Dear Brethren: April 5, 1886, an open letter to the Baptist clergy and laymen was issued by Rev. Wm. J. Simmons, an American Baptist, asking if we should have a National Convention to discuss questions of interest to our beloved denominations. At that time the following reasons were given:

1. To promote personal piety, sociability, and a better knowledge of each other.
2. To be able to have an understanding as to the great ends to be reached by the denomination.
3. To encourage our literary men and women, and promote the interest of Baptist literature.
4. To discuss questions pertaining especially to the religious, educational, industrial, and social interests of our people.
5. To give an opportunity for the best thinkers and writers to be heard.
6. That, united, we may be more powerful for good and strengthen our pride in the denomination.

Having been solicited to write the Call by many whose names and endorsements are herewith affixed, the Call is hereby made by their advice and solicitations for said convention to meet in St. Louis, Mo., August 25, 1886, 10 o'clock a.m., in the First Baptist Church, and the pastor thereof is hereby requested to serve as a Committee of Arrangements, with power to select his associates. Wm. H. Steward, Louisville, Ky., and Rev. R. H. Cole, 2609 Goode Avenue, St. Louis, are hereby requested to serve as a Committee on Transportation.

WM. J. SIMMONS.

The chronological report in our National Baptist Minutes is hereby corrected, viz: The parties as they appear below were officers of the Foreign Missions or National Educational Conventions, as were their predecessors. Said conventions merged into the National Baptist Convention in 1886 or met co-jointly with it, or otherwise.

Vice President Hampton presented Dr. J. H. Jackson who called to order the Annual Session of the National Baptist Convention with appropriate words as only he can give—he reminded us of our great responsibility as God's people. He called for a period of silence in memory of those who had answered the roll call. Rev. Emory L. Johnson, of New York, sang "How Great Thou Art." The Chairman of the General Entertainment Committee, Rev. H. T. McCary, was presented who, in turn, presented Rev. E. T. Lewis who took charge of the Local program: welcome addresses were given by the Mayor of Philadelphia, Honorable Richardson Dilworth; the governor of Pennsylvania, David L. The response on behalf of the convention was given by Rev. S. B. Joubert, New York. Vice president Hampton called for the reading of the program which was read by Secretary Jemison. Secretary Jemison offered a motion that the program be adopted. Before the motion was put before the house, president Jackson stated that we have two programs before the convention; one arranged by the Board of Directors and one by another group. He asked, "which one will we follow as a convention?"

MINUTES

Rev. W. K. Jackson rose to amend the motion to the effect that the election would come at the time designated on the program and that the convention would vote by states. There was much discussion at this point and the convention was thrown into confusion. Because order could not be restored, the convention was adjourned for one hour on motion by Rev. A. L. Davis, Jr., and seconded by Rev. Owen D. Felt, the motion was carried. The benediction was pronounced by Rev. James Spencer.

AFTERNOON SESSION 2:30

The song service was conducted by Mr. Johnnie Howard Franklin. President Jackson was presiding and Rev. W. K. Jackson called for the previous question on the adoption of the program. R. Matthews that the program be adopted and that a nominating committee be chosen to receive the names of all persons interested in becoming president and make their report to the convention, the motion passed.

Vice president-at-large E. D. Biloups announced that the board of directors would meet immediately. It was evident that the program scheduled for this hour could not be presented due to disorder. The session was then adjourned until the evening, with benediction being pronounced by Rev. Lewis Terrill.

Estel of Texas shared in the making of this report. The report was adopted.

President Jackson entered the auditorium and a joyous demonstration was given. Rev. E. A. Freeman, chairman of the nomination committee, made a report carrying names of candidates presented to the committee. While several names were submitted, the committee recommended unanimously that Dr. J. H. Jackson would be re-elected president. Rev. The motion was seconded by many and adopted on a standing vote of approximately 3500 for and about 500 against.

ANNUAL ADDRESS OF PRESIDENT J. H. JACKSON DELIVERED AT THE
VENTION, U. S. A., INC.

September 8th, 1960—Convention Hall, Philadelphia, Pa.

"And thou Philadelphia, the virgin settlement of this province named before thou wert born, what love, what care, what service and what travail has there been to bring thee forth and preserve thee from such as would abuse and defile thee. O that thou mayest be kept from the evil that would overwhelm thee, that faithful to the God of thy mercies, in the life of righteousness, thou mayest be preserved to the end. My soul prays to God for thee that thou mayest stand in the day of trial, that thy children may be blest of the Lord, and thy people saved by His power."

Such was the prayer that William Penn wrote for this city two hundred and seventy six (276) years ago, and yet the spirit of it is apropos for this hour, and the content thereof could well be applied to the Eightieth Session of the National Baptist Convention U. S. A., Inc., to our nation, and to the world.

While the National Baptist Convention must concern itself with the problems of education, economic and civic well-being, it is basically a religious organization and approaches the solution to all of its problems believing that righteousness will triumph over evil, truth over falsehood, and the spiritual forces of the universe will prevail over all the powers of materialism. For we believe in the God of all mercies who has the power to save the soul of Western Civilization, to redeem the nation from death, and to purify every believer through His wisdom, power and grace.

It is with such faith that I come now to give an account of my stewardship, to report to you the state of your convention as I see it, to catalog some of the achievements, to give some suggestions for the future, and to reflect on some of the struggles we face and the resources and the hope with which we face them.

THE STATE OF THE CONVENTION

For the past twelve months our convention has enjoyed a fine fellowship and a most encouraging harmony. Most of the measures passed by the convention were passed by a very large majority. The Board of Directors has worked together as a team. In all of our meetings we have had free discussions and exchange of opinions, but all issues have been determined by vote of the Board. Your Board of Directors as a whole has impressed me as being a group of men who love the convention and who are dedicated to its cause and who are willing to make sacrifices that the denomination under God might live.

The National Baptist Convention does most of its work through boards. For many years there existed a tension between some of our boards and the parent body. I am happy to report to you that during the past year we have seen the greatest degree of fellowship between the convention proper and all of its boards. Every commercial board has expressed its desire to follow the directives of the parent body. Both the B. T. U. Board and the Sunday School Publishing Board have made substantial gifts to the work of the convention. The Sunday School Board has made a tremendous leap forward in improving its literature.

The Home Mission Board is moving forward, and is winning more friends and greater support.

Last year the Foreign Mission Board enjoyed a banner year financially. Since 1952 for the most part, the finances of the Foreign Mission Board have been steadily increasing until it reached the highest peak in its history in 1959. Let me quote from "What God Hath Wrought Through The Foreign Mission Board During The Past Sixteen Years." Page 4, by Dr. C. C. Adams, Executive Secretary:

The National Baptist Convention represents many schools of thought and many different levels of experience. There is a working agreement which is most encouraging. It is a democracy in which men and women from different sections of our country and from different occupational categories of life meet together annually for fellowship, inspiration and information. The convention is committed to the rule of the majority. Therefore, when we speak of our conventional harmony we do not mean we think and act in unison, but we mean that the dedicated minority in our convention accepts the voice of the majority and adjusts themselves to the decision of the group. When we speak of harmony within the National Baptist Convention, we do not mean that every individual member is, or can be, satisfied with everything that every other member does or says. But many of us have learned to put the interest of the convention above personal ambition and selfish desires and have resolved to help work for the missionary and educational objectives of this great denomination. This state of affairs is most encouraging and is the basis for continued progress, it is our hope for the future.

SOME ACHIEVEMENTS FOR THE PAST TWELVE MONTHS

As we look back over the past twelve months we are happy to report to you some of our high achievements.

1. One of the achievements that we must not forget is our religious observance of the 17th Day of May. Please keep in mind that it was the National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Incorporated, that first called attention to the importance of observing this day and initiated the first National Prayer Day for this purpose. This past 17th Day of May many of our churches held prayer services, and believers humbly petitioned God to help in the struggle for freedom, for the security of the nation, and for the salvation of Western Civilization. The reports from these meetings were encouraging. It is my hope that each year the 17th Day of May will be observed by us, because it represents a significant achievement in the history and evolution of American democracy.

2. During the past year there has been a closer fellowship between our two National Baptist bodies. Many of our older ministers say it has been the finest since the tragic events of 1915. President Pettaway of the other convention was guest at our January Board Meeting in Hot Springs, and the corresponding secretary, Dr. Robert Wilson, preached for us a most inspiring sermon. This marked the third year that we have had special guests from the other convention.

In March of this year, your president was invited to deliver a special message before the general board of the un-incorporated convention. This was the first such invitation to the president of this convention since the two groups separated in 1915. Every possible courtesy was extended to him. There was rejoicing together, and a warmth of brotherly love which gave great hopes for the future growth of our Baptist cause. After forty-five years of separation, every bit of fellowship is most encouraging. Friendship among us must not be based on political motives, and our fellowship must not be misinterpreted by those who do not desire the Christian growth of Negro Baptists.

I repeat now what I said to them: "LET US DEVELOP FELLOWSHIP AMONG US, AND LET THE FELLOWSHIP DICTATE THE FUTURE." I do not think that Negro Baptists shall ever make the greatest possible contribution to ecumenical Christianity as long as they are divided into two camps. The intercessory prayer of Jesus, "That they all may be one," applies to Negro Baptists of the United States of America as well as to Christian in other sections or the world.

2. Meeting With Southern Baptists

As a result of the recommendation by the Honorable Brooks Hays in 1959 to the Southern Baptist Convention in Louisville, Kentucky the leader of the Southern Baptist Convention voted to hold a conference with some of the leaders among the Negro Baptists. When your president was approached on this matter by Dr. Porter Routh, the executive secretary of the Southern Baptist Convention, our president suggested that Dr. C. D. Pettaway, the president of the National Baptist Convention of America, should be a part of the conference. This suggestion was accepted.

The meeting place agreed upon was Chicago, January 28, 1960. There were three leaders from the Southern Baptist Convention and three representing Negro Baptists. We did not invite more than three Negro Baptists, because we believed that was a sufficient number to conference with three Southern Baptist leaders. We faced frankly some of the basic problems confronting us. We met with Southern Baptist leaders as representatives of our own people and as representatives of the cause of Christ. We spent practically a whole day in discussion and in prayer, fully aware of the fact that the problems and difficulties we face could not be solved by a committee of six but needed the guidance of the Spirit of God to touch the hearts of millions of Baptists, colored and white, that they might think the thoughts of Christ after Him and become the champions of freedom and the true servants of the Kingdom of God. This was the first conference of its kind to be called between leaders of Negro Baptists and Southern Baptists. The conference dealt with fundamentals as a brief quotation from the statement made by your president to the group will reveal.

January 28, 1960

"My Fellow-Baptists:

By the invitation of the leadership of the Southern Baptist Convention we are meeting today, and with the full consent and voluntary choice of National Baptists we are here. I consider this meeting a great opportunity, a great challenge and a serious responsibility.

We have come well aware of the area of our differences, which is basically racial. But this natural difference in itself does not constitute any real barrier to any lofty task that we may approach together. Constructive thinking and creative working together need not be hindered or hampered by any differences of race.

In addition to whatever differences there are among us, there are also some things that we hold in common, some points of agreement, and some common ground on which we stand. It is my belief that we do well to begin on this latter plane.

Common Ground

As American citizens we are members of the same body politic and bound by the same Federal Constitution and heirs of its great promises and committed to the ideals of democracy and the principles of human freedom. As American citizens we ascribe to each the right to participate equally in all of the goods, blessings and responsibilities of our nation according to our several capacities and individual gifts. As citizens of this great nation we can seek nothing less than those things guaranteed and promised by the Federal Constitution. But because we have faith in the supreme law of our land, we as citizens do not demand from others more than that which is promised by that law. Our faith in the supreme law of our land grows out of the fact of the intrinsic worth of all of its principles and is based on the fact that it is not a static instrument, but can be kept abreast with the growth and evolution of human thought and life by being revised and amended to meet the progressive needs of the times. As American citizens then, we meet as law abiding, law respecting, and law supporting citizens believing that all of the constructive values of our society can be protected and preserved through obedience to and within the framework of the law.

But as Baptists and as Christians, we are members of another social order, the Kingdom of God. In this Kingdom, relationships are determined not by law, but by grace. The plane of grace is not below, but above the law. Here men are evaluated both negatively and positively. On the negative side all men are sinners. Our kinship is in the depths of depravity for we are partakers of the fallen nature of man. That is why the great Apostle said: "For there is no difference for all have sinned and come short of the glory of God." Romans 3:22-23. Here can be found no grounds for boasting and no justification for claims of superiority of rank or distinction. For no man is worthy of himself to claim membership in the Kingdom of God. On the positive side, his salvation is promised and comes to pass through the grace that is given unto all men through Jesus Christ. It is the redemptive work of Christ that makes us all children of God. Christ is the common ground on which we stand. In Him we seek not the righteousness which is after the law, but after grace. And anything less than this would tend to frustrate the grace of God and render invalid the sacrificial life and redemptive death of Jesus Christ. We subordinate all to Christ and risk all with Christ. We believe that the values gained in this venture are far more lofty and enduring than any that can be risked or lost. We believe that the highest kinship among men is that which stems from fellowship in Jesus Christ. It preserves the best in any race or nationality, and merges all the peoples of the earth into one great family of God. In determining the kingship in the Kingdom of God, the Apostle Paul gave this profound statement: "There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female: for ye are all one in Christ."—Galatians 3:28.

In the light of the above, whatever we attempt to do must be done in the name of Him who died for us all and for the purpose of saving the lost members of our society, and strengthening, encouraging and edifying those believers who are one with us in Christ Jesus."

4. Last year in California, we adopted a "Re-Affirmation of Faith In The Nation." This document carried with it such weight and was considered of such importance that it became a part of the Congressional Record of March 7, 1960, Page A1932. This shows that the thinking of our National Baptist Convention has been of such character that it has won the respect of the lawmakers of that august body, the Congress of the United States.

5. The American Negro Emancipation Centennial Authority

A group of American citizens of both races formed an association known as The American Negro Emancipation Centennial Authority. This society has as its objective the celebration in 1963 of the 100th Anniversary of the signing of the Emancipation Proclamation. This organization is incorporated in the District of Columbia, in every state of the union, and has vital contact with Haiti, the British West Indies, and the kingdoms and free republics of Africa. Chicago's new Exposition Hall has been selected as the site of the great exposition and is to be engaged from the middle of July to the middle of August, 1963.

The executive director of this organization is Mr. Alton A. Davis; the chairman of the Board of Trustees, Mr. James E. Stamps, chairman of the Social Security Administration, now retired; the secretary, Attorney Bindley C. Cyrus, president of the Victory Mutual Life Insurance Company; the treasurer, General Richard L. Jones, former U. S. Ambassador to the republic of Liberia. In his absence, and without his knowledge, your president was by unanimous vote chosen to be the president, all of which responsibility he has accepted, and has worked with the group in pushing forward this great historic undertaking.

6. In addition to the general administrative work of the office of the president of your convention, the president was asked during the year to take the leadership in three financial campaigns, namely: for the support of the Evangelistic Department, our Bath House in Hot Springs, and the Ministerial Retirement Fund.

A. Evangelistic Department

From 1953 to 1959, by their own choice, the Southern Baptist Convention supplied the budget for our Evangelistic Department. Our Southern Baptist friends gave notice last year that they could no longer support this department after the end of the calendar year in 1959. In January, 1960, this matter was presented to the Board of Directors. It was agreed that the convention would carry the budget of the secretary's salary and office rental for this conventional year. I am proud to report that arrangements were made and the salary of the secretary has been paid each month from the treasury of the National Baptist Convention up to this date.

B. Campaign For Our Retirement Fund

In 1958 we paid a director of this Fund for salary and travel, $7,654.54. The report from the office showed that during that year the director raised $114.51 on the field all of which was spent for expenses.

Your president has taken time out to direct the Fund for this year. Mrs. Willis S Jones has served as office secretary and has done a very fine job. We set up as our objective the raising of at least fifty thousand dollars, so that at the end of the fiscal year the Fund would stand at one hundred thousand dollars. But the record shows that at the end of the fiscal year we had raised $68,081.83, and the total amount of the Fund was $126,702.45. This was done with the cooperation and assistance from some of our key pastors and with the work among a few of our faithful pastor's wives.

This is a small beginning when we note the number of persons participating, but when you compare the present with the past, this is a beginning worthy of praise and commendation. This is the first time in the history of our denomination that this type of fund has been developed by us. We must not despise the day of humble beginnings.

C. The Bath House in Hot Springs

Last January the president was asked to conduct a campaign to refinance our Bath House. Mr. Andrew Means, one of our fine laymen, had done a fine job and had made great sacrifices to help us. But more than a year ago, he informed me that with the heavy responsibility he carried as a contractor and builder, he was not able to continue as manager of the Bath House but would do whatever he could to help until we could make other arrangements. It was the example of his sacrifices that inspired me to accept this very heavy responsibility of helping with the campaign for the Bath House.

Also the report of the Bath House Commission to the Board of Directors June 24, 1959, impressed me with the urgency of this campaign. On Page 2 of this report, the Commission gave the results of the campaign they had launched in the winter of 1959. I quote: "We proceeded with the effort by sending out more than three thousand letters to churches, associations and conventions. We did not receive one dollar from this effort."

The current debts at the Bath House in January, 1960, including capital improvements, amounted to about thirty three thousand dollars. I visited in person many of the creditors in Hot Springs and contacted all of them by letter. Some of them gave reductions in their bills.

1. Auditor J. B. Blayton forgave half of a two thousand dollar bill.
2. Mr. James Ferguson forgave all of the interest and one hundred dollars on the principle, which amounted to six hundred dollars.
3. Attorney Robert Booker forgave the total debt owed him and donated his services in preparing the contract between the Bath House Commission and the new management.
4. Alexander Insurance Company, Atlanta, reduced a hundred dollar debt to eighty dollars, and other firms made similar adjustments.

On the first of February, 1960, I recommended to a small committee that we would launch a campaign with the slogan, "Fix It In '60 With '60!" We set out to raise sixty thousand dollars to clear the Bath House of all current indebtedness and of the mortgage indebtedness of $33,888.97. In four months time, the current debt of thirty-three thousand dollars had been reduced to four thousand dollars, and by the middle of June the entire current debt had been paid in full. We have not raised enough money to pay off the mortgage indebtedness against the Bath House, but the Retirement Fund had this amount of money in the bank drawing interest at two and a half per cent. We recommended to the committee on investing retirement fund that we would invest in our own first mortgage at the Bath House on which we were paying four per cent per annum. Therefore, in February, the Retirement Fund purchased from the Reconstruction Finance Corporation the mortgage note of $33,888.97, so that instead of owing the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, we ourselves, and the interest that we would have paid to the company in question is paid to the Retirement Fund.

This is an illustration of what we mean by using our money to help solve our own problems. If we can do this on a small scale, imagine what great things we can do by accumulating larger sums of money to invest in worthy projects like our own churches and educational institutions. This type of constructive use of money is another step that we must employ as a people in our struggle to break the hindering chains about us.

Production As Well As Protest

There are things that we can do for ourselves by the accumulation and the right use of money. Most of our churches today are bound by heavy debt. Whoever holds the mortgage is the potential master. Some times we pay as much for the use of money in the form of interest as we do for the principal. We should accumulate millions of dollars and invest part of it in our church mortgages. We must as a people learn how to accumulate and put money to work for us.

In a country of free enterprise a destitute people is an enslaved people. A people who goes too far in the wilderness of unlimited credit will never know the creative use and power of invested cash. A people struggling for full freedom must not spend too much for pleasure. They must sacrifice, accumulate and invest in the creative and cultural things of life. The economic maturity of a people is not determined by how much they cause other business places to lose through picketing, but by how much they can save by pocketing and investing. If by refusing to buy at a certain store we cause that store to go out of business, we are not any better off economically if we ourselves are still out of business and do not own an additional store of our own. The best "DOLLARS FOR DIGNITY" are those that are saved, owned and invested to produce economic security and independence.

We cannot go much further in our struggle for freedom depending on after-collectings, emergency appeals, afternoon teas, and gifts from other people. We must find a way to accumulate money to endow the struggle for freedom. I fear we are developing too many little side treasures in the name of freedom.

The NAACP is and should be the official representative in our struggle for freedom. Of course we know this organization is not perfect, and is subject to corrections and criticisms. But they have the leadership, the legal talent and the experience to do the best possible job in this field. They have been the voice in the wilderness when others were silent. They have been the pioneers when civil rights prophets were few, they have kept the torch burning in the darkest night, and they have proved to us, to America, and to the world, that they know how to use and invest our money for the cause of freedom.

The NAACP deserves and must be endowed by our gifts so that the leaders can spend more of their time in the worthy fight for freedom than in the struggle to raise funds. We should build a trust fund, the income from which would guarantee the support of the struggle for many years to come.

I urge upon every minister and church to invest more money in the Retirement Program. Such money can be used for a two-fold purpose. Part of it can guarantee the comfort and security of ministers in old age, and part of it can be invested in some worthy cause as is illustrated before you here today.

In 1956 I recommended that we of the National Baptist Convention would create an Educational Foundation, the goal of which would be ten million dollars, and the income of this investment would go to aid our Baptist schools. I urge upon you to begin this venture this year, or as soon as possible. Let us tax ourselves and make the sacrifices, and build an Educational Foundation for ourselves. It requires far more strength, energy and vision to do this than it does to stand at the door of existing foundations begging them for support. If we had such a fund, maybe two or three million dollars of it could be invested in first mortgages of our churches. This would be sound business, and would also help to liberate our churches from the thralldom of existing mortgage masters who tax us with high and sometimes unreasonable interest rates.

We must do more for ourselves as a people, and the National Baptist Convention should help to take the lead in this direction. For the test of a people's greatness is not determined by what they say or by what they do against others. A people's greatness is determined by what they can do in support of themselves and in support of noble causes. I say to you what Joshua said to the ancient Israelites: "If ye be a great people go up to the wood country and cut down for yourselves."

If we become complacent and satisfied to rely wholly on others to give us the essential things we need, we find ourselves serving and worshipping the giver and will lose the vision and the power and the ability to create and produce for ourselves. For beggars are the petty slaves to those from whom they solicit gifts.

Of course we do and should appreciate every benevolent act and every gift that is made to us, but we must not take refuge in gifts. There is an old proverb which says: "DON'T KILL THE GOOSE THAT LAYS THE GOLDEN EGG." It means in reality don't forget those who have helped in the past, and respect the source of your blessings and your gifts. But with your permission I wish to add another proverb of my own to this historic proverb referred to above. It is this: "BEWARE OF THE GOLDEN EGG THAT CANNOT BE HATCHED INTO A LIVING INDEPENDENT GOLDEN GOOSE THAT HAS THE POWER TO LAY ITS OWN GOLDEN EGG." As a people, we now possess the economic resources to endow our colleges, to endow the struggle for freedom, and to render our churches and conventions economically more independent and more secure. Let us not postpone the day of greater things. The hour has come, let us take the venture now.

We need now, and we will need tomorrow, people trained in the art of thought and tutored in the practice of the highest possible moral standard of life, and guided in the highest possible spiritual principles of the universe. We need now, and we will need tomorrow, scientists who can deal wisely with the elements of the universe; men with the ability and the wisdom to harness the forces of the earth, sea, and sky to the weal of man and to the glory of God. We need philosophers who can think the thoughts of Plato, Socrates and Aristotle after them. We need poets to gladden our hearts with the beauty of language and spirit, and we need singers whose golden notes can calm our savage fears and bless the lonely with the consolation of the finest arts. But all of these must be born of women and nurtured in the tender cradle of human affection, and then grow into maturity through discipline; physical, mental, moral and spiritual. Young people, whatever else you do, don't neglect or postpone your opportunity to get an education; for a trained mind and soul is worth more to you, to your race, and to your nation than any material things you might possess.

I wish to express my appreciation to those Negro educators who have sensed the importance of trained minds and hearts among our people for the present and the future. Many of you I know personally, and I know you do not have to make the sacrifice that you are making, but you are committed to the task of the education of our young people, and you are consecrated to the noble work of helping to create human personality in the image of the highest and the best. If your work should cease and your labors should end, there would come an unabridged gap between what we are and what we ought to be. A gap that no politician could span and no amount of protest could ever correct. At this time your job may not be popular, but it is creative, most needed, and most powerful for the future. If we are to produce learned and well-trained leaders for tomorrow, we need some educators among our people who will stand firmly and consecrate themselves to the humble task of the education of youth. Be not insulted by name calling, be not discouraged by criticism, and do not be worried by vituperating epithets, but go on with the task of intellectual, moral and spiritual production, and your students will yet rise up to give you honor, and heaven itself will award your effort.

Protest Still Needed

But mistake me not, I do not mean that the day of protest is over. Protest is still an important aspect of our racial struggle and must remain so as long as there is one vestige of segregation in this fair land of ours. Protest is one way of denying the philosophy of discrimination and segregation. It is one way of saying we do not believe in white supremacy, we do not believe in second-class citizenship, and we are tired of oppression in the name of freedom. We are tired of the application of the tradition of slavery to any people in our American democracy. We are tired of the insecurity that goes with injustice, race prejudice and discrimination, and we are tired of racial bigots who occupy high offices, but who are guilty of high treason against the lofty principles of democracy and whose hands are stained with human blood. Protest is a means of saying we are tired of political hypocrites who swear to uphold the law on the one hand and then pledge to oppose and break it on the other. A refusal to protest these sins against human personality would be a betrayal of the deepest urges of human spirit. For all men are made to be free, and we cannot be at ease until all shackles are removed, until all fetters fall, and we are allowed as others to pluck our own florals of life in the garden of choice.

The Civil Rights Acts of 1960

In the attempt to pass the civil rights bill for 1960 our law makers revealed how much continued protest is needed. It revealed that the parliamentary organization of our United States Congress is still old-fashioned and out of date. For by means of the filibuster the minority can still defeat the will of the majority. In this 1960 filibuster, "all records for marathon senate sessions were shattered. The longest senate session here-to-fore, was in 1954 when the law makers met almost continuously for more than eighty-five hours. In the debate of 1960 the filibuster lasted more than one hundred and eight hours. For ten weeks the United States Senate was engaged in debate on the civil rights measure."

After almost a hundred years little progress has been made in the attitude of this great august body on the matter of civil rights. "From 1865 to 1875 anything and everything could pass Congress designed to re-make the south overnight in the image of the north."

"From 1875-1957, nothing could pass Congress in the field of civil rights in part, because of the bitterness and hostility created by the reconstruction period. The civil rights law of 1957 was a historic landmark. It represented the first Federal action to protect the right of citizenship of Negroes in eighty-two years. Although a fumbling and feeble beginning it broke the long draught of federal inaction." "The civil rights action of 1960 is a vast improvement over 1957." (Roscoe Drummond, Chicago Sun Times, April 23, 1960.)

In an editorial in the Chicago Daily Tribune, April 23, 1960, we have the following words: "The best that can be said for the new civil rights bill is that it is a modest advance. If it fails to do much to change the voting pattern in the south, there will be demands in the next Congress for stronger legislation. It seems unlikely however that the country will continue to tolerate its chief legislature body devoting several months to this issue in each session."

As long as the United States Congress leaves the voters of the south the victims of local officials and state machinery, just so long will we get inadequate civil rights legislation. I quote the words of Senator Paul H. Douglas of Illinois, Congressional Record, April 8, 1960, Page 7261:

"The bill which the senate is about to pass sets up an elaborate obstacle course which the disfranchised Negro in the south must successfully run before he will be permitted to vote at all. At every strategic point there are high technical walls which he must scale, and along the course there are numerous cunningly devised legal pit falls into which he may fall. The delays and the discouragements have been multiplied so that the senator from Mississippi spoke truly and frankly in the last public meeting of the Judiciary Committee when he said that the bill would permit only a very few additional Negroes to vote. Ninety years after the Fifteenth Amendment and ninety-three years after the Fourteenth, this is not a good day for the American tradition of equal opportunity."

My personal reaction to this inadequate civil rights bill was voiced in communications sent to the two senators from Illinois, Everett M. Dirksen and Senator Paul H. Douglas. Both letters are included for your information.

Dear Dr. Jackson:

I deeply appreciate your words of commendation for I know your sincere and able devotion to the cause of civil rights.

I am vitally concerned in this struggle and have been laboring with others to strengthen the measure before us and to get a meaningful act. We are being opposed, however, not merely by the Southerners, but also by those in high positions in both of the political parties, and we are in grave difficulties.

I enclose some tear-sheets from the Congressional Record in the debate of last Friday which show some of the issues involved.

There is one disturbing thought. Suppose we get a unsatisfactory and relatively ineffective form, what should we do on the vote on final passage? Should we accept it as an inch forward or reject it as being largely a sham?

This question may come up very suddenly, and I must be ready to meet it properly. I need counsel and advice from informed persons such as yourself who know the issues and have a deep concern for both the immediate and ultimate welfare of the Negro people.

With best wishes,

Faithfully yours
Paul H. Douglas

Dear Senator Douglas:

In reply to your letter of March 28th, I regret to learn that the present Civil Rights Bill before Congress is being opposed "not merely by the southerners but also by those in high positions in both of the political parties, and we are in grave difficulties."

I am more disturbed by the fact that there does not seem to be at the present time a sufficient public opinion in the support of civil rights to influence and direct all of the members of the United States Senate to support the measure. Democracy, America, and the cause of freedom are in grave difficulties when the United States Senate as a whole is not committed to the full application of the Federal Constitution. It is my studied opinion that the present historic lag of our law-makers on this important issue has made a greater contribution to communist propaganda against the United States than all of the communist agents in these United States.

You ask this question in your letter: "Suppose we get an unsatisfactory and relatively ineffective form, what should we do on the vote on final passage? Should we accept it as an inch forward, or reject it as being largely a sham?"

Before answering these two questions, let me state, that millions of loyal Americans will be greatly disappointed and grieved beyond measure if this Congress cannot pass a satisfactory and effective Civil Rights Bill, and I fear Asia and Africa and many of our trusted allies, will doubt the sincerity of this nation as the leader of the free world.

When you have done all within your power to get a satisfactory Civil Rights Bill, and if in your judgment in its final form it is weaker than you had thought, it seems to me you would be obligated to vote for what is left in order not to be listed in the final analysis with those who oppose.

Some bill is better than no bill, if it is understood that the passage of a weak bill will not satisfy the desires and end the struggle for a satisfactory and worthwhile Civil Rights Bill.

Yours truly,

J. H. Jackson

Senator Everett M. Dirksen
Senate Office Building
Washington, D. C.

I am writing you as one interested in the passage of a strong Civil Rights Bill because it is my belief it will strengthen American democracy and do much to help the cause of the free world.

I appreciate every constructive thing you have done in support of Civil Rights. I must confess however, my grave disappointment over your arguments in opposition to the Douglas-Javits Amendment as recorded in the Congressional Record March 18th, Page 3566, Column One.

In your motion to table the Amendment, your first reason was as follows: "The Amendment applies to Federal, State and Local election. The only authority under which we operate, of course, are the 14th and 15th Amendment. It seems to me that the Amendment, at the state and local level, would actually displace the state machinery on a bare finding by the President of the United States. I have found further, that after the President makes such a finding on the basis of a petition signed by 50 agreed people, there is nothing in the Amendment for a state official to protest, to go into court, or to go into an administrative hearing."

"I am willing to go pretty far in the field of Civil Rights, but I am not going to go quite that far, I can assure the Senate." I register the following criticisms of this statement:

1. The state machinery of our southern states has for all these years blocked the voting rights of a large percentage of American citizens. It is time now that the rights of men be put above antiquated state machinery.

2. In catering to the totalitarian nature of southern states in their rights to discriminate, condones in a large measure the Russian idea of the importance of the state over the individual.

3. I would have expected this type of an argument in the defense of southern state rights to come from a southern senator, and not one from the state of Illinois.

4. It seems to me, Senator, that the insertion of a provision for the protection of the state would have been much more constructive than tabling an amendment designed to remove the alibis used for almost a hundred years to intimidate deserving citizens at the ballot box.

5. You were very specific in your statement, "I am not going to go quite that far." I think the citizens of the United States are very conversant with the short distance that senators are willing to go for the establishment of civil rights. We need to know now, your definition of "pretty far." From the records of the past, "pretty far" has not been far enough to grant the type of safe-guards for first class citizenship that the nation needs.

If this Civil Rights Measure is defeated, the Republican party must share a great deal of the responsibility.

Yours truly,
J. H. Jackson

Mr. J. H. Jackson

Dear Mr. Jackson:
I have taken account of the comment in your letter of March 31. For the last eight weeks I have done the best I could in the field of civil rights. Sincerely,
Everett McKinley Dirksen

As long as there is uncertainty, indifference and open hostility to the basic principles of our Federal Constitution, citizens of America must make themselves heard, their protest must be loud and strong; for silence might be mistaken for satisfaction, and a refusal to speak might be construed as retreat from the exacting task before us.

Last winter I heard a story that I have shared with some of my friends. I will share it with you today.

"It is said a Negro traveler came to a strange town in which none of his own people lived. He went from place to place in quest of a home for the night. All doors were closed. Finally he stopped at an undertaking establishment and asked the proprietor if he could give him quarters for the night. The owner replied, 'I have no place available except a table in the slumber room and there are two bodies in that room. They are to remain until early morning when the pick-up truck will come and take them to be cremated.' The traveler in desperation accepted the offer and went in and retired for the night. When the undertaker opened his office the next morning, the man with the pick-up truck came to report, and said to him 'I have cremated those three bodies I found in the slumber room.' The undertaker said, 'There were only two dead bodies. The Negro man was not dead, he was a traveler to whom I had given quarters for the night.' The man with the pick-up truck replied; 'As I come to think of it now, the Negro man TRIED to tell me he was not dead but I did not believe him.'"

If at any time during the past ninety odd years we have impressed America that we were dead with satisfaction of the old system of discrimination, be advised that shall never happen again. There can be no mistake. We are alive to the promises of the constitution, we are alive to the rights that we must enjoy, we are alive as first class citizens. We will not be silent, we will never surrender, we shall contend for full freedom as long as the Federal Constitution remains and our spirits thirst for full deliverance. We will contend for justice as long as rocks are firm and rivers flow and oceans surge, and the meridian sun is ablaze, and as long as the eternal promise of God leads like a flaming cloud from the Egypt of servitude to the Canaan of full and unquestioned human fulfillment. This is a cause, and we cannot change it. It is a responsibility that we dare not shirk.

What We Do Not Seek In Our Civil Rights Struggle?

1. We do not seek to carry on a program of hate against races and groups. Our struggle must never be a struggle based on prejudice, envy and strife. It must always recognize the fact that there are among us people of other races and groups who stand for the principles of freedom, and who themselves have an attitude of goodwill. We must never become too hostile to recognize and to express our approciation for messengers of good will, be they black or white. For some of the victories that pressure groups think they have won may be due to the fact of the influence, the sacrifices and lives of people in the United States who in a spirit of goodwill are working also for a better country and an improved democracy.

2. The struggle for civil rights is not a struggle for legalized friendship or an effort to get away from our own people. Many white Americans have so mistaken the struggle. But this is far from the truth. The Negro citizens for whom I speak are proud of themselves, satisfied with their families, and love their own people. They want for themselves and their families the same good things as any other American citizen desires. They want to purchase homes where their money can buy. They want a free opportunity for all the cultural things in life and a privilege to drink deeply of the fountains of knowledge and understanding.

Many of us do not believe that integration in the Christian Church necessarily means that the church is a congregation of saved believers. For to us, the presence of a white face is no indication of purity, and Caucasian membership does not of itself prove the presence of Christ. The Kingdom of God comes in the hearts of men not through integration, but through re-generation. A congregation of Negroes and whites without the guidance of the Spirit of God is nothing more than a mixed crowd on their way to hell, and it is just as dangerous and damnable to go the downward way in a mixed crowd as it is to walk alone. When we seek our rights as citizens we do not necessarily seek the legalized friendship and the company of those who desire us not. Some months ago a person read a quotation from an address that I had delivered on the struggle for first class citizenship and she sent me this telegram: 'Have you no self respect. Should white people wish your society you would have a kindly invitation—Alice L. Dick.'

I was happy to tell Mrs. Alice Dick that we do have self respect and that we seek not the society of white people as such when we seek our rights before the law. As citizens we have no objection to being in the society or company of those who are worthy and deserving, if they are willing to have fellowship with us. We do not desire and will not seek to force ourselves upon the company of any person or persons from whom we have not received a kindly invitation. But when it comes to the struggle for civil rights we struggle because we have been invited to struggle. We have the kindly invitation that comes from the Federal Constitution, comes from our philosophy and our concept of the dignity of man. There is a story that illustrates the difference between civil rights and legalized companionship.

In the winter of 1959 I was on a Pennsylvania Railroad train going from the city of Philadelphia to Chicago. The train had scarcely reached Paoli before I went into the dining car for dinner. The steward gave me a seat at a table where one white man was seated. He stopped eating his food, got up and went over to another table. I did not follow him because I did not enter the dining room seeking his company. I ordered my dinner, for that was the purpose for which I had come into the dining car. I did not sit down at the table to eat his dinner or to eat him. I came to order and to eat what I was able to buy. I ordered a steak dinner with all of the trimmings and closed with tutti-frutti ice cream. As I observed, the white brother was eating hamburger and potato chips. After dinner I passed through the coaches and recognized the same man as a coach passenger, doubled up in one seat trying to sleep and trying to find some comfort. I went back to my bedroom and went to bed in comfort and in ease, being sorry for a man who did not know the difference between a citizen's quest for the things that his money could buy, and a stranger's cheap, undearable and unasked for companionship.

When we seek our civil rights we seek those basic values under the law that all citizens have a right to possess. We seek and desire the best possible things for ourselves and for our families.

We not only have self respect, but we also have respect for our nation. We are patriots and we love our country's cause and through the civil rights struggle we are seeking to save America from those people and practices that would destroy the American way of life and render the nation a by-word before the peoples of the world.

The Southern Way of Life That We Protest

Since May 17, 1954, we have heard much about the so-called "southern way of life." People from all social, cultural and political strata of the south have been rallied to protect, defend, fight for, and save the southern way of life. The Southern Manifesto, signed by ninety-six United States Senators and Congressmen March 12, 1956, was in the defense of the southern way of life. The White Citizens' Council was organized to oppose the established law of the land in the defense of the southern way of life. The many segregation bills passed by the state legislatures in the several southern states were purported to be for the protection of their way of life. Many scholars, writers, editors and religious leaders have written articles and editorials, and made speeches in the defense of this way of life. Blood-thirsty mobs have moved under the shadows of night, defied officers of the law, snatched prisoners from their cells, and dragged innocent children from their unguarded homes and riddled their bodies with bullets and thrown them to the merciless jaws of flowing streams. Young white students have put down their school books, deserted the sacred halls of learning and resorted to shameful and primitive deeds of cruelty in the defense of the southern way of life. This southern way of life has led some governors to sin against the Federal Constitution and to disrespect the American flag. I ask, what is this southern way of life that has challenged the minds and soul of millions of our American citizens?

I answer with regrets. This southern way of life is the way of discrimination and segregation. It is the child of racial prejudice and the aftermath of the cursed and doomed institution of slavery. It advocates the practice of two standards of justice. One for the people with pale skin, another for those with ebony hues. It advocates two systems of education: one for the children of former masters, the other for the offsprings of past slaves. It is a way of life that denies to Negro citizens the right to the ballot box, and would keep them from enjoying full and equal opportunities under the supreme law of the land. It was this way of life that caused some members of the United States Senate to spend more than forty days in a serious effort to block the passage of a decent civil rights bill. This way of life is based on a false philosophy of white supremacy, a supremacy that is not supported by science nor validated by truth. This way of life is in direct contrast and serious opposition to the Federal Constitution, and seeks to negate the highest principles of American democracy. It would sell the cherished birthrights of American citizens for the pottage of political expediency. For it not only penalizes Negro people who do not accept its verdict as final, but it also discriminates against white citizens who choose the American way instead of the unjust way of this southern tradition. In the name of this tradition white citizens of the south have been removed from political office, dismissed from teaching positions, boycotted and forced out of business into poverty and want. Doctors have lost their practices, families have lost their friends, and preachers have been denounced and driven from their pulpits, and some police officials who tried to enforce the law have been so crushed and oppressed that they have been driven to a type of insanity that led them to murder their own wives and then destroy themselves through suicide. This southern way of life is an enemy to justice, unfriendly to the truth of the Christian gospel, and destructive to the souls of men. This is the way of rebellion, a way of guile and guilt, a way that is fraught with the destruction of the highest social ideals, and is a damnable prelude to the depths of hell. It is a way that seems right to men who are blinded by prejudice, but the end thereof is death. It is death to all that is fair and fine, death to law and order, and could be death to the lofty principles of the Federal Constitution, death to the moral fibre of the nation, and threatens to be eternal death to the soul of America.

If this way of life triumphs, the progress of American history will be interrupted and turned back for a thousand years, the ghost of slavery would rattle its blood-stained chains again in every state house in the nation, and savage hordes would come forth to kill and to destroy, and the glorious torch in the hands of the Statue of Liberty would be pulled down to dust, and its sacred gleams would perish forever from the minds of men; America would be a by-word among the nations and a lost cause in the annals of time.

The American Way Of Life

But there is another way far more glorious and lofty. It is the way of freedom, liberty, and democracy. This is the American way of life. This is a way of universal suffrage and it is victorious over the servitude of the spirit and breaks the thralldom of the human mind. It is the way of hope, bright with the promises of the future. It is the way that was chosen by our founding fathers, hallowed by the sacrifices of George Washington, made great by the organizing genius of Thomas Jefferson, Benjamin Franklin and John Adams. It is a way purged by the flowing blood of a Crispus Attucks and sanctified by the death of the martyred president Abraham Lincoln, and washed by the tears of weeping slaves, and dedicated by the heroic deeds of un-named and unsung lovers of their country's cause. These patriotic saints have given their full ounce of devotion that the American way might live in whose wake the nation shall remain one united Republic under God where men are free; free to think, free to speak, free to develop all of their latent powers, and free to worship God according to the dictates of their conscience. In the American way of life people of different races and nationalities, different creeds and different national origins, walk and live side by side in freedom without fear and dwell together in peace as the children of a common country under one Federal Constitution and one honored flag. I ask, who is so un-American among us as to substitute another way for the nation's way? Is freedom to be feared by any civilized people? Is liberty a liability to any social order? Is applied democracy destructive of the souls of the recipients, and dangerous to the children of former masters? Is there any degree of social salvation in segregation? Is there any moral deliverance in discrimination? To all of these questions America at her best, gives an unqualified denial.

The Love Of Country

When I think of my own nation, I refuse to be controlled by the sins and failures of those who live among us but whose minds and hearts are not as yet in tune with the rhyme or reason of democracy and who have never as yet caught the true meaning or comprehended the universal benediction of human freedom. It was on the 20th of April, 1959, when some Russian scholars added another volume to the great Russian encyclopedia. In this last volume there is a description of a strange country across the sea known as the United States. The scholars said of it: "That far-away nation is a bourgeois republic—it appears to be almost wholly populated by unskilled workers, down-trodden Negroes and selfish capitalists bloated with war profits." This is the opinion of far-away scholars who know not the nature and character of this great republic. I have admitted in agony and in tears that there are present among us some men and women who would yield to such a description of this fair land of ours. But as for me I shall not allow any man or nation to deceive me into thinking that America is no more than those who rebel against her sacred laws and who live in a spirit of greed always seeking the destruction of the delicate soul of the nation.

I will not allow any man to make me believe that the radical deeds of the king of England, his hostile parliament and his invading army against the thirteen original colonies reveal the true spirit and soul of the country that has produced and has long been sustained by the philosophy of the Magna Charta. England is a great people and a great nation, and I have told them so in private conferences and on public platform in their island country. The soul of Great Britain must not be interpreted wholly in terms of the failures of history. While we do not condone the sins of colonialism and do not sanction any of her international pride, in a spirit of appreciation we must say that England is a great country and a great people.

I refuse to reduce the German state to the deeds of a blood thirsty Kaiser or the cruel exploits of a godless Hitler with his self-centered and materialistic legions bent on carrying across the world his deeds of slaughter and his inhuman acts of destruction. There is more to the German state than that. A nation that has produced Martin Luther is a great nation. A man whose words disturbed the complacent church and set in motion a revolution, the impact of which still moves forward with native dispatch and conquering courage. I must give due regard to some of the greatest theologians the Christian world has ever known, who had their origin and their careers on the soils of Germany. And time would fail us to tell of her poets and gifted musicians whose notes have charmed the hearts of thousands, and whose sweet melodies have lifted the very souls of men from the drab category of material things of the present earth to the very gates of glory. Germany is a great nation. It has a soul that men must appreciate.

So I shall not yield the greatness of this nation to rebellious spirits or interpret her character in terms of men like John Wilkes Booth who take delight in blowing out the life of heroes and saints and patriots or who sell the soul of the nation, like some Judas, for thirty pieces of silver. I shall not live on the rubbish heap of society outside of the central life and character of the nation. I will not describe this great republic in terms of the refuse of hate, animosity, pride and prejudice. Rather, I shall ascend the green slopes of inspiration and stand on the high table land of appreciation and view the untarnished, pure and virtuous soul of this great republic. It is a nation that has produced the greatest document of freedom ever to be penned by human hands. A nation whose philosophy of freedom is based on the dreams of Amos, the visions of Isaiah, and the tearful speculations of Jeremiah, and whose concept of human personality grows out of the teachings of the bare-footed Man of Galilee, is too great to be reduced to the level of those who rebel against truth and sin against the lofty dreams of justice and freedom. This is a great nation, a nation that stands head and shoulders above the political families of the world. We love the nation's constructive laws and her way of life, we adore the stars and stripes, and we are held in loyal appreciation by her heroic deeds and lofty achievements. Let those whose hearts have not been touched by the vision of freedom say what they will against the soul of America. Let traitors follow the dictates of their depraved and corrupt conscience, and let rebels rally their dangerous legions to invade the sacred precincts of justice and liberty. As for me I shall stand ever loyal to this great republic and give to its soul every ounce of devotion and struggle for the complete realization of its ideals until every dream comes true and every prophetic vision is recorded history.

We can and we must oppose all the enemies of freedom in every form, and we shall always detest and work for the overthrow of all the opponents of justice and the opponents of democracy and freedom. But to our nation we shall ever remain loyal because we believe in those forces that have produced her and have faith in the God who decreed and directed the nation's birth. We will not allow the traitors of freedom to influence our thought. We will not permit the heinous deeds of segregators to blind our eyes to the nation's beauty. No foreign power shall control us and no un-American philosophy shall drive us from these shores. We are anchored in the nation's life and history as firmly as the Rockies and as deeply rooted as the tallest trees in our sacred soil.

America, oh America, the cradle of our civic being, the mother of us all, to thee we shall ever be true and to thy loving shores we shall never say good-bye, and from thee we shall never depart. Thou shalt be to us a shelter, a home and a citadel of peace, or thou shalt be to us a dungeon, a prison and a tomb. For freedom and justice we shall ever cry. If tongues are stilled and lips are sealed by force and death, then from the bosom of the tomb our bleached bones and sacred dust shall still cry for the cause of the nation and for the liberation of all fettered souls and the emancipation of every mind tortured by the fiend of prejudice and the ghost of servitude.

The cause of America must not die for it is basically a cause of freedom and a cause of goodness and a divine cause. If every governor of the several states forsakes the nation's cause, if every congressman and senator should turn traitor and seek the nation's death, if guile and guilt pull down every floating flag, and treason and trickery marshall all their forces of rebellion against the truth of democracy and the sacredness of universal justice, and all armed soldiers forget their pledge of loyalty and turn their weapons of destruction against the soul of the nation, come on us, many of the ebony sons of the republic to be ever ready to stand firmly for the true American way of life because we believe it to be right, in harmony with the creative genius of the universe, and according to the will of the Almighty God. America the beautiful, we love and adore thee.

Our National Election

Once every four years the American people are called upon to express their love of country by going to the polls and selecting a chief executive who shall be the nation's standard bearer, the nation's symbol and the nation's voice. This fell we must again choose a worthy leader.

I urge upon our pastors to take this matter most seriously and to lead their people into the exercise of this democratic responsibility. This is a high privilege that no citizen can afford to take lightly or to neglect. As American citizens we must be interested not only in the welfare of our race but in the welfare of our nation. We must not expect from any candidate special favors for ourselves, but we must expect and urge upon him to be loyal to the principles of the Federal Constitution, and to be devoted to the cause of freedom, and to give himself whole-heartedly to the promotion, protection and the development of our democratic way of life. If he does this in all seriousness, every American citizen will enjoy all of the rights promised him under our sacred Constitution.

Let us therefore study the issues of the campaign carefully and above all, let us form our conclusions based on principles and not on prejudices. We must not condemn any man because of his religion or because of the region or geographical territory in which he lives. Prejudice of religion and prejudice of region are just as sinful as prejudice of race. For where men are guided by such prejudices they miss the insights that come through the principles of reason. We are electing a president not a prelate. Neither the cause of democracy or religion will be served well at this time by a Protestant war against the Roman Catholic Church. Our job is to carry forward our witness and seek to win converts to the power and grace of God, and not through any agency of the state.

We must send to the White House, a statesman, a courageous leader and a defender of the nation, and a man who is dedicated to the cause of world fellowship and world peace. The nation needs such a leader. Past glories will not suffice and deferred greatness will not atone. We must as a nation meet the demands of the present with confidence and with certainty. We must not fail our nation. We need now, and must choose in the next election a man ready for the task.

The Battle For World Peace

The battle for world peace still rages, the lines are tightly drawn between the East and the West, and the contest is most intense between the world of free enterprise and international communism. The United States of America is the principle leader of the former, and Soviet Russia the leader and spokesman for the latter. The power, the conflict or the cooperation of these two great nations will largely determine the coming of war or peace. Some of the slender threads holding these two great powers together are as follows:

1. The United Nations with its moral influence and its emphases and contention for the peace of the world.
2. The thin and nebulous doctrine of co-existence. On this doctrine our statesmen are building their hopes for fellowship and peace with Soviet Russia. Yet they know or at least they should know that the basic doctrine and program of international communism is still the manifesto of 1848, and according to this manifesto there is no place for co-existence of any capitalistic country. Communism is to conquer and subdue all other political states and emerge the undisputed master of the world. Before co-existence can have a real, vital place in the doctrine and program of international communism, the manifesto of 1848 must be revised and revamped. Communist China opposes the present theory of co-existence because China is following the communist line laid down by the manifesto referred to above.
3. There was a third thread that was woven last year when Mr. Khrushchev visited this country. It was called the spirit of Camp David. It really meant the personal friendship between President Eisenhower and the Russian premier, and on this friendship the world built high hopes for the Summit Conference in Paris May 7, 1960, and the peace of the world seemed greatly assured. But the U-2 Plane incident destroyed completely the spirit of Camp David and left the two principals bitter enemies. We had hoped and prayed for much good to come out of the Summit Conference in Paris. To this end I sent the following cablegram to President Eisenhower May 18, 1960 while he was in Paris:

"Units of the National Baptist Convention, USA, Inc., are in prayer today over the nation for you and the success of the Summit Conference. Never before has so much depended on the decision of so few as with the case of the present Summit Conference. On your decisions may rest the life or death of Western Civilization, and the ultimate fate of mankind on this planet.

May the spirit of Camp David be re-affirmed and an attitude of trust characterize the relationship between the United States of America and the Soviet Union, and all the other participants in this Paris Conference. As you meet on the summit millions of human beings the world over are looking that way for some message of deliverance and some promise of security and peace. They must not look in vain.

But we were disappointed, for the Summit Conference failed. The tragedy of this failure was more deeply impressed upon my mind as I read the May 26th reply sent to me from the White House by President Eisenhower.

THE WHITE HOUSE WASHINGTON

May 26, 1960

Dear Mr. Jackson:

When I was in Paris I received your message telling me that units of the National Baptist Convention were in prayers for the success of the Summit meeting. As the amazing events of the last ten days so dramatically demonstrated, it was impossible to conduct any part of the negotiations. I assure you that I shall continue unceasingly my efforts on behalf of the just and durable peace we all so devoutly seek.

With best wishes,

Sincerely,

Dwight Eisenhower

Mr. J. H. Jackson
President
National Baptist Convention, Inc.
3101 South Parkway
Chicago 16, Illinois

But there is a deeper reason for this failure at the summit. It is deeper than Russia's attitude towards the United States, deeper than the philosophy of international communism. There is a moral reason for this failure at the Summit. Governments, nations, and politicians have overlooked the intrinsic value of man and the relationship between justice and peace. They both go together.

The Inclusive Concern of Justice

Don't forget that the concern of justice is not with the heads of states alone, the captains of industry, the rich of the world, and the lords and masters of human society. The concern of justice is with the people, all people. It reaches to the highest peak and goes to the lowest depths of human habitation. The suffering and afflicted peoples in the valley below are seen by the Watchman on the highest summit. And the groans of the needy are heard at the very gates of God, and a Deliverer is promised to come down to rescue and to save. For if there is servitude in the valley, there is thralldom on the hill. And if the workers are in chains, the captains of industry are in prison bound. They are bound in the prison of anxiety, fear and insecurity. If the people are hungry in the streets, the heads of state cannot eat their bread in peace. And if there be fetters in the valley, there will be no real freedom and fellowship at the summit. It is not the height to which the rocket may ascend, but the depth of concern for the people that shall bring deliverance and security to this age. The people must be rescued, the people must be set free, the people must be lifted, or kingdoms will wax and wane, and states and nations will decay and die. The golden age of human freedom cannot be decreed by the will of kings or brought into being by the edicts of demagogues and dictators. It can only come when the people are free.

The desire for freedom is abroad in the world and cannot be crushed by fear. The call to liberty has been heard among the nations and will not be silenced by bayonets, belching guns and bursting bombs. The struggle for freedom goes on in every segment of human society. The people cry for the bread of freedom and will not be satisfied with stones of slavery.

The peace of the world cannot come until the people come to the full realization of all of their rights and are granted free access and use of every God-given opportunity to be what they ought to be. The few at the summit cannot purchase peace for themselves at the expense of the multitude in the valley. We cannot have a secure island of peace in the storm-tossed waters of human oppression. The heads of the states of Russia, the United States, Great Britain and France cannot meet at the Summit and draw up an acceptable document of peace while Africans are being shot down in cold blood on their native soil, and Germany remains a divided nation, and Roumania and Hungary are still in chains, and the United States still allows the doctrine and the practice of second-class citizenship. No man is wise enough to know how to keep another down without doing injury to himself, and no man is good enough to be the trusted master of the soul of another.

Let mighty nations join their powerful hands in a dishonorable struggle, the results will be weakness. Let statesmen meet on the highest summit and plan and plot the future course of mankind, their efforts will miscarry until the peoples of the world have their rightful place in the scheme of things. The poet, Angela Morgan, sang a song that had the rhyme of reason and the sanction of truth in the following words:

"And the Lord God whispered and said to me,
These things shall be, these things shall be,
Nor help shall come from the scarlet skies,
Till the people rise!
Till the people rise, my arm is weak;
I cannot come till my people come."
When men are dumb, my voice is dumb—cannot come till my people come."

If the people rise, if the people rise,
I will answer them from the swarming skies
Where Herculean hosts of night
Shall spring to splendor over night,
Blazing systems of sun and star
Are not so great as my people are,
Nor chanting angels so sweet to hear
As the voice of nations, freed from fear.
They are my mouth, my breath, my soul!
I wait their summons to make me whole."

And now Mr. Chairman and Delegates, I bring this report to a close, and with the dreams, the labors and aspirations of another twelve months. It is a great honor to enjoy the confidence of this great body of Christian believers. But more than the honor, it is an exacting responsibility for any man in these days and times to assume the leadership of such an organization as this. This convention owes me no debt, but I owe this convention everything. It has made me what I am. It has given me an opportunity to exercise my talents and to share with you and others the noble responsibility of helping to advance the Kingdom of God. For this I am most grateful. I seek from you no special place, rank or honor. I am devoted to the work of the convention, and that devotion will continue it matters not who is called upon to lead forth in the future. I am willing to serve in any station assigned to me by you. You are the better judge as to where I can best serve. I will accept your orders and your directions so long as your orders do not in any wise conflict with the orders of heaven, for I am sure you know by now, that I have been called of God to preach, and preach the gospel I must.

I cannot tell you how much I appreciate your kind words, your letters of encouragement and your prayers. It seems that during the past twelve months I have needed more than ever before the spiritual strength that comes from the communion of friends with friends, and from the communion of the believer with his God. I have passed through new fields of experience, and they have taught me anew the depth of my own frailty and the boundless wealth of my personal Christian faith. Five months ago I went to the silent city where other sons have gone and for the first time and the last time laid to eternal rest the source of my life, the flesh of my flesh, and the lifeless form of the one who gave me birth and who first introduced me to the Christian religion and showed me by precept and example what it meant to follow Christ. She was my first Bible and my first hymn book, and in her life I saw the first glimpse of the meaning of the cross of Christ. Her un-realized dream became the throbbing vision of my soul, and the songs she whispered into my youthful ears are still the compelling music of my being.

Five months ago I saw them cover her hallowed couch with the drapery of clay, and then we accepted from mother nature a secret agreement that in due course she would spread over the sacred spot the verdant canopy of sprouting grass while the watchful stars would lend their tender rays to break the spell of darkness through the long night of years so that she may slumber in peace and in quiet repose until Job's alarm clock shall sound and announce that the resurrection morn has come and eternal day has dawned.

Three days later Providence consigned me to a hospital and to an operating room from the which it was not certain whether I should return to an active career or spend my remaining days in silence. But science was accurate, the physicians were careful, and God was good. In the hours of anticipation I was sustained by His presence and in the moments of solitude His companionship was without question and most real. I am thankful to God that I am here today. Here by His divine decree, sustained by His eternal love, and enfolded in His arms of mercy. I have nothing of which I can boast without the knowledge and the certainty that God does care and does protect. And now, I fear not for the future because of my knowledge of the past. I cannot be frightened by the passing of years or by the flight of time. The future is real with us. Atomic scientists and frustrated statesmen may rob the unbelievers in this twentieth century of their future, but not so with us who believe in God. Our future is in His hands and we fear not our tomorrow and are not disturbed by the pangs of the present and are not afraid to look at the nimble feet of passing years.

In a book called "Street Walker," the anonymous author says the following.

"For I am afraid to look clearly on the passing of time.
I fear to look forward lest I perceive nothing.
I shut my eyes to all but the most immediate realities
Lest I find in today, too, nothing.
And I dare not look back, lest all I have lost should confront and confound me.
I must see no more than the little, present moment,
Lest I perceive that there is nothing for me in the stars
And nothing in the clock-bound passing of each year."

But our Christian faith rescues us from such blindness and such fear, and redeems us from the littleness of the present moment. For when we look into the past our God is there, and when we look into the immediate realities of the day He is also there as a Present help in trouble. And when we look forward we know that victory is assured and He shall be with us there. Did not the Psalmist give us the geography of His being and the universality of His spirit and the dimension of His presence when he said:

"Whither shall I go from thy spirit? or whither shall I flee from thy presence?
If I ascend up into heaven, thou art there: if I make my bed in hell, behold, thou art there.
If I take the wings of the morning, and dwell in the utmost parts of the sea;
Even there shall thy hand lead me, and thy right hand shall hold me."

—Psalms 139:7-10

Because He has brought us through the past we know with Him we shall go through to victory in the future. Because He has brought us out of the wilderness of servitude and has led us across seas of opposition, we shall go on through every obstacle until we have reached the promised land of divine fulfillment. Let springless deserts intervene and a dark and dangerous wilderness of corruption and death sprawl before us, through them we shall march to the Canaan of God. "Through many dangers, toils and snares we've already come," and the victory of the past deepens our faith for conquest in the future. Ye saints of God fresh courage take, for we shall not be defeated nor perish before victory comes. In God's name we are going through. The song of the conquering church, the song of every God-called preacher, and the song of my soul, is the song of Herbert Buffum:

"Lord, I have started to walk in the light
Shining upon me from heaven so bright;
I bade the world and its follies adieu,
I've started in Jesus, and I'm going through.

Many they are who start in the race;
But with the light they refuse to keep pace;
Others accept it because it is new,
But not very many expect to go through.

I'd rather walk with Jesus alone,
And have for a pillow, like Jacob, a stone,
Living each moment with His face in view,
That shrink from my pathway and fail to go through.

I'm going thro', yes, I'm going thro';
I'll pay the price, whatever others do;
I'll take the way with the Lord's despised few,
I'm going thro', Jesus, I'm going thro'."

SOME RECOMMENDATIONS

By President J. H. Jackson

1. That we will revive our efforts to have a special commission in Washington, D. C., on current civic issues. The chairman of this Commission should live in Washington. The purpose of this Commission would be the same as stated in bulletin, "Program Of Commissions Of The National Baptist Convention, S. A., Inc., 1953, Page 10.

II. I recommend that we revive our efforts at the establishment of a Baptist Alliance of the United States of America. In 1957 I recommended this matter to the convention, the full text of which appears on page 12 of the annual address September 5, 1957.

III. In the interest of our Baptist principles and in the interest of freedom in the United States, I urge upon this body to send a telegram to the leaders of the National Baptist Convention of America, Un-incorporated, The American Baptist and the Southern Baptist Convention, asking them to join in such an undertaking.

IV. That we will create an Ecumenical Fund.

A. The Purpose of the Fund

1. The payment of National Baptist Convention quotas in all national and inter-national religious bodies in which we hold membership.

2. To help to defray the expenses of our representatives to these meetings where such is required.

B. Suggested Method for Raising Said Fund.

1. To ask each church to pay at the rate of ten cents per member for the first thousand members, plus any donation that the church would desire to make to this cause.

2. This money is to be sent to the office of the Foreign Mission Board the week following Easter. Said Board will deposit this fund in a special account set up for the purpose named above and will remit the same to the treasurer of the National Baptist Convention for the distribution to the organizations in which our Convention holds membership.

3. That we as a convention will demand that all monies collected from National Baptist Convention churches by any of these national or inter-national bodies or their agents, will be forwarded immediately to the Ecumenical Fund of the National Baptist Convention to be deposited and distributed through convention channels as prescribed above.

4. That all designated monies paid into such bodies by any of the Boards or Auxiliaries of the National Baptist Convention will be paid directly to the National Baptist Convention which will instruct its treasurer to deposit the same in the National Baptist Convention account and then draw the check and send the same to the organizations designated by the Auxiliaries or Boards.

5. All Boards and Auxiliaries receiving quotas from these national and inter-national bodies will submit the same to the Board of Directors for study, approval and recommendation. When this quota has been approved by the National Baptist Convention, the National Baptist Convention itself will send the quotas to the respective bodies in the name of the Auxiliaries or Boards in question.

6. Since our National Baptist Convention holds one of the Vice-Presidencies of the Baptist World Alliance, and since there is a demand from many of our constituents that our convention will pay more into the Baptist World Alliance fund, I recommend that we will accept the quota of $2,000.00 per year in the Baptist World Alliance.

IV. That we will send missionaries to the Congo from which white missionaries have been evacuated, and that we will ask the United States to aid in sending competent doctors to the Congo and help them in their health program in general until their conditions are much improved, and that we will also ask our government to include the Congo on the list of those nations to receive foreign aid if such is required by the Congo.

V. That in the light of our recommendation and vote of last year regarding a new type of missionary program in Liberia, and in the light of President Truman's acceptance of the idea, I recommend that we will send a Commission to Liberia this convention year to negotiate for the purchase of a large tract of land that can be used for the purpose as stated in the recommendation of our convention last year.

VI. Because of the world significance of the new free African states, I recommend that the National Baptist Convention will so re-construct its missionary program so as to allow money to send special cultural citizen diplomats to these several countries to study the program of these countries, observe assets and liabilities and make recommendations to us as to how we can aid them in their aspirations and struggles.

To help develop some experts who can aid the United States of America forming the best possible relationship with these new countries.

VII. Retirement Fund of the National Baptist Convention.
We will form State Units to aid in building our Retirement Fund.
A. The structure of these units.

1. There will be a state chairman, and said chairman will have with other interested persons to form a state committee. The state chairman is responsible to the National Retirement Board.

a. His Responsibilities.

1. To get every church that has not joined the Retirement Savings plan to join by donating the sum which is equivalent to 25 cents per member with the understanding that there shall be no initial donation under $100 per church.

2. All money collected will be paid to the National Baptist Convention U. S. A., Inc., by check. Said check is to be mailed to the Retirement Headquarters which is at the present time, 4411 South Parkway, Chicago, Illinois.

3. Fifty per cent (50%) of these collections is to be allowed for salaries of the State Agency. Said expense will be paid by the National Baptist Convention to the State Agency.

4. If a church later takes out membership in the Retirement Savings Plan through the effort of the State Agency, ten per cent (10%) of the amount is deducted for state expenses.

These suggestions are made to aid the Board of Directors and the Convention in reaching its financial goal for the fund as soon as possible.
Adopted September 6, 1960.

L THE NATIONAL BAPTIST CONVENTION "DUTY-PLUS CAMPAIGN"

If the National Baptist Convention is to do the great task that has been entrusted to it, there must be a greater degree of stewardship practiced and more sacrificial giving. We must do more than simply register our churches for the privilege of discussion and debate, we must make real contributions.

The Purpose

1. To influence each pastor, church, association and state convention to go beyond the line of duty in support of the National Baptist Convention's program for this conventional year.
2. To find and enroll this convention year ten thousand new churches as members of the National Baptist Convention, USA, Inc.
3. To influence each church who has represented in the convention before, to give more than the required enrollment fee as follows:

A-Class Churches: Representation fee plus a gift of $1,000.00.
(Churches of a thousand members or more.)

B-Class Churches: Representation fee plus $500.00 gift.
(Churches of five hundred members and above.)

C-Class Churches: Representation fee plus $250.00 gift.
(Churches of seventy-five to four hundred ninety-nine members.)

4. To ask each state convention to give $1,000.00 above its required representation
5. To ask each association to give $100.00 above representation fee.
6. Each pastor to give personally as follows:

Pastors of A-Class Churches	— $ 100.00
Pastors of B-Class Churches	— 50.00
Pastors of C-Class Churches	— 25.00

B. How This Special Fund Is To Be Used

1. Fifty per cent to be given to the building of a greater surplus for the Retirement Fund.
2. Fifty per cent to go to the initial fund for the building of a ten million dollar educational foundation.

C. How Will This Fund for the Educational Foundation Be Used.

1. The principal would be invested as follows:
 - a. Some in government securities
 - b. Others in the most dependable securities.
 - c. Some to be invested in first mortgage loans to our own churches.
 - d. Some in short term loans to existing colleges and schools.
 2. The income from this foundation to be used to help our existing Baptist schools; for it is my belief we will need them for many years to come. The National Baptist Convention must take a greater interest in our Baptist schools in our respective states and help to finance their program in the form of salaries, scholarships, etc.
 - II. A Committee to invest the possibilities of the National Baptist Convention investing in a housing project for persons over sixty-five.
- Some provisions has been made on the part of the government to allow certain institutions to purchase certain projects where there is sufficient interest and sufficient resources.
- Our Committee would be asked to canvass all of these possibilities and report their findings to our June board meeting.

Committee Members

Mr. Andrew Means
Mr. Elmore Baker

III. A Special Commission to Liberia.

The purpose of this Commission is as follows:

1. To seek to implement the recommendation accepted by our San Francisco Convention in 1959.
2. To try to purchase at least five thousand acres of land that can be used by young Americans who have the desire to go to Liberia and to build Christian communities where they can be of great service to the people, both by precept and example.

As the status of the countries of Africa changes, our missionary program must be re-adjusted so that we go to them not as civilized people to heathens, but as fellow-believers and brothers, working in a co-operative venture. It will mean far more to the country if we as Baptists can form the type of contact with the countries of Africa so that our converts on the mission field will become industrious citizens, producing commodities that can be used by their fellow-brothers both in Africa and in America.

This Commission is to canvass the possibilities of our marketing in America some outstanding commodity both from Liberia and from Ghana.

The time is now ripe for Negro Americans not only to push forward for their rights in their native land, but to enter international trade and make their contribution where there is no tradition of color and prejudice because of race.

IV. The Formation of the National Baptist Convention Ministerial Retirement Board to Handle the Retirement Program of the National Baptist Convention

At the present time the Board of Directors of the National Baptist Convention carries on the work of the Ministerial Retirement Program. It is my belief now that we have a sufficient number of men interested in this program to create a special board for this purpose.

V. The Election of Our Delegates to the World Council of Churches in New Delhi, India next December.

VI. Do we have within our National Baptist Convention enough talent and enough experienced journalists to operate a weekly secular paper as well as a monthly religious paper. Such a secular paper would be on the news stands along with the other weeklies. If we had any idea of what a weekly paper should be we would then be in position to put our ideas into operation. It is not enough to criticize other weeklies; we ought to be willing if we have the ability, to do something constructive in this field by producing our own weekly paper. If the board is willing to investigate the possibilities of such a project, I would suggest that we appoint a committee to make a study of the possibilities of such a project. The following things would be included in the study:

1. The possible cost of such a paper.

2. Could it be published at our own publishing house or would it be let out to other printers?

3. Where would such a paper be housed?

The members of such a committee should not be published until they are ready to make their report to the convention in September.

VII. That we appoint a committee to canvass the possibilities of televising and placing on the national hook-up at least the first fifteen minutes of the opening session of our National Baptist Convention in Kansas City, Missouri, September 4, 1961.

VIII. That we make a study of the Welcome Program of the National Baptist Convention with the view of saving as much time as possible for the work of the convention at that hour.

IX. Beginning with our 1961 Convention Session, I would recommend that the contract for the meeting place for the National Baptist Convention, USA, Inc., shall be in the hands of the officials of the convention at the time of the January board meeting, and if possible, a receipt showing that the rental on the hall has already been paid. The wording of the contract must be of such nature that the convention and its officials will be in complete charge of the hall during the convention session. We must never again repeat the failure of Philadelphia by allowing a local committee to use the National Baptist Convention as we were used. The contract to Convention Hall was never turned over to us, and in reality, we were never in charge.

X. That the Board of Directors would assume the responsibility for the first mortgage on the farming equipment of the individual who has applied to us for assistance in Fayette County.

That the National Baptist Convention will send a message to the Justice Department congratulating them for the work they have already done in Fayette and Haywood Counties, and urge them to continue their efforts until such conditions have been removed.

XI. That we will petition the Eighty-Seventh Congress asking that the government set forth certain rights that tenant farmers must enjoy from landlords while they are employed on their plantations. These underprivileged farmers must not be made the victims of those landowners who are indifferent to justice and who have little concern for the economic rights of their tenants.

While we appreciate all that the United States of America has done and is still doing to relieve the refugee problems in many sections of the world, we call upon our government to relieve the refugees within our own borders such as those helpless people who have been evicted from the farms in Fayette County, Tennessee and who must live in mud and misery, and in shabby huts. Promises made by the United States of America to other weaker nations will be doubted and very little trusted until America makes good her responsibility to the underprivileged living within her own borders.

XII. Through our Rural Life Commission and through the many farm demonstration agents throughout the south the National Baptist Convention will seek to purchase available tracts of land where our own people who desire to remain on the farms may have an opportunity to live on the good soil in peace and security.

We must spend more time and energy and money, building for ourselves a more basic and permanent place in the economic life of this country. The next forward step among Negro citizens must come through a greatly improved economic life. Our educational, civic and cultural future rests very largely on a healthy, sound and constructive economic position. We must so invest in real estate, agriculture, stocks and bonds, and government securities so that when the wheels of industry and economic progress turn forward, we will move with the times and will receive our share of investments. Voters must have some place to stay, and those who fight for civil rights must have the security that crusaders always need, and our churches must be so supported that our congregations will be freed from the economic oppression of high interest rates and cruel mortgage masters.

THE ANNUAL REPORT OF SECRETARY T. J. JEMISON TO THE EIGHTIETH ANNUAL SESSION OF THE NATIONAL BAPTIST CONVENTION, USA, INC.

Mr. President, member of the official family, delegates and visiting friends assembled in the 80th Annual Session of the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc.

We meet today in historic Philadelphia in what will no doubt be one of the greatest sessions the convention has held in its long and eventful history.

Once again, I am before you to give my Annual Report as your General Secretary. Let me assure you in the outset, as I have said to you before, I am fully aware of the great responsibility that you were kind enough to bestow upon me in Miami, Florida in 1953. I have done my best to be a good Secretary, and I have handled your records with painstaking care.

For you see, I realize, that I hold the position that some of the most outstanding men our race has ever produced held. Men like the late Professor W. L. Cantler, the late Professor R. B. Hudson who held the longest number of years as the Secretary. For twenty-three years he was custodian of our records. I have mixed emotions as I speak of him. For he was a native of Alabama, having lived at Selma Alabama, my home and taught me in Sunday School while I was just a boy. Today, there stands just a stone throw from my birthplace and where my mother still lives a High School named the R. B. Hudson High School. Then there was the late Dr. J. M. Nabrit who served this convention long and well and some of his offspring still serve this convention today. Then too, my immediate predecessor, Dr. U. J. Robinson was a good Secretary and is today one of the biggest Baptist Alabama has ever produced. I am honored to walk in the path of these great men and to be the Keeper of Your Seal and Records.

This year has been a busy one for me as your Secretary. I have been called upon more this year for various information concerning of August Body than I have in previous years. Statistics relative to us are desired by all religious bodies in America and other parts of the world. Libraries on all major campuses are desirous of a copy of our MINUTES. I am happy to state, I have been able to answer every request. This year I spoke to four of our State Conventions as their guest, and was treated royally in each instance.

I am happy to state that the minutes of last year's session have been mailed to most of you and to others they will be at your home upon your return. We were late with our manuscript this year due to several local civic matters such as the "Sit-ins," etc., that needed our attention. I am indebted to Dr. D. C. Washington, Executive Director of the Sunday School Publishing Board for his able assistance in getting the minutes ready as early as he did. The Board of Directors requested me to inform the brethren of "An Appraisal of the Leadership of President J. H. Jackson." This request was made of me in our June Board Meeting at Hot Springs, Arkansas. I report to you today that I followed my order to the letter, and I received letters from all over the country from men of this convention approving the Board's actions and with their own high praise of President Jackson and his leadership.

As I close my annual report, I want the constituents of the Convention to know that this office has worked in complete harmony with the Presidents, and that I have endeavored to answer each request.

COMMENTS

We sampled all evidences of receipts of funds from original sources to the appropriate places in the accounting records and checked all cancelled checks against records of the institution and reconciled bank statements at June 30, 1960. We made what we regarded as sufficient tests of Bath House operations and other non-cash transactions to the end that we are satisfied that the books and records of the unit correctly reflect such transactions.

Assets and liabilities were determined from the records of the unit and reconciled with the subsidiary records, where maintained. Fixed assets bear evaluations shown by the books of the unit with appropriate depreciation allowances consistent with the previous year.

Accounts payable contains some items which we believe have been resolved by the National Baptist Convention. Employees of the unit explained to your auditor that there are certain adjustments in liabilities, but they were not in possession of any documentary evidence which we could use to substantiate journal entries therefor. In one case, the books of the unit showed that it was indebted to our firm in the amount of approximately $1,900.00, but we know that this item has been settled in full for $1,000.00 by the National Baptist Convention. We, therefore, made an adjusting entry to eliminate this liability. In conference with the President of the Convention, your auditor was informed that the balance due to the Reconstruction Finance Corporation was paid off in full by the Convention, but that the Bath House was expected to pay the Convention. It is for this reason that our report shows Mortgage Payable to National Baptist Convention instead of to the Reconstruction Finance Corporation. It is, in fact, the remaining balance of the old Reconstruction Finance Corporation loan.

During the fiscal year covered by the audit, the Bath House experienced a loss of $7,854.25 and the Hotel a loss of $26,833.67. There was an adjustment of $539.64 which was not assessable to either of the units, but to the whole. The total loss of the unit for the year was, therefore, $35,227.56. For the year ended June 30, 1959, the loss was $27,537.60. Contained in the losses for each unit are depreciation items totaling $34,163.52. It will be seen then that on a cash basis, the unit, as a whole, lost only $1,064.04.

During the year, the National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Incorporated, paid liabilities of the Bath House of $23,642.11. This is in addition to the liquidation of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation loan by the Convention. This payment of $23,642.11 has been established as a liability to the Convention by the Bath House unit.

All funds found to have been handled by officers and employees of the Bath House unit appeared to have been fully accounted for. In the judgment of your auditor, the Bath House unit is efficiently run and its records are in excellent condition. Data for the previous year's report which are used in this report for comparison purposes were provided by Messrs. Lubben, Keaton & Co., C. P. A., Hot Springs, Arkansas. All reports to the government agencies have been filed in accordance with regulations.

"And the Lord said unto Joshua, This day will I begin to magnify thee in the sight of all Israel; that they may know that, as I was with Moses, so I will be with thee." Joshua 3:7.

forty eventful years of administrative leadership on the part of Moses in the favor of Israel had slipped by. He had been a towering figure in the affairs of Israel, but time and heavy responsibility had exacted his strength, and his years were spent, so Moses had to lay the heavy load down. While Moses had wrought well, leading Israel through many changing scenes, they still had Jordan to cross. He had brought them through the trackless desert; it had been a restless journey, for the only satisfaction derived from their experience, was that it was past. As they stood, facing the future, saddened by the loss of him whom they had learned to love and respect, with the Jordan immediately ahead of them, and no fords through which they could pass, no bridges spanning the rolling tides, no boats available to take them across, and swimming out of the question, they were in a tragic dilemma. But in their distress, they made a meaningful discovery; for although they no longer had Moses, they still had the same Lord. They still had the concern of God, who never deserts those who trust Him.

The administrative strength of their new leader, Joshua, had not been tested, and the duties and responsibilities which he must face were many. The fact that he had not been seen in action, caused many to misjudge his driving power. But when they discovered, that like Moses, his leadership was not motivated by selfish ambition or greed for fame, but was a divine appointment. In the Book, we have this assurance: "The steps of a good man are ordered by the Lord." When the call was made, Joshua was available, so time and circumstances pointed to him as the new leader. He was somewhat a stranger to the new assignment, but not a stranger to the Lord who made it. He was drafted for the unfinished task. Venturing it in faith, he met with perplexing problems, but in his dilemma, he heard the voice of the Lord, saying, "This day will I begin to magnify thee in the sight of all Israel, that they may know that, as I was with Moses, so I will be with thee." No doubt, to Joshua, this was a moment of inspiration in an hour of challenge.

After nearly forty years as the administrative leader in the affairs of the Sunday School Publishing Board of the National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Inc., A. M. Townsend laid down the heavy load, and disrobed himself of his time-worn work clothes, and robed for eternity. It was natural and reasonable for those who had followed his lead and obeyed his commands to stand in awe, shaking with despair; for administrative changes often work havoc for those who must adjust themselves to new leaders. The only assurance that one can have, at such a time, is the same Lord.

After nearly forty years as a Christian minister, and nearly thirty-five years as a Pastor, I heard the call to leave a happy and successful pastorate of nearly twenty-one years. I heard the call to break away from established friends, I heard the call to pull up and leave my native state, Alabama, where I was deeply rooted in denominational affairs. Then, I heard the SAME LORD, who had guided me all of my years, saying, "This day will I begin to magnify thee in the sight of all Israel, that they may know that, as I was with Townsend, so I will be with thee."

With such orders, I ventured the task, and the Lord is responsible for whatever has been accomplished through me, as leader of the Sunday School Publishing Board. He has blessed us and kept us, and guided us until this hour. We, like Joshua, have discovered that He is the SAME LORD. During the year, we have been down to the Jordan, with its full banks, and heaving waters, but at every turn, we found the SAME LORD, just a step ahead of us. We owe our safety and ease of passage to him who has never lost a battle and who has promised never to leave us. Joining hands with the same people who had worked untiringly with A. M. Townsend, we have had a successful year and can truthfully say, the Same Lord is still doing business from the Same Old Headquarters, in the Same Old-fashioned way.

A rapid review of our year's work at the Sunday School Publishing Board is an inspiring story of great concern manifested by many whose names will never be read before this great convention. But I can say for the Personnel of the Sunday School Publishing Board, that they faced realistically the responsibility of following up the great program which the late Dr. A. M. Townsend initiated and promoted for nearly four score years.

On October 1, 1959, I was inducted in office as Executive Director of the Sunday School Publishing Board and successor to that pioneer spirit, A. M. Townsend. Simultaneously, I accepted the reins of authority and dissemination of religious charting its continuing course in the publishing and dissemination of religious literature for the advancement and spread of our Baptist faith; in the establishment and support of Sunday Schools, and the manufacturing and distribution of supplies and materials for their use, and in the development and improvement of Christian Education programs among our constituents through providing educational services and leadership training programs.

Certainly, this was a critical moment in the history of the Sunday School Publishing Board, for the literature which was then overdue for the fourth quarter was still being processed. Moreover, the printing plant was virtually at a standstill, for there was not a manuscript in the house ready for the processing of the literature for the first quarter, 1960, even though according to schedule, all manuscripts should have been submitted by August 1, 1959. It became my immediate responsibility to recruit writers to replace those who fell out of rank, and to secure commitments from others who were delinquent. On the very day that our Executive Director was inducted in office, during the transfer of the official documents, great emphasis was laid upon the accounts payable due us of that day amounting to more than $40,000.00, with a cash balance of about $18,000.00 available for application. This problem, along with numerous others, was accepted as an impassable mountain, but as a challenge; for having been a Baptist pastor for nearly thirty-five years, financial problems were not an altogether new experience. With the assistance of highly competent personnel, accounts were settled as far as possible, note subject to renewal were extended, and the financial house cleared. The literature for the first quarter was processed in record time, and we crossed the immediate gulf and set sail for wider and deeper seas.

Appraising Our Forces

Upon appraising of our forces, we discovered that even though many were uncertain about the future, they possessed sufficient loyalty and interest to push to a good start. The stimulating effect of the presence of Dr. J. H. Jackson, President of the National Baptist Convention, and his official cabinet, the Chairman of the Board, Dr. M. H. Robbins, and the members of the retiring and new Corporate Boards, in attendance at the Inaugural Service lent added inspiration, and so together we ventured in faith.

Teaming up for Success

The Chairman and the members of the Corporate Board expressed their confidence by giving me the latitude to reorganize and strengthen our work as need required. To them, I am sincerely indebted, for their words of encouragement, both spoken and written, have meant much during trying times. Our record of achievement in the various areas of service has been made possible only through the divine inspiration derived from constant prayers; fervent consultation with and faith in the staff of the Sunday School Publishing Board, with whom it was mine to work, and a firm conviction that my assignment to this task was a part of God's infinite plan.

Curriculum Services

The Sunday School Publishing Board was without the services of a Director of Publications at the time of my induction into office, and so my first attention was directed toward recruitment of editorial personnel, capable of the best in manuscript writing, so as to make possible the processing of quality literature which would meet the needs of our Churches and solicit their patronage. It was necessary to designate the authority for the direction and revision of our editorial program, and for this position I sought first the services of Dr. Charles L. Dixon. He found it impossible to accept the offer, and I then conferred with Dr. Jess Jai McNeil, of Detroit, Michigan, who after an exchange of ideas and the forecasting of our Baptist future, indicated a willingness to join our official family so as to make his contribution in curriculum planning for our denomination.

McNeil hastened to surround himself with a staff of highly competent writers, for during the first two quarters of the year, we would be confronted by a dual objective: to strive to supply the churches with literature, and at the same time outline a program for the production and publishing of new periodicals, tracts, books and essential helps to assist our churches in the ministry of Bible teaching and Christian Education. He sought to secure Christian leaders who would not merely maintain for us the established standard of doctrinal soundness, but would add intellectual depth, journalistic excellence and readership interest to our publications. While we do not claim perfection, you can attest to the fact that we have come a long way, and it does not yet appear what it shall be! The third quarter of this year marked the debut of our new and more varied publications. The successful transition from the old to the new requires not only our technical skill and good management, but also our faith, patience and cooperation.

On June 14th and 15th, 1960, two days preceding the National Sunday School and Baptist Training Union Congress, in Buffalo, N. Y., we held a Writers' Conference, which was attended by our editorial staff and numerous guest participants experienced in the field of journalism. This was a highly beneficial experience from which we expect to reap abundant harvest.

Program Services

In terms of program development, this has been a great year of historic change and progressive strides in the field of Christian Education, especially in terms of the specifics of Leadership Training. The Department of Christian Education of the Sunday School Publishing Board, representing the educational measuring stick of the National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Inc., has carried its full load in planning and participation, and has distinguished itself by its contributions to the development of Christian leaders.

Departmental operations have surpassed all previous years, for through accredited Leadership Schools such as Congresses, Institutes, Encampments and Training Conferences, we have touched more Baptists than ever before. Not only has the quantity served increased, but there is reflected definite improvement in the quality of the directors, deans, instructors and students under the influence of the program. The growing trend of local church leadership schools and cooperative training enterprises continues, with larger numbers being served by the Ministry of Education, and with significant decreases in religious illiteracy.

Leadership Schools Accredited	519
Deans Certified	74
Instructors Certified	1,308
Course Cards Issued	14,497

Certificates of Progress

First Certificates	296
Second Certificates	184

S. N. Vass Awards for Outstanding Achievement 3

The S. N. Vass Award

For the tenth successive year since its inauguration in memory of the founder of the Department of Christian Education, the late Dr. S. N. Vass, a local church, its pastor and outstanding lay leader are honored for outstanding achievement in Christian Education. Honorees for 1959: First Baptist Church North, of Tulsa, Oklahoma, its pastor, Rev. Calvin K. Stalnaker, and its Lay Leader, Mr. A. L. Morgan. This award was given for work done within the framework of the educational program of the National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Inc., and for loyalty and cooperation with the auxiliaries of the Convention and their prime objective. No award has been made for 1960.

New Publications

Along with other improvements in the Board's publications, we have introduced the BAPTIST TEACHER, a monthly magazine which contains materials of interest in Christian Education, needed by Baptist Churches for Christian teaching. OUR DAILY BREAD, a quarterly devotional help containing daily meditations written by some of our outstanding pastors, has also been released.

Cooperation of Boards

There has been closer cooperation between the Baptist Training Union Board and the Sunday School Publishing Board, who project the denomination's program of Christian Education. Providing official textbooks for the National Congress has long been the responsibility of the Sunday School Publishing Board and the National Baptist Training Union Board. The textbooks were supplied this year at the session in Buffalo, N. Y.

Prospectus

The Department of Christian Education hopes to serve the denomination even more richly by keeping abreast of all activities and procedures which should be included in the program, and projecting them, with the cooperation of educational officials at all levels, throughout our entire constituency.

Personnel Department

The tremendous expansion of our production schedule, resulting from the publishing of our new materials, as well as the printing of others which were formerly done elsewhere, made several personnel changes necessary. However, with the assistance of our Personnel Director, in redefining Job Descriptions, we have been able to maintain efficient operation without increasing our personnel.

Following the retirement of Mr. S. H. Nesbit, Chief Consultant in Production, we have appointed Mr. Paul Jones, who has been with the Board for 35 years and who formerly served as Pressroom Foreman, as his successor. Mr. M. L. Brayboy, who has given 18 years to the Board, was promoted from Foreman of the Linotype Department to the new position of Plant Coordinator. In every department we have appointed foremen to give guidance in accelerating our entire plant operation. It is expected that the reorganization of our production department and the purchase of some necessary equipment will enable us to meet our production schedule.

Our Retirement Program

The Retirement Program of the Sunday School Publishing Board combined with social security benefits, makes possible comfortable retirement for those whose years have been spent in service. During the year, time and circumstances made it necessary for ten employees to retire. Many of these individuals had given the major part of their lives in service to the Board. Even though these persons retired, reassignment of our work load prevented our replacing them, and thus reflected a savings in our overall cost of operation.

The Inside Story

At the Annual Board Meeting of the National Baptist Convention, in January, at Hot Springs, we released THE INSIDE STORY OF THE SUNDAY SCHOOL PUBLISHING BOARD. This publication was edited by Mrs. C. N. Adkins, personnel Director. It gives a behind-the-scenes view of the entire plant operation and pictures many of those upon whose shoulders great responsibility rest. This brochure was given to the pastors and representatives attending the Adjourned Session.

Sales and Distribution

The ultimate goal of your Sunday School Publishing Board is to serve the greatest number of our churches in the most satisfactory way. To this end, Distribution Centers have been established in many parts of the country. We carry on our books the accounts of quite a few agents who are punctual in every respect, but on the other hand, upon my arrival at the Publishing House, I found some agents with outstanding accounts, which we are making every effort to collect. Upon good advice from the Auditor, we have established a new policy with the view of correcting this condition, and assisting the Agents in their efforts to help us serve you. We can no longer supply agents with new materials until they satisfy our books for the purchases made for the previous quarter, and make substantial payments on outstanding accounts. Often, when our agents wait until the last possible date to satisfy their accounts with us, they do not have sufficient time to process their orders to their patrons; that is to say, that all of the delays suffered by some of our patrons in securing their literature from Distributors, should not be charged to us, at the Publishing House, for we have enough imperfections of our own, which we are daily working to correct. Early in the year, we invited all of our Distributors to attend a two day Conference at the Publishing Board. Many availed themselves of this opportunity and we were brought closer together in the chain operation of serving our Churches both promptly and adequately.

Over 10,000 Churches, numerous other organizations and individuals prefer to order directly from the Sunday School Publishing Board. We endeavor to give to each order our immediate attention. We are making a strenuous effort to be in position to fill all orders promptly. At the same time, we are striving to hold prices down on our literature and the Baptist Standard Hymnal and Gospel Pearls. The operation of the Publishing Business is not a small task, for the requirements are minute and exacting. While we have much essential machinery, we lack much, for printing equipment is costly. Much of our equipment is old and slow, and subject to break down if overtaxed. For reasons of economy, we have resorted to having our Song Books printed elsewhere, in huge job lots, the scheduling of which we cannot always control. We trust that if you have experienced an occasional delay in receiving our song books, you will understand that it was caused by our effort to save you money. Our plans for expansion in the production department should make it possible for us to produce our own song books in the near future. Through the conscientious efforts of Mrs. Nellie Gordon, our Sales Manager, we shall continue to improve our service and anticipate continued increase in Sales, as we increase our production.

Sales Increase

Of the thirteen denominational Publishing Houses in Nashville, we are proud that the Sunday School Publishing Board ranks third in annual tonnage mailed at the Nashville Post Office. Our annual sales, as reported by the Post Office poundage records, reflect an increase of approximately 69,000 pounds, since 1958. We take this occasion to express our appreciation for your approval of our productive offerings, as evidenced by your increased patronage.

FINANCIAL OPERATION

The Audit

The following quotations from the 1960 Audit Report of the Sunday School Publishing Board, as prepared by Jones, Anderson and Co., Certified Public Accountants of Chicago indicate our financial progress during the year closed June 30, 1960:

Operations

Net income for the year amounted to $63,739.01, as compared with $17,496.93 for the preceding year. The percentage of gross sales represented by cost of goods sold decreased by 1.5% over the corresponding percentage in 1959. This decrease in the cost of goods sold resulted in a 5% increase in the gross profit on sales.

There was also improvement in cost ratio of sales expense and general and administrative expense. Sales expense decreased 1%, general and administrative expense decreased 14%. These significant cost reductions resulted in an increase in the net profit of 4.7% over the corresponding percentage in 1959.

The records reflect an upward trend in sales. As part of our audit verification procedure we obtained poundage reports from the Nashville Post Office. These reports state in pounds the literature mailed through the post office each quarter:

1959—528,588 pounds
1960—551,603 pounds

Thus it is seen that while gross poundage (volume) of printed material increased, there was a decrease in unit cost of sales, clearly demonstrating a significant improvement in efficiency.

We obtained a schedule of personnel retired under the company retirement plan. This schedule reflects a net reduction in salaries of $43,600.00. Most of the positions of the retired personnel were eliminated entirely. In some positions personnel within the department were upgraded at an increased salary. The net reduction in salaries is not reflected in the current year because of various dates of retirement. The overall decrease in salaries was $10,405.34. Retirement insurance premiums were $30,381.39 as compared with $34,262.44 in 1959, a decrease of $3,881.05.

The entire Audit Report is attached hereto, and made a part of this Report.

Business Management

The increase of some $46,000.00 in Net Profit has resulted from improvement in volume and economical management. In every instance, we have sought to improve the efficiency of our operations, to the end that we receive maximum output at minimum cost.

Planning and Budgeting of expenditures, Allocation of Funds, and a Comprehensive Reevaluation of each area of our operation has resulted in a lost reduction of above $7,000.00 in the Cafeteria; a savings in the salary schedule of over $10,000.00, through the Retirement Program, and significant decreases in cost of Sales and General and Administrative Expense.

At the same time, we have proceeded with deliberate speed in renovating the interior of the building, and purchasing some essential equipment. In spite of the many heavy financial commitments which we faced when I took office, we are pleased to report that we have met all of our obligations on schedule, without having had to resort to additional borrowing for operating expenses.

We enjoy good credit rating with the Banks and our Creditors, for we are endeavoring to operate your Publishing House in a business-like manner. In the realm of financing and business operations, I have enjoyed the fullest cooperation from our Treasurer, Dr. L. A. Bowman and our Chief Accountant, Mrs. C. N. Adkins, for we all realize that we cannot borrow ourselves out of debt, but must rely upon economical management and additional revenue from increased sales volume.

Morris Memorial Building

The program of renovation launched by the late Dr. A. M. Townsend, in compliance with the new Capitol Hill Development Program, was well underway when I was inaugurated, but was far from being completed. During the past year, we have made scheduled application to the reduction of the indebtedness incurred as a result of this improvement. Further, we have pursued the task of completing unfinished projects, renovating and giving a general face-lifting through the interior of the Building. We are pleased to report that we are well on the way with this program, and the "new look" is enhancing the morale of the personnel. It has brightened up their working areas, and is representative of our great Baptist Denomination. Many of our Pastors and Christian workers have visited us, and given their hearty endorsement to our efforts.

Our National Baptist Convention Objectives

The Sunday School Publishing Board has sought to answer every call of the National Baptist Convention.

The National Baptist Voice has been given priority printing rights, and we have maintained an Office Secretary for the Voice, cooperating with Dr. Caesar A. W. Clark in making its monthly distribution.

Miss Primrose Funches, Field Director, has been given office quarters, and a paid Secretary. All travel and incident expenses have been taken care of by the Board. The National B. T. U. Board has made a monthly contribution of $100.00 to the expense of the Field Worker's Office. All other expenses, including the Field Worker's Salary, have been paid by the Sunday School Publishing Board. Miss Funches will make a direct report of her activities to the Convention.

During the past year, the Sunday School Publishing Board made a Cash Donation to the National Baptist Convention, for application to the Bath House indebtedness, and the Retirement Funds. The amount of this Cash Donation was $20,000.00.

We have maintained Morris Memorial Building, donated $724.95 in printing to the Seminary, and paid over $55,000.00 on the Renovation of the Building.

Although heavily taxed to produce the literature for our churches, we have in addition, printed the MINUTES of the NATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL CONGRESS, the Congress Programs, and the NATIONAL BAPTIST MINUTES. The time of receiving these manuscripts put a serious strain upon us, taxing the capacity of old, slow, machinery and requiring overtime on the part of our personnel. It is highly possible for us to process our own publications and render these additional services, but those who are involved in submitting the manuscripts must be brought to the realization that our printing program is a chain operation in which every link must bear its own strain. We are delighted to do all of this work for our Affiliates, but seriously need ample time in which to do it. We must have stronger co-ordination at this point, or else we continue to limp.

The Need for Greater Patronage

Even though we are now serving a large number of the Churches of our Denomination, there is yet a vast field which we must cover. With our improved literature, and the many teaching helps which we have not heretofore offered, we are appealing to our Pastors and Churches to give us the opportunity to serve your many needs. It is our intent to inform our purchasing constituents of all of our offering, by conducting "Area Workshops," and Institutes, but their success will of necessity require the cooperation of the Pastors and Churches involved.

Conclusion

We take this occasion to express our appreciation for the opportunity of serving God, through serving you, as Executive Director of the Sunday School Publishing Board. "No man who has the privilege of rendering service to his fellows, ever makes a sacrifice." I have enjoyed the comradeship of those who serve at the Sunday School Publishing Board, and although we have faced many problems, these have been solved through faith that the Same Lord who has always been with us, is still with us, and shall be with us through the many years that the work of the Sunday School Publishing Board continues to advance!

Operations

Net income for the year amounted to $63,736.01, as compared with $17,496.83 in the preceding year. Exhibit VI shows the operating profit for the years ended June 30, 1960 and 1959, and comparisons in both dollars and percentages. The percentage of gross sales represented by cost of goods sold decreased by 1% over the corresponding percentage in 1959. This decrease in the cost of goods sold resulted in a .5% increase in the gross profit on sales.

There was also improvement in cost ratios of sales expense and general and administrative expense. Sales expense decreased .1%, general and administrative expense decreased 1.4%. These significant cost reductions resulted in an increase in the net profit of 4.1% over the corresponding percentage in 1959.

The records reflect an upward trend in sales. As part of our audit verification procedures we obtained poundage reports from the Nashville Post Office. These reports state in pounds the literature mailed through the post office each quarter. Schedule G. reflects in detail the poundage mailed. The following is a poundage summary for the fiscal years:

1960	551,603

This it is seen that while gross poundage, (volume) of printed material increased, there was a decrease in unit cost of sales, clearly demonstrating a significant improvement in efficiency.

We obtained a schedule of personnel retired under the company retirement plan. This schedule reflects a net reduction in salaries of $43,800.00. Most of the positions of the retired personnel were eliminated entirely. In some positions personnel within the department were upgraded at an increased salary. The net reduction in salaries is not reflected in the current year because of various dates of retirement. The overall decrease in salaries was $10,405.34. Retirement insurance premiums were $30,381.39 as compared with $34,262.44 in 1959, a decrease of $3,881.05.

COMMENTS

The minutes of the meetings of the General Board and of the Corporate Board were examined and all action reflected therein with fiscal significance traced to determine compliance and as well basis of authority. The salary of the Treasurer was fixed by action of the Corporate Board and ratified by the General Board. The salary of the chief executive officer, the Executive Director, was fixed by the minutes and action of the Board of Directors of the N. B. C., U. S. A., Inc. These are the only officers drawing salary. The Chairman of the Board draws an expense allowance. There exists a disparity in the levels of compensation paid the Treasurer and the Executive Director. Since variations in salary are usually created to reflect variations in responsibility and complexity of duties, it appears that an adjustment should be provided since the chief executive officer now draws less compensation than his subordinate. Details of annual officer compensation follows:

Executive Director, Washington, D. C.	$ 3,000 00
Treasurer, Bowman, L. A.	13,500 00
Chairman, Ribbins, M. H.	600 00

The cafeteria loss for 1960 was $8,070.09 as compared with $15,461.56 for 1959. In the latter part of 1959, management installed a new manager and new policies. This action resulted in increased efficiency and a loss reduction of $7,391.46, another clear instance of improvement in efficiency.

Balance Sheet

Cost:

General Funds	$ 14,983 17
Savings Accounts	42,770 68
Total	$ 57,753 85

Each bank account was reconciled by us and compared with the ledger account. Written confirmations were obtained from the depositors. Total receipts for the year amounted to $1,044,492.61 against disbursements of $1,096,404.48.

Accounts Receivable—$103,473.18

Statements of accounts at June 30, 1960, were mailed, under due supervision to all accounts $100.00 and over, and to a randomly selected number under $100.00, to customers with requests that they confirm the correction of their accounts directly to us. As of the date of this report fifty per cent of the accounts are confirmed.

Aging of the accounts revealed the following:

	Amount	per cent
30 days old or less	$ 83,170 45	.800
30 to 60 days old	5,348 43	.051
60 to 90 days old	911 72	.009
90 days old and over	14,593 74	.140
Total	$ 104,124 34	1.000
Credit Balances	551 16
Net Receivable	$ 103,473 18

Accounts receivable in the category of 90 days and older are potential bad debt. Special effort should be made to prevent a total loss.

Inventories

Raw Materials	$ 17,128 87
Manufactured Products	56,965 06
Purchased Products	9,691 10
Work in Process	7,128 02
Cafeteria Food and Supplies	477 66
Library Books	786 83

Total $ 92,178 54

Physical inventories were taken by employees of the Board under the instruction and observation of management. Management outlined to us other inventory procedure and their method of pricing. We found these procedures to be satisfactory and their method of pricing conservative. We examined and test checked inventory count sheets.

Net Fixed Assets—$551,319.54

The additions to the fixed assets account amount $143,993.69. A description of these changes appear in Exhibit IV. Invoices for all additions to the fixed assets during the year under review were examined and in our opinion they represent proper changes to these accounts. The rates and methods used computing annual allowances for depreciation have been consistently followed and we feel that they are adequate.

Prepaid Expenses

All items are properly computed and are shown in the balance sheet in accordance with accepted accounting practice. An examination of the insurance policies submitted to us show that the company is not properly protected for all casualty risks with respect to building equipment and inventories. We recommended a review of the insurance coverage.

Notes Payable—$157,446.29

Accounts Payable—$122,471.01

We obtained schedules of notes and accounts payable. These schedules were satisfactory compared with the subsidiary ledgers and the controlling accounts.

were reconciled. Confirmations were prepared and mailed under our supervision. Purchased and delivery records were examined to determine that current inventory and services are properly reflected; where applicable, into the payable accounts.

Net Worth—$1,583,666.91

Exhibit V shows reconciliation of the net account. Net worth per books is $3,038,917.85. Against this amount we have deducted an old account receivable of the National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Inc. It is our opinion that this treatment reflects a true net worth of the Sunday School Publishing Board and further reflects the decision of the National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Inc., classifying the item in question as a contribution and not a loan. The minutes of the General and Corporate Boards should be restated and amended to reflect this controlling action. The dollar amount of this item has accumulated over many years. The aging balances were adjusted as shown in EXHIBIT V.

Very truly yours,

Accounts Receivable—$103,473.18

Statements of accounts at June 30, 1960, were mailed, under due supervision to all accounts $100.00 and over, and to a randomly selected number under $100.00, to customers with requests that they confirm the correction of their accounts directly to us. As of the date of this report fifty per cent of the accounts are confirmed.

Aging of the accounts revealed the following:

	Amount	per cent
30 days old or less	$ 83,170 45	.800
30 to 60 days old	5,348 43	.051
60 to 90 days old	911 72	.009
90 days old and over	14,593 74	.140
Total	$ 104,124 34	1.000
Credit Balances	551 16
Net Receivable	$ 103,473 18

Accounts receivable in the category of 90 days and older are potential bad debt. Special effort should be made to prevent a total loss.

Purchased Products	9,691 10
Work in Process	7,128 02

Total $ 92,178 54

Physical inventories were taken by employees of the Board under the instruction and observation of management. Management outlined to us other inventory procedure and their method of pricing. We found these procedures to be satisfactory and their method of pricing conservative. We examined and test checked inventory count sheets.

Net Fixed Assets—$551,319.54

The additions to the fixed assets account amount $143,993.69. A description of these changes appear in Exhibit IV. Invoices for all additions to the fixed assets during the year under review were examined and in our opinion they represent proper changes to these accounts. The rates and methods used computing annual allowances for depreciation have been consistently followed and we feel that they are adequate.

Prepaid Expenses

All items are properly computed and are shown in the balance sheet in accordance with accepted accounting practice. An examination of the insurance policies submitted to us show that the company is not properly protected for all casualty risks with respect to building equipment and inventories. We recommended a review of the insurance coverage.

Notes Payable—$157,446.29

Accounts Payable—$122,471.01

We obtained schedules of notes and accounts payable. These schedules were satisfactory compared with the subsidiary ledgers and the controlling accounts.

were reconciled. Confirmations were prepared and mailed under our supervision. Purchased and delivery records were examined to determine that current inventory and services are properly reflected; where applicable, into the payable accounts.

Exhibit V shows reconciliation of the net account. Net worth per books is $3,038,917.85. Against this amount we have deducted an old account receivable of the National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Inc. It is our opinion that this treatment reflects a true net worth of the Sunday School Publishing Board and further reflects the decision of the National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Inc., classifying the item in question as a contribution and not a loan. The minutes of the General and Corporate Boards should be restated and amended to reflect this controlling action. The dollar amount of this item has accumulated over many years. The aging balances were adjusted as shown in EXHIBIT V.

Very truly yours,
JONES, ANDERSON & COMPANY

William S. Anderson

SIXTY-FIRST ANNUAL REPORT OF THE NATIONAL BAPTIST TRAINING UNION BOARD OF THE NATIONAL BAPTIST CONVENTION, UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, INCORPORATED, JULY 1, 1959 - JUNE 30, 1960

"That They All May Be One."—John 17:21

J. W. GAYDEN, Chairman

A. L. DAVIS, Treasurer

C. R. WILLIAMS, Secretary

LET'S KNOW . . .

President, Dr. Jackson, officers and members of the National Baptist Convention, United States of America, Incorporated, the Lord through his merciful kindness, has brought us to another mile-stone in our denominational life, where we shall give an account of our stewardship for the past twelve months. We give our profound thanks to Almighty God, whose all-seeing eye has watched over us and whose loving hand has kept and guided us here, enabling us to bring for your consideration the sixty-first annual report of the Training Union Board and the third report of your humble servant.

With grateful hearts, we here-in express our deep appreciation to the Board of Directors and particularly, the Executive Committee of the Training Union Board for their whole-hearted support and for the confidence reposed in us, without which we could not have carried on.

We take this opportunity to thank publicly our illustrious chieftain, Dr. Jackson, for his wise counsel and his dynamic leadership in times like these. He truly is the MAN OF THE HOUR!!! Under his progressive leadership, the Training Union Board has "lengthened its cords and strengthened its stakes." Lead on, "DOC," for as you lead, we shall follow.

This report is presented with full consciousness of the fact that a full measure of devotion to Christ is necessary to meet the challenge and demands of these perilous times in which we live, as well as the enlarged opportunities that lie ahead and from which there can be no turning back or aside. In Christ, I am sure the church must and will rise to meet the demands and challenge of the times through strong spiritually developed leadership!

How many churches are searching and researching their church membership lists for capable trained leadership? From our Baptist churches across the country comes the cry, "We need men and women in our churches to take the positions of responsibility who are trained and qualified to lead others!"

Our Sunday Schools and churches are ready to move forward, eager to grow and expand, but so many are held back, each because the leaders are so few. Train the leaders of tomorrow . . . TODAY! It does not just "happen." You know, as well as I do, that there is no easy way to develop strong leadership to carry on an effective Christian Education program. The Training Union Board can be a real source of guidance and help in an all out effort for trained leaders. It will enable you to plan with groups, classes, train teachers and leaders, and recruit additional helpers through its program and literature. Our Board will help you successfully train those beginning to teach and lead. The Training Union will help your staff acquire the knowledge, techniques and self-confidence which evokes eager cooperation from children and adults alike. It is through our resources that we bring you.

Ideas that will assist in increasing attendance . . . Leadership Training that helps your church maintain a strong Christian Education program for every group.

Worship Resources graded for each of your divisions and/or departments including stories, poems, suggested hymns and guided meditations.

Reports on what other churches are doing. Keep you up to date on Christian Education and let you share the experiences of other leaders.

Reports on our work on the Home and Foreign fields.
Our Denominational Loyalty through reports of our activities.

A successful Training Union is essential to a growing church, for it is literally the "supply house" for leaders.

An informed Baptist who is a committed Christian is always a better Baptist. The resources of the National Baptist Training Union Board are dedicated to the task of helping the five million members of the Convention know . . .

- Our Baptist heritage
- Our Baptist distinctives
- Our denominational programs
- Our accomplishments through working together
- Our plans and programs for progress
- Our privileges and responsibilities as church members
- Our obligations to and working for a Christian social order.

The basic philosophy underlying our literature is this: The Bible is a book to be learned but a priceless collection of truths to be lived.

LET'S GO

For many years we have been "getting on the mark," "getting set," but it is now high time to "let's go."

The Training Union is the church training. It is the church in its training program of members for effective leadership and Christian service.

OUR LITERATURE

During the last year, we were able to get our literature ready for mailing 8 days before the beginning of the quarter. Our literature for the 4th quarter is now ready. If you have not already placed your order, do so today. This may be done by visiting our booth located in the exhibit hall of this building. All orders reaching us on time will be filled on time. Your literature will not be late getting to you! We take this occasion to thank our many customers for their patronage and loyalty. What we need now is, an increase of sales in our literature.

This is how we stand on literature sales to our constituency:

We sell literature to an average of one out of every forty of our total membership. Where do the other more than 4 million buy denominational literature? There is no literature on the market save that from our publishing houses that is written with the interest of the members of our National Baptist Convention in mind. Recently we mailed 20,000 circulars to the Training Unions of our group with this slogan:

"EVERY MEMBER OF THE BAPTIST CHURCH READING BAPTIST TRAINING UNION LITERATURE." When this slogan is given adequate consideration, and the many churches that do not have training Unions start buying literature from our Board, we will have a large increase in sales.

The Training Union has not been given its proper place in most of our churches. If you do not have a Union, you could encourage your members to read Training Union Literature. You take the daily paper and spend much time in reading it. You say that you must keep up with the news and the funnies, but as Baptists, judging by our sales, many of us do not care to keep up with the news and the progress of our denomination.

NEW HANDBOOK

Mrs. Vada P. Felder, who is Director of Publications and one of the best workers with whom we have ever had the privilege to work, is preparing a Baptist Training Union Handbook. The Manuscript has been reviewed by some of our best scholars in the field of Christian Education.

The jacket covered, 6x9 inches, hard backed book will contain 250 or more pages with many illustrations. This will be the general handbook for sale every Union work in our Convention. We hope to release this handbook for sale early in 1961. This book has been designed to help leaders organize and administer a successful Training Union program. It will help them understand the requirements, responsibilities and rewards of being a leader. The handbook gives a tested outline for the organization in every phase of the Training Union . . . makes understanding young people easy . . . gives those "searched-for" ideas for something different in special activities. Every pastor, and leader as well as church member should have his own copy.

OTHER SERVICES

Nothing stands still, we must either go up or go down, we must grow better or grow worse. The Training Union Board is not standing still, it is on the upward trail, new heights we're gaining every day. Since last year we have—

- Secured a hospitalization group policy for the workers of our Board, which pays $14.00 per day for hospital room and board, plus operation cost up to $300; plus hospital extras.
- Workers' salaries range from $1.10 to $1.85 per hour, and time and one half for overtime.
- Contributed $100 monthly to the salary of a special field worker.
- Given $5,000 (cash not a pledge) to the Ministerial Retirement Fund.
- Contributed $1,000 to the Parent Body.
- Made several small loans to college students from the Isaac Foundation Scholarship Fund, a special fund for the aid of young people who are in college struggling for an education, that they may be prepared for the "new day" and the "new program."

LET'S GROW

In many respects this has been a banner year for us, but closer bonds of unity will produce a more fruitful harvest. " . . . as it is written, Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love Him."—1 Cor. 2:8

TOWARD A CONCLUSION

We can grow in our unity, for Jesus has prayed as the theme states "That They all may be One." Our basic unity lies in the commitment to the faith of the Church in Jesus Christ. The major problems confronting churches as they seek to heed our Lord's call to unity are the concern of the Training Union Board. We join whole-heartedly in the prayer for unity but as someone has remarked "no prayer ever moves God greatly which does not move the pray-er himself."

We are moved; we are dedicated; we are pledged to use all the resources of the National Baptist Training Union Board to help Baptists grow as surrendered church members; to aid our churches to grow in their mission of kingdom building; and to assist our National Convention to grow in a spirit of unity and foster a cooperative program.

God Bless you!

Respectfully submitted,

C. R. Williams, Secretary

Annual Report of the AMERICAN BAPTIST THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

To the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc.

Meeting with the Churches of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania
September 6-11, 1960

DR. J. H. JACKSON, President DR. T. J. JEMISON, Secretary

DR. PHALE D. HALE, Chairman of the Board of Directors

DR. MAYNARD P. TURNER, JR., President of the Seminary

Excerpts from the Third Annual Report of the President to the Board of Directors of American Baptist Theological SeminaryI reiterate those major objectives which have determined our course throughout this year and years past:

1. To improve the quality of instruction and service by our institution.
2. To preserve our Christian evangelical integrity while at the same time we raise our standards.
3. To facilitate the transfer of credit to, or the pursuit of higher learning in other institutions by our students.

We have worked diligently on the problem of improving the institution. As you have already been advised, the staff is in the midst of a self-evaluation report which will be submitted to the Accrediting Association of Bible Colleges before the close of the current school year.

During the current school year, more attention has been given to professional improvement of the faculty and staff. In addition to maintaining our relationship with the National Association of Collegiate Deans and Registrars, professional improvement meetings have been initiated on the campus. The president has instituted the practice of inviting an authority in education from one of our neighboring universities, or elsewhere, to present to the group a prepared discourse on a previously selected problem in classroom teaching. Group discussion follows the formal presentation. This is equivalent to a seminar, and is as valuable as formal study. We are also able to report that two of our faculty are members of the Society of Biblical Literature and Exegesis. They are Professor Joe M. Conley and President M. P. Turner, Jr. It is upon such factors as these that A.B.T.'s rise in the world of education depends.

Our enrollment would be even greater if more scholarships and work were available. This is an area in which individual donors, single congregations, organizations within congregations, ministers conferences, civic groups, clubs as well as associations and conventions could be of significant assistance. Members of this board would render a priceless service to the Seminary if you would touch just one such group as I have suggested. Just $450 to $500 would cover all expenses for a school year.

FINANCIAL OBSERVATIONS

For two years in succession we shall come to the end of the fiscal year with our expenditures and obligations well under the budgeted allocation for the year. Thus while we have not been able to completely avenge the indebtedness which we found at the time we took over this office, we have managed to operate in a manner which has not increased that indebtedness. On the other hand, if we could receive the total amount of expected income for the year, or as much as two-thirds of the balance of the amount expected, we could still close the fiscal year free of all debts for the first time in many years. This healthy state of our finances is the result of the great hearted cooperation and generosity of Dr. L. S. Sedberry. Up to the time of this report, Dr. Sedberry had given $3,416.65 over and above the regularly monthly allotment from the Southern Baptist Convention. This was applied on delinquent bills.

The second determining factor in our finances this year is the untiring work of Dr. Phale D. Hale and Robert E. Penn, Chairman and Co-Chairman, respectively, of our Board of Directors' Drive for funds from National Baptists. Details of their achievement are given in the report from the Bursar. These men deserve the highest commendation, but more than that the greatest cooperation. What has been done is only an indication of what can be done.

Following is from a letter which I sent to Dr. L. S. Sedberry in answer to a question upon which he is working for the Southern Baptist Convention: A denomination must train its own leadership if it expects to perpetuate itself, its ideals and its purposes. As long as the National Baptist Convention sees fit to remain an autonomous body, just so long will there be a profound need for American Baptist Theological Seminary. Hence, it does not matter how many seminaries of other denominations will welcome potential National Baptist pastors, the best and most fruitful interests of the N.B.C. are not served in such institutions.

With the above in mind, we turn to the specific task of A.B.T.S. There are 22,500 churches reported in the N.B.C. The majority of these churches are in the South. A majority of these southern churches are rural and small town churches. There is no N.B.C. sponsored ministerial training program designed to meet this most glaring need of the Convention. This task cannot be done in a piecemeal fashion through institutes of a few days duration, nor study courses, nor adult education projects. If a significant job will ever be done in this area, it must be done through a full residence Seminary (or Bible College) course which is oriented in that area.

The second major challenge of the N.B.C. grows out of its polity as well as the environment of the largest number of its churches. That challenge is the ministers (and ministerial students) themselves. Baptists cannot decree an educational standard for the pastors of our churches. A church can set apart whom they choose for their pastor. It is natural that in the rural and small towns of the South, in particular, the churches will choose one of their own number. In most instances the man not only has no theological training, but has limited literary training. However, by the grace of God, many of these men decide that they must study. These men are not equipped to enter any seminary. It is the job of the National Baptists to take these, their own, in hand and polish them up for service.

While I have no illusions of having exhausted the challenges of the N.B.C., I do offer this final observation. No leadership is worthy of the name if it does not strive to lift its people. It is fatal to create an environment which will repel instead of attract. But there is a wide area for improvement within the bounds of familiarity and attractiveness. It is the task of the Seminary to make our future leadership aware of the possibilities of improvement in religious education, preaching, and worship, with special emphasis on upgrading our music.

During my first year at the Seminary, I set up certain objectives which would lead ultimately to the accreditation of the institution. In re-working the curriculum, I was not able at that time to accomplish what I feel is of major significance because of limitations in the faculty and finances. There was no person on the staff trained or experienced to meet the small town and rural challenge, and there is no money to enlarge the staff for this purpose. However, we have effected one change which was essential in order to even begin conversations with accreditation authorities. That is to separate undergraduate and graduate work into distinct organizations. The undergraduate work is done in the College of the Bible. The graduate work is done in the Graduate School of Theology.

We have attempted a more realistic program in the College of the Bible than was previously offered to non-ordained workers. The Christian Education courses have been reorganized and commercial studies have been added. This is to equip women for church office work and Christian Education. Several requests have come to my office for Christian Education workers with musical training. It is my hope that a strong music department can be established which will eventually grow into a school of church music. This is my aim for the enrichment task which I have pointed out in the third challenge of the N.B.C. It is also my hope that the new chapel building will be able to house this work in music as well as a place for formal worship. At present there is no place on the campus in which to do the job.

There is also a growing demand in N.B.C. churches for persons who are trained in social work. It is my hope that finances will allow our curriculum to be expanded in that direction also. In short, I wish to coordinate our denominational mission and course offerings so that we shall always be able to lay a finger upon our needs and move to meet those needs with effectiveness.

number of the brethren, and an honorarium of $153.74 was raised for our chief address. On motion the address became a part of our records.

The following organizers then submitted reports: Guy Wiley, Nebraska; J. H. Nichols, Massachusetts; S. C. Bouyer, Arizona; J. H. Watson, Oklahoma; F. L. Cotton, Florida. These reports were approved. Secretary Dixon submitted his report showing that 29 states and the District of Columbia were represented. The report further disclosed that the State of Missouri had reported the largest amount of special moneys, and therefore was the winner. Thereupon Secretary Gayle presented the badge to State President J. H. Bumpas, Missouri. Many visitors were recognized by President Jordan.

Resolutions were presented by Benj. F. Taylor, Minnesota, praising and thanking the people of Philadelphia for making our stay a pleasant one. The resolution was approved. Mrs. O'Bryant, widow of the late Fred O'Bryant, was recognized and made remarks.

Committee on Welfare of the Laymen's Convention

After careful study and prayerful consideration we your committee make the following suggestions. That whereas there seems to be an overlapping of the functions and/or duties of the Regional Directors and State Presidents, we make the following recommendations.

1. The abolishment of the position of Regional Directors and the adoption of a National Director of States Presidents.
2. That in order to enhance or perpetuate the Convention numerically, financially and spiritually. The Convention would request the State Presidents who are responsible to the Convention, will appoint an area Director in their State. Whose duties will be to work with the local District Presidents in promoting the work of the Laymen's Movement of the National Baptist Convention. Which is designed to improve the spiritual and economic status of our Local, State and National Convention.
3. We further recommend that at least two thousand (2,000) membership cards be printed and distributed to each State President who will make further distribution and that for the sum of two dollars ($2.00) every man of his local league and/or Brotherhood may have a chance of becoming a member of the National Organization. One dollar (1.00) will go for membership fees and one dollar ($1.00) for one year's subscription to the Laymen's quarterly.
4. Realizing that in order for our great convention program to be effective there should be in the Administrative branch able assistants to the president who are productive not only at our National meetings but also on the local level.
5. Therefore: we recommend that all of our progressive, interested and loyal members be placed in the program of our Convention at the Administrative level, appointed by the President or elected by body vote.

Humbly submitted:

Your committee

 Bro. S. L. Jones
 Bro. Felix L. Cotton

After careful study and prayerful consideration we your committee make the following suggestions: That whereas there seems to be an overlapping of the function—10

tions and/or duties of the Regional Directors and State Presidents, we make the following recommendations:

1. The abolishment of the position of Regional Directors and the adoption of National Director of State Presidents.

2. That in order to enhance or perpetuate the Convention numerically, spiritually and spiritually. The Convention would request the State Presidents who are responsible to the Convention will appoint an Area Director in their state, whose duties will be to work with the Local District Presidents in promoting the work of the Laymen's Movement of the National Baptist Convention, which is designed to improve the spiritual and economic status of our Local, State and National Convention.

3. We further recommend that at least two thousand (2000) membership cards be printed and distributed to each State President who will make further contribution and that for the sum of two dollars ($2.00) every man of his local church and/or Brotherhood may have a chance of becoming a member of the National Organization. One dollar ($1.00) will go for membership fees and one dollar ($1.00) for one year's subscription to the Laymen's Quarterly.

4. Realizing that in order for our great Convention Program to be effective it should be in the Administrative Branch able assistants to the President who are productive not only at our National Meetings but also on the Local Level.

Therefore, we recommend that all of our progressive, interested and loyal members be placed in the program of our Convention at the Administrative level appointed by the President or elected by the body vote.

Humbly submitted,

THURSDAY EVENING

EIGHTH ANNUAL ADDRESS OF ALLEN JORDAN, PRESIDENT OF THE NATIONAL BAPTIST LAYMEN'S CONVENTION, U. S. A., INC.

Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, September 6-11, 1960

President, Officers, Members and Friends:

We have come through strange and extraordinary events to another annual session of this great convention. We are thankful to Almighty God for bringing us to the close of another year's work.

Since the last session, many things has happened. There has been exchanges of gifts between the heads of governments for the purpose of a better understanding of living with each other. But today, there seems to be more unrest in the world than ever before, and it is my belief that they fail to take Jesus as their guide.

It was well said in the great message delivered by Martin Luther King in the last annual session (quote): "To go forward, you must go back and get Jesus."

I am grateful to the members of this convention for their untiring support during the year. We have enjoyed a very pleasant and progressive fellowship. And I rejoice that I have had the loyal co-operation of all the vice presidents, the secretaries, the treasurer, and all of the other officers and committees of this convention. They have done a matchless job along with the state presidents under the leadership of Vice President, John H. Bumpas. And I want to congratulate you for the fine fellowship we have enjoyed in the past, and I am sure each of us can look back over the past twelve months with an eye of faith and say: "Another year has swept across human experience. Like an overflowing river, it has driven many from lower to higher ground."

Some have been totally overwhelmed, some have suffered losses and reverses, which have left them sad and distressed. But those of us who have held to God's unchanging hand have discovered that the passing flood has left rich deposits of heavenly soil, which has equipped the soul with productive power, which could not have been possible without the flood.

And today, we are meeting here in the great city of Philadelphia, which is commonly referred to as the Quaker City, the city of brotherly love. It is a city of temples and taverns, colleges and crackpots: A city of righteousness and rackets, embassies and slums: A city with cops and crimes, churches and corruption: A city of international hope, and the promised land for pilgrims from every country around the world.

I am grateful to the host committee headed by Dr. McCrary, and Deacon William Whitfield for making it possible for us to share this beautiful auditorium.

We thank Mrs. Lucille Hooks, and her committee for the wonderful way they prepared and served the banquet. We congratulate Rev. William B. Glenn, Jr., and his committee for the grand job in arranging for the Junior Laymen's program.

May we pause a moment in respect for those who passed since the last annual session. These good souls have passed in their commission, and made their final report to their Captain: Bro. Z. L. Bonner of Tennessee; Bro. Ben Johnson of Illinois; Bro. Walter Cherry of Brooklyn; Rev. William S. Mills of Brooklyn, and many others whose names we do not have. They have answered the final roll call and passed on to their reward.

ACTIVITIES

During the past year, we have served a number of churches as their Men's Day speaker, and have tried to sell this laymen's work to every church and pastor, and number of pastors have consented to organize their men.

Attended the Empire State Baptist Sunday School and B.T.U. Congress, which met in New York City, served as teacher of the laymen's class, using the textbook, "Christian Layman and His Church" by Mark Rutherford.

The topics discussed were: "The Good Example," "Today's Challenge," "Runs the Church," "Action on the Home Front," "Beyond our Congregation," "Good Reward" and "A call to Spiritual Arms." There was an average of fifty students in each class period.

We attended the National Baptist Sunday School and B. T. U. Congress in Buffalo, New York. It was a great session.

On Saturday evening, June 18, the Empire Baptist State Laymen honored the National Officers with a banquet headed by its President, Mr. James Suttles. Rev. Jesse McNeil was the Guest Speaker. Indeed it was a wonderful affair.

The Secretary, Bro. James E. Gayle and I met with the heads of the Executive Board of the Southern Baptist Laymen Brothers in Atlanta, Georgia the 8th of June. The purpose was to try and work out a working relationship between the laymen of both organizations. It was profitable meeting. You will hear more in the Secretary's report.

Junior Laymen: The Junior Laymen's Department is growing in number and interest, notwithstanding the many difficulties which it encounters.

Under the strenuous handicap, and the great responsibilities which rest upon the Director, Bro. William A. Ryles, and the National Mother, Mrs. Evelyn Dumas, along with the other members of his staff, they are doing a grand job in awakening parents across the country to urge their boys to take part in the Junior Laymen's work, and a number of boys have joined this great movement, strengthening fellowship in these challenging days.

We are using the Theme: "ALWAYS BE READY"

Brothers, we are facing the greatest challenge in the history of this Laymen's Movement, and it is not a dramatic organization. It needs and deserves special help and encouragement from the pastors, and I am urging you to talk with your pastor. Ask him to urge the men to join with you and help build a strong laymen's movement in the baptist churches of this great convention.

The 1st Peter, 3rd chapter, 15 verse says: "But sanctify the Lord God in your heart, and be ready always to give an answer to every man that asketh you a reason of the hope that is in you with meekness and fear."

Yes, we must be ready. It is an undeniable fact that unless we get our pastor to encourage the men to work together, this laymen's movement will not do the work that was assigned to men in the early church. And may I urge the officers of the local church brotherhood to always be ready to give the best of your service. The brotherhood can go farther than its leadership will lead it.

And may I suggest that each state and local president get the new revised book by Jesse McNeil, "Men in the Local Church." This book will give you the information you need to build a strong laymen's movement in your church and state.

Brothers, we cannot build a strong national lay organization unless we have awake churches, district, and state laymen's leagues. It is well said, that church begins at home and spreads abroad. And if your brotherhood is to accomplish its purpose and objectives, the men who have been chosen to lead must plan its well so that it will ever command the respect it needs among the men of your church.

A leader has a tremendous responsibility, and the leaders of your laymen's brotherhood have a glorious task using men for Christ. And if you follow the teaching of Christ, your work will reflect itself in every phase of the ministry of the church, the home, and the community throughout eternity for Christ.

Brothers, these are wonderful dividends but they come about only through hard work and a full commitment to the task of discharging the spirits of the living Christ in carrying out the church's appointed responsibilities.

Yes, this laymen's movement has made great progress in the past years, it has entered into new territories, yet there is more land to be possessed in the areas of employment, housing, politics, education and religion. And we need a clear, united Baptist voice to be sounded in all of the ruling circles of our state and national life. And may I say to you today, whatever may be our individual differences, let us lay them aside, and help the masses, who are seeking for peace and happiness in this disturbed world.

Members, it is my hope and prayer that this laymen's movement will set a pattern of unified social concern and action, that will inspire and encourage Baptist men throughout this nation. We must continue to cry aloud against the glaring outburst of hate, injustice against Negroes all over the land. And today many high school and college students are saying by ways and actions that they are tired of being denied of their God-given rights under the constitution of these United States.

So, today my friends, we must launch out into the deep. The minnows along the bank of the shore cannot meet the heavy demands which faces us in times like these. We must launch out for the cause for which this movement is geared in the name of Jesus. For when the stamping feet of dictators and demagogues have been forever in the stocks of impartial death, our captain will be walking down the centuries as a great conqueror, with all power of death, hell and the grave at his command. And those of us who have kept the faith will hear that welcome voice saying, "Come ye blessed of my Father, and inherit the kingdom which was prepared for you, even from the foundation of the world."

Brothers, to be a good leader, you must know how to be a good follower. A good leader must know how to share responsibilities. No person is more responsible for the failure or success of a laymen's league in the local church than the chosen head of its program.

We must know how to interpret the program and to stimulate the men to make it go. He must see the overall picture of the work: how each man fits into it; where each man can contribute his best; and under what conditions the men of the organization are most stimulated and inspired. When this is done, you will hear the cry of every man saying, our fears, our hopes, our aims, our comfort and our cares are one.

May I urge each delegate to return to your respective church and urge your pastor to lay emphasis on the necessity of men working together in kingdom building for Christ. Gear your program so that each man in the church will have a duty to perform, for we are confronted with serious calls which demand of us acceptance or rejection. We must always be ready. There is no neutral ground anywhere in God's church upon which the laymen can find easy in a suspended judgment on a matter so weighty and urgent as this. So long as we are a part of the church we must hear the call which is put in the stirring words of William P. Merrill: "Rise up, O men of God, the church for you doth wait, her strength unequal to the task, rise up and make her great."

The church needs men with a clear understanding of the world mission and messages of the church. It needs men who can see the necessity of organized and cooperative effort in achieving its largest objectives. It needs men who will give themselves as laymen to some phase of its spiritual program for the world.

And I am glad to see that men are discovering themselves in the church. It spells new hope and life for the congregation of believers in Christ. The church is sure to show increasing strength as its men are challenged to loyalty to Christ and His church, and are provided with opportunities to share in the essential Christian service.

The church will enjoy an ever-widening influence for good as laymen under God go forth to witness His power through Christ in the banks, the factories, the office buildings, and the market places in every area of daily living.

Your church league cannot be kept with a hit and miss program or without a program at all. Laymen must have something definite to meet about. Their program must center around those things which are interesting to churchmen, and what they are asked and expected to do must be to them worthwhile.

Your local church league's program should include careful study, worship and fellowship. They should be planned in advance and carefully scheduled to correspond to men's normal interest at any given time of the year. Recreational programs should be influenced by the seasons. During the winter, indoor social activities and recreations should be planned. During the summer, some social recreation program should be planned for out-of-doors. At some time we should plan to include Race Relations Sunday, Brotherhood Week, The Church and Economy Life Sunday, Family Week, Father and Son Sunday, and a Better Business Observation Day. Programs should be planned so as to give emphasis to these vital concerns.

MINUTES

During election time, the programs should provide for a close study and decision on how to improve the political life of the community, state and nation by the intelligent use of the ballot.

Emphasis should be given in the lay program to such family festivals as Thanksgiving, Harvest Home and Christmas.

And this year my friends, we are to elect a President of these United States and I am urging you to urge every man and woman in your church and community to register and vote. I cannot tell you who to vote for, but I can recommend one who will lead and direct you as He did Moses in the days of Pharaoh.

Brothers, God is the same today as he was in the days when he said to Moses, "You go and I will go with you. Open your mouth and I will speak through you. All you have to do is to tell Pharaoh I said 'let my people go'."

And today, my friends, Christians must rise up and protest against sin wherever it is found. Let us walk together and work together, and don't get weary, there will be a great camp meeting in the promised land.

RECOMMENDATIONS

1. That this laymen's movement will become an active participating member of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference headed by Dr. Martin Luther King.

2. In view of the rising tide of juvenile delinquency and in view of the loyalty and dedication of hundreds of young people of this fellowship, I am recommending that a commission be set up to study the possibilities of raising funds to defray the expenses of one or more field workers to go to the pastors in the Baptist churches of this National Baptist Convention and ask for permission to organize senior and junior laymen's brotherhoods in their churches.

3. I am recommending that the budget committee will bring to the adjourned session a plan as to how we can raise more finance to increase the budget.

4. Recommending that more of the activities of the local and national laymen's work be published to encourage more men to become active in its program.

Recommending that a committee be appointed to explore the possibilities of getting a laymen's class established in the National Baptist Sunday School and B. T. U. Congress.

In the printed program of the Congress, it carries the names of every department in the church except the laymen. It is my belief that wherever the name of the National Baptist Laymen's Movement appear in print, it will stimulate interest in the men.

It is also true, that the best way to attract the attention of unchurched men is to make a lot of noise about what the church has to offer. And one of the many reasons why our laymen's movement is not doing a greater service is that we don't make enough noise about our activities.

We must go out and sell this movement to those who are lonely for fellowship and friendship.

THE REVEREND JERRY A. MOORE, JR., Pastor

A Faith That Has Overcome

Dr. Nannie Helen Burroughs, was a native of Orange County, Virginia. She was brought to Washington, D. C. at the age of five years by her mother, Mrs. Jennie Burroughs Bell, in order to give her an education, which she received in the public schools of Washington, D. C., later majoring in Business and Domestic Science Education.

As a girl she took advantage of every opportunity and diligently prepared herself for the large responsibility which would ultimately be hers. Under the guidance of her pastor, the late Dr. Walter H. Brooks, she, at an early age became a Christian and was an active, enthusiastic worker in the Sunday School, Church and Young People's organizations; thus developing an intelligent experience and spiritual background for her future work. Her dream was to establish an institution for women and girls; training them for a life of Christian leadership, both at home and abroad.

This, of course, was only a dream; but the idea of The National Trade and Professional School for Women and Girls was born. Before this dream was put into effect, however, she went to Philadelphia, Pennsylvania to work, and from Philadelphia, she went to Louisville, Kentucky to become a Bookkeeper and Editorial Secretary of the Foreign Mission Board. In Louisville she organized a "Women's Industrial Club," rented a house and started classes; teaching Domestic Science, Millinery and other courses.

It was in 1900 in Richmond, Virginia that Dr. Burroughs came on the National scene by being elected Corresponding Secretary to The Woman's Convention, Auxiliary to the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc. She held this office until 1908 at which time she was elected to the Presidency of The Woman's Convention. Her contribution to The Convention, through the years, has itself been like a dream unfolding: contributing such publications as "THE WORKER," "MAKING YOUR COMMUNITY CHRISTIAN," "HOW," "THE RED CIRCLE GUIDE" and "SUNSHINE GUIDE," numerous others. "THE WORKER" is a quarterly magazine for Christian development. It has reached a circulation of more than 100 thousand copies each quarter. The program of The Woman's Convention is in itself a benediction to the work of the churches, including the creation and promotion of The Young People's Department.

Almost simultaneously with her work in The Woman's National Baptist Convention was the coming into reality of her ideal: A School for Women and Girls. Thus out of her deep faith in herself, and the faith she had in the women of America, The National Training School for Women and Girls was established in 1909 at Lincoln Heights, Washington, D. C.

Through the years her accomplishments and the work of the School is a matter of record—a campus of nearly eight acres, with beautiful buildings, including two recent ones—a modern Girl's Dormitory and a National Memorial Chapel.

Among the organizational affiliations with which Dr. Burroughs was connected included charter membership in the Baptist World Alliance, member of the Na-

Brooks Foundation, The Association for the Study of Negro Life and History; Honorary member of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, The Tuesday Evening Club, The Nannie Helen Burroughs Club, The I.B.P.O. of Elks and many others.

Among other projects credited to her leadership are "The Retreat for Foreign Missionaries" in Washington, D. C. the beautiful, breath taking eighty acre Camp Site for Young People and Christian Workers in Constantine, Michigan and the National Summer Institute for Christian Workers.

And so closes words to exemplify in part a great faith in a noble soul. The story of the life and work of Dr. Nannie Helen Burroughs cannot be told in words. Her life was built around objectives. Her history has been one of deeds. She took her appointment as sacred and divine.

"She walked in the beauty of faith,

He reminded us that we are living in the midst of critical times—when ideological warfare is being waged between two great countries. The devil is a reality and we must reckon with him by putting on the whole armour of God. Slaves is one of the devil's mightiest weapons and we must prepare ourselves for the attack. The devil is the father of liars and we have a battle on our hands. We have a bitter and stubborn enemy in the devil. The devil is well acquainted with us in our lives; in our homes and in our churches. So we will belong to the church militant. Weapons—armour of God; breastplate of righteousness; sword of faith; helmet of salvation; girdle of truth. John said in Revelation that the Christian is to overcome the devil through faith and prayer. The Blood of Jesus Christ His Son cleanseth us from all sins.

75. The President opened up the "Christian Interracial Fellowship Hour and Christian Youth on the March," with the statement that this period of the program is very important in these challenging times because the world needs peace as a basis for a fellowship among the races of people on the globe. She presented Mrs. R. L. Mathis, President, Woman's Missionary Union, Auxiliary, Southern Baptist Convention.

76. Mrs. R. L. Mathis, brought greetings from the Southern Baptist Convention. She expressed great appreciation for the leadership of Dr. N. H. Burroughs; how they talk together, pray together; their desires are mutual, and objectives have the same meaning. She further spoke of the recent Baptist World Alliance which met in Rio De Janeiro, Brazil, which taught us many meaningful lessons. She felt that in the great consummation of time that we shall learn how small the big universe is; where all kindred and tongues will unite with one another and understand one another so that communistic influences cannot have its sway and power over us. Loving people is no problem where Bible influences are felt and acknowledged.

77. Miss Jean Lee Luckey, New York, Secretary, Christian Friendliness American Baptist Home Mission Societies embraced the real opportunities to thwart all efforts of exploitation and usurpation of power to mislead any within our grasp as the Belgians have done the Congolese. She further expressed herself as being proud of some of the achievements of our American Youth.

78. After making the statement that we have many things to challenge us from the Congo to Philadelphia, our President presented Mrs. Rebecca Calloway, Union University, Richmond, Virginia, who spoke on Interracial cooperation from Korea, and adjacent islands.

79. Mrs. Calloway's approach to the key to the problematic situations was quite assuring to our labors of love. She pointed out that we had before us a major job—the salvation of the lost through the Christian influence of the Cross. She further stated that we have been waiting on God to do some of our basic tasks when He is depending upon us to do our tasks. He has no right to do our work. We ought to get on the job ourselves—Helping us understand world brotherhood is most essential in the performance of our duties. Church folk must work together. The time is our evading the tasks facing us. We need an excellency in the quality of our work being done. The time is out for making excuses. Let us fight on for the victory.

80. Mrs. Abbey Clinton Jackson, President, Woman's Home and Foreign Mission Society, A. M. E. Zion Church, Louisville, Kentucky, having been presented said that an invitation from Miss Burroughs was more than just an invitation to be present and speak from this platform upon Race Relationships, but accepted as a command. Having brought greetings from her group she proceeded to tell us that as Christian women we must use the slogan, "All Together." We must put into action those things we believe to be right. It is time that we as leaders can no longer deceive the world. People need hope, they need help and as Christian women we must not neglect such a great opportunity to lift people of all races, aloft from racial prejudice, self injustices. Free the whole man not a part. Injustice, discrimination MUST GO. The lowly Nazarene, nearly 2000 years ago spilled His life's blood on Calvary for ALL men, not one particular race, nor a particular section of our homeland. Hold on to your Hope; Exercise your rights as first class citizens; Share in the opportunity to meet our great challenges.

81. After expressing thanks to these former speakers, Dr. Burroughs presented Mrs. Elsa Brown, President, Woman's Convention of Monrovia, Africa, who was happy to speak about the great tasks they are trying to do in Africa.

82. Mrs. A. A. Banks, Jr. was presented to speak in interest of the Youth Camp emphasizing the fact that we are teaching our children by example.

A presentation from the Royal Crown Cola Company of Tuskegee Institute, Alabama, of $25.00 was made by Mrs. S. T. Martin. After a fund raising period for the Youth Camp the meeting was closed with singing.

10. SERMON: Text: Acts 1:6-8. Theme: Spiritual Power Will Do It.

On the Mount of Transfiguration there were three disciples with Jesus.
On the Mount of Ascension there were all of the disciples present.

We don't need any other power as badly as we need spiritual power. WITNESSING is very essential, but it never comes until after rededication, repentance and regeneration. At Pentecost the disciples of Jesus did three things and five great things happened.

- (1) They obeyed the Master;
- (2) The disciples at Pentecost UNITED and became ONE in accord and purpose.

It seems as of now that Division is the most prominent outcome of our modern day church life. Our demeanor here in Philadelphia this past week has borne out that conclusion.

(3) They went up and prayed. People aren't praying nowadays, not seriously. Accord seems like a lost chord in the development of events that are taking place as of now. You can seldom find even the preacher in a prayer meeting now. You find so few people who love to pray. There is a great dearth in prayer life. We must exercise a living faith in God to stand the test for prayer changes things. Abraham, Isaac and Jacob prayed. Jesus prayed. Prayer brings power; brings relief to our souls.

Five things that happened:

- (1) The Holy Ghost came—the Messenger of Truth.
- (2) The Church was born at Pentecost as a result of being in one accord.
- (3) Peter was made a preacher at Pentecost.
- (4) A great revival broke out as a consequence of the unity in purpose and prayer.
- (5) Those people who got religion on Pentecost went out into the community and exemplified that fiery spiritual power to do something about Kingdom building. When some were anxious to arrest these witnesses at Pentecost, Gamaliel a great Judge of the Sanhedrin Council said: "I can't disturb these people. Let them alone." God is fighting the battle for His people. We must get together to be ready to go into the upper room. The Holy Spirit power is needed in our Church life today. The spiritual power will do it. So many people are nervous whose tensions are high that we cannot sleep, but if we use or exercise spiritual fervor, we can find the ease of mind and soul that we seek.

11. Hymn: If Jesus Goes With Me I'll Go Anywhere.
12. Dr. Burroughs said "At the bottom of the mountain, great tasks face us to be done. That was the whole story—a Challenging message. We go down from here rededicated to go a greater service."
13. The Final Business statement was made by the treasurer, Mrs. Margery B. Gaillard. We had raised in this session of the Woman's Convention, the sum of $3,065.44.
14. Offering taken as a contribution to the Metropolitan Baptist Church was $409.54.
15. Hymn: Count On Me, was sung as a consecration and assurance hymn of the month.
16. Soloist, Mr. James W. Thomas, Leader of Church Wide Chorus of the Vermont Avenue Baptist Church of Washington, D. C. sang, "Jesus Will Walk With Me."
17. The closing selection by the choral society was "I'm Going Through."
18. Benediction, Rev. C. T. Murray.

President's Annual Address

12TH ANNUAL MESSAGE OF

MISS NANNIE H. BURROUGHS, President

A DISTURBED WORLD

Battle Against Injustice and Ungodliness With God's Weapons FROM SAN FRANCISCO TO PHILADELPHIA

We shall be eternally grateful to the Convention Committee of San Francisco for the perfect setting, hospitality and marked courtesies that we received at their hands in that Magic City.

We have never had such perfect arrangements and gracious hospitality anywhere. Some of the delegates were so overwhelmed and delighted that they said "Come on, let's go back to San Francisco for our 1960 Meeting." But in the language of James Weldon Johnson, we had already decided to face the "rising sun" and so, here we are in the East and God grant that we shall—of a world filled with Brotherly Love.

Philadelphia is truly a city of Freedom and Brotherly Love. William Penn's vision and dedication of 1701 has become an increasing reality through the years. Philadelphia's historical background and its matchless, progressive growth in education, in Christian graces and culture are a challenge and a blessing to this entire nation. William Penn stated a divine truth when he said "let men be good and the government cannot be bad." The dedication of any city or government to such a faith and high purpose will bring to that city or government the fruits that Philadelphia is enjoying today.

There is to be found here men and women of all faiths and a hospitality that is Christian to the core. This is a Baptist stronghold because Northern Baptists have been printing the Word of God by the millions of pages through the years and have sent the Divine message to every kindred, tribe and tongue on this planet.

The schools are open to all men, regardless of race, creed or color. The Great A.M.E. Church was here and men and women of stature in both races have learned, labored and lived in this climate of freedom and justice and have gone into all the world to preach, teach, sing and serve. Our men have gone to the State Legislature to serve and to stand up as becometh free Americans. Weekly papers, edited by Negroes have had long and constructive careers. Men of Medicine and Law have made rich contributions to the life of this community, this State and to this nation.

We held in 1960, in the Auditorium of the University of Pennsylvania—and for atmosphere and courtesy, no place has excelled it. Under the leadership of the gracious and devoted Mrs. L. M. Thomas, President of the Woman's Convention of the State of Pennsylvania, we come again with thanksgiving to this City of Brotherly Love.

We meet in an Arena, where many a physical battle has been fought. For our meeting, this Arena is dedicated to the worship of the Most High. We came to fight a battle against Satisfied Ignorance, Ungodliness and Injustice, not only here but wherever man is found.

God is in this place. He will be speaking to us in various ways, and the sound of His voice will be so sweet that Christians who know Him will bid their souls be still and hear what their Maker has to say; for we meet at a time when we need Him most—at a time when the whole world is disturbed over man's inhumanity and ungodly treatment of their brothers for two ungodly reasons:

239

1. Simply because they are not "white."
2. Because they have much of the wealth of this world in their own land and white men want it for their own material welfare and security.

If Christianity cannot break the mold of entrenched race prejudice, in America, Africa and throughout the world, then the power of our so-called Christian Churches and the boasted strength of our denominations and conventions are absolutely worthless in the sight of Almighty God.

You have journeyed here, from across the nation, for what? Our high purpose should be to join hearts and hands in a dedication of our lives to make this world a fit place for all men to live in peace, justice and brotherhood. We will lose the spiritual battle in this Arena, just as men have lost physical battles, if we do not—here and now—consecrate ourselves to the program of Jesus Christ for the entire world and work and pray and fight until victory is achieved on the side of right and righteousness.

Let us move into the Christian's Global Arena and put all that we have into the fight.

May this entire Arena be pervaded with an invigorating atmosphere of spiritual life. May we be courageous in our faith; unselfish in our services; wise and just in our counsel and set this place on hallowed fire for God, as we pray—

"Consecrate us, Lord, to Thy service now

By Thy Power of Grace Divine,

May our souls look up with a steadfast hope

GONE HOME

MRS. MAUDE J. BROCKWAY, Parliamentarian of this Convention, Director of our Study Class, one of the founders and trustees of the National Training School at Nashville, Tennessee and President of the Woman's Convention of Oklahoma, went to her reward, October 24, 1959. Mrs. Brockway gave faithful service in the three National Positions.

As a Convention, we paid tribute to her and request the National Memorial Committee to make a memorial donation to the American Baptist Seminary, if the trustees of that institution accept President Turner's suggestion that since the Training School was destroyed by fire that the interest in it be expressed by the erection of a woman's dormitory on the Campus of the American Baptist Seminary. We must not forget those who labor with us and the only way to perpetuate the work is to do something that will abide.

A NUMBER OF WOMEN ACTIVE IN OUR LOCAL CHURCHES and interested in this Convention have gone to their reward. When we receive proper notice of such passing, we record it.

IN VIRGINIA, the cause of Christian Cooperation has lost one of its greatest champions and most devoted workers in Mrs. Pearl M. Burke who has gone home.

One died in the midst of great pains for the cause. Her passing leaves a vacancy that will be hard to fill.

IN OUR BOOK OF FRIENDS who shall never die, we have inscribed the name of this great Christian.

Several of the women, most active in this Convention, have lost their husbands and we extended to them our deepest sympathy and know that God will be with them as they continue their work in His vineyard. Among the women whose ties have been broken are, Mrs. Rusty Honey, Florida; Mrs. Marietta Taylor Dyer, Arkansas; Mrs. Alice Brown, Missouri and Mrs. Anna M. Hunt, Kansas.

It is true that in the passing of their loved ones,
Deep waters-crossed their pathway
The hedge of thorns was sharp
But their loved ones joined the Hallelujahs
With God's triumphant band.
Today, they sing where glory dwelleth
In Immanuel's happy land.

MINUTES

May the peace of God which passeth thought,
And the Peace of Christ which changeth not,
May Peace like the morning's silent glow;
Peace through the night and peace through the day
Refresh and strengthen your troubled heart.

This is the prayer of your entire Sisterhood, as you rededicate yourselves to the work of the Master.

THE MID-WINTER MEETING

It was not possible for your President to attend the 1960 Mid-Winter (January) session of the Board of Directors. She prepared the program, as usual and as she expected the two Vice Presidents and other Officials directed the business of the Convention with skill and dispatch.

As usual Mrs. Drew and Mrs. Coleman handled the local program and hospitality with efficiency and grace.

The glorious surprise which was in store for me was the idea, and under the direction of two of the finest Artists in America, Mrs. Harriett Taylor Dyer and Mrs. Hazel Shanks Hynson of Little Rock, Arkansas.

They wrote and presented my "12 KEYS TO GOD'S RESOURCES." The people were thrilled. The demand for the pageant compelled me to collaborate with these fine women in writing the play for use in our Churches. It is our hope that it can be presented here, during this Convention.

We bow in deepest appreciation to these thoughtful women and to Mrs. Dyer who encouraged them to stage the show. We never know how far an idea can reach and how much good it can do.

The "12 KEYS" are opening doors to peoples hearts.
"THANKS" to my Arkansas friends.

The Hot Springs Board meeting was a success and the program of the Convention got its annual push forward by the women and Committee members who come to learn and leave to serve.

"THE RIO MEETING"

The meeting of the Baptist World Alliance, in Rio De Janeiro, Brazil is now history and a history to which Baptists of the world can point with pride.

At our San Francisco meeting you voted to pay my expenses. I did not go because I had been too recently hospitalized. In order to have the Women's Convention registered among other women's organizations of the world, I authorized that One Thousand Dollars be sent to the Women's department.

Several of our women attended the Rio meeting and will evaluate it and give us a world picture of their impressions. As a member of the Executive Committee of the Baptist World Alliance, I sent the following Cablegram which was read by Dr. Adams and Mrs. Martin, respectively, at the time I was programmed to speak in the respective meetings, and I am told that Dr. Adams not only read but also evaluated the message.

I have a very deep and abiding interest in the Alliance because it gave me my first chance to speak to the world, first in Exeter Hall, then in Spurgeon Tabernacle and to a matchless audience in Hyde Park. I shall never forget the mighty men who laid the foundation of The Alliance. I have tried to grow.

in Christ's world redemption program.

As Christians, we face the greatest crisis, challenge and responsibility since Christ gave us our marching orders. The only reason for holding this World Congress is to rededicate ourselves to World Redemption.

Therefore, let us in this meeting highly resolve to allow nothing to swerve us from making Brotherhood and Justice real in every nation, tribe and tongue on this planet.

FORWARD, together, under Christ's leadership this mighty victory is assured.

Sincerely yours,

NANNIE H. BURROUGHS

"INTERIM APPOINTMENTS"

Because of several changes and losses in the Official family of this Convention, the President had to appoint the following persons to serve in the positions vacated or from which the Officers desired to be released.

In the interim appointments, the President tried to use good judgment and she believes that the persons selected are not only highly qualified, but dedicated.

Mrs. Etta Versa Frye's retirement is deeply regretted by the Young People's Department and this Convention. We selected Mrs. A. A. Banks, of Detroit, Michigan to serve as the National Director. The women of this Convention know Mrs. Banks is a highly qualified, dedicated woman. We are asking the State Directors and Counsellors in our Young People's Department to give us the best service possible. "COOPERATION" is the Keyword and "DEDICATION" is a major essential.

Mrs. Zee Anderson Barron, Mississippi, Director of the National Study Class to fill the position occupied by the late Mrs. Maude J. Brockway.

Mrs. Margery Gailard, Alabama, Acting Treasurer to fill the position from which Mrs. H. M. Gibbs requested retirement because of ill health.

Mrs. Bessie Halstrom, Pennsylvania, Parliamentarian, to fill the position occupied by the late Mrs. Maude J. Brockway.

In our program we try to serve the needs of the churches, State organizations and groups that are concerned about the education, social welfare, home and family life, interracial cooperation and understanding and citizenship. In addition to elected Officers, we need the active cooperation of every Christian woman in every Church.

Negro Baptists claim a membership of four million eight hundred thousand and it will take over a half million dedicated women to serve our Churches and organizations. Will you make yourself responsible for finding at least two such women this year?

Under capable leadership, we can double the membership of our National in the next twelve months.

"THE CRUSADE MUST GO ON"

Organizations, such as ours, should concentrate on—

1. Improving Negro home and community life.
2. Circulation of tracts, brochures and books that tell the people what to do with their problems—personal and group.

To this end we are renewing our efforts to push the Crusade to "Improve Life On All Fronts." We must have One Hundred more dependable women to distribute tracts and organize "Block Clubs." Will you be one?

Many neglected people live in the block in which your church is located. Our Crusade material will help you reach them or their children.

It is a travesty on any church that does not go into the highways and work hard to help the people to improve their Home and Family life. Neglected children, wayward young people and idle men and women are community challenges and responsibilities. Out of this army of unpromising souls can come a redeemed host.

Our future as a race and nation depends on what we do NOW to save the American home for God. A race cannot rise above the level of its home life. Christianity is a home religion, as well as a Church religion.

EVERY MEMBER OF THE CONVENTION

Some people are professional "jiners." They like to "belong to." Just "belonging" is not good for anybody. Membership in a Convention should mean few things.

1. Definite information as to its major objectives.
2. Knowledge of the ability and dependability of its official in carrying on the work for which they are responsible.
3. How the individual members may be improved in mind, spirit and life by participating in the program.
4. What the individual can give to as well as get out of the organization.

Every woman in this Convention should do something definite and worthwhile to make the causes gloriously progressive. If you are not on a Committee and working, get on one today and help us in the battle against satisfied ignorance, ungodliness and injustice.

Our COMMITTEE PLAN is still the best plan we know anything about but the record shows that too many members are only "deadheads" and deadheads are expensive window dressing.

The quota of Twenty-five Dollars, to be raised or given by a member is small. A House Party or a dinner or a little time spent soliciting would bring more than this small sum. Then, too, we list the Causes and the money goes to the Cause for which it is raised.

People will give when this fact is obvious.

FOREIGN MISSIONS

The Convention is giving more money to Foreign Missions than any other Negro women's organization in the world.

Following our San Francisco meeting we sent $—— to the Foreign Mission Board. During the year, we have sent boxes of supplies to Suchn and to Mr. Horton.

When Mrs. Mattie M. Davis told us that Suehn did not have a stove to cook on, we had her purchase a cook stove at a cost of over Five Hundred Dollars ($500) and ship it to the Station.

We are paying for the beautiful Retreat for Foreign Missions for the Foreign Mission Board of the National Baptist Convention, Inc.

In July, Rev. Samuel B. Stubblefield, Sr., Monrovia, Liberia, spoke to the students in the Summer Institute at the National Trade and Professional School For Women and Girls, Inc., Washington, D. C. The station is in desperate need of some means of transportation. The students, teachers and office staff is sending to Rev. Stubblefield, this month Three Thousand Five Hundred Dollars for a "pick up" truck.

We are not singing our own praises. We are simply reporting to you because you gave and prayed and trusted us in this work of the Master.

THE RETREAT FOR FOREIGN MISSIONARIES

Organizations, such as ours, can only live by essential service, rendering and having definite basic responsibility. A stake in the lives of people gives challenges and pride.

Our RETREAT FOR FOREIGN MISSIONARIES, in Washington, D. C., is just that kind of a meaningful, beautiful institution. It ties Mission service in Africa and other lands to fellowship in America.

Our Retreat is not only a place of beauty but it is so well built and furnished that it compares favorably with any show place in the Nation's Capital. This is as it should be and as we have signed and sealed to keep it.

The balance on the mortgage debt is . . . It costs Seven Thousand Dollars a year for upkeep, care and salary and interest on mortgage. The Life Members and Retreat Committee are urged to pay the mortgage and then the total cost of upkeep will be comparatively light.

The value and the Christian challenge are there as a life gift from the women of this Convention.

"THE NATIONAL CAMP"

"ATTEMPT GREAT THINGS FOR GOD AND EXPECT GREAT THINGS FROM HIM" is a challenge which, if accepted, will bring a surprisingly rich reward. The only thing that we need to be sure of is that our purpose, plan and program shall please Him.

For over Twenty-five years we talked about and promised to set up a Camp project. It was not until 1958 that we stood up to our promise. Today, it is not necessary for us to reminisce. The glorious fact is that our next step is to dedicate the National Youth Camp and Senior Retreat—located near Constantine, Michigan.

We have reported the purchase and preliminary steps incident to such an undertaking. In June, we requested the Chairman of the Camp Board and one of its members to confer with the Michigan Camp Commissioners. The State representatives met our representatives at the Camp and their first comment was: "You have here the finest beginning of any organization that has ever started such a project in the State of Michigan." They spent hours going over the grounds and buildings and discussing State requirements for licensing Summer Camps. Thank God we have much there, but we have also much to do there.

1. We shall fix what we have to meet State requirements. This goes into plumbing, sewerage and toilet facilities. Sanitation standards of the State Department of Health must be provided for and maintained or Camp license will be revoked.
2. We must remodel some of the buildings but they are well worth every dollar needed for such improvements.
3. We must build roads and entrances to facilitate the handling of more people than was ever contemplated by private owners.
4. We have a fifteen acre lake which must be cleaned. This goes into money, but it must be done.
5. We must build an Assembly place for outdoor meetings. It will be a kind of patio, facing the beautiful lake.
6. Adequate Recreation grounds must be provided.
7. We shall need a rambler type dormitory with adequate FURNITURE and equipment to permit easy cleaning and neatly kept. The provision should be for not more than One Hundred "learners" at a time. Bear in mind that the Camp is for "learners" in the field of Christian service and not for picnickers—Camp is for "learners" in the field of Christian service and not for picnickers—Camp is for looking for some place to have a grand and glorious time. This Camp is for Christian Young People and Seniors who want to serve their Churches and communities with greater skill and renewed dedication.
8. We shall need Camp Director, Activities Specialists, Counsellors, Nurse and maintenance personnel of ability and Christian character.

It is our hope and prayer that we shall be able to get on with this work so as to have the Camp ready for service by the first of June, 1961. We have a tremendous job to do, but, bear in mind that this is God's work and if we pray and work with Him, He will help us to find the means and the people. "It is always refreshing to read what the Bible says He will do. For instance, the Book says "No good thing will He withhold from them that walk uprightly" and He declares in this connection, "before they call, I will answer." And He did it.

May I share with you a secret? I have a letter from a White friend who is the president of a great organization. She tells me, confidentially, that "we are interested in your Camp project and voted to give Sixteen Thousand Dollars to help set the Camp in order. The money is not immediately available, but you will receive it in a few months."

and it shall come to pass, that before they call, I will answer; and while they are yet speaking, I will hear."

This gift is a challenge and, I believe with all my heart, that the women of this Convention will accept that gift with thanks and as a challenge I call upon you to match it before February 1, 1961 with SIXTEEN THOUSAND DOLLARS MORE.

It can be done and God is saying to us about this whole undertaking—"erect thou unto me? GO FORWARD!"

The Young People of this Convention must do more to help themselves in a practical way. We want them to raise TEN THOUSAND DOLLARS.

We owe a balance of Forty-five Thousand Dollars on the Mortgage Debt. During this year we have had to pay interest on the Mortgage and taxes to the State because we are not a licensed Camp. We have had to take care of heat, light, telephone, repairs and caretakers' services. All of this has been done out of Camp funds.

Every Church in our Convention should give TWENTY-FIVE, FIFTY or ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS between now and February 1st. They will do it if the leaders are interested in Young People and in the future leadership of our denomination.

Whatever other people do to help us is the kind of Christian fellowship and interest for which we have been praying; but what we do for ourselves clinches the fact that God helps those who help themselves.

THE WORKER

The President of the Convention started THE WORKER over twenty-four years ago. Needless to say that the magazine has had its days of loneliness and uncertainty because it was another of those "faith ventures" that has to prove itself by overcoming the doubts of many and the neglect of many more.

"Thank God, THE WORKER has grown in favor with God and Man." Today, it is the most widely read Church magazine used by Negro women.

We are profoundly grateful to the men and women who are helping us to circulate the magazine. Many of the Book Shops, distributors of religious periodicals and material, women in the local churches and in the State and District Conventions are giving us enthusiastic and increasing support in the circulation of the magazine. We are inexpressibly grateful to them and we shall continue to try to make The Worker an informative, enlightening and challenging instrument of service to all who want to see God high and lifted up in the lives of people who are seeking to know the truth.

We are grateful to Mrs. Hazel Baskerville Nelson, Mrs. Lula M. Haynes and Rev. D. E. King for their contributions and to Mrs. Vernon Johns who wants to help us in our evaluation and use of Church Music.

In the Third Quarter of 1960, we called upon Ten men to help us in issuing a "special" edition of the magazine. This was done for two good reasons:

1. To clarify and evaluate the "Sit-In" Crusade, initiated and directed by Negro College students.
2. To discuss the price of freedom and to challenge this generation to build on the sure and deep foundation laid by the men and women who overcame tribulations and great trials, but made America sing with the richness of their faith and dogged determination to "Be Somebody, in the land to which they had given the last ounce of their devotion, and baptized it in sweat and blood and tears."

These men did a magnificent job and words of praise and orders for the magazine are still coming into our office.

Our 1960-61 objective is to get TEN THOUSAND NEW SUBSCRIBERS for The Worker.

What Will You Do To Help Us?

THE NATIONAL TRAINING SCHOOL GONE

In August, many of you received notice from President Turner, of American Baptist Theological Seminary, Nashville, Tennessee, that the National Training School—started and sponsored by this Convention for years—is in ashes.

It was closed by President Jackson and the National Baptist Convention several years ago. The State residents of the Woman's Convention were Trustees of the School and gave it support.

In the Board of Directors of this Convention, at the urgent suggestion of the late Dr. D. V. Jemison advanced the School Two Thousand Dollars. It had not been refunded at the time of the fire.

If the School was insured the trustees should refund the money. If it is refunded, I suggest that we give it outright to the American Baptist Seminary to help on the proposed Women's Dormitory. I further suggest that the money reported by the American Baptist Seminary Committee, in this session of our Convention, be sent to President Turner to be used for the proposed Dormitory.

A SCHOOL THAT HAS GROWN FROM AN IDEA TO AN IDEAL CONTINUES TO GROW

For Fifty Years the President and Trustees of the National Trade and Professional School for Women and Girls, Inc., on Lincoln Heights, in the Nation's Capital, today it stands as a monument to Christian devotion.

That School is built on vision, faith, sweat, criticism, misrepresentation, devotion, sacrifice and dogged determination. A few women in this Convention, and some Ministers of the National Baptist Convention, have prayed, believed, worked and given to the end that the dream might become a living reality.

The arduous work is not yet done, but the School on Lincoln Heights is dedicated to God for work with women, for women and by women.

It is the noblest example of Negro self-help in and building on standards done by Negro women in America or in the world, for that matter.

THE NATIONAL MEMORIAL CHAPEL IS COMPLETED

REJOICE WITH US! because the much needed, long talked about and hard worked for National Memorial Chapel, on the Campus of The National Trade and Professional School for Women and Girls, Inc., is completed, furnished and ready to be dedicated.

It is a well constructed, attractive, well furnished, worshipful place for the kind and quality of service and talent programs that we propose to present, the year round at 4:00 P. M.

We have opera seats dedicated to Friends and Churches that have helped us in that venture for dedication of talent for God's service.

The organ and piano are the best. It is our hope that our own Mrs. E. W. Williams, of Fairfield, Alabama, will be with us to dedicate the organ by having it tell of this "Amazing Grace" of a miracle-working God, because we—on Lincoln Heights can tell the whole world—

"Thru many dangers, toils and snares
We have already come."

Nobody can make that organ say it like our Friend, Mrs. E. W. Williams.

Another practical feature is that in the lower auditorium we have an attractive, restful Fellowship Room.

We are eternally grateful to the Friends who helped us. Woman's Missionary Union, of Virginia, is the largest Donor. Their total gift is TWENTY THOUSAND DOLLARS. To our devoted and faithful NATIONAL TRADE AND PROFESSIONAL SCHOOL COMMITTEE, Mrs. Fannie B. Shaw, of Oklahoma, Chairman, Mrs. Leola H. Fortune, Washington, D. C., Co-Chairman; to a handicapped young woman who lives on our Campus; to Churches, State Conventions and individual Friends in Washington, D. C. and across the Nation we do not have words rich enough to spell out our heartfelt gratitude. But this one thing says what all of these friends would say—

"TO A MIRACLE WORKING GOD BE THE GLORY!"

YOUNG PEOPLE MUST BE ENLISTED, TRAINED AND DEDICATED

Our duty and high purpose is to give to younger people a balanced, constructive, challenging program, that in the end will spell dedicated lives in the field of Christian service.

The main business of this Convention is to discover and train young people for Church and Convention leadership. Any program that does not go all out for Christian character building, glorification of talent, World fellowship and cooperative living is no program for this day. It is a sham—a waste of time and money and betrayal of a sacred trust. We wasted enough time years ago.

The day for starting something new, out of spite, is gone. The day for leaders who show off at the expense of the organization and do nothing concrete to build a real program, must be no more.

The business of this Woman's Convention is to work and produce and by its work set every Church, Missionary Society and Young People's organization on hallowed fire for service.

Annual meetings, speeches and parade will never do it. Year around teaching special Institutes, Conferences, Retreats with standard courses, good libraries and reading tables, purposeful, dedicated teachers; practical, meaningful objectives and Follow-Up Committees are the "MUSTS" and there is no time for delay.

Five million Baptists—united—on these common goals can get our people out of the wilderness in Twenty-five years. But split-up, divided and name calling and Cadillac-riding will send millions of Negro young people to destruction.

The Negro Church cannot long survive without the kind and quality of an intensive Christian program which we here suggest.

CAPABLE DEDICATED TEACHERS

For several months we have searching, quietly, for capable, dedicated teachers for our School. It is our hope that we can have a mixed Faculty. The courses offered are—

MISSIONS

MUSIC

ACADEMIC:

We offer Standard High School (Third and Fourth year)

and

Two Years Junior College

Our Summer School has been a challenge and eye opener, a surprise and a benediction to Church women. It doth not yet appear what we shall do.

As soon as we can find skilled women or men, we shall open our dreamed of "IDLE HOUR WORKSHOP" as an experiment. It is our thought that it will be the answer to a great need for youngsters. If the experiment works, we will see the idea in communities that have youth problems for which they are trying to find practical solutions.

Skilled, dedicated teachers is the basic requirement.

STUDENTS—Quality and Grade

In order to build a much needed dormitory and make necessary improvements, we were compelled to discontinue full operation of the National Trade and Professional School For Women And Girls, Inc. We continued Summer sessions, Conferences, Institutes and Open House for outside conventions and retreats.

NOW, the School is ready and beautiful for full operation. Our program of education is set up to train young women of character, who want to prepare for service and leadership in the following fields—

Missions

Christian Social Service

MUSIC

Academic—

We offer Standard High School (Third and Fourth year)

AND

Two Years Junior College

WE DO NOT ACCEPT First and Second Year High School students.

WILL YOU FIND ONE?

Our plan is to begin regular work at the National Trade And Professional School For Women And Girls, Inc., January.

We urge ONE HUNDRED of our friends to send for the Catalogue and find one young woman who wants to prepare for leadership. It will require interest to search, but the need for trained Christian women is so great that at least One Hundred Women should help us find them.

We can give some Scholarship Aid to girls who are willing to help themselves.

SEND FOR CATALOGUE.

SUMMER INSTITUTE

July Was the Month

Lincoln Heights, in the Capital of the Nation, Was the Place

A nation-wide Institute for Christian workers was attraction. It registered women from 20 States.

The entire program was challenging. There is no program like it offered by any School for Christian Workers. Come and see.

The faculty was interracial. Nowhere can you find the quality of program, atmosphere, beauty and comfort that the National Trade and Professional School offers to its students. The courses and instructors and inspirational speakers were as follows—

Interracial Relationship—Mrs. Mary Thomason, Mrs. Carl Tiller

Worship—Mrs. Lula Haynes

Public Speaking—Miss Nannie H. Burroughs

Bible—Rev. Frederick Sampson

Music—Miss Mildred Williams

Red Cross Home Nursing—Mrs. Cleo Roberts

Pageantry and Drama—Mrs. Rosa L. Kimp

Home Decoration and Upholstering—Mrs. Laurene Smith

Foreign Missions—Mrs. Sarah Williamson Coleman

Juvenile Delinquency—Mrs. Martha L. Reese

Special—Panel Book Evaluation

Rev. J. Timothy, Maryland, Rev. James E. Coates and Rev. Walter E. Fauntroy of Washington, D. C. gave an evaluation of Rev. Thomas Elliott Huntley's scholarly and challenging book, "WHEN PEOPLE BEHAVE LIKE SPUTNIK."

Those three men were superb.

As the closing feature, the students presented "12 KEYS TO GOD'S RESOURCES."

Miss Bernice Cofer, Secretary "Christian Friendliness" was among the guests. In a letter following her visit (This was her third summer) she wrote

"Lincoln Heights gives promise of being an outstanding Conference Center for Christian development. The new Chapel is indeed conducive to the worship of God. May the remaining days of July bring growth to your eager students."

Miss Cofer's wish came true. A host of women left the hill, literally walking on air, signed up to go back to their Churches and communities and ring the bells for Christ.

Visitors come to Lincoln Heights by the hundreds.

WORLD DAY OF PRAYER

75th World Day of Prayer, February 17, 1961

Sponsored by "United Church Women"—
National Council of Churches of Christ in the U.S.A.

THE THEME: FORWARD THROUGH THE AGES

The Committee has this to say as a challenge:

"February 17, 1961, find us right in the midst of history, exciting history caught up by it, a part of it. It is history that includes vast spiritual movement throughout the world, with 'no time limits, no clime limits, no race limits or space limits.' interdenominational, interracial, international. Yes, right in the midst of history comes the call to prepare for the 75th anniversary of the World Day of Prayer!"

More than ever before in the 75 years of history, we believe Christian women are ready to answer this call. The God of history is making us see how important it is that we move "together." To boost the great event the Committee suggests:

"Plan a Retreat in November to report on plans and to go through the service and select leaders to take part on the World Day of Prayer. 'There Came A Woman' for a Bible study and prayer period. Plan the day on a high spiritual level. Arrange for members to visit women's attendance on World Day of Prayer. Pray for the Prayer Fellowship being held around the world and join them by holding a local Fellowship Retreat in January for the women of your community.

"SIT-IN"

It is quite obvious that present day young people cannot understand the reason or justification for penalizing a race simply because it is not "white." To them, Slavery is only in the history book and races are on the march together in war and in peace. To them "one Nation indivisible, with liberty and justice for all" means exactly what it says. Or if it doesn't, they have the kind of mental curiosity that compels them to find out the reason why.

To Negroes removed One Hundred years from slavery in which their race paid a dear price for Freedom, they know that their citizenship rights were written in blood in the Nineteenth and Twentieth Centuries for the preservation of America. The only thing that should really concern all Americans—Negro and White—is that all citizens are given the promised opportunity for Public Education, fair employment and respect as human beings created alike in the image of God.

The present race prejudice attitude will never bring out the good in any race. All men were born to walk in dignity and equality, otherwise what is the meaning of human brotherhood. The only business of a Democracy is to build in its people enduring qualities of character.

Whatever you think about the wisdom of the "Sit-In" Crusade write this on a fact on the table of your heart—"People will get no where in this world until they have the courage to get involved in a fight for justice."

In demanding equal rights in public places and in employment, the Negro must meet cultural and conduct standards without bias or prejudice. If he does not so deport himself then he should devote himself to qualifying.

Uncultured White Americans should do likewise. In other words, color should not be a passport to seats in public places and America is dead-wrong and doomed if she continues to punish men for not being "white."

HAVE THE CHURCHES AND GOVERNMENT "GANGED UP" ON THE AMERICAN NEGRO?

If ever the parlance of the street was ever applicable, the Churches and the government have certainly "ganged up" on the Negro to keep in his so-called "place."

Without Jesus in the heart of this nation and without Justice in the body politic, America is on her way down and out. No nation can make the glowing promises which this nation has made to all of its citizens—regardless of race, creed or color—and fail ignominiously to keep its word with races that have fought, bled and died to build a Democracy—a government of the people, by the people and for the people, without provoking the wrath of a just God.

There is no Jesus nor Justice in the American race and color practices in Church and State. There is as much or perhaps more race prejudice in the churches of this country as there is in State and National governments. The present low economic, social, moral and spiritual condition of the American Negro is due to the attitude and practices of the churches and the government. The so-called public schools have never been public. The so-called Christian churches have never been Christian.

But for the attitude, interests and contributions of a comparatively small number of white people and philanthropic agencies, American Negroes would be worse off today than Africans who have been exploited and robbed for centuries. The major interest of whites in that land is to wax fat and wallow in its wealth.

The day of protest has come. It has come out of centuries of suffering. The American Negro has been patient. He has been cheated, robbed, beaten, lynched and denied every right that belongs to man as man—the right to learn; the right to labor, the right to live.

In a land of plenty, two-thirds of the Negroes in America are ignorant, living in slums, ghettos and terribly blighted communities, because of color prejudice in education, in employment and in housing. America is responsible for this un-Christian and undemocratic situation. And Negroes in America have finally come to the conclusion that they, too, will be responsible for their own undoing if they do not decide to unite and beat unjust and ungodly American race prejudices to a frazzle.

The weapons of our warfare must not be frustration and hate.

EDUCATION—Training for work in all fields with larger numbers of young Negroes taking trades—meeting the highest standards required in business and professions.

IMPROVEMENT IN HOME AND FAMILY LIFE—must be made increasingly possible because of equal opportunities for employment in all fields of service.

CHRISTIAN LIVING—not on relief but on justice for when men are treated as brothers in human relations, Christianity to them becomes a vital force in their lives. Negro churches are not doing what churches should do because the people are frustrated. They shout and sing and pray and talk loud in order to drown their troubles; growing out of poverty, need and limitations and disappointments. Negroes must rise and put on the whole armour of faith, determination and skilled labor.

A Christianity that doesn't lift men up and make them stand on their feet is not worth having.

THE FAMOUS OR FAKE CIVIL RIGHTS PLANK

A candidate for the high office of President of the United States should not play "politics" with any group of its citizens.

Red-blooded, sensible men and women want a President who will stand on the Constitution and not spend time waving a "plank" at them in a Campaign. When it comes to Civil Rights, the "plank" is just so much candy, obviously promised in an effort to get votes. This was done in San Francisco and in Chicago. At both Conventions the Civil Rights Plank was the main bait offered Negroes to get their applause in the Convention and their votes in November.

Instead of playing politics with a "plank" a candidate for the Presidency of the United States should read the 14th and 15th Amendments to the Constitution and pledge unequivocally to try to get the United States Supreme Court to enforce that nearly One Hundred years old citizenship rights statute.

The 14th and 15th Amendments to the Constitution are far more than a plank. It is a whole floor, made of planks of service and sacrifice by citizens, regardless of race or color. These Amendments give all citizens the right to stand on them and it forbids any State in the Union—North or South—to deprive citizens of their privileges and rights. No Campaign plank can give more. The fact of the matter is that every President, before and since the enactment of these Amendments have sworn with uplifted hand to uphold the Constitution and its Amendments.

But it is strange that no President has insisted and gone all out for the enforcement of Constitutional Civil Rights. Instead they have been writing and waving planks. The Negro, himself, must bring all necessary pressure to bear to get his Constitutional rights, and not simply new "plank" rights. "Political Plank" rights are only Campaign promises that will be filibustered into splinters by a white Congress. Politicians know this and sensible Negroes are not fooled by it.

The Amendments to the Constitution are law. Congress cannot kick that law around because it is written in the Constitution. Congress has ignored it and nullified it; but it is still there. All Civil Rights "planks" have been filibustered into splinters.

Negroes, like all other citizens, must stand on the floor of the Constitution because no plank is broad enough and strong enough to support their full citizenship rights. The Civil Rights plank is nothing more than a face saver before an on-looker world; a wise bait for credulous job seeking Negroes and a football for entrenched politicians in Congress.

A democracy that can, on the mere score of color, completely ignore its Constitutional pledge to any group of its citizens, as America has for nearly 100 years, should certainly not expect to Campaign its victims into believing that anything written on a "plank" is a surer guarantee of citizenship rights than what was written by that democracy in the blood of that group of citizens.

The basic "rights" of the Negro are written in the Constitution and any "ballyhoo Civil Rights campaign promises," simply provide for more time wasting Congressional filibuster.

THE NEGRO MUST LEARN THE ART THAT DEFEATS ENEMIES

Race prejudice is not only senseless, but it is white America's most expensive satisfying luxury.

In fact, no mathematician can compute the high cost of race prejudice. Figures simply run out like they did on John in the Bible . . . "No man can number."

Race prejudice produces loafers instead of laborers—ignorance instead of intelligence—crime, want and degradation in a land of plenty. Millions of Negroes have gone to waste and to Hell because there was nowhere else for them to go under a government that makes "White" the passport to First Class Citizenship. The Negro has taken about as much injustice as could be expected of normal human beings.

The race problem in America has reached the stage of "self defense" or self extinction. In this world, whenever wrong is tolerated too long, it gets too awry to make sense or to be longer condoned, tolerated or endured. Race prejudice in this country has reached that intolerable depth.

Don't let anybody fool you! Justice or judgment is on God's agenda. The strange fact is that churches lead in non-Christian practices and the government promotes Justice and practices discrimination everywhere and with impunity.

But bear this fact in mind, for this race situation in America, the Negro must bear his share of the responsibility because of what he has failed to do for himself in education, labor and social development.

1. We accepted or tolerated undemocratic practices for over seventy-five years
2. We have not preached or practiced the gospel of self-help as uplifting self-respecting races must do.

We have not stressed the eternal value of standards in work and in social and community life.

4. We have not emphasized importance of learning how to disarm enemies. The first step is—

Learn what they want you to do and don't do it.
Then—Undo them by superior service and conduct.

Now, the "fullness of time has come" for us to practice for over seventy-five years. Then give ourselves fully to the use of the Divine yeast of progress. LEARN—LABOR—LIVE as becometh men who believe in the God of Justice. Prejudice can be licked. Only skill can do it.

THE FAULT IS IN THE LEADERSHIP

Because of the condition of Negro masses, the Negro Church must qualify for Christian leadership and service—not to the few who come, but to the many who never enter a church door, pray a prayer or have the least concern about what they can become if they only desire to be and to believe that they have within themselves a spark of the Divine that can be kindled into new life and power and self-transformation.

Our churches need a quality of dedicated leadership that has the "know-how," and above all the determination to do something Godly about people right at their doors who never enter the portals.

The Missionary Societies in our Churches must be remodeled. In many instances it will require ripping up the whole garment, washing it clean in the sense of present-day renewal and ironing it out with the hot iron of sense and shaping it anew—after the pattern of divine sense to fit the needs of the present day. Regardless of how we think about it or feel about it, the Missionary Societies in our Churches should be the most progressive, clear visioned, "know-how," challenging and attractive organizations in Christian service.

The leaders must prepare because the blind cannot lead the blind and there is too much light in books coming from the press everyday, on the world, challenging stories of Missions and human possibilities for any leader to fail to study and grow and give until the light from their lives and services send its rays to the lost man, the lost man and the least man on this planet.

Today, in this disturbed world, every Church should be aflame with the presence of God and it will take an intelligent "know-how," "growing in grace" leadership from the pulpit to the door to compel men to come in.

THE ONLY SALVATION FOR THIS NATION

In rich America, we have preventable, staggering and challenging problems of ignorance, poverty, unemployment, health, crime and human waste, due largely to race prejudice on the one hand and Negro complacency on the other. No nation, that calls itself a Christian democracy is as rich in race prejudice as America is today.

Our brand of Christianity does not accept the Golden Rule as our criterion in dealing with people. The fact of human Brotherhood is in the Bible, and the practice of race prejudice is in the pulpits and pews of the Churches. There are two things that must be done to save this nation from the penalty of prejudice and the satisfaction it enjoys in race discrimination.

1. America must practice the principles of Brotherhood and Justice.
2. Negro people must decide that they are done with satisfied ignorance and Second Class Citizenship.

These high decisions will cost innate desire, determination and sweat and blood and tears; but in the end they will spell an America that is Democratic and Christian.

A just God is ready to lead us in such a dedication or to doom us if we ignore His plan for Brotherhood on this planet.
As Christian, let us tackle the problems of our race and community. We will if we fight with divine weapons and let the following be prayer of dedication:

Lord, from compromise and things half done,
Keep us with keen and stubborn pride,
And when at last the fight for Justice in America is won,
Lord, keep us still unsatisfied and fighting
Until Justice for the whole world is won.

NANNIE H. BURROUGHS, President

THE REPORT OF
MRS. ESTER WALKER TYREE

President Burroughs, Fellow Officers, Christian Friends of the Woman's Convention Auxiliary, N.E.C. U.S.A., Inc.
In the name of our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ, I greet you.
For the fifth time the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc., is meeting in this historic city of Philadelphia, the city of "Benevolent Love," the city founded by William Penn, the home of our late President Emeritus, Mrs. S. W. Layton.
We remember the hospitality of the Christian people of this city in September, 1950, when the Woman's Convention, Auxiliary, N.E.C. U.S.A., Inc., met in the spacious and beautiful, Irvine Auditorium of the University of Pennsylvania.
For this meeting Mrs. L.M. Thomas and her co-workers have spent no pains in making preparation. It is a fine example of the old adage, "Take what you have and make what you want." Philadelphia Women Pennsylvania Women you have been most gracious and hospitable and we love you.

Dr. Nannie Helen Burroughs.

President Burroughs had a dream:
Great it is to believe the dream
When we stand in youth by the starry stream;
But a greater thing is to fight life through
And say at the end, "The dream was true."
Edwin Markham

President Burrough seems divine:
After all, it is the divinity within that Makes he divinity without;
Washington Irving

President Burroughs' life is a prayer:
As thou wilt - O Lord, Thou knowest what is best for us:
Let this or that be done, as Thou shalt please. Give what Thou wilt, and how much Thou wilt, and when Thou wilt.
Deal with me as Thou thinkest good.
Set me where Thou wilt, and deal with me in all things just as Thou wilt. Behold, I am Thy servant, prepared for all things: for I desire not to live unto myself, but unto Thee!
and oh, that I could do it worthily and perfectly!!
Thomas A. Kempis

More things are wrought by prayer
Than this world dream of . . .
Tennyson

We have with us at this meeting. Dr. Nannie Helen Burroughs, President Woman's Convention, Auxiliary, N.B.C., U.S.A., Inc. Through a life of prayer. God will answer prayer.

"Laborers Together with God" — 1 Corinthians 3:9

The fellowship of the Officers and Committee Members of the Woman's Convention, Auxiliary, N.B.C., U.S.A., Inc., is always a source of strength to us for our tasks together and separately.

We welcome to this fellowship:

Mrs. Zee Anderson Barron, who came through the Youth Department, is the National Chairman of the Study Class of the Woman's Convention.

Conventional Year Co-Workers:

Mrs. A. A. Banks, National Director Y. P. Department
Mrs. Margery B. Gaillard—Acting Treasurer
Mrs. Bessie Hairston—Parliamentarian

Together let us give thanks to God for this fellowship, and pray His continued guidance for us.

To our elected officers we express our gratitude for past services and our confidence as we face the future and appreciation for the close ties which bind us to the cause of Christ.

In Memoriam

As the years roll on, more and more of those who were pioneers and/or staunch supporters of our work have gone to their reward. The past year has seen the deaths of many whom we held in high regard and affectionate memory. In sorrow at their absence from us, but in gratitude for their lives and their work, let us remember their fellowship with us.

Lord, thou hast been our dwelling place in all generations.—

For a thousand years in thy sight are but as yesterday when it is past, or as a watch in the night. — — —

So teach us to number our days that ye may get a heart of wisdom.—

We thank Thee for the divine compassion which takes account of the sorrows of mankind.

To thee be glory forever through Christ Jesus, our Lord.

Meetings

It was my privilege to attend two (2) denominational meetings since last we met:

1. The 1960 meeting of the Executive Board of the Woman's Convention, Auxiliary, N.B.C., U.S.A., Inc., met in Bowman Little Theatre, National Baptist Convention Sanatorium Bath House, Hot Springs, Arkansas, January 20-21, 1960. General Theme:

"The Only Hope—Christ for the World and the World for Christ"

Every officer and committee person present worked doubly hard to make the meeting a success, but, the climate was just not conducive of the inspirational and informational meeting we usually have when our President is able to be with us, altho she planned the program and sent it to us. Mrs. Mary O. Rom, First Vice President, presided.

There were two sessions daily and no evening sessions. Mrs. Lula M. Haynes, National Chairman of Worship Committee was in charge of worship. The worship theme being: "If We Would Win the Victory" Micah 6:8. At 10:20 A. M. Wednesday, January 20, tribute was paid to Mrs. Maude J. Brockway, Parliamentarian, who departed this life, Saturday, October 24, 1959. All persons stood in silence for two(2) minutes and then repeated "Death is the Golden Key that opens the palace of eternity." After which "Death is Only a Dream" was sung. The program followed as planned.

2. The National Sunday School and Baptist Training Union Congress met in Buffalo, New York, June 18-22, 1960. The 1960 Emphasis—Our Baptist Witness Through Education in an Emerging Age of Freedom. There were 6000 persons enrolled in classes. The 1961 meeting will be held in St. Louis Missouri.

Florida

One of the most inspiring and spiritual meetings it was my privilege to visit, was held by the Woman's Convention of Florida, Mrs. Susie C. Holley, President. The spirit of loving kindness was ever present.

The program was solid and challenging. The participants were prepared for their task and the entire meeting had the mark of thoughtful and strong leadership.

The Baptist World Alliance in Rio de Janeiro

Mr. John C. Slemp reporting in Missions American Baptist International Magazine states that:

"Thirty thousand Baptists from sixty-eight countries on six continents assembled in the 'Gymnasium Gilberto Cardoso, Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, Sunday afternoon, June 26, for the opening session of the Tenth Congress of the Baptist World Alliance.' It was stated that standing room was at a premium as the fifty-five year-old world organization met for the first time in the Southern Hemisphere. There were 12,800 registered delegates, 10,300 were from Brazil, 2,500 were from other countries.

The "Manifesto" adopted was as follows:

1. That God created man in his own image and endowed him with freedom to respond to his redemptive love;
2. That man is responsible to God for his religious belief and practice;
3. That religious faith and participation must be voluntary in order to be real.

We rejoice:

1. That God gives grace to endure oppression and to use freedom;
2. That friends of religious liberty are found in all Christian Communions;
3. That recent legislation in several countries is favorable to religious liberty

We earnestly desire:

1. That all forms of discrimination against religious minorities shall cease;
2. That all religious bodies shall make an unequivocal commitment to full religious liberty for all people;
3. That all nations shall guarantee the right of all citizens to believe, to worship, to teach, to evangelize, to change their religious affiliation; and to serve their God as their consciences dictate.

The Congress adopted a document which stated: "On the assumption that 'the Church is under mandate from its Lord to do God's will' and that God's will is reconciliation and peace' the document further suggested 'Some steps to bring about a united approach to God and our need at this very crucial hour in the history of mankind.'"

"Spelling out these suggestions, the document urged that all Baptists recognize the weakness and sinfulness of the human race, and seek their reconciliation with God and their fellow men; make or continue all possible efforts to secure a practical program" — — — and "keep aware of 'conditions of desperate need,' such as racial injustice and world hunger, and, in so far as possible, work for the solution of these problems; and recognize that Christians have spiritual resources that transcend national boundaries and political differences." Thus the Baptist World Alliance representing some 23, 000,000 Baptists in more than a hundred countries met the challenge of the age; Christians living as Christians or Christ-like.

Missions

The themes and publications for study in 1959-1960 are dramatically timely. Christians throughout the world have been studying Africa and better understand the hopes and fears of Africa. No other part of the world has had more notice in the daily press than Africa. "The Way in Africa" by George Carpenter and "Africa Disturbed," by Emory and Myrta Ross are widely acclaimed.

The study theme change for 1960-61, but in addition to studying them we must continue to study Africa, using the daily press, the current magazines and news-casts to keep us up to date. We must know. We must know Africa and its needs. We must know.

Future themes for Church-wide study are as follows:
 1960-61 Into All the World Together

1961-62 Heritage and Horizons in Home Missions
 The Christian Mission in Latin America
 Churches for New Times

Books recommended for the study of these themes may be secured by writing the Literature Department:

The Friendship Press States: Education for Mission

Everyone who follows Jesus Christ must proclaim his message. This proclaiming is the mission of the Church and education for mission is education for proclamation.

We must know what we proclaim. We must know those to whom we proclaim, and those with whom we proclaim.

We Must Know How to Proclaim

Education for mission involves us in a search for understanding of the Gospel of Jesus Christ. Education for mission leads us to acquaintance with other people, and their needs for the gospel, for food and clothing, for shelter, for schooling and healing, for encouragement, and for comfort.

It demands of us a recognition of our responsibilities for other people. It reveals to us ways of meeting our responsibilities for others and to God—ways that we may use as individuals, ways that require us to work together in a church, ways that require agents such as missionaries.

Education for Mission responds to our needs. For there are other Christians in other places, and they too proclaim the gospel.

Sometimes we learn from them new and better ways of proclamation. Sometimes they and we together proclaim the gospel, and there is benefit for both of us in working together. The more we work together, the more we realize that we belong together.

And we, as we come to understand others, develop new understandings of ourselves. As we discover, with others, what the gospel means to them, we discover new meanings for ourselves.

We learn that in proclaiming the gospel to others and with others, we proclaim it to ourselves.

A Year Closes

As I have visited national meetings, state conventions, district associations and local Churches, I am amazed at the work which the Baptist Women of this Convention are doing, with meager resources, with indifference on the part of "so-called Parent bodies" and in the face of discouraging circumstances. And yet altho there is growth there is much room for improvement. Most urgently we must ask ourselves, as every Christian disciple must ask himself no matter what he has called to do, "Are we fulfilling our Christian discipleship, faithfully, with and trusting daily in the grace of Almighty God for forgiveness of personal sins for failure and for shortcomings." You only have the answer.

The Corresponding Secretary has attended every required meeting and 1,478 letters, mailed 4,632 pieces of mail and traveled 6,218 miles. Any other statistical information which you desire will be found in the minutes.

If there are corrections to be noted please check them with the recording secretary and treasurer.

This is the 1959 report of the Corresponding Secretary of the Woman's Convention, Auxiliary to N.E.C. U.S.A., Inc. "We bring it to you, as we have already held it up before God, praying to Him and saying to you that we hope it is acceptable in His sight and yours."

Respectfully yours,
Esder Walker Tyree

RECOMMENDATION:

Mrs. Fama J. Haynes, Chairman

Philadelphia, Pennsylvania
September 10, 1960

The Sisterhood of the National Baptist Woman's Auxiliary Convention is completely satisfied with its leadership, and the fine program our President, Dr. Nannie H. Burroughs, and co-workers are promoting in the midst of sit-ins and kneel-ins and revolutionary wars every continent and our fight for civil rights.

Be it resolved that we as Christian Baptist Women close rank and blend our forces together and go forward with Christ as our Leader, realizing that we may have been brought to the throne for such a time as this.

Humbly submitted,

MINUTES OF MID-WINTER EXECUTIVE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF THE WOMAN'S CONVENTION, AUXILIARY TO THE National Baptist Convention, USA, Inc.

Held in the Little Bowman Theatre of the NATIONAL BAPTIST BATHHOUSE AND SANITORIUM—HOT SPRINGS, ARK.

January 18-19, 1961

Dr. Nannie Helen Burroughs, President
Mauddean Thompson Seward, Recording Secretary

January 14, 1961

TO THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Woman's Convention, Auxiliary
National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc.

My dear Co-Workers:

I was very anxious to come to Hot Springs for three definite reasons—

1. To enjoy the fellowship of kindred minds.
2. To join in dedicating ourselves to the plans for clearing THE RETREAT of debt and setting the NATIONAL YOUTH CAMP and SENIOR RETREAT in order.
3. I have in my mind and on my heart a plan for the ABRAHAM LINCOLN CELEBRATION.

This plan to me is a sacred responsibility. I have noted, with great concern and deep regret, that Negroes across the country are not thinking about or talking about the celebration year of the Great Emancipator.

I want our Convention to highlight the great event at our September meeting. I have several challenging ideas that can be made real. I shall need the cooperation of four or five highly talented women.

White Americans are planning to make the Lincoln Event grand and glorious. Negroes must not forget those who gave themselves ransom for the race. "Our forgettery" works over time.

What say you? about highlighting Lincoln's great deed.

Sincerely yours,

NANNIE H. BURROUGHS

The Recording Secretary brought up an item of unfinished business that had been left over from the National Convention in Philadelphia to be taken care of at the Mid-Winter Board of Directors' Meeting.—The election of Miss Primrose Funches as Western Director and Mrs. Correne Watts, Southern Director, was deferred until this meeting because Miss Funches was not there to speak for herself during the election in Philadelphia and Mrs. Correne Watts was not sure that she would be living in Florida as she had planned. After this explanation Mrs. M. T. Seward moved that Miss Primrose Funches and Mrs. Correne Watts would be elected as Western and Southern Directors respectively, seconded by many and unanimously carried.

40. The group stood and read the General Theme for the Board Meeting together:

"It is You and I together
In fellowship Divine
That will make the work of our Convention Challenging and Sublime."

- (2) Holy Ghost With Light Divine
- (3) The Lord's Prayer

- (6) The last stanza of Touch Me Lord Jesus, was sung.
- (7) The group sang, Oh, Oh, Oh, Somebody Touched Me.

46. Mrs. M. O. Ross emphasized the World Day of Prayer's seventy-fifth Anniversary. She told the story of how it came to be observed and asked us to participate February 17. She gave us the name of the pamphlet that would help us prepare for it—"There Came a Woman," based on John 4, by Myrtle Ross—United Church Women of the National Council of the Churches of Christ in the United States of America, 475 Riverside Drive, New York 27, New York, Price 50c.

47. Mrs. Ross asked Mrs. Esther W. Tyree to tell of the direct conversation that she had with Doctor Burroughs on yesterday (Wednesday) evening. She stated that our President said that she was trying to teach the women to center their interest around objectives instead of personalities. Also, that she wanted us to have many Fellowship Dinners to help the objectives.

48. Mrs. Ross wanted us to know about the Study Books around the world.

- (1) Home Missions: Heritage and Horizon With Guides.
- (2) Foreign Missions: Into All the World Together—One World, One Mission With Guides.

49. Mrs. R. C. Robinson presented two workers from Salt Lake City, Utah, Mrs. Monroe, Director of Institutes, and Mrs. Washington, who came to this meeting with her.

50. Mrs. S. C. Holley, Second Vice President was presented by First Vice President, Mrs. M. O. Ross, to preside over the completion of the Agenda beginning with Item number 5, Institutes. As there were no representatives on the committee present, Mrs. Holley asked the Recording Secretary, Mrs. Mauddean Thompson Seward, to tell us where we should place our emphasis in Home Missions and Race Relations in 1961.

51. The Recording Secretary said that in 1961, we should begin with ourselves by developing the right attitude so we can do our mission work without TINTING IT WITH COLOR. In the great cooperative study on Race Relations we should reach out for the human race for it is not only the Negro who needs to improve American life on all fronts, but people of all cultural background. We ought to believe this so strongly and make our teaching and reaching so dynamic that racial barriers will no longer exist and we shall concern ourselves about every lost soul being brought to Christ in this great Crusade.

52. Other speakers who volunteered to speak on the 1961 emphasis in Mission and Race Relations were:

- (1) Mrs. M. A. Young, Waukegan, Illinois, said that she was using the W.C.T.U. to integrate.
- (2) Mrs. S. C. Holley said that we should improve our conduct. This should be emphasized in pushing the Crusade.
- (3) St. Paul, Minnesota's representative, she said we should emphasize the worship spirit. Use more quietness in the Church.
- (4) Mrs. Williamson of Milwaukee, Wisconsin, said we should emphasize more individuality; Make ourselves at ease with white people; be proud, quiet, humble, soft spoken.
- (5) Mrs. Monroe asked the ladies to announce their names as she did not know them but wanted to carry the report back home correctly.

43. The Retreat for Foreign Missionaries to be paid for in 1961, was taken up. We owe $30,000.00 more on it, and what can we do to pay it out in 1961? Mrs. Ross said that she thought the Woman's Convention was organized in 1901, and that being true we could celebrate the 60 years by asking 600 women to give $50.00. We have 59 state conventions and 10 women out of each state to raise $50.00. Mesdames Ross and Holley were suggested to head the drive. Mrs. Kimp wanted us to say today that we could do it TODAY. The following women said they would give $50.00:

- (1) Mrs. Mauddean T. Seward
- (2) Mrs. Abbie C. White
- (3) Mrs. J. C. Austin, Memphis
- (4) Mrs. Irene Paige, Baltimore
- (5) Mrs. Corene Watts
- (6) Mrs. Mary J. Hill

44. It was voted and unanimously carried that the proposal to pay off the Retreat by getting 10 women from each State Convention to raise $50.00 each, be accepted.

45. It was voted: unanimously that the first and second vice presidents be special directors for this special drive, to be a recommendation to the president for approval.

46. Mrs. Alma Johnson of Mississippi General expressed her approval of this financial plan and pledged to give it her support.

47. Second Vice President Holley brought up the matter pertaining to our vote on yesterday's proceedings, and asked if we felt that it was regular or irregular to elect the Western and Southern Directors of the Young People's Department?

48. The Recording Secretary said that in the face of the record of proceedings in Saturday morning's session, and she quoted item 95 and 97 from the annual minutes in Philadelphia:

Item 95. "A motion prevailed that all officers who have not already been re-elected, be re-elected to themselves for the ensuing year, which was unanimously carried."

Item 97. "Since Miss Primrose Funches was not present to speak for herself and since Mrs. Corene Watts was living in Oakland, California, but planning to move to Florida, Mrs. O. P. Captain moved that the election of Miss Primrose Funches, Western Director, and Mrs. Corene Watts, Southern Director, be deferred until the January Board or the Mid-Winter Board of Directors Meeting. It was seconded by Mrs. Sarah Walker and unanimously carried."

49. With this information, Mrs. Holley said, "The chair rules that the Woman's Convention be governed by what was done yesterday."

50. It was moved by Mrs. Fama J. Haynes that we would rescind the motion, which was seconded and lost for support.

51. Mrs. Wilhelmina Cole of Cleveland, Ohio moved that the motion would be rescinded. It was seconded. These discussions followed:

(1) Mrs. Kilgore asked if a motion could be rescinded if the mover of the motion did not rescind her motion.

(2) Mrs. Holley asked the Recording Secretary if she would rescind her motion.

(3) The Recording Secretary said: "I will not rescind my motion because I am holding to the record of the voting that the Woman's Convention Auxiliary carried in the annual session in Philadelphia."

(4) Mrs. R. C. Robinson said that the record was the voice of the Woman's Convention Auxiliary to the National Baptist Convention, and the Board cannot dictate to the Convention what to do but the Convention can tell the Board what to do.

(5) Mrs. Ednah Lewis said, "Maybe Miss Burroughs made a mistake."

(6) Mrs. Tyree said that she did not think that was Miss Burroughs' thinking the way we took it.

(7) The Recording Secretary in answer to Mrs. Tyree: "I do not record the thinking, but I record the actions of the Convention." In answer to Mrs. Ednah Lewis, the Recording Secretary asked this question in defense of Dr. Burroughs: Do you think that with the President, Dr. Burroughs, presiding with as an alert mind as she has, and the parliamentarian sitting there on the platform at the same time, that if the voting were a mistake, that she would not have caught it, and also the Parliamentarian?

(8) Mrs. O. P. Captain, who made the motion in Philadelphia, said that she did not make the motion until she discussed it and had a thorough understanding of Dr. Burroughs' thinking, and when she asked Dr. Burroughs about making a motion, that Dr. Burroughs said that would be the proper thing to do.

(9) Mrs. Sarah Walker who seconded the motion in Philadelphia said that she had understood Dr. Burroughs just as Mrs. Captain did why she seconded the motion.

(10) Mrs. O. P. Captain said that she heard the ruling and we will be governed by what was done in the meeting on yesterday that Miss Primrose Funches and Mrs. Corene Watts will be elected as of yesterday.

55. This motion was lost, but Second Vice President said that a motion could be rescinded by anyone who voted for the motion.

56. First Vice President Ross wanted to know if we were organized in 1901. She directed her question to Mrs. V. Penick, former Secretary of the Woman's Convention, but she did not know. So the Recording Secretary, Mrs. Seward, asked Mrs. Ross if she might answer the question. Being granted the privilege of answering the question, Mrs. Seward quoted from the history of the Woman's Convention compiled by Mrs. E. Arlington Wilson:

"On September 15th, 1900 the women met in the Third Street Bethel A.M.E. Church in Richmond, Virginia, during the session of the National Baptist Convention and organized this Convention. The first annual meeting being held at the Mound Street Baptist Church, Cincinnati, Ohio, September, 1901. Mrs. Ross again spoke about the 40th anniversary."

59. National Trade and Professional School was brought to us by Mrs. Lessie Fortune, Trustee who announced that the chapel is completed in all details. The Chapel is so beautiful in all ways that when you first walk in you know that Dr. Burroughs talked to Dr. Jesus the Architect. The Dedication will be in June. It has a 350 seating capacity. It has an Organ and a Grand Piano on either side of the platform. The lower floor is for meetings. It is air-conditioned. The architect said Dr. Burroughs gave her plans so they had no trouble. The air-condition, and grand piano have to be paid for yet.

60. Our Young People's Department discussion was led by Mrs. Trudie Trimm who said that she had not heard from Mrs. Banks but she had heard from Dr. Burroughs. She spoke on behalf of the Camp. They had planned to open last summer but we did not open because we needed more money. The camp is most beautiful and hope to open it up this June. 63. A lady wanted to ask about literature, a magazine for the Young People and Miss Funches said that Miss Burroughs was working on it.

64. Mrs. Ross, First Vice President, presented Mrs. Holley to make a statement. She further said that Dr. Burroughs said that she had just received the information that some people were elected and quote: "I am resigning as of now because I cannot have any legislation like that." (End of Quote) Then Mrs. Holley said that is the reason I had asked for the recession of the motion. Miss Burroughs said that she will not accept the action that we have taken; she will will not accept what we have done.

65. Mrs. Tyree, Corresponding Secretary said that Miss Burroughs told her to keep her informed on all that's going on in the meeting and that was what she was doing.

66. The Recording Secretary, Mrs. Seward, said: "I feel that Dr. Burroughs has been misinformed on the proceedings. There seems to be a misplaced emphasis somewhere in the reporting. Mrs. Tyree, if you had all of this information as a background for your previous statements, why did you not let the body know of Dr. Burroughs' wishes? That would have possibly eliminated some of the discussions?" Mrs. Tyree stated that she did not have any advance information.

67. Mrs. Fama J. Haynes moved that we rescind the action concerning the election of the two officers, which was seconded and carried.

68. Mrs. Holley asked that the secretary notify Miss Burroughs about the action taken.

Not the waste that lies behind
Think of the service you may render
Not the ones you fail to find.
Think of the treasures you have gathered
Not serving self alone
Think of the happiness of others
And in this,
You will find your own.'

(4) Hymn: Blessed Assurance was sung by the group.

4. Mrs. Mary O. Ross, having been called out to the telephone, the second vice president, Mrs. S. C. Holley presided. She reaffirmed our hopes for the things we need to do. She spoke of the great program before us.

5. Mrs. Lillian Hall, president of the General State Convention of Indiana spoke on Unity and made a motion that Mrs. M. O. Ross take the place of the President until the annual session, which was seconded and unanimously carried.

6. Mrs. M. O. Ross returned and told us of the telephone call from Dr. J. H. Jackson President of the National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Inc., that he would be over as soon as he could after lunch, which would take about forty minutes. She asked us to return at six o'clock at which time Dr. Jackson would be present to continue the meeting.

7. Mrs. S. C. Holley suggested that we would start where we left off upon return, which was clarified to mean that we would not have another formal opening with devotion.

8. The meeting adjourned until six o'clock, so everyone could have dinner.

Mrs. Mary O. Ross, Acting President
 Mauddean Thompson Seward, Recording Secretary

NATIONAL TRADE AND PROFESSIONAL SCHOOL FOR WOMEN AND GIRLS, INC., WASHINGTON, D. C.

9. The Board of Directors of the Women's Convention Auxiliary to the National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Inc., was called to order by the Acting President, Mrs. Mary O. Ross, Thursday, May 25, 1961, in the Chapel at 6:00 P. M.

10. Mrs. M. O. Ross asked the ladies what they expected her to do. The replies were as follows:

(1) Carry out our President's wishes on World Fellowship Dinners, June 4, 1961.

(2) Finish paying for the Retreat.

(3) Finish paying for the Camp.

11. The Acting President said: "We will have to work hard to carry on the work. If we cannot have the dinner, let's do something in your community."

12. A Question: Will it be done by states?

Answer: Mistress Ross said that in Michigan, they will have the Districts to come together. You may do them individually if you wish.

13. A Question: If the dinner is done individually, will we do away with the fellowship?

Answer: "No, not exactly," said Mrs. Wilhelmina Cole of Cleveland, Ohio.

14. Mistress Ross stated that a committee on the program could be held at the Congress but we do not know now what to do.

15. Mrs. Rosa L. Kimp of Flint, Michigan, read a recommendation to erect a monument to Dr. Nannie Helen Burroughs, our late President, on the campus of the National Trade and Professional School. (The recommendation will be seen at the end of the minutes of this meeting.)

16. A motion was proposed by Mrs. Maple Gordon, President of the Western State Convention, seconded by Mrs. R. C. Robinson, President of the State Missionary Baptist Convention of Colorado, Wyoming, Utah, and Idaho, and unanimously carried.

17. Mrs. Elizabeth Thomas, President of the New England Convention stated that she felt that the New England had been left out. Our Acting President assured her that the Convention had been included with all the other States Conventions.

18. Dr. J. H. Jackson, President of our National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Inc., was presented to the Board of Directors by the Acting President, Mrs. Mary O. Ross.

19. Our President brought into focus the responsibility we have before us since the death of Dr. Nannie Helen Burroughs. He expressed appreciation to the women for the way they turned out to show respect for a fallen leader. He continued by saying, "We face the future with confidence." He told us that he had spoken to

Mrs. Mary O. Ross on Monday about this meeting to be held. He asked Mistress Ross the following questions:

(1) Do the leaders feel that they need assistance leading up to September? If so, they are available to work with us on any problem.

(2) Do you have your plans made before June? To the first question, the acting president answered: "We do not know where we are going, for many things we need to know." She answered the second question on this wise: "We have made no plans other than the women want us to act as president until September." She continued by saying: "We have need for money for the Retreat and the Camp. We had a Fellowship Dinner on to help pay off the indebtedness."

21. Doctor Jackson spoke on the Transition: "My own feelings are that ALL books are to be audited before September. As you come to responsibility have a certified Public Accountant to get a clear-cut statement and send a statement from the Auditor to the Board of Directors of the National Baptist Convention, U. S. A. Inc. We wish to know the assets (At this point, he paused for questions. There were none.) Our President continued: "As soon as you come to the transition period; as soon as you come into a new administration, have a statement of what the problems are and auditing the books come first. As soon as you can, have a meeting with the trustee board of this school and know what your rights are and what they are not; what relationship you sustain and what is your equity in this institution."

22. Mrs. Susie C. Holley, second vice president of the Woman's Convention said that Mistress Ross had a meeting on Monday to see the extent of our responsibility.

23. Doctor Jackson said that the things of which he spoke are so urgent that they should be placed on the priority list. He continued by saying: "You need to know what your responsibility is. The money is a good idea, but he reiterated the fact that these two things are very vital." The President asked again: "Do you feel that before September, as a group, you have need for a very close cooperation between what you are doing and what you need to do for September?"

24. The Acting President answered "No."

25. Dr. Jackson said: "The Board of Directors and the Parent Body will be listening out for the report. If you need the help of us we will give it, but if not, we will not." He continued by saying: "My interest during this interim is this: there shall be no great lag in our work. We want to see the whole program just as she did. If you need help, let us know."

26. A Question from the floor: Does that mean finance? Doctor Jackson said: "If your financial status is in need, we will get it for you; if you don't need it, don't ask."

27. Mistress Ross stated that it is necessary for us to think through some things. It seems like we will need a meeting in June. By that time we will know more about the work.

28. Doctor Jackson asked the Acting President what was the relationship between the Executive committee and the Board of Directors as it relates to the whole convention, to which she answered: "The Executive committee has the power to act in the absence of the Board of Directors whose quorum is fifteen while the quorum of the Executive committee is only five." She continued by saying that our work is clearly set forth between now and June and the Executive committee will meet in June.

29. Doctor Jackson said that in the light of this statement, should this body pass a vote to have the books audited of this Convention?

30. Mrs. Wilhelmina Cole of Cleveland, Ohio moved that the Board of Directors will have the books of the Woman's Convention audited, which was seconded and unanimously carried.

31. Doctor Jackson suggested that this meeting authorize a study committee to study with the trustees of the National Trade and Professional School, this institution, to ascertain our relationship with it.

32. Mrs. Susie C. Holley said that they met Monday and have a committee of three to meet the trustee Board of this Institution.

33. Our President said that the debts on our projects will be shown in our audit. He expressed his appreciation for our cooperation.

34. Doctor Jackson informed us that our meeting in Kansas City would be held in the same building with the Parent Body in the small auditorium. He further told us that a Jewish group would be using the small auditorium on Sunday and we would have to meet in another setting which would be worked out. He continued by saying: "We are looking forward to a great meeting in Kansas City for the auditorium has already been rented and has been paid for already. The contract is made to the parent body! He informed us that the Hotel wanted the late President to give list of officers to the committee in Kansas City, and since she is gone, Mrs. Ross will be asked to send them. She wanted to know to whom to send the names and Doctor told her to send them to Reverend Freeman and the Chamber of Commerce with a block of reservations. The official staff is to be in the same hotel."

35. A question was asked about the vice presidency by Mrs. Anderson as to whether the vice president at-large was a created office or a constitutional office, to which Doctor Jackson answered: "It is a constitutional office in the National, but I do not know about your state. You will have to read your state constitution."

36. Mrs. C. M. Pearson of Atlanta, Georgia asked that during the adjourned session in Hot Springs, Arkansas, would the same accommodation be extended to the women in getting reservations in the Bath house.

37. Doctor Jackson expressed sympathy for the workers and felt that the same courtesies should be shown the women. He asked that a list of the names of the Board of Directors be sent to Mr. Harris and he was sure that some consideration would be given the matter. The secretary was asked to send this list.

ONE WORD OF CAUTION: "I am speaking with all the authority of the President of the National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Inc. I want the women to use their talent to the best of their ability to carry on our work. Don't get cluttered up before you get to Kansas City. Do not let the side line bring in all kinds of candidates. Do not ever have anyone advising you. The only official advisors you have are the Parent Body."

38. Dr. F. D. Haynes, Pastor of Third Baptist Church, San Francisco, California, was presented. He greeted the group and expressed his delight to be present to share the going home of one of the greatest women God has made. He continued by saying, "As in the days of Moses, God has another Joshua to carry on." He further stated that the high tide of our coming to San Francisco would linger long in their memory. He felt that the Woman's Convention made a marvelous contribution to the women of that city.

39. Dr. Dixon of Buffalo, New York also brought greetings and assured us that he was with us all the way. At this time our President, Dr. J. H. Jackson, together with Mrs. Haynes and Dixon, bade us good-bye.

40. Mrs. Mary O. Ross recognized the presence of Rev. D. E. King of Louisville, Kentucky who brought greetings. He told how he came into the Woman's Convention work indirectly through Doctor Burroughs. He said we would never get rid of him. He said he will work with Mrs. M. Ross just as he did with Miss Burroughs.

41. Rev. A. A. Banks, Jr., President of the Wolverine State Convention of Michigan, was presented to bring greetings. He stated how proud he was of the women's work and expressed his deepest appreciation for the Rosses who had meant so much to him. He asked the women not to do like the men for they would eventually work out their differences."

42. Rev. D. E. King came back to the floor and advised the women not to become confused over what the men were doing, and that he wanted the women to carry on their Convention.

43. Mrs. M. O. Ross stated that she was shifting the office of president from Washington to Detroit, but do not send her any money; always send all monies to the treasurer, Mrs. Margery B. Gaillard, 601 North First Street, Birmingham, Alabama.

44. Mrs. S. C. Holley asked if the committee would be appointed to meet with the trustee board on tomorrow as they were meeting.

45. Rev. D. E. King confirmed the meeting of the trustee board on tomorrow and stated that the Woman's Convention had three members on the trustee board already and they could serve as the committee.

46. The acting president had a show of hands of those who were members. Mrs. Lessie H. Fortune, Washington, D. C. Mrs. Rosa L. Kemp, Flint, Michigan and Mrs. Fannie B. Shaw, Anadarko, Oklahoma.

48. A motion prevailed to let these three women be our committee to investigate and find out the status of the school as it relates to the Woman's Convention, which was met with some unreadinesses that follow:

- (1) Mrs. L. S. Weatherspool of Atlanta, Georgia said that there should be members other than these who are not members of the trustee board.
- (2) Mrs. Zee Anderson Barron, Mound Bayou, Mississippi, said that Mrs. Mary O. Ross should be on the committee, which was sanctioned by Mrs. R. C. Robinson of Denver, Colorado.

49. Mrs. S. C. Holley amended the motion to include the name of Mrs. L. S. Weatherspool.

50. Mrs. Ednah Lewis added the names of the Acting President and corresponding Secretary, Mrs. M. O. Ross and Mrs. Esther Walker Tyree, respectively.

51. Mrs. A. A. Banks, Jr., added the name of the treasurer, Mrs. M. B. Gaillard.

52. Mrs. Lurline Trotter added the name of the recording secretary, Mrs. Mauddean Thompson Seward.

53. The Amendments and motion were unanimously carried.

54. Mrs. Willa M. Grimes of Detroit, Michigan wanted to know about the Camp Committee.

55. Mrs. S. C. Holley asked Mrs. A. A. Banks, Jr., to give them a statement about the Camp committee.

56. Mrs. A. A. Banks, Jr., Chairman of the National Youth Camp and Senior Retreat Committee, said that a few of the trustees of the Camp met today, but she could not make a statement at this time.

57. The recording secretary asked for the time and place of the trustee board meeting; and for the names of the trustees for the National Youth Camp and Senior Retreat.

58. The time and place of the meeting were given for 2:00 P. M. tomorrow and in the music room of the girls' dormitory. Mrs. A. A. Banks, Jr., said she would send the names of the trustees to the recording secretary as she did not have the list with her.

59. Mrs. Rosa L. Kimp reopened the discussion on the Monument to the late Doctor Burroughs. She said that she was free to go to work but she wanted to know to whom to make the checks payable for the monument for Michigan had her check, Alabama had her check, and California has her money to bring in to the annual session.

60. The Acting President told the ladies that Mrs. Rosa Kimp was the chairman of this project and any information they wanted concerning it, just write her for it.

61. Mrs. F. B. Shaw said that Oklahoma wanted to do something but did not know what, but she was glad to find out something definite they could do and was going back home and send the money for the project. She further stated that she was glad of the transition.

62. Mrs. Rosa L. Kimp said that the money would be sent directly to the treasurer for this project.

63. Mrs. S. C. Holley asked for a clarification on the idea of the committee for this project.

64. Mrs. M. O. Ross named the official committee as follows:

Mrs. Rosa L. Kimp, Flint Michigan, Chairman
Mrs. Margery B. Gaillard, Alabama
Mrs. Susie C. Holley, Florida
Mrs. L. S. Weatherspool, Georgia
Mrs. Lurline Trotter, Illinois
Mrs. Augusta A. Shaw, Ohio
Mrs. Ruth E. Price, West Virginia

65. Mrs. Rosa Kimp asked if there would be any volunteers to work on it.

66. Mrs. Cassielle Davis, Waukegan, Illinois, volunteered her services. She said that she was interested from the local church point of view.

67. Mistress Green asked if this committee would be like the other committees with a chairman and co-chairman, et cetera.

68. The Acting President assured her that it would not be because this committee was going to get this job done immediately.

69. Mrs. Zee Anderson Barron representing Mrs. E. D. McGowan, President of the General Baptist Women's Convention of Mississippi pledged her support.

70. Mistress Ross said that she did not know what the committee was going to do, but there is an interfaith building in New York where many are having rooms dedicated, and we ought to have a room dedicated to our President.

71. Mistress Tyree said that Ohio had dedicated a room for $1800.00.

72. The question was asked as to how long would you have to pay for a room.

73. The Acting President could not answer this question but would find out.

74. Mrs. M. O. Ross thanked all the women for their cooperation.

75. Mrs. S. C. Holley reminded us to pay for the Camp and the Retreat.

76. Mrs. Willa M. Grimes asked us to extend thanks to Mrs. Hawkins and the school for courtesies extended by the District, and Mrs. Lessie Fortune.

77. Mrs. L. S. Weatherspool moved that we extend our appreciations to Mrs. Lessie Fortune and the District of Columbia for the courtesies, which was seconded and carried with this addition that the motion would include the National Trades and Professional School.

78. Mrs. Lula Haynes expressed her personal appreciation also to Mrs. Lessie Fortune.

79. Mrs. Carter's presence was recognized.

80. Rev. A. A. Banks, Jr., closed the meeting with prayer and benediction.

Mrs. Mary O. Ross, Acting President

It may be said that the function of the church is (1) to interpret religion through study classes, sermons, lectures, interest groups, literature and such other means as will make the total an essential part regarding religion and its meaning for life. (2) To provide worship and training in the devotional life through various ways of worship services. Training in worship for all age groups in the church. (3) To promote and enrich the fellowship of Christians through every means available and for all ages. (4) To extend the fellowship to include an ever increasing love of people through recruiting evangelism mission and similar activities. (5) To provide incentive training and opportunity for individuals to participate in efforts to improve society. (6) To aid individuals through care for their physical needs, pastoral, ministry and personal counseling as they require in their infinite variety of needs. Rev. Pollard presented to us Mr. Fred Taylor Director of International Students Inc.

Mr. Gabuial Achar, Ghana, Mr. John Oh, Korea, Miss Lenese Dade, America, Mr. John Taske Mine, Japan, all spoke a different broken English. All have been taught in a different manner. Think in different words but after all these differences they summed up the Symposium with these thoughts: "We are all able to worship together, pray together, love together and live together."

"Sing together because of the 'Father' because of this Spirit that ties one to another because we are 'Out of One Blood.' Out of One Blood God created man." This was indeed an inspiring session!

Before our noonday message we were favored with two very timely songs. Two singing testimonies, "I Know it was the Blood for Me," and "I Want Jesus to Walk With Me." Mrs. Dorothy Durbin and Miss Margaret Patterson.

Our noonday message "Out of One Blood," guest speaker Miss Jeremiah A. Wright, Professor of Mathematics, Georgetown High School, Philadelphia, Pa. Mrs. Wright told our youth where to go, how to get there and what to do after they got there. She was an excellent speaker!

Shouldst Thou take my life or spare it
I that life to Thee resign.

Our noonday message was brought to us by Rev. Suh Ohm, substituting for Dr. Robert Denny, Youth Secretary, Baptist World Alliance. Our speaker spoke to us reverently with the use and the spirit of the Lord, to instill within our minds and hearts the love of God and God's peoples all over the world. We were enlightened on the work of the Baptist behind the Iron curtain.

He told of the faith of those gone on before. Who were persecuted but despite their persecution, kept the faith as they hung on the crosses, drowned in the floods, suffered under the claws and teeth of ferocious animals. They were faithful to the word of God until the end, as we today must do. He can and will deliver us to salvation if we keep the faith even though persecuted.

Rev. Ohm closed his message to us after leaving this thought; "We can win the world if we start with ourselves prepare ourselves for God."

The re-dedication charge was offered by Rev. Robert Patterson, Washington, D. C. We formed the great circle singing "Just as I Am." With hands locked, and held high the session closed with "God Be With You 'Till We Meet Again."

ANNUAL REPORT OF EASTERN DIRECTOR YOUNG PEOPLE'S DEPARTMENT WOMAN'S CONVENTION

Auxiliary National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc.

September 6-11, 1960

BERTHA C. WINSTON

President Burroughs, Officers, Members of the Board and Delegates to the 1960 Session of the Woman's Convention, Greetings:

Our National Directors, Counselors and Young People's Delegates from all sections of our country, are happy to accept the hospitality of the State of Pennsylvania and the great city of Brotherly Love, while the leaders of our Baptist Fellowship are planning for our next year's work. Looking back—we must say we have come a long way.

The ideals of the Young People's Department which spell out the future of the Woman's Convention are set and nourished at their annual sessions. To our Heavenly Father we are grateful.

It has been my greatest joy and privilege to accept my full duty in helping in the training of our young people in the Christian way of life. Realizing that a noble example must be set of what it means to be a Christian; what the Christian Religion can do for us; and in turn what both adult and youth can do for others—constant thought is "This Changing World's Challenge to the Christian Church." God could not have given us a greater trust. To this end we have done our best.

The following lines come to me as one of the greatest questions of our day:

"Church of the Living God, Where are your Children?
With trusting heart I placed them in your fold
They were a gift to keep you nearer heaven,
Where are they? For the night is growing cold"

THIS CHANGING WORLD

In the last five years, we have seen greater changes than one has ever known. Mobility being the keynote. Older tenants of our cities have moved to new developments. Building programs have given rise to new homes, new schools, churches, Social Agencies, etc.

Parents who had trained children for the dependence felt they had succeeded too well when youngsters took the privilege of adulthood without its maturity. Juvenile delinquency complaints mounted, crimes of violence increased, along with many other teen-age problems.

Television, whether friend or foe, entered the home of the nation in the 1950's, and displaced the patterns of prior life. It was welcomed as a means of communieducation and opened new doors to Music, Drama, History, Geography and Science. It brought the peoples of other nations into American homes; it has helped in the "Back to Church" movement which has reached new highs in church attendance. But we lament the presentation of crime and violence it often portrays.

The changes have been rapid, as a result of this rapid change, youth faces a greater challenge, extra years of educational preparation, Christian fortitude to compete in the world of sputniks and in the midst of all these changes youth must keep for eternal values, freedom and dignity. Where all children can walk safely hand in hand in faith, trust and equal opportunity.

THE FAMILY, OUR MAJOR CONCERN

The decade just passed has witnessed an intense interest in the family. From this interest the view has emerged that the family is important because it shapes us all.

It determines the kind of people tomorrow's citizens will be. The family has been, is, and always will be the most powerful influence in the development of personality and character. After all, determines what tomorrow will be.

In a true family, children must learn the essential standards of judgment—how to tell the important things, how to distinguish the true, the excellent and the right, how to speak rightly and listen with courteous love, and how to accept others on the same basis. Like life itself and the grace of God, it comes without earning or deserving it but is a precious preparation for useful adulthood.

THE "SHOOK UP" GENERATION

THEY speak of the younger "shook up" generations. Ever think of a "shook up" world? This generation of youth face a great social change in a world situation. It is an unparalleled instance as to what is happening to our youth.

MOBILIZATION

Over four million people have fled the rural into the cities. Some reasons: unrest, some conditions, family conditions, community and our constant social injustices. This shift meant—seeking better living conditions, better health, from poor to better physical environments, better opportunity for economical, physical and racial development.

JUVENILE PROBLEMS

Juvenile delinquency continues to attract wide attention and to arouse deep concern. What is Juvenile Delinquency? A child who comes in contact with the law enforcement agency. A child who because of some conflict, internal or external factor is behaving in a way that brings him into conflict with the society of which he is a part. Juvenile delinquency affects all of us either directly or indirectly and has become a problem of such proportions that only a major and sustained effort by the people can stem the tide. In 1957 statistics report over 1700,000 youngsters, ten to seventeen years age group came to the attention of law enforcement agencies. The question is, Why children become delinquent? In short, many factors contributing to delinquent behavior are known. Among them—insecurity, inadequacy and frustration. For prevention of delinquency, we can hope for success only to the extent that certain ideals, geared to the actual, not idealized, meet the needs of the children and youth they serve.

The "three great institutions" are the Home, the School and the Church. The Home is undoubtedly the most important in determining the course of a child's life. Whether for good or ill.

The church should be a logical and ideal place for the child to find the recognition of his own worth and dignity, that he needs so badly. The church can do much toward the prevention of delinquent behavior through working directly with the child, by helping him through his parents, and by promoting understanding of the differences of other human beings.

The school has a unique opportunity to serve as a first line of defense, by accepting its responsibility for more than the child's formal academic education—by understanding him and his problems rather than mishandling him and his problems.

Who comes First? Youth of today—Who comes first? Would you prefer to be among people who had love for you and were interested in your welfare or among people who love only themselves and would not hesitate to further their own interests at your expense? Most likely you would prefer the first group. Among them you would have a feeling of security and of being wanted, which is a basic human desire. But while admiring the first group and wanting to be among them do you live like the second group? Do you selfishly think of yourself first, failing to show love for others? You cannot expect to receive love if you are unwilling to give it.

Extreme selfishness is one of the basic causes for lack of trust, harmony, security and peace among the peoples of the world. The attitude that seems very general is to be interested in no one but "number one," or one's self. In some places this selfish attitude creates such a struggle for personal profit and advantage that it is spoken of as "dog eat dog." In other words, there is no love or concern for other people, but like a vicious, hungry dog each person is out to get all he can for himself. Because others live this way it does not mean you have to . . . when self-love exceeds reasonable limits it becomes selfishness.

There can be no happiness in a marriage union when one or both partners fail to keep self-love within reasonable limits. Instead of uniting, selfishness divides.

Keep in mind that the material things you seek in order to satisfy fleshy desires, do not last. They pass away with use. It is utter folly to give to the things you eat, drink wear or find pleasure in, the first place in your life. Leave aside then, excessive love for self and for the material things that surround you. Think rather, of the happiness that will accrue by living amongst people who work together unselfishly.

Ten rules for Teenage Christians:

Discover—God's will for your life through Bible reading—Prayer. "Doers" as well as "Hearers" of God's will.

Accept—All persons as children of God remembering God's love for all mankind.

Honor—Respect your elders, all who have authority.

Seek—the truth, live according to the truth as you discover it.

Present—Reveal your Christian Principles in your daily life.

Attend—Regularly the church of your choice.

Be true—To all who put their trust in you.

Maintain—An open mind, willing spirit.

Humble—Humility, before God and men is the Christian attitude to develop.

Dedicate—Your time and talent to God, putting God first and self last.

My Activities

My activities during the past year have been directed toward soliciting funds for the National Camp. I have written more than five hundred letters and appeals for funds to help pay for the beautiful camp of which we are so proud. I have spoken before many conferences and conventions—putting an urgent appeal for the work including a Dinner Meeting at the Y.W.C.A.

The following Mission Study Classes were under my direction:

Shining Star Baptist Church, Chase, Md. At this conference six other churches from nearby cities were in attendance. Much joy was expressed by those attending.

Zion Baptist Church, Hagerstown, Md. Very largely attended.

Mt. Zion, Harve de Grace, Md. Fine group was present.

One Day Conference—Corner Stone, Brooklyn, New York.

I had the good fortune to be selected by the Governor of my State, Invited by President Dwight D. Eisenhower, to be a delegate to the 1960 Golden Anniversary White House Conference; on Children and Youth. At the call of the President of the U.S.A., 1,600 delegates came to Washington to be a part of this conference to study ways for the improvement of education of youth; the control of juvenile delinquency; strengthening the moral and religious and physical fiber of tomorrow's citizens. Further, to be aware of existing problems in Education, problems in the Home and in youths' relationships to the community and problems at hand which are great with frustration. These to be used as a gauge of success for the future.

The major purpose of those conferences was to assess the needs and conditions of children so that they may have the opportunity to grow into healthy, happy adults, to take their places as responsible citizens. The conference considered: "Children in a Changing World."

Forums

Eighteen Forums featuring speakers and panelists who presented facts and issues of the Forum topics against the background of the focus for the day. The foci were:

"Surveying What We Know
Surveying What We Do
Blueprint for the Future."

This was a great conference, chuck full of statistics and information and assemblies where appraisals of our ideals and values in a changing world focus on the impact on Economic and social and cultural factors of children and youth with suggestions for the future.

Recommendations

I recommend that the importance of personal religious faith be commended to children and youth everywhere. And that programs of all churches and other organizations which are directly concerned with the building of character and the developing of values in children and youth be expanded. That children and youth become more involved in life, worship, discussion, study and service of the religious community. Giving them opportunities for participation in decisions and responsibilities in carrying out those programs expecting significant contributions of service from them. Such as activities in relieving racial, religious and national tensions and bringing about a will to brotherhood and peace.

2. I recommend that organizations working with children and youth strengthen and support, give guidance and counsel to parents and families in their primary responsibility of nurturing moral, spiritual and ethical values.

3. I recommend that our Convention start immediate plans for Annual Summer Conferences (Regional or Otherwise) for youth and adult participation in presentations of guided discussions, ethical and moral practices, Religious beliefs, and Citizenship obligations. Sound principles and responsibilities of family life. And that youth must be encouraged to recognize the key role of the family in determining the ethical standards of the next generation.

The Road Ahead

Churches must be more concerned for giving our youth strong religious convictions and ideals. There must be a new concern about the training of the minds of our youth. Spiritual values must be brought into the daily lives of our youth. A distinct course in basic ethics must be more diligently taught—not to just exhort our youth to be good—But Tell Them How to Go About It.

ANNUAL REPORT OF MRS. CORENNE WATTS SOUTHERN DIRECTOR, N.B.C., INC., U.S.A.

President Burroughs, Officers, Messengers and Friends of the Woman's Convention, Auxiliary of the National Baptist Convention, Inc., U.S.A., I greet you in the name of the Heavenly Father.

It is with joy and gratitude that I give my annual report as Southern Director of the Young People's Department for 1959-1960.

All of us live our lives with a sense of the desperation of our times. These are indeed bewildering and fateful days. As we look out over the earth it seems as though fold after fold of the curtain of life is falling upon the civilization of the world. Each day brings new challenges to the Christian peoples of the world and we find ourselves renewing constantly through prayer the fellowship of God's presence, reaffirming that our lives are in keeping with God our Maker.

Many times during my twenty years of service to this cause, have I had to renew and reconsecrate myself as challenge after challenge faced and tried my fortitude as a servant of the most High. I could not have succeeded without being on God's side and He at mine. Each year had its problems and varied experiences. But this past year has been one that seems to be a very testing one because of the illness and demise of my dear beloved husband. Through it all God has been my shield and buckler, and I have become stronger in the faith because through it all God has been very near and dear to me. My awareness that all things work together for good to them that love the Lord, to them that are called according to His purpose, has never so keenly been revealed before as now. Surely we can witness through experience that "They that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength; they shall mount up on wings like eagles, they shall run and not be weary, they shall walk and not faint."

It is all good and well for adults to realize the foregoing truths—but what about our young people?

The world for them is a battle ground in a global struggle for the material things of life. Young people every where are haunted by a spectre of science in ungodly bonds. Even children sense the attitude, insecurity, fears and anxieties of the adults because materialism has become the measuring stick of success.

The crying need of this hour is for a flaming evangelism. We must do something now for no one can be sure what lies ahead in this world of time. The great need of youth and their leaders is a program of higher education that will bring about higher standards of living with a deeper sense of understanding the Spirit of the Christ and His program for Christian living. An understanding of humanity and its oneness, regardless of race, creed, or color. The spirit of love must permeate every act of living in the home, school, church and community. These needs must be taught and only through consecrated, dedicated leadership that from experience knows that God has stamped His approval on their zeal for the work—true witnesses that live by constant prayer, teach by experience and through faith and confidence press on toward the goal of making the world a better place in which to live.

Three great areas must be considered today if we are to meet the challenges that are presented daily in the lives of those we strive to lead. They are the mental, spiritual and social conditions of our young people. In visiting the mental institutions across the nation we see that youth from the early teens to twenty-five years make up the population majority in these places. In our public schools more classes for retarded children are being added yearly. Spiritually, the youth are becoming less conscious of the real meaning of "God is a Spirit and they that worship Him must worship Him in spirit and in truth." Socially, the moral standards are greatly lowered because of the liquor and narcotic traffic, and such like across the nation, because adults are condoning and sponsoring these issues by being the mediums through which our young people obtain these demoralizing and character breaking materials. Would to God that all our leaders realize the great challenge of these conditions and renew again their covenant with God to teach and preach that Jesus Christ is Lord. He has the answer.

My fellowship with the Baptist Women of America has been most inspirational, and gratifying. It has brought joy to my heart. Knowing service to a just cause rewards the worker with more satisfaction than any other venture of life.

My service has been in local, district, state and National Baptist Conventions under the leadership of the following women as presidents: State and National, Mrs. M. A. B. Fuller, National President, N.B.C. of America; Mrs. J. L. Bradley, who serves this new era of the State of Alabama; Mrs. Albert Smith, President of Alabama Baptist W.M.U. St. Convention; Miss Mary Essie Stephens, Executive Secretary, Selma University; Dr. James Owens, President. Also Mrs. C. A. Hendricks, President, Mississippi Bapt. St. Convention and Mrs. H. M. Gibbs, President, Alabama St. Convention, last but not least Dr. Nannie H. Burroughs President National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc.

As a worker in the Southern States we have been permitted to share in four interracial meetings, forty-seven Missionary Institutes, organized eighteen Youth Conferences and serve as Director of the Alabama Baptist Youth Encampment for three weeks at Camp Pauline Brag Fletcher with 277 campers. In Georgia with 18 campers. In the Sunday School and B.T.U. Congress I served as an instructor and in the National S. S. and B.T.U. Congress served on the Classification Committee. Time and space would not permit me to recount all that I have done in my local area. I served when called upon whenever possible and the calls were many. In each instance I tried to present a program designed to develop and demonstrate the use of creative ability among the youth with special emphasis on enlistment and vocations that will lead them into a fuller Christian service with greater efficiency. Always using the five "Ships: Membership, Fellowship, Friendship, Fellowship and Leadership.

It is gratifying to know that my work is appreciated by those whom I served. For twenty years of service with the young people of Alabama Baptist, your humble servant was presented an engraved silver tray at a tea in my honor. A certificate of Recognition was received from the Zeta Beta Sorority of Christian Women. The youth of Mississippi and Arkansas presented citations. The Youth of Mobile presented a "This Is Your Life" Program for me and the Alabama Women's Missionary Union (white) presented a resume of my work with them for 18 years and a Citation. Many other gifts and citations have been received and I am grateful to God and my fellowmen because it took cooperation with God and man to work successfully.

Youth of the Southern States are not disturbed as to the outcome of the race problems because they realize that this has existed for years. The 37th Psalm is a reassuring one for times like these for it tells us of God's promise that if we trust in the Lord and do good and delight in doing His will, He will meet our every need and succor us in the times of distress. The young people of the Southern States have been encouraged and inspired to go forward and know no fear, because the love of God has urged them to integrate their lives around the will of God. They are not afraid of suffering nor ashamed, because Jesus is Lord. They know what can break and what seems to pull them back, this was truly evidenced in the Young People's Appeal for the Rights of Human Dignity during the recent strife throughout the country. Without the Spirit of God within them, they could not have bound together to cry out against injustices to humanity.

The only ray of hope which comes to them is the cheering message given in First Corinthians: "Love suffereth long, and is kind; Love envieth not; Love vaunteth not itself is not puffed up."

The natural courses of suffering and hated violence can be broken only by meeting these experiences with a Christ-like love.

It should be our privilege, not a drudgery, to direct and mold the youth into well integrated citizens of our world so that all may one day stand and sing with out one jot or tittle of contradiction:

In Christ there is no East or West,
In Him no South or North;
But one great fellowship of love,
Throughout the whole wide earth.

With this blessed assurance.

The people that do know their God shall be strong and do exploits. Dan. 11:32.
Seeing that God giveth to all life, and breath and all things:

And hath made of one blood all nations of men for to dwell on all the face of the earth. For in him we live, and move, and have our being. Acts 17:26, 27.

To this end—I sincerely pledge my support to the work and the workers of the Young People's Department.

Prayerfully submitted,

CORENNE WATTS

FINANCIAL REPORT

To Our Honored President Burroughs, Officers and Messengers of the Women's Convention, Auxiliary, N.B.C., U.S.A., Inc. Greetings:

I do bring you my sincere greetings as we face the responsibilities of the 1960 Annual Session. I feel very humble as I submit the financial report of Mrs. H. M. Gibbs for the past year.

"Be Thou Faithful Unto Death and I will give thee a Crown of Life."

Before making the report, I wish to pay tribute to an outstanding Christian Woman who has made a meaningful contribution to the Kingdom work. A woman of vision—who was faithful, loyal, trustworthy and had the courage to stand on her conviction. She has been a tower of strength not only in the State of Alabama, the South, but in the Woman's Convention, Auxiliary, N.B.C., U.S.A., Inc. where she labored efficiently for many years.

We are indeed grateful for having fellowship with this noble character. As she now rests on her bed, where she has been for six months,—May the God of love who passeth all understanding give her the patience, the peace, the courage and the love to endure to the end.

1. The Executive Committee of the Woman's Convention Auxiliary to the National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Inc., was called to order by the Acting President, Mrs. Mary O. Ross, Monday morning, June 19, 1961, at 10:00 o'clock with the majority of the members present.

2. Those present were:

- (1) The Acting President, Mrs. Mary O. Ross
- (2) The Vice President, Mrs. S. C. Holley
- (3) The Recording Secretary, Mrs. Mauddean Thompson Seward
- (4) The Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Esther Walker Tyree

Those absent were:

- (10) Mrs. F. A. Chappelle, who sent a letter of regret that she could not be present, but a previous engagement had prevented her coming.
- (11) Mrs. Mary E. Hubbard sent a telegram of regret for not being able to attend.
- (12) Mrs. J. C. Woods sent a telegram of regret for not being able to attend due to the illness of her husband.

3. Prayer was led by the Acting President, Mrs. Mary O. Ross.

4. The purpose of the meeting was stated as follows by Mrs. Mary O. Ross:

- (1) To study status of the Woman's Convention and how to proceed to carry on the meeting to present to the Board of Directors of the Parent Body.

 (2) Making of the program for the annual meeting at Kansas City, Missouri in September.

5. The Acting President, after having the recording secretary to read the names of the Executive Committee several times, asked the committee if they had any objections to Miss Primrose Funches's presence. There being none, Mrs. Mary O. Ross made her welcome to participate in the meeting.

6. Miss Primrose Funches thanked her, and was reminded us that had not been notified that she was not a member of the Executive Committee any longer therefore she had a right to be there which was very well taken. She reiterated the fact that she had been a member of this committee for a long time.

7. Mrs. Margery B. Gaillard, the Treasurer, stated that the books had been audited on June 7. She closed the books on March 31, as directed by Doctor Burroughs for the reason that all women wanted their names reported in this meeting.

8. Mrs. M. B. Gaillard made the financial report which will be seen at the close of these minutes. She also stated that she was looking for the Auditor's report to come in at any minute, and that it would be read as soon as it reached the meeting.

9. The Acting President took up the matter of expense accounts and Honoraria, et cetera. She stated that the Board of Directors had the power to recommend the honoraria and asked the officers to be as lenient as possible and get by on what was reasonable. At one time we were given $1.00 per diem which did not include taxi fares. We have had two meetings which had no honoraria. What shall we allow for an honorarium for each officer of the Woman's Convention and the Young People Department?

10. Mrs. S. C. Holley suggested that the honorarium be set by Mrs. A. A. Banks, Jr., that $15.00 per diem should be the ceiling for each officer, which was carried.

12. The recording secretary asked for a listing of the present honoraria for each officer and the recommended honorarium which was done as follows:

Officers	Present Honorarium	Recommended Honorarium
President	$2400 00	$3600 00
First Vice President	250 00	600 00
Second Vice President	145 00	500 00
Recording Secretary	600 00	1000 00

YOUNG PEOPLE DEPARTMENT

National Director of Young People Department	175 00	400 00
Eastern Director	125 00	200 00
Western Director	125 00	200 00
Southern Director	125 00	200 00

13. The treasurer stated that the honoraria were paid out of the general operation expense, which came from registrations, et cetera. Last year our general operation expense fund was $11,000.00.

14. Miss Funches passed a discussion on the responsibilities of the corresponding secretary and the recording secretary. She felt that the recording secretary had more responsibility the whole year round than the corresponding secretary and should have a larger honorarium. Miss Funches suggested $1100.00 for the recording secretary and leave $1000.00 for the corresponding secretary, but Mrs. Tyree stated that she had as much responsibility as the recording secretary and that they should have the same. At this point the recording secretary asked that the salaries remain the same in order to carry the meeting forward.

15. Mrs. A. A. Banks, Jr., suggested that the National Youth Director be raised from $175.00 to $400.00 per year and the regional directors be raised from $125.00 to $150.00 per year which was objected by the recording secretary upon the basis that the raises were too far out of proportion—to raise one $225.00 and the other three $25.00. Therefore, the executive committee recommended each regional director $200.00 per year instead of $150.00.

16. It was moved by Mrs. S. C. Holley, seconded by Mrs. Esther Tyree that the recommended honoraria would be recommended to the Board of Directors in September, which was carried.

17. The National Trade and Professional School for Women and Girls, Inc., Washington, D. C., was discussed and its relationship to the Woman's Convention and our equity in it. The Acting President had the recording secretary to read a portion of the Last Will and Testament of Doctor Burroughs and the letter from her attorney from Washington which concerned our status: Quotes from both respectively:

(1) LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF NANNIE HELEN BURROUGHS:

SECOND: (f):

To Woman's Convention Auxiliary, National Baptist Convention, Inc., to be used for the upkeep of the Retreat for Foreign Missionaries, 1022 Maryland Avenue, N. E., Washington, D. C., One Thousand Dollars ($1000.00). (I here comment that without stint I have given my entire life to the Woman's Convention and have proudly built it and watched it grow from the humblest beginning to world service and security). The School was chartered by order of the Woman's Convention to be operated by a board of trustees selected out of the membership of the Woman's Convention. Because of this legal security and assured permanency of operation, it is the responsibility of the Woman's Convention to give regular and generous support. Let no differences and changes defeat this legal and moral responsibility. (end of quote).

(2) QUOTE FROM ATTORNEY GEORGE E. C. HAYES' LETTER:

"From the information which I have been able to obtain, The National Trade and Professional School for Girls, Inc., is an incorporated body, created under the laws of the District of Columbia. The By-laws provide for a board of twenty-four (24) members, nine (9) of whom the Woman's Convention is given the opportunity to designate. This seems to be the form of equity which the Convention is given the opportunity to designate. This seems to be the form of equity which the Convention has in the school. Incidentally, the by-laws indicate sources from which membership on the Board of the School is to be drawn, and the nine (9) allotted to the Woman's Convention is the largest representation given any of the component groups. I happen to know personally that Miss Burroughs very much desired that the Convention would assume and exercise an interest in the School. She evidences this by the expression in her will (a copy of which I am enclosing for your information).

18. It was announced that the Summer Institute of the National Trade and Professional School for Women and Girls, Inc., will go on as planned. We were informed further that the chairman of the trustee Board is from Tulsa, Oklahoma. (Mrs. Taft Peavy, Chairman of Trustee Board). The trustees will meet the first day of July. The members from the Woman's Convention who are already on the trustee board are Mesdames Lessie Fortune, Fannie Shaw, Rosa Kimp and Fannie Cobbs Carter.

19. Mrs. Esther Tyree reminded us that an additional five members were appointed in Washington, D. C., and they should be in the meeting. The Acting President said that would be too many. Miss Funches suggested that it would not be wise to do anything until the annual session. Mrs. Tyree further stated that in the light of what Dr. Jackson was expecting from us—a definite statement—it is important that the committee meet with the trustee board.

20. The recording secretary was asked to read the list that was appointed in Washington, D. C.

21. The five additional people named in Washington, D. C., to study with the trustee board of the status of the school and our relationship with it as the Woman's Convention were as follows:

- (1) Acting President, Mrs. Mary O. Ross, Detroit, Michigan
- (2) Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Esther Walker Tyree, Columbus, Ohio
- (3) Treasurer, Mrs. Margery B. Gaillard, Birmingham, Alabama
- (4) Recording Secretary, Mrs. Mauddean Thompson Seward, Memphis, Tennessee
- (5) Mrs. L. S. Weatherspool, President of the General Woman's Convention of Georgia

22. A motion prevailed that these five members approved by the Board of Directors in Washington, D. C., be named to the Trustee Board of the National Trade and Professional School for Women and Girls, Inc., which was carried.

23. It was moved by Mrs. Esther Walker Tyree, seconded by Mrs. Margery B. Gaillard, that the Acting President, Mrs. Mary O. Ross, will be the official representative of the Executive Committee of the Woman's Convention at the Trustee meeting in Washington, D. C., July 1, 1961. This motion was carried.

24. Mrs. M. O. Ross announced that the formal opening of the School will be July 2, 1961 in the New Chapel.

25. The Retreat for Foreign Missionaries was discussed at this point. Two letters were read, but could not be understood too well. Mrs. Ross said that Mrs. Ward said that she had some more property belonging to the Woman's Convention that she will turn over to her a little later. Mrs. Ross further stated that she had asked attorney Hayes to release the properties of the Woman's Convention and have them released. She said as of now she has only received some stationery. She stated that Attorney Hayes said that some money had been sent to Doctor Burroughs that would be released.

26. Mrs. Tyree suggested that when Mrs. Ross goes to Washington to see what belongs to the secretary, president, treasurer and have it sent to the proper sources; also see what we owe on the Retreat. She stated that her letter showed a balance of only $25,000.00.

27. The letter of Mrs. Sarah Williamson Coleman and the suggested annual budget for the retreat were discussed. Mrs. Gaillard said that she had sent $400.00 to Mrs. Coleman.

28. Mrs. Ross asked if we were going to assume one half of the responsibilities for the Retreat? Mrs. Ross explained that Mrs. Coleman had not been permitted to carry on the educational program at the Retreat heretofore. She had only lived there just long enough to clean up the place. But since the death of Doctor Burroughs she has moved in the Retreat, which is very much in need of repair. (Her letter and suggested budget will be seen at the close of these minutes.)

29. Mrs. Fama J. Haynes proposed a motion that a committee meet with Dr. C. C. Adams regarding the needs of the Retreat, which was seconded and carried. Mesdames Gaillard, Tyree, Seward, Ross were suggested as the committee representatives.

30. Miss Blanche White is in charge of the WORKER temporarily and the Southern Baptist Convention. She was appointed to take charge of the WORKER by the Board of Trustees. In making up the National roster Miss Burroughs' name must be left off. She wrote Mrs. Ross for her title. The trustee board decided that the contents would take the form of a Memorial to the late President Burroughs. They further stated that they would give us three pages for the program of the Woman's Convention. So Mrs. Ross accepted the three-pages. She stated that Miss Blanche White encouraged Doctor Burroughs in the publication which has reached a circulation of some 130,000,000 copies.

31. LITERATURE was discussed. A quote from THE LITERATURE COMMITTEE in the HANDBOOK page 109 clarified the status of the Literature which is as follows:

"After the cost of production is taken out, the money raised by this committee from gifts or sales shall go into the Literature Endowment Foundation to be used for the promotion and publication of Missionary and educational material, and for the operation of a book shop or library (on wheels) service. A Literature Foundation shall be created and its Directors shall be responsible for handling all of the income from all sales or special gifts. The Chairman, and Co-Chairman of this Committee shall be members of the Literature Endowment Foundation."

32. It was moved by Mrs. S. C. Holley that the Executive Committee make a study of the Literature Department and make recommendations to the Board of Directors and defer any action until later. Seconded by Mrs. F. J. Haynes and carried.

33. Mrs. Tyree moved to sell concessions to whatever Boards wanted to sell literature if space is available, seconded and carried.

34. The Acting President asked how to use the three pages of the WORKER for the Auxiliary for it must be in by July 31, 1951. It was the consensus of the group to let Mrs. Ross and Miss Funches get them ready. Miss Funches said she would see Rev. C. C. Adams for some materials.

35. THE NATIONAL YOUTH CAMP AND SENIOR RETREAT was discussed at this point. Mrs. A. A. Banks, Jr., Director, reported on the long and immediate goals as she saw them. She pointed out some of the needs as follows:

- (1) The physical condition of the swimming pool and lake
- (2) The motel needs plumbing work done
- (3) The chapel needs flooring
- (4) The need for full time management and caretakers.
- (5) The financial matters need to be looked into
- (6) The administration was handled through the late Miss Burroughs' office, therefore there is a need for a legal audit; need for finding out who is holding the papers. Before the Camp can go into operation it needs immediate repairs. Need a full time person to plan the programming. Mrs. Banks stated that she felt that all bills pertaining to the camp should come through the chairman in order to see what is being paid and how much.

36. Miss Funches asked who owned the camp.

37. Mrs. Banks said that the Woman's Convention owns it so far as we know now. Then the recording secretary read the quote from Attorney Hayes' letter which said:

"You are aware of the fact, of course, that there is a camp in Constantine, Michigan, held in the name of National Youth Camp and Senior Retreat, Woman's Convention, Auxiliary National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Incorporated."

Mrs. A. A. Banks, Jr., had said that she had asked Rev. D. E. King to get the legal aspect of the camp.

38. National and International meetings were discussed. Mrs. Ross told us of a letter she received from the Home Missions Division of the National Council of Churches of Christ in the U. S. A., in which they made mention of a donation that we had made. The letter came from Jon L. Regier, the Executive Secretary of the Division of Home Missions.

39. It was moved by Mrs. Tyree, seconded and carried that the Woman's Convention would be active in the Division of Home Missions when it is convenient.

40. It was announced that Mrs. S. C. Holley was elected as the first vice president of the Woman's Convention Auxiliary. She received congratulations from the Executive Committee.

41. It was moved by Mrs. Gaillard that Mrs. Ross will be our representative to the Regional Council of Church Women at Miami, Florida in October, seconded by Mrs. Tyree and carried.

42. The next meeting of the Women's Union will meet in St. Louis, Missouri next month. The next meeting will be meeting in Green Lakes, July 5, 6, to which Mrs. Tyree hopes to attend.

43. A motion was made by Mrs. Tyree, seconded and carried that a $100.00 gift from the Woman's Convention Auxiliary to the National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Inc. would be given to the Church Women of the National Council.

44. Mrs. Gaillard moved that the additional expense attending the Board meeting will be paid by the Woman's Convention, seconded and carried. We are responsible for $500.00.

45. Mrs. Ross spoke of her wanting to go to the World Council of Churches meeting in New Delhi, India next November, but she talked with Dr. Jackson and he stated that ten days before she made it known to him he had sent in the names of the delegates to attend.

46. The annual session at Kansas City was a point of discussion. Hotel reservations will be secured by Mrs. Ross who will send in the list of officers to Rev. Freeman. The Alladdin Hotel, 1213 Wyandotte will be the headquarters.

47. Mrs. Banks said that the young people will be sending in for reservations and what will she tell them. She was told to tell them to write Dr. A. B. Simmons, 2411 S. 27, Kansas City, Missouri. The rooms in all homes are $2.00 per person per night; $4.00 per night per single.

48. Mrs. Ross informed us that Mrs. Anna Hunt wanted to know what we wanted in Kansas City.

- (1) The Recording Secretary asked for an office with a key where she can house the minutes and records.
- (2) The treasurer asked for a private office
- (3) A committee room was asked for
- (4) An electric adding machine was asked for the treasurer's office, and a hand-operated one for her room
- (5) A mimeographing machine
- (6) Some decorations such as palms, etc.
- (7) An office or room for the acting president.

49. Mrs. F. J. Haynes wanted to know if we would need additional instruments. Miss Funches said she would see after that. She further wanted to know if the same registration procedure would be used. Mrs. Tyree said that the blanks had been sent to Washington already.

50. Mrs. S. C. Holley asked if this committee could give Mrs. Corneen Watts the permission to work with the young people of the Southern Regional until the annual session. The recording secretary told her that we officially made her the Southern Regional Director in Hot Springs and they rescinded the motion. She stated that the only reason that it was rescinded was because of the telephoning that had been going on to Doctor Burroughs and she said that she would not have such voting. If we did we had her permission. Miss Funches said she was already elected. The recording secretary told her that she was not elected because she was in the same motion made for Mrs. Corneen Watts in Philadelphia.

51. Mrs. Gaillard moved that we would ask Mrs. Corneen Watts to serve as Southern Director until September, seconded and carried.

52. The recording secretary stated that the same motion would have to be made for Miss Primrose Funches for the Western Regional if she was to function. So Mrs. Gaillard proposed the same motion seconded by Mrs. L. L. Hail that Miss Funches be asked to serve as Western Regional director until the annual session.

53. THE PROGRAM FOR THE ANNUAL SESSION WAS PARTIALLY MADE OUT.

Mrs. Maudiean T. Seward, Recording Secretary
665 Alston Avenue
Memphis, Tennessee

Dear Members:

The morning of May 27, 1961 at 11:00 A. M. Attorney George Hayes thanked me for all my help during the past months. He asked if I had any bills to submit and said, in the presence of Mrs. Janie Bradford, Mrs. Woods of Chicago, and Mrs. Fannie Cobb Carter that the Trustees of the School had unanimously voted that Mrs. Fannie Cobb Carter be the Acting President of the National Trade and Professional School on Lincoln Heights and I could turn over the keys to the late Dr. Bonnie Helen Burroughs' apartment; housing all of the earthly Auxiliary work, to Mrs. Carter. I had shared Dr. Burroughs' apartment since my return from Africa January 27, 1957 and had been given the keys January 9, 1961.

My salary promised by the Woman's Convention and the Foreign Mission Board had been paid in full to date and I told Mr. Hayes that I had only one thing to say that I knew Miss Burroughs would want all concerned to know. In her office in the building on the porch office wall there were the gift books for the library at The Retreat that she had hoped to move in the early spring. Mrs. Hayes thanked me for this information and at 5:00 P. M. I moved to The Retreat for Foreign Missionaries, May 27, 1961.

I beg to submit the following report on our Retreat for Foreign Missionaries, 1022 Maryland Avenue, N. E., Washington, D. C. of my 15 days findings, activities and planning, May 27-June 12, 1961:

Conditions of Building and Grounds

The roof leaks and because of this condition the walls are broken and falling in the Upper Room and two bed rooms on the second floor.

The vines that covered much of the building on F Street and 11th Street were pulled down (I am told) in 1953 when the building was purchased. It seems that these vines, for years, had sent their roots in the mortar between the bricks thus leaving holes when pulled down. After 8 years the dampness has caused the walls to be very badly damaged in the kitchen, twin bed room, breakfast room, lounge and on the ground floor.

From the porch on F Street side the water leaks into the garage causing the facing on the door to dry rot.

The store room off from the laundry floods with every hard rain or melting heavy snows. The water comes from the under ground passage from an old house that once stood on the lawn (I am told). This water flows in filling a large trash can beneath the light box causing much dampness and damage to those going in and out of the store room.

Termites in the building were discovered on June 2, 1961 and discovered that termites were in the house. In 1957 we noted that they had eaten through the floor beneath the seats in the Fellowship Room to the pad beneath the beautiful rug to keep the termites from coming to the surface to embarrass us, it has been necessary to spray with an expensive spray monthly during winter months and the remaining of the year for the 4 years I've been home. Copies of the report and cost of over Five Hundred Dollars were sent to Mrs. O. M. Ross, President, Dr. C. C. Adams, Secretary, Foreign Mission Board, Attorney George Hayes and a copy at The Retreat for the Local Committee.

Windows—Needed chains to replace broken cords are a must said the Building Inspector. Screens need repairing over the entire building with only a few exceptions. Iron rails are needed for protection on windows and glass doors to Fellowship Room and State Dining Room and 9 windows on ground floor.

Doors—Shades are needed on 2 panels, Maryland Avenue, and 2 panels on 11th Street too keep peepers away.

Lights and Bells—It is absolutely necessary to have a light on outside of kitchen door on F Street and bell repaired on 11th Street door.

Outside Posts at entrance of Maryland Avenue door way are dry rot for the want of paint. All windows, doors, iron rails, posts, and iron fence around grounds are badly in need of painting. Lawns and shrubbery would be beautiful under the care of a yard man. Tool house needs repair and paint. One diseased large tree should come down at once says the Inspector.

Driveway on F Street is a mass of broken cement and rocks.

Additional Needs

Inside painting of every room. Drapery curtains to 9 ground floor windows, new flooring, for kitchen and butler's pantry. Electric refrigerator with deep freeze unit. (The present box was used by former owner for many years and it is giving out).

What Has Been Done During Past 15 Days

A Conference was held May 3rd with Chairman and Co-Chairman of Local Committee. The following suggestions were made and accepted pending a meeting of the entire Committee at an early date.

This Committee is greatly needed and will be active when each member accepts some definite responsibility. The Representatives of the Woman's Convention, The Foreign Mission Board and the Director feel a security when the Local Committee shares in this blessed responsibility. There are ten members on the Committee to make monthly reports. These reports will be written and put on file in the Director's Office.

From these reports an Annual Report will be printed and sent to each Member of the Woman's Conventions Committee and the Foreign Mission Board Committee in August so that the National Convention might have a full report of work, prayers and gifts given to The Retreat.

COMMENTS

We were informed that Mrs. Gibbs of Tuscaloosa, Alabama who was the former Treasurer of this organization, served from July 1, 1959 to May 20, 1960, when she became seriously ill and not able to carry out the duties of her office. At this time, Dr. Burroughs, President of the Woman's Convention, Auxiliary, N. B. C., U. S. A., Incorporated, appointed Mrs. M. B. Gaillard, 601 North First Street, Birmingham 4, Alabama, to serve as Acting Treasurer from May 20, 1960 to the Convention in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, September 9, 1960. Mrs. Gaillard was elected Treasurer in the 1960 Annual Convention Session.

Dr. Nannie H. Burroughs died on or about May 25, 1961. Dr. Burroughs was President of the Convention and had authority to order disbursements which she did during her survival. The minutes of the Board of Directors revealed that Mrs. Ross who served as Vice President of the Convention during the life of Dr. Burroughs was elected President to succeed Dr. Burroughs.

Exhibits and schedules attached hereto divide the entire period of the audit in accordance with the responsibilities of the treasurers and the supervision of the presidents of the organization. Our audit was concluded at May 25, 1961. We are mindful that the fiscal year of the organization ends on June 30th.

It will be seen that this audit covers only cash transactions. The records of the Treasurer do not contain references to assets or liabilities other than those concerned with cash. We understand that the Convention owns, or has an interest in, the Foreign Mission Retreat in Washington, D. C. and the National Camp and Senior Retreat in Michigan. Perhaps, the Convention owns, or has interest in, other properties. It is suggested that the Convention's attorney determine the extent of these interests, if any.

When Mrs. Gaillard assumed her duties as Acting Treasurer on May 20, 1960, she transferred the balances formerly carried in the City National Bank of Tuscaloosa, Alabama to the Bank for Savings and Trusts of Birmingham, Alabama on June 30, 1960. The transfer was smooth and perfect. Balances obtaining at May 25, 1961 were on deposit with the Bank for Savings and Trusts and were perfectly reconcilable with the cash balances shown by the Treasurer's books.

Mrs. Gaillard's performance as Treasurer has been perfect insofar as the handling of cash and the keeping of records are concerned. Since she was never charged with the responsibility of locating and keeping records of assets, it may be concluded that she has accounted fully for everything with which she was charged.
