Revised Constitution of the National Baptist Convention, U.S. A.

PREAMBLE

Whereas, it was the sense of the Negro Baptists of the United States as represented in several Baptist organizations convened in Atlanta, Georgia, September 28, 1895, and known as the Baptist Foreign Mission Convention hitherto engaged in missionary work on the West Coast of Africa; the National Baptist Convention which had been doing missionary work in the United States; the National Baptist Educational Convention, charged with the educational interest of the Negro Baptists, that these organizations should unite into one organization for the purpose of putting into effect the benevolent institutions of their constituents by eliciting, combining, and directing the energies of the denomination; Therefore, said organizations did unite and agree upon certain fundamental principles and organic rules, which as amended from time to time are as follows:

HISTORIC BACKGROUND

Three Negro Baptist organizations, claiming national status, existed in the United States prior to 1895. These three organizations in their separate conventions voted to meet in Atlanta, Georgia, September 28, 1895, and form one body for the purpose of more effectively carrying on the benevolent activities for which Baptists stand. The organizations so uniting were as follows:

1. The Baptist Foreign Mission Convention, which up to that time had been doing missionary work on the West Coast of Africa.
2. The National Baptist Convention which had done its missionary work in the United States up to this time.
3. The National Baptist Educational Convention which was directing its efforts in Christian education among Negroes in the United States.

PREAMBLE

We, the messengers from Negro Baptist Churches and other related Baptist organizations in the United States, desiring to more effectively carry on the work of the Kingdom, do hereby ordain and establish this Constitution whose provisions shall be as follows:

ARTICLE I—NAME

This organization shall be known and styled as the National Baptist Convention of the United States of America.

ARTICLE II—OBJECT

The object of this Convention shall be to encourage unity in faith and practice among Missionary Baptists; to promote home and foreign missions, to encourage and support Christian education; to publish and distribute religious literature; and to engage in any other Christian work that the Convention may desire to do.

ARTICLE III—MEMBERSHIP

Section 1. The membership of this Convention shall be representative, annual, and life.

Section 2. Representative membership shall be composed of messengers from churches, associations, district conventions and state conventions all known to be in harmony with the purposes of this Convention. These organizations shall pay into the treasury of this Convention such sums as are set out in Section of this Article.

Section 3. Basis of Representations: (a) Churches with 200 to 500 members, $25.00; 500 to 1,000 members, $35.00; churches above 1,000 members, $50.00; churches with less than 200 members, $10.00. Each church shall be allowed an additional messenger for each $10.00 paid, but no church shall be allowed to exceed ten (10) messengers. (b) State Convention basis of representation, $200.00. The state convention will be allowed an additional messenger for every additional $50.00 paid in as representation, not to exceed two messengers. (c) District State Convention, $50.00. (d) Associations, $35.00.

Section 4. Life Membership—Any person who is in good and regular standing in any Missionary Baptist church that is a member of this Convention may become a life member by the payment of the sum of $200.00 into the treasury of this Convention.

Section 5. Annual Membership—Any person who is a member of a church that is in good and regular standing with this Convention may become an ANNUAL member of this Convention by payment of the sum of $10.00 into the treasury of this Convention. Said ANNUAL member may engage in the discussion of the Convention but not vote.

Section 6. Associations and state conventions shall elect their messengers to the National Convention in their annual meeting preceding the Convention and certify said messenger to the executive secretary.

ARTICLE IV—OFFICERS, THEIR ELIGIBILITY AND ELECTION

Section 1. The officers of this Convention shall be as follows: President, vice-president-at-large, four vice-presidents, a state vice-president from each of the states and territories having an organization affiliated with this Convention, a recording secretary, four assistant secretaries, an executive secretary, treasurer, statistician, historiographer, attorney, editor, all of whom shall be elected annually by the Convention, and shall hold office until their successors are elected and qualified. The executive secretary shall be elected by the Board of Directors on the approval of the Convention.

Section 2. A president of this Convention shall not be eligible for re-election after he has served four consecutive terms, until at least one year has elapsed.

Section 3. Any messengers in good and regular standing with any church holding membership in this Convention shall be eligible for any office of this Convention.

ARTICLE V—DUTIES OF OFFICERS

Section 1. The duties of the officers of this Convention shall be in general terms, such as recognized custom devolves upon them, and which are suggested or indicated by the name of the office together with such other duties as may be required of them by this Convention.

Section 2. The treasurer of this Convention shall receipt for all money turned over to him and shall pay out the same only upon order signed by the president and attested by the secretary. At each annual meeting he shall submit a written itemized report of receipts and disbursements.

Section 3. An auditor shall make annual examination and audit of the books and accounts of all Boards of the Convention and such officers that have the handling of the finances of this Convention. For this purpose he shall have full and free access to all books and records in the custody of the same and shall report his findings to this Convention at its annual meetings. But nothing in this section shall be so construed as to prevent Boards and officers involved from having a survey and audit of their accounts when in their judgment such a survey and audit may be necessary.

Section 4. It shall be the duty of the statistician to gather statistical data for the denomination as represented by the Convention by procuring such statistics from churches, district associations, and state conventions, participating in this Convention and from denominational Schools within the domains of this Convention as will contribute to this end, and report the same to this Convention annually.

Section 5. It shall be the duty of the historiographer to gather all historical data bearing on the rise and progress of the National Baptist Convention and publish the same. He shall work in harmony with all Boards in pursuance of the ends set out above.

Section 6. EXECUTIVE SECRETARY AND HIS DUTIES.—The executive secretary shall receive his orders and directions from the Board of Directors. He shall devise plans and methods of registration and of receiving Convention funds, and have complete supervision of the same upon the approval of the Board of Directors. He shall employ such personnel as may be required for the conduct of his office. The budget of his office shall be fixed by the Board of Directors. The salary of the executive secretary shall be fixed by the Board of Directors. He shall be required to furnish surety bond in amount fixed and approved by the Board of Directors. He shall make comprehensive study of the fiscal affairs of the Convention and all of its Boards and agencies, and after consultation with the president of the Convention he shall make recommendations from time-to-time for the more efficient operation of the fiscal affairs of the Convention and all of its agencies and Boards. His books and accounts shall be audited by the auditor of the National Baptist Convention. He shall devote his full time to the duties of his office and shall have no other employment. The executive secretary may be removed from office by a majority vote of the Board of Directors with Convention approval. The executive secretary shall receive deposits, remit all deposits to the treasurer of the Conventions, and disburse such funds as he shall be authorized to disburse, except such funds as he may be directed to send to the several Boards of the Convention.

ARTICLE VI—AUTHORITY

* This Convention is independent and sovereign in its sphere, but does not claim and will never attempt to exercise any authority over any other Baptist body, whether church, association or convention.

ARTICLE VII—BOARDS

Section 1. The work of this Convention shall be done by Boards as follows: Board of Directors, Foreign Mission Board, Publishing Board, Home Mission Board, Benefit Board, B. T. U. Board, Educational Board, Bath House-Sanitation-Hospital Board (after the Finance Commission has discharged its obligation of paying off the debt), and any other Board that the Convention may deem necessary for successfully carrying on its work. It shall have a Baptist Voice Commission and a Social Service Commission.

Section 2. Board of Directors—The Board of Directors shall consist of the president, vice president-at-large, the four vice presidents, the vice presidents elected by the Convention from the various states and territories represented at each annual session; the recording secretary, the treasurer, the attorney, the editor, historiographer, statistician, executive secretary, and the assistant secretaries of the Convention, majority of whom shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. The Board of Directors shall organize by electing a chairman and a secretary who shall perform the duties usually assigned to like officers. It may, if so desired, create from among its own body such sub-committees as it may deem proper, and make such rules and regulations not inconsistent with the Constitution of this Convention as it may deem necessary. (a) It shall be the duty of the Board of Directors to complete the unfinished business of the Convention referred to it by vote of the Convention, and to adjust such matters as may be referred to it by the Convention, and to fill any vacancies which may occur in the roster of the Convention, to nominate and fix the time and place of the meeting; to enforce the orders of the Convention or any of its Boards, to examine and pass on and recommend all claims against the Convention, and during the recess of the Convention have entire charge of its affairs.

(b) Executive Committee of Board of Directors: There shall be an Executive Committee of nine (9) consisting of the president, secretary, treasurer and nine (9) others whose duty it shall be to look after any unfinished business of the Board of Directors, and to transact any urgent matters demanding immediate attention of the Board, and report same to the Board of Directors.

(c) The chairman and corresponding secretaries of the several Boards shall be accorded the floor of the Board of Directors and the privilege to speak on and discuss all questions, but not to vote.

1. Board of Directors Meetings: The Board shall have a midwinter meeting for the purpose of making budgets for all Boards and Agencies of the Convention for the ensuing year; appoint committees and commissions to prepare reports to be submitted to the Convention for consideration in its annual session.
2. A second meeting, on the afternoon before the meeting of the Convention for the purpose of seeing that everything is in order for the Convention session.

AMENDMENTS—BOARD OF DIRECTORS

- (1) The Board of Directors shall have the right to try the officers of the Convention and of the Boards and to dismiss them until the meeting of the annual session of the Convention.
- (2) There shall be nine members-at-large to be elected by the Convention, annually, to serve not more than three years in succession on the Board of Directors.

Section 3. OTHER BOARDS: Other Boards of the Convention shall be constituted as follows:

1. Nine (9) members to be chosen from the state in which the Board is located, but not more than two (2) from any one church. One member to be recommended by each state delegation to serve on each of the several Boards and said members to be elected by the Convention.
2. Each Board shall elect a chairman, recording secretary and a corresponding secretary, who may be named treasurer of the Board, and such other officers as the Board in its wisdom may deem necessary.
3. The Board may have such committees as it may think necessary for carrying its work on, such as, Administrative, Executive, and Finance Committee created out of its membership.
4. The compensation of officers and employees of the Boards shall be fixed by the Board, but must be approved by the Convention; no salaried employee shall be a member of the Board.
5. A majority of the members of any Board shall constitute a quorum, but all members must be notified by a written notice at least one week prior to the meeting of the Board.

ARTICLE VIII—DUTIES OF BOARD OFFICERS

1. The corresponding secretary of each Board shall be its executive head and shall carry on its work as the Board may direct.
2. The recording secretary of each Board shall keep a record of each Board meeting and shall keep the records in a fireproof safe or vault.
3. The corresponding secretary of each Board shall follow approved methods of accounting, shall keep the books, give receipts for all monies and securities, deposit all funds in a depository approved by the Board and render a full statement of the same to the Board or to the Convention when required.
4. The compensation of officers and employees of all Boards shall be fixed by the Boards subject to the review and approval of the Board of Directors and the Convention.

ARTICLE IX—COMMERCIAL BOARDS

All Boards of the Convention that make profits above operating expenses shall be required to turn over the surplus funds to the Convention for allocation to the work of the Convention after a reasonable reserve is set aside for operation, emergencies and expansion, annually.

SEMINARY BOARD

Seminary Board to remain as constituted at present.

ARTICLE X—SUBSIDIARY BODIES

Section 1. The Woman's Convention, Auxiliary to the National Baptist Convention, Sunday School and B. Y. P. U. Congress, and the Baptist Laymen's Movement, are and the same are hereby recognized as subsidiary bodies to this Convention. These subsidiary bodies shall work in harmony with this Convention, contributing annually to the financial budget of the Convention.

Section 2. The subsidiary bodies shall make annual reports to this Convention and said reports being subject to approval of the Convention.

AMENDMENTS—SUBSIDIARY BODIES

Section 3. No auxiliary of this Convention shall engage in activities or form policies inconsistent with the constitution of this Convention and without the approval of this Convention.

(a) Neither shall any auxiliary, agency, or Board, purchase real estate, nor dispose of property, or exchange property, nor incur debts, other than routine operation, without the approval of this Convention.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The Board of Directors shall provide for a unified budget for all Boards, departments, agencies, and subsidiary bodies; and shall see to it that the above requirements are enforced and that all boards, departments, agencies and subsidiary bodies shall operate within their budget.

ARTICLE VI

All Board members and missionaries and agents appointed by this Convention or by any of its Boards shall be members of some church in union with the churches composing this Convention.

ARTICLE XII

The churches, district associations, state conventions, and other Baptist organizations composing this Convention, shall have the right to specify the object of which their contributions shall be applied. But when this right has not been exercised, the Convention shall make the appropriation at its own discretion.

ARTICLE XIII

Missionaries appointed by this Convention or by any of the Boards must, previous to their appointment, furnish evidence of genuine piety, fervent zeal in the Master's cause, and talents which fit them for the service for which they offer themselves.

ARTICLE XIV

There shall be an annual meeting of this Convention, the same to be held at the time and in order stated in the by-laws of this Convention.

This Constitution may be altered or amended at any annual session by a two-thirds vote of the members present, provided that such a vote is taken without regard to the total enrollment, and provided further that no amendments may be considered after the second day of the session. All amendments before being presented to the Convention for adoption, must have been presented to the Executive Board of this Convention for its consideration.

All constitutions and laws or parts of constitutions and laws in conflict with this constitution are hereby repealed and are of no force and effect.

This constitution shall take effect upon its adoption.

ARTICLE XV

The Convention shall have an auditor who shall be recommended by the president and approved by the Board of Directors. The auditor shall be a certified public accountant.

BY-LAWS

NATIONAL BAPTIST VOICE

Section 1. The National Baptist Voice shall be sent to every pastor enrolled in the annual session, and such enrollment shall be known as a subscription list.

Section 2. For each name registered, two dollars shall be deposited in the treasury of the Convention to the credit of the Voice.

Section 3. The Board of Directors shall make up a budget for the National Baptist Voice.

*Call for a National Convention of Colored Baptists.

Dear Brethren: April 5, 1886, an open letter to the Baptist clergy and laymen was issued by Rev. Wm. J. Simmons, an American Baptist, asking if we should have a National Convention to discuss questions of interest to our beloved denominations. At that time the following reasons were given:

1. To promote personal piety, sociability, and a better knowledge of each other.
2. To be able to have an understanding as to the great ends to be reached by the denomination.
3. To encourage our literary men and women, and promote the interest of Baptist literature.
4. To discuss questions pertaining especially to the religious, educational, industrial, and social interests of our people.
5. To give an opportunity for the best thinkers and writers to be heard.
6. That, united, we may be more powerful for good and strengthen our pride in the denomination.

Having been solicited to write the Call by many whose names and endorsements are hereunto affixed, the Call is hereby made by their advice and solicitations for said convention to meet in St. Louis, Mo., August 25, 1886, 10 o'clock a.m., in the First Baptist Church, and the pastor thereof is hereby requested to serve as a Committee of Arrangements, with power to select his associates.

Wm. H. Steward, Louisville, Ky., and Rev. R. H. Cole, 2609 Goode Avenue, St. Louis, are hereby requested to serve as a Committee on Transportation.

Wm. J. SIMMONS.

The chronological report in our National Baptist Minutes is hereby corrected, viz: The parties as they appear below were officers of the Foreign Missions or National Educational Conventions, as were their predecessors. Said conventions merged into the National Baptist Convention in 1886 or met co-jointly with it, or otherwise.

Foreign Mission or National Educational Convention

Yrs.	PRESIDENTS	SECRETARIES
1886	Rev. J. A. Foster	Rev. J. J. Spelman
1887	Rev. A. B. Jackson	Hon. J. J. Spelman
1889	Rev. E. K. Love, D.D.	Rev. S. D. Clanton, D.D.
1890	Rev. E. K. Love, D.D.	Rev. S. D. Clanton, D.D.
1891	Rev. E. K. Love, D.D.	Rev. S. D. Clanton, D.D.
1892	Rev. A. R. Griggs, D.D.	Rev. S. D. Clanton, D.D.
1893	Rev. E. K. Love, D.D.	Rev. S. D. Clanton, D.D.
1894	Rev. A. R. Griggs, D.D.	W. J. Steward

There was no convention of such national scope as the National Baptist Convention, 1886. The Foreign Mission Convention, however, having been organized in 1880, the National Baptist Convention accepts that date as the starting point.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Metropolitan Baptist Church

Memphis, Tennessee

DR. S. A. OWEN, Pastor

Tuesday, September 6, 1955 - 2:00 o'clock P.M.

Devotions were led by Dr. William A. Johnson, Illinois, and Dr. W. H. Thomas, Alabama. Psalm 133 was read by Dr. Thomas before he offered the opening prayer. Hymn No. 453 (Baptist Hymnal) was sung. Mrs. W. C. Trutter, provided musical accompaniment.

Reverend B. J. Gilbert, Ohio, offered a second prayer.

"A Charge to Keep I Have" was sung by the congregation and sentence prayers were offered by several of the directors and pastors present.

Dr. T. S. Harten, in his usually impressive manner, presented President A. H. Jackson, who rose in the midst of tumultuous applause and addressed the group with a very arresting and timely statement on our challenge and opportunity in this hour.

The Agenda was read by Secretary Jemison.

Four additional proposals were added to the Agenda for consideration: namely,

1. Report on Committee on merger of schools
2. C. C. Coleman's proposal
3. Dr. C. Washington's proposal
4. Dr. R. B. Riley's proposal

The minutes were read by Assistant Secretary George W. Lucas. The minutes were adopted with necessary corrections.

Many questions were asked regarding the $62,408.12 loss in the operation of the Bath House.

The President explained that the annual payments on the mortgage on the Bath House have been paid out of representation money, which means that the investment is not yielding sufficient profit to maintain itself, thus creating said loss.

Dr. D. C. Washington, Alabama, read the report on the merger of our two schools in Nashville. The report recommended that the merger be perfected by the beginning of the 1956-57 terms of both institutions. (See report)

On motion by Dr. J. Pius Barbour with several seconds, the report was adopted.

Dr. Ralph W. Riley made a supplementary statement. The statement emphasized that at least $62,000.00 should be paid by the constituency of this Convention annually. He proposed a plan in detail. (See proposal)

By motion and second the statement was approved.

Dr. A. M. Townsend made an appeal for support of the Missionary Training School until the merger is a reality.

Item 5 was adopted.

On motion and second the Board of Directors recommended that any man who gets the floor and disrespects the President and violates the order of this convention will have his $10.00 refunded, and the member silenced.

Dr. A. M. Townsend presented Reverend Ambrose Bennett, Secretary of the Board of Directors of National Missionary Training School, who read a request that the National Baptist Convention grant $15,000.00 and the Woman's Auxiliary allow $10,000.00 for maintenance of the Training School.

The President suggested that the Missionary Training School Board confer with A. B. T. Board and that they jointly work out a plan whereby we can rally effectively to the support of our two schools.

President Jackson announced the appointment of the Committees to represent the Convention in its relationship to Commercial Boards. (See Committees)

Dr. J. B. Barbour moved and numerous seconds were heard that Dr. H. H. Humes be the Executive Director of the Bath House Board. Carried.

The President presented a memorandum of his expenses to the World Baptist Alliance and Russia. Total amount—$5,855.50.

Received—22 pounds and 1 shilling.

Russia—Appr. $250.00.

The president emphatically stated that he does not expect nor will he accept any payment on the $855.50 over and above the $5,000.00 allocated.

Dr. L. A. Pinkston of Georgia made an announcement calling for a meeting with the Pastors and leaders of Georgia.

Dr. C. C. Coleman, Mississippi, proposed a constitutional change relative to Article IV—Section 2. (Delete)

Dr. C. C. Coleman moved and Dr. D. C. Washington seconded that the item referred to be deleted.

Just before the vote was taken on the motion made by Dr. Coleman and seconded by Dr. D. C. Washington, President J. H. Jackson made the following statement, "I do not wish to abridge your privilege in this act for it is your democratic right. The President, however, has a statement on the same matter. But he will accept your expression of it at this time." After this statement the Board voted by a large majority to recommend to the parent body that tenure be removed from the constitution.

11 against.

Committee to confer with Dr. Jernagin:

Dr. S. T. Alexander

Dr. J. B. Barbour

Dr. D. C. Washington

George W. Lucas

T. J. Jemison

Motion by Dr. Barbour, second by Hardmon, New York, that the constitution be so revised as to list secretaries under labels as designated by the report on job analysis in the June Board meeting, Birmingham, Alabama, 1954. Carried.

RECORD

OF THE

Seventy-Fifth Annual Session

OF THE

National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc.

MEMPHIS, TENNESSEE

Wednesday, September 7, 1955 — 9:00 o'clock A.M.

Opening Song Service was conducted by Dr. W. H. Brewster of Tennessee, supported by Convention singers with Mrs. E. W. Williams, Alabama, at the organ and Mr. Thomas Selby, Jr., at the piano.

At 9:30, President Jackson made a brief and searching statement commending the fathers of yesteryear and declared the Diamond Jubilee Session of the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc., officially open for such business as pertain to the growth and progress of the Kingdom of God as fostered by our denomination.

The program was read by Assistant Secretary, George W. Lucas, who also moved its adoption. Several seconds followed. The motion carried.

Constitutional Revision

Before reading the recommendations in his Annual Address, President Jackson made the following statement with reference to recommendation one. "Before I present this recommendation, I wish to beg the indulgence of the Board of Directors and ask that they be tolerant enough to allow this Recommendation one to take place of their vote on Tuesday."

Because of the far-reaching significance of Recommendation One, we are recording it in its entirety.

1. That Article IV, and the last sentence in Section 1, the whole of Section 2 Article IV and the whole of Section 6 of Article V, be lifted and committed for careful study and analysis; and to re-vamp, reshape, amend or to re-affirm as they now appear in the constitution; and that said committee shall be appointed in this annual session, and will be advised to make their first report for discussion in the Mid-Winter Board meeting in 1956, and that a second reading shall be presented in the June Board meeting in 1956, and that a third reading shall be given at the September Board of Directors meeting in 1956. In each of these preliminary readings, any member of the National Baptist Convention shall be granted the privilege of discussion and suggestions, and the Committee shall labor to gather up the thinking of representatives of the Convention, and as early as possible, to express what seems to be the will of the people in their recommendations. The fourth reading shall be presented Wednesday morning at the 1956 session of the Convention. At this reading shall be presented Wednesday morning at the 1956 session of the Convention. At this reading, mimeographed copies of the articles in question shall be in the hands of all delegates for their personal study and analysis. On the afternoon of the second day of the convention in 1956, said articles shall be presented for discussion and for the vote of the convention.

Dr. Hampton asked that we hear reverently the memorial sermon as it is delivered by Reverend B. F. Paxton, Illinois.

Lusy Campbell rendered very effectively "When I've Gone the Last Mile of the Way." Reverend Paxton used Acts 13:36 as a text. Subject: "Christian Laborers Sleeping in Christ."

The presiding officer, Dr. Hampton, stated that a citation would be made to Mr. James L. Hicks, reporter for the Afro-American for the best article on Negro leadership in 1954. Assistant Secretary George W. Lucas made the award and read excerpts from the Article. (See National Edition, Afro-October 2, 1954) Adjournment.

Saturday Evening

The Evangelistic Hour was conducted by the Reverend Wesley H. Thomas, Alabama, Chairman. After the song, "Lord, Plant My Feet on Higher Ground," the Reverend W. K. Seal of Jackson, Tennessee, read a scripture from Romans 10:1-10. Reverend James Spencer, St. Louis, led in prayer. "Jesus, Oh How Sweet the Name" was inspiring sung by the Reverend E. Miles Kaigler. Reverend Slay Evans, Chicago, led us in another very fervent prayer. Mrs. Carter-Wan-kegan, Illinois, sang "This Little Light of Mine."

Dr. W. C. Trotter, Chicago, Executive Secretary of the Department of Evangelism, was presented, who, in turn, presented Dr. S. E. Dole of New York. The minister spoke very impressively.

Dr. Porter of Chicago was presented next for remarks.

Vice-President T. S. Harten took over and entertained a motion, made by S. E. Dole, properly seconded that the minutes for Saturday be approved without being read, which was accepted. Vice-President Harten then extended an invitation to the Convention to New York City for its 1958 annual sessions.

A motion prevailed made by Assistant Secretary Lucas that a message be dispatched to the Mayor of the City expressing its concern over the attack, which he suffered.

The hour having arrived for the sermon of the evening, Miss Sammie Bryant, Detroit, sweetly sang a number entitled: "I've Got A Home."

Dr. S. T. Alexander presented the minister, Dr. B. R. Riley, Dallas, Texas, for the message. A text was chosen from Ephesians 5:15, 16; John 9:4. Subject: "Making Good Use of the Time." James 6:11 was also quoted as an associate text for the discourse. The minister emphasized the fact that "this is our day to serve; let us make well of it." "We must face our task like men." A soul-stirring message from God's word was listened to.

Collection—$196.67.

Dr. T. T. Lovelace took charge and after timely remarks presented Dr. R. F. Johnson of New Jersey, to take charge. Reverend H. D. Dickie, Mississippi, was introduced to bring a message under the supervision of the Home Mission Board. His text came from Hebrew 9:22; Leviticus 17:11; Hebrew 10:4. Subject: "No Forgiveness Without Sin." From these passages of scripture came a very forceful exhortation.

A contribution was raised.

"Blest Be The Tie That Binds" was sung with benediction by the Minister who preached.

DR. J. H. JACKSON, President
DR. T. J. JEMISON, Secretary
C. L. WEST, Recorder.

Sunday, September 11, 1955—9:30 o'clock A.M.

Ellis Auditorium—Memphis

Model Sunday School conducted by the Sunday School Publishing Board. During assembly, Reverend Weeden, Cleveland, Ohio, reviewed the Sunday School lesson.

Mrs. Ann E. Moore, wife of Reverend I. T. Moore, Pastor of the Calvary Baptist Church, St. Louis, Missouri, sang a solo.

Dr. A. M. Townsend made remarks and presented Dr. George W. Harvey, Editor-in-Chief of the Sunday School Publishing Board, who presented the S. N. Vass award to Dr. A. S. Owen, pastor of the Metropolitan Baptist Church, Memphis, Tennessee. Superintendent H. H. Ateman, of the Metropolitan Church spoke on behalf of the Sunday School.

Regional Vice-President L. A. Pinkston gave directions to the assembly in appreciation for the Morning Worship.

The local and visiting deacons were invited to the platform.

Robert Bradley led the house in singing "God's Amazing Grace."

Secretary T. J. Jemison announced the death of Mayor Frank Tobey. The Convention stood in silence as an expression of sympathy to the family and the citizens of Memphis.

Dr. B. J. Coates moved and Dr. Calvin Perkins seconded that proper condolences be tendered by the Secretary.

Dr. Moses Newsome, West Virginia, was in charge of devotions.

Dr. Alexander Gregory, West Virginia read the 95th Psalm.

Dr. Newsome spoke briefly on "Some Meanings of Christian Worship."

Dr. D. E. King, Assistant Secretary, made the appeal for the offering.

Dr. W. H. Brewster presented Dr. A. E. Campbell who introduced Reverend D. Morrison, Jr., to present a token of appreciation from the Regular State Baptist Convention of Tennessee to President J. H. Jackson.

The young people of the East Trigue Avenue Baptist Church sang "Speak To Me Jesus."

Vice-President, Dr. Charles Hampton, introduced Mrs. Fred D. Haynes who presented an expression of appreciation to Mrs. J. H. Jackson. (An orchid)

Dr. L. A. Pinkston, the presiding officer, announced that following the hymn, led by Reverend E. Miles Kaigler, President Jackson would deliver the Morning Sermon.

I Corinthians 7:21-22 was read as a text. Subject: "Christ and Circumstances."

The message was enriching and delivered with zeal and power.

Sunday School offering: $909.49. First prize: Illinois; second prize, Mississippi; third prize, Louisiana, and third-B, Michigan.

Benediction, Reverend A. L. Dunn.

3:00 o'clock P.M.—Sunday

FOREIGN MISSION MASS MEETING

The Convention singers assisted by local groups offered an inspirational song service.

Following the devotional period, Dr. C. C. Adams made appropriate remarks.

Dr. W. H. Brewster, Memphis, made made the formal appeal for the offering.

Amount _____

Mrs. Johnnye Howard Franklin sang: "Hark the Voice of Jesus Calling."
Reverend Rufus Prunty, one of our missionaries in Liberia, West Africa, was presented by Dr. Adams.

Dr. Adams also presented the family of Reverend J. F. Falconer, the Coordinator of our Mission work in Africa. Reverend Falconer gave a brief challenge to us to continue our support in the course of his greetings.

Reverend H. H. Battle, Tennessee, alternate to Dr. J. W. Broadbush, gave the main address.

5:00 o'clock P.M.

B. T. U.

Secretary Roland Smith took charge and organized the audience for a B.T.U. Service. After prayer by Dr. S. Amos Bracken of Pittsburg, Pa., Dr. George Lucas, Pastor Bethel Church, Dayton, Ohio, and Assistant Secretary of the Convention came forward to deliver the message. He spoke from the text Matthew 13:51-52. Subject: "In Training for the Kingdom." An offering was taken for the B.T.U. work amounting to _____.

Then, Dr. J. Pius Barbour, Editor of the Voice, made summary comments on the necessity of giving to the Convention through these services a higher type of sermon for the edification of the mind as well as stirring the spirit. These remarks were received with much enthusiasm.

Benediction by Reverend A. J. Davis.

SUNDAY EVENING SERVICE - 7:30 o'clock P.M.

September 11, 1955

The closing session opened with Vice-president T. S. Harten presiding with Mrs. E. W. Williams at the organ and the Reverend E. Miles Kaigler, song leader.

The closing sermon was delivered by Dr. D. E. King, Financial Secretary of the Convention and Pastor of the Zion Baptist Church, Louisville, Kentucky, from the theme, "Knowing God's Active Purpose in All Things." The speaker of the evening was introduced by the Reverend R. W. Norsworthy and prayer was offered by the Reverend H. C. Nabrit.

At the close of the powerful message that was well delivered and received, the messengers and visitors were led in meditation and fellowship by the speaker of the evening while singing, "His Eye Is On the Sparrow."

The 75th Annual Session came to a close with singing, "The Evening Shades Are Passed and Are Gone," led by the Reverend Kaigler, Vice President Harten expressed sincere appreciation on behalf of the Convention for the very fine entertainment received while in Memphis. The closing prayer was pronounced by Dr. T. S. Harten.

MEETING OF BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF NATIONAL BAPTIST CONVENTION, Inc.

HOT SPRINGS, ARKANSAS

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 18, 1956

4:15 P. M.

The Inspirational Song Service was conducted by Rev. E. Miles Kaigler, Michigan, with Mrs. E. W. Williams officiating at the organ and Mrs. Marjorie Lee Olive at the piano.

Rev. T. H. Wade, Illinois, and Dr. E. D. Billoups, Louisiana, offered fervent prayers.

President Jackson announced that the mid-winter meeting of The Board of Directors of The National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc., was open for such business as may be duly presented.

Secretary T. J. Jemison read the minutes of the Memphis Session of the Board. Dr. E. D. Billoups, Louisiana, moved and Dr. M. M. Morris seconded that the minutes be approved with necessary corrections. The motion carried.

The Agenda was distributed before the reading of same by Secretary Jemison. Dr. T. S. Harten moved supported by several seconds that the Agenda submitted by President Jackson be adopted. The motion carried.

The President observed that the Pastors present would be granted participation in the deliberations of the Board. The President's suggestion was approved by motion and second and the vote of the Directors. Personal enrollment amounted to $264.00.

Dr. Jackson emphasized the opportunity and obligation of our Denomination to serve our Nation and our World by using our influence and voice on behalf of our own group and others who suffer injustices and abridgement of their constitutional rights.

Two documents were read by Secretary Jemison, one directed to President Eisenhower and the other to the Governors of the various States. Rev. C. J. Rogers, Illinois, commended President Jackson for his vision and statesmanship and moved the adoption of Document No. 1 (see document). Dr. S. T. Alexander seconded the motion which carried. Dr. J. Pius Barber moved and Dr. C. C. Coleman, Miss., seconded the Document be presented to the attention of the two major political parties in the U.S.A. Dr. L. K. Jackson moved and others offered seconds that the second document be sent to the Governors of the several states. Dr. J. Raymond Henderson, California, offered an amendment that the statement be released to the press both religious and secular. The amendment was accepted. The motion carried.

Secretary Jemison read a statement asking that May 17th be observed as a day of mourning, fasting and praying. Rev. Levi Terrell, Georgia, moved and many gave seconds that the message presented by the President become the sentiment of the convention.

The Board Meeting recessed for one hour. Rev. J. H. Parker, Mississippi, gave the benediction.

2:00 P.M.

Rev. E. Miles Kaigler, Michigan, led the Song Service. The period of meditation was closed with prayer by Dr. D. C. Washington, Alabama.

Vice-President S. A. Owen made brief remarks and presented Dr. Ralph Riley, President of A.B.T. Seminary. Dr. Riley made a statement and presented Miss Primrose Funchess who discussed the monthly regular plan and the picture gallery of pastors who pay $100.00 or more.

The Alumni Quartette rendered "Keep Me Every Day" very effectively. Envelopes were distributed for a special offering for the Seminary.

President Jackson presented Dr. Sedbury of the American Baptist Seminary for expressions, who presented to the Seminary on behalf of the Southern Baptist Convention Mission Board, $1,000.00.

Item No. 5 of the Agenda was referred to for consideration which was the report of the treasurer of the Convention. Telegrams were read by Secretary Jemison informing us of the illness of Dr. T. Moore King of Joliet, Ill., and Dr. L. A. Pinkston, of Atlanta, Georgia. A prayer for them was offered by Rev. R. T. Andrews. A donation for these two ministers was raised amounting to $147.60.

Arkansas Baptist College Choral group was introduced to render three numbers, viz., 1. "The Lord's Prayer," 2. Imflammatus; 3. "Ride on, King Jesus," so inspiring and exhilarating were those three numbers that an encore was requested by the prolonged applause which was "In the Army of The Lord." The president of the college was introduced for felicitations which were brief but timely.

Dr. W. L. Varnado presented an appeal from the Southern Baptist Convention which he read for our intelligence concerning the financial condition of the American Baptist Seminary. The report revealed that $39,000.00 will be needed by the National Convention for the operation of the seminary through June 30, 1956. By motion of Dr. Roland Smith the report was received. President Jackson read a financial report of the Seminary, from the Executive Secretary of the Southern Baptist Convention. Dr. Ralph W. Riley submitted a report from the Seminary.

By motion of Rev. Roland Smith, a campaign be launched for the support and continuation of the Seminary. Motion carried. The Board session was then adjourned until the evening session. Benediction by Rev. Levi Terrell, Georgia.

7:40 P.M.

The opening Song Service was directed by Rev. E. Miles Kaigler, Michigan. Mrs. E. W. Williams and Mrs. Marjorie Lee Olive were at the instruments. Rev. W. R. Matthews, Michigan, offered prayer.

Vice-President S. A. Owen made fitting remarks and presented Rev. R. S. Shorty, Chairman-Local Committee, to conduct the Welcome program. Rev. Shorty invited the participants to the platform for the welcome greetings. Greetings were extended by Rev. E. M. Johnson, Interdenominational Alliance, Rev. J. N. Harrison, churches of Hot Springs, Major Floyd A. Hossley of Hot Springs, on behalf of City Government, and Mr. E. S. Stevenson, President of the Negro Civic League.

Music directed by Rev. Kaigler was rendered during the Welcome Program. Rev. W. M. Bishop, Michigan was called to present the preacher of the evening. Rev. A. M. Martin, pastor of New Light Baptist Church, Detroit, Michigan.

Rev. Martin read as a text, Romans 1:16—Subject: "The Power of The Gospel." The sermon was rich in content and delivered with wisdom and power.

Rev. Kaigler led in singing "Go Preach the Gospel."

Dr. W. W. Thomas, Alabama, led in the closing prayer.

THURSDAY — Morning Session

JANUARY 19, 1956

The morning session was called to order by Vice President T. S. Harten presiding. The song service was led by Mrs. Johnnie Howard Franklin, "Leading on The Everlasting Arm." Prayer was offered by Vice President Harten, after which the congregation was led in singing "Pass Me Not O Gentle Savior."

Following the devotions the discussion of the American Baptist Theological Seminary then came to the floor. It was moved after a brief discussion that the Seminary be given the right away, and that the Diamond Jubilee Campaign would be discontinued for the time being. It was moved by Dr. Levi Terrell and with a chorus of seconds that we launch a special campaign for the Seminary.

Dr. Jackson, our President, spoke of a joint meeting of our Seminary Committee and the Southern Baptist Committee to discuss the problems of our school at Nashville. The motion to have our committee to meet with the Southern Baptist was made by the Reverend J. H. Reynolds and seconded by Dr. D. E. King. The motion carried unanimously.

President Jackson then presented Mr. L. G. Bell from the United States Social Security office of Hot Springs, who spoke to us briefly on behalf of Social Security for Ministers and Farmers. Mr. C. H. Bass of the United States Government with headquarters in Little Rock, Arkansas, also spoke on new securities for Ministers and regulations for Social Security.

President Jackson called for additional gifts for the Diamond Jubilee Campaign. Pastors and Convention Presidents that made a contribution of $750.00 or more were called for and presented Certificates by Secretary Jemison. Before presenting the certificates, President Jackson stated that while his church had made the largest contribution of $2000.00, he would disqualify himself for the honor of being the Diamond Jubilee Pastor, and declared Dr. T. M. Chambers, Sr., pastor of Zion Hill Baptist Church, Los Angeles, California, as the "Diamond Jubilee Pastor." The Diamond will be presented to Dr. Chambers in the Annual Session in September in Denver, Colorado. Dr. Chambers made a brief acceptance speech and presented singers from his church to do two selections. The group sang "The Lord's Prayer, It's Amazing" and an encore also "He Satisfies." Those presented certificates along with Dr. Chambers were, Olivet Baptist Church, 3101 South Parkway, Chicago, Illinois, Dr. J. H. Jackson, Pastor; Zion Hill Baptist Church, 5025 McKinley Avenue, Los Angeles, California, Dr. T. M. Chambers, Sr., Pastor, $1,250.00; Greater Harvest Baptist Church, South State Street, Dr. Louis Buddie, Pastor, $825.00; Cornerstone Baptist Church, 574 Madison Street, Brooklyn, New York, Dr. Sandy P. Ray, Pastor, $750.00; Friendship Baptist Church, 144 West 131st Street, New York, N. Y., Dr. Thomas Kilgore, Pastor, $750.00; Holy Trinity Baptist Church, 443 Franklin Avenue, Brooklyn, New York, Dr. T. S. Harten, Pastor, $750.00; Greater Saint John Baptist Church, South Michigan Boulevard, Chicago, Illinois, Dr. William A. Johnson, Pastor, $750.00; New Bethel Baptist Church, 649 Boston Boulevard, Detroit, Michigan, Dr. C. L. Franklin, Pastor, $750.00; Zion Baptist Church, 2818 West Chestnut Street, Louisville, Kentucky, Dr. D. E. King, Pastor, $750.00; Zion Hill Baptist Church, 1317 South Ashland Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, Dr. H. R. Stephenson, Pastor, $750.00; National Baptist Training Union Board, 412 Fourth Avenue, North Nashville, Tennessee, Dr. Roland Smith, Secretary, $750.00; Empire Baptist State Convention, New York, Dr. Sandy F. Ray, President, $750.00; General Baptist State Convention, Indiana, Dr. D. G. Lewis, President, $750.00; General Missionary Baptist State Convention, Mississippi, Dr. H. H. Humes, President, $750.00 and Louisiana Missionary Baptist State Convention, Louisiana, Dr. E. Doyle Billups, President, $750.00.

Following the presentation of the certificates, the four for the sermon had arrived. The audience was led in singing "I Need Thee." After the Rev. William A. Johnson, Illinois, was presented to bring the message. He chose to speak from 1st John 3:7, "Marvel Not, My Brethren, If the World Hate You." It was a very thought provoking message and all were inspired by it. The sermon was followed with a solo by the Rev. O. M. Hoover, entitled, "Take Hold of The Lifeline."

Dr. Jackson offered a motion that was carried, that the sermon of the Reverend Johnson would be the guide of this meeting, and that the members of this Convention go back home with renewed inspiration to carry out the purposes of this great message. Benediction was offered by the speaker.

THURSDAY AFTERNOON SESSION

2:00

The afternoon session was opened by Vice President Charles H. Hampton. The song service was led by Mrs. Johnnie Howard Franklin with Mrs. E. W. Williams at the organ. The Convention was led in singing "When the Roll is Called Up Yonder." Dr. Hampton called for sentence prayers and several brethren responded with a background of music of the old hymn, "O Lord Have Mercy."

Vice President Hampton presented the Reverend S. E. Dixon who spoke of the signs of segregation coming down in a number of areas in the South. On a motion by Dr. Roland Smith with a chorus of seconds, that the Convention commend Rev. Dixon for the stand he is taking in publicizing courageous Negroes in the South and to back the stand he is taking.

Dr. L. K. Jackson, Indiana, made a motion that the Convention would send statements of praise to Negroes in the South who are carrying forward the struggle for first class citizenship. The second was made by Dr. F. G. Green. It was also stated that the Convention would give morale and spiritual support.

The matter of Tenure was to come to the floor for discussion. It was moved by Dr. Roland Smith and seconded by Dr. J. Plus Barbour that each speaker would be granted two minutes to speak either for or against tenure. A motion was then offered that tenure would be discussed for forty-five minutes. Both motions were carried unanimously. President Jackson then presented Dr. E. C. Smith, Chairman of the Tenure Committee who in turn presented Dr. O. G. Lewis who read the action of the Tenure Committee. The committee recommended that not only the president, but all officers including president of Woman's Auxiliary and the Sunday School Congress would come under the Tenure ruling if Tenure was accepted. After a discussion on Tenure by Dr. L. K. Jackson, Vice President Hampton recognized the arrival of Dr. Nannie H. Burroughs, President of the Woman's Auxiliary. Dr. Burroughs was preceded by a period of meditation and a prayer offered by Dr. J. C. Austin, Sr. Miss Burroughs brought greetings, the prayers, best wishes and the sincere pledge of cooperation, and we ask from you your prayers and understanding and cooperation with our program. Dr. Burroughs spoke of the plans of the Women for the year of 1956. Dr. Burroughs stated that there are three things we must have before peace and good-will can come to the earth. The three things we must have are, Justice, Jobs, and Jesus. Dr. Jackson thanked Dr. Burroughs for her timely remarks.

The matter of Tenure was then ready for discussion. Speaking against tenure were the following, Dr. S. D. Ross, Michigan; Rev. A. L. Perkins, Arkansas; Rev. Louis L. Beachamp, Wisconsin; Rev. Paul Hayes, Arkansas; Rev. J. C. Wade, Nebraska; Dr. D. E. King, Kentucky; Dr. E. D. Bernes, Mississippi; Dr. C. L. Franklin, Brooklyn, New York; Dr. Wendell Liggins, Colorado; Rev. Richard W. Collins, Alabama; Dr. Charles Churn, Maryland; Dr. A. M. Martin, Michigan; Dr. R. T. Andrews, Indiana; Dr. M. M. Morris, Mississippi; Rev. Marvin T. Robinson, California, and the Rev. J. N. Lightfoot, Illinois. Speaking for tenure were the following: Dr. J. Raymond Henderson, California; Dr. J. M. Royston, Illinois; Dr. F. G. Green, Michigan; Dr. Charles H. Hill, Michigan, and Dr. J. C. Austin, Illinois.

Vice President Hampton then called for a report from the entertainment committee for the 1956 convention in Denver, Colorado. Dr. Wendell Liggins spoke briefly and presented Dr. M. C. Williams who gave a very fine report and stated that preparation was well underway and by September arrangements will be complete.

Vice President then called for a report of the Joint Baptist meeting that was held at the Conrad Hilton Hotel on December 8th, 1955. The report was made by Secretary T. J. Jemison who along with President J. H. Jackson represented the National Baptist Convention.

Dr. Marshall L. Shepherd read a resolution from the Foreign Mission. (See Resolution) The resolution passed unanimously.

Dr. W. H. Jernagin spoke on the matter of the Fraternal Council of Churches, and that the committee appointed by the Convention to discuss the problem of the representation fee will not meet. Vice President Hampton stated that the Convention could take no action until the Committee meets and reports.

Dr. W. T. Crutcher made a statement on the matter at the Sunday School Publishing House dealing with the wages of employees and the meetings of the Sunday School publishing Board, and stated that nothing had been done up to this meeting. Vice President Hampton requested Dr. Crutcher and his committee to continue working and to report in the next Board meeting in June.

The afternoon session came to a close with benediction being offered by the Reverend Cleophas McKenzie, Tennessee.

REPORT OF ATTORNEY A. T. WALDEN

MEMPHIS, TENNESSEE - SEPT. 8, 1955

MR. PRESIDENT, OFFICERS AND MEMBERS OF THE NATIONAL BAPTIST CONVENTION, U.S.A., INC.

GREETINGS:

That a kind Providence has spared you and me to assemble again in another annual session of this Convention is sufficient proof that He expected something worthwhile from us in the promotion of this earthly Kingdom during the year just closed. May each one of us be able to say that we tried to live up to such expectations.

During the past year a multitude of matters affecting your convention has claimed your attorney's attention, time, thought and effort. Time will not permit a full enumeration of such matters. Reference therefore to the more significant ones will be briefly made.

BOARDS AND COMMITTEE MEETINGS

Aside from attendance upon the adjourned session of the Convention held at Hot Springs, Arkansas, I have attended the following: Two at Nashville in connection with the Labor Controversy at Sunday School Publishing Board; one at Nashville in connection with Merger Committee of American Baptist Theological Seminary and National Baptist Missionary Training School and a like meeting at Chicago; two meetings of Bath House Section of National Baptist Convention relative to transfer of management; Board of Directors at Memphis, Tenn.

S. S. PUBLISHING BOARD—CALIFORNIA SALES AND USE PERMIT TAX

The California Equalization Board called upon the Sunday School Publishing Board to pay a Sales Tax, Use Permit and to post bond in connection with its operation of a book store in Los Angeles wherein it disposed of its literature.

This matter was referred to your Attorney by Dr. Townsend. After an investigation into the matter it was satisfactorily adjusted, with the cooperation of local counsel at Los Angeles.

HOT SPRINGS SUIT AGAINST BATH HOUSE

In May of this year, your attorney was advised that the State Board of Masseurs of Arkansas filed suit in Garland County Chancery Court against Arlington Hotel and eight other bath houses, including ours and the Pythian Bath House to enjoin them from practicing or attempting to practice massage for a fee—without a certificate of registration issued by the Board of Masseurs.

All of the other defendants employed one attorney, Richard W. Hobbs of Hot Springs to represent them. Mr. C. H. Webster, manager of our Bath House, informed your attorney of the above situation and he was given authority to request the same attorney to represent us. That being a purely local matter it was deemed advisable and more economical to secure local counsel who was already representing all the other defendants.

The bath houses were victorious in the trial court. The other side has appealed to the Supreme Court of Arkansas. I have studied and reviewed the pleadings and the applicable law in the promises and concur in local counsel's opinion that the appellate court will sustain the decree of the trial court.

BATH HOUSE MANAGER'S CONTRACT OF EMPLOYMENT

Pursuant to authority granted at the St. Louis Convention and at the request of the Bath House Section of the Finance Commission, I prepared the Employment Contract between the convention and Mr. C. H. Webster. That contract is terminable by mutual consent or by either party giving the other sixty days written notice of intention to terminate same. Copy of same attached hereto.

UNION LABOR'S CONTROVERSY WITH SUNDAY SCHOOL PUBLISHING BOARD

In the St. Louis Convention last year a representative Local No. 1450 at Nashville, Tennessee, which comprised a minority of the employees in the Sunday School Publishing Board, appeared before the Board of Directors and certain complaints and grievances. After considerable discussion of the matter, that Board, through the convention's president, Dr. J. H. Jackson, appointed a committee of three composed of Doctor W. T. Crutchen, Dr. L. A. Pinkston and the convention's attorney, clothed with power and authority to negotiate with parties involved with positive instructions to adjust the matter so as to avoid litigation.

Your committee held a preliminary meeting at St. Louis with the Labor Union Representative, Mr. T. J. Darden and Dr. A. M. Townsend, representing the Publishing Board, nothing definite was arrived at but it was decided to meet later at Nashville.

Accordingly, therefore, two meetings were held at Nashville, one in September and one on December 1, 1954. The discussions at the September meeting disclosed the necessity of getting considerably more information and relevant data than was then available or could be immediately supplied by the parties. Accordingly, therefore, voluminous data was requested from the parties, including the number of employees by departments, with notation as to which departments were in the foregoing unit. Cost to the Board of the requested one per hour increase for all employees; forms and types of Social Security available to the employees, amount and cost to Board and the employees; Insurance benefits and costs of same; pension benefits; payroll of employees in the bargaining unit; comparative prevailing wages in that industry in the locale and lots of other information deemed necessary in the full and adequate consideration of the issues involved.

Dr. Townsend readily and fully supplied the data requested from the Publishing Board. The Union representative in part supplied that requested from the Union. Your committee secured other relevant data from other sources on its own initiative.

After compiling and reviewing all available data which might throw light on the question involved and prolonged discussion with the parties, your committee entered into an agreement with the Labor union by which an increase of five cents per hour for every employee, including those not members of the Union, as was deemed that it would have been unfair not to treat all employees alike. Other concessions were made. The Union asked that the increase be made retroactive to March, 1954, the date of the expiration of their old contract but we agreed to make it retroactive to October 1, 1953, involving about Nine Thousand Dollars.

The Publishing Board's representative did not agree to the above settlement. Your committee felt that the disposition made was fair to the employer and employees alike.

A report of the Committee's deliberations and conclusions was made to President Jackson. It is here and available but perhaps too voluminous to be incorporated in this report, except by reference to same.

MERGER—AMERICAN BAPTIST THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY AND NATIONAL BAPTIST MISSIONARY TRAINING SCHOOL

At the Hot Springs adjourned session of this convention held in January of this year, the convention voted that a merger be effected between the organizations named above and appointed a special committee to handle same.

Dr. Jackson called that committee together at Chicago in June, there being representatives of the two institutions and of the National Baptist Convention, including your attorney and Southern Baptist Convention.

At that meeting the matter was thoroughly discussed and some Board principles agreed upon, with only one dissent. It was evident then, however, that further discussion was necessary as there were many angles to be considered and many areas of possible cooperation to be explored. Accordingly, at the call of its chairman, Dr. D. C. Washington of Anniston, Alabama, a meeting of the merger committee was held in Nashville on August 30, 1955. There were representatives of the National Baptist Council, The American Baptist Theological Seminary, The National Baptist Missionary Training School and of the Southern Baptist Convention.

There was a full and free discussion of the problems involved. The overwhelming sentiment was that the merger, for many reasons enumerated, should be effected. However, the discussions disclosed certain circumstances which in the opinion of the committee made it inadvisable to effect the merger as of the next term which was right then upon us.

Recital of only a few of the determining factors is here made:

Dr. L. S. Sedbury, Executive Secretary-Treasurer of Southern Baptist Convention, stated that he had no authority to vote for an immediate merger, that being a matter which his convention would have to authorize; that the Southern Baptist Convention financial commitment could not exceed the amount already pledged ($66,550). He expressed full accord with the merger idea and pledged to present the matter to this Executive Committee and Convention with his endorsement of the proposed.

It was further disclosed that the faculty and other employees of the Training School had been selected and contracted with in May of this year. While it was not stated, it was understood that the same was true of the Seminary.

Your attorney was asked to comment on the situation. He stated, that in the light of the facts disclosed and that further in view of the legal adjustments which would have to be made, involving collaborating with counsel for the Southern Baptist Convention and adjustment of property rights in the premises, he did not see how it was legally feasible to perfect the merger prior to the 1956-1957 school year.

The joint committee unanimously voted to recommend to this convention that effort be made to perfect the merger as of the commencement of 1956-1957 school year.

The recommendations and report of this Joint Committee are full and perhaps too long to be incorporated in the minutes but they are of such importance that your attorney feels that they should be ready in their entirety to this convention and he will read them if you so desire or order.

Perhaps apology is due for the length of your attorney's report but he did not see how it could be much briefer and give you the information to which this convention is entitled relative to the legal aspects of its affairs.

Respectfully submitted,
AUSTIN T. WALDEN
Attorney for National Baptist Convention,
U. S. A., Inc.

THE WORK OF THE CONVENTION YEAR 1954-1955

The Sunday School Publishing Board continues to perform cooperatively and faithfully its tasks, and the responsibilities with which it is charged in the production and distribution of the Sunday School literature, religious publications, and standard song books, etc., for our great denominational constituency. In addition, the Sunday School Publishing Board continues giving co-operation and support to certain objectives of the National Baptist Convention program, which we carry as contingent responsibilities:

(a) In the promotion of the Christian Education work of the National Baptist Convention through its Christian Education Department, and its Editorial Department—in sustaining membership and relationship, in the work and program of the Division of Christian Education of the National Council of Churches.

(b) In the support of the National Baptist Missionary Training School, repairs, etc., and insurance on buildings, equipment, etc.

(c) In the re-habilitation of the National Baptist Sanitarium—Bath House, insurances, etc.

(d) In the maintenance, repairs, replacements, equipment, upkeep, insurances, etc., of the Morris Memorial Building—Nashville, Tenn.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL PUBLISHING BOARD AUTHORIZED CUSTODIAN OF MORRIS MEMORIAL BUILDING
(Our Publishing House)

'Twas at the Annual Meeting of the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc., Baltimore, Maryland, September 9-14, 1925, that the completed and fully equipped New Publishing House was turned over to the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc., by the duly authorized Building Committee, assigned the task with full power to buy and build a New Publishing House, to be the Home of the Sunday School Publishing Board.

The Building Committee was: E. M. Lawrence, Chairman; A. M. Townsend, Secretary; Wm. Haynes, Treasurer; L. K. Williams, R. B. Hudson, J. D. Crenshaw, S. P. Harris, E. T. Brown, E. W. D. Isaac.

The Building Committee having completed the task assigned was released amid encomiums of praise, applause and commendations.

(See Minutes, Page 240-W, National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc., Session—Baltimore, Maryland, September 9-14, 1925)

At this Session of the Convention also, by resolution it was voted to meet in Nashville, Tennessee, in a called session of the Convention to dedicate this building in appropriate ceremonies in 1926.

THE DEDICATION

(See Minutes, Page 230, National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc., Fort Worth, Texas, September 1926)

Quoted: Beginning Tuesday, April 20, 1926, and closing Sunday, April 25, 1926, The Morris Memorial—Home of the Sunday School Publishing Board, was dedicated with glorious and inspiring ceremonies. They came from all sections of the Country in large numbers to witness and participate in this momentous and historic event. President L. K. Williams preached the Dedicatory Sermon.

(See Page 243-244—Minutes—National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc., Ft. Worth, Texas—September, 1926)

Quote: "The completed and equipped Building and the keys with an offering were presented to the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc., by the Building Committee, Rev. E. M. Lawrence, Chairman.

In turn—the Building and equipment, and the keys were turned over to the Sunday School Publishing Board, by President L. K. Williams, and denominated the Custodian of this Building, equipment, etc.

Response of acceptance, as custodian of the building with the keys was made by A. M. Townsend, Corresponding Secretary of the Sunday School Publishing Board.

This turn-over is here reviewed, for when the Building with the keys was turned over to the Sunday School Publishing Board, as custodian, it carried with it the responsibility for the upkeep of the building and its equipment, such as repairs, re-decorations, replacements, insurances, taxes, etc.

This responsibility and tasks the Sunday School Publishing Board has struggled to carry on, even though at the sacrifices of its own expansion program, and progress.

Some one asks: Where do the profits of the operation of the Sunday School Publishing Board go?

It is to these objectives of the National Baptist Convention, even at the sacrifice of its own expansion program, and its Christian Education program that the greater part of the operating profits of the Sunday School Publishing Board have gone each year.

The S. N. Vass Award

For the sixth successive year since its inauguration, in memory of the late Dr. S. N. Vass, the pioneer, founder and First Secretary of the Department of Christian Education of the Sunday School Publishing Board (1921-1938), a local church, its pastor and outstanding lay leader are honored for outstanding achievement in Christian Education, according to the Board's standards, in the closing hours of this Convention during the Sunday School Hour. Honorees this year are: The Metropolitan Baptist Church, Memphis, Tennessee, its pastor, Dr. Samuel A. Owen, and its lay leader, Mr. H. H. Ateman.

This award is given for work done within the framework of the educational program of the National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Inc., and for loyalty and 100 per cent cooperation with the Sunday School Publishing Board and the auxiliaries of the Convention and their prime objectives.

CONTRIBUTIONS

There are always some interested, loyal and sympathetic donors, who realize that the Sunday School Publishing Board needs assistance in carrying on its work, especially the work of Christian education and missions.

The Sunday School Publishing Board makes regularly, donations of Sunday School literature, religious publications and tracts, song books, etc., to prisons, jails, detention homes, charitable and benevolent institutions, public libraries, and mission stations in Africa, and Islands of the Sea, that are connected with our Foreign Mission Board, etc.

These donors thereby share with us the joy and the blessing that is ours, in thus contributing our part in the carrying out of our Lord's Great Commission, "Go ye therefore, and teach all nations; teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and, lo, I am with you, always, even unto the end of the world."

To these donors, the Sunday School Publishing Board wishes to express its great appreciation for this evidence of their loyalty and interest in the work of the Board and especially its Christian Education program.

THE WORK OF THE CONVENTION YEAR 1955-1956

The work of the Sunday School Publishing Board for the year 1955-1956 will consist in its continuation to perform cooperatively and faithfully its tasks, and the responsibility with which it is charged in the production and distribution of the Sunday School literature and Christian Education literature and materials, and standard song books, etc., for our great denominational Constituency.

Added responsibilities for the Sunday School Publishing Board for the year 1955-1956:

(a) On account of the extensive improvement program of the Area in which your Publishing House stands, extensive repairs of the building inside and outside will have to be made (Estimated cost $15,000.00).

We would have you take note that the Morris Memorial Building—our Publishing House—is the only BUILDING that will be permitted to stand in that part of the extensive modern Improvement and Development area now in process around the Tennessee State Capitol.

This is evidence of the substantial construction of your Publishing House building, and its estimated valuation of more than a million and a half dollars.

(b) The building throughout will have to be re-decorated (estimated cost $35,000.00):

(c) The Machinery, mechanical department, presses, linotype machines, etc., are worn out and antedated, and will have to be replaced.

(d) The Editorial Department will have to be strengthened by efficient Editors, writers, etc., to bring and keep up to Standard our Literature, book publications, etc.

(e) Our Christian Education Department, with its Divisions must be augmented with efficient staff of workers, developed and brought up to meet the requirements of the Division of Christian Education of the National Council of Churches, and the more effective promotion of our Christian Education program for our Constituency.

(f) The marked increased cost of production, including printing materials, labor, taxes, etc., will have to be met.

(g) As Custodians of the Morris Memorial Building, the Insurance, Taxes, etc., will be the responsibility of the Sunday School Publishing Board.

RETRENCHMENT AND ECONOMY OF OPERATION

This forecast of the financial responsibilities of the Sunday School Publishing Board demands therefore marked retrenchment and economy of operation for the year 1955-1956.

CONCLUSIVE SURVEY

This survey of the financial responsibilities, in the operation, etc., is conclusive that if the Sunday School Publishing Board is to continue to operate on a sound financial basis, it is not in position to continue its Contributions as in the past to the Convention, the N. B. M. Training School, the A. B. T. Seminary, and other units of the Convention.

APPRECIATION

The Sunday School Publishing Board solicits your full and hearty co-operation in every way, and especially in patronage of our Sunday School literature, and Christian Education publications, which are as good and as adaptable for standard use, as any published, and in some points excel, and.

We solicit also your unstinted support of our Christian Education Department, that we may be of increasingly larger helpfulness in the training of Christian Education leaders and workers in our churches, and in carrying forward the tasks assigned us for the progress and advancement of the Master's kingdom, and.

We recommend the re-election of the following as members of the Board of Directors of the Sunday School Publishing Board for the year 1955-1956: M. H. Ribbons, A. M. Townsend, L. A. Bowman, A. J. King, Ambrose Bennett, J. H. Thompkin, A. L. McCargo, Charles L. Dinkins, H. C. Nabrit.

Respectfully submitted,
A. M. TOWNSEND, Secretary

ANNUAL REPORT

National B. T. U. Board

Memphis, Tennessee

September 7-11, 1955

DR. ROLAND SMITH
Corresponding Secretary

DR. J. W. GAYDEN
Chairman

To the President, Officers and Messengers of the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc.

Greetings:

It is a privilege and honor to submit to you the annual report of the National Baptist Training Union Board, which report gives an accounting of the stewardship for the fiscal year, July 1, 1954 through June 30, 1955. This report will include all phases of our work as it relates to the business, the personnel, the program, and the future objectives for our work. It has been, during the past year, a joy and privilege to work in this area of our denomination in the operation of the work of the B. T. U. Board. The task has not been an easy one, for we have had some problems and difficulties which require ability, diplomacy, courage, and faith to carry on.

On assuming the office of the Corresponding Secretary of the B. T. U. Board on October 1, 1954, I found the following condition which obtained:

1. The B. T. U. Board had accounts payable to the amount of $14,964.67 as of September 30, not including goods which were ordered from publishers and other firms which were delivered after I assumed office, to the amount of $-284.33 which actually made the accounts payable, under the former administration, $19,249.00. These accounts, which included printing bills and accounts of publishers and other firms, placed the credit of the B. T. U. Board in a serious condition and made a great strain upon operation of the B. T. U. Board. For example: The B. T. U. Board had, according to the Auditor's report, a balance of $3,001.41 as a bank balance; but, advanced checks had been written to the amount of $3,510.65. These checks were dated October 1, 1954, the date that I assumed office. From this, you can see that the B. T. U. Board had no funds with which to operate unless these advanced checks were voided, so that we could operate. In a meeting of the Executive Committee which was called in Nashville on October 10, 1954, the Executive Secretary of the B. T. U. Board was instructed to void these checks written in advance and to use the money to pay salaries and operate the Board. This was done.

2. We found many accounts that were past due the B. T. U. Board. Some of these accounts had been standing for over a year and a half. Your Secretary is please to report that many back accounts from $500.00 to $6.00 have either been paid or adjusted. The fact is, many of the bad debts that we had on our books have been reduced to a very appreciable degree.

3. We have received new support from our Baptist constituency for our literature. For example: In North Carolina where we formally had around 250 churches to buy our literature through the Baptist Book Store at Raleigh, but ceased to buy our literature because of their failure to receive it on time. We can report that we have received an agreement from the Manager of the Baptist Book Store, these 250 more churches will begin buying our literature. We have also received the same assurance from West Virginia as well as other States. We consider this very important for the selling of literature and the strengthening of our Baptist Training Unions which must be the primary concern of the National B. T. U. Board.

4. We have made adjustments and rearrangements in the personnel and the work of our Board. We have placed two persons on the field, so as to give them work because we did not need them in the office. We have been forced to reduce some of our help. This was due to too many employees in some departments of the B. T. U. Board. We submitted to the Executive Committee a proposed program which was approved. This program, we feel shall be an incentive to us to do a better and larger work for our Baptist Churches. Some of its aims we are working toward and others we hope to put in effect some times in the future.

The banks were not inclined to allow us loans without by-laws which enabled us to borrow. We are very grateful to the parent body at its Extended Session in Hot Springs, Arkansas, 1955 for authority to borrow up to a maximum amount. Upon the strength of these by-laws and the faith of the banks in the present administration, we were able to secure borrowing power from the Citizens Savings Bank and Trust Company of Nashville, Tennessee, and the Citizens Savings Bank and Trust Company of Atlanta, Georgia, to the amount of $17,000.00 during a fiscal year. We have not had to borrow to the full limit of our borrowing power. We are grateful that through these banks, we were able to pay all back accounts and to redeem our credit with our creditors. It is very important that this Board operate upon such sound business basis and integrity so that we can receive credit from legal institutions when we need it, rather than going to individuals and organizations to pay an exorbitant rate for money.

Your Secretary finds that this Board is seriously handicapped because of the small amount of space it has to do its work. The crowded condition of our quarters makes for inefficiency, loss of time, and loss of money. You cannot expect, in a crowded situation where people do not have enough room to do their work for them to be effective in their work. The Board must have more space to do its present work, to say nothing of expanding its work. The Executive Committee, through your Secretary, has written the Secretary of the Sunday School Publishing Board several letters requesting more space for our work in the Sunday School Board Building. It is our hope that provisions will be made for more room in the Morris Memorial Building.

We have appointed an Advisory Council on Literature and Curriculum, composed of some of the best preachers, loyal laymen, trained minds, and steadfast supporters among us. It shall be their task to work in cooperation with the Executive Secretary and Editors in the providing of themes and the breaking down of those themes into topics, so that we may have the kind of literature—which will be abreast with the times—inspiring, informative, and helpful to our Baptists. We are pleased to announce that Dr. B. E. Mays, Rev. M. L. King, Jr., Dr. E. C. Smith, Dr. R. L. Jones, Mrs. Bessie Estell, Dr. J. W. Broadus, and Rev. Kelly M. Smith, have accepted membership on the Advisory Council on Curriculum and Literature. This Advisory Council met in Nashville on March 23, 1955, with several of the members present and others were represented by communication to study and plan for our literature during the next year. This was a very fruitful meeting, for out of it were plans and objectives set for our B.T.U. Board as it relates to literature. The following are the findings of the Advisory Council:

1. The artistic representation on cover pages, etc., of the literature tend too much in the direction of buildings, persons or such features as to over-emphasize the organization. Thus the material is too heavily loaded with promotional emphasis.
2. The quality of paper also affects unfavorably the appearance of the literature.
3. The body content lacks maps, charts and illustrative pictures, stories, etc., which would make good or strong teaching material.
4. The material tends to over-emphasize denomination and preachers by exaggeration or misstatement, thereby it is likely to mislead learners and the youth.
5. The literature shows that some of the writers do not always portray wide and critical acquaintance with biblical interpretation, biblical literature or the large field of general literature and our developing culture.
6. The manner of writing—composition, style, grammar and literary allusions shows a need for more careful literary skills as well as wide acquaintance with general literature and especially child literature.
7. We find that the art covers or art features are anonymous; and they do not always have the criticism of the editors. We advise that this procedure appears to be more detrimental than helpful.

The B.T.U. Board has a great opportunity to do a marvelous job, if it will adjust itself to the task. One of the primary things which has given us much concern is the strengthening of our literature, as to its contents and form. We must have good writers with a scholastic and biblical, as well as sociological trend of mind—to edit our literature. Some of our writers are doing a good job; there are others who do not bring the freshness and vigor of scholarship to the work as is required for today. The Editorial Department is being critically re-appraised with a view of bringing to our Baptist Churches a better grade of literature. During the year, some improvements have been made in our literature. It may be that you have observed it, for we have received many letters and personal words of commendation from many of our pastors and laymen concerning the improvement of our literature. The B.T.U. Board appreciates your criticism and helpful suggestions, at all times, concerning its literature and work; for it is our purpose to make our literature the best, so that our Baptist churches shall not have to resort to Southern Baptists, American Baptists, Cooks Publishing House, or any other group for its literature in the training of its church members. We propose to give you a better quality of literature and the best trained writers, who are Baptist in their training as well as thinking; for we cannot train Baptists by having persons who have no Baptist background to write for us.

The B.T.U. Board is not as strong as it should be among Baptist Churches through our National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc., because there are so many of our pastors who do not realize the value of a trained lay leadership in our churches. In this age of competition among all institutions, governments, and individuals; it is vitally necessary that we give serious consideration to better training of our church members. If we are to have members who will appreciate and support our causes of education, mission, evangelism, and stewardship which are the cornerstone of our church life, we must address ourselves to the task of a better trained Baptist constituency. Many of our churches do not have a Baptist Training Union. This is a sad commentary upon our Baptist life if we are to move forward as other Baptist conventions on a national scale are moving. We must find out what it is that makes them move forward with such great and successful pace. Southern Baptists through the Southern Baptist Convention and Northern Baptists through the Northern Baptist Convention have encouraged and supported the B.T.U. and the agencies which train and develop their constituencies.

We cannot afford, however great our churches and however large our congregations to permit these churches to fail at this hour in its training of members for stewardship of life in all of its areas. Much of the confusion which we find in our Baptist churches is due to the lack of consecrated and trained leadership. Baptists must be taught what is required of a member in any Baptist Church. If this is done, we will have more achievements as a crowning act of our work.

The B.T.U. Board in a limited way has attempted to do some of this by having one full time field worker who has been busy during the year in training schools and institutions for our churches. We have received many favorable letters concerning this phase of our work. The young lady, who is engaged in this work, is Miss Pocahontas Williams. We are urging the pastors and directors of Baptist training Unions to write her at the B.T.U. Headquarters and have her come to your churches and communities. Our plan is to have several field workers who will instruct our people in the Baptist way of life.

We urge our Baptist Churches to reorganize a Baptist Training Union in the local church. Every Standard Baptist Church should have a good B.T.U. which meets regularly each week for the purpose of training the church membership. The leaders of the B.T.U. should be persons who have knowledge and interest in it. These leaders should be prepared to lead the church in a Trained Membership in all areas of the church life. The B.T.U. should not be another Sunday School, but a place where people are prepared to become more competent and consecrated church workers.

We pause here to pay tribute to the memory of the late E. W. D. Isaac, Jr., who after several years of illness fell asleep and passed to his heavenly reward. It was in 1931 at Atlanta, Georgia, that he was elected Corresponding Secretary of the B.T.U. Board to succeed his father, E. W. D. Isaac, Sr. For over fifty-six years, a father and son were the Secretaries of this Board.

Rev. E. W. D. Isaac, Jr., was a faithful servant and loyal leader of the B.T.U. Board and the National Baptist Convention. We shall miss him in the affairs and council of our great Convention.

We have assembled here this week to celebrate the Diamond Jubilee of the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc., under the matchless leadership of our scholarly and dynamic President, J. H. Jackson. Seventy-five years represent a long and eventful history of Negro Baptists. They represent tears, sorrows, sufferings, and achievements. It is a long ways from the days of McAlpine, W. J. Simmons, Brawley, Vann, Morris, Williams, Jemison and Jackson.

It is at this Jubilee that the B.T.U. Board joins our great National Baptist Convention, with its fifty-seven years of glorious history, which was begun under the illustrious leadership of that great organizer, orator, preacher and scholar, E. W. D. Isaacs, Sr.

The B.T.U. Board under the Dr. J. W. Gayden as its faithful chairman, who for thirty years, has served the B.T.U. Board, along with other members of the B.T.U., pledge to the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., and its leadership complete cooperation in the great task before us. As a feeble but a sacrificial expression of our loyalty, the B.T.U. Board is contributing $750.00 to the Convention for Diamond Jubilee.

CASH

The total cash of the B.T.U. Board was $4,056.04 on June 30, 1954, and $4,874.26 on June 30, 1955—an increase of $818.22.

ACCOUNTS RECEIVABLE

Accounts receivable were $10,110.16 on June 30, 1954, and $9,132.58 on June 30, 1955—a decrease of $977.58. This reduction in accounts receivable was due in part to the collection of several stale accounts during the last nine (9) months of this fiscal year.

EXCESSIVE BUYING

The B.T.U. Board no longer makes excessive purchases of literature and merchandise in order to avoid cluttering its inventory with unsalable goods. Except where there are limited sources of supply and where discounts are standard, the purchase of literature and merchandise is based on the most favorable of a minimum of three (3) bids. Purchases for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1954 were $53,775.78; for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1955, purchases were $25,250.06—a decrease of $28,525.72. The inventory of goods in stock was $23,775.83 on June 30, 1954; $28,360.69 on September 30, 1954, and $21,470.27 on June 30, 1955.

GROSS SALES

During the fiscal year ending June 30, 1954, gross sales by the B.T.U. Board were $5103,433.38. For the fiscal year ending June 30, 1955 gross sales were $103,699.89.

DISCOUNTS AND COMMISSIONS

Agents received $10,412.45 in commissions during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1954, and $7,838.87 during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1955. This decrease was due primarily to the ending of discriminatory practice of giving exceedingly high commissions to some agents while other agents received the standard rate for their services. The commission rates were previously fifty (50) per cent, thirty-three and one third (33 1/3) per cent and twenty-five (25) per cent. All agents now receive the same rate of commission.

RETAIL STORE

From July 1, 1954, through June 30, 1955 the total sales of the retail store were $1,131.26. $1,783.56 in salaries and $110.81 in commissions were paid to employees of that store. If we take into consideration the cost of goods sold and departmental allocation of overhead expenses; for each $1.00 of sales by the retail department, the B.T.U. Board bore expenses and costs of approximately $3.00.

One (1) former employee in the retail store has been assigned another mission—that of Field Worker. She is presently doing a creditable job.

RECONCILING OF BANK ACCOUNTS

The accountant for the B.T.U. Board is required to reconcile bank accounts of the B.T.U. Board at frequent intervals of time so that the Executive Secretary will know the exact cash balance before making expenditures. This practice is intended to protect the Board against the embarrassment that too great a reduction in the cash balance would entail. The B.T.U. Board has not had one (1) check dishonored during the last nine (9) months because of insufficient funds in banks.

CHARGE SALES TO CUSTOMERS

It is the established policy of this Board to extend credit to all of its customers who exhibit credit worthiness. The criteria for credit worthiness are ability to pay and a record of reasonable payments of debts.

PAYMENTS TO CREDITORS

Under this administration creditors of the B.T.U. Board are paid with reasonable frequency and promptness. Consequently, the credit of the B.T.U. Board has been improved. At the end of this fiscal year current assets were $19,504.11 in excess of current liabilities. The ratio of current assets to current liabilities was 2.32 to 1. The current position is sound.

NET PROFIT

The net profit of the B.T.U. Board for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1955 was $801.83. The B.T.U. Board showed a net loss of $1,221.28 for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1954. This fiscal year shows an improvement of $2,113.11 over the previous year. Salaries (unclassified) of $2,613.63, petty cash (unclassified) of $1,000.00 and other Unclassified Expenses of $933.98 were for the first quarter of the fiscal year. Consequently, these expenditures were made under the previous administration. The purpose of all expenditures under this administration are clearly stated.

BONDING OF OFFICERS AND EMPLOYEES

We have adopted the principle of all successful business concerns of bonding those who handle your money so as to protect your interest. We feel that religious bodies should be governed by the same business principles that other business institutions are guided. We report to you today that all the officers and employees, who are in the business offices, and who in any way handle your money, are bonded. This bonding is as follows:

$10,000.00—Corresponding Secretary
5,000.00—Bookkeeper

5,000.00—Cashier
 2,500.00—Clerk
 2,500.00—Clerk
 2,500.00—Clerk in Retail Department
 2,500.00—Secretary to Corresponding Secretary
 10,000.00—Treasurer

$40,000.00

This itemized list includes all persons who handle the funds and credits of the Board.

All great institutions are the result of sacrifice, toil and labor of individuals and groups, who have made untold sacrifice in the expenditure of body, mind, and soul to develop them. This is true of all successful institutions and business enterprises. We would not be so foolish to think that without co-operative effort our work would be a success. We are grateful to employees and friends of the National B.T.U. Board, who across the years have helped to build and strengthen it.

As your Secretary, permit me to thank President Jackson, who has given the best of his counsel; The Executive Committee and the B.T.U. Board with its officers; our Board of Directors of the National Baptist Convention, and our many pastors and laymen for their very fine support. We know that we shall go forward to greater heights in the area of Christian Literature and Church Training with this magnificent support. I thank you.

ROLAND SMITH, Secretary

24TH ANNUAL SESSION

—OF—

HOME MISSION BOARD

City Auditorium, Memphis, Tennessee

SEPTEMBER, 1955

T. Theo Lovelace—Corresponding Secretary

Mr. President, Members of the National Baptist Convention,
 My Friend:

It is with great joy that for the 24th time we appear before you in an effort to give account of our stewardship in connection with the department of Home Missions. We have given to you the best of our physical life, and practically all of our ministerial life trying to impress upon the Baptist constituency the need of doing first things first and calling to your attention the words of our Master who spoke with reference to the immediate fields when he said, "Lift up your eyes and look on the fields for they are white, already to harvest."

I come before you at this time in deep humility, not as physically strong as I have been, but the oldest Executive Officer of the Convention in point of service, with the exception of one, Dr. A. M. Townsend. For these two decades and four years I have labored untiringly, effectively also, in this field, when we consider the limitations that have been ours. Of course we understand that, even though much has been accomplished, the surface has barely been scratched. It is encouraging to note that, there is a definite turn toward doing the things at home, and we find from day to day, we have men pledging greater support to the immediate field. Let no one be deceived, this selling of Home Missions is a hard business. The people have become hardened by constant view of wretchedness and the need of Christian Mission immediately before them, so that we are not moved fast. It is easier by far to sell a condition of wretchedness that we cannot see.

Jesus had the logic and a method for christianizing the world that we cannot ignore and be successful. Listen to what he says to his disciples, "The field is the world"—Japan, Russia, China, Korea, England and Africa. (Matt. 13:38). But his logic as to how to become effective in the out-reach is shown in his suggestion of a starting point—"And that repentance and remission of sins should be preached in his name among all nations." "Beginning at Jerusalem." Then he further emphasized his method when just before he was wrapped in a cloud and taken away from the disciples he said, "But ye shall receive power, after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you: and ye shall be witnesses unto me both in Jerusalem, and in all Judea, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth. (Act. 1:8)." The emphasis seems to be placed on doing first the definite thing at home.

President J. H. Jackson knows of our difficulty and has been friendly disposed toward us both personally and officially, and surely we value the stand that he has taken on several occasions in our behalf.

OUR CHRISTIAN CENTER

One of the greatest institutions of its kind is the Walter H. Brooks Baptist Student's Center, sponsored by the Home Mission Board, located at 2324 First Street, Washington, D. C., just off the campus of the University. It is tragic, indeed, that we have experienced a lot of difficulty in selling this project to the Baptist constituency, while at the same time similar Centers sponsored by other denominations have gone over with a bang. However, we are not ashamed of the head-way our Board has made when we consider that it has been altogether a Board project. Many people think that such institutions are not needed. But, when you come to think that Howard University is the greatest of all Negro schools and that we have more Baptist Students there than any other denomination and further, that in-roads have been made on us because we fail to pay attention to the youth—I say, after considering these things, it is of maximum importance that we have a Center near the Campus of the University.

THE WEST

The West is and always has been dear to our hearts. From the start it was our pet theme and after exploring it, the first work in the West under this administration was done in the State of Wyoming, the second Baptist Church of Casper. From there we moved to Rawlins, Rock Springs, thence into Idaho, New Mexico, Arizona, and Nevada. In each instance we were helpful to the people. But after the years of toil and sacrifice we are fully convinced that it will take years yet and millions of dollars before the vast and distant reaches of the West can be amply supplied with churches and preachers. The difficulty in successful operation is not so much because of the lack of interest on the part of the people, but rather the limited number in a given locality, with the consequent inability of our Board to supplement enough for their needs in the way of church structures and pastors. We do have some pastors located in certain strategic positions, doing well and are anxious and prayerful for the time to come when we shall be able to materially manifest a deeper and more helpful concern in them. The West remains a popular appeal.

I call your attention to Rev. W. A. Washington. He is pastor of the New Home Baptist Church, Phoenix, Arizona, and President of the Paradise Baptist State Convention. He is a National Baptist Convention, Inc., man and fights to keep its name alive. It is through him that we are doing a cooperative work with the Convention in the employment of Dr. A. W. Ross, who came to us from the State of California. Dr. Ross is the superintendent of Missions for the State of Arizona. He is well prepared for this type of work and came into our acquaintance when years ago he was Executive Secretary in the State of Kansas.

HELPFUL PERSONALITIES

It matters not how splendid your ideas are, unless you have friends to help you get them into realization, your ideas are no more than "headhusters."

I think that here we should pause long enough to do honor to some of those who have been helpful during the period of stress and strain, in bringing into the fore some of the ideas we have on the matter of Home Missions.

Dr. M. C. Cleveland, our Chairman of Montgomery, Ala., can easily be lauded as one of the most interested, and enthusiastic Chairmen that the Board has ever had or that any other department of the Convention has. His church is a monthly regular, and his Home Mission Drives annually are a success. He represents the Board before various bodies of his State. Thereby saving the Secretary the expense of travel. He is a man of much value to the Board particularly and to the denomination generally.

Mrs. Mazie Watkins yet has charge of the Volunteer Women of New Jersey and Massachusetts. In both places she has kept the banner of the Home Mission Board unfurled and floating in the breeze. It is our desire that the brotherhood, especially of the East would give Mrs. Watkins consideration in her effort to stimulate the Women in her area.

Mrs. Marie Lovelace, wife of Secretary Lovelace, has been helpful indeed in the execution of the Board's total program. She has grown up with the work, understands it thoroughly and fits well into the office operation, when the Secretary runs short or out of office help, which is his experience at this time.

Mrs. Ryan of Orange, N. J., is closely associated with Mrs. Watkins in the Volunteer movement. During the year she works along with her not only to keep the women encouraged, but to keep a stream of funds running into the office.

Mrs. Addie Cunningham has been associated with the Board as general Field Secretary the past three years. We found in her qualifications of both field and office work. In many instances when the Secretary could not be present she was sent in his place and has always creditably carried on. We are proud to state that wherever she has represented the Board, the brotherhood has not hesitated to receive her. Recently she has become Mrs. Addie Darden, and has moved residence to Meridian, Mississippi. To our delight we have been able to arrange with her to continue her activities in that section in interest of our Board.

Mrs. Ethel Benson, of St. Louis, Missouri, came well recommended to the Department by President J. E. Nance, of Missouri. She has manifested an interest in the work and served to stimulate the Missouri Brotherhood in drives that meant much to the Board in the carrying on of its work. She is well known throughout the National Baptist Brotherhood and we have reasons for believing that this year, the Lord being willing, her work will be more telling.

EVANGELISM

We have not done too much in the field of Evangelism. Our major efforts in this field have been somewhat retired in deference to the Department of Evangelism headed by Rev. W. C. Trotter. Realizing that to all missionary endeavors there must be an Evangelistic accompaniment, we shall seek a co-operation with the Evangelistic Board to the end that we together might foster teaching and preaching of the gospel in every nook and corner of this our homeland. Now is the time for preaching the gospel of Christ to a lost world. Every man with a red hot passion to preach ought to be gathered up by these two Departments and sent to the big Cities, the Hamlets, the Villages, and the back woods of the South and sparsely settled reaches of the West. Preaching more than anything else is in order today. Men are ready to hear, but how can they hear without a preacher—"Who hath believed our report, and who will go for us?"

A genuine, Old-fashioned, Holy Ghost Revival will do much to counteract the evils of the day and strengthen the weak places in the Church. The outstanding obligation of the Church today is to sponsor a revival of old time religion, a revival of vital Godliness and a revival of Holy Ghost Power. When these are absent, men and means, that the Church should bring to Christ are lost.

Not only do we need a revival to reach the unsaved masses, but we need it to arouse the saved masses also; to prod our lagging spirits and to foster Divine growth and life. Because of this condition our Churches have become weak in the matter of winning souls and are therefore a stench in the nostrils of God. With all our numbers and wealth and prestige and ceremony we are yet missing the mark of the Christian church.

Too often ministers are too easily satisfied. They seem to think that the Great Commission is being executed if the salary is paid, if the finances are up to standard, if the news are filled every Sunday, if the membership is maintained and the social standing is kept up. Ah, that's nothing unless the souls are kept up also.

What we need is the "preaching passion" of the fathers who in days gone by groaned to the very bowels for the lost in sin. Remember this Elders, water will not rise higher than its level and neither will interest and concern in the pew rise any higher than the ideal and passion of the pulpit. Suppose we have Revival.

The preacher must recognize that his Supreme mission is to save souls. He must have a heart "Red Hot" with a burning emotion for souls, otherwise frozen hearts will never be thawed. Jesus had this feeling. Paul's whole life thrilled with this ardor. This same fire burned in the heart of John Knox who spent nights of prayer in closet and garden, crying unto God, "Give Me Scotland or I die." God gave him Scotland.

THE LIGHTING OF HEAVEN AND NOT CHEAP FIREWORKS

The preacher must set his people on fire. I have heard many preachers say, "She's my kindling," or "There's my firebox," speaking of some individual. The fire is not supposed to originate in the pew, but at altar. A fireless preacher produces a fireless church, if he stays there. It's getting hard to stay now, unless you have some fire. Cheap fireworks won't do but the lightning must strike from Heaven.

EDUCATIONAL BOARD

NATIONAL BAPTIST CONVENTION, INC.

Rev. Coleman W. Kerry, Sr., Corresponding Secretary
P. O. BOX 503 MARSHALL, TEXAS

Report of Coleman W. Kerry, the Corresponding Secretary of the Educational Board, National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc., Memphis, Tenn., 1954-55. Mr. President, Dr. J. H. Jackson, Officers and Messengers of the National Baptist Convention, of the United States of America, Inc. My Dearly Beloved In The Lord:

As your humble servant, we are happy to meet you in this great City of Memphis, to submit our Report of the feeble efforts put forth during the past twelve months. We regret that we were unable to reach more of our States in visiting the Churches, Associations and Conventions, not only to acquaint them with the activities of the Educational Board, but to interest them and to encourage our great Constituency by informing them of the entire workings of the National Baptist Convention.

We have served as the Clearing-House for the Seminary and Training School and many other colleges within the confines of the Convention. We have also served as Public Relations Director for many of the Institutions.

We have traveled more than 15 thousand miles, delivered addresses in 62 Public Schools, Colleges and Seminaries. We have gone to the Rural Churches and have had as much joy, and in some respects greater success than in some of our Cosmopolitan Churches. More than 100 sermons, educational, evangelical, doctrinal, historical and in some cases, we have taken time to conduct old fashioned revivals according to the Bible method in the good old gospel way, the path, our "Fathers trod," before the high powered evangelists of this day.

We have made contact with scores of young men and women, who have pledged us to attend the Seminary at Nashville, while others prefer Schools in their own States, our duty has been to tell them "enter" and be prepared to render service to God and Humanity.

We have wound a large number of God called preachers who mean much to their churches and pastors, some are actively engaged in the pastorate, succeeding admirably, but they are hindered. Unable to attend school, and unprepared to take a correspondence course, for the benefit of these men of God, we are arranging a simple and short course in the proper use of the English language that it might be of assistance to these ministers who crave knowledge and desire to be polished shafts in the Master's vineyard.

These men cannot leave their families and therefore must remain home. They have requested of us a way out that they may not be ashamed in the use of the English language as they face the many young people who are coming out of our schools and colleges year after year and must sit under these men and listen to the gospel. In answer to their call in a few months we will be prepared to reach hundreds of our untrained preachers and carry the college to them. Our schools of religion receive commendation from the pastors and churches wherever we labor.

When Jesus said "Preach the gospel," He meant to evangelize, to save. There can be no real preaching without teaching. When we preach we must teach. Phillip was called to join the chariot in which a learned Ethiopian sat reading the Bible. He was puzzled as he read, not knowing the meaning, but Phillip asked him did he understand what he was reading, he quickly replied, "How can I, unless one would guide me." Here is where the teaching took place. Phillip preached or rather taught him the meaning of the scriptures. It was a christian teaching. He did not deal in dry Metaphysics nor Abstract Propositions, but, in a clear and concise manner, Phillip taught this wealthy, learned Ethiopian the way to God. He presented the pith and marrow of the gospel. He taught the Ethiopian, "Those things concerning the Kingdom of God," and the man was convinced, regenerate, baptized and went on his way rejoicing.

Christian Education is the salt of human government, the bulwark of civilization, and the safeguard of nations. It is the only force that can stop the tides of immorality, sin and greed and vices of the ages. For this purpose our Educational Board exists, to this end we go forth to do our best.

We thank you God called pastors and ministers of the gospel, who have opened your doors, bidding us to come in, and we promise you this day, in the sight of God and the presence of Angels, as we go forth into another year, we will win the Victory through Christian Education. Under the leadership of the Christ who still fights His battles, not with the use of swords or firearms, and with the majesty of His glory, He awes the enemy into submission. He still rules the world, the reigns of government are in His hands. He rides in His chariot of Victory, and gives command, the winds hush when they hear His voice, the waters fall at His feet. He is still the "mightiest of the holy, the holiest of the mighty—He is still lifting empires off their hinges and turning the stream of centuries out of their channels. He is in every battlefield in Europe, Asia, Africa and Japan. He gives wings to the flying clouds, He holds the burning sun in its course. He restrains the mighty floods from breaking loose their ancient boundaries, for the oceans lay in the palm of His hands as a dew drop in the vase of a lily.

He cannot fail, He must execute judgment in all the world and "beat swords into plowshares, and spears into pruning hooks and nations learn war no more." He cannot fail for nations of every kindred and tribe must be brought to the acknowledgment, that we are brothers of the same origin, God our father and Christ our Brother. "All things are His, whether it is the world, death, things present and things to come, all are His."

*"How can we sink with such a prop,
As our Eternal God,
He bears the earth's huge pillars up;
He spreads the Heavens abroad!"*

PROPOSED PROCEDURE FOR FINANCING OF THE AMERICAN BAPTIST THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

At Nashville, Tennessee

Plans for the Completion of the Four-Year $50,000.00 Drive

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF THE
NATIONAL BAPTIST CONVENTION, U.S.A., INC.

September 6-11, 1955

Memphis, Tennessee

As National Baptists, we are committed to an agreement in the support and operation of American Baptist Theological Seminary. While we have experienced great difficulty, at times, in keeping this agreement, with our Southern Baptist allies, we have carried on successfully until now.

FORMER PROMOTION POLICIES AND PROGRAM

The American Baptist Theological Seminary, for 32 years, has been before National Baptists in the various forms of publicity, such as Seminary Days, convention visitations and personal contacts by its alumni and work of other friends of the institution.

In the early days of the Seminary, prior to our growth of the past ten years, the above approaches were sufficient, but today a new plan of financing the Seminary must be found.

ANNUAL FINANCIAL PRESENT-DAY NEEDS OF THE SEMINARY

At the present time, according to the budget under which we are attempting to operate, we need to raise a net amount from our constituency of about $62,500.00 or approximately one-half of our total budget of $125,000.00. A method to raise this amount of money in such a way that it will not be a burden to any of us, is one of our denomination's grave concerns. In an effort to secure the above objective, we wish to offer some plans as follows:

- 1) That each president of a state convention be requested to designate a special representative in his state who shall solicit funds in the interest of the Seminary, and his recompensation be provided by the Seminary, according to its policy governing special workers.
- 2) That the Convention be asked to endorse Seminary Day the third Sunday in May and each pastor strive to get one dollar from each member, for education.
- 3) That moderators of district conventions, presidents of Sunday Schools and B.T.U.'s be asked to place the Seminary on all church letters in our districts, throughout the country.

4) In addition to the foregoing suggestions, that each church ask for a weekly offering, and said monies be sent each month to the Seminary for education. This could be done in auxiliaries as well as in churches.

5) That churches be asked to put the Seminary in their budget at the first of the year and interested churches pledge contributions to be paid before the end of each year.

As a method of realizing the above objectives and to encourage others to follow, pastors, educational board members and others could well take the lead in this undertaking.

Respectfully submitted,

RALPH W. RILEY, President
American Baptist Theological Seminary

Transportation	2,000.00
Promotion	2,000.00
Rural Church Week	1,000.00
Total	$52,000.00

The Board of Directors at its Annual Meeting May 27-28, 1955, voted to ask the approval of the National Baptist Convention of a Campaign to raise the necessary monies from the Churches, Associations, Conventions and Individuals, and it was the earnest request of the Directors of the School to ask the National Baptist Convention to make a direct appropriation of $15,000.00 and the Woman's Auxiliary Convention of $10,000.00 as the necessary initial support for the Board to do a job in the operation of the Institution, a job which the Convention have sent the Board out to do.

The Board further recommends to the National Baptist Convention and the Woman's Auxiliary Convention the appointment of the following members of the Board of Directors to fill vacancies caused by death. Mrs. Anna Mae Hunt of Kansas, Mrs. L. M. Thomas of Pennsylvania and Rev. A. L. Porter, Jr., Tennessee.

Respectfully submitted,

AMBROSE BENNETT, Secretary

A. M. TOWNSEND, Chairman

Nashville, Tennessee

August 30, 1955

To: The National Baptist Convention,
U.S.A., Incorporated

Dr. J. H. Jackson, President

Upon the invitation and request of Dr. D. C. Washington of Anniston, Ala., chairman of the Merger Committee appointed by the President of the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Incorporated to assemble members of the Executive Committee of the trustees of the American Baptist Theological Seminary, the National Baptist Missionary Training School, and of the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Incorporated, representatives of those organizations met in Nashville, Tenn., on the above date, said personnel present being as follows:

Representing the Executive Committee, Board of Trustees of American Baptist Theological Seminary (National Baptist Convention):

Rev. Kelly Miller Smith

Dr. Ralph W. Riley

Dr. L. A. Bowman

Mr. Flem Otey

Others sitting on Committee:

Dr. W. E. Varnado, Chairman, Board of Trustees

Rev. Cleveaud Jones, Anniston, Alabama

- Mr. D. H. Ross, Bursar
Miss Primrose Funches
MMr. R. W. Hailey, Secretary, Executive Committee
- Representing the National Baptist Convention:
Dr. D. C. Washington
Dr. W. T. Crutcher
Attorney A. T. Walden
- Representing the National Baptist Missionary Training School:
Rev. Ambrose Bennett
Rev. A. J. King
Rev. J. W. Watkins
Mrs. E. B. Bronson
Miss F. A. Owen
Miss Julia B. Foreman
- Representing the Southern Baptist Convention:
Rev. James Gregg
Rev. Frank Collins
Rev. Lucius Hart
Rev. Oscar Nelson
Rev. J. Howard Young
Rev. L. S. Sedberry, Executive Secretary-Treasurer of Southern Baptist Commission on the American Baptist Theological Seminary.

The purpose of the meeting was fully stated by its Chairman, Dr. Washington, after which expressions were called for from all the representatives present. There was a full and free discussion of all the problems involved in the proposed merger of the National Baptist Missionary Training School with the American Baptist Theological Seminary. The pertinent facts elicited from said discussion were as follows:

1) Dr. L. S. Sedberry, Secretary-Treasurer of the Southern Baptist Commission on the American Baptist Theological Seminary, one of the representatives of the Southern Baptist Convention, stated that his Committee would not have any authority to bind that Convention, in a financial way, for support of the combined effort over and above that already committed for the current year, namely: $66,500; that any excess in the cost of operations over and above that amount, as far as that Convention is concerned, would have to be the responsibility of the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Incorporated; that, it would gladly assure the financial support to that extent for the current year, whether under existing conditions or under merger conditions.

2) Miss Julia B. Foreman, President of the National Baptist Missionary Training School, and one of the representatives of that body, informed the group that contracts with teachers and other employees, for the school session opening in September, have already been entered into at the end of the last school year. (Verified extracts from the minutes of the annual Board of Directors meeting of the National Baptist Missionary Training School corroborate the above fact.)

3) Attorney Walden, counsel for the National Baptist Convention, and a member of the Merger Committee, stated that the legal aspects pertaining to the merger would have to be worked out by the attorneys for the respective Conventions.

In the light of the foregoing, your Committee makes the following recommendations, upon the advice of the counsel:

1) That the merger of the two institutions mentioned above be postponed until the commencement of the school year, 1956-57;

2) That the National Baptist Convention, at its 1955 session shall pass a resolution authorizing the merger of the National Baptist Missionary Training School and American Baptist Theological Seminary, to be effective at the beginning of the school year, 1956-57;

3) That the National Baptist Convention, at its 1955 session shall create a commission empowered to make recommendation to the Board of Directors of this Convention relative to a plan of merging the two institutions; and that the Southern Baptist Convention be requested to create a like committee with like power and authority;

4) That the Trustees of the National Baptist Missionary Training School and of the American Baptist Theological Seminary be requested to take appropriate action under their charter to effect such a merger;

5) That said National Baptist Missionary Training School and American Baptist Theological Seminary, through their governing bodies, be requested not to employ teaching staff, faculty or other employees for the school year, 1956-57;

6) Likewise, the Southern Baptist Convention, through its proper authority, be requested to direct its representatives on the Board of Directors of the American Baptist Theological Seminary not to concur in the election of a faculty for the Seminary without the consent of both Conventions or their representatives;

7) We recommend that the merger in question shall become effective and operative upon the ratification of the same by the National Baptist Convention and Southern Baptist Convention or their duly authorized representatives.

Finally, this Committee is of the opinion that there can be no solid objections or questions as to the desirability of such a merger if both institutions are going to do, in a more effective manner, the task which they have set for themselves in the field of religious education.

The above findings and recommendations were prepared at the direction of the full Committee, with Attorney A. T. Walden as Chairman, assisted by representatives of the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Incorporated, the National Baptist Missionary Training School, the American Baptist Theological Seminary and of the Southern Baptist Convention.

 Memphis, Tennessee

President Jackson, Officers and Members
 National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc.

In compliance with the directive that I should make a report on my activities as appointed Corresponding Secretary of the Stewardship Commission of this Convention, the following report is respectfully submitted:

Upon receipt of the announcement of my appointment, I began to search for sources of available material on Stewardship, and found such sources to be, among others, reports contained in the minutes of the National Baptist Convention, Chicago, September 10 to 14, 1952, Page 309, and Miami, Florida, September 9 to 13, 1953, Page 224 and following, the work done in this field by the Commission of the National Council of Churches, the Southern Baptist Convention, the African Methodist Episcopal Church, and the American Baptist Convention. One can readily see that much of the time during the convention year was required in order to gain a comprehensive understanding of where we stood in the development of a Stewardship Program, from whence we have come up to now, and trying to determine what course we should take, what objective we should set in order that we may determine where we go from here.

In the light of these studies and of what appears to be the teachings of the Bible's two testaments, Stewardship seems to be the yielding of one's self to the service of one's God with the understanding that all that one has, including life itself, belongs to one's God, and that all to Him we owe, and involves the act of dedicating one's all to the end that the kingdoms of this world shall become the kingdom of Christ.

A man may give the tithe and not be fully yielded to Jesus Christ, but a man cannot be fully yielded to Jesus Christ and not be willing to give the tithe. The only God-given way for man to acknowledge God's ownership of his possessions, and prove that he is a good steward of these is by giving of the tithe.

STANDARDS OF GIVING

My giving should be done through the church—"Bring ye the whole tithe into the storehouse."—Mal. 3:10.

My giving should be cheerful—"Every man according as he purposeth in his heart, so let him give; not grudgingly, or of necessity; for God loveth a cheerful giver."—2 Cor. 9:7

My giving should be liberal—"Give and it shall be given unto you; good measure, pressed down, shaken together, running over; shall they give unto your bosom. For with what measure ye mete it shall be measured to you again."—Luke 6:38

My giving should be proportionate—"Every man shall give as he is able, according to the blessing of the Lord thy God which he hath given thee."—Deut. 16:17

My giving should be systematic—"Upon the first day of the week let each one of you lay by him in store as God hath prospered him . . ."—1 Cor. 16:2

Kreisler, perhaps the world's greatest violinist, is reported as saying, "I was born with music in my system. I know musical scores instinctively before I knew my ABC's. It was a gift: I did not acquire it, so I do not even deserve the thanks for the music . . . I never look upon the money I earn as my own. It is public money; it is only a fund entrusted to my care for proper disbursement." . . . We do not know where Kreisler stands in relation to the claims of Christ. It may be that altruistic humanitarianism is the motive. But his sense of stewardship of his talent is a rebuke (to shame) to multitudes of Christians.

How few people even among Christians do we find who have such a keen sense of stewardship as this? There are men and women with money and with talents whose help in both spheres we covet not for what they can give to the Lord, but for what He will give to them and to everyone who cares to bring all the tithe of time, talent and substance into the storehouse and partake of the Divine blessing that He is eager and anxious to pour out.

Therefore, be it resolved that the Stewardship Commission of this Convention shall consist of a Secretary, appointed by the President, with membership consisting of at least one person from each of the several State Conventions affiliated with this Convention, subject to the approval of the President of this Convention and Presidents of the several State Conventions from which the men are chosen, and that it shall be the duty of the Commission to stimulate active participation on the part of the constituency of this Convention, in the program of Stewardship, through its various affiliated State and District bodies, together to the local churches.

Be it further resolved that the members of the Commission be given to understanding that they shall be expected to meet bi-annually, once during the Adjourned Session of the Convention, and once during the Annual Meeting of the National Sunday School Congress, with a view of formulating plans and stimulating interest in a vigorous program of Stewardship.

Be it also resolved that the Commission be charged with the responsibility of representing this Convention on Stewardship Commissions of ecumenical bodies with which this convention is affiliated, and to collaborate with such other religious bodies as may have comprehensive programs in the field of Stewardship with a view of making our constituency more keenly aware of our duty as stewards unto God.

Thanking President Jackson for having considered me for this appointment, and submitting that if it be the decision of the President to re-appoint me to serve the Convention in this capacity for another conventional year, it shall be my purpose to foster the program outlined above, giving due regard to the Convention's adoption of the recommendations listed herewith.

Respectfully submitted,
A. HENSON JARMON

ANNUAL REPORT

to the

NATIONAL BAPTIST CONVENTION, INC., U.S.A.

Memphis, Tenn.

Saturday, September 10, 1955 A.D.

President J. H. Jackson, Officers and to the Convention, we give an account of our Stewardship. We are grateful for the high privilege of representing the Convention.

This is my Second Annual Report for the Department of Evangelism. We realize that we are in the incubator stage but we are grateful to God and President J. H. Jackson, our Chief, for the creation of this Department. We have not accomplished what we desire, but we have striven to do our best.

The Southern Baptist Convention, with the competent and kind, Dr. C. E. Matthews, has helped us to carry on this work.

ROUTINE ACTIVITIES:

We have participated in Simultaneous Revivals in Albuquerque, New Mexico, Muskogee, Oklahoma, Bluefield, West Virginia, Ft. Worth, Texas, Maywood, Illinois, and Dr. W. H. Thomas our Chairman, conducted a most successful Soul Saving Movement in Memphis, Tenn. So from California to New York and from Canada to the Gulf of New Mexico, we have set up Steering Committees in many cities to launch one of the greatest Soul-Saving embarkations in America.

We have distributed more than twenty-five thousand religious tracts in the hands of sinners and more than five hundred Acts of Apostles. We have sent out more than two thousand letters and have contacted thirty State Presidents and a number of National Evangelists. We have distributed more than four thousand Programs of Evangelism and your Secretary has traveled more than fifteen thousand miles by train and plane and yet we have not even scratched the surface of our work.

FINANCE: The Southern Baptist Convention has paid the salary of your Secretary and his office secretary.

The National Baptist Convention has given money through Churches and Organizations. We are grateful for the fine co-operation of both Conventions.

PLANNED ACTIVITIES AND FURTHER ANTICIPATIONS:

Upon the recommendation of our Chief and most efficient President, Dr. J. H. Jackson, Dr. C. E. Matthews of the Southern Baptist Convention and with the hearty co-operation of Dr. W. H. Thomas, we shall conduct a City Wide Revival in nine major cities of America in 1956. Namely, Atlanta, Ga.; Birmingham, Ala.; Memphis, Tenn.; Detroit, Mich.; Dallas, Texas; New York City, Los Angeles, Calif.; St. Louis, Mo. and Chicago, Ill.

To President Jackson, Chairman W. H. Thomas, to the Board of the Department of Evangelism and pastors, I am indebted to you for the fine co-operation you have rendered. I appreciate your kindness and your wisdom. Too, I am indebted to Dr. C. E. Matthews, Dr. Guy Bellamy and Dr. Courts Redford, of the Southern Baptist Convention, who have spared no pains in helping me with their understanding, kindness and love for the Cause of Evangelism.

Second Annual Report of the Commission on Denominational Coordination

Wednesday, September 7, 1955

To President J. H. Jackson, Officers, and Members of the 75th Annual Session of the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc., Greetings:

The Commission on Denominational Coordination submits the following report:

First, let us report some progress of recommendations to the 74th Annual Session, held in St. Louis, Missouri, September 8, 1954. Of the three recommendations made a year ago, only one phase has shown increased improvement:

We congratulate Editor and Manager, J. P. Barbour for the improved issues of The National Baptist Voice, official organ of The National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc. It is released regularly, the new size gives a magazine appearance, very readable, good coverage of all sections of our convention, and the editorials make it very interesting. Keep it up!

The improved printing of The National Baptist Training Union literature, especially the "new look" covers on the Quarterly, is very inspiring to the Baptist Family—especially the youth.

The Commission is happy to report the great expansion in new church buildings and the erections of buildings for the purpose of developing program of Christian Education. This is an indication that the churches of The National Baptist Convention are keeping step with other denominations in this advanced program of training in the church.

The Commission calls to the attention of the Sunday School and Baptist Training Union Congress, the need of a training program—the workshop type that would extend over a period of from two to four weeks of instruction on a college level, set up on a region or state basis, and on the campuses of our church colleges.

Or, we could ask the colleges to sponsor a training course which would be available to the workers of our churches. We must have trained directors of Christian Education to staff these fine plants that have cost us many millions of dollars.

These workshops would be for the training of directors, superintendents of Sunday Schools, B.T.U. Directors, Departmental Superintendents, and teachers. They would include courses in Christian Education, leadership training, supervision in the local church, and curriculum building and a study of the resource materials for a Christian Education Program.

We would like to call to the attention of the Convention, some serious omissions and lack of participation of the appointed leaders of the Convention to The National Council of Churches. Recent releases by the Division of Christian Education of The National Council of Churches, show that we have been indifferent to our responsibilities:

(1) The pamphlet, "We Believe in The Weekday Church School"—a statement by the Christian Education leaders of cooperating Protestant Bodies. The release carries signatures of thirty-three denominations—we are not listed. Why?

(2) In the Guide for Curriculum in Christian Education, Appendix 2, curriculum materials for denominations shows in section 2 "no materials."

It seems the curriculum materials are too important for us to have an entire age section omitted.

RECOMMENDATIONS

1. Because of the very small enrollment of students in the seminaries of The National Baptist Convention, that a special effort be made by District and State associations to recruit more young men and to give scholarships for their training. The same for young men and women who are interested in becoming Directors of Christian Education.

2. That members of our National Baptist Convention be carefully selected with background of training and interest in Christian Education to serve on the Department of Christian Education of The Sunday School Publishing Board.

3. That the Sunday School and R.T.U. Congress which is so largely attended in the dream cities of America, where only one fourth actually represent and participate, be re-organized on a region basis and set up on college campuses so an atmosphere of study and training can exist and that those attending would understand they were attending for the purpose of study and training rather than a vacation.

Our churches need trained leaders and teachers. This is the way to get them. That students, not delegates or messengers, be selected by the churches and approved by State Sunday School and Baptist Training Union Congress, and proper credits given by the colleges in which these persons attend.

SECOND ANNUAL REPORT

SOCIAL SERVICE COMMISSION

NATIONAL BAPTIST CONVENTION, INC.

Dr. J. H. Jackson, President

Seventy-Fifth Annual Session—Memphis, Tennessee

SEPTEMBER 6-11, 1955

Dr. Claude L. Franklin, Chairman
 Brooklyn, New York

President, Dr. J. H. Jackson, officers, members and friends of this great Convention, greetings in the name of our God, the master mind and Great Ruler of the Universe.

Father time has again privileged us to meet in another session of this Convention. As we assemble here on the banks of the Mississippi River and on the border of the state where I made my appearance into this world, I am pleased to give you my second report as chairman of the Social Service Commission.

Social and Practical Trends in Churches

The reports from across the country are an indication that churches are making significant progress in applied Christianity. No longer are they satisfied with mere milk and honey in the land beyond the river, but they are giving great concern to the total development of the human personality on this side of the river. We received information from twenty-three states, who are constructively viewing the task of religious education and the social view of Christianity. A surprising number of churches have paid workers in Social Welfare and Religious Education. In our report last year we mentioned our interest in discovering just what churches were accomplishing in the fields of the social gospel. The results have been very encouraging and indicative of satisfying progress. In these days of social, secular and political struggle it is indeed wisdom that we keep our programs in line with a total development of people.

Financial Struggles of Churches

In the last ten years, the financial progress of churches has been phenomenal. Many mortgages have been paid in full, a great many new churches and educational buildings have been constructed and much needed rehabilitation have been accomplished by our churches. One views this progress with appreciation and joy, but there is another serious note in the financial program of churches.

Help in the Time of Need

A great many churches find themselves in the valley of despair and nowhere to turn when a little help would be of great value toward success. Churches outgrow their present buildings and seek new homes. Many times when these new homes are located the churches find it difficult to make the initial payment. Again, churches come to the climax of their payments and for good reasons discover they need help to avoid the expense of refinancing their debts. Many churches have been seriously embarrassed. Another very serious situation has faced the churches since our 1954 session. Fires have caused our churches no end of complications. For example, in Philadelphia, four churches were destroyed by fire. It is extremely difficult for the City of Philadelphia to support the rebuilding of four churches at the same time. Another sad story comes to our attention from Atlantic City, New Jersey. Shortly after the Congress was so pleasantly entertained by the brotherhood two churches were destroyed by fire. There are several other similar incidents in our files which we have not time to mention.

It would be wisdom on our part to think seriously on the future of these financial situations with our churches. They are developing for denominational benefit in the promotion of the kingdom program. What can we do in such a serious condition? We have no concrete answer, but certainly we must give serious thought toward these matters. Is it not possible for us to work out some system of financial consideration for serious issues of these kind facing our churches? Let us think on these things.

Progress in Education

It is indeed encouraging to witness the trends in the field of education. The number of college, professional and advance graduates coming out of the schools are symbolic of an age meeting the challenge of modern times. Over 6,000 college graduates came out of Negro schools for the year 1954-1955. This figure does not include graduate schools, professional schools and other universities. Much of this increase can be attributed to the inspiration given young people by our ministers and churches. For those who may not know, we call your attention to the fact that our own President, Dr. J. H. Jackson, is the father of a most competent daughter, who in recent years received her Ph.D. degree.

Negroes are rapidly being given positions on the faculties of the great universities of this country. Many scholarships are being offered for education. Howard University, in Washington, D. C., has offered $40,540 to freshman students for 1955-56.

Desegregation and Intergration

The supreme court mandate, May 17, 1954, for the desegregation of our public school system was a great step forward. The results have been in many respects wholesome. The state of Arkansas on May 19, 1954, made a very favorable start toward desegregation. The state of Maryland has made great progress toward abiding by the mandate. The state of Kentucky is very forward in complying with the court order. Many other states have gone on record as willing to cooperate with the Supreme Court.

We are very happy over the general feeling throughout the country on desegregation. We shall endeavor to appreciate and encourage this fine spirit on the part of many states and people. However, there is very much more land to be possessed. There are those who are opposed to the execution of the Supreme Court order. And what is more, the implementation of the decision of May 17, 1954 set forth in a decree of the U. S. Supreme Court May 31, 1955, encourages opposition to the 1954 decree. The recent decision places the primary responsibility upon school authorities in local communities, which makes it more difficult.

Shadows Fall

The sun is shining, but there are shadows forming in the sky. In July 1955 in one state a mass meeting was held on how to avoid desegregation. One speaker called for the impeachment of members of the Supreme Court on the ground that they showed by their decision that they are "brainwashing fawning politicians." In another state the board of education threatened Negro teachers, who would not resign from the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People by September 15th with revocation of their licenses, for life. These two incidents are indicative of many who would cloud the issue and slow down progress on desegregation and integration.

The Task of the Church

In a situation of this kind the church can render great service. The following is a suggested procedure:

1. Gather the facts in your local community and make them available to all people.
2. Inter-racial study groups on how to adjust all differences so that desegregation can proceed.
3. Keep in close touch with other communities on their procedures and progress and compare work sheets for success.
4. Distribute pamphlets, films, posters, and books on desegregation throughout the community.
5. Form interdenominational groups to study the issues and methods of educating the opposition.
6. Encourage all persons and groups who are favorable toward desegregation.
7. Always realize that the gains made are indicative of a successful conclusion.
8. Never cease working for the dreams we have prayed for through the years.

There is Hope

From a cross study of the country we have observed that in the midst of the shadows there is hope for tomorrow. In spite of all the storm clouds, our study reveals that the calm is on the way.

It was my privilege to attend several conferences in the past year, including study group conducted by the Department of Racial and Cultural Relations of The National Council of Churches. In all of these conferences there was hope and encouragement. We wrote letters in many states and received replies, which reflected hope. We are convinced that there are many who have not bowed their knees to Baal or kissed the golden image.

Bishop speaks out: In the same state where the Negro teachers were threatened with the possibilities of having their license revoked if they did not resign from the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, a Bishop had this to say and we quote, "He called the Board of Education's actions in line with those subversive organizations that seek to change our government by force."

The Council of Church Women in the same state voted a resolution of censure calling the action, "a threat to freedom of conscience and the inalienable American rights of peaceful assembly, freedom of speech and petition to redress grievances." A Federal Judge in the same state ruled against a leading university, which had denied admission of two Negroes.

Jamestown, N. D. Conference—June 23, 1955 at Jamestown College a group of educators met for the purpose of seeking a philosophy of christian approach toward education. In the group were three hundred delegates, educators, pastors and laymen, representing fifty-eight colleges and universities as well as many denominations. The opening address was delivered by President Edwin H. Rian of the host college on the subject: "Toward a Christian Basis of Education." It was agreed at this meeting that the christian approach was the only method for world redemption.

In Tennessee—Our attention was called to the four bills vetoed by the Governor of Tennessee, which would have permitted four counties to maintain segregation. The Senate upheld his veto. At Oak Ridge the Atomic Energy Commission has ordered desegregation at the local High School.

In Chattanooga—at the 132nd annual session of the Methodist Holston conference, with a thousand delegates in attendance, adopted a six-point plan to improve relations between whites and Negroes in local church activities without a dissenting vote. For the first time in the history of the conference, a Negro presided at one of the sessions, Bishop Edgar A. Love of Baltimore, Maryland.

In Knoxville—The Ministerial Association has its first Negro president, Rev. W. T. Crutcher, pastor of Mount Olive Baptist Church.

We are not without hope in the social adjustment of human relations. Progress is being made and the future does look good if we study the facts of the situation.

Revealing Facts

Our research and investigation are revealing some very interesting facts. We urge your continued support in assisting our office in this fact finding endeavor. Answer our mail send in our question sheets and forward to our office any and all information which you may think would be of help to our Commission. We shall never cease until a complete collection of facts have been secured, tabulated and evaluated. It can be done with your prayers and continued interest and cooperation.

Revelation

The facts are revealing some interesting discoveries. One's first observation is the negative aspect of the total picture. We see the field ripe for harvest and the laborers are few. We observe the things undone, which ought to have long since been accomplished. The need for modern programs, more apportioned buildings, better trained workers, inter-racial misunderstandings, social evils and a general state of un-developed territory face one as 100 facts are checked and rechecked. But on a more scientific observation and a comparative study of the picture you get a positive and very encouraging concept.

Oaks from Acorns

When you observe closely you can see giant oaks of success in acorns of progress. You can see the potentials of a great future. This is the way to observe the drama as you view the picture unfold on the screen. There is hope for tomorrow if we keep on toiling through the rain and storm.

If we take the spirit and observation of Jesus Christ we will have every reason to lift up our heads.

Jesus' Observation

Jesus never worried about giant oaks. He had faith in mustard seeds. He never worried about a loaf of bread. He put His faith in particle of yeast. He never worried about seed falling on rocks or being eaten by birds of the air. He saw a great harvest from the seed which fell in good ground. Jesus never let the opposition from Rome or the scholars of His change His course of action. He placed His faith in a few rugged fishermen. The evil comments and the going away of multitudes never disturbed Jesus. The rock bottom philosophy of an Apostle Peter "Thou art the Christ" was a sufficient platform for Him to build His church.

A betrayal by Judas and a denial by Simon Peter did not discourage Jesus. The arrest by the mob and the unfair trial by the courts never shook His hope. The abuse and scorn of the people never even forced a word in response. The cruelty of the cross with all the suffering involved did not mean defeat for Jesus.

Jesus realized that He had enough basic material to succeed. In other words, Jesus never lost sight of His Sunday morning.

The future looks bright, the clouds are decreasing, soon and very soon we shall realize our dreams if we faint not and keep the faith.

MINUTES OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

NATIONAL BAPTIST CONVENTION, U. S. A., INC.

Memphis, Tennessee

JUNE 7, 1955

At the Hot Springs meeting in January of this year the Board of Directors took certain action regarding the Convention properties there in Hot Springs as follows:

1. The Bath House Section was instructed to receive the management of this unit.
2. The Board of Directors ordered that a Certified Public Accountant other than the Convention Auditor make an audit as a basis for the turn-over from the previous Commission in charge to the Bath House Committee.
3. The Board of Directors also ordered that the proposal relative to an understudy be accepted.

This report then concerns itself primarily with how the Board's instructions have been carried out.

Immediately following the Hot Springs meeting referred to above an agreement on contract was reached with a general Manager, and the Secretary of the Finance Commission informed of the Bath House Section's selection. The manager reported in accordance with his contract, but was never authorized by the Finance Commission to secure any information either from the records or from the employees. In fact, the Finance Commission Secretary "insisted" that the incoming manager limit his presence there until such time as the turn-over was made. This the manager could not do under the terms of his contract and the instructions of the chairman of the Bath House Committee, although he had to pay rent for such periods as he was able to obtain a room in the building.

After several attempts by your Chairman to obtain a Committee meeting in Hot Springs at a time Financial Commission representatives could be there had failed, Dr. Townsend advised your Chairman that he would be in Hot Springs for the purpose of winding up on March 27 through 31 and would make the complete turn-over on April 1.

Accordingly, your Committee met there and found the Convention Auditor and his staff engaged in making an audit, which Dr. Townsend stated would be the basis for the turn-over.

Despite a staff of some six persons, part of whom arrived on March 25th, and the fact that only the first three months of 1955 were involved, the audit was not completed until the evening of April 2nd. Your Committee was not advised along any lines until handed the previous Commission's report which merely referred to the audit report on most points, and no information contained in it was discussed prior to its being handed to the Committee Representative. For instance, your Committee requested a spot check of the room inventory before signing a receipt for same. Of the fifteen rooms selected at random for the spot check, nine did not agree with the inventory schedule.

The turn-over consisted of the release of the employee group, and of physical properties, Unit Bank accounts, Unit Books, and the Unit operating Insurance policies. Fire insurance policies have subsequently been sent to the Secretary of the Committee for forwarding to the Treasurer of the Convention. The turn-over did not include the deeds, etc., which are presumably in the possession of the Treasurer of the National Baptist Convention.

No audit by a Certified Public Accountant other than the Convention Auditor has yet been made as of the turn-over date as directed by the Board in January. As far as can be determined at the present time neither the cost of the audit by the Convention Auditor nor such bonuses as were paid certain employees appear on the books of the Unit.

The Committee recognizes the $18,000.00 owed the Foreign Mission Board although it does not appear on the books.

Since the turn-over most of our work has been organization and Public Relations. The present management has submitted for the approval of the Committee an Organization Chart, a Schedule of Approved Salary limits, a Schedule of Room Rates, and is submitting weekly reports to the Chairman, and general reports on all phases of operation to the Committee.

Your Chairman personally had conferences with the permanent tenants who are in arrears with their rent at the Hot Springs Unit.

It is hoped that the Board recognizes as does the Committee, that current patronage is more strongly a reflection of the past management, and that results of the present management will be more closely indicated in future reports. For instance, some of the Conventions already secured for the Hot Springs project will not meet until sometimes in 1956.

There are, however, some new attitudes which are visible now. Probably the two items you are most interested in are:

1. The proposal we are submitting to give some consideration to the members of the Convention when they go to Hot Springs to stay and bathe. We feel this is not only good business but just and proper inasmuch as it was through these same channels that we were able to bring this project to its present state.

2. It is the opinion of your Committee that henceforth the project should take care of itself not on the basis of continued contributions, but from the earnings realized from its great potential through sound business policies and management, and we are preparing to pay the September installment on the purchase price without coming to the Convention, or at least a greater part of the installment without straining the Convention.

REPORT OF THE BATH HOUSE COMMITTEE

Rev. H. H. Humes, Chairman
 To the Board of Directors
 National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc.
 Dr. J. H. Jackson, President

Gentlemen:

This committee has been in charge of the National Baptist Sanitarium Bath House only the last three months of his fiscal year, an dall of you who are familiar with Hot Springs know that April, May and June are slack months. We hope you will also keep in mind that the building up of a business in which most patrons come once a year at best is not an overnight job, but a long-range task. Thus it is easily seen that much of this report must concern self with plans, program and progress, all toward the end of making the Bath House a sound, productive business operation helping furnish funds for the National Baptist Convention's ever-expanding work for the glory of God. The above, however, is not an apology, as the report also includes some solid, concrete accomplishments.

GENERAL: Satisfied patronage is slowly but surely increasing. Our program of adjusting personnel and payrolls in keeping with the level of business is becoming effective, thus reducing the rate at which the slow periods consume the profits from the good ones.

FOR INCREASING BUSINESS: (1) Within the Convention, we have set up a plan providing a 25% discount to pastors of the Convention, and 15% discount for their members. Although we regard this as a deserved consideration, it is a purely business proposition also, being an allotment of the promotion money we would spend to attract patrons otherwise. That this discount plan has not become very effective is probably due to so many Convention leaders being abroad much of the time since its inception, and we expect it to gather momentum from this meeting. If 1-10 of 1% of our denomination spent one week a year at their Bath House, it would stay filled. We can do this if every pastor will help.

(2) Other Patronage—We are trying to obtain as many Conventions as possible, both for their revenue and their advertising value. Since taking over, we have had the State Health Workshop and State Medical Association. Scheduled are State School Administrators in October, State Teachers Association in November, Arkansas Baptist Convention in November, three Athletic Conferences in December, AME Bishop's Council in February, 1956, National Association of Beauty Shop Owners in April, 1956, National Dental Association in 1957. We are working on others, and will appreciate every pastor mentioning our Convention facilities to the prominent undertakers, beauticians, etc., in his church.

(3) We have contracted with the Federal Government to bathe indigents, which will give us about 2,000 more baths per year. Though profit on these is small, the help they give overhead and the hedge against depression make them valuable.

COLLECTION OF OLD ACCOUNTS: Eighty per cent of the accumulated accounts turned over have been collected or reduced to discountable notes, and future rentals so set up to minimize such accumulations.

Our program is to make every possible part of our building and operations productive. To this end, we have renovated the store space on the ground floor and rented it. The auditorium and little theatre are our next problems.

CONTRIBUTIONS: The only contributions we have received are two $25.00 checks from First Baptist, Ensley, Alabama, which we have here. We did not cash them pending clarification on how these and other contributions are to be handled so that donors will receive proper campaign credit.

PAYMENT ON MORTGAGE: While we have certainly not made an $8,000 profit in these off-season months, we have sufficient confidence in the program we are carrying out that we are handing you herewith a check for $8,333.33 which is the principal amount of the mortgage note due Sept. 15, 1955. This means that the Convention will not have to take that amount out of the Convention's general funds this year, as it has done before. We think this is a step in the right direction, and plan in the future to do more. In fact, with your help in sending patrons, and if contributions can be so applied, we could very well soon be putting something into the treasury instead of calling on the Convention for help.

Respectfully submitted,
 BATH HOUSE COMMITTEE
 H. H. Humes, Chairman

RESOLUTION

WHEREAS, The Finance Commission and the Convention Auditor certified that all debts of the Bath House were fully paid at December 31, 1954, except the mortgage indebtedness, and

WHEREAS, The annual payments on said mortgage have been an obligation, not of the Finance Commission, but of the Convention proper, and

WHEREAS, The Bath House has now been set up as a regular business board and is endeavoring to properly assume its own obligations, and

WHEREAS, Many of the organizations and individuals who made Bath House pledges made them in good faith and intend to complete payments of them,

Therefore, Be it Resolved, that all such payments be sent or forwarded to the Bath House Board and earmarked for capital expenditure (mortgage retirement), with a list of such receipts sent to Finance Commission for inclusion in campaign credit.

BATH HOUSE COMMISSION
 H. H. Humes, Chairman

PROCEEDINGS

Wednesday Morning

The house was called to order in South Hall at 9:00 by President Jordan, and after a brief devotional by O. V. Phillips, Illinois, the President presented Dr. O. M. Locust of the Foreign Mission Board to bring the devotional message. Dr. Locust selected as his subject, "The Problem of Living Today's World," from which he made a most profound impression on his hearers. "Leaning on the Everlasting Arms" was sung. Offering, $10.18.

Dr. T. S. Harden, New York, and Vice President of the National Baptist Convention, was then presented and made brief remarks. Dean Henderson, Green gave instructions relative to the classes. After classes the body reassembled at 11:00.

The following committees were then appointed: Christian Education—Rev. H. Green, Mrs. E. V. Bronson, Rev. W. T. Liggins, Rev. Samuel J. Williams, Sec. Jas. E. Gayle; Resolution—F. L. Cotton, P. McQuarters, Andrew Phelps, S. L. Jones, Calvin Rhodes, J. E. Sims, H. K. Rushing, S. H. Fowler, Theo. R. McLendon. Secretary Gayle then submitted his report, which was joyfully received and approved. REPORT OF JAS. E. GAYLE, EXECUTIVE SECRETARY OF THE NATIONAL BAPTIST LAYMEN MOVEMENT

Memphis, Tennessee
 September 7, 1955

TO THE PRESIDENT, OFFICERS AND DELEGATES OF THE NATIONAL BAPTIST LAYMEN CONVENTION

GREETINGS:

As Executive Secretary of the National Baptist Laymen Movement, I am herewith submitting my report on lay activities and promotional work of the organization.

Few laymen realize their importance. Maybe it is because laymen have been preached to so much, they are perfectly willing to let the preacher speak for them, forgetting that the greatest sermon of all is the testimony of a person whose life has been touched by the spirit of Christ; or maybe it is because laymen have been pew sitters so long they have been lulled into inactivity. If we could only realize that laymen make up the body of the church out of which everything that pertains to it comes, there would be more loyalty and activity in the church on the part of the laymen. The church is never better or worse than its laymen. Leaders come and go, but like a mighty army moves the laymen.

This moving mass is the church and the church never rises above spiritual heights attained by him who sits in the pew. Whatever the laymen is that is what the church is. That is why the National Baptist Laymen Movement has such a great task before it in its great program of re-activating the laymen of our church and we as loyal red blooded Baptist laymen must accept this challenge.

I want to take this opportunity to thank the President, Officers and members of the convention and the fine laymen throughout the nation for their prayers and interest in my behalf during my serious illness. Your interest meant so much to me and really had a great therapeutic value on my condition. I want to again thank you and trust that you will continue your prayers in my behalf.

I have only been able to make a few contacts and visits this year because of my health, however, I did attend the National Baptist Sunday School and BYPT Congress in Atlantic City in June and July we attended the International Convention in Cleveland, Ohio, and took part in the leadership education department and it has been ours to speak at a number of lay public meetings and one interracial meeting where I had an opportunity to speak of our work and its various activities.

With the fine cooperation and collaboration of our statistician Brother S. H. Fowler, we got together a brief history of the Laymen's Movement and sent copies to the brethren over the nation.

The Laymen's Movement took the lead in the development of an interracial committee of the New Orleans Council of Churches.

It has been ours to work along with United Church Men Council in the shaping of an overall program which includes our work as a lay organization. We trust that every lay organization will observe National Laymen Sunday on the Third Sunday in October and make a report of their accomplishments in this celebration.

Local Laymen's Committee, Commendation.

May I state that without the loyalty and cooperation of each member of the staff, the work of the Laymen Movement could not have been carried forward as smoothly as it has worked out. The ministry in general have given that fine lift so necessary in projecting a program of this kind for which we are grateful.

May I conclude by soliciting your prayers for this work.

Yours for Kingdom Building.

RESOLUTION OF THANKS

We, the Committee on Resolution of the National Baptist Laguerre's Convention, wish to express our thanks and appreciation to the Local Entertainment Committee and Dr. S. A. Owens, Pastor of the Metropolitan Baptist Church for their splendid arrangements and convenient facilities which have been so conducive to our general welfare and successful convention activities, aims and purposes.

We further wish it to be known that the hospitality and general demeanor of the citizens in general and the laudable spirit of the City Officials and press share alike our gratitude and appreciation.

Respectfully submitted,

S. H. FOWLER, Chairman

NATIONAL BAPTIST CONVENTION, U.S.A., INC.

September 10, 1955

President J. H. Jackson, Officers and members of the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc.

I wish to give a report of our stewardship since we last met. We have made excellent progress under the leadership of our President, Dr. J. L. Vaughn. We want the Convention to know we are doing our best, and in the future we are going to do more in helping to lighten the burden of the Convention.

This year our financial report shows improvement. We raised from enrollment and from Associations, $1,184.00 and for the Diamond Jubilee Rally, $200.00, making a total of $1,384.00. We are happy to turn over to the Convention $670.00 and $200.00 Jubilee money, making a total of $870.00.

DR. J. L. VAUGHN, President
 REV. J. L. LACEY, Secretary
 REV. L. A. COLLINS, Treasurer

We recommend that the following officers be elected for 1955-56: Dr. J. L. Vaughn, President; Dr. A. J. Johnson, 1st Vice President; Dr. C. H. George, 2nd Vice President; Dr. J. L. Simmons, 3rd Vice President; Rev. S. S. Kelly, 4th Vice President; Rev. J. S. Lacey, Recording Secretary; Rev. C. E. Mangum, Corresponding Secretary; Rev. W. J. Long, Assistant Secretary, and Rev. A. L. Collins, Treasurer.

ARTICLE XV—CAUSES

The causes to which the Young People's Department shall devote its interests shall be Christian education; home and foreign missions; recreation and health (a national camp), and a scholarship fund. All contemplated projects shall be presented by the national director to the Woman's Convention for consideration or action.

ARTICLE XVI—FINANCE

The national directors shall appoint a capable Business Committee of five (5) to supervise and direct the financial affairs of the Young People's Department, to make full reports of all receipts and expenses to the young people in session; and to report to the Woman's Convention in session on Saturday morning of the annual meeting of the Convention; to turn over all monies to the treasurer of the Woman's Convention through the Finance Committee, to be paid out as designated in the report of the Young People's Department. Funds raised by the Young People's shall not be used to promote the general work of the Woman's Convention.

ARTICLE XVII—OFFICERS AND DIRECTORS

Section 1. DIRECTORS. The directors of this department shall be a national director and regional directors. There shall be a director for each state who shall have general supervision of the work of their respective states in cooperation with their state convention.

Section 2. DUTIES OF THE NATIONAL DIRECTOR. The national director shall have general supervision over the work of the entire Department.

Section 3. DUTIES OF THE REGIONAL DIRECTORS. It shall be the duty of the regional directors to form local or state organizations and build up the work in their respective regions in harmony with the program and plans for the Young People's Department and in harmony with the Woman's State Convention and local missionary societies of their respective regions. The responsibility for any special program or project may be assigned to a director for development or execution.

Section 4. OFFICERS

(a) Officers of the Young People's Department shall be a president; first and second vice presidents; recording secretary; assistant recording secretary; corresponding secretary; treasurer; pianist, Director of Music and historian.

(b) The term of officers shall be two years.

ARTICLE XVIII—CONSTITUTION OF THE YOUNG PEOPLE'S DEPARTMENT

The Constitution of the Young People's Department or any amendments, therein shall be subject to the approval of the Woman's Convention.

ARTICLE XIX—AMENDMENTS

The constitution may be altered or amended by a two-thirds vote at any annual meeting, sixty days previous notice having been sent by the corresponding secretary of the Woman's Convention, to each state through its state president. The proposed amendment or changes shall be definitely stated in said notice.

BY-LAWS

The following by-laws are adopted for the government of the Convention and for the efficient conduct of its business.

ARTICLE I—CONVENTION MANAGEMENT

The president shall notify members of the Committee on Convention Planning and Management when to report for work, at the place of the annual meeting. Preparatory to the opening of the annual meeting, said persons will arrange for registration and enrollment and other business that will insure the smooth and efficient running of the Convention.

ARTICLE II—DUTIES OF OFFICERS

Section 1. The president shall preside at the annual meeting of the Woman's Convention and at all meetings of the Board of Directors; shall appoint all committees, not otherwise provided for; shall organize new societies; shall be an ex-officio member of all standing committees. She may, through the corresponding secretary, call special meetings of the Executive Committee, when in her judgment needful or at the request of at least five (5) members of the Executive Committee. In her absence, a vice president, or one of the state presidents may be selected to preside. State presidents shall represent the interest of the Woman's Convention and Boards in their states, in cooperation with state boards, or state conventions.

Section 2. It shall be the duty of the corresponding secretary to send to the corresponding secretary of each state convention and to local societies, three months before the annual meeting, a blank for the report of these organizations, and from their reports, the corresponding secretary shall compile her annual report for the National body. She shall conduct the correspondence of the Executive Board, and is authorized to organize local societies.

Section 3. The recording secretary shall keep a faithful record of all proceedings of the annual meetings. She shall prepare all minutes and records of the annual meeting for publication in the minutes. All persons or committees handling any funds of the Convention shall turn copies of said receipts or financial reports over to her, for inclusion in the annual financial report of the Convention. She shall read the printer's proof to insure accuracy of the minutes. She shall have the minutes shipped to the place of annual meeting in time to put them in kits, and she shall mail out other minutes on order or request. She shall be assisted in this work by the assistant recording secretary.

Section 4. It shall be the duty of the assistant recording secretary to notify all chairmen and members of standing committees of their appointments within thirty days after the Convention closes, on printed forms, provided for that purpose.

It shall also be her duty to assist the recording secretary in the discharge of her secretarial duties, and in her absence, keep records of all proceedings; and attend to such other duties as her official relationship requires.

Section 5. The treasurer shall be adequately bonded by the Executive Committee and said bond shall be paid for out of the funds of the Convention, and kept in the office of the recording secretary. She shall receive all money collected on the field or at the Convention.

She shall keep a regular account of all receipts and disbursements in well-bound records, and report same to the Convention in regular session, to the Board of Directors, or whenever requested by the Executive Committee. Designated funds and authorized bills shall be paid within thirty (30) days, unless otherwise ordered.

Any remaining representation money above the authorized expense of operating the Convention, shall be divided, as authorized by the Board of Directors, equally between the school at Nashville, Tennessee, and the school at Washington, D. C. and sent by the treasurer to said schools within thirty (30) days after said authorization. The treasurer's books shall always be open to the inspection of the Executive Committee.

She shall pay out no money without an order from the recording secretary, signed by the president. Her accounts shall be audited annually by a certified accountant.

Section 6. It shall be the duty of the historian to gather and record the facts pertaining to the work, development and achievements of the Woman's Convention, and also to present the stories of the lives of those women of the denomination who have made outstanding contributions in Christian service. She shall report or feature her work, as historian, bi-annually.

Section 7. It shall be the duty of the parliamentarian to instruct and guide the Woman's Convention in correct parliamentary rules and usages (according to Robert's Rules of Order) when called upon, by the president or the body, for instruction or ruling.

Section 8. The duties of any other officers, elected by the Convention, shall be such as usually appertain to the office to which they are elected, together with any other duties that may be assigned to them by the Convention.

Section 9. Appointment to chairmanship of committees shall be made on the basis of the financial rating of the states and active interest, and participation in the general or special work of the organization. As far as possible there shall be an equitable distribution of officers and committee appointments in the states.

ARTICLE III

The Convention shall support and operate the National Baptist Missionary Training School, Nashville, Tennessee; the National Trades and Professional School, Incorporated, Washington, D. C.; and the "Carrie V. Dyer" Hospital at Monrovia, Liberia, West Coast Africa, and such other institutions, as have been endorsed by the National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Incorporated.

ARTICLE IV

A full and concise report of the Woman's Convention shall be made to the National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Incorporated in annual session, through the president and corresponding secretary, or someone empowered by the Woman's Convention to do so in arrangement with the president of the National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Incorporated.

OF THE
WOMAN'S CONVENTION AUXILIARY
TO THE
NATIONAL BAPTIST CONVENTION, U.S.A., INC.

Held In Mason Temple
Church of God In Christ
September 7-11, 1955
MEMPHIS, TENNESSEE

FIRST SESSION

Wednesday, September 7, 1955

10:00 A.M.

1. With the President, Dr. Nannie Helen Burroughs of Washington, D. C., presiding, the Woman's Convention Auxiliary to the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc., opened its fifty-fifth annual session at Mason Temple Church of God in Christ, Memphis, Tennessee, with singing, "Leaning on Jesus," directed by Miss Daisy Young, also of Washington, D. C.

2. Devotion was led by Miss Violet Ankrum, Washington, D. C., co-chairman of the Worship Committee in the absence and illness of the chairman, Mrs. Lula Mills Haynes of Chicago, Illinois.

(1) Prelude—Mesdames Alberta King, Atlanta, Ga., and Cassielle G. Davis, Waukegan, Ill., organist and pianist, respectively

(2) Holy, Holy, Holy

(7) Scripture: John 3:16, 1 Pet. 2:9—Mrs. Bessie Hairston, Pennsylvania

(8) Prayers—Mesdames Eva W. Pruitt and Ozelle Phillips of Arkansas

(9) Meditation: With Whom and With What are You Identified?—

Miss V. Ankrum

(10) Lord, I Want to Live For Thee

3. President Dr. Nannie Helen Burroughs announced that she had secured the services of a quartet of young men for the Convention and that it would go down on record as the "Convention Quartet." When presented, they sang "Hallelupah For the Cross," by James McCranahan, accompanied by the Recording Secretary, Mrs. Mauddean Thompson Seward. (The quartet was composed of Bona Fide Members of Baptist Church—First Tenor, Clarence Becton, Ellendale Baptist Church; Rev. Neasbie Alston, Canaan Baptist Church, and also pastors two churches—Salem, Humboldt, and New Hope, Burlington; Baritone, Tommie Lee Becton, Jr., Ellendale Baptist Church, and Bass, Paul Kelly, First Baptist Church, Lauderdale, Memphis.)

4. Dr. N. H. Burroughs declared the Convention formally opened for business. Having announced the theme for this Convention—"Mighty Problems and Challenges, But a Mightier God," she said that God does not need numbers to meet His challenges, for He can use one individual to carry on His Divine purposes; for God is not dead; He is not out of business and His work is Eternal.

5. All state presidents, singers, chairmen and co-chairmen of committees were called to the platform by the President.

6. The roll was called by the Recording Secretary, Mrs. Mauddean Thompson Seward, of all the states.

7. Dr. Burroughs stated that due to the types of seats in the auditorium, it would not be possible to put up the placards and seat the delegates by states as had been done formerly.

8. The Music group led the congregation in singing, "It Takes Work."

9. The First Vice President, Mrs. M. O. Ross of Detroit, Mich., was asked to preside.

10. The Convention Program was read by the Recording Secretary.

11. A motion was proposed and unanimously carried that the program would be adopted.

12. In Memoriam was read by the Recording Secretary. Comrades who have gone home this year:

(1) Mrs. Priscilla J. Smith, Mound Bayou, Miss., member of National Committee on Convention Planning and Management—Finance and Business.

(2) Miss Sarah R. Welts, Washington, D. C., Co-chairman, National Committee on Foreign Mission.

(3) Mrs. M. M. Arter, Washington, D. C. (recently retired) President Baptist Woman's Convention of the District of Columbia and vicinity.

(4) Mrs. Genevieve B. Ashford, Garner, Iowa—President, Iowa Five States Woman's Convention.

(5) Mrs. Sallie C. Wade, New Orleans, La.—President Woman's Convention Auxiliary, Louisiana Missionary Baptist State Convention. Co-chairman of National Committee on Health Education.

(6) Mrs. Beatrice Downey, Louisville, Ky., Chairman, National Committee on Temperance, died on shipboard, enroute to the Baptist World Alliance, London, England.

- (7) Mrs. Emma F. Butler, the self-sacrificing veteran missionary died at her post in Africa, in July, 1955.
1. Dr. Burroughs paid words of tribute to these fallen comrades while the following soft music was being played:
- (1) What are They Doing in Heaven Today?
 - (2) The Unclouded Day.
14. The Convention Quartet sang:
- (1) Calvary Covers It All, by Taylor
 - (2) All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name (Dialon, C. M.) Eller.
15. Noonday Message by Rev. I. H. Merritt, Pastor, Antioch Baptist Church, Wichita Falls, Texas.
- (1) Text: Eph. 6:11-18.
 - (2) Subject: Christian Religion in its Whole Armour.
 - a. The Purpose
 - b. The Power
 - c. The Victory
16. The Convention Quartet was asked by Dr. Burroughs to sing again—"Calvary Covers It All."
17. The Convention adjourned singing with the Convention Quartet, "Calvary Covers It All."

BOARD OF DIRECTORS
of the
WOMAN'S CONVENTION AUXILIARY
NATIONAL BAPTIST CONVENTION, U.S.A., INC.

Saturday Afternoon, September 10, 1955

2:00 O'Clock

1. Dr. N. H. Burroughs opened the meeting by asking two ladies to lead in prayer.

2. The President declared the meeting opened for any information from any of the minutes.

3. Dr. Burroughs had the Board of Directors to understand that the constituents of the Board of Directors are the officers, state presidents, chairmen of committees and those appointed by their states.

4. Mrs. Benford-Foster of Dallas, Texas, spoke of trying to interest the people in the Rural Life Center and asked Dr. Burroughs if she had given it up; to which Dr. Burroughs replied, "Even though the Louisiana project did go through, I have not given it up." She wanted us to keep two facts in mind: (1) The fund has been coming in and let it keep on; (2) We must have a conference of women on this matter and see what we can do about it.

5. The treasurer's report by Mrs. H. M. Gibbs.

This meeting in Memphis.....	$53,123.08
Advanced receipts	5,632.36

------------------	-------------

6. Mrs. Maudiean Thompson Seward told the Board of Directors that the local committee paid $25.00 for the use of the Baby Grand Piano, which was received with thanks from the president on behalf of the Woman's Convention.

7. Mrs. Etta Versa Frye, Director of the Young People's Department, made their financial report, which was $7,674.25 raised at this meeting.

8. Dr. Burroughs said that no bills are to be paid here but all monies were to go through the treasury. Mrs. Frye asked that the janitor of the White Stone Baptist Church be remembered.

9. Mrs. M. E. Hubbard of California asked if the young people's report was included in the treasurer's report to which the answer was "Yes." Mrs. E. Frye stated that she had $74.35 for the treasurer.

10. Mrs. Edna stated that she wanted to know her committee by face and therefore would like to have a picture of each member. She wanted to pass the idea on to other committee chairmen. She also spoke on Life memberships.

11. Mrs. Sallie P. Robinson reported $25.00 for the National Baptist Missionary Training School and $25.00 for the National Trade and Professional School but would like for the School at Nashville, Tenn., to get the $35.00 credit. Dr. Burroughs told her to write a note with proper allocations of the treasurer and she will do what you want.

12. The Recording Secretary read the request from the National Baptist Missionary Training School as follows:

Memphis, Tenn., September 9, 1955

To the Finance Committee Woman's Convention Auxiliary
National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc.

Ladies:

In view of the fact that the merger of the National Baptist Missionary Training School and the American Baptist Theological Seminary has been set for September next year 1956-57, and that the two institutions must run as in the past. The Directors of the Training School earnestly request the Woman's Auxiliary Convention to make a direct appropriation of $10,000.00 as the necessary initial support for the operation of the Training School this school year 1955-56, so that there may be a school to merge next September, 1956.

Respectfully submitted,
BOARD OF DIRECTORS
National B. M. Training School
Ambrose Bennett, Secretary

13. Mrs. Henrietta Hopkins said she understood that they had taken it and shall we have to continue to support it, to which Dr. Burroughs replied: "We had the information but this is all we have now."

14. Mrs. M. J. Brockway, a member of the Board of Directors for the school, said they had not merged as yet. The composition of the Board was two-thirds men.

15. Mrs. Etta Versa Frye wanted to know how the request compared with the amount raised for that school in one year. The answer was about four or five thousand dollars. We have committees set up for the cause for which it is earmarked. Whatever comes in this year will go for what it is raised.

16. Dr. Burroughs asked who was responsible to which Mrs. Brockway answered, "It belonged to the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc."

17. Miss Primrose Funchess said there was a meeting Tuesday, September 6, and permission was granted the two schools to organize and conduct drives as they wished.

18. Mrs. Henrietta Hopkins asked where we will get additional money for the project since all the money was allocated.

19. Mrs. Blanche Carter, a member of the Board of Directors for the school said that the convention turned the school over to the Women's Convention for operation and that we must find out do those schools belong to us, the Woman's Convention; if so, let us get behind it.

20. Miss Funchess asked if Mrs. Brockway were to head a drive for the school, to which she answered, "No."

21. Dr. Burroughs asked Mrs. Ross to take the chair so she could speak. She informed us that due to the fact that we do not have an official communication from the Convention and the schools belonged to the Convention when she came to be president, she set up committees and designated where the money should go, and since she did not receive the courtesy of being informed about it her position is not to donate funds that have been allocated for other causes.

22. Blanche N. Carter said she was embarrassed that the official notice had not been sent to us. She is in favor of doing right.

23. Mrs. E. D. McGowan of Mississippi was in the meeting and said she believed in doing first things first.

24. Miss Primrose Funchess felt that the matter pertaining to the donation to the National Baptist Missionary Training School should be tabled.

25. The question was asked: "Is it the feeling to say that those who are supporting the school to go forward as nearly as it can this year and the trustees and others who are really responsible should look after it?" The answer was "Yes."

26. Mrs. M. B. Jones asked the question if the committee was abolished? The answer was "No."

27. Mrs. Susie Holly wanted to select delegates from her state for committees and wanted to know how many for each committee and the answer was "One."

28. Special secretarial service committee requested two tables to be set up and have people there to make out letters for people who did not know how to make them out. Dr. Burroughs concurred with the idea.

29. Mrs. Elizabeth Thomas, Chairman of the Citizenship committee, asked about a member of her committee, Mrs. Jessie M. Rodney who did not get her life membership badge, and Dr. Burroughs asked her to write and let her know the date, time, place and person to whom it was paid and send it to her in Washington, D. C.

30. The State President of Washington wanted to know should each committee lady send $25.00 to the committee chairman or to the State Convention. The answer was that the state does not get the credit but the credit goes to the local society.

31. Mrs. Rosa Kimp made a partial report for the finance committee as follows: $55,597.24.

32. Mrs. F. J. Haynes wanted to know if they should make up list of committee members. Dr. Burroughs said, "Send in names of those not functioning."

33. Mrs. D. M. Mills said many had sent in reports to the treasurer.

34. Mrs. Gibbs asked the committee women to let the chairmen know when money has been sent to the treasurer by receipts.

35. Mrs. E. D. McGowan was told to send life membership receipts to office.

36. It was reported that Mrs. S. F. Ming was seriously ill at her home, 118 So. Bell, Chicago, Ill.

37. Mrs. Blanche Carter expressed how pleased we were to have Dr. Burroughs as President and the beautiful meeting we have had.

38. Dr. Burroughs said, "As long as God wants me I will not hold back a thing."

39. The meeting closed at 4 P. M. with clasped hands and prayer by our president, Dr. Nannie Helen Burroughs.

RECOMMENDATION

MRS. FAMA J. HAYNES, Chairman

President Burroughs, Officers, Members and Christian Friends.

We are very grateful to have this privilege to make this report.

In view of the fact that this Convention is the largest of its kind, and is doing the greatest work, we feel that we have the greatest president, in vision, courage, and achievements.

First, we recommend that we increase our devotion, our gifts, and our love both to the work, to our leaders that greater heights may be reached.

Second, as we are being ushered into a new society let us become a united people, because together we stand, and divided we fall.

Jesus is our Captain, all things are possible to them that believe

Respectfully submitted,
FAMA J. HAYNES

TREASURER'S REPORT

Tuscaloosa, Ala., Sept. 6, 1955

"The fruit of the spirit is love, joy, peace, long suffering, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, meekness, self-control."—Gal. 5:22-23

Madam President and Co-Workers:—

Again it is my happy privilege to give an account of my Stewardship for this Convention year. It has been a joy and a privilege to serve you as Treasurer. The work is not always easy as some may think. But I have at all times tried to practice the Golden rule. The report of the finance is as follows:—

SECOND SESSION

Wednesday Afternoon—January 18

2:30 O'Clock

23. Devotion was led by Mrs. Etta Versa Fryc.
24. Dr. Burroughs explained the Question on "Hands" on the front of the Agenda.
25. Mrs. Bertha Winston, Eastern Director of Young People, was presented by the President to tell about the camp site that has been found to be suitable for young people. She said the site is located in Maryland between Washington, D. C., and Baltimore, with 25 cabins, one chapel with a pipe organ, loud speaker, heated, swimming pool, kitchen equipped with steam tables, 15 acres of farm land. It is equipped for use both winter and summer for conferences and interracial meetings. It has a seating capacity of 750. It has trail for the site. Doctor Burroughs concurred with this detail report and said that she wanted $100.00 from every church.
26. The President directed further talks to the adults, speaking first of
 - (1) the Bible Reading campaign and Press Reading Crusade.
 - (2) Literature and Publications.She spoke of the crisis in which we were living. She defined crisis as a time when there are possibilities of success of an opportunity and the risk of facing it. She said we are facing a social crisis in America and we must be able to spell out and make people see it. For example: Montgomery, Alabama. The Negro is not going to ride on the street cars. If the Negro class spell it out the Negro mass will do it. She further stated that she is writing some materials for missionary societies, and asked us to tell the young people that there is a need yet unmet in the area of book writing. She continued by saying, "We can beat race prejudice to a frazzle but you've got to know how." Making your Community Christian is becoming a guide book for solving race problem. Statistically speaking, she said she had sold 10,000 copies per month of "Twelve Things the Negro Should Know." 57,000 copies of the Worker in less than 2 weeks, within 9 days to be exact." She likened the Worker to the "Stone" that the Builders rejected. Music was spoken of at length. She told us that if you cannot buy hymnals just get the words. Some books she named for us to buy.
 - (1) Songs of Joy and Triumphs by Rodheaver, 70c each. She asked us not to try to get along without music.
 - (2) Topics for Young People.
 - (3) Slab Town Convention
 - (4) Get Light and Get it More Abundantly
 - (5) Brockway Manual
 - (6) Star of Hope—Tennessee.
27. Mrs. Rosie Hill asked for information on buying the President's annual Message to which she was asked to send to the President's office.
28. Mrs. Corene Watts spoke of people who are interested in our materials. She informed us that many white people are using them in their missionary societies.
29. Rev. Roland Smith, Secretary of the B.T.U. Board, announced that the Board was publishing an official B.T.U. magazine for $2.00 per year. If 10 or more copies were bought they would be sold for 20c. Dr. Burroughs asked the delegation to subscribe for this magazine.

30. Rev. Ambrose Bennett spoke in the interest of the National Baptist Missionary Training School. He said he had not received any help from the parent body within the last two years. We received $4,000 from the Women's Convention only two days before bills were due.

31. The President asked the co-chairman to work in the department of education under the chairmanship of Mrs. Blanche Carter, and direct the women of the former National Baptist Missionary Training School Committee and raise the money for the school. She further gave the women an opportunity to contribute to the school at the close of the meeting.

32. Miss Burroughs presented Mrs. Holly, president of the Florida Woman's Convention, who in turn apologized for having arrived at the meeting late.

33. Closing hymn: We've a Story to Tell to the Nation

34. Offering for the National Baptist Missionary Training School, Nashville, $41.00.

35. Total for registration, $172.00.

THIRD SESSION

Thursday, January 19, 1956

9:30 A. M.

The Board of Directors of the Woman's Convention Auxiliary to the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc., opened its third session in Bowman's Little Theatre, National Baptist Sanitarium-Bath House, Hot Springs, Arkansas Thursday morning, January 19, 1956, at 9:30 o'clock, by the President, Dr. Nannie Helen Burroughs.

37. Prelude by Mrs. Boddie, assistant pianist.

38. Devotion, Mrs. Etta Versa Frye.

(1) Song—"Don't Stop Praying"

(2) Scripture and Prayer—Mrs. Lucille Alexander (Matt. 6:33-8)

(3) Prayer Hymn—"Sweet Hour of Prayer"

(4) Meditation, "Praying Hands"—Mrs. Etta Versa Frye

(5) Song—"Don't Stop Praying"

Doctor Burroughs asked the congregation to continue humming "Don't Stop Praying." She further emphasized the points on prayer that Mrs. Frye had given us.

(1) Our Christian Schools was the first topic which claimed our attention. She pointed out that we are responsible for the education of 7,000,000 young people. The National Trade and Professional School was dedicated September 6, 1956. Mrs. Etta Versa Frye is one of the first fruits of the Trade School—"And the Word became Flesh and Dwelt Among us."

What becomes of the women we give scholarships? Do they come back and give their lives in service? Some are back in their home. Some are in successful business. They are only examples of what it takes and what you get for your investment. Call the roll of leaders and we compare them with those of any other institution. We will dedicate the building July 1, 1956. Mrs. Anna J. Lecker, wife of the late Ambassador to Liberia, a product of ours, is the only colored woman in Floral Industry in Cincinnati, Ohio. She will return and relandscape the Trade School. An invitation is extended to come to the Dedication of the Institution July 1st at 2 P.M. Come prepared to stay for the Summer Institute. We will begin a new program devoting ourselves to a rich expansion program. Thank God for those who stood by. We have sent ten girls to Africa. We bring greetings from Victoria White, Sarah Williamson Coleman of Suchu who is blossoming like a rose. Another working in the British Isles—teaching 120 pupils, riding horseback 20 miles and teaching at night. When the builders hand over the keys we shall pass on to them the last payment on a building which cost over $200,000.00.

40. Mrs. Casselle G. Davis spoke on the Summer Institute.

41. Dr. Burroughs paid high tribute to the men who did the work, the building inspectors of Washington, D. C., said they were the best Negro workers they had ever seen on a big construction.

42. Mrs. H. M. Gibbs, Treasurer, gave parting words and solicited prayers for her and Dr. Burroughs, for they were not too well.

43. Dr. Burroughs paid tribute to Mrs. Gibbs and Mrs. Gayland and said "We are the salt of the earth."

44. Mrs. Coleman of Arkansas also made known that she had to leave at 12:00:00.

45. Pledges were taken for the National Trade and Professional School, Washington, D. C., and orders were taken for books. Money was turned over to the Recording Secretary.

DR. NANNIE HELEN BURROUGHS, President
MAUDEAN THOMPSON SEWARD,

Recording Secretary

46. The president stated that Home Missions and Race Relations are to constitute a large part on our projected program for 1956. She is very much concerned over race relations in America, and is anxious that the Woman's Convention take a lead in calling white women to consider our part in it. Plans have not been completed for a Southwide interracial conference of Baptist women. By the last week in June in the city of Louisville, Kentucky, we should call an interracial conference that we may get a better relationship with the other race. Those who suffer most should call the first meeting. We who have heart hurt, and spirit hurt can calmly and passionately turn our eyes to the hills and ask God to guide us. The hour is struck for better race relationship. We can ring a bell in Moscow if we christian women got together in America. We must ring the bell in America so it can be heard in Russia. "And It Came to Pass." We must pray as never before. The Negroes must have JESUS, JOBS, AND JUSTICE.

47. Dr. Burroughs stated that Denver is our next stop. We spent hundreds of dollars to go to Europe; we've been called to Los Angeles in June; we've been called to Denver in September; we've been called to Hot Springs in January; we do not have that type of income. The showed records of expenses in September of the different committees who had been neglecting duties. She said we are not use poor women for step climbing et cetera. She is going to make the closest investigation and make the Woman's Convention stand on its own feet. She has no desire to do anything but promote the Woman's Convention. Everything should be done "Jam-up." Whatever the responsibility is we must do it. If the women want to go to Los Angeles on the Woman's Convention you cannot go. Dr. Burroughs said that she was not going because she neither had the strength nor the time to do it. And if anyone wanted to pass in suggestions for the annual program, pass them in to the secretary.

48. Mrs. E. D. McGowan wanted to know if Dr. Burroughs isn't going, should we go?

49. Miss Lucie E. Campbell made a motion in the light of the tremendous financial load carried by the Woman's Convention that we will preclude going to Los Angeles and look forward to Denver, Colo., which was seconded by Mrs. Fama J. Haynes praising Dr. Burroughs for her vision. The motion was carried after the following unreadinesses: (1) Mrs. D. M. Mills, State President, came to invite the Board to meet at Friendship Baptist Church in Pasadena, but will yield over to President Burroughs. (2) Mrs. Ednah Lewis said that she would be in California working on the classification committee and would not be lacking for us. (3) Miss Burroughs clearly explained the Woman's Convention's viewpoint. She said the Woman's Convention has spent a tremendous amount of money and it is time to check and let you know. (4) Mrs. Etta Versa Frye voiced her approval of Dr. Burroughs' decision and said that as general superintendent of her Sunday School she would be going anyway. (5) Vice President, Mrs. M. O. Ross said that she did not know whether she would go. She spoke of the great meeting we had here in Hot Springs and asked if we could imagine the cost of the creative genius put into this meeting such as Dr. Burroughs had done. Many tributes were paid to Dr. Burroughs for such a fruitful meeting.

50. The closing words by Dr. Burroughs.

51. Space was given to Mrs. C. C. Coleman of Tupelo, Miss., and Mrs. Viola Harris telling us what to expect in Denver.

52. Dr. Burroughs asked us to deport ourselves as christian women.

53. Mrs. J. S. Powell, Jr., 521 N. Alcanis St., Pensacola, Fla., gave Dr. Burroughs a live gift of $50.00.

DO SOMETHING

"Observe what St. Paul did at Athens. He did something. He was not the man to stand still and 'confer with flesh and blood' in the face of a city full of idols.

He might have reasoned with himself that he stood alone; that he was a Jew by birth; that he was a stranger in a strange land; that he had to oppose the rooted prejudices and old associations of learned men; that to attack the old religion of a whole city was to board a lion in his den; that the doctrine of the Gospel were little likely to be effective on minds steeped in Greek philosophy.

BUT—none of these thoughts seem to have crossed the mind of St. Paul. He saw souls perishing; he felt that life was short, and time passing away; he had confidence in the power of his Master's message to meet every man's soul; he had received mercy himself, and knew not how to hold his peace. He acted at once, and what his hand found to do he did with all his might."

I declare unto you that we need men and women of action, of the courage of Paul, to face and battle with the mighty problems of our day—men and women who will declare as did Paul when the hour of decision came, and he knew that bonds and afflictions awaited him, "None of these things shall move me," and at the same time, his intrepid spirit was saying—"none of these things shall keep me from moving."

It is in that spirit and in that spirit alone, that Christian leaders must face the problems and challenges of the day that is upon us.

To every young Negro in America, I say unto you—in this day of crisis—

DO SOMETHING
BE SOMEBODY
GO SOMEWHERE

But go in the name of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

IN MEMORIAM

We sing—

"Beyond the sunset,
O blissful morning,
When with our Saviour
heav'n is begun,
Earth's toiling ended,
O glorious dawning;
Beyond the sunset,
when day is done.

"Beyond the sunset
no clouds will gather,
No storms will threaten,
no fears annoy;
O day of gladness,
O day unending,
Beyond the sunset,
eternal joy!"

That is the glorious experience of our co-workers,
No night there! The Bible tells us that it is a land of perfect day.

CHRISTIAN FRIENDS, FELLOW LABORERS, DEARLY BELOVED:

I greet you in the name of our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ.

The world is on the threshold of moving and mighty events. Warring statesmen have laid down their arms to journey to far off quiet places to talk peace on earth and goodwill to men. Scientists are devoting more time to trying to see how they can turn destructive, death-dealing concoctions into life-giving, world-saving devices.

Christians are beginning to meet everywhere, to discuss and plan for unity, cooperation and world brotherhood. They sense with Dr. Laubach that unless men stop making hot weapons and using hot words—and lift the world they will lose it. That is the challenge of this hour. The time is running out for FIGHTING. The hour has struck for RIGHTING.

"No nation on earth needs any more power," says Dr. Laubach because, "we are not safe with more power until we have more character."

Christians have only one duty at this hour and that is to put on a world-wide crusade for Christ and humanity. It is with that fact written in words that cut and burn that we beseech the presence and guidance of Almighty God in all of our plans, proposals and programs for this Convention and for this nation. Without His presence, guidance and leadership, the best minds of the best men lag down, become befuddled and ineffectual in affairs of church and state.

In this hour, no words express our conditions and needs more effectively than the superb hymn and prayer of Rev. Ernest Warburton Shurtleff, of Boston. He senses for us the great spiritual warfare to which God calls us. He sets his words to martial music when he prays—

"Lead on, O King Eternal,
 Till sin's fierce war shall cease,
 And holiness shall whisper
 The sweet Amen of peace;
 For not with swords loud clashing,
 Nor roll of stirring drums;
 With deeds of love and mercy,
 The heavenly kingdom comes.

"Lead on, O King Eternal
 We follow, not with fears;
 For gladness breaks life morning
 Where'er Thy face appears:
 Thy cross is lifted o'er us;
 We journey in its light;
 The crown awaits the conquest;
 Lead on, O God of might!"

What a prayer for these times!

That's my prayer, today, for this Convention and for all of the Christian forces of the World.

"Lead on, O King Eternal
 The day of March has come."

BOARD MEETINGS

The annual meetings of our Board of Directors in Hot Springs, January 18-20 and at Atlantic City, New Jersey, June 30, 1955, were well attended and the business presented at each received proper attention. The fellowship was refreshing. The Recording Secretary gives the official account of both meetings.

FOREIGN MISSIONS

Today, only two words describe the new mood of the entire human race—hope and expectancy. Two other words have become the chorus of the music of our times—they are "crisis and challenge."

For the first time in the history of the world, wars and science have "wrapped all mankind within a single garment of destiny and has willed for them a common fate." In the new age that is just ahead, all men will face a common life. The needs of mankind will be met on a common level—Brotherhood will become real.

What has for a long time been partitioned off as Foreign Missions, will be "World Missions," and for convenience, we shall choose our area in which to concentrate our efforts. Science and Christianity are making this "truly 'One World'—for Christians, the mighty changes spell 'Unity.'"

There will be no more tiny Christian communities in far away China, Asia or Africa, struggling alone. This is only a small world picture of the world now in the making.

We have a world population of about two billion people. Only about six hundred million are Christians. How feeble are the efforts of separately organized groups; how stupendous will be the united and complete impact of Christianity against the world strongholds of satan. The impact of a united Christianity will witness, under the power of the gospel, a whole nation in a day turning to God—seeking the Saviour's blessing.

Tomorrow is surely on its way. Christians must not any longer hold limited and inadequate views of Missions and shut up in their denominational shells. Christians must now see Missions in the whole sweep and reach of a mighty movement.

What we are driving at today, in Missions, is to bring together the shattered fragments of humanity and make the family of mankind what God intends it to be.

Through Christian Missions, supported by just government, we shall right age-old, world wide wrongs; head the deepest maladies; bridge ungodly divisions. We shall work together for the whole of the human family, and we shall study war no more. The ground of this forecast is written in God's Word—"All the earth shall be filled with the glory of the Lord."

Of course, much must be done—cooperatively—by the entire Christian communion. World Literary and then World Evangelism are the next two great tasks on the agenda of the united Christian forces. Then equal opportunity for education for all, and Christian and other clean literature by the millions of pages. This is not only the challenge but it is the responsibility and true destiny of the Christian Church.

For such an endeavor, we must pray—continuously and sincerely:—

"Lord give us men to match these mountains,
 Give us men to match thy plans,
 Men with new empires in their bosoms
 And new eras in their brains.
 Lord, give us MEN."

SOUTHERN CHRISTIAN WOMEN ARE IN THE FIELD

No greater progress has been made in America, since Northern Christians came South—immediately after the Civil War, than is being made by Southern Baptist women among our people.

Let nobody fool you, they are dead in earnest about it, too. They want this Southland saved and they have made up their minds to try the Gospel of Jesus Christ—step by step.

The plan of Christian Cooperation is working. Greater progress has been made in some states than others, and as Dr. Rayford of North Carolina said some years ago, "The South might go to the mourner's bench on this race problem, but we are coming through." What hope! and its brighter today than when this distinguished scholar said it.

Institutes, study classes, scholarships, summer camps, donation to schools, salaries to teachers and missionaries and even dormitories are the concrete evidence.

These kind of changes take place, slowly, but behind the dim unknown, standeth God speaking to men of mind and soul. The South cannot and will not be disheveled unto the heavenly vision.

We shall need much literature and leadership for this spiritual and educational renaissance in the South. Christianity in America is crippled in the house of her friends and she will be done for, unless these two races can work—together—as becometh Christians in a democracy.

It matters not about speed. Are we facing in the right direction? Are we learning how and are we going forward? That is all that matters.

THE WORK IN AFRICA

The report of the Foreign Mission Board will tell the full story of the work to which we are giving. But, in this meeting we shall get two intimate observations of what is going on in Africa.

Mrs. Sarah Williamson Coleman has sent us some "good news," but in this meeting you will hear from Mrs. Anna Lockey, who went to Liberia, with her Ambassador husband, Mr. Locker passed at his post of duty. Mrs. Locker is with us again, and back in the harness for service.

Then, too, we have a veteran with us, Miss Louise Reid, who blazed the trail at Suchen, has served for 14 years since her return to America as the Social Worker of Second Baptist Church, in Detroit, flew to Africa at the close of the London meeting, and she has a thrilling story to tell us of the work at Suchen—our most important station in Africa.

You have given much to the work to which Sarah Williams gave the devotion of her early days and Miss Reid spared not herself. Now, Mrs. Mattie Mae Davis, Miss Victoria White, Miss Gladys East and Miss Winifred Burroughs are carrying the load, courageously.

Women have built Suchen. Their sweat and blood and tears have enriched its soil until—today—it is one of the most fertile and beautiful spots in Africa. Women! great has been their love for this cause!

THE LONDON MEETING

After fifty years of triumphant trudging, carrying the Gospel of Jesus Christ to the four corners of the earth, representatives of the Baptist World Alliance returned to London in July 1955, to give an account of their world stewardship and to dedicate themselves anew to the program of Jesus Christ.

It was the saddest, disappointment of my life when I could not return to my first, richest and unforgettable scenes, of my trip and the receptions which I received in Exeter Hall, Spurgeon Tabernacle, and in Great Albert Hall. That was in 1905.

It was great. It provoked the following statement from a southerner who was at that meeting. He said, "Had Gladstone arisen from the dead the English people would not have paid as much attention to his reappearance as they did to that young Negro woman from America." Be that as it may, I have never had such a grand time on a large scale in all of my life.

Unforgettable! Thank God for it and for the Christian giants who welcomed me to every platform. Dr. John Clifford, Dr. McLaurin and Mr. Shakespeare, of noble blood, a descendant of William Shakespeare and that prince of leaders, Dr. E. C. Morris, President of the National Baptist Convention, who made it possible for me to have my first official designation as "Delegate from the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A."

The newspapers of that day in London and America, secular and religious gave unstinted accounts of that mighty event. The London Mirror went so far as to call me "a handsome young woman, many shades removed from black. She was dressed in a gray gown that harmonized well with her bronze skin. Her speech was refined, with just a delightful touch of humor. She has become one of the notable personages of the Congress."

"Handsome," (Eyesight and judgment very bad) but be that as it may, London was marvelous to me. I shall never forget her. These high compliments and many more went down in the Daily papers—"The Mirror," "The Daily Express," "The Times and Freeman" followed me through. I did so much want to go back, this year, and live those high days all over again in quiet memory, blessed fellowship and deep appreciation.

At that time, I was your green "upstart" or "starting up" Corresponding Secretary.

And now, for 1955. I want this convention to know that I am inexpressibly grateful to you for providing amply for me to attend the great meeting in July.

Upon final professional advice, I felt it wise not to go. The physician's final words to me were, "Don't go." "You are doing enough thinking—and work, for fifty women and you ought to stop it." It came the day before I was to sail. Dr. Carr and the Company will refund the money. I am delighted to welcome you who went and we know your highlights of the meeting will challenge this organization to attempt greater things for God.

It was my pleasure this July to receive many messages from the London meeting from top officials and friends. They are deeply appreciated and are stored in my Treasure Chest of "Greater Love Than This."

As a challenge of the year 1955 comes to you in this meeting, you must catch the vision of World Brotherhood and Service.

HOME MISSIONS

The great social problems which are discussed in this message can be rightly called Home Mission problems. The unchurched in America are a threat and a challenge to Christianity. Home and Family life are our Home Mission responsibilities.

But, we have no program, no material and no staff to do the work. It is as much our duty and as important in the field of religion as saving the heathen, across the ocean.

Tackling the whole problem, since it has reached such proportions, might be impossible, but we can make a much more sincere effort to something concrete in some spots as E.hibit A of our concern for tragically blighted areas, or in the midst of stark human needs, right here at home.

We are giving Five Hundred Dollars, a year, through the Home Mission Board, to the Walter H. Brooks Scholarship Fund. This is to help men who are preparing to enter the ministry. The need for such men is far beyond those who come for training, and we must be more interested in finding candidates for the ministry and for social service work among our boys.

The need in this Home Mission field truly is great!

OUR 1955 THEME IS MIGHTY PROBLEMS AND MIGHTY CHALLENGES BUT A MIGHTIER GOD

The most serious problem confronting us today is "How to Get Negroes To Do Basic Things for Themselves." Nothing else matters quite as much because all of our needs, lacks and barriers stem from this. We will not take it upon ourselves to deliver ourselves. Nobody else can or is going to do it. Our four million Negro Baptists are but a fourth of the race.

Christians, are we? But we are not supporting a single educational institution, nor agency of any kind for the development of Christian Young people. What about your National Young People's Camp—promise even that would be a grand feature.

Yes, go all over the world and see the achievements, problems and future outlook for other people, but in the name of good sense, come back here and plan and push those institutions for which you are responsible or should be.

It isn't what Negroes can say in meetings but what they have back of it in educational missionary and social welfare institutions. It just doesn't make sense for Negroes to have money, to get what we WANT, keep on running all over the place and then expect white people to give us what we NEED. This should be a year of some mighty practical, down-to-earth, heart, head and at home searching and deciding about basic things and then some mighty getting up and going after what we need.

The condition of the Negro masses must become the concern and the responsibility of the Negro Church and every other welfare organization within the race. It will take wise planning and complete dedication to firmly and militantly establish the ongoing of ten million Negroes who actually do not know what this thing that you call civilization is all about. . . . What it will cost and what they can do with it if they have it?

That is the most important question before the world today, and Negroes must help answer it and do it now. Blight, sin, waste, ignorance, idleness—everywhere. Frankly, we do not have a single, effective, grass root organization, and you will recall that when the President of this Convention planned for you to begin at Grass Roots, with a Rural Life Center, she had to stop until the war (personal) was over.

If the condition of Negro masses is not enough to move Negro Christians to definite, well-planned action, then nothing ever will.

What about the leadership for such a time as this? The Christian colleges are without a hand full of prospects for the ministry or for social welfare. To be exact, they are turning out a little over one hundred ministers a year for over fifty thousand Negro Churches. What a travesty in the vision, interest and sincerity of Negro Christians.

Watchman! What of the night and how long before the day will dawn? It is time to begin a crusade for men and women to prepare themselves for Kingdom building.

CONDITION OF NEGRO MASSES

The responsibility and concern of this Convention and of all other Negro Christian, welfare educational and business organizations for many years to come must be about the Negro masses.

It is useless for me to waste time quoting statistics and painting horrifying word pictures about the moral, spiritual, social, economic and physical conditions of our people in urban and rural America. Too often, it baffles description and beggar's belief.

Social workers, hospitals, penal institutions, court records charge us with mounting sins of every conceivable kind. The Negro Church is not really concerned, and these churches are the last hope of the masses.

The time for a real, well planned, well organized, all inclusive soul, body, home, community saving campaign is at hand. If something adequate intensive, courageous, vital and earnest is not undertaken, the Negro Church of this day is done for. Strong words, but the condition requires stronger love. A conference on this situation is as necessary as the four power Conference at Geneva or the contemplated larger international conference that is coming up before long.

The condition of the masses will not cure itself and while people nor laws are not going to cure it for us. Home, children, idleness, satisfied ignorance, crime—al four very own problems and we must face and solve them without unnecessary delay.

The way must be spelled out by clear visioned capable, earnest leaders and sincere workers. We face a social crisis. Ephraim is certainly joined to his idols, but woe to us and to this nation if we let him be.

Have you seen a recent publication by the N.A.A.C.P. Educational Department? It is called "Toward 'Equal Justice.'" Those clear seeing, deep understanding men laid it on the line and portrayed wretched conditions North, South, East and West—as they are. Only multiply the pictures presented by a million and you have before you, our problems and challenges stark and tragic.

The Negro is not putting forth half as much concrete, constructive, purposeful effort for his own advancement, in the fields of education, economics and social betterment, as he can, as he ought and as he must, in order to live and gain a place of respect and influence in American life, if he is to become a part of this life and not continue to exist as a thing apart.

Legal integration and rights that belong to him, as a citizen, are essential to normal progress, but it will not by any means cure what hurts the Negro in the deeper recesses of his life. The thing that keeps the Negro behind in this civilization is his lack of full determination to rise and shine.

In the last analysis, the only thing that will get the Negro or any other race, for that matter, where it should go in a civilization is the recognition, evaluation, cultivation and glorification of his divine gifts of mind, hands and heart.

For plan Human Rights we must stand up and contend until Shiloh comes, but we cannot even contend effectively, unless we make getting everyday sense and an understanding of values our "eternal must."

In spite of the fact that the race is at the bottom, educationally, and economically, and its masses are in the worst social quagmire of any group in any Christian civilization and the end is not yet, unless men of God in Church and state unite and crusade to challenge and lift these Negro masses "from the body of their death" in slums, ghettos and hovels, democracy and Christianity will be discredited by men who are on a dead hunt for a cure for mass degeneracy among the other under-privileged peoples of the earth.

If the Negro cannot make it out of ignorance, poverty and low living in America, there is less hope anywhere else on the globe at this time.

The hope is in the determination of the Negro, himself. It must be a renewed dogged Determination! There is far from enough of it on the part of Negroes, everywhere and in all fields.

The first thing for Negroes to learn is that we are attempting to build a Christian civilization here in America. It must be built out of the very best in every man or it cannot endure. Fundamentally, rejections are not on race—pure and simple. It is on the quality of our basic contribution, and at the same time the quantity of that contribution.

Samples are necessary. But a few Negroes excellent or achieving here and there will not do. The question echoes—What is this among so many? We live in an age of mass production. The Negro mass is producing entirely too much waste material.

The time has come for the educated, well advantaged Negro to become concerned about the mass in his own race and unite in a crusade of redemption and uplift.

We are spending practically all of our time getting ourselves fixed, running from the masses; using them for exploitation; complaining about what white people are doing to us or what they are not doing for us; breaking into white communities to live and making ourselves secure in ready-made jobs. That is not the cure.

Plain talk, but it is becoming a pattern—too much of it is being done. It is high time that thinking Negroes address themselves unitedly, courageously and determinedly to building modern, progressive standards in personal, home, community, business, labor and social life, and make those standards match or excel any already established by anybody.

Keeping up with white people, showing off in what they give us or allow us to use is no achievement. What we produce is now and ever shall be the only cure for race hurts, ills and handicaps.

Believe it or not, there are millions of white Americans who are glad to help where help is really needed, but they will rejoice when Negroes learn the intrinsic value of self-help and get up and prepare and take their God-ordained places among other men and races on pure merit and dogged determination. White people have built churches, schools and maintained welfare institutions for us, while we do little or nothing for ourselves.

Race redemption will require vision, sense, planning, courage, determination and a will to never give up, but it is the only way up and out for any race—white or black. To this end, I believe God permitted us to be brought to this godly country, and the chance to be good for much is too good to miss.

WATCHMAN, WHAT OF THE NIGHT?

It is a dark, unpromising, evil foreboding time in the life of any people when its teen-age girls parade the streets, in pants, overalls, slacks, trunks, dungarees and halters, scanty covering for their bosoms, no covering on their backs and hair done in horse-tail fashion. This is only a parade of women advertising for somebody to help them on the downward road. When young prospective mothers, with brazen, shameless abandon parade in pants—motherhood has lost its sanity.

These paraders are soiled, disheveled and unkempt from head to foot and even if their unfeminine garb is immaculate, women street walkers in pants are a travesty on womanhood.

Mothers and fathers have either lost control, lost interest, or are themselves lost. Somebody is lost! These street paraders are a burlesque on common social standards, a flout in the face of public decency and a disgrace to womanhood. A dress is the best advertisement a woman can wear. Profligate parents and wide open homes produce these social renegades.

The trend is becoming more general and the number of paraders is increasing. Society—decent citizens have some responsibility. The very souls of the next generation are in pawn.

This downward march of women in pants leads to moral doom. They are about to run the red pants tad in the ground. In this, Negro girls, are the chief customers and victims.

Watchman, what of the night? Decent womanhood and pure motherhood are doomed.

INTEGRATION

The May 17th act of the Supreme Court, integration in Public School education, is the first legal opportunity given the Negro to prepare for first class citizenship since Emancipation.

Opposition to the order was expected. The plot against it appears in spots. It seems that in some places, the darkness deepens, but in many others more light is breaking. The whole area of opposition will eventually clear, because "right is right and God is God and right the day will win."

But, in the meantime, Negroes everywhere must help God win the day for justice.

This act of justice puts upon the entire race the greatest opportunity and responsibility that we will ever have for clear thinking and gracious action.

Unlightened whites have been spreading a malicious propaganda.

Thus the Negro faces this "equal opportunity" with six counts against him. They say the Negro is—

1. Physically—offensive
2. Morally—standardsless
3. Spiritually—superstitious
4. Intellectually—inferior
5. Socially—unfit
6. Generally—different

This is the supreme opportunity for American Negroes to prove that this wholesale charge is false and malicious. Talk will not do it. Now is the time to prove it—true or false—by living.

He must prove everyone of them false, and the only way he can prove it is to do some mighty intensive teaching in the home and in every church and welfare organization; to come clean, dress properly, have good manners, show deep interest in learning—not only the letter—but trades and crafts, participate in health-giving sports, stand erect, walk with a clear stride and determine to excel and go on about his business as becometh free Americans. This is no "take it or leave it" advice.

Negroes are not doing enough to prove these six charges false on the very face. The only way to do it is to do the superior thing all the time. These children of ours need intensive, plain teaching.

We must make integration work without wasting time, doing nothing to make it a thing of new power and glory in American life.

LITERATURE

Our determination to give Negro Baptists some literature for use in their local societies is being rewarded by increasing support and appreciation.

The circulation of THE WORKER has gone over Eighty Thousand and other publications like—"HOW," "MAKING YOUR COMMUNITY CHRISTIAN," "RED CIRCLE," "SUNSHINE" are proving a benediction to progressive missionary women. Our office is even pushing literature for the Young People's Department and actually selling more of it than all of the Young People's Directors combined.

The increase in the demand for literature is an evidence of the fact that women are studying. If we had the sense, the help, the time and the strength we could put out more material. The need is great.

You will find another little book on the table "BIBLE WOMEN FROM A TO Z"—not exhaustive but very useful.

Our "STORY ABOUT NEGRO WOMEN IN FOREIGN FIELDS" will be out by Christmas. Help us sell One Thousand copies, the day it comes from the press.

Perhaps you have seen the brochure "WHO STARTED WOMAN'S DAY?" It clears a big question and is a good peg on which to hang challenging Woman's Day speeches.

SUMMER INSTITUTE

Our school on Lincoln Heights went forward this year most satisfactorily. Rev. T. Ewell Hopkins came down from Stamford, Connecticut to serve as Dean. He did an unforgettable job as Bible Instructor, Counsellor and General Associate in a far-reaching program of Christian Education. He is in a new field, but the Officers and Church are interested and spared him to us for the full time. Thanks/ Union Baptist Church of Stamford, Connecticut.

We are eternally indebted to Rev. Hopkins for his continued interest and cooperation in this great adventure in helping church women to develop their efficiency in promoting the various features of church work for which they are responsible.

Other classes in Worship, Music, Pagantry, Handicrafts and Public Speaking were well attended. Women were enrolled from several states. They pledged themselves to help in the new program in every way possible.

It promises to be a program of challenge and blessing to women who know what it will take to meet the standard requirements of the day that is opening upon Church women.

How many of our women, stay in office and are tolerated is really a grave question. No background, no incidental training, no present day information and no desire to get enough light to see where they are going. Our entire missionary program can and must have more light. Prepared leadership is the only answer.

Every excuse for not being at least informed is being removed. More light is coming through institutes. Many states are offering a week's study. Our National institute, at Washington, is unexcelled. Some churches are holding institutes. Thousands of women are getting light through THE WORKER, through HOW and other Methods books.

We know our new plan at the School in Washington will prove a benediction. Write for a catalogue.

DOUBLE YOUR QUOTA

In October 1954, we wrote the Chairmen and Co-Chairmen of our Committees asking them to double their efforts—double their gifts quota in 1955. We know some of them have tried.

Our Committee plan is a good one. Of course, there are drones, laggards and do-nothing members in every organization, but there are also those who make great sacrifices, do their best and others who at a tremendous sacrifice, because of heart interest, excell. Causes, such as ours, need them all. Even the "do-nothings" teach us valuable lessons and give us some exercise for learning how to throw them out, gracefully.

Seriously, we cannot carry drones. Our program is the King's Business. It is too important to retain laggards. This year, our entire Committee roll will be pruned. Those who cannot do anything can become window dressing somewhere else. We must get results.

All Chairmen, Co-Chairmen, and members are urged to comply with the following suggestions:—

1. Report all money to the Chairman or Co-Chairman to whose committee you have been officially assigned.
2. All persons who have Life Membership money, report it to the Life Membership Chairman, ONLY.
3. Anybody may report money directly to the Treasurer, whenever the office is open. Be sure to make out an exact memorandum of what it is for—name of donor and name and address of person to whom receipt is to be sent.

The Business Office is open to receive representation, gifts and all other funds. Make out your report before you go there. Cooperate with Committee Chairmen, Co-Chairmen and Business Office.

RETREAT

Our Retreat For Foreign Missionaries, located at 1022 Maryland Avenue, Northeast, Washington, D. C., is a thing of value, beauty, comfort and a credit to Negro Baptist women forever.

THE PURPOSE

1. A RETREAT for the missionaries under The Foreign Mission Board of The National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc., when they come to America on furlough, for study, or on business incident to their work in connection with The Board.
2. A FOCAL POINT for intellectual, interracial and international relations in missions.
3. A LIBRARY to promote a program of education on Africa.
4. A NATIONAL BUREAU OF MISSIONS for collecting, assembling, and distributing missionary information.
5. HOLD CONFERENCES and special fellowship meetings with returned missionaries.

6. ANNUAL THREE-DAY INSTITUTE for the purpose of teaching and acquainting missionary workers and the general public with the social, racial, and political aspects of African life. Scholars and specialists in the field, will teach African life and history.

7. THE HEADQUARTERS for the Missionary Committee of The Woman's Convention Auxiliary to The National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc., for the national missionary activities of The Woman's Convention in cooperation with The Foreign Mission Board.

8. TO BE KEPT as "The House Beautiful and Useful" in Christian Service. We must clear the Retreat of debt, so that it can represent in truth a job well done. We owe $45,000 on it. We are asking for:—

200 Life Members
500 Gifts of $20.00
500 Gifts of 10.00
500 Gifts of 5.00
5,000 Gifts of 1.00

These, with other various and regular gifts will wipe out the debt.

We urge the "Retreat Committee" to address itself to the task, seriously. Will One Hundred women volunteer to work in the campaign? It is all becoming Christians to lag at all in this fine and most unusual undertaking.

Many groups and other friends have come from far and near to see "The Retreat." Some have made gifts and pledges. The Foreign Mission Board plans to begin a lecture series there in November.

The high purpose of "The Retreat" is kept before us and to those eight ends we shall work, faithfully. The Retreat is not a "home." It is a way station and a rest center for Foreign workers and an educational center for briefing, refilling, refreshing and refuelling.

OUR YOUNG PEOPLE'S DEPARTMENT

The time has come for some definite, improvement to be made in the work we offer Young People.

As a National organization, we can do very little in the Annual meeting towards developing and training for an overall program.

Twenty years ago, you accepted the recommendation, of your then Corresponding Secretary, to buy and operate a National Camp. This need is more urgent now than it was then. Let us get it or give up the idea. You are only talking and marking time. In all Young People's work—ACTION—is the only word with meaning.

The Sunday School and Baptist Training Union Congress and our own Young People's Department need a place for Christian Youth activities and training. This Convention is ready to take the lead in acquiring such a place, at once.

WHAT SAY YOU?

THANKS TO FRIENDS

Some gifts of bed linen, towels and groceries have come to the School.

When the New Dormitory is complete, in December, we shall need 150 sheets and pillow cases for single beds. It is better that we buy the spreads. They will cost $3.00, each. We need gifts of money, and with the small gifts we need larger gifts.

The Woman's Missionary Union Baptist General Association of Virginia, Miss Ellen Douglas Oliver, Executive Secretary of Virginia gave $3,000 again this year. Their gift is the largest. It is being used on the new dormitory.

FOR THE LITERATURE ENDOWMENT FUND 1954-55

The Home Mission Board and Southern Baptist Convention, Courts Redford, Executive Secretary-Treasurer gave $500.00.

You might not know what it will mean, as we get back into regular, but much larger, operation, to us if just One Hundred Friends would give—Monthly.

We do thank God for the following devoted and faithful monthly givers.

THE NATIONAL TRADE AND PROFESSIONAL SCHOOL FOR WOMEN AND GIRLS, INC.

On June 25, 1955, I gave the Trustees of The National Trade and Professional School, Inc., and "Account of My Stewardship."

Here are some of the highlights of that report.

In 1953, operation of this school was temporarily suspended for the following reasons:

1. Income inadequate to continue operation as usual and at the same time make necessary repairs and improvements and expansion.

2. Build a much needed modern dormitory.

3. Resume full operation of the institution with an enriched program.

I am sure you will agree that the physical upkeep of a school plant is as essential as maintaining high standards of education. In fact, the latter is practically impossible without the former. We were compelled to build.

Therefore the money that would have gone for regular operation was saved to meet the three needs herein set forth.

A. Not only this but recently, we installed a new Central Heating Plant.

B. Built a concrete driveway to take care of increasingly heavy traffic.

C. Made interior and exterior improvements on all buildings.

D. The New Dormitory is now in the course of construction. It will be ready for occupancy in January, 1956.

The building and equipment will cost nearly $225,000. McKissack and McKissack, Inc., the well-known builders and contractors of Nashville, Tenn., are doing the work. The building is a beauty!

By careful financing, saving and planning, we did not have to borrow any money to go ahead with our Building Program. The institution is not only debt free, but it has satisfactory credit. If all goes well, financially, and our friends do not let us down, the school will still be debt free when the builders put the capstone on and turn the keys over to the Trustees. This achievement would not be possible had we tried to continue operation without the much needed improvements.

While we were going ahead with this program of reconditioning and physical expansion, we gave much time to the development and promotion of our SUMMER INSTITUTE PROGRAM. It is going most satisfactorily, and Christian women across the nation are most appreciative of what it is doing for them. Every space in the present dormitories is taken for the accommodation of women whose soul's desire is to know how to lead more efficiently and effectively on Church programs for which they are responsible.

The SUMMER SCHOOL PROGRAM is the type of service for which this school was established and to which it must prepare to give increasingly rich service.

As you well know, the whole nation is in the midst of the greatest revolution that has taken place in the field of education in America.

America has a number of necessary and very excellent small educational institutions. They have done excellent work in feeding our larger institutions. They have done excellent work in feeding our larger institutions. They are the agencies that "discover Americans" and send them on to "discover America."

These schools must be properly evaluated, preserved and strengthened for the very necessary ground work in education.

Ours is the only small Christian School established for women and girls by Negro women and operated and developed on the nickles and dimes given by Negroes. It is built on the foundation of self-help. It has maintained high standards. It is the only educational institution owned and operated by Negro women. Its field of service is now being enlarged and enriched. Its value and importance are unquestioned, because it is at the capital of the nation and has lived through transition from "separate but equal," to a day when education for it must be "EQUAL."

Our Trustees came in June for the purpose of seeing, hearing, evaluating and dedicating themselves, anew, and to go forward into this new day with an institution that could meet the new needs.

THE CHARTER OF THE SCHOOL, as you know, provides for an interracial Board of Trustees.

What Is Our Over-All Program In Education For

The New Day That Is Dawning in America and the World?

We shall offer the following program on a High School and Junior College level:

English, History, Mathematics and General Science, Bible, Christian Social Service, Business, Homemaking, Sewing, Arts and Crafts, Public Speaking and Leadership Training, Music, Feature Program and Pageantry, Finer Womanhood.

This program will be done by highly qualified Negro and white teachers. Having white teachers on our campus is not new to us. We had them in the beginning. An institution is not Christian nor democratic that cannot TEACH TOGETHER, LEARN TOGETHER, WORK TOGETHER. It is our duty to see that new groups of young Christian women are coming along prepared to take our places in the fields of Christian service, homemaking and social service.

Furthermore, our major emphasis in our new program will be to give to Church women, who have not had the basic and necessary training, for efficient work in the fields in which they are now trying to give leadership, the type and quality of training that will enable them to do their work efficiently. There are thousands of them with native ability and profound devotion to Church work, but they need training for this day.

Our courses will be arranged and timed, for women who cannot remain away from home or church for a full school year (October to June). Many who are in dire need of more education and professional training, can and will make the sacrifice to spend the months of October and November in school and return to home and Church duties for the month of December. Return February 1st to School, for a continuation of their training for two more months (February-March), and back to their homes and Church to apply what they have learned, then return to SUMMER SCHOOL FOR SIX WEEKS. This may seem to require much coming and going, but it does amount to a great deal of coming to something and going with something to do something, which in the end, will enable the learners to amount to something.

The present army of Church women are obviously unprepared for the leadership which they have assumed. The courses which we propose to offer are the only answers to the present embarrassing leadership situation in Negro Churches.

The women are carrying the load and carrying it without light. Our new program will be geared and set to meet this challenging need of better prepared leadership. There are entirely too many young women in Church work who, for various reason, had to discontinue their formal education. Such a schedule and select courses as we offer, done intensively, will fit them for satisfactory leadership in the fields in which they are now trying to work without any special training.

SCHEDULE: (Would read like this)—

October-November—in school
December-January—at home
February-March-April—in school
May-June—at home
July—Summer School

thus giving six full months in school, and six full months of service at home and Church for a period of three consecutive years.

We believe this "in service training" will meet the need for additional training, and bridge the gap for Church women while on the job. Teenagers who can put in full time from October to June will be offered the full time's schedule, with standard courses herein listed.

We are determined, in this expansion program, to provide for actual needs of women and girls who are determined to prepare for efficient leadership in Christian Social Service.

For all of these advances, we shall definitely need more financial help. The school at Washington is a practical demonstration of how people can help themselves. On the basis of what we have done through the years, we go forth now to seek adequate income for a new program. If we continue to trust God, He will send us "gems of purest ray serene" to prepare for the fields that are already "white unto harvest."

The race is in dire need of a quality of trained Christian women in our homes, schools, churches and communities, that will give flight to the tragic problems that now confront the entire race.

DEDICATION—OPENING—SUMMER INSTITUTE

We have the promise that the new dormitory will be ready for dedication in December. This is not the best season, but we will be so glad to have it, that we might wade through snow to turn it over to God.

We shall begin full operation just as soon after the dedication as is practicable. The Summer Institute will open July 5th, as usual, but with more of everything.

A SUGGESTION

I pass on to you in this message, a memorandum that I have submitted to Dr. J. H. Jackson for the National Baptist Convention, Inc. It is my hope the suggestion will receive very careful consideration.

I suggest that the time of the Annual meeting of the Convention be changed from Wednesday before the Second Sunday in September to the Third or Fourth Week in August. My reasons are as follows:

1. Our Public Schools and colleges open the first week in September. Teachers, who are active all the year in our Churches, cannot attend our Convention. Parents are greatly inconvenienced or even prevented from attending our annual meeting. Young people of college grade cannot attend. This is a large, highly qualified group. They need the Convention and the Convention needs them.
2. Business men and women and other workers are returning from their vacations and are compelled to go to their business and employments that week.
3. Ministers are tapering off their vacations and it is not a good time, psychologically, to get the quality of interest out of them at the end of a vacation, that the Convention needs to plan and promote its work.
4. For business, it is inconvenient, a waste of time and expensive. Those who must go ahead and set up for the opening of the Convention, on Wednesday, lose almost three days—Saturday, Sunday and Labor Day—marking time in the Convention City. Very little can be done with local business concerns and workmen. And now that we are compelled to meet in municipal auditoriums, we cannot get in the building to do any real work before Tuesday. This allows us only one day to set up for operation. Nothing can be done on Labor Day in Union buildings. Too often, our working staff is "hanging around" Saturday, Sunday and Monday because they cannot get in the auditorium or attend to very much other business. I give you these brief notes but a true picture of the school and its present condition and future outlook. The graduates of this institution have taken their places in the various fields for which they are trained. We are justly proud of the records and achievements of any number of them. We shall soon tell the story in a little booklet. The test of the quality of work done by any institution is what their graduates have done with what they received.
5. Finally, the mind of the entire nation is homeward, schoolward and workward—not Conventionward. We are the only large body or any body of importance, for that matter, that meets in September. There is no real advantage in meeting Wednesday after Labor Day.

I, therefore, submit that a change of time would be advantageous and profitable.

WORLD DAY OF PRAYER

February 25th was the day. Material was sent to hundreds of Missionary Societies. The reports do not show that we sense the great importance of this International Day of Prayer.

We repeat again and again, our purpose is not to have separate WORLD DAY OF PRAYER meetings. Wherever the two races can meet together for this High Day, they should by all means do it. What we want is Prayer, and the people will pray if we speak their language and create the desire and the atmosphere. No congregation is so small or so weak that it cannot hold a few hours of fellowship and communication with God.

The 1956 WORLD DAY OF PRAYER is FEBRUARY 17. Send for material. Let us pray. The Theme is "One Flock—One Shepherd"—John 10:14. United Church Women say in the call:—

He speaks to each of us and to us all.
We are of many races and tribes . . .
yet of one world.
We speak in varied tongues . . .
but with one understanding
We pray with unfaltering hope—and to one Guide and Shepherd.

On the World Day of Prayer
His goodness is unfailing;
let us join in thankful praise,
His grace is all sufficient;
let us, then, confession raise,
His plan for man is perfect;
let us mediate and pray,
His way is peace and brotherhood;
let us dedicate our way.
And let us find it in our hearts to pray with Christians here and everywhere in the World
Day of Prayer that, the time may more quickly come when there will be one flock, one Shepherd."

Let us plan and have a great day—"together."

"In England, as in America, audience uniformly rise when choirs begin to sing the Hallelujah Chorus in the Oratorio of the Messiah. In Albert Hall, London, a great audience was assembled. Victoria, the Great and the Good, was present in the royal box. The audience rose, but the noble queen remained seated. Soon every eye was directed to the royal box in which sat the queen. On rolled the magnificent chorus: but the queen remained seated. Higher still rose the lofty song; onward swept the glorious music. With curious glances, the audience turned to the royal box in which the queen remained seated. Loftier still rose the celestial notes. Now the song reached the part where Christ is praised as "King of kings and Lord of lords." The swelling song puts the crown of universal dominion on His divine brow. Then the noble queen arose and stood with bowed head, as if she would cast the crown of her mighty empire at the pierced feet of her divine Lord.

Creation and revelation, art and science, song and story, learning and genius, and all earthly rulers reach their noblest heights when they bend in lowliest reverence at the feet of Jesus Christ."

Let us join the mighty crusade to bring this world-filling event to pass.

AT THE CROSSROAD IN CHRISTIAN AND PUBLIC EDUCATION

What does it mean to be at the crossroads? What kind of experience is it, and how does one feel when he is at the crossroads? As one who has had this experience several times, I can assure you that it is a very unpleasant experience and one which gives rise to feelings of uncertainty, unrest and anxiety. A person at the crossroad is in doubt as to which course to take; and he is afraid to pursue any course at all, lest it turns out to be the wrong course, with the result that after traveling 30 or 40 miles he discovers that he is going wrong and has to retrace all this distance to the starting point and set out on a new course.

On the highway there is no condition so perplexing as coming to a crossroad and not knowing which course to take. If there are curves in the road, we can rely upon our skill in negotiating them; if there are hills or mountain slopes to climb, the modern high-powered motor will take us up them; and if there are rough places in the road, we can slow down and ease over them. But the thing that brings us to wits end is to become stranded at the crossroad.

Just as we come to the crossroad in traveling the highway, we have come to the crossroad in providing for Christian and public education. And many of the problems with which we are confronted at the crossroad are the same for both Christian and public education. Some of the most serious problems with which we are faced are the following:

1. Increasing Demands for Education

At no time before in the history of the world has education for every member of society been such a vital necessity as it is today. The machine age and the forces of change have rendered it well nigh impossible to secure employment without an education. And this situation is destined to become even more acute in the future. Furthermore it has become impossible for a person to function effectively in society without both Christian education and public education. Many people are inclined to think that secular education alone will suffice, but most of our difficulties have come from persons in high positions with informed minds and selfish hearts, and persons with hot heads and cold hearts.

2. Inadequate Funds for the Support of Education

Along with the increasing demands for education has come an increase in the cost of buildings, personnel and facilities for education. Far more technical and modern facilities are needed as well as better trained personnel than a generation ago. And yet many members of our constituency give money for the support of education in the same amounts as their parents did a generation ago. Thus the differential between the cost and support of education has become so great that many of our schools have been forced out of existence. When we observe the many fine cars, fine homes, televisions and expensive amusements enjoyed by our people, we know that this condition has resulted from lack of insight into the value and need of education rather than from the lack of money with which to support it.

We have plans underway now for merging the two schools in Nashville, the National Baptist Missionary Training School and the American Baptist Theological Seminary. This condition has resulted from inadequate support for the two schools. We know that Negro Baptists are financially able to support these two schools, but we have been unable to get them to do it, thus we are having to merge the schools into one.

The process of merging two schools involves a number of delicate problems and is not nearly so easy as it may appear on the surface. In the merger you can unwittingly do something to offend one group or the other and thus cut off that group's support.

A few years ago the Methodist Church undertook to merge two of its schools in Texas, Samuel Huston and Tillotson. The merger was a slow and difficult process. However, it has been completed now and the school is operating normally. But those who have been close by know what difficulty was involved.

3. Integration in Education and Society

More than a decade before the Supreme Court rendered its historic decision it had become apparent that if all American citizens were to be adequately provided for the dual system of education and the dual system in everything else must be abandoned. Inasmuch as there is no uniformity in implementing the "how" and "when" decrees of the Supreme Court's decision by the respective states affected, it should be the duty of all true Americans to embark upon a program of racial understanding to the end that peaceful and effective integration will become a reality very soon. This pattern must, of necessity, extend to all areas of life and living where minority groups dwell. Education is just one segment of American life. The fight must pervade the fields of housing, religion, transportation, recreation and health.

No court can adequately legislate against human behavior. There must be a re-birth, a re-education, and a re-affirmation to the principles of democracy, for such legislation to be fruitful. Laws will not, and cannot work, unless the people are prepared to accept them. Ours, then, is the task of preparing the people to accept the law and thus implementing the decisions of the High Court, and extending its principles to all areas, making life easier and richer for minorities and at the same time changing the attitudes of the majority.

In his recent address in the NAACP National Convention, Vice President Richard M. Nixon explained how it is possible to get the schools desegregated and still not get them integrated. He said that desegregation can come through legislation and pressure, but integration must come through re-education and sharing. He gave examples of school systems in Connecticut and New Hampshire where they have always had desegregation, but still don't have integration. "Integration does not exist in the schools," said he, "until both students and teachers have the freedom to participate and hold office and positions of distinction in all aspects of the school program."

We have come to a great crisis today. We are in the midst of a revolution in education, a revolution such as we have not had before in the history of this country. And Negro teachers are bearing the brunt of it. For example, the NAACP has before it right now 67 cases where Negro teachers have been denied contracts for this school term and school is already open. In two states the state directors of education have sworn that they will close all the schools before they will permit Negro teachers to teach white children. Yes, we are in the midst of a mighty crisis and we are faced with some of the gravest and most perplexing problems in history, but my message to you today is—while we are in a mighty crisis, we are serving a mightier God, in fact, the Almighty God. Paul said in Phil.: "I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me." That must be our motto, too. There is very little we can do ourselves, whether individually or collectively. But in collaboration with God, we can do all things.

Now, recognizing the fact that we are at the crossroad in Christian and public education, what shall we do about it? Shall we remain there in despair? What source of direction do we need to get us away from there and on our way to the attainment of our goal? Well, we need leadership. A signboard at the crossroad helps by pointing out the right way, but this is all it does. It remains there to point out the way to other travelers. But we need more than this; we need leadership. A leader is better than a signboard, for in addition to pointing the way, he goes along with us and ahead of us and gives direction all the way.

Now that we know what we need in order to get started from the crossroad in the right direction, let me suggest some specific things which we can do to accelerate our progress toward our goal.

1. Let us follow the leaders whom God has given us more closely and more faithfully.
2. Let us contribute more liberally to the support of Christian education.
3. Let us improve education in the public schools by working diligently in the P.T. A and boosting the schools and school personnel rather than adversely criticizing them.
4. Let us exert every ounce of our energy and influence to accelerate the process of integration in the schools and everywhere else.
5. Let us keep up our memberships in the NAACP and contribute liberally to the Walter White Memorial Fund.
6. If you are not in accord with the efforts of the NAACP and other agencies to bring about integration, just keep silent and don't play the role of an Uncle Tom.
7. Whenever you find an opportunity to do a good deed for someone who is mean and ugly toward you, by all means do it, for by so doing you will heap coals of fire upon his head which he cannot long endure.
8. Pray earnestly to God for strength and insight during this time of crisis. We need both human and divine leadership. We need divine leadership because human understanding is too limited; human foresight is too short; and human strength is too weak.
9. Finally, let us do the things we can do while we call upon God to do for us the things we cannot do. "Trust in the Lord with all thine heart, and lean not unto thine own understanding. In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths."

LOYALTY

"I can do all things through Christ which strengthens me."—Philippians 4:13.

The word 'loyalty' rings as a familiar bell in the ears of all society; as we are challenged in life to be loyal to our Government, loyal to our home, loyal to our church, loyal to our God.

In meeting this challenge, we are apt to become frustrated in our spiritual values, lest we acknowledge the fact that 'not by might nor by power, but by the Spirit of the Mightier God can the mighty problem be solved, the mighty challenge be faced.' Unity of Saints: Christ that dwell in me. Paul's desire to win men for Christ.

I. In these demands of loyalty there must be a unifying purpose in our activities.

It is the purpose running through the plans of a man which makes it possible for him to succeed. There is a great story to this effect that a certain society in South Africa wrote David Livingstone, "Have you found a good road to where you are?" "If so, we want to know how to send men to join you." Livingstone wrote in reply, "If you have men who will come only if they know there is a good road, I don't want them. I want men who will come if there is no road at all." The call is for men who are loyal to a purpose in life. "Thy Kingdom come, thy will be done in earth as it is in heaven."

Isaiah is at his fullest stature when in a fearful crisis he calls his nation from a military alliance with Egypt whose people he says, are men and not God, and whose horses are flesh and not spirit, to a reliance on God and on eternal resources. "In returning and rest shall ye be saved; in quietness and confidence shall be your strength." Do all thing

II. Our Loyalty must be to an Altruistic Program

Evangelization of World Vanity Universal Religion.

The Christian today must stand for a program that seeks the welfare of others. If we are to assist God in building His Kingdom in earth it is in heaven we must speak of God in the present tense. We must live by truths and convictions that are grounded in our own experience. We must bear a living spiritual witness of a heavenly vision. Men are growing hungry on the bread of materialism and they are crying for the true bread of life. We must help them. Let us invite them to the Way of Christ, for it was His life that was the light of men.

We are moved tremendously by the many needs of society. The greatest of these needs is a loyalty to the Spiritual Outlook.

The Christian today faces the fact that the most important, constructive work laid upon him is in the serious task of helping to restore faith in the actual reality of God, and in the fundamental spiritual nature of the world. There is no substitute for the transforming power and the inward depth which an irresistible first-handed conviction of God gives to man.

Carlyle, in his usual vivid fashion, says that "One man with faith in God is stronger, not than ten men that is not, nor than ten thousand, but than all men that have not faith."

III. The Christian's Supreme Loyalty is to Jesus Christ.

We cannot reveal the whole story by showing the Christian's loyalty to an altruistic purpose. There is something finer and greater than this. That is the Christian's devotion to Jesus Christ. He cares greatly for the redemption of the world. The Gospel is his great cause. His principles are righteousness and truth. But all of these are subordinate to His loyalty to his God.

We have shared many great experiences this week in the sessions of this great convention. We have thrown our many problems in the melting-pot of understanding, hoping to arrive at a solution that we may take us to our various places of service.

We have been challenged by the varied experiences of our fellow-man in a yielded life to God. Now that we are preparing to leave this mountain-top fellowship, to the valley of service, let us share the convictions of two pioneers of faith.

First the Prophet of the Old Testament, Zacharias. "... not by might, nor by power, but by my spirit saith the Lord of Hosts."—Zach. 4:6.

Secondly, the Apostle of the New Testament, Paul. "I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me."—Phil. 4:13.

A man can face anything loyally, when he knows that behind every frowning cloud there is the smiling face of God.

We are challenged by the many solutions society is being offered to better itself. The Christian knows that the only way out is to lay aside the thoughts of the might and power of man and embrace a living faith in the Spirit of God. It is the fundamental mission of the Christian church to cultivate such a spiritual experience with God through Christ which strengtheneth us, that we challenge the whole world to God's revealed way of life.

The Fifth Annual Report

OF

ESTHER WALKER TYREE

OF THE

Womans Convention

Auxiliary to the National Baptist Convention

U. S. A., Inc.

This Report Was Made at Memphis, Tenn., on September 8, 1955.

To our President, Dr. Nannie Helen Burroughs, Officers, Delegates and Friends of the Woman's Convention, Aux., N.B.C., U.S.A., Inc.

Greetings:

Certain emotions are involved when one comes to the end of a year to report on a responsibility that has been a delightful one in Christian Service and rich in fellowship and love. It is with deep humility that I say:

Lord, give me faith:—
to live from day to day,
With tranquil heart to do my simple part,
And, with my hand in thine,
just go Thy way.

—John Oxenham

TO THOSE GONE HOME, SINCE LAST WE MET

With grief at the loss of their immediate presence, but with faith in the eventual reunion of all believers in the presence of the Lord, we bow our heads in humble submission to the Will of the Lord.

"So teach us to number our days that we may get a heart of wisdom."

THE OFFICE

If one believes in signs, I have every reason to know of your growth because of your increased interest in the all over program of the Woman's Convention, Aux., N.B.C., U.S.A., Inc., the repeated requests for suggestions for social missionary programs and the general increase in communications.

With the exception of the weeks I was in Europe, never a day passes that some work is not done for the Woman's Convention.

I have posted 5,783 letters to Women of the Convention and I have traveled 17,480 miles. Activities have included attendance at Board Meetings in Hot Springs and Atlantic City, attendance at State Meetings upon invitation, delivering youth day addresses, Women's Day addresses and conducting workshops and institutes.

THE HILL

"Beautiful for situation, the joy of the whole earth" Psalm 48, describes to me adequately the building which is being erected on "The Hill" in Washington, Lincoln Heights.

Dr. F. Townley Lord, President of the B. W. A., stated in his message in London, "Ideas are abroad in the earth and ideas have power." Yes, ideas have power. Dr. Nannie Helen Burroughs had an idea, an idea for a school, and the power of that idea has trained more Negro foreign students for Christian Service than any other like school in America, the power of that idea is erecting an additional building on the campus of that school which takes second place to none in the country. In architectural construction, in workmanship, in modern equipment, in harmonious beauty it is the best. And after its completion other ideas, powerful ideas will be born from the instruction given at the school in keeping with the best Christian educational tradition.

And on "The Hill" each summer is held the "Christian Workers' Institute, teaching and training women and girls for leadership. The measure of a woman's real consecration is determined by the degree to which she seeks opportunities for personal growth. "Study to show thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed." II Timothy 2:15.

MISSIONS (Foreign)

If one will refer to the "Historic Background" of the National Baptist Convention U. S. A., Inc., one will find that of the three Negro Baptist organizations, claiming national status, in 1895, two were doing missionary work.

1. The Baptist Foreign Mission Convention, which up to that time had been doing missionary work on the West Coast of Africa.
2. The National Baptist Convention which had done its missionary work in the United States up to this time.

Today we are, through our Foreign Mission Committee, Mrs. Alice L. Browne, Chairman, raising funds for the Foreign Mission Board of the N.B.C., U.S.A., Inc., and board being a member of the Division of Foreign Missions of the N.B.C., U.S.A.

The Division of Foreign Missions is one of the largest constituent councils which make up the International Missionary Council, so through our efforts we are co-operating with and assisting the Mission endeavors of the World. Eighty three million five hundred thousand dollars, plus, is contributed each year by America's Protestant Churches.

However, we have a closer tie with Africa. Africa presents our challenge. The late Dr. George W. Carpenter, Ex. Secy., of the Africa Committee for the N. C. C., U. S. A., Division of Foreign Mission, states:

"Racialism, human exploitation and Christian Division are the 'three great sins' being committed by the white race in Africa. These sins are a reproach and a challenge to the whole church universal and to the conscience of Christians wherever they may be. The tensions and conflicts in Africa today amount to a revolution, a revolution that is racial, cultural, economic, social, political and religious all at the same time."

Thwarted and foiled in the attempt to advance into the culture and economy of 1925 Africa retaliates by the horrors of Mau-Mau in Kenya.

We, the members of the Woman's Convention have a responsibility to our sisters and brothers in Africa.

To the degree that we abolish racial discrimination and segregation in America it must be abolished in Africa. Human exploitation in Africa is the modern counterpart of slavery. The Christ of Africa must be the true Christ.

It is befitting that for the coming year (1955-1956) the Foreign Mission Theme shall be "The Christian Mission in a Revolutionary World."

MISSIONS (Home)

The Committee on Home Missions, Mrs. F. A. Chappelle, chairman, Mrs. M. J. Thomas, Co-Chairman has the great responsibility of charting the course for the outreach of the churches with the Christian Message to the needy and unreached in America. This done primarily through Regional Institutes.

There are many areas of concern of which we ought to be aware when planning our local mission institutes and programs:

1. Migration of Negroes into sparsely populated areas such as Oregon, Nevada, Wyoming, Idaho and portions of Colorado.
2. The decreasing membership in rural churches.
3. Low Income Farm Families.

The Bureau of Research and Survey has prepared a Study of Low Income Farm Families for the Department of Town and Country Church of the N.C.C.C., U.S.A., and should be studied by local leaders. References have been made to our National Convention and local churches. Are you effectively discharging your responsibility in these areas of great concern?

MEETINGS ATTENDED

NATIONAL COUNCIL OF THE CHURCHES OF CHRIST IN THE U. S. A.

Shiloh Baptist Church, the Rev. Dr. James W. Parrish, Minister, assisted financially with my attendance to The Third Convention of the National Council of Churches of Christ in the U.S.A., which was held in Boston, Mass., Nov 27th to Dec. 3rd, 1954. Twenty-five hundred church men and women representing thirty-five and one-half million Protestant and Orthodox Church members were represented in this meeting by clergymen, laymen and laywomen. The Convention faced the urgent need of churches doing together in the field of evangelism and in understanding world problems, with the ultimate hope of achieving brotherhood, world peace and in maintaining American Freedom.

The real battles of Christian Faith today are being fought in shops, factories, offices, farms and in countless homes where Christian laity work for their daily bread.

"The laity are not mere fragments of the church scattered about in the world who come together for worship, instruction, and specifically Christian fellowship on Sundays. The laity represent the church wherever they are. In the Christian home the resources of the whole church are united with the tasks and rewards of the work-a-day world."

A citation was presented to the United Church Women, of which the Woman's Convention, Aux., N. B. C., U. S. A., Inc., is a member, for "pioneering vision and outstanding public service."

To me the challenge of this meeting was a statement contained in a committee report:

"We must strengthen our churches spiritually lest they deteriorate into mere clubs"

UNITED CHURCH WOMEN

Representing United Church Women of Ohio I attended the meeting of the Board of Managers in The Sheraton Hotel, St. Louis, Missouri, April 26-27, 1955. Mrs. Mary O. Ross, 1st Vice President, attended representing the Division of Home Missions.

"The work of United Church Women is growing immeasurably. There is a clearer understanding on the part of church women of the responsibilities facing them as Christian citizens of today." The Woman's Convention, Aux., N.B.C., U.S.A., Inc., makes a very acceptable contribution to the work of United Church Women.

Action was taken in areas of our specific concern such as:

Voted that whereas the pattern of segregation in housing negates the implementation of the Supreme Court decision on segregation in the public schools, we urge councils of church women to work for legislation which will abolish segregation in any housing which receives state or federal assistance.

Mrs. James D. Wyker, president gave her first impressions and reactions from her visit to other countries. She spoke of the glory of the church as found around the world, with Christian men and women working together, and stressed the need for unity. Women all around the world are stirring, Mrs. Wyker said, and feel they should take their place as full companions to their husbands. It is hoped that the churches will take advantage of this stirring of women. Mrs. Wyker spoke of the wonderful witness of African Christians in the trouble in Kenya and that members of the darker race were looking to America for leadership and that Negroes of America must give that leadership.

Wherever there is a council of United Church Women, become members. Under no circumstance must one set up a Negro Council. Councils of Church Women are inter-racial and inter-denominational. The Seventh National Assembly of United Church Women will be held in Cleveland, Ohio, Nov. 7-10, 1955.

THE BAPTIST WORLD ALLIANCE

Before the close of the year thousands of reports will be added to those already given and maybe a few will attempt to cover the entire Jubilee Congress of the Baptist World Alliance.

There are some things that however one tries, one just cannot relate to others, the thrill of an experience such as was given by this meeting.

First, I want to say that I am and shall ever be grateful to my husband, Mr. J. Lawrence Tyree, for opening his heart and purse and paying the total amount necessary for my tour.

Crossing the Atlantic on the "World's Wonder Ships" the Queen Mary and Queen Elizabeth is an education in itself.

Upon entering the red brick Royal Albert Hall, where the first Congress of the Baptist World Alliance was held July 17, 1905 one saw high overhead placed upon the insignia of the Baptist World Alliance the Golden Jubilee theme:—"Jesus Christ, the same yesterday, today and forever." Hebrews 13:8. Rev. F. Townley Lord, D.D., D.Litt., President, presided over all the sessions assisted by the Rev. C. Oscar Johnson, D.D., L.L.D., Past President and the Vice Presidents.

Approximately nine thousand Baptists from sixty countries lifted their voices together in that great hymn "All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name." I noticed through the entire meeting the singing was superb, and was uplifting and sometimes one would see a tear drop as the great hymns of the church were sung. "Praise to the Lord," "Glorious Things," "Crown Him," "Beneath the Cross." Some of the Hymns were sung to tunes unfamiliar to us, but we learned them, sometimes each group sang to the one tune, but in words of their native country. Glorious were the praises to God.

There we were together, all colors, races and nationalities assembled together to bear testimony before the world, together, that we, too, had received from the fullness of Christ and that the riches of grace are available to all men. In the devotional message it was stated by Rev. Gilbert Laws, "The Alliance is not a fusion, nor even a federation. It is a fellowship." There we were together in Christian fellowship. We realized that the fullness of Christ is revealed in the fellowship among his followers.

We also realized that the fellowship of the Baptist World Alliance is not perfect even as the fellowship in our local societies, churches and convention is not perfect. We do not understand each other as we should. We do not love each other as we ought to love. We sometimes quarrel over trivial things and neglect many of the things which really matter. Sometimes we insist on being right, rather than doing right.

The Jubilee Service was held Sunday afternoon. A very memorable service, marred, however, because the only living person who had been on the program fifty years ago, Dr. Nannie Helen Burroughs, was not present. Thoughtful and correct as always; she had sent a cablegram of regret.

Mrs. Mary O. Ross, First Vice President, prayed for God's Divine blessing on the meeting.

Delegates sat speechless as the Rev. J. H. Jackson, D.D., president N. B. C., U. S. A., Inc., addressed that large audience on "Christ in Everyday Life." Dr. Jackson stated:

"Ours is a tragic age; men are starving where there is plenty to eat. Men long for peace yet prepare for war. Peace will never come as long as one nation of people takes delight in holding another in economic, political, and spiritual bondage. . . . Let the church seize its responsibility while it is yet time; for if we fail, the penalty is ours."

SECTIONAL MEETINGS FOR WOMEN

When I received the program for the Woman's Meeting I had an unusual experience. I had been hoping and praying that President Burroughs would attend the meeting although I knew the work she has done for us has taken much of her physical strength and a trip such as this would further tax her. But I wanted her there, and I thought and felt and of course I knew, something was missing without her. So when I looked at the theme, I seem to feel her presence, and I almost could hear her say, "Expect Great Things From God—Attempt Great Things For God."

Oh, how many times we have heard her say those words. Then I knew, I just know, President Burroughs had something to do with that theme, that program. Can't you hear her say, "And It Came to Pass," "Lengthen thy Cords?" And then to reflect the extent of the influence of President Burroughs, the length of her cords, the president of the newly formed Baptist Women's Union of Africa is a graduate of the National Trade and Professional School, Lincoln Heights, Washington, D. C. Dr. Nannie Helen Burroughs, President.

Dr. F. Townley Lord stated to the Women at the Monday meeting. "If it were not for the women, we men would collapse."

Chairman, Mrs. George R. Martin presided and gave her report, an extract which I quote:

"We rejoice in the progress made through the organization of Continental Unions. In 1948, in the City of London, the Women's Committee of the Alliance was reorganized for the third time. Determined that this fellowship of faith and love should never be broken again, the leaders decided to form Continental Unions. Australian Baptist women were already organized on the continental basis. The European Baptist Women's Union was formed in 1948. Challenged by their European sisters, the North American Baptist women met first in 1951. In November, 1953, they held their first general rally in Columbus, Ohio, and perfected there the organization of the North American Baptist Women's Union. In the summer of 1953, Baptist women of Latin America met in three divisions to form the Latin American Baptist Women's Union. On Wednesday of last week, the Baptist Women's Union of Africa was formed, this being our youngest Continental Union. The Australian Union has assumed the responsibility of helping to organize the women of the Isles of the Sea.

"Organization must be implemented by information and concerted action. Through a quarterly newsletter, valuable information concerning the history, methods of work, undertakings, and achievements of each National Women's Union has been disseminated.

"In our meetings this week we paused to sound the note of thanksgiving for what has been done during the past five years. Soon after the European Union was formed, a week of prayer was instituted in which nearly all members of that group participated. Testimonies concerning the influence of that season of prayer produced the desire on the part of other groups to join in a concert of prayer around the world. In 1950 it was decided to issue a Call to Prayer to all Baptist Women. No program was prepared for that first Day of Prayer. In 1951 a special committee was asked to prepare a printed program, including requests for prayer for all parts of the world, and an outlined suggested program for this December day of intercession. During this Jubilee year of the Alliance, we are calling our women to preparation through prayer. We urge every society to observe the whole Day of Prayer in December. We have sent out each quarter, suggestions for Daily Bible Reading and Prayer. We suggest that each day we pray for the work of the Alliance. We pray that our eyes may be opened to the ripened, bending harvest fields of the world and that out of this travail of prayer may be born a new soul of stewardship in our missionary task."

From the many reports and addresses that were read, I gleaned the following information:

Jamaica, the "Isle of Springs" has set a pattern of racial solidarity and oneness in Christ. There is no national, no legal, and no educational discrimination and no spiritual barriers. The seed sown by George Lisle grew and spread rapidly inasmuch that that Jamaica has sent Missionaries to Africa and Central America.

There have never been so many refugees in Europe as now. We as Baptists must do what we can to prevent war which makes refugees. And we must protect against all persecution for religious or political reasons which still forces many to leave the lands where they were born.

Korea was a united kingdom for more than 4,000 years. There has never been a place bombed as heavily as Korea.

There are today in Korea:

- 100,000 Orphans
- 300,000 Fatherless families
- 200 Pastors killed
- 600,000 Homes destroyed
- 3,000,000 T. B. children
- 10,000,000 Refugees existing in homes of straw and mud.

Catholicism has been stronger than before the war, and it has inexhaustible resources.

Baptist refugees are wandering here and there to find help. Most of them are from North Korea.

Half of the World's population is in Asia, 1,160 millions of them are living in God's World without a knowledge of Him. Asia is in need of a Leader, a Christian Leader. Asiatics are not an irreligious people, they have had a religious standing of some 4,000 years, but they need to know the Christian Religion.

Assam is one of the most productive mission fields we have today. The council of Baptist Churches in Assam and Manipur binds together some 1,800 Baptist Churches having a membership of 1,042,000. There is a dearth of trained workers to minister spiritually to nearly 4,050,000 within the Baptist fold.

The Baptist Missionary Society of Great Britain has 19 main stations in Belgian Congo and Portuguese Angola, with 40,000 Church members.

The American Baptist Foreign Missionary Society of the U.S.A., has eight main stations with thousands of members. Church work is financially self supporting. All pastors, overseers and teacher evangelists are paid from African Church funds. The greatest need is for a trained African Ministry.

Twenty-seven years ago Dr. Mullins in his presidential address put a question that is still pertinent to consider. He asked "Is our life in Christ strong enough and constructive enough to survive?"

Today Africa trembles with political excitement as it shakes off the shackles of the past and moves toward greater freedom. The continent still presents a checkered pattern with some area free, others rapidly nearing self government, and still others under the repressive heel of reactionary regimes. But all over Africa the people are dreaming of a new continent in which all men shall walk upright in the land where they were born and be free to use the fruits of their own soil.

RESOLUTIONS PASSED

1. Urged each Baptist to "make an honest effort to win at least one soul for Jesus Christ during the coming year."
2. Passed, at the urging of Russian Delegates, a warning about the danger of war and nuclear weapons.
3. Declared itself "unalterably opposed to racial discrimination in every form."
4. Resolved that "intolerant churches and systems of religious organizations can be as grave a menace to liberty as governments."

Four sturdy pillars undergirding our Baptist fellowship:

1. The authority of the Scriptures.
2. The church as a fellowship of believers.
3. Freedom of Conscience.
4. Evangelism as the unfinished task of the church.

As I come to the end of this report, may I lift from the keynote address of The Rev. Lawrence A. North "The Changeless Christ in a Changing World," words which will remain with me as a message from the Golden Jubilee Congress of the Baptist World Alliance. He said:

1. Christ "is unchanging in the love which made Him one with us."
2. Christ "is unchanging in His power to save."
3. Christ "is unchanging in His authority."

"It is our supreme good to trust Him, our supreme duty to obey him, our supreme privilege to serve Him."

He is to be trusted in the last limit of our earthly life and beyond. He is to be served to the last limit of our earthly powers—and then beyond. He is Jesus Christ the same yesterday and today and forever."

Respectfully submitted,

CHALLENGES of the BAPTIST WORLD'S ALLIANCE

REPORT ON THE BAPTIST WORLD ALLIANCE AND TRIP TO THE HOLY LAND

PRIMROSE FUNCHES

On July 8 we sailed aboard the SS America from New York for Southampton, England, arriving there Friday, July 15. From Southampton we continued by boat and train to London, where our stay was from July 16 through the 22nd.

We were honored to attend the World Baptist Alliance. We experienced the scene of Baptist gatherings and it is here that we observed a cross-section of Baptist brain and thought plus that indescribable something which holds Baptists together.

We like to refer to it as that New Testament spirit left by Jesus which initiated the early church. In London where East met West and North met South, there was a persuading spirit of unity which captivated the entire delegation. The scholarly addresses and spirit-filled singing were moving to the frigid heart. The president, Dr. H. Townley Lord, presided with such dignity and splendor that all were eager to concede that he was a master at the art. I was blessed to be present for the third time to join in singing the famous opening song of the Alliance, "All Hail the Power of Jesus Name."

We experienced one of the finest array of notables throughout all England, who extended warm words of welcome. Among this group were the Archbishop of Canterbury, President of British Baptists' Unions, etc. Special greetings were sent to Her Majesty the Queen, and the leaders of the Summit Conference at Geneva. Despite the thousands of delegates present from all walks and stations of life, there was one personality whose absence was most conspicuous. That personality is that of Dr. Nannie Helen Burroughs. The Congress paused to send special greetings to her to register its sentiments, love, prayer, and best wishes. We were proud of all our leaders present, but we missed her dynamic leadership. Leaders are born and not made; and Dr. Burroughs is a born leader of women.

It was very educational to hear from the Baptists from thirty countries and five continents (8,000 delegates, 60 nations) and how they brought first-hand information on the progress, status, and quality of work in their areas. There were 635 delegates from the National Baptist Convention. It was gratifying to witness that under the influence of the Spirit of Christ, race, nationality, and places of birth lost their meaning. Messengers from all nationalities and races were heard with gladness.

The report will thoroughly corroborate this statement. The President's message dwelt with the history of the Alliance and the personalities which shared its progress and destiny. On this trip we were able to make a brief evaluation of our tour to Europe and the Holy Land. We were able to awake Christianity at its height and to see Christ magnified as the Saviour of the world. We were able to observe Judaism at its height in Israel and to note the power of Democracy throughout the world. To determine the nature of human relations, interfaith, interracial, and intergroup in various countries we found a strong tie among the people in Jordan, but they lack finance and support. The outgoing President of the World Baptist Alliance told 8,000 delegates at their golden jubilee congress why British Baptists take the World Council of Churches with a grain of salt. Said London Pastor F. Townley Lord: "We will pray and work with anybody for the extension of Christ's kingdom but we do not share the view of those who talk about the organizational division of Christendom as 'sin'." The Baptist church, he said is built on "the idea of a regenerate community." He maintained Baptists shouldn't sacrifice this or other essential principles in the name of "brotherly co-operation."

In the same address he flayed modern ideas hostile to Christian tradition. Today's children, he said, are encouraged to "dethrone the God of their fathers in favor of the nebulous diety of humanism." They are told "that mankind no longer needs a savior, that a little psychoanalyzing will do all that is necessary."

Before breaking up, the Baptists (among other things):

Passed a strong resolution on religious freedom. It drew attention to intolerance in Iron Curtain countries, Spain and parts of South America, without mentioning them by name.

Elected Dr. Theodore Adams, pastor Richmond, Va.'s First Baptist Church their new president.

Heard Billy Graham assert that the hearts and minds of men are prepared for the Gospel as "never before" in history.

New Prexy Adams said he hopes to bring the next world meeting to the U. S. in 1960. Baptist world membership has shot close to the 21 million mark.

The message which was really acclaimed its coronation address, despite the fact it was not so listed on the program, was that matchless message by our distinguished president, Dr. J. H. Jackson, who said: (Love—Hate—Hitching Post)

"There is no hitching post in the universe as we know of." For weak creatures who are the victims of cruel winds of adversity and who are exposed to the tidal waves of decay and the angry floods of affliction and death, this is not sufficient. We need a hitching post. We need something on to which we can tie in the darkness and wait while we work for the dawn of better things. We were taught to love and not hate. We thank God for that.

The general theme of the Congress was "Jesus Christ, the same Yesterday, and Today, and Forever." There were displays of this theme in five principle sequences:

The Changing World
The Unchanging World
The Abiding Gospel
The Enduring Church
The Continuing Faith

This is a portrayal of the aspects of Baptist enterprise in Preaching, Teaching,

Healing and Social Service, in the name of Christ, set against the background of the troubled world of the 20th century.

For this second opportunity to visit the Holy Land, I am deeply indebted to the National Baptist Convention. Oh, what an experience to again set my feet on the Holy Ground. If I had the full command of the whole English language I could never describe to you the emotion I felt as we stood and observed the Mount of Olivet, The Garden of Gethsemane, The Tomb of Our Lord, River of Jordan, Church of Nativity, Jacob's Well, and visit all over again the Holy City.

As I viewed, with tear-drenched eyes, the place of Ascension, the great purpose and hope of the London meeting blazed in my heart—to make our Lord known to every man, woman, and child throughout the whole world—That peace will come to every heart; That instead of bombs for war there would be atomic energy to help men and women to a more fruitful and peaceful livelihood; That instead of the Cold War there would be warm love; That instead of hatred among peoples there would exist fellowship and Christian behavior.

An appeal came from Dr. Lindsey, Missionary from Kentucky, representing the Southern Baptist Convention, of Jerusalem, asking for a young Negro couple to be sent to Jerusalem to work as Foreign Missioners. We wish in some way through our Foreign Mission Board this request can be granted.

Yes! The London meeting meant that, as I re-live and re-think each message, each song, each impression, and experience I grasped the meaning of the sacred words of Jesus, "And I, If I Be Lifted Up From The Earth, Will Draw All Men Unto Me."

So as I viewed the place of Ascension, I re-dedicated my life to the glorious privilege of lifting up Christ, that He may draw the World to Him. My dear beloved sisters, if only we would resolve HERE and NOW as members of this great Convention, as we go down from this Mount of Olivet to lift Christ up, yes, lift Him up high, for men to see—He will do the drawing—Yes, the wicked, the slowful, the careless and unconcerned will come crying as of old—men and brethren, what shall I do to be saved?

The meeting was a challenge. Every place we visited was a challenge. Every experience we had was a challenge to "Lift the Saviour Up"—Jesus Christ, the same yesterday, and today; and forever.—Song—"Lift Him Up."

So in the language of Russian Baptists who urged us to keep Jesus in the Church, "Jesus to the Church is what blood is to the body." Behind the Iron Curtain Christ in us is power, so let us lay aside hate and join hands with the women around the world to bring Christ in the hearts of the people of the world.

MRS. ETTA VERSA FRYE

What are challenges growing out of such a meeting—world wide in scope and interest.

I should like to call your attention to eight great challenges growing out of the London meeting:

1. We were challenged to a WORLD VISION in Missions. We can no longer limit our interest or concern in any one or two fields of interest. The WORLD is the field and no Christian is authorized to change that command.

2. To lift up Christ to the World. The reports made by representative Christians and Missionaries from all the continents. This was brought out amazingly forceful in a sermon by the Rev. Alexander Karer of Russia, whose sermon on "Christ in the Church" literally begged us as Baptists to keep Christ in the Church. As the blood is the life stream of the body, so the Church cannot live without Christ.

There are two ways of doing this: (a) Producing consecrated leaders—not by legislation, but as by-products of Missionary zeal. (b) Through programs of action as a means of making Christ known.

3. We must change and abandon the colonial concept in Missions. (This is the method where all the leadership on the Foreign Mission field is supplied from and by the supporting churches of Christian countries.)

The peoples of this world have become outspoken against all types of colonialism and the Challenge to Baptists is to help prepare native workers to lead in the building of indigenous churches.

4. To keep informed on what is taking place on the Mission fields.

I am sure no less than 40 per cent of the meeting periods during the Alliance were devoted to reports on the advance in missions.

5. Through prayer, motivation, training and opportunities for commitment, develop a reserve of potential missionaries among our youth both young men and young women.

6. To challenge more of our college students to Christian activity—by bringing them in from outer-fringe relationships—to help us work on problems of incompetence, non-cooperation and indifference.

7. To help young people find opportunities to use their abilities and capabilities in God's work.

8. Every delegate present must have experienced the challenge to live up to the heritage of pioneer Baptist leaders and missionaries such as William Carey, Spurgeon and Judson.

9. Lengthen the cords; Strengthen the stakes.

To God be the Glory!

"COMMITTED TO CHRIST"

Matt. 16:24, 25

Held at

WHITESTONE BAPTIST CHURCH

MEMPHIS, TENNESSEE

SEPTEMBER 6-11, 1955

Emphasis Hymn

TAKE MY LIFE, AND LET IT BE

Take my life, and let it be Consecrated Lord, to Thee;
Take my hands, and let them move
At the impulse of Thy love,
At the impulse of Thy love.

Take my feet, and let them be
Swift and beautiful for Thee;
Take my voice, and let me sing
Always only, for my King,
Always only, for my King.

Take my lips, and let them be Filled with messages from Thee;
Take my silver and my gold,
Not a mite would I withhold,
Not a mite would I withhold.

Take my love; my Lord, I pour
At Thy feet its treasure store;
Take myself, and I will be,
Ever, only, all for Thee,
Ever, only, all for Thee.

Young People's Department

MEMPHIS, TENNESSEE
 SEPTEMBER 7-10, 1956

Memphis, Tennessee
 September 7, 1955

The Thirtieth Annual Session of the Young People's Department of the Woman's Convention, Auxiliary to the National Baptist Convention, Inc., was opened at 9:12 a.m. by the President of the Young Woman's Auxiliary, Miss Lydia Mae Allen, presiding. Mrs. Grace Burt, director of music, led in a most inspirational song, "Draw Me Nearer," to set the minds in order for Convention time. Mrs. Grace Honper, worship leader, conducted the opening praise service. Mrs. Beatrice Bates from Ohio read the scripture, Matt. 6:24-25, prayer by Mrs. L. H. Hansboro from Texas. The praise service closed with the singing of "Spirit of the Living God."

Mrs. Etta Versa Frye, National Director, was presented by the president. Mrs. Frye extended greetings to the convention. She requested the music director to direct the audience in learning and singing one of the hymns that inspired her most at the World Baptist Alliance in London, England. "To God Be the Glory," was readily accepted and made a part of the convention. In continuing her greetings, Mrs. Frye stated that even at the age of 30, the Young People's Department is still young and ever growing.

Regional directors were introduced: Mrs. Bertha Winston, Baltimore, Md., Eastern Director; Miss Primrose Funches, Western Director, Chicago, Ill., and Mrs. Correne Watts of Birmingham, Ala., Southern Director. Junior officers were introduced.

The emphasis hymn for this year, "Take My Life and Let It Be," was led by Mrs. Burt.

Mrs. Winston, Mrs. Watts, and Miss Funches seated the delegates according to states.

Greetings from the State Directors of Tennessee were extended by Mrs. R. Dean King, Director of Eastern Division; Mrs. Susie Bryant, Tennessee Regular Convention. Both stated that Tennessee had done what they could to make us feel welcome.

General information period was conducted by the national director. The twenty-one committees and their chairman were named, amount of registration fees was given. Instructions for registration procedure were given.

The All States Tea will be held at Owens Junior College on the corner of Vance and Orleans Thursday evening. The Queen's Review will be held in the Auditorium.

The next feature on the program was "These Are Our Accomplishments":

1. In Mississippi—Vera Anderson, representative
 Supported Natchez College
 Ten point system
 Observed 30th Anniversary in the form of a Tea

2. In Louisiana—Mrs. F. H. King, representative
Established Kyles Scholarship fund in memory of director of Young People.
Divided state into three regions
3. In Kentucky—Lisa S. Martin, representative
Conducted Fellowship Training School
Special projects at Christmas
Fact-finding conference
4. In East Mississippi
Annual camp

Miss Arthur Lee McCloud of New Jersey sang "Thy Will Be Done."

Mrs. Annie Hudson, Ga., conducted the morning worship. Rev. Thomas Kilgore, Jr., of New York, our meditation speaker, spoke on our theme, "Committed to Christ." He stated that we all are demanded to be loyal. We are committed to God through Jesus Christ. There is no commitment without true love; we must have a deep sense of Him to whom we are committed. We must be committed to a living God; we must be committed to God who is light, we must be committed to God who is love.

The morning session closed with singing of our emphasis hymn "Take My Life and Let It Be."

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON

Mrs. Pearl Williams of Texas, first vice president, J.M.A., called the house to order at 1:30 p.m.

Miss Vera Anderson, Mississippi, led the singing of "What a Friend We Have in Jesus." The twenty-third psalm was repeated in unison. The following hymns were sung: "Yield Not to Temptation," "Pass Me Not O Gentle Savior," "Touch Me Lord Jesus."

Class period with Rev. C. L. Dinkins.

At 4:00 p.m. joint welcome program with the Woman's Convention in Mason Temple. The response from the Young People's Department was given by Miss Marie Bennett of Illinois.

WEDNESDAY EVENING

The evening session was called to order by Mrs. Gloria Wadlington of Illinois. Praise service was conducted by Miss Matilda Jones of Michigan. Hymn: "I Need Thee Every Hour"; scripture, Matt. 16:24-25; the praise service closed with the singing of "Where He Leads Me." Mrs. Minnie Lightfoot served as counselor.

Song fest led by Mrs. Burt.

These are our accomplishments:

- In the District of Columbia—Made and donated layettes and handkerchiefs to Oratorical Contest and Queen's review
- In Virginia—Absent
- In Pennsylvania—Absent
- In New Jersey
Recreation, music, health, missions
Arts and Craft Memorial fund for scholarship
Special emphasis on Christian mission.

Olivet Baptist Church sextett gave a beautiful rendition of "My Faith Looks Up to Thee."

Welcome program by the young people of the city. Miss Annie Williams, mistress of Ceremonies. Miss Annie Bell German brought greetings from the Methodist Churches. Mrs. Marie Adams extended greetings from the local Y.W.C.A. Miss Bubbie Jean Matthews brought words of welcome from the Youth Fellowship of the Memphis Sunday School and B.T.U. Congress. Miss Dora Buchanan very beautifully sang "I'd Rather Have Jesus." Miss Marie Bennett of Illinois, gave the response to the welcome.

Mrs. Burt led the audience in singing "Are Ye Able." Mrs. Sallie Wade Griffin of Mississippi, presented the speaker for the evening, Rev. C. L. Dinkins. He stated that young people should give God the credit for the good things in life. Regardless of age limit we are to become stronger as the years go by. Our hearts burned with joy after such a splendid and challenging message.

Miss Frezenia Patterson of Michigan sang "Let Us Break Bread Together." General information was given by Mrs. Frye.

The audience sang the emphasis hymn: "Take My Life and Let It Be." Benediction by Rev. C. L. Dinkins.

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 8, 1955

The Young People's Department opened its second day's session at 9:00 a.m. Mrs. Carrie Soward of Michigan, president of the J.M.A. presiding. Praise service was conducted by Mrs. J. B. Davis of Iowa and Miss Catherine Washington of Louisiana. Miss Marlene Wallace, Maryland, led us in the singing of "The Lord's Prayer" and "Keep Me Every Day."

Minutes were read by Miss Grace Hayes and Mrs. Catherine Washington and were received with necessary corrections.

The program was read by Mrs. Washington. A special invitation was extended to all to attend the All-States Tea at S. A. Owens Junior College. The audience joined the chorus, under the direction of Mrs. Burt, in singing "Blessed Be the Name."

We were taken on a flight to London, England, with Mrs. Nelis J. Saunders of Michigan to the World Baptist Alliance. She stated that our department is second to none. Her visits, scenery and sessions were simply wonderful. She brought newspaper clippings and placed them on display. Mrs. Claudia Richardson of Michigan carried us aboard the Pan American Airliner. She, too, brought scenery, cards and pamphlets for us to enjoy.

Miss Funches made a grateful acknowledgement and motioned that the reports will be made a part of the record of the department. The motion was seconded and carried.

Mrs. Burt directed the congregation in singing of "To God Be the Glory."

These are our accomplishments:

1. In Arkansas Consolidated Convention—Mrs. Thomas, representative
Contributed to Arkansas College
Conducted All State Tea and Camp
Local Y. P. Department has 21 committees
2. Arkansas Regular Convention—Miss Whitfield, representative
Conducted Baptist Youth encampment
Evangelistic service

2. Alabama—Miss Bessie Washington, representative
State camp made robes and dresses for Africa
Organized a Young People's Conference Held All-County Tea

4. Florida—Mrs. Temple Ford, representative
State camp
Gave scholarships to worthy individuals
5. Georgia—Mrs. Julia Brown, representative
Sent First Aid supplies to Africa
Financed Mrs. Thomas to London
Contributed to Browning Theological Seminary

The chorus led in the singing of "Leaning on Jesus," "He Is King of Kings," "Brown Skinned Cow," and "Fairest Lord Jesus."

Miss Bessie Washington of Alabama introduced the memorial period. Some of our deceased are: Mrs. M. M. W. Arter, president of District of Columbia Convention, Dr. Sallie C. Wade of Louisiana, Mr. Eddie Funches, brother of our Western Director, and the mother of Mrs. Carrie Soward. Musical readings by Mrs. Grace Hall, "The Legend of a Twilight Bell," and Miss Orlie Hickerson, District of Columbia, "When Earth's Last Picture is Painted." Music by the Choir, "We Would See Jesus."

A partial financial report was given by Mrs. Frye. She commended the department on its tremendous progress, starting with $40.00 on the first of the convention thirty years ago, we raised $3,187.91 on the first day of this year's convention. She added "To God Be the Glory." Mrs. Frye asked us to contribute to the National Trade and Professional School of which she is an alumnus and was recently appointed a board member. The organist played "Sweet Hour of Prayer," "Is Your All on the Altar," "Lead Me, Guide Me," while Miss Funches made an appeal for the offering. A total of $174.06 was collected.

Miss Mordell Mapp of Mississippi rendered a solo. The worship services were conducted by Mrs. Era Blackman of Alabama. Miss Carolyn Tate of Maryland gave the devotional thought on the theme "Committed on Christ," scripture and prayer by Miss Margaret Mixon of Colorado. Hymn—"Where He Leads Me." Rev. Kilgore spoke on the subject "Committed as Citizens of Two Kingdoms." The message was both inspiring and thought-provoking. The emphasis hymn was sung at the close of the message.

Mrs. Frye requested all persons to go outside immediately to have a group picture taken.

Benediction by Rev. Kilgore.

THURSDAY AFTERNOON

The afternoon session of the Young People's Department was opened at 1:30 p.m. with Miss Lydia Mae Allen presiding. Praise service was conducted by Mrs. Mattie B. Noble of Illinois. Scripture was read by Mrs. Odessa Brown of Texas. The service closed with the singing of "Jesus Keep Me Near the Cross."

Class period with Rev. C. L. Dinkins in charge.

3:00 p.m. Buzz session. Topic for discussion "Should one be affiliated with a church to enjoy real happiness?" After an extensive discussion, it was concluded that whether in home, economic, social life or education, God is a must to have peace and harmony. Thus we carry the Christian or Christ-like spirit in all of our endeavors to enjoy or have real happiness. Several shared their experiences which led all to the conclusion that leaning on His everlasting arms is a very wise gesture.

4:00 p.m.—Adjournment.

5:30 p.m.—All States Tea at S. A. Owens Junior College. Louisiana was first for the most beautiful table.

THURSDAY EVENING

The Young People's Department was opened at 7:35 with Miss Orlie Hickerson of District of Columbia presiding. The hymn "What a Fellowship," was sung, followed by scripture reading, Romans 3:12-14, prayer, response, "Spirit of the Living God."

These are our accomplishments were continued.

Gave Mrs. Shaw a contribution on trip to London

Queen's review

Under the direction of Mrs. Burt and the Young People's Chorus sang most beautifully "Lead Me, Guide Me," "Meeting Here Tonight."

FRIDAY MORNING

Echoes from the Baptist World Alliance came from Miss Funches and Mrs. Frye. Every one enjoyed the tour for there was plenty of fun and spiritual food for all who listened to their statements.

The general theme of the World Baptist Alliance was "Jesus Christ the Same Yesterday, Today and Forever." The Woman's division stressed "Attempt Great Things for God and Expect Great Things from God." The young people stressed "Strengthen the Stake and Lengthen the Cord." Worship captions were "The I Wills of Jesus."

Miss Funches made a motion that our director would continue her report in our next annual session, motion was duly seconded.

Song fest directed by Mrs. Burt "Praise Ye the Lord," "Blessed Be the Name," "I'm in the Lord's Army." The chorus gave a rendition of "Teach Me to Pray." Solo by Mrs. Evelyn Chirmon of Illinois: "Even Me Lord."

Mrs. Gloria Wadlington conducted worship services. Hymn "Fairer Lord Jesus," prayer by Mrs. Marie Bennett, response "Touch Me, Lord Jesus."

Our meditation speaker, Rev. Thomas Kilgore, Jr., spoke on the subject "Committed as Witnesses for Christ." Scripture, 2nd Timothy 2:15. He stated that we, as young people, must seek to find out that which is true. Be able to choose things of high value. We must be unashamed workers. He added that we must know our superior for whom we work, know the end to which we are working.

The morning session closed with the singing of the emphasis hymn, "Take My Life and Let It Be." Benediction by Rev. Kilgore.

FRIDAY AFTERNOON

The meeting was called to order by Miss Lydia Mae Allen at 1:30 p.m. Worship services were conducted by Mrs. Vivian Jones of Texas. The congregation was led in the singing of "Sweet Hour of Prayer."

Mr. Sam Clark of Mississippi School for the Handicapped with a group of four from his school, two blind and two crippled, sang "God Will Take Care of You" and "Go Down Moses." A free-will offering was taken.

Class period conducted by Rev. C. L. Dinkins.

Kansas—June Stevens, representative

State camp

State Convention

Missouri—

Annual scholarship fund to the Western Baptist Seminary

Regular youth encampment

Standard of excellence for young matrons

Indiana—Mrs. Elizabeth Garner, representative

Encampment with a well organized staff

At the general assembly, 4:00 p.m., Rev. Dinkins presented the class instructors and secretary. Course cards were awarded by the instructors.

Adjournment.

FRIDAY EVENING

Processional led by the Sunshine Bands of Memphis, followed by Junior Officers, Chorus, Y.W.A.'s and J.M.A.'s and the directors opened the evening's session in Mason Temple with the woman's Convention.

Miss Gloria Wadlington of Illinois conducted the praise services. Hymn "Fairer Lord Jesus," prayer by Miss Carroll Flannagan of New Jersey.

Greetings were extended by our national director.

Sunshine demonstration by the children of Memphis. They opened with the singing of "There's a Welcome Here." The Lord's Prayer was pantomimed very beautifully by two young girls. Little Wayne Mitchell sang "Yes, Jesus Loves Me." Recitation, Bettye Dunn, action song "Running Over."

Mrs. Odevia Stanton, who was in charge of the program, gave an acknowledgment of appreciation to Mrs. J. T. Fleton and her workers who were responsible for the program. Mrs. Frye gave a special applause for young organist.

who did a wonderful job on the organ. She played "Sweet Hour of Prayer," by request.

One of the main attractions of the evening was the Young People's Chorus under the direction of Mrs. Burt and Miss Otrie Hickerson as narrator. The chorus sang: "Teach Me to Pray," "No Man Is An Island," "To God Be the Glory," "Lead Me, Guide Me."

Mrs. Pearl Williams presented Mrs. Carrie Soward, president of the J.M.A. for her annual address. She challenged us to choose whom ye will serve. Stand firm and live in harmony. It was a masterpiece.

Presentations from young people of the city. Solo: Lillie Hawk of Illinois.

Miss Otrie Hickerson presented Miss Lydia Mae Allen, president of the Y. W. A. for her annual message. Miss Allen stated we as young people should commit our lives to Christ. The happiness of life is at the foot of the cross. A committed life is a dedicated life.

It was motioned that these messages will become a part of the record, motion was duly seconded and carried.

Mrs. Watts presented Mrs. Pearl Anthony of Arkansas and her committee who made a presentation of 45 pairs of pillow cases to Miss Burroughs, President of the Woman's Convention for the National Trade and Professional School at Lincoln Heights. She was, indeed, grateful.

Mrs. J. T. Felton of Memphis to the Young People's Department, $100.00 from the young people of the city.

Mrs. Winston crowned the queen of beauty, Miss Annie Williams of Memphis with a crown of flowers.

Mrs. Watts crowned the queen of talent, Miss Geraldine Turner of Arkansas.

Mrs. Frye crowned the queen of service, Miss Edna Ensley of Michigan and gave her a loaf of bread symbolic of the charge "Feed My Sheep," adhesive tape to "heal the wounded, sick," and the Bible as "A light unto my path and lamp unto my feet."

Miss Burroughs gave a splendid message in giving her charge to the queens. She asked them to accept the honor as reality and they do possess the qualities that all women should strive for.

Rev. V. M. Douglas gave the benediction.

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 10, 1955

The final session of the Thirtieth annual convention of the Young People's Department was called to order by Miss Lydia Mae Allen.

The Praise Service was conducted by Miss Marlene Wallace of Maryland. The hymn "Are Ye Able" was followed by prayer offered by Mrs. Pearl Williams. The service closed with the singing of "Take My Life and Let It Be."

Minutes were read by secretaries Hayes and Washington. After all necessary corrections, the minutes were accepted.

Mrs. Bertha Winston conducted the seating of delegates for the election of officers of the Junior Matrons division. The following officers were elected:

Mrs. Pearl Williams of Texas.....President
Mrs. Gloria Wadlington of Illinois.....First Vice-President
Mrs. Emma Thomas of Florida.....Second Vice-President
Mrs. Rebecca McEmore of Missouri.....Recording Secretary

Mrs. Annie Newsome of Mississippi.....Assistant Recording Secretary
Mrs. Julia Brown of Georgia.....Corresponding Secretary
Mrs. Emma Phillips of Ohio.....Treasurer
Mrs. Grace Burt of Louisiana.....Music Director
Mrs. Mildred Rollins of Alabama.....Pianist

All newly elected officers were presented and presentations were made from their respective states. Mrs. Watts gave the charge to the officers.

SATURDAY MORNING

Mrs. Soward gave beautiful remarks concerning her services as president of the J. M. A.

These are our accomplishments in:

Texas—

Special offering to foreign mission and other organizations
Annual conference for youth

Oklahoma—Doretha Crenshaw, representative

District encampment

Support state school of religion

Give scholarships to children going to school of religion

Princess reviews

Tennessee

Monthly meeting of young people's union and youth fellowship

Contributed to S. A. Owens, Jr. College

Visited shut in and offered aid

Final reports were given by all committees.

At this point, Mrs. Frye asked Mrs. Jackson and Mrs. Coyington who are charter members of the department to install the officers. Mrs. Frye gave words of acknowledgement and appreciation to the officers and persons who have worked so cooperatively with her in making this session a success. Under the direction of Mrs. Burt and Mrs. Leake the young people presented the national director with a token of $35.00.

Closing praise service was conducted by Mrs. Anne Brown of Michigan. Hymn: "Tis So Sweet to Trust in Jesus," prayer by Mrs. Baldwin of Arkansas. Emphasis hymn directed by Mrs. Burt.

SATURDAY MORNING

All adjourned with a greater determination to commit our ways unto the Lord. The session was a great one and we all could but say "To God be The Glory."

Humbly submitted,

CATHERINE WASHINGTON, Secretary, J.M.A.

GRACE HAYES, Secretary, Y.W.A.

ANNUAL REPORTS

NATIONAL AND REGIONAL DIRECTORS
YOUNG PEOPLE'S DEPARTMENTWoman's Convention, Auxiliary to National Baptist Convention, Inc.

MEMPHIS, TENNESSEE

SEPTEMBER 6-11, 1955

ANNUAL REPORT

MRS. RITA VERSA FRYE, National Director

President Burroughs, Members of the Board and Delegates to the 1955 Annual Session of the Woman's Convention, Friends of the Cause, Greetings:

It is with deep appreciation and gratitude that I come to you at the beginning of the 30th Annual Session of your Young People's Department and of our service as one of the laborers responsible for organization and the development of this work through all the years of its operation.

God has smiled upon our efforts and blessed them abundantly. Like the Psalmist of old we find ourselves singing, "Unto Thee, O God, do we give thanks . . . truly God is good."

Committed to Christ

Our theme this year is "Committed to Christ," and through discussion and worship we hope to help our young women and leaders re-dedicate themselves to the challenges and opportunities which lie before us.

ORGANIZATIONAL DEVELOPMENT

During the year we have attempted to organize the Young People's Department along the same pattern as the Woman's Convention. We have made construction about 22 committees. They are incomplete. Through these it is believed the Department will grow numerically and financially. Fortunate in securing some of the best leaders as Chairman and Co-chairmen, improvement should be seen in our financial and statistical reports for this meeting.

The appointment of and setting up of these committees will not change the Ten Point Plan under which we have operated and raised the funds of the Department, but will augment and enlarge our financial efforts and help us to discover more leaders for our work.

We are calling upon all State Presidents to encourage our State Directors of Young People in securing committee members as we attempt to follow in the footsteps of those who head the Woman's Convention. Young women will be used as much as possible but we find it necessary to choose chairmen who have some assurance of continuity in attendance at the National meetings where they receive the inspiration and vision of what we are trying to do.

SOME HAVE ANSWERED THE CALL

Since our last meeting the Young People's Department has suffered the loss of two strong supporters in the "home going" of Mrs. M. M. W. Arter, President of the Woman's Convention, Auxiliary to the Baptist Convention of D. C., and Mrs. Sallie C. Wade, State President of Louisiana. While these women will be missed on both State and National fronts, they have earned the reward God has promised to those who labor in His vineyard.

The Department joined in sympathy with our Western Director, Miss Funches, in the loss of her beloved brother, Mr. Eddie Funches of Orange, Texas. Telegrams were sent to the families reminding them of the comforting promise in God's Word: "Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord . . . that they may rest from their labours; and their works do follow them."

ACTIVITIES

The National Director has been privileged to work in many institutes on the local (church) level and in State and National Congresses. Many of these institutes were accredited. Courses taught included Mission Studies, Leadership Training and Church Membership. Two were interracial groups. Women's Day and Youth Day addresses were delivered. Two helpful meetings were held with national workers during the year—Hot Springs, Ark., during the Mid-Winter Board Meeting, and at Atlantic City, N. J., during the National Sunday School and BTU Congress. Plans were made during these conferences which will no doubt bear fruit in this annual session. A Mother-Daughter Banquet and other miscellaneous talks and classes rounded out these activities.

APPRECIATION

The National Director is grateful to the three Regional Directors—Miss Primrose Funches, Western Director; and Mesdames Bertha C. Winston and Corene Watts, Eastern and Southern Directors, respectively, for the able assistance they have given the work. Like every other effort we depend upon cooperation for success and these workers, along with State Directors, have certainly been ready and anxious to do their part. These regional reports are also included under this cover and you are urged to read them for information and inspiration.

WORLD BAPTIST ALLIANCE

With many others, the National Director feels that the opportunity of attending this meeting in London, England, was certainly the high point in the work to date. I shall always be grateful to the Woman's Convention for such a privilege. The inspiration of that meeting will serve as a challenge as I go forth working and planning with our young people.

This was the Jubilee Congress of the World Baptist Alliance, having been organized in 1905 in London, England. The general theme of the Congress was "Jesus Christ, the same yesterday, and today, and forever."—Hebrews 13:8.

Our own President, Miss Burroughs, was scheduled to pray the opening prayer on Sunday afternoon and to give the Scripture meditation at one of the Women's Meetings. As the only living participant in the formation of the Alliance, many types of recognition were also scheduled in her honor. We were all sorry she was unable to attend. And because of this Dr. J. H. Jackson, President of the Convention, instructed Vice President Mrs. Ross on Saturday afternoon to arrange for the coverage of these program assignments. So, in the absence of Miss Burroughs, Mrs. Ross prayed before the Congress on Sunday afternoon.

We were all impressed with the scope of our Baptist work throughout the world. Representatives gave inspiring and challenging accounts of the progress of the work in practically every country on the globe.

The Women's Division showed organizational growth, with the Women's European Federation leading with 1,286 branches. It is also the oldest in standpoint of organization. Representing a total of 30,000 women, the President stated the European Federation is now "middle-aged and showing evidences of the middle-age spread."

Perhaps used more than any other quotation during the Alliance was the great saying of William Carey, the missionary—"Attempt great things for God, expect great things from God." This was also the theme of one of the sessions of the Women's Division. Dr. Adams stated Carey was a cobbler and so it was not unusual for him to think and express himself in pairs.

YOUTH SECTION

In all of our Christian outreach, perhaps the greatest challenge of all faces young people, since they are learning and getting acquainted with life during this period of change, conflict of ideals, unrest, and uncertainty in government. Reports on what they were doing and the concerns they felt for God's work, expressed by youth of every nation, were most encouraging. There was a depth of understanding of the great needs of the Church and of our age and a sense of commitment which caused every adult to realize here were God's young people, ready for whatever lay before them.

Some of the good things that must come as envisioned by them are:

1. Full rights for all.
2. The right to choose your religion.
3. Beyond toleration accept one another as equals—what we desire for ourselves.
4. Real religious freedom—not only the right to believe but the right to write and publish what we believe.
5. Separation of Church and State—but cooperate with agencies to guarantee freedom to all.

There were many representatives from Africa. To summarize its needs we list the following from an address by one of the missionaries:

1. The Gospel
2. Education
3. Pills with prayers

Some Congress Facts

There were more than 8,000 registered delegates. The United States led, with 4,530 delegates. Our National Baptist Convention had more than 1,000 delegates registered.

Dr. Theodore F. Adams of Richmond, Virginia, is the newly elected President of World Alliance. Mr. Robert S. Denny of Nashville, Tennessee, was nominated as the Youth Chairman of that Division. However, Mr. Denny has asked time to consider the nomination and will give his final answer the first of October, 1955.

Five cities have invited the Alliance for its next meeting: Miami, Florida; Havana, Cuba; Rio de Janeiro, Brazil; Sydney, Australia and Tokyo, Japan. Since there are other important meeting places to be decided upon, such as the Federation of Baptists of Europe and the Youth Division of the Alliance, all meeting places will be decided upon in the Spring of 1956 when the Executive Committee holds its meeting.

MISSION STUDIES FOR JUNIOR MISSIONARIES WHO WANT TO KNOW

It is generally agreed that on all fronts this is a Revolutionary World. While politically, the term "Revolutionary" has quite an unsavory connotation nevertheless it is the best description of what is taking place in the thought and attitude of people today. And so, our Foreign Missions Theme for 1955-56 is "The Christian Mission in a Revolutionary World." Dr. Floyd Shacklock tells us we must meet the problems of a Revolutionary World with a Revolutionary Faith.

Attention is called to our effort to improve our Missionary Studies in the Young People's Topics by including them in the current issue. This means that we shall be discussing the lessons simultaneously with other study groups. It is hoped that leaders will make use of them.

We are recommending "This Revolutionary Faith" by Floyd Shacklock for Junior Matrons and Y.W.A. groups. For Red Circles, Mission Unlimited by S. Franklin Mack and "Hunger and Hope" to be used as a study and also as a guide in studying the mission of Christians in a changing world where these hungers and hopes are spiritual as well as physical. Violet Wood's "Great is the Company" is recommended as the supplemental study on the sacrifices made by heroic men and women who have translated the Bible into more than a thousand tongues and have fought and given their lives that people might have the right to read it. The Foreign Missions' theme for juniors is "Spreading the Gospel Today." Leaders will find "Bright Pathways" by Esma Rileout Booth, filled with action stories that will challenge their imagination and lead them into an understanding of what the gospel of Jesus will do for children of different countries.

The Home Missionaries for this year is Indian Americans. Christians will be urged to take a new look at the problems of Indian Americans by examining our mistakes of the past and tackling present problems which have resulted from the meeting of the two cultures. Junior Matrons and Y.W.A. will study "Within Two Worlds" by David M. Cary whose book gives us a sympathetic view of the difficulties faced by the Indians today growing out of suspicion and lack of understanding.

The Indian's contribution to American culture in many areas is brought out in E. Russell Carter's book, "The Gift is Rich" and young people will find it most helpful for discussions and dramatization.

For Red Circle girls "Doors Toward the Sunrise" illustrates how Indian young people and American learned to live and work together by sharing the responsibility for rebuilding of a broken-down mission hospital and making a center for worship and fellowship.

Louise Shotwell's book "This is the Indian American" gives a true picture of what the Indian American is really like and is filled with illustrations of what the churches are doing to help him to "belong."

"The Gray Eyes Family" by Edith Agnes is recommended for Sunshine Banders, and leaders are urged to secure the World Friends picture album on Indian Americans containing fifteen teaching photographs 9x12 and a short text on how Indian American children and their families live today.

The current issue of Weekly Topics, now on sale during this meeting, carry discussions on the 1955-1956 Mission Study Books.

Lengthen the Cords and Strengthen the Stakes!

Never before have finer opportunities come to our young people for dedicating their lives to service. Living in an age when greater educational advantages are available to all, Christian youth must accept the challenge of our times and plan in terms of service. Revolutionary thinking in regard to human relationships must be met with a revolutionary faith. Mission fields are ready and waiting for prepared young men and women in all areas to answer the call to service. Our churches need prepared, consecrated Christian youth to lead out for Christ at home. This is a challenge to our young women and girls to become identified with the on-going program of the Church. With the help of state and local leaders this department has a responsibility for developing and keeping alive the spirit of missions in our young women and girls. And in line with our theme for this year, this is our Commitment in Christ:

God, give us young people who list to Thy call
And haste to the sound of Thy word,
Who gather by thousands to give of their all,
Obedient and willing whatever befall,
To follow their Saviour and Lord.

God, give us young people of vision and might Whose eyes have been lightened by faith
Young people prepared for their place in the fight,
Trained warriors who stand in defense of the right
Unflinching, the conquerors of death

God, give us young people who choose to obey
Whose will is the will of the King
Young people who never in blindness shall stray
Who waste not their powers, but who walk in truth's way,
And take the rich gifts Christ doth bring.

God, give us young people who call no retreat
God, give us young people who call no retreat
But stand to their tasks to the end,
Young people who gladly the coming day greet,
Assured that in Christ all mankind now may meet.
Since He is earth's Saviour and Friend.

ANNUAL REPORT

Mrs. BERTHA C. WINSTON, Eastern Director

To the President, Officers, and Delegates, Woman's Convention, Auxiliary to the National Baptist Convention, Inc., our National Directors of the Young People's Department, and to our State Director, Youth:

I joyously greet you on another memorable occasion, the annual session of this great body. We greet the young people of Memphis, Tenn., and salute the Directors and Counselors of the State of Tennessee, and those faithful workers who have gathered here from North, East, South and West.

This marks the ending of one year's labor and the beginning of the journey of a new year, we hope, will be fraught with success and achievements, because of the lofty ideals; noble concepts; to which we aspire and dedicate our lives.

I cannot emphasize too strongly the need of divine guidance and aid of Deity as we are about to embark upon another voyage. That with His Divine assistance we may prove ourselves worthy of the charge He's entrusted to us so that we may more firmly establish our love and loyalty to the teachings of Him—who said, "I am the way, the truth and the life."

There is an increasing demand today for constructive Christians who are willing to accept the opportunity presented them, the challenge facing them—on Calvary's Tree—"Go—shine for Me." "Ye are the light of the world." Go teach, give, live for Him. Make the world a better place in which to live. The great challenge is: go build for Me, build constructively, build wisely.

A Christian life is the only blessed influential life in the world. Truth, Justice, Love and Faith in action is the crying need in the world today. Maltoo Babcock said: "Christianity is not a voice in the wilderness, but a life in the world. It is not an idea in the air but feet on the ground going God's way."

There is an increasing demand for constructive Christians. Women who are willing to build wisely, in these six areas:

1. Build their individual selves
2. Build in the home
3. Build in the community
4. Build in the Churches
5. Build in the schools
6. Build in the Government

In every field, everywhere, there is a demand for constructive Christian women. The causes of the day present an increasing demand for responsible women, responsible youth, progressive people. Youth who will dedicate their lives to a worthy cause and willing to forge ahead with Faith, Love and Courage.

Possibilities of Youth

Boys and girls are asking many questions today. Youth want to know. They want a better world, they want a formula for peaceful co-existence. Youth wants to know what is wrong with the world; how to go about helping to build a better world. Can we help them find the answers to their problems? Some answers to the greatest question of today must be supplied by youth themselves. There are many questions about life to which no sure and final answer can be made.

The great question for youth to answer is: What kind of a life should youth live? Will yours be a life of serve, a Christ-like life? "Choose ye this day whom you will serve." The future lies before you. What are your plans? Your decisions, your acts will determine what kind of a world we will have 25 years from today.

God's Plan for Life Is—

God sent His Son into the world as an example for us to follow. He is the greatest personality that ever lived. Christ tells us that the highest reaches of a Christian life is through Christian service. This is God's world. He made it. How manifold are His works! In His wisdom He has made them all.

Many boys and girls are asking today: "What are some of the best things I can do for myself?" May I suggest as a help to a useful life:

LOOK! LISTEN! THINK! ACT!

LOOK!

Christ would have us see more. Take time to see people. Look at God's creation. Learn from nature to fulfill ourselves. Note the beauty of the gardens, the color of the flowers, the joyous contented singing of the birds, satisfied, fulfilling God's creation. Did you ever hear someone say "Look out"? Sometimes it means that you are in danger, something may hit you. Other times it may mean look out on this changing world. Look at the blessings in the family and home, sisters, brothers, mother and father loving you.

LISTEN!

Why? Because the future tomorrows depend on you. Listen to the voice of the Divine.

THINK!

This is a new world. There is so much depending upon you; upon the decisions you make. This new world demands prepared young people. The Supreme Court's decision is in your favor. It is for you and through you to all of us. One writer has well said: "It is not all gotten out of books, but what the books get out of you, that makes you think and become useful." If you can think enough to master yourself, you have won your Master's Degree." This is God's world and belongs to every race. Let's work to improve it, not destroy it.

ACT!

Education is the process of teaching, learning, doing, and living. Youth is assigned to the task of serving. The old monks thought that they were serving Christ when they went into the wilderness, lived in cold cells, on posts, away from people. But surely this is not what Christ taught us by example. His example is to do good and give our lives for others.

A letter carved on the walls of the U. S. Post Office in Washington, D. C., depicts the postman as a missionary. It says they are messengers of sympathy and love; servant of parted friends; counselor of the lonely; bond of a scattered family; enlarger of the common life.

People of all ages need Health, Love, Acceptance, Security, Protection, Independence, Faith, Guidance and Control.

Action has blessed the world with all the great discoveries and inventions; triumphs and achievements that have added to the sum of human knowledge; filled the world with beauty, wealth, science, art and song.

May we march on and build constructively for our future citizens, that they may be inspired on the Christian march.

May we accept the challenge in the words found in the book of poems written by Dr. Nannie Helen Burroughs:

I OUGHT—I CAN—I WILL

"I ought"—'tis here that conscience speaks
God's voice within the heart—
Points out the right, detects the wrong,
And shows where pathways part.

"I can"—this is the world of faith,
With eyes on Jesus' face.
Sure that when duty says, "Thou Shalt"
God gives the needed grace.
"I will"—Mark how the word of choice,
Which angels wait to hear;
For a willing God meets a willing soul,
And brings salvation near.
"Choose! then this day whom ye will serve."
Our Leader summons still;
Let each young voice make glad response
"I ought"—"I can"—"I will."

Report

The National Eastern Director has served many Youth Conferences during the year, and created greater interest in the Young People's Departments of the various Churches and conventions.

In October and November, she delivered many Woman's Day addresses, and accepted these opportunities for creating interest in organizing young people in their Churches, and the importance and invaluable help to be received by affiliating with the National Young People's Department.

Conducted Study Classes for five weeks. Young People's Department, Union Temple Baptist Church.

Conducted one week, Church-wide Institute.

Attended Interracial Conference in Camping, Atlantic City, N. J.

Attended Institute in Marriage Counseling by Christian Social Agencies, Council of Churches.

The most inspiring Conference attending was the Governor's Conference, sponsored by the University of Maryland, on Juvenile Delinquency.

No. 1. To provide practical ideas for doing a better day-to-day job.

No. 2. To emphasize the necessity for working more closely together in preventing and controlling delinquency.

Spoke at Assembly of Classes at Carver Vocational School.

Attended Maryland State Legislature to assist in promoting and urging passage of bills to break down laws on segregation—in order that our young people may enjoy true democracy.

FREEDOM

I shall walk on the prairies
Where the winds blow free;
I shall walk through the Forest,
And beside the blue sea.
I shall wander at will,
And at the end of each day,
I shall kneel by my bed,
And reverently pray.

—Stella E. Howard

Our Father, please keep our hearts responsive to the leading of Thy Spirit, for Jesus' sake.

AS THEY GROW

Madam President, Officers, Members of the Woman's Convention, Directors Frye, Winston, Watts, and Delegates of the Young People's Department:

It is with deep appreciation that I present to you an account of my stewardship for the past 12 months. I have faced many unusual trials this year, and have had many trying experiences. All have served as a means of giving me a deeper conception of Christ, a deeper consecration to Him, and a broader vision for service. I have been made to realize and appreciate what Christ means when He says, "Go, work in my vineyard, and what is right, I will pay."

In 1939 an accelerated birth rate in our Nation became evident. From that time until now there has been a constant increase in the number of babies born annually in our Convention territory, affording our churches an opportunity to minister to multitudes of little children. However, this wonderful opportunity is paralleled by a terrific responsibility. Every thinking Christian recognizes the great opportunity we now have to teach the Scriptures to the largest generation of children this nation has ever produced.

Pause for a moment and think what it would mean to this generation of children if we could reach them for Bible study. Can you imagine what this would mean to the cause of Christ, to our churches, and to society twenty years from now? These children will need many things—shelter, food, clothing, education, etc.—but the greatest single need is a knowledge of the truth. They need to come to know Jesus as the one and only Saviour from the powers and penalty of sin, and to know the Scriptures which reveal the way of Christlikeness.

To my knowledge, there are only two agencies, or institutions, which can and will provide for this need—the home and the church. Since many children are born in homes where Jesus and the Bible are ignored, the church has the terrific responsibility of providing this opportunity to all children. Frankly, I am greatly disturbed by our seeming unwillingness and inability to meet this need. Surely we recognize the fact that many of these little children are passing by, and we are unable, because of lack of space and organization, to channel them into our churches for Bible study. Is it possible for us to meet this need? What is a practical approach to the problem? Two things are desperately needed now—space and trained workers.

Let us put first things first. Where shall we begin? The answer is, a well-organized Sunbeam Department in every church. A small church would need only a few workers, but in the larger churches enough workers are needed to cover the entire church field. Experience has proven that a church that has a well-organized and active Sunbeam Department has an open door to most of the homes of Baptist preference and those of no preference when a child is born into the home. Through the babies we may have the privilege of ministering to a tremendous army of young parents. There is no greater evangelistic opportunity than these young adults who would be happy to have their children enrolled in the Sunbeam Department of a Baptist church.

Although no space is required for the Sunbeam ministry, it also creates immediately a demand for space. Recently, a fine pastor made this comment:

We used the Sunbeam department to build the church. Our workers, through their untiring and unselfish ministry, created a pleasant problem by finding and enlisting many babies in the missionary departments of the church. In a brief time we realized our need for additional space for nurseries. Then, since parents bring their children to church, we immediately needed more space for adults.

A year or so later, as children were promoted, we found it necessary to add more space for Junior Red Circle which, in turn, created a demand for more Senior Red Circles, YWA's and YMA's. Our ever-increasing ministry to little children is now making more Junior and Senior departments an imperative.

This could be the testimony of many pastors throughout our Convention. I believe this is the answer to our problem. We need to begin with the Sunbeam Department and provide a sufficient number of trained workers to enroll all the babies in the church territory. We need to provide necessary nurseries, which will include bed babies, creepers, toddlers, two-year-olds, and three-year-olds. When we have provided adequately for children through the age of three, we will need to add more space for Sunbeams for each child enrolled in each department.

Then, we will find we have a bottleneck in our provision for Bible study unless we provide for an increased number of young people. A few years later, the constant promotion of a greater number of little children will create a demand for more Junior classes and more departments. We have learned through experience that the one sure way of holding Juniors is to provide as many classes for Juniors as we have for Seniors. If we will make provision for each age group as they are promoted from year to year, and if we will make the sacrifices required to hold those we have and enroll more every year—in other words, if we will teach them as they grow—you may depend upon it, they will never become juvenile problems. This is the one sure way of saving our youth to lives of consecrated service to God, the church, and the world.

Purpose

Following the original purpose of the Young People's Department to stimulate the missionary spirit and the grace of giving among the young people, our program of work in 1954-55 was carried on in such a way that reports from the West reveal the program of missionary education reached more people through more organizations than ever before in history. The young people give evidence of their growth in their program and in their giving. Often we remind ourselves that the strength of our program in future years is dependent upon the investment we make in our young people today. Last year reports show an evidence and increase of organization and interest in young people's work in the West. I hope all our young people will become tithers in their local churches and set the pace. Stewardship should grow yearly. Next year I shall expect to have many personal reports on stewardship. I noticed reports from the Southern Baptist Convention show a larger percentage and greatest increase was among young people.

Material

The accomplishments of missionaries on foreign fields furnish material for study such as: The Mission Herald, Foreign Mission Board, National Baptist Convention; The Worker, Washington, D. C. We find our challenge for the present day in the needs yet to be met and in the responsibility for fulfilling our purpose in building scholarships for worthy young women. The National Baptist Convention held an oratorical contest for undergraduates on Friday. The best paper written on this subject, "America's Best Answer to the Challenge of Communism," was food for thought for all.

The first award was $1,000 in scholarship; $1,750 was given in prizes. The Convention also set up a scholarship fund for Roosevelt College in Chicago. Progress is being made in the promotion of our own schools and I hope some of our young people will participate in the oratorical contest. This is an annual affair for high school students and undergraduates.

I was especially pleased to note that our directors are building better programs in our States. I visited a number of Conventions. I was gratified by the program presented by the young people of the General Baptist Convention of Illinois, with Mrs. Carroll, Director. I was given the privilege of addressing the Southern Baptist Convention in Miami, Florida, at the Dinner Key Auditorium where more than 20,000 Delegates were present. For this opportunity, I am indebted to Dr. L. S. Sedberry. It was a great challenge. We must rise and give to train our young people in Christian Education.

Our Finances

Our finances have fallen low, and we must increase our giving and encourage new organizations to represent. Our Directors' enrollment is low. Let us volunteer and increase it back to $10.00.

May I remind you that God can do anything if we use the power of prayer, and may I urge you to pray that we live up to our possibilities. Our director, Mrs. Frye, has instituted the committee plan. Let us do our best to make it work in a big way. Success depends on each chairman. In the language of President Dwight D. Eisenhower, I might say that "Only strength can cooperate; weakness cannot!" We must be strong.

OUR DEAD

SHOULD YOU GO FIRST

Should you go first and I remain
To walk the road alone;
I'll live in Memory's garden, dear,
With happy days we've known.
In Spring I'll wait for roses red
When fades the lilacs blue
In early Fall when brown leaves call
I'll catch a glimpse of you.

Should you go first and I remain
For battles to be fought,
Each thing you've touched along the way
Will be a hallowed spot.
I'll see your smile, I'll hear your voice,
Though blindly I may grope,
The memory of your helping hand
Will buoy me with hope.

Should you go first and I remain
To finish with the scroll,
No length'ning shadows shall creep in
To make this life seem droll.
We've known so much of happiness,
We've had our cup of joy,
And memory is one gift of God
That death cannot destroy.

Should you go first and I remain.

One thing I'd have you do:

Walk slowly down the path of death.

For soon I'll follow you.

I'll want to know each step you take

That I may walk the same.

For someday down that lonely road

You'll hear me call your name.

The Almighty God has seen fit to come into our midst and take from us some of our most ardent workers—women who gave their all for the growth of our department: Sally C. Wade, Louisiana; M. M. Arter, Washington, D. C.; and my own brother, Eddie Finches, Illinois, along with many others. I am grateful to the entire official staff and Dr. J. H. Jackson, Miss Nannie Burroughs, Mrs. Frye, and all the friends for their messages of comfort.

God Wants You

As you consider your vocational preparation, you need to recognize that God has cast the life-pattern for many young persons for full-time religious vocations. Those individuals who feel this definite call for such service should recognize and follow His will. With their decisions to follow this call, however, it would be wise for these young people to study themselves as carefully as possible so that they can interpret the message of God in the light of the personal qualities, aptitudes, talents, and abilities which they have. In every case, God wants each of us to be a full-time, effective Christian. The better prepared we are for our vocations and the happier we are without jobs, the greater chance we have to be of maximum service to Him.

Your Responsibility

In conclusion, may I say that as young people you have the responsibility of using wisely the talents which God has given you. Furthermore, you have an obligation to be a good steward of those talents, of putting them to work so they will yield the best return on the investment God has made in you. In this stewardship of talents, we as Christians have a definite obligation to take full advantage of our aptitudes, interests, skills, personality traits and everything we have as we seek to find the right vocation and to fill it to the best of our ability. Jesus tells what our responsibility is in the Parable of the Talents in Matthew 25:14-30.

THE BEST MEMORY SYSTEM

Forget each kindness that you do,
As soon as you have done it.
Forget the praise that falls to you,
The moment you have won it.

Forget the slander that you hear,
Before you can repeat it.
Forget each slight, each spite, each sneer,
Wherever you may meet it.

Remember every kindness done to you,
Whatever its measure,
Remember praise by others won,
And pass it on with pleasure.

Remember every promise made,
And keep it to the letter,
Remember those who lend you aid,
And be a grateful debtor.
Remember all the happiness that Came your way in living,
Forget each worry and distress
Be hopeful and forgiving.

Remember good, remember truth,
Remember heaven's above you,
And you will find through age and youth,
That many hearts will love you.

ANNUAL REPORT

MRS. CORENNE WATTS, Southern Director

Madam President, Officers and Messengers, Auxiliary to the National Baptist Convention, Inc., Greetings—

It is with joy I come to the beautiful city of Memphis and the State of Tennessee to give an account of my task. A great privilege as well as an opportunity has been mine to serve as your Southern Director of the Young People's Department.

This has been a year of various experience. There were hills of difficulty to climb. Many evils have tried to blight the path of our Christian Young People of our Southern States. This had made the young people learn how to trust and try God, realizing it is a time of great changes to be sure and yet no matter how upsetting changes may be, it will most certainly pave the way for God's new day to dawn in the history of this generation. Faith our God has not been shaken. We believe God sends difficulties as testers. He sends them to make some things out of us, that no easy going could possibly make. He sends them to make us reach out our souls, roots into closer union with Him and this makes our life more resplendent.

We believe God's discipline through difficulties is to see if we take it and if we can. He'll stay near enough to watch the battle and in his own time give strength and courage to conquer every force. I have emphasized fully the might of faith and the power of belief must become an active force in the lives of every young person. If we leave faith and belief out of life, we have no propelling or compelling power. Faith in God is absolutely essential to proper development of every personality and the complete unfolding and strengthening of one's inner gift. Realizing all faith in God and very little in ourselves will accomplish little. Self-faith and answering belief put in action are the life sublime, knowing that life is like the weather: sometimes hot, sometimes cold, sometimes fair, sometimes cloudy, sometimes clear and sometimes stormy, but through these changes come flowers, fruits, grain, and the harvest. Only God can give. He alone can give quality of life that can stand the test and win out over all kinds of circumstances.

I have led the young people to know life is a challenge. Life is a responsibility. Life is a game of giving and taking, and life is every young man or woman at his very best at all times. It is not in getting but giving that our lives are so richly blessed. I have presented to the young people in these days of bewilderment and changes as far as I could go, the Bible, God's holy word as their textbook and the life of our Christ as a challenge day by day. In Him was no sin, no deceit, no dishonesty, no selfishness, no lust, no intemperance, no hate, no false pride, no laziness or holding back of ignorance, no frivolity, no compromise, and no fear, in spite of the fact he met every temptation. He was exposed to evils of the world, but He threw them off. He did good deeds and his attitude toward others was kind and generous. His appreciation and consideration for people was high and sincere. His desires to help were self-consuming and unlimited. He loved people regardless of their attitude toward Him. In His presence, the proud and rebellious felt ashamed and uncomfortable. The humble and penitent felt the power of His love. The mean and the wicked wanted to be good. He gave His life that we might be lifted to the level of His beauty, power, courage and oneness with our Heavenly Father.

I have observed closely the needs of young people. Among the many, I will mention a few: (a) a greater faith and trust in God; (b) a greater appreciation for the highest value of life; (c) a dedication of self to what is considered to be God's work; (d) more Christian homes and consecrated, intelligent leaders; (e) more opportunities; and (f) greater religious responsibilities. I am sincerely pleading for your continued prayers for our National Director, Mrs. Etta Versa Frye; our Eastern Director, Mrs. Bertha C. Winston; and our Western Director, Mrs. Primrose Funches. As we thank God for the responsibility of Christian leadership of our young people, we thank God for young people with strength to lift and a will to serve and a heart to pray. We thank the Lord for the marvelous task of leading young people today. We thank the Lord for young people who to the Cross will cling, with faith unshaken, yet they may bring out of the failures that have been ours: Better things; Better things. To end my work, I must not fail to mention my own State, Alabama, with Mrs. H. M. Gibbs, President of the Alabama Baptist Woman's State Convention. I wish to thank her for her splendid cooperation. To her I am very grateful.

I shall give you a summary of the visitations that I have accomplished within the past twelve months: churches visited, 672; schools and colleges, 56; Christian centers, 4; state conventions, 4; district conventions, 18; BTU and Sunday School board meetings, 4 for the State and 7 for the District; jail visits on special request, 5; national board meetings, 2; assisted with Christian Workers Institute, 12; hospital visits, 9; taught 714 Mission Study Classes, using as our basic text, "How, Workers, Making My C.C.," by Miss N. H. Burroughs, supplementing the Bible; taught 41 Sunday School classes; conducted two weeks' camping at Camp Fletcher for the YWA's and the Junior and Senior Red Circles; assisted one week of camping with the boys and young men; delivered 14 Women's Day addresses; organized 8 Women's Missionary Societies, 11 Young People's Organizations, 2 ITC's and 2 Sunbeam Bands. I have visited as guest Mt. Olive Baptist Church at Detroit, Michigan. I was invited by Mrs. Sarah Booker and this was a Women's Day occasion. I visited the Evening Star Baptist Church, Cleveland, Ohio, and Mrs. Roberta Martin extended the invitation. I attended a Founders Day ceremony at the Baptist Seminary, Dr. Ralph W. Riley, President.

I also attended the Youth Convention at Furi Smith, Arkansas, of which Mrs. Emma Daniels is President; the State Baptist Women's Convention and the Christian Union College at Edward, Mississippi. Mrs. Edwina Robins is the sponsor of this invitation. I was honored by the Southern Beauty Congress and presented the Citizen's Award for 1954. I have been blessed with good health and I have been guided by the Holy Spirit, and I have done my best.

Yours in his service,
CORENNE WATTS
