DR. J. H. JACKSON, President

REVISED CONSTITUTION OF THE NATIONAL BAPTIST CONVENTION, U.S.A., INC.

PREAMBLE

Whereas, it was the sense of the Negro Baptist of the United States as represented in several Baptist organizations convened in Atlanta, Ga., September 28, 1895, and known as the Baptist Foreign Mission Convention hitherto engaged in Missionary work on the West Coast of Africa; the National Baptist Convention which had been doing missionary work in the United States; the National Baptist Missionary work on the West Coast of Africa; the National Baptist Convention that these organizations should unite into one organization for the purpose of putting into effect the benevolent intentions of their constituents by eliciting combining and directing the energies of the denomination: therefore said organization did unite and agree upon certain fundamental principles of organic rules, which as amended from time to time, are as follows:

ARTICLE I—NAME

This organization shall be known and styled as the National Baptist Convention of the United States of America.

ARTICLE II—OBJECT

This Convention by uniting Baptist churches and other Baptist organizations, such as may desire an organization of this kind, shall undertake to promote home and foreign missions; to encourage and support Christian education: to publish and distribute Sunday school and other religious literature; and to engage in whatever other Christian endeavor is required to advance the Redeemer's kingdom throughout the world.

ARTICLE III—MEMBERSHIP

Section 1. The membership of this Convention shall be representative, annual and life.

Section 2. Representative membership shall be composed of messengers from churches, associations, district conventions and state conventions all known to be in harmony with the purpose of this Convention. These organizations shall pay into the treasury of this Convention such sums as are set out in section of this Article.

Section 3. Basic of Representations. (a) Churches with 200 to 500 members, $25.00; 500 to 1,000 members, $35.00; churches above 1,000 members $50.00 paid in as representation, not to exceed two messengers. (c) District State Convention, $50.00. (d) Associations $35.00.

Section 4. Life Membership—Any person who is in good and regular standing in any Missionary Baptist church that is a member of this Convention may become a life member by the payment of the sum of $200.00 into the treasury of this Convention.

Section 5. Annual Membership—Any person who is a member of a church that is in good and regular standing with this Convention may become an ANNUAL member of this Convention by payment of the sum of $10.00 into the treasury of this Convention. Said ANNUAL member may engage in the discussion of the Convention but not vote.

6. Associations and State conventions shall elect their messengers to the National Convention in their annual meeting preceding the Convention and certify said messenger to the secretary.

Article 3 would be so amended that section 7 would read as follows:

"Since the convention is primarily a fellowship, and since the fellowship owns the corporation, membership in the fellowship does not give to any individual member or group of members equity or special property rights in the assets of the corporation. The annual representation fees are designed primarily to carry the expenses of the convention and to help in its work in general and cannot be construed as capital investment in the corporation.

Section 8. The question of the rights and privileges of membership are settled only by the convention itself or its Board of Directors in the convention's absence.

Section 9. No member or group of members of the convention shall have the right to use the civil courts to settle matters regarding membership rights and convention procedures. In these matters the convention itself is the supreme court from which there is no appeal. The majority vote of the fellowship is therefore binding on the individual, the convention and the corporation itself.

ARTICLE IV

Voting in this convention shall be by the delegates assembled without reference to member organizations, states or sections of the country, and shall be by voice, or show of hands, or standing.

ARTICLE V

OFFICERS AND THEIR ELIGIBILITY

"Section 1. The officers of this Convention shall be a president, a vice-president-at large, four (4) vice-presidents, and a vice-president from each of the states and territories from which messengers to this Convention may come, a secretary, four (4) assistant secretaries, a treasurer, a statistician historiographer, and editor, an attorney, all of whom shall be selected at each annual meeting of this Convention and shall hold office until their successors shall have been elected."

Dear Brethren: April 5, 1886, an open letter to the Baptist clergy and laymen was issued by Rev. Wm. J. Simmons, an American Baptist, asking if we should have a National Convention to discuss questions of interest to our beloved denominations. At that time the following reasons were given:

1. To promote personal piety, sociability, and a better knowledge of each other.

2. To be able to have an understanding as to the great ends to be reached by the denomination.

3. To encourage our literary men and women, and promote the interest of Baptist literature.

4. To discuss questions pertaining especially to the religious, educational, industrial, and social interests of our people.

5. To give an opportunity for the best thinkers and writers to be heard.

6. That, united, we may be more powerful for good and strengthen our pride in the denomination.

Having been solicited to write the Call by many whose names and endorsements are hereunto affixed, the Call is hereby made by their advice and solicitations for said convention to meet in St. Louis, Mo., August 25, 1886, 10 o'clock a.m., in the First Baptist Church, and the pastor thereof is hereby requested to serve as a Committee of Arrangements, with power to select his associates.

Wm. H. Steward, Louisville, Ky., and Rev. R. H. Cole, 2609 Goode Avenue, St. Louis, are hereby requested to serve as a Committee on Transportation.

WM. J. SIMMONS.

The chronological report in our National Baptist Minutes is hereby corrected, viz: The parties as they appear below were officers of the Foreign Missions or National Educational Conventions, as were their predecessors. Said conventions merged into the National Baptist Convention in 1886 or met co-jointly with it, or otherwise.

Statement By Dr. J. H. Jackson, President of the National Baptist Convention, USA, Inc., Vice-President of the Baptist World Alliance, June 21, 1961.

"THE AMERICAN STRUGGLE IN THE AMERICAN WAY"

All Americans must unite in the struggle to render this nation free; free from all traces of racial segregation and discrimination, and free from all those social, political, economic and immoral forces that are contrary to the American way of life and hostile to the nation's philosophy of freedom and her ideals of democracy.

But in this struggle we must employ American techniques to win our victory over these forces. While we are in revolt against segregation wherever found, we must not allow ourselves to be in rebellion against the federal laws and spirit of America.

Where the laws of state are in conflict with federal law this conflict can best be corrected through those means, measures and methods prescribed by the Federal Constitution. To undertake to force the states to conform to federal law is a task too great for civilians without the aid of the courts, the law enforcement officers and the direction of federal law.

Protest is important and it must be a part of American life as long as there exists one rule, law, or practice that is out of harmony with the American rules of justice and freedom But protest must be carried on within the confines and according to the methods prescribed by the Federal Constitution.

But protest alone is not enough. We must go beyond protest to production, for at best protest wins an opportunity for one to participate fully in the cultural, political, economic and spiritual things in American life. Production results only when these opportunities are seized and used for the purpose of building for ourselves stronger characters, better homes and better economical foundations on which to stand. Every victory that is won through protest is an indication that those who have opposed full freedom for all American citizens have at long last accepted the truth and have by force or by choice grown to a higher stature in appreciation and in submission to American laws and principle. Only through production or the use of the acquired opportunities, will those who have made the protest, experienced growth and development. Production itself will prove a kind of constructive protest and will help to remove some of the barriers that a protesting people confront and tend to create new opportunities as well as new responsibilities. Through production we can improve the economic lot of our people and also develop more self-reliance, more self-respect, stronger character and a more wholesome family and community life.

In our racial struggle we must welcome and work with allies in the white race who also believe in the American way of life. Such persons are found among white citizens both north and south. We appreciate the interest and the dispatch with which the Attorney General acted in Alabama to end mob violence and to preserve law and order. This was indeed a master stroke worthy of commendation. Attorney General Robert Kennedy should be told how much the American people appreciate such a firm stand that he has taken in enforcing the law of the land.

In these days of crises American citizens must do more than seek their rights. They must labor for the preservation of the rights of all American citizens and the human rights of all mankind. It is not enough to use our nation for our comfort, we must be willing to join others who have sacrificed, suffered and died to preserve its values and to bequeath its lofty principles to generations yet unborn.

As Baptists we are committed to freedom, and as Christians we give priority to the Kingdom of God and its righteousness in all that we seek and in all that we do. Hence all methods employed for the realization of first-class citizenship and the human dignity of man must be judged in the light of that social order that Jesus called the Kingdom of God, and whatever we seek to achieve whether it be a solution to a domestic problem or the problem of world peace, as Christians; we must accept and employ those methods that are just, seasoned with love, and based on the brotherhood of all mankind and the fatherhood of God. The church cannot be used as a rubber stamp for every method employed in the name of democracy and freedom. But every method must be tried and tested by the spirit and ethics of Jesus, and the church must align itself with those procedures that can be sanctioned and validated by the spirit and teachings of Jesus Christ. The church must not wait until others begin a movement for human betterment. The Christian church is a revolutionary movement, and God's prophets and God's ministers have historically been, those "who have come to turn the world upside down."

EXECUTIVE MEETING OF BOARD OF DIRECTORS

September 4, 1961

The Board of Directors of the National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Inc. was called to order in the Morning Star Baptist Church, Kansas City, Missouri, with Vice-President Hampton presiding. The opening song service was led by Mrs. Johnny Howard Franklin and other National Baptist Singers with Mrs. Marjorie Olive serving at the piano. After a season of silent prayers by various brethren, Vice-President Hampton in choice words presented our President, Dr. J. H. Jackson.

The agenda for the Board was passed out and read by secretary T. J. Jemison. President asked if there were any additions the brethren would like to add to the agenda before it was adopted. A discussion of Article (5) of the Charter was added to the agenda. After which the agenda was adopted as a guide on a motion by Dr. E. J. Benton and seconded by Dr. W. R. Matthews. The motion passed without a negative vote.

The minutes of the last meeting were read by Secretary Jemison and on motion by Rev. Owen D. Pelt and seconded by Dr. A. L. Davis, Jr. the minutes were adopted with necessary corrections.

The matter of the Educational Foundation of the Convention was discussed at length by President Jackson and other Board members. The President stated that he hoped that the Brethren had come to Kansas City as requested to make a substantial beginning on the $10,000,000.00 mentioned as the required amount. President stated that he had brought from the Olivet Church $1,000.00 and $100.00 for himself. Other ministers indicated they had come prepared to make sizable contributions.

The report from the Committee on the loan for Arkansas Baptist College was made by Attorney Benjamin F. Wilson who served as chairman of the Committee. Attorney Wilson reported that after a thorough investigation of the deeds, etc., at the college he felt that more time was needed to complete his study and to be in the position to give intelligent advice to the Convention. The Attorney stated he felt sure this further information could be gotten by the time of our Board of Directors meeting in January. On a motion by Dr. C. C. Coleman and seconded by Dr. E. J. Benton that the report be adopted, it was adopted and Attorney Wilson was instructed to proceed with his investigation.

The Ministerial Retirement Fund was discussed at length by President Jackson and others of the Board who have made investments in the fund. President Jackson stated that the office of the Retirement Program had been moved temporarily to the Olivet Baptist Church because the building that formerly housed the office had been purchased as a part of a land development program in the city of Chicago.

The location of a new Retirement Fund headquarters was left up to the president and a committee of his own choosing.

The method of voting for the present Annual Session was discussed by President Jackson and he stated that ballots would be used giving each bonafide delegate the opportunity to cast his or her ballot for the man of his or her choice. After a thorough explanation of the system proposed for use, it was moved by Rev. Owen Pelt and seconded by Rev. A. L. Davis that the ballots be used. The motion passed.

It was also recommended that the Constitution of the Convention would be so amended to prohibit flagrant use of the courts against the Convention by supposed members of it. It was also recommended that the Constitution would be amended so that the voting method of the Convention would be specific. On motion by Dr. E. C. Estell and seconded by Dr. C. B. Knox, the motion passed unanimously.

After a discussion of Article V of the Charter which gives the Convention the "exclusive right" to name or appoint officers of Auxiliaries and Boards of the Convention; it was moved by Dr. C. C. Coleman and seconded by Dr. Charles H. Williams that this authority will be invoked in this session and from now on whenever the Convention finds it necessary. The motion passed unanimously.

After several members of the Board paid glowing tributes to the matchless leadership of President Jackson, the Board adjourned with the benediction being pronounced by Dr. Charles H. Hampton.

PROCEEDINGS

September 6, 1962

The Eighty-First Annual Session of the National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Inc., was opened with a song service led by Mrs. Johnnie Howard Franklin, the Rev. Emory L. Johnson and other convention singers with Mrs. Marjorie Olive Gordon and Thomas Shelby at the organ and piano.

In choice and befitting words Vice-President Charles H. Hampton presented our matchless and beloved President, Dr. J. H. Jackson, Dr. Jackson came forward to a standing ovation that lasted for at least ten minutes, and with words of challenge and inspiration officially called to order the Eighty-First Annual Session.

Dr. E. C. Estell was presented and read a resolution that requested Dr. Jackson to permit his name to be voted on again as President of the National Baptist Convention for 1961-1962. After the reading of the resolution, Dr. Estell moved and it was duely seconded by Dr. R. T. Thomas and Dr. Levi Terrill. The motion passed by a large standing majority; a few voted in the negative.

Following the adoption of the resolution disorder in the proceeding was called by small minority who were followers of Dr. Gardner C. Taylor. The disorder became so pronounced that the Director of the auditorium called for order and presented the Mayor of the City of Kansas City who made a strong appeal and asked that the delegates and visitors would conduct themselves as Christians. Following the Mayor's message the Rev. Cleophas Robinson sang, "Amazing Grace." The hymn "Lift Him Up" was led by Mrs. Johnnie Howard Franklin.

The response to the Welcome by the Mayor was given by the Rev. A. M. Waller. His message was read through loud voices from that same minority who sought to drown out his message.

Vice President Hampton presented Dr. F. D. Haynes to deliver the Introductory Sermon. Before Dr. Haynes preached, his wife, Mrs. F. D. Haynes sang, "I Want Jesus to Walk With Me." Dr. Haynes' subject was, "Jesus The Light of The World," taken from John 8:12. Following the soul-stirring message by Dr. Haynes the Rev. L. A. Hamlin of Tennessee offered the Prayer. Vice President E. Doyle Billoups closed the morning session by "Bless Be the Tie That Binds." The Benediction was pronounced by Dr. Haynes.

AFTERNOON SESSION

The afternoon session opened at 3:00 o'clock with President J. H. Jackson presiding. The song service was led by Mrs. Johnnie Howard Franklin.

The report of the Liberian Commission was made by the Rev. Julian Taylor, one of the members of the Commission. It was moved and properly seconded that the reports would be adopted. The motion passed. It was moved by Dr. C. C. Coleman and seconded by Dr. J. H. Parker that we purchase at least $100,000.00 acres of land in Liberia. The motion passed.

Following this report President Jackson presented the Rev. A. G. Kendricks for the afternoon devotional message. He chose as his theme, "Jesus, The Light of the World." He read from Isaiah 60:1-5; and Luke 2:13, 14. After delivering a very fine message the Rev. Kendricks closed by singing, "My Heavenly Father Watches Over Me."

The Inspirational Address was delivered by the Rev. William F. Houston of New York. The National Baptist Convention Educational Program was presented by Dr. J. R. Buck, President, Natchez College, Natchez, Mississippi. The National Baptist Convention and the Civil Rights Struggle were presented by the general Secretary of the Convention, T. J. Jemison. Following these presentations the Rev.

Emory L. Johnson sang, "There Is a Fountain Filled With Blood." President Jackson presented Dr. M. K. Curry, Jr., who spoke on the Educational Foundation.

Secretary Jemison was presented to read some amendments to the Convention. These amendments dealt with Convention membership, methods for voting, etc. On a motion by Dr. C. C. Coleman and seconded by Dr. Morris, Burrell. The motion passed with a large standing vote. A few were seen standing when the negative vote was called for.

President Jackson spoke concerning the 5th Article of the Charter and explained its meaning to the Convention. It was moved by Dr. Floyd Massey and seconded by Dr. N. A. Crawford that the Convention would, whenever deemed necessary, to use the authority given it in naming officers of auxiliaries. The motion passed with a large standing majority of delegates. A few voted in the negative.

President Jackson also spoke on the election of general officers for tomorrow, and stated that we would vote by states with Dr. D. A. Holmes presiding during the election. It was moved and properly seconded by Dr. C. H. Hampton and Dr. Emory L. Johnson respectively that this be done with the approval of the Convention. The motion passed.

After singing "Jesus Keep Me Near the Cross," President Jackson presented Dr. E. J. Benton to deliver the closing sermon for the afternoon. Dr. Benton delivered a powerful message. Following the sermon J. Robert Bradley sang "Amazing Grace."

WEDNESDAY EVENING

Promptly at 6:30, Dr. W. D. Thompson, Chairman of the Visual Aid Department of the Convention, entertained the delegation with some very informative and historical films.

The evening devotions at 7:30 were led by Dr. W. L. Wilson, South Carolina. The Inspiring Address, "Jesus Christ, The Light of Salvation," was delivered by the Rev. O. B. Burson, North Carolina.

The Home Mission Board's Corresponding Secretary, Dr. Charles P. Harris, made his annual report that was adopted by the Convention.

The Convention Chorus sang two beautiful selections. Vice President A. E. Campbell presented Rev. C. A. Weaver of Florida to present Rev. A. L. Roberts to read the scripture. He read 1st Cor. 11th Chapter, and the Rev. H. M. Humphrey, Kentucky, offered the Prayer. Mrs. Harriett B. Allen sang, "His Eye is On the Sparrow." Dr. William H. Bell, Board member from Kentucky, presented the speaker of the evening. Dr. M. M. D. Perdue, Kentucky, chose as his text, 1 Cor. 1:27, 28—God hath chosen the foolish things of the World to Confound the World. Subject: "The Dynamics of Human Life." The message was both informative and inspirational. The closing benediction was pronounced by Dr. Perdue.

THURSDAY MORNING

The song service was led by Mrs. Johnnie Howard Franklin and the Rev. Emory L. Johnson, with Vice President Charles H. Hampton presiding.

The report of the Statistician, Dr. B. J. Johnson and the report of the Historian, Dr. Owen D. Pelt were made and were received and adopted by the body.

The Sunday School Publishing Board made its Annual Report. The report was made by Dr. D. C. Washington, Executive Director. Dr. Washington was presented to the Convention by Dr. W. T. Crutcher, Chairman of the Sunday School Board. Dr. Washington's report was well received. The report was adopted.

The B. T. U. Board made its Annual Report through its Secetary, Dr. C. R. Williams. Dr. Williams was presented to the Convention by Dr. G. W. Gayden, Chairman of the B. T. U. Board. This report was also well received and adopted.

The auditorium was now filled to capacity with a large number standing around the wall and in the various isles. The hour had arrived to hear the Annual Address of our beloved Chieftain. This was the hour that many had left home to witness for they knew they would hear first hand about the work of the Convention. Then too, they were just anxious to hear the matchless eloquence of President Jackson.

Just before the President delivered the address, Vice President Hampton presented Mrs. Harriett B. Allen to sing a solo. Dr. Jackson came forward to deliver his message to the loud applause and cheering of this vast multitude and it was about ten minutes before he could begin. Our President delivered a most powerful message and inspired all who heard him. He was at his best and it seemed that all heaven would break loose as he climaxed his annual message.

The election of officers that was scheduled to follow the address was postponed until a later time in the day at the request of President Jackson.

There had been many rumors by the followers of Dr. Gardner C. Taylor that the election would not be held in a fair manner. In fact, some of the dissatisfied brethren had filed suit to have a Court Ordered election with Court supervision. Both the Jackson and the Taylor faction were being represented legally. After much discussion by both sides before one of the local Judges, it was decided that all delegates that had registered by the Convention and those that had been registered by the Taylor group would have to be certified by both groups. This was agreed upon and most of Thursday afternoon and way up into the night was spent certifying the number of delegates that would be eligible to vote.

After a long delay with all of the delegates staying in their seats except to get something to eat, etc., the long awaited announcement came that we were now ready to begin voting.

The election was presided over by Dr. D. A. Holmes who as previously stated was appointed by the Court.

The election was by States with Tellers representing Dr. Jackson and Dr. Taylor doing the counting. This was the type of election the Taylor faction had claimed they wanted for the past two years. At last they were getting what they referred to as a "fair election."

The entire center row of seats from the front to the back of the huge auditorium was cleared so that each state could come to this section and be counted. This was done starting with Alabama and going by alphabet to the state of Wisconsin. Dr. Taylor led in the first two states, Alabama and Arizona, but after the third state, Arkansas, was counted, his lead was over-taken by Dr. Jackson. From that point on Dr. Jackson steadily pulled away from his opponent and received twice as many votes. About half way the voting, it was clearly seen that the over-whelming choice of the delegates was Dr. J. H. Jackson as their leader. Dr. Jackson received 2732 and Dr. Taylor received 1519 votes.

After the election and Dr. Jackson was declared the winner, the Convention gave Dr. Holmes a standing ovation for a job well done.

Dr. Taylor, the loser, was presented and he congratulated Dr. Jackson on his victory and said that the "Supreme Court" of the Convention (the people) had spoken and that he was now satisfied. He called for a closing of the ranks by the brethren and said that he was falling in and would follow the leadership of Dr. Jackson.

Following this Dr. Jackson and Mrs. Jackson were led to the platform by loud cheering and applause and music. It was indeed a glorious time for the Convention as a whole, for it seemed that peace and harmony had again been restored.

In his victory message, Dr. Jackson declared he had no bitterness against anyone that had voted against him and it was his hope now that we would be able to move on with the positive program of the Convention. He also expressed his deep appreciation for the confidence that so many had placed in him.

The election went up into the wee hours of Friday morning, but no one actually complained for we all felt it had been time well spent.

Hot Springs, Arkansas

WEDNESDAY JANUARY 24, 1962—945 A.M.

Devotionals conducted by Rev. Robert Taylor of Virginia. The Scripture: Isaiah 40:18 to the end of the chapter, Brother Riddick presented Rev. B. B. Cantrell for the inspirational message after Mrs. Grace Cobbs of Detroit sang "His Eye Is On the Sparrow." Rev. Cantrell used Matthew 3:1-3, the theme being "A Voice Crying in the Wilderness." Rev. Cantrell lifted our souls, the singers led in singing "The Unclouded Day." Vice President Hampton called for registration. President Jackson gave appropriate and inspiring remarks giving particular reference to his recent trip (world tour) and audience with the Pope of the Catholic Church. We were assured once more that Dr. Jackson is a gift of God for this age. Rev. Emory Johnson of New York sang "There Is a Fountain Filled With Blood." Agendas were given to the Board and pastors. Agenda adopted upon motion and second. It was moved and seconded that Women's Auxiliary would use same theme for the convention this year (some phase of theme).

The report from the committee on Housing for Senior Citizens, Chairman Andrew Means reported—pdogress report adopted upon motion duly seconded. President Jackson suggested that the committee look into the matter of securing seventeen acres of land where a National Baptist Temple could be built along with the home for the aged.

Benediction—Rev. Taylor, Connecticut.

DEPARTMENTAL RELATIONSHIPS

The following suggestions and recommendations as they relate to Departmental Relationships were approved unanimously by the Board of Directors after motions that were properly seconded.

WOMEN'S CONVENTION

1. Would it be effective for the men and the women to have the same g... theme, the women taking the aspect that appeals to them. (i.e.,) "Ch... Women Working for World Peace."
2. That the Board of Directors will open negotiations with the trustee b... of the school at Lincoln Heights founded by the late Miss Nannie Burr... for the purchase of the property according to the vote of the National B... tist Convention in its last annual session said property to be dedicated ... program in memory of the great work of the Late Miss Nannie Helen ... roughs.

   The ownership of the property by the convention would not of neces... eliminate persons who are now participating on the trustee board and ... the program of the institution.
3. That the Women's Convention during this period of negotiation will ... deal directly with the trustee board of the school regarding any poli... programs, but will refer such matters to the Board of Directors and, ... parent body until negotiations have been completed.
4. That all funds in the custody of the Women's Convention for the institu... at Lincoln Heights will be held by them pending the outcome of the neg... ations referred to above.

The committee appointed from the Board to work with the Women's Conv... tion is as follows: Dr. C. A. Murray, D. C., Dr. W. L. Clayton, Maryland, and ... Robert L. Taylor, Virginia.

THE LAYMEN'S MOVEMENT

1. That the Laymen's Movement be brought closer to the parent body, ... that more and more they share in the responsibilities of the parent ... and be permitted to hold many of their main meetings in the auditori... where the parent body convenes.
2. That the Laymen will seek to develop some aspect of the general th... adopted by the parent body.
3. The financial plan of the Laymen will be presented to the Board of Di... tors and the parent body for the approval of both, so that the financial ... jectives of the parent body and the Laymen's Department will be in h... mony each with the other.

ECUMENICAL RELATIONSHIPS

1. That the National Baptist Convention as soon as possible, will secur... plaque at the center of the headquarters of the National Council of Church... in New York City.
2. That all auxiliaries and departments of the National Baptist Convention ... make their financial payments to these respective councils through ... board of directors of the National Baptist Convention. Whenever quotas ... suggested to them by any of the councils mentioned above, the auxiliar... and departments will submit these quotas to the board of directors for th... study and approval.

If we are to be one convention, winning the respect of other organizations ... then we must function as a unit, and bring to bear the consolidated strength ... the organization.

REPORT TO THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF THE NATIONAL BAPTIST CONVENTION, USA, INC., ON THE PRIVATE AUDIENCE WITH POPE JOHN XXIII, DECEMBER 20TH, 1961

By Dr. J. H. Jackson, President

As we prepared to go to the World Council of Churches in New Delhi, India, November 16th-December 6, 1961, I was moved with the idea of going around the world since the plane fare for such a tour was about twenty-five dollars more than the round trip fare to New Delhi and return. For economic reasons this was an opportunity to go around the world. After Mrs. Jackson and I had fully decided to take the world tour, it occurred to me that instead of making this a sightseeing trip alone, we ought to meet as many leaders as possible, and as many people as we could, and learn as much as possible from them regarding their conception of the plight of the world, its problems and the possible solutions. We decided that this would not be a trip in which we would engage ourselves in the study of the relics of yesteryears, viewing the tombs of heroes and statesmen and leaders long since passed, and pausing in sacred respect before monuments of stone and marble with a view of trying to re-create the events of past history out of which had become the drama and the tragedy of these modern times. Rather, we decided to study and observe living monuments in the person of present leaders and to hear their point of view, to feel the impact of their personalities, and to catch something of their spirit and to hear with appreciation their messages and their ideals and their points of view, and know something of their hopes and fears.

Some of the people met on this tour included missionaries on foreign fields, converts to Christianity through the work of missions, leaders of younger churches, educators, businessmen, humble men and women from every walk of life, students in schools, statesmen and leaders in the field in religion. Time and space will not allow me to make a full report on all the fine people that we met and the impressions received from them.

Because of the nature and purpose of the visit to the Vatican, I shall report to you on my private visit with Pope John, XXIII.

Part I. Why Did I Desire to Visit Pope XXIII of the Roman Catholic Church?

Since my return to the United States I have been asked why did I, a Protestant desire to visit with the Pope of Rome. The reasons are many and varied, and I shall mention only a few of them.

1. First, I had a strong urge to make the visit and in moments of silence and meditation I felt that I was guided to do so. In the past I had visited the Arch Bishop of Canterbury at Lamberth Palace in England, Metropolitan Alexi the Metropolitan of Moscow and all Russia, in his private chambers in Moscow Russia, and the Arch Bishop of the Coptic Church in Cairo, Egypt and Dr. Canon Streeter, the great English theologian at Oxford University in his private study, at the time that he was provost of Queens College, and the distinguished theologian Karl Barth, and many other outstanding religious thinkers and statesmen.

So when I discovered that my world tour would take me to Rome, I made kown my desire to have a private audience with the Pope. Some of the leaders of the Roman Catholic Church in the city of Chicago communicated this desire to the responsible representatives in Rome, and they in turn communicated with the Vatican Palace where the audience was arranged.

2. I desired to visit the Pope because of my concern for world peace, and believing that he was committed to this great world ideal, it was my hope to encourage him for what he had done and to urge him to continue. For I believe that the struggle for peace is the key struggle today, and on it depends the future of Western Civilization and the destiny of all mankind.

3. I desired to talk in person to him and have some word from the Pope himself on his proposed Second Vatican Council scheduled to meet sometime in 1962 especially that aspect of it that has to do with Christian unity.

4. I wanted to congratulate him for his proposed plans to invite non-catholic observers to attend the above mentioned council, and to suggest to him that if he were going to have observers, it might be well to include among them some representatives from among Negro Protestants of the United States of America. It is my belief that we as a people should be present and represented in all of the on-going programs and movements designed to improve the lot of man on this planet, and to encourage the work of the Kingdom of God.

5. Also, I wanted to view the ecumenical movement from the Pope's point of view, and to take a look at the suspect of Christian unity through the eyes of one who is the spiritual head of millions of Christian believers.

6. I wanted to learn all that I could from the Pope's general attitude and spirit, and I knew this could come only by a personal encounter.

7. I wanted to share with him some of my basic Christian conceptions and problems and to express my philosophy of life to the objective scrutiny of a religious leader whose life and experiences were in a different religious tradition from that in which I had been nurtured and reared.

8. To me such a visit would have meaning and significance for goodwill and a better relationship between Roman Catholic believers and some Protestant groups, and would lend itself to a mutual appreciation of one group for the other. My hope was that something would transpire that would enable me to become one of the messengers of goodwill where the question of Catholic and Protestants would occur. This type of goodwill could be of use and of vital importance even where different groups tend to be hostile each to the other, be they religious or secular.

On the other hand I wanted in a brief moment, to share with the Pope some of the hopes, desires, aspirations and life struggles of my own people, so that in dealing with the problems of human relations—whether in Africa, Asia, the United States, or any other section of the world—he would be strengthened in his determination to help bring into national and international focus a just and Christian solution. I do not mean that I assumed to speak for all men of color, for I did not. But it was my conviction that the longing of a soul for freedom, the travail of the human spirit for justice, and the crying of the human heart to God for deliverance from the thralldom of all the chains of evil circumstances as expressed in the countenance and cry of one black man, would reveal the depth and the enormity of the struggle of millions of colored peoples the world over, be they Catholic or non-Catholic.

9. From what has been stated above, it should be clear to all now, that I did not go on this personal visit to the Pope of Rome in any spirit of antagonism, ill-will, bitterness or fear. Rather, I went in the spirit of appreciation of the spiritual values of the Roman Catholic Church.

Part II: The Visit Itself

When I entered the spacious and beautiful private study of the Pope, I was received by him in a most cordial manner and he expressed his joy and satisfaction in having me visit with him.

I had prepared a written statement setting forth in brief the things about which I came to talk. This statement was translated into Italian by the Protocol Secretary of the Vatican, who was a most gracious personality and a most efficient interpreter. After the translation of the entire statement, the Pope began his discussion.

The first matter that was apparently close to his heart and heavy upon his mind was the Second Vatican Council about which he was to make a public announcement five days later in his Christmas day message.

He pointed out that one of the main problems and obstacles to Christian unity is doctrine. Before there can be Christian unity, there are many historic problems that must be solved relating both to the doctrines and teachings of the church. Hence, Christian unity cannot come overnight but it will take many long years of study, preparation, prayer, tolerance and patience. Said he: "Every group should seek to be the best Christian possible according to the light and understanding that he has. And there should be goodwill and appreciation for the other point of view." In the past religious groups have been too hostile each to the other, even to the point of persecution and going to war each against the other.

The Pope made it clear that his approach to Christian unity was from the vantage point of the doctrinal position of the Roman Catholic Church. This was expected, and no religious leader can be serious in his approach to any Christian problem who does not begin and approach it according to his own background and understanding within the tradition in the which he has been nurtured, and in which he has served. The Pope then pointed out that the Christian unity topic was just one aspect of the proposed second Vatican Council to be called in 1962. He then stated briefly that the purpose of the second Vatican Council was: (1) The development of the Catholic Faith. (2) The revival of Christian standards of morality among the Christian people. (3) and the bringing of the churches' discipline into a closer accord with the needs and conditions of our times.

The first announcement of his intention to call a "Ecumenical Council for the universal church," came at the feast of the conversion of St. Paul the Apostle in the Basilica of St. Paul outside the walls, January 25, 1959. On May 30, 1960, at a semi-public meeting of all the cardinals present in Rome, he said he would erect a secretariat to help "the Separated Brethren to follow the work of the council. He set up ten commissions and two secretariats to prepare for the second Vatican Council, and the secretariat for the promotion of Christian unity was one of them. He appointed Cardinal Bea formerly of Germany, to be the president of the secretariat for promoting Christian unity. This was done on June 6th, 1960. On the 24th of June, the same year, Monsignor J. G. M. Willebrands was appointed the secretary. On October 24, 1960 the new offices of the secretariat for promoting Christian unity were opened at Via de Corridor; 64, Rome, Italy. The secretariat has a two-fold purpose.

a. Its immediate purpose is to inform accurately non-catholic Christians on the work of the coming Council; to receive their wishes and suggestions relating to the Council, to weigh them, and, if needs be, to pass them on to other commissions (e.g., Theological Commission, Commission for the Missions, Commission for the Eastern Churches, Liturgy Commission, etc.)

b. Its major and more general end, is to aid non-catholic Christians to find "that unity for which Jesus Christ prayed so ardently to His Heavenly Father." To establish for example, the exact situation with its unity, problems in various countries: (1) What various non-catholic Christians here and now have in common with the Roman Catholic Church in doctrine, discipline and cult; and also how they differ from it; (2) What are the desires of these different groups touching on the unity problem and what ways can the Catholic church help them to true unity.

When asked if it were his purpose to have Protestant observers to attend the conference, the Pope answered in the affirmative. The question was also raised as to whether or not American Negro Protestants would be included among the observers. The Pope apparently took a kindly attitude towards this suggestion. His positive note for peace, and the assurance that he would continue to work for its realization was most encouraging and heartening.

The Pope's Statement On Prayer

He said to me: "In addition to my official functions and duties, I also pray daily to God for His help and for the revelation of His will to me as I serve the cause of the Kingdom.

Then said he, "I wish for you every success in your work, and I shall list you among those for whom I shall pray. I shall remember you as you go forth to do your task." Then came a moment of silence. As this deep meaningful silence reigned in the chambers of the private study of Pope John XXIII, I knew I had paused at the place where the highways of history both ancient, medieval and modern, had met. In this sacred moment I found myself in prayer to God for Pope John XXIII, although he did not know it My prayer was that God would grant him the health, the strength and the sufficient life span to finish the noble work that he has begun for his historic church and for mankind in general. As I rose to depart, the Pope accompanied me to his desk where his private secretary opened the drawer and presented to me a maroon case in which were two medallions, and he said to me: "This is a gift to you from His Holiness, Pope John XXIII.

Part III. Some Reflections and Impressions of the Visit

1. Pope John XXIII, impressed me as being one of the most kind and self-giving persons I have ever met. In spite of the heavy burdens that he carries as the spiritual head of a great church, he is radiant and apparently full of joy. At times as he spoke, he seemed so inspired that he apparently forgot there was an interpreter there to interpret his speech.

2. His humility is most amazing. He reflects at all times the dignity of his high office in every way, but he does it without pride and with such humility that you feel that you are in the presence of a personal friend of many years. He impressed me as being a man who lives above the prejudice of race, nationality, class or clan, and deals with the great issues of life in the light of the spirit and purpose of Jesus Christ.

Those who espouse the way of racial and religious prejudice are not following the spirit of Pope John XXIII as I understood him. If the Pope is blessed with the sufficient life span and his ideals continue to grow both in the Roman Catholic Church and outside of it, I believe that a new day of friendship and goodwill shall dawn among Catholics and non-Catholics around the world, and any form of religious persecution will be a thing of the past.

In the light of all that I have said, I would make the following recommendations:

1. Let us in our respective stations do our best to serve God as Baptists and to make our contribution to the Kingdom of God in the light of the inspiration and understanding that God has given unto us.

2. Let us commit ourselves to a program of goodwill and tolerate as we come face to face with other religious groups who differ from us in theology and in the interpretation of life. Let us discourage those who would carry on a campaign of hatred or prejudice against members of the Roman Catholic Church or any other Church. Let us strive to maintain a friendly attitude toward our Roman Catholic brethren and let us lead others in this great campaign of tolerance. Let us not fear what the Catholic church or any other church may take from us, but rather in humility, let us fear what we may by our own indifference, lethargy and hostility one toward another, take away from ourselves and from our church. Let us appreciate the values and the constructive things of the Roman Catholic Church and all other

Christian churches who name the name of Jesus Christ, and let us always remember that the kingdom is the Lord's, and in His own good time He will bring it to pass.

3. I recommend that we send a message of appreciation to Pope John XXIII, for his courageous stand and his message on peace last Christmas, and that we also commend him for his concern about Christian unity and his desire to invite non-catholics to attend the second Vatican Council as observers. Let us as a body pray for him for his strength, and for God's blessings upon him and his great people.

THE ANNUAL REPORT OF SECRETARY T. J. JEMISON

To the Eighty-first Annual Session of The National Baptist Convention U.S.A., Incorporated

Mr. President, Members of the Official Family, Delegates and Visiting Friends from throughout the Nation. It affords me an unusual amount of pleasure to make this my Eighth Annual Report, giving an account of my stewardship as your General Secretary over the past twelve months. I can only repeat what I have said previously. I have endeavored to be a good accurate secretary, and I have handled your records with a great deal of care.

To be the secretary of the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Incorporated is no little task. The work never ends and the requests are many. I have done the work assigned to my hands and have answered each request.

We have had many trying experiences since we left Philadelphia last year. As you know circumstances which we had absolutely no control prevented us from holding our Convention as planned. But in spite of confusion, we have had one of the most successful years in the long history of this Great Convention. In Philadelphia we registered the largest number of delegates ever—5,587 and raised $72,946.14.

Your Convention, through the able leadership of President J. H. Jackson, has made noteworthy progress. We have paid our financial obligations to the World Council of Churches, World Baptist Alliance and the National Council of Churches of Christ in the United States. We have paid the Annual note of $10,008.33 on the Bath House and purchased the final balance by investing $33,000 of the Retirement Fund in a first mortgage. Now instead of paying enormous interest to the Reconstruction Finance Corporation we pay it to the Retirement Fund. As you know, the mortgage on the Bath House in Hot Springs was burned in our Mid-Winter Board Meeting last January, and the property is now debt free and is yielding profit to the Convention. Already this year the Convention has received $5,000; more will be reported before this session is over.

We made our Annual Scholarship Awards to the five young people of this Convention who competed in the Annual Oratorical Contest, the amount was $1,750. We made a contribution to the NAACP of $1,000.

It is almost needless for me to report to you about our "Freedom Farm" in Fayette County, Tennessee. Because the daily press and outstanding leaders throughout the Nation have landed this project. This was, as you know, through the dynamic leadership of President Jackson. Your cooperation in this venture has been wonderful. Because of your contributions we will burn the mortgage on this four hundred and four (404) acres of land in this session. The cost was $60,000 and we have spent more than $20,000 on building, repairs and equipment for the farm. This makes a total of $80,000 that has been spent on this project. The Convention had ten (10) years to pay this mortgage and we paid it out in less than six (6) months.

I am happy to report to you that the minutes of the last session are ready. Many of you have received your copy already, others of you will find it on your return home. I want to express my sincere appreciation to Dr. D. C. Washington, Executive Director, Sunday School Publishing Board for his cooperation in getting the minutes to my office staff and for their loyal effort in getting the books to you.

I close this report by saying, I know I follow in the train of some of the most noted leaders the Baptist Church has produced in this position, I only know that if you see fit to return me to office, I pledge to continue being a good secretary.

At the close of the Convention last year, I was given for the expense of my office the sum of $5,400. It was disbursed as follows:

Secretary Honorarium	$2,400 00
Office Secretary and Extra Help	1,900 00
Postage for Various Mailings	800 00
Return Postage	68 00
Travel, Room and Board	485 00

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF THE NATIONAL BAPTIST CONVENTION, U.S.A., INC., REPORTS TO THE CONVENTION

Its Work During the Year—1960-61

During the period from our last Annual Session in Philadelphia last year up until this meeting, your Board of Directors under the matchless leadership of our beloved President, Dr. J. H. Jackson, has been busily at work. In spite of unwarranted attacks and false propagander by some who would destroy our great convention, your Board of Directors has steadily moved forward with a positive program of action.

We are happy to report to you this morning that all of your property is safe and the deeds to the same are deposited in the Care of your Treasurer, Dr. L. G. Carr. This is the first time in the history of the Convention that the Board of Directors has been able to make this statement

Your commercial boards are making vast improvements in material and machinery. During the year your Sunday School Publishing Board presented to the Convention, $10,000 and your Baptist Training Union Board presented $5,000 and the Bath House also presented $5,000. The Foreign Mission and Home Mission Board are still in tack and have made usual reports to this Board of Directors.

In spite of efforts on the part of some who would tire up or take over your funds, we are here to tell you this morning that not one dime was taken and you will receive an account of all your funds.

During the year your Board passed on the following and submits the same to you for your approval or dis-approval.

We passed on a "Duty Plus" Campaign. This Campaign would solicit the cooperation of Pastors of the Convention in giving more to the Convention than just registration fee. Class A—Churches (One thousand members or more) $1,000; Class B—Churches (Five hundred members and above) $500; and Class C—Churches (Seventy--five to four hundred ninety-nine) $250.00. Pastors A-Class Churches $100.00; B-Class Churches $50 00 and C-Class Churches $25. This money would go to help establish our Educational Foundation; Help struggling Baptist Colleges and Churches to build and retire mortgages.

Your Board of Directors heard the Cry of Our Brothers and Sisters in "Tent City" in Fayette County, Tennesee and sought to do the job that needed to be done. Land was purchased, equipment bought and houses built. This four hundred and four acres of earth is known as the "Freedom Farm" of the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Incorporated. We were given ten years to pay for this project that cost $60,000; but because of the dynamic and forthright leadership of Our President J. H. Jackson the mortgage will be burned in this session. Not only was the purchased price paid, but more than $20,000 more in equipment and building and repairing houses on the property.

We burned the mortgage on the Bath House property at Hot Springs, Arkansas It is now debt free.

We passed a Resolution stating the position of the Board as it related to the "National Taylor Team." Inasmuch as this group was meeting from time to time and from place to place and has permanent officers, we voted unanimously to declare the Independence of the National Taylor Team.

Your Board also voted unanimously dual membership in Convention less than five years old would not be permitted.

Your Board of Directors also named a Commission of Three to go to Liberia to make a study and to purchase land that would be used by young people who wished to take up residence in Africa and help to develop this country. The first idea was to purchase 5,000 acres, but it was recommended that we purchase at least 100,000 acres. This was recommended by President V. S. Tubman of Liberia. More will be said relative to this in this session.

Your Board recommended and passed on the following pastors to be members of the Board in place of former members who are now a part of another organization. They are as follows:

Alabama, Rev. A. W. Wilson; Georgia, Rev. H. M. Alexander; Kentucky, Rev. William H. Bell; Michigan, Rev. A. G. Wright; New York, Rev. James R. Moore.

We close this report by saying, that the Annual Mid-Winter Board Meeting held each year in Hot Springs, Arkansas in January was the most successful Board Meeting ever held with regard to number present, general spirit of the meeting and the amount of money raised $33,000.

Your Board of Directors,

J. H. JACKSON, President and Chairman
T. J. JEMISON, Secretary

FRIDAY AFTERNOON 2:00 p. m.

The National Baptist Laymen's Convention was called to order by Vice President at large, S. W. Nichols.

Song—"What a Friend We Have in Jesus"

Prayer—Deacon Peter McQuarters

Song—Jesus Keep Me Near the Cross

President Nichols then presented Dr. K. L. Brazil, Secretary of the American Bible Society, who gave some statistics relative to the distribution of Bibles. Vice President Ben F. Taylor introduced the Director of Minnesota Choir, who after a brief acknowledgement directed the choir as it sang, "Guide Me O Thou Great Jehovah" —"Tis the Old Ship of Zion." These songs were soul inspiring and Vice President Benjamin F. Taylor deserves much credit for being instrumental in having this talented group appear before the National Baptist Laymen's Convention.

Report of Committee were called for as follows: Finance Committee—$3,073.79

President Jordan arrived, the Minnesota Choir sang, "Walk Together Children, Don't Get Weary." Vice President Nichols in a few well chosen words presented President Allen Jordan to deliver his annual message. President Jordan requested the Minnesota Choir to sing "Tis the Old Ship of Zion," after which he delivered his Annual Message.

Vice President, members of the clergy, officers, and members of our laymen convention, delegates, and friends:

We have come to the close of another year's work. Since the last Annual Session, we have experienced some sad hours and sleepless nights. For this has been a year of unrest. It has been a year when many of us had to stand still, and wait on God. The storm has raged, and the contrary winds and waves have tossed the old ship from side to side. But this afternoon, we are thankful to Almighty God for bringing us through dangers, seen and unseen, to another Annual Session of this laymen's Movement. I am grateful to the officers, the committees, and all the members, for their loyal support during the past year, and I am thankful to the officers for the faithful service rendered under the strenuous circumstances in which we have labored since the last session.

Vice President at Large, Bro. S. W. Nichols, has done a fine job, and has given full cooperation to the onward march of this laymen's movement. First Vice President, Bro. S. L. Jones, has led the men of California, and has sold this laymen's work to ministers, men and women, he has served this convention with dignity and honor, and the half has not been told what he may do. Vice President, Bro. John H. Bumpas, has done a marvelous job in arousing the state presidents, to see the necessity of putting their shoulders to the wheel and help this laymen's movement on to higher heights. Vice President, Bro. J. L. Lennox, a man unassuming, well founded in the work of the Lord. He is steadfast in this Laymen's work, and is doing a good Job. Vice President, Bro Felix Cotton, a man with a pleasing personality, always ready to help share the cost and expense for the promotion of this laymen's work.

Vice President, Bro J. C. Moses, has served as chairman of the banquet committee, and has done a fine job. Vice President, Bro Benjamin F. Taylor, is doing a marvelous job in this laymen's work, and we are grateful to him. Mr. Mr. James E. Gayle, the Executive Secretary, has been with this organization for the past thirty years, and has put his life in it. He has done a matchless job for the onward march of this National Baptist Laymen's Movement, and today, we salute him for a job well done. The Recording Secretary, Prof. R.-E. Dixon, has served as a school teacher for many years, and now retired from teaching, but he is still a laborer for the onward, march of this Laymen's Movement. The Assistant Secretary, Bro. M. D Upchurch, has done a good job for, which we are grateful. The Treasurer, Bro Elmore Baker, a business man, has served this convention with dignity and honor His records are beyond question, and we are grateful for a job well done.

The National Organizer, Bro. John H. Johnson, has done a good job. Bro. O. W Phillips, music director, has served this convention for many years, and has done and is still doing a fine job. The Statistician, Bro. S. H. Fowler, and one of the able instructors, is doing a good job. The Dean, Rev Henderson Green, and his staff, has done a matchless job in the field of Christian Education, for which we are grateful We thank the finance committee, the state directors, and deputy organizers, for the fine services rendered across the years and we bid you God's speed. We are grateful to the host committee, Bro. Garland Williams, and his assistant, Bro. Walter Cade Jr. for the fine entertainment given us during this session. They have done a fine job and we are grateful to them for making our stay so pleasant.

THE JUNIOR LAYMEN'S DEPARTMENT

We thank Bro William A. Ryles, the director, Mrs. Evelyn Dixson, the National Mother, Mrs. Eva Morgan, National Big Sister, and all the members of the board for the fine work they have done. Again, I want to thank all the members, the officers, and friends for a job well done.

May we pause a moment in respect for those who have labored with us across the years, the hands of providence have robbed us of many of our stalwarts, who have fallen asleep, and they, from silent lips do challenge us to move on to an uncompleted task.

Bro. J. T. Thompson, Atlanta, Georgia, Bro. Wiley, Omaha, Nebraska, and the President of the Women's Department, Mrs. Nannie Helen Burroughs.

They have all gone the way of the earth, where no traveler has never known to return.

ACTIVITIES

Since our last session, we have visited a number of churches, and have tried to convert and convince the pastors, men and women, to line up with this laymen's movement, and I am happy to report that a number of churches have consented to organize the men and work whole-heartedly with the program of the National Laymen's Movement.

In the city of Poughkeepsie N. Y. we installed the officers in the Central Hudson Laymen's Movement, an auxiliary of the Central Hudson Association, Rev. T. H. Slater, Moderator, and they have pledged their support. We have spoken in twenty-five churches during the year. Many of the pastors have assured me that they will organize the men, and send me a list of the officers. Some I have received. The Secretary, Bro. Coyle and I attended the National Council of Churches in Frisco, Calif., December 4 to 9, 1960.

Indeed it was a fine session, filled with information and inspiration. A detailed report was given in our mid-winter board meeting, in January of this year.

We attended the National Baptist Sunday School and B. T. U. Congress which met in St. Louis, Missouri. Indeed it was a great session well attended. There we had a very fine board meeting to complete our work for this session. We have served as Men's Day Speaker in a number of Churches since the last session, and I am grateful to the Pastors and the Presidents of the Brotherhoods for inviting me to be their guest.

RECOMMENDATIONS

1. I am recommending that the committee of the Junior Laymen's Department, along with the Director, the National Mother, and the National Big Sister will restudy the Junior Laymen's program, and submit to the Board of Directors' meeting in January 1962, a program geared to meet the needs of our teen agers in time like these.

2. That the Budget Committee will bring to our mid-winter board meeting, a plan to raise finance so we can expand our work, study the possibility of each Church Brotherhood, Association and State Laymen's Convention, increase their representation fee so the promotion expenses can be met without using any monies designated for the other objectives.

3. That we will seek to strengthen our ties with the American Baptist Convention, Southern Baptist Convention, and the National Baptist Convention of America, known as Boyd Convention, and to give full cooperation to programs sponsored by other groups similiar to ours.

4. That new emphasis be placed on growth and outreached, and that we enter into a crusade for unreached church brotherhoods.

5. That the members of this Laymen's Movement will follow the leader of this National Baptist Convention, Inc., regardless to who is president.

THE LAYMEN'S THEME FOR 1961:

"YOU SHALL BE MY WITNESS" Acts, 1st Chapter 8th verse The general theme for the Convention:— "JESUS, THE LIGHT OF THE WORLD"

My friends, this afternoon as in the past eight years, we have come before you to give an account of our stewardship as president of your National Baptist Laymen's Movement, and at the same time, try to impress upon your minds, our concept of the unfinished task which lies ahead. Our Christian behaviour becomes a factor as we present ourselves before the public. As we explore and set in motion a program geared to meet the needs of this young generation, we must let our light shine before them, so they will see our good works, and follow in our foot steps. We realize, brothers and sisters, that this world is no friend to grace, to help us on to God. Even in our government, there is a strange relationship existing between the Church and State.

Many years ago, the Federal Government passed a bill permitting the Civil War Veterans to hold their centennial celebration, and this year, there was much talk about bringing up the past for which the Civil War was fought, especially since the dark races of this and other countries are fighting for freedom. The Civil War was one of the bloadiest wars in history. A war in which families were divided. A war in which brothers and friends fought on opposite sides. A war which left behind a ruined south, and sowed seeds of hate, suspicion, and bitterness, which still bears poison fruit. Many white people in most of the southern states today are commemorating those days as if it was something to help the nation. But instead, it is only refreshing the memories of the darkest shame and its deepest tragedy, that has ever happened in this country. We as Christians, should not waste time celebrating history's blackest blot of shame ever written on its pages. Let us pray for this nation that it will get on with the business of this goverament and execute justice for all for God is moving as never before. My brother and sisters, to run this race we need Jesus. We cannot make it alone. We must lay aside every weight and the sin which does so easy beset us.

These little things little things like hate, envy, jealousy, trying to stop progress with the attitude, "if I can't lead it it won't go." These are dead weight, and will hinder the progress of our movement. Let us return to our homes and talk to our Pastors. Ask him to help create enthusiasm among the men of your church, so they will put on the whole armor of God and run this race with patience, looking unto God, the author and finisher of our faith.

Truly friends, this has been a year of trials and great tribulations, even the foundation of our National Baptist Convention has been shaken. The wheels of progress have been slowed down. Peace has been disturbed. Good news has almost vanished away. It brings to my mind the words of Nehemiah when he received the sad news about the walls of Jerusalem. In the 2nd chapter, beginning with the 15th through 18th verse, Nehemiah said, "Then went I in the night by the brook and viewed the walls of Jerusalem, and turned back and entered by the gate of the valley. And the rulers knew not whither I went, or what I did, neither had I told it to the Jews, nor to the priests, nor to the nobles, nor to the rulers, nor to those that did the work. Then said I unto them, ye see the distress that we are in, Jerusalem lieth waste, and the gates thereof are burned with fire, come, let us build up the walls of Jerusalem. Then I told them, the hand of my God was upon me. And they said, let us rise up and build."

So today, my friends, let us rise up and help our pastors rebuild the walls of love, the walls of faith, the walls of confidence in the members of this great National Convention. Let us help clean up the unpleasant things which have impede the onward march of Kingdom building, for if there ever was a time we as a race should work together, it is now. Brothers, we owe the life of our souls to the death of our Saviour, the light of the world. This light directs and guides men in the darkest hour. It reveals to us things divine, and guides us to glory and happiness. Without the word of God, man would be left upon a boundless ocean, without a guide to tell him which way to go. Jesus lights up the way across the sea of life, and points us to the port of safety.

The word of God is a lamp unto our feet. It tells us of the duties we are to perform, and the danger we are to avoid. It guides our eyes, and directs our feet in the path of truth. It is a lamp trimmed with the spirit, constantly burning, and no storm can put it out. It informs us how all things were made, how man fell from his original happiness, and brought himself with all his posterity, under the broken law, it illuminates the dreary dungeon of man, by unfolding to him the plan of redemption; but it should ever be remembered, a lamp will do us no good unless we make use of it. The word of God must be used; not only to please our eyes and ears but as a light to our path; to enlighten our understanding, and direct us through this world to that which is to come. The Bible is our guide. It teaches us how to have faith, for without faith, it is impossible to please God.

God has appointed the preacher as the ordinary means of salvation, and faith in Christ is the result of hearing the doctrines of God preached. It is not the fine, well mannered words from an eloquent tongue that produce faith, but it is the word of God Nothing can satisfy a hungry soul but the word of God, and one of the most dangerous evils we have to guard against, is an unruly tongue. Let us ask God to teach us to feel each other's woes, to hide that fault I see, mercy I to others show that mercy shown to me.

My friends, I have done my best, and I am no ways tired. The record says that it is not to the swift, neither to the strong, but to they that endureth to the end. A long time ago, I promised my Lord, that if He would own me, I would be a witness for Him wherever I go, and today, I am a witness, and if we are to make this laymen's movement felt in this world, we must get out of self and let Jesus be the controlling factor in our lives. We cannot be a witness for the Most High God with self in the way. The Bible says, we must deny ourselves, and take up the cross and follow Jesus. To be a witness for God, we must learn to work together. We must be humble and submissive to God's will. The record says, "when a man thinketh himself to be something, when he is nothing, he deceiveth himself."

Brothers, it doesn't pay to exalt yourself. When you turn back the pages of history, we find wherever a man exalted himself, he was brought low. What we need is more family altars, in our homes, instead of a throne. The record says, Pharoah had a throne, but Moses had an altar. Ahab occupied a throne, while Daniel kneeled at his altar and prayed three times a day, Caesar and Pilate occupied a throne, while Jesus the Son of God shook the world from Gethsemane, and Jesus still sits on the slope of the mountain pointing to a summit world. His voice rises above the noises of roaring planes, blasting rockets, and humming factories, saying, "Go into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature."

My brothers and sisters, this commission has not been affected by social upheavals, economy changes, nor international conflicts. We can no longer play around for a start in the right direction in this laymen's movement. A start is not enough. We must have capable, dedicated Christian workers trained to carry on the work of this laymen's movement for the time is now when men must lay aside every weight and the sin which does so easy beset us and run this race with patience, looking unto God, the Author and the Finisher of our Faith.

Truly friends, the time that knows us now, will soon know us no more. Delegates, let us return to our homes and work while it is day, for the night cometh when no man can work. Let us return to our homes with a new determination to be a true witnesss for Christ even in the midst of trouble. When the storm is raging, wait on God.

In the 40th chapter of Isaiah, the 31st verse says:

"They that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength, they shall mount up with wings as eagles, they shall run and not be weary, and they shall walk and not faint."

Allen Jordan, President
National Baptist Laymen's Convention, U. S. A. , Inc.

Favorable comments were made by vice president, Nichols, Treasurer, Elmore Baker moved that the message be received, adopted, and become a part of the record. Unanimously carried. An expression of appreciation was made to President Jordan. After which, President Jordan presented Rev. Floyd Massey, Jr., who delivered a short sermon and presided over the election. Officers elected on page 1.

Taylor of St. Paul, Minn. paid special tribute to the Minnesota State Choir and Vice President at large, S. W. Nichols of Anniston, Alabama, to the Huntsville, Ala. Male Chorus.—Offering -$58.05

SATURDAY MORNING 8:00 a. m.

National Baptist Laymen's Convention opened with song led by Brother O. V. Phillips, Music Director—"I Need Thee O I Need Thee." Prayer and meditation conducted by Bro. M. C. Millian—Scriptures were recited by those present, song was continued and prayer by Bro. Sunday—song "Lift Him Up." Vice President Taylor complimented Musical Director O. V. Phillips on the great spiritual rendition of the songs and then urged all present upon returning to their various homes to stress the "Good" things heard and accomplished. The meeting was turned over to Vice President J. C. Moses, who presented Bro. W. M. Washington, Editor of the National Baptist Laymen Quarterly. Bro. Washington gave a very fine talk and answered several important questions relative to the Laymen's Quarterly. He spoke of the necessity of each layman becoming a subscriber to the quarterly and said that at present there were about 3000 subscribers as compared to hundreds of thousands of subscribers to other quarterlies. President Nichols, Musical Director, O. V. Phillips, and many others spoke endorsing the message received.

The Journal was read by assistant secretary Upchurch and the same was unanimously adopted. President Nichols presented Dean Henderson Green who made report of the Department of Christian Education. Committee on Resolutions made report. Assistant Secretary, Upchurch, presented Bro. M. McMillian who in turn presented Mr. M. C. Strong of Clarksdale, Miss. Bro. Strong expressed his satisfaction at being present and suggested that ways should be found to bring "More" local presidents to the National Laymen's Convention.

A series of statements were made by many present giving suggestions as to increasing membership, attendance, and finance. President Jordan arrived at this point and the report of the state contest commmittee showed that the state of Missouri won the contest and by a motion and second, the report was adopted. President Jordan stated that the names of the newly elected officers of the Laymen Convention be submitted to the parent body for approval. The names of the elected officers of the National Baptist Laymen were submitted to the National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Inc., and they were approved by the parent body.

After re-assembling with song, "Saviour More Than Life To Me." President Jordan called for the report of the Finance Committee. Registration and collections $3,708.20. It was then moved and seconded that the report be approved. The roll of states was then called for to report the extra monies brought to the convention to determine which state won the Gold Pin. After the report, Missouri received the Gold Pin which was presented to Bro. James Gannaway of Wellsville, Mo. Then the treasurer, Elmore Baker made his final report which was as follows:

President Jackson, Officers, Members of the Board of Directors and Messengers Assembled for the Eighty-first Annual Session of the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc., your trusted servant is pleased to submit the Annual Report of The Sunday School Board.

> "When thou passeth through the waters, I will be with thee; and through the rivers, they shall not overflow thee: when thou walkest through the fire, thou shall not be burned; neither shall the flame kindle upon thee." Isaiah 43:2

The National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc., has experienced during the current year the comforting promises of God. Although laboring amid the turbulent waves and intense heat of circumstances, it has continued to move onward and upward at an accelerated pace. Guided by the Hand of the Almighty, it has skillfully traversed many troubled waters.

We have experienced the fact that the Lord fortifies His own with unwavering strength to withstand trials in times of unusual upheavals. Hence, the Board rejoices in the fact that we have emerged without any serious impairment.

The most effective operating policy in any institution is the unified working relationship with all administrative officers and personnel. The Chairman, Dr. W. T. Crutcher, and members of the Corporate Board have expressed their continued confidence by granting me the latitude to continue to reorganize and strengthen our work as need requires.

The Chairman of the Board and most of the Board Members have made visits, other than for meetings, to the Sunday School Publishing Board, and have been in constant touch with the Administration, giving advice and counsel which was most helpful in solving many perplexing problems. To them I am sincerely indebted, for their words of encouragement, both spoken and written have meant much during times of stress and discontent; thereby perpetuating the firm conviction that my assignment to this task was a finite part of God's infinite plan.

The Sunday School Publishing Board regards its work as being eternally essential. The Members of the Board are cognizant of the fact that the work of the Board must continue to go forward in order to enhance the progress of the denomination.

The efforts of the present administration of the Sunday School Publishing Board may be briefly summarized as follows:

1. Evaluation of Program
2) Undergirding and Utilization of Existing Resources
3) Acquisition of the Tools essential to the Expansion and Implementation of our Purpose.

Our Editorial Division, under the direction of Dr. Jesse Jai McNeil, has endeavored to constantly enhance the format of our literature, and we point with pardonable pride to the following improved publications, already available for distribution for use in the fourth quarter, beginning October, 1961.

The Nursery Bible Lessons
The Kindergarten Bible Lessons
The Junior Bible Lessons, Uniform Series
Senior, Bible Lessons, Uniform
Advanced Bible Studies
Adult Bible Quarterly
The Friendly Visitor (For Home Dept.) for (Visitors attending Classes)
The Sunday School Commentary for 1962.

In addition to the improvements in our quarterlies, we are now offering a number of new materials, such as Activity Kits for Kindergarten through Intermediates; Cycle Graded Lesson for Juniors, Intermediates and Seniors, Young Peoples' Bible Course, Adult Bible Courses, Pastor's Packets, Pupil Participation Helps, Vacation Church School Materials, Devotional Helps, Books for Children and Manuals for Children's Workers, Books for Study and Inspiration, additional Sunday School and Church supplies, and Song Books and a Record Album featuring J. Robert Bradley.

Realizing that our commission is not merely the publishing and disseminating of religious literature for the advancement and spread of our religious faith, but also the development and improvement of Christian Education Progress among our constituents, we have sought to provide educational services and opportunities for leadership training.

In terms of Program Development, this has been a highly successful year in the field of Christian Education, especially in the specifics of leadership training. The Department of Christian Education of the Sunday School Publishing Board, representing the educational measuring stick of the National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Inc., has carried its full load in planning and participation, and has distinguished itself through its contribution to the development of Christian Leaders.

During the past year, we conducted or participated in Area Institutes in Michigan, Maryland, Arizona, Washington, California, Missouri, Kentucky, Pennsylvania, Virginia, New Jersey, Texas and Tennessee. These workshops, sixteen in number, gave us an opportunity to interpret our new materials to our constituents, and to suggest methods for their most effective use. We plan to reach other sections of the country as opportunities arise.

Departmental operations have surpassed all previous years, for through accredited Leadership Schools, such as Congresses, Institutes, Encampments and Training Conferences, we have touched more Baptists than ever before. Not only has the quantity served increased, but there is reflected definite improvement in the quality of directors, deans, instructors and students under the influence of the program. The growing trend of local church leadership schools and cooperative training enterprises continues, with larger numbers being served by the Ministry of Education, and with significant decreases in religious illiteracy.

Departmental statistics for the year are as follows:

Leadership Schools Accredited	530
Deans Certified	107
Instructors Certified	1,553
Course Cards Issued	50,076

CERTIFICATES OF PROGRESS

First Certificates	339
Second Certificates	233
Third Certificates	143
Achievement Certificates	11
Total Certificates of Progress	726

PLANNING PRODUCTION SCHEDULES

The operation of the Sunday School Publishing Board is a segmented procedure. While the various departments have their peculiar functions, the fact remains that it is a great chain operation. The publication of any printed matter begins with the writer and ends in the Church School classroom or department of Christian education. Between these two points, the intricacies are minute and exacting. At the Publishing House, we have sought to eliminate the bottle necks which have caused sweeping criticisms of our late deliveries.

In evaluating the possibilities of a better production schedule, we discovered that a more equitable personnel distribution and additional equipment were needed.

The flow of work from the writer to the mailing room was seriously hampered when a manuscript was submitted late, for every department was automatically thrown off schedule; hence, the overtime problem appeared in many of the departments. This caused us to have to pay idled workers full time pay while they were waiting for the work to reach their departments, and to have kept them overtime in order to process it to meet the deadline.

A recent report from the office of the Director of Publications reveals that most of the manuscripts for the First Quarter, 1962 are now in the House. Regularity at this point has been of major concern and now is of great assistance in meeting our entire production schedule and in reducing the inflated cost of unnecessary overtime pay.

The relative responsibilities in the various departments and the lack of full time work during certain periods calls for Flexibility in grouping, so as to utilize to the fullest extent the entire personnel force.

In the Press Room, the problem was not lack of personnel, but lack of equipment, for the old machines constantly broke down, requiring their operators to perform as many as 12 hours a day during rush periods. While overtime work was the only solution for the existing problem, the productive capacity of the workers, after doing a full day's work, was greatly decreased, and yet, the financial cost of overtime paid for at the rate of time and a half, greatly increased. Therefore, overtime was tantamount to paying more for less, or inflating the cost of production.

After carefully weighing all aspects of the situation, the Board gave full endorsement to the idea of purchasing a modern offset press, at a cost of $93,000.00. This press, which was installed in November, 1960, at once broke the pattern of excessive overtime and late production. The net effect of this one purchase, resulted in changing the sweeping criticism of late distribution of our literature to praise for timely deliveries. This press is capable of printing 32 pages on each side of the paper at one time, giving a full 64 page book, with each turn of the press. It has a productive capacity of approximately 10,000 impressions per hour, which is more than the total capacity of all of our other five presses combined. We are pleased that we are now able to supply your orders more promptly, and for the past two quarters have satisfied all our patrons whose orders were received on time.

PERSONNEL

Retirements, resignations, dismissals and death, removed from our ranks several of the workers during the year. As a result of these events, it became necessary to make some personnel shifts, through promotions and new job opportunities. The required adjustments enhanced, rather than hampered our work, and we have moved forward.

For a number of years, the Sunday School Publishing Board has offered to its employees an excellent program of fringe benefits, such as retirements, life insurance, hospitalization, social security, vacations, funeral leaves, five paid holidays, and opportunity for on the job training and promotion. These are costly items, for the retirement program alone costs upwards of $32,000.00, annually.

The Sunday School Publishing Board is a non-profit organization, yet at the wage level, it must live in competition with institutions that exist for profits. The minimum wage law has been observed by the Board, and in the case of skilled workers, the scale has been in line with the special skills and performances of the individual, running up the scale to more than $2.00 per hour. The unit employee cost of the fringe benefits totals an additional increment of approximately 15% of the actual salary cost, which must also be considered in equating salary.

Pursuant to an act of the United States Congress regulating the minimum wage, the Board has already adjusted wages to meet the new minimum and made other contingent wage adjustments, effective September 3, 1961. These adjustments alone will result in more than $16,000.00 per year, not taking into account possible overtime.

At no time have personnel requests been ignored, but financial obligations resulting from our huge indebtedness and the need for additional working tools, has necessarily limited our increasing wages beyong our present scale.

LABOR UNION

Of the thirteen publishing houses operated in Nashville by religious organizations, the Sunday School Publishing Board is the only one that has had a Labor Union to survive. The union, which was organized in our Publishing House in 1953, lost its national affiliation and sought to get the Executive Director to sign a Honeymoon Contract, that is, sign them over to another national affiliate. In good faith, the Executive Director called for an election. The vote in this election was 27 to 28, in favor of the union. This gave the union certification with the national labor affiliate for one year. During the period for bargaining, the contract presented by the Union was designed for big commercial industries, and therefore, we agreed only in part. Many of the requirements of the contract were already in effect as part of former contracts, or the policy of the Board. However we gave an across the board increase of 3c per hour, to all hourly workers, effective April 1, 1961. This raise, of course, included union members and non-union workers alike.

The Union representative, a white man from Georgia, became their advisor during the fall of 1960. He was not only a stranger to the union members, their employer and the work of the Board and the National Baptist Convention, but had no conception of the organization, purpose nor interests of a religious institution. This representative, along with a few disgruntled workers, persuaded some twenty-two employees, out of 112, to go out on strike. Those involved were a linotype operator, five from the bindery, two from the press room, two elevator operators, two maids, one mailing room worker, one proof reader, one maintenance worker and the truck driver. Most of those who participated in the strike were the undesirable element of employees although a few satisfactory workers, victims of influence or intimidation, verbal and otherwise, took part. All the strikers were sent written notices to return to work, but only three returned. These were reinstated with full seniority rights. Thirteen of the strikers have been replaced, and a reorganization program is making possible the continuation of the work without having to replace the others. In spite of the strike, our publications are out on time, and the Sunday School Publishing Board will continue to serve its patrons on time. This strike was begun on July 25 1961, and at the time of this report, some are still in the picket line.

FINANCIAL ASPECTS

Although the Sunday School Publishing Board is burdened with heavy commitments, our financial position is sound. We enjoy good credit rating, and are retiring our obligations systematically.

The attached Audit Report shows our net profit at $67,221.19, an increase of $3,485.27, over last year. This profit figure reflects economies of some $23,000.00 in Sales Expenses and General and Administrative Expenses, and a Payroll reduction of some $41,000.00, resulting through retirement, reduction of overtime, etc. The improvement of our materials has made them more costly to produce, an expense which has offset the effect of some of the aforementioned economies, however, we are attempting to absorb it, rather than pass it on to our patrons.

We have a number of outstanding accounts which we have not yet been able to collect. These unpaid accounts are directly responsible for some of the borrowing we have had to effect. We need the full support of our constituents, not only in purchasing from us, but in taking care of their accounts promptly.

MORRIS MEMORIAL BUILDING

We have completed the exterior renovation required by the Capital Hill Redevelopment Program, and are continuing the program of interior redecoration of Morris Memorial Building. We now are in the process of refurnishing the various offices and departments. By supervising the work and using members of our own staff, we have saved a great deal of expense in this area. The Sunday School Publishing Board operates and maintains Morris Memorial Building for the National Baptist Convention.

NATIONAL BAPTIST CONVENTION OBJECTIVES

The Sunday School Publishing Board has been dutiful to every request of the parent body.

We have granted the VOICE and cooperated with Dr. Caesar A. W. Clark, in making its monthly distribution.

We have borne the office and secretarial expense of Miss Primrose Funches, National Baptist Convention Field Worker, as well as paying her expense for traveling, her salary, and other incidentals.

The Sunday School Publishing Board made a cash contribution fo $10,000.00 to the Freedom Farm of the National Baptist Convention.

THE NEED FOR GREATER PATRONAGE

Even though we are now serving a large number of the Churches of our Denomination, there is yet a vast field which we must cover. With our improved literature, and the many teaching helps which we have not heretofore offered, we are appealing to our Pastors and Churches to give us the opportunity to serve your needs. It is our intent to inform our purchasing constituents of all of our offerings by conducting "Area Workshops" and Institutes, but their success will of necessity require the cooperation of the Pastors and Churches involved.

CONCLUSION

There is no easy road to achievement; the path is infested with enemies, trials, and deep running currents of change. The dangers of the journey are ever tugging at us, but are powerless to pull us under; they rather challenge us to go over. The sharp conflicts that must be encountered only mark the pathway and punctuate our victories. It is an experience that tests our nature and disciplines our virtue. It tempers us and shapes us as permanent fixtures. The struggles involved are but the birth-throes of a new experience and a new day. The promises of God—Divine Presence, Divine Protection and Divine Deliverance—are sufficient for the shifting scenes of the journey, with its struggles and trials.

There is a story of a shipwreck where the crew and passengers gave up their broken vessel and made their escape to little rescue boats. The sea was rough—the cross currents terrific. Nightfall engulfed them, in the darkness, but to their delight, they discovered that they were in phosphorescent waters, and each dangerous wave rolled up crested with light, which gave them the brightness of day.

There is always an element of mystery in God's dealing with us, for His presence is a conviction, and not a feeling. When faith makes an effort, and asserts itself, God reaches for it—that's enough! He clears up the difficulties for us as we go.

In the language of the Poet:

In all my Lord's appointed way
My journey I'll pursue;
Hinder me not! ye much loved saints
For I must go with you.

Thro' floods and flames, If Jesus lead
I'll follow where He goes;
Hinder me not; shall be my cry;
Tho' earth and hell oppose.

Thro duties and thro' trials too,
I'll follow at His command,
Hinder me not! for I am bound
To my Immanuel's land.

And when my Savior calls me home,
Still this my cry shall be
Hinder me not! come welcome death;
I'll gladly go with thee."

AUDITOR'S CERTIFICATE

We have examined the financial records of the Sunday School Publishing Board, a subsidiary of the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc., for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1961 and now submit as our report the exhibits, schedules and comments listed in the preceding index.

SCOPE OF EXAMINATION

Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances to enable us to render an independent accountant's opinion on the fairness of the representations in the statements showing the financial position of the company at June 30, 1961, and its operating results for the year then ended. The extent of certain procedures employed, including sampling of transactions was based principally on our review of the system of internal control and the efficiency of its functioning.

Cash in banks was independently reconciled and bank balances were confirmed by direct written communication with the depository. Customers' accounts receivable were reviewed and requests were sent to the customers for confirmation of book balances.

Physical inventories were taken by management. We reviewed their method of inventory taking, checked the extension of their inventory sheets and checked their cost by use of ratios of prior years, raw materials invoices and consistency of cost methods employed. All major additions to fixed assets were vouchered and found to be properly classified.

All notes payable were confirmed by communicating directly with the holders. Accounts payable were reviewed and requests for confirmation were sent to a representative group of accounts selected by us. The replies were in agreement with the records or were satisfactorily reconciled.

Federal tax returns were examined and reconciled with the records. We made sufficient tests of the operating accounts to satisfy us that accepted accounting practices had been followed, and that the transactions had been properly and consistently classified.

ACCOUNTANT'S OPINION

In our opinion, the accompanying balance sheet and related income statement fairly present the financial position of the Sunday School Publishing Board as of June 30, 1961 in accordance with generally accepted accounting standards.

Very truly yours,

JONES, ANDERSON & COMPANY

Williams S. Anderson

Written confirmations were called to all accounts of $100 00 and over, and to a selected number under $100.00 There was an increase in accounts of 90 days and over by $25,514.41. Collections on these accounts are slow, care should be taken to prevent a complete loss.

Notes Receivable—$30,908.20

This account is composed mainly of notes from tenants and the National Baptist Missionary Training School. The receivable from the latter amounts to $20,522 72. The school is now out of existence.

Inventories

Raw Materials	$ 17,200 10
Manufactured Products	78,969 49
Purchased Products	19,160 85
Work in Progress	19,601 64
Cafeteria Supplies and Food	344 40
Library Books	7,453 90
Total	$142,730 38

Physical inventories were taken by the employees of the Sunday School Publishing Board under the supervision of management. We reviewed the method of taking inventory, checked tally sheets and pricing methods. We found these methods to be conservative and consistently applied.

Fixed Assets

Total investment in fixed assets amounts to $92,730.44 during the fiscal year. The major portion of this was the purchase of a perfecto press, model LP54 No. M401301, cost $91,591.50. Specifications on this machine state the capacity of the machine to be 5000 impressions per hour on each side of the paper. The impression capacity of the old machines (5) totaled approximately 7000 per hour on one side of the paper. This comparison of impression rates indicates that the new machine has a 30% higher rate than all of the old machines combined. This increased efficiency can produce savings in several areas, especially in labor and raw materials.

Prepaid Expenses

Unexpired Insurance	$ 924 16
Prepaid Interest	18,5212 26
Total	$19,445 42

All items are properly computed and are shown in the balance sheet in accordance with accepted accounting practice. The major portion of prepaid interest is the result of the purchase of the new press.

Securities—$103,142.9

These securities are debentures of the National Baptist Convention, Inc. They are in the custody of the Fulton National Bank as collateral for a loan.

Due From Affiliates—$828,276.89

This amount is due from affiliated organizations, and is an accumulation of years. Collections are slow and doubtful.

Payables

Notes Payable	$226,293 82
Accounts Payable	158,229 78
Total	$348,528 60

Confirmations were prepared on all notes payable and representative amounts of accounts payable. Purchase invoices and receiving records were examined for proper purchases and receipts of merchandise. We reconciled the controlling accounts and examined the supporting documents of a representative amount.

Net Worth—$1,617,201.89

Exhibit V reflects the items causing the increase in net worth of $33,534.98.

Operations

Net Profit—$67,221.29

The net profit for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1961 increased by $3,485.28. This increase in net profit on a lesser amount of net sales can be attributed to economies taken in sales expenses and general and administrative expenses. Sales expenses decreased by $16,139.43. General and Administrative expenses decreased by $6,975.59. A fidelity bond was taken on the employees during the fiscal year. There was a decrease in salaries of $41,555.75. (Schedule H). A major portion of the decrease in salaries was the direct result of the retirement program. Offsetting a portion of the economies mention above was an increase in the cost of raw materials. Raw materials cost increased by $16,018.11. Management states that this was caused mainly by increases in size of different publications.

SIXTY-SECOND ANNUAL REPORT OF THE NATIONAL BAPTIST TRAINING UNION BOARD OF THE NATIONAL BAPTIST CONVENTION, U.S.A., INC.
JULY 1, 1960—JUNE 30, 1961

In Session in the Municipal Auditorium—Kansas City, Missouri
September 6-10, 1961

J. W. GAYDEN, Chairman A. L. DAVIS, Treasurer

C. R. WILLIAMS, Secretary

To our Honored and much beloved president, Dr. Joseph H. Jackson, to the esteemed Officers and Members of the Board of Directors, and to the Messengers of this our great National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Incorporated here assembled in your Eighty-first Annual Session, greetings. Thanks to our Heavenly Father for keeping watch over us by day and by night, and for bringing us safely through dangers seen and unseen and enabling us to see each other face to face. Since we last met, many of our ranks have answered the final roll call, but we are spared by God's mercy to meet again and bring our 62nd Annual report of the National Baptist Training Union Board of the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc., giving account of our stewardship.

OUR RESPONSIBILITY

You have entrusted us with the responsibility of training our young people in Church Membership—an all important task. Just here, we are reminded of the admonition of Solomon, the wise, when he says, "Train up a child the way he should go, and when he is old, he will not depart from it." Proverbs 22:6. As Baptists, we hold the way our children should go is the "Baptist Way." Far too many of our Baptist parents are allowing their children to be trained by other denominations and faiths and as a result many of our young people leave the Baptist church because of this training.

Baptists, beware! The church school has done and is yet doing a great service in teaching us what doth saith the Lord; there is no doubt about that. The Training Union has the responsibility of training the youth in doing what he has been impressed upon his mind in the church school.

TRAINING IN CHURCH MEMBERSHIP

The United States of America requires its male Citizens, on reaching adulthood, to enlist in some branch of the armed service in times of peace preparatory for times of war. It matters not how much or how little education they may or may not have, all, not just a few, but all must be trained for the service they are to give their country. The college graduate may have all the degrees from his school but he too must go to camp and take the basic training before going to fight for his country. How much more important is it to become a soldier in God's army Therefore, before we can become thoroughly prepared and efficient members of the Baptist Church we should get the basic training in the tenets of the Baptist Church. All should be trained in their particular field in order to do the best service.

OUR LITERATURE

We take this opportunity to express our thanks to the many ministers and laymen for their encouraging letters and oral expressions, complimenting our literature It is very gratifying to know that you are being helped in your unions Thanks a million. We are striving hard to have "EVERY MEMBER OF THE BAPTIST CHURCH READING BAPTIST TRAINING UNION LITERATURE."

It should have been done—IN Sixty-One—
But the remaining months are so few;
So, let's all work together
In all sorts of weather
And Do IT in "Sixty-Two."

If ever and whenever the training unions are given their rightful place in our churches, that is, when we Baptists accept the fact that the training union is NOT a separate department or some attachment like an appendix, but is the "Church itself in training," then and not until then will our training unions be able to render the service they are designed to render. A reading church is a growing church. "Reading maketh a full man," said Bacon.

We publish four quarterlies which meet the age levels of all; namely, Junior Quarterly, ages 9, 10 and 11 years; Junior High, ages 12, 13 and 14; Senior-High or Young People, ages 15 to 24 inclusive, and the Adult Quarterly from 25 up We realize that an informed Baptist is always a better Baptist if he is a committed and dedicated Christian. So our Board is geared to train tomorrow's leaders—TODAY! We think we have the solution to your problems. Let us help you. We take great pride in telling you that for more than a year, we have been getting our literature ready for mailing 45 days before the beginning of the quarter. Our literature for the fourth quarter is ready NOW. If you have not already placed your order, do so today. Just visit our booth in the exhibit hall of this building and place your order. All orders reaching us on time will be filled on time

BAPTIST TRAINING UNION LEADER

As a guide to help the group leaders and directors to have a real, effective and drawing union, the Training Union Board publishes the Leader, a Magazine designed to help leaders to organize and administer a successful Training Union Program. Aside from the suggestive ideas that each quarterly gives to increase the interest in our work, the Leader magazine serves as a commentary to which young Baptists may go to find the information needed to do a good job in training. It is also designed to keep young Baptists informed as to the doings of our National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Incorporated.

Specifically: The Training Union Leader:

(1) Solves the common problems of church membership through a correlated study of God's love and purpose for man.
(2) Supplies the members assistance and suggestive program material.
(3) Keeps the members currently informed on new trends in Christian education and denominational affairs.
(4) Develops a reading membership thro' a nation-wide campaign of Every Member Reading Baptist Literature.
(5) Increases our sales.

THE ECUMENICAL YOUTH ASSEMBLY

Through the far-sightedness of our illustrious leader, Dr. J. H. Jackson, our Board was privileged to send eight (8) young people to the North American Ecumenical Youth Assembly which held its first meeting in the United States at the University of Michigan. Ann Harbor, Michigan, August 16-23, 1961. This was indeed a rare privilege and our Board was highly honored by our beloved president for this opportunity. We were able to get three (3) of these young people from Nashville, Three (3) from Memphis, one (1) from St. Louis and one (1) from Albion, Michigan.

We are happy to report to you that our Board gave the Freedom Farm Fund Five Thousand Three Hundred ($5,300) dollars, a worthy project initiated by President Jackson, the great humanitarian, and also paid One Thousand Two Hundred dollars ($1,200) on the salary of our National Field Worker.

Anna waited in the temple until God could send a young person along (The infant Jesus). She looked for the redemption of Israel, so did Doctor Burroughs, when Simeon said he was ready to go Anna came too.

(4) Like Anna, Doctor Burroughs was universally youthful, she belonged to the world. She was universal in her outlook. In 1905 she was one of the founders of the Baptist World Alliance. Anna was in the temple getting a world perspective. Doctor Burroughs sent her word through her pen.

(5) Like Anna, Doctor Burroughs gave her entire life to God. She believed in God, she often said that "Everytime a trap was set for me in the door, God wouldn't open the door." God always steered me around it. God kept his promise with me. He kept the school, the workers the Retreat, and the Camp. Everytime I run out to the end of the rope, God would come and tie on another piece." She had faith in God.

(6) Like Anna she staked her whole life on the promises of God.
Doctor King pictured her sick room when he prayed for her. He said that she asked him to sing "God Will Take Care of You." He closed his Eulogy with singing it as a solo. He paused and asked all who believed it to sing it every day, All sang the chorus.

Fourth, we must meet new things with new minds. Fifth, new materials and the 1962 Commentaries are off the press now ready for distribution. 90. Mrs. Uvee Mdodona Arbouin, chairman of the Interracial Activities Committee was presented to preside over the Interracial Hour. The speakers were (1) Miss Jean Luckey, representative of the American Baptist Convention. (2) Mrs. Marjorie Moore Armstrong, representative from the W.M.U. of the Southern Baptist Convention who advocated the unification of our plans in the promotion of the kingdom of God in the hearts of men. We must work and pray together even though changes are taking place. We must learn to take steps in harmony with the march of progress in spiritual endeavors. We must inspire our young Christians. She noted the fact that it is sad that we don't have any great number of homes to inspire spiritual visions to our youth. This is seen in a decrease of our young Christian men aspiring for the ministry, many more helpful traits of spiritual strength must stem from our home life, we must exemplify real Christianity in our everyday lives. The eyes of the world are upon us, we must give an account to God for our opportunities to do some good. We must borrow strategy to deal intelligently with our children. It isn't a one-sided affair in race relationship, we must have mutual understanding of each other. As Baptist women we must work together and have a period of sharing our experience with others. I think that this is essential and important that we study to prepare ourselves for these important responsibilities, we need better Christian fellowship —Inter-group fellowship. Group fellowship is the way to do it. Let's get on our jobs; make our business real in our country to work with others in peace and good will. Mrs. Armstrong stated that she was a fellow traveller with her husband and God has laid his hands on her and touched the source of her spiritual interests. She continued by saying, I have not entirely desegregated myself but I am a southern born person and I married a southern Missouri man. We can't dare to be selfish to be circumscribed within my particular section of our country, we must learn to live with all peoples of the world for out of one blood were all the creatures of the earth born. Use what God has given you. I'll stake my life on the integrity of Martin Luther King. The unity of mankind is the more important point for relationship—though the backgrounds are different. She congratulated our president upon being elected to carry on the work of our convention.

91. Rev. William H. Robinson, representative of the American Emancipation Centennial spoke on the celebration of the 100th year of our freedom in August in 1963 in the great city of Chicago, Illinois on Lake Front. A museum is to be set up on that site to house the contributions of the Negro.

She also said many letters have neither names, addresses nor churches.

16. Mrs. R. C. Robinson, Denver, Colorado, showed a blank that she sent in name of a person to be put on the blanks, she also had money for the Rural Life Committee which was given to Mrs. Alice Hills.

17. Mrs. Holley suggested sending a note to the members of their respective committees, you are responsible for the people on your list.

25. Mrs. Gaillard said the blank came after she left and received it when she arrived in Kansas City.

26. Young People's Department Report. (See full text in minutes for Young People's Department).

Mrs. A. A. Banks, Jr. National Youth Director, was filled with emotion as she told the news she had received that struck her between the eyes. She found out that petitions were being circulated she felt that people have a right to disagree, but they should disagree in an agreeable fashion. If anything was wrong the person should have come and told her first. She talked with the young people and found out some things. She stated that it was all right—that she was willing to do the best she can. She further stated her concern for giving scholarship which needed more study; that she would submit it to the president for study.

27. Mrs. Viola Harris proposed a motion to approve the report of the Young People's Department, and that a committee be appointed to study this report for further consideration, which was seconded unreadiness: Mrs. E. D. McGowan asked if we were going to have another one; we already have a scholarship, do we want another one? The report was carried for further study and action later.

28. Mrs. Ross said so long as they don't conflict it would seem all right.

31. Mrs. Mary E. Robinson, Shiloh Baptist Church wanted to put her name on the scholarship committee. She is the president of her general missionary Society.

32. Mrs. Banks suggested a study on age grouping. The handbook has an age limit of 25, which has caused problems with the matrons, she wanted to ask that a study be made and bring into focus something definite. She requested that a committee work with the president on arriving at a specific answer. She needed help at the point of integrating these departments. She further asked that she might be permitted to meet with the president and study the ramifications of age grouping.

33. Mrs. E. D. McGowan said that age limit was discussed during the days of the late Miss Burroughs.

34. Mrs. Henrietta Hopkins said she saw a young girl and wanted to know if she was coming into the Woman's Convention.

35. Mrs. Banks stated that they were honoring those who had received former recognition of promotion. The group was mixed.

36. Mrs. Moore asked about the age of the Junior Red Circle which was deferred.

37. Mrs. Banks spoke, of the procedure in the Young People's Department when appointed she said she asked no question but went into it to do the best she could. She did not know why—it seems like when things go well or wrong she gets the blame. One invisions responsibility in total. It seems as if more authority should be delegated to more of the young people when she feels like they are able. She feels that she ought to know them and do the best and right things as she sees the best and right for them.

In the program last night the young people got the spotlight. She asked others to help think through and give suggestions. Many names were sent in for officers but we think it should not come into the Department.

38. At this point Mrs. Ross asked not to discuss this at this time and thanked Mrs. Banks for the report for which she was deeply appreciative.

39. Mrs. Banks gave a partial Report of the Young People's receipts as $5063.30 for which she was thankful.

44. President stated some things she wanted us to remember.
(1) All monies are to be sent to the treasurer.
(2) Mrs. Ida Drew is absent and we should send her a card to let her know how we love her.

45. It was voted that the corresponding secretary send Mrs. Drew a telegram with the forestated sentiment.

46. Mrs. E. D. McGowan said she had been loyal for 35 years and when she stopped out ill for the last few years and no one had sent her a card.

51. A motion was proposed by Mrs. C. M. Pearson, seconded by the group that our president would attend the United Church Woman's meeting in Miami, Florida, October 10, 11, 12 an unreadiness was stated by Mrs. Hopkins that her expenses will be borne by this convention. This motion was carried to include the unreadiness.

52. President Ross said that we have been concerned about the status of the Woman's Convention with the Parent Body and stated that she and the corresponding secretary went over and were received graciously by the Parent Body. She further stated that she explained that they did not get the report from the Parent Body about the change in the Board Policy of electing officers. Then the corresponding secretary was asked to read the roster which was received most graciously by the Parent Body. Every officer that you elected was accepted by the Parent Body, and got my picture made with the president, Dr. Jackson, the men were very happy indeed so we are set for another year.

53 Mrs. M. L. Spraggins attested to the fact that they were so graciously received by the Parent Body.

RECOMMENDATIONS

We the committee on recommendations of the National Baptist Women's Auxiliary Convention submit the following report.

We greet you in the name of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ who is perfect and have never made a mistake.

The news of the home going of out illustrious president Dr. Nannie Helen Burroughs, spread sadness and sorrow over every one that knew her.

She was the greatest woman of this generation. Her worth and works can not be tabulated.

Be it resolved that we bow our heads in humble submission to the will of God, also be it resolved that we close ranks and go forward under the capable leadership of Dr. Mary O. Ross.

Humbly Submitted by the Committee

THE TREASURER'S REPORT

President Ross, Fellow Officers, Messengers to the Annual Session of the Woman's Convention, Auxiliary National Baptist Convention U.S.A., Inc., held in Kansas City, Missouri, and to our friends, I bring you greetings from the office of the Treasurer. Divine Providence has deemed that we meet again; and I am very happy to see each one of you.

I could not make this report without first—expressing the very deep feeling we all have for our late beloved President—Dr. Nannie Helen Burroughs and Henrietta M. Gibbs, their lives and inspiration shall continue to move us forward in this Christian work.

The women of this Convention are to be commended for promptness in replying to all correspondence, and we are profoundly grateful for your cooperation with this office. Everything has been done in a sisterly and Christlike spirit. I thank each one of you who sent a little note with your letter blank. Just a hello—meant so much to me. For funds received—receipts were mailed promptly. Certainly, promptness is essential to the execution of the business of any organization.

It is a privilege for me to present to you a report of the activities of this office for the past year. I hereby submit for your earnest consideration my Annual Report as Treasurer.

REPORT

I have made a conscientious effort during this period to dispense with my duties in a creditable manner, striving at all times to work for the interest of the Convention and to be in Harmony with my superior officers and co-workers. It has been a pleasure for me to serve in this capacity.

I take the opportunity to wish for us a larger and greater Woman's Convention—Auxiliary National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Inc. May God bless and keep each of you until we meet again.

Respectfully Submitted
MARGERY B. GAILLARD, Treasurer

TO THE EXECUTIVE BOARD OF THE WOMAN'S CONVENTION AUXILIARY TO THE NATIONAL BAPTIST CONVENTION U. S. A., INC., IN SESSION

Hot Springs, Arkansas
January 24-25, 1962

To President Ross, Officers, and Members of The Executive Board, I beg leave to submit the following report concerning The Retreat For Foreign Missionaries and National Headquarters For The Woman's Convention Auxiliary to the National Baptist Convention U. S. A., Inc.

What great challenges lie before us as we embark upon a New Year! What great opportunities for service we have. Our National Meeting in Kansas has given us direction for 1962. They are the Directives of our Pioneers, The President of the Woman's Convention, and of New Frontiers which challenge women today.

As we begin our New Year, let us rededicate ourselves to the task which lie ahead in building a great National Woman's Convention committed to the task that confront us toward making a better world.

May I call to your attention two basic facts that confront us?

The first is that our Country, Our Generation, Our World are faced with so many and such formidable dilemmas that survival is at stake.

The second fact upon which I assume we agree is that women have a responsibility to assume and a contribution to make far beyond what they are presently assuming and making. We have spent much time and thought trying to evolve some practical way in which The Retreat For Foreign Missionaries and The National Headquarters of The Woman's Convention could take its place in serving The Cause in National Strength and International Peace. In order to take our place with Citizens of The World, we must issue the Call for Extra Effort, Extra Ingenuity, Extra Flexibility, and Extra Dedication. We believe that much individual talent and Woman power is wasted and now we have a place where we can use the Talent, Time and Finance of every Woman in the Woman's Convention,—thus giving an opportunity to every Woman to become a Brick of Service in a living Monument to our Pioneers.

I was asked to leave my post of duty in Africa 5 years ago to come to America and serve as The Director of The Retreat For Foreign Missionaries.

I heard the guiding Voice of Jesus say, "In all Areas are Human Needs." Certainly there was a need for a Retreat For Foreign Missionaries in America, and therefore, I answered The Call. Upon my return the late Dr. Nannie Helen Burroughs became incapacitated, and therefore, for obvious reasons I did not assume my duties until May 27, 1961, and therefore, I have come to give an account of my Stewardship and to suggest or recommend how we may continue to go forward.

First of all, I briefly state what you should know about The Retreat. Every member of The Woman's Convention should know:

FIRST—The Purpose.

SECONDLY—The Objectives.

THIRD—How The Objectives are to be Obtained. And FOURTH—The Program for Local, National and Inter-National Groups.

The Purpose of The Retreat is to serve as a "Home away from Home" for the Foreign Missionary while in the U. S. A. on furlough or business.

The Retreat is The National Headquarters of The Woman's Convention Aux. to The National Baptist Convention U. S. A., Inc.

The Retreat is a Christian Fellowship Center for State, National and International Groups.

The Objectives:

1. To develop the Religious ideals of Brotherhood, that Justice shall become the basis of Human Relationship.

2. To acquaint churches and Missionary Groups of program, Progress and Needs
3. To set up an Annual Budget for operating The Retreat.
4. To Promote The Expansion Program.

How Objectives Are To Be Obtained:

1. By support of The Woman's Convention.
2. By support of The Foreign Mission Board.
3. Thro' Life Memberships of The Woman's Convention.
4. By contribution from churches.
5. Thro' special annual program of The Retreat.
6. Retreat Finance Committee.
7. Special Gifts.
8. And National Missionary President Vesper Hour.

THE RETREAT AND ITS PROGRAM

What you should know about it.

How it works and what it does.

You should know that The Program of The Retreat is an Open Door for Constructive Christian Service in the Community, State, Nation and The World. Among the first Adult Organized Groups to meet at The Retreat was The American and African Club with Phaon Goldman as President. In the field of service, Mr. Goldman stated, the Americans assisted Africans in locating housing, employment and in becoming adjusted to life in the United States of America and that is the purpose of The Goldman Club.

Mrs. E. C. Smith—Chairman of Inter-National Program.
Mrs. Eunice V. Baker—Chairman of Foreign Student Committee.
Mrs. Mary E. Robinson—Chairman of Finance Committee.
Mrs. Elizabeth Craig—Chairman of Hospitality Committee.
Miss Geneva Bryant, RN—Home Nursing as set up by The Red Cross.
Mrs. Virginia Smith—Chairman of Missionary Presidents Vesper Hour.
Mrs. Wendell C. Sommerville—Chairman of Foreign Student Committee.

The First Missionary Presidents Vesper Hour was held Sunday, January 14, 1962 at the Retreat. 33 Missionary Presidents attended and it was decided that they would meet quarterly and make a contribution to the Retreat.

We live today in a world of confusion and chaos, and now we can adopt the philosophy of Martin Luther who said, "That though he knew the world was to end tomorrow, he would plant his apple tree today."—DUTY CALLS! WHAT IS YOUR ANSWER?

The retreat must be renovated and to that end I refer you to the budget that I have already submitted. The Woman's Convention has kept The Door Opened at The Retreat.

You are invited as a group or individuals to join in the Movement dedicated to building a better world for all.

Give us the vision to see the right.

The following recommendations are Submitted for your Consideration:

No. 1. That The Missionary Presidents Vesper Hour be considered a Major Project of The National Program of The Woman's Convention to systematically, and periodically give support to The Retreat For Foreign Missionaries, and National Headquarters of The Woman's Convention Auxiliary to The National Baptist Convention U. S. A., Inc.

I further recommend the appointment of a Committee of three or five persons to set up The Project, and outline a Workable Plan for every Missionary Circle of The Woman's Convention.

No. 2. Secondly, I recommend a Budget Committee of three or five persons appointed by The President to review the Budget for The Retreat For Foreign Missionaries and National Headquarters For The Woman's Convention, and The Budget Committee, after reviewing same, will make recommendations to The Executive Board concerning the Budget submitted by The Director of The Retreat.

Sarah Williamson Coleman, Returned Missionary Director of The Retreat For Foreign Missionaries and National Headquarters of The Woman's Convention Auxiliary to The National Baptist Convention U. S. A., Inc.

ANNUAL REPORT AND ADDRESS OF MRS. MARY OLIVIA ROSS, PRESIDENT OF THE WOMAN'S CONVENTION, AUXILIARY TO THE NATIONAL BAPTIST CONVENTION, U.S.A., INC

Moving Forward Through: Christian Education, Better Human Relations, Denominational Integrity, Stronger Christian Faith

Kansas City, Missouri—1961

STRONGER CHRISTIAN FAITH

We are five million strong denominationally. This number is sufficient to enable us to set the pace for all members of the race to move on to victory and to worthy accomplishments in every field for human improvement. Baptists must be exemplary. Baptist women, under God, must be a bulwark of strength in which all peoples may safely put their trust. I entreat you, hear what the Lord in Second Chronicles 7:14 says: "If my people, which are called by my name shall humble themselves and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land."

Jesus, still lead on, Till our rest be won,
And, although the way be cheerless, We will follow, calm and fearless,
Guide us by hand, To our Father land.

If the way be drear, If the foe be near,
Let not faithless fears o'er-take us, Let not faith and hope forsake us;
For through many a foe, To our home we go.

When we seek relief, From a long felt grief;
When temptations come alluring, Make us patient and enduring;
Show us that bright shore, Where we weep no more.

Jesus, still lead on, Till our rest be won;
Heavenly Leader, still direct us, Still support, console, protect us,
Till we safely stand, In our fatherland.

KANSAS CITY

Fellow Baptists and friends, I greet you in the name of our Father God.

It is significant that we are guest of Baptists who reside in this historical state which gave birth to Buffalo Bill Cody and Wild Bill Hickok who brought law and order to these parts; and John Brown—that fearless fighter for the freedom of the Negro, and in whose honor the state of Kansas has dedicated Memorial State Park, located 48 miles south of Kansas City, Kansas. It is in this park where the cabin of John Brown still stands.

It is also significant that our meeting site is Kansas City, Missouri. This significance is especially pronounced because this city with over 456,672 inhabitants, is noted for its economic prosperity. In 1950, the bank records of the city showed accounts amounting to $3,885,857,000. With this much money on hand, we are confident that all of our financial efforts during this convention will be successful.

The second significance of our meeting in this area refers to the educational facilities of these two states. Missouri and Kansas, which are said to be ample for the training of those who find themselves faced with the challenge of living in an age of rapid changes. A recent survey revealed that Kansas City alone has 3,708 public schools, including 611 high schools and 44 colleges and universities. It is my hope that in this kind of environment that we shall carry out the work which we must do here in this convention with clear thinking and intelligent deliberations.

A third reason why it is significant that we are meeting as the guest of Baptists in the Kansas City area is that since 1861 when Kansas was admitted to the United States as a non-slave state, Kansas has been the site where many questions dealing with human freedom have been resolved.

Known as the famous "twin cities," Kansas City, Missouri and Kansas City, Kansas have made historical contributions in the area of social reforms. One of the outstanding reforms has to do with the settlement of the question on slavery. I refer specifically to the Missouri Compromise, which in effect, showed the awareness of the lawmakers that slavery was wrong.

From the early history of Kansas and Missouri, the churches have been important in bringing about various reforms in these states. I again sincerely hope that the other reforms will come about as a result of the work that we Baptists shall accomplish in this convention session.

III. THEY WHO REST

Dr. Nannie Helen Burroughs of Washington, D. C. president of this Convention for thirteen years, and who was a servant of this Convention for a total of sixty years, fell asleep on May 20, 1961.

No soul more worthy than that of Dr. Burroughs could have escaped this mortality.

She now is in that City, her Saviour's hand has piled;
We know her Saviour waited and welcomed Home His child.
For unworthy all may be, He will find a place for me,
He's the King of Glory—the Man of Galilee

How can we best honor the life and works of this intrepid leader? Surely not with songs and speeches, not with mournings and tears, and not with stones and drapings; but with resolution and rallying and lifting the mortgages on the Foreign Missionary Retreat in Washington, on the National Youth Camp and Senior Retreat at Constantine, Michigan, and promoting the National Trades and Professional School on Lincoln Heights; and in all these, we shall go forward in the task to foster foreign missions which she loved and for which she laboured and died.

Mrs. Henrietta M. Gibbs, the Treasurer-Emeritus of this Convention and the very able president of the Woman's Convention of Alabama, fell asleep on November 24, 1960. She was a woman full of good works, and her works do follow her. This Convention will ever be grateful for her proficiency, efficiency, and sufficiency in holding and dispensing the funds trusted to her care.

Mrs. Mabel Williams of Fairfield, Alabama, the accomplished and lifting organist of the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc., went to sleep on January 23, 1961.

We extend sympathy and pray that God will comfort, strengthen and keep Mrs. Augusta Mann, the Co-Chairman of Visual Aids, who lost her husband this July 1961; and Mrs. Hazel Shanks Hynson of Arkansas, who lost her husband early this year. Mrs. Hynson is always present to contribute willingly her musical talent at our Mid-winter Board Meeting at Hot Springs, Arkansas.

There are perhaps others of our workers who have lost close relatives. To them we extend our sympathy, and for them we pray.

IN MEMORIAM

I watched a sail, it dropped from sight
Over the rounding sea—a gleam of light,
At last, far flashed farewell, and like a thought
Slipt out of mind, it vanished and was not.

Yet, to the helmsman standing at the wheel,
Broad seas still swept before the gliding keel.
Disaster? Change? He left no slightest sign
Nor dreamed he of that dim horizon line.

So may it be, perchance, when down the tide
Our dear ones vanish. Peacefully they glide
On level seas, nor mark the unknown bound
We call it death—to them tis life beyond.

IV. THE UNEXPIRED TERM

On May 20, 1961 when the light which has brightened the path of Christian women, and particularly Negro Baptist Women, for sixty years, went out, Baptist women on this continent and other continents upon this planet staggered under the shock, and a great shadow was cast. In our grief-stricken state, we began to count the losses we sustained in the home-going of our matchless leader, Dr. Nannie Helen Burroughs.

Grieved though we are, we realize that we must shift our thinking from the losses we sustain to the gains we hold, because Miss Burroughs lived, led and laboured with, among, and for us. We have a rich heritage which challenges us to New Horizons.

On May 25, this year, in a call meeting of the Board of Directors of the Woman's Convention, the Board elected me to finish the unexpired term of our late President. In a spirit of deep humility, appreciation and sincerity for the confidence expressed in me, I bowed to the demands of our women and resolutely shouldered the task of carrying out the unexpired term.

I have brought this Convention to you here at Kansas City. In this performance I have done my best. I thank those around the country—women and men—who believed in me and who thought the Convention would be safe in my hands. I especially thank the officers of this Convention for their support.

I thank the Parent Body for its kind assurance that we had at our disposal, all the help we needed in our endeavor to move forward.

MID-WINTER BOARD MEETING

The Board of Directors of the Woman's Convention, Auxiliary to the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc., met in the Little Bowman Theatre of the National Baptist Bathhouse and Sanitorium, Hot Springs, Arkansas, January 18, 19, 1961.

Due to the illness of our late President, Dr. Nannie Helen Burroughs, the meeting was presided over by the first vice-president.

Some of the highlights of the meeting were:

1. Prayers for our President, Dr. Nannie H. Burroughs.
2. Recognition of the homegoing of the late Mrs. H. M. Gibbs, our Treasurer, of Tuscaloosa, Alabama.
3. The great welcome program given by the Consolidated and the Regular Women's Conventions presided over by Mrs. Ida A. Drew.

OTHER MEETINGS

Executive Committee Meeting of the Board of Directors

This meeting was held June 19 at St. Louis, Missouri. The purpose of said meeting was:

1. To further study the status of our work and plan for carrying it forward to the Annual Session, September 5-10, 1961;
2. To plan the program for the Annual Session, to be held in Kansas City, Missouri.

Most of the members of the Committee were present, and we acknowledged messages from the absentees and transacted a large volume of business pertaining to the welfare of the Convention. In this meeting we heard and accepted reports from the Treasurer, the Auditor, the Director of the National Youth Camp and Senior Retreat, and correspondence concerning the Foreign Missionary Retreat and the National Trades and Professional School.

With all in one accord to cooperate to the fullest in the work of our Convention, we adjourned with our hearts and faces turned toward Kansas City, and this Annual Session.

XII. THE NORTH AMERICAN WOMEN'S UNION OF THE BAPTIST WORLD ALLIANCE

This organization, whose president, Mrs. M. B. Hodge, graces this meeting with her presence, held an executive meeting on last July 4, 5 at Green Lakes, Wis.

The President of this Convention was invited to attend the meeting, but was unable to go. Our Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Esther Walker Tyree, who is a member of the executive committee, did attend the meeting and at the proper time, will report to us.

During this session we shall have the glorious privilege of hearing Mrs. Hodge, the President of the North American Baptist Women's Union.

VI. MISSIONS AT HOME

James Hoffman, in his book, "Mission U.S.A.," discussing The Land We Love, said, "Americans must know that we are living in the wealthiest nation on earth.

We are the most entertained and most educated people in the world. (We didn't say best entertained and educated, but America has quality, too, for those who want it.)

We have the most library books, the most symphony orchestras, and probably the most amateur oil painters of any in the world.

We have the most—well, we could exhaust the alphabet: automobiles, bath tubs, cocktail shakers, etc."

But just how Christian is America? How much is America improving because of Home Missions?

In a recent study of the national theme for Home Missions "Heritage and Horizon," we discovered a statement which summarizes Truman Douglas' rethinking in the matter of Home Missions.

What we call "home missions" is not an eccentric or marginal or optional activity. It is the main business of every local church, every church school, every Christian institution and program. It is the business of every Christian. For the church in America, as everywhere else in the world, is called to further the Christian movement in a society whose dominant presuppositions, standards, and goals are frequently in direct and massive opposition to those of Christianity. In a far more radical sense than has been commonly understood, the church in America must be a missionary church or it will die.

This challenges us to keep up our work—crusading to improve American Life on all Fronts. We must not be content to look on, but must cultivate a Christlike concern, and be not only aware of what is going on but we must be active in the crusade to help mend America's flaws.

Our nation is yet spiritually ill. Even though 99% believe in God, only 73% report membership in a church or synagogue, (53% Christian). So 27% or more of Americans do not belong to any church. Of America's more than 180 million, approximately 30 million go to church on Sunday. About 40 million go on Easter Sunday and Mother's Day.

No nation can rise higher than the homes and families of that nation. Though the divorce rate is down 40% since 1946, the divorce mills are yet running overtime. During 1960 a serious crime was committed every 15 seconds—a murder every 58 minutes—a rape every 34 minutes—an aggravated assault every 4 minutes. Arrest of juveniles have more than doubled since 1950. For the past 5 years the F.B.I. says crime rate has been rising more than four times faster than the population. Juvenile crime is yet prevalent.

There are entirely too many hospitals over run with mental patients. There are too many people suffering from loneliness, and reaching out for something they have not yet found.

America is on the move. One person in every five in this country moves each year. All of this indicates that there remaineth yet a serious lack in our living in the proper relationship to God and man.

But what has our National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc.—with 5 million membership—to say about her responsibility in home missions? What has our Woman's Convention—with a membership of approximately 3 million—to say about her responsibility in home missions? What will we National Baptists do about our share of the work in nursing this sick generation back to health—across all boundary lines? What will we do in the matter of larger support for both Christian education and secular education? What will we National Baptists do in our churches, district and state organizations to promote adequate educational programs for our youth and our aging? What will we National Baptists do toward larger promotion of evangelism? What does our Home Mission Board wish to say to us?

Mrs. F. A. Chappelle, Chairman of the Home Missions Committee of this Woman's Convention, will speak briefly, during this session concerning our task.

VII. MISSIONS—FOREIGN

Our Woman's Convention is to a degree better prepared to move forward in the business of missions, because large numbers of her leaders have given themselves to the study of the 1960-61 interdenominational mission study theme in the United States and Canada: "Into All the World Together"—using as a textbook, "One World, One Mission" by W. Richey Hogg.

A new view of Missions is embracing our women. Time was when to some of us—as far as foreign mission was concerned—thought only about the church in Africa, but now we have begun to be concerned about the church in the world.

Did you read the May-June Issue of "The Mission Herald"? It is brim full of interesting, inspiring and informative missionary material. If you have not read it, ask Dr. Adams to send you a copy.

We are grateful to the Executive Secretary and the Foreign Mission Board for the work being done, and for what, under God and through their leadership, we shall do in Overseas Missions.

Again we express gratitude to Almighty God for the love, leadership, and liberality shown our foreign mission causes by our late beloved President, Dr.

Nannie Helen Burroughs. If you wish to get a recent glimpse of her and her last work for Africa, get the July, August, September issue of "The Worker" and read from pages 45-53. In a letter from Mrs. Mattie Mae Davis of Suehn Industrial Mission, Dr. Burroughs made a statement which took the form of a request, and I quote:

"We want two hundred readers of "The Worker" to help us give Suehn chairs for the Chapel at once. Send $8.00 each with name and address. Thank you.—Nannie H. Burroughs."

This last request for foreign missions, I am sure you will honor by sending to the Treasurer of this Convention the money requested, with your name and address.

Let us increase our giving to the Foreign Mission cause. It will mean progress for the work and growth for those who give.

Mrs. Alice Brown of Kansas City, Missouri, is the able Chairman of the Foreign Mission Committee of this Convention. She will speak briefly concerning the work before this session closes.

THE RETREAT FOR FOREIGN MISSIONARIES

You have already heard and felt much about the purpose, the property and significance of the Retreat, but now please be informed that a program of Christian Education has begun, directed by our Educational Director, Mrs. Sarah Williamson Coleman, whose ability everybody recognizes.

Since May the Director has made regular reports on the activities of The Retreat as well as the needs of The Retreat. She has gotten out a folder for this meeting answering, "What Is the Foreign Mission Retreat of the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc"?

A Hostess Housekeeper has been secured and expects to begin her work this September.

The Retreat is in need of some immediate repairs. Estimates of cost are on hand, but money is necessary at this point.

Get a brochure on the Retreat. You need to know how it is financed and how it is directed.

The balance we owe on The Retreat is $25,500.00. Let's pay it off in 1962.

THE NATIONAL TRADES AND PROFESSIONAL SCHOOL

The National Trades and Professional School is the only purely religious school of National Baptist Heritage, opened for the training of missionary-minded girls and women who are willing to heed the call, "Come over into Macedonia and Help us,"

You would be pleased to know that on this past July 2, we dedicated the beautiful new Chapel on the campus of the School.

On July 3, the Summer Institute opened under the able direction of Mrs. Rosa L. Kimp of Flint Michigan.

This institute was one of the best ever held at the school. The women from several states around the nation were pleased with the gains they made there.

All were richly inspired, informed, and challenged after three weeks of study in.

1. Growing in Christian Commitment through Bible Study
2. Making Mission Alive for Young People
3. Church Music
4. Missionary Methods
5. What Baptists Believe
6. Handicrafts
7. Home Nursing
8. Typing
9. The Art of Workshop
10. Making Drapery and Slip Covers
11. Pageantry and Public Speaking

The faculty, which was interracial as well as interdenominational, seemed at its best, enlightening and enriching the students.

This Convention can well afford to be grateful for women like Mrs. Rose L. Kimp, the Director of the Summer Institute and instruction in Pageantry and Public Speaking, Mrs. C. M. Pearson, the President of the Student Council and Instructor in Missionary Methods, and Mrs. Lula Mills Haynes, Instructor in the Art of Workshop.

Many of you have questions concerning the school. The National Trades and Pfofessional School is under the directorship of a Board of Trustees. Competent persons are working to determine the exact status of this school in relation to the Woman's Convention. We expect to have a report at the January Board Meeting.

X. THE WORKER

There is a foundation by which competent persons will carry on "The Worker" and its services.

Let us hope and pray that death can never still the voice and the progress of "The Worker."

May we never be contented before "The Worker" is read in every church, in every mission, and in every home.

XI. OUR YOUNG PEOPLE

"There is strength in youth. But this strength is of no avail if it is not permeated by righteousness and truth and love of God in Christ."

Here is where we must be both able and available to lead youth into the type of Christian experiences that would make them understand that "God is at work in His world remaking it after the pattern of His own heart," and that God not only desires but expects them to help Him in this work.

Through our local church programs, our thousands of young people, who really are the most important part of any and all churches, must be recognized, sympathized with, respected, trained, given opportunities for expression, and be led to feel that they have a place on the program in the great business of religion.

Young people like others of us, are living in the midst of this whirlwind of change, and therefore, in the days ahead, must have more attention, and at the same time be made aware of their Christian responsibilities upon this changing planet.

Our Young People's Department, under the able directorship of Mrs. A. A. Banks, Jr. and the three Sectional Directors: Mr. Bertha Winston, Mrs. Corene Watts, and Miss Primrose Funches, is in capable hands. Under the leadership of our late president, we have purchased one of the beauty spots of the nation for our National Youth Camp and Senior Retreat. The "Worker" calls it "A Christian Haven dedicated to recreation, study and fellowship; and An Earthly Paradise for Training and Fellowship for Christian Youth and Church and Social Service Learners and Leaders."

It is our earnest desire to formally open and dedicate this Camp in the early Summer of 1962. Before this can be done, however, there are repairs that must be made, and a few more notes which must be paid.

The Camp site of 80 acres was purchased at a small cost of $60,000. The balance due is $39,374.99.

You will hear more about the Camp on Friday night during the Young People's program here in this auditorium.

We are grateful to Director Banks and the Camp Board of Trustees for their cooperation and everything they have done and will do in the promotion of the work of this Camp and Senior Retreat.

XIII. THE NATIONAL COUNCIL OF CHURCHES

Last December, the National Council of Churches held its national Assembly at San Francisco, California.

It is our hope and prayer that if women are in anyway included, representatives of this Woman's Auxiliary Convention will always be included among the representatives of our National Baptist Body.

The "Interchurch News" is an ecumenical newspaper which the National Council of Churches publishes. If we desire, as ecumenical Christians, to keep abreast on church cooperation—local, state, national and world-wide, we recommend that you would subscribe to this publication which costs only one dollar per year.

XIV. THE GENERAL DEPARTMENT OF CHURCH WOMEN OF THE NATIONAL COUNCIL

The Triennial Assembly of United Church Women will convene in Miami, Florida this October, 1961. Our Woman's Convention expects to be represented in that Assembly.

The Magazine, "The Church Woman," published by United Church Women, will help to keep women informed as to the work women are doing in this and other countries around the world. Here again, just one dollar will cover the cost of the subscription. Try reading it. You will like it.

XV. THE WORLD COUNCIL OF CHURCHES

The World Council of Churches, a fellowship of churches that confess Jesus Christ as Lord and Saviour, and together seek to meet human need throughout the world, was born in Amsterdam, Holland in 1948; met in Evanston, Illinois in 1955; has a membership of 170 million protestants in more than fifty countries; can summarize its major responsibilities under four headings:

1. Through the Division of Inter-Church Aid and Service to Refugees, the World Council reaches out to every part of the world;
2. Through the Division of Ecumenical Action, the World Council conducts a youth program, sponsors many ecumenical work camps, and advances studies on the work and witness of Christian laymen.
3. Through its Division of Studies, the World Council calls upon the world's best minds to help analyze and suggest Christian approaches to the ever-new problems confronting the Church.
4. The Commission of the Churches on International Affairs is jointly sponsored with the I.M.C.

The next session of the World Council of Churches Assembly will be held in New Delhi, India, November 1961.

Our Woman's Convention hopes to be considered as delegates are chosen to go to New Delhi to attend this World Council Assembly.

FEARLESSLY FORWARD FACING THE FUTURE

When Joshua inherited the leadership of the children of Israel, he discovered his first big task at the River Jordan. His ultimate goal in the journey was Canaan, but could not realize his goal until he crossed the Jordan. There at this river, God gave this memorable admonition, "Go over this Jordan and inherit the land which I will give thee."

We are now standing on the brink of doubt—in some, wonderment, in some others—fear; in still others—and then some who are reaching back for the departed to lead them. This brink constitutes the Jordan which the women of the National Baptist Convention must cross.

The challenge facing us as we stand on this brink is to cross over this Jordan and possess the lands which our leader, Miss Nannie Helen Burroughs, left to us, and which our heavenly Father has bequeathed to us. We refer to lands here as being the unfinished task facing us as women of the National Baptist Convention.

I cite in point, four of such lands or unfinished tasks:

1. Christian Education
2. Better Human Relations
3. Racial Integrity
4. Stronger Christian Faith

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

An individual can be no more Christian than he knows how to be. A church can be no more Christian than it knows how to be. A district, or state, or national convention can be no more Christian than it knows how to be. Thus, one of our great needs is to know how to be Christian. This involves Christian Education.

Let us, therefore, arise and move fearlessly forward in obtaining Christian Education. This we must do as individuals and as organizations.

May we not accept as a challenge the views of Dr. Benjamin E. Mays in his criticism of our National Baptist Convention when he cited the lack of a program of education. Dr. Mays expressed this opinion in the August 5, 1961 issue of the Pittsburgh Courier.

BETTER HUMAN RELATIONS

There are two and one-half billion people in our world today. Somehow we must learn to live peacefully and profitably together. The peace referred to is peace which includes justice, freedom, and the respect of the people in the whole wide world. The world today is inescapably interdependent. Unless men learn to live together they will die together.

We, however, of this National Baptist Convention, are more at this time directly concerned with the 183 million comprising the population of these United states of America.

Much has been said about the Supreme Court Decision abolishing segregation in public education. This is without doubt the greatest mark of social change in our nation since the Emancipation Proclamation, which abolished slavery in these United States. As a result of the Supreme Court Decision of May 1, 1954, some churches have revised their racial policies. Many public speakers have been inspired to speak up for democracy and brotherhood. Schools in many areas have become integrated and in many sections of the country, segregation in transportation and public eating places has been abolished. The interracial News Service—A Digest of Trends and Developments in Human Relations, publishes bi-monthly denominational statements on racial and cultural relations. These statements have been and are encouraging.

There remains yet, however, much land to be possessed in human relations. We must continue to move forward toward better human relations until we realize everywhere and accept the fact that: "In Christ there is no East or West, in Him no South or North; but there is one great fellowship of love throughout the whole wide earth."

RACIAL INTEGRITY

Congratulations and sincere thanks to the young Negro people and their young white friends of America, especially those students in the southern part of this nation, for the progress they are making in their bid for freedom and human dignity for all Americans.

Just as all other Americans have made contributions, so has the Negro in the past made contributions; he is still making them, and shall continue to make contributions to the development of this nation and to the world. Both, in war and in peace, he has given a full measure of his devotion.

It has been one hundred years since we fought the Civil War—which saved the Union and freed the Negro slaves. Negroes have a right to share greatly in the joy experienced by other Americans over the one hundred years of progress made by this nation, and the fact that it is the greatest country in the world.

The Negro race, however, must ever remember that it has a responsibility to bear in this right to share. James Weldon Johnson in his "Lift Every Voice and Sing," made an appropriate petition.

"God of our weary years, God of our silent tears,
Thou who has brought us thus far on the way
Thou who has by Thy might, Led us into the light,
Keep us forever in the path we pray.

Lest our feet stray from the places where our God met Thee
Lest our hearts drunk with the wine of the world we forget Thee.
Shadowed beneath Thy hand—May we forever stand, true to our God,
True to our native land."

It is easy to foot the trodden path
Where thousands walked before.
It is simple to push my fragile bark
Past reefs of a charted shore.

I find it good to ride the road
Where others laid the rail.
It is well to test the ocean's strength
Where others also sail.

But when a dream enslaves a man,
A dream of the vast untrod.
A dream that says, "Strike out with me,
Strike out, or part with God."

A dream that leads to an untried path
Where unknown tempests blow.
And the only chart a man can boast
Is his will that bids him go.

Ah, then my soul bethink yourself,
For God has spread this scroll
To test the stuff of your rough-hewn faith
And the fibre of your soul.

It was moved by Miss Primrose Funches and seconded by many that we would accept these recommendations on Literature which was unanimously carried.
3. That the Woman's Convention will work co-operatively with other Baptist bodies and with the General Department of United Church Women of the National Council of churches in the next three (3) years only the promotion of better Race Relations, Assignment: Race. With all the projects we have, we could raise a little sum. Have a "Loyalty Night" at the convention when they would be turned in. This will be done by a committee appointed by the president.

It was moved and seconded by Miss Primrose Funches and seconded by Mrs Alexander; after an unreadiness stated by Sister Greene, who wanted to know about the details, was carried unanimously.

NATIONAL BAPTIST YOUTH CAMP AND SENIOR RETREAT BOARD OF DIRECTORS REPORT

January 25, 1962

President Ross, presiding President Carter, Official Family of the Woman's Convention, U.S.A., Inc., Members of Board of Directors, Christian Friends.

Please let me express my sincere thanks and appreciation for the honor and confidence placed in me by electing me Director of National Young People's Department. I am humbled by your love and confidence and I promise to do my best, my commitment is expressed in one of Dr. Harry Emerson Fosdick's great hymns, God of Grace and Glory, Grant me Wisdom, Grant me courage for the facing of this hour. Grant me wisdom, Grant me courage that I fail not man nor Thee.' that I fail not man nor thee."

Now for the Camp report the high purposes of our National Camp were formulated by our late president, Busgoughs and are listed on camp stationary.

Camp Purposes:

1. Furnish a cradle for nurturing a center for developing and glorifying Christian ideals, for living and serving
2. Make it a divine citadel for training young people for majestic Christian service and dedicated leadership.
3. To teach young people how to live, work and enjoy God's word and His world and in an outdoor shrine of holy worship and glorified beauty.
4. To feed back into our local churches new life, more light and richer fellowship, through dedicated leadership.

As Secretary of the Board of Directors of the National Camp and Senior Retreat I shall give you some information to which you are entitled.

The Camp Board met at Camp Site August 22, 1961 seven of the Board Members were present. The members that were there:

Mrs. Trudie Trimm, Co-Chairman
Mrs. Z. Anderson Barrow, Secretary
Mrs. Zoie Smith. Custodian
Rev. D. E. King

Mrs. O. Ross

I think you would like to know the Legal Status of the Camp. The Camp cost $60,000 we owe a balance of $31,427.81 the semi-annual note payments are $4500.00 due in April and October of each year. Interest accrues at the rate of 5 per cent. Our property is insured for $60,000.

Some of you are wondering if the camp is really ours. I can answer your question yes, President Ross, has the warranty deed which shows that the National Baptist Youth Camp and Senior Retreat is definitely the property of the National Baptist Women's Convention, U.S.A., Inc. Since this is true, we should support the camp whole-heartedly.

According to our Treasurer Mrs. M. B. Gaillard as of January 20, 1962 we have a balance of $13,111.91 in the camp fund From this amount of money must be spent for repairs, note payments, expenses, etc.

You should also know that the WMU of the Southern Baptist Convention promised Miss Burroughs $32,000 for the camp, last year the W.M.U. gave $16,000 and the Home Mission Board of the W.M.U. gave $5,000 making a total of $21,000 given by W.M.U.

We plan to dedicate the camp on July 8, 1962 (second Sunday in July) we hope you will plan to come, try to come for the Leadership Training Institute and remain for camp. Camp will be open during these periods:

July 9-21, 1962
July 22,-August 4, 1962
August 5,-August 18, 1962
August 19,-September 1, 1962
We plan to have 60 campers each period.

Sig.—1]

We need volunteer workers for July and August (workers without pay) we will need in addition to Camp Director, a Dietician, cooks, camp nurse, camp Chaplain, Registrar and Business Manager, speakers, teachers and counselors.

We are required by the State of Michigan to have one counselor at least for every 10 campers. If you have had camping experience and can be available in July and August let us know.

Information will be sent all state presidents and Young People's Directors on fees. "what to bring" schedule of activities, etc.

Let us as Baptists prepare this camp for our young people, so that they may have a place for study and Christian rerreation like Catholics and other Protestants.

A YOUNG CHRISTIAN'S PLEDGE

As a young Christian, I believe in the life and teachings of Jesus Christ as revealed through the Holy Bible and the tenets of the Baptist doctrine. I acknowledge Jesus Christ as Lord of my life and as my Savior. I will strive to give Him first place in my life. . . . my thoughts and in my actions. I will strive to represent Him and please Him in work, play and in my relationships with others. I will work hard to develop my talent, my mind, body and spirit so that my life may be a blessing to both God and man

I pledge to seek Divine help in discovering God's purpose for my life through daily worship, work and the study of God's word. I will seek to support the Cause of Christ, His Church and His Ministry, and to enlist others to emulate Him and be led by His spirit.

IN MEMORIAM

Gone But Not Forgotten. A Woman of Rare Vision of Great Faith and Many Works, Dr Nannie Helen Burroughs, President, Woman's Convention Auxiliary National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Inc.

"She walked in the beauty of faith,
Her eyes set on the goal;
Though hindrances came
She struggled on
A fearless, unconquerable soul.
She walked in the beauty of hope
Better, brighter days ahead;
Though dark clouds hovered
When the rain was over
She marched on, triumph, unafraid
She walked in the beauty of love
Toiling in the heat and cold;
Her life she gave
For God she lived
Her worth cannot be measured in gold."

ACTING PRESIDENT

Dr. Mary O. Ross, Woman's Convention Auxiliary National Baptist Convention U. S. A., Inc.

MESSAGE TO THE YOUNG PEOPLE:

Think not alone to DO right, and fulfill
Life's due perfection by the simple worth
Of lawful actions called by justice forth,
And thus condone a world confused with ill!

But fix the high condition of thy will
To BE right, that its good's spontaneous birth
May spread like flowers springing from the earth
On which the natural dews of heaven distill.

For these require no honors, take no care
For gratitude from men . . . . but more are blessed
In the sweet ignorance that they are fair;
And through their proper functions live and rest,
Breathing their fragrance out with joyous air,
Content with praise of bettering what is best."

—William Davies.

SONGS WE LOVE TO SING

LOVE LIFTED ME

I was sinking deep in sin, Far from the peaceful shore,
Very deeply strained within, Sinking to rise no more;
But the Master of the sea Heard my despairing cry,
From the waters lifted me, Now safe am I.

All my heart I give, Ever to Him I'll cling,
In His blessed presence live, Ever His praises sing,
Love so mighty and so true Merits my soul's best songs,
Faithful, loving service, too, To Him belongs.

Souls in danger, look above; Jesus completely saves;
He will lift you by His love Out of the angry waves,
He's the Master of the sea, Billows His will obey;
He your Saviour wants to be, Be saved today.

Chorus

Love lifted me, Love lifted me!
When nothing else could help, Love lifted me. (Repeat)

LIVING FOR JESUS

Living for Jesus a life that is true,
Striving to please Him in all that I do,
Yielding allegiance, glad-hearted and free,
This is the pathway of blessing for me.
Living for Jesus who died in my place,
Bearing on Calv'ry my sin and disgrace,
Such love constrains me to answer His call,
Follow His leading and give Him my all.

Chorus

O, Jesus Lord, and Saviour, I give myself to Thee;
For Thou, in Thy atonement, Didst give Thyself for me
I own no other Master, My heart shall be Thy throne,
My life I give, henceforth to live, O Christ for Thee alone.

IF JESUS GOES WITH ME

It may be in the valley, where countless dangers hide;
It may be in the sunshine that I in peace abide
But this one thing I know . . . if it be dark or fair;
If Jesus goes with me, I'll go anywhere!

It is not mine to question the judgment of my Lord,
It is but mine to follow the leadings of His Word;
But if to go or stay, or whether here or there,
I'll be, with my Saviour, content anywhere!

Chorus

If Jesus goes with me, I'll go anywhere!
'Tis Heaven to me, Wher'er I may be, if He is there!
I count it a privilege here His cross to bear;
If Jesus goes with me, I'll go anywhere.

LEAD ME, GUIDE ME

I am weak and I need Thy strength and power
To help me over my weakened hour
Let me through the darkness Thy face to see,
Lead me, O Lord, lead me.

I am lost if you take your hand from me,
I am b'ind without Thy light to see;
Lord, just always let me Thy servant be,
Lead me, Oh Lord, lead me.

Chorus

Lead me, Guide me along the way
For if you lead me I cannot stray;
Lord, let me walk each day with Thee,
Lead me, Oh Lord, lead me.

TOUCH ME, LORD JESUS

Touch me, Lord Jesus, With Thy hand of mercy
Make each throbbing heartbeat feel Thy power divine.
Take my will forever, I will doubt Thee never,
Cleanse me, dear Saviour, Make me wholly Thine.

Mold me dear Master; As I bow before Thee Prostrate and helpless, make my heart Thy throne.
Purge my dross with hyssop; Burn me with Thy fire;
Lord, Make and use me, Ever all Thine own.

HIGHER GROUND

I'm pressing on the upward way,
New heights I'm gaining every day
Still praying as I onward bound,
Lord, lead me on to higher ground.

Chorus

Lord lift me up and I shall stand,
By faith on heaven's table land;
A higher plane than I have found,
Lord, plant my feet on higher ground.

My heart has no desire to stay,
Where doubts arise and fears dismay;
Tho' some may dwell where these abound,
My prayer, my aim is higher ground.

I want to live above the world,
Tho' Satan's darts at me are hurled;
For faith has caught the joyful sound,
The song of saints on higher ground

I want to scale the utmost height,
And catch a gleam of glory bright;
But still I'll pray till heav'n I've found,
"Lord, lead me on to higher ground."

She mentioned that Mrs. Bertha Winston sent regrets that she could not be present due to illness in her family and asked the Recording Secretary to send a telegram.

REPORT OF SCHOLARSHIP COMMITTEE

To the Director, Officers and Delegates of the Young People's Department of the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc. The Scholarship Committee after meeting Thursday, September 7, 1961 submit the following recommendations for the Department's consideration. The areas of concentration have been: Criteria—Budget—Loans.

CRITERIA

1. That applicants for scholarship aid be required to write a letter to the committee stating the reasons why they would like scholarship assistance.
2. That in a given school year (for example, from Sept. 1961 to June 1962) only one young person be eligible for selection from a particular area of the country. This is the premise that there are three geographic areas involved namely the Southern as represented by Mrs. Watts, the Eastern represented by Mrs. Winston, and the Western as represented by Miss Funches. The Committee would have to determine which states would be included in each area. Such a suggestion if followed, would keep down jealousy and avoid the concentration of all scholarship awards in a particular geographic area.
3. That the applicant must be one in "financial need" This means that he or she must have exhausted all possibilities of obtaining scholarship aid from the schools which they plan to attend, before applying to us for aid. "Financial Aid" also means that the applicant must be one whose family cannot afford to send her to college.
4. That the applicant must be a "Scholar." This means that he or she must be above average as evidenced by a scholastic average in high school of "B" or above, it should be noted that there may be some rare cases where an applicant should be aided even though he or she is not a scholar. An example would be a person who by past performance has shown herself to be a "good" student (one with a "C" average) possessing determination and perserverance, who is actually serious about obtaining a higher education, shows promise of reaching his or her goal and making a worthwhile contribution to society.
5. That the applicant be one who has "rendered service" in his or her local church, local Baptist Convention, and / or in the Youth Department of the National Baptist Convention.
6. That the applicant be approved by his or her local Baptist organization, the latter be affiliated with the National Baptist Convention, Inc.
7. As the areas of training, the Committee could limit awards to persons desirous of training for church related vocations such as the ministry, missions and Christian education, or it could be more liberal and allow youth desirous of training for other vocations to compete too. For example, there may be young persons who have worked faithfully in their local youth departments and maybe in the National organization as well, but would like to become teachers, doctors (such as Otrie Hickerson, one of our past officers and a student at the Howard Medical School) lawyers such as one of our committee members, Patricia Trivers, social workers or musicians. In this regard it should be remembered that one can be a Christian and aid in the building of His Kingdom and the winning of the souls to Christ, no matter what profession he or she enters.
8. That the committee determine what the age of the applicant should be. (Perhaps the limit could be 25 years), or maybe it would be sufficient for the applicant to be a high school graduate. It is certain that such an applicant must be one whose age is within the limits prescribed for working in the Youth Department, as distinguished from the Women's Department of the Convention.

BUDGET

1. We could aim at ($1000.00). This amount might be divided three ways with an award being made to one young person from each of the three geographic areas. There might be two awards given per year of $500.00 each or awards might be given per year of $500.00 each or awards might be given to cover the tuition of qualifying applicants, the committee getting the necessary information as to the cost of tuition from the University or seminary involved.
2. As to the selection of applicants it would have to be determined whether the committee could do this on the basis of qualifications approved by the Young People's Department, or if it would be necessary for the Department to pass on each applicant. It would seem that the committee should be given this responsibility since the purpose of a Committee is to do work which would be too time-consuming if done by the general body.

LOANS

If they are to be made, then we would have to come to some agreement as to the amount of the loan, qualifications and Criteria for making them, how long a student would have to repay the loan, whether interest would be charged, and similar matters.

ANNUAL REPORT OF EASTERN DIRECTOR YOUNG PEOPLE'S DEPARTMENT WOMAN'S CONVENTION

Auxiliary National Baptist Convention, Inc., U. S. A.,

September 5-10, 1961

BERTHA C. WINSTON, EASTERN DIRECTOR
1500 Madison Ave., Baltimore 17, Md.

Report

President Ross, Officers, Members of the Board, Young People's Directors, Counselors, and Delegates to the 1961 Session of our National Convention, U. S. A., Inc.

We are grateful to our Heavenly Father to be able to greet you at this hour.

I am sure that each of us is conscious of missing our great past President and organizer of the Youth Department—we feel today her spirit is with us—and pray that her successor, Dr. Ross may receive a double portion of that spirit which made the late Dr. Nannie H. Burroughs such an outstanding personality. We have lost a great leader. The church militant a good and faithful daughter. The world has lost a great benefactor. The name Nannie Helen Burroughs will live on as a symbol of noble womanhood.

Today, I would like you to consider with me for a few moments, the subject, "Youth's Challenges of the New Frontier."

One of the criticisms leveled against the church by some, is that in the midst of a world loaded with harsh reality she is too optimistic. One illustration of the difference between the optimist and the pessimist is the optimist says, "pass me the milk' the pessimist says, "pass me the cream, if there is any."

However that may be, it is probable that because of the joy of the Christian message, the Church cannot help but be somewhat biased in favor of the optimistic side.

Today let us try to be neither optimistic nor pessimistic, but as factual as we can. This is a tall order.

To say that the world is confronted with a crises is getting to old talk and has probably reached the worn out stage. Nevertheless, the world really is confronted with a crisis and the biggest one it has ever faced. Heretofore all the crises of history have been either national or regional. Our today is global. So we start out thinking with a world in general crises and with the added fact that with youth—the crises is most sharply accentuated.

Let us for a moment pass in review some of the elements of the general crises without attempting the time consuming efforts to find all the causes.

Number one—the general breakdown in our system of values: Religiously, Morally and Socially.

The collapse of religious authority along with a more or less general questioning of the validity of the position taken by Religion, is at the bottom of much of our difficulty. When people lose confidence in the truth of the revealed word of God, they are left dangling in the midst of bewilderment and dark uncertainties.

The moral break down which accompanies the religious collapse, is evident all over the world, and is very prominent in our own country. As proof of this we may merely cite (1) the unheard of increase of crimes of all kinds. Today youth openly flaunts the old standards of Christian decency. Crimes of violence are increasing at an enormous rate. Despite the expenditure of colossal sums of money for education, juvenile delinquency is a matter of growing concern. Immorality, prostitution and vice among our young people are more highly (and openly) organized and commercialized than ever before. The theaters, cinemas and television shows and book shops reflect all too clearly the moral trend of the age. A trend downwards—not upwards. (2) The breakdown in family sanctity. The divorce courts are filled daily with couples who have decided that together will be the ruin of the family well being and so they desire mutually to seek other mates in spite of children involved. Just in a recent edition a couple with nine children sought separation. (3) The marked increase in selfishness, with a decline in such virtues as brotherly love, helpfulness and patriotism.

We may include the racial and class upheavels and the confrontation and clash of opposed political ideologies—Communism vs. Capitalism, etc.

But undoubtedly the element of most immediate concern in our present situation is the almost unheard of disparity between our technological development and spiritual status. In a day when we have enough atomic power and know how to blow civilization off the face of the earth, we should be spiritually stronger than at any other time in our history, yet, it is not the case.

Nothing about all this strikes us more forceably than the eminent danger of Global war, with all its terrible destruction. It is this that has made mankind emotionally sick with fear and insecurity. In 1960 there were 20,000 suicides, most of which were committed by people under 45 years of age, and a goodly portion of that number were by the youth of our land. It is this fear with its mental and spiritual paralysis that hinders us in the making of important decisions at this moment when we should be at our best in this matter of decisions.

Now what has all of this to do with our youth? Let me say to you that the Church life is by no means extinct. Thank God for you adults who are conscious of the need of youth for correct guidance. In the first place the crises is not of youth's making. Our youth did not ask for this situation of today. They inherited it from those who came before. Let us not forget this when we begin comparing youth of today with those of yesterday.

Let us also remember that while youth did not ask for this crisis, it is they who can suffer most from it. They are the first to war. It is they who lose their newly acquired mates or sweethearts. It is they who must discontinue their education. If one argues that total warfare will bring guided missiles to everybody's back yards this still does not alter the fact that it is the youth that will be pushed into the most dangerous positions.

It is further to be noted that youth has most to lose in this crises. Most of us have pretty well formed our ideals and convictions, already are fairly well on the way in the matter of living our lives and completing our life's work. Youth however young has life to pass at its very beginning with all its future hopes and dreams. Youth's faith and ideals can be blasted to bits by the shock of events before these ideals have time to grow rugged enough to stand these challenges that must be met in this emerging age of freedom.

In all this we see, if only dimly, something of the total impact of the world's crisis on youth's present and future. And we are faced with the insistent question, what to do about this?

Young and old alike must first realize that we will either find the solution to our problems in what Christianity has to offer or we will find no solution at all. Let youth as well as age remember that the Christianity we mean is Christianity at its best. We cannot be satisfied with the makeshift half heartedness of today's Church.

Further, let us remember the power of prayer and develop the habit of using it faithfully and sincerely—and finally let us remember something that will hold in all hard crises and all dark days: namely, the promise that Christ made His disciples when he gave them the great commission—He meant this promise then: He means this promise now, "And lo I am with you always, even unto the end of the world."

My Activities

1. In the early fall I attended a very fine Conference and Board Meeting of the New England Baptist Missionary Convention, in Newark, New Jersey. The eminent and renowned Mrs. Elizabeth Thomas is President.

2. In November I was guest of the Young People's Department of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Empire State Convention, at the Cornerstone Baptist Church, New York City. Mrs. F. M. Chappel is the efficient President of the Women's Auxiliary, Mrs. Ruth Banks the very dynamic leader of the Young People's Department.

3. I taught the Young People's Class and the Senior Missionary in the Work of the Young People's Department—Organization and Administration—at the Fountain Baptist Church, Baltimore. This was their Annual Institute and Mrs. Bessie Barrow, President of the Woman Convention Auxiliary to the United Baptist Missionary Convention of Maryland was the Dean.

4. Mt. Zion Baptist Church in Hagerstown Maryland held a one day Conference of Ushers. Theme: The Place of Young Ushers in the Church. It was my privilege to teach that group.

5. January, 1961 brings the Mid Winter Board Meeting of the N.B.C., Inc. at the National Baptist Bath House in Hot Springs, Ark. I attended that session and was inspired that the work was still moving onward.

6. January 31st found me participating in the Central Regional Conference on Children and Youth of Baltimore City and Counties. Counties represented were Baltimore, Carroll, Harford and Howard Counties. This Conference was held at the Baltimore City Hospital Auditorium.

A Youth Panel with Work-Shop Leaders ending with a question period was very informative and enthusiastic.

Judge T. J. S. Waxter, Maryland Commission for the Prevention and Treatment of Juvenile Delinquency was the General Chairman.

7. In February I promoted a Nannie H. Burroughs Day before our Ministers Conference, for the benefit of our Camp Fund. More than $800.00 was pledged for our National Camp and Retreat.

8. At our Annual Church Wide Institute in March, I held a Work-Shop on Marriage Counseling and Young People at Work in the Church. These classes were very well attended with youth and young adults.

9. Saturday, April 15, 1961 came the most inspiring and satisfactory project of the year—A One Day Conference and Workshop composed of youth of the New England States. This conference was held at the Union Baptist Church of Baltimore, Dr. B. L. Matthews, Pastor.

300 young people were registered from the following states: Massachusetts, Connecticut, New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Delaware, Washington, D. C., Virginia and Maryland. 32 Churches of 9 New England States were represented. It was a glorious sight.

Mrs. Elizabeth Thomas, President of the New England Convention Woman's Auxiliary and Dr. C. M. Smith, President of the New England Convention, also Dr. W. L. Clayton, President of the United Baptist Missionary Convention of Md. were Luncheon Guests, and also President Bessie Barrow of our own State Convention Auxiliary.

Theme: "New Frontiers for Christian Youth in An Emerging Age of Freedom." Workshops were:

I. Christian Youth In Family, Religion and Social Enviornment.

II. Christian Youth in Education, Employment and Leisure Time.

III. Christian Youth in Health, Welfare and Human Rights.

IV. Christian Youth in Community Action.

These workshops were led by experts in each field. At the afternoon session a very fine Youth Panel chaired by Mrs. Florence L. Copeland of the Matrons Organization was one of the highlights of the day. Thus ended a great day in Christendom for the youth of the Eastern Region.

I close with this prayer:

O Thou who dost the vision send
Give us a promise true,
That it may be our highest joy
Our Father's work to do.

THIRTY-SIXTH ANNUAL REPORT OF THE WESTERN DIRECTOR OF THE YOUNG PEOPLE'S DEPARTMENT OF THE WOMAN'S AUXILIARY OF THE National Baptist Convention, Inc

Twenty-Ninth Annual Report of Dr. Primrose Funches, Western Director

Submitted at Kansas City, Kansas,

September 5-10, 1961

I may not cast Thy cross away:
Thou gavest me Thy yoke to share:
Give but the arm new nerve each day,
Give but the heart fresh love to bear—

Until my horn become my flower.
Till death itself in life shall rise,
And human sorrow's midnight hour
Ring the first chimes of Paradise.
—George Matheson

Madam President, Officers, Members of the Woman's Convention, Directors Banks, Winston, Watts and Delegates of the Young People's Department:

It is with deep appreciation, that I present to you an account of my stewardship for the past 12 months. I have faced many unusual trials this year, and have had many trying experiences. All have served as a means of giving me a deeper conception of Christ, a deeper consecration to Him and a broader vision for service. I have been made to realize and appreciate what Christ means when He says, "Go work in my vineyard, and what is right, I will pay."

Since we last met, death has invaded our ranks. Our beloved President of this great Convention; and President of the National Trades and Professional School in Washington, D. C., and dynamic leader, Dr. Nannie Helen Burroughs, went home Due to illness I was unable to attend the funeral.

I have been blessed by our Heavenly Father and you to have the privilege of serving in the capacity of Western Director of Young People for 29 years; hence, I have seniority from the standpoint of service. I have labored with Dr. Burroughs through her entire tenure of office and shared her joys and sorrows.

In 1947, when I was selected by the Woman's Convention, headed by Mrs. Anna Hunt of Kansas, and Mrs. E. D. McGowan of Mississippi, to be a delegate to the Baptist World Alliance in Copenhagen, Denmark, to represent the Young People's Department, Miss Burroughs gave the first donation, and sent the first Bon Voyage card with Best Wishes:

Hence like David, she had Faith in a rock;
Like Abraham, she had Faith in God;
Like Moses, she had Faith in a rod;
Like Daniel, she had Faith in Prayer:
Like Jacob, she had guts and Faith enough to win a wrestling match.

I have seen her troubled and distressed, but her head was never bowed.

Like Deborah, she worked to save her people;
Like Esther, she was beautiful to behold;
Like Lydia, she was a doer of good works;
Like Mary, she was Faithful to the end;
Like Martha she bowed at His feet;
Like Dorcas, she made things happen;
Like Ruth, she was loyal and taught us that her God should be our God.

She knew when she was going home and wrote her own Obituary, that we might remember her "AFTER THE SUNSET." She heard the Saviour Jesus call to transform the shame of the cross into resplendent Glory. The Conqueror of Death came and snatched the Victory from the Grave. She will live forever in the hearts and minds of the peoples of the World, and unborn generations will rise up and call her Blessed. Death is the starlight strip between the companionship of yesterday and the Reunion of tomorrow.

CAMP

The Young People's Department was a dream of Miss Burroughs. She organized the Young People's Department, and for many years she dreamed of a Camp, and we shall continue to perfect her dream. I had the privilege in Chicago of making the motion to purchase the Camp.

I am grateful to the Women of this Convention for the loyal support they have given me in all of our undertakings.

BAPTIST FREEDOM FARM

Our most recent Project for the National Baptist Convention was "Baptist Freedom Farm," in Fayette County, Tenn. It was a sad site to behold. Through the foresightedness of President Jackson, 404 Acres of land were purchased in Fayette County, and a number of residents of TENT CITY, were moved to "FREEDOM FARM" owned by the National Baptist Convention. A Contract was made to run over a period of 8 years. I am happy to inform you that within six (6) months time, The National Baptist Convention has paid sixty-four thousand dollars ($64,000.00), and now hold the DEED to the property in Fayette County. Many of you have sent donations, and many sent clothes and Food. We are deeply grateful for the fine spirit of cooperation. We must share in the whole Program.

We are assembled here today to see what we can do to develop further Ways and Means to help our Young People.

WHAT SHOULD A CHURCH PROVIDE FOR ITS YOUNG PEOPLE?

This question is not to be interpreted to mean that young people are standing with their hands open waiting for the adults to drop something in them. Neither is it to be interpreted to mean that young people are lazily sitting down waiting for adults to make a way for them. These interpretations do not represent the true nature of Young People.

For the most part young people are red-blooded go-getters. They are full of vim, vigor, and vitality. Standing around or sitting down is not their nature. In fact, we have too often misinterpreted young people by failing to recognize that they are growing, adventurous, idealistic, energetic beings with ambition. They are prone to be in perpetual motion because they have so much energy, real youthful energy, that they want to go places, accomplish things and be recognized. Upon this basis of interpretation, it appears to me that the Church is responsible for providing the following:

LOCAL CHURCH RESPONSIBILITY

I. Understanding and Devoted Adult Leadership-Partnership

Young People generally are in favor of adult leadership-partnership. This is not the same as adult leadership-dictatorship. Devoted adults are always growing in their understanding of young people, their drives and their urges. They have a sense of working "with" young people rather than working "for" young people "on" young people. Because of their greater experience their judgment is much sounder. They make themselves available to young people for counsel and for final decision when necessary.

The devoted young people will recognize the devoted adult even though there may be some differences in their views. Young people and adults are partners in Christian growth. Young people are the Junior partners who are being trained by concerned adult senior partners who are willing to serve as friends and counselors and guides. Young people need the experienced, steady hand of devoted adults. The Church is responsible for providing these adults.

II. Enriching Worship Experiences

The chief purpose of worship is to strengthen our relationship with God. We do this by confessing our sins and asking God to forgive us and to give us spiritual strength that we may obey Him faithfully.

When a congregation worships, however, it is important that the children and young people get help in understanding more about the nature and character of God. This cannot always be done completely nor adequately in a regular worship service. Therefore the church should make plans for a variety of opportunities for young people to have worship experiences.

III. Opportunity for Young People to Discuss Day to Day Problems

Young people have problems too. Sometimes we adults are tempted to do all the talking and not enough listening to young people. In our talking we may be answering questions which young people are not asking. If the church does not provide an opportunity for young people to discuss and find answers to their day-to-day problems they will seek those answers somewhere else. The radio, television, newspapers and magazines have brought into our homes, petting, cheating, making money, dating, drinking, smoking, gambling and similar concerns. Young people who belong to church as well as the non-church young people come in contact with these day-to-day experiences. Some of these experiences present problems to them. They need to discuss these problems in a wholesome atmosphere at church in addition to their discussions at home. They need sympathetic and understanding hearers and helpers. The church is responsible for providing such results.

IV. Opportunity for Challenging Service

Young people need to do more than keep busy. We are mistaken if we think that keeping busy is the goal of these energetic Young People.

The church must provide opportunities for young people to be helpful and serviceable in the really big projects of organized Christianity. Cutting the grass, running the mimeograph machine and doing things of this type cannot challenge young people as much as helping the poor and afflicted, winning other young people to the Christian way, and teaching the unlearned.

THE CHURCH MUST CHALLENGE THE COLLEGE YOUNG PEOPLE

AND MAKE A PROGRAM TO FIT THEIR NEEDS

We are living in an entirely difficult age now, and we must be geared to this age.

A new office was created by the National Baptist Convention, and I was selected by the Executive Committee of the National Baptist Convention to serve as Co-ordinator for the work of the National Baptist Convention. To my mind, I accepted the task with deep humility, one of the largest responsibilities of serving our Christian Organizaton, which is one of the largest throughout the World.

This is truly a great task, as well as a great honor and an expression of confidence to serve the various groups of peoples in so many different outstanding fields and at the same time, it gave me the unusual opportunity to meet the Young People all over the World.

I have been greatly impressed with the work of the Women of this Convention as I travel about and the interest they have manifested in the Young People.

Our Foreign Mission Work, Home Mission Work, Sunday School Publishing Board, Baptist Training Union Board, and the Ministers' Retirement, all of these Objectives have been supported by the Women's Convention. The Young People also shares and they must be trained to give.

I visited the Florida Woman's Convention, Jacksonville, Fla., Mrs. Susie Holley, President; The Illinois Baptist State Convention, Chicago, Ill., Mrs. Trudie Trimm, President; Alabama Woman's Convention, Mrs. E. M. Morton, President, Montgomery, Ala.; General Baptist Convention of Mississippi, Gulfport, Miss., Mrs. E. D. McGowan, President; Louisiana Baptist Women's Convention, New Orleans, La., Mrs. O. P. Captain, President; Tennessee Regular Convention, Memphis, Tenn., Mrs. O. C. Collins, President and many other meetings that time will not permit me to mention.

The thing that impressed me most was that all States are well organized with the Young People. I also visited a few of the Western States, and I am happy to report that they are all well organized, and responding to the work of the National Baptist Convention.

Don't you hear the millions crying
In their need across the sea,
"Send the Gospel to us faster
Haste, oh, haste to set us free,"

They are dying in their anguish
Souls for whom the Saviour died.
Oh, why don't you haste the message
Of the Christ once crucified.

Jesus saw the teeming millions
Without shepherd, friend, or guide;
And He wept with deepest sorrow
For the throngs for whom He died.

There are lost ones all around you
Who are sinking down to hell
Whom you've never said a word to
Of that Friend you love so well.

Oh, my dear one, let's be busy,
There are millions that are lost;
Jesus gave His life to save them
At a most tremendous cost.

Can you say you tried to save them?
They are passing to their doom;
Every day brings millions nearer
To eternal night and gloom.

Jesus gave to us the Gospel
And their blood is on our hands;
Precious souls are worth far more
Than houses bank accounts and lands.

Help us spread the blessed story,
Help us o'er lost souls to yearn,
Winning souls to Jesus daily
Keeping true till His return.
