and as you go "preach." He calls, from high Heaven, today, upon this Christian Nation to "Begin at Jerusalem."

What will it profit America to gain freedom for other peoples, abroad, and lose her own soul at home?

The theme of this meeting is "Launch Out into the Deep"—into the deep of Democracy, which means Justice for all.

Gift From W. M. U.

The Woman's Missionary Union of Southern Baptist Convention made a Gift of FIVE HUNDRED DOLLARS to our Literature Fund, this year.

We are deeply grateful to them for their continued interest in this phase of our work.

The thing that is most satisfying to us is that the spirit of cooperation is growing.

It is our hope that there will be a larger number of Institutes held and at least one Southern school of Missions, conducted each year, during the month of July.

We should have the best instructors from both races. There is still much land to be possessed, and the only way to get it and develop it is through the Institute Plan of Cooperation.

So-Called Christian Churches Are Challenged To Practice What They Preach

The only business the Christian church has in the world is to teach, live and propagate the whole gospel of Jesus Christ—the gospel of one Father, one brotherhood and one common destiny. Unless these relationships and common needs are accepted and lived, the religion of Jesus Christ is a delusion.

For nineteen hundred years, the church has done more preaching and less living up to its own preachments than any other human uplift organization in the world.

We preach "about" fellowship—it has become a catch word.—In everyday practice Christians do less real out-and-out "fellowshipping"—without apparent condescension, than people outside of the church.

Christians can tolerate each other for a few days on special occasions or on high days, but they are so afraid of the "social equality" boog-a-boo, that they stop fellowshipping, under normal conditions and on regular occasions.

It is high time that the church were up to its business or stop preaching; stop building houses—and calling those buildings "Churches of Christ"—while excluding races that are not of the color that they like; stop teaching spurious doctrines and wearing the livery of heaven in which to masquerade and naming the name of Jesus and refuse to follow his teachings.

We criticize people for not joining the church. When the church joins Jesus, the people will join the church, but as long as Christians make a mockery, a sham, a subterfuge for the religion of Jesus Christ, the world will go to the Devil—while so-called Christians go to church.

There is a way out of this hate and war and carnage, but we will have to go "into the deep" of God's plan to find it.

"May something of the vast design
That motivate and move our days,
Be but inevitable signs—
Which call life into Godly ways.
This is our faith tremendous,—
Our wild hope, who shall scorn,—
That in the name of Jesus
This world shall be reborn."

We must make America Christian; we must work at it until men hold the vision clear—

"Of Brotherhood before their eyes
Till Holy angels' message again
Comes singing down the skies."

Work at it until every bush by the wayside is aflame with the Glory of God.

"Today is ours—let's live it.
And love is strong—let's give it.
A song can help—let's sing it.
And peace is dear—let's bring it.
The past is done—don't rue it.
Our work is here—let's do it.
The battle's on—let's fight it.
The world is wrong—let's right it.
The road is rough—let's clear it.
The future's vast—don't fear it.
Is faith asleep? Let's wake it.
Today is ours—let's take it."

ANNUAL REPORT

VIVIENNE L. PENICK

Corresponding Secretary

Philadelphia, Pa., September 6, 1950

Madam President, Officers, Members and My dear Co-workers:

I extend Christian greetings to each one of you at this, the forty-ninth annual session of the Woman's Convention, Auxiliary to the National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Inc.

Our heavenly Father has been abundantly merciful in permitting so many of us to gather again in this most wonderful meeting here in the beautiful city of Philadelphia, the "City of Brotherly Love."

Varied have been our experiences since we met and worked together last year and our Christian growth can well be expressed in the words of Ada Mae Hoffrex, who says:

Which seek to block your way
That try to cause anger
And upset your peaceful day.

"To try to forget the things you hear
Unpleasant to your ear
To go ahead in simple faith
That castest out all fear.

"To just forgive the unkind acts
That some may do to you
Forget that those you thought were friends
Have proved themselves untrue.

"To ask a blessing on those souls
Who failed you in your need,
And still have faith in God.
THIS IS THE ONLY CREED."

DEPARTED WORKERS

During the year just passed, again we have lost precious souls, outstanding workers of our Convention and Denomination—GREAT CHRISTIANS, LEADERS. As I have said to you before, let these shining lights who have gone to their reward inspire and encourage us to press forward, knowing that our heavenly Father ever watches over all.

Early in this brief report let me say a heartfelt thank you to you. Many of you, perhaps most of you by now, know that on April 11th, I suffered a stroke of paralysis which completely paralyzed my entire left side from head to foot. For many days I was critically ill, confined strictly to bed, under care of physicians and nurses. God was merciful and restored me. Today, I am here with you—greatly improved and knowing if it be his will I shall be completely restored to health and activity. However, because of being somewhat incapacitated, I have requested one of our efficient secretaries, Mrs. Mayme B. Jones, to read this report for me. During my illness, hundreds of you, nay, thousands sent me cards, letters, telegrams, flowers and other tokens which helped me much on the road to recovery, but above all many of you prayed for me and for all these kindnesses, especially the latter, I say THANK YOU.

The Work

Through the year, with some help, I have kept the work going in my office as usual. You have received your communications as heretofore and the work of our Convention has continued to make progress and to increase in interest as the days have passed. New workers have been enlisted, new zeal aroused and the outlook is indeed bright and glowing, under the leadership of our dynamic, powerful and far-visioned President, Dr. Nannie H. Burroughs. The innovations which she suggested have moved off in clock-like precision and each officer and worker have tried as best she could to carry out the instructions that have been handed down. I say to you again today as I said last year, if you follow leadership cooperatively, doing your best, you will surely meet success. This is true in any organization and hence must run true in this—one of the greatest of all organizations.

Field Work

MEETINGS this year for me have all been within my State. Several conferences with the women gave opportunity to keep before the women of the Pacific Northwest our National program. Our annual State meeting was held August 1st in Spokane, Washington. We had a most excellent session. At this meeting because of physical handicap, I offered my resignation as president and was unanimously elected president emeritus. Mrs. V. M. Christian was elected president and an excellent corp of officers to assist her.

During all the years I have served you as one of the cabinet members of this Woman's Convention, eighteen years as your recording secretary and two years as corresponding secretary, I have to the utmost of my ability and knowledge cooperated wholeheartedly with our officers and members. I have tried to show in every way, my love, esteem and respect for all. I have honored each officer in her respective position, and in a testimonial banquet at Atlanta, Georgia, in 1946, which I proposed, conducted and managed, I tried to express for myself and with your cooperation, our great appreciation for the two great women, President S. W. Layten and Corresponding Secretary, Nannie H. Burroughs, whom God had lent to us for forty-five years of unbroken service. At that time we laid in the hands of each, about $1000, along with other articles of love and usefulness. We were most happy to do this small service.

Today, we have only one of these great women left with us. Let us rally to her with all our might. Show her today how we love and appreciate her worth and work and how willing we are to follow her leadership.

Finally, my dear co-workers, permit me to say I am sincerely thankful for the privilege of having served you these past twenty years, and for all of the consideration you have given me. It has been a high privilege to serve as an officer of this body and to work side by side with these distinguished and outstanding women. I sincerely regret that my health will not permit me to serve actively any longer. I shall always love and cherish each one of you and hope to be among you as one of the workers. May God bless you one and all

Sincerely and faithfully,

(Signed) VIVIENNE L. PENICK

A MESSAGE

Congratulations to our Young People and their Director, Mrs. Etta Versa Frye, who have been engaged in the work of Kingdom building for the past 25 years. This Department has been outstanding in its development and the work done must not be estimated in dollars and cents. Therefore, I take pleasure in commending Mrs. Frye and her co-laborers for the great work in molding sentiment for our Lord's Kingdom and his Christ.

May the Lord's richest benedictions rest upon the work of the Young People's Department and its leaders.

DR. D. V. JEMISON, President
National Baptist Convention, Inc.,

Lord, speak to me that I may speak
In living echoes of Thy tone

As thou hast sought, so let me seek
Thy erring children lost and alone.

MINUTES

O teach me, Lord, that I may teach
The precious things Thou dost impart

And wing my words, that they may reach
The hidden depths of many a heart.

THURSDAY—Morning Session

September 7, 1950

The Young People's Department of the Woman's Convention, Auxiliary to the National Baptist Convention, Inc., met in its second day's session at 9 a. m., with the praise service conducted by Mrs. Geraldine Hampden, Michigan, and Mrs. Fannie Patterson. We were lifted in mind and spirit through the sings that were directed by Mrs. Grace Burt, musical director, and Mrs. Bennye M. Tillman, Illinois, who offered a fervent prayer.

Mrs. Fannie Tharpe, Indiana, J. M. A. Vice President, took charge of the business period. The minutes of the previous days were read by Mrs. Margaret Crawford. After some corrections, it was properly moved and seconded that the minutes be adopted.

Dinkins, Director, Religious Education, Sunday School Publishing Board. Each speaker gave a beautiful review of the past, and encouraged us to work hard for a brighter future. Miss Lonise Beasley, District of Columbia, touched our hearts as she so reverently sang "The Lord's Prayer."

Mrs. Corenne Watts was presented by Mrs. Thorpe. In her special message, Mrs. Watts stated, Let none of us be bothered about what we can do or where we can work, but go to God and ask him to use us in his service, then be willing to go were he wants us to go and do what he wants us to do. Let us say, "Thy will be done, O Lord, not mine." At the close of the message, Mrs. Watts presented the young people of the Southern Region who so gracefully gave a pantomime entitled, "Thy Will Be Done," written and directed by Mrs. Charles M. Ford, Georgia, assisted by Miss Christine King, Georgia. Mrs. E. L. Perry, Oklahoma, brought words of commendation on the pantomime.

Greetings were brought by Mrs. A. F. Carroll, Illinois; Mrs. Lula Covington, Mississippi, and Mrs. Yakan, Louisiana.

Mrs. Watts asked that we give a free-will offering to Mrs. V. B. Floyd of 518 Seminary Street, Gainesville, Florida, who is confined to her bed, but has been a very faithful worker.

Mrs. C. C. Brown, Texas, Counselor for the noon-day worship, took charge of the service with Miss Lorene McConnell, Colo.; and Mrs. Bettye Hardaway, assisting. After the singing of "Open Mine Eyes," Miss McConnell read Acts 1:6-12. "Touch me, Lord Jesus" was prayerfully sung followed by words of prayer by Mrs. Hardaway. A group of songs were sung, after which Rev. James W. Parrish brought the devotional message from the theme, "Thine Is the Power." He stated that we believe God is not in us but with us and will give power to all who put their trust in him. We must put our own lives and hearts in the service of our God. The gospel is the power of God unto salvation to everyone that believeth, and it is the only cure for times such as these. Spend more time with God in prayer and receive more power. "Sweet Hour of Prayer" was the closing song.

She has attended every state convention in the West and that every state is represented in this meeting but one, New Mexico. Concluding her message with "I have done my best," she introducted Miss Veronica Kurjus, Stockholm, Sweden, who spoke of her many experiences. A consecrated offering was given her by the audience.

Miss Funches presented Mrs. Grace Burt and Miss Cordetta Woolsey, Illinois who directed the young people of the Western Region in a very beautiful pageant, which marked the progress of the Convention from its beginning up to the present time.

FRIDAY—Morning Session

September 8, 1950

The Friday morning session of the Young People's Department of the Woman's Auxiliary to the National Baptist Convention, Inc., opened with Mrs. Blanche Wade presiding. Praise service was conducted by Miss Geraldine Hampden, Michigan. This being our Anniversary Day, high hopes and spirits was the atmosphere instilled in every young person that entered the auditorium. Pep songs were led by our capable music director, Mrs. Burt. Since this was our 25th Anniversary, our National Director suggested that we sing our Emphasis Hymns dating back as far as 1945. This was enjoyed by all.

The minutes of the previous day were read by Mrs. Virginia Jackson, Alabama. After necessary corrections, the minutes were received and adopted. Mrs. Carolyn Ealy, Missouri, gave a partial report from the Golden Chain Rally Committee. It was properly moved and seconded that the partial report coming from this committee be accepted.

Songs were led by Miss Geraldine Hampden.

Anniversary greetings were given by Mrs. Edythe Weston, Pennsylvania; Mrs. Gertrude E. Rush, Legal Adviser, Woman's Convention; and Mrs. W. L. Ransom, State President, Good Will Convention, Virginia. One thought that laid firm hold of the young people was the climaxing thought from Mrs. Rush—certain land marks had been attained in the Young People's Department and we, as young people coming on, should maintain those of personal morality and love; if we do not remove these, we would be sure to attain Christian womanhood.

A partial report was given by Mrs. A. W. Warren of Arkansas from the Finance Committee of which Mrs. L. B. Covington is chairman. Mrs. Frye presented Attorney J. C. Oliver, Chicago, Illinois, who gave us very encouraging remarks on behalf of the Young People of Illinois. Music was led by Mrs. Grace Burt.

Entering into our Achievement Period, Miss Eunice Hayes of District of Columbia presented Colonel Campbell C. Johnson, Executive Assistant, National Selective Service System. Informative and constructive information was given. Colonel Johnson stated, we, as young people, in order to help improve democracy among our race, aid in adjusting educational facilities in our perspective communities; that the barriers are breaking, the doors are opening, and opportunity is there if only we are prepared to accept these opportunities. The distinguished Mrs. Edith S. Sampson, delegate to the United Nations Assembly, who was scheduled to speak, sent a telegram stating her inability to be present. This was accepted by the Convention. Miss Bessie Washington presented Mr. James C. Evans, Civilian Assistant to the Secretary of Defense. His address on the subject, "Distant Objectives," challenged us to study, strive and sacrifice in order to obtain the highest basic plans for answering the cause of discrimination. The question period conducted by Miss Gladys Eison, Maryland, was quite informative. Mr. Kenneth Bowman, Detroit, Michigan, gave a summary of the questions which had been asked.

Pep singing was led by Mrs. Grace Burt. Following was announcement period.

Noon-day worship conducted by Mrs. Dorothy M. Lawrence as counselor assisted by Misses Susan Jackson, Ohio, who offered prayer, and Eddie Mae Milan, Illinois, who read the Scripture. The devotional message, "Thine Is the Glory," was delivered by the Rev. James W. Parrish. He emphasized that we glorify God because he is good. Man's chief aim should be to honor God and our aim for every day of our lives should be to give God the glory. Concluding today, his three day messages from our theme "Thine Is the Kingdom, the power and the glory," Rev. Parrish closed with a prayer of complete humility to God saying "We do recognize 'Thine' as being the Kingdom, the Power, and the Glory."

The benediction was offered by Rev. Parrish.

Afternoon Session

The afternoon session opened at 1:30 p. m., with Mrs. Blanche Wade presiding. Praise service was conducted by Mrs. Grace Hooper, New York, and Miss Annette Reese, Colorado. Music was furnished by Mrs. Fannie Patterson, Michigan.

Anniversary greetings were received from Mrs. Ida Drew, State President of Arkansas, which were sweet and encouaging to us. Selections were given by the Youth Choir of Mt. Carmel Baptist Church, Washington, D. C. A short music period was conducted by Mrs. Margaret Crawford.

Mrs. Bertha C. Winston, Eastern Director, brought a special message reviewing the past 25 years and closing with encouragement for now and the future.

Pep period was conducted by Mrs. Grace Burt assisted by Miss Alberta Scott, Missouri. Following this, Mrs. Winston introduced the Eastern Region which featured a panel discussion on "The Philosophy and Objectives of Church Camping." First speaker, Mrs. Marie Fowler, New Jersey, spoke on the topic, "Definition and Challenge"; Mrs. Alva Holmes, District of Columbia, spoke on "Methods, Ways, and Means" which was on the humorous side, but quite informative. Mrs. Clara Banks, Maryland, spoke on "The Program and Activities of Christian Camping." Rev. David Shannon, Virginia, spoke on the "The Value of Trained Leadership in Camp." He emphasized the fact that we do not train leaders fast enough to furnish the camp. The sole purpose of the church camps was to prepare the young person to be more fit for church activities through the appreciation of God's out doors. Rev. Edward L. Scheingman, Pennsylvania, spoke on "Scope—Basic Philosophy—Results." The summary was given by Mrs. Fowler. A playlet entitled, "Only a Rose," portraying the sweetness that has grown through the years from the life of our Director, Mrs. Etta Versa Frye, was presented. And to this 25th Anniversary her life still senses the essence of roses. Camping demonstrations were displayed by Mrs. Fowler and Rev. Scheingman.

Closing remarks were given by Mrs. Wade followed by song meditation and benediction.

Evening Session

The Friday evening session started at 7 p. m., with the young people assembling at the Convention Hall. Pictures were taken, then the processional to Irvine Auditorium. Upon arriving at Irvine Hall we marched in to our designated places. Miss Eunice Hayes presided. A pep song was conducted by Mrs. Burt which was a fine demonstration, for it set our host, the Woman's Convention, to the atmosphere of the youth program. A tribute to Miss Nannie H. Burroughs, President of the Woman's Convention, included personal testimonies by the Junior officers. Miss Burroughs offered her thanks and voiced words of encouragement to us.

The Youth Choir of Mt. Carmel Baptist Church, District of Columbia, sang "Battle Hymn of the Republic" arranged by Fred Waring. Twenty-fifth Anniversary greetings were heard from Mrs. Blanche Wade, Miss Eunice Hayes, and Mrs. Goldie Thomas, President of the Junior Council. Music again from the Youth Choir of Mt. Carmel Baptist Church, "Onward, Christian Soldiers," another Fred Waring arrangement.

A playlet entitled "Youth on the Auction Block" was presented. The play pointed out that out of all of the different temptations of life Social Service for the Lord proved to be most beneficial to womanhood.

Presentation of awards and the exposition of the silver chain and tree portraying 25 years of growth and service of the Young People's Department. Mrs. Margaret Crawford made the presentations to our National and Regional Directors. Twenty-fifth anniversary presentations were made to Mrs. Frye for twenty-five years of service to the Young People's Department.

Recognition period conducted by Mrs. Winston presenting gold stars to the states that contributed the required amount for the ten objectives and silver stars to those who contributed to seven of the ten objectives. A partial financial report was given by Mrs. Georgia Jackson.

Due to the lateness of the hour, other reports and the awarding of the trophy to the queen, Mrs. Bessie Daniels, Illinois Baptist State Convention, was postponed to Saturday morning. Closing remarks from our National Director were a fitting climax for the evening's program.

The benediction was offered by the Rev. Luther L. Evans of Texas.

SATURDAY—Morning Session

September 9, 1950

The Young People's Department opened its fourth day's session at 9 a. m. with inspirational singing directed by Miss Arthur Lee McCloud. Prayer was offered by Miss Sylvia Howard. The business period was conducted by Mrs. Fannie Thorpe. Mrs. Margaret Crawford read the previous day's minutes which were adopted as read.

Open Forum entitled "We Begin the Second Twenty-five Years" was led by Mrs. Goldie Thomas, Indiana; Miss Elizabeth Parker, Maryland; Mrs. Bennye Tillman, Illinois. Through their messages we were encouraged to look forward to a brighter future. Music was conducted by Mrs. Burt.

State Directors' Period, "Leadership for the Second Twenty-five Years," was presided over by Mrs. A. F. Carroll, Illinois. The period was divided into three sections: Education, Finance, and Spiritual. The young people were inspired through the messages of the directors. We felt assured that through the help of God, we would have twenty-five years of greater service for humanity. Twenty directors were present on the platform for this period.

Miss Caroline Scott, member Youth Department of the Baptist World Alliance, spoke of her work with the Alliance and asked that each of us keep in touch with her in order that she may help us to have a closer fellowship among all races.

Our National Director came forward and called our attention to the election of officers for the Y. W. A. After some helpful remarks, she presented Mrs. Winston and Mrs. Thorpe to take charge of the election. It was moved and second that we would elect officers by nomination. The following officers were elected:

Miss Jeannette Freeman, New Jersey	President
Miss Bessie Washington, Alabama	First Vice President
Miss Zena Mae Hill, Illinois	Second Vice President
Miss Betty S. Freeman, District of Columbia	Recording Secretary
Miss W. Christine King, Georgia	Assistant Recording Secretary
Miss Susie Ann Jackson, Ohio	Corresponding Secretary
Miss Sylvia Howard, Texas	Treasurer
Miss Davine Ross, Michigan	Pianist
Miss Jessie Mae Wilson, Ohio	Musical Director

The officers were installed by Rev. L. White, District of Columbia.

Awards were presented to the states. After parting remarks by our National Director, we sang, "Is Your All on the Altar?" The closing prayer was offered by Mrs. Covington.

ANNUAL REPORTS

NATIONAL AND REGIONAL DIRECTORS—YOUNG PEOPLE'S DEPARTMENT

WOMAN'S CONVENTION, AUXILIARY TO NATIONAL BAPTIST CONVENTION, INC.

Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, September 6-10, 1950

ANNUAL REPORT

MRS. ETTA VERSA FRYE, National Director

Madam President, Officers and Delegates:

To celebrate the joyous occasion of a Twenty-fifth Anniversary in the great city of Philadelphia—whose biblical name mean s"Brotherly Love" is a timely signal for gratitude to God for such a highly prized opportunty. Especially is this true in our world torn by too frequent recurrences of war—a direct evidence that there is great need for brotherly love among the peoples of the world. We are grateful for our privilege of serving as one of the mediums through which a great dream has come to pass.

Not the Young People's Department or the Woman's Convention—but the entire denomination is indebted to our President, Miss Nannie H. Burroughs, who as Corresponding Secretary dared to dream of organized young people at work in the church as youth and preparing themselves for the larger stewardship which would come with the years. So we are indebted to this great woman who dreamed dreams—and introduced new ideas—not as a visionary but as one who hath the faith, courage and industry to stand by those dreams and ideas until they had become realities.

Recommendations—1923

We Must Enlist the Young People

Our churches are in eminent danger of losing their most vital force. The question why Negro young people do not take an active part in religious work can easily be answered.

First, because few parents set the right example . . .

Second, there is too much wrangling in religious organizations. Such conduct does not appeal to intelligent, forward-looking young people . . . .

Third, young people must be given some definite work to do. They will become interested if their money is used for definite, constructive work, . . . If we do not enlist our educated, capable young people, the Negro race will be left behind other races that are making the development of Christian life and Christian institutions thei rmain objective. The new civilization is going to be highly spiritual and, unless the young Negro prepares and enlists, the Christian forces of his day will develop and dominate a civilization in which he can have no part unless, like others, he has something to contribute.

The call is here made to the women of every church to organize two Red Circles—one composed of children between nine and twelve, and the other for teen-age girls. We shall organize, during this meeting, the National Red Crcle. In the future, every local society will be asked to see that the Girl's Red Circle sends at least one delegate to the National each year.

In 1926 Miss Burroughs wrote the following in her annual report:

At the Baltimore Convention we launched the Young People's Department . . . . organizing the young people is the longest step we have ever taken. It is our bounden duty to leave no stone unturned in their development. They are the Woman's Convention of the future. They are the greatest inspiration of the present, and the only hope of the future . . . .

The young people are the most important people of the world, because they have a future. This convention must not be lax, indifferent, not luke warm in this plan to enlist, organize, vitalize and utilize the thousands of young girls in our Baptist churches. If we do not use them, we will lose them.

President—Miss Columbia Johnson, California
Cor. Secy.—Miss Emmie Hamilton, Georgia
Treasurer—Miss Gladys Howell, Texas

The woman elected to head the organization was the consecrated, well beloved, Mrs. Lethia L. Craig of Atlanta, Georgia, with Mrs. Geneva C. Young, Western Director and Miss Etta Versa, Eastern Director. It will never be possible to mention or write the history of Baptist Young People without the name of Lethia L. Craig heading the list—not alone because of her position as National Director, but for the great love she had for young people everywhere and the years of sacrificial service she gave.

Time reveals the Woman's Convention made no mistake in selecting Mrs. Craig to pioneer the Department and your humble servant appreciates the nineteen years of association with her serving as Eastern Director.

The Department has had three Western Directors—Mrs. Geneva C. Young, who was in the organization and Mrs. E. L. Scruggs of Kansas, who succeeded Mrs. Young in 1931. These two women served faithfully and only gave up the work because of circumstances over which they had no control.

In 1936 at Jacksonville, Florida, Miss Primrose Funches of Illinois was elected Western Director. Miss Funches came to the Department full of enthusiasm and ambition. Her great opportunity for an enlarged service came in 1944 when she was given the assignment of planning the finance. Miss Funches has done a fine job in this capacity. Notwithstanding the country was engaged in war and the financial state of the entire country was in flux, Miss Funches merits and should receive credit for increasing the revenue of the Young People's Department.

With the passing of our First National Director in 1944, and the elevation of the Eastern Direc or to head the work Mrs. Bertha C. Winston was elected Eastern Director to succeed Mrs. Frye. Mrs. Winston had won the consideration of women for this position during the many years she had worked with the Department as State Director of Young People for the State of Maryland.

Mrs. Winston has served faithfully and has been assigned the responsibility of heading the Fund Raising Campaign for our National Young People's Camp. Very wisely, Mrs. Winston began her work by putting on campaigns at our annual meetings designed to make our constituents national camp conscious. During this Twenty-fifth Anniversary celebration Mrs. Winston is launching her campaign for funds.--Motivating periods and projects are over—The aim now is for cash. With other denominations moving out into this area of development of young people—I am sure you, as a loyal Baptist, covet the same opportunity for our young people. See Mrs. Winston's Committee during this session and make a substantial pledge.

Mrs. Watts came into the fellowship of Regional Directors the same year as Mrs. Winston. She, too, had been an important part of our National work in the capacity as Director of Young People for the great State of Alabama, and therefore among those who contribute so much to the successful execution of our National Programs and Projects. Mrs. Watts' deep spiritual fervor and zeal for the development of real Christian character makes her one of the greatest assets among our leaders.

I am more than grateful for these, the Regional Directors and State leaders who have worked with me through the years. The accomplishments in this Department represent the sum total cooperation on all levels. In other words whatever success we have enjoyed has come as a result of good team work.

Signs of Growth

When the Department was organized in 1925 in Baltimore, Maryland, ten states answered the call to send representatives. Miss Columbia Johnson of California was elected the first President; Miss Emmie Hamilton of Georgia, Corresponding Secretary; and Miss Gladys Howell of Texas, Treasurer.

The states from which these young women came were pleased and proud to have such a place in making history. Two of our state directors in the organization are still with us serving as faithfully now as they did twenty-five years ago. They are Mrs. Georgia Jackson, Michigan, and Mrs. L. B. Covington, Mississippi.

Today our official roster shows thirty-eight conventions coming from twenty-nine states. That first year in Baltimore our total finance raised was thirty-four ($34.00) dollars. The highest amount raised by the Department has been a little in excess of seven thousand ($7,000.00) dollars.

We joined with the Woman's Convention in helping to build the Carrie V. Dyer Memorial Hospital in Liberia. We have contributed annually to Home and Foreign Missions. Our contributions to Christain Education through certain projects such as the Golden Chain Rally, All-States Tea and the Scholarship Fund which gives opportunity to young women have all helped to give us an inspiring record. The greatest contribution this Department has made to God and the denomination, however, has been the girls and young women inspired to dedicate their lives to Christian service. We point with pride to those who are holding key positions in religious activities—Leaders in states as Directors, in the Publishing House and in the Woman's Convention—These are the dividends of the past twenty-five years we offer to the Woman's Convention and to the denomination.

These Have Aswered the Call

Since our last annual session we have lost a number of workers and friends of the Department.

State Director, Mrs. M. C. Kyles answered the call in June. Mrs. Kyles was one of the most talented women working with the young people. She was loyal and ready to serve whenever called upon. She is already missed and will be missed as time goes on.

Mrs. Kyles, even to the last, seemed to live by this prayer:

Let me die, working
Still tackling plans unfinished, tasks undone
Clean to its end, swift may my race be run
No laggard steps, no faltering, no shirking,
Lord, let me die working.

Only a few days ago, word came to us that former Junior President of the Y.W.A. Division, Miss Rachel Coates, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. B. W. Coates of Mississippi had passed. Rachel was one of our most promising young women—our heavenly Father knows best.

Mrs. S. W. Layten, President of the Woman's Convention at the time of our organization and Mrs. Sarah Fisher Brown active friend of the Department—also answered the call since our last meeting in Los Angeles.

Mission Studies 1950-51

Our areas for study this season will take in the Near East as the foreign field and Toward a Christian Community for our home study. Both areas are quite significant—a study of the Near East will give us an acquaintance—with the people and lands of Bible history. To most of us it will be enlightening to bring our Bible cities into focus with the problems of our times—and the question of our responsibility as Christians.

We are recommending "Assignment: Near East" for Red Circles—and "Near East Panorama" for Y.W.A. and J.M.A. groups. This study is on the adult level but we are recommending it because we believe our girls can handle it.

One of the best ways for young people to appreciate the problems of the Near East is through the study of Islam, one of the major religions in our study area. We are recommending for J.M.A. and Y.W.A. groups the book "Introducing Islam," by J. Christy Wilson. Price 60c.

An acquaintance with the problems of childhood today in Bible lands will be interesting to Sunshiners when we use "The Thirsty Village" by Dorothy Blatter. Price $1.00

If your Red Circle group is divided for Junior Red Circle we recommend "Pearls Are Made" by Marguerite Gayer. Price $1.00.

Near East studies will be far more interesting if you secure a map. These are large and cost 50c each.

"Toward a Christian Community" is the aim of our Home Mission studies this year. J.M.A.'s and Y.W.A.'s will find "Once There Were Two Churches" by Kathleen Vaule full of action and challenges. Price $1.00 "The Church and Your Community," a guide to planning. "Once There Was Two Churches" will help to find ways of meeting the opportunities suggested in the text. This little book is only 50c.

Red Circles will study "The Third Wish" at $1.00 by Eleanor Hull. Leaders are suggested to include "The Swinging Church Door" as a guide to planning the sessions and worship.

Sunshine Band leaders should use "The Three Henrys and Mrs. Harnicle," by Edith J. Agnew. Price $1.00 Weekly Topics are $1.00 per dozen.

It has been a great privilege to work with the young people and their leaders in this Department. The nineteen years as Eastern Director assisting the late Mrs. Craig were invaluable as an apprenticeship for the larger service into which this Convention saw fit to call me six years ago. We have grown financially, numerically and in the quality of the programs launched. We have seen many young women, products of this Department giving of themselves in service to their churches and denomination.

And so, at the close of twenty-five years we came to lay before you the women of this convention a living, growing and producing organization and to thank God

"For every hill we've had to climb
For every stone that bruised our feet
For blinding storm and burning heat
Our hearts sing but a grateful song
These were the things that made us strong.

For all the heartaches and the tears
For all the anguish and the pain
For gloomy days and fruitless years
And for some hopes that lived in vain
We do give thanks, for now we know
These were the things that—helped us grow!"

Our faces are still turned toward the rising sun for those who work with young people deal with life's beginnings and life's great promises. The second twenty-five years in the life of the Young People's Department begin with this session of the Convention and in whatever capacity it is ours to serve we pledge ourselves to ever keep before the Young Women of the Denomination the fact that it pays to serve Jesus and

To talk with God
No breath is lost
Talk on

To wait on God
No time is lost
Wait on

Talk with God
No strength is lost
Walk on

To work with God
No energy is lost
Toil on.

Respectfully submitted,

ANNUAL REPORT

MISS PRIMROSE FUNCHES, Western Director

To our illustrious President, Miss Burroughs; to our honored National Director, Mrs. Frye; to my co-laborers in the Master's Vineyard, and to the officers, members and friends of the Young People's Department, Greetings!

It is with great humbleness of soul that I stand before you today, as the Western Director of the Young People's Department of the Woman's Auxiliary of our great National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., to render an account of my stewardship. T. O. Chisholm, in his poem, "A Present Help," gives apt expression to the inarticulate gratitude that is in my breast:

A Present Help

Unless the Lord had been my help.—Psalm 94:17

By T. O. Chisholm

"Unless the Lord had been my help,"
I dare not think what might have been;
Unless His love had sought me out,
I must have perished in my sin.

Unless He had been near to help
In many dark and crucial hour,
I must have suffered sore defeat,
Gone down before the tempter's power.

When sudden danger overtook,
A "present help" indeed was He—
He sheltered me beneath His wings
And with His feathers covered me.

Unless the Lord shall be my help
Through all the days that are to come—
But, oh, He will, I know He will!
A "present help"—the whole way home!

I shall be forever grateful to our Lord for the opportunities that he has given me to serve this Department. I humbly thank him for whatever measure of success we have had in pursuing our work in kingdom building. I thank all those who have so unselfishly and unstintingly given of their time talents, money and prayers to make the past year's work successful.

We stand, today, upon the threshold of the second half of the twentieth century. The world is filled with fears of a third World War. As we look back at the record of the past fifty years, we see a record of sin, selfishness, dis-unity and godlessness. But thanks be to God, while the world is fearful lest it reap the harvest of its wickedness, there are millions yet who will "fear not, stand still and see the salvation of the Lord." I refer to those persons who, with the eye of faith can see the Church of Jesus Christ overcoming the world; I refer to those who believe the words of the Master who said, "Fear not, little flock, for it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom!"

This year marks the beginning of another epoch in the Young People's Department. We are celebrating our Silver Anniversary, a quarter of a century of young Negro Baptists organized to combat sin wherever it is found; young people enlisted and committed to the proposition, that they shall be living epistles for Christ; young people who have accepted the challenge to "go into the hedges and highways and compel men to come to Christ"; young people whose password is "for me to live is Christ!"; young people whose battle cry is "Rise up and build!" How can anyone feel less than honored to be identified with such a group. I want to thank you young people for your support, and, in other words of Ruth Graham Robinson:

The Crown

Let no one take thy crown!
No strong ambition, drawing all thy soul . . .
To earthly heights;
No sparkling pleasure, luring from the goal
With glamour lights;
No heavy toil, making the spirit dull
With weariness;
No bitter care, corroding deep the soul
God's love would bless.

Let no one take thy crown!
But be thou faithful unto death, like Him
Who bore the cross
If dark'ning doubt thy faith's fine gold shall dim,
How great thy loss!
Fight the good fight. Oh, yield thee to the foe
One moment, never!
Lest that be thy last battle, and thou go
Uncrowned forever.

Yes, young people, we must fight the good fight; we must fight the forces of evil until we can say, like Paul, "I am crucified with Christ, nevertheless, I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me!" We must fight until the Woman's Convention will not look upon us as an auxiliary but as a vital part of its very life! We must fight until the world sees in us the Church militant, giving no quarter to evil; we must fight until we have shared in the establishment of the kingdom of God on the earth as a positive force in the affairs of men. And fighting thus, we will not fight in vain!

The Young People's Department is indebted to Miss Nannie Burroughs for the existence of this Department. It was her fertile brain that conceived the idea of a Young People's Department of the Woman's Convention, and it was largely due to her efforts in your behalf that the Department was founded twenty-five years ago. We pause to pay tribute to this great woman and to her faith in the youth of the National Baptist Convention.

We are celebrating, this year, the Silver Anniversary of our National Director as a Director of our Department. Mrs. Frye served as the Eastern Director during the lifetime of our late National Director, Mrs. Lethia L. Craig. After Mrs. Craig's death, Mrs. Frye became our National Director. I wish to personally thank her for her encouragement and cooperation during the past fourteen years.

This past year has been a busy one; and we have had a good measure of success. We have striven to work not for our own glorification and elevation, but we have conscientiously endeavored to do all things for the glory of God. A number of states have won recognition as Gold Star States by supporting the 10 objectives listed by the National Director. Let us not rest until every state, particularly those in the Western Area, is a Gold Star State.

The Finance Department has been assigned to me by the National Director. I have endeavored over the years to push forward the finance as my special task. I am happy to say to you when I was elected the young people were reporting only $2,000.00; today, they are reporting more than $7,000.00.

Through the Lethia L. Craig Scholarship Fund, we are happy to report to you that we have students at the National Trades and Professional School and the National Baptist Missionary Training School each year. We have graduated from the National Baptist Missionary Training School more than six students thru this fund. This fund is now open for worthy students in any state to enter our school.

Our new project we launched two years ago for the National Trades and Professional School in Washington, D. C. We have also made a definite con- has enabled us to make a substantial contribution to the National Trades and Professional School has been a success. Our Annual All-States Musical Tea tribution throughout the years to Home and Foreign Mission.

In honoring our National Director, Mrs. Etta Versa Frye for twenty-five years of service in the Young People's Department, we have declared Friday of this Convention to be "Etta Versa Frye Day." We have no means by which we may pay individuals for service, but we do believe in giving honor to whom honor is due. So, it is the delight of the Young People's Department and its directors to declare Friday of this Convention an honor day and name it for our National Director as a contribution for her service. You will note that each of our delegates are wearing a souvenir known as "Etta Versa Frye Day."

Again, I had the opportunity to attend the Baptist World's Alliance that met in Cleveland, Ohio, and I was greatly inspired because of the activities that were being carried on by the young people from all parts of the world, declaring that they are rededicating their lives and that they are all out for the service of the Master. It was a glorious privilege to see nationalities represented, and for the first time, two young Americans were named on the youth committee. We are represented by our distinguished President, Nannie H. Burroughs, and may I say to you that of the many outstanding representatives that any country had or any group of people had was our own President Burroughs.

I was again reminded of the glorious trip I had in going to the World's Baptist Alliance in Europe, and I again rededeaied my life to God in service.

I have served as chairlady of the Publicity Committee of the Woman's Convention and I have given the young people due consideration.

Tribute to the Deceased

When the righteous dies, 'tis earth that meets with loss. The jewel will ever be a jewel, but it has passed from the possession of its former owner. Well may the loser weep. Mourn for those who are left; mourn not for the one taken by God from earth. He has entered into the eternal rest, while we are bowed with sorrow.

Let us rededicate ourselves as we bow our heads. Each solemnly and sincerely lifting the heart to God as I read this prayer of dedication by the late Dr. James M. Gray:

A Dedication Prayer

(Frequently employed by Dr. James M. Gray in conducting consecration meetings)

O God, I am redeemed by the precious blood of Thy Son, Jesus Christ; I am saved by Thy grace; I am indwelt by Thy Holy Spirit; I am a member of the Body of which Christ is the Head.

I now yield myself to Thee, as one who is alive from the dead, and my members as instruments of righteousness unto God, that I may be filled with Thy Holy Spirit.

I now receive by faith the gift of Thy Holy Spirit, through Jesus Christ my Lord. Amen.

Respectfully submitted,

Your humble servant

ANNUAL REPORT

MRS. BERTHA C. WINSTON, Eastern Director

Madam President, Officers and Members of the Woman's Convention, Auxiliary to the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A.

By th emercies of God I have been granted the privilege to make my report in person on the Twenty-fifth Anniversary of this Department and in this historic city of "Brotherly Love." Since I last met with you in this great Christian Fellowship; it has been mine to taste the pains of death. For the Lord has taken to himself my beloved husband, the late Dr. Willis J. Winston. But even as I suffered the greatest sorrow that can come to human experience, I have always felt the unfailing hand of God's love around me. So today I stand strong in the faith secured in the knowledge that earth hath no sorrow that his grace cannot heal.

When I last submitted my report, it was time of world wide confusion; a time of testing of man's age-long endeavor to achieve a true civilization; great principles were at stake and forces were engaged in deadly battle. However, many of us felt that the unrest, social, moral, and spiritual conflict was the direct result of an all out war. We felt that these conditions were only transient and that they would fade away as we set up our machinery for peac. But we recognize now more fully than we did the deep spiritual nature of the conflict and our need of spiritual resources if we are to secure the triumph of the cause we serve.

Our gathering here today should represent a recognition of this truth. We come here as children of God, to confess before him that in his will alone is our true peace, that only by serving him can we be truly free, and that only in the streng h he gives can we serve him effectively. We must not come to him to ask he will do our wills; we may only come to him to be made worthy to be able to do his will.

God's Neglected Children

The writers of the sacred book do not give us many accounts of Jesus' direct contact with children. But in all the incidents recorded there is the indication that Jesus was especially kind and gracious to them and considered them candidates for discipleship. He was deeply offended by the neglect or the postive interference which would keep children from the fellowship in the kingdom of God which he knew to be the purpose of God for them all. He said explicitly "It is not the will of your Father who is in Heaven that one of these little ones should perish." But today there are millions of children who are being handicapped by the conditions under which they are forced to live—in whose way "stumbling blocks" are being placed by their environment, by careless or evil adults and sometimes by well meaning but less informed Christians. Time will not permit me to cite in this report in detail "conditions which are hurting children," but there is available a recent comprehensive survey of the condition of children in the United States through the reports of the White House Conference on Children in a Democracy, in which workers in all phases of child welfare participated. There are no groups in our country who should have a greater interest in their findings than the Christian Church.

The report shows that:

1. The largest percentage of children in the United States of America are living in the areas and in the families which have the lowest income. So that good schools, good medical care, good housing, good recreational facilities, good churches—all these essentials for conserving child life are least available where there are the larger number of children who need them. There is a direct relationship between the lack of these facilities and wholesome child development.

2. Children living in these underprivileged communities have just half the chance of surviving a disease as children living in other neighborhoods.

3. These children are products of unstable parents.

4. These children live under special serious handicaps.
a. Race. b. Religion. c. Creeds. Emotional handicaps.

To all those who bear the name of Jesus Christ it should be more than a matter of grave concern. These children, their bodies stunted or in pain; their minds filled with ugliness and confusion; their spirits crushed by unkindness, neglect, loneliness, and unfair discrimination. How hard it must be for them to hear the voice of God. How difficult for them to walk in his way when there are so many conditions which are hindering in gross and preventable fashion their wholesome development. Beyond our own land are millions more overwhelmed by the calamities of a war for which they bear no responsibility, terrified by cruelties, brutalites, destructions, on a scale never known before in human history. How can they know the love and righteousess of God? How can they come to know the gospel of Jesus Christ?

Our Camp

CAMP—A means of making the Chrisitan life real

On this point the question might well be asked, How much religion is there in camp? or To what extent does the camp contribute to the religious development of the campers? We need not go far for the answers. The primary aim of a church camp is to develop character, to create a love for justice, to practice unselfishness and good will and to live together in peace. Church camping is characterized by an actual experience of living out-of-doors. The Twenty-four hour aday experience provides opportunities for Christian community living. This conscious effort to live the Christian way and to practice the teachings of Jesus enriches the life of the camper in a way that no other experience could possibly do.

The church camp helps the campers to worship God in new ways in the out-of-doors.

The heavens above us declare his glory and the earth is full of his praise. Everything that we see, possess or enjoy has its existence, its form and use and properties from the all creative mind. We are clothed from his flocks and fields. We walk in his strength. He delights us with the beauty and he instructs us with the variety of his works. There is mystery in the leaf and the blade of grass. There is grandeur in the forests, the mountains and the oceans. There is an exhaustless richness in the sunlight, in the seasons and the productions of the earth. Thus the camper is brought close to his creator.

National Camp

We know you are interested in young people. You are concerned that their lives be committed to Christ and his church. We, of the Youth Department, led and encouraged by our National Director, Mrs. Etta Frye, have earnestly sought ways to challenge our youth to meet the demand of a new day in religious thought and spiritual leadership—A Christian Camp for the Youth of our Churches is the great new challenge. Somewhere out in the wide open spaces of God's World, we are going to establish a National Camp to afford our youth an opportunity of vital Christian living together the Christ way, while on a hill or by the waterside, guided in programs which will help them find God, through a growing experience in Christ, through natural resources, which will make more effective, the total program of the church.

Won't you give us your prayers, your spirited leadership and cooperation? We must raise $2,000.00 at this September meeting. Will you be one of the first to start this camp—by pledging $100.00 towards this project. A National Camp is President Burroughs dream, and the dream of all. The persons or states giving $100.00 will have their names engraved on a plaque which will be placed in the administration building of the camp. Be a Pioneer! Those who pioneer must be remembered in history by what they have done. Have your name among the first who will give $100.00 toward the establishing of this camp.

I have been given charge of this project and am soliciting your cooperation to make the National Camp a reality. Pay as much as you can now.

Respectfully submitted,

BERTHA C. WINSTON

ANNUAL REPORT

MRS. CORENNE WATTS, Southern Director

Madam President:

It is with unspeakable joy that I have come to give an account of my stewardship. "Not by might, nor by power, but by my Spirit saith the Lord." This has been my watchword. "Take and break me and make me, choose me and use me for thy glory," has been my heart's desire.

In the midst of changing world crisis, war clouds again hovering over the youth of the nation, yet Baptist youths are going forward with much expectation for a program that will inspire and inform them in their Christian endeavor.

So in the midst of these upheavels we come to this beautiful and historical City of Brotherly Love, giving thanks to God for the twenty-five years of existence of the Young People's Department and for the Christian womanhood who were called together twenty-five years ago, having in them the mind of Christ, the love of Christ, seeking the wisdom of Christ, pleading sincerely to Christ for a clear vision and guidance; praying to be led in the way of Christ, knowing the word of Christ which led them into doing the will of Christ. It was the consecrated Christians who answered the call. The purpose was to do the work of Christ through an organized method, planning a program by which the Baptist youth of this great nation and youth everywhere can have in them minds of Christ.

Tomorrow the Christian youths will become our great leaders in missions and religious education. The Christians need this equipment more today than any time. We must have the mind of Christ before we can live the life of Christ or do the work of Christ. The content, the quality and state of the mind is the clue to life.

What then is the mind of Christ? What constitutes the structure of his thoughts? What does he think about God? About man? About himself? What was his philosophy of life? We know that the mind of Christ was pure and unselfish, reverent and humble, discerning and courageous, sympathetic and forgiving, unprejudiced and balanced, integrated and peaceful. We may well think of the major directions of the mind of our Saviour—First, the mind toward God was this: He is my father and my supreme desire is to please him. "Lo I come to do Thy will, Oh God." Often the word of Jesus declares His absolute devotion to His father, "I do always the things that please Him—Not My will but Thine be done," "I have glorified Thee on earth; I have finished the work which Thou gave h me to do." The passion of His heart and purpose of His mind were to please and honor His father.

Jesus' mind toward man was this: Man was lost and in desparate need of spiritual redemption. They are mine and I yearn to save them; they have infinite possibilities for development and no one is hopeless. For an example, Jesus said "the Son of man is come to seek and to save that which was lost." "Other sheep I have which are not of this fold: them also I must bring." Jesus had compassion upon the helpless and hopeless, the unlovely and outcast. One thought alone filled all His days and nights, one sole desire to win man back to God. With respect to himself His mind was that of a complete self-surrender and self-dedication. He was willing to dedicate, he was willing to invest his life in the life of service. When he came to the crucial struggle in Gethsemane the templer, "Save thyself." Jesus said, "My father's will be done."

The concept of life which mastered Christ was that it should be spent without reservation to glorify God and to bless mankind. He thus demonstrated the eternal principle that life is saved by being lost. It should be obvious therefore what it will mean to Christian youth to have the mind of Christ. God must be first. God must be loved supremely. Paul faced the issue of life and death and then wrote, "We make it our aim to be well pleasing to the Lord." Around us today are wars and crisis. Multitudes of men and women, children and young people are enslaved to sin, burdened by fear. Christians are the only agents of Christ in transmitting the life giving message, providing moral and spiritual resources to live life victoriously.

Tomorrow is nearer than it has ever been, although youth has always fought the battle of the world. It has been different to world problems. Civic duties and responsibilities have plunged them into the swift current of life without a true basis for determining cause and effect, yet youth has always contributed something to the world, and with every new generation a turn is in civilization that is determined by the spirit of youth.

Our leaders of youth should know that God has called and chosen them to lead youth into the field of service, and God expects you to use every means that is right to improve your leadership. To be consistent Christian leaders we must be consistent followers of Christ. If we expect the young people to be successful in their leadership tomorrow we cannot wait until the day after tomorrow to provide the best in leadership. Youth influenced by slothful, tardy, uninformed, often absent leaders build up an attitude of slothfulness and indifference. Would one control the future? Then let him lead youth in the right way. The religious activities of tomorrow are in the hands of the consecrated leaders of today. So let us lead, constantly offering self up to God, asking to be shown His will, constantly in prayer, trusting and believing He who points the stars of the heavens their courses will not fail to direct the soul which has no other aim than to do His will. So as servants of God we must look high enough for his guidance, encourage our souls to cultivate meekness, seek understanding that we be apt to see the least sight of his will. Let us stand with girdled loins and lighted lamps and prompt to obey his will as laborers together with God. Our hopes, our aims they are all one.

Working wholeheartedly with our President and organizer, Dr. Nannie Helen Burroughs, founder of this Department, and Mrs. Etta Versa Frye, who served for some years as our Eastern Director, whom God has blessed in consecrated fellowship and is the leader of this great host of Baptist Youth, who have provided for us a program full of inspiration, information and aspiration through Ten Objectives definitely leading into a field of service at home and abroad.

A challenge to youth in building a beller world with Mrs. Bertha C. Winston, Eastern Director, Miss Primrose Funches, Western Director and the directors of young people in the locals, districts and state. .

We come to the Twenty-fifth Anniversary Celebration of the Young People's Department singing the praises of God for the past, counting up the blessings, standing on the summit of the present viewing with perseverance love, hope and trust as we pursue our journey into the years to come, with our whole heart our prayers ascend to God.

Thine Be the Glory

My work has been a pleasure this year with added strength of the omnipotent I have done my best as follows: Visited 514 Churches (2 in California), 64 schools and colleges, 3 hospitals, 4 State Conventions, 10 District Conventions, 5 District B. T. U. and S. S. Congresses, conducted one week of prayer, 2 weeks of camping at Camp Pauline B. Fletcher, visited with the week of camping at Macon Ga., under the leadership of Mrs. Annie Hudson, Mrs. C. M. Pearson, Mrs. Weatherspoon, Miss Christine King and others assisted by the Baptist of the other race on the most beautiful camp sight Georgia Baptist College; conducted 21 Mission Study Institutes, taught 97 Mission Study classes, 49 S. S. Classes, one in Louisville, Ky. I was again invited to visit with the fine Christian women of Louisville, by Mrs. Addie M. Winn, as speaker for Woman's Day. I have received an invitation to visit again the women of Los Angeles, California and Oakland, Calif., through Mrs. N. C. McCreary, Mrs. M. E. Hubbard and Mrs. Marie Winfield along with others who made my last visit a glorious one; conducted 4 Vacation Bible Schools, 3 V.B.S. Clinics, organized 9 Women's Missionary Societies, 7 Young People's Departments, 3 Bible Classes, 7 Sunbeam Bands, delivered 15 Woman's Day addresses, 1 in Louisville, Ky., 1 in Woodland, Ga., attended 1 National Baptist Congress, 1 National Baptist Convention, 1 Regional Meeting, 4 State Board Meetings, the Baptist, World Alliance-CVCVMBGMBFKKGZZ

I have been helped and have tried to help others. So as I come to the close of my year's work my desire has been, "Thy Will Be Done, O Lord, Not Mine." My prayer is "Thine Be the Glory."

Lord speak to me, that I may speak
In living echoes of Thy tone;
As Thou has sought so let me seek
Thy erring children lost and lone.

O teach me, Lord, that I may teach,
The precious things Thou dost impart;
And wing my words that they may reach
The hidden depths of many a heart.

O fill me with Thy fulness, Lord,
Until my very heart o'erflow
In kindling thought and glorious word,
Thy love to tell, Thy praise to show.

O use me, Lord, use even me,
Just as Thou wilt and when and where;
Until Thy blessed face I see,
Thy rest, Thy joy, Thy glory share.

Amen.

Prayerfully submitted,

CORRENE WATTS
