* Call for a National Convention of Colored Baptists.

Dear Brethren: April 5, 1886, an open letter to the Baptist clergy and laymen was issued by Rev. Wm. J. Simmons, an American Baptist, asking if we should have a National Convention to discuss questions of interest to our beloved denominations. At that time the following reasons were given:

1. To promote personal piety, sociability, and a better knowledge of each other.

2. To be able to have an understanding as to the great ends to be reached by the denomination.

3. To encourage our literary men and women, and promote the interests of Baptist literature.

4. To discuss questions pertaining especially to the religious, educational, industrial, and social interests of our people.

5. To give an opportunity for the best thinkers and writers to be heard.

6. That, united, we may be more powerful for good and strengthen our pride in the denomination.

Having been solicited to write the Call by many whose names and endorsements are hereunto affixed, the Call is hereby made by their advice and solicitations for said convention to meet in St. Louis, Mo., August 25, 1886, 10 o'clock a.m., in the First Baptist Church, and the pastor thereof is hereby requested to serve as a Committee of Arrangements, with power to select his associates.

Wm. H. Steward, Louisville, Ky., and Rev. R. H. Cole, 2609 Goode Avenue, St. Louis, are hereby requested to serve as a Committee on Transportation.

WM. J. SIMMONS.

The chronological report in our National Baptist Minutes is hereby corrected, viz: The parties as they appear below were officers of the Foreign Missions or National Educational Conventions, as were their predecessors. Said conventions merged into the National Baptist Convention in 1886 or met co-jointly with it, or otherwise.

CONVENTION THEME HYMN

"My Hope Is Built"

My hope is built on nothing less
Than Jesus' blood and righteousness;
I dare not trust the sweetest frame,
But wholly lean on Jesus' name.

Refrain
On Christ, the solid Rock, I stand; All other ground
Is sinking sand. All other ground is sinking sand.

When darkness veils His lovely face,
I rest on his unchanging grace;
In every high and stormy gale,
My anchor holds within the veil.

His oath, his covenant, His blood,
Support me in the whelming flood;
When all around my soul gives way,
He then is all my hope and stay.

When He shall come with trumpet sound,
Oh, may I then in Him be found;
Dressed in His righteousness alone,
Faultless to stand before the throne.

Resolution to Item 5, on Agenda:

Since the fiscal year of our commercial boards ends June 30th, and since it is expected that said boards turn over their profits to the convention for allocation to the work of the convention after a reasonable reserve has been set aside for operations, emergencies, and expansions annually; be it resolved, that the Board of Directors request said boards to report on the amount of their profits in the September board meeting, at which time the Board of Directors in conference with the representatives of commercial boards, will decide to what phase of our conventions' work will said profits be given, all of which will be presented to the convention for its approval.

Resolution to Item 6, on Agenda:

Be it resolved, that the Board of Directors, first of all, express profound appreciation to the secretary of the Publishing Board, and all of the faithful members of said board, for the remarkable way in which this board has helped to carry the financial obligations of our National Baptist Convention. Be it further resolved, that we as a Board of Directors, do all we can, to relieve the Publishing Board of some of these unusual responsibilities and allow it to concentrate in the field of its specialization, namely, the publishing and sale of our literature, thus giving this board a chance to greatly improve both the publishing, and the distributing of its literature. And, since the secretary of the Publishing Board is also the manager of the Publishing House, be it further resolved, that in the future, his reports shall be divided in two distinct parts, one that deals specifically with the work of the Publishing Board, and the other with the Publishing House.

Be it further resolved, that the Board of Directors request the management of the Publishing House, to furnish them a statement both on the total rental income from said house, and the expense of up-keep and maintenance, including the expense of insurances, etc., so that the Board of Directors may know what is the total annual income, and the total annual expense in reference to the Publishing House. This is very important, in the light of the fact that we shall not always be blessed to have in one man, the ability to handle both of these responsibilities.

Suggestion:

It has been suggested that the request for contributions in the Diamond Jubilee, or the Seventy-Fifth Anniversary of our National Baptist Convention, shall be divided as follows: (A) $750.00; (b) $75.00; (c) $7.50; (d) $.75.

It has also been suggested that the Class A gifts would include state conventions, associations and churches. Class B, to include officials of the National Baptist Convention, including members of the Board of Directors, pastors and churches, who feel that they cannot qualify for any other class. Class C, to include delegates to the convention. Class D, to include members of local churches who would like to enter their names in a kind of Book of Memory. If there be the Book of Memory, the leaves will be uniform, and made available to each state association and church.

The primary purpose of these finances, shall be the building of a capital fund from which shall be constructed the Ministerial Retirement Program of our convention. Said fund is to be invested on the same principle as an endowment fund.

MINUTES OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

NATIONAL BAPTIST CONVENTION, U. S. A., INC.

St. Louis, Missouri

Thursday, September 9, 1954

The Board of Directors met in the Brown Room of the Central Y. M. C. A. Thursday, September 9, 1954 at 6:00 P.M., with President J. H. Jackson presiding. Dinner preceeded the calling of the Board to order for business.

President Jackson announced the agenda for the meeting. The first item concerned a problem at the Sunday School Publishing House. Following a brief background statement by President Jackson, Mrs. Clarice Covington Sampson was presented to speak with regard to a labor problem at the Sunday School Publishing House in Nashville Tennessee. Mrs. Sampson's statement emphasized the following:

> She went to work in the Publishing House June 1, 1948. In 1952 an impairment in her hearing began to develop. This condition resulted from working under untoward conditions in the Second Class Mailing Room. She went to Dr. A. M. Townsend to ask relief. He refused to act. She was laid off Later February 19, 1954, she received a check for $216.00 plus and dismissed from work.
> Mrs. Sampson felt that her disability was due to the unsatisfactory working conditions. She thinks that her dismissal was unfair. She desires to be reinstated on the job, to be reimbursed for the time lost, and to obtain security on the job. She also feels that the deductions which included withholding taxes and insurance premiums were unlawfully made. Under questioning, Mrs. Sampson stated that she did not know why she was dismissed.

When the question of jurisdiction in the dispute was raised by Dr. Roland Smith, President Jackson made it clear that the problem had been brought to him as President of the National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Inc., and that it was proper for the Board of Directors to take the question under advisement for definite action. He suggested that a Committee be appointed to study the problem and seek a solution. On a motion, the President was authorized to appoint a Committee to take up the matter with the Sunday School Publishing Board. The committee named included Rev. W. T. Crutcher, Attorney A. T. Walden and Dr. A. L. Pinkston. President Jackson suggested that the committee talk with the officials of the Labor Union at the Publishing House. The Board voted to accept the suggestion. President Jackson suggested that the Board of Directors assume the expense incurred by Mrs. Sampson while she is in St. Louis. He suggested further that in case it becomes necessary for the Committee to make a trip to Nashville, Tennessee, in the discharge of its duties, the expense be paid by the Board of Directors. Both suggestions were approved by the Board.

President Jackson asked that the Boards which made profits during the year inform the Board of Directors specifically so that the Board might make recommendations for the proper distributions of said profits to the Convention. No precise, written reports were made by any Board. However, Dr. H. H. Humes did report verbally that over $2,000.00 (Two Thousand Dollars) in profits had been made during the year by the Bath House.

Dr. Marshall Shepard made the report of the Committee appointed to select a person write a history of the Convention for the Diamond Jubilee. The Committee recommended that Mr. Roi Ottley, a distinguished author of Chicago, Ill., be engaged to write the history. On motion by Dr. J. Pius Barbour, seconded by several, the Board voted to approve the recommendation. Dr. J. L. Caston moved that the contract with certain specifications to be made with Mr. Ottley be drawn in the light of the information given the Board of Directors by the Committee so as to include the following limitations:

a. A Two-year limit for its production; and

b. A salary of not more than $150.00 per week excluding travel.

The motion was properly seconded, and was approved by the Board.

President Jackson asked that the Board of Directors put a ceiling on the operational expenses of all officers. No specific action on this matter was taken by the Board at the time.

On a motion by Dr. H. H. Humes, seconded by Dr. Marshall Shepard, the Board voted that the $1,200.00 spent by the President's office during the past year be paid. The motion was carried.

Dr. Cornell E. Talley moved that the President be given an honorarium of $2,000.00 (Two Thousand Dollars). Dr. A. L. Pinkston seconded the motion. The motion was carried.

Dr. T. J. Jemison, Secretary, reported that $60,000.00 had been raised to date and that 1,050 delegates had been registered.

The Board voted to hear the report of the Budget Committee. Rev. A. L. Davis read the Budget (See Budget). The reading was followed by discussion. In answer to the question, "Are members of the Board of Directors to be reimbursed for expenses incurred in attending Board Meetings?", President Jackson declared that "Members of the Board of Directors are paid only when an extra meeting is called." In answer to the question concerning the expenses of the Commissions, President Jackson stated that "No sum has been set for the Commission pending knowledge to be gained from experience." He stated that the Commissions were being asked to keep careful and accurate records of the expenses incurred and to report the same to the President.

Dr. H. H. Humes moved that the Secretary, Dr. T. J. Jemison, be reimbursed for indebtedness incurred in the operation of his office during the past year. The motion was properly seconded and carried.

A motion that the President's Annual Address be broadcast and televised was amended to include reduction to printing and wide diffusion among Baptists and other groups was properly seconded and approved. The President indicated his desire to have the address distributed by the Convention free of charge to all registered delegates.

President Jackson pointed out that the National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Inc. reached new high ground in the recent session of the World Council of Churches held at Evanston, Illinois. He stated that for the first time in history the National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Inc., was given consideration by the World Council of Churches.

Dr. Humes asked that all the officers be present Sunday morning to hear the President preach. Dr. F. M. Massey moved that a vote of thanks be given the President and his corps of officers for the fine job they have done. The motion was duly seconded and carried.

Dr. M. L. King commended Dr. J. E. Nance and his Committee for the unusual entertainment given the Convention and moved that Dr. Nance and the Committee be given a vote of thanks. The motion was properly seconded and carried.

Dr. Cornell E. Talley raised a question concerning the contention of Dr. Nance regarding the vice-presidency. After extended discussion, the president ruled that in the light of the Constitution there was nothing the Board could do about the matter at this time.

Dr. Humes moved that the Pittsburgh Courier and others of the press be given a vote of thanks for the fine coverage given the convention.

The benediction was given by Rev. J. C. Wade.

1. Is it wise or possible to consolidate the educational work of the women of our convention under one school?
2. Is it possible to combine the work of the Missionary Training School in Nashville, and the work of the Girl's School at Lincoln Heights, Washington, D. C.?
3. Would it be asking too much to ask that a committee from the parent body and from the Women's Convention study these possibilities?
4. If the building that is now used for the Missionary Training School were no longer needed for that purpose, could that building be used as a home for retired ministers?
5. Would it be an advantage to have a home for retired ministers in a city like Nashville where they would have access to some of the best hospitals and one of the finest sanitariums in the country?

X. Walter H. Brooks Student Center, Howard University.
XI. Oratorical Contest, theme to be the same as last year. States will be asked to conduct elimination contests and each state will be expected to send its contestant to the Memphis convention.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

NATIONAL BAPTIST CONVENTION, U. S. A., INC.

In Session — Memphis, Tennessee, June 7, 1955

At the Hot Springs meeting in January of this year the Board of Directors took certan action regarding the Convention properties there in Hot Springs as follows:

1. The Bath House Section was instructed to receive the management of this Unit.
2. The Board of Directors ordered that a Certified Public Accountant, other than the Convention Auditor, make an audit as a basis for the turn-over from the previous Commission in charge to the Bath-House Committee.
3. The Board of Directors also ordered that the proposal relative to an understudy be accepted.

This report then concerns itself primarily with how the Board's instructions have been carried out.

Immediately following the Hot Springs meeting referred to above, an agreement on contract was reached with a general Manager, and the Secretary of the Finance Commission informed of the Bath-House Section's selection. The manager reported in accordance with his contract, but was never authorized by the Finance Commission to secure any information, either from the records or from the employees. In fact, the Finance Commission Secretary "insisted" that the incoming manager limit his presence there until such time as the turn-over was made. This the manager could not do under the terms of his contract and the instructions of the chairman of the Bath House Committee, although he had to pay rent for such periods as he was able to obtain a room in the building.

After several attempts by your Chairman to obtain a Committee meeting in Hot Springs at a time Financial Commission representatives could be there had failed, Dr. Townsend advised your Chairman that he would be in Hot Springs for the purpose of winding up on March 27 through 31st and would make the complete turn-over on April 1st.

Accordingly, your Committee met there and found the Convention Auditor and his staff engaged in making an audit, which, Dr. Townsend stated would be the basis for the turn over.

Despite a staff of some six persons, part of whom arrived on March 25th, and the fact that only the first three months of 1955 were involved, the audit was not completed until the evening of April 2nd. Your Committee was not advised along any lines until handed the previous Commission's report which merely referred to the audit report on most points, and no information contained in it was discussed prior to its being handed to the Committee Representatives. For instant, your Committee requested a spot check of the room inventory before signing a receipt for sam. Of the fifteen rooms selected at random for the spot check, nine did not agree with the inventory schedule.

The turn-over consisted of the release of the employee group, and of physical properties, Unit Bank accounts, Unit Books, and the Unit operating Insurance policies. Fire insurance policies have subsequently been sent to the Secretary of the Committee for forwarding to the Treasurer of the Convention. The turn-over did not include the deeds, etc. which are presumably in the possession of the Treasurer of the National Baptist Convention.

No audit by a Certified Public Accountant other than the Convention Auditor has yet been made as of the turn-over date as directed by the Board in January. As far as can be determined at the present time neither the cost of the audit by the Convention auditor nor such bonuses as were paid certain employees appear on the books of the Unit.

The Committee recognizes the $18,000.00 owed the Foreign Mission Board although it does not appear on the books.

Since the turn-over most of our work has been organizational and Public Relations. The present management has submitted for the approval of the Committee an Organization Chart, a Schedule of Approved Salary limits, a Schedule of Room Rates, and is submitting weekly reports to the Chairman, and general reports on all phases of operation to the Committee.

Your Chairman personally had conferences with the permanent tenants who are in arrears with their rent at the Hot Springs Unit.

It is hoped that the Board recognizes as does the Committee, that current patronage is more strongly a reflection of the past management, and that results of the present management will be more closely indicated in future reports. For instance, some of the Conventions already secured for the Hot Springs project will not meet until sometime in 1956.

There are however, some new attitudes which are visable now. Probably the two items you are most interested in are:

1. The proposal we are submitting to give some consideration to the members of the Convention when they go to Hot Springs to stay and bathe. We feel this is not only good business, but just and proper inasmuch as it was through these same channels that we were able to bring this project to its present state.
2. It is the opinon of your Committee that henceforth the project should take care of itself not on the basis of continued contributions, but from the earnings realized from its great potential through sound business policies and management, and we are preparing to pay the September installment on the purchase price without coming to the Convention, or at least a greater part of the installment without straining the Convention.

A TRIBUTE—IN MEMORIAM

We beg to pause long enough and bow befitting reverence to our Heavenly Father, who doeth all things well, to pay merited tribute to our yoke-fellow, Rev. Clarence C. Bass, who suddenly, while in harness fell from our ranks, June 1953.

This tribute is dictated by the filial as well as the ecclesiastical tie, which bound us together, as a co-worker and loyal supporter over the years, as a member of the Board of Directors, of the Sunday School Publishing Board, of the National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Inc., and, we therefore, are hereby placing a wreath of Immortelles upon his memory.

We cannot mourn for our comrade, for, being such a character as he was, we well know whither he has gone and he is now resting from his labors, and enjoying the unfolding of our Saviour's promise: "Be thou faithful unto Death, and I will give thee a Crown of Life."

"His works do follow him"

The Work of the Convention Year 1953-1954

The Sunday School Publishing Board continues to perform co-operatively and faithfully its tasks, and the responsibilities with which it is charged in the production and distribution of the Sunday School literature, religious publications, and standard song books, etc., for our great denominational constituency. In addition, the Sunday School Publishing Board continues giving co-operation and support to certain activities of the National Baptist Convention, which we carry as contingent liabilities, including payments on the outstanding indebtedness of the rehabilitation of the National Baptist Sanitarium-Bath House, Hot Springs, National Park, Arkansas, etc., etc.

Some one asks: Where do the Profits of the operation of the Sunday School Publishing Board go?

It is to these objectives of the National Baptist Convention, even at the sacrifice of its own expansion program, that a great part of the operating profits of the Sunday School Publishing Board goes each year.

AUDIT REPORT

For Fiscal Period July 1, 1953 to June 30, 1954

September 4, 1954

Dr. L. H. Jackson, President
National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc.
St. Louis, Missouri
My dear Mr. President:

It is a pleasure to hand you herewith the annual audit of the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Incorporated, for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1954. It will be observed that, in this audit, your auditor has reviewed in detail the transactions of the Finance Committee for the period, July 1, 1953 to and including June 30, 1954.

It is hoped that, as president of the Convention, you will impress upon the Board of Directors the fact that this year's audit went much further than is customary. In their consideration of the report, it is hoped that your auditor will be awarded extra compensation for the extra work involved during the year just ended. The extra work is evident from a study of the report.

Respectfully submitted,

AUDITOR'S COMMENT

Consolidated Balance Sheet

This statement is prepared for the purpose of showing in a composite manner, and at a glance what the book values of the combined assets of the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc., amount to, when considered in addition to those of its subsidiaries, boards, commissions, and departments. In arriving at these combined figures, all amounts due from one of the units to another have been eliminated, as to do otherwise would be to duplicate assets and liabilities in the consolidated balance sheet.

While the total current assets are less than a year ago by approximately $27,000.00, the current liabilities are less by $41,000.00. It must also be borne in mind that the full effect of the Hot Springs development is reflected in the statements for the first time this year. The officers and directors of the Convention already know, and the reader is reminded that the Hot Springs project has just reached the stage where it could be adequately reported.

It will be seen from an examination of the unassigned funds (that is, net worth) as reflected in the consolidated balance sheet amounted to $178,937.30 more than a year ago. As a matter of fact, only by this over-all summary can one observe the development of the Convention as a whole and determine what has happened to the profits which have been realized from the business boards, and what has been saved out of income derived from other sources.

Statutory Profit and Loss Statement—Business Boards Only

An examination of this exhibit reveals that there was a considerable drop in net profit from these boards as compared with the fiscal period ended June 30, 1953. This decrease was due mainly to the lowered net income of the Sunday School Publishing Board. This board increased its gross sales by approximately $36,000.00 in fiscal 1954 as compared with fiscal 1953, but its cost of sales rose from 41% of net sales to 46% of that account. All other ratios remained about the same as the year before. It is true, nevertheless, that this board earned a net profit of 10.1 per cent of its net sales in the year just closed. This is a net showing of which most businesses of this type would be greatly pleased.

The B. T. U. Board showed a considerably worse showing in the year just closed than in the prior year. This was due, in part to the fact that this board moved its base of operations from its Gay Street location to a space in the Morris Memorial Building. It must also be borne in mind that this board is paying a $7,000.00 annual salary to its incapacitated corresponding secretary. This necessarily works a hardship on the operations of the unit.

The Sanitarium-Bath House managed to close the fiscal year showing a net profit of $2,211.66. It will be recalled that this unit lost its general manager in January due to an air craft accident. For this reason, your auditor has determined separately, the profit and loss picture for the first seven months of the fiscal year, and the last five months. During the first seven months, the unit lost approximately $9,000.00, but under the present management a profit of $11,000.00 was made in the last five months of the fiscal period. This was due, partly, to the fact that the "season" lay principally in the last five months, but more importantly because the present management is resident at the unit, and operates more conservatively in so far as expenses are concerned.

Office of the President of the Convention

When requested to do so by your auditors, the president of the Convention promptly filed with your auditors a detailed account of all expenditures made by him on behalf of the Convention during his tenure in office. He also listed in detail all sources of funds which were handled by him. A review of the president's travels and number and importance of meetings which command his presence convinces your auditors that he is conservative in the use of the Convention's funds and credit, and generous in the use of his time and talent, and those of his staff. The president's expenditures for expenses of his office, his travel and that of his staff amounted to $1,241.85 more than his allowances for these purposes. Your auditors are of the opinion that this amount is a legitimate obligation of the Convention. Its payment to the president is recommended.

Offices of the Corresponding Secretary and of the Convention Treasurer

The procedures as laid down in the by-laws of the Convention require that all funds received by the Convention for any and all purposes shall pass through the hands of the secretary, be recorded by him, then sent (or passed over) to the treasurer. In some instances funds were received from original sources by the treasurer, hence are not reflected on the records of the secretary. The proceeds of the Gay Street (BTU) property in Nashville is an example. The procedures do not, of course, extend to the redeposit of no good checks since they do not represent original receipts of funds. Except for this deviation from procedure, the books and records of both these officers were found to reflect accurately the cash transactions of the Convention for the period from the date the offices were turned over to them to and including June 30, 1954. All funds entrusted to these officers appear to be fully accounted for. The accounts of both are in perfect reconcilement one with the other. (New provisions of the by-laws are not yet operative as to the above described procedure.) The treasurer of the Convention is bonded in a solvent surety company in an amount suggested by your auditors in consultation with the Convention president and its attorney.

There is a recoverable amount of $125.00 which the secretary paid to Attorney Johnnie N. Jones of Baton Rouge, Louisiana. This amount was paid to the attorney in order that he might secure a bond for the secretary. Since the secretary does not handle funds except to pass them along, the board of directors evidently felt that a bond was unnecessary. Thus, the money has not been used at all and should be placed back in the hands of the secretary as the agent of the Convention.

The secretary of the Convention overspent his budget in the amount of $464.35. In the opinion of your auditor, this expenditure was in the interest of the convention. A reimbursement is recommended.

The National Baptist Voice

The editor filed with your auditor his records for the year. The records were found in order. It was noted, however, that the new provisions of the by-laws which required a definite percentage of registration be passed along to the Voice as its subscription fees, has not been observed. The editor received only $2,500.00 from this source. The Sunday School Publishing Board is still bearing the major portion of the publication of this organ.

The Finance Commission

The reader's attention is called to a pertinent paragraph in the reports of your auditor for the past five years touching this unit of the Convention. It will be recalled that the Finance Commission has devoted the major portion of its energies for that period in the construction and promotion of the Hot Springs unit. This unit is now complete and in operation on a profitable basis. It occurred to your auditor that the Convention was now entitled to a complete analysis and review of the cost of this project. Accordingly, we have prepared and present as a part of this report a schedule appropriately titled which show the complete analysis of the expenditures of the Finance Commission for the period July 1, 1949 to and including June 30, 1954. Every disbursement was examined by your auditor and classified in accordance with his best judgment. Since your auditor has attended all meetings of the Commission having to do with the Hot Springs unit, he is familiar with its development, promotion, and management. The readers attention is invited to the schedule which outlines the disbursements of the Finance Commission for the past five years. Also, the reader is invited to inspect the schedule which analyses the cost of the project as now constituted.

It will be seen from an examination of these schedules that the principal source of funds for this project was the Sunday School Publishing Board. The contributions made by constituents of the Convention and its friends are not to be overlooked. These people made cash contributions to the Bath House Campaign in an amount of considerably more than $100,000.00. A schedule showing these contributions in summary is also made a part of this report. These contributions to May, 1954 were reported by name in the May issue of the National Baptist Voice. A copy of this publication is maintained with our working papers and is made a part of this report by reference thereto. It will also be seen that long and short term borrowing provided temporary funds for the Hot Springs development. The longer term borrowing was through the Fulton National Bank of Atlanta and Blamiya, Incorporated of Atlanta, and through credit provided largely by Dr. L. A. Bowman, treasurer of the Finance Commission. In these transactions, the records show that he acted as agent for undisclosed principals. It is pointed out that short term credit, except through the Citizens Trust Company of Atlanta has not been generally available to the Commission for this purpose. It was important, therefore, that the Commission make use of the facilities which Doctor Bowman and his clients (or principals) made possible because of the credit which he enjoyed in the Nashville money market. Other persons and institutions also provided some temporary loan funds to the Commission. (See, also schedule made a part of this report which outlines all loans which have been repaid during this five year period, separated as to principal. If this division is not perfect, it is in accordance with the records.)

In studying the ANALYSES OF LOANS PAID it must not be understood that the loans repaid to individuals and banks represent the full amounts shown for the full five year period. For the most part, except for those made by Blamiya, Incorporated and the Fulton National Bank which have been constantly reducing, these loans represent payments of old ones, and borrowing to take the place of those paid. The entire loan liability is set forth in an appropriately titled schedule. While the Fulton National and the Blamiya lines were combined to start with, the Fulton National part thereof has been fully liquidated, and the Commission now owes Blamiya only $32,000.00. During the period, July 1, 1949 to June 30, 1954, this line, (Fulton National Blamiya) has been as large as $150,000.00. This schedule (notes Payable Finance Commission, June 30, 1954) is presented in detail because it is the opinion of the auditor that the Convention should know the sources of the funds which made the Hot Springs development possible.

At the expense of repetition, your auditor again calls your attention to the fact that the funds which made the Hot Springs Project possible were provided by the Sunday School Publishing Board most of its net profit has been devoted to this purpose for this period, borrowings as indicated, and contributions by individuals and groups as outlined in the May issue of the National Baptist Voice in that order.

Sunday School Publishing Board

The part played by this board in the overall operation of the Convention as a whole is referred to in sundry places in this, and other reports. It is necessary to say here, then only, that this board is efficiently managed. Its records compare favorably with the most modern accounting methods employed by current American businesses of the highest type.

Your auditor is mindful of the requirements of the Convention that all business boards shall, after providing for the ensuing year's operations, turn over all its profits to the Convention for its purposes. In the case of the Sunday School Publishing Board, it has already spent more in the interest of the Convention, or its units, than its profits for the next fiscal year can possibly be. The Board owes more than $100,000.00 in loans at June 30, 1954. Its income can easily support this line, but it cannot be expected to liquidate this line of credits and at the same time provide the major portion of the funds which the Convention may require for its other religious and educational purposes, not at least, during the fiscal year coming up. Because of its enormous contribution to Convention units, this board is often hard put to handle its current costs. The inevitable result is that the board seeks loans locally, or through the Citizens Trust Company. Loans, except those through Citizens Trust Company of Atlanta, and other well established banking institutions are likely to command higher rates of interest than those charged by Member banks.

Baptist Training Union Board

During the fiscal year closed June 30, 1954, this board was forced to move its operations from the former location on Gay Street in Nashville to a suite of rooms on the second floor of the Morris Memorial Building in the same city. The Board had heretofore carried on its books the depreciated book value of the building which it occupied as well as the land on which the building stood. These items were carried in the Board's assets at the net value of $11,632.68. During the year the City of Nashville acting under its right of imminent domain, condemned the property and purchased it for public purposes. The title to this property resided in the parent body, The National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc. Although the proceeds of the sale amounted to $32,467.45 (see audit report of Convention Treasurer), the BTU Board was forced to write off the asset thus reducing its surplus by the sum of $11,632.68.

When the BTU Board moved from its old to its new location it was found that much of its inventory was not salable. In collaboration with the acting secretary of this Board, your auditors have written $10,000.00 from the book inventory. A test check of the valuation of the values at which these useless items of stock were carried convinced your auditors and the Board's management that the figure of $10,000.00 was approximately correct. The write-off of this item has been handled in such a way that the result is not that of affecting the profit and loss showing of the Board for the fiscal year just closed.

When evaluating this board and its management on the basis of its net loss for the year just ended, the reader should bear in mind that the Corresponding Secretary is ill and has been for the entire fiscal year. He has not been able to make any contribution to the management and production of the Board. Notwithstanding this condition of health and his nonproductivity, the Board paid him his usual salary of $7,000.00. If this item were not in the expenses of the Board a net profit of nearly $5,000.00 would have been shown instead of a loss. It should be said therefore, that the current management did operate the Board at a profit.

While your auditors were able to successfully audit this Board, it should be frankly stated that a professionally trained bookkeeper should be employed. The records cannot be handled in a professional manner in any other way. The services of present personnel could be profitably utilized in ways discussed with the Board-administration by your auditors. Your auditors make a statement to the management of this board which is equally applicable to all those boards and departments of the National Baptist Convention, USA, Inc., which do not employ professionally trained bookkeepers as to the BTU Board. That statement was: "ONLY PERSONS PROFESSIONALLY TRAINED TO KEEP BOOKS CAN KEEP THEM PROPERLY AS ONE CANNOT PLAY THE CHURCH ORGAN WHO HAS NOT STUDIED THAT PHASE OF MUSIC, SO ONE WHO IS NOT TRAINED TO KEEP BOOKS CANNOT KEEP BOOKS"

Foreign Mission Board

The board is well managed, well financed, and its records compare favorably with the best American standards.

The board has outstanding loans to affiliates as follows: $18,000.00 to the Woman's Auxiliary Convention, and $25,000.00 to the Convention proper. This is not a business board. It does, occassionally sell literature, etc., but this is not important in its income schedule

The board now has as its bookkeeper an able accountant. Its records are understandable and reliable. Exhibits and schedules provided in this report for this board are such as to make excessive comment unnecessary.

The Home Mission Board

Except for the corresponding secretary, evidently members of this Board are not seriously concerned about its operations. As has been pointed out for several years, this board does not receive sufficient funds to make a creditable showing in Home Missions. It receives so little that the major part of its income is used for administration. The board had no adequate accounting system. The checks and bank accounts of the corresponding secretary are often confused with those of the Board. Loans are secured from sundry individuals, but your auditor could not tell which, nor how much of such borrowings had been repaid. As a matter of fact, the affairs of the board are run more like those of an individual. The corresponding secretary is not necessarily at fault in this. His fund sources are so meager as to cause him to resort to other than the most modern business practices in the administration of his office. The balances in bank statements exhibited may or may not represent genuine balances—since many checks may be outstanding. Any way, the corresponding secretary's personal bank statement was submitted to your auditor because some of the Board's checks were drawn against it. And, again, no bank statement was submitted for one of the banks with which the Board is reported to do business.

The Ministerial Benefit Board

Your auditor visited the office of this board in Chattanooga and was impressed with the orderly job being done by its corresponding secretary. The Board is seriously underfinanced. If it is to do a sound and important insurance job such as its purposes would indicate, it must have more funds. The board strives to maintain separately its fund for current operations and its relief fund. Its total income is so small that it cannot well do either. The balance of the funds of this board are presumed to be in the custody of the corresponding secretary but no bank statement was submitted.

Woman's Auxiliary Convention

At the request of the treasurer of the Auxiliary, your auditors did not visit her office for audit this year. Instead, the treasurer sent her records to our offices. The treasurer was going to be out of her state for several weeks when her books were requested. Your auditors were supplid with cancelled checks, vouchers, check stubs, and what was said to be all duplicate receipts for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1954. Evidently several duplicate receipt books were not sent to us. When an examination was made of the bank statements it was found that more than $15,000.00 was deposited than is accounted for by duplicate receipt books as provided to us. We had no choice except to list this amount as "from undetermined sources." When the analysis of receipts is compared with that of 1953—and other recent years it is readily seen that all duplicate receipts had not been sent along. This situation was called to the attention of the treasurer of the Auxiliary, but she stated that she made out receipts for all money which she receives and that she had sent all duplicates to our office. We have identified all receipt books which were forwarded to us. The list is filed with our working papers.

It is noted that funds are received for the "J. O. MOORE TRUST FUND." The purpose and extent of this fund it not known to your auditors. If these funds are given under conditions which require their separation and restriction they should be separately maintained and expended only for the purposes intended.

It is observed that checks are often drawn to the president of the Auxiliary Convention in her personal rather than her official capacity. This does not seem quite business like. The reader must not understand, however, that your auditors have found any fault with the purposes for which these checks were issued, nor with the application of the proceeds. The objection is rather, with the practice of making payments to individual officers in their personal capacities instead of to the intended payees. In order that all concerned may know exactly the type of transaction is alluded to in the above comment, the following list of checks scheduled:

In other cases checks are made to "A. M. Townsend" when "A. M. Townsend, Corresponding Secretary, Sunday School Publishing Board" is intended, or "C. C. Adams" when "C. C. Adams, Corresponding Secretary, Foreign Mission Board" is intended, etc.

We would point out that the Woman's Auxiliary Convention is not the only NBC unit which engages in this type of payee designation. Many others do. The caution herein contained is intended for such other units of the NBC as follow the practice described as fully as to the unit specifically discussed.

The exact balance owed on the Minister's Retreat in Washington is not known by your auditors. Information has been requested of the lending agency, however.

The president of the Woman's Auxiliary Convention was requested to file with your auditors a report on all funds handled by her. She replied, as she understood, that she did not handle funds. Procedurally, this is true but since at least checks totaling $37,307.52 were made payable to her personally, and by her negotiated, even though in the interest of the Auxiliary, it could hardly be said that she handled no funds. The above amount, does not, of course, include those checks which were made to the president and intended for her personal use.

American Baptist Theological Seminary

This unit is conducted jointly by the Southern Baptist Convention and the National Baptist Convention, USA, Inc., through a corporation set up for that purpose. Its records are in excellent condition. Its bursar is a good accountant. Its management is able. The Seminary needs additional finances to prosecute its purposes to the extent desired by the president of this Convention and by the management of the Seminary. Nevertheless, in spite of its inadequate financing, the Seminary manages to keep its accounts current. As a professional accountant, your auditor has no criticism of the Seminary's records management.

National Baptist Training School

This unit is financed largely through contributions from the Sunday School Publishing Board, the Finance Commission, the Woman's Auxiliary Convention, Student fees, and its own solicitations. Your auditor is of the opinion that the School is underfinanced, and certainly, its accounting records are not what one would expect for a modern educational institution. Receipts are written for all money received, and checks are drawn for its disbursements are by check but it does not maintain a general ledger. As a matter of fact, if the proper accounting records were installed a professional bookkeeper would be required to keep them. Your auditor is, however, able to report that in his opinion all funds handled have been properly accounted for.

The Laymen's Movement

This unit has filed with your auditor all of its fiscal data. The records of the unit seem to be in order.

National Baptist Sunday School and B.T.U. Congress

This unit maintains accounting records for the most part, only during, and in preparation for its annual convention. Its fiscal affairs seem well ordered. Practically all funds collected by the unit are used in its own program. Your auditor did not reconcile its bank account but accepted the statement of its treasurer that the balance, unimportant in amount, was correct.

Other Boards—Which Did Not Submit Records

The Educational Board
The Moderators' Convention

The several special commissions already in existence and/or provided for in the new by-laws.

In General

During the fiscal year just closed your auditor spent considerably more time assisting in the business administration of the several business boards than he customarily does. It is hoped that the board of directors of the Convention will take this into account in fixing his compensation—even, in addition to the budget provision. More staff and more competent members have been required to prosecute this audit and to do all of the things which have been assigned to your auditor during the fiscal period just closed. At no time has your auditor failed to respond to the request of a board or an officer for professional help and guidance.

OUR CHRISTIAN EDUCATION DEPARTMENT

In as much as this has been a great year for historic changes and progressive strides, it is well to consider its general effect on the whole field of Christian Education, especially in terms of the specifics of Leadership Training.

The forty denominations affiliated with the Division of Christian Education of the National Council of Churches, after years of cooperative planning, produced the significant CONFERENCE ON EDUCATIONAL PROGRAM in 1953. Its revolutionary sequel, THE NATIONAL CONFERENCE ON LAY LEADERSHIP early in 1954, probed way into the future in its broad ramifications into all phases of lay training activities, devices and techniques in the local church.

In all these proclivities the Department of Christian Education of the Sunday School Publishing Board representing the educational arm of the National Baptist Convention, USA., Inc., carried its full load both in planning and participation and distinguished itself with its contributions. (It is now engaged in the planning and promotion of the 23rd International Sunday School Convention scheduled for Cleveland, Ohio, in July, 1955.)

Through accredited leadership schools such as—congresses, institutes, encampments and training conferences it has touched more Baptists than any previous year with an increase in the quantity, variety and quality of the directors, deans, instructors and students under its influence. The growing trend of local church leadership schools and cooperative training enterprises continues with larger numbers served by the Ministry of Education.

The S. N. Vass Award

For the fifth successive year since its inauguration in memory of the founder of the Department of Christian Education, the late Dr. S. N. Vass, a local church, its pastor and outstanding lay leader are honored for outstanding achievement in Christian Education in the closing hours of this convention during the Sunday School Hour. Honorees this year are: Second Baptist Church of Los Angeles, California, its pastor Dr. J. Raymond Henderson, and its lay leader, Dr. W. A. Beck.

This award is given for work done within the framework of the educational program of the National Baptist Convention, USA, Inc., and for loyalty and cooperation with the auxiliaries of the Convention and their prime objectives.

PPROSPECTUS

Screening and evaluations in two major national conferences sponsored by the National Council and forty cooperating denominations have established the fact that nearly everything in procedures, techniques and resources in Christian Education over ten years of age is definitely outmoded.

The Department of Christian Education plans to serve the denomination even more richly in the future by keeping abreast of all such activities, including them in the program and projecting them throughout with the influence of the Convention.

Contributions of the Year to the Sunday School Publishing Board

There are always some interested, loyal and sympathetic donors, who realize that the Sunday School Publishing Board needs assistance in carrying on its work, especially the work of Christian [illegible] and missions.

The Sunday School Publishing Board makes regularly, donations of Sunday School literature, religious publications and tracts, song books, etc., to prisons, jails, detention homes, charitable and benevolent institutions, public libraries, and mission stations in Africa, and Islands of the Sea, that are connected with our Foreign Mission Board, etc.

These donors thereby share with us the joy and the blessing that is ours, in thus contributing our part in the carrying out of our Lord's Great Commission, "Go ye, therefore, and teach all nations: teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and lo, I am with you, always, even unto the end of the world."

GENERAL FINANCIAL STATEMENT

(Statement of operation for the period July 1, 1955-June 30, 1954)

To these donors, the Sunday School Publishing Board wishes to express its great appreciation for this evidence of their loyalty and interest in the work of the Board and especially its Christian Education program.

Note: For detailed Profit and Loss Statement, Balance Sheet, and the disposition of the Profits of the Operation of the Sunday School Publishing Board, for the year ended June 30, 1954, see Auditor's Report.

APPRECIATION AND RECOMMENDATION

The Sunday School Publishing Board recommends your full and hearty cooperation in every way, and especially in patronage of our Sunday School literature, and Christian Education publications, which are as good and as adaptable for standard use, as any published, and in some points excell, and,

We recommend also your unstinted support of our Christian Education Department, that we may be of increasingly larger helpfulness in the training of Christian Education leaders and workers in our churches, and in carrying forward the tasks assigned us for the progress and advancement of the Master's Kingdom, and

We recommend the re-election of the following as members of the Board of Directors of the Sunday School Publishing Board for the year 1954-1955; M. H. Ribbins, A. M. Townsend, L. A. Bowman, A. I. King, A. L. McCargo, J. H. Thompkin, Ambrose Bennett, Charles L. Dinkins, W. T. Crutcher, W. H. Buckner.

Respectfully submitted.

ELEVENTH ANNUAL REPORT

OF

NASHVILLE, TENNESSEE

Ralph W. Riley, President

PRESIDENT, OFFICERS AND MEMBERS OF THE SEVENTY-SECOND SESSION OF THE NATIONAL BAPTIST CONVENTION, U.S.A., INCORPORATED, GREETINGS:

In bringing to you this my eleventh annual report of our Seminary, I wish to express my thanks to God and my appreciation to you for the privilege to have served you now to the beginning of the second decade in the all important task of not only guiding many of your sons in their ministerial careers, but by instruction and example doing my bit to furnish the inspiration which have sent many on to advance scholarship and success in their respective fields of labor, far and near throughout our country in this one of the most critical and trying periods perhaps our protestant clergy has ever known. During the eventful ten years I have happily watch not only personalities grow and develop into leaders of the church, but it has been an interesting spectacle to see The American Baptist Theological Seminary gradually expand into increasing usefulness and service as one of the major objectives of our denomination.

Convention Participation

During the school year which has just past, one of the most significant factors which have contributed to the Seminary's well-being is the fact that the National Baptist Convention, under the able leadership of its President, Dr. J. H. Jackson, set out to raise $50,000.00 in 1954 not only to strengthening of the Seminary's financial status, but to encourage and stimulate our interest in Theological Education in general upon the part of our entire constituency. The campaign which is geared for four years will put at the disposal, for expansion purposes, a neat sum of $200,000.00 Two Hundred Thousand Dollars for four years. Comprehensive planning, wise execution and hard work are sure to bring rewarding goals and rich results. The fact that at this writing $32,284.74 have come to the seminary, is a very healthful sign of cooperation. These figures far exceed and feat or effort in the interest of Theological Education ever experienced by The National Baptist Convention for its Seminary in all of its 74 years of long history. The cooperation shown by those who have so admirably shared in this effort is one of the finest examples of loyalty which we have known, and we extend our gratitude here and now thanks to everyone.

Our Changing Communities

One of the most startling facts which we face today and from which we cannot escape is the growth of our rapidly growing population in America. It has been estimated that due to our present day scientific achievements in the field of medicine, our present discoveries in the matter of healing and cures that our population is increasing at a birth-rate of about 6,000 every hour in the day and that within a period of the next five years our population will have reached the staggering proportions of more than two hundred millions people.

Along with the great growth comes also a growing and expanding country almost beyond our comprehension. Our home-life is being constantly changed, together with the growing change in our social pattern of living. With the rehabilitation of our cities, the improving of housing, the shifting of our church-location due to new roads, streets and highways, we are forced to accept reldcation in many new communities strangely different from the more conservative and traditional location and the church-community to which we have been accustomed for the last seventy-five years is a new experience for us all. It is not necessary that I state here that a new awakening is upon us. No more can we meet church demands by one or two Sundays per month service in the rural and semi-urban communities nor can the one-unit church structure or any other type assume the role as merely a meeting house or place to be attended once per month. The church demands today an all-inclusive program, and the worshippers will be satisfied with nothing less.

In keeping with all other trends of world aggressiveness, the church, at last, is forced to build and implement its program towards the salvation of the whole man, otherwise it cannot justify its position in world-leadership and the salvation of the world as man's most glorious and redeeming institution. No more can we be sure of a congregation in kind, class, race or creed. No more can the more favored, well established locations give us any advantage. The family church and the family membership are gone forever! It looks as if the deep hunger that fills the breasts of mankind today, by the Grace of God, has posed one of the most grave problems for Christendom. It is therefore not difficult to see that not only more ministers are needed but a more capable and efficient leadership for the ministry, if we are to continue to assume the role of the accepted community leader which the ministry maintains at the present time.

The Gravity of the Situation

In the constituency of the National Baptist Conventios alone there are about 40,000 churches. The memberships of these churches are of a variety beyond our comprehension and explanation, but it is safe to say that even in the most remote areas of our country, almost no place can we find the type of members, or a program similar to that of even twenty years ago. 2The changing pattern of churdh worship, the demonstrative and glamorous appeal, the ever increasing growth of modern cults have not only accentuated our problem but have caused open frustration and confusion to the extent that almost everywhere there is dissatisfaction and unrest which reaches proportions of repudiation of our most true and tried present day leadership.

While we admit that it is easy to lay the blame of much of this situation at the doors of world evil as a result of the spirit of the times, we cannot deny the fact that in every sense of the word a stronger ministry is needed today than perhaps any period we have ever experienced in our time.

In ordr to supply the 40,000 churches we could well use about 600 recruits annually. This is just about six times as many qualified men in our denomination which comes each year from our colleges and seminaries all over the country. Another factor which we face in the supply and demand of our ministerial leadership, is the limited amount of young men entering teh ministry. Too few men are offering themselves or listening to the Divine Call of God to this the all-important calling of service which confronts our people today. The fact that quite a few men who feel moved, or are inspired to this great service, sense the sacrifice, and like many men of all time, not only dread the undertaking due to the feeling of unfitness unworthiness, shy away from the actual beginning until by inner compulsion they are driven to it, thus delaying the actual start until later years which must be followed by a brief program of training and which must be executed with swiftness and rapidity, thereby resulting in a lack of thoroughness and background which often unfit them to proceed to advanced study and future development into a well-rounded and well-trained Christian personality. Time is often against these men who enter the ministry. Their late beginning make it necessary that they train and train fast in order to put in a few days before night fall and the curtains of their ministerial usefulness closes about them and it's too late.

Added to these procrastination-factors are poor economic conditions, poor schools and a lack of scholarship aid and many others. Aiding our aspirants in overcoming these handicaps, seems to me to be, the direct responsibility of, not only the pastor but every lay member and organization at the disposal of our entire church program. There must be a daily concern manifested in the interest of ministerially inclined young men, that those who have the least desire to offer his life for the ministry and those who actually surrender to the Divine Call would not go lacking for encouragement and support in order to secure for themselves the best fitness for christian service possible to attain.

The Task of the American Seminary

To be thinking Christian minister the above facts are not new. WeW are all keenly aware of this responsibility but I am not sure we realize how well American Baptist Theological Seminary has, and is playing her role in the present-day equipping men of God to this high and noble calling. During the past school year, through day classes and extension 225 were enrolled and studied under the influence of the Seminary. These 225 or more men enrolled from 20 states and four foreign countries. They represent the future leadrs of the dnomination and the pastors of our churches tomorrow. It is therefore the task of the Seminary to fit them for further usefulness. The Seminary not only senses its responsibility to its clergy, but it concerned with its responsibility to train lay people and others who might be interested, in general, in improving their Bible knowledge and better fitting themselves for missionary activity at home as well as abroad.

The Seminary is in splendid position to perform these functions. Her faculty and facilities compare favorably with the best in educational and administrative abilities as other greater institutions throughout the country. What our Seminary has done through the years she is doing better today and through expansion and growth is designed to continue to enlarge its facilities in the realm of teh physical as well as the spiritual and shall contiue to do as long as the gospel of Christ remains the only remedy for a soul-sick generation and as mankind, as feeble as we are, are called upon to preach it. If we are going to supply our pulpits with able and efficient men, the Seminary and other similar institutions must produce them.

The more the facts open to us the more keenly we become aware that the task of the American Baptist Theological finally also becomes that of the constituency as well; for without perspective of a joint-responsibility in the matter of recruiting and training men for the Christian Ministry today we cannot and will not fullfil our God-given mission in the world today. We can only have more Christian Ministers when we have more well-adjusted homes and suitable environments from which to select prospects; if we are going to have a greater supply of Christian ministers we are going to look to our homes, first and our churches second. The matter of increasing our supply of preachers is a matter for the general concern of the church and not any one segment of our constitutency. It will be the task of the Seminary to train all whom come to her campus and shall constantly stress the importance of bringing more sons to consciousness that they may listen to the call of God and give themselves into the service of the Christian Ministry.

Interracial Policy

In 1926 the Seminary was founded by National and Southern Baptist Leaders and since then has continued as a joint venture. Since its beginning the two denominations have worked along together in its maintenance and support. A joint racial faculty and administration has carried on its work for a period of 30 years. The charter of the institution provides that her doors are open to all, irrespective to race or creed. In the light of the Supreme Court's decision barring segregation in our schools, the present administration of the Seminary observes nothing which would effect tho admittance policy of the Seminary as it now stands.

Possibilities Within Our Grasp

With so great number of our Ministers in need of training and with such an unlimited opportunity for the church today, not only to reclaim our people but to furnish guidance and spiritual direction to the many which compose our vast growing population, National Baptist could make American Baptist Theological Seminary at Nashville one of the greatest religious centers in the world. We have the know-how, we have, at our hands, what it takes. It is possible that each state could send at least one man to her Seminary. With each state convention together with 2,500 District Conventions and associations, National Baptist could educate 500 men annually and train many more for the fields which stand in so much need today. At the Seminary Library we could have an Archive of Baptist Life and History. We could train 50 missionaries annually for service almost anywhere in the world. A music school for writers and composers, through collaboration could produce for us the kind of music we need for our time. A guest house and rest center to take care of those who may come for a day of and study; a summer conference of two or three months duration could well serve Christian Ministers and workers who need prayer, and inspiration. We could set up departments of Rural Church, Architecture, technical training in fund raising and promotion. When and if the Seminary becomes fully supported by the denomination as we can do, not all these possibilities will be realized, but we cannot aford to close our eyes to the opportunities. We must not miss any opportunity to lift our people and lead them forward morally and spiritually and lift a standard of which we can be justly proud.

We have been on our way for seventy-five years and under God through co-operation and faith in God we will realize our ambition and through hard work achieve our goal.

The meeting was called to order by President Allen Jordan at 9:00. In the absence of the appointee, P. B. Stewart, of Arkansas, Mrs. D. E. Cooke led the devotional. Rev. Henderson Green, Louisiana, brought the devotional message. Musical Director O. V. Phillips and Miss Ethel Cooper of the Cornerstone Baptist Church, Brooklyn, as pianist, led in the song service.

The president then announced the house in order for business. The program, prepared by the program committee, was adopted. The following committees were then appointed: Finance, Wm. A. Ryles, D.C.; M. C. Harris, Texas; E. A. Davis, California; E. Baker, Illinois; J. Jordan, Michigan; Clifford Jenkins, New York; S. H. Taylor, Missouri. Enrollment, J. J. Engram, Kansas; J. L. Cartwright, Tennessee; H. Houston, California. Resolution, C. A. Davis, New York; James Shunesse; F. L. Cotton, Kansas; Frank Snyder, Indiana; S. H. Fowler, New York; F. L. Cotton, Florida; Dr. R. Q. Venson, Tennessee; Steering, I. M. Ferguson, Kentucky; J. C. Moses, Texas; C. Wimberly, Georgia; E. Pope, Georgia; G. Echo, Florida; P. Sealbrooks, Georgia; L. J. Warner, New York. New Bodies, P. McQuarters, New Jersey; Andrew Anderson, Illinois; Wm. H. Dowdell, Alabama; E. G. Luckie, Florida; M. P. Bostic, Georgia.

At this point the president presented Vice President At Large I. M. Ferguson, who is general director of the Ushers' Department, who in turn presented Mrs. M. E. Anderson, president of the Ushers' Department. Mrs. Anderson made remarks and appointed the enrollment committee.

In the absence of Dr. R. A. Laws, New Jersey, the appointee to deliver the sermon, Rev. S. J. Williams, Michigan, delivered a brief message, which was very inspiring and challenging. Director Green then took charge and announced the courses and instructors for the session. Before going into the discussion of the classes Secretary H. S. Dixon called attention to the fact that it was in this city 16 years ago that Secretary Jas. E. Gayle was first elected to his present post, and that because of illness Secretary Gayle could not be present and that we should pause and send up a prayer on his behalf. The suggestion was well taken and Rev. J. Wendell Johnson, Kansas, led the prayer. President Jordan stated that he had talked with Secretary Gayle and that Bro. Gayle was able to be up and about. The president asked all to send Bro. Gayle a "Get well" card. Secretary Gayle's report was read by Secretary Dixon, and same was approved with thanks. The body then recessed for lunch. Offering $24.63.

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON

2:30, song service was led by Director Phillips with Miss Cooper as pianist. The house was then turned to the ushers to carry out the program that was scheduled for Tuesday morning. After the ushers' program we adjourned at 6:00.

WEDNESDAY EVENING

At 8:00 was known as "Missouri Night" at which time all delegates were welcomed to the city and Central Baptist Church. They gave us the finest welcome that we have ever had.

THURSDAY MORNING

The house was called to order at 9:00 with fellowship service by Mrs. D. E. Cooke. Rev. H. Green directed the worship period with Miss Cooper as pianist. Because of the lateness of the hour the address, "Stewardship" was omitted. At this point the minutes of the previous day's session were read and approved. Offering of $35.79 was taken for Secretary Gayle.

The president then stated that all who desired might go to the parent body and hear the annual address of President J. H. Jackson. The Gospel Chorus of Cornerstone Baptist Church rendered a very touching selection. Instructors then took charge of their classes. The classes being over they reassembled for benediction.

THURSDAY AFTERNOON

The house was called to order at 3:10 by President Jordan. Director Phillips led the devotional with Miss Cooper as pianist. The devotional period was conducted by Rev. H. Green.

Rev. S. J. Williams, Michigan, then stated that since he was scheduled to deliver two addresses that he would take up the time to explain his new Manual on Laymen's Activities. He explained with interest this book and was asked when it would be ready for distribution and replied that as soon as reviewing committee had properly approved the book that it would be sent to the publishers and that the book would be available soon afterwards. He quoted an orignal ipoem from the book and read the introduction, both of which were very interesting.

The time having arrived for a sermon from Dr. T. S. Harden, Vice President of the National Baptist Convention and pastor of Trinity Baptist Church, Brooklyn, N. Y., and he being absent, it was agreed that we use the time in hearing reports. The treasurer's report was read and approved.

The Junior Boys were then given an opportunity to present a demonstration under the direction of Mrs. Eva Morgan, "Big Sister." Mr. Shannon, president of the boy's group, delivered his annual address, which was very interesting. Mr. L. A. Vernard, Chicago, sang a solo, "God, Bless America." The Finance Committee reported $1713.95 raised, and the ushers reported $477.00 and the Juniors, $48.00. The committee on New Bodies reported 3 new units.

J. C. McClendon explained the matter concerning the previous election of delegates to the Baptist World's Alliance meeting in London in 1955, and Pres. Jordan suggested that that matter should be taken up by the steering committee. The Resolution Commitee submitted its report, which was approved. Benediction by C. A. Davis, New York.

FRIDAY MORNING

The house was called to order at 9:07 by Vice President S. W. Nichols. Mrs. Cooke led the devotional "On Jordan's Stormy Banks" was sung and Rev. S. J. Williams led in prayer. A highly spiritual fellowship service was witnessed at the close of this devotional period. It was then suggested that we all go to the auditorium to hear President Jordan's annual address. We adjourned to the Kiel Auditorium at 11:00, the hour set as Laymen's Hour.

President Jackson informed Jresident Jordan that due to an excess amount of business that he has to attend to that it would be impossible for Pres. Jordan to deliver his address on scheduled time, and asked President Jordan to allow the other part of the program scheduled prior to 11:00 to continue, and that the Laymen to wait, and if he could get them on before recessing for lunch he would do so. President Jordan then informed officers of the Laymen's Department and a group of singehs, part of Cornerstone Baptist Church, Brooklyn, N. Y., Miss Ethel Cooper, pianist, Mrs. Emma Tucker, president and directress, of Pres. Jackson's request. So the Laymen's officers remained with the parent body and enjoyed a very interesting addres by Atty. Thurgood Marshall.

By this time it was 2:00, and Pres. Jordan informed Pres. Jackson that since it was late and time for lunch, he would omit Pres. Jordan's address to the parent body and would make the report Saturday. Pres. Jackson thanked Pres. Jordan for his very fine spirit in consideration to the crowded program. At the point the parent body recessed for lunch, and the Laymen returned to their headquarters for their session.

FRIDAY AFTERNOON

At 4:30 Vice Pres. E. O'Bryant called the house to order, and Miss Ethel Cooper presided at the piano for the devotional conducted by Director Philips. Rev. H. Green then brought a very helpful devotional message.

Pres. Jordan then stated that because of conditions over which he had no control there were a number of people on the program who could not be heard at this session, but that they would appear in 1955, and that he delivered his address to President Jackson

Rev. Morris H. Tyne, pastor of Monumental Baptist Church, Chicago, was presented and delivered a most helpful address. Offering $13.09. Remarks were made by A. J. Taylor, New York, Assistant National irector Inter-racial Service Boy Scouts of America. Finance Committee reported $2620.75.

President Jordan stated that he had 150 copies of his annual address mimeographed and, because of a ruling that nothing was to be sold during the convention, although he had planned to sell them for 25 cents per copy, that the cost of preparing them was 20 cents each, that he would ask for a public offering and distribute the addresses among the delegates. At this period the addresses were put into the hands of Vice President Ferguson and an offering of $31.00 was taken and the addresses were distributed as far as possible to the delegates. enediction by R. H. Breen.

FRIDAM EVENING (Talent Night)

At 8:00 Talent and Artists' Night was carried out with an appropriate program, and the audience seemed highly satisfied, as was evidenced by the hearty applause and liberal offering. L. J. Warner, New York, presided as master of ceremonies. Some of the artists appearing were the 5 Chorus Members of Cornerstone Baptist Church, Rev. Sandy F. Ray, Pastor, Brooklyn, N. Y. A number of other artists participated. Offering $30.00.

SATURDAY MORNING

At 9:05 was called to order by President Jordan, while Director Phillips led the devotional. Several numbers were sung and prayers were offered. A fellowship chain was then formed and the spirit of love and union was much in evidence, and all present and the Holy Spirit was felt.

President Jordan thanked the body for the very highly spiritual devotional. He then stated that the body should elect one delegate to the meeting of the Baptist World's Alliance in London next year, and support that delegate.

The forum, which was scheduled for Friday afternoon was then discussed. Subject,"Working Relationship between Minister and Layity," was led by Rev. I. S. Powell, Pensacola, Florida; Mr. H. Houston, California; Rev. Kennett Bowen, New York; H. L. Meadows, Ohio. Each speaker gave a very interesting talk on the subject.

At this point Vice President O'Bryant stated that since President Jordan did not find it convenient to deliver his address before the parent body that he deliver his address before the Laymen's body, whereupon was moved and seconded that President Jordan deliver his annual address at this time. The motion was unanimously approved. Because of a serious hoarseness, President Jordan asked that the secretary of Central Baptist Church read his address. The address was full of common ense and good advice, and after much comment the same was heartily approved and ordered that a copy of the address be sent to the Baptist Voice and that 200 copies be mimeographed and sent to all the churches represented here in this meeting.

The following recommendations were adopted: 1. Consult your pastor that he may acquaint you with the total program that you may be able to enlighten others to work in conjunction with the church program. 2. Never attempt to create or inject any new project into your church before you thoroughly discuss the matter with your pastor and officers. 3. After you get the consent of your pastor and officers, that you organize a junior laymen's league in your church to work with your Boy Scout work in the church, teaching the boys the Christian along with the patriotic way of our country.

4. That the Laymen's brotherhood of each church will consult the pastor and choose from among yourselves three of the best qualified men to act as an advisory committee along with other agencies in helping to curb delinquency among the young people of our city and state. 5. The Laymen's brotherhood in each church will create a registration system and enlist the name of every man in his church and become personally acquainted with him so that you will know him by name, know his address, and when he is absent from the regular church services two consecutives Sundays, have your contact committee visit his home, letting him know that you missed him from the service and have him feel that his service is much needed in the program of the church. 6. That each local brotherhood will create a sick committee to visit the sick of each and every member in his church, letting them know that you do care for them, and that you are interested in their welfare.

7. That no Layman will allow any one to talk with him against his pastor, and that each Layman will see that pastor and family re well cared for. 8. That our goal for 1955 be $50,000. 9. That a committee be appointed in this session to study all our objectives and the amount to be given each; 10. That, all moneys raised by the Laymen's Convention be recorded, and all disbursements be reported to the parent body—the National Baptist Convention, Incorporated. 11. That The Laymen's Convention will support no project or movement of any kind unless it is first approved by the parent body—the National Baptist Convention, Inc.

12. That each delegate here assembled will return to his local church and acquaint his pastor with the fact that the primary objective of the National Baptist Laymen's Convention is to help men to work with their pastors in the church's program, having all men understand that God is head of the church, and the pastor, who has been called and ordained by God to minister unto the people, should be head, and all laymen should recognize him as such.

13. That each layman take a course in "Men at Work in the Local Church." Books on such courses may be obtained through the Executive Secretary's office, Bro. Jas. E. Gayle. 14. That every deacon and trustee read religious literature and other literature that will enlighten them in keeping abrast with the current events, and especially with the total program of the church, such as the Sunday School, B.T.U., Missionary society, and especially the prayer meeting. A deacon and trustee should be able to function in any department of the church in which he is asked to serve.

15. That we, as churchmen, will so deport ourselves on our jobs, to and from our occupations, especially on the buses or street cars, and if our occupations call for garments that cannot be worked in without being soiled to the extent that we cannot occupy a seat beside someone without soiling his or her clothes, we should take an extra pair of trousers or shirt with which to make a change. (These recommendations were made in the President's annual address and unanimously approved by the body.)

Secretary Dixon then submitted the financial report by states and stated that New Jersey had led all other states and was declared the winner, and the banner was awarded Vice President E. O'Bryant for his splendid work. The report of the disbursement committee was also read by Secretary Dixon and approved. The Finance Committee submitted its report, showing that a total of $2,730.34 had been raised.

Vice President Ferguson stated that if any of the members wanted copies of the President's address that he would have the same printed in The American Baptist, standard Baptist paper of Kentucky, and that all who would pay 10 cents would receive a copy of the paper. A number paid the 10c.

"God be with You" was sung and the body stood adjourned.

REPORT O FECCLESIASTICAL COMMITTEE FOR CHAPLAINS OF THE NATIONAL BAPTIST CONVENTION, INC., SEPTEMBER 10, 1954 – ST. LOUIS, MISSOURI

To the President and Members of the National Baptist Convention:

Greetings:

I am happy to report to you on the work of our Chaplains in the military department of our Government. I have had fine cooperation from each of the Chief of Chaplains as well as the Executive Secretary of the General Commission on Chaplains.

I have attended four meetings of the General Commission on Chaplains and the annual session of the Military Chaplain's Association of the United States of America. We have had fine reports and many discussions on the work of the chaplaincy. I was appointed to serve as a Consultant in the Chaplain's School of Instruction of the U. S. Air Force at Montgomery, Alabama, last November, but I was unable to serve because of previous commitments.

I have succeeded in getting the General Commission on Chaplains to send The Link to many of our denominational schools. The Commission publishes this magazine for our men and women in the services. Another magazine, The Chaplain, is gotten out for the benefit of the chaplains. Both of these have been a great help to the chaplains and men in the armed services.

I regret to report that one of our chaplains was relieved for the good of the service; however, we have had a number to be cited or promoted by the Chief of Chaplains.

Chaplain William E. Calbert was awarded the Bronze Star Medal.
Chaplain David L. Brewer was promoted to Lt. Colonel, USAR.
Chaplain Finis H. Austin was promoted to Major, USAR.
Chaplain Runel A. Ferry was promoted to Major, USAR.
Chaplain James L. Green was promoted to Captain, USAR.
Chaplain Arthur W. Parker was promoted to Captain, USAR on Inactive Duty.
Chaplain Douglas E. Hall was awarded the Legion of Merit.

We have two full-time and eight part-time Chaplains serving in the Veterans Administration.

I have endorsed seven applicants for the chaplaincy during the past year.

I have given annual endorsement to forty persons.

I have endeavored to keep in touch with the chaplains as far as I could under the circumstances. I trust that our denomination will soon learn the value of this service to chaplains, since it is very necessary that we have reports from them and that we keep in touch with them and assist them in every way possible with their work. They need encouragement from their own denomination.

I am still calling upon the pastors to have someone write to the members of their churches who are in the armed forces of our country. Servicemen say that it is a great encouragement to get a letter from one's home church and to learn what is going on there in religious services. That helps to keep them strong in the faith.

The General Commission on Chaplains is requesting that our denomination pay its quota, which is $1,300. The Board of Directors agreed to pay a thousand dollars and asked the Congress to pay five hundred dollars. We have kept our agreement and have paid the five hundred dollars each year.

My expenses this year are $346. I have received $100 from the National Sunday School and B. T. U. Congress, Inc. The balance due for 1954 is $246.

Respectfully submitted,
W. H. Jernagin, Chairman

REPORT OF COLEMON W. KERRY

Corresponding Secretary, Educational Board of the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc.

Mr. President of the Convention:

Words are inadequate for me to express to you the joy that fills my heart at this time to report that it has been most encouraging to serve as your Corresponding Secretary in the New Administration. We have striven to keep the banner from dragging in the dust; and as your Secretary, I have tried to deport myself at home and abroad so as not to reflect discredit on you as a body.

Since the Drive for the Seminary has been in progress, the Secretary has served as Public Relations Director, and in many other places of trust and good will. Many checks for the Drive have passed through the Office of your Secretary. We have cooperated in every way we could for the success of the $50,000 Drive.

This has been a year of much work and slow returns for your Secretary, but in spite of handicaps and lack of funds, we have gone forward with faith in God, to reach our goal and objectives.

"And the Lord said unto Moses—'GO FORWARD'" Ex. 14:15.

Just as God spoke to Moses, so He has spoken to us. "GO FORWARD." God gave this command to Moses during the darkest hour in all his life. Moses and the Children of Israel were fleeing for their lives. There were mounatins on either side. Pharoah and his army were in hot pursuit and the Red Sea was before him. But God said, "GO FORWARD." God opened the Red Sea and led Moses and the Children of Israel safely through. We are now facing the hardest time in all the year to carry on the Lord's work. Summertime—vacation time—when there is a general letdown. But God says, "GO FORWARD." If God had not so singularly blessed this ministry so many times, we would have become discouraged and quit, but over and above it all we hear God saying again, "GO WARD." To do this WE MUST HAVE YOUR HELP NOW.

We are trying to meet one of the most desperate and appalling needs that ever came upon the human race. The needs are challenging and overwhelming. The Educational Board is determined to meet the challenge and give to the Baptist Family the much needed Trained Christian Leadership that times like these demand. We need your support in carrying forward the Program and Objectives of the Educational Board.

The Preacher must be heard, but the burden of his Message mus the Jesus Christ. The Minister is God's mouth-piece and if he would have an effective Message, he must know God's Word, for His Word is the learned man's Masterpiece, the ignorant man's dictionary, and the wise man's directory. It is the Mind of God, the state of man, the way of Salvation, the doom of sinners and the happiness of believers. The Word is the traveler's map, the Pilgrim's staff, the pilot's compass, the soldier's sword, and the Christian's Charter. He who would carry the Gospel Message, must have Spiritual experience, must know God and have been with Him in Prayer.

We thank all who have helped in many ways in carrying forward the program and Cause, and may you continue to support the Ministry of the Educational Board of the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc.

Yours For His Cause

SECOND ANNUAL REPORT
OF

Saint Louis, Missouri
September 8 to 12, 1954

President, Doctor Jackson, Officers and Members of the National Baptist Convention, Incorporated, assembled in Saint Louis, Missouri, for your Seventy-Fourth Annual Session and friends, greetings to you and thanks to our Heavenly Father, whose hand of mercy has kept us and brought us again to another Annual Session.

I am deeply grateful for this opportunity to bring our Second Annual Report as Acting Secretary of the National Baptist Training Union Board of the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A. Incorporated of which Reverend E. W. D. Isaac is Corresponding Secretary. Reverend Isaac has been ill and confined to his home and bed for the past two years, but is better now than he has been in a year. The Board of which he is Secretary, is yet kind to him in every way possible. Has paid him his full salary each month since he has been ill.

CHANGE OF LOCATION

For years, this Board was located at 409 Gay Street, Nashville, Tennessee. Because of the Capitol Hill Re-development Project, our Convention was compelled to sell that location, February, 1954. The Board was given space on the second floor of the Morris Memorial Building, 330 Cedar Street with the Sunday School Publishing Board, Nashville 3, Tennessee, done by order of the National Baptist Convention through its Board of Directors. Nine rooms were refinished and put in first class shape by Doctor A. M. Townsend, Secretary of the Sunday School Publishing Board, for the use of the Training Union Board.

EQUIPMENT FOR NEW LOCATION

In view of the fact that it had been some time since new equipment had been purchased for the Board and since we were moving in a very splendid building, erected under the leadership of the only ONE Doctor Townsend, we found it absolutely necessary to purchase New Equipment and refinish some of the old equipment. This was done at a cost of Three Thousand Eight Hundred Seventy-Seven Dollars and nine cents ($3,877.09). This amount includes both the moving and equipment of which Two Thousand Three Hundred Sixteen Dollars and Eighty-Five Cents ($2,316.85) were paid by the Convention, by order of Doctor Jackson and One Thousand Five Hundred Sixty Dollars and Twenty-Four Cents ($1,560.24) was paid by this Board, making a total of Three Thousand Eight Hundred Seventy-Seven Dollars and Nine Cents ($3,877.09). The equipment purchased was steel racks for Stock Room, tables for wrapping, files for the Filing Department, Cabinets for office supplies and storage, plate glass display cases for music and books, music cabinets with one hundred and twenty (120) drawers, hand-trucks and cloth lockers.

IMPROVING THE QUARTERLIES

Much time and money have been spent in trying to improve our literature, both in material matter and workmanship. Review our quarterlies for the Fourth Quarter, 1954, now on display at the Training Union's Booth in this building. Examine the contents, workmanship and the quality of material used. Read each of the five quarterlies; Junior, Intermediate, Senor, Young People and Adult. Notice that the age levels are in keeping with other denominations and the Division of Christian Education, National Council of the Churches of Christ. Another improvement is the size of the quarterlies: Where they were sixteen pages, they are thirty-two pages. Whre they were thirty-two pags, they are now forty-eight and sixty-four pages. The sales of our quarterlies are yet increasing, but not to the number that we yet hoe top reach. Of the five million Baptists in our group, less than One Hundred and Fifty Thousand read or purchase our literature. If all the Baptists in Tennessee alone would order a quarterly each, our Board could not supply them with the number that we are now publishing. This field is yet fertile, for Training Union work. We hope to publish at least 250,000 quarterlies per quarter in the near future to supply the demand as the outlook is favorable in that direction. Up until now, a small number of our churches have turned their attention to the Training Union. They have not considered its AIM: "TRAINING IN CHURCH MEMBERSHIP." It was Miss Nannie H. Burroughs who said in an address that, "WE boast of being a member of God's Hallelujah Chorus and cannot raise a tune; God's soldier and cannot shoot a gun; God's Calvary and cannot ride a horse." This simply means that we have not been to the Training grounds of the Baptist Church which is its TRAINING UNION.

OUR MANUALS

For some time it has been necessary for a change in our MANUALS for Baptist Training Union work. In 1953, we prepared and published a manual, under the name, "NEW COMPREHENSIVE BAPTIST TRAINING UNION MANUAL," by R. H. Faulkner. But this one will not take the place of eight that we are in dire need of now. We buy thousands of manuals and other books on Training Union work from other publishers at a high cost, when we have men and women and printing presses that are able to prepare these manuals and other books for us.

OUR NEEDS

We need a Story Book or Magazine for children under nine years of age and a manual for the instructors of this age level.

We need a Junior Manual for the instructors of Junior boys and girls.

We need an Intermediate Manual for instructors of the early adolescence of early youth.

We need a manual for the instructors of Middle and Later Adolescence of youth.

We need a manual for the instructors of Baptist Adults.

We need a manual to take the place of the Associational Manual as the trend is toward Congress and not Associations.

We need a book that will connect the Educational work of the Training Union with that of the Sunday school, so that there will be one Department of Christian Education for our Baptists, for the Training Union work is Christian Education.

We need a Training Union Magazine, published monthly to inform Training Union workers of youth activities around the world and the new trends of Christian Education. We must at least use the Sunday Evening Hour for the Training of Church Members. For publications that we have mentioned and need, we have found persons that can and will write them; we have found persons that can and will publish them; we have millions that can buy and read them. This Board needs money to produce these publications. Aside from the publications needed, we need a Copy-Editor in the office at Nashville.

THE ISAAC FOUNDATION FUND

The Isaac Foundation Fund was organized in 1937, in the city of Los Angeles, California. The second Sunday in March of each year since its organization, has been known to many as the DAY of Celebration in honor of the Founder, Doctor E. W. D. Isaac, Sr., of our NATIONAL BAPTIST TRAINING UNION BOARD, 1899. This FUND is part of the Board, and under control of same. One hundred and thirty-six churches and religious organizations have made contributions to this FUND since March, 1954. Sales Record:

July 1, 1953 to June 30, 1954

Amount of Sales	$106,338.39
Amount of Sales—July 1, 1952 to June 30, 1953	85,417.36
An Increase of	$ 20,921.03

We thank the Official Staff of which Dr. J. W. Gayden is Chairman, the Executive Committee, Board Members of this Board and Dr. J. H. Jackson, President, Dr. Carr, Dr. Andrews and Dr. Townsend of this Convention for the very fine way in which you have cooperated with me as Acting Secretary.

May God's choicest blessings rest upon you this day and the days to come.

FIRST ANNUAL REPORT

SOCIAL SERVICE COMMISSION

of

THE NATIONAL BAPTIST CONVENTION OF U.S.A., INC.

Seventy-Fourth Annual Session

St. Louis, Missouri

September 8th - 12th, 1954

Dr. Claude L. Franklin, Chairman
Brooklyn, New York

Dr. J. H. Jackson, president, officers, members and friends of the Convention, in the name of our God we greet you as we come forth to give an account of our stewardship.

We are grateful for the cooperation and encouragement given this office by many ministers, laymen and friends. If the past is an indication of the future, we are confident our objectives will be a reality. In this, our first year of service in the capacity as Chairman of this honorable Commission, we gave much time and study in exploring the field and orientating ourselves into this great task.

ORIENTATION AND STUDY

We made contacts with the Southern Baptist Convention, The American Baptist Convention, The National Council of the Churches of Christ in the United States of America and the Headquarters of other major religious groups, for the purpose of acquainting our office with procedures and progress of their Social Service programs.

The response of these groups were immediate and very helpful. The Southern Baptist Convention's Relief and Annuity Board, located in Dallas, Texas, Dr. Walter R. Alexander, Executive Secretary, cooperated for the Southern Convention in giving us every possible contact with their Social Service work. The Council on Christian Social progress of The American Baptist Convention was not only helpful, but appreciative of our ambitions in this field. The National Council of Churches gave much time assisting us in making valuable personal contacts with Social Agencies of religious groups.

Once the field of religious Social Service work had been generally explored, we turned our study of city and state agencies in the field of Social Welfare. New York City and State were naturally our foremost areas of concentrated study. We found a warm welcome for the interest of four million Baptist. In this City and State exploration, we learned much about needs and procedures, which gave us guidance toward knowing where we are "wither bound."

You do well to remember that the results of this study have been tabulated systematically for future use and the investigations made haev convinced us that "The field is ripe for harvest." We, therefore, appeal to all Baptists in our Denomination toi enter into His vineyard and work.

THE STATUS QUO OF OUR DENOMINATION

After the above mentioned period of orientation, we ventured forth on new frontiers, namely:

A Comprehensive Study of the Status Quo of The Social Functional Operations within our Convention. We made a "spot check" of various sections of the country on the work within our group as it related tself to Social Service.

The following are few of the major interests we endeavored to discover:

A. Employment Problems:

1. Unemployment compensation.
2. Employment opportunities.
3. The value and need of F. E. P. C.

B. Legal Service Advice to Church Member's and Societies:

2. Promotion of programs for the rehabilitation of unfortunate youths and released persons who have paid the price in corrective institutions.
3. Promotion of health and recreational centers.
4. What type of work is being done for the care and enjoyment of the aged within their church membership.
5. The forwarding to our office, the number of our Denominational supported or controlled institutions in their community.
6. Educational Centers, Homes for the Aged, Homes for the Blind, Cripples, etc., and other denominational major work, which we might have omitted in our request.

TABULATION OF THE SURVEY

Our tabulations, from these returns at the time of this report, were insufficient to give percentages on our findings, but sufficient enough to arrive at reasonable conclusions. It is evident, that whereas the work of the churches in this field is far from what it should register, there is more encouragement than one might ordinarily assume.

It is our aim to carry this investigation on until we can reach a reliable conclusion upon which logical records can be complied for the denomination. It is very illuminating to see how complete the records on Social Service are kept in many of the denominations.

RECOGNITION OF PROGRESS

We refrain from naming churches at this point, but we hope, however, to be specific when all reports are in from this study. We, therefore, urge you to give full cooperation to this survey. Tell us the scope of the local work in your church and in the community. We will, however, refer to a few sections of the country as to their progress.

Washington, D. C. — One of our churches in Washington has recently completed a wonderful educational building and has a very constructive program in operation with a staff of paid workers.

Chicago, Illinois — There are a few churches with facilities and conducting very modern programs in the field of Social Service. They also have what is considered the largest Community Baptist Educational Center building in the country.

Richmond, Virginia — Three churches have modern Educational Buildings in connection with their church buildings.

Louisiana — In the deep South, Social Service ideas are on the march in an encouraging manner. In this state, we have one of the few Air-Conditioned Church buildings.

Texas — The great Oil State of the country, in recent years has seen modern buildings and Social Service programs forged to the front as never before.

New York — A few modern Educational buildings have been constructed and others are in the making. One was recently completed in Brooklyn. In New York City there are two Educational Centers in operation; one in Brooklyn, another in Harlem.

California — The state where the sun never sets, has one of the most imposing educational plants constructed in recent years.

Ohio — The challenge of Social Service is being met with modern buildings and insight in a very encouraging manner.

Pennsylvania — The steel state of the Union, is Social Service conscious and a few modern educational buildings are being planned and constructed.

Georgia, Mississippi, Tennessee — and many other states are rapidly thinking and acting in the modern educational building and Social Service programs.

SOCIAL SECURITY

Social Security laws were drastically amended in the eighty-third Congress. Among the many features of those changes and additions were laws affecting ministers and religious workers. Many opinions, from across the Country were submitted for serious consideration while the Bill H. R. 9366 was before the committee on Finance. The Social Service Commission on behalf of the National Baptist Convention wrote an opinion after studying a draft of the Bill. This opinion was accepted as worthy of consideration. In a publication of 746 pages under the Caption: "Social Security Amendments 1954, hearings before the Committee on Finance, United States Senate, Eighty-third Congress on H. R. 9366." on page 678, the Social Service Commission's opinion appears with full credit to the source from which it came.

THE SUPREME COURT'S RULING ON DESEGREGATION

The greatest legal mandate of the twentieth Century was issued on May 17, 1954.

The Social gospel of Jesus received its endorsement by the Highest Court of the nation. We followed the trends across the Country while the battle of legal experts continued n thei Nation's Capitol.

We recognized the Social significance involved in the outcome of the Supreme Court and sought out opinions prior to May 17.

The liberal and socialistic thinking across the Country encourages the church that the Palestinian Jew's Social program is on the march.

VIEWS PRIOR TO THE MANDATE

On the whole, the consensus of opinion was that whatever the Court's ruling would be, the general public would abide by the decision.

More than twelve leading papers of the South spoke in positive terms of accepting the ruling if it was for desegregation.

One of the leading newspapers in the State of North Carolina made this statement on September 29, 1953.

"We believe the constitution and laws of our land as interpreted by the Supreme Court must be upheld and obeyed despite individual or regional disagreement."

A leading paper of the South, in a statement not expected from this particular Southern State, had this to say on September 13, 1953, "The South will face no great social problems in the event segregation is outlawed. Their great worry is over the financial problems which would be created by an adverse ruling."

Another state of the South made this statement on September 29, 1953. "The time has arrived when Southerners must do some constructive thinking about this matter. The time has also arrived when Southerners must be prepared to act intelligently in accordance with whatever the Supreme Court holds."

The above statements are typical of scores of newspapers, chiefly throughout the Southern States. I was born in the South and when you read statements of this kind, you are inspired in the face of darkness to exclaim, "The morning cometh." In the wilderness of our progress we can take courage from the words of Ezekiel 21:27. "I wil loverturn, overturn, overturn it; and it shall be no more." Or the words of Isaiah 40:4. "Every valley shall be exalted, and every mountain and hill shall be made low: and the crooked shall be made straight, and the rough places plain: And the glory of the Lord shall be revealed and all flesh shall see it together: for the mouth of Lord hathspoken it."

VIEWS AFTER THE MANDATE

For every action there is a reaction. This is none the less true in the Supreme Court's action on May 17, 1954.

There were those, some of both races, who felt that the sickness of segregation had reached the stage at which desegregation Surgery would b impossible, but thanks unto our God, the patient is from under ether and doing well.

The Washington Post, June 26, 1954, carried an article in large headlines: "Negro Admission to University of Maryland Voted." The story went on to state, that the oBard of regents of the University of Maryland had voted unanimously to admit Negroes immediately to the institutions undergraduate schools. It further stated that Negroes would be welcome to play on the University football squad if they can run, kick, pass, block or tackle and maintain scholastic eligibility. (I am confident they will meet these qualifications.)

The National Education Association meeting in New York, July 1954, (according to the New York Times, July 3, 1954) adopted a resolution asking that segregation end in the Nation's public schools. When the vote was taken every State in the Union was represented and all but two states, South Carolina and Mississippi, voted in the affirmative. The presiding President was Dr. William A. Early, Superintendent of Schools in Savannah, Georgia. The President-elect is Miss Waurine Walker from Austin, Texas. Dr. J. Rupert Picott, a Negro, of Virginia was elected, one of the Vice Presidents. We salute the National Education Association and praise our many friends in the Southern states for going along with such a resolution.

Friends, there are thousands of people in the South, who have not bowed their knees to Baal. We urge encouragement and cooperation with those who are champions of a Social Gospel.

The Southern Baptist Convention, has gone on record as supporting desegregation in public education. The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States(Southern Presbyterian) has recommended desegregation of educational institutions under the control of official church bodies, admission of all persons to Church membership, regardless of color and that individual members and leaders improve their personal attitudes. We pause to say: "Alleluia for the Lord God omnipotent reigneth." State after state, city after city across the Country are rapidly adjusting their attitudes and programs to the music of this new song. Desegregation and the Brotherhood of man.

The Protestant Epsciopal Church's, General Convention, next year will not be held in Houston, Texas, Bishop Henry Knox Sherrill has chosen to take the meeting to Honolulu. Why? We quote Dr. Sherrill. "The scene, has altered radically since the General Convention of 1952, indeed within the past month. The witness of our Church must be so clear that it need not beexplained." The arrangements for the Houston convention had failed to provide normal non-segregated facilities.

The August 18th edition of the Christian Century, under caption, "Christians and the Court Decision," gives a creditable warning to the Christian Church and I quote:

"The Christian is obligated to take direct steps on a community level toward the implementation of the court's decision. Increasingly the christian will have to act as a stabilizing influence to maintain an emotional balance, while the transition is being worked out. The court has presented a challenge to the South, to the Nation and above all, the Christian."

THE PICTURE FLASHES ON THE SCREEN

We have a task before us, as we look upon the screen and see the picture of unfinished business, successes, failures and a humanity struggling in the valley of hopeful dreams. This is no time to build tabernacles and remain on the mountain. We must be moved by the voices in the valley.

A Socialistic Christian must be of the type, who will, say as did the Lord, "I have surely seen the affliction of my people, which are in Egypt and have heard their cry by reason of their taskmasters, for I know their sorrow." Exodus 3:7.

We need a force, which only God can supply that will carry us across the impending social transition and a social christianity can supply it, by directing the plastic power of the old faith of our fathers to the new social order. The Church is the permanent social factor in salvation. The old prophets were all champions for the social efficiency of religion. They held that worship alone is not enough. The prophets wanted a religion that would change social conduct and repudiated religious doings that had no ethical value.

Jesus was an ardent promoter of Social Principles. The parables of the lost coin, lost sheep and the story of the prodigal son were indications of His Philosophy. Listen to Him talk, "And other sheep I have which are not of this fold: them also I must bring, and they shall hear my voice; and there shall be one fold, and one shepherd." John 10:16. Jesus was certainly socially minded, Social Service was His major interest. He swept the shavings of the carpenter shop for the last time and hit the trail of world redemption with Social Service written on his forehead.

See Him there on the Highway healing a blind man. Look at Him in the Temple healing a withered hand. We find Him ontomorrow in the play ground, with little children crowding around Him. The next day He is on the water instructing fishermen. Another time we find Him at the pool assisting a man, who had been sick for 38 years. See the thousands of people on the roadside hungry and tired without food peacefully seated on the ground, waiting for Jesus to organize a bread and fish line for people He would not send away. Weary from a busy day, but He meets two women crying Master if thou had been here our brother would not have died. Listen to Him: Where is he buried? I am the resurrection and the life.

OUR MASTER'S COMMAND

Our master commanded christians to go into all the world and preach the Social Gospel to all the people. "Ye are the salt of the earth . . . Ye are the light of the world . . . For I have given you an example." Matthew 5 13-14, John 13:15.

A social gospel reaches beyond an eleven o'clock worship on Sunday morning. It sweeps the highways and hedges and on into every Avenue of human existance. We contend for a Church and a pulpit to sell our wares. There can be no criticism about such a contention, but that is not enough. Some of the best sermons were delivered outside of the church. The Samaritan delivered his best sermon on the Jericho road helping a sick man. Mary delivered her best sermon annointing the feet of Jesus. Ezekiel did his best preaching in the valley of dry bones. Elijah was at his best on Mount Carmel amidst theidolatry of his times. John the Baptist, shook the world in the woods on the banks of the muddy Jordan.

All christians must teach and preach the gospel of Jesus Christ every day and every hour to every person regardless of spiritual or social status.

REPORT OF
NATIONAL BAPTIST CONVENTION

St. Louis, Missouri
Kiel Auditorium
Wednesday, September 8, 1954

T. THEO LOVELACE
Corr. Secretary

M. C. CLEVELAND
Chairman

OUR WORKERS

We feel justified in taking out time and adopting this measure of paying respectful attention to those who have been helpfully associated with us in the promotion of the program of Missions, for without them our Board could not have made the headway that it has. Dr. M. C. Cleveland of Montgomery, Ala., pastor of the Day Street Baptist Church is Chairman of our Board and we can say without fear of successful contradiction that he is as good in this capacity as any of any other Department. It was through him that the Trustees of Selma University granted the Secretary of the Board an Honorary Doctorate this year.

Rev. G. W. Pitts of Forrest City, Arkansas, Board Member representing the Arkansas Regular Convention is a Home Mission enthusiast. He has the ear of President Knox and works his Convention well in interest of his Board. Rev. Pitts is also President of the Sunday School and BTU Congress of his state and pastor of the Beth Selem and St. John Baptist Churches of Forrest City and Madison, respectively.

Rev. B. F. Johnson, Metropolitan Baptist Church, Newark, New Jersey is Vice-Chairman of the Board and helpful in his Contributions. The way in the East is always open for the Secretary of the Board or any representative of the Home Mission Board.

Mrs. Mazie Watkins our Eastern Worker and President of the Women's Volunteer Movement of New Jersey, was present at the Dedicatory Service and brought a bus load of thirty-four Orange, New Jersey. She is a member of the Union Baptist Church pastored by Rev. J. V. McIver who is behind her in her effort for the Home Mission Board. Recently her group of ladies made an outlay of around $350.00 for basement equipment of the Center. Inasmuch as this group of ladies did this, other groups can do the same. We are asking the women of the country to follow these good women in org anizing bands of volunteer workers for Missions in these fields. Charity begins at home. Let your bucket down right where you are.

Rev. J. V. McIver, Pastor of the Union Baptist Church, Orange, New Jersey, a most ardent supporter of the Home Mission Board, has recently contributed through his Church $173.00 for the projects of the Home Mission Board. His pulpit is always open to the Secretary or any representative of our Board. Our prayers is for men on the McIver order.

Dr. D. Edwin Johnson represents the Texas B. M. and E. Convention. He is also Superintendent-Dean of the Inter-Racial Baptist Institute and makes a personal donation of $10.00 a month to the Board. Dr. Johnson is always ready to take care of the Board's interest wherever he is and especially during the annual sessions of his State Bodies. What a fine thing it would be if each Board Member, like Dr. Johnson would make a PERSONAL donation to the Board monthly in addition to his solicitations from the Churches and Conventions. This would make the task easier on the Secretary.

OUR FIELD SECRETARY

Mrs. Addie Cunningham is helpful in this capacity. She is devoted to the work and thoroughly acquainted with the program of the Board. There is no hesitancy at any time in sending her to meet any of the Baptist bodies, for not only is she able to impressively represent the Board, but she gets very favorable responses. In all likelihood this fall she will be in touch with many of the state and local bodies.

Rev. C. C. Cyphers represents the Texas Baptist Convention as Home Mission Board Member. He is loyal and ever active in keeping the work of the Board before his Convention and in stimulating donations from local Churches and Conventional bodies of his state

Rev. W. E. Hayes of Little Rock, Ark., is a newly appointed Board Member, this being his first year. He represents the Arkansas Baptist State Convention, consolidated, presided over by Dr. F. T. Guy of Little Rock.

Monthly Contributions

What our Board needs is not a donation annually when we come up to the National Baptist Convention assembly, but all during the year. The operating expenses run daily and monthly. See by this how difficult it is for any executive officer to shoulder the burdens himself and wait for the annual Session to get enough money to pay off obligations incurred during the preceding year.

DEDICATORY SERVICE OF THE WALTER H. BROOKS STUDENT CENTER

DR. MORDICAI JOHNSON
President of Howard University, Principal Speaker

The Home Board was graced on this occasion with the presence of Dr. Mordecai W. Johnson, President of Howard University who also gave the dedicatory address.

A representative group of "Baptist" students was present at the service.

An attractive feature of the program was participation on the part of the student body Miss Shirlee Patterson, School of Music, Mr. Arno Davis, School of Religion, and Mr. Obra J. Moore, President of the Baptist Student's Fellowship.

The Baptist Students are very proud of the Home Mission Board in purchasing and operating a Christian center for them. The off-campus center for Baptist students is intended to provide a home-like atmosphere where students can browse, relax, play, meditate and just meet with their friends for fellowship.

Don't forget that this institution cannot remain a going concern without the financial support of the Baptist Churches, individuals, associations and conventions.

YOUR CONTRIBUTIONS SHOULD BE MADE REGULARLY.

HOWARD UNIVERSITY BAPTIST STUDENT CENTER

By EARL L. HARRISON

Over and over again the questions are asked by our Baptist brethren, "Why should we maintain a religious center and Chaplain at Howard University" and if we need to do this at Howard why not do so at other colleges and Universities? For instance, at State Universities, these questions are not unreasonable and deserve an answer. I doubt, however, that I can satisfy all the interrogators with the simple statement that this limited space permits. Yet, I am willing to try.

1. There is no other university in the world as complexed in its overall constituency, support, allegiance and administrative functions as Howard.

1. Christian in origin.
2. Federal in support.
3. Interracial and international in constituency. Its student body is made up from 21 countries and 42 states.
4. Independent in control. (Self-perpetuating Board of trustees.)
5. Interdenomination in faith.
6. Inter-religious, non-religious, and anti-religious in faculty.

An Institution so complicated in the nature of its makeup must have some one aim around which they can all pull together. At Howard it is education, scholarship. In such a situation the churches must take care of their own interest.

2. Other religious faiths are there looking after their students.

The Catholic, the Episcopal, the Methodist, the Presbyterian, Congregational—Christian and now the Baptist. This makes the competition for these developing minds very tense and keen. Tomorrow's church leadership will be determined by the final religious loyalty of today's students.

3. Approximately one third of the total student body at Howard University are from Baptist churches, the majority of whom are from the South.

Shall we desert our young people in such critical atmosphere of contest and criticisms which attack the New Testament teaching as we believe it? Shall we leave them defenseless with no answer for the critics? No a thousand times.

4. The future of the Baptist church and all churches rest with the doctrinal understanding of the intelligent youth of today.

These young people need pastoral sympathy and guidance while in college developing into mature convictions. There are questions to beanswered, problems to be solved which only a Baptist pastor can do. The chaplain is their pastor. He lives in their world. He breathes their atmosphere. He is a campus man acquainted with the professors as well as their social problems. They know him as their friend and will not be shy to approach him in t heir distress.

These young people are cut off from local churches and pastors. They have campus regulations and restrictions and time schedules they must follow as well as disciplinary standards they must regard.

This is not a problem for the local pastor. He has responsibility to his own church and young people. But it is the responsibility as well as the opportunity of the students home churches to follow them to the college campus and provide for their spiritual interest and growth while temporarily away from home.

Secretary Lovelace is helpless without the support of the pastors and the churches of our great convention back of ihm with interest and money to carry on, and our young Baptist students are ashamed to even invite their fellow students of other faiths to the Baptist Fellowship House becaus eit is so poorly equipped. What will you do about it?

DR. E. L. HARRISON

The Rev. Mr Arthur Snoddy is a Missionary of the Home Mission Board in co-operation with the State Convention of Arizona and the Southern Baptist Convention.

Rev. Snoddy has done the most remarkable work for us this year and greater work is predicted for the ensuing year.

The West need attention. It needs spiritual attention, but before this can be given our Board must be financially able to send and to help maintain Preachers, Teachers, and to conduct Bible and Evangelistic institutes in those remote sections.

Rev. L. R. Taylor represents the Board in the state of Virginia. His interest has always been high and his loyalty to the Board greatly appreciated.

Rev. J. H. Sanders, of Athens, Georgia, is a Board Member representing the General Missionary Baptist Convention presided over by Dr. L. A. Pinkston, of Atlanta. We have just received a check in the amount of fifty dollars donated by his state.

EXAMPLE

Dr. C. S. Stamps of the Metropolitan Baptist Church of New York City is an example as to what a Pastor can do if he will. Each year he has presented to the Board a check of $500.00 or more. Inasmuch as such a presentation is made to the Board on its rally night, others can do the same. It may not be in equal amount but a substantial donation anyway can be presented. Dr. Stamps has also been on the Board's preaching staff for two years.

Monthly Regulars

Monthly regulars. This is what we need in addition to ANNUAL regulars. Give to Home Missions for this is your first responsibility and thi sis the logic of Jesus in Christianizing the world—"Beginning at Jerusalem." We need money for literature, salary supplement, institutes and colporteurs, but we can go no further with this program of HOME MISSIONS than the Churches will allow us by giving liberally for the Saints and other sheep that are not of this mold. Send your contributions to: HOME MISSION BOARD, Lock Box 7368, Chicago 80, Illinois—T. THEO LOVELACE, Corresponding Secretary.

Rev. J. H. Morris of Lake Mississippi represents the Home Mission Board in the East Mississippi Baptist State Convention. We have great hope for the Board under his administration there.

REMEMBER WE ARE SOLICITING YOUR CO-OPERATION TO THE END THAT OUR WALTER H. BROOKS STUDENT CENTER REMAIN THE HELPFUL REALITY FOR OUR BAPTIST BOYS AND GIRLS AND FOR OUR WESTERN CHURCHES THAT ART SADLY IN NEED OF ATTENTION THAT WE CAN GIVE IF WE WILL.

HOME MISSION BOARD REPORT

St. Louis, Missouri — September, 1954

Mr President and members of the National Baptist Convention assembled: I come before you again to deliver my annual report as Corresponding Secretary of the Department of Home Missions of our Convention. This occasion marks two decades and three years that I have stood before you in such a role. Yes, for twenty-three years I have served and this period represents much of my natural life and most of my Ministerial life as given to the cause of Christ in an effort to deepen the religious life of those who inhabit the fields immediately before us—Home.

I am happy indeed over the headway made during this administration, notwithstanding the fact that even yet we are barely scratching the surface when it comes to carrying out the original design of the Founding Fathers and even the Moster Himself.

Jesus was first of all a Home Missionary for on one occasion He said ". . . . go home." The sainted Apostle Paul catching the inspiration from His Master said "He who does not take care of his home is worse than an infidel." And on the basis of the Master's injunction the Founding Fathers of our Convention brought into existence an all-important Department—Home Mission Board.

The Board of Home Missions exists to present Christ to those on the Home Field, not neglecting any area, even though there are some areas more unfortunate than others in that there is difficulty to be experienced in getting across to them the gospel and a progressive church program.

These are times, as we all can testify to, that call for greater emphasis on home life; that call for a re-statement of religion in the home. These are times that call for emphasis on the "old paths" as it relates to Home as a single unit. If society is to be bettered, then those who are responsible for homes—parents I mean, and the church of course, must go up a little higher.

The West

For twenty-three years the West has been our pet theme. There is an opportunity for the Church to do a most needed work in Missions in those sections that are sparsely populated and the number of Christians so limited as to be unattractive to Missionaries and Ministers.

It is regrettable to us that we have never been able to carry on in those sections as we have desired and according to their needs. This is not only true in our Convention, but with the American Baptist Convention, the Southern Baptist Convention and other denominations as well. It takes a tremendous amount of money to build Churches, to supplement Pastors' salaries, to supply Missionaries and to lend money to the smaller church organizations for building and repairs. In the light of this I consider that our Board across the years has done a splendid job, though limited, in several of the Western states. We could easily use a hundred thousand dollars a year for those remote sections of the country.

Despite our handicaps we have been co-operating with the State of Arizona in its Missionary Project. We have the Rev. Mr. Arthur Snoddy as our Missionary in that state and he is very effective in his work. We are presenting him tonight.

The Walter H. Brooks Center

Our center in Washington, known as the Walter H. Brooks Baptist Students' Center of the Home Mission Board, is quite a credit to the Board and to the Convention. Never before have we undertaken a project so huge nor any more important than the operation of this sort of institution. To purchase and operate a center was necessary from two angles. First, it was needed for the inspiration and cultivation of our own youth who are in attendance at Howard. Second, we had to meet the challenge presented to us by the times and other denominations who were far-sighted enough not only to sense the need, but make an investment in the amount of thousands of dollars.

We could not afford, even at the greatest sacrifice, to fail to demonstrate to the Baptist boys and girls at Howard that we, the Baptists, four and a half million strong, could not afford a cultural Center for them as other denominations were providing for their youth. Hence, the investment.

Let it not be thought that because we have a building with a room rented that it is a self-supporting institution. The installments on the building have to be paid monthly, the Chaplain's salary, utility bills, repairs and improvements. There is little or no wonder then that your Board would operate on a defict from month to month and that some individual or a limited group must personally shoulder the responsibility until such a time as this, the Annual Session, when hope is high that the donations will be sufficiently heavy just to cover arrears.

The Trustee Board

Our Board of Trustees has lent itself to us, for on more than one occasion they have come to our rescue when conditions there had reached a dangerous point. Now we are obligated to certain individuals of the Board and the Board itself, which obligations we hope to discharge in the most creditable way at this session.

Evangelism

Our Board has put no emphasis this year on Evangelism because of the creation of a Department of Evangelism, yet we could not be a Board of Missions without having an abiding interest in preaching the gospel to a sin-sick world.

A genuine, Old-fashioned, Holy Ghost Revival will do much to counteract the evils of the day and strengthen the weak places in the Church. The outstanding obligation of the Church today is to sponsor a revival of old time religion, a revival of vital Godliness and a revival of Holy Ghost Power. When these are absent, men and means, that the Church should bring to Christ are lost.

Sponsored by the Church for the Church

Not only do we need a revival to reach the unsaved masses, but we need it to arouse the saved masses also; to prod our lagging spirits and to foster Divine growth and life. Because of this condition our Churches have become weak in the matter of winning souls and are therefore a stench, offensive in the nostrils of God. With all our numbers and wealth and prestige and ceremony we are yet missing the mark of the Christian church.

Too often ministers are too easily satisfied. They seem to think that the Great Commission is being executed if the salary is paid, if the finances are up to standard, if the pews are filled every Sunday, if the membership is maintained and the social standing is kept up. Ah, that's nothing unless the souls are kept up also.

What we need is the "preaching passion" of the fathers who in days gone groaned to the very bowels for the lost in sin. Remember this Elders, water will not rise higher than its level and neither will interest and concern in the pew rise any higher than the ideal and passion of thepulpit. Suppose we have Revival.

The preacher must recognize that his Supreme mission is to save souls. He must have a heart "Red Hot" with a burning emotion for souls, otherwise frozen hearts will never be thawed. Jesus had this feeling. Paul's whole life throbbed with this ardor. This same fire burned in the heart of John Knox who spent nights of prayer in closet and garden, crying unto God, "Give me Scotland or I die." God gave him Scotland.

The Lightning of Heaven and Not Cheap Fireworks

The preacher must set his people on fire. I have heard many preachers say, "She's my kindling," or, "There's my firebox," speaking of some individual. The fire is not supposed to originate in the pew, but at the altar—fire. A fireless preacher produces a fireless church, if he stays there. It's getting hard to stay now, unless you have some fire. Cheap fireworks won't do but the lightning must strike from Heaven.

12. Noonday message was brought by Rev. Edward T. Graham, Pastor Mt. Zion Baptist Church, Miami, Florida, who was presented by Doctor Burroughs.

(1) Theme: The Vision of a World Made New

Having paid tribute to our president, Doctor Burroughs, as one of the world's greatest women, he gave three reasons why he liked our theme.

(1) It is necessary to have visions in order to experience reality.
(2) Today's visions are the blueprints which determine tomorrow's superstructures.
(3) If there is a redeeming feature inherent in this National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc., such a feature poses itself in the work of the Woman's Convention because it knows where it is going and had developed the proper vehicle to get there on. That vehicle is its excellent program and training in worship, missions, and religious education.

He posed the questions: What is this race which you are called upon to run? Why we have a need to make our world new? The reasons were:

(1) Man has shown a decided tendency to turn away from God.
(2) The utter disrespect for family life, and
(3) Man's technological knowledge has far exceeded his morality and his religion.

He asked the christians to reread our marching orders or God will destroy this wicked race and build a nation that will obey Him.

He left a plan for our consideration which spelled itself out into seven points of specifics.

(1) The Power of analysis
(2) To plan effectively
(3 An incisive understanding of both individual and group behavior. You cannot lead unless you understand the people with whom you deal.
(4) A trained objectivity. Stick to a principle because it is right; because it pleases God, not man.
(5) Emotional stability. Whatever form the devil may take, never identify yourself with him.
(6) A cultivated Patience. Don't become discouraged. You must learn to labor and to wait. Remember, God is never late.
(7) Faith in God. You can do nothing without it. Be certain of the fact that "Eternal God is our Refuge." Have faith in God.

13. Song: Hold to God's Unchanging Hand.
14. The congregation adjourned during the singing.

66. Address: Attorney Thurgood Marshall, Chief Counsel for the NAACP, New York. Mr. Marshall was introduced by Dr. Burroughs, our president. He paid many tributes to our president and said that it was her urgent appeal to him that he was present with us. He said that he did not mind talking about a people who had faith in God and followed up their faith with action. It was moral basis that brought on Emancipation; a firm faith in God and Confidence in ourselves. He further stated that Segregation was not only unconstitutional but also downright immoral. That we ourselves had helped to delay integration by our indifference. A big part of the success of any movement is within ourselves . . . If the children are liberated, there will be no segregation in any color. He felt that if Baltimore, Maryland, can operate a one-system school, so can Biloxi, Mississippi. He was born and reared in Baltimore, Maryland, and he knew that that city had been controlled by warped, one-sided leaders and officers. He stressed the fact that we need people above reproach who can hlp in a dcisive hour like this. We need some of our race on all these school boards. There is no white supremacy. If our group will stand together, no ultimate harm can happen to us on the wholesale. He cited the conference of southern governors who met in Richmond, Virginia, and reminded us that no two governors were together on what they could do to the Negro. He stated that the Negro is constantly being asked by members of the other race, "Wouldn't you rather be with your own people?" As an answer to that question, "Sure, but all freedom-loving Americans are my people, and all Americans are freedom-lovers except the Ku Klux Klan and the Communists." He spoke of the problem which is uppermost in the minds of the people of the world today. "Our nation," said Mr. Marshall, "is founded on the pillars of Christianity. Its creed and constitution have in them the spiritual flavors of a nation under God, and this being true let us admit that segregation is morally wrong. If the white folks are superior to the Negro as some of them claim, then why should they worry about integration of public schools, for all of them—the white students—will be at the head of the class anyway, if they are superior." He admonished us to hold on to the Faith of ourfathers. He further admonished us to go back home and do something about the uncle Toms and Aunt Sallies who are fighting for the things we are fighting against.

67 Hymn: Lift Every Voice and Sing by Johnson.

68. Dr Burroughs responded by saying, 'Best wishes to the NAACP and God bless you Thurgood Marshall, who played such a great part in bringing about the Supreme Court Decision of May 17, 1954.

69. Address: Mrs. Frank Wigginton, president, Women's Baptist Foreign Mission Society, Carnegie, Penn. She first paid tribute to our president, Dr. Burroughs for her indispensable place in the world's most sacred heroines of Faith, after which she gave an account of her ninety-five trip engaged in missionary activities in Burma, India, and other foreign lands.

34. Miss Primrose Funches, Western Director of the Young People, also thanked the Convention for its cooperation. She received $70 from Kansas Women seling a box of dishes and asked for others to help sell them.

35. Dr. Burroughs reported that she had found a perfect spot for a camp. It will cost a lot of money, but there will not be another one like it in the whole world.

37. It was moved, seconded that the treasurer's report would be adopted.

38. Unreadiness stated by:

(1) Mrs. M. O. Ross who had reported $35.00 on the S. Willie Layten fellowship fund and $137.48 was paid on Thursday and Saturday. Dr. Burroughs asked if she had any receipts to show and the answer was "Yes." Dr Burroughs asked who gave them receipts for the money and the reply was: "Mrs. Esther Walker Tyree gave receipt for one, and Mrs. S. P. Robinson gave the receipt for the other."

(2) $345.18 for Temperance; the treasurer's report was $336.18.

(3) Deacons' wives raised over a thousand dollars as was reported by Mrs. M. L. Spraggins, the chairman who had receipts to show. The treasurer explained that the money never did reach her. Dr Burroughs assured all the workers that she would investigate and try to make the proper adjustment.

(4) The question was asked if the 1954 pledges paid at this time would get in the 1054 report and Dr. Burroughs answered "No!" Those reports will go in the 1955 reports.

39. The report was adopted with the corrections made.

40. Dr. Burroughs stated that the purpose of raising money was explained in the Handbook.

41. The question was asked where to send the life membership money. Dr. Burroughs explained that all moneys were to be sent to the treasurer and that she herself did not handle the money. All money raised for the Retreat, life memberships, retreat furnishings go to the treasurer.

42. A question was asked about the certificates. Badges for life membership of which Dr. Burroughs assured them that they would be straightened out as soon as possible.

43. Dr. Burroughs asked the finance committee to read the constitution on the matter of taking checks, which forbids taking checks.

44. Dr. Burroughs felt there was an element of ingratitude shown in not applauding for financial report for they could not appreciate from whence we have come from an all-low to an all-high. 99% of the women are cooperating and all that is planned will be carried out.

45. Dr. Burroughs reported the status of the Retreat and answered many questions concerning it. She asked a show of hands of women who had neither seen a picture nor the Retreat and there was none. She spoke of the beauty, value and challenge of the Retreat. She asked the group to double everything that was done in 1954, in 1055 on the Retreat. She told of the luncheon she gave for the ministers and how Mrs. Alice Browne, chairman of the Foreign Missions Committee, came from Kansas City, Mo., to help. Her committee had given silver and some very beautiful Chinaware. Upon Mrs. Browne's arrival, Doctor Burroughs asked her to wash the Chinaware, because of its delicacy.

46. Mrs. Viola Harris of Denver, Colo., reported $125.00 she had raised for the Retreat with the sale of 250 copies of a pageant written by a person who wanted to become a foreign missionary but was taken ill and finished the play from the sick bed. The title of the Pageant is "Jesus, the Master Teacher."

47. Mrs. M. J. Brockway asked if this would be a good time to turn in money and take pledges and donations for the Retreat to which the answer was "yes."

52. Dr. Burroughs emphasized the World Day of Prayer for February 25, 1955 to be celebrated by Christians around the world. She told us to leave our church doors open so everyone could come in and pray at sometime during the day. She said that we were sleeping on a Volcano. She was not trying to frighten us into prayer but letting us know that Prayer is the only way. "A world of Christians on their knees for ten minutes will bring heaven down. All we are to do is to create the atmosphere and people will do it. Have a courteous committee moving around noiselessly in the church." "The world Day of Prayer," she continued, "is dedicated to transform our weapons of war of today into plowshares and pruning hooks. We should engage womanhood to g in pairs to the places consecrated to prayer for prayer is the answer to our many problems. God deals wits the Impossible; this is His Special Line."

53. Mrs. Cassielle Davis of Waukegan, Illinois spoke of the effectiveness of World Day of prayer in her community.

54. Mrs. Julia Pate Borders gave Dr. Burroughs credit for the inspiration she had gained from the World Day of Prayer. She asked how could she further carry the celebration out without segregation. In answer to this question Dr. Burroughs asked the Secretary to read excerpts of thoughts on World Day of Prayer as contained in the Worker magazine edited by her. It was further stated that many women from various sections of the country have been helped through the Worker in conducting the World Day of Prayer. Doctor Burroughs said: "Our difficulties are our great challenges."

55. Doctor Burroughs presented the matter of our Bath House pledge of which we owe a balance of $8,000.00. She urged the women to double their donation to the Bath House.

56. Mrs. Maude J. Brockway suggested that the balance of $8,000.00 be apportioned by states. A committee consisted of Mrs. Maude J. Brockway, Oklahoma City, Mrs. Uve Modonna Arbouin, New York, Mrs. M. E. Edwards, Texas and Mrs. Willa Mae Grimes, Michigan.

57. The treasurer reported that $2847.40 had been raised in this Board.

65. A discussion was called for at which time the following state presidents spoke:

(1) Alabama State, Mrs. H. M. Gibbs said they had already paid $500.00 on the bathhouse and could not pay any more.
(2) Maryland. Mrs. Evelyn Clayton said they had paid about $500.00 on the bathhouse and could not say how much of it the women paid.
(3) Oklahoma, Mrs. M. J. Brockway stated that Oklahoma almost had paid her $500.00, but was going to accept this additional quota.
(4) Arkansas consolidated, accepted.
(5) Arkansas Regular, accepted.
(6) Northeast Mississippi, accepted.
(7) Illinois General, accepted.
(8) Texas Baptist accepted a $150.00 quota.
(9) East Mississippi, accepted a $150.00 quota.
(10) Illinois State, accepted a $225.00 quota.
(11) Indiana General, accepted.
(12) Texas B. M. & E., accepted.
(13) Wolverine, Michigan, accepted.
(14) Minnesota, accepted.
(15) Kansas accepted a $150.00 quota.
(16) Ohio State, accepted.
(17) New York accepted.
(18) Missouri was uncertain as to the quota to be paid.
(19) Michigan B. M. & E., accepted.

(20) Mrs. Harris stated that Wyoming did not have a state Convention, but three or four churches represented through Colorado.

66. At this point Dr. Burroughs asked first, how many would accept full quota, the number was 14; those, second, who would accept a change in quota, 3; those who were responsible and refused to speak, 4.

67. The President assured them that materials would be sent out by the Bath House Committee.

68. A second item of unfinished business was the Baptist World Alliance. It was voted in the September Board meeting in St. Louis, Missouri, that a part of the expense of the First vice president to the Baptist World Alliance be paid. Questions were asked as to which tour would be taken care of or what part of the expense would be taken care of by the Woman's Convention. A committee of three: Mesdames Fama J. Haynes, Texas; Esther Walker Tyree, Ohio and Carrie Phillips, Michigan, was appointed to bring in a report on Mrs. Ross' trip. Upon reporting, the committee suggested $650.00, but Mrs. Carrie Phillips brought in a minority report that the Woman's Convention pay $1,047.00 for full-fare tour number two to London.

69. It was voted unanimously that the Woman's Convention pay the full fare for tour number two to the Baptist World Alliance in the amount of $1,047.00.

70. Mrs. Ursula Botts stated that it was parliamentary usage that if the president did not go, then the vice president is to go in her stead and would be entitled to every accommodation that the president would receive.

71. Doctor Burroughs said she would authorize the treasurer to write the check at the proper time.

72. Atty. Gertrude Rush wanted a clarification of what President Burroughs meant in an expression she made concerning her being our representative to the Baptist World Alliance. Doctor Burroughs told us that she would let her decision be known in letter form.

73. The president quoted the adage which is over the Union Station in Washington, D. C. "He who would bring back the wealth of India must the wealth of India Carry." She continued, "Going to London is just NOT a trip. We should have a very high purpose in going to London for we are going on business for the King. This should stimulate each one to a greater service for the King.

74. Mrs. Willa Grimes spoke on the importance of her committee on the Life of Doctor Burroughs.

75. Mrs. M. O. Ross, first vice president, expressed appreciation to the Woman's Convention of Arkansas on behalf of all the women of our Convention for the mountain top experiences of this board meeting.

76. Doctor Burroughs announced that the notice of the Institute at the National Trade and Professional School, Washington, D. C., would be forthcoming quite early.

77. The President called for a report on the Memphis Convention in September. She told us that the Woman's Convention must be dealt with as an enormous organization. She said we are not satisfied with the cloth curtain partition between the two Conventions in the Auditorium in Memphis.

78. Mrs. J. C. Woods, President of the B. M. & E. Convention, Woman's Auxiliary, reported that the Metropolitan Baptist Church auditorium would seat 1500 to 2000, which was quite inadequate to accommodate the delegation.

79. Dr. Burroughs closed the meeting by asking God to lead us.

80. Closing Hymn: Lord, Keep Me Shining for Thee.

81. Adjournment.

WHERE CROSS THE CROWDED WAYS OF LIFE

Where cross the crowded ways of life
Where sounds the cries of race and clan,
Above the noise of selfish strife,
We hear Thy voice, O Son of man!

In haunts of wretchedness and need,
On shadowed thresholds dark with fears,
From paths where hide the lures of greed,
We catch the vision of Thy tears.

The cup of water giv'n for Thee
Still holds the freshness of Thy grace;
Yet long these multitudes to see
The sweet compassion of Thy face.

O Master, from the mountain side,
Make haste to heal these hearts of pain,
Among these restless throngs abide,
O tread the city's streets again.

Till sons of men shall learn Thy love
And follow where Thy feet have trod;
Till glorious from Thy heav'n above
Shall come the city of our God.

CHRISTIAN FRIENDS, FELLOW LABORERS, DEARLY BELOVED:

I greet you in the name of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

For several months you have been concerned about my health.

Many of you have been much in prayer. Your prayers and supplications comforted me. Your spirit filled my room.

Your messages, gifts and services lifted me up and bore me on wings of love.

I praise and thank God for friends such as I know I have throughout America and in other parts of the world.

I had a rich experience way down in the valley with God.

I could hear the voice of my Master saying, "I am with you." Your prayers were answered, and here I am with you to testify of His love and His matchless power.

May I pass on to you the prayer that I prayed during the time that God laid me down in Green Pastures?

"Father, to Thee we look in all our sorrow,
Thou art the fountain whence our healing flows;
Dark though the night, joy cometh with the morrow;
Safely they rest who in Thy love repose.

"When fond hopes fail and skies are dark before us,
When the vain cares that vex our life increase—
Comes with its calm the thought that Thou are o'er us,
And we grow quiet, folded in Thy peace.

"Naught shall affright us on thy goodness leaning.
Low in the heart Faith singeth still her song;
Chastened by pain, we learn life's deepest meaning,
And in our weakness Thou dost make us strong.

Patient, O heart, though heavy by thy sorrows!
Be not cast down, disquieted in vain;
Yet shalt thou praise Him when these darkened furrows,
Where now He plougheth, wave with golden grain."

IN MEMORIAM

Death is The Golden Key That Opens The Palace of Eternity—MILTON

Comrads and friends who have gone HOME since we met in Miami, 1953.

"To die is to join in hosannas to a risen and reigning Lord,
And to feast with Him at His table on the bread and wine of His board.
To die is to enter a city and be hailed as a child of its King,
The grave has lost its victory and death has lost its sting.

To die is to rise in power from the husk of earth-sown wheat,
To die is to rise in glory, from the dust of the incomplete.
Death fills the hand with fresh cunning and fits it with perfect tool,
And grants to the mind full power for the tasks of its greatest school.
Death gives new breath to the runner and wings to the imprisoned soul,

To mount with a song of the morning towards the limitless reach of its goal."

These have entered "The City":

"Brother of mine on life's long road,
What care I if our creeds agree?
What care I of thy race or birth?
Enough that I may know thy worth,
And that love walks with you and me,
Brothers in Christ, and 'Joint heirs with 'Thee.'

Brothers are we of every tongue,
Of every race and every creed;
'One blood all nations of the earth'—
This is the message of Christ's birth;
This is the law, the hope, the need."

THE HOT SPRINGS MEETING

The 1954 business meeting of the Board of Directors of the Woman's Convention was held January 21-22, in the Bowman Little Theatre in the Bath House Sanatorium. The attendance was large and the marked interest in the business of the Convention assured us that your officials and committees take their assignment and stewardship seriously and are determined to enlighten and enlist the folks back home in the work of Missions, Christian education and social welfare for which this Convention proposes to give the last ounce of its devotion.

In considering the budget for 1954 the Board requested that we be very mindful of our obligation to pay off the debt on The Retreat at Washington, double our gift for the National Training School at Nashville, Tennessee, contribute generously to the building program of the National Trade and Professional School at Washington, and raise as much as we possibly can on our pledge of $8,000 on the Bath House and Sanatorium debt.

Following the Hot Springs Meeting in January, we went to work at once organizing our committees and informing them of the entire program for 1954. It is, therefore, our hope that every officer of the Convention and Chairman and Co-chairman of every committee have cause to come rejoicing over the fact that each has her quota and that each is determined to set a noble example of interest and cooperation in the work to which we have set our hands.

It is not at all difficult to make the work of the Woman's Convention go if we do not wait until the last minute to do the job that has been assigned to us individually.

This organization of Christian women is entirely too large to do little things and we hope it is too devoted to the cause of Jesus Christ to mark time, stand stil lor doubt. We therefore, challenge this Convention to get on with the big business of Christian education, missions and social welfare.

COMMITTEES IN THE FIELD THE YEAR ROUND

In 1949 we launched the Committee Plan for this Convention with the Slogan:

"PLAN YOUR WORK THEN WORK YOUR PLAN."

The definite purpose of this plan is—

1. To divide responsibility for the work of the Convention as equitably as possible.

2. To place responsibility for all of the work of the Convention in the hands of responsible women.

3. To cultivate the entire field the year round instead of waiting until July or August to put on an annual "begging campaign" with a dozen appeals going to the same person.

4. To educate the entire constituency as to the entire program of the Woman's Convention.

5. To discover and develop women for future leadership in various fields.

6. To publish and circulate a Hand Book and a Committee Book—the former to set forth the Convention program, its constitution, rules and regulations, and to publish a National Committee Book giving the names of Chairmen and Co-Chairmen and members of all Committees. In this way the public can know who is responsible for the work of the Organization.

The Committee Plan has grown. We now have 39 committees with 39 Chairmen and Co-Chairmen and over 1,200 women doing committee work.

You can thus see that we have an ORGANIZATION and not a loosely thrown together ANNUAL Convention. The progress and results will he told by the women who head the committees. Many of them have done magnificent jobs. We operate on the Quota Plan. It is definite and does not place too much responsibility on any one committee. All are requested to raise the same amount and are given 12 months in which to do it.

We extend to these fine women our sincere thanks for the way in which they are growing and keeping the entire constituency informed and interested in the entire program. No group of Negro women is doing more to back up a national organization. It will be interesting and encouraging to see how many Committees will report their full quota per member.

WORLD DAY OF PRAYER

WORLD DAY OF PRAYER is the truly GREAT DAY among Christians throughout the world. For four years we have been backing up the call of the United Church Women by sending out special material to women in 4,000 of our Churches across the nation. We have used as our slogan: "Open every Church door. Ring every Church bell. Call the people to prayer on the WORLD DAY OF PRAYER."

The response to this call has been good but not half as satisfactory as it should have been or as it must be. Our purpose is not to have separate WORLD DAY OF PRAYER meetings. Wherever the two races can meet together for this High Day, they should by all means, do it, but the general call has not sent to enough of our women. Many of them did not know anything about it until we issued the call to Prayer.

Then too, the material gotten out by the WORLD DAY OF PRAYER committee was too formal to be effective among people who are used to praying, instead of reading prayer material.

What we want is Prayer, and the people will pray if we speak their language and create the desire and the atmosphere. In many Churches we have made the day glorious because the people understood what they were doing and they believe in it, because they understood.

No congregation is so small or so weak that it cannot hold a few hours of fellowship and communication with God. The date for the 1955 WORLD DAY OF PRAYER is February 25, 1955. Send for material. Let us pray.

The world needs it now worse than it has ever needed it but in spits of world conditions the Kingdom is coming if we believe in God.

THE RURAL PROJECT

For some reason the President of the Woman's Convention feels compelled to keep the Rural Life Project before you. It was the first major project that you accepted and began work on under this administration.

The rural woman still needs us and the rural problem is still out there to be solved by clear visioned, capable, devoted leaders. Some day the Rural Life Center will be a reality. God still moves in a mysterious way.

In the realm of the spiritual, never take delays for defeat. The Retreat for Foreign Missionaries grew out of the delay in going forward with the Rural Life Center.

In this connection you will recall one of Paul's richest and most blessed experiences: He had planned to go to Bithynia. They way was blocked; his plan was broken. It led them to Troas where he had no engagement at that time and he really did not have any other plans.

A man of Macedonia saw him, and said to him, "Since you do not have anywhere to go, 'Come over into Macedonia, and help us'". He went and you know the glorious results.

In any situation, if you cannot do what you plan, do what you can and invariably, God will help you and "Make of it the greatest opportunity you ever had." If you cannot get through to iBthynia, go to Troas.

Sometimes the longest way around is the surest way to get where you should go.

THE NATIONAL TRADE AND PROFESSIONAL SCHOOL

It has been a long hard task to build The National Trade and Professional School (formerly The National Training School) from an idea to its present commanding position on Lincoln Heights in the capital of the nation.

It is now the most valuable piece of property owned by Negroes and devoted to educational and social betterment. This fact is significant in that, Washington is like Rome of old. Wise men go there to display their wisdom, and those who are not so wise, go there to learn of them.

The school offers to Christian women a supreme opportunity to do the kind of work in education that is most needed for this great hour in the history of the world. The school has set anobleexample in self-help, high standards and sacrficial giving and serving, but it does not yet appear what we shall do.

Many of you have had this work on your hearts and in your gifts for years. The whole undertaking is so sacred and meaningful that we have already had the experience that Moses had when God spoke to him out of the burning bush. He saw every leaf and twig of that bush aflame with the presence of Jehovah. Yes, God has been there and it doth not yet appear what he shall do for us if we "keep on believing."

Last year we informed you of our plan to put on an intensive program of education for Church women. That plan is going forward and it will soon begin to unfold.

In order to refresh your minds on what the plan is, we are reprinting excerpts from it in this message:

1. We are now ready to call Members of the Board of Trustees to Washington for a very important business session.

2. We are also ready to start the building of the much needed dormitory. There have been delays but the building should be ready about the middle of 1955.

3. Gifts have been coming in. The largest one that came this year is a gift of $4,000, from THE WOMAN'S MISSIONARY UNION, Baptist General Association of Virginia, Miss Ellen Douglas Oliver, Executive Secretary.

You will never know what the love and devoted interest of our Virginia friends have meant to us. They are so reassuring and heartening.

Perhaps you do not know what it means in a work like this, when at times, one feels that she is treading the wine press alone, but God speaks and people act, and then he says, "Lo, I am with you always."

There is another experience that those of you who are engaged in Christian work have had: The experience of knowing that you have a few faithful ones who never forget. It is never a long list, but it is a case of God working his spiritual arithmetic. He says, "One shall chase a thousand, and two shall put 10,000 to flight." What power he gives to the faithful/

In this category, we must call the names of those who have never failed to send a gift every month of the year through a number of years:

Rev. B. H. Hunter, Pastor
Mt. Olivet Baptist Missionary Society
St. Paul, Minnesota
Rev. R. T. Andrews, Pastor
Lott Carey Missionary Society
Indianapolis, Indiana
Rev. W. D. Carter, Pastor
Friendship Baptist Missionary Society
Pasadena, California

There are others who have not been so regular, but they have been interested givers. You who gave will know the meaning of "bread cast upon the waters" that will be seen and gathered.

We have girls scattered all over this country who are making good as a result of your gifts to the school. They are in Africa, enriching that land by their lives; they are in Puerto Rico and the West Indies. A beautiful story came to us a few days ago about the marvelous impression that Mrs. Anna Locker's life is making on African women. She is a graduate of our school, chairman of our Literature Committee and the wife of Councilman Jesse D. Locker, the new Minister to Liberia, appointed by President Eisenhower.

We miss her but you will be thrilled by her noble example of what it means to be Christian even in High places.

OUR CHRISTIAN SCHOOLS

Without properly trained leaders for our Missionary Societies, Sunday Schools and Youth Organizations, it will be impossible for our Churches to offer a modern program that will attract and hold the interest and challenge the devotion of the people in proportion to the tragic needs for a prepared ministry and for trained lay Christian leaders. Organizations such as ours are not doing anything to meet those needs.

To how many young people is your Church giving full or part scholarships? Are you investing in the education of ministers and Christian teachers and social workers for your Church and community, or do you grab them whenever you can and then complain if they do not measure up?

Very few Churches and organizations such as ours realize that their future growth and security depend absolutely on the quality of leaders that our Christian schools turn out. What right have you to expect or require character and educational equipment and professional training unless you have done something definite to make such requirements possible. We are not even giving proper concern in searching for the kind of students that should be sent to Christian schools nor the quality of men who should be searched out and sent to our Theological Seminaries. The business of seeking and finding young men and women of character and promise is definitely the business of every Church—large or small. For every Church must have teachers, preachers and leaders for its varied activities.

God intends that His entire program must be a program of learning and growing in Grace and knowledge. He proclaimed this fact in Habakkuk 2:14, when He says: "For the earth shall be filled with the knowledge of the glory of the Lord, as the waters cover the sea."

How is it then that some of us think that it is sufficient that a few workers in the Church should know and a great majority of the people shall only go?

Our Convention must get on with the business of larger giving and intensive searching for Christians who want to learn and thus help to make this prophesy in Habakkuk come true.

If 4,000,000 Christians really mean business for the King, the leaders would have interest and influence enough to raise at least a million dollars a year and dedicate and consecrate it to the development and ongoing of all of the schools and projects for which we are responsible.

There is no reason on earth why 4,000,000 Christians should beg and look to other people to support their educational work. I challenge 4,000,000 Negro Baptist churchmen to stop misrepresenting God, after they sing all over the place "My Father is Rich."

If leaders in our Churches, clubs and fraternal organizations could stop climbing, seeking office, honor and praise long enough to see the condition of the masses, they would do exactly what Ezekiel did when he came to his senses and caught a vision of the condition of his people, and God laid his hand upon him. Ezekiel says, "Then I came to them of the captivity at Telabib, that dwelt by the river of Chebar, and I sat where they sat, and remained there astonished among them . . .

the Lord came unto me, saying, . . . I have made thee a watchman . . . therefore . . . give them warning from me, and thou givest him not warning . . . to save his life; but his blood will I require at thine hand. Ezekiel 3:15-18.

Anybody with eyes to see, sense enough to evaluate, and love enough for their fellowman, know that the Negro masses are in a terrible fix mentally, morally and spiritually.

The leaders and organizations can change this condition. It cannot be done overnight. It took Ezekiel seven years to get over his airs and to get to work on the problem, but he did it. God hassaved each one of us that we might hear his voice and enter devotedly and unselfishly into his service for the salvation and uplift of his people.

WHAT CAN WE DO TO HELP PREPARE CHURCH WOMEN FOR BETTER SERVICE?

Negro church women are carrying most of the load in our churches. Without their services and sacrificial gifts, the average Negro church would have to close its doors. The churches would make more if they did more for the people who are actually carrying the load. The churches would get better results if the women were encouraged and helped to study. It would be more profitable to invest something in the training of the women who are already engaged in the service, than to wait for young people who are now in school to come out and go on about their business. There are nt one hundred young Negro girls in high school or college thinking about or preparing to enter the field of Christian service. The church hal better do something with what it has.

Our church women must be given larger opportunity for self-development. Many will make the excuse that they cannot stay away from their homes, their children, or their employment long enough to take the abridged courses. Of course, there are many who cannot. And we are proposing that we inaugurate in this Convention in this session a campaign for carrying out that order given in II Timothy 2:15:. We must make the desire to study and to know contagious. It will spread if it is properly launched. The great literary campaign in Africa caught fire because teachers, preachers, and Christian leaders male ignorance of the Word of God unpopular. We propose to make an experiment of this suggestion at the National Trade and Professional School, Washington, D. C.

There will be two terms, six weeks each, and the already popular SUMMER INSTITUTE of three weeks. We shall offer English, Bible, Missions, Public Speaking, Business, Practical Arts, Home and Family Life. The first term will begin January 15 to March 1. The second six weeks will begin November 1 and end December 15. The Summer Institute is held in July.

If this plan is given a fair trial, it will not only be something brand new in education, but it will give our church women a brand new outlook on the fields of service, and it will give our churches some real leaven in the lump. There is no question about what Negro Baptists can do if they catch the vision and decide to unite in a mighty crusade to help those women, who are now already laboring with our churches in the Gospel.

This is an open call for volunteers ina Nation-wide crusade to study, to [illegible] to do the will of Gol in Kingdam Building.

HOME MISSIONS

This Convention gives $1,000.00 annually toward the purchase of the Baptist Student Center at Howard University. This gift means that we are investing in the social welfare of the men who are to be our future Christian leaders. We could not make a better investment. The time will come when we shall give more to all men who are helped by our gift (though it is not a large gift), to their social welfare. They must let us know through our educational committee whether our interest is appreciated and how they propose to share it. Are these men helping in their Churches back home? Students can grow in qualities of leadership by giving their services and encouraging other young people to work in the Church.

It is very necessary that we give but it is also very necessary that we follow our giving through to see what happens to the "bread cast upon the water." We must become more concerned about what happens to the young people who go to college and are expected to associate themselves with those in their communities who are trying to improve conditions among the people.

We do not realize the scope and seriousness of our Home Mission problems. First, the people need the Gospel of Jesus Christ badly. It must be preached and lived so as to convince them what it can do in redeeming and transforming lives, but it must go further than that, and it will if those who preach and teach the people will only practice what they preach.

We labor in vain if people do not live what they learn.

The four most serious social problems in the field of Home Missions, are Slums, Blighted areas, Idleness and Rackets. In every city in this country, wrecking crews are at work demolishing houses that are no longer fit for human habitation or are in the way of progress. On every corner in the slums, Negro men and boys are standing idle and dirty. Dens of iniquity are flourishing.

Another Home Mission problem—and it is Home Mission in the sense that parents, in their homes, must tackle this problem: How to get women and girls to wear dresses instead of pants. The streets are teeming with girls who really embarrass decent men and self-respecting women, because they have discarded dresses and wear jeans, slacks, shorts and red pedal pushers.

Too many women have discarded everything that suggests feminity. They have not only discarded feminine attire, but they have assumed masculine mannerisms.

Our Home Mission challenge is serious and urgent, and we must attack every phase of it in order to build a nation that can endure.

These conditions will grow worse unless there is a united intensive Christian Mass Movement to make America Practically "slum free," and idleness, a social disgrace.

The real Home Mission advance will tackle all of these problems. Race discrimination is the fundamental cause of much idleness and human waste. But desire to work, and skill can open doors. "Want work, and know how to do it," should be a national slogan. "Want homes and know how to keep them," should be an eternal desire.

Our leaders must do more than look with shame upon the conditions of the masses. The time is running out on us because the masses in other races desire to rise and shine.

We can hold our own in America if we really desire to make what we own measure up to the standards of our day. The Home Mission Study Book for 1955 is "MAN and GOD IN THE CITY," by Dr. Kenneth D. Miller. It is a splendid book.

For your 1955 study, this book is a "Must," for every president of every Missionary Society, and every Christian leader who plans to go into the Crusade for a better America. The price is $1.25.

THE RETREAT

Our RETREAT for Foreign Missionaries—1022 Maryland Avenue Northeast, Washington, D. C., is a thing of value and beauty, and will be a joy forever. There is a brochure on the literature table that tells the story of how the Retreat came into being, but in order to refresh your memory we lift the purpose and set forth in a booklet and included it in our 1954 message:

The Purpose

1. A Retreat for the missionaries under the Foreign Mission Board of the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc., when they come to America on furlough, for study, or on business incident to their work in connection with The Board.

2. A Focal Point for intellectual, interracial, and international relations in missions.

3. A Library to promote a program of education on Africa.

4. A National Bureau of Missions for collecting, assembling, and distributing missionary information.

5. Hold Conferences and special fellowship meetings with returned missionaries.

6. Annual Three-Day Institute for the purpose of teaching and acquainting missionary workers and the general public with the social, racial and political aspects of African life. Scholars and specialists in the field will teach African life and history.

7. The Headquarters for the Missionary Committee of the Woman's Convention Auxiliary to the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc., for the national missionary activities of the Woman's Convention in co-operation with the Foreign Mission Board.

8. To Be Kept as "The House Beautiful and Useful" in Christian Service.

It is the business of the Foreign Mission Board and the Woman's Convention to see to it that these purposes are carried out. No organization of Negroes has ever made such a gift for World Service. We are recording this fact, because as Kipling reminded the nation,

"Lord God of Hosts
Be with us yet,
Lest we forget,
Lest we forget."

Many of you gave to make the purchase and equipment of The Retreat possible. Many more are going to give to help us complete the debt and to sustain the magnificent property through the years.

There are women here who are working with us to keep the Retreat as a Haven of Rest should be kept for those who are serving in various foreign fields, and for those who are planning to go into the service. We have a committee of eight women in Washington who are devoted to the place and are always on hand to receive and entertain visitors who come in large numbers.

Most people are simply thrilled and humbled by seeing the place for themselves and sensing the deeper meaning of a dream that will unfold completely as the years go by.

We are deeply grateful to individuals, mission circles in Churches that have sent bedding, table line, silverware and precious gifts to help us equip the place properly.

When you study the eight purposes carefully, you will be convinced that not only is the investment worthwhile, but the increasing need for the services will prove not only its social and spiritual value, but it will bear brilliant witness to the fact that those who made it possible had vision and devotion for the cause of World Missions.

THE RETREAT is one of the show places of Washington. It has also become the Mecca for visitors who want to see and enjoy the place that represents the vision, love and sacrifice of the women of this Convention.

Many fellowship meetings have been held in THE RETREAT during this year.

As the late Dr. Jemison put it so succinctly and unforgetably, at the dedication, when he said, "this is not only a RETREAT, but it is in every sense a TREAT."

We have appointed a Hospitality Committee whose business it is to receive and entertain special groups that come to spend a few hours in Christian Fellowship. These women are doing a perfect job. We are happy to present them to you.

Washington's Hospitality Committee for THE RETREAT: Mrs. Elizabeth Craig, Chairman; Mrs. Virginia Smith, Co-Chairman of the National Committee, Mrs. Andrew J. Allen, Mrs. Ruth Booker, Mrs. Georgia E. Carter, Miss Margaret Hall, Mrs. J. S. L. Holloman and Mrs. Elizabeth Pollard.

We have also been blessed with the service of three women who volunteered to serve as SPECIAL HOSTESSES whenever they are needed. They are Mrs. Lottie Jernigan Adams, Mrs. Lessie Hemmons Fortune and Mrs. Virginia Bushrod.

LITERATURE

Nothing that we have ever done is of more value to the women in the local churches across the nation than with what we have done in producing literature—THE WORKER and other material for use in our Churches.

It is ill becoming Christmas to brag about anything they do for God, because it makes no difference about how much we do, we are not only still unworthy of His trust, but we also face "petty done and the vast undone." We need more material for Church women.

We are eternally grateful to the Woman's Missionary Union of the Southern Baptist Convention for their annual gift to the Literature Department.

What strange things can happen! It was in this very Auditorium in 1936 that your President spoke to Southern Baptist Women, and in her address she emphasized the four basic needs for the on going of the work of our Convention. She stated that those needs are: Love, Learning, Literature and Leadership.

No appeal was made but a few weeks later a check for $250.00 came "to do as you think best with it." That check opened our Literature Endowment Fund, and each year since, The Woman's Missionary Union has been sending a gift to the Fund. It has never been less than $250.00; very often, it is more. We have their 1954 gift of $500.00.

Our devoted friend, the dearly beloved Miss Kathleen Mallory "passed through glory's morning gate to walk in Paradise," June 17th, but she left a rich heritage in Interracial Fellowship and good will. Her mantle has fallen upon Miss Alma Hunt, a young woman richly endowed for the great work.

For this day of challenge the Southern Baptist Women are blessed. They have in Mrs. George R. Martin one of God's anointed who carries her sacred responsibilities with faith, courage and matchless devotion.

The women of the world are moving forward and the women who lead them bear every evidence of His choosing.

BETTER PARENTS IS THE ANSWER

1. When a social condition gets out of hand people put in full time talking about how awful it is, and they put in very little time doing something sensible about it. All over the country wherever two or three are gathered together for any purpose, the talk invariably gets down to "how awful these young people are" and everybody knows that our juveniles "are taking the place"—at home, at school, in public places and in the streets. There is every evidence that something has gone wrong somewhere and millions of juveniles are going with it. "Going to the dogs," you say. That is only half of the truth. They have left the dogs behind. The government and social agencies are spending much money for play grounds, recreation and special leisure time activities, but there are no signs of real improvement in character, conduct and general inclinations. It is costing the nation more to simply talk about the misconduct of juveniles and to provide things with which they can play and places for them to play in, than it is costing the entire nation to provide for the education of children who are decent and like it. This problem of delinquency should be tackled more realistically. Everybody knows that to begin with, parents are definitely responsible, and too, many ways and means are being provided for parents to escape their responsibility.

2. Social agencies are all-out for providing play for delinquents. Of course, the communities need play grounds, recreation centers and special leisure time activities for young people but "all play and no work makes Jack a bad boy." We are bringing up a generation that wants to play from the cradle to the grave. That kind of social program will ruin even the best young people.

3. We have entirely too many public places operated under the law in which young people not only get bad habits, but they get bad drinks and bad concoctions that make them lose their senses.

4. Salacious reading material is poisoning the minds of children and youth. Newsstands and drug stores are piled high with comic books that feature crime, sex and horror stories. Bad books and bad movies are destroying millions of our children and young people.

5. Parents do know and do not care what their children are reading, seeing, drinking and believing. There is no way to save the generation that has all of these millstones around their necks.

But parents and the government should consider practical provisions for children: 1. War on bad reading material and bad movies; 2. Set up work and opportunity shops to be open during idle hours. They can be set up in Churches, community centers and other strategic places. Millions of young people "go to the dogs" because there is nowhere else to go. In the idle hour workshops they could learn useful arts, crafts and trades.

Social agencies could work miracles through workshops instead of misery through all play and other incidental activities. Of course, young people need play, but they have natural gifts that are being woefully neglected and actually lost.

6. Another "Must" on the program of Juvenile needs is: Parents and social agencies should give more attention to the native gifts and natural bent of well-behaved children or they, too, will become delinquent or fail to develop their divine gifts. We seem to take it for granted that well-behaved children will make it anyhow, and that they do not need special attention. All children need a certain amount of sensible attention. They need guidance and encouragement for their reading, selection of associates, play, arts and crafts.

There is a real danger in concentrating entirely on the bad delinquent and leaving the well-behaved to paddle their own canoe. We shall need strong leadership and capable workers in the days ahead. We shall also need those who have come up in spite of neglect and temptations of every kind, and we will have them if parents, teachers and Christian workers will tackle their jobs with clarity, certainty and ceaseless endeavor.

THE YOUNG PEOPLE'S DEPARTMENT

Twenty-nine years ago in the city of Baltimore, Maryland, we launched The Young People's Department of the Woman's Convention. It has had an interesting progressive and fruitful history. Its directors have been capable women who have taught, inspired and challenged the young people in our Churches throughout the nation to give themselves in devoted service. They have a strong glowing organization. The future leadership of the Woman's Convention must come out of our Young People's Department, and for that reason, we are not only responsible for their development, but we are greatly concerned about the development of their vision, their knowledge, their determination, thir courage and their devotion.

We are inexpressibly grateful to God for the National Directors, the State Directors, and all who are cooperating with us in the department to the end that in these young people, we shall see the desire of our souls and be satisfied.

Youth has much to offer in the field of Christian Service. They have enthusiasm, physical strength, mental powers, influence, personality, talent, time and spiritual powers.

It is our business to help them evaluate their equipment and guide them into the proper use of it.

God could not give to us a greater trust. We must, therefore, accept it and do our full duty in training our young people in the way they should go and set a noble example of what it means to be a Christian and what religion can do to us and for us, and what in turn, we can do for others.

MISSIONARY SOCIETIES IN OUR LOCAL CHURCHES

They can and must be greatly improved. First of all, any woman who heads a Missionary Society should know and she should keep on learning so as to know more. If she doesn't, she is a missionary liability.

What should she know is a fair question. She should know Jesus well enough to love him, to serve him by going where he wants her to go, being what he wants her to be, saying what he wants her to do. This is her spiritual equipment, and without it a woman should not even aspire to be a President of a Missionary Society.

She should be very much like the woman in the 31st chapter of Proverbs, and if she isn't she should either resign or address herself to the duty of making herself very much like that woman.

This business of just making out on a job, is unnecessary, expensive and unprofitable. The Missionary Society should be the most alive, progressive and challenging organization in the church.

The members of the Missionary Society should be growing and glowing as a result of what they are getting through study, contact and spiritual enrichment. The members cannot grow unless the President sets the example.

Every Missionary Society should have adequate study material. Writers and publishers are making more of it available. The greatest need in the majority of our Churches is more learners. Do you have a Missionary Society that is actually studying and growing? There are women in all of our congregations who would like to become learners. They should enjoy and take a more active part in all of our Church programs.

We are using Woman's Day to raise money. We should use it to raise the standards of mental, spiritual and social equipment of the women in all of our Churches. That was the original purpose of Woman's Day.

The then Corresponding Secretary of this Convention introduced the idea of Woman's Day to the Convention in 1936, and we hope to redeem the day by making it serve its original purpose.

INTERRACIAL ADVANCE

"Workers Together" is not a catch phrase. It is the unfolding of the Divine Plan. As Christians we must keep in mind that we are workers together with Christ. At the beginning of our Interracial Movement in the South, few saw clearly or moved with a satisfying degree of understanding, into this new area of race relations.

"What does this mean" was the big question. "Do you think it will get anywhere?" was another question. "Interracial" was a new and long word.

A few white and a few Negro women understood, desired and believed. They moved under God's Shekinah fires and read his promise "Low, I am with you always." To these pioneers this meant that God is still removing hindrances, obstacles and doubts. Today Interracial work among Baptist women in the South is advancing marvelously through Institutes, Conferences and schools. It is advancing on a more natural and much greater and much grander scale than the pioneers of twenty-five years ago ever dreamed. We rejoice with Negro and white women of the South in their rapid progress in this TOGETHERNESS as Christians.

The Kingdom of God will never get anywhere on this earth unless the leaders follow Christ in His plan to make Brotherhood real. Today, instead of fear, timidity and doubt, we see every evidence of sincere interest, respect and good will glistening with heavenly dews of cooperation that thrill and challenge us to go forward in the name of the God who does the impossible. We see gifts for Christian education, appreciation for the literature that is being produced by Negro Church women; we see community work enriched and we see teachers and welfare workers in both races praying, serving and walking together in heavenly places to the Glory of God and for the ongoing of His Kingdom. Our Interracial meetings are no longer the patronizing, cold, condescending, face saving unnatural together and yet apart things that they were twenty years ago. They are becoming natural, heart warming, Christian fellowship services in which the very atmosphere is charged with Christian earnestness, desire, purpose and understanding.

Last year our annual Interracial meeting in Washington, D. C., was an index to what is going on among Christian women of both races.

We have grown from a half dozen white women coming once a year to what was called an Interracial meeting to a packed auditorium in 1950.

Following that fine fellowship meeting in Washington, one hundred and fifty white Christian women spent the day visiting Our Retreat and the National Trade and Professional School. They had meetings at each place and went home rejoicing over what they saw, heard and felt. They initiated the tour and we are all anxious for the 1954 Fellowship Day.

There is an increasing number of rare souls in both races. God is specially working and loudly calling them to "Enlarge the place of thy tent, and let them stretch forth the curtains of thine habitations: spare not, lengthen thy cords, and strengthen they stakes." Isaiah 54:2.

Those of you who heard or have read the Clarion Call of the Southern Baptists, June 4th, right here in Keel Auditorium, in their forthright statement urging the acceptance of the Supreme Court Decision on public school education, realize that while Christians are standing up and speaking out on the question of civic and social freedom for the Negro. They called on white Christians of America to demonstrate the Christian principles they have professed and "live with our fellowman with mutual respect and love."

Several other denominations have spoken in similar words and strong language about applied Christianity and adherence to democratic principles.

These utterances are definitely the "Call of God" to the delinquent Christian nation.

It is clear as crystal that today God is especially working on bath races. This is the day of Crisis in bath races. God is giving them a chance to look up, clean up and live up.

All men who have eyes to see and minds to understand, have no doubt that the fullness of time has come for the removal of all of man's ungodly barriers between man and man and between nation and nation.

If we are obedient unto the heavenly vision we shall begin to see the marks of God's Golden Footsteps in our Church, in our homes, in our educational institutions and in the transformation of communities that are now being wrecked by man's inhumanity to man.

NEITHER RACE IS READY FOR INTEGRATION

Page Lester Granger. According to newspaper reports, Mr. Granger says that "Negroes are not ready for integration."

If Mr. Granger is quoted correctly, his statement is incomplete. He should have said "and neither are the whites ready." Of course, some of them are, but the majority of them are not. The fact of the mater is that white Americans are quite responsible for the Negro's unreadiness.

The basic principles underlying a democracy are, 1. Equal opportunity to learn, to earn, to live, 2. Love for justice, 3. Respect for human personality, 4. Appreciation for what each race has to offer toward the progress and happiness of the entire nation.

For nearly a hundred years, with not enough exceptions, parents, teachers and other adults in the white race have been teaching their children that the Negro race is innately inferior, and that the white race is innately superior—that just being white makes them superior.

This doctrine has been taught in the home and in the school and practiced by American Churches by separation and silence.

Of course, there have been always glorious exceptions in the attitudes and teachings of many white parents and teachers, but there has not been anything like enough of them to seriously effect the status quo, on the basic and tormenting race question in America.

On the other hand, parents, teachers and seniors in the Negro race have been bruised, broken, strangled and made bitter as a result of mistreatment, discrimination, injustice and segregation. Thus the minds and hearts of teh children of both races, for more than four generations, have been polluted and poisoned by this ceaseless teaching of race prejudice. The result has been an increasing and a deepening of antagonism, resentment and name calling.

The two races have been far more successful in teaching children race prejudice than they have in teaching American history, arithmetic, good manners and the Golden Rule.

Therefore, neither race is ready for integration.

Negroes stay mad about injustice and discrimination but have only one really fighting organization (The NAACP) that cries aloud and fights on all fronts, whether white Americans like it or not.

Not many white Americans know just how much contempt, friction and resentment, segregation and injustice provoke in Negroes.

A sense of being the victims of base injustice expresses itself in words and acts of hostility and thus lay deep foundations for various adverse race attitudes. On the whole, the various injustices that America has winked at, tolerated, condoned, encouraged and justified, enable both races to teach and lie about race superiority and race inferiority.

Both races have the wrong attitude and pursue the wrong course on matters affecting the whole race question in this country. This whole nation has sinned and fallen far short of the promises written in its constitution. "Justice for all is the only answer to what hurts the human spirit."

The hour has come when all Americans must act on this question of justice with clear open minds and unprejudiced attitudes, because, in a democracy, it is not safe to make it possible for any race or group to grow and jower out of harmony with democratic standards and ideals.

That is one reason why America has not been able to realize her original dream. She has been trying to build a democracy out of left over race attitudes from slavery.

Neither race is ready for integration.

Race prejudice chokes and stifles the spirit of democracy. The only thing that segregation can do is to keep either race from ever achieving true greatness.

Rac prejudice is a terribly expensive liability. How could Negroe she ready when they have lived under gross and flaunting inequalities for nearly a century? How could the whites be ready when they were compelled to stay in the ditch in order to keep the Negro down there?

Not ready? How could they he ready? Remember, this is the fight time in nearly a hundred years that a question of basic democratic rights for the Negro in America, hac come up and been acted upon as becometh a democracy. It was a surprise, and a shock such as the nation had not felt since Ahraham Lincoln issued the Emancipation Proclamation.

A ruling on Nation wide justice once in a hundred years!

That is why neither race is ready.

American children must be taught TOGETHER in order that the whole nation may learn the fundamentals of democratic principles and processes.

What are the specific needs for this brand-new nation wide program of education? The needs are good teachers, authentic textbooks, clean literature, sensible parents, broadening of contacts through organization, conferences, workshops, Christian teaching, play and clean sports. No name calling. In the whole readjustment process, the childres will not be IMPOSSIBL E if the parents and other adults have good teaching and living sense.

Of course, segregation in public school education should never have been tolerated or legalized in a free nation that was dedicated to become a democracy.

Now that integration is here and here to stay, the point is not who is ready for the question, but how can both races prepare as rapidly and as smoothly as possible to live so as to get the very most out of it for the good of the whole nation

Again, let us face the questin and decide to work aogether on the only answer. Why is it that neither race is ready for integration? We must admit that educationally, the nation started off wrong after freedom came. Lack of knowledge of the very vasis of a democracy—not learning together in order to live together—is the cause of the present dilemma.

For nearly a century, both races have been too busy teaching race prejudice, scorn, contempt, hate, inferiority and superiority, based solely on race, to be ready for democratic learning and democratic processes.

It is not a que stion of whether we are ready for it or not. It is a matter of what is right and best for the entire nation. Americans know that we have all sinned in this matter and have therefore, fallen short of the glory that awaits any real Christian democracy. We must get sense enough to integrate all basic democratic rights. Stop calling names and making faces. Get right! When we do, both races will get TOGETHER. Figst, teach the fundamental biological likeness of all races; Second, teach respect for human personality; Third ,teach cultural values and contributions made by all races to civilization; Fourth, furnish libraries with suitable reading material for children and parents; Fifth, Correct adverse racial attitudes hy teaching.

The most hopeful group on which to begin to practice is on the children of the nation. They have no prejudice. All worth-while education is based on love If our children cannot make the grade, our hope for a real democracy is in vain.

The right place to begin it is in the public school.

"Liberty and Justice for all" is not a catch phrase. These words, put in action, are the very life blood of democracy. Ready? Had the home, the school and Church been doing their duty in teaching basic, democratic and religious ideals, Americans in both races would have been ready for the Supreme Court Decision long before it was handed down. Had the peopel been doing right i nthis matter of public education they themselves would have been the Supreme Court.

When people do not intend to do right, they are never ready to do it. Both races might as well stop name caling and bulesque. Learn now that this nation cannot save its face in World Councils, and continue to deny the Negro his basic human and democratic rights. Remember, democracy like charity, must begin at home.

The fact is that it is not only a matter of face saving, but of gaining a place of respect, effective service and influence among the really free peoples of the earth. The only way this Nation can ever do it, is to practic at home what it tries to preach abroad.

THE SUMMER INSTITUTE

The SUMMER INSTITUTE for Christian Workers on Lincoln Heights was the best ever. Ask those who attended. God was there walking, teaching, guiding and clearing the vision and deepening every student's desire to learn.

The entire camp uswas Holy Ground. The atmosphere was charged and surcharged with the presence of the Great Teacher. The teachers and lecturers were men and womn who had been with Jesus and had learned of Him. We want you to know them: Officer Obver Cowan, President Police Boys Club, Rev. D. E. King, Mrs. Camille Davis, Mrs. Alice Brown, Miss Nancy E. Davis, Rev. J. Clinton Hoggard, Mrs. Viola Hill Whyte, Mrs. Gwendolyn Austin, Mrs. Etta Versa Frye, Miss Rosa Kimp, Miss Lillie Hundley, Rev. T. Ewell Hopkins, Miss Catalina Morales, Rev. R. L. Jeans, Mrs. Ward D. Hulbert, Miss Clara Lee, Mrs. Margretta L. Wanzer.

God has richly endowed these teachers, lecturers, social workers and artisans. Words canot express our appreciation for what they can do to people and with people. They have our sincere thanks for what they did for our entire Institute program.

It was a glorious three weeks of learning and living together so that we could see together the needs of the field. W eshall never stop praising God for the way our Summer School was taught through His disciples. Men and women of mind, faith and consecration, can have the same experience that Jacob had at Bethel when God promised him that his influence would "spread abroad to the west, and to the east, and to the north, and to the south," and he then and ther ededicated himself and a tenth of all that he had to God.

Three weeks on Lincoln Heights gives strength, vision and consecration to the work of the Master.

LOVE WILL DO IT

The book of Acts is not a finished or a closed book. Its aim and end is to enlist disciples and witnesses until Jesus comes. These disciples and witnesses shall go everywhere beginning at Jerusalem. The command says, "And to the uttermost parts of the earth." This command to go everywhere and win everybody is the supreme task of the Christian Church It is our challenge and our supreme responsibility. This generation has the equipment and every means with which to win the whole ea rthfor God. The only question is "Do we have the vision, the faith and love to do it?" These are the inner equipments with which men can do anything, and God is ready to help them mightily.

Perhaps we would do wel to devote the entire year to an exhaustive study of what this generation must do to be saved. God has set before us six mighty imperatives, and it is our h usiness to know them and do them:

1. RESTORATION AND CONSTRUCTION: The world has actually been wrecked by men moved by love of conquest. It must he rebuilt by men moved by the love of God. Love will do it:

> "For love alone can vanquish every foe,
> And love alone avenges every wrong—
> And love alone can lay all harriers low.
> Hate is for weaklings; only love is strong."

2. ENLIGHTENMENT: More than one-half the population of the earth—one billion two hundred million people, cannot read or write. The Christian Churches of today are responsible for this mental and spiritual blackness. "I have come that ye might have life" says Jesus. The Bible must be taught, and Christian literature must be written and scattered throughout the world. This is the only answer to man's mental need.

3. RELIGIOUS LIBERTY: It is the right of all the people on this planet. It is the duty of the Chhristian Church to proclaim this fact. The Second World Council of Churches that has just closed in Evanston rang every bell for Liberty.

4. "WORKERS TOGETHER" are the only words that mean anything in the expansion of the Kingdom of Jesus Christ.

5. RACIAL EQUALITY: The biological and sociological oneness of mankind is a scientific and spiritual fact. Jesus taught it and proclaimed it. It is therefore, the business of the Church to accept it, teach it and live it.

6. PROPER RACE RELATIONS: Christians everywhere must accustom themselves to living up to the ideals of fellowship, cooperation in brotherly kindness. This relationship must be applied in education and its varied aspects; in evangelism with all of its brotherly requirements; in cooperation; in witnessing and in service.

These six "Musts" are the tasks of the United Christian Church and God does not mean for us to wait any longer to get at them—TOGETHER.

LONDON IN 1955

Baptists the world over have their minds set on the 1955 Baptist World Alliance Meeting in London. It will be a most significant event for the reason that the Christian Church is facing its greatest challenge since Pentecost.

WORLD EVANGELISM winning the people of the whole world to Christ, is the challenge.

This is a breath-taking task, but it can and must be done. The hour has struck. Baptists must get ready to go to London in the same spirit that Christians of the First Century went to Pentecos. They must go o challenge the whole world with a message of certainty of faith, of hope and of devotion and courage. Spiritually, they must go to London with the inner combustible material for a glorious conflagration. Each individual Christian who is going in the name of a God who is able must "Clear from the head the masses of impressive rubbish;

Rally the lost and trembling forces of the well,
Gather them up and let them loose upon the earth."

In the London meeting, Christians will hear anew the Clarion Call of God for immediate advance upon all front of Christian service. We shall hear again that mighty song:

"All hail the pow'r of Jesus' name,
Let angels prostrate fall;
Bring forth the royal diadem,
And crown Him, Lord of all,
Bring forth the royal diadem,

and it shall come to pass.

We must first get the purpose and the significance of the London Meeting and then we must get deep, inner concern for its success, and we must catch the spirit of those first Christians who made Pentecost a success.

Always for travel, there should be a kind of preparation that will give to the traveler enlightenment and social benefit. To these ends there must be study. We must not only know where we are going, and what we are going for, but we must also know the HOW of travel. To these ends we have a committee on International Conferences: Mrs Gertrude E Rush, Des Moines, Iowa, and Miss Carolyn M. Scott, Chicago, Illinois. We have asked these two capable women to prepare certain necessary information so that we can make it available to our entire delegation.

Carved in marble, high upon Union Station, at the capital of the Nation, is this significant statement: "He who would bring back the wealth of the Indies, must carry the wealth of the Indies with him." In other words, if you are going to travel, you should know much about the places, the people, the language, the purpose, what to wear, when to wear it, what to talk about, what to ask about and how to carry yourself with grace and ease wherever you go.

This is most important if you are going to get the value of your investment in the trip and be prepared to pass on your experiences and information to the people when you return home.

Travelling is a social and educational art, and we should study much of it before we leave our own doorstep.

Organizations and causes are helped when they send the right people to represent them in meetings and conferences.

Robert Root has written a book on "HOW TO MAKE FRIENDS ABROAD." It makes good reading for those who are going to the Alliance. The price is $2.00. It is published by the Association Press.

It is not a "Must" but it is a mighty good guide and vision widener.

We have tried to give an account of our stewardship for this year; we have reviewed the field of Home and abroad; we have discussed conditions and have dared to suggest approaches and remedies for some problems.

Difficulties rise like the Himalayas before all Christians who are lining up for an advance against sin, wickedness, war and the tumultuous social conditions around the world.

No period in history has ever seen any day like this, but the Christian Church must turn on all of its lights and work to prepare the whole world for the coming of the Lord. There must be no fear nor marking of time. Listen to what God has to say about the certainty of victory over the world, the flesh and the devil: "I have made the earth and created man upon it. . . . I have raised him up in righteousness and I will direct all his ways." Because of this mighty promise the human spirit refuses to give up hope, and faith puts on her whole armour, and all Christians go forth to battle:

"An endless line of splendor,
These troops with heaven for home,
With creeds they go from Scotland,
With incense go from Rome.
These, in the name of Jesus,
Against the dark gods stand,
They gird the earth with valor,
They heed their King's command.

"Onward the line advances,
Shaking the hills with power,
Slaying the hidden demons,
The lions that devour.
No bloodshed in the wrestling—
But souls now-born arise—
The nation growing kinder,
The child-hearts growing wise.

"What is the final ending?
The issue, can we know?
Will Christ outlive Mohammed?
Will Kali's altar go?
This is our faith tremendous—
Our wild hope, who shall scorn—
That in the name of Jesus
The world shall be reborn!

Keynote Address, Rev. Edward T. Graham, Pastor Mt. Zion Baptist Church, Miami, Florida

Theme: "THE VISION OF A WORLD MADE NEW"

Dr. Burroughs, Officers, and delegates assembled: It is with singular significance that the privilege is mine to stand before you in the great state of Missouri, for it was the Senator of this state, Hon. Stuart Symington, who stood before the Electric men's union of the CIO in Montreal last September, and said that he "wasn't quite sure of what he wanted to talk about." But when he was told that he was among friends, of course everything was all right. Today I am certain that I am among friends; and I know what I am to talk about, but my problem is: How shall I say it

"The vision of a World Made New." I like this theme because it is so necessary to have visions in order that we can experience reality. I like it because today's visions are the blueprints which determine tomorrow's superstructures. This whole idea of expectation is not a new experience with us. Show me a man and I will show you a hope for a better day. This is a goal which centers in the very nature of society itself. Plato and Socrates dreamed of it in days gone by. The various Chambers of Commerce throughout America see a better city in the area of its existence. Wendell Wilkie saw "One World" with all men understanding each other. Roi Ottley wrote of a "New Day A-Coming." The Hebrew leaders of another Era envisioned a Messianic Hope. The Immaculate Lamb of God Himself, saw the Kingdom of Heaven coming on earth and in the hearts of men.

I like this theme because if there is a redeeming feature inherent in this National Baptist Convention, Inc., such a feature poses itslef in the work of the Woman's Auxiliary, the body which I am now addressing. I make this statement unequivocally and without fear of contradiction because the Women's Convention knows where it is going; and it is obvious that it has developed the proper vehicle to get there on. That vehicle is its excellent program and training in worship, missions, and religious education. For certainly, if we are looking for a world made new, not only must we have a plan of action, but we must be the possessors of a missionary zeal which will guarantee the development of the plan to its fullest fruition. This plan of development is the reason which brought you here. It is the very purpose for which you have come; and, it is the challenge which you must accept if our world is going to be made new. For seeing that you are compassed about by so great a multitude of witnesses—not only the people who sent you, but the eyes of the world are upon you—you must lay aside every weight and the sin which doth so easily beset you, and run—yes, RUN! run with patience this race which is set before you, looking to God the Author and Finisher of your faith.

What is this race which you are called upon to run? What are the intracacies of life which make a change so necessary? Why the need to make our world new? Well, here are some of the reasons: In periods of prosperity and success, (1) man has shown a decided tendency to turn away from God. He may even be willing to say—"Lord, you have brought me from a mighty long way," yet, add—"I am here now, I can get along by myself." A veritable act of paganism. (2) Another is the utter disrespect for family life. That Jesus said: "Whom God has joined let not man put asunder," means nothing to the people of our time, for statistics show that out of every three marriages, there is one divorce. Many of divorced these people are church members. We lower our morality, and then expect God to lower His standards to suit our sinfulness. Can you picture a Christian country where 21 millions of dollars are spent on liquor advertisements in three magazines in one year? You know the answer to that question.

But probably the greatest reason why we must change this old world, is the fact that (3) man's technological knowledge has far exceeded his morality and his religion. Too much power in the hands of evil men will destroy this world before the rest of us can get down on our knees and ask God to save it. Even as I stand before you now, I tremble at the thoughts of Nagasaki and Hirishimo. Is there none who cares about man, the masterpiece of God's creation? It would appear that all respect for the dignity of the human personality has left us completely as our sins of greed and selfishness have enveloped us. One by one, the doors of God's church are being closed on Sabbath evenings simply because none will come to hear the gospel of a Redeeming Christ preached to them. O, yes, we need a new world all right, and we Christians had better re-read our marching orders or God will destroy this wicked race, and build a nation that will obey Him.

I should like to leave for your consideration a plan which spells itself out into seven points of specifics. It may be well for you to jot them down, and ponder them long after you will have left this Convention. (1) THE POWER OF ANALYSIS. You must be able to find out what's wrong before you can administer any cure. And to do this, you must first know what is right. Once the diagnosis is known, then you have a job on yourhands. (2) ABILITY TO PLAN EFFECT-IVELY. You must have the ability to build in your mind's eye, a picture of the thing you want accomplished, then work assidiously toward that end until the goal is reached. (3) AN INCISIVE UNDERSTANDING OF BOTH INDIVIDUAL AND GROUP BEHAVIOR. You cannot lead unless you understand the people with whom you deal. Always one step ahead as if you were literally reading their minds. You have got to know what makes them act that way. (4) A TRAINED OBJECTIVITY. Stick to a principle because it is right; because it pleases God, not man. If sides must be taken, then choose the side of right. (5) EMOTIONAL STABILITY. Whatever form the devil may take, he may come to you as mad as blazes, on the one hand, or with tears streaming down both cheeks, on the other; but as long as he is not right, don't you identify yourself with him, rather stand up like a true soldier of the cross and tell him "get thee behind me Satan." (6) A CULTIVATED PATIENCE. Don't become discouraged. You have got to learn how to labor and to wait. Remember, God is never late. Sometimes it might seem long to us; but whenever, WHENEVER His train arrives, it's on time. Patience is necessary for the accomplishment of any worthwhile effort. And finally, this which should have been number one is number (7) FAITH IN GOD. You can do nothing without it. You must know that—"As thy day so shall they strength be"; but when the darkness of our lives overtake us, God comes also to lead us. You must feel that "Underneath are His everlasting arms." We cannot fall to defeat He holds us up! Be certain of the fact that—"Eternal God is our Refuge." The hounds of life may chase us; friends may even turn against us; but there is always ONE to whom we can go. Have faith in God.

This is the time for all good men to come to the aid of his country. We cannot hold the enemy unless together we stand. We have the know how and the determination; the courage; the love.

ADDRESS: REV. R. E. L. HARMOND, Pastor.

Bethesda Baptist Church, Port Chester, New York
National Baptist Convention Representative to the United Nations

"THE VISION OF A WORLD MADE NEW"

To our beloved and honorable President, Dr. N. H. Burroughs, whom the years have taught us to love, respect and admire, for her deep christian conviction, and her prophetic comprehensiveness, yea, indeed, a prophet of her times—and to others of the official family, and to each of you who follows the way above the ways, Greetings, in the name of the Ecumenical Savior, Jesus Christ:

I was driven to moments of prayer and joy by the invitation extended to me to speak to those of you who make up theconstituency of the Woman's Convention – about one of the very important institutions of ur kind f a world the United Nation—of which our Baptist family has been part and parcel for the past year working with a persistence of personality and with motives that have worn exceedingly well, in challenging, and confronting men, and nations and governments of the world to do the best things in the worst times, yea, and to take the rod of International conciliation and reconciliation and use it, in hastening the day "when men would beat their swords into plowshares—and their spears into pruning hooks, nations shall not lift up sword against nations, neither shall they learn War any more."

IN A VISION OF A WORLD MADE NEW

Rev. 21:1, And I saw a new heaven and a new earth for the first heaven and the first earth were passd away, and there was no more sea. 19:6, And I heard as it were the voice of a great multitudeand as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of mighty thundering, saying, Al-le-lu-ia; for the Lord God omnipotent reigneth; and I heard the voice of harpers harping with their harps—and they sang as it were a ne wsong before the throne."

We live in times that try men's souls—a time of crisis after crisis, or a day that might be characterized as one of "tension" for we are engaged in a struggle between freedom and tyranny across the entire world. Yes, these are difficult times, with their great aggravating and frustrating besetments. But this ought not and must not be times of dampers for Christians who love the Christ of all roads. B'r Rabbit & Fox, born & bred in a briar patch—Thus it is with Christians who have a vision of a world made new—take a cross, trials, tribulations, care, knocks, and pains, and make of these things stepping stones to noble and heroic living. Make of difficult days, one's for greatness, one's for vital faith, and for love in Jesus Christ.

These are times which call for all the qualities which made us what we are—for all the courage, wishes and faith in ourselves and in the cause of freedom and practical christian judgment, functional and operational christian living.

For we are saddled with leadership responsibilities, which we cannot escape, for solving exceedingly thorny problems which have defied human wit for decades and even Christian centuries. Problems with histories which do not yield easily to the best we do. "Even though there be grants in our land, grave responsibilities; problems in the vision of a world made new, and in vital faith that move our mountains, all things are possible.

Some people who had faith have grown weary of heart, soul and mind and are jumping out of windows like the late Forrestal—and feel that this day is the twilight of the human spirit as a dark shadow creeps across the face of the sun. But I came today to say to you, and you and you, too, "There is a new world a coming, it is not far, just near by, through some open door. Yes, it is almost night upon us, it is coming like the voices of great multitudes, and roar of many waters.

The benefits of which are all too marvelous and too worthwhile to miss a world made new by fellowship of men of all classes, colors and what have you in the world of work—doors are opening—a world where the lives of East and West will be no more, a world of self-determination for all people where each man may choose and pick his own praying ground, where racism and bigotry no longer will sit in the pews of our churches, or stand in our pulpits, where men will forget about race, casts and class, and the fruit of bigotry, and think in terms of and look for the values of inner worth—yea, and those things that outlive, forgive, understand, love, keep on keeping on. Wars and rumors of wars, hot and cold. McCarthism, character association—the lies and counter lies, propaganda and counter propaganda, blood, mad, and death.

We may have our vision come to flower and to fruits if we work at, upon it, and with that staying power to see itthrough. Faith like Ben Hur.

Our Convention has striven to ally itself with the United Nations forces whose charter and very existence are dedicated to the safeguarding and protecting of Human Rights, men and women, white and black, poor and rich—and a warless world it was created because of the longings of the peoples for a just and durable peace and their sense of need for collective security. It was born out of sacrifices and tragic sufferings of a global war. Its word, in spite of the many defects that one might see in this international organization is in many respects directed toward goals which christians believe to be in accordance with God's will for justice among His children.

Therefore, our Convention gave me its international mantle, and I am the only Negro churchman there and I have walked deeply conscience as it were touching nations, whispering in the ear of great statesmen, soliciting goodwill for peace on earth and glad tidings, meaningful joy for the races of mankind, that we all might be one—one in comfort, economic advantage, hope, educational opportunity and one the dynamics of practical brotherhood.

NOONDAY MESSAGE: REV. R. T. ANDREWS, SR., Pastor,

Mt. Zion Baptist Church, Indianapolis 23, Indiana

"THE VISION OF A WORLD MADE NEW"

"Nevertheless we, according to His promise, look for new heavens and a new earth, wherein dwelleth righteousness." 2 Peter 3:13.

We do not like to face facts. Shirked responsibility is very inviting. Yet, changing this old world is our task and we cannot escape it.

A father was talking to his son about the global war. "Just what is a global war, Dad?" asked the boy. The father was a bit puzzled as to how to answer him most clearly, so he said to his son, "When I go downtown, I'll buy a global map with a light in it; and this evening we'll plug it in, and then I'll tell you what a global war is, son." The father bought the map. After dinner they set up the spherical map, turned on the light, and the father talked for hours explaining all to his son. The tired boy fell off to sleep. An hour later the father, telling the mother how he had explained it all to the boy, was asked by her to give her an explanation. The father slipped quietly into the son's room to get the globe. As he was slipping out of the room with the map, the boy awoke and said: "Daddy, what are you going to do with my world?" What a question that boy asked!

That is a pertinent anxious question today. What shall be the christian answer? The kind of world we shall have greatly depends on the kind of world we hope for and work for. Our desires are as strong motivation in our work. A needed prayer for us is, "Fire my zeal; quicken Thou me, O Lord." (119:25)

If we are to have a world made new, we must realize the needs of men. We must take our stand by the roadside where Jesus stood when the human parade went by, trying to see it with His eyes, for "When He saw the crowds, He had compassion for them, because they were harassed and helpless." (Matt. 9:36.) Go down any street; scan dazed faces; talk with troubled souls; knock on any door, and you will see and hear some of these needs.

The Gospel of Jesus Christ has a saving word for each of them. Christ is the answer. But for the present ust look at them. To begin with: (a) There is the sense of insecurity, of anxiety of fear. Anxiety and fear are reflected in our radio commentators, the newspapers give us a daily diet of calamity; current literature douse us with itters; and statesmen regale us with insecurity. These spread out from economic insecurity to the whole circle of life. Worries and fear roll off the assembly line of the mind. Even the faith of the faithful feel its chilling blasts.

Sensing this trend Elizabeth Cheney writes, in satir: "Said the Robin to the Sparrow, 'I should really like to know why these anxious human beings rush about and worry so'." Said the sparow to the robin, "Friend, I think that it must be that they have no heavenly Father such as carefor you and me."

"How much more are ye than sparrows?" said Jesus. Remembering that we were worth God's Son dying for will change our outlook. Perfect love casteth out all fear. (b) Then, there is the sense of EMPTINESS, to be seen and felt in so many. Old values are gone and there are no replacements. They sigh and cry with Mary, "They have taken away my Lord, and I know not where they have laid Him." (John 20:13.)

This old world has made "gold-filled calves (Chinese Fable) the mark of a large part of this generation is not rebel—lion so much as a painful lament for lost certainties and a fumbling search through a blind-fold for a substitute.

Christians, let us fill this vacuum with shouts, "Stand ye in the ways, and see, and ask for the old paths, where is the goodway, and walk therein, and ye shall find rest for your soul." (Jer. 6:16.)

(c) There is the feeling of the futility of life and the absence of hope. Sometimes that is largely a popular pose, wallowing in the muck of defeatism. But in many people it is real. With some it reaches the extreme of a bitter despair. We met in Evanston to examine and reaffirm our faith that "Christ is the hope of the world." The time when people really learn is when they really need something. We need a vision of a New World, and a compelling urge to strive to bring it in. Many are not saying, "I will arise and go to my Father"; but they have gotten as far as the pig-pen, and do not want to stay for dinner with the hogs. To these we must go as Philip the Evangelist went, and do as he did on meeting the Ethiopian treasurer. Philip told him the "good news" about Jesus. Jesus is the "good news"; the last message He gave John on the Isle of Patmos was, "Behold, I make all things new." (Rev. 21:5.)

(d) Again, there is an oppressive sense of INSIGNIFICANCE felt by so many. Currency has been inflated but the sense of personal importance has been deflated. We have a feeling we "Don't amount to much."

A traveller reported a few months ago an incident in a railway station. A train carrying many factory workers was about to leave in the morning, when a cry came from a woman calling to her husband was heard. "Wait!" she shouted, "we have forgotten our 'non-enyity cards' I of course, it was easy to see what she meant was 'Identity cards,' which all workers in factories are required to carry. Too many carry 'non-entity cards.' It is tragic to think of being made in the image of God and being a 'non-entity—of being insignificant.

Dr. Abbott said, "I plucked an acorn from the greensward, and held it to my ear, and this is what it said to me: "By and by I will furnish shade for the cattle. By and by I willprovidewarmth for the home in the pleasant fire. By and by I will be shelter from the storm to those who have gone under the roof. By and by I will be the arms andribs for some great temple where men worship." "O foolish little acorn, wilt thou be all this?" I asked, and the acorn answers, "Yes, God and I." "

Who was it that "subdued kingdom, wrought righteousness, obtained promises, stopped the mouths of lions, quenched the violence of fire, out of weakness were made strong, waxed valiant in fight. (Heb. 12:33-34) made suns stand still and moons refuse to want? Who was it that turned men from darkness to light? God and some man or some woman. WE ARE SOMEBODY. "We can do all things with God. (Phil. 4:19.) We must not only know men's needs if there is to be a new world, but have faith in the promises of God. Peter said: God had promised it and we were to look for it. How Faith Grows.

Faith must be cultivated; it grows. May I give you an illustration of how faith grows? I visited Niagara Falls. I saw the bridge spanning that seething, hissing, abyss below. I wondered how that bridge was built. I later read that, when the first cable of the suspension-bridge was laid, a thin thread was attached to a kite and both sent, on a favoring wind, to the other side of the river. By means of that thread a heavier string was pulled across; and by it a heavier one still; and then a rope, and then a tow, and then the cable and the other parts of that mighty bridge, over the roaring cataract beneath.

Peter's faith grew. It started on a thread when Andrew told him he had seen the Messiah. It grew by his experiences until it defied vicisitudes of life, powers and principalities, and even a martyr's cross. Ours must also grow till we can sing, "Amazing Grace," etc. But in our growing we must "Trust in the Lord with all our heart; and lean not unto our own understanding." (Prov. 3:5.)

Dr. Wm. L. Stidger says that one morning in Providence, R. I., watching workmen walking along the steel girders of a skyscraper, under construction, he saw a man fall to his death to the street below. A crowd quickly gathered around the broken and battered body. The foreman came down from the top of the structure in a crude lift, hurried over to the body, looked down upon it and said, "The fool was leaning against the wind. I told him to quit leaning against the wind. He was new at this game or he would not have done it." Calling the foreman aside, Dr. Stidger asked him what he meant by "leaning against the wind." The foreman gave the details about the occupational dangers of steel workers. He said, "You see, along the coast here in the morning hours there is a strong wind blowing in from the ocean, at 50 or 60 miles an hour; and a steel worker high on a building of this type gets to leaning against the wind. It is easier to work that way. You do not have to resist so much. But an experienced worker soon learns that he dare not depend upon that wind, for it may drop at any minute and then he topples to the ground. You can never depend upon the stability of the wind."

If you want to make a new world you cannot lean against the wind. The winds of fame, the wind of popularity; the wind of ease; the wind of material things—they will let you down. We must find something that will never fail. Something that has stood the test. Something that moths cannot corrupt nor thieves break through and steal. Something that has eternal foundations; something that always has been and always will be. I see an old man taking the son of his old age, by God's command up to Mt. Moriah to offer him as a sacrifice. The altar is laid. The fire is kindled. The knife is unsheathed. The arm is raised. The downward thrust is begun. But God caught Abraham's arm. I hear a prophet, an unknown Tishbite, Elijah, tell King Ahab, that he is looking up the fountains of the heaven taking the key with him.

See that woman yonder; she has been bleeding for twelve years. She has spent all her money for doctors and medicine and grown worse all the time. She hears of Jesus. She tries to get to Him but the crowds push her back. She has no one to help her, but she does not give up. She perseveres until she touches the hem of Jesus' garment and is healed.

I am looking at a Negro woman. She does not come from the home of the mighty. She struggles. She climbs. She comes to presidency of the Woman's Auxiliary of the National Baptist Convention, Inc. The world acclaims her greatness. Could you by any stretch of your imagination call Abraham, Moses, Elijah, the diseased woman, Paul, Nannie Helen Burroughs, WIND LEANERS? These women who stand criticism, ridicule, sacrifice that the kingdom of this world might become the kingdoms of our Lord and His Christ—they are not leaning on the wind. They have caught a vision of a world made new; they have faith in God; they toil, pray, give, sing. "What have I to fear, Leaning on the Everlasting arms? I have peace complete with my Lord so near, Leaning on the everlasting arms, Leaning on Jesus, leaning on Jesus. Safe and secure from all alarms, Leaning on Jesus, leaning on Jesus, Leaning on the everlasting arms. ONE DAY THIS VISION WILL BE CONSUMATED.

Address:

BACK ALLEY MISSIONARY

(Taken from the November issue of Christian Herald. Her name is Agnes Wilkins Cross, 1424 Locust Street, Abelene, Texas)

From her home in Abilene, Texas, Mrs. Agnes Wilkins Cross has touched the lives of hundreds of MISUSED, NEGLECTED CHILDREN. Her Bible stories, poems, and lessons in living have helped to transform them into model Junior Citizens, bringing them needed friendship and love.

She was born in Texas, attended a one-room country school in Piney Woods East Texas. As a girl, she was shy, and sensitive, but always kind to everyone.

Because of an incident that happened when she was a girl in school, made her become known as the BACK ALLEY MISSIONARY—made her resolve: "I am going to be kind to little children; I am going to teach them, help them and be their friend.

Fifty years later the childish resolve is a dedication. From her four-room house in Abilene's locally known as Donkey Flat, she has reached and touched the lives of hundreds of underprivileged youngsters. She has read books to them, taught Bible stories, brought them friendship and love.

A BACK ALLEY MISSIONARY BEGINNING AT CHRISTIANITY'S ROOTS—THE CHILDREN.

Her friends wanted her to move to a nicer part of town. She said: "I want to be a friend to those whom others have passed by. I teach in my own corner."

As she looked out the windows of her home at the blocks of leaning sheds, street car houses, cow lots, trailers and rubbish—children, swarming around the doors, dirty, unkept, neglected children, one mother swore at her little one, and slapped it—here were unwanted children—their faces hard and unresponsive reflected their lives. They had no respect for anyone's property—they pulled up her flowers, broke her fence. She knew they never went to Sunday School. She wondered if they had ever heard of the Bible.

She was touched by their needs—physical and spiritual. She got her Bible and went into the alley to a group of children playing. "Would you like me to tell you a story?" Hesitant at first, but one by one they straggled over there amid the odor of garbage cans and junk, she began her classes—Bible stories, et cetera. Beginning each afternoon, kids gathered for their stories and how to live and respect the rights of others. Now her fence stays up and her flowers grow unmolested. If their parents permit she takes many to Sunday School. She secures clothing and shoes. She is rewarded when she walks down the street and children's voices happily call, "Hello!" to her along the way.

Those she has taught and befriended are now scattered over the United States for wherever she has lived she has gathered up children and taught them.

An old lady now, she writes books of Bible stories and verse for children, 1426 Locust Street, Abilene, Texas, not great poetry but easily understood by children. Whoever brings guidance, hope, and love into a young life, has laid a foundation for Christian living; she has helped to enrich a generation.

Closing Meditation:

OUR TASK

"WE ARE WELL ABLE"

Mrs. Trudie Trimm, President, Baptist State Convention of Illinois, Woman's Auxiliary

I am not ashamed of the Gospel (interpretation of meaning), I am not afraid of the Gospel for it is a lamp to my feet.

This subject has been taken from the Old Testament in Numbers 13:30—"And Caleb stilled the people before Moses and said: "Let us go up at once and possess it, for we are well able to overcome it."

Moses, a leader for God knew the truth, for his orders came from above. He called twelve men, the leaders of twelve Tribes, to go up and look over Canaan, the Promised Land, and bring back a true report. Knowing within himself he was sending leaders, but women, just as sure you don't know God, the earmarks of this sign is an hinderance, envy, false balance, sluggardness, evil, jealousy, lying, proud looks fill your heart, it will blind your eyes, dull your hearing and double tongue your speech. Ten of these twelve leaders had these traits, but there were two who were filled with the blessed power of God. They could see the lay of the land with God's eyes—Caleb and Joshua.

In these times and dark days of great enlightenment; in these times of great excitement; kidnapping, unusual murders, robberies that outnumber any other country; and world series. These are the times of great enlightenment: many schools, where the word of God dare not to be taught—more crime than any other age. These are the times of great amusement: we have bowling, basketball, wrestling, boxing, dog races, footraces, horse races, style shows, and every other kind of show. These are the times of great unrest, from top to bottom. We have airships, bombs and battleships, every kind of ship except fellowship. These are the times that men are preparing to explore the solar system to find rest on another planet. These are the times that great recreational programs are in and out of the church. These are the times that we have tenured every office, even tenure has entered into the Christian ralm, trying to find peace of God. These are times when we are turning back. Some are fainting, some are doubting, false teachers, false prophets, itching ears for hearing something new.

But this is a changing world with an unchanging God. Women we have a task. The wisdom of God is an universal remedy for a lost world, a militant world, a world of wicked rivalry, a God forsaken and a God forgotten age; an age of hypocrisy, a crushing force of vocuum; no upward pull of great whirl, an awful tread of low pressure with sin that flashes and rips like lightning and trouble crashes and shakes like thunder. We must have a foot in something that is firm and go out and let the world know that "JESUS IS THE ANSWER."

What has the power of God accomplished through women? Laid the cornerstone of the highest and the mightiest civilization, founded institutions of learning, inspired our best literature, emancipated slaves, conserved childhood, florified the home among all people in all the lands, accomplished social and moral transformation—"WE ARE ABLE." Blessed is the woman who knows no discouragement.

We have a task for God to do. Christian schools must be supported; religious programs must be given. Foreign and Home Missions need our help. Girls and boys must continue their christian education. The Retreat must stand. More missionaries must receive the call. God back and look over the lay of the land. Rededicate yourselves. TAKE TIME—BUT GET IN A HURRY. PRESENT YOUR BODIES AS A LIVING SACRIFICE, AND POCKET BOOK, HOLY AND ACCEPTABLE UNTO GOD, WHICH IS YOUR REASONABLE PORTION. IN THE NAME OF THE FATHER, AND THE SON AND THE HOLY GHOST. What do you see? Give a true report. "I see boys and girls, men and women crying, "If you lead me and lead me right, I'll follow." WE ARE WELL ABLE. It's joy to work for the Master—stay in clean air. Do the work. The land is yielding a vintage crop. We can do the task. We are fully able. Hear the words of the Prophet Isaiah in Isaiah 32:9—"Rise up, ye women that are at ease; hear my voice ye careless daughters: Give ear unto my speech."

A charge to keep I have,
A God to glorify,
Who gave His Son my soul to save,
And fit it for the sky.

To serve the present age,
My calling to fulfill,
O may it all my powers engage,
To do my Master's will.

Help me to watch, work and pray,
And on thy grace rely
Assure thou'll not my trust betray,
Nor shall we ever die.

CLOSING MEDITATION: THE TASK: WE ARE WELL ABLE

Numbers 13:30

By Mrs. C. A. Benford, Dallas, Texas

Comrads in a great Cause: I greet you in the name of Jesus Christ: As we [illegible] toward the close of this great and historic occasion, and reflect upon the glorious mountaintop experiences shared in the magnificent auditorium: The call in the Valleys to which we shall soon return, grows clearer and louder.

The experience of these hours together have presented to us the grave world situation confronting the Christian Church, today, and urgently call to the leaders of the missionary forces unitedly to restate and replan their work, so that with available resources the need and opportunity may be more adequately met.

Certainly we leave this mountaintop with a vivid and profound appreciation of our high privilege of service, and the greatness of the task that lies ahead.

When the United States Supreme Court last May unanimously held racial segregation in public schools unconstitutional, notwithstanding that its opinion was described as being second in importance, only to Emancipation, it opened wider the door of responsibility and opportunity for one-fourth, if not three-fourths of the nation's population. Never was there a more critical moment. The best men and women must be mobilized. The wisest strategy must be employed. The materialistic philosophy of the destructive communistic activity, the powers of paganism and of communious and systems contrary to the teaching of Jesus, the reactionary attitudes of so many governments with reference to religious liberty, the perilous subordination of religion to serve the political conception of the state, and the necessity of recasting the prevailing industrial and commercial system so that it will not negative the principals of Christian love and brotherhood nor conduce to international war. All present a challenge to the followers of Christ, which has never been surpassed in gravity and urgency. We are facing stupendous changes in the whole make-up of the world.

The future as far as we can forecast it, seems to be bringing us steadily toward a division of the world in two opposing camps—one which can be designated as Christian, though it may be very imperfectly so as yet; and the other as definitely to be described as anti-Christian.

The Clarion Call therefore that the times bring to us all with urgency is the Call to stand on the side of Christ against the hostile forces that oppose His Kingdom and that seek to prevent its coming. With such changes taking place, well may we ask ourselves, are we exerting our maximum influence in the extension and establishment of the Kingdom of God? Have we sufficient workers? Are they adequately qualified? Above all, are we UNITED? Are we able to think, plan, pray, and act in terms of the wholeness and oneness of the task?

These questions may appear to some giants much bigger and stronger than we. But those who believe and trust God, the Calebites, the faithful, those who worship and are ready for service, declare that "We are well able to overcome them."

A minority report, you say, yes, I grant that but what is the majority without the Spirit of God. Numbers 14:24-1 quote: "But my servant Caleb because he had another spirit with him, and hath followed me fully, him will I bring into the land whereinto he went; and his seed shall possess it."

NOTE: The land belonged to God. It was His to give to whom He would. They were not to gain the land by their strength; it was a gift; God was to bring them into the land. They were not to conquer by force. They were required only to follow leadership, with the right spirit. God points up Caleb's spirit, not his strength, his devotion—not his intellect. "He followed me fully."

We can move mountains if we have the right spirit and follow leadership fully. God has done great things for us. He delivered us from the Pharaoh's of our day. He has sweetened our latter waters. He has caused many opposers to die in the wilderness. Here is our Caleb, our Joshua, who believed God and speak today very convincingly. We are well able to overcome them. Whatever their strength and size might be.

She animates the people to go on; and her lot lying in the van. She speaks as one resolved to lead us on with bravery. "Let us go up at once": one bold step, one bold stroke will do our business: it is all our own, if we have but courage to make it so. Let us go up and possess the land. Yes, possess because we believe His word. John 14:14 says, "If we shall ask anything in my name I will do it." We asked for a Retreat for the worn souls who gave their last bitter drop of devotion and service for those who have not heard of our Christ. He gave it to us. John 15:7 says, "If ye abide in me, and my word abide in you. Ye shall ask what you will and it shall be done unto you."

We are abiding—and keeping His word—and by faith we see no wthe Rural Center somewhere in the South for Rural Church Women. That woman akin to us all, that most important woman in America—the Rural church woman. That strong, patient, self-sacrificing soul. The woman who has given so much, and received so little, the woman who has given her very self to the nation. That woman who keeps the church alive in the woods, and yet; has no help from her urban sisters. We are well able to overcome any obstacles, scale any mountain, bridge any river—not because we are intellectual giants, nor because of our family trees or because we have substantial bank accounts. But because we have the right spirit and will follow the Lord fully. Matt. 18:20, gives great possibilities for achievement, and I quote, "For where two or three are gathered together in my name there am I in the midst of them."

Story of Dr. Truett:

As a young man, Dr. George W. Truett went to Alabama to conduct a series of revival services. One morning Dr. Truett spoke on the text: "Where two of you agree as touching anything, it shall be done of my Father." At the close an elderly grey-haired lady asked him if he believed what he had preached. He replied that he did, for it was in the Bible. The woman said: "Dr. Truett, I mean do you believe it?" Again he replied, "My good lady, it is in the Bible. Of course I believe it." "Fine," she said, "I have been looking for someone who believes it." It is like this: My husband is seventy years old and is a Captain on a steamboat on the Mississippi River, and he isn't a Christian. Will you join me in claiming this promise?" Dr. Truett said he stood there dumb. Did he believe it that way?

While he waited, a middle-aged blacksmith stepped out and said: "Auntie, I'll claim it with you." He walked around beside her. The two knelt in the aisle, and as simple as a child would talk to ist father, they told their heavenly Father they were claiming this old Captain for Christ. There was shouting in the camp the next morning when this old man trusted Christ as his Lord and Master.

Just two of God's children paid the price of faith for the anointing of the Holy Spirit's Power.

Will you join me today in asking for and claiming this power of the Holy Spirit upon our lives that our witnessing may be dynamic for Christ?

"We are fully able." If we believe His promises.

Finally: The need is before us and by His help we shall meet these needs. (Zec. 4:6.)

"Not by might, nor by power, but by my spirit" said the Lord of Host.
Spirit of the Living God fall a-fresh on me.
Spirit of the Living God fall a-fresh on me.
Melt me, mould me, use me,
Spirit of the Living God fall a-fresh on me.

Dear Co-Workers and Friends:—

It is with a happy privilege that I present to you my annual report as Custodian of younr funds; in 1945 when I was elected your treasurer at Detroit, Mich., the receipts were a little above $12.000.00 eoday, just nin eyears from that time we have more than trebled that amount. "God has not given us the Spirit of fear, but of power, and of love, and a sound mind." II Tim. 1:7.

Times like these test the mettle of women, open new horizons(new opportunities, bring new leaders to the fore. Makes every worker a budding executive.

Women, our opportunity is here as never before. Don't wait for extraordinary opportunities. Tackle ordinary ones and make them go Remember that the work of the Woman's Auxiliary is constantly callnig for Doers.

I sincerely trust that the facts set forth in this report will meet your approval.

The afternoon session of the Young People's Department was opened by first vice-president of the Y. W. A. Miss Lydia Mae Allen. The praise service was conducted by the Mrs. C. Brown of Texas and Mrs. Grace Hooper of New York. The emphasis hymn "I Would Be True" was sung with much enthusiasm which was followed by the reading of the scripture Psa. 103. Miss Allen introduced Rev. Charles L. Dinkins, Director of Christian Education Classes, who gave the necessary information concerning the classes and courses to be offered. The instructors were introduced. We then assembled to our several classes.

The Buzz Session was held at 2:30 p. m. This period was designed to challenge our thinking and the young people were permitted to ask any questions which confronts them. Mrs. Frye began the period by asking Rev. M. L. King if he believed or thought that there is a possibility of schools being closed to prevent desegregation. Rev. King answered the question positively by stating that such an act would be unconstitutional. If such a thing were to happen, the particular party would be held in contempt of the Supreme Court.

Another question asked was "What would be the result of desegregation on the part of white and colored teachers. Rev. King stated he believed in the theory of the Survival of the Fittest. Both white and Negro qualified teachers will survive. Those who are not capable of meeting the requirements will be eliminated.

Mrs. Hollingsworth wanted to know the effect sectionalism in schools would have on the city child. This question was answered that all Negro schools in various sections were in some way or another inferior to those of the whites and the only solution to the problem is to build modern schools with modern facilities in these sections.

Mrs. Cook asked if we are ready for integration not only in schools, but life in general. Dr. King stated that this is where the church moves in. He contends that there is much prejudice on the part of the Negro people as well as the whites, and only Christianity can remove it. He feels that we, as a Negro people, are ready for integration as a whole. Rev. King concluded by saying th atit is imperative that the church become a deep voice in political issues rather than a mere echo.

Lastly, he stated it is a spiritual right, a God given right, God did not deprive man of work so why should we?

Miss Warren spoke on "The Right to an Education." Miss Warren defined education as the development of our physical, intellectual and moral faculties. This is also a human and God given right, no man should, therefore, be deprived of it.

"The Right to be a Person" was discussed by Mr. Renoard Smith who emphasized the importance of sharing in all physical activities in order to have a good healthy body and mind to serve God. We must practice the Golden Rule.

The panel discussion was summarized by Miss Otrie Hickerson of D. C. Many questions were asked by the audience and answered by members of the panel and resource persons. The following persons who asked the most thought provoking questions were considered winners in the contest, first, Mr. John Hatcher of Michigan and second, Mrs. Ida Mae Goff of Illinois.

Saturday Morning

The final session of the Young People's Department opened with Mrs. Carrie Soward presiding.

Praise service was conducted by Mrs. Dorcas Robinson of Michigan. The congregation sang "Are Ye Able" and "He Lives." Scripture, Galatians 6:1-10. Prayer by Mrs. Mae Cook of New Jersey followed by the singing of "Spirit of the Living God."

Minutes of the previous day's session were read and approved. The congregation sang "I Would Be True." Mrs. Grace Burt directed songs for fun. After a brief period of relaxation, Mrs. B. C. Winston acted as counselor for the election of officers of the Y. W. A.

The following officers were elected:

President	Miss Lydia M. Allen of Colorado
First Vice President	Miss Elizabeth Parker of Maryland
Second Vice President	Miss Otrie Hickerson of D. C.
Recording Secretary	Miss Grace Hayes of Arkansas
Assistant Recording Secretary	Miss Mary Briley of Michigan
Corresponding Secretary	Miss Johnella Marshall of Illinois
Treasurer	Miss Carolyn Flannegan of New Jersey
Music Director	Miss Marlene Wallace of Maryland
Pianist	Miss Joyce McKay of Missouri

Mrs. Grace Burt led the group in singing several pep songs. The Enrollment Committee reported that the young people were well represented this year. Four hundred thirty-three enrolled.

Rev. Dinkins reported for the Department of Christian Education. He stated that the department will accept any suggestions concerning new courses that are to be offered in the next session.

Mrs. Washington of Illinois, second vice president of the J.M.A.'s, extended a heartfelt thanks to the youth of St. Louis for making our stay so pleasant.

Mrs. Burt led the group in singing. Remarks were made by all Regional Directors and several young people who had attended the session for the first time. All agreed that the session was fine and had been an inspiration to all who attended.

Mrs. Soward presented Mrs. Frye who spoke to us from her very heart. She asked us, as young people, to accept the challenge and live as God would have us to live. God has a remnant of young people who will do as He wants them to do. Will you be found in that remnant of God's people? Mrs. Burt led the group in singing a song dedicated to Mrs. Frye.

As we closed the 29th annual session of the convention, we sang "Touch Me Lord Jesus." Mrs. Burt led us all to the throne of God in a prayer that reached everyone's heart, after which we sang "I Would Be True." A special prayer was given by Rev. Hayes and concluded with the benediction. Adjournment.

"Think on These Things". Our lives have been enriched and filled with inspiration.

ANNUAL REPORTS—NATIONAL AND REGIONAL DIRECTORS

YOUNG PEOPLE'S DEPARTMENT

WOMAN'S CONVENTION, AUXILIARY TO NATIONAL BAPTIST CONVENTION, INC.

St. Louis, Missouri—September 7-12, 1954

ANNUAL REPORT

Mrs. Etta Versa Frye—National Director

Madam President, Officers and Messengers to the Woman's Convention, Auxiliary to the National Baptist Convention, Inc.

GREETINGS:

For the second time in the history of the Young People's Department we gather in St. Louis, Gateway to the West, largest city on the Mississpipi and the most important fur trading center during the early days of the Republic.

As we review the blessings of the past year, with Samuel of Old, this is a good time and place, in the presence of God's people to "raise our Ebenezer and say Hitherto hath the Lord helped us."

Many blessings have come to us since our last annual meeting, chief of which is the restoration of our President, Miss Burroughs, whose super human efforts in behalf of the Woman's Convention, laid her aside for several weeks. We thank God because there was something beyond the skill of even the best of doctors that lifted her to the point of being with us in this meeting. We thank God for the prayers which ascended in her behalf from all over the country —

I know not by what methods rare,
But this I know, God answers prayer.
I know not when he sends the word
That tells us fervent prayer is heard;
I know it cometh soon or late
Therefore we need to pray and wait,
I know not if the prayer I sought,
Will come in just the guise I thought;
I leave my prayer to Him alone
Whose will is wiser than my own.

WHAT'S IN A NAME?

More and more, I am grateful for the foresight and wisdom of those Christian women who set up this, the Junior Department of the Woman's Convention. I thank God for the leadership Miss Burroughs gave in recommending to the Convention that such a Department be organized. I am most thankful for the understanding they exhibited in the naming of the organization

With the current emphasis on Youth, many are inclined to refer to this organization as the "Youth Department." This is not only a misnomer, but those who use such a term are in error. An analysis of the term "youth" would reveal that it refers to that period of life between the child and the adult. Now our Department was organized to serve a broader age level. The Sunshine Band and the Junior Red Circle form the children's division of our work. The Senior Red Circle is the youth division and the Young Women's Auxiliary and Junior Matrons Auxiliary, the young women's division or young adults. Therefore, when one refers to this organization as the "Youth Department" they exclude two of our most important opportunities our services to children and to the young adult in the Missionary Department of the Denominations. The official name of our organization is "The Young People's Department of the Woman's Convention, Auxiliary to the National Baptist Convention, Inc." a name which includes all age levels from childhood to full maturity.

THINK ON THESE THINGS

The capacity to think things through is the gift of God to man which separates and places him far above all other creatures about him. The ability to sense in advance and to appropriate good ideas without waiting for events to indicate their badness or their goodness, has been considered the supreme achievement of man as the capstone of creation.

The leader who regularly and constantly requires of her young people a working contact with God's word, inspirational men and women of our own as well as by-gone days, does more than a good job in her own field, she is building the kind of strong character in young people which will be able to withstand the evils of any day.

When the prophet was searching for the most withering rebuke and the most devastating penalty he could lay upon his people—guilty of serving other gods, he asked that they be robbed of the capacity to see and to understand. These are the words of Isaiah, "Make the heart of this peopl efat and make their ears heavy and shut their eyes; lest they see with their eyes and hear with their ears and understand with their heart and be healed." And with the prophet, we believe that th ability to think, insight, and understanding ar epriceless gifts from God.

There is no finer expression of values, no better cataloging of ideas to which our emotions might properly be attached, or any more adequate ideal as a stimulus to the will than St. Paul gives in his letter to the Philippians—"Whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, if there be any virtue and if there be any praise, think on these tlungs."

That ideal can rightly be called the touchstone of teaching and guiding young people. "Think on these things" said Paul. Take an inventory of these things, keep your mind upon them, set a value upon them; fo rthought precedes accomplishment. We grow like the things we think about. The good is positive—not negative. Too lon gwe have satisfied our consciences by simply telling young people what they cannot do instead of pointing out the way to them. This year's emphasis in our work will be on the positive in thinking, planning, teaching and leading.

The following lines, written many years ago and much out of step with the attitudes of today's youngsters, offer a graphic description of the thinking of young people faced with negatives on every hand from their elders when the thing they needed was understanding and a positive approach to that need.

If you were a lad, didn't mean to be a bad
Had no place to meet, except in the street
No place to play ball, or any games at all,
No place just to yell, when you're feeling real well,
Now honest and true,
Just what would you do?
Good friends of ours, we want to do right
But try as we will, it's a hard uphill fight,
We'd rather play ball in a place where we dare
Than sulk in an alley and gamble, and swear
We'd rather climb ladders, do stunts on a bar
Than dodge a policeman or hang on a car.
Get out, yells the cop, or I'll soon put a stop
To your nerve racking dinfi by running you in.
So chase yourselves kids, Get away from that fence
And the cop he's the law, So we've got to obey
But why DON'T YO UTELL US, WHERE CAN WE PLAY?

All the warnings in our experience would not give that lad satisfaction, or answer his question What he needs is not a barrage of don'ts because "It's dangerous, or you'll be hurt, or even lose your life"—What he needs is a simple positive answer to his question—a place where he can play.

Perhaps a later version of the same sentiments is expressed in these lines—

It's don'ts in the choir loft, Don'ts in the pew
Will someone please tell us, What we can do?

And so this year our leaders will go forth to help our young people find their way toward developing into strong Christian workers—What to do with their leisure—What to do for spiritual development and What to do to be acceptable to God. After illustrating the most perfect life anyone could live, Jesus said to a young man one day—"This do and thou shalt live."

THESE WERE HONORED

The year 1954 brought outstanding honors to two of our Regional Directors. The entire Young People's Department joins in congratulatory acknowledgment to Mrs. Corenne Watts, Southern Director and to Mrs. Bertha C. Winston, Eastern Director, named "Woman of the Year" by Alpha Zeta Chapter of the Zeta Phi Beta Sorority of Baltimore, Maryland, who awarded the following:

CITATION

BERTHA C. WINSTON
Educator and Religious Worker

For arduously sponsoring the spiritual development of youth, for using your talents to realize your dream of Christian Unity, for dedicating your life to the utilization of the potentialities of young people for community improvements, Alpha Zeta Chapter of the Zeta Phi Bet aSorority is honored to present the award naming you "Woman of the Year" during its Finer Womanhood Week of February, 1954."

Signed—
Mary W. Fortune, Basileus
Beatrice A. Major, Grammateus

Mrs. Corenne Watts, Southern Director was awarded an honorary degree by Selam University of Alabama.

We congratulate both of these fine women and wish for them continuing success in their work ministering to the spiritual needs of young people.

IN RETROSPECT

The National Director assisted in Christian Education Institutes in Washington and Baltimore; taught Christian Education courses in State and National Sunday School and B. T. U. Congresses and in one Association. Delivered many Woman's Day and Youth Day Addresses. Held conferences with young people and their leaders. Continued service on several national and state-wide educational and welfare committees. Served as Youth Day speaker in Detroit with the president of our National Young Matron's Department, Mrs. Carrie Sowagd. It was with much regret that because of overlapping schedules it was necessary to turn down many invitations. We are happy to report there has been an increase in the use of Weekly Topics due to the assistance of President Burroughs in handling them.

LITERATURE

Last year we followed the sun around the world in our Foreign Mission interest, with the intent "That the World May Know Christ is our Hope. This year we will focus—studying the needs of our friends and brothers in India, Pakistan and Ceylon.

We are recommending for young people on the senior level the book "This is India, Pakistan and Ceylon," by Constance M. Hallock. This text is concise and graphically illustrated with photographs which present to the reader or student a vivid picture of the backgrounds and problems of the peoples in these countries and an account of what the church is doing.

As a help for worship service an inspiring book of poems under the "Title Cross is Lifted" can be used for meditation purposes. For the fun and fellowship period leaders might want to try the little book "Fun and Festival from India, Pakistan and Ceylon," by Irene Well and Jean Barhtwell.

Junior Red Circle girls will be interested in "The Hidden Treasure' 'by Jean Barthwell because it was written by one who has, through the years, been able to capture the imagination and attention of teen-agers when she tells them about Indian, where, for many years, she labored as a missionary.

"The City" will claim the attention of our Home Missions interest. We shall look at its opportunities, its people, its temptations and its dangers. Of course, We are recommending the magazine-type study. "When," a study on the City and, like its predecessor "Now," "How" and "Who?" Young people will enjoy many interesting sessions with it. This book is edited by Lucy Eldridge.

Junior Red Circle girls will find information, nterest and inspiration when they study "They live in the City" by Mary M. Lago.

"Sidewalk Kids" will interest Sunshiners and leaders will find plenty of action when they decide to" make a play" of their study book. Every circle should use Young People's Topics.

As we begin once more our study of the City, we are reminded of that graphic description of its needs in the lines taken from Frank Mason North's hymn:

Where cross the crowded ways of life
Where sound the ways of race and clan
We hear thy voice, O Son of Man

O Master from the Mountain side
Make haste to heal these hearts of pain
Among these restless throngs abide
O tread the city's streets again

Till sons of men shall learn Thy love
And follow where thy feet have trod,
Till glorious fro mthy heav'n above
Shall come the city of our God.

As we move into the coming year, we pray for God's guidance for young people and their leaders—

Arm these thy children mighty Lord
With shield of faith, and spirit's sword,
Forth to the batle may they go,
And boldly fight against the foe,
With banner of the cross unfurled
And by it overcome the world
And so at least receive from thee
The palm and crown of victory.

Respectfully submitted.

ETTA VERSA FRYE, National Director.

A RECOMMENDATION

At a meeting of the Regional and State Directors of th eYoung People's Department on June 23, 1954, in Birmingham, Ala., a discussion arose concerning sending the National Directors to represent the young people at the World Baptist Alliance to be held at London, England, in 1955.

The proposal was introduced by Mrs. Georgia Jackson of Michigan. Mrs. Frye requested Eastern Director, Mrs. Bertha C. Winston, to take the chair and preside while this item of business was before the group. A limited discussion ensued, in which Mrs. Coreine Watts, Southern Director, and other delegates and leaders concerned expressed agreement.

As a rsult of this discussion, the following recommendation proposed by Western Director, Miss Primrose Funches and seconded by Mrs. Annie Hudson, of Georgia:

> that the Young People's Department respectfully request the Woman's Convention to send the National Director, Mrs. Etta Versa Frye, as an official delegate from the Department to the World Baptist Alliance in London, England, in 1955

The proposal to forward this recommendation to the Woman's Convention Auxiliary to the National Baptist Convention, Inc., was approved unanimously by those present.

ANNUAL REPORT

President Burroughs, Official Staff of the Woman's Convention, Delegates and Friends:

I am grateful to our heavenly Father for this privilege to greet you at another session of this great Convention. We come together in His name, with courage high and souls uplifted, because He has led us safely through another year. We have passed through dangers seen and unseen, by His omnipotent hand and His great mercies, He has led us here.

When I think that 12 months ago I had the soul-expanding experience of traveling by plane as it winged its way across the great blue yonder on a 12,000-mile journey to the Rio Conference into new countries; among strange people; I rejoice because I had the opportunity to learn new things. Above the clouds, I had time to close my eyes and think of those huge, fleecy pillows drifted by, of God's greatness; think on the Scripture "For a City which hath foundations, whose builder and maker is God." And in thinking of God's great power, and His love for us, His creation, I cried out in the language of the fisherman, "O God, Thy sea is so great and my boat so small." If the world could open its eyes and envision His love and power, there would be no more wars, no more unfair practices, but rather all men everywhere would let their voices blend in one great exultant chorus: My Jesus I love Thee, I know Thou art mine, For Thee all the follies of sin I resign."

As the plane winged its way back from South America returning to our homes which we had left, we joined in William Cullen Bryant's belief:

> "There is a power whose care
> Teaches Thy way along the pathless coast,
> The desert and the illimitable air
> Lone wandering but not lost."

And we felt, also, that the Creator who guides the waterfall, and even the sparrow's flight would not overlook us, and so we go on believing with Bryant:

> Hewho from zone to zone
> Guides through the boundless sky
> Thy certain flight,
> In the long way that I must tread alon
> Will lead my steps aright."

In this journey of life we need a guiding spirit such as Isaiah spoke of, "And your ears shall hear the word behind you saying, This is the way, walk in it." The Pagan world challenges the Christians of this day to listen to those voice, and walk in His way.

CHALLENGING AND THINKING

Are Christian young people thinking constructively today as youth of the past?

Just take a look at past history when frontiers of the West challenged our young people as well as the old.

In the first half of the Twentieth Century frontiers of science and new developments challenged our young men. Great strides were made in the physical appearance of the world during that period. Then we think of Lindberg and Amelia Earhart, Drew and Jullian, Carver and Pasteur, and other courageous thinkers. We even think of those courageous an ddiscoverers of the Fifteenth and Sixteenth Centuries, Columbus and Balboa, who made this country available that those already mentioned could carry on.

Today in the last half of this Twentieth Century, we are in the midst of an age when we read of one nation striving agains t the other. We read of perfection (perfection if you please) of the world's most powerful and destructive weapon namely, the Hydrogen Bomb. The tests of this remarkable, wonderful invention have cost 100 million dollars, involved thousands of personnel, who with right thinking, Godly thinking and actions plus this great sum of money at their command, might have righted untold ills and conferred infinite blessings upon mankind, teaching true brotherhood to other nations of the world.

GOOD WILL

Today's big challenge is Good Will Ambassadors as Messengers to other lands to know other people better—to work with them—share common problems with them—make living more worthwhile for them and for us, too.

A new 8-cent Postage Stamp carrying a religious message "In God We Trust" and the word "Freedom" with the Statue of Liberty in the center is to go abroad as a "Goodwill Postal Ambassador," symbolizing to the nations of the world the high ideals for which our nation stands.

The U. N. is striving to better understand each others' problems. We cannot leave this entirely to them. It seems the harder they try to promote understanding and brotherhood the more powerful the bombs. Today we live in an era that challenges the depth of the soul.

EDUCATION

The great need of our time is Christian young people, enthusiastic young people of drive and competence, who will take time, prepare themselves, and go to the far corners of the earth in a spirit of brotherhood and fellowship, to teach people the Christian way of life.

> Youth, accept the first challenge of the Christian Church: "Ye shall be my witnesses . . .
> "Ye shall be witnesses unto me, both in Jerusalem and in all Judea, and in Samatra, and to the uttermost parts of the earth."

These challenging words were made alive to young people who attended the 4th Baptist World Youth Conference, in Rio de Janerio, Brazil, last year—and I am sure all youths attending that Conference (more than 2,000 Baptists from 34 nations of the world) realized that here, God was calling them to service, that He wanted to work through them. And in that spirit of the Conference theme: "The Living Christ Shall Reign" He must Reign!!—He is calling youth today as of yore, "Go ye therefore and teach all Nations . . ." Teach them love, honesty, justice, peace.

WORLD CONCEPTS

The Old World Concept: No Christian could arrive in the South American countries without discovering an atmosphere of challenge. It permeated the far West, the cowboys, the deserts, the Amazon jungles and those from the planes.

South American History presents successive challenges—Balboa, Cortez, men who conquered empires, cattle and culture and those who accepted civilized enterprises.

When Africa, a vast continent rich in natural and physical resources, was discovered in 1845—men were seeking gold riches. Then for 300 years the African kingdom was reduced to slavery. Men like Wilberforce, the great Baptist missionary, Livingston, and others, penetrated the dark continent for Christ, Christianity began to grow.

THE NEW LOOK

Surely our role as Christians has changed. Today's young people have a decided advantage over the past generation. We came up in a day when Isolationism seemed to be the safest course. Minding one's ow nbusiness and letting the other fellow fight his own battles was the policy of the day. Now we have to rid our mind of these thoughts very rapidly, to a One World Concept. Young people will be called upon to accept International neighborliness, and especially the youth of the darker races realizing that three-fourths of the world is colored. Youth of North America with all its advantages of Christian Culture and refinement must accept their opportunities and responsibilities. They must think through their problems, so that they know where they want to go, and can find a way of getting there.

Have understanding, tolerance, respect for the dignity of the individual, pride in achievement, moral courage, standards of living—that they may grow in joy and happiness.

ROLE OF CHRISTIAN LEADERS

We must play a major part in helping young people to accept their challenge. First, guide them. When we were travelers in South America, we welcomed a guide to show us the most desirable features of the route, to warn us against pot-falls, and to help bring our journey to a safe and happy landing. Accept your opportunity and responsibility to be a living example of Christ. Have courage and teach them to follow Him closely as their guide. He knows the roads and He knows their endings.

Secondly, Travel: Leaders can play a major part in helping and urging young people to travel to distant parts of the world, to transmit to others the techniques and skills they have learned here.

The New oLok stretches our world out much farther than ever before. Because of the television, telephone, radio, airplane, etc., our world is much larger but the corners are nearer. With this look of Human Rights and Integration in practice, thoughtful, trained, well-informed and equipped, happy, useful young people at work, the seeds of peace will find fertile ground in which to grow.

When we leave our friends, our circles and our organizations, go into foreign lands, mingle with people of other nations and tongues, one can sense our smallness, our selfishness. We see ourselves as one part of God's creation. We realize God's great love and power for all.

OUR NATIONAL CAMP

For Christian youth, there is greater need for camping experience today than ever before; when people are called upon ot understand each other better; to know how to ilve together; how to experience Christian Fellowship at its best. A glorious opportunity. Hear the Camp Cry!!! A Voice Crying from the Children—Come Over and Help Us. We Owe this Experience to the Youth of Our Churches

Day camping has become a "Must", with many character building organizations within the last decade. Day camping his become a major part of Leisure Time Services, represents a unique opportunity for intensive and meaningful group activities to be utilized toward the development of an individual's personality and adjustment to group living, Christian graces and personal happiness!

CLOSING

We believe we are in the midst of a revival of religion. We are going to find more demands upon us to band ourselves together in the National Program of our Convention, so that we can help build better communities, and a better world.

In the words of the Rio-Conference emphasis hymn

JESUS SHALL REIGN WHERE'ER THE SUN

Jesus shall reign where'er the sun
Does his successive journies run,
His Kingdom spread from shore to shore
Till moons shall wax and wane no more.

For him shall endless prayer be made,
And endless praises crown His head;
His name, like sweet perfume shall die,
With every morning sacrifice.

People and realms of every tongue,
Dwell on His love with sweetest song;
And infant voices shall proclaim,
Their early blessings on His name.

Respectfully submitted,

ANNUAL REPORT

Miss Primrose Touches, Western Director

President Burroughs; National Director of the Young People's Department; Eastern and Southern Director; Officers and Messengers:

Greetings, in the name of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, as we come together for our 1954 annual session in th ehistoric gateway City of St. Louis, Mo.

I sincerely want to express my appreciation for the opportunity of serving you for another year in the capacity of Director of the Wester nRegion of the Young People's Department of the Women's Auxiliary to the National Baptist Convention.

YOUTH IS THE HOPE OF TOMORROW'S WORLD

The bread that bringeth strength I want to give,
The water pure that bids the thirsty live;
I want to help the fainting day by day,
I'm sure I shall not pass again this way.

I want to give the oil of joy for tears,
The faith to conquer crowding doubts and fears,
Beauty for ashes may I give always
I'm sure I shall not pass again this way.

I want to give good measure running o'er,
And into angry hearts I want to pour
The answer soft that turneth wrath away,
I'm sure I shall not pass again this way,
I want to give to others hope and faith,
I want to do all that the Master saith;
I want to live aright from day to day,
I'm sure I shall not pass again this way.

(Author unknown)

A great writer expressed his feeling concerning youth as the hope oftomorrow's world with this statement: "I saw tomorrow passing by on little children's feet . . ." And indeed, Madam President, fellow directors, officers and messengers, I must agree with him. I think that we all must agree with him, for if the future for which we struggle, sacrifice and plan for is to come into existence, it will come only as the result of what the young people of today will do when they become the men and women of tomorrow. The kind of leaders they are tomorrow, will result from what we help them to be today. They will be influenced by the christian experience we provide for them today. They will mold tomorrow's world with the skill acquired through our teachings. Therefore, as we gather here in this cast assembly of baptized believers in a risen Savior and Lord, we are faced with grave responsibilities.

We are faced with the very serious responsibility of living before and with our young people in such a way that we will be Living Examples of the teachings of Jesus, so that they, in following after us, will not stumble, falter, or fail, but will lift up Jesus Christ higher than we have lifted Him in order that He can "draw all men unto Him."

We are faced with the very serious responsibility of teaching our young people God's word, for His word is the enduring element in a world of change and disappointment. The great prophet of Israel and Isaiah wrote these memorable words in his book of holy writ, "all flesh is grass, and goodliness thereof is as the flower of the field. The grass withereth and the flower fadeth, but the Word of our God shall stand forever." We must teach our youth God's Word so that they will be comforted and guided in a world that is without concern and without a sufficient plan for their lives. The psalmist wrote, "Thy word is a lamp unto my feet and a light unto my path."

Then, we are faced with the grave responsibility of providing our young people with the kind of experiences that are christian in nature, so that they will grow "in wisdom and statue and in favor with God and man." As they grow and develop, we must cause them to be confronted with the challenge of the gospel as it came from the lips of the Master, "Go ye therefore and teach all nations—teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you." From their ranks must come the preachers, teachers, missionaries, physicians, legal counsellors, artists, journalists,. business executives, architects and engineers of tomorrow, who will work in and for the cause of Christ.

Young people must be taught of the virtue of Humility . . . it is a great Christian force and through it alone can the power of Almighty God operate. Also, Personality is God's greatest gift and one of the most powerful forces in the world; therefore, special effort should be put forth to help develop young personalities. One of the sadest pictures I have seen is young people seeking life in worldly places. Youth must be made to understand that real life is found in the church and the Christ-way of life.

We must recognize the intrim value of every person because every person has been given some type of gift that must be developed.

"In all thy ways acknowledge Him and He will give you guidance." He gave it to Moses through the Burning Bush; to Jacob at the foot of the ladder; to Paul in the Heavenly Vision at Noon Day; to Abraham, Moses and Joshua—He gave it a step at a time. If youth will yield themselves to Him and wait daily for His directions, their lives will be fruitful and He will give guidance to them.

Use me, God, in Thy great harvest field,
Which stretcheth far and wide like a wide sea;
The gatherers are so few, I fear the precious yield
Will suffer loss. Oh, find a place for me/
A place where best strength I have will tell.
It may be one the older toilers shun;
Be it a wide or narrow place, 'tis well.
So that the work it holds be only done.

RESUME OF ACTIVITIES

I have visited all of the states in the Western Region and have found the Christian Movement advancing. More than twenty-five (25) young people's departments have been formed. I have attended a number of State Conventions, including the Sixty-fourth Annual Session of the Western Baptist State Convention convening in Los Angeles, Calif., and was very interested in observing the great part played by the young people.

The States in the West, including New Mexico, are well organized.

President Burroughs requested that the Young People's Department give a thousand dollars to the Missionary Retreat building in Washington, D. C. I am happy to report that their money has been raised through the Souvenir Plate plan. I want to personally thank President Burroughs and the members of the Woman's Auxiliary for assisting our Young People's Department. Still have a number of these beautiful plates on hand for those who want them.

I also want to thank the officers an dmembers of this auxiliary for their cooperation in making the fellowing projects a success. The "All States Tea" for the benefit of the National Trade and Professional School in Washington; the "Chain Rally" for the benefit of the Missionary Training School in Nashville; and the "Queen Revue" drive for the Letha L. Craig Scholarship Fund.

OUR DEAD

We bow in humble submission to God's will. Illinois lost two of her foremost women leaders. Women who were definitely interested in the progress of our young people. Mrs. H. J. Wells (Don, Illinois), and Mrs A. A. Officers, St. Louis, whose entire life was devoted to caring for students at the University of Illinois. She was president of the Woodwill District Association, the oldest in the State, and vice-president of the Baptist General State Conventino.

Mrs. Anita A. Austin was president of the Women's Auxiliary of the General Baptist Stat eConvention and chairman of the Art and Needle Department. These great Women lived useful lives. They were women of great faith, and like Paul, "they fought a good fight and finished their course." Like Ruth, they were faithful; like Esther, they were beautiful to behold; like Mary, they were good mothers; and like Lydia, they were faithful to missionary work; therefore, they have gone upstairs and shut the door.

"GOD'S TOMORROW"

And its joy shall never fade.
No more weeping, no more sense of Sadness
No more foes to make afraid.

God's tomorrow, God's tomorrow
Every cloud will pass away
Here the dawning of that day
God's tomorrow, no more sorrow
Will be better than today.

ANNUAL REPORT

Mrs. Corenne Watts, Southern Director

Madam President, Officers and Members of the Woman's Auxiliary to the National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Inc:

It is my happy privilege, as well as a God-sent blessing, to give in account of the responsibility that God has given me through you as Southern Director of the Young People's Department of the Woman's Auxiliar yof the National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Inc.

Today, in the Southern States, there is much talk about integration but the Youth of the South have realized long before the passing of the decision by our U. S. Supreme Court that segregation was illegal, that in Christ there is no east or west and out of one blood God created usall.

The Youth of the South, will face many changes in the world situations but they realize that the church of Jesus Christ must put world horizons around its faith and assume a task of universal proportions if it is to be worthy of Him who envisaged a Kingdom on earth like unto the Kingdom of God. The basis of our world-wide responsibility is found in the Great Commission recorded in the last portion of the 28th Chapter of Matthew's Gospel in which the pioneer of Life said to His disciples, "Go therefore and make disciples of all nations." He who did not set foot on sand beyond the boundaries of the tiny country of Palestine, except perhaps on one occasion, gave His followers a gospel designed for the whole earth, and laid the maps of the world upon their minds and hearts, and sent them forth with a commission that seemed far beyond the ability of so humble and small a group to fulfill, but the Acts of the Apostles, the Epistles of Paul, the four gospels and the history of the expansion of the Christian Church are the living and vital testimonies to the Magnificent Manner in which the disciples of our Lord measured up to the great goals and objectives which he entrusted to them. The world has expanded and the nations and peoples of the earth have grown astronomically; but the Great Commission has not been repealed. The Acts of the Apostles as a book is closed, but the abiding power of the Christ and the world-message of the Gospel are still ours and in our day we can write new Chapters in the Adventures in Brotherhood.

There have been those who have cherished the hope that illiteracy might be abolished and schools built in the nation to the extent that every boy and girl in the land might have access to an education. The facts will bear me out that such a condition has almost come to pass. But, alas, we have discovered that scientific education alone is not enough. Education must be on a moral and godly foundation for it is dangerous to develop brain power without character to direct and guide it. Someone has wisely said, "It is dangerous for man to know what God knows and not be what God is." Lift your voices Comrades, and cry, "In the Wilderness of ignorance prepare ye the way of the Lord."

In America more than half the population belongs to some church, but the other half is a wilderness waiting for the coming of those of us who profess to be followers of Him who has commissioned us to keep on until the world in its entirety is christian. This is our task.

Youth Leaders, it is later than you think regarding our Youth.

We had been intending to whitewash the walls for a long time, but time ran out on us and we found ourselves confronted with World War I and then an awful depression, and then World War II, and the Korean episode, and World War III in the offing. We had to get ours while the getting was good, intending to do something to safeguard our Youth at the proper time, but time ran out on us, and millions of Youth have had to suffer the consequences of our postponement of doing something about preparing for peace and a safe world.

Realizing the way in which juvenile delinquency has continued to rise all across the nation, many of us keep talking about getting something started that will prepare our Youth for tomorrow's world, but there are so many pressing duties to tend to that we postpone action, and suddenly wake up to the fact that our Youth have gotten beyond us. Time runs out.

A horticulturist was seeking for a rare flower that grew in the hills. He found one of them on the edge of a cliff in the hills and looking about saw a lad peering at him from behind a tree. There's always a lad around—even when Jesus would feed the hungry multitude. The man offered the boy a dollar to let him tie a rope around the boy's waist so he could get the flower for him. The boy asked to be given a little while to think it over and when he returned with his father, the horticulturist asked the explanation, and the little boy said, "I brought my Daddy to hold that rope." Youth leaders, would a child come to you to hold the rope? Do those whom you lead trust your religion? Have they learned that you are prepared to help them decide life's problems and emergencies? We had better do something about our Youth. It's later than we think.

We need to make God real in the lives of our Sunbeams for we must train our children in the way that they should go in order that they might grow to be men and woman that God can get glory out of their living, and teach their children a sYoung Mothers to live in the fear of God.

In order that the races might know each other better and feel the real brotherhood in our dear old Southland, I have conducted eighteen (18) inter-racial institutes in my own home State of Alabama; organized 14 Y. P. organizations, held 70 mission study classes, worked in 30 counties which included Woman's Day addresses, Young People's Conferences, W.M.S. by District and States Conventions.

The fellowship was enriching as I visited out of the States as the guest of the Young People of the State of Tennessee, Mrs. J. C. Woods, president, and Mrs. Dean, Youth Leader; Young People of General Baptist of Georgia, Mrs. M. J. Thomas, President and Mrs. Annie Hudson, Youth Leader; Young People of Arkansas Regular Baptist, Mrs. M. E. Johnson, President and Mrs. Lillie B. Hays, Youth Leader; Mt. Olive Baptist Church as their Woman's Day speaker, Rev. C. M. Harris, Pastor, Knoxville, Tenn.; Mt. Calvary Baptist Church as their Woman's Day Speaker, Mrs. Imogene Swafford, president Missionary Society, Jasper, Tenn.

I have tried to cooperate fully with our National Director, Mrs. Etta Versa Frye; Mrs. Bertha Winston, the Eastern Director and Miss Primrose Funches, our Western Director in presenting to our young people a program of information and inspiration that will challenge the Baptist youth of the Nation to keep asking, seeking and knocking until the doors of opportunities will open and man-made barriers will tumble down and Christ will be lifted big hin their arms, ideals, and dedications.

To this end God has given me strength to work on through the words of the Poet "I Understand" (Ps. 50:15) by Susanne C. Umlauf:

Hast thou been hungry, child of Mine?
I, too, have needed bread:
For forty days I tasted naught
Till by the angels fed.
Hast thou been thirsty? On the cross
I suffered thirst for thee;
I've promised to supply thy need.
My child, come unto Me.

Do hearts prove false when thine is true?
I know the biter dart;
I was betrayed by one I loved—
I died with broken heart;
I loved My own, they loved Me not.
My heart was lonely, too;
I'll never leave thee, child of Mine.
My loving heart is true.

Art thou discouraged in thy work?
Doth ministry seem vain?
I ministered midst unbelief,
Midst those with greed of gain;
They would not hearken to my voice.
But scoffed with oneaccord;
Your labor never is in vain
If done unto the Lord.
Have courage, then, My faithful one.

I suffered all the way,
Thy sensitive and loving heart
I understand today;
What'er thy grief, what'er thy care,
Just bring it unto Me;
Yea, in thy day of trouble, call,
I will deliver thee.

Yours for Christian Service,
CORENNE WATTS
