*Call for a National Convention of Colored Baptists.

Dear Brethren: April 5, 1886, an open letter to the Baptist clergy and laymen was issued by Rev. Wm. J. Simmons, an American Baptist, asking if we should have a National Convention to discuss questions of interest to our beloved denominations. At that time the following reasons were given:

1. To promote personal piety, sociability, and a better knowledge of each other.
2. To be able to have an understanding as to the great ends to be reached by the denomination.
3. To encourage our literary men and women, and promote the interest of Baptist literature.
4. To discuss questions pertaining especially to the religious, educational, industrial, and social interests of our people.
5. To give an opportunity for the best thinkers and writers to be heard.
6. That, united, we may be more powerful for good and strengthen our pride in the denomination.

Having been solicited to write the Call by many whose names and endorsements are hereunto affixed, the Call is hereby made by their advice and solicitations for said convention to meet in St. Louis, Mo., August 25, 1886, 10 o'clock a.m., in the First Baptist Church, and the pastor thereof is hereby requested to serve as a Committee of Arrangements, with power to select his associates.

Wm. H. Steward, Louisville, Ky., and Rev. R. H. Cole, 2609 Goode Avenue, St. Louis, are hereby requested to serve as a Committee on Transportation.

WM. J. SIMMONS.

The chronological report in our National Baptist Minutes is hereby corrected, viz: The parties as they appear below were officers of the Foreign Missions or National Educational Conventions, as were their predecessors. Said conventions merged into the National Baptist Convention in 1886 or met co-jointly with it, or otherwise.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS MEETING OF THE NATIONAL BAPTIST CONVENTION, U.S.A. INCORPORATED

The June Board of Directors meeting was called to order by Vice-President At-Large Dr. S. A. Owens in the Greater Saint John Baptist Church, Chicago, pastored by Dr. William A. Johnson, at 10:15 A. M.

The opening song, Jesus Keep Me Near The Cross, was led by the Reverend Victor Wells. The devotion leader then called for sentence prayers, and several brethren responded. The prayers were followed by singing, "My Faith Looks Up to Thee". The scripture lesson was read by Reverend M. M. Morris, Mississippi, who read the 27th Psalm verses 1-5. The scripture was followed by the singing of "Leaning on The Everlasting Arms".

President J. H. Jackson, arrived at this point, and was presented to the body by Dr. S. A. Owens. President Jackson expressed his regrets at being late, and called for the Minutes of the Hot Springs Board Meeting held in January. The minutes were read by Secretary T. J. Jamison. It was moved by Dr. Floyd Massey, Jr., that the minutes be adopted with commendation, it was seconded by Dr. D. C. Washington, the motion carried after an observation by Rev. E. D. Barnes relative to the position taken by Dr. J. C. Austin in Hot Springs last January, with reference to Tenure. The Agenda was read by the Secretary and the same adopted on motion by Dr. J. Pius Barbour and seconded by Dr. D. E. King. President Jackson then stated the purpose for calling the meeting in Chicago at this time. He stated that he had hoped for the brethren to have the fellowship of the Russian Baptist delegation that was visiting in our country at this time, but that a change in schedule at the last minute made it impossible. He further stated that so many of the brethren had requested the meeting earlier because they felt Los Angeles was too far to go just for the board meeting. Thus the meeting today was called mainly for these two reasons.

Dr. Jackson then called for a report from the Denver Entertainment Committee. Dr. M. C. Williams, the General Chairman, came forward and stated that everything is ready and that they are awaiting our coming. Dr. Williams stated that the Parent body will meet in the City Auditorium and the Woman's Auxiliary will hold their meetings in the Denver Coliseum.

President Jackson, presented Dr. Victor Glass, Acting President of the American Baptist Theological Seminary to make the report of the School. Dr. Glass stated he was happy to be in the meeting for three reasons. As a Christian, as a Baptist and as a Servant. Dr. Glass proceeded to give a factual report on present conditions at the school. He concluded his report by stating that there were more applications for the coming year, than there were at this time last year. There is a definite sign of growth.

Mr. L. S. Sedbury gave the financial status of the school, and stated that at present there was a deficit of $17,000.00, but that hopes were high to clear it by June 30th 1956. Mr. Sedbury stated that the Southern Baptists are ready and willing to give more if we operate in a more business like way.

Dr. M. L. King, Sr., rose and requested the floor to ask two questions, (1) How close are we to accreditation? (2) What does the Southern Baptist Convention mean when they will give more if we operate in a more business like way? Dr. Glass answered the first question by stating we are close to accreditation, but we just haven't requested any accreditation group to come and survey us at this time. Mr. Sedbury answered the second question by stating that if we operate according to previous budgets and operate without having to borrow money, the Southern Baptists would contribute more. It was reported that our share of the deficit is $3,800.00. After a thorough discussion of the Seminary, President J. H. Jackson read from a prepared statement of his that was listened to with rap attention. In the prepared document he stated in Part—That in the act of the agreement of the National Baptist Convention and the Southern Baptist Convention, the land was purchased by the Southern Baptist Convention and the buildings have been constructed by the Southern Baptist Convention, and that the Southern Baptist Convention has been more than generous to permit us to assist in the management of the Seminary. The President further stated that, The Southern Baptist Convention was so generous in this matter, that they requested of us to furnish only the equipment for the buildings that they constructed, and to help in the operation expenses of the same. The records will show that we have not been one hundred per cent in either of these responsibilities.

In light of the above mentioned facts, Dr. Jackson made the following suggestions:

(1) That we as a Board of Directors, will endorse the action of the Board of Trustees of the Seminary in electing Dr. Victor Glas as Acting President.

(2) The second suggestion is that the Southern Baptist Convention will take over the whole operation of the school for a period of three or five years, and they will determine both the interracial and general policies as to student body, faculty and trustees. This to be done in consultation with the Committee from the National Baptist Convention if the Southern Baptist Convention so desires.

(3) That the National Baptist Convention shall assume the responsibility for its share of the present deficit of the Seminary. (For complete statement, see record).

Dr. U. J. Robinson rose and spoke on the document, and moved with the proper second that a committee be appointed to study the document and report back to the Board before adjournment. The motion was amended by Dr. M. L. King, Sr., that this document would become the sentiment and policy of this Board and that we would recommend it to the Convention proper. The amendment was seconded by Rev. R. L. E. Hardmond. The amendment carried unanimously.

President Julia Foreman was called for and was presented by President to give a report from the National Baptist Missionary Training School of which she is the honored President. Miss Foreman made a brief report and presented Mr. Ambrose Bennett who gave the present financial status of the Training School. In closing, Mr. Bennett, made a request of the Convention of $10,055.00 to cover a deficit incurred last year or past term, that should be paid by September 1, 1956.

Dr. E. W. Perry spoke on the matter of the Merger of the two schools, and said that to his knowledge the committees from the Southern Baptist and the National Baptist had not met. Dr. C. C. Coleman spoke on the merger and in light of the new knowledge that we have on the ownership of the Seminary, he was not in favor of the merger now as he was in the beginning.

A motion was made by Dr. Sandy F. Ray and seconded by Dr. D. C. Washington that a committee be appointed on merger of the schools and report back before adjournment of this meeting. The committee appointed by Dr. Jackson was as follows:

Rev. E. B. Hicks, Chairman

Rev. J. Pius Barbour

Rev. D. C. Washington

Rev. M. K. Curry, Jr.

Rev. C. E. Talley, Secy.

Rev. L. S. Sedbury

Mrs. S. D. Ross

It was moved by Dr. J. Pius Barbour and seconded by Rev. R. L. Taylor that May 17th be continued and made a National Day. Reports were made from the various sections of the country as to the success of the first May 17th celebration. Reports given were very favorable and reported a great deal of success. Reporting were the following: Virginia, Rev. R. L. Taylor; New York, Dr. Sandy Ray; Pennsylvania, Dr. Cornell E. Talley; Tennessee, Dr. S. A. Owens; Ohio, Rev. Wilbur Paige; Mississippi, Dr. H. H. Humes; Knoxville, Dr. W. T. Crutcher; Alabama, Dr. U. J. Robinson; Illinois, Chicago, Mrs. S. D. Ross, (who was visiting in Chicago at the time); Louisiana, Dr. E. Doyle Bilioups; Arkansas, Dr. C. B. Knox; Kansas, Dr. E. A. Freeman; Mississippi, Rev. E. D. Barnes; Tennessee, Dr. A. E. Campbell; Indiana, Dr. R. T. Andrews; Michigan, Dr. A. A. Banks; West Virginia, Dr. S. A. Abrams; Wisconsin, Dr. Louis Beauchamp and Dr. J. H. Reynolds, Iowa and Nebraska.

The matter that has been before the Board on several occasions concerning the fee for the Fraternal Council of Churches, was discussed and the committee reported that in view of all information received from those close to the situation—it recommended that the matter be dropped completely—the motion to this effect prevailed. The program committee for the Denver session was appointed by President Jackson, Dr. Floyd Massey, Jr., Chairman, Dr. H. H. Humes, Dr. R. T. Andrews, Dr. R. L. Taylor, Dr. W. T. Crutcher and Dr. I. H. Henderson, Sr. Benediction to close the morning was pronounced by Dr. Clyde Adams.

TUESDAY AFTERNOON 4:25

The afternoon session was opened by Dr. M. L. King, Sr., with the singing of "Jesus Keep Me Near The Cross". Prayer was offered by Dr. D. W. Hoggard and the Scripture was read by Dr. King. He chose to read the 48th Psalm. Dr. J. H. Reynolds led in singing "I Need Thee Every Hour." Following this selection Dr. Sandy Ray offered another fervent prayer.

President Jackson took charge and thanked Dr. King for having opened and called for the remainder of the agenda. Number 2 was voted on by the body and passed unanimously. Number 3 was reported on by Treasurer L. G. Carr who stated that $40,000.00 had been invested in Government Bonds and had yielded already $600.00 and would yield another $600.00 in August. The matter of the investment of the Retirement Fund of the Convention was discussed by Dr. M. L. King, Sr., and Dr. Roland Smith. It was moved by Dr. M. L. King, Sr., and seconded by Rev. Owen D. Felt that the $41,000.00 be reinvested as was from the beginning. The motion carried unanimously. Number 4 Moved by Dr. H. H. Humes and seconded by the Rev. R. W. Norsworthy that the Diamond Jubilee Drive be continued. The motion carried unanimously. The motion was made by Dr. Sandy Ray and seconded by Dr. M. L. King, Sr., that the same scale be continued. An amendment was made by Dr. H. H. Humes and seconded by Rev. R. W. Norsworthy that the Conventions and churches that have already given would give $37.50 and $7.50 respectively. The amendment carried.

Dr. E. C. Smith was called for to make the report of the Tenure Committee. He in turn presented Dr. D. G. Lewis to read the report. Before presenting Dr. Lewis, Dr. Smith stated the whole committee was not in agreement and that he was the dissenting voice and that he had hoped for a compromise. The report by Dr. Lewis was very similar to the report made in Hot Springs. That if Tenure be applied at all let it apply to all the officers of the Convention. The Majority report of the Committee was not in favor of Tenure.

Moved by Rev. R. W. Norsworthy and seconded by Dr. D. W. Hoggard that the matter of Tenure be discussed for thirty (30) minutes. The motion carried. Dr. L. K. Jackson was the first to speak and stated that the Present administration was immoral for seeking a change in the Constitution. Motion was made by Dr. M. L. King, Sr., and seconded by Dr. C. C. Coleman that Dr. L. K. Jackson would apologize for making such a statement. The apology was not given and no further discussion was heard on. The report of the Bath House was given by Dr. H. H. Humes, Chairman of the Board and Mr. C. H. Webster, manager of the Bath House. It was a very good report and was interrupted several times by applause. The financial statement showed that the Bath House had turned in to the convention proper $13,333.33. A motion was made by Dr. Roland Smith and seconded by Dr. M. M. Morris that the report of the Bath House be adopted with appreciation. The motion carried.

The report of the B. T. U. Board was made by Dr. Roland Smith. The report given was adopted.

Statement of the Sunday School Publishing Board was made by Dr. W. T. Crutcher and Dr. L. A. Bowman.

The Merger Committee's report was made by Dr. Cornell E. Talley. On motion by Rev. R. W. Norsworthy and seconded by Rev. J. H. Reynolds the report be adopted. The motion carried. (Much Discussion)

The Program Committee for Denver Convention made it's report through the Chairman, Dr. Floyd Massey, Jr. It was moved and properly seconded the report be adopted.

The Motion Carried.

The Budget Committee report was made by Dr. Cornell E. Talley. The report was adopted.

An invitation was extended by Dr. E. A. Freeman that the 1957 Convention will go to Kansas City, Missouri. The motion to accept the invitation was made by Rev. R. W. Norsworthy and seconded by Dr. W. T. Crutcher. The motion carried.

It was moved by Dr. D. E. King and seconded by Rev. R. E. L. Hardmond that the Treasurer be empowered to borrow the $8,333.00 that is needed to help cover deficit at the Seminary.

It was moved and properly seconded by Dr. D. E. King and Rev. R. W. Norsworthy respectively that the Bath House be required to submit a monthly financial statement to the Treasurer of the Convention and that a copy of the report be sent to the President's office. The motion carried.

It was then moved by Dr. D. W. Hoggard and seconded by Dr. J. H. Reynolds that the Board would give a rising vote of thanks to Dr. William A. Johnson and his great church for the fine hospitality received during the Board meeting. All present stood in appreciation.

Thus the June meeting of the Board of Directors of the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc., came to a close with the benediction being pronounced by Dr. W. T. Crutcher.

STATEMENT OF THE AMERICAN BAPTIST THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

Presented to the Board of Directors of the National Baptist Convention, and adopted by them, June 5, 1956, at the Greater St. John Baptist Church, Chicago, Illinois.

I am sure I express the sentiment of every loyal member of the National Baptist Convention when I say that we are deeply grateful for the contribution and experience that have been ours because of the American Baptist Theological Seminary venture. The Southern Baptist Convention in this cooperative enterprise has made a wonderful contribution not only in the matter of training of Christian ministers, but in the field of better race relations and goodwill among the peoples of the Southland. And whatever may be said or done, we shall ever be mindful and grateful of this high Christian venture on the part of the Southern Baptist Convention.

The Problem Before Us

The management of the seminary has not been easy. There have been problems, and there still are problems to be solved. We face today, the problem of correct, and a most constructive and creative future relationship between the conventions, and the decision as to what is the best approach to realize the greatest good in the future. It seems to me that any approach to the problem should begin with a statement of undisputed facts.

Statement of Facts

1. According to the condensed statement of agreement between the National Baptist Convention and the Southern Baptist Convention, the land was purchased by the Southern Baptist Convention, and the buildings have been constructed by the Southern Baptist Convention. (see page 4, Agreement No. 2). In this act, they showed both their interest in the training of ministers of the National Baptist Convention, and also their faith in the constituency itself.

2. The property is held by what is known as the holding board, consisting of twelve members, eight from the Southern Baptist Convention, and four from the National Baptist Convention.

When we put fact one and fact two together, we arrive at one basic conclusion; that the Southern Baptist Convention both by financial investment and by the organization and structure of the holding board, is entitled to the full ownership of both the buildings and the ground. The property is held or owned by the holding board, and by a majority membership of eight to four, the Southern Baptist Convention also owns the holding board. Therefore, the Southern Baptist Convention owns the ground and the buildings of the American Baptist Theological Seminary. Those members of the National Baptist Convention who make unfounded statements regarding the rights of the Southern Baptists in this particular venture, should know the above facts, and those who have said we should take over the seminary, should read the above facts and know that we have neither the financial right, the property right, or the legal right to any such claim.

3. The Southern Baptist Convention was so generous in this matter, that they requested of us to furnish only the equipment for the buildings that they constructed, and to help in the operation expenses of the same. The records will show that we have not been one hundred per cent in either of these responsibilities. In the matter of managements, the National Baptist Convention has been given the majority voice, which was more than just and generous.

4. The agreement provides that the president of the seminary is to be a Negro man, and a member of the National Baptist Convention, Incorporated. This agreement discriminates against women, against white men, and all members of the Southern Baptist Convention. It is just as un-Christian to discriminate against a man because he is white, and because he is a member of the Southern Baptist Convention, as it is to discriminate against one because he is a Negro and a member of the National Baptist Convention. However, we are aware that this agreement was written at a time when racial conditions were different from what they are today.

5. Since the beginning of this seminary venture, the Southern Baptist Convention has opened the doors of its major seminaries to Negro students, thereby making available to both Negro and white students, the wisdom, experience and theological insights of the leaders of the Southern Baptist Convention. And this was done not under the influence or the guidance of any civil court. It was done in the councils of goodwill, and through the deliberate choice of members of the Southern Baptist Convention, in the spirit of Jesus Christ. For this, we are most grateful and most encouraged.

6. The sixth fact is that since this agreement was entered into, the Supreme Court's Decision of May 17, 1954, has become history. Therefore, basically and technically, segregation in any form in the field of education, is illegal in all sections of the United States of America. The Christian church should not only accept this great decision, but do all within its power to make it a practical realization. Negroes should be as anxious to help this undertaking as the members of the Southern Baptist Convention.

Some Suggestions

In the light of the above facts, I offer the following suggestions for your consideration.

1. That we as a Board of Directors, will endorse the action of the board of trustees of the seminary, in electing Dr. Victor Glass as the acting president of the seminary, and that we go on record as requesting agreement number one on page four of the Statement of Agreement, to be so revised, that any prepared Christian theologian irrespective of race or nationality, shall be eligible for the presidency of the seminary.

2. The second suggestion is that the Southern Baptist Convention will take over the whole operation of the school for a period of three or five years, and they will determine both the interracial and general policies as to student body, faculty and trustees. This to be done in consultation with a committee from the National Baptist Convention if the Southern Baptist Convention so desires.

3. That during this period, a joint committee from both Southern and National Baptists, will study and draw up policies regarding the future of the school, and the future relationship of the two conventions in this connection. This committee to be composed of equal number of voting members from both conventions in addition to a chairman, to be selected from either one of the conventions. The total membership of said committee would be nine.

4. That the National Baptist Convention shall assume the responsibility for its share of the present deficit of the Seminary.

5. Assuming that the Southern Baptist Convention has already allotted its share of the funds for the seminary budget of 1956-57, I would suggest that the National Baptist Convention will put its expected share into the pool for this academic year, so that there will be no financial hitch in the operation of the school. And that we also lend our full support in the matter of encouraging the administration and faculty of the seminary in their task, and do all within our power to assist in recruiting students for the school.

I am convinced that we will never do our best in the field of administration, trying to operate an institution with two boards. We will need to bring together not only the best minds in the Southern Baptist Convention, but the most liberal minds in the National Baptist Convention. We need men on the trustee board and members of the faculty who themselves, are broad enough to work with white people of the South without showing their petty prejudices. I would advise that we give much thought in the future, to the proposition regarding how we shall be expected to match money from the Southern Baptist Convention, in this or any other project. The Southern Baptist Convention as compared to the National Baptist Convention, is a rich organization, and possibly one of the richest religious organizations in the United States of America. It is dangerous to attempt to work together at the point of the greatest differences and the greatest weaknesses. We do not have the kind of money owned by the Southern Baptist Convention. This is not a statement of prejudice or of grudge, it is a statement of fact.

The Southern Baptist Convention is in a position at this time, through this interracial project, to make a wonderful contribution to goodwill and better relationships in the South. We are keenly aware of the problems that they face in their attempt to carry forward the message of Christ regarding the fatherhood of God and the brotherhood of man. It is my belief that this project offers a great challenge and a great opportunity, and it may be that this great religious body of the South can set into operation at the seminary in Nashville, certain policies and principles which of themselves will help other groups in other sections of our fair Southland, to see more clearly the logic of justice, and the true meaning of freedom in the field of education.

MINUTES OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS NATIONAL BAPTIST CONVENTION, U.S.A., INC.

HOT SPRINGS, ARKANSAS

JANUARY 23, 1956

The Board of Directors of the National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Inc., was called to order in executive session Wednesday, January 23, 1956 at 8:25 A.M. in the R. C. Woods Auditorium of the National Baptist Convention Bath House and Sanitarium, Hot Springs, Arkansas with Dr. J. H. Jackson, President in the Chair.

Hymn, "Saviour More than Life to Me" was led by Rev. J. C. Wade, Nebraska. Dr. Jackson conducted the effective meditation period. He read Psalms 127 and 130 and 1st Corinthians 13th Chapter. Silent prayer by the group was closed with Prayer by Dr. E. D. King, Kentucky. Hymn, "What a Fellowship." Prayer, Dr. Jackson, Hymn, "What A Friend We have in Jesus."

A motion by Dr. D. E. King, duly seconded, that Dr. J. H. Jackson be named Chairman for the meeting prevailed. In like manner, Dr. T. J. Jemison was elected Secretary. Dr. Jemison read the minutes of the last session of the Board of Directors. The minutes were adopted and approved with necessary corrections.

President Jackson suggested that the Board of Directors work in sections to facilitate the matters to be considered. The Board voted in accordance to accept the President's suggestion. President Jackson urged that members of the convention allow the Board of Directors to perform its functions. A motion that this be specifically a Board of Directors meeting was adopted by the body.

Rev. Jemison read the agenda as proposed by the president. On Motion by Dr. U. J. Robinson, Alabama, the Board voted to approve the agenda by items. Members of the Board of Directors were asked to take their seats in the first three or four rows of the auditorium.

Dr. C. B. Knox, Arkansas, moved that in cases where the State President is absent, the vice president be accepted as proxy to the Board of Directors meeting. The motion prevailed.

Items 1-9 of the agenda were approved in turn by common consent of the Board. In consideration of the Objections raised by members of the Board of Directors and of the National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Inc. to the meetings of certain members of the Board of Directors and of the Convention at St. Louis, Missouri, December 12, 1956, President Jackson made the following suggestions as a basis of principal and plan for procedure:

1. That it is the democratic right of a body of Baptists to meet at any time;
2. That this Board of Directors accept the right of freedom of assembly as a principle of action;
3. That the group of Baptist leaders who met on December 12, 1956 at the Washington Tabernacle Baptist Church, St. Louis, Missouri under the chairmanship of Dr. W. H. Borders and organized an independent national body, had done so without any authority derived from the board of Directors or the National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Inc.; neither were they convened with, nor by the call of, the President of the said convention;
4. We shall therefore regard this an independent organization over which the Board of Directors of the National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Inc., has no power or authority.

Rev. J. H. Reynolds, Iowa, moved and Dr. M. L. King, Sr., Georgia, seconded the motion that the Board of Directors would recognize the body organized on December 12, 1956 at the Tabernacle Baptist Church, St. Louis, Missouri under the chairmanship of Dr. W. H. Borders, Georgia, as an independent organization with rights and privileges of their own. The Board of Directors voted unanimously in favor of this action.

A motion to adjourn for breakfast was carried.

WEDNESDAY MORNING

JANUARY 23, 1957

The meeting was called to order by Vice President C. H. Hampton at 10:00. Devotions were conducted by the Rev. E. M. Kaigler. Following a very inspirational song service, the presiding Officer called for sentence prayers. Closing the prayer period, Mrs. Grace Cobbs sang, "Come Unto Jesus."

Rev. Victor Wells, St. Louis, Missouri, delivered an inspiration address from the theme, "Evidence of God in The Life of a Dynamic Leader." Following the address the Rev. Kaigler sang, "Something Within." Preceding the sermon by the Rev. W. M. Hall of Macon, Georgia, Mrs. Mary Townsend of Oklahoma sang, "I'm A Child of The King." Rev. Hall preached from the theme, "Elijah's Enemies and God's Unseen Majority," as his text he used 2nd Kings 6: 15-17. Following the fine dynamic sermon, the Rev. Matthew Neil sang, "My Heavenly Father Watches Over Me." President J. H. Jackson commended Rev. Hall for his message. The President then presented Dr. S. A. Owens, the Vice President-At-Large to make a financial appeal for the American Baptist Theological Seminary. Dr. Owens made a moving appeal for Ministerial Education. The amount as reported was $691.00.

Thus the morning session came to a close with the benediction being pronounced by the Rev. W. M. Hall.

The Board of Directors re-assembled at 2:45 P.M. with vice president E. D. Billoups, presiding. Devotions were introduced by Rev. E. M. Kaigler. Greetings from the Southern Baptists were brought by Dr. Guy Bellamy, Secretary of Work with Negroes of that body. Solo, "I'd Rather Have a Jesus," was sung by Mrs. Elmer Townsend, Oklahoma. President Jackson made introductory remarks setting forth the rules of procedure for the deliberators. Persons on the rostrum except officers will be guests of the body. Those participating will use the floor instead of the rostrum. The democratic right would be extended to all, but order would be maintained:

The agenda was distributed.

Item Seven—The report of the Committee on Entertainment of the Convention in 1957 was made by Dr. E. A. Freeman, co-chairman, of Kansas City, Missouri. Dr. Freeman explained the conflict in dates for use of the Municipal Auditorium which would make it impossible for Kansas City to entertain the convention at its usual time in September. He offered us alternatives for the following propositions:

1. Use of the dates, August 20-25, 1956 in which case the auditorium would be available;
2. The use of a smaller auditorium at the regular time (auditorium would seat 4,000);
3. Use of other cities.

Dr. Freeman expressed regret over development and stated that his committee would not feel badly of the Board if it chose a more suitable location in the light of conditions which he had described. President Jackson indicated that following receipt of this information from Kansas City leaders he had made contact with a few to obtaining alternate sites. He then presented Dr. Ballou of Kentucky who spoke of the possibilities for facilities in Louisville, Kentucky. He indicated that only available auditorium at the regular time of the convention would be the Armory which seats 9,000 persons. He thought housing arrangements could be made satisfactorily on motion by Dr. T. S. Harten, New York, the Board of Directors voted to accept the invitation to hold the 1957 session of the Convention at Louisville by a vote of 36 to 6. President Jackson expressed sympathy for the Kansas City Committee and thanks for its efforts.

Item Six—The question of sending a representative this March to Ghana or Gold Coast on the occasion of the observance of their independence. On motion by Dr. M. L. King, Sr., Georgia, that our representative be the President of the Convention, the Board approved Item Six.

Item Nine—A brief review of some items from the Auditor's report for 1956 Dr. Jemison was asked to read from the Auditor's report. Following the reading and a discussion which followed, the Board voted on a motion by Rev. O. D. Pelt, seconded by Rev. E. D. Barnes, that in view of the fact statements have been circulated since the Denver session of the convention to the effect that the Convention was just about bankrupt, the convention will give the persons responsible for stating and publishing such allegations a chance to prove their statements. Failure to produce the facts to substantiate the statements would result in their being called into account by the Board of Directors at its session in September, 1957. The proposal was approved by a vote 45-0. A poll of the entire house by President Jackson revealed that the vote was almost unanimous in favor of upholding the action taken by the board of Directors. Dr. M. L. King, Sr., raised the question for clarification regarding the period covered by the audit from which the review was made and the question about the absence of any subsequent audit since the Denver session. The facts revealed that instead of the convention's being "just about bankrupt," it had liquid assets amounting to more than $350,000.00 at the close of the 1956 Audit.

Dr. Jackson announced that Rev. Orlando Mitchell would preach on Illinois night, Wednesday night and urged everyone to return. With Dr. Owen, vice president, presiding, Dr. C. C. Adams, Secretary of the Foreign Mission Board made a brief statement indicating his pleasure that the Convention was liquid. He stated that he did not know of the Commercial Account of the Foreign Mission Board, and pleaded for continued support of the Foreign Mission Board Program by the constituents of the convention. Dr. E. A. Freeman offered prayer.

BENEDICTION.

The vote was for 28 and voting against 3.

The Board of Directors again voted unanimously to authorize every Board to enter into written contracts of agreement with every full-time executive, this to be done within ninety days.

AUDITOR'S REPORT

September 6, 1956

Dr. J. H. Jackson
President
National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Incorporated
In Convention Assembled
Denver, Colorado
My dear Dr. Jackson:

In accordance with your appointment of me to audit the books and records of the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Incorporated, its Boards, Commissions, Departments, and Officers, and upon the approval of my appointment by the Board of Directors of your Convention, I am handing you and the Convention my report of these audits for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1956, as required in Section 3, Article V of the Revised Constitution of the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Incorporated.

I am a certified public accountant as required in Article XV of the Constitution of the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Incorporated.

This audit is presented in the form of exhibits, schedules and comments. They are appropriately set forth in this report and titled in such manner that they may be easily located.

During the fiscal year ended on June 30, 1956, your auditor has held himself available for conferences and advice to all units of the Convention whenever such service and advice were required. Several Boards called on your auditor for these services. Several did not.

Several units of the Convention did not, even, submit their records for audit. These omissions are set forth in other sections of this report. All were invited to do so.

As President of the Convention, you have sought my advice from time to time. I have done my best to advise you and the Convention in the areas of accounting, administration, and economics. The reports of some of these units reflect the recognition of this advice. Some, of course, ignored it altogether.

Respectfully submitted,
Jesse B. Blayton

SUMMARY COMMENTS

The Business Boards of the Convention marketed goods and services during the fiscal year just closed in the aggregate total of $973,960.64 or $15,065.00 more than the next preceding year. These Boards brought down as net profit $159,304.08 or $38,239.28 more than in 1954-1955. The Sunday School Publishing Board employed its profits largely in the maintenance of the Missionary Baptist Training School in Nashville, and expenditures in connection with other Convention properties. It also employed much of its revenues in the liquidation of its own debts. The Baptist Training Union Board realized only a small profit. This profit was used in the improvement of its own position. The Sanitarium-Bath House realized a profit of $5,852.54, significantly more than the previous year. More than all of its profit was remitted to the Convention.

Total assets shown in the Comparative Consolidated Balance Sheet of the Convention and its units as June 30, 1956, amounted to $3,366,702.77 or approximately $12,000.00 less than a year ago. The decrease in total assets is not to be construed to indicate that the Convention is in worse financial condition now than last year. As a matter of fact, the combined increase is unassigned funds increased by more than $87,000.00 during the year just closed. Current liabilities were reduced by $77,630.31 during the year under audit, and $8,333.33 was paid on the principal amount of the Mortgage to the Reconstruction Finance Corporation. At the year's end, the combined current assets equaled 14.8 per cent of total assets while current liabilities represented 6.35 per cent of total consolidated assets.

The Foreign Mission Board continues to be the most liquid of the Convention units. During the year just closed this Board made important expenditures in the renovation of its headquarters building in Philadelphia. The Board is in a healthy fiscal position, but attention is called to the fact that its expenses exceeded its income in fiscal 1956 by some $19,000.00. In fiscal 1955, its expenses exceeded its income by some $23,000.00. The Executive of this Board and its Officers are mindful of this trend and striving to reverse it.

Comments pertaining to the respective units of the Convention are appropriately accompanying the reports of the related departments. Comments under this title, then are for emphasis, even, at the expense of repetition and redundancy.

1. The Convention Proper collected more money in the year just closed than has ever been collected in any year in the history of the convention.
2. For the first time in twenty years, at least, the Convention Proper has made investments in other than land, buildings, equipment, and the like. In the year just ended, the Convention Proper purchased $40,000.00 of U. S. Treasury Bonds bearing 3% and due in 1995. These bonds are currently quoted at 95.1.
3. At the close of business, June 30, 1955, the Convention owed a bank $10,000.00. During the year just closed, this liability has been liquidated. The Convention borrowed $7,000.00 from a bank in the latter part of the year just closed. This debt was outstanding at the end of the audit year and is reported in the Consolidated Balance Sheet.
4. The Convention Proper made no contribution to the Missionary Baptist Training School in Nashville, nor to the School in Washington, D. C., but it did pay $5,000.00 to Dr. L. A. Bowman for the account of the American Baptist Theological Seminary in Nashville. (See, also, reports of the Treasurer and the Seminary).
5. The Board of Directors (Trustees) of the American Baptist Theological Seminary voted that its books should be audited by an auditor not affiliated with the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Incorporated nor with the Southern Baptist Convention (white). The auditor of the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Incorporated was, nevertheless, invited to review the working papers of the auditor who performed the audit. While your auditor takes no responsibility for what is contained in that audit, he believes that it is substantially correct. After all, your auditor has been checking this Seminary from month to month throughout the year and was already informed, in a general way, about its finances.

6. The Sunday School Publishing Board made a profit for the year just ended of nearly $153,000.00. It will be recalled that this Board was heavily in debt because of its assumption of the "tail-end" debt arising out of the Bath House—debts of which were formerly in the name of the Finance Commission. This Board also bore almost all of the cost of the support of the Missionary Training School at Nashville. The Board is now as heavily indebted as at the close of the last fiscal period. Your auditor has been called in by the Sunday School Publishing Board regarding an important matter concerned with the building which it occupies, but which belongs to the Convention. The City of Nashville and its subordinate, coordinate, and preordinate units have bought up all properties in the area of this building except it. There are adjacent areas which it could acquire. (See, also, report of Attorney).
7. The Baptist Training Union Board is still writhing under the sale of the building which it had purchased, but which belonged to the Convention. This building was sold in the fiscal year, 1954-1955 for approximately $32,000.00. The Convention used, and accounted for the expenditure of this fund.
8. The Convention Attorney should look into the title of the so-called "Foreign Mission Retreat" in Washington, D. C. Frankly, your auditor has not found out anything about this title. See, also, reports for the last three years. Study carefully reports of the Woman's Convention. Your auditor does not know what property this unit owns. He, also, does not know whether this unit owns the RETREAT in Washington. Your auditor, also, knows nothing about the School which Dr. Nannie H. Burroughs heads. Yet, one of the units of this Convention makes significant contributions to this institution.
9. See, and study carefully reports prepared by those units which did not submit their books for audit.
10. Your auditor has consulted with the Convention Attorney with respect to a Retirement Fund for aged ministers. Your auditor filed with your Attorney a technical opinion. See, also, report of Convention Attorney. Since filing that report, your auditor has made additional research. He can tell the Board of Directors or/and the Convention his findings when called on to do so.
11. The fiscal position of the Home Mission Board is a MESS.
12. The Hot Springs Sanitarium-Bath House is operating at a profit—even better than ever before. Its cash records, however, are a MESS.
13. According to the records filed with your auditor, the Ministerial Benefit Board is miserably underfinanced.
14. The Moderators' Unit, the Laymen's Unit, the B.T.U. Congress, and several officers of the Convention ignored your auditor's request for an opportunity to audit their records. Usually, however, the Congress, the Laymen and here and there some of the officers (other than those appearing in this year's report) have placed their records at your auditor's disposal. The Moderators' Unit and the Educational Board never have.

OWNER OF THE MORRIS MEMORIAL BUILDING
NASHVILLE, TENNESSEE

COMMENTS

The Morris Memorial Building is a property of the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Incorporated. It is located in Nashville, Tennessee and houses several business units. Importantly among these are the Sunday School Publishing Board and the Baptist Training Union Board.

This building is under the general supervision and direction of the Sunday School Publishing Board. Notwithstanding this supervision, there is complete and unreserved recognition of the ownership of the building.

The Sunday School Publishing Board collects rents on behalf of its parent body, the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Incorporated. It also pays out of its income all expenses not provided by the rents of the building. These excesses are, however, charged to the National Baptist Convention through its Morris Memorial Building accounts receivable account. Year after year, the rents collected are measurably less than the cost of maintaining the property. The tenants occupying this building and their monthly and annual rates are shown in the schedule below:

Date of Lease	Term of Lease	Tenants	Monthly Rate	Paid In 1955-1956
Jan., 1956	One Year	Christine Rogers	$ 50.00	$ 600.00
Jan., 1956	Two Years	Atlanta Life Ins. Co.	187.50	2,250.00
Jan., 1956	One Year	Fuller Products Company	150.00	1,800.00
Jan., 1956	One Year	A. Z. Kelly	75.00	900.00
Feb., 1954	Five Years	B. T. U. Board	325.00	3,900.00
Jan., 1956	One Year	Stella Russel	135.00	1,620.00
None	At Will	Sunday Sch. Pub. Board	1,000.00	12,000.00
Totals			$1,922.50	$23,070.00

The custom in use with respect to the Morris Memorial Building is such that the tenant signs a note for the full rental for the entire life of the lease. In the hands of the landlord, these notes would represent unearned income, if the notes were carried as assets. The amounts earned would, of course, increase with the lapse of time. If all rents are paid as due, the notes would decrease accordingly. That is exactly what is happening except that the Sunday School Publishing Board is carrying them in its assets having given the owner (The Convention-Morris Memorial Building) credit in its accounts receivable account.

While the Sunday School Publishing Board makes an annual journal entry charging itself with $12,000.00 for rent as shown in the schedule above and credits that amount to the debt which the Convention owes it, this is not the entire picture. The Sunday School Publishing Board actually pays all of the maintenance costs of the building. These costs are paid, but not included in the expenses of the board, rather they are charged to accounts receivable. Since the Convention is unable to repay these outlays made in its behalf, the payments constitute actual costs to the Board. Items which your auditor could identify as belonging to this category for the year just closed are:

Salaries and Wages—Custodial Employees (13)	$24,367.36
Light	1,101.43
Power	1,012.22
Fuel and Water	449.18
Other Maintenance Costs	5,081.94
Total	$32,076.46

The net effect is that the Sunday School Publishing Board is paying approximately $22,000.00 per year for its rent although its books show only $12,000.00 for this purpose. The difference is in the accounts receivable account due from the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Incorporated—Morris Memorial Building. As if it had not already been made clear above, it is repeated that the Sunday School Publishing Board actually keeps amounts paid by other tenants for rent. Such amounts only partially offset what the Board has expended for maintenance.

Depreciation has not been computed on the building.

OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

COMMENTS

In addition to duties usually performed by the President of the Convention, the year just closed saw the President serving as Chairman of May 17th Day of Prayer; and performing services concerned with Negroes' Declaration of Intention, and other extraneous activities. These extra assignments required expenditures beyond the budget provided in the usual presidential allotment.

The President's receipts and assignments are set forth in an appropriately titled schedule. The schedule shows amounts expended in addition to receipts. If the Board of Directors orders it, this excess should be refunded to the President.

Although your auditor requested vouchers and other evidences of expenditures concerned with the extraordinary assignments, the President was out of the country at the time and did not have time or opportunity to file these.

OFFICE OF THE TREASURER

COMMENTS

The Treasurer of the Convention is its chief fiscal officer. During the year just closed, the Convention Proper received and the Treasurer accounted fully on $133,411.70. Disbursements upon proper vouchers amounted to $129,376.38. Disbursements included an expenditure of $40,210.33 for the purchase of $40,000.00 par value 3% U. S. Treasury Bonds maturing in 1995. This is regarded as a good yield security and well suited for long term investment.

The Treasurer received several checks which for one reason or another were not honored. These have received proper accounting treatment in the records. The records of the Treasurer's office are adequate for his purposes. Such record deficiencies as existed have been corrected. Accompanying exhibits and schedules adequately explain all receipts and expenditures for the period under review.

Funds are constructively collected by the Financial Secretary with a Finance Committee assisting him. These funds are deposited in a bank where the Convention meets and transferred to the regular depository banks. Up to the time of this report, your auditor did not have the records of the office of the Financial Secretary. It is assumed, nevertheless, that the system employed for recording registration fees and other collections by the Financial Secretary and the Finance Committee is such as to insure full and complete accounting of receipts prior to coming into the custody of the Treasurer.

The Treasurer's report shows more cash and other liquid assets than have been shown by this office during the tenure of your present auditor. Significant among expenditures are payments to Dr. L. A. Bowman of $5,000.00 in liquidation of a loan, and one to the Central-Penn National Bank for a like purpose in the amount of $10,000.00. Whether or not the Convention is indebted further to these creditors is not shown by the records of the Treasurer.

The Convention is still indebted to the Foreign Mission Board in the amount of $17,360.00 (principal). This is the balance of a $30,000.00 loan made by the Foreign Mission Board to the Convention in 1950. The original loan provided for $6,000.00 annual principal payments, and interest at the annual rate of 4%. The only payment made on this line, during the year just closed, was one of $640.00. This payment was, in fact, made by the Bath House—Sanitarium in Hot Springs, Arkansas and is not shown on the Treasurer's records.

Also, not shown on the records of the Treasurer are the following:

- One annual payment to the Convention which it used to amortize its obligation to the Reconstruction Finance Corporation in the amount of $8,333.33 plus interest. This payment was actually made by the Bath House—Sanitarium.
- Two payments aggregating $5,000.00 paid by the Bath House—Sanitarium to the Convention. This item would, of course, appear in the receipt records of the Financial Secretary. The Treasurer's receipts are shown on his books in summary only, which, of course, is proper.

FINANCE COMMISSION
COMMENTS

The Finance Commission was practically inactive during the year just closed. During the year, the Executive Secretary of the Commission spent much time and energy in reviewing the transactions of the unit for the past ten years, particularly, with respect to debenture bond records. Your auditor reviewed this work and found that it was being progressed in an orderly and professional manner.

During the year, the Cohen Brothers Furniture Company of Hot Springs made a claim for $5,000.00 as the balance on the Bath House—Hotel furniture and equipment account. The furniture firm had agreed to make a contribution of this amount. Later the firm was dissolved and one of the partners then claimed that the promise to make the contribution was without consideration; hence, unenforceable. After much correspondence and negotiation, the bill was honored. Other expenditures were concerned with audit expenses and the payment of one $50.00 debenture bond and interest. Other items were unimportant and are shown on the appropriate schedule.

SUNDAY SCHOOL PUBLISHING BOARD
COMMENTS

This Board is resident in Nashville, Tennessee. It is conducted by a Board of Directors through an Executive Committee consisting of a Chairman, a Secretary, a Treasurer, and one other member. The Secretary of the Executive Committee is the Corresponding Secretary of the Board and managing officer of the business conducted by the Board.

This unit is ably managed by its managing officer and his staff. Its records are maintained under the supervision of a registered public accountant and a corps of able assistants. The editorial, manufacturing and sales departments are efficiently conducted by department heads under the general supervision of the secretary.

Traditionally, this unit has provided a major portion of the funds for Convention capital purposes. This year, however, except for the general support of the National Baptist Training School at Nashville, this Board made minor contributions to Convention programs. The Board still labors under accounts and notes payable which arose out of the financing of the Bath House in Hot Springs. It will be recalled that this Board borrowed funds with which it paid off loans which had been provided by the Finance Commission in prior years. At the year's end, this unit owed current liabilities of approximately $147,000.00 compared with similar liabilities a year ago of nearly $205,000.00. Except for cash, which was approximately $10,000.00 less at June 30, 1956 than a year ago, current assets were unimportantly different than at the close of fiscal 1955.

Net sales of the business operated by the Board for the year just closed amounted to $769,414.07 which was approximately $2,000.00 more than for the next preceding year. Net profit for fiscal 1956 amounted to $152,596.59 which was approximately $37,000.00 more than for fiscal 1955.

The Sunday School Publishing Board serves as management for the Morris Memorial Building. See, also, comments on Morris Memorial Building.

The $1.00 per hour minimum wage adversely affected the profit of this Board. While most employees received more than the legal minimum, when those who did not were increased, those holding next higher grades had to be increased, and so on in order that the relative grade differentials might be maintained.

Expenditures of the Board for the support of the Missionary Baptist Training School have been approved by the Executive Committee of the Sunday School Publishing Board and have not been prohibited by the Convention. Likewise, the management of this Board charged to the Convention $36,000.00 during the year just closed and explained that the expenditure was concerned with a reserve fund for the Training School. This amount was paid to the Treasurer of the Training School and was approved by the Board's Executive Committee.

COMMENTS

This Board is located in Nashville, Tennessee. It occupies space in the Morris Memorial Building for which it pays the Convention through the Sunday School Publishing Board $325.00 per month for inadequate quarters for its purposes.

The Board is ably managed. Its finances are well ordered. Its working capital ratio at the close of fiscal 1956 was a little better than 2.5 to 1. This is a good ratio for the type of business conducted. The unit enjoys an excellent credit rating with its trade creditors and the banking institutions with which it does business.

The managing officer of the Board has demonstrated high level administrative capacity. Accounting and technical duties of the Board are ably directed by a highly trained business expert.

Gross sales for the period just closed amounted to approximately 4% more than in fiscal 1955. Because of the $1.00 per hour minimum wage which went into effect this year, cost of goods rose importantly for the fiscal period under review. Even with the increased costs, net profit for the year was about what it was for the next preceding year.

At the policy level, this Board is directed by a Board of Directors represented by an Executive Committee. The Committee meets regularly and reviews the operations of the business by the management. Expenditures are approved by the Board Chairman and checks are signed by the Treasurer of the Board.

All Issac Memorial Fund assets were inspected by your auditor except U. S. Bonds which are held by the Treasurer. No request was made for inspection of these securities.

NATIONAL BAPTIST SANITARIUM—BATH HOUSE

COMMENTS

This is an unincorporated unit of the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Incorporated. It is located in Hot Springs, Arkansas. The unit operates a modern hotel, and under a license from the United States Department of The Interior, it operates a Bath House. The unit is managed by a general manager under the supervision of a Commission.

The management is able as was that which it succeeded. Partly, because a regular bookkeeper was not employed until late in the fiscal period under audit, and partly for other reasons, the books when audited contained numerous errors of omission and commission. Examples of these non-conforming bookkeeping procedures are:

1. It was necessary for your auditor to adjust five of the seven cash accounts maintained. The other two still contained unredeemed petty cash tickets.
2. Several hundred dollars of receipts had not been entered in the cash records, but found to be resident in cash inventories. Your auditor cannot say, of course, whether any other funds were received which were not recorded and which are not contained in inventories or recorded in the disbursements.
3. Cash records show the following items expended in cash without the benefit of checks, although the system calls for all receipts to be deposited intact and all disbursements shall be made by check:

	Date	Amount
11/30/55		$ 755.30
12/31/55		583.61
1/31/56		109.56
2/29/56		606.74
3/31/56		153.27
Total		$2,213.07

It is not the intention of the auditor to give the impression that these funds were not ultimately accounted for. Rather, it is intended to show the irregular method of handling the funds.

4. Cash records show the following amounts as having been deposited in banks. In fact, these amounts were never deposited as such:

	Date	Amount
11/10/55		$ 204.45
11/22/55		88.87
11/ 5/55		396.90
Total		$ 700.22

5. The cash records show 95 individual instances of "cash long" or "cash short" with respect to daily reports. Thus, the handling of the unit's cash resulted in errors in 26 per cent of the total days in a fiscal year. These errors resulted in book shortages of $1,250.95. They were, however, found to be covered by other errors.
6. Eight official receipts were issued during the period covering amounts paid to the unit by various organized groups which held meetings at the Hotel. The amounts thus paid were not intended as payments for services rendered or to be rendered by the Hotel or the Bath House. These funds were to be held in trust for the groups. Your auditor finds no fault with accepting funds in this way, but is seriously aggrieved by the fact that the funds were paid out to purposes directed by the groups in cash. Neither receipt nor the payments were entered in the cash records of the unit. This practice could lead to loss to the unit, since the organizations hold receipts for funds turned over and the unit holds no receipt for its surrender.

7. During the period under audit, and possibly, partly in the earlier next preceding period, some $640.00 had been accumulated in the safe of the unit, growing out of contributions to it. The funds were being held without the benefit of record. When the unit was ready to make a payment of $640.00 to the Foreign Mission Board on behalf of the National Baptist Convention, the money was taken out of the safe, receipted for and entered in the records. Whereupon, a check to the Foreign Mission Board was issued against the funds thus provided. The danger of this procedure is obvious and requires no further comment.

8. This unit has made several remittances to the National Baptist Convention U.S.A., Incorporated, during the fiscal period just closed. Among them were:

(a) A check for $8,333.33 to cover the 1955 maturity due the Reconstruction Finance Corporation on the unpaid balance of its mortgage. Fund made available by surplus accumulation in prior periods.

(b) A check toward the interest on the above described indebtedness $909.28.

(c) Two checks aggregating $5,000.00. Fund made available largely out of surplus accumulations in prior periods.

9. At July 1, 1955, this unit held cash accounts totaling $12,166.98. At June 30, 1956 these balances aggregated $2,748.98. Payments mentioned in 8 above must be considered, if a valid comparison is to be drawn. Also, the unit paid for its own account other items not heretofore borne by it, amounting to some $8,000.00.

Income in all major categories was importantly more than in the preceding year. Also, in spite of the payment by the unit of many expense items during the year just ended which had heretofore been paid by the Finance Commission, the unit held its expenses under control. Although managerial salaries were significantly increased and Board Officers were paid modest salaries, the unit shows a net profit significantly higher than the next preceding year.

It is recommended that the management study the quality of certain of the accounts receivable of the unit. If they be found worthless, they should be charged against surplus. If, however, there is a fair chance of realizing upon them, they should be continued in the records. Perhaps, an increased reserve might result from this study.

Capital assets of the unit which were acquired by the Finance Commission are not carried on the ledgers of the unit. If the Bath House Commission and the Board of Directors of the Convention feel that these assets should be carried on the books of the unit, the Convention auditor is prepared to furnish requisite journal entries to effectuate that result.

FOREIGN MISSION BOARD

COMMENTS

This Board continues to operate in an efficient manner. The receipts of this Board were increased from some $232,000.00 for fiscal 1955 to approximately $243,000.00 in fiscal, 1956. The deficit from operations in the fiscal year just closed was reduced from $22,539.10 to $19,822.98. While this was a substantial improvement over the previous year, the management of this Board must now busy itself to the end that these deficits may be returned to surpluses. The Board has a substantial reserve fund, but if these deficits continue, the Board must importantly increase its income—otherwise, the reserve will be consumed. Over a long period of years, this Board has built up these reserves. It must now cautiously relate its income to its expenditures.

Keeping in mind legal minimum wage and hour laws, the management of this Board has importantly increased its administration salaries, and its missionary costs. To keep pace with this legislation and social policy consistent therewith, the Board has increased its salary costs some $7,000.00, more or less.

The records of this Board are in excellent condition. The person responsible for accounting progressions is apparently well qualified to perform his duties.

The top management of this Board continues to exhibit the professional skill that is necessary for the efficient supervision of such unit. Certainly, within the Baptist family, he is surpassed by none.

It has been necessary to realize upon some investments in order to underwrite deficits for the current year and the immediately previous one. The management of the Board has been able to do this without "shock" to his overall investment program.

Your auditor found that the Woman's Convention reduced its obligation to this Board from $25,000.00 to $15,000.00 during the fiscal year just closed. The Board's parent body, the National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Incorporated, however, only reduced its debt to this Board in the principal sum $640.00 during the fiscal year just closed. It should be noted that the National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Incorporated was already in arrears with this Board in the principal sum of some $8,000.00. 1956 fiscal maturities should be added to these 1954-1955 delinquencies. It would follow, then, that the lowered liquidity of this Board is at least, due in part, to the lack of performance on the part of its parent body with respect to its own debts to this Board.

This audit developed certain obligation of its employees to the Board. These were unimportant in amount; nevertheless, your auditor felt that he was under obligation to report this fact to the Convention.

Overall, this Board is well managed. Its accounting records are in excellent condition.

NATIONAL BAPTIST CONVENTION, U.S.A., INC.HOME MISSION BOARD*COMMENTS

This Board continues to be one of the most poorly financed units of the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Incorporated. In spite of noticeable improvement in the quality of record keeping of the Board, its fiscal policies and procedures still leave much to be desired.

During the fiscal year closed on June 30, 1956, the Board's records coupled with auditor's conclusions showed total receipts of $17,263.23. Of this total $3,327.00 came from borrowings and $1,362.44 came from undetermined sources. Also, in order to bring the records into agreement with factual findings, it was necessary to show that the managing officer (Corresponding Secretary) had employed $2,086.23 of his personal funds in meeting Board expenditures. This pattern is reflected year after year. Your auditor takes no responsibility for liabilities to the Secretary thus created. After all, there is considerable confusion between the transactions of the Board and those of its Corresponding Secretary.

Based on your auditor's findings the Board spent in the year just ended 52 per cent of its receipts for mission stipends, and 14.2 per cent for mission education. Thus, 66.6 per cent of its total receipts was used for administrative and related purposes.

The debt structure of the Board is related by the Corresponding Secretary is not a healthy one. Nor is it without much confusion in law, principle and in fact. At the close of fiscal year 1954-1955, the management of the Board did not assert any loan obligations. Now, at the end of fiscal, 1956, the amount of $15,222.79 is asserted. Of this amount $2,206.14 is shown to have arisen in the year just closed.

Since loans payable are now reported by the Board management at $15,222.79, and since loan payments during the year under review amounted to $5,340.51, and new loans secured totaled $3,327.00, it would seem to follow that loans outstanding at the close of the previous fiscal year must have been $17,236.30. The tangled condition of the Board's finances did not permit the Board management to declare that liability at that time. Nor, is it clear to your auditor whether these obligations are those of the Board or those of the Corresponding Secretary, personally.

It is further observed that these loans payable are secured by real estate, personal endorsements, personal savings account of the Corresponding Secretary and sundry other security. Thus, the obligations of the Board are as confused as its current cash flow. Since at least some of the loans payable are secured by real estate, your auditor recommends that the Convention attorney determine whether or not record title to the affected property is in the Board or the Convention—or either.

The Home Mission Board at the policy and director level is constituted of five distinguished Baptist Ministers as Officers, and five equally distinguished ministers as its executive committee. Your auditor can find no reliable evidence that any of these officers or executive committee members pay any attention whatever to the management or guidance of the Board. Whether or not responsible officers of this Board (except the Corresponding Secretary) ever even read its audit reports is seriously questioned by your auditor.

NATIONAL BAPTIST CONVENTION, U.S.A., INC. MINISTERIAL BENEFIT BOARD COMMENTS

This Board spent, according to its records, $4,845.98. It collected only $3,403.70. Of the payments, $1,525.00 went to the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Incorporated towards its Diamond Jubilee. At June 30, 1956, the records of this Board showed a deficit of $2,611.37. The term "deficit" as used with reference to this Board does not have its usual accounting meaning. Here, it means that the Board has no funds and owes its administration what we have referred to as its deficit.

Under the allocation of receipts formula, the Retirement Fund has a positive balance of $1,339.44, but its general Fund balance is red in the amount of $3,950.81.

When questioned about the low level of receipts of this Board, its Corresponding Secretary stated that he spent most of his time working on the "One Million Dollar Drive" and that . . . "I found that I could not carry water on both shoulders at the same time." See, also, comments contained in audit for fiscal 1955.

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY—OFFICE OF TREASURER
COMMENTS

The unit is one of the Auxiliaries of the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Incorporated. It elects its directors and officers, and manages its own affairs, always, however, as a unit of its parent body.

During the fiscal year just closed, total receipts amounted to $64,489.71. This was approximately $6,000.00 less than the next preceding year. Disbursements for the fiscal year ended on June 30, 1956 totaled $68,836.06. The unit spent nearly $7,000.00 less than it did in fiscal 1955. All disbursements were supported by proper authorization.

The accounting records of the unit are adequate and are neatly and accurately maintained. It is suggested, however, that in the future the officer who makes original collections of funds from messengers and others make her records available to your auditor. At present, the records show amounts turned over to the secretary and treasurer in lump sums as they are received from the original collecting officer or committee. It is presumed by your auditor that the recording secretary should maintain the record suggested next above.

During the fiscal year closed last June 30th, the Woman's Convention made payments to the Foreign Mission Board totaling $10,000.00 on the loan which it owes to that Board. Several other payments were made to the Foreign Mission Board during fiscal 1956. These totaled $10,832.41 and had to do with the obligation on the Foreign Mission Retreat in Washington, D.C. Your auditor again calls to the attention of the proper authorities that the Washington property does not appear on the books of any of the units of the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Incorporated, not does your auditor know in which unit, if any, the title to this property stands. Certainly, the attorneys for the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Incorporated and/or the Woman's Convention, should give the proper officers assurance with respect to this subject without delay.

COMMENTS

Balance At End of Period

For the period just closed, the receipts show a decrease of some $9,000.00 from those of last year, reflected in an increase in individual giving, Church donations and a new source of income, the Five Thousand Fellowship, overshadowed by a decrease in giving from Board Members, Associations, and Conventions, and a decrease in subsidization by the Sunday School Publishing Board. The School has been placed in critical financial straits for the period just closed, and only the strictest economy of management has made it possible to operate. The total receipts decreased almost in the same proportion as the total disbursements, so that the management was actually effected on a very narrow margin.

Although the period closed with a bank balance of some $3,600.00, it must be considered that the outstanding current indebtedness of the School rendered this sum insufficient, and actually the period closed with a deficit of over $3,500.00.

Financing Auxiliary Operation

It was gratifying to note that the operation of the Boarding Department had been budgeted so that the cost of operation was reduced while the receipts from boarders increased. The fact that teachers paid board and room of $35.00 per month, this year, and the President paid $15.00 per month room, helped effect this improvement in cost of operation.

Accreditation:

The Management of the School deserves commendation for foresight in getting the School accredited, and is to be congratulated for performing a difficult task well. It should be obvious that with the improved scholastic rating which the School now enjoys, the appeal to more persons as potential students will be greater, and an increased student body, which is the preferable way to increase operating income, should be forthcoming.

Records:

Although the receipts and disbursements are recorded in daily record books, there is a need for a General Ledger, for Accounts Receivable Ledgers for Students, and Accounts Payable Ledgers, if an interbalancing system is to be in operation. A Bank Ledger which would enable receipts and deposits to be grouped together, would make receipts more easily traceable.

COMMENTS

This unit is a degree granting Seminary operated for the purpose of training its students for professional careers in the Christian ministry. It is supported jointly by the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Incorporated and the Southern Baptist Convention.

By vote of the Directors (Trustees) of the Seminary, auditors not holding membership in either of the sponsoring conventions were selected to make the audit for the fiscal year closed, June 30, 1956. The auditor of the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Incorporated, was, however, invited to study the audit working papers before the formal report was prepared. The auditing firm of R. Bartley Campbell and Associates made the audit. Sections of this audit are submitted as presented to your auditor. In your auditor's opinion, the report is prepared in a highly professional manner and in accordance with modern reporting for educational institutions.

REPORT OF ATTORNEY A. T. WALDEN

SEPTEMBER 6, 1956

DENVER, COLORADO

Mr. President, Officers and Members of the National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Incorporated:

Greetings:

I am equally grateful to the greatest body of organized Negro religionists in the world for having had the privilege of serving as its attorney and counsellor for another year and to a gracious Providence which has been good to me far beyond my just deserts.

Boards and Committee Meetings

In addition to attending the adjourned session of the Convention held at Hot Springs, Arkansas in January, I have attended the Board of Directors meeting in Chicago, Illinois, in June and meetings of the Executive Committee of the National Baptist Convention Baptist Training Union Board at Nashville, Tennessee.

Garland County, Arkansas Suit Against Hot Springs Bath House

In my last year's report, information was given you concerning the litigation at Hot Springs wherein the State was seeking to enjoin our Bath House, along with other Bath Houses there, from practicing or attempting to practice the profession of masseurs without registering with and securing authority from the Arkansas State Board of Masseurs.

The Bath Houses won in the Trial Court and I stated then that after studying the pleadings and briefs filed in the case, that in my opinion the Supreme Court of Arkansas would uphold the judgment and decree of the Trial Court. Since then it did just that and therefore the cases have finally terminated in favor of the Bath Houses, including our own.

Merger—American Baptist Theological Seminary and National Baptist Missionary Training School

At the 1955 Memphis Session of this Convention information was given relative to the proposed merger of the above named institutions. At that time recommendations of the Joint-Commission was read in which for the reasons therein stated, the proposed merger was postponed for another year.

Since then your Attorney has not been called upon to participate in the further prosecution of said matter nor has his advice been sought relative to the same. No doubt the President of the Convention or the Chairman of the merger committee will make a report on this matter.

Sunday School Publishing Board Building

The Sunday School Publishing Board property, the legal title to which vests in this Convention, free from control from any other source, is the most valuable single material asset of the National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Incorporated, its revenues having largely sustained the objective projects and activities of the parent body over the years. As a business it is one of the best managed and conducted businesses operated by Negroes anywhere in the nation and constitutes the crowning glory of Negroes generally and of Negro Baptists particularly.

The above statement forms the background for the observations and recommendations which follow, the same having been transmitted to the President of the Convention.

The Re-development Project of the City of Nashville, Tennessee, and the Expressway which will pass through the heart of the city in the area occupied by our Sunday School Publishing Board building, have resulted in the condemnation of blocks of property there which have been torn down to make way for those improvements.

The property on the north end and the east side of the SS Pub. Building has been condemned and torn down, leaving absolutely no room for any expansion of our property nor for any adequate means of access to and from the property.

In light of the foregoing it is absolutely necessary that we take steps to keep us from being bottled up by surrounding properties. The City of Nashville is now in the process of disposing of all property adjacent to the SS Pub. building and unless we act soon it will be too late to get any relief. It is imperative, therefore, that a Special Committee should be selected by the Board of Directors with the Convention's approval, which shall be clothed with power and authority to negotiate for the purchase the minimum space adjacent to our property that it might be protected while it is still possible to do so.

I am suggesting therefore, that we shall take steps to have such a committee appointed. I shall bring to the meeting of the Board of Directors appropriate resolution to accomplish the above objective and am requesting that you will place this matter on the agenda which will be submitted to the Board of Directors next Tuesday. I hope that I shall have the privilege of conferring briefly with you relative to this matter, exhibiting the plat of the area involved so that you may have a clear idea of what's involved.

For the purpose of putting into effect the recommendations herein proposed for adoption your attorney has prepared for consideration of the Directors and approval by the Convention appropriate resolutions.

Your attorney cannot urge too strongly that appropriate action on this matter be authorized now if the Convention desires to protect its million dollar investment at Nashville, Tennessee.

General Observations

The primary responsibility of your attorney is to safeguard and protect the legal interests of the Convention. He has long since taken steps to see to it that not a single foot of the Convention's property can be mortgaged or sold without the vote and authorization of the Convention and your chief executive officers must execute the requisite documents after such authority is given by the convention.

Your attorney, of course, has no authority or jurisdiction over your fiscal operations, the heads of departments being specifically charged with such authority and responsibility. However, it is his duty and responsibility to act upon his information or upon reliable information furnished by others whenever anything takes place which might detrimentally affect the material or financial interest of this Convention. He assures you that nothing and nobody shall be able to swerve him from the impartial and diligent performance of his obligation to you in that respect, for the simple reason he deems that his primary responsibility is to this Convention.

Respectfully Submitted,
(S) A. T. Walden
Attorney for the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Incorporated

IN MEMORIAM—DR. GEORGE W. HARVEY

We pause here for a moment to place a wreath of "Immortelles," on the memory of the Late Dr. George W. Harvey, Editor-in-Chief of the Sunday School Publishing Board, who laid aside his pen, August 9, 1956 and answered the CALL to come to receive his promised reward: "Be thou faithful unto the end, and I shall give thee eternal life."

Dr. Harvey made a unique contribution to the Christian Education program of the Baptist Denomination, in guiding the thinking of not only Adults but young people, through the Board's quarterly Sunday School publications and Christian Education materials, including the annual Commentaries on the Sunday School Lessons, and other literary helps.

We admired him for his orthodox and strict advocacy and adherence to the doctrines and principles of the New Testament. He was dogmatic and uncompromising in his beliefs, as to Baptist doctrines and principles. So, he was an invaluable asset, not only to the Baptists generally, as Editor-in-Chief to hold in check and keep on the right track—the editors and writers of the literature for our Baptist Constituency.

It is tragic when we stop to think, how fast the Baptists are losing ground in the passing off the scene—the veteran advocates and staunch defenders of the Baptist faith and doctrines.

Dr. Harvey was uncompromising, and we are going to miss him.
CROWNED—HE AWAITS OUR COMING.

The Work of the Convention Year 1955-1956

The Sunday School Publishing Board continues to perform cooperatively and faithfully its tasks, and the responsibilities with which it is charged in the production and distribution of the Sunday School literature, religious publications, and standard song books, etc., for our great denominational constituency. In addition, the Sunday School Publishing Board continues giving co-operation and support to certain objectives of the National Baptist Convention program, which we carry as contingent responsibilities:

(a) In the promotion of the Christian Education work of the National Baptist Convention through its Christian Education Department, and its Editorial Department, in sustaining membership and relationship, in the work and program of the Division of Christian Education of the National Council of Churches.

(b) In the support of the National Baptist Missionary Training School, repairs, etc., and insurance on buildings, equipment, etc.

(c) In the maintenance, repairs, replacements, equipment, upkeep, insurances, etc., of the Morris Memorial Building—Nashville, Tenn.

The Sunday School Publishing Board

Authorized Custodian of Morris Memorial Building

(Our Publishing House)

Twice at the Annual Meeting of the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc., Baltimore, Maryland, September 9-14, 1925, that the completed and fully equipped New Publishing House was turned over to the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc., by the duly authorized Building Committee, assigned the task with full power to buy and build a New Publishing House, to be the Home of the Sunday School Publishing Board.

The Building Committee was: E. M. Lawrence, Chairman; A. M. Townsend, Secretary; Wm. Haynes, Treasurer; L. K. Williams, R. B. Hudson, J. D. Crenshaw, S. P. Harris, E. T. Brown, E. W. D. Isaac.

The Building Committee having completed the task assigned was released amid encomiums of praise, applause and commendations.

(See Minutes, Page 240-W, National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc., Session—Baltimore, Maryland, September 9-14, 1925)

At this Session of the Convention also, by resolution it was voted to meet in Nashville, Tennessee, in a called Session of the Convention to dedicate this building in appropriate ceremonies in 1926.

The Dedication

(See Minutes, Page 230, National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc., Fort Worth, Texas, September 1926)

Quoted: Beginning Tuesday April 20, 1926, and closing, Sunday, April 25, 1926, The Morris Memorial—Home of the Sunday School Publishing Board, was dedicated with glorious and inspiring ceremonies.

They came from all sections of the Country in large numbers to witness and participate in this momentous and historic event.

President L. K. Williams preached the Dedicatory Sermon.

(See Pages 243-244—Minutes—National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc. Ft. Worth, Texas, —September 1926)

Quoted: "The completed and equipped Building and the keys with an offering were presented to the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc., by the Building Committee, Rev. E. M. Lawrence, Chairman.

In turn—the Building and equipment, and the keys were turned over to the Sunday School Publishing Board, by President L. K. Williams, and denominated the Custodian of this Building, equipment, etc.,

Response of acceptance, as custodian of the building with the keys was made by Dr. A. M. Townsend, Corresponding Secretary of the Sunday School Publishing Board.

This turn-over is here reviewed, for when the Building with the keys was turned over to the Sunday School Publishing Board, as custodian, it carried with it the responsibility for the upkeep of the building and its equipment, such as repairs, decorations, replacements, insurances, taxes, etc.

This responsibility and tasks the Sunday School Publishing Board has struggled to carry on, even though at the sacrifices of its own expansion program, and progress.

Some one asks: Where goes the profits of the operation of the Sunday School Publishing Board?

It is to these objectives of the National Baptist Convention, even at the sacrifice of its own expansion program, and its Christian Education program that a great part of the operating profits of the Sunday School Publishing Board have gone each year.

Contributions

There are always some interested, loyal and sympathetic donors, who realize that the Sunday School Publishing Board needs assistance in carrying on its work, especially the work of Christian Education and missions.

The Sunday School Publishing Board makes regularly, donation of Sunday School literature, religious publications and tracts, song books, etc. to prisons, jails, detention homes, charitable and benevolent institutions, public libraries, and mission stations in Africa, and Islands of the Sea, that are connected with our Foreign Mission Board, etc.

These donors thereby share with us the joy and the blessing that is ours, in thus contributing our part in the carrying out of our Lord's Great Commission, "Go ye therefore, and teach all nations; teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and, lo, I am with you, alway, even unto the end of the world."

To these donors, the Sunday School Publishing Board wishes to express its great appreciation for this evidence of their loyalty and interest in the work of the Board and especially its Christian Education program.

THE WORK OF THE CONVENTION YEAR 1956-1957

The work of the Sunday School Publishing Board for the year 1956-1957 will include its continuation to perform cooperatively and faithfully its tasks, and the responsibility with which it is charged in the production and distribution of the Sunday School literature and Christian Education literature and materials, and standard song books, etc., for our great denominational constituency.

Added responsibilities of cooperation of the Sunday School Publishing Board for the year 1956-1957:

(a) On account of the extensive improvement program of the Area in which your Publishing House stands, extensive repairs of the building inside and outside will have to be made (Estimated cost $30,000).

We would have you take note that the Morris Memorial Building—our Publishing House—is the only BUILDING that will be permitted to stand in that part of the extensive modern Improvement and Development area now in process around the Tennessee State Capitol.

This is evidence of the substantial construction of your Publishing House building and its estimated valuation of more than a million and a half dollars.

The Morris Memorial building (our Publishing House) sets only on the lot it owns. It is imperatively necessary that the Convention immediately seek to purchase adjoining space to the building for ingress and egress to the building. The cost of purchase of such easement space will be around 15,000 or 20,000 dollars.

(b) The building throughout will have to be re-decorated (estimated cost $35,000.00).

(c) The Machinery, mechanical department, presses, linotype machines, etc., are worn out and antedated, and will have to be replaced.

(d) The Editorial Department will have to be strengthened by efficient Editors, writers, etc., to bring and keep up to Standard our Literature, book publications, etc.

(e) Our Christian Education Department, with its Divisions must be augmented with efficient staff of workers, developed and brought up to meet the requirements of the Division of Christian Education of the National Council of Churches, and the more effective promotion of our Christian Education program for our Constituency.

(f) The marked increased cost of production, including printing materials, labor, taxes, etc. will have to be met.

(g) As Custodians of the Morris Memorial Building, the Insurance, Taxes, etc., will be the responsibility of the Sunday School Publishing Board.

RETRENCHMENT AND ECONOMY OF OPERATION

This forecast of the financial responsibilities in the co-operation of the Sunday School Publishing Board demands therefore, marked retrenchment and economy of operation for the year 1956-1957.

CONCLUSIVE SURVEY

This survey of the financial responsibilities, in the operation, etc., is conclusive that if the Sunday School Publishing Board is to continue to operate on a sound financial basis, it is not in position to continue its Contributions as in the past to the Convention, the N. B. M. Training School, the A. B. T. Seminary, and other units of the Convention.

APPRECIATION

The Sunday School Publishing Board solicits your full and hearty co-operation in every way, and especially in patronage of our Sunday School literature, and Christian Education publications, which are as good and as adaptable for standard use, as any published, and in some points excel, and,

We solicit also your unstinted support of our Christian Education Department, that we may be of increasingly larger helpfulness in the training of Christian Education leaders and workers in our churches, and in carrying forward the tasks assigned us for the progress and advancement of the Master's kingdom, and,

We recommend the re-election of the following as members of the Board of Directors of the Sunday School Publishing Board for the year 1956-1957: M. H. Ribbins, A. M. Townsend, L. A. Bowman, A. J. King, Ambrose Bennett, W. H. Brewster, A. L. McCargo, Charles L. Dinkins, H. C. Nabrit.

Respectfully submitted,
A. M. TOWNSEND, secretary

NATIONAL BAPTIST TRAINING UNION BOARD

ANNUAL REPORT

DENVER, COLORADO

SEPTEMBER 5-9, 1956

DR. ROLAND SMITH, Corresponding Secretary

DR. J. W. GAYDEN, Chairman

To the President, Officers and Messengers of the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A. Inc.
Greetings:

We have the honor to submit to you the annual report of the National Baptist Training Union Board which gives you an accounting of the stewardship of this Board for the fiscal year July 1, 1955—June 30, 1956. This report will include all of our work as it relates to the business operation, personnel, program, public relations and future plans of our Board. We would like for you to carefully consider what has been done considering limitations and difficulties which we have had to face and which we have attempted to overcome.

The work of this Board requires resourcefulness, sympathetic understanding, convictions, and faith to succeed. During the past year, we feel that we have made some progress in the building of a better and stronger Baptist Training Union Board.

Last year, in our annual report, we gave a list of some of the conditions which we found on assuming this office. As you may recall, there were problems which if not adjusted, would have handicapped the successful operation of our work. We are pleased to report, that we have now placed the Baptist Training Union Board on a firm financial basis of operation. This is due to the careful and firm handling of all phases of our financial operations.

The Executive Committee has given thoughtful, careful, and prayerful consideration to all problems in guiding this Board to success. The Executive Committee has held meetings during the year, in keeping with the By-Laws of the Baptist Training Union Board, at which time, statements of affairs affecting the Board were given the Executive Committee by the Corresponding Secretary. We wish to assure you that the Baptist Training Union Board has attempted to carry out the spirit, as well as, the law governing it.

The Corresponding Secretary, in assuming the Secretaryship of this Board, was conscious of his own limitations and the need of any help which could be given him in the advancement of the Baptist Training Union Board. Hence, he called upon all Board Members for advice and suggestions; and upon receipt of advice, made this recommendation to the Executive Committee that an Advisory Council on Literature and Curriculum should be appointed. This Committee on Literature and Curriculum, composed of some of our best preachers and devout laymen, accepted the responsibility of giving of their time and thought to the work of the Baptist Training Union through the careful studying and critical appraisal of our literature. The following persons are now members of this Advisory Council: Dr. B. E. Mays, Dr. M. L. King, Jr., Dr. E. C. Smith, Dr. R. L. Jones, Rev. Kelly M. Smith, and Mrs. Bessie S. Estell. As a result of a meeting in 1955, this committee, in collaboration with the Editors of our B.T.U. literature, met and set forth certain goals of our literature: (1) A better artistic representation of our literature through cover pages. (2) A better and more favorable appearance of our literature through a quality grade of paper. (3) An emphasis upon body contents which would include charts, maps, illustrative pictures and stories, which would make good and strong teaching material. (4) To discard all material which tends, through exaggeration and misstatements, to mislead learners and the youth. (5) To require that the literature of our writers portray wide and critical acquaintance with biblical interpretation, biblical literature, or the large field of general literature and our developing culture. (6) That our writers and Editors, in their manner of writing, composition, style, grammar and literary allusions, demonstrate that they have a wide acquaintance with general literature and especially with child literature. (7) That the art cover pages or features have bearing upon the themes edited, and not cover pages which have no significance and hence are more detrimental than helpful.

We know that the literature of the Baptist Training Union Board has been greatly improved, and this fact is attested by the numerous favorable comments which we have received from Pastors and Lay Workers throughout our great denomination. This credit for an improvement in our literature, which you are so justly proud of at this time, is a result of the sincere efforts of your Baptist Training Union Board, its Editors and Advisory Council. Permit me, in this report, to thank them for you. A statement from some of our Editors giving what they sense to be the purpose and object of the quarterly each edit, is in this report. You are urged to read the statements:

A STATEMENT ON THE B. T. U. LESSONS, 1956

by Dr. J. M. Ellison, Editor

The Baptist Training Union lessons for 1956 have kept in mind several fundamental principles. First, the age group is important. The discussions have dealt with topics that are within the realm of youth's experience and on which they should desire some definite and worthwhile information. In making this approach, the editor remembers that they must not be a duplication of the Church School lessons. At the same time they should emphasize the demanding place of religion in daily life.

In the second place, the discussions are presented in simple unadorned language. Great care has been exercised to make the truth, about any situation presented, stand out so that it is never misleading or confusing. Young people want to know the truth about themselves, their relation to others and their world.

In the third place, much care has been exercised to make clear to young people the meaning of the Church as the instrument of the Christian faith. It has not been the purpose of these discussions to deal with doctrine except incidentally on occasions.

In the fourth place, each lesson has been life-centered and biblically supported. Young people need to know that many life situations are not new in the sense that such experiences are unprecedented. Thus the lessons attempt to help youth arrive at a method of dealing with current issues and problems by reference to literature, history, the Bible, poetry, biography, etc.

Again, each discussion presents certain practical problems that have been proposed for study. The young people are asked to explore that problem further by taking some situation with which they are acquainted for investigation and application.

In the final analysis, the discussions have kept in mind that these young people are young Christians. They are the Church at study seeking to find what is means to be a Christian and what the role of the Church is in modern civilization. Thus the lessons call attention to the Church's program and point how it is implemented—missions, education, evangelization, ordinances and organization. Young people need to know and to be inspired to pursue higher Christian education. To that end, strong reference is made to our Church-related Colleges. The need is that young people find adequately trained B.T.U. leaders who guide them in their study.

THE JUNIOR HIGH QUARTERLY

by Dr. Olivia Pearl Stokes, Editor

The Purposes:

There have been at least seven purposes in mind as I have attempted to prepare the material:—

1. To provide a fellowship discussion guide for Junior High Youth. The material has been written in such a way that it is supposed to evoke thinking and give a basis of material for beginning thought on a subject.
2. To prepare young Christians for personal and cooperative worship. The discussions have raised questions for discussion about the meaning of church membership, the unique beliefs of the Baptist Church, and beliefs cherished.
3. To help Junior Highs feel a part of the responsibility or mission of the church to win all people to Christ. To do this, mission work has been presented. The World Council of Churches has been discussed.
4. To help Junior Highs discover that God works through people. Short biographies have been presented as evidence of man's search for God and their lives as evidence of doing His Will.
5. To relate the Christian message to the Christian Calendar and the special days in American life. At Easter, Christmas, etc., the meanings of the life of Jesus for Junior Highs has been discussed. Thanksgiving, New Year's Day, Labor Day, etc., have afforded opportunity to explore their relationship to the Christian message and way of life.
6. To provide "Thoughts of God" for boys and girls of Junior High age. The suggestions, in the personal devotion's section of the quarterly, I hope have found use beyond the Sunday evening fellowship meetings.
7. To relate the Holy Scripture to experiences and problems of daily living. To this end, many scriptural references have been included. My hope is that this has found favor in the Bible.

THE JUNIOR BAPTIST YOUNG PEOPLE'S UNION QUARTERLY

AIM

by Miss Lucie E. Campbell, Editor

This Junior Quarterly is published as a part of the answer to the following questions: "What shall we do with the Juniors?" and "Where shall we find material that we, as Baptists, can safely use?" It is hoped that it will help meet the Junior's needs and lead him out into that larger life of TRAINING IN CHURCH MEMBERSHIP which is filled with absense of Divine guidance.

There is no getting away from the fact that our churches, in the main, are adult institutions. The adults are glad to have the children participate with them in the services and program. Too often the adults hesitate to make drastic adaptation of the services in order to make the church attractive to the younger section of the church family.

In trying to interest Juniors in attending the church worship service, many churches have found that the Juniors think of the church as an institution of little concern to them except for the Sunday School. They dread the long service, which is usually over their heads. Some adult attitudes toward children do not make them feel at home in the church. Psychologists tell us that a child wants to feel that he is a human being—a real person—an individual. There must be a feeling of "belonging," or of being a "part of."

In this light, thoughtful churches have organized the Junior B.T.U. and are training the Juniors to know how their churches reach out effectively in all the world, raising Christian leaders for India, China and the Isles of the Sea. How missionaries and doctors are sent to Africa to heal the sick and give new hope. Juniors are proud to know there is something they can do.

It is in this same light that our National Baptist Training Union Board publishes built upon character and integrity, which are the great requirements of the business world. A good and successful business, whether operated in a secular manner, a church or any other group, must strive to maintain for its self, status, to the degree that it has good credit. To have credit, a business institution must be as careful in its buying and spending as an individual. We must never buy more than we can sell. This is one of the basic laws of supply and demand, which law is one of the foundations of a successful business. Upon this principle depends the successful operation of our Board. We are pleased to report that our credit is good. That we have not had to borrow a dime from any bank this year. During our fiscal year, we paid all bank loans and these did not exceed ten thousand dollars ($10,000.00). The following summary of our financial position is given:

Cash

Total Cash of the B.T.U. Board was $4,874.26 on June 30, 1955 and $3,457.39 on June 30, 1956. This was a decrease of $1,416.87. We have earmarked $1,000.00 for the Isaac Memorial Fund.

Accounts Receivable

Our accounts receivable from agents and dealers were $9,132.58 on June 30, 1955 and $11,685.01 on June 30, 1956—an increase of $2,552.43. This increase shows that most of our increase in sales, of $4,539.05, was due to credit sales to agents and dealers.

Sales

For the fiscal year ending June 30, 1955 sales by the B.T.U. Board were $103,699.89. For the fiscal year ending June 30, 1956 sales were $108,238.94—an increase of $4,539.05. We credit part of this increase to improvement in the contents and appearance of our literature.

Net Profit

The net profit of the B.T.U. Board for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1955 was $891.83. For the fiscal year ending June 30, 1956 the net profit was $854.95—a decrease of $36.88. This profit has been made in spite of the fact that $2,265.00 more rent was paid during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1956 than was paid during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1955; and in spite of the fact that $1,556.65 was spent as cost of the publication of the new magazine during the six (6) months of calendar year 1956.

Accounts and Notes Payable

The total of accounts and notes payable was $10,905.01 on June 30, 1956—a decrease of $485.34.

The B.T.U. Board is still in a crowded condition. We need more space in which to operate. Several efforts have been made to get this space, but to date we do not have it. As you will note from our report, the Baptist Training Union Board pays rent to the amount of three thousand nine hundred dollars ($3,900.00) per year to the Sunday School Publishing Board. We paid this year two thousand two hundred and sixty-five dollars ($2,265.00) more rent for fiscal year ending June 30, 1956 than for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1955. The Baptist Training Union Board and the National Baptist Convention must look forward to more floor space for this Board if it is to expand and make progress. In spite of our limited space and crowded condition we have done the best under the circumstances to promote this work. We should look forward to another floor for the National Baptist Training Union Board or build another building which we could well finance with the rent we pay three thousand nine hundred dollars ($3,900.00) per year. This is for your careful thinking.

It is said, "All great institutions are the lengthening shadows of a great personality." The Baptist Training Union Board, of the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc., is the outgrowth of a great man, a noble leader, who pioneered in the field fifty-eight (58) years ago as a shining light of what a trained mind and a consecrated soul could do for his people. With neither salary nor office, but with a great faith in God and a burning desire to help lift his people, Dr. E. W. D. Isaac, Sr. organized the B.T.U. Board. Negro Baptists should forever keep fresh in their memory this great man.

The B.T.U. Board has what is called the Isaac Foundation Fund anchored in the B.T.U. Board. We do not know of the legal status of this foundation. The B.T.U. Board had in the Isaac Foundation Fund several years ago around three thousand eight hundred twenty dollars and thirteen cents ($3,820.13), but of this amount, three thousand two hundred eighteen dollars and eighty-eight cents ($3,218.88) was borrowed by the B.T.U. Board from the Isaac Foundation Fund, and was used in the current operation of the B.T.U. Board. The purpose of this fund, which was named for the late Dr. E. W. D. Isaac, Sr., is to give scholarships to young men and women who are preparing themselves for leadership in Christian Education. This Foundation, if it is to carry out its purpose, should be placed upon a sound basis so that its funds cannot be used except for the purpose of the Foundation. We proposed to strengthen the foundation so that its funds shall be protected and not used for any purpose except for which it is set up. During the year, we have placed in escrow one thousand dollars ($1,000.00) in the Isaac Foundation Fund. It is our hope that this fund can soon be built up to twenty thousand dollars ($20,000.00) so that scholarships may be given to prepare young men and women as writers for our B.T.U. Board and as workers in Religious Education.

We wish to express our appreciation to the Chairman and other officers, the Executive Committee, the President and Officers of the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc. and State Conventions, and all Pastors and laymen of our National Baptist Convention for the support which you have given us during this fiscal year. The task has been a difficult one, but a pleasant one. We are the servants of the great National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc. It is a joy to follow your orders as a loyal Board; and with faith in God, we go forward in the building of better and greater work through the National B.T.U. Board. We thank you.

Respectfully submitted,
Roland Smith, Corresponding Secretary

STATISTICAL REPORT

SEPTEMBER 5, 1956

DENVER, COLORADO

DR. J. H. JACKSON, President

R. W. NORSWORTHY, Statistician

September 5, 1956

Honorable President, Dr. J. H. Jackson, Officers and Messengers of the Seventy-sixth Annual Session of the National Baptist Convention U.S.A., Inc., here assembled in this very beautiful and magnificent city of Denver.

The National Baptist Convention Inc., is classified as one of the major Denominational groups of America. This convention is said to be the largest religious organization to be found among Negroes anywhere. While this may be regarded as complimentary, it is also a challenge indeed. We are challenged as a major denomination to lead in providing an Institution for the training of men and women to serve not only our great denomination, but to serve humanity. The National Baptist Convention is challenged the more because of the enormous group of competent, capable, consecrated, Christian Ministers who constitute a vast resource from which affable and efficient men may be chosen for posts of leadership in every phase of our denominational life. The challenge is all the more serious because we, The National Baptist Convention, comprise a great host of free men and women who love freedom and cherish liberty. We acknowledge the Lordship of Christ only, and we refuse to be driven other than by the indwelling propelling force of divine love which is (shed abroad in our hearts). Brethren and Sisters, we are on our own. What a challenge!

I have been assigned the task by this convention of laboring to the end that statistics of the National Baptist Convention shall cease to be a mere matter of postulation. To such task I have dedicated myself. This is a colossal task and tremendous responsibility. Reliable statistics must be based upon the collection and classification of facts, obtained from the constituency of our Convention that will reflect the whole picture of our denominational life. I have integrity. I refuse to reflect upon the integrity of this convention and its leadership by stating statistically, what I do not know to be the fact.

We as a major denominational group must know our strength. In order that we might have such knowledge, I have sought the cooperation and help of the great host of leaders throughout the area of the National Baptist Convention, many of whom have given much assistance toward the establishment of reliable and trustworthy statistics based upon facts. It must be kept in mind that pastors of churches, moderators of Associations and Convention presidents are persons upon whom the secretary of statistics must rely for source material upon which his report must be based.

There are indications that the matter of keeping an accurate record of the individual Church membership is becoming the serious concern of many Pastors. For example, more and more of our Churches are conducting annual registration which will enable them to know precisely their strength. This is possibly the best method to follow. It eliminates the possibility of our counting those who have gone on to the "great beyond" as well as those who have gone from our community to some other.

Our records reveal some interesting facts—Note the following. In 1950 there was (3006) three thousand churches to register in the Convention. In 1951 we had 3158, in 1952 we had 3787, in 1953 we had 3891, in 1954 we had 3887, in 1955 we had 3792. Thus as you can see was for a period of (6) six years. Now for this period, we had an annual average of (3586) three thousand-five hundred eighty six to register in the Convention.

It is reported that the National Baptist Convention has a membership of 4,557,416. It is reported also that we have 25,603 churches. Therefore, we have approximately 14% of this number representing annually in our Convention. On the other had we have according to report, 22,017 churches which do not enroll in our Convention.

We have made remarkable progress toward the establishment of an up-to-date record of the annual enrollment of churches in the various State Conventions and District Associations. When this is completed I shall be happy to submit the facts to the Convention, which facts will be attested to by the various Denominational leaders of our Convention. This I believe is what the administrative head wants and the Convention generally.

We are happy to report that the birth rate throughout the churches of our great Convention exceeds the mortality rate. They are being born again faster than they are dying. No, "The Gates of Death Shall Not Prevail." We had 128,015 baptisms for the year. It must be remembered that we grow denominationally only by baptism.

We lost to the "Grim Monster Death" 89,610. We lost by other causes 7,500. Our total loss is 97,110—so 128,015 less 97,110 gives us a net increase of 30,905.

Brother President, I want to thank all of the Presidents, Moderators and Pastors for your very fine help and co-operation. May I solicit your continued interest and support of this department.

I have tried to be a good steward. I have tried to be honest. I have tried to be faithful to my trust. I have not used this office for my own selfish ends; that I shall never do. I shall ever keep in mind that I am under the constant scrutiny of the all and ever seeing eyes of Him who said, "Lo, I am with you always even to the end of the ages."

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE HISTORIAN

TO THE

NATIONAL BAPTIST CONVENTION, U.S.A., INC.

SEPTEMBER, 1956

DENVER, COLORADO

"History is both a drama and a process of evolution. It is the former which gives vitality to the latter; it is the latter which enables us to comprehend the struggle of man with his environment.—A struggle which has brought us our present day society."

Oswin D. Pelt, Historian

Dr. Joseph Harrison Jackson, President

Our National Baptist Convention

Born in the spirit of unity and cooperation in the year of 1886, when three bodies then in existence, and not fully competent of national recognition, decided to join heart and hand, was the humble beginning of what we know today, as our great National Baptist Convention. From that humble beginning more than three quarters of a century ago, we have in our ranks more than four and one-half million communicants, representing one of the major religious groups in the world.

The influence and power of the National Baptist Convention is inestimable. Moved forward by that same spirit of Unity and cooperation which characterized it in the beginning, there is no limit to the good which may be achieved in all areas of our present day culture.

During the past seventy-five years, there have been twelve men of our ranks to serve as President of this great body. All have made their contribution in their own Peculiar fashion, and it is our duty today to carry on in the noble tradition of our forbears, and make our contribution toward hastening the day, when the kingdoms of this world will become the kingdom of our Lord and Of His Christ, and He shall reign forever.

Owen D. Pelt, Historian

Then Came The Dawn

It was on a blistering hot September day in 1952, as I sat in my office in the giant auditorium where the 72nd annual session of the National Baptist Convention held sway. I was busily engaged with the details incumbent upon my office as one of the Secretaries of the local entertainment committee for that session, when my attention was drawn to the shrill cry of thousands of delegates shouting in ecstatic expectation: "WE WANT PROGRESS! WE WANT PROGRESS!"—and finally the cry faded away into the grim darkness of the night.

After the sessions were over and the delegates had returned to their homes, tired and worn from the tremendous responsibilities involved in working with the entertainment of our great convention, a minister friend of mine, who was also worn from the toil of the endeavor, decided that we would spend a few days up in the country in Michigan. As we took leave by automobile, this friend, his wife, and my wife and I, we talked freely of the many thrilling scenes of the Convention, but ere we talked about the great sermons and addresses, the committee reports, we could not refrain from hearing again the echoes of that hot afternoon—"WE WANT PROGRESS! WE WANT PROGRESS! WE WANT PROGRESS!" We remembered well, that the record showed that the Convention had made an enviable record in the past, particularly in the field of foreign missions, and yet we realized that The Baptist Witness must now face a new social, political and economic horizon, and that we must now rise to the urgency of the hour and assume new responsibility of religious leadership.

In January of the following year, we heard the voice of the late Dr. David Virgin Jemison, announcing that he would no longer serve the denomination which he loved and for which he had given so much of his life. And this announcement sounded to me like finishing a chapter of a great book, only to begin the reading of another chapter with new thrills and new ventures. We stood outside of the Bath House on a morning very frosty and cold, and my friend inquired of me: Who shall be our next leader? Quicker than a flash, as if by mechanics or magic, I replied: "Dr. Joseph Harrison Jackson." The Convention delegates exclaimed that they wanted Progress, and I am of the opinion that Dr. Jackson can and will be a progressive leader for the Baptist of America. In September of that year in Miami, Florida, Dr. Jackson was chosen to lead the National Baptist Convention, and to be sure, we know, beyond the shadow of a doubt, we have seen since 1953, the greatest era of progress than that of any comparable period since the organization in 1886.

Progress In Convention Conduct

Any casual observer would readily agree, that during these last three years, we have made marvelous strides in our convention behavior. While there has been wide participation in the affairs of the convention by the delegates, the order has been so much improved until we are tempted to ask: How can these things be? The right of every member has been safeguarded, and yet there has been discouragement for those who would waste the convention's time on tremendous trifles. There has been no encouragement of the carnival-like milling around of the delegates, and the wholesale merchant men who come to the convention for capital gain only has met with unpopular favor of the administration.

We have seen a fuller participation in the affairs of the convention by men, old and young, who hitherto spent their time visiting and loitering. The several commissions, serving as "Interest Groups," have provided new uses for the talents and interests of our constituency, and the convention has profited greatly by the research done in these respective fields. There seems to be renewed vigor in the several boards of the convention. The administration having approved the commercial boards to turn over their profits for use in the field of our major objectives.

There has been a new influence wielded by the convention in the area of international relations. The great commission which challenges the Church to preach the gospel in all the world has found expression in the mission of our illustrious President, carrying the gospel of Jesus Christ into parts where the National Baptist Convention has hitherto been extinct and unknown. This has been done in addition to our work in the area of foreign missions. The Baptist Witness has been heard in several countries, where no Protestant minister has been privileged to preach for more than a decade.

THIS IS PROGRESS. THIS IS THE ANSWER TO THE CRY OF THE CONVENTION IN 1952. MAY GOD HELP US TO CONTINUE.

While there is no claim being made that our convention has reached its goals of perfection, we are convinced that we, as a major world religious group, have come of age, and if our progress in the future maintains its pace of the past three years, it doth not yet appear what we shall be.

Progress In The Field Of Education

It has been of particular concern to all of our constituency, that the Baptist Church continue its interest in the "Education of our Children." During the past three years, we have seen our convention move in the direction of improved interest in the field of education. I refer especially to the oratorical contest in which for two years we have given $1,750.00 in scholarships to young high school graduates, which is a definite movement in the right direction. Also of equal importance is the fact that an unrestricted scholarship in the amount of $3,000.00 has been set up at Roosevelt University of Chicago, Illinois. Roosevelt University was selected because of its non-discriminatory practice in student and faculty selection.

The most recent progressive movement was the completion of the merger of the program of the two schools at Nashville, Tennessee.—The American Baptist Theological Seminary, and the National Baptist Training School. This merger is designed to do a more efficient work in scholastic activity, and to avoid duplication in program content and to eliminate waste of funds, sorely needed in our denominational work. The merged program also gives maximum benefits to the students in attendance of all of the facilities of the entire organization. It is also significant that all of the resources and properties owned by our convention were kept intact. This expansion movement is progress.

Progress In The Field of Civil Rights

The leadership of our convention has been a voice crying in the wilderness against the social evils of our generation. Not only in the Southern part of the United States, but throughout America and also against the evils perpetrated against defenseless peoples around the world. Special emphasis has been placed on the methodology of securing our God-given freedoms, and time and again we have heard the appeal in the language of the angels who sang on the first Christmas of the world's history . . . PEACE . . . GOOD WILL. And while our administration has stood for peace and good will, it has been unequivocal in its stand none-the-less.

It was significant that in March of this year, during the early days of the Passive Resistance movement in Montgomery, Alabama, a movement that is led by a fellow member of our National Baptist Convention, and supported by other members of our Baptist family, that our President, from his vacation quarters, called upon every leader of our denominational work across the nation to support this movement to the full extent of their ability, and from across the nation came the amazing response. Finance, resolutions, telegrams, visitors flooded the city in support of the work.

Our voice was again heard, when a group of bigots issued what was known as the Southern Manifesto, as President J. H. Jackson called together a representative group of leaders of the denomination in Chicago to listen to and approve his draft of what is now the internationally famous "Negroes Declaration of Intent." This document has won the acclaim of all freedom-loving peoples everywhere. It compared favorably in depth and statesmanship with the Declaration of Independence written by that great political statesman, Thomas Jefferson.

Progress In The Field of Ministers' Retirement

All of the major denominations of America have some sort of substantial and going plan of ministers' retirement and church extension program. During the past three years, we have made great progress in that direction. We have now a plan, lauded and approved by some of the best experts in the field of pensions and retirement, as one of the best to come forth in many years.

At the close of the Diamond Jubilee session in Memphis last year, we not only raised more money for the general budget of the Convention than in any other year in the Convention's history, but we were able to do one other thing which is remarkable: We were able to invest in government securities, from that one session, $40,000.00 for our retirement plan. This money has already yielded $1,200.00 in interest which is to be reinvested for additional yield. It is obvious that in the very near future we shall have sufficient capital to set in motion a functional plan, so that those who are eligible may "join" a retirement plan that will be safe and sound, thereby giving security to those who have served the church. This is unquestionable progress.

The Bath House

During the past year, under the leadership of Dr. H. H. Humes, we have noted progress in the handling of the affairs of the Bath House. We have seen the project become self-supporting, as the reports indicate. There has been no concentrated drive in the Convention for funds for the project, but rather there has been money turned over to the Convention from the Bath House. This is progress!

Progress in the Handling of the Convention's Finances

Not only did the National Baptist Convention proper contribute upwards of $50,000.00 toward our support of the American Baptist Theological Seminary in our 74th Annual Session in St. Louis, we have had administrative support toward the development of a unified budget to provide for all of our objectives. Realizing the tremendous difficulties involved in budgetary planning, we have observed marked progress in the detailed account of expenditures and receipts. The budget committee in its recent session in Chicago was requested to go over carefully all of the Convention expenditures, and to make whatever adjustments it deemed relevant. They were advised to make increases where the appropriations were too small, and to reduce them wherever possible, without hindering the work of the Convention. This type of study and planning by the best financial minds available to our Convention will progressively give us a sound financial system.

The May 17th Experience

One of the most moving and dramatic experiences of our time occurred on May 17th, 1956, when millions of people in hundreds of churches, auditoriums and private homes, gathered to pray and to invite divine guidance for the trying experiences of our time. Incidentally, there were other prayer days held this year, but many of them were built around local situations. But long after these local conditions have been adjusted, men, women and children, throughout the nation, will be gathering with increased interest and devotion to observe May 17th as a National Day of Fasting and Praying. Effort has already been made to have the day declared a national holiday, and indications are that the matter is being seriously considered.

SOME OUTSTANDING ENGAGEMENTS BY PRESIDENT JACKSON DURING THE PAST YEAR:

- November, 1955: Addressed the Pennsylvania State Pastors' Conference, Harrisburg, Pennsylvania. On this same occasion, he also led a conference on the theme, "The Churches and Minority Groups."
- December, 1955: Guest Speaker at the Andrew Rankin Memorial Chapel, Howard University.

- January, 1956: Took part in television program with Dean James A. Pike in the Cathedral of St. John the Divine, New York City.

At this same time, short summaries of his addresses were broadcast each day. He was also speaker during Holy Week in Liberal, Kansas. This Community Holy Week Service was sponsored by the Ministerial Alliance.
- April, 1956: Attended the State of the Race Conference in Washington, D. C. called by Mr. A. Philip Randolph.

Recently returned from the meeting of the Central Committee of the World Council of Churches in Hungary, and a preaching mission in Roumania.

I would like to close this report with the statement issued at the close of the Second Assembly of the World Council of Churches in Evanston, Illinois in 1954: As Members of the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc., and laborers together with Christ . . . "We intend to stay together."

Whereas, this body shall cherish the memory of the warm and spiritual fellowship we have enjoyed while convening here, wish God's blessings upon pastor, officers and members of Central Baptist Church, and

Whereas, this auxiliary of the B.B.C., the National Baptist Laymen's Convention, is a body of Christian men, loyal citizens of these United States of America, who are willing to sacrifice even life to preserve its integrity, and

Whereas, we believe in the Fatherhood of God and the brotherhood of Man and we believe that all citizens should enjoy equal opportunity under the Constitution, therefore

Be it resolved that this convention go on record as condemning any individual or group of individuals who commit any kind of acts in attempting to prevent the carrying out of the U. S. Supreme Court's order banning racial segregation in the public school and public transportation, and

Whereas, the attendance at the Laymen's Convention is greatly affected by the desire of the delegates to hear the annual address of the President, and

Whereas, we feel that such recognition is due our president, therefore be it Resolved, that the Laymen's Convention be in adjournment during the time of the annual message of the President.

Whereas, the overall program of the National Baptist Laymen and Ushers Convention has expanded to such an extent that it is becoming unwieldy and does not make for harmonious situation in development of the organization, and realizing that with the Ushers Department is rapidly increasing in all phases, which necessitates more time and space than can consistently be granted by the Laymen, who are also growing in all phases of its activities, therefore be it resolved,

That for the benefit of both Laymen and Ushers that the Laymen discontinue the Ushers Department, and that the Ushers be notified to canvass the possibilities of meeting separate and apart from the Laymen.

 Sing its mercy and its grace,
 Let all nations know its power
 To bring hope to every face.

CHORUS:

- When we all know Justice
 What a day of rejoicing that will be,
 When we all have Justice,
 We'll live in peace and harmony.
 2. The world knows the blessed story
 Of the loyalty of the race
 How in war gave its devotion
 To defend Old Glory's place.
 3. Justice is the nation's promise,

 Nothing less will save our Country,
 Never from her promise turn.

73. Doctor Adams paid tribute to the Young People and Doctor Burroughs, who spoke at the First Baptist World Alliance. He brought greetings from 21,000,000 Baptists. He came to greet World Christians and talk to World Christians. In 1905, we had 6,000,000. In 1956, we have 21,000,000 connected with the Baptist World Alliance. We have 100 different nations speaking 1000 different languages. He referred to Phil. 2:1-14, and said, whenever Paul said, "Therefore," he had a personal message to the believer. He said: "I wish you could see as I see":

(1) A world full of fear of atom bomb and war, diseases, et cetera.

(2) A world of Nationalism.

(3) A day of Interdependence—what one spot does, affects all.

(4) A day of segregation, discrimination sometimes because of color, nation. The answer is not in mob violence, but in peace, brotherhood and goodwill. See our problems in the light of world problems.

(5) A world of conflicting faith. Communist fighting in all the world. Communist say: "There is no God." Christianity is not fighting the challenge. Christ is the answer, fellow-believers around the world."

He paid tribute to the Vice President of the Baptist World Alliance in Africa who has three scars put there by his mother—Bear the marks of the Lord Jesus.

The Baptist World Alliance is one fellowship regardless of race or nationality. He further paid tribute to the vice presidents among whom some are women.

We have 500,000 Russian Baptists and 5,000 Baptist Churches. They have nothing but worship inside. They have no welfare work, nothing for children. For 18 years they were taught "There is no God" in youth groups in day school. Is your church able to stand up and resist such teaching?

He challenged us to stand for what we believe. The most important thing in the world today is for "Christians to be Christians." We believe in Evangelism and mission, and we must give ourselves. We are called upon to make our nation Christian.

He was asked about the races in America. Our lives can bear witness to the life of Jesus Christ. It will take respectable Christians to win the world for Christ.

He called upon men of conviction, Justice and Truth to win the world for Christ.

He told us how he stood on Mar's Hill and prayed to God to give him a vision like Paul. He asked us to pray for him and he would pray for us; pray for the Day to come when the world can see Jesus Christ is Lord

Total

Our treasurer congratulated the women for doing what our President had asked—first, to bring money in large bills, second, to use cashiers' checks, third, to use money orders, and fourth, make money payable to the Woman's Convention instead of the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc.

3. A motion was proposed by Mrs. B. R. Harriston of Pennsylvania, seconded by Mrs. Sallie P. Robinson, of Illinois, and unanimously carried that the treasurer's report would be adopted.

4. Mrs. Rosa Kimp of the Business committee passed out mimeographed financial reports from the Business office after which the President asked if there were any questions concerning it.

5. Mrs. Gertrude Morris wanted to know if official blanks were available to all areas for reporting as she had been using some unofficial substitutes. Doctor Burroughs answered her as follows: "The secretary tries to reach every church from the annual letters; we have plenty blanks, and if you will send names of churches that need letters, they will be sent. We need your cooperation and will authorize you to send for the letters for them."

6. The Good Will Convention of Virginia wanted to know how to get credit for committee work in the Convention; how her members can get credit for designated money, to which Doctor Burroughs replied: "Designated money is accredited to that respective committee and not to the convention because that would be a duplication of the record, or it would be recorded twice if it were done otherwise." She further stated that she wanted each person to feel free to ask questions and not feel that she had to protect herself in asking questions like you think it is not right.

7. Mrs. H. M. Gibbs coincided with the President's explanation; and asked Mrs. Kimp why Alabama was not on this record to which she replied: "the report does not include advanced receipts."

8. Minnesota wanted to know why credit was not given the women instead of one person who sent it, to which this answer was given: "The amounts were not sent with names of women. In the future the reports must include the names of women who are to receive credit instead of one person."

9. Mrs. E. D. McGowan stated that she sent money to the treasurer and wanted to know if the committee member would be fired if her committee did not have the money on the committee, to which Doctor Burroughs replied: "Persons are appointed irrespective of business transactions and it is dead wrong for any committee member to say otherwise."

10. Mrs. Susie C. Holley said that we needed help to make out letters to which Doctor Burroughs informed her that we have had this setup for three years with Mrs. S. F. Ming, as Chairman. Mrs. Ming confirmed the President's statement and added that so many of the presidents would try to do the jobs themselves and would not send their delegates to her tables for help that is provided.

11. A question was asked as to what has happened to the Rural Life Committee to which Doctor Burroughs answered: "We are still operating. We haven't given it up. Our first interest is in the Rural and we will not leave it from our list until we get it through. We are going to have a Rural Life Community Center. We are standing fast on that project. The women are leaning and depending upon us. Likewise, we will not give the Camp Idea up."

12. Mrs. Cassie Davis, President of Missouri Woman's State Convention, wanted to correct an error she had made in reporting her money. It should be accredited to the Missouri State Convention instead of to my name. Secondly, she said she had turned life membership money over to the Convention and the credentials had not reached the women as yet. Doctor Burroughs assured her that her records would be looked up. Mrs. C. M. Pearson, Chairman of the Life Membership Committee spoke to this point and said she had sent many credentials to Missouri trying to please them, yet no satisfaction. Mrs. Cassie Davis said in 1954, a special effort was put on for a large life membership why they had so many. It was headed by Mrs. Woolridge.

13. Mrs. Etta Versa Frye made the report from the Young People's Department

14. It was voted that the report be adopted.

15. The Interracial Activities committee reported a total of $504.11.

16. Doctor Burroughs explained the tremendous expense in printing minutes and that we would have to do something to cut down printing details in minutes. She said she had sent $300.00 to the Secretary for mailing the minutes. This was confirmed by the Recording Secretary who further stated that the only rates she could get for mailing was the Journal rate ranging from 21 cents to 51 cents for zones 1 through 7, per copy. It was not until the President made an investigation at the Washington Postoffice on book rates, and that a copy of the minutes had been sent to Washington and a copy filed with the Memphis Postoffice did she get the 12 cents book rate, after which the Memphis Postoffice made the proper adjustment.

17. Doctor Burroughs told the women that receipts would be mailed to the delegates after the close of the Convention.

18. Adjournment.

Dr. Nannie Helen Burroughs, President
Mauddean Thompson Seward, Recording Secretary

SUNDAY MORNING, SEPTEMBER 9

11:10 A.M.

1. With Dr. N. H. Burroughs presiding she requested New Hope Baptist Choir to lead in singing "Holy, Holy, Holy."

2. Scripture was read by Rev. Andrew J. Brown, Pastor of St. John Baptist Church, Indianapolis, Indiana.

3. Prayer by Dr. James B. Cayce, Pastor, Ebenezer Baptist Church, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.

4. Music: We Entreat Thee, Lord.

5. Doctor Burroughs introduced Rev. A. A. Banks, Jr. to deliver the sermon.

6. Sermon, Rev. A. A. Banks, Jr., Pastor of Second Baptist Church, Detroit, Mich.

- (1) Subject: Standing on the Promises
(2) Scripture: Psalm 11.
7. Song: Standing on the Promises of God.
8. Song: On the Jericho Road.
9. In closing this session, the President told us that we were here on business for the King and were destined to be crusaders for God and His Christ. She commended the character traits of one Amelia Mitchell of Liberia, Africa who gave her words of appreciation to the womanhood for the fine support given her.
10. The Treasurer, Mrs. H. M. Gibbs gave an encouraging note to the womanhood for the fine report financially.
11. Benediction by Dr. A. A. Banks, Jr.
12. The choir marched out singing "God Be With You."

Dr. Nannie Helen Burroughs, President
Mauddean Thompson Seward, Recording Secretary

RECOMMENDATIONS

Mrs. Fama J. Haynes, Chairman, Longview, Texas
 Miss President, Officers and Members of the Woman's Convention Auxiliary to the National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Inc.:

The Committee on recommendations begs to submit this report:
 We are very proud of our President because she is a great woman, a leader within her own right. To us she has no equal,
 A teacher that the world is her class,
 She loves people, and spends every ounce of her devotion to lift her race,
 Therefore we recommend that we increase our devotion, our love, and cooperation to her and this great cause, and pray that God will give her added strength, and a long life to lead this convention.

Humbly submitted,
 Mrs. Fama J. Haynes, Chairman

REPORT:

- The Regional Institutes committee reports that there were 77 institutes held.
 - 34 in local churches conducted for and with individual mission societies.
 - 28 in district associations and district conventions.
 - 15 in state conventions and general associations.
- The texts used:

"The Bible", "The Worker" by N. H. Burroughs, "The Church, What It Is" "Social Life in the Church", "These are They" by N. H. Burroughs, "Think on These Things" by N. H. Burroughs, "Women's Work in the Church", Brunson, "Men, God in the City" by Kennedy.
- As chairman I conducted 16 institutes.
- The attendance at the 77 institutes was 3687 with 305 credits given of which 77 were from our own National Baptist Sunday School Publishing house. The other credits were from the Southern Baptist Convention and the American Baptist Convention.
- I attended the National Council of Church Women Board Meeting in Cleveland, Ohio, November, 1955. There at President Burroughs' recommendation, I was elected denominational representative on the Board, and in April, 1956, I attended the Board meeting in Colorado Springs, Colorado.

SUGGESTIONS:

1. Continue the conducting of Institutes in the areas of the State Conventions as permitted by and encouraged by the State Presidents.
2. That the Institute be conducted in the areas of the districts . . . associations and local mission societies.
3. That because requests are for Institutes of periods from 1 day to 2 weeks, we endeavor to comply by arranging Institutes or Retreats for said periods.
4. That the recommended text be those books as recommended by Dr. N. T. Burroughs.

Dear Mrs. Browne:

Many, many thanks for your interest in Miss Imogene Wormley. She is in every respect worthy of your consideration and help.

The actual cost of tuition and board at Cuttington College next year will be one hundred fifty dollars ($150.00). Books and incidentals for the whole year will be around ($100.00). So two hundred fifty dollars ($250.00) should be adequate for each school year.

Faithfully yours,
SETH C. EDWARDS

4. The President asked those to stand whose names were called previously. Only 12 stood. She stated that this was not a regular meeting of the Board but we could do some preliminary work so that about 1:00 P. M. when others shall be coming we can have our meeting.
5. She gave us some information about the things which were to come up in the afternoon:
- (1) Records checked with information for the Board.
 - (2) Discuss registration for our convention. It is not at all satisfactory. Some suggestions will be needed. We must remember we are telling the world that we are speaking for 4,500,000 people and our records must be comparative. If we say this we must go out and do something about it. Quoting Al Smith, "What Sayeth the Record," we will check Denver Records and answer Al Smith. We either haven't got them in the church or they are not doing anything. If you are in a state heavily populated with Negroes then we must have better records of members. We are disillusioned. If they are not in the Lott Carey, National Baptist Convention, or the unincorporated, whose responsibility is it to find out why they are not and trying to get them in the right place?
 - (3) The President made the following suggestions: "Get up! Go out! and compel them to come in. Join in a Crusade. This doesn't mean dragging but make what you are selling so attractive that they will say, 'I will be there.'" She called the following states so she could show the vast undone. Alabama has 7 associations, and 56 local societies. Where are they? Arizona has no convention, 1 association and 2 missionary societies. Arkansas has 2 state conventions, 20 associations and 20 local societies. She stated that she was talking about realities. "You are singing 'Hallelujah, 'Tis done,' don't sing it any more. Where are they? Where can you find them? What woman can do the job? I want a woman whom the National Baptist Convention cannot be without." She continued saying, "Registrations! Many are getting by without registering but you won't do it again. This will come up in the conference and I dare anyone to say it isn't true. It takes money to get out materials. It is very expensive. Receipt books are given out and many do not come back." She also found out out lots about committees. She heard of "Dead Heads," but did not know what they were until she looked at the committee reports. In running down the names on the committees she found that many are not doing anything. "It cost something to put your names in the books. I want to print 'Who's Who in the Baptist Churches.' Why do state presidents offer these names? Is it to encourage or stimulate them or what?" On one committee, 19 people have not been heard from. Those who are carrying the load are 25. We have the names of those who worked and those who did not.
- The President gave us an instance of a man who said that many did not know what the money was for. Then she gave him a book to read and he came back and confessed that he didn't believe that 9/10 of the people knew about the book. He pastors a great church and is a leader of a division in our National Baptist Convention.
- This situation has to be remedied and clean-cut. We are going to either do or not do. If committee people are not going to do we've got to have those who will do.
- The best thing to do is to play, "Is my name written there?" With this statement she terminated this discussion. "We are not going to fool the public. I'm no showout. We must have the people." She was disappointed and let down. Negro Baptists have the largest organization. If you are not going to go, get out of the way and let someone do it who is going to do it, for it is too important. (Jesus never made a speech.) The records speak. The president informed us that she left a duplicate record at home so she couldn't lose them.
- "Padding," a term she recognized in working with records. "God does not like ugly and not much use for pretty."
- Songs are wonderful! Only 2 words or more. "Everybody talkin' 'bout Heav'n ain't goin' there heaven." She asked if we had heard it. It is something!
6. At this point she thought it well to get the registration out of the way. She wanted the name and church, address of the individual and not the church for so much

- mail gets lost sent to the churches.
She said the leading state was Georgia which had 197 local societies.
7. The meeting adjourned with singing, "It takes Work."

- (8) Hymn: I'm Going Through, Mrs. Odessa Brown
17. Doctor Burroughs asked us to sing the third stanza of I'm Going Through.
18. The President went forward with the Agenda pointing up the:
 - (1) Needs for information for our day
 - (2) Needs to find people throughout the nation to help the organization meet those needs
 - (3) Needs for materials—National Organization will furnish the materials to those who are responsible for leadership—nationwide, to give light to the people in an hour like this; give faith to the people; make them believe they can do it.
19. The state presidents were asked to take two minutes each to point up what they considered the greatest need in their states.
 - (1) Mrs. M. P. Carter, President, Educational Convention of Mississippi showed a need for more literature in our state missionary, and young people. Doctor Burroughs asked: "Do you make your literature attractive?"
 - (2) Mrs. Estella McAfee of Iowa Convention felt that the need was to get more of our missionary women to enroll in the convention. Doctor Burroughs stated that we would have to get a registration of 5,000 new missionary societies, by letting them register with $2.50 and get a brochure to contain information on the Convention.
 - (3) Mrs. Anne Blahop of Detroit B. M. & E. Convention stated the need as being that of getting a better understanding from our pastors. Doctor Burroughs suggested putting the Handbook and Committee Book in the hands of the pastors and workers. She said: "Let the Preacher catch on fire and the whole town will come out to see him burn."
 - (4) Mrs. Sallie P. Robinson, President of the General Baptist Convention of Illinois pointed out that we need to get women to launch out into the associations, state and national. Doctor Burroughs suggested that maybe they do not want people to know. A person on local basis sometimes is content to stay there. She doesn't have anything to offer and she is conscious of it. She must have a desire to learn. It must come from within. Make the work attractive so they will want to come.
 - (5) Mrs. Ethel B. Robinson, President of the General Baptist Convention of Louisiana pointed up their need for Christian Education; Finance to get the literature; transportation to get around to the rural women. Doctor Burroughs assured her that we will have to get more materials. The Worker helps, but we need more. If we can get one of your rural women with an education we can do much. Nevertheless, something will be done.
 - (6) Mrs. Susie Holley of Florida, President of the Missionary and Educational Convention said they needed more leadership training to come into Florida and work with religious education and put on an Institute. Doctor Burroughs told her that she planned 5 big institutes in our Crusade; plans for rural and urban life institutes. We must get out millions of sheets. They need it. Find some key women in your state to help.
 - (7) Mrs. C. C. Coleman, President of Northeast Miss. Wom. Con., said their need was for trained workers in missionary work to bring new life in their community.
 - (8) Mrs. Fama J. Haynes, President of Texas Bapt. Wom. Con., stated that they needed inspired leadership for young people. Doctor Burroughs suggested sending someone to the Training School to get training to go back into the community to work. She further suggested that she try getting more women reading.

- (9) Mrs. Viola Harris, President of the Colorado, Wyoming and Utah Convention felt that the National Baptist Convention coming to Denver helped to solve many problems for them. It created a desire in the people to want to go. The contact helped.
Doctor Burroughs suggested that a follow-up would be important.
- (10) Mrs. Wilhemena Cole, first vice-president of Ohio State Convention, stated that the President, Mrs. Augusta Shaw, was sick and she had organized a program to reach and bring in more women into the work over a period of 3 months.
- (11) Mrs. J. C. Woods, President of the B. M. & E. Convention of Tennessee, stated her plans to enlist rural women to make contact; put on extra workers in the Fall; put more copies of the Worker into their hands. She will try to put more literature into the hands of more workers. They were inspired by the Convention coming to Memphis in 1955.
- (12) Mrs. Virginia Hendrick of the East Mississippi State Convention said they needed united participation. We have information to go back home and do more work. She assured us that she was going to do all she could to carry out Dr. N. H. Burroughs' suggestions, of which Dr. Burroughs was glad to hear.
- (13) Mrs. Saunders, President of Mt. Olive Convention of Indiana, said she needed more women to make sacrifices for the local, state and national work. They needed an institute.
Dr. Burroughs suggested that she would try to inspire and challenge the women and expose them to the need.
- (14) Mrs. M. J. Battle, President of Wisconsin, said they needed a worker to be sent to Wisconsin to inspire the workers.
- (15) Mrs. Lillian L. Hall, President of the State Con. of Indiana, stated that she needed some of everything that she had heard. Her people needed a greater realization of the great Commission and come and get inspired. They do come and get inspired but they are not willing to do any more work than talk. Dr. Burroughs expressed a hope to stimulate people to go through institutes. The Institutes are soul-raising rather than money-raising.
- (16) Mrs. Anna Mae Hunt, President of Kansas, said that Kansas needed everything, especially literature for their workers.
- (17) Mrs. O. P. Captain, President of Louisiana State Convention, needed more literature and wanted Doctor Burroughs to come down.
- (18) Mrs. Trudie Trimm, President of the State Con. of Illinois, stated that she needed more women with the "Know How." They needed more teaching in Illinois.
- (19) Mrs. H. L. Ballew, President of Kentucky, said they needed more inspired leadership.
- (20) Mrs. F. A. Chappelle, President of New York Convention, said she needed more inspired and trained missionary presidents. They do hold institutes.
- (21) Mrs. M. L. Coleman, President of the Regular Convention of Arkansas, stated that they were very well organized and have had national workers there already.
20. Doctor Burroughs reaffirmed the fact that there is a Crusade! Mrs. Lula M. Haynes and Miss Violet Ankrum are opening the Crusade with daily Bible read and prayer. Materials Will be out February 13.
21. At this point the President continued with the Agenda. She took up the question of improving and enriching our National Program.
- (1) The Study class in the morning—All books must be brought up to date. will teach it.
 - (2) It is time to change study books. Home mission must be studied by those who will teach it.
 - (3) Foreign Mission will be taught by Mrs. Coleman, our missionary. She will bring it up to date and will be at the Retreat and will teach in summer Institute.
 - (4) Of the new books, the teachers must know how to get the major purpose of

- the book; know how to teach it and with the teacher who has been doing certain programs.
22. Committee Plan. This plan must be improved. Why? How? It cannot be improved on as an assignment, but get the right person to follow through. Why? Responsibility is definite. Persons who are interested should be dependable, honest. Many have done marvelous things. Those who want to work pass your name, address and the committee on which you would like to work. Our states must be built up. We have 4,500,000 Negro Baptists, 32,000 churches, each church should have at least one missionary society. We should have a minimum of 5,000 missionary societies representing, but instead: Ala. has 56, Ariz. 2, Calif. 33, D. C. 16, Colo. 7, Conn. 1, Fla. 27, Ga. 197, Ill. 94, Ind. 22, Iowa 2, Kans. 12, Ky. 11, La. 16, Md. 17, Mass. 0, Mich. 73, Minn. 0, Miss. 17, Mo. 24, Neb. 7, Nev. 1, N. J. 11, N. Mex. 2, N. Y. 26, N. C. 1, Ohio 41, Okla. 16, Pa. 24, S. C. 4, Tenn. 28, Texas 24, Utah 1, Va. 2, Wash. 1, Wis. 9, W. Va. 0. The Harvest is truly great. In this Crusade we have got to go out there and get them.
23. Mrs. Annie M. Johnson, 518 North Spring St., Stuttgart, Arkansas, wanted to know how to represent in the National. Dr. Burroughs told her that a blank is provided and mailed to the treasurer with $10.00 which entitles you to four delegates.
24. Mrs. Anne Bishop wanted to know how many badges go with the $10.00. Dr. Burroughs answered: "Not any!" With $10.00 we could not get anything but a bare program. She stated that she is trying to make standard. If you are kept out because of that, let's do away with it. The delegates must pay their enrollment fee and get the kit.
25. Dr. Ross, our first vice-president, did not approve of too many references to pastors, but instead she said we must take time to inform them and when you tell them she believes they will listen to us. If we cannot convince them of one thing maybe we can convince them of another.
26. Miss Primrose Funches, western director of young people, spoke of the differences in representation of men's and women's conventions.
27. Dr. Burroughs showed the materials at this Board—how high class it is and she is not going to get any inferior work out. Some of our people are satisfied with low standards.
28. Mrs. Wilhelmena Cole of Cleveland, Ohio stated that if these state presidents would check with local presidents they could find some of those lost missionary societies.
29. Mrs. Fama J. Haynes said they have been inspired by the kits, pins, keys on them and gave some kits, but did not hear anything.
30. Mail was called at this time, also the telegrams.
31. Miss Primrose Funches introduced an article her secretary was studying which cited Dr. N. H. Burroughs as an "Angel." She prepared a reprint of the article which was put in the Agenda. Miss Funches appealed for money for a chapel.
32. The following monies were taken:
- (1) National Trade and Professional School was given by 2nd Baptist Church of Detroit, Michigan, Dr. A. A. Banks, Jr., Pastor $1,300.00
 - (2) The Second Baptist also gave to the National Missionary Training School of Nashville, Tennessee 100.00
33. Dr. Burroughs told of Mrs. Armstrong getting her picture for this brochure under "Royal Service" ... published it.
34. Contributions for the Chapel:
- (1) Mrs. Fannie Shaw presented personal money for the chapel $25.00
 - (2) Mrs. Minnie Saunders 15.50
 - (3) Mrs. Lessie Fortune 10.00
 - (4) Missionary Society of Zion Hill, Chicago, Ill. 10.00

THIRD SESSION

THURSDAY, JANUARY 24, 1957

9:30 A. M.

39. The Third session of the Board of Directors' meeting was called to order at 9:30 Thursday morning by the President, Dr. Nannie Helen Burroughs.
40. Worship:
- (1) Prelude: Holy, Holy, Holy, with Mrs. Emory Boddie at the piano.
 - (2) Meditation by Mrs. Ozelle Phillips, Little Rock, Ark., based on Psalm 27:1-6.
 - (3) Hymn: Lord, I Want to Live for Thee (Keep Me Every Day)
 - (4) Personal Testimony: "Thanks be to God for what I received here and when I return I will put all into practice," said Mrs. Lula M. Haynes. Where do you live? They went out before His face, Luke 10.
 - (5) That Something: God, His Word, His Eternity. Let us brace ourselves. All things work together for good. Unify what you do.—in witness; in prayer, in encouragement as on Pentecost. Unity in power and courage. The building shook and they shook. Burn until you are down on your knees in humility. Something within—when I prayed I was shaken.
 - (6) Hymn: Amazing Grace, Mrs. Odessa Brown, Dallas, Texas.
 - (7) The worship period ended with the congregation humming Amazing Grace. Oh for such love! It is marvelous to be trusted with a great trust. The reason for success at the Pentecost was the Unity. They were together in one mind and one place.
41. After coming to the next item on the Agenda, Institutes, Dr. Burroughs asked us to think in terms of how we can get together in Regions. She stated that we would have to reach the last woman. The state presidents are responsible for the region.
42. The Recording Secretary called the roll of the regions. The President explained the work of the regions.
43. At this point, Mrs. Esther Walker Tyree, Corresponding Secretary, presented a purse-size radio to Dr. Burroughs from the Board of Directors, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Ednah Lewis.
44. Doctor Burroughs graciously accepted this gift as one of her greatest surprises.
45. Plans for regionals were continued. The President asked 5 women who are going to spearhead the Crusade to choose the region she would like to go and plan for an Institute. Have a speakers' Bureau (12), program directors—person closest to region. Press in the area to give as much publicity as possible to reach people. Use church papers. Having a 3-day meeting—get down to earth and brass tacks and make it attractive. Know your materials from memory if necessary. You must know what you are talking about. Jesus spoke with authority.
46. Mrs. Viola Harris asked for regions, but she said they are not operating Institutes and they will not depend on Institutes.
47. The President said that since we had given her something—the radio—she wanted to give all of us something—It was in the form of an advice: "Tend to your own business and let others alone."
48. Mrs. Haynes asked permission to meet her presidents at the close of the meeting.
49. The president said that we give $1,000 each year to the Home Mission Board of the National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Inc., of which $500 is sent to The B. S. U. on the campus of Howard University, Washington, D. C.

50. In regards to Race Relations, the President said she would get out materials. She asked Mrs. Arbouin to speak on what can be done on Race Relations.
51. Mrs. Arbouin, chairman of the Interracial Committee, said she has planned to get out a brochure—publication. Each member promised to contribute to it. She will send it to Dr. Burroughs for corrections, et cetera. Dr. Burroughs made it plain that she did not want it to be too thick.
52. The Retreat for Foreign missionaries for which the Women's Convention is always going to have something to do with whatever operations going on there, has pictures of its setting by Mrs. Esther Tyree, which will be shown today.
53. Doctor Burroughs reported that she borrowed $25,000 from the Foreign Mission Board and paid back $10,000 and $1,000 on interest, but Rev. Cromwell said that they did not want any interest. The building is theirs. She paid a balance of $15,000. Money now owed is $35,000. She further stated that Mrs. Sarah Williamson Coleman is back from Africa to take over the educational program there. Our 1957 project is to finish paying for it. How?
54. First Vice-President Ross asked if anything was going to be in joint payment. It was repeated that the Woman's convention will always have a hand in the operation of the Retreat. There is a need for a distribution of literature to that point. Nothing more satisfying than "Satisfied Dumbness." Hostess committee is to protect it. We need four women to wipe out debt. Give house parties, et cetera, $50.00 each.
55. The National Training School at Nashville, Tennessee is being closed. Mrs. Edna Bronson said that the school had not been given anything for four years. The Women's Council banded together to bring foreign students to this Training School. The girls from Africa are going to county schools to finish high school. She said they were $12,000 in debt and anything the women could give will be appreciated. She said the person who closed it did not ask anyone to do it, it just closed.
56. Mrs. Mayme Bunn Jones, Assistant Recording Secretary, asked to whom the money should be sent, and Mrs. Bronson said for it to be sent to Dr. Townsend because Dr. Bennett is ill.
57. The President told Mrs. Bronson that the Woman's Convention has been giving to the school in Nashville generously but because they had been told that the National Baptist Convention had withdrawn support, and at this point we should withdraw our committee. The Educational department raised money and planned to turn over as a gift, but the treasurer was told to hold the check and not pay it until settlement, understanding and an agreement can be met. The treasurer has the money now but no one will get it until the National Baptist Convention lets us know what to do.
58. Mrs. Bronson appealed to the women of Illinois. They sent one girl to Chicago to be trained and we've got to pay the second semester. Some white people took her as house guest. We will do nothing uncertain or crooked.
59. Mrs. Gibbs, Treasurer, verified that the money was in the treasury. She asked that money be sent to the treasury and the Woman's Convention would get credit. The treasurer does not issue checks unless authorized by the President.
60. Dr. Burroughs made it plain that the money will go for what it is raised. Send money to Mrs. Gibbs and not to Dr. Bennett.
61. For the National Trade and Professional School, Washington, D. C., Doctor Burroughs said they are building and growing. Three women, Mesdames Shaw, Fortune and C. M. Pearson, will speak 2 minutes each on it. She went on to thank the Young People's department under Mrs. Watts for sending linen and other gifts. Detroit sent carloads of canned foods, about $300 to $500 worth. They also sent beautiful linen. Quilts and many other things came. We will build a chapel in 1957.
62. Mrs. F. M. Shaw, Chairman of the National Trade and Professional School committee, appealed for monthly regulars in meeting the school's needs. Send in so she can get it by the first. If sent to the treasurer or the school, please let her know if you did it so she can give you credit on her committee. She said the Worker would carry an account of donors. She said she sent six girls from her district for the training. She asked for names and addresses of members of her committee of whom she had not been able to contact.

63. Mrs. Lessie Fortune, Co-Chairman, thanked everyone for past favors and asked for the women to follow Mrs. Shaw's suggestion so as to have a 100% representation from the committee next time.
64. Mrs. C. M. Pearson spoke of the summer institutes, how they had helped her to overcome her shyness; and how it will help those of us to preside over our missionary societies. She appealed to us to come and attend the Institute and help them build the chapel which is so much needed. She also brought greetings from Mrs. Haugerbrook who is ill at her home in Atlanta, Georgia.
65. Dr. Burroughs spoke of the young people department and Mrs. Frye's absence. She spoke on the camp for young people. She had 2 sites in mind. The Woman's Convention must decide whether we'll have it or not. The project out from Baltimore is $250,000. In Cash, $125,000. The place was complete. It had everything—parking space for 2,000 cars, seating capacity for 500, the best she had ever seen. John Brown's fort is there. He went there on the gallows. What can we do that is practical? White women are spending money on camp for 15 years in Virginia. She stated that the only thing before us this afternoon will be the pictures. Those who want to work on Crusade or any place.
66. Adjournments
67. Adjournment with singing, "It Takes Work."

74. Mrs. M. L. Saunders of Oklahoma told of a serious accident in which she was blessed with some $3,000 in money and she wanted to share it with the Retreat by giving $25.00 for Books for the Library. Dr. Burroughs assured us that the library is on its way.
75. Mr. Robert Bradley in speaking words of commendation to Dr. Burroughs said that one of the greatest moving moments of his life was in London in 1955 at the Baptist World Alliance when they gave a pageant and Dr. Burroughs was depicted in it. There were 60 nations from around the world stood in silence in honor of Dr. Burroughs.
76. Mrs. Ursula Botts of Minneapolis, Minn., said she encouraged Dr. Burroughs when she was only the secretary that her day would surely come.
77. Mrs. Cassiella Davis said "It's a blessing to know Dr. Burroughs, and if you really want to know her, come to the Institute. She further stated that she had a

- "Treble Clef" Girls' Quartet which was going to give a concert and raise $50.00 for books."
78. Mrs. Moore of Arkansas told a dramatic story of how she lost a check for a long time and found it before coming to this meeting and she paid $25.00 on the school.
79. Closing song: Perfect Day by Carrie Jacobs Bond.
80. Dr. Burroughs said there were several ways of receiving the benediction. She said Perfect Day was certainly a benediction but she wanted Mr. Robert Bradley to sing another Benediction and Rev. Thedford Johnson to give the final one.
