DR. J. H. JACKSON, President
National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Inc.

REVISED CONSTITUTION OF THE NATIONAL BAPTIST CONVENTION, U.S.A., INC.

PREAMBLE

Whereas, it was the sense of the Negro Baptist of the United States as represented in several Baptist organizations convened in Atlanta, Ga., September 28, 1895, and known as the Baptist Foreign Mission Convention hitherto engaged in Missionary work on the West Coast of Africa; the National Baptist Convention which had been doing missionary work in the United States; the National Baptist Missionary work on the West Coast of Africa; the National Baptist Convention that these organizations should unite into one organization for the purpose of putting into effect the benevolent intentions of their constituents by eliciting, combining and directing the energies of denomination: therefore said organizations did unite and agree upon certain fundamental principles of organic rules, which as amended from time to time, are as follows:

ARTICLE I—NAME

This organization shall be known and styled as the National Baptist Convention of the United States of America.

ARTICLE II—OBJECT

This Convention by uniting Baptist churches and other Baptist organizations, such as may desire an organization of this kind, shall undertake to promote home and foreign missions: to encourage and support Christian education: to publish and distribute Sunday school and other religious literature; and to engage in whatever other Christian endeavor is required to advance the Redeemer's kingdom throughout the world.

ARTICLE III—MEMBERSHIP

Section 1. The membership of this Convention shall be representative, annual and life.

Section 2. Representative membership shall be composed of messengers from churches, associations, district conventions and state conventions all known to be in harmony with the purpose of this Convention. These organizations shall pay into the treasury of this Convention sums as are set out in sections of this Article.

Section 3. Basis of Representations. (a) Churches with 200 to 500 members, $25.00; 500 to 1,000 members, $35.00. (b) Churches above 1,000 members, $50.00 paid in as representation, not to exceed two messengers. (c) District State Convention, $50.00. (d) Associations, $35.00.

Section 4. Life Membership—Any person who is in good and regular standing in any Missionary Baptist church that is a member of this Convention may become a life member by the payment of the sum of $200.00 into the treasury of this Convention.

Section 5. Annual Membership—Any person who is a member of a church that is in good and regular standing with this Convention may become an ANNUAL member of this Convention by payment of the sum of $10.00 into the treasury of this Convention. Said ANNUAL member may engage in the discussion of the Convention but not vote.

Section 6. Associations and State conventions shall elect their messengers to the National Convention in their annual meeting preceding the Convention and certify said messenger to the secretary.

Article 3 would be so amended that section 7 would read as follows:

"Since the convention is primarily a fellowship, and since the fellowship owns the corporation, membership in the fellowship does not give to any individual member or group of members equity or special property rights in the assets of the corporation. The annual representation fees are designed primarily to carry the expenses of the convention and to help in its work in general and cannot be construed as capital investment in the corporation.

Section 8. The question of the rights and privileges of membership are settled only by the convention itself or its Board of Directors in the convention's absence.

Section 9. No member or group of members of the convention shall have the rights to use the civil courts to settle matters regarding membership rights and convention procedures. In these matters the convention itself is the supreme court from which there is no appeal. The majority vote of the fellowship is therefore binding on the individual, the convention and corporation itself.

ARTICLE IV

Voting in this convention shall be by the delegates assembled without reference to member organizations, states or sections of the country, and shall be by voice, or show of hands, or standing.

ARTICLE V

OFFICERS AND THEIR ELIGIBILITY

"Section 1. The officers of this Convention shall be a president, a vice-president-at-large, four (4) vice-presidents, and a vice-president from each of the states and territories from which messengers to this Convention may come, a secretary, four (4) assistant secretaries, a treasurer, a statistician, a historiographer, an editor and an attorney, all of whom shall be selected at each annual meeting of this Convention and shall hold office until their successors shall have been elected."

ARTICLE VI—BOARDS

"Section 1. BOARD OF DIRECTORS. The Board of Directors shall consist of the president, vice-president-at-large, the four (4) regional vice-presidents, the vice-president elected by the Convention from the various states and territories represented at each annual session, the secretary, the treasurer, the attorney, the editor, historiographer, statistician, the assistant secretaries of the Convention, annually, fifteen (15) of whom shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. The Board of Directors shall organize by electing a chairman and a secretary, who shall perform the duties usually assigned to like officers. It may, if so desired, create from among own body such sub-committees as it may deem proper and make such rules and regulations not inconsistent with the Constitution of this Convention as it may deem necessary.

It shall be the duty of the Board of Directors to complete the unfinished business of the Convention; and to adjust such matters, as may be referred to it by the Convention and to fill any vacancies which may occur in the roster of the Convention, to nominate and fix the time and place of the meeting; to enforce the orders of the Convention or any of its Boards; to examine and pass on, and recommend all claims against the Convention; and during the recess of the Convention have entire charge of its affairs.

Executive Committee of Board Directors. There shall be an Executive Committee of nine (9) consisting of the president, secretary, treasurer and six others whose duty it shall be to look after any unfinished business of the Board of Directors or of the Convention, and to transact any urgent matters demanding immediate attention of the Board, and report same to the Board of Directors.

The chairman and corresponding secretaries of the several Boards shall be accorded the floor of the Board of Directors and the privilege to speak on and discuss all questions but not to vote.

The Board of Directors shall meet at 8:30 a.m., the first day of the Convention: first, for more perfectly arranging for the sessions of the Convention; second, to hear any suggestions from any state convention looking to the good of the work of the Convention; third, the newly elected Board shall meet during the recesses or after the adjournment of the Convention to wind up any unfinished business of the Convention.

"Section 2. OTHER BOARDS. The work of this Convention shall be done by boards. There shall be elected at each annual meeting as many Boards as may be necessary to carry out the objects which this Convention may undertake to foster, all of the members and officers of which Boards may remain in office until their successors shall have been elected. Each of these Boards shall consist of one member from each state or territory from which messengers to this Convention may come, and eight additional members from the state or territory in which the Board is located, provided that the twenty-four (24) members of the Controlling Board and the four (4) members of the Holding Board of the American Baptist Theological Seminary, and who are appointed by this Convention according to the plan of cooperation between the Southern Baptist Convention and this Convention and by which plan said Theological Seminary is operated, shall by virtue of their office, be, and the same are hereby made members of the Educational Board of this Convention and provided further that a Board of Managers may be constituted under this section for the purpose of conducting the affairs of the national organ of this Convention, and that the status of said Board of Managers shall be the same as that of other Boards of this Convention. Each Board is hereby given power to nominate its own officers; and to appoint its own employees, subject to the approval of the Convention or the Board of Directors.

The compensation of its officers and employees shall be fixed by the Boards. But the salaris of the officers of the Boards shall be passed upon by the Board of Directors, and before becoming effective shall be ratified by the Executive Board of this Convention. During the interim of the Convention each Board shall have sole management of the affairs connected with the business for which it is created; but such management shall be in strict accordance with the constituted provision adopted by this Convention and with such other instruction as may be given by the Board of Directors of the Convention or by the Convention. Each Board is hereby authorized to make it own by-laws to fill any vacancy occuring in its membership during the interim of this Convention. But all such by-laws must be in harmony with the laws and regulations of the approved by the Convention.

ARTICLE VII—DUTIES OF OFFICERS

Section 1. The duties of the officers of this Convention shall be in general terms, such as recognized custom devolves upon them, and which are suggested or indicated by the name of the office together with such other duties as may be required of them by this Convention.

Section 2. The treasurer of this Convention shall receipt for all money turned over to him and shall pay out same only upon order signed by the president and attested by the secretary. At each annual meeting he shall submit a written itemized report of receipts and disbursements.

Section 3. An auditor shall make annual examination and audits of the books and accounts of all Boards of the Convention and such officers that have the handling of finances of this Convention. For this purpose he shall have full and free access to all books and records in the custody of the same and shall report his findings to this Convention at its annual meetings. But nothing in this section shall be so construed as to prevent Boards and officers involved from having a survey and audit may be necessary.

Section 4. It shall be the duty of the statistician to gather statistical data for the denomination as represented by the Convention by procuring such statistics from churches, district associations, and state conventions participating in this Convention and from denominational schools within the domains of this Convention as will contribute to this end, and report the same to this Convention, annually.

Section 5. It shall be the duty of the historiographer to gather all historial data bearing on the rise and progress of the National Baptist Convention and publish the same. He shall work in harmony with all Boards in pursuance of the ends set out above.

ARTICLE VIII—SUBSIDIARY BODIES

Section 1. The Womans Convention, Auxiliary to the National Baptist Convention; Sunday School and B. Y. P. U. Congress; and the Baptist Laymen's Movement are and the same are hereby recognized as subsidiary bodies shall work in harmony with this Convention, contributing as they are able to the general needs of said Convention.

Section 2. The subsidiary bodies shall make annual reports to this Convention and said reports are hereby subject to the approval of said Convention.

ARTICLE IX

All Board members and missionaries and agents appointed by this Convention or by any of its Boards shall be members of some church in union with the churches composing this Convention.

ARTICLE X

The churches, district associations, state conventions, and other organizations composing this Convention, shall have the right to specify the object or objects of which their contributions shall be applied. But when this right has not been exercised the Convention shall make the appropriation at its own discretion.

ARTICLE XI

In addition to the powers granted to and vested in this corporation by operation of law, this corporation is also hereby given the express and exclusive right, authority and control over the management and properties of the following auxiliary Boards, which were heretofore created and established by the National Baptist Convention of the United States of America, prior to its incorporation, namely:

The National Baptist Publication Board, incorporated under the State of Tennessee;

The Foreign Mission Board of the National Baptist Convention, incorporated under the laws of the State of Kentucky;

The Baptist Young Peoples Union Board, incorporated under the laws of the State of Tennessee;

The Woman's Auxiliary Board, incorporated under the laws of the District of Columbia.

That said auxiliary Boards and their officers and directors shall have and exercise no power or control over the affairs and properties of said Boards independent of this corporation, and said Boards shall forthwith amend their charters so as to show that each and all of said Boards are under and subject to the jurisdiction and control of this corporation. And this corporation shall have the exclusive right and power at its annual session, or at such other time as shall be provided in the by-laws to nominate and appoint the officers, managers or directors for each and all of said auxiliary boards.

ARTICLE XII

Missionaries appointed by this Convention or by any of the Boards must, previous to their appointment furnished evidence of genuine piety, fervent zeal in the Master's cause and talents which fits them for the service for which they offer them.

There shall be an annual meeting of this Convention, the same to be held at the time and in order stated in the by-laws of this Convention.

This Constitution may be altered or amended at any annual session by a two-thirds vote of the members present provided that such a vote is taken without regard to the total enrollment, and provided further that no amendment may be considered after the second day of the session. All amendments before being presented to the Convention for adoption, must have been presented to the Executive Board of this Convention for its consideration.

All constitutions and laws or parts of constitutions and laws in conflict with this Constitution are hereby repealed and are of no force and effect.

This Constitution shall take effect upon its adoption.

CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS

The committee considered Article VI, Section 1 of the Constitution with reference to the Executive Committee, and recommended that the above Article VI, and Section 1, shall be so amended as to read:

"The Board of Directors shall have power to create from its own body an Executive Committee consisting of nine members to wit: President, Secretary, Treasure, and six others to be selected out of the Board, with full power and authority to transact such business as may be referred to it by the Board, reporting their action in detail to the directors for information and approval. The Executive Committee shall not have power to transact any new business not referred to it by the Board of Directors."

Further:

The office of auditor is hereby discontinued.

The following Constitutional amendments were presented by the Board of Directors and approved by the Parent Body in the September, 1939 session at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania:

Article V, Section 2—Provides "That the Board of Directors shall also have the power to investigate and suspend any officers or members of the Board when deemed necessary for the good of the service, subject to the approval of the Convention in annual session."

Article VI, Section 2—This article reads "The work of this Convention shall be done by Boards." Amended, "The work of this Convention shall be done by Boards subject to the will of the Convention.

Article VII, Section 2—Further, the article states, "The compensation of its officers and employees shall be fixed by the Boards, etc." Amended to read "The compensation of officers and employees of Boards shall be fixed by Boards, subject to review and approval by the Board of Directors whenever it is necessary."

Article VIII, Section 1—Amend by changing "B. Y P. U." to "B. T. U."

Dear Brethren: April 5, 1886, an open letter to the Baptist clergy and laymen was issued by Rev. Wm. J. Simmons, an American Baptist, asking if we should have a National Convention to discuss questions of interest to our beloved denominations. At that time the following reasons were given:

1. To promote personal piety, sociability, and a better knowledge of each other.

2. To be able to have an understanding as to the great ends to be reached by the denomination.

3. To encourage our literary men and women, and promote the interest of Baptist literature.

4. To discuss questions pertaining especially to the religious, educational, industrial, and social interests of our people.

5. To give an opportunity for the best thinkers and writers to be heard.

6. That, united, we may be more powerful for good and strengthen our pride in the denomination.

Having been solicited to write the Call by many whose names and endorsements are here unto affixed, the Call is hereby made by their advice and solicitations for said convention to meet in St. Louis, Mo., August 25, 1886, 10 o'clock a.m., in the First Baptist Church, and the pastor thereof is hereby requested to serve as a Committee of Arrangements, with power to select his associates.

Wm. H. Steward, Louisville, Ky., and Rev. R. H. Cole, 2609 Goode Avenue, St. Louis, are hereby requested to serve as a Committee on Transportation.

WM. J. SIMMONS.

The chronological report in our National Baptist Minutes is hereby corrected, viz: The parties as they appear below were officers of the Foreign Missions or National Educational Conventions, as were their predecessors. Said conventions merged into the National Baptist Convention in 1886 or met co-jointly with it, or otherwise.

THE BOARD MEETING OF NATIONAL BAPTIST CONVENTION, U.S.A., INC., JANUARY 22, 1964, HOT SPRINGS, ARKANSAS

MORNING SESSION

Song service by Mrs. Johnnie Howard Franklin and others. 9:45 a. m. Vice President Campbell presented Rev. M. F. Riley of Hope, Arkansas who read the scripture (1 Cor. 13 Chapter) and offered prayer. President Jackson called upon Secretary Jemison to read the agenda which was adopted upon the motion by J. Dett Marshburn seconded by Rev. E. W. Williams.

Secretary Jemison read document relating to Civil Rights addressed to the Congress of the U. S. A. Rev. Tilley of Chicago offered motion, Rev. Roy Love seconded that document be adopted and sent to congressmen and newspapers across the nation. Rev. I. C. Peay offered motion that each pastor would be given a copy of the document on Civil Rights, who would send it to the congressmen of their individual districts, Rev. W. T. AN APPEAL TO THE 88TH CONGRESS OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA BY DR. J. H. JACKSON, PRESIDENT OF THE NATIONAL BAPTIST CONVENTION, U.S.A., INC. JANUARY 14, 1964

To The Congress Of The United States of America As a Whole, And To Every Member Individually:

Dear Honorable Sirs:

Thousands of us are aware of the tremendous responsibility that is yours, and know well the multiplicity of your duties and the complexities of your task. You must look well to the needs peculiar to your several districts that sent you to Washington, but also you are bound by oath of office to work for the well-ebing, security, preservation, and continuous growth of the nation's life and character. And by the events of history and the demands of the times, you now carry a major share of the responsibility for the peace of the world, the distribution and the administration of the economic well-being and social justice to the peoples around the world, and maybe on your shoulders and that of your nation rest the fate and future of Western Civilization and the whole of mankind.

The Congress of the United States of America is not now, and never has been, a mere assembly of elected politicians bound to their local districts by the campaign promises of the previous election. Rather, it is a fellowship of chosen statesmen called upon to work creatively with all of the human, economic, social, moral, and spiritual forces that can mae or destroy a nation and that can redeem or damn a civilization.

With due regard for all the pressing issues before you both foreign and domestic, it is the earnest desire of millions of Americans that you in this Session will pass a strong, meaningful, comprehensible, and creative civil rights bill for the following reasons:

1. The issues of civil rights are basically the unanswered questions and the unsolved problems of the full freedom of the individual in a democratic society and the practical application of the ideals of the Federal Constitution in matters regarding the frights of persons and groups in our body politic. Here, as you well know, we deal with the very nature of our country and you are called upon to help answer the question can a nation of ALL THE PEOPLE, BY ALL THE PEOPLE, AND FOR ALL THE PEOPLE, really exist? Can this lofty theory be put into practice? The Congress of the United States of America has the power to help or hinder this nation in answering these most important questions. There are social, economic, and political philosophers who have already given a negative answer to these all important American questions. This 88th Congress has both the authority and the power to refute all of these false philosophies by a very positive action in the defense of and in the support of first-class clizenship for all Americans now.

2. America as the moral leader of the free world has recognized her debt and responsibility to the oppressed, enslaved, hungry, and weaker nations of the world by her voluntary gifts of foreign aid, technical assistance, without showing any desire to practice the ancient sins of colonialism. This nation is still committed to the doctrine of self-determination of all nations—thanks to the insights of some of our great American leaders past and present. But to add the essential depth and meaning to these acts of kindness our nation must always stand for and advocate freedom, equality of opportunity, social justice, and respect for human personality both home and abroad.

The Congress of the United States, the lawmaking body of the nation, should be the unquestioned, the most powerful, and the most vocal tribunal for equality and freedom in all the world. No type of discussion and no debate should ever be construed so as to negate in the eyes of the world this high and lofty position of our great Congress.

3. While we do appreciate all of the great achievements of our nation in the interest of freedom, justice, democracy, and all the culture things of life, we must admit that there are still areas of the nation's life where freedom is fettered, justice is handicapped, and racial segregation and group discrimination are still shameful blots on the nation's life. Today the nations need a clear positive message from this Congress in the interest of the complete emancipation of all Americans in every section o the nation.

Since the heroic achievements of the great emancipator, Abraham Lincoln, there have appeared on the American scene individuals and groups who would make us believe that those who desire complete freedom should look away from the Congress of the United States and away from law and order to other methods and techniques. We beg this Honorable Congress to help free the nation of such groups, not simply by appropriating larger budgets for a committee on un-American activities, but by exercising the power and authority vested in you as the lawmaking body of this nation, and by giving to this Republic the essential laws that will spell out clearly and un-compromisingly the nation's philosophy of human freedom and thus make a practical application of our lofty theories of the rights of man to the needs of every citizen under the stars ands tripes.

4. There are thousands of white Americans who are committed, without reservation, to the American way of life and who are laboring to help remove the sins of racial prejudice and to destroy the ancient tradition of racial segregation and discrimination, but many of them are handicapped by the pressure from their communities, and some are discriminated against. Such people need the acts of Congress in written civil rights laws that will rescue them from the thralldom and persecution of the segregationists with their un-American activities.

Here is a serious division in our nation, and a historic breach among American citizens that cannot be healed without the actions of Congress.

5. Many of us are dedicated to the proposition that there are not civic evils in America, no unjust laws written or unwritten in our several states, and no grievances between individuals and groups that cannot be corrected through obedience to and the application of the principles of the Federal Constitution. Millions of us who still believe in the American way of solving all citizenship problems are asking this session of Congress to pass a strong civil rights bill in order to strengthen the hands of those who are the disciples of law and order, and remove once and for always from the American scene any assumed legal grounds for the justification of segregation. This should be done in such a way that the nation's time and money will not be spent in the task of presenting to Congress from year to year legislation to complete the task of defining and giving first-class citizenship to all.

And let there be employed in this country no other way to freedom than the American way, and let us not sanction any methods of settling disputes within our borders that are foreign to the democratic process and out of harmony with the letter and spirit of the Federal Constitution.

6. It is our further plea that this 88TH Congress will erect a living monument to the late President John F. Kennedy, not of stone, brass, or bronze, but in the form of a strong civil rights bill that shall be as eternal as the perpetual flame that burns at his final resting place on the sacred slopes of Arlington.

7. Also our request to Congress on this civil rights measure is a petition to help President Lyndon B. Johnson to carry to a successful conclusion his announced war on poverty and to aid him in completing the unfinished task of his predecessor in the field of equality of opportunity for all. His colleagues both north and south must not be guilty of sabotaging his noble aims or hindering his progressive efforts for the nation by defeating a civil rights program that is so badly needed to help the image of the nation abroad and to give unity, harmony, and peace at home.

These things we petition you not in the name of group prejudice and group antagonism, but in the name of the Federal Constitution and in the name of the nation as a whole, and in the spirit of justice, freedom, and goodwill. We have confidence in your integrity and we await with hope the verdict of your actions.

Hot Springs, Arkansas—January 22, 1964

The foregoing Plea to Congress was presented to the Board of Directors of the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc. by the president, Dr. J. H. Jackson. It was adopted unanimously as the sentiment of the Board. The Plea calls for a strong civil rights bill, and advocated its necessity not only for the freedom of colored Americans, but for the full emancipation of all Americans. It called upon Congress to perform well its task in these days of crises.

EIGHTY-FOURTH ANNUAL SESSION, NATIONAL BAPTIST CONVENTION, U. S. A., INC. DETROIT, MICHIGAN, SEPTEMBER, 1964

Most Esteemed President Dr. Jackson, Officers, Members and Friends:

As we meet together and face the challenge of "The Church's Debt to the World," as the theme of the meeting is stated, the National Baptist Training Union Board is privileged to give an account of what it has done in the past twelve months to help the 26 thousand churches of our constituency discharge the debt.

Since the church is the body of Christ set apart for the making known to the world that God IS, that God is GOD, that God is the REDEEMER of all men, then the church must be relevant, dynamic, and vital in the world. The mission of the church is to be in the world as a loving, compassionate, witnessing fellowship.

A simple division of church responsibilities requires that most clergymen must work within the church in its gathered aspect. So this leaves the job of being the church in the world—the scattered aspect—to the laity. The laymen of the church are its missionaries in and to the world. This has been the pattern since New-Testament times. At the death of Stephen, Acts 8:1 records "And on that day a great persecution arose against the church in Jerusalem; and they were all scattered throughout the region of Judea and Samaria, except the apostles." (RSV)

The National Baptist Training Union Board is seeking to help the churches in both the gathered and scattered aspects prepare to identify with the world and serve it (Col. 4:5); proclaim the gospel to it (Col. 4:3); and live like Christians in it (Col. 3:12-4:1).

DEEPLY GRATEFUL

The Executive Secretary would be remiss in his sense of gratitude if he did not take this opportunity to thank the Board of Directors of the Convention for the moral support given and the words of commendation expressed for the services rendered. Dr. Maxwell, Dean Hill, and the National Congress Staff likewise have been helpful.

Many thanks are also in order for the promotional work that was done in Cleveland, Ohio by Mr. J. L. Lennox and his committee; in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania by Rev. John H. Hooper and Mrs. Mary S. Hunt and their committees; in Chicago, Illinois by Rev. Robert Wallace, faculty, students and friends of Chicago Baptist Institute; in Omaha, Nebraska by Bethel Baptist Church and Rev. Curtis Brown together with Rev. J. C. Wade and others; in Detroit, Michigan by Mrs. Grace Cobb and her committee.

It is with a profound debt of gratitude that the Executive Secretary recalls the efforts of the office and business staff and the dedicated sense of mission of the Director of Publications, Mrs. Vada P. Felder, and her editorial staff.

The response of those who have availed themselves of the opportunity to use our literature has been most inspiring. Wide has been the acclaim of the Baptist Training Union Handbook by Felder, the content and techniques for group participation and growth presented in the four age level quarterlies and the invaluable resource material printed in the magazines. The Training Union Curriculum of study and activities has a threefold foundation: the nature and message of the Bible, the nature and needs of people, and the nature and mission of the church.

NEW HORIZONS

During 1965 the Board of Publications will take its most meaningful venture into the field of undated literature.

Under the direction of Rev. Donis Myers of Pennsylvania, the Scouting Program with its many ramifications will gain a new relevancy for the churches that are concerned about their debt to the world.

Two new programs that will greatly aid the task of "training in church membership" will be launched under the direction of Rev. J. Castina Jackson of Oklahoma and Rev. L. F. Hardee of Texas.

SERVICES RENDERED

The National Baptist Training Union Board has functioned not only in the field of publication but also has aided the Convention by paying each month $100 of the salary of one of its workers; by contributing thought, time, and money to the promotion of the ten million dollar Educational Foundation campaign.

To this meeting the Board has sent $500.00 for the operational expenses of the Convention. The Board's Executive Secretary has also brought $500.00 for the Ten Million Dollar Educational Scholarship Fund.

As the National Baptist Trainiig Union Board seeks to bring to fruition the "Philosophy, Proposed Goal, and Program to Reach Goal" as was presented in the pamphlet so entitled, please—

1. As a Christian Baptist, join the "Every Member Reading Literature from the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc. Publishing Boards;"
2. As a Board Member, along with the privilege of being state representative, assume the responsibility of being public relations person to promote the distribution of literature in your state;
3. As a pastor, rescue the Training Union in the church that you serve as shepherd from the death blow of pastorial indifference and the time usurping three o'clock services.

FINANCIAL STATEMENT

The report of the certified auditors CAMPBELL AND CAMPBELL, Nashville, Tennessee under the date of August 12, 1964 reveals for the period July 1, 1963 to June 30, 1964:

Total Sales	$ 140,744 70
Gross Profit on Sales	88,248 17
Cash on Hand	9,573 68

TOWARD A CONCLUSION

Again, our warmest thanks are extended you along with an invitation to be present at the Training Union Mass Meeting in this building Sunday at 5:00 p. m. Come to gain new insights in the organization, methods, and program of the Baptist Training Union; be edified by the dynamic preaching of Dr. C.A.W. Clark and the melodious singing of the mass chorus.

"Is this the time, O Church of Christ, to sound retreat?
To arm with weapons cheap and blunt
The men and women who must bear the brunt?
Is this the time to halt, when all around
Many seek to know how God's will is found?

No, rather strengthen stakes and lengthen cords,
Enlarge your plan and gifts; O Bride elect,
Great things attempt for God, great things expect;
Project and teach in His love divine
Build and conquer in His Power sublime."

Respectfully submitted,

C. R. WILLIAMS, Executive Secretary

THE RECORD OF THE MID-WINTER SESSION OF THE NATIONAL BAPTIST LAYMEN AUXILIARY

Hot Springs, Arkansas, January 21, 1964

The Mid-winter Board meeting of the National Baptist Laymen Movement was called to order at 1:30 P.M. on the above date in California. Room of the National Baptist Bath House Hotel and Sanatarium by Vice President At Large S. L. Jones.

"What A Fellowship" was sung. John 1:1-6 was read and Vice President L. W. McMillian led in prayer. "Blessed Assurance" was then sung and Vice President Jones surrendered the chair to President Allen Jordan, after appropriate remarks President Jordan announced the house in order for business.

The agenda was read and approved. (See agenda). The agenda also contained a number of suggestions, which were also approved. Secretary Wm. H. Pryor submitted his report, showing receipts of $37.00. Treasurer E. Baker submitted his report, showing a balance of $137.79 less $20.00, leaving a balance of $57.79. Director Goodson Echo of the Boy's Work submitted a progress report. The director was authorized to appoint assistants on the local, district, state and national levels. Bro. H. W. Williams, Louisiana was recognized and made brief remarks. All these reports by motion were approved. Dismission until 7:30 P. M. Benediction by Rev. Jones. Finance Committee reported $294.00.

Tuesday Evening

At 7:30 Vice President Jones led the devotional. "When I can read my Titles Clear" was sung and the group joined in repeating scripture verses, and Bro. J. H. Watson, Oklahoma, led in prayer.

President Jordan made brief remarks and announced the house in order for business. A letter was read from Vice President B. F. Taylor, explaining his absence was due to the continued illness of Mrs. Taylor. However, the letter contained $13.00 as his and his district's registration fees. Director S. W. Nichols submitted his report with $25.00, which was approved. Bro. C. A. Davis, New York, was appointed as Director of Deacons.

A budget committee consisting of S. L. Jones, California, Chairman; Walter Cade, Jr., Missouri; Vice Chairman; Goodson Echo, Florida; C. A. Davis, New York; C. E. Reed, Alabama was appointed. The Finance Committee Bro. R. L. Drew, Mississippi.

Wednesday Afternoon

At 4:00 Vice President Jones led the devotional. Scripture passages were repeated, and Rev. J. H. Gray, Oklahoma, led in prayer.

President Jordan then resumed the chair, made remarks about his recent visit to Kansas City and his royal entertainment there and announced the house in order for business.

On motion the following fees shall partain for registration hereafter: January and June, Officers, $3.00; Individuals, $2.00; Locals, $5.00; Districts, $7.50 and States, $15.00. The Annual Registration fees: Officers, $5.00; Locals, $15.00, Associations, Unions, etc. $25.00; Individuals, $3.00; Districts, $35.00 and States, $50.00. Carried.

Finance Committee reported $155.00. Rev. J. E. Powell, Alabama, was recognized and an offering to the amount of $20.00 was taken for his work in Montgomery. Mrs. Lee G. Davis, wife of Assistant General Secretary Davis, New Jersey, was also recognized and made brief remarks. We stood adjourned until 7:30, and Rev. J. H Gray, Oklahoma, gave the benediction.

Wednesday Evening

Vice President Jones called the house to order and led the devotional. "Jesus, Keep Me Near the Cross" was sung, and the house was turned over to President Jordan, who announced the house in order for business.

The first order of business was the adoption of the program. (See program). Mrs. M. E. Anderson, President of National Ushers, Mr. McLain, Ohio, and Mrs. Henderson Green, Louisiana, were recognized and made brief remarks. Adjourned until Thursday morning at 8:00. Benediction by Dean Green.

Thursday Morning

The house was called to order at 8:45 by Vice President Jones, who led the devotional. President Jordan then resumed the chair and announced the house in order for business. The main business was completing the program.

The minutes of the previous day were read and approved. The Budget Committee submitted its report. (See report.) The same was approved. The Finance Committee reported a total of $510.00 raised.

Secretary Dixon arose to a question of personal privilege and was recognized to make remarks of some previous actions of the body and asked to be relieved of a responsibility imposed upon him by the program committee. By unanimous consent he was relieved. President Jordan also asked for reconsideration of some features of the program. The same was granted and the actions rescinded.

The agenda having been completed and all business transacted, we closed with benediction by Dean H. Green.

SEPTEMBER BOARD OF DIRECTORS MEETING OF THE NATIONAL BAPTIST CONVENTION, U.S.A., INC. ST. MARK BAPTIST CHURCH, DETROIT, MICHIGAN

September 8, 1964

The Devotions were led by the Reverend C. A. Weaver, Jacksonville, Florida, after which Vice President Charles H. Hampton presented President J. H. Jackson, who greeted the brethren and gave stimulating remarks. President Jackson spoke of the Educational Foundation and the many advantages the Foundation would afford the constituents of the convention. Secretary T. J. Jemison then was asked to call the roll of State Presidents to make statements concerning the Educational Foundation. There was good response and many spoke in glowing terms of the Foundation.

President Jackson called upon Secretary Jemison to read a part of the Auditors report giving the assets of the Convention. The report indicated that we had a total asset of $232,212.13. A breakdown in this total showed that we had on deposit in the Bank $12,395.83; the Freedom Farm, Buildings and Equipment $95,927.33; Held for Retirement and Debenture Bonds $123,888.97.

The Board voted that the Matter of Implementing the Vote of placing the Bath House Property on the Retirement Fund ledger be delayed until the proper wording could be worked out.

The Reverend Owen D. Pelt moved and it was seconded that the proper resolution be drawn for the purpose of opening a Special Account for the Education Foundation. The motion carried.

Secretary Jemison read a proposed telegram, prepared by President Jackson that would be sent to President Lyndon B. Johnson and the Republican Candidate Barry M. Goldwater. Rev. W. H. Bell moved and the Rev. T. S. Harten seconded that the telegram become the sentiment of the Board of Directors and be sent to the respective men. The Motion Carried.

President Jackson stated that a special Offering would be requested on Sunday morning of the Convention for the Bombed Churches of Mississippi, and that a Committee be appointed to investigate the Roanoke Baptist Church of Hot Springs, Arkansas. The motion was made by the Rev. Victor E. Wells and seconded by the Reverend Wilmore A. Carter. The Motion Carried.

Secretary Jemison made remarks relative to the new book written by President Jackson "Many But One." Members of the Board and delegates would be urged to purchase a copy that would be available at the registration booths for $4.50.

The Rev. E. A. Freeman made a report of the Committee on the Progress of Lincoln Heights property in Washington, D. C. President Jackson suggested that the Women's Convention refrain from changing the Constitution until the matter of the Training School be settled. The motion was made by the Rev. W. H. Bell and seconded by the Rev. Owen D. Pelt. The motion carried.

An invitation was extended from the General Baptist State Convention of Georgia, Dr. L. M. Terrill, President, to hold the 1966 convention in Atlanta, Georgia. It was moved and seconded by the Rev. E. A. Freeman and the Rev. C. C. Coleman that the invitation be accepted. The Motion Carried.

President Jackson urged the members of the Board to attend the Baptist World Alliance meeting in Miami, Florida in June. The Rev. William J. Harvey, III, offered a motion that our convention would go on record in support of Dr. W. R. Tolbert of Liberia as President of the Baptist World Alliance. There were many seconds. The motion carried. President Jackson's name for the Presidency was mentioned by Secretary Jemison, and Secretary Jemison gave a strong statement in behalf of Dr. Jackson, but because of reasons stated by Dr. Jackson the motion stood as was previously voted.

President Jackson gave the closing prayer.

THE EIGHTY-FOURTH ANNUAL SESSION OF THE NATIONAL BAPTIST CONVENTION, U. S. A., INC., DETROIT, MICHIGAN

September 9, 1964

The opening song service was conducted by Mrs. Johnnie Howard Franklin and the Reverend Emory Johnson. Vice President Charles H. Hampton called for sentence prayers as programed:

1. For our National Baptist Convention, Rev. M. L. Wilson, New York

Annual Report of Officers and Boards

THE ANNUAL REPORT OF SECRETARY T. J. JEMISON TO THE EIGHTY-FOURTH ANNUAL SESSION OF THE NATIONAL BAPTIST CONVENTION, U.S.A., INC., MEETING IN DETROIT, MICHIGAN

September 8-13, 1964

Dr. J. H. Jackson, our esteemed President, Members of the offical family, Delegates and visiting friends of the National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Inc., it gives me a great deal of pleasure to stand before you again to make my annual report. When I say pleasure, I mean it, but I do not wish to minimize the great responsibilties of this office. The work of this office never ceases and there is hardly a day when some request is not made.

We are assembled together in Detroit, Michigan, for our 84th Annual Session. We were here last in 1945. I remember this year well for part of my Honey Moon was spent in that Convention. The succeeding years, through Almighty God, have been kind to me. For which I am humbly grateful.

As your Secretary, I can truthfully report to you that we are steadily making progress. The reports from our various Boards in this session will indicate the same. We have paid our quotas in the Baptist World Alliance, World Council of Churches and members of this Convention played leading roles in the successful culmination of the 150th year (Baptist Jubilee) held in May in Atlantic City. Our President, Dr. Jackson, was on program along with others of this fellowship. We are indebted, as a convention to Dr. E. A. Freeman for representing us so well on the Baptist Jubilee Committee.

As your Secretary, I had very wholesome visits with the Shiloh Baptist Church, Dr. W. C. Thomas, Pastor, Columbus, Ohio; the Olivet Institutional Baptist Church, Dr. O. M. Hoover, Pastor, Cleveland, Ohio; The Morris-Booker College, Dermott, Arkansas; This school is supported by the Arkansas Regular Baptist State Convention, Dr. C. B. Knox, President; the Zion Hill Baptist Church; Dr. Levi M. Terrill, Pastor and Natchez College, Natchez, Miss. All of these visits were very helpful to me and on each occasion, I had the opportunity of visiting with the brethren of the Convention in each State and city.

We wish to take this opportunity to express our appreciation to Dr. D. C. Washington, Executive Director, Sunday School Publishing Board and his staff for a job well done again on our minutes. We have mailed them out and we hope that each of you have received your copy. If you have not, call at my office here in this building and you may have one just as long as they last. When they are out, we will ask you to give us your name and address and we will gladly send you your copy on our return to Baton Rouge. Again, we ask you to let us know if your address changes durng the year. The book rate we use becomes very expensive if the book has to be returned to me. I have to pay 15c to get it back and 15c to send to you again.

We were given as usual the allotment for our office of $5,400.00. It was spent as follows:

Secretary's Honorarium	$2,400 00
Office Secretary and Extra Help	2,040 00
Postage For Various Mailings	580 00
Return Postage	42 00
Travel Room and Board	550 36

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE SUNDAY SCHOOL PUBLISHING BOARD

National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Inc.
330 Charlotte Avenue, Nashville, Tennessee, 37201
D. C. Washington, Executive Director

President Jackson, Officers, Members of the Board of Directors, and Messengers assembled here in the city of Detroit, Michigan, I am pleased to submit the Annual Report of the Sunday School Publishing Board, for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1964.

"New occasions teach new duties
Time makes ancient good uncouth;
They must upward still and onward
Who would keep abreast of truth."

These familiar words from Lowell's "The Present Crisis" suggest the philosophy underlying the operation of the Sunday School Publishing Board, which like other mature business institutions; must constantly reexamine and redefine its goals and redetermine the means by which these goals may be accomplished. The purpose of the Sunday School Publishing Board is the extension of Christian education through the printed word. Our goals, therefore, must be defined as an ever increasing production of progressively improved literary offerings made readily available for prompt distribution to a constantly expanding constituency. The Management of the Sunday School Publishing Board must assume the responsibility for bringing together the components essential to the accomplishment of these goals, namely, organization and planning awareness of the needs of our constituents, capital for materials, machinery, personnel, and other operating costs, an efficient marketing system, a program of effective public relations, and a sense of personal commitment to the fundamentals of Christianity.

ORGANIZATION AND PLANNING

The Sunday School Publishing Board is a subsidiary corporation of the National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Inc., Dr. J. H. Jackson, President. Our organizational structure consists of a Corporate Board composed of nine members who function as the Board of Directors. They meet as often as necessary to transact the business of the institution, and act upon recommendations of the Executive Committee or the Executive Director. The Executive Committee, composed of the officers of the corporation, meets in the interim between Corporate Board meetings, subject to the call of the Chairman. The General Board, composed of representatives from the various state conventions, meets annually to receive and act upon recommendations from the Corporate Board thereby maintaining structural continuity. The program of the Sunday School Publishing Board is conducted under the supervision of the Executive Director, with the assistance of the Administrative Staff. The supervisory personnel, under their direction have charge of the various departmental programs.

A retrospective view of the five years during which I have served as Executive Director, affords a basis for advanced planning, as we recognize the growing dimensions of the task before us. We are aware that the composite program presented by the Board must be as broad as the life of the church, and we are gearing our combined offerings to constitute a wide range of services, providing valuable resources for leaders and pupils. These include programs of missions and evangelism, education and service, and are designed to help the individual achieve a rewarding life in our complex social order.

Like other business institutions, the Sunday School Publishing Board has a Budget, or plan of financial operation, based on prior experiences, present conditions, and future expectancies. It is designed to provide for normal operational costs, but must be flexible enough to allow for adjustments in the event of unforseen occurrences.

At our annual meeting, October, 1963, the Corporate Board, after careful consideration, approved a Budget for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1964, in the amount of some $929,000.00. Of this figure product costs represented 44%, Selling Expenses 20%, and Administrative Expenses 16%; of the remaining 20%, payments on long term obligations amounted to 12%, leaving 8% for National Baptist Convention objectives, Leadership Program Services, and other expenses. During the past year, we have operated within the framework of this Budget, and have adhered to the guidelines which it set forth.

We have appreciated the cooperative counsel of our Chairman, Dr. W. T. Crutcher, who makes regular visits to the Board, and is well informed as to our progress and our problems. The keen interest evidenced by members of both the Corporate and General Boards, has served as a source of much inspiration.

The Administrative Staff, and the entire personnel of the Sunday School Publishing Board, have given unstinted support to our program, as together we have sought to spread the message of God's redemptive love.

CHANGING CURRICULUM NEEDS

Being constantly aware of the fact that changes make demands, the Editorial Division has sought to provide publications adequate to these ever changing demands, which has been done both by initiating new publications and enriching the content of materials already in distribution.

Ever mindful of its responsibilities, the Editorial Division has secured the facilities and the services of some of the best minds of our denomination to prepare the manuscripts that our people study. These writers supply the literary and artistic fuel for the development of the diversified Christian Educational Curriculum of the National Baptist Constituency. The curriculum and curriculum materials are enhanced by their contributions. The scope of their creative activity includes feature articles, lesson exposition, book reviews, special lesson treatments, pictorial illustrations, devotional and inspirational material, along with other unique literary incentives.

The Editorial policy is grounded and steeped in sound doctrinal traditions of the Baptist Church. While the study curriculum and materials are addressed to current socio-religious confrontations, they are also fundamental in New Testament Christian concepts. These materials academic, conforming to accepted educational standards, simultaneously designed to reach the wide range of people depending on us for services.

PROGRAM SERVICES

The Department of Christian Education defines and measures denominational progress in the development and training of Christian leaders. Its heaviest investment is placed in revitalizing and enriching the program of Religious Education through local churches and district, state and national congresses.

This Department offers guidance and resources to strengthen leaders and workers engaged in Christian teaching, thus enabling the entire constituency of the Convention to move along parallel lines. The scope of our work in this Department is evidenced by its statistical report for the year ended June 30, 1964:

Leadership Schools Accredited	451
Deans Certified	58
Instructors Certified	1,727
Course Cards Issued	40,551

CERTIFICATES OF PROGRESS

First Certificates	345
Second Certificates	172

Third Certificates ..... [illegible]
Achievement Certificates ..... [illegible]

[illegible]

We note an [illegible] First Certificates of Progress, over last year, but a decrease in Second and Third Certificates, which indicates a need for continuing emphasis on Leadership Training in our Churches, so that every person who receives a First Certificate will persevere until completing the Training Course and receiving the Third Certificate, thereby becoming a better qualified, more capable Christian Worker.

FINANCIAL OPERATIONS

Materials, Machinery, Personnel and Operating Expenses are all essential parts of any manufactured item. When the cost of any one of these components increases, the selling price generally must be increased, in order to maintain a safe margin of profit.

During the past year, the Publishing Board has faced rising material costs for both paper and ink prices have accelerated, sharply. Much of our machinery is antiquated, and maintenance and repairs become increasingly expensive. The Federal Minimum Wage Law required that after September 3, 1963, we could pay no worker, however menial, less than $1.25 per hour, automatically elevating our entire pay scale, since skilled workers' salaries had to be raised, to maintain consistencies between pay rates. In some work areas where we lack sufficient equipment to cope with our present needs, overtime work is a constant necessity, further increasing our labor costs.

Lack of factory space creates problems in scheduling our work, and until we are able to build a fully equipped production center, we will continue to incur tremendous expense in pyramided labor costs, and in sub-let work to other firms who have more modern machinery.

In spite of these pressing problems, we have not increased the prices of our literature, but have sought to practice internal economies and have passed the savings on to you, our patrons. We are experiencing keen competition from larger Publishing Houses (some not even Baptist) whose tremendous sales volume enables them to keep their prices down. We realize that some of our patrons would buy from these companies, if our prices increase, and therefore we must look toward greater sales volume, and newer machinery for faster production, if we are to meet competition.

You will note from the attached Audit Report, that during the past year, we enjoyed an increase of some $52,000.00 in sales volume, with a corresponding increase in net profit of some $30,000.00; and yet when we realize that hundreds of our Churches who should be buying from us are not favoring us with their business, we see the need of greater loyalty among our churches. We are offering quality materials, reasonably priced, available ahead of time and comparable to the best publications sold anywhere. THE SUNDAY SCHOOL PUBLISHING BOARD BELONGS TO YOU--IT CAN BE NO MORE SUCCESSFUL THAN YOU MAKE IT BE.

We are continuing to reduce our long term commitments, according to schedule, but will perhaps be forced to seek outside financing for the needed equipment and further expansion, which good business judgment indicates is essential to our continued growth. We pay our obligations regularly, and enjoy a favorable relationship with the Banks and our creditors. According to the Auditors' Report, we have a ratio of twice as many current assets as current liabilities, which is generally accepted as a sound financial position.

FROM US TO YOU

An effective marketing system is needed to get the materials from our shelves to your churches in time for you to have full advantage of your purchases.

We have three methods of distribution; first, you may order direct from the Sunday School Publishing Board, and we will give your order immediate attention. Time must be allowed for us to receive your order, fill it, and put it in the mail. The Post Office is in the process of revamping its own operations, and frequently delays occur after the package has left us. However, early ordering will assure receiving your goods on time, and will help us to avoid peak periods.

Second, we operate Branch Stores, in St. Louis, Mo., and Los Angeles, California, where you may purchase any of our materials. Both of these stores have been more conveniently and attractively relocated and are highly representative; they are capably staffed with efficient personnel who not only operate the stores, but also win friends for us in the immediate and surrounding areas.

Third, we have numerous Distributing Agencies scattered throughout the nation. Through these service centers, our materials are made available to those in the respective localities.

CREATING A CLIMATE OF GOOD WILL

The Sunday School Publishing Board has given careful consideration to the strengthening of our Public Relations Program. In addition to the efforts of Staff persons, we must depend to a great degree upon the interest and cooperation of our Board Members from the various states, who can serve as "ambassadors of good will." Invitations to appear at your state or regional meetings give us an opportunity to interpret our program. Solicitation of new patrons is a responsibility which all of us may share.

Staff members and interested representatives responded to requests, serving as key consultants in both rural and metropolitan areas. Much of our increased sales volumes may be attributed to their field work. During the past year, Staff Members have appeared in Alabama, Arkansas, California, the District of Columbia, Florida, Georgia, Illinois, Indiana, Kansas, Kentucky, Mississippi, Missouri, New Jersey, New Mexico, New York, Ohio, Oklahoma, Pennsylvania, Tennessee, Texas, Virginia, West Virginia, and Wisconsin. Our Chairman, Dr. Crutcher, represented the Board at the Baptist Jubilee Advance (Atlantic City, New Jersey) commemorating the One Hundred Fiftieth Anniversary of the Baptist Movement in this country.

May we offer you the services of our Staff for your area and state meetings, leadership training workshops, or special programs. The golden voice of Mr. J. Robert Bradley, our Music Coordinator, is available for your State Sunday School Congresses, or other Conventions, as a service of the Sunday School Publishing Board.

In addition, may we take this opportunity to thank you for your loyal support of our work and to solicit your continued cooperation.

When problems arise, or if any business transaction with us is not completed to your entire satisfaction, please let us know promptly, so that we may make immediate adjustment. A favorable climate for continued growth can result only from satisfied patrons, who tell others of the service and products they purchase; we invite you to join us in telling others about your Publishing House, so that we may continue to develop to our highest potential, as an effective disseminator of the word of God.

NATIONAL BAPTIST CONVENTION OBJECTIVES

The Sunday School Publishing Board continues to give complete cooperation to the National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Inc.

MORRIS MEMORIAL BUILDING

We have maintained and operated Morris Memorial Building, and kept it up to the high standards set by the Directors of the Capitol Hill Redevelopment Program. This requires constant interior and exterior painting and renovating, and it is likely that even more stringent regulations will be put into action during the coming year. The Morris Memorial Building is located right in the heart of downtown Nashville, and we are apprehensive that we may have to move our production department to an area zoned for industrial operation. Fortunately, we own a building site, and it would be possible to erect a production center large enough to accommodate all our manufacturing departments, give ample storage space for stock and inventory, and allow room to install equipment with which we could do much of the Bindery Processing which is presently contracted outside.

NATIONAL BAPTIST VOICE

We have printed and mailed the NATIONAL BAPTIST VOICE and paid the salary of the office manager, at a cost of almost $7,000.00.

NATIONAL BAPTIST FIELD WORKER

We have borne the office and secretarial expenses of Miss Primrose Funches, National Field Worker, as well as paying her expenses for traveling, her salary and other incidentals, at a cost of $6,000.00.

THE NATIONAL BAPTIST MINUTES

The Board printed the Record of the 82nd Annual Session, at a cost of $4,200.00

THE TEN MILLION DOLLAR EDUCATIONAL CAMPAIGN

We have printed many materials used in the promotion of the Ten Million Dollar Educational Campaign, at a cost of above $2,000.00.

This makes a total contribution to the National Baptist Convention of above $19,000.00, for the past year, exclusive of the operation of Morris Memorial Building.

"New occasions teach new duties,
Time makes ancient good uncouth;
They must upward still and onward
Who would keep abreast of truth."

With sincere humility, the Sunday School Publishing Board accepts the challenge to press forward to the attainment of our ultimate goal as committed Christians,—"To seek:—to save—to serve"—through spreading the knowledge of the love of God!

JONES, ANDERSON & COMPANY
Certified Public Accountants

AUDITOR'S CERTIFICATE

We have examined the financial records of the Sunday School Publishing Board, a subsidiary of the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc., for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1964 and now submit as our report the comments, exhibits and schedules listed in the table of contents. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and accordingly included such test of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances to enable us to render an independent accountant's opinion on the fairness of the representations in the statements showing the financial position of the company at June 30, 1964, and its operating results for the year then ended. The extent of certain procedures employed, including sampling of transactions, was based principally on our review of the system of internal control and the efficiency of its functioning.

In our opinion, the accompanying balance sheet and related income statement fairly present the financial position of the Sunday School Publishing Board as of June 30, 1964 in accordance with generally accepted accounting standards.

Very truly yours,

JONES, ANDERSON & COMPANY

William S. Anderson

COMMENTS

We have completed our examination of the books of account and record pertaining to the assets, liabilities and net worth of the Sunday School Publishing Board, a subsidiary of the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc., for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1964, and submit herewith our report.

Scope

Our examination included a verification of the assets, liabilities and net worth of the company at June 30, 1964, a general review of the operating results for the year then ended and an investigation of the recorded cash and other transactions as outlined later in this report.

Financial Condition

A comparative balance sheet for the fiscal years ended June 30, 1964 and 1963 of your company is set forth in Exhibit I of this report. From this comparison it will be noted that the current assets increased by $71,222.78 and a decrease in the current liabilities of $93,435.55. The current assets at June 30, 1964 totaled $471,542.66, the current liabilities $241,363.63. This is a favorable current ratio of 2 to 1, which is generally accepted as a sound financial position. It will be noted that there was an improvement in the cash position of the company during the year under review. There was also a substantial increase in the inventories. These two assets constituted a very substantial percentage of the increase in the current assets.

Operations

Operations for the years ended June 30, 1964 and 1963, as shown in Exhibit II, is $126,226.68 and $95,919.75 respectively, an increase of $30,306.93. The improved results for the current year were made possible by the increase in the volume of sales and relatively small increase in selling and administrative expense.

Balance Sheet and Comments

Cash $102,927.07

Cash in Checking Accounts	$ 51,803 15
Cash in Savings Accounts	51,123 92
Total	$102,927 07

We confirmed the cash on deposit and in transit by direct communication with the various depositories and independently reconciled by us. Total receipts for the year were $934,244.82, net disbursements were $925,509.44. $35,000.00 of the savings accounts is restricted as collateral for notes payable.

Accounts Receivable $111,389.46

	1964	1963	Increase Decrease*
30 days or less	$ 64,275 63	$ 56,476 96	$ 7,798 67
30 to 60 days	1,719 45	4,697 42	2,777 97*
60 to 90 days	1,974 20	1,877 45	96 75
Over 90 days	43,953 62	46,749 26	2,795 64*
Total	$ 111,922 90	$ 109,801 09	$ 2,121 81
Credit Balance	533 44	715 02	181 58*
Net Receivables	$ 111,389 46	$ 109,086 07	$ 2,303 39

An examination of the over 90 day accounts reveal that collection on these accounts were slow. During the year under review $8,578.59 was collected on accounts delinquent June 30, 1964. We believe there is doubtful collection on $37,000.00 of over 90 day account and increased action should be taken in collection procedures.

Inventories $221,063.30

	1964	1963	Increase Decrease*
Raw Materials	$ 30,376 05	$ 24,180 39	$ 6,195 66

THIRTY-THIRD ANNUAL REPORT OF THE HOME MISSION BOARD OF THE NATIONAL BAPTIST CONVENTION, U. S. A., INC.

CHARLES P. HARRIS, D.D., Cor. Secretary

Submitted in the Eighty-fourth Annual Session of the Convention, Detroit, Michigan, September 9, 1964

THE REPORT FOLLOWS

President Jackson, Chairman Cleveland, Fellow-members of the Home Mission Board and of the Convention, Ladies and Gentlemen:

It again becomes my task to be the spokesman of the Home Mission Board of our great Convention to submit herewith the Annual Report of that phase of our National work for the fiscal year, 1963-1964. I shall attempt in this Report briefly to review: (A) The Meaning of Home Missions; (B) Board Meetings; (C) Special Efforts; (D) Projects; (E) Finances and (F) Needs.

THE MEANING OF HOME MISSIONS

1. On many sides we hear the query, what is meant by "Home Missions"? The idea of Christian missions is that of spreading the Gospel and its inherent blessings by those sent by the inspiration, spirit and command of Him who is the great Head of the Christian enterprise, Jesus Christ. The whole idea is to "make disciples of all nations, with all of the inherent benefits to man and glory to God that such a universal discipleship implies. The ultimate goal of Christian missions is universal human salvation, not only of the soul, but of the whole man. This may be seen in both the earthly career and the command of Jesus.

As He sent forth His disciples Jesus directed them: "And as ye go, preach saying, The Kingdom of heaven is at hand." He then added with obvious significance, "Heal the sick, cleanse the lepers, raise the dead, cast out devils."

Home Missions is but the application of the philosophy of missions to the home field. It is the carrying out of the Great Commission on the home field in recognition of that field as an integral part of the "all the world" into which Jesus has commanded us to go and the "all nations" of which He has directed us to "make disciples." The author of an accepted Missionary Catechism aptly sums up the matter when he asks, "What do we mean by 'Home Missions'?" and then gives this answer: "By 'Home Missions' we mean, the movement to make our home-land Christian as a basis from which to work to make the whole world Christian."

"The Home Mission Enterprise" is a Christ-begun movement which must be kept in motion by His dedicated followers down through the centuries. By command and example Christ seems to have given priority to the Home Mission ideal. We must remember that the Great Commission does not EXclude, but rather INcludes the home field—which indeed is a part of the "all the world" scope of action mapped out by our Lord. When Christ sent forth the initial nucleus of His workers into the field his instructions were: "Go not into the way of the Gentiles, and into any city of the Samaritans enter ye not. But go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel." In His pre-Pentecost promise of the visitation of the Holy Ghost the geography of Christ's words seems to emphasize the priority of the home field—". . . and ye shall be witnesses unto me both in Jerusalem, and in all Judea, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth." This, then, seems to be the scope and nature of the Home Mission challenge which we face.

B. — BOARD MEETINGS

1. Our Annual Convention Sessions Board Meeting was held in Cleveland, Ohio on Thursday, September 4, 1963. By reason of some uncertainty as to time and place and other conflicting interests, the meeting was not largely attended. With Dr. M. C. Cleveland, Chairman, presiding and following preliminary devotions and remarks by Chairman Cleveland, the Corresponding Secretary submitted his Annual Report. The Report showed among other things that all the Board's fiscal obligations had been met to date, including the monthly installments on two (2) mortgages on the Brooks Baptist Club property in Washington, D. C., totaling $151.09 per month or a grand total of $1,813.08 for the year. Honorarium checks were presented to non-salaried but faithful staff officers of the Board, and other routine business was attended to before we adjourned to meet in Hot Springs in January, 1964.

2. The Hot Springs session of the Board was held on Wednesday, January 22, 1964 with Chairman Cleveland presiding. This meeting was well attended and proved to be one of the most interesting sessions of the Board in quite sometime. The $5.00 roll call was observed by all present, and a list of $1.00 non-member honor roll was presented by Rev. J. B. Waller. During the meeting the Board decided to underwrite the total school-year salary of the M. C. Cleveland Chair in Old Testament History in the Northern Baptist School of Religion, Newark, New Jersey; voted a contribution of $100.00 to the bomb-damaged 16th Street Baptist Church in Birmingham, Alabama; authorized the re-decoration of the Brooks Club House in Washington, D. C., an approximate cost of $500.00, and adopted a new project to be known as "The Roving Evangelistic Missionary" in cooperation with the Paradise Baptist State Convention of Arizona. More will be said about this project later in this report.

This Session of our Board came to a close following a report on the financial status of the Brooks Club property in Washington by Rev. G. E. Stevenson, Chairman of the Club's Trustee Board. This report showed a balance of $4,709.27 due of the first mortgage and $1,341.98 due on the second mortgage—making a total balance due at that time of $6,046.25. I might here add that since that time $1,207.72 has been paid on this debt, making a current total balance due of $5,837.53. It is our determination soon to free our Board of this millstone of debt about our neck so as to be enabled to meet the many real needs, and challenges of the home mission field.

3. As was the case the previous year, the Pittsburgh Congress session of our Board did not materialize, and also as was the case the previous year, the Congress effort of our Board resulted in a sizeable deficit. This deficit would have been even greater had it not been for the fact that the local arrangement Committee made no charge for space, table and chairs. This was our first experience having such courtesies extended gratis—thanks to Dr. Mays, General Chairman, and his fine committee. This was a big-hearted and gracious precedent set by the Pittsburgh brethren, which it is to be hoped other Entertainment Committees may find it in their hearts to follow.

C. — SPECIAL EFFORTS

Among the special efforts put forth in the interest of our work during the past year have been the following:

1. A "Week of Prayer" which is an annual effort put on in March of each year by the Pleasant Green Baptist Church, Kansas City, Missouri, Rev. Gerald Schiele, Pastor; our Board's nation-wide "Week of Prayer" held in May; special Home Mission Days held by the Philadelphia, Penna., Newark, New Jersey and New York Ministers Conferences, respectively; A special Home Mission service sponsored by the First Baptist Church of Kenilworth, New Jersey, Rev. R. K. Williams, Pastor. The amounts reported from these special efforts were: The Kansas "Week of Prayer", $249.65; our National Week of Prayer (approximately) $334.00, Philadelphia Conference Home Mission Day $334.25. Newark Ministers Conference's Home Mission Day $471.85, New York Ministers Conference's Home Mission Day $115.00. Home Mission Day in First Baptist Church, Kenilworth, N. J. $172.00. Your Corresponding Secretary was guest speaker for the New York Ministers Conference, the Kenilworth Home Mission Day Services, and was in charge of the Newark Conference Home Mission Program. Secretary Harris also paid an unexpected visit to the Annual Session of the newly organized National Capital Baptist Convention of Washington, D. C. and Vicinity in May, and was there given $100.00 for our work. Further details of these special efforts as well as other items of interest concerning our work may be noted in the column of the current issue of the "Home Mission Journal", which may be obtained at our Home Mission Booth.

D. — PROJECTS

1. Although our Home Mission Board has reached out in many directions of helpfulness during the year, as may be noted in our printed report which is available at our Booth, yet our regular work currently objectifies itself into three or four phases or projects.

Perhaps the current project of greater responsibility which our Board operates is the Walter H. Brooks Baptist Student Fellowship in Washington, D. C. Here our responsibility is four-fold in our monthly commitment: Our Board pays the two monthly mortgage installments, pays the Chaplains monthly salary, maintains a student-aid fund and makes property repairs beyond the limits of the local trustees' funds. Our total monthly outlay for this project has averaged just under $500.00 per month during the last fiscal year.

A second regular monthly obligation which our Board has carried during the past year has been the sponsorship of a course known as the "M. C. Cleveland Chair in Old Testament History" in the Northern Baptist School of Religion, Newark, New Jersey. Our Board underwrote the teacher's salary for the school year for this Course.

The latest regular monthly obligation undertaken by our Home Mission Board is the project known as our "Roving Evangelistic Missionary" and is carried on in cooperation with the paradise Baptist State Convention of Arizona. By this arrangement our Board has assumed a portion of the monthly salary of the preaching and teaching missionary, whose, duties are to travel, preach, teach and work among the sparsely populated sections of Arizona and adjoining states where no regular Christian worship and other christian services are carried on. Dr. Charles Favors, a well prepared, dedicated and experienced minister and former pastor, has accepted this itenerant work and is doing a fine job, as his regular and detailed reports reveal.

F—NEEDS

1. Brethren and Sisters of the Convention, Hearers or Readers of this Report, our Home Mission Board hereby urgently calls upon you for your support in our task of carrying on the work of our great God-given Convention assigned task of missions on the home field. Give liberally in our Home Missions rally here to be called for within the next few minutes tonight. Then, sometime this week, go to our Home Mission Board Booth and enroll your church, missionary society or other auxiliary of your church as a regular monthly contributor to our work, if your Church or an auxiliary thereof is not already so enrolled, leave your name and address at our booth so that you may be put on our mailing list to receive our 'Home Mission Journal' and other materials on our work. I beg you, my fellow-ministers, pastors and co-laborers with us in the Lord, to support us with your regular financial aid, fervent prayers and full cooperation in our great task of making "America First For Christ."

Humbly submitted,

CHARLES P. HARRIS

REPORT OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EVANGELISM, 1963-1964

THEME: "The Home and Whole Evangelism"—Mark 5:19-20.

Facts, figures and future . . . Plans on Soul Saving. Matt. 18:1-12. For the Son of man is come to save that which was lost.

FIRST:

May we whisper a soft word to God for those co-workers in Evangelism with us, who passed on to God's care. Dr. H. Thomas, Ala., A. C. Mitchell, Ill., C. E. Motlhews, Texas, (Southern Baptist Convention) E. Doles, New York, and G. W. Gore, Ill. and many others.

A word about our convention: the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc., is a great, great convention. Our fathers and mothers made it great. May we help make our Convention greater!

A word about our fine President, the very eminent Rev. Dr. J. H. Jackson, I said this in 1953, therefore I have no reason to regret what I said: what I have said then, has been proven to be true to the whole world. I said in 1953 in Brooklyn, New York, I Sam. 16:12, . . . and the Lord said, arise, anoint Him: for this is he. I used a horn to tell, or demonstrate the fact that Rev. Jackson was God's Choice.

NOW A WORD ABOUT EVANGELISM

Eleven years (11) God has blessed the cause:

1. About 50 thousand were added to our churches per year, 25,000 churches would mean some 2 were added per church.

2. Or 100,000 souls in 10 years. Therefore it took about 82 persons, believers to bring one to Christ annually, a challenge to us; if one brings one, in 1965, . . . 5 million could be received. Bring one to Christ to your own Church.

FINANCE:

For seven years I received salary and expense for our work: Thank God, President Jackson, and the convention and the Southern Baptist convention for 6 years of support. Of course for 4 years I had no salary, 1963—I received from (the Board of Evangelism) $99.48, other sources of income $310.00, total for 1963 . . . $409.48. Expense of my office about $1,000.00. PLANS FOR FUTURE—1965: . . . 100,000 copies of St. Mark, to be given to sinners by the saints.

God bless the cause. I feel sure our great President and the Convention will help our Department of Evangelism.

I am grateful to all, in His name,
Rev. W. Constello Trotter, Secretary

REPORT OF STATISTICIAN, SEPTEMBER 10, 1964

Mr. President, officers, members and friends of the National Baptist Convention, Inc. I am happy to come before you today and make my Annual Report. I come with deep emotion, because since last we met All Mighty God has called from labor to reward my beloved wife, Mrs. Bernice Dorsey Johnson. For thirty-six and a half years she was constantly by my side as my strength and inspiration. She played a major role in the development of Greater Mount Calvary Baptist Church. Mrs. Johnson was a Loving Mother, A Devoted Wife, And A Genuine Christian.

Hers was the light of love; the purity of grace; the mind of forwardness; the smile of music breathed from her face. Her virtues were so rare that her deeds gave strength to life and her moderation gave it charm.

I thank Dr. J. H. Jackson for appropriate words of love, encouragement and affection. I thank all of you for your support in my most crucial hour.

During the year I have given my best service. I have tried to serve you faithfully and with dignity. I have given statistical information to major religious bodies throughout this country. I have given statistical information to social agencies and colleges. I have answered all requests promptly.

The National Baptist Convention, Inc., is the largest religious organization within our race. It represents a big membership. Let us not be afraid of Bigness. We live in a Big world; we live in a Big country; we have been given a Big task; we have a Big man as president, and we are serving a Big God—one who has the world in his hands. Jesus Christ our Savior gave us a Big commission, therefore we must do Big things for the kingdom. In order to increase our numerical strength we must continue to be evangelical Christians. We must be evangelical preachers.

"How to reach the masses, Men of every birth,
For an answer Jesus gave a key,
And I, if I be lif-ted up from the earth,
Will draw all men unto me."

Classical preaching does very little to the souls of men. The primary purpose of every gospel sermon should be to inspire Christians and save the lost. We as ministers of Jesus Christ must never shirk our responsibility to elevate and cultivate the less fortunate. We must:

"Rescue the perishing,
Care for the dying,
Snatch them in pity
From sin and the grave,
Weep o'er the erring one,
Lift up the fallen,
Tell them of Jesus the

AMERICAN BAPTIST THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY REPORT

The church's debt to the world can partly be paid in the education of our pastors, and church workers. We proudly report the implementation of the action taken at Hot Springs last January by the Executive Board to renovate our building to house the single women students to the extent of receiving bids from the contractors. Dr. L. A. Bowman, chairman of the building committee, is anxiously awaiting the results, and should soon, with the cooperation from the other members of the committee, Dr. Beecher Hicks and Dr. E. E. Spencer, recommend the immediate start of the project.

We also proudly report the acquiring of a counsellor for the girls; two new professors—replacements with earned doctor's degrees, the purchase of a new Allen Organ for the chapel, and an expected increase of twenty-five percent in enrollment over last year.

The receipt of a telegram yesterday from the Business Manager is self explanatory. We have pledged to support the Educational Foundation, and eagerly look forward to the assets which will hopefully accrue to your Seminary at the earliest possible moment. The new Academic Dean has engaged the faculty in an intensive study of the curriculum, and the administration is seriously undertaking a study on establishing equities in faculty salaries, with the aid of the committee on salaries of the Seminary Board.

A clear description of the program objectives of the Seminary is contained in a booklet known as "Chart and Compass," with the purpose of attracting large donations from friends in sympathy with our needs and goals. An intensive use of this promotion piece, along with an all-out follow up of implementation under the leadership of Chairman Phale D. Hale is our hope in matching in some measure our regular receipts from the Southern Baptist Convention. We cannot, must not fall below our share of the bread and butter budget needs, amounting to thirty thousand dollars. Three hundred contributions of one hundred dollars each will accomplish the task. With God's help, the new program needs, we pray, shall be met this year and in the years to come.

We are fortunate in obtaining the brilliant gifts of intellectual and Spiritual excellence in the coming of Dr. Kyle Haselden, Editor of "The Christian Century" for the Garnett-Nabrit Lectures in the Spring to which all of you are invited.

We note in conclusion a tremendous resurgence of interest on the part of our Alumni, both here and abroad (especially in the Bahamas), and under the dynamic leadership of Reverend Isaiah Rouser of Memphis, hope for even increasing participation in the fiscal program of the Seminary.

We shall never be able to match the "extravagance of Calvary." We can however pay in part the church's debt to the world in the support of an urgently needed educated and dedicated ministry to lead our Constituency's churches.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, SEPTEMBER 9, 1964

COBO CIVIC AUDITORIUM, ROOM 3038
DETROIT, MICHIGAN

National Baptist Laymen's Movement opened its Annual 1964 Session, being called to order by President Allen Jordan of Brooklyn, N. Y.

Prayer service and Meditation Period was conducted after which President Jordan appointed some committees.

Dean Henderson Green presented the Instructors to the body followed by Class Period. Practically all present took a study course and all seemed to enjoy this period very much.

11:00—Reassembled with remarks by Dean H. Green

11:05—Inspiration Address by Mr. Herbert Millier who was presented by President Jordan who requested the body to stand and sing "What a Friend We Have in Jesus".

Mr. Miller's remarks emphasized the importance of changes in these "TIMES" as compared with times of former days.

He made a most remarkable address and was highly complimented by President Jordan who asked the body to stand and sing "Blessed Assurance, Jesus is Mine"

Offering, $70.00 and by motion a rising vote of thanks was given Mr. Miller.

The Chairman of the Resolution Committee requested the Committee to meet in Room 3080 after the close of this Morning Session.

A letter was received from Bro. H. F. Taylor, 3rd Vice President of 1011 St. Anthony Avenue, St. Paul, Miss. The letter stated that on account of the serious illness of his wife that he would NOT be able to attend meetings as he desired and hence he was resigning from his position as 3rd Vice President.

A Motion was made and properly seconded that a letter be sent to Bro. Taylor stating the sympathy of the National Baptist Laymen and that he continues on the official roll as Vice President. This motion prevailed. Dismissal by Rev. Liggon.

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON, SEPTEMBER 9, 1964
COBO CIVIC AUDITORIUM, ROOM 3038
DETROIT, MICHIGAN

National Baptist Laymen's Movement was called to order at 2:20 P.M. by Vice President-at-Large, Bro. S. L. Jones, 958 Haight Street, San Francisco, California.

Song—"Leaning on the Everlasting Arms." Brother Jones then presented Brother S. C. Boyer, 6th Vice President.

Song—"Precious Lord, Take My Hand."

After a few remarks Vice President Jones called for the reading of the Morning Journal and Assistant Recording Secretary, Bro. M. D. Upchurch, Clarksdale, Miss., read the morning journal.

A motion was made and duly seconded that the same be adopted with necessary corrections. This motion carried. (Note) There were no corrections. Mrs. Mildred Gayle Black of New Orleans, La., was presented. She is the daughter of the late Executive Secretary, James E. Gayle. She made remarks stating her extreme happiness at being present and her appreciation of the kindness shown the relatives of her deceased father and stated that the "Gayle Book Store" is still being operated and expressed a desire for orders of books, music, etc., which would be promptly filled as during the days of her father's life.

Several members made encouraging responses to her remarks.

Report of the State Presidents and Field Workers was made with Bro. S. W. Nichols, National Director of States in charge.

Report of General Secretary Prof. William Pryor was made. By motion and second this report was received.

Brother Elmore Baker, Treasurer, of Chicago, Illinois made his report and by motion and duly seconded this report was received.

Vice President Jones then presented President Allen Jordan. Brother Buchanan Bender was asked to sing which he did to the enjoyment of all present.

President Jordan asked all ministers to come forward to the rostrum or near it.

President Jordan made his Annual Address. This very masterly address was very inspiring and instructive and was given several minutes applause.

President Jordan's pastor, Dr. Sandy F. Ray, gave a few minutes talk with emphasis of their personal and official friendliness and his remarks was also agreeable and enjoyable.

A motion prevailed that the President's address be accepted.

Offering, $160.00.

Prayer of Thanks by James L. Holmes of Detroit, Michigan.

President Jordan asked all who were attending the meeting the FIRST TIME to stand. Several stood and the President said he desired all of them to give a short talk tomorrow.

FRIDAY AFTERNOON, SEPTEMBER 11, 1964

National Baptist Laymen's Movement was called to order by Brother F. L. Cotton, Florida, 4th Vice President at 2:00 P. M.

Prayer and Meditation Period—Bro. Willie R. Lindsay, New York
Song—"Jesus Keep Me Near The Cross"

Vice President Cotton turned the meeting over to Bro. Goodson Echo to conduct the JUNIOR LAYMEN PERIOD.

ADDRESS on Laymen or Laywomen by Mrs. M. J. Oliver, National Big Mother—She reminded the Laymen of the necessity of a closer relationship of the Father and Son.

READ QUESTIONS by several members.

It was discovered that there were THREE PROGRAMS gotten out for the "JUNIOR LAYMEN PERIOD" and President Jordan advised that the Program printed in the Souvenir Program of the Laymen be the one used.

Brother Albert Williams, 7631 Stewart Avenue care of Bethesda Baptist Church of 109 E. 53rd Street, Chicago, Illinois was presented.

He made a very inspiring address stressing the importance of organizing a Committee of Christian Education in each Church.

One of the duties of this Committee is to make coordinating programs in the work of the Church with special reference of the work of the Laymen's Organizations.

Rev. T. E. Huntley, Pastor of Central Baptist Church of St. Louis, Mo. was presented and gave a very admirable address on "Junior Laymen"

The meeting was turned over to President Allen Jordan who said that the success of the Church depended on "A Good Pastor", Good Deacons" and "Good Trustees". He then asked all visitors to stand, they did so and made a few remarks.

THE RESOLUTION COMMITTEE MADE REPORT
THE REPORT OF THE RESOLUTION COMMITTEE OF THE NATIONAL BAPTIST LAYMEN'S MOVEMENT, AN AUXILIARY TO THE NATIONAL BAPTIST CONVENTION U. S. A., INC.

2. We resolve that the host committee of the Laymen's Movement set up information desk in the main area to inform the convention of our meeting place and activities.

3. We also resolve that all reports be submitted to the president in writing at least two (2) hours prior to the time of presentation.

4. Be it resolved that this body support and subscribe to the National Baptist Voice. We also resolve that newsworthy articles be submitted through a representative designated by this body. Be it further resolved that this representative be referred to as our Reporter.

5. We resolve that the president appoint a committee to study and rewrite our by laws.

7. We also resolve that a committee be appointed to make a study of our Financial structure.

8. We also resolve that the National Director of States be given the full support of the movement, that he be allotted adequate monies to communicate with all the State Laymen Presidents.

9. We realize that in our present programing enough time is not alloted for the transaction of business, therefore we resolve that the body in its future programing allow more time for business periods.

10. We resolve that the body decide on the number of members on the committee, who will determine the recipient of the John L. Webb Award; We suggest that number of members be five (5), and that the members be selected by the body.

Respectfully submitted,

Your Resolution Committee,

Willilam R. Merritt, Sr.
Chairman
Ancil Johnson
Co-Chairman
Orlice S. Williams,
Secretary

Motion was made to adopt the report. After some discussion a motion was made to adopt by items; this was agreed to with the following result:

By vote of 37:9 Item No. 1 would be deleted.

Item No. 5. A motion prevailed that the Request of the President be inserted as in item 5. The request previously made is as follows;

"President Jordan requests the records of the Finance itemized showing the sources from which the money came and printed in the Souvenir Program Book".

Item No. 6. Motioned that Item No. 6 in the Resolution be referred to the Executive Board.

A Motion prevailed that the report with the above named changes be accepted and adopted, and that a standing vote of thanks be given to the Resolution Committee.

Dismissed by Rev. Gregory, a Blind Minister, member of Corner Stone M. B. Church, Brooklyn, New York.

THE MODERATOR'S AUXILIARY

Detroit, Michigan, August 8, 1964

Moderator's Auxiliary of the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc. met in the Cobo Hall, Detroit, Michigan. The house was called to order by President Dr. J. L. Vaughn. Devotion was conducted by the committee Dr. Vaughn, our president came forward and made opening remarks. He asked for greetings from moderators, and many of the moderators brought greetings from their fields of labor, which was very encouraging. President asked Secretary, Rev. J. S. Lacey to call the roll of officers. Those that were present gave brief statements of their work. At this point the chairman of the enrollment committee, Dr. J. L. Simmons was asked to set his committee at work. The following moderators were enrolled with $5.00 each, and all associations were asked to enroll with $35.00. Many of the associations came up to the standard, others came up with less amounts. They were giving from their hearts and were given credit for whatever they brought. The program of our meeting was read and adopted.

Appointing Committee—August 9th.

After a lovely discussion on the value of a Moderator's Auxiliary to the National Baptist Convention, we were lifted to do more in the future, than we had done in the past. Each moderator was asked when he returned to his home field of labor, as a key man to encourage the association to do more for the mission cause of the Lord Jesus.

Next order was a song. The President asked each officer to give account of his stewardship for the past year, and President Dr. Vaughn, made a fine report. Secretary Rev. Lacey gave a very fine report. Cor. Dr. Mangum and Assistant Secretary, Dr. Kelly, both made good reports. Dr. Simmons, chairman of finance committee gave a fine report. All of the reports were adopted. Song—"What A Fellowship." Next order was the election of officers; Dr. J. L. Vaughn was elected president; Dr. R. R. Freemon, vice president; Dr. C. H. George, 1st vice president; Dr. C. M. Murdock, 2nd vice president; Rev. J. L. Lacey, recording secretary; Dr. S. S. Kelly, assistant secretary; Dr. C. M. Mangum, corresponding secretary; Dr. J. L. Simmons, chairman of finance; Rev. G. E. Pruitt, chairman of program committee.

THURSDAY NIGHT—Moderator's Auxiliary

The Moderator's Auxiliary met with the Shiloh Baptist Church, Dr. S. D. Ross, pastor.

The house was called to order by the President, Dr. Vaughn. Devotion was conducted by Rev. C. H. George, Rev. L. M.

Scripture: Psalm 37:1-10. Song and Prayer.

Song—"Shine On Me" by the choir and devotion was closed.

Remarks by President, Dr. Vaughn. Rev. R. R. Freeman and Rev. J. L. Simmons were asked to ascend the rostrum for divine service. Rev. J. S. Lacey was asked to present the speaker. That he did with pleasure. Rev. Simmons read the scripture. The choir sang Hymn No. 316—"A Charge to Keep I Have." Rev. Freeman came forward and chose as his text—I John 5. "This is the Victory That Over Cometh Our Faith." This was a great sermon; well delivered and well prepared. Dr. Freeman, is a wonderful preacher; Prayer by Dr. George. The Sermon was commended by many. Free will offering was taken to the amount of $32.00. Closing words, Dr. R. R. Freeman.

SATURDAY MORNING

Moderators' Auxiliary met Saturday morning 10:30 a.m., on the platform in the auditorium. President, Dr. Jackson asked the moderator's auxiliary of the National Baptist Convention to take charge and make their annual report to the parent body. Dr. J. L. Vaughn, our president came forward and in a very timely manner presented the secretary, Rev. J. S. Lacey, to make his annual report. He came forward with encouraging words and gave account of our stewardship, also turned over to the body one thousand ($1,000.00.) He read recommendations to be adopted. This report was adopted by parent body with many cheers. Then president, Dr. Vaughn, presented Dr. Howard Davis, of Philadelphia, to preach and his choir to sing. The choir sang "Guide Me Oh Thou Great Jehovah." The great minister came forward and chose for his text, St. John 17:12. "Father The Hour Has Come." This is the hour. Importance of the Hour. This was a masterpiece. A great sermon. He is a wonderful preacher, well prepared.

Song by choir. Many, many moderators were on the platform to witness the occasion. Closing words.

All persons or committees handling any funds of the Convention shall turn copies of said receipts or financial reports over to her for inclusion in the annual financial report of the Convention. She shall read the printers proof to insure accuracy of the Record. She shall have the Record shipped to them in kits and she shall mail out other Records on order or request. She shall be assisted in this work by the assistant recording secretary.

Section 4. It shall be the duty of the assistant recording secretary to notify all chairmen and members of standing committees of their appointments within thirty days after the Convention closes on printed forms provided for that purpose.

It shall also be her duty to assist the recording secretary in the discharge of her secretarial duties and in her absence keep records of all proceedings and attend to such other duties as her official relationship requires.

Section 5. The treasurer shall be adequately bonded by the Executive Committee and said bond shall be paid for out of the funds of the convention and kept in the office of the recording secretary; the treasurer shall receive all money collected on the field by any representative or through any office of the Convention.

She shall keep a regular account of all receipts and disbursements in well-bound records, and report same to the Convention in regular session to the Board of Directors or whenever requested by the Executive Committee. Designated funds and authorized bills shall be paid within thirty (30) days unless otherwise ordered.

Any remaining representation money above the authorized expense of operating the Convention shall be divided as authorized by the Board of Directors, equally between a selected National Denominational School and National Trade and Professional School for Women and Girls, Washington, D. C. and sent by the treasurer to said schools within thirty (30) days after said authorization. The treasurer's book shall always be open to the inspection of the Executive Committee.

She shall pay out no money without an order from the recording secretary, signed by the president. Her accounts shall be audited annually by a certified accountant.

Section 6. It shall be the duty of the historian to gather and record the facts pertaining to the work, development and achievements of the Woman's Convention, and also to present the stories of the lives of those women of the denomination who have made outstanding contributions in Christian service. She shall report or feature her work, as historian, by-annually.

Section 7. It shall be the duty of the parliamentarian to instruct and guide the Woman's Convention in correct parliamentary rules and usages (according to Roberts' Rules of Order) when called upon, by the president or the body for instruction or ruling.

Section 8. The duties of any other officers, elected by the Convention, shall be such as usually appertain to the office to which they are elected, together with any other duties that may be assigned to them by the Convention.

Section 9. Appointment to chairmanship of committees shall be made on the basis of the financial rating of the states and active interests and participation in the general or special work of the organization. As far as possible there shall be an equitable distribution of offices and committee appointments in the states.

18. Sermon: Rev. Maynard P. Turner, Jr., Pastor, Mt. Zion Baptist Church, Nashville, Tennessee since December, 1960.
   (1) Text; 2 Kings 4:8 (first part)
   (2) Subject: A Great Woman
a. He told us of an unnamed woman in Shumen.
b. She had a home, comfortable rooms. She prepared a room for Elisha.
c. A prophecy of the birth of a son.
   The child died; carried him to Elisha.
   DRIVING AND GOING FORWARD IN FAITH.
   He asked if all is well; "It is Well" was her answer.
   This is what the author had in mind when he wrote "It is Well With My Soul."
d. Tennessee is now mourning over the death of the famous Sergeant York. History remembers men who do well; Astronauts going in outer space, builders, industrialists, those flying in orbit; those who destroy nations, women who make discoveries; events change but human nature never changes. These did not occur every day, but Christian character should occur each day. Women we'll never know held the world together in those days.
   He admonished us that we are the trustees of this world and the future. Women such as these have to clean up the undesirable things left by men. The men are going to land on the moon but the women must keep the earth. So step forward boldly to share with the men the hope of the future; build chasms, teach brotherhood; help share the future.

How can this be done? This can be done by the way you respond to:
   (1) the gossip that comes to you to destroy others
   (2) the lies told on people
   (3) the coward who throws a rock and hides his hands
   (4) the insensitive husband, disobedient children
   (5) the Pastor and Church
   (6) the in a time of crises

(7) the manner in which you respond to a decision,, Can you say "It is Well" when you lay a loved one to rest? when your pillow is soaked with tears? If you can say "It is Well", then you will be molding the future of this country.

19. Hymn: "It is Well With My Soul." He left a check for representation but did not have any women from his church there.

20. Adjournment with singing, "It is Well With My Soul."

SECOND SESSION

FOURTH SESSION

Thursday, September 10, 1964—10:00 A. M.

44. The Fourth Session of the Woman's Convention, Auxiliary to the National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Inc., was called to order by President Ross who brought greetings from the parent body and made a report of the special committee to look into our equity in the National Trade and Professional School for Women and Girls, Inc., in Washington, D. C. He spoke words of commendation for our president, Dr. M. O. Ross and the Woman's Convention.

Dr. Freeman explained to us that the committee from the parent body was asking the Woman's Convention to delay action on the proposed revised constitution for fear we will jeopardize the effort they are putting forth to find out our equity in "The National Trade and Professional School" and "The Worker." They have a legal group in Washington, D. C. who has been paid a retainance fee to do the work. They have many more pieces of materials to study before the work is completed. He said that they hope to pursue this matter further and again asked us to delay action on the proposed revised constitution.

45. Dr. Ross asked for a show of hands from those who would go along with the advice from the committee from the parent body. It was unanimous.

46. Mrs. Pope a public relation representative from the A.M.E. Church was presented who brought greetings from her denomination and the courier. She asked us to subscribe and make money for our organization.

47. Mrs. B. B. Allen, Chairman of the Volunteer committee was presented to invite members to join the committee, and asked for names to be passed in.

48. Dr. Ross announced that $118,000 is needed for this Convention

49. Mrs. S. C. Holley was presented to make announcements about money payments, and assured them that receipts would be given.

50. Worship was led by Mrs. L. Steward
(1) Scripture: Psalm. 5 verses
(2) Solo: "Guide Me O Thou Great Jehovah," Mrs. Julia Knox.

51. Mrs. L. M. Haynes announced that the devotion would be completed at another time.

52. Dr. Ross dismissed the Woman's Convention to go to the parent body assembly to hear the annual address of our President, Dr. J. H. Jackson, National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc.

FIFTH SESSION

Thursday, September 10, 1964—2:00 P. M.

6. Questions:

(1) Mrs. C. C. Coleman asked what the unexpected bills were. The answer was the purchasing of materials in Cleveland had not been paid for.

(2) Mrs. Tyree asked if the Retreat could be tax-exempt.

(3) Mrs. Sarah W. Coleman explained that she could not get it but it would have to come from the president directly. Dr. Ross stated that she thought it could be tax-exempted.

(4) Mrs. Coleman stated that the books of Dr. Nannie H. Burroughs needed to be gone through thoroughly.

(5) Mrs. Wilhelmina Cole, Chairman of the Foreign Missionary Retreat wanted to know why Mesdames Baker and Coleman were not allowed to make a report to the Woman's Convention.

(6) Dr. Ross answered and said that they were allowed to make a report to the convention and that all monies should be sent directly to the Treasurer's Office if you want to get credit for it.

7. Dr. Ross asked a group of people to sit down and discuss the report with Dr. Harvey. The President appointed the following ladies to meet with Dr. Harvey.

(1) Mrs. E. W. Tyre, Chairman
(2) Mrs. Wilhelmina Cole
(3) Mrs. Henrietta Hopkins

DR. MARY O ROSS, President

MAUDDEAN THOMPSON SEWARD, Recording Secretary

SECOND BOARD MEETING OF THE WOMAN'S AUXILIARY TO THE NATIONAL BAPTIST CONVENTION, U. S. A., INC.

1. The Second Session of the Board of Directors of the Woman's Convention, Auxiliary to the National Baptist Convention U.S.A., Inc., was called to order by the President, Dr. Mary O. Ross in the Ball Room of Cobo Hall, Detroit, Michigan, Saturday, September 12, 1964 at 3:00 o'clock.

2. Prayer was led by Mrs. O. P. Captain, President of the Louisiana State Convention.

3. The Agenda consisted of: (1) Camp; (2) Retreat; (3) Budget; (4) Young People's Department's report.

4. The President asked Mrs. Tyree for a report of the Retreat but this report was delayed because she had been sent to get the treasurer, Mrs. Holley was presented to take up the budget. She had corrected budget copies which were passed out to the members.

5. The president asked the secretary to read the Article VI, Section 4, to see who the members of the Board of Directors were.

6. Mesdames Watkins, Phillips, Eunice Baker and Sarah Coleman were present but not members of the Board of Directors, but were permitted to remain in the meeting.

7. The President announced that Mrs. H. T. Dyer will be teaching Church music next year in the mission study class. It is the hope that Miss Pansy Border will take our publication of the "National Baptist Woman" with her committee. Mrs. C. Varnado is the chairman of the National Baptist Woman. There is a difference between the editor and committee chairman. She expressed a hope for a greater circulation.

8. Mrs. Jordan of Philadelphia is a good worker and will serve as co-chairman of the National Baptist Women.

9. Mrs. Carter spoke of her concern for the magazine she said Miss Borders was enthusiastic about it. She wants to promote literature through the mission study classes. "Methods for Mission" of which she wrote was not listed on the National Baptist Convention material list.

10. Miss Funches asked if the "Methods for Mission" was the property of the Woman's Convention or the writer, Mrs. Blanche N. Carter's. It belongs to Mrs. Carter. It would go on sale under consignment.

11. A motion was proposed by Mrs. Fant, seconded and carried that we would use Methods for Mission by Mrs. Carter as our missionary method book.

12. A question was asked: "Are we getting a percentage of the materials we are handling or not? The answer was Yes, 10%. Will we have materials on Foreign mission included in the book? Mrs. Carter has been giving 20% to literature. Mrs. Carter was further asked to go through the book with a group of women from this Convention. Mrs. Carter explained that the book was a method book and not a study book.

13. The President appointed Mesdames Maxwell, Coleman, Amos to work with Mrs. Carter in going through the book.

14. Mrs. Price informed us that the Camp Committee is without a chairman, and that Mrs. Tatum helped them for two days.

15. Mrs. Fant asked about the names not being recorded in the minutes. Mrs. Seward, the secretary informed her that her records never reached the secretary.

16. Mrs. Holley said that the minutes were to be brought to the President's office and handled by the registration committee. The President said they were looking for the minutes on Joy Road but since they came to the auditorium it was left to us as to how to distribute the minutes.

17. Miss Funches told them that this is a union building and union workers charged $7.50 per hour to work.

18. Mrs. Holley said she thought that it was not her responsibility but it should be the responsibility of the secretary.

19. Mrs. Seward admitted that it was her constitutional responsibility to handle the minutes and she had done it successfully since 1950, but when Mrs. Holley took them in charge to handle by the registration committee, it ceased to be her responsibility. There was nothing for the secretary to do but let them have the minutes.

20. It was suggested by one of the Board members that Dr. Ross, Mrs. Holley and Mrs. Seward rethink what to do about the minutes.

21. Mrs. Cole spoke of her concern to be in the meetings and hear some of the addresses, but her work was of such with the committee that she had failed to hear much of the program. She expressed a hope that something could be done along that line.

22. Mrs. Gaillard spoke on the receipts of the committees and how they should be made out.

23. Mrs. O. P. Captain asked for two more copies for her workers.

26. Dr. Ross said she would take all complaints on life memberships.

27. Mrs. Seward read the report of the special committee on the Retreat. (full text will be seen in the minutes elsewhere.)

28. Mrs. Gaillard said she did not understand that they did not get the $500.00. She told what she sent.

29. Mrs. Tyree spoke to the question and suggested that we study sources of income and what we are supposed to pay and how much we are to pay. She further stated that the Parent body will pay the taxes.

30. Mrs. Gaillard spoke of the money that had to be paid on the Retreat.

31. Dr. Ross explained that she had to take money from other sources to keep the Retreat going. She further stated that she got $12,750 and Dr. Harvey got $12,750 on the Retreat at 6% interest which totaled $25,000. On January 11, 1963, we owed interest we didn't have. The money had to be paid back within one year's time. She stated that Dr. Jackson told her that he expected the women to carry on in the same way with the Retreat and they will pay the taxes. The President said that the Woman's Convention will not be able to pay $500.00 per month. We have paid out of advanced money $500.00 and $4500 on the camp. She got it extended to Aug. 1. They are willing to make an extension if we keep the fire insurance going. So arrangements were made for fire insurance. It is the Convention's business. We will not have enough money for $645 fire insurance on camp in order to get an extension. We inherited it and it must be paid. You will owe $4500 in October which will leave a balance of about $7000.

Dr. Ross said that one thing that made it difficult, we tried to send three people to Beirut, Lebanon. She borrowed the money for Mrs. Barron and Miss Funches tickets abroad. She said that she did not get her expenses last year.

32. Mrs. Barron was called upon to make a report of the Young People's Department.

33. Mrs. Barron stated that the young people were in good spirit and are happy in their work. She displayed literature they have for the young people.

The youth camp our other objective had a total of four converts as a result of the camp. They did not have a minister there. One in Fort Wayne, Indiana baptized their converts. At another time three became Christians.

The Young People are anxious to reactivate the scholarship plan. We had some little boys who came from New Jersey and Bahama Island.

The enrollment was as follows: Presidents, 377; States, 40; Highest number, 78, Michigan Wolverine; 42, Michigan B. M. and E.; 22, Mississippi General; 20, Alabama; Directors, 22; Conventions, 31; Districts, 53; Churches, 121; Children, 377.

Financial report, $6395.15; Last year, $8800.00.

Queen came from Florida. Tea Table, Alabama.

She further stated that Mrs. E. D. McGowan had to stop in Chicago and go to the hospital.

34. Mrs. Fant wanted something in the form of a brochure for the camp.

35. Mrs. Young told her of the boys organizations. Miss Funches further stated that the Convention voted that the boys' are under the laymen.

36. It was moved and seconded that the Young People's Report be adopted, which was carried.

37. Mrs. Barron displayed the young people's pin.

38. Mrs. Watts announced that she was the Southern director.

39. Mrs. Captain said that the South was proud of her.

40. $51.25 for loyalty fund came in from New Jersey.

41. Dr. Ross stated that there was some unfinished business but we have an executive committee to take care of the business.

42. Miss Funches announced again about the Foreign Mission Mass meeting.

43. We were informed that Mrs. Ming was in a convalescent home at 1919 Prairie, Chicago, Illinois.

44. Mrs. Lavinia Franklin was asked to give the closing prayer. Mrs. Stewart asked her to include in her prayer prayers for the bus to return safely.

45. Closing prayer, Mrs. Lavinia Franklin.

46. Adjournment.

21. The president made a report on the Retreat Memory Book that was being passed around for the women to see if any mistakes had been made in it so it could be corrected. The book would be turned over to Mrs. Coleman to be kept in the Retreat. It carried the names of the President and Treasurer on the cover.

22. The recording secretary asked if the book would be official without the secretary's name on it, being an incorporate body.

23. The President stated that she would see that it would be put on the cover.

24. The Northern Pacific Convention of Washington, Mrs. Mable Harris, president, gave $25.00 for the memory book.

25. The President asked us to return at 7:30 P.M. to complete our Agenda.

26. Dr. Ross called for the budget committee's report from Mrs. S. C. Holley.

27. Due to the lateness of the hour a motion prevailed that we extend the session another fifteen minutes to hear the report.

28. The Budget report was made by Mrs. S. C. Holley.

29. A motion was proposed, seconded with the following unreadinesses voiced:

(1) The Recording Secretary and the Corresponding Secretaries budget was not adequate omitting some of the services of the offices;

(2) Mrs. Marsetta Wells wanted to know what was printed at the Retreat which was outlined by Mrs. Baker locally, nationally and internationally with services extending as far as Turkey;

(3) Mrs. Foote wanted to know what the state would be expected to do or send in, which was as follows: Enrollment, personal $2.00, Missionary Societies $16.00, District, $25.00 and States $100.00.

30. Mrs. Gayden proposed an amendment to the motion, seconded by Mrs. Seward, that the two secretaries turn in additional expense accounts that were not covered in the proposed budget, which was carried with 123 members voting for it and 6 members voting against it.

31. The original motion was carried with the amendment.

32. Mrs. Mann proposed a motion which was seconded and carried that the Convention go on record of expressing appreciation for having a vision to have a budget and a very deep appreciation to the committee for the hard work done on the budget.

33. The meeting was adjourned with singing "Blessed Assurance."

69. Mrs. Blanche N. Carter made a statement concerning our literature and announced her book "Methods for Missions".

70. The President displayed the gifts that had been given to her.

71. The President announced that the World Day of Prayer materials will be promoted by the Worship Department this year. Write to Mrs. L. M. Haynes for information.

72. The President stated that "Assignment Race" will continue another three years.

73. A further statement by the president was that the Committees needed to be revamped and the handbook needed revision. She asked the committees to work harder the next time. The presidents were asked to send in names of committee members to her early. She called for a Volunteer Committee.

74. Mrs. B. B. Allen was named chairman of the Volunteer Committee. The President stated that she wanted more than money from these committees. She needed brochures before September. Mrs. C. C. Coleman is working on one for Christian Family Life. Mrs. Harriet Holmes is also working on one. We need them on Health Education, Citizenship, one on voting, Christian Social Relation and the National Crusade Committee needs materials.

75. The meeting adjourned to meet with the Parent-body.

FIFTH SESSION
Thursday, January 23, 1964—2:30 P.M.

76. The Fifth Session of the Executive Board of Directors meeting was called to order by the President, Dr. Mary O. Ross.

77. Communications were read from the Roanoke Baptist Church wherein an appeal was made through a letter to help them on their church since it was burned.

78. Mrs. Holley suggested that we take this under advisement lest we set a precedent.

79. An opportunity was given each member to make an individual offering to the cause and a total of $41.25 was taken up. The President said we would supplement this amount to $50.00.

80. Dr. Ross showed the deeds for the Camp and told us that we owed a balance of $16,000. Questions about the camp were called for. It was stated that all questions should be directed to Mrs. Hattie Dribbs, temporary director of the Camp. Mrs. Zee Anderson Barron will have charge of program. Mrs. Hattie Dribbs' address is 1215 Frances Street, Fort Wayne, Indiana. Our greatest concern is to get the camp out of debt.

81. There was an agreement between Dr. Harvey and some women for an Easter Love Gift for the Retreat.

82. It was moved by Mrs. C. C. Coleman seconded by Mesdames Wells and R. C. Robinson, that we would have a joint Easter Love Gift for the Retreat and the Foreign Mission Board, which was carried.

83. Dr. Ross asked us to take literature home and sell it.

84. The President took up the matter of the memory book and found many names omitted and some misspelled.

85. Finance for this Board was $2547.52.

86. Mrs. Cole wanted to know if she could send the money directly to the Retreat or the Treasurer.

87. The President said that the proper way to do it was to send all monies to the treasurer.

88. Mrs. Coleman reported that she had a good roof put on the Retreat and put the best draperies in without being authorized because they were so much needed.

89. Mrs. Watkins spoke of kits not having anything but a badge and a program in them. The President assured her that the minutes would be shipped to Detroit, Michigan for distribution, and they would be put in the kits.

90. The President announced that Mrs. S. F. Ming is yet ill. She asked us to send greetings to her. She sent greetings to the Board. Her address is 7343 Kenwood, Chicago, Illinois. Her birthday is February 25.

91. The President announced the death of Dr. Herman Williams who sang the duet with Rev. Lovell Maxwell in our annual session, and presented Mrs. Dixon, organist of the Congress who accompanied them.

92. It was reported that Mesdames Coleman and Baker attended the Civil Rights Commission.

93. Mrs. Blanche Carter spoke of meeting with President Kennedy and sent a telegram to him to include Mrs. Mary O. Ross and he answered it.

94. Mrs. Vivienne Penick, former Secretary of the Woman's Convention was presented.

95. Mrs. Cassielle G. Davis spoke words of commendation of our President's work; also Mrs. W. Cole.

96. The poem "It Shows in Your Face" was dedicated to the President.

97. It was voted that we adopt the words of commendations spoken by Mesdames Cole, Davis, Gooden, and that they would be the sentiment of the Board of Directors.

98. Dr. Ross thanked us for cooperation given in this meeting. She complimented the workers, Mesdames Carter, Tyree, Gaillard, secretaries and others. She asked us to put the sick people on our prayer list.

99. She announced that the Congress will meet in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania; the annual session in Detroit, Michigan in September.

100. Mrs. Corenne Watts expressed appreciation for what the women were doing for the young people.

MARGERY BRAWLEY GAILLARD, Treasurer

JOINT COMMITTEE MEETING ON THE RETREAT FOR FOREIGN MISSIONARIES

December 5, 1964, Retreat for Foreign Missionaries, 1022 Maryland North East, Washington, D. C.

1. The meeting of the joint committee of the Foreign Mission Board and the Woman's Convention Auxiliary to the National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Inc., met at 11:00 A.M. with Mrs. E. W. Tyree, Chairman, presiding.

2. Introductions were made. Those present were: Mrs. E. W. Tyree, Chairman; Mrs. Mauddean Thompson Seward, Recording Secretary; Mrs. Nora Hunt, Special Retreat Committee; Mrs. M. B. Gaillard, Treasurer; Mrs. Henrietta Hopkins, Dr. Gainey, Dr. Gayden, Dr. Waller, Dr. Leonard Carr, Treasurer of the N.B.C.; Dr. Wilbert Cole, Mrs. Wilhelmina Cole, Mrs. Eunice Baker, Dr. Mary O. Ross (came in later).

3. Devotion was led by Dr. Gayden.

(1) Scripture: Dr. Waller, Psalm 84.

(2) Prayer: Dr. Leonard Carr

4. The minutes were read and approved.

5. Rev. Gainey, Pastor of the Corinthian Baptist Church, Washington, D. C., was permitted to stay in the meeting. Dr. Gayden informed us of Rev. Gainey being the key man in the District in helping with our work.

6. The absence of the President, Dr. Mary O. Ross and Dr. Harvey was recognized.

7. Mrs. Baker was asked for a report after Mrs. Tyree explained the objective of the meeting as-that of making a budget for the Retreat. This report was delayed until Mrs. Gaillard, the treasurer made her report.

8. Report of the Treasurer (See separate sheet).

9. Mrs. Baker asked if the responsibility of the Retreat belonged to the Convention or the Committee of the Retreat.

10. Another question was, "What provision has the Woman's Convention made to meet the obligations of the Retreat—if the committee should fall short of funds to meet the emergencies?

11. Mrs. Baker explained that she had not been sent any money during the months of April and May which amounted to $2,000.00.

12. It was moved by Mrs. Gaillard, seconded by Dr. Carr and Mrs. W. Cole, that the report be accepted, which was carried.

13. The question was asked: Can this place be tax-exempted?

14. Mrs. Baker stated that she sent the application blank to Dr. Ross sometime ago to apply for tax-exemption. She further stated that one could go to the Internal Revenue office and also apply for a refund.

15. It was stated by Dr. Carr that from now on the Foreign Mission Board would be the agent of the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc.

16. Mrs. Gaillard stated that we have been trying to support something we were not able to do.

17. At this point the photostat copy was read that was made April 2, 1957, wherein it was agreed that the Foreign Mission Board and the Woman's Convention would share a fifty-fifty responsibility for the Retreat.

18. Mrs. Baker explained that during Dr. Adams' time they were sent $800.00 quarterly.

19. It was observed that Dr. Gayden was a member of the committee that made the agreement of April 2, 1957, but his name was left off.

20. Mrs. Baker made a factual report. In her report she stated that we were the only organization of our race registered with the state department to accommodate international guest to give home hospitality.

21. At this point Dr. Ross came in at noon for her train was later than expected because of bad weather. Dr. Harvey called that he was yet grounded because of the planes in Pittsburgh.

22. It was moved by Mrs. Cole, seconded by Mrs. Seward, that Mrs. Baker's report would be accepted and adopted with thanks.

23. Unreadinesses were as follows:

(1) Dr. Ross stated that they did not authorize many of the bills that the Retreat had.

(2) The Educational director borrowed $800.00 at one time.

(3) If it takes $20,000.00 annually to run the Retreat then we will have to come together and get together in the following manner: The Parent Body, The Woman's Convention, The Foreign Mission Board and the Retreat itself, to share the responsibilities.

The Woman's Convention cannot carry it alone. Our committee raised $1072.55. In all for 1964 we have $3368.80.

(4) Another unreadiness was that the Foreign Mission Board did not send them anything. They sent it directly to the Retreat.

(5) Mrs. Baker's unreadiness was an observation of the treasurer's report and asked what did the Woman's Convention have to meet the budget of the Retreat?

24. Dr. Waller amended Mrs. Cole's motion that the report be received with the bills turned over to the Committee of the Woman's Convention, which was carried, after being seconded.

25. The question was asked what will the Retreat do until January? The Foreign Mission Board was asked to share in the expenses. They agreed to take it back to the Foreign Mission Board for a meeting. The budget agreed upon was $20,485.00.

26. Mrs. Ross suggested that the budget will be taken care of by the Parent Body, Woman's Convention, Foreign Mission Board and the Retreat itself.

27. Where will the money be sent was the question raised.

28. Rev. Carr suggested that we pay the difference between what the Retreat raises and the other organizations.

29. Dr. Gayden said we need to spell out the duties of Mrs. Coleman's duties with the Foreign Mission Board. He asked us not to blame anyone for any mistakes, but let's iron out the mistakes and write out everyone's duties.

30. Dr. Carr explained his presence was not as an official treasurer but he was here upon request of the Foreign Mission Board.

31. How will we tide over until January? Do you have any suggestions for taking over for December to finish the year? How? We have an unpaid bill of $3,813.68.

32. Dr. Carr asked Dr. Gayden to take back to the Foreign Mission Board a request for $2,000.00. He also requested that an official request for the desired money be sent to Dr. Harvey by the President, Dr. Mary O. Ross. He was also asked to remind Dr. Harvey that he owed for 6 months from July to December.

33. Dr. Ross asked the men to take more interest and have meetings to show interest in the Retreat.

34. Dr. Carr was requested to ask in the Board of Directors' meeting in Hot Springs as a follow-up on Dr. Ross' letter, that Dr. Jackson ask for a tax-exemption.

35. The meeting was officially closed with prayer by Dr. Gayden.

36. Adjournment.

37. The meeting continued after lunch with a very frank discussion concerning the welfare of the Retreat.

38. It was moved by Mrs. Fant, seconded by Mrs. Cole that the executive secretary of the Retreat complete the correct indebtedness on the Retreat as of December 5, 1964, and send to Mrs. Tyree, the Chairman by December 20, 1964.

39. A letter from Mrs. Annie Smith, 691 Commemon Avenue, Jersey City, New Jersey complaining of not being allowed to visit the Retreat, was discussed at length.

40. Mrs. Baker was asked what she meant by her statement in the morning meeting and I quote, "I'm through." She said that she meant that she was through trying to spread $500.00 over the work of the Retreat, but not that she meant to quit.

41. President Ross spoke of the many unkind letters and telegrams to her and about her sent out from the Retreat. "Quote" I'm not worried about myself but what it will do to the work of the Woman's department of the National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Inc.

42. The Meeting was adjourned.

ANNUAL REPORT AND ADDRESS OF MARY OLIVIA ROSS, PRESIDENT THE WOMAN'S CONVENTION AUXILIARY TO THE NATIONAL BAPTIST CONVENTION, U.S.A., INC.

DETROIT, MICHIGAN—1964

83rd Annual Session, Woman's Convention Auxiliary to the National Bapt. Convention, U. S. A., Inc.

Meeting the Lord's Requirements: through Enlightenment—Involvement—Commitment

"He who from zone to zone,
Guides through the boundless sky thy certain flight,
In the long way that I must tread alone
Will lead my steps aright."

Vice President Holley, Dr. Ross, Mrs. Brookins, my mother, Mrs. Gayden: Platform guests, Officers, Messengers, Fellow Baptists and Friends of the Woman's Convention of the National Baptist Convention:

It is with genuine joy, and great gratitude to Almighty God, the Father of us all that I greet you.

Last year I had the rare and rich privilege of being presented to you by my kind husband, my pastor, my high school teacher and unquestionably the greatest earthly source of encouragement in what ever attainment I might realize.

With you assembled here in my home city Detroit, where I came many years ago as a bride to live, where I have served as a wife of a busy pastor, reared children and served the community in divers ways, need I repeat the much used expression, I greet you with mixed emotions? There is scarcely any other manner in which I could greet you.

DETROIT

What a pleasant and profound privilege it is to be in Dynamic Detroit, the city of my habitation!

Detroit—Two hundred and sixty-three (263) years old with a moving story—rich in elements and drama.

Detroit—at one time under three (3) flags: French, British, and American.

Detroit—referred to as the mecca of skilled mechanics the world-over, made so by Henry Ford.

Detroit—that put the world on motor-driven wheels.

Detroit—whose spirit is expressed by Marshall Fredericks' significant sculpture—"Spirit of Detroit." The symbol of this spirit is a green and guilded, sixteen (16) foot bronze figure, holding in the left hand a sphere as the Symbol of the Diety—chosen because it is an object complete in itself with no beginning and no end. In the right hand is a family group. Thus the sculptor expresses the relationship of God to man. And summed up by:

"Now the Lord is that Spirit and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is Liberty."

—II Corinthians 3:17

Detroit—with her new Civic Center Area—With her Cobo Hall and Convention Arena this bring the world's largest convention facilities, covers seventeen acres.

Detroit—a city of many churches. Today there are over "1900 Protestant churches in the Metropolitan area—225 Roman Catholic parishes plus Orthodox and Eastern Catholic churches and 40 Jewish synagogues and temples." The Mariners' Church, built for seamen's use, is Detroit's oldest church building—it is significant for many reasons.

Detroit—a city known for her outstanding parks and museums: Belle Isle, her 1000 acre playground in the middle of the Detroit River, Detroit Art Museum, Henry Ford Museum and Greenfield Village.

Detroit—a city in the process of building one of the greatest medical centers in the world.

Detroit—a city of culture with: Wayne State University—22,000 students, Rackham Educational Memorial Center, Mary Grove College, University of Detroit, Detroit Institute of Technology, Merrill Palmer, High Schools and Elementary Schools—a plenty. Detroit believes in giving its children the best in educational advantages. To help teachers keep abreast with newer advances in sciences and newer techniques in teaching, workshops are conducted throughout the school year. Teachers' salaries set a standard for the state with fewer jumps to maximum salary than in most areas.

Detroit—with her seven (7) major banks, can furnish all the money necessary for our comfort. The deposit totaled over five and one-half (5 1-2) billion dollars last year.

Detroit—just a river's crossing away from Canada.

We are assembled in a great city, and I believe the city will be helped by our sojourn here.

Thanks to President Grimes, President Wells, Mrs. Melvin, and all the women who worked so diligently for the success of the Detroit Session.

IM MEMORIAM

WHEN A GOOD MAN DIES

"And when a great and good man dies the sky of this world is luminous long after he is out of sight. Such a man cannot die out of this world. When he goes he leaves behind him much of himself.
Being dead, he speaks."

Gone from us since the last Annual Session are:

Reverend F. P. Jones, Pastor of Corinthian Baptist Church, Detroit, Michigan

Reverend Herman Williams, Pastor of Rockey Valley Baptist Church, Grambling, Louisiana

Mrs. Bessie Barrow, Former Chairman of The Christian Social Relations Committee, wife of Reverend Dennis Barrow, Baltimore, Maryland

Mrs. Bernice Dorsey Johnson, Member of Worship Committee and wife of Reverend B. Joseph Johnson, Pastor of Greater Mt. Calvary Baptist Church, Atlanta, Georgia

Reverend Timothy Boddie, husband of our former Assistant Pianist, Mrs. Emery Boddie, Baltimore, Maryland

Reverend Walter M. Edward, Indianapolis, Indiana

Reverend George Wesley Baker, Pastor of Morning View Baptist Church, Detroit, Michigan

Mrs. J. W. Gayden, wife of Reverend J. W. Gayden, Greenwood, Mississippi

President John Fitzgerald Kennedy, Late President of the United States of America

For all of these, life goes on, for they were unquestionably Called . . . . Concerned . . . Committed . . . Now they dwell with the Saints in Heaven.

Again I am grateful to the officers and other leaders of our Convention for their cooperation in this most eventful 1964.

You will hear reports on the work done toward our convention objectives: our work with other National Baptist bodies; our work with the Baptist World Alliance through the North American Baptist Women's Union; Our work with United Church Women of the National Council of Churches and certainly our work with the National Women's Committee For Civil Rights.

These reports will also include our latest responsibility: work with the Community Relations Committee for implementation of Civil Rights under the Department of Commerce—directed by ex-governor Collins of the State of Florida.

The work mentioned has kept your president from having one dull moment since our last Annual Session.

OUR YOUNG PEOPLE

We are very grateful to the National Director, Mrs. Zee A. Barron for the splendid Young People's Guide recently written, published and distributed. The Western Director, Miss Primrose Funches, has rendered able assistance in the publication and distribution of this Guide. Do you have yours? Get one before you leave Detroit.

Within a few months, we expect fresh lesson study material published for our Young People's groups from the Sunshine-band through the Young Women's Auxiliary.

Of all people, our young people must "study to show themselves approved unto God, workmen who needeth not be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth."

Since I began this discussion about our young people, I have received the manuscript of a Lesson Study and Devotional Guide called—The Light. Congratulations and thanks to Mrs. Zee A. Barron and her Regional Directors for this new material for our young people and for other notable achievements in this 1964.

While we are concerned about the three (3) per cent of our youth who commit delinquent acts, we are encouraged by the ninety-seven (97) per cent who grow up to become normal hard working adults.

With our hands upon the majority of young people, it is not possible for us to over-emphasize the importance of the character-building organizations in our communities and churches, such as: Sunshine-bands, Red Circles, Young Women's Auxiliaries, Junior Matrons, Sunday Schools, Y.W.C.A.'s, Y.M.C.A.'s, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Youth Camps, Board of Education play schools, and all of the public and private schools.

God grant that National Baptist Women may sense the need in this society for their concern and commitment to the problems of the adolescent struggle and their possible solutions.

AN EVENTFUL YEAR

In the years one thousand nine hundred and sixty-three and sixty-four, since Jesus Christ came to save the world . . . in the convention year that has elapsed since I last addressed this auxiliary—some very, very lively pages have been added to the textbooks for our school children: the youngest, and one of the most popular Presidents the United States has ever had, was shot to a quick death while riding beside his modest wife in one of our nation's cities. The busy, bustling United States was shocked into a loud and ringing silence and inactivity, and the whole world stood still; shocked, amazed, astounded and flabbergasted. The emotions of millions of Americans were compounded in this age and nation of miracles, as they actually saw for the first time in human history a real and unexpected murder take place hundreds of miles away . . . all of this while they pondered the guilt, nature, connection and motivations of one Lee Harvey Oswald, who had so instantly and infamously sprung into world prominence.

On one historic Sunday morning, since I last addressed you, some "human beings" threw a deadly bomb into a Christian Missionary Baptist Church in one of the cities of this "civilized" nation, and killed four small Negro girls. I hope that by the time my grandsons read these pages of their history books, some of our excellent detective agencies will have found out who planted that bomb.[1]

Since I last addressed this body, and shortly before this occasion, three American citizens, in the prime of their lives, disappeared from society in some unusual manner while attempting to improve human society in the section of our nation which is often referred to as the Bible Belt. Since I began this message their buried bodies have been found, and now we know what God and a few of our fellowmen always knew, and what everyone else suspected—THEY ARE DEAD! I certainly hope the account of this enigmatic incident will be different from what it is at present when my grandsons read their history books.

Crime rates, unemployment figures, and divorce trends are all on the increase. One observer put it to me this way a few weeks ago: "You just look close and you'll see that everything bad is increasing and everything good is decreasing." I seriously doubt that this pessimist's sweeping generality accurately describes our world situation, but it is certainly "too true for comfort."

OUR CONCERNS

For years now we have sent missionaries to unsaved China, lost India, heathen Greenland, pagan islands in the Pacific, and to dark and black Africa to take to the peoples of these lands the light of Jesus Christ—the light of good-will and brotherly love. But now the world has shrunken so small that these pagans and heathens have little more need to be told of the President's assassination and the Sunday morning church bombing than you have. Wonder what runs through the minds of these pagans and heathens when they receive the news of such gruesome acts in our civilized and missionizing nation! Wonder what these uncivilized peoples think of it taking our Congress twelve (12) months to pass a civil rights bill that ensures rights that our Constitution has been telling them we already had! Wonder if they know that it took the assassination and church bombings to get the civil rights bill passed as soon or as late as it did, and if so, wonder if they haven't had just about enough of us! Or, are we yet prepared to concede that these strange peoples, who don't look, act and live as we, have minds—have the ability to be shocked?

Christian Women, do we really care about all these things at home and across the oceans and seas, or have we been running off into distant places hunting these so-called uncivilized peoples and using their social and religious problems to solve, in order to evade our own mountainous problems and responsibilities right here at home—right "in the corner where you are." At this point in the preparation of this address, I was interrupted by a news flash: the ninth church bombing within only seven weeks has just taken place in Mississippi. Earnestly, frantically, I ask you, Christian men and women, are you concerned about the condition of this nation and world? I am! I am concerned, I am disturbed, and I have been doing some serious thinking! What I have come up with does not purport to be a panacea for the evils of our day. I wish the Lord would endow me or you with such wisdom. I have prayed earnestly and continually that God would give me a message that would shake us all out of our quiet Christian lethargy and put us up on our feet into a bold and enthusiastic action. Pray with me that, along with all other workers in the Master's vineyard, we can realize this accomplishment.

[1] The Saturday Evening Post, July 6 reports the bombers are known to the law enforcement agencies.

In this undertaking, which is far too ambitious for your mortal servant, I outline a Christian strategy in three steps or stages as follows: Enlightenment, Involvement and Commitment.

ENLIGHTENMENT

We must become enlightened; we must know as much about our social, psychological and physical environment as our culture and native endowment will permit. We must come to see the more functional relationship between religion and education, or knowledge.

Now there is nothing arbitrary about the indispensability of knowledge to human living; no one may decide that we may or may not know. A man who does not know how to make an automobile simply cannot make one. Usually we cannot do any better than we know how to do. A woman may accidentally bake a pie better than she knows how, but unless she remembers or learns what she did to this better pie—unless she becomes more enlightened about pie-making—her husband must go back to eating the inferior pies, because accidents, good and bad ones, seldom happen.

Action without knowledge is hazardous and always contains potentials of great danger. A college professor became disgusted by the lack of self-confidence of his students. They were always saying, "I can't do this, I can't do that." One day he digressed from his course lectures to talk to them on the importance of an individual having confidence that he can do a job or an assignment. "Sensibly," he said to them, "If you think you can't do a particular thing, you will not try, and if you never try you cannot possibly do it." Then he used several experiences of his own to illustrate his point, one of which also illustrates for me the importance of knowledge: "The other day my television went off. Now the only thing I know about a TV set is how to turn it on and off and dial the stations, but with self-confidence I got up, removed the cover from the back of the TV set and got into it. I doubt that there is a single thing in it that I did not tamper with before I gave up. I did not get the TV going again, and had to call in a trained repairman, but I glory in the fact that the confidence I have in myself would not permit me to call the repairman first before seeing if I myself could fix it." At the end of the class period, a young man rushed up to the professor and said, "Professor, there was something in that TV set that you didn't touch; if you had, we would be attending your funeral today instead of your class; you would have been a dead professor!" The professor slumped to his seat in fear of how close he had courted death through ignorance. He had learned a lesson perhaps even more important than the one he sought to teach his students: that confidence and action without knowledge are dangerous and foolhardy.

Aristotle is said to be the only man who ever knew everything in the world of his day, but this is just an exaggerated way of commenting on the truly amazing span of knowledge of this encyclopedic servant. I am startled when I read of the knowledge of that saintly, committed, dedicated and involved missionary, Dr. Albert Swietzer: physician, nurse, organist, organ builder and repairer, philosopher, writer, carpenter, engineer and others which I can neither list nor recall. But neither Aristotle nor Dr. Swietzer could make more than a big dent in managing the knowledge of this modern world. We live in an age of specialization where each must decide what it is that he will do, and learn to do it well, and to serve mankind well.

The professor who failed to start the TV, about which he knew nothing, was highly proficient in the English courses he taught in college. In the church, in missionary work, in dealing with foreign peoples, in elimination crime, unemployment and divorce, certainly in organizing and trying to cope with this gigantic race problem, we will one day, as the professor, be frightened into learning that we must use those specialists who have expert knowledge, who can warn us of what must not be touched, and can tell us what may be tampered with, and what should be attached!

Knowledge and religion are inseparable. Knowledge is a vital and integral part of God's Great Plan. We must learn what God wants us to do—we are not born knowing this—we must be taught. We must learn about Christ and what He would have us to be and do. In this connection, may I quote from my first address to you three years ago: "An individual cannot be more Christian than he knows how to be. A District Association, State or National Convention can be no more Christian than it knows how to be. Thus one of our great needs is to know how to be Christians. This involves education." And now I am saying to you today that Christian education is not nearly so narrow as we are often prone to think. Christian education involves much of what some might label as secular education. God is God of this whole world and universe, not just God of the church, church members, Sunday School, BTU, choirs, rallies, shouting, singing, crying and moaning.

God is God of our work and play, courting, marriage and divorce, our city, state, national and international governments. God cares about unemployment, school dropouts; He cares about the social relationships of all of His children whatever we may have chosen to call them—Jews, Gentiles, Greeks, Africans, whites, or Negroes. God is profoundly concerned about the ugly race problem of the United States today. In our scriptures we read: "There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female; for ye are all one in Christ Jesus." Galatian 3:28.

God cares how we rear our children, and He would have us learn this important task from the best sources available to us. We must teach our children the importance of knowing: how to be efficient, rapid, and yet thorough in what they do. If children are taught to sweep a floor clean, mow a lawn properly, or polish a floor expertly, they will not lose these personality traits when they have become doctors, teachers, lawyers, nurses and stenographers. They will be satisfied with only their best performances, and can thus successfully compete with Jew, Italian, Japanese, white, red, green and striped; for the best of Negro children is as good as the best of all the rest. The trouble is that so many of our mothers are unable, unwilling, unmotivated or uninstructed to train our children to do their best.

We must keep up with advancing knowledge, for there will be no turning back. How we once dug ditches just won't work now; how our fathers cut cord wood is too slow and inefficient today. How our mothers provided quilts and coverings for their beds is outmoded and so, to a large extent, is their manner of rearing children; though I fear some modern parents use no method at all. The world marches on each day to new knowledge—knowledge of what it really means to be a Christian in the middle of the 20th Century—knowledge of what thinkers and writers say about the place of laymen and women in the Church today—knowledge that you as laity, "are called, you are sent, you are free, and you are rich,"—knowledge that commitment involves working across all lines, denominational, racial and national as well—knowledge which make us more mindful of our Oneness, our Mission and our Ministries—knowledge which reminds women of the things which make for finer womanhood—knowledge which reminds men of finer manhood. The world marches on to new knowledge which makes possible new inventions, discoveries, new machines, new ways of curing criminals, dope addicts, and plaguing diseases. As James Russell Lowell observed a long time ago:

> By the light of burning martyrs,
> Jesus' bleeding feet I track,
> Toiling up new calvaries ever,
> With the cruss that turns not back;
> New occasions teach new duties,
> Time makes ancient good uncouth;
> They must upward still and onward,
> Who would keep abreast of truth.

INVOLVEMENT

"Knowledge," says Bacon, "is power, but mere knowledge is not power, it is only possibility. Action is power, and its highest manifestation is when it is directed by knowledge." A fairly common and simple incident in an ordinary high school one day illustrates this principle. On the quiz in a physical science class one morning one of the questions was, "What happens to metal when it is heated, and what happens when it is cooled?" Both Susan and Mae answered the question correctly, as they had been taught: metal expands when it is heated and contracts or draws up when it is cooled. On the afternoon of the same day while the girls worked in the laboratory using two tin cups, one of the cups got stuck inside the other. Susan cut her hand in her futile attempt to get the cups loose. She then handed the cups to Mae who held them under the cold water faucet, running cold water into the inner cup, and then hot water on the outer cup. Almost immediately the cups were easily separated. Susan's acquisition of knowledge about metal had been a waste of time since she failed to use it to direct her action.

All of us can think of schoolmates who always knew the answers in classes and earned honor grades throughout school; but today we never hear of them and have no idea of where they are. Our classmates who are known today are the ones who have done something—have acted, have gotten involved,—regardless of whether they received honor grades or ranked only among the average in their classes. Susan's failure to act out her knowledge was not intentional. It seems clear that she simply lacked Mae's ability to apply knowledge, to readily see the association between knowing and doing. But I am concerned with the Susans who deliberately fail to use their knowledge, who, for some less respectable reasons, fail to act.

Dr. Robert J. Arnott, President of Berkley Baptist Divinity School, alludes to Jean-Paul Sartre's book, The Age of Reason, which is an account of a person who does not know how to get involved in life. The point is that involvement in life demands a price. It demands that we take risks. Some of them will be physical risks, others legal; The Reverend Dr. Martin Luther King, barely missing death by a stabbing, in and out of jail and courts, the fate of three youths in Mississippi, Medger Evers, the young committed white minister killed in Cleveland, reported and unreported whippings in Georgia, Mississippi and Alabama. Dr. Arnott notes that the secular spirit of this world offers man no reason to get involved. There is no ultimate moral reason for doing so. This is the danger of a Godless world. Scientific and objective thinking predominates in our world today. According to this kind of thinking, as some interpret it, anything that you cannot test with your five senses—anything that you cannot see, or smell, or feel, or hear, or taste—does not exist, and so you need not pay any attention to it. If you cannot prove the existence of God and Christ by the scientific method, then it becomes questionable to some, and sufficiently evident to others, that they do not exist.

Thus many men and women in strategic places of leadership hold that Christ did not rise from the dead; some hold that Christ was just another man; others hold that He is a legend, while many, refusing to use any but the tests of science, contend that no such man ever lived! Their philosophy follows logically: if there is no God and Christ why not live according to the law of the jungle—dog eat dog, and may the strongest and most ferocious dog survive? Why not cheat on income taxes as long as you're smart enough not to get caught? Why stick your neck out trying to protect or defend an insignificant Negro, Puerto Rican or Jew? Why risk getting cut or shot by trying to rescue a defenseless woman from the brutal beating by her drunken husband next door?

So! In a quiet New York City neighborhood, a killer stalks a woman named Kitty Genovese. He stabs and leaves. He returns to stab her again and again. It takes thirty-five minutes for Kitty Genovese to die. During that time, forty neighbors, roused by her screams, stare silently watching the scene. But no one helps Kitty Genovese, and no one calls the police. In Riverside, California, headlights from a nearby street pick out two figures struggling in a field where a young woman on her way home from church has been dragged. Later she is choked and raped. Drivers passing along the busy thoroughfare hear her cry. But no one stops. And no one calls the police.

The secular spirit of modern America, nay, the secular spirit of the modern world, is the spirit of a civilization with a passion for noninvolvement. We are spectators. We are anonymous. We do not know who these other individuals are, and we feel no obligation toward them.

If religion is nothing but a great conglomeration of nonsense, a mere figmentation of the minds of men—if there is no God, why not play it safe; "play it cool," as some of the young people today would say?

But there is a God. "Over my head I hear trouble in the air; there must be a God somewhere." Our ancestors, chained in slavery, sang this out of a knowledge and conviction that sustained and kept them when hunger, malnutrition, toil and cruelty seemed sure to destroy them. We, their sons and daughters, still survive in spite of obstacles of hate, poverty, discrimination and haunting fears. We, as they, survive, because we know there is a God. We know that Jesus lives. I know He lives; Do you know He lives?

COMMITMENT

Four hundred years ago, our ancestors were sure that the earth was flat, with four corners, and that the earth, instead of the sun, was the center of the universe. Even today we reveal this ignorance we inherited from them by speaking of the sun rising and setting. Copernicus, an astronomer living about that time, looked through a crude telescope and saw that the earth is round and revolves around the sun, which neither rises nor sets, but is itself the center of our universe. When Copernicus announced his new knowledge, the Christian Church of that day threatened him with death if he did not renounce his theory. Copernicus, even on his deathbed, fearful of death and expulsion from the Church, renounced his theory, and man's possession of this true knowledge of the world in which he lives, was delayed for hundreds of years.

Years before Copernicus lived, at a time when everyone believed in this existence of many gods, Socrates conceived the idea of monotheism and proclaimed it daily up and down the streets of his town. The powerful men of Athens warned him that if he did not stop corrupting the minds of the youths by preaching that there is only one God they would put him to death. "You may kill me seven times," said Socrates, "I will continue to teach what I know to be true—that there is only one God—until you have closed my mouth with death." And, as you know, Socrates was put to death.

Then there is that beautiful Book of Esther in our Bible. Listen to Esther speak: "I know that it is against the law for me to go to the king when he, the king, has not sent for me, and I know that the penalty is death; I know that the king does not know that I am Jewish; but my people are about to be destroyed, and I must go and reveal the plot to the king, and also reveal that I am a Jewess. If for this I die, I simply die."

The account of Jesus Christ is too well known to repeat in this connection. Suffice to say that He, like Socrates, was given a chance to hush up or to say what the powers of His day wanted Him to say. But Christ said, "He who would have his life will lose it." And Pilate's reaction to Christ, nearly two thousand years ago, was amazingly similar to some of ours today. He wanted neither to take the side with Christ nor against Him. Today one chooses to "play it safe" until he knows which side is the stronger—not the right side. Woe unto us Copernicuses and Pilates! Where are God's Socrateses, and Esthers?

The American system of secret voting reflects and accommodates our weak spines. When and if we vote at all, a system must be provided which protects us from letting people know where we stand. Many southern and northern whites today know that racial discrimination and segregation are Christianly, morally and practically wrong and should be eliminated, but they either fail to say so at all, or they carefully pick the company in which they say it. Many Negroes are afraid to praise the heroism of the whites who do stand up for the counting, because they are afraid of some other brands of Negroes who lump all whites together, and do not like any Negro who does not hate all white people in America. Millions of respectable Christian Negroes and whites are afraid of having their houses bombed or burned, having members of their families threatened, losing their social status, losing their jobs. The story is told of the teacher who went for an interview in the days when many people had not yet accepted the theory that the world is round. The superintendent asked her, "Madam, in teaching geography, do you teach that the world is round or flat?" Not knowing whether the superintendent preferred the round-world theory or the flat-world theory, the insecure teacher, responded, 'Mr. Superintendent, I have notes on it both ways: I have notes on the flat world and notes on the round world." So with many of our modern Christians today, consideration of job, honor, safety, etc., determines whether we will commit ourselves to principles of right and wrong, truth and untruth. We even use the Bible to justify our cowardice: "You can't let your right hand know what your left hand is doing," which has nothing to do with commitment.

Knowledge and belief are not enough. We must be committed. When I was a child I was glad as I read from the Bible and was told that all one had to do to be saved was just to love and believe. But we know that Christ also said that if we love Him we will own Him anywhere, and will keep His Commandments and feed His sheep. We will speak out for right and speak out against wrong, no matter what the consequences. Oh, how we sing:

Crowns and thrones may perish,
Kingdoms rise and wane,
But the Church of Jesus
Constant will remain;
Gates of hell can never
'Gainst the Church prevail;
We have Christ's own promise
And that cannot fail.

Do we actually believe this? Do we believe that Christ in God is supreme, and with Him on our sides we are secure, or do we merely sing hymns and recite pious statements which we do not believe and trust?

Elton Trueblood in his excellent book "The Company of the Committed," makes this unusual observation: so-called religious people and church leaders today blame the decline of religion on atheists, but religion suffers because religious people and religious bodies fail to make their existence felt—they refuse to commit themselves on the important social and political issues of the day.

Our young people are noticing this. Many of them see religion as a matter of getting up on Sunday morning, putting on our best clothes, going to church, participating in some hymn singing, listening to a sermon, returning home, and thanking God that you're not like the sinners who stay in bed and sleep on Sunday mornings. On the other hand, they see labor unions, political organizations and organized groups of college students taking a stand. Now they are taking things into their own hands, often in ways which we must lament—the recent riots in an ever increasing number of cities.

In his famous book, Jews, God and History, Max I. Dimont recounts the persistence of three men who are jailed, demoted and threatened in their attempts to clear a Jew in France who had been falsely accused of selling military secrets to the Germans. An aristocratic French gentile, who after squandering his wife's fortune, becoming owner of a house of prostitution, and still was unable to maintain himself in a high style of living, began making money by selling the documents. Alfred Dreyfus, the Jewish officer, was convicted and sentenced to life imprisonment, but the famous French writer, Emile Zola and two other men would not rest until it was revealed that the French Army had fabricated the case against Dreyfus to protect itself and the aristocratic traitor, and to prove the false claim that the Jews were trying to take over France. The long case continued until the traitor confessed, and the man who helped frame Dreyfus committed suicide.

Be he in the pulpit, on the mission field, in the Army or at the writer's desk—the committed Christian will not be silenced until truth and justice prevail, for they truly believe,—no—they know that:

Though the cause of evil prosper,
Yet 'tis truth alone is strong;
Truth forever on the scaffold,
Wrong forever on the throne,
Yet that scaffold sways the future,
And, behind the dim unknown,
Standeth God within the shadow
Keeping watch above His own.

God's Army is not an army of numbers. It is an army of the righteous, the strong, the brave, the committed. He cut the number of Gideon's army from 3,000 to 300. He reduced the number for quality and strength. He is the same God today. He urges you through His poets:

Be strong! Say not the days are evil, who's to blame?
And fold the hand and acquiese—oh, shame!
Stand up, speak out, and bravely, in God's name, be strong.

Surely as Christ lived, was crucified, and overcame death, in a great and glorious resurrection, and as surely as He overcame death and his foes, we shall overcome one day. Yes, "Ye shall overcome if ye faint not."

The world is one great battlefield,
With forces all arrayed;
If in our hearts we do not yield,
We'll overcome some day.
A thousand snares are set for you,
And mountains in your way;
But Jesus Christ will lead you thru,
And we'll overcome some day.

Finally, as Milton noted, "The end of all learning and knowledge is to know God, and out of that knowledge to love and imitate Him." We who know Him must take a bold stand in His world that is being corrupted by godless men. We shall take a stand, and from that stand we shall unhesitatingly go on to get ourselves involved in Christ's righteous war to purge this world of evil. Sure, we must fight, if we would overcome; increase our courage, Lord; we'll bear the toil, endure the pain, supported by Thy word.

Thy saints in all this glorious war
Shall conquer, though they die;
They see the victory from afar,
By faith they bring it nigh.

Closing, I am reminded of the fight of two enlightened Negro Christian militants who were involved and committed; who involved themselves so completely, unselfishly, and dangerously in their commitment to freedom and dignity for their race—Sojourner Truth and Frederick Douglas. Under the black clouds of disappointment and desperation, frustration and defeat, Frederick Douglas threw up his hands one day as tears and hope flowed from his sick heart. At that moment, Sojourner Truth, that black involved, committed, and stubborn warrior, shouted her own unwavering faith to him in this fundamental question: "Frederick is God dead?!" "Is Christ Dead?!"

No, Sojourner Truth, Christ is not dead. Christ lives. He lived yesterday, and He lives today. Mr. Skeptic, Mr. Logician, Mr. Scientist, "You ask me how I know He lives. He lives within my heart," and that is all the proof I need.

He lives, His Word of promise is Truth, and His Truth is marching on! Yes, I know He lives!

I have seen Him in the watchfires of a hundred circling camps;
They have builded Him an altar in the evening dews and dumps;
I can read His righteous sentence by the dim and flaring lamps,
His day is marching on.

He has sounded forth the trumpet that shall never call retreat;
He is sifting out the hearts of men before His judgment seat;
O be swift, my soul, to answer Him! Be jubilant my feet!
Our God is marching on.

ECHOES FROM THE HOME MISSION BOARD

PRESENTED IN THE

WOMAN'S CONVENTION AUXILIARY TO THE N. B. C., INC.

By Charles P. Harris, D. D., Board Corresponding Secretary

Detroit, Michigan, Sept. 9, 1964

President Ross, Officers of, Messengers and Visitors to the Woman's Convention Auxiliary to the National Baptist Convention of the United States of America, Incorporated:

Although words cannot express it, please somehow know how happy, appreciative and honored I feel to have the signal honor of having this opportunity to share your precious time on your full program to bring to you Echoes from the Home Mission phase of our great National work as the spokesman for our Home Mission Board. I am not so naive as not to realize that you did not have to add these Echoes in order to make your fine program complete, but that you were gracious enough to make the addition because of your keen interest in this, as in all phases of the overall work of our great National Baptist work. Without Echoes from the Home Mission Board, your 1964 program was, as always, complete, interesting, informing and inspiring. I feel both flattered and complimented, then, that you have really gone out of your way to make place for a brief word regarding our Home Mission work.

For another thing, it is indeed a cherished privilege for a lone and mere Male to have the opportunity of having the eyes and ears of so vast and elite audience of fine, beautiful and intelligent Christian members of the "Fair Sex."

On many sides the query, "What is meant by 'Home Missions?'" may be heard. The idea of Christian missions is that of spreading the Gospel and its inherent blessings by those sent by inspiration and the command of Him who is the great head of the Christian enterprise, Jesus Christ. The whole idea is to "make disciples of all nations," with all of the blessedness to depraved man and consequent glory to God that such a universal discipleship implies. The ultimate goal of Christian missions is universal salvation, not only of the soul, but of the whole man. This may be seen in both the earthly career and the divine command of our Lord.

Home Missions is but the application of the philosophy of missions to the home field. It is the carrying out of the "Great Commission" on the home field in recognition of that field as an integral part of the "all the world" into which Christ has commanded us to go and of the "all nations" of which He has directed us to "make disciples." The author of an accepted Missionary Catheclism aptly sums up the matter when he asks, "What do we mean by 'Home Missions?'" and then gives this answer, "By 'Home Missions' we mean, the movement to make our home-land Christian as a basis from which to work to make the whole world Christian."

The Home Mission enterprise is a Christ-begun movement which must be kept in motion by His dedicated followers down through the centuries. By command and example Christ seems to have given priority to the Home Mission ideal. We must not forget that the Great Commission does not EXclude, but rather very definitely INcludes the home field, for indeed the home field is both geographically and morally a part of the "all the world" scope of action mapped out by our Lord. When Christ sent forth his initial nucleus of workers into the field His instructions were: "Go . . . to the lost sheep of the House of Israel." In His pre-Pentecost promise of the visitation and power of the Holy Ghost the geography of Christ's words seems to emphasize the priority of the home field—"ye shall be witnesses unto me both in Jerusalem, and in all Judea, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth." This is the challenge of the Home Mission enterprise, a challenge which, along with that of the foreign field, must be met if we are effectively to pray the prayer, "Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven."

I shall be careful not to intrude upon the time you have so graciously accorded me, therefore I shall not attempt a review of all of the phases and projects of our Home Mission work. Suffice it to say that we are making sincere and, to at least some extent, successful efforts to meet the challenge of the Home Mission field and to point out just two or our current objectives of projects.

One of these two projects to which I wish to call your attention is known as the "Roving Missionary of the West." Having been undertaken at our Hot Springs Board meeting in January of this year, this is the newest of our Home Mission objectives, and is carried on in cooperation with the Paradise Baptist State Convention of Arizona. The "Roving Missionary" of this project is Dr. Charles Favors of Phoenix, a well-trained and widely experienced former pastor and teacher. The "Roving Missionary's" duty is to travel, preach, teach and work among the poor and unchurched people of the sparsely settled and unreached desert lands and other needy sections of his own and adjoining states. Our Home Mission Board has underwritten the salary involved in this project with the Paradise Convention taking care of the travel and other expenses of the project. Dr. Favors is doing a fine job and sending in full reports of his work.

The other project of which I wish to speak is the Walter H. Brooks Baptist Student Club located off the campus of Howard University in Washington, D. C. This project, as you probably know, was begun, in large measure, by the late President of this Woman's Convention, Dr. Nannie Helen Burroughs. It was she, largely, who, noting that four other denominations had denominational student clubs for students of their respective faiths at Howard University, thought it well that the Baptists, too, should have such a center near that campus so that Baptist students attending that great university might have a place where they, too, might gather for fellowship and social contact under regulated supervision. Under the dynamic leadership and resourcefulness of Dr. Burroughs and the cooperation of a few other Christian leaders in the District of Columbia, the idea finally fructified into reality and the Walter H. Brooks Baptist Student Club came into being. Quite fittingly, the Club was named for the veteran pastor of the church to which Dr. Burroughs belonged, the Nineteenth Street Baptist Church of Washington, D. C., the late Dr. Walter H. Brooks, pastor for more than fifty years. Quite fittingly also, the present Chaplain of the Walter H. Brooks Club is the successor of the late Dr. Brooks for whom the Club was named, the present Chaplain being Dr. Jerry A. Moore, assistant pastor to the late Dr. Brooks and now the pastor of the Nineteenth Street Baptist Church of Washington. Dr. Moore is doing a marvelous job in maping programs, services and activities for the more than fifteen hundred Baptist students enrolled last year at Howard University. Last year our Board purchased a Communion set for the club, so that a regular Communion service might be held each month. We have seen to it that the Baptists students at Howard are represented in the various student conferences and meetings throughout the country and we have built up a sizable student aid fund for emergencies that may be faced from time to time by Baptists students at the university. Our Board pays the Chaplain's monthly salary and meets the first and second mortgage indebtedness on the $18,000 Club house property. As you probably know, during the lifetime of the late Dr. Burroughs, your Woman's Convention contributed one thousand dollars per year for this project—$500 earmarked for the mortgage debt and $500 for the Chaplain's salary. We are happy to know that your Convention still makes annual contributions to the Brooks' Club, although we are fully aware of the changed set-up of our Parent Body conventional structure and your relationship therelo that may, to some degree, have helped to determine your contribution to the Brooks' Club. We do fervently hope and confidently believe that circumstances will allow you to continue and, if possible, even to increase your support of the Walter H. Brooks' Club and the work of our Home Mission Board in general.

On the part of our Home Mission Board and for myself I thank you, Dr. Ross and your Convention, for the courtesy of the time accorded me and the attention given me in presenting Echoes from the Home Mission phase of our National Baptist Work.

Cleveland, Ohio, September, 1963

AN IDEA! AN IDEAL! A RETREAT!

To the President, Officers and Members of the Executive Board
GREETINGS:

I would like to render a somewhat free style account of my brief Stewardship as Executive Secretary of The Retreat for Foreign Missionaries. I have no desire to usurp authority, but only the desire to present a blueprint of the pattern I have found through research for our heritage. An Idea! An Ideal! A Retreat!

We are about to embody an ideal. We must be sure that the thing we are creating is always kept worthy of the spiritual idea that has inspired it. There are five things on which it must depend. We must be Sound. We must be Sincere. We must be Sane. We must be Steady. We must be Efficient.

My report will consist of Factual Events—Analyses of the Problem for Continued Progress.

All Board members should understand the purpose of The Retreat, and its history. In order to do our best job, and put forth our best effort, we must have a clear picture of the entire Retreat This means knowing what we have accomplished and where we are going.

The Retreat must give to its individual Board members four guideposts to follow: Orientation, Information, Participation, Recognition. Our Retreat is a source of INFORMATION. It provides for each member ORIENTATION. RECOGNITION of each member is reflected in an atmosphere of friendship, fellowship and hospitality; if its programs challenge the members' PARTICIPATION, then every meeting, every project, every achievement will be an occasion of which to be proud!

When every Board member is acquainted with the purpose and objectives of the Retreat you will want to accomplish, to achieve and to be of service to the community and indirectly to the world of which we are an integral part. To realize our aims and our goals, to put into action our national and international program we must have vision which is the blueprint to guide us in our program activities, our plans and our endeavors.

Proverb 29:18—"Where there is no vision, the people perish." Just as God has furnished us with many sources of knowledge, varied materials with which to work a beautifully organized program for The Retreat with dedicated leadership; so he can give to us that divine relation, vision. When we look to Christ for vision, we then will have a course to steer by—we are no longer a voice in the wilderness, we know where we are going, and have assurance that Christ will lead us with certainty and fulfillment.

For two years I have given my services to The Retreat. I have worked hard and observed much. I have lived within The Retreat for the past two years; and I am inviting you as Board members, and members of this great and mighty Convention to join with me in sharing the responsibilities and challenges that lie before us.

The Retreat for Foreign Missionaries is now out of the experimental stage and its program and affairs must be promoted and directed by those with training experience and ability to interpret its purpose, program and services in relation to The Missionary Committee of the Woman's Convention, The Foreign Mission Board, and the parent body, The National Baptist Convention U.S.A., Inc., thus making The Retreat for Foreign Missionaries a participating part of the whole structure The National Baptist Convention U.S.A., Inc.

The accomplishments of The Retreat for the past two years here in the Nation's Capital should convince every member of this Convention that you have the satisfaction of devoting your life to a great cause and purpose bigger than yourself.

We are entering a decade which could be the most siginificant in the history of the world. If the pioneer women of The Woman's Convention were alive today they would call upon you to unite your efforts and support The Retreat for Foreign Missionaries because it is your channel of representation throughout the world. For the past year the following missionaries found home hospitality at The Retreat:

1. Miss Gladys East
2. Mrs. Sarah Cyrus
3. Miss Viola Reddish
4. Miss Josephine Singletary
5. Dr. D. S. Malekebu
6. Miss Shirley Huff

Other foreign guests who lived eleven days were the official delegates from Turkey attending the 75th anniversary of The International Council of Women:

Mme. E. Arat, Attorney
Mme. N. Mengu, Attorney
Mme. S. Ersog, Newspaper Woman
Mme. U. Balaban, Consul.

Many other guests, ministers and Christian friends.

Now we have reached the big question. How shall we finance "The Retreat"? You have been given the purpose and objectives—and what has been accomplised without a standardized budget, and now it becomes the concern of every individual as to whether you will accept or reject this report. Since the report is based on facts it is my intention to persuade you to implement the recommendations that follow as fact and as thoroughly as feasible. We must, of course, consider our means of doing this. We shall have to take into account time, money, acceptability to our convention and others concerned or involved. We ask for a push button decision because the need is urgent.

The report is with you and consider it your own.
In concluding, may I call to your attention:

No. I The present situations
A. Insecurity—inadequate budget.

No. II Roadblocks
A. Misunderstanding

B. Content to follow the same old pattern
C. Lock up information

No. III What we would like to accomplish—the 8 point purpose.

A. Budget
1. National Baptist Convention U.S.A., Inc
The Parent Body
2. Woman's Convention
3. Foreign Mission Board
4. Missionary Headquarters with all Circles and Missionary Societies functioning through their Headquarters
5. Weekend retreats
6. Retreat Guild in every city

The present certainly challenges our intelligence, and wisdom. The roadblocks are stepping stones to success when understood.

The accomplishments of The Retreat shall have no end.

We have a gigantic task to perform and a program to put into effect. This program must be supported financially so the work may go on. We have humanitarian obligations that we cannot pass by, we have calls that must be answered, we have religious and educational movements we must help. We must have assistance to meet the need.

Let us look to God for divine guidance, insight, and a sense of looking ahead—all these are principles embodied in vision for "Where there is no Vision the people perish."

I may not have done all that was expected of me in such a short span of time but at least I have today that inward satisfaction, and the conviction of my soul that I have done my best.

AFTER THE EXECUTIVE BOARD MEETING—WHAT?

How do we get action on retreat recommendations? At this point those attending this Board meeting have come to a consensus of opinion and judgment as to the nature of the problems they confront and constructive things that should and can be done about them, therefore, the follow up for this purpose should be placed into the hands of a continuing committee with authority to see that they are properly presented to all interested organizations such as the parent body, The National Baptist Convention U.S.A., Inc., because of their relationship to "The Retreat" The Woman's Convention and Foreign Mission Board who share equally in operation and maintenance.

The committee should report to the Board of Directors at this convention the acceptance of responsibility for carrying out in part or whole the items of action recommended by the Board.

The next step—we ask the presiding officer to appoint a Budget Committee to review the Retreat budget and submit same to the Executive Board of Directors for ratification at this Convention.

We earnestly ask your most careful consideration for immediate action because we cannot find other means to operate such a program that is so far reaching without united effort.

Eunice V. Baker
Executive Secretary

The Retreat for Foreign Missionaries

RECOMMENDATIONS

No. I We recommend the appointment of a Budget Committee to review the Retreat budget and submit same to the Retreat Board of Directors for ratification at the meeting.

No. II For additional support, we further recommend the Budget Committee contact the officials of The National Baptist Convention as to financial participation in the Retreat budget because of its relationship to The Retreat and Woman's Convention.

No. III For complete organization—we recommend the Missionary Societies and Circles be given the opportunity to set up their program at The Retreat which is their national headquarters, and further recommend that this group be permitted to support The Retreat program without reservation.

We further recommend the immediate registration of all Circle and Societies at The Retreat and the Executive Secretary be empowered to follow through the registration.

We further recommend the Organization of Retreat Guilds to support The Retreat in every state and city interested in The Retreat.

1022 MARYLAND AVENUE, N. E.
WASHINGTON, 2, D. C.

January 11, 1963

A Conference was held on the above date, at 2:30 P.M., at The Retreat For Foreign Missionaries, concerning the payment of Mortgage Note of $25,750.00 on the property of The Retreat.

The following persons were present: Mrs. Mary O. Ross, President of The Woman's Convention—Mrs. Margery B. Gaillard, Treasurer of The Woman's Convention—Mrs. Sarah Williamson Coleman, Director of The Retreat For Foreign Missionaries—Mrs. Eunice Veal Baker, Co-Director of The Retreat For Foreign Missionaries—and Dr. William J. Harvey III, Secretary of The Foreign Mission Board.

Dr. Harvey, in his opening statement, acquainted the committee with the moral and financial obligations that lie ahead for The Woman's Convention and The Foreign Mission Board, once the note is paid off.

Mrs. Gaillard, Treasurer of The Woman's Convention, stated TAXES WERE PAID, including first half of 1963.

The committee agreed that $1,500.00 was due The Foreign Mission Board by The Woman's Convention, plus $500.00 sent to Mrs. Coleman for The Retreat for the month of December 1962. Dr. Harvey stated that he was prepared to assist Mrs. Ross in the final payment on The Retreat, and at this point commended Mrs. Coleman, Director of The Retreat, and Mrs. Baker, Co-Director, for their untiring services given the work as observed by him from time to time. We, The Foreign Mission Board, are making a Loan to The Woman's Convention for $12,750.00 at the rate of 6%—Check payable to The Retreat—same to be secured by a Note from The Woman's Convention payable within one year.

The next in order of business concerned the purpose of The Retreat. Mrs. Ross replied that it has been and is now:

1. An Open Door for Missionaries under The Foreign Mission Board of The National Baptist Convention U. S. A., Inc.—when they come to America on furlough, for study, or on business incident to their work in connection with The Board.
2. Serves as a meeting place for organized Religious groups.
3. Missionary President Vesper Hour.
4. Groups—Sight Seeing Tours.
5. Phaon Goldman, African Friends (monthly).
6. A Resident Center for Ministers, Missionaries, and those engaged in Christian Education.

Dr. Harvey asked Mrs. Ross, in view of the fact that the Note will be paid off and the property DEEDED to the Parent Body, what then will your interest be? Mrs. Ross replied, certainly we would want to share as in the past under an agreement to keep it under joint operation.

Dr. Harvey, in his first statement, beginning with the new Setup of The Retreat in its relationship with The Foreign Mission Board, said: We, The Foreign Mission Board, will employ Mrs. Sarah Williamson Coleman and will pay her $200.00 per month. The Woman's Convention will pay her $100.00 per month. She will serve as Director of Education for The Retreat, and will be able to share her services because she will perhaps travel one month and will be at The Retreat two months, to write. Mrs. Coleman's work with The Foreign Mission Board will be to create interest among the people in sending Monthly Regulars to Foreign Mission Board Headquarters in Philadelphia, Pa.

The Committee agreed that Mrs. Coleman should work with the National Chairman appointed by Mrs. Ross for The Retreat to interpret the program of The Retreat with support of The Woman's Convention.

Mrs. Ross and Mrs. Gaillard expressed their appreciation for the moral and financial support given by The Foreign Mission Board and assured their continuance of furthering the program of The Retreat in joint operation and maintenance. It was further agreed by those present that Mrs. Coleman, who has served as Director of The Retreat since its inception and has given her services to save this Heritage of The Woman's Convention which ultimately will be presented to The Foreign Mission Board for use as described in The Retreat Policies, should now be restored to her rightful Title, Director of Education For The Retreat For Foreign Missionaries and The Foreign Mission Board, Auxiliaries of The National Baptist Convention U.S.A., Inc., Headquarters at The Retreat For Foreign Missionaries, 1022 Maryland Avenue, N. E., Washington 2, D. C.

Mrs. Coleman brought to the attention of the Committee the services rendered by Mrs. Wilhelmina Coles of Cleveland, and recommended her appointment as National Chairman.

Mrs. Coleman continued her report by saying, "The Retreat For Foreign Missionaries is now out of the experimental period and its program and affairs must be promoted by one with training, experience and ability to interpret its purpose, program and services in relation to The Missionary Committee of The Woman's Convention, The Foreign Mission Board, and The Parent Body, thus making The Retreat For Foreign Missionaries a participating part of the WHOLE STRUCTURE of The National Baptist Convention U. S. A., Inc. Mrs. Eunice Veal Baker has worked with me for the past year and a half and has assumed full responsibility in my absence and has shown full cooperation concerning the work; and I recommend Mrs. Baker as Executive Secretary of The Retreat For Foreign Missionaries." Dr. Mary O. Ross, President of The Woman's Convention Auxiliary of The National Baptist Convention, appointed Mrs Baker as Co-Director of "The Retreat" to serve as Executive Secretary of The Retreat For Foreign Missionaries.

As the Executive Secretary of The Retreat, she sees that the Board is informed of the program of the total Association and that matters essential to the operation and effective functioning of The Retreat are brought to the Board for decision. She is responsible for seeing that pertinent information is supplied to the Board as a basis for its deliberation.

The Executive Secretary is responsible to the Board for the correlation and functioning of the various component parts of the Association and for the work of the staff. She is responsible for the supervision of staff.

The Board of Directors of The Retreat For Foreign Missionaries on January 11, 1963 approved the selection of The Riggs National Bank of Washington, D. C., Washington Loan & Trust Branch, F Street at Ninth, N. W., to serve as a depository for the funds in the name of The Retreat For Foreign Missionaries. Checks, drafts, and money orders must be made payable to The Retreat For Foreign Missionaries. The Executive Secretary shall disburse all funds belonging to The Retreat For Foreign Missionaries; that the Executive Secretary be and hereby is authorized to sign any and all withdrawal slips, checks, cards or papers, upon proper registration of her signature with the respective bank involved, for saving or checking, which The Retreat For Foreign Missionaries has or may have, and in the case of her inability to function, that the Director of Education be and hereby is authorized to sign any and all withdrawal slips, checks, cards or papers, for any and all withdrawals, upon any and all bank accounts, saving or checking, which The Retreat For Foreign Missionaries has or may have in the future.

We adjourned to make the final payment at Riggs National Bank.

Thus ends the report of The Official Officers of The Retreat.

Rev. William J. Harvey, III, Chairman; Secretary of The Foreign Mission Board
Eunice Veal Baker, Secretary; Co-Director of The Retreat For Foreign Missionaries

TO THE WOMAN'S CONVENTION AUXILIARY TO THE NATIONAL BAPTIST CONVENTION U.S.A., INC., IN SESSION CLEVELAND, OHIO, SEPTEMBER 4-8, 1963

To President Ross, Officers and Members of this great body, I beg leave to submit the following report concerning The Retreat For Foreign Missionaries and National Headquarters for the Missionary Committee of The Woman's Convention Auxiliary to The National Baptist Convention U.S.A., Inc.

The Most Advanced Step ever taken by any Negro organization for the welfare of its workers in Foreign Mission Service, when they come to America, became official on Monday afternoon June 29, 1953 with the dedication of The Beautiful Retreat for Foreign Missionaries, presented to the Foreign Mission Board of The National Baptist Convention U.S.A., Inc., by the Woman's Convention Auxiliary to the National Baptist Convention U.S.A., Inc., and Miss Nannie H. Burroughs, President, originator of the idea of the "Retreat."

In the brochure printed June 1953, the late Miss Burroughs, quoted from her 1952 Annual Message, "Since the Foreign Mission Board is in the business of selecting and ending Missionaries to Africa and other countries; and since those missionaries serve their definite period of time; and whereas, during their services they come to this country from time to time, on business or on furlough and, since a number of them do not have permanent residences in this country, the Foreign Mission Board should have permanent headquarters—to be used as a retreat or rest center for missionaries who are in America on business or furlough, under the direction of the Foreign Mission Board. An organization representing the highest social and religious ideals should certainly have a Christian fellowship center. It should be a place for rest—and for recuperation, and for inter-racial and inter-denominational fellowship."

The Retreat was purchased and furnished by the Woman's Convention for the Foreign Mission Board, as a token of their interest in the great cause of Mission at a cost of one hundred and ten thousand dollars, February 1953, under the leadership of the late Miss Nannie Helen Burroughs.

January 1963 we found a balance of $25,500.00 due on the mortgage note payable on or before January 29, 1963. At this point, the great challenge faced Mrs. Mary O. Ross, President of The Woman's Convention. With only two weeks ahead of the scheduled date to meet success or failure, President Ross called upon the dedicated women of this great convention to answer the call. In Kansas City, Missouri, 1961, Mrs. Ross said, "How can we best honor the life and work of this intrepid leader? Surely not with song and speeches, not with mourning and tears, and not with stone or drapings but with a resolution to meet the obligation by paying the existing mortgage of $25,000.00." With the determination to succeed in spite of time, the women answered the call and President Ross, by hard work, a rigid discipline of self, and much endurance, achieved the victory.

January 11, 1963 a conference was held on the above date, 2:30 p.m. at The Retreat for Foreign Missionaries, 1022 Maryland Avenue, N.E., Washington 2, D.C., concerning the payment of the mortgage note of $25,500.00 on the property of The Retreat.

The following persons were present: Mrs. Mary O. Ross, President of The Woman's Convention; Mrs. Margery B. Gaillard, Treasurer of The Woman's Convention; Mrs. Sarah Williamson Coleman, Director of The Retreat for Foreign Missionaries; Mrs. Eunice Veal Baker, Co-Director of The Retrreat for Foreign Missionaries, and Dr. William J. Harvey III, Secretary of the Foreign Mission Board, presiding.

Dr. Harvey, in his opening statement, acquainted the committee with the moral and financial obligations that lie ahead for the Woman's Convention and the Foreign Mission Board, once the note is paid off.

Dr. Harvey asked Mrs. Ross, in view of the fact, the note will be paid off within a few hours and the property deeded to the parent body, "What then will your interest be?" Mrs. Ross replied, "certainly we would want to share as in the past under an agreement to keep it under joint operation." Mrs. Gaillard concurred with the statement made by President Ross, that we continue as in the past under an agreement to keep The Retreat under joint operation, The Woman's Convention Auxiliary to the National Baptist Convention U.S.A., Inc., and the Foreign Mission Board of the National Baptist Convention.

After reaching a mutual agreement, as to OPERATION AND MAINTENANCE we next reviewed the purpose which sets forth joint occupancy.

PURPOSE:

1. A RETREAT for the Missionaries under the Foreign Mission Board of the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc., when they come to America on furlough, for study, or on business incident to their work in connection with the Board.
2. THE HEADQUARTERS for the Missionary Committee of the Woman's Convention Auxiliary to the National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Inc., for the National Missionary activities of The Woman's Convention in cooperation with the Foreign Mission Board.
3. A FOCAL POINT for intellectual, interracial, and international relations in missions
4. A LIBRARY to promote a program of education on Africa.
5. A NATIONAL BUREAU OF MISSION for collecting, assembling, and distributing missionary information.
6. HOLD CONFERENCES and special fellowship meetings with returned missionaries.
7. ANNUAL THREE-DAY INSTITUTE for the purpose of teaching and acquainting missionary workers and the general public with the social, racial, and political aspects of African life. Scholars and specialists in the field, will teach African life and history.
8. TO BE KEPT as "The House Beautiful and Useful" in Christian service.

THE OBJECTIVES:

1. To develop the religious ideals of brotherhood, that Justice shall become the basis of human relationship.

2. To acquaint churches and missionary groups of program progress and needs.
3. To Set up an annual budget for operating The Retreat.
4. To promote the expansion program.
5. Through life memberships of the Woman's Convention.

HOW OBJECTIVES ARE TO BE OBTAINED

1. By appointment of National Retreat Chairman.
2. By support of The Woman's Convention.
3. By support of The Foreign Mission Board.
4. By contributions from churches.
6. Through special annual programs of The Retreat.
7. Special Gifts.
8. And President Vesper Hour and monthly regulars.

Dr. Harvey, directed the next question to Mrs. Sarah Williamson Coleman, returned missionary and Director. "For what purpose is The Retreat now being used?"

1. As an open door for missionaries under the Foreign Mission Board of the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc., when they come to America on furlough, for study or on business incident to their work in connection with The Board.
2. Serve as a meeting place for organized religious groups.
3. Missionary President Vesper Hour.
4. Groups—sight seeing tours.
5. Phaon Goldman, African Friends (Monthly).
6. A resident center for ministers, missionaries and those engaged in Christian education.

The following missionaries visited The Retreat in 1962 and made use of all facilities for rest and recuperation.

1. Gladys East
2. Sarah Cyrus
3. Viola Reddish
4. Josephine Singletary
5. Dr. D. S. Malekebu
6. Shirley Huff who sailed for Liberia in January.

Dr. Harvey and Mrs. Ross, calling attention to members of the committee concerning transferral of property were in agreement that once the property was paid for it would automatically be transferred by deed to the parent body—The National Baptist Convention, for the sole use and benefit of The Foreign Mission Board. With the understanding that if the property is sold or the project is discontinued, for any reason, the money from the said sale should be put in a trust fund, to be used only for the purpose intended by the donors. I refer you to page 114 in The 1953 National Handbook of The Women's Convention.

Dr. Harvey commended the co-director and bookkeeper, Mrs. Eunice Veal Baker, and the Director, for their untiring services here at The Retreat, and to Mrs. Ross and Mrs. Gaillard for their fine co-operation for not only meeting a promised obligation but for continuance of joint operation of The Retrreat for Foreign Missionaries.

Following the adjournment of the conference, the committee members paid the note of $25,500.00 at Riggs National Bank, Washington, D. C. Thus the unfinished task of the late Miss Nannie Helen Burroughs was completed under the administration of Mrs. Mary O. Ross.

Let us move forward, accepting the responsibilities with the privileges.

During the administrartion of President Ross another milestone has been reached. With new visions, new horizons, we dedicate ourselves anew to the task that confronts us. She has chartered our course, and we are to move on toward the great goal of good. We have changed the format of the past, and launched new projects for peace not in the stratosphere, not in outer space, but in the hearts of men.

THE FOLLOWING RECOMMENDATIONS ARE SUBMITTED FOR YOUR CONSIDERATION

I. I recommend that a budget for The Retreat for Foreign Missionaries be reviewed and approved at this convention for further operation; this is a necessity.

II. That there will be a Retreat Period on the program of every State Convention, District Convention and general missionary meetings. Send to The Retreat for your material.

III. Since The Retreat for Foreign Missionaries is the National Headquarters for all Missionary Committees we recommend a survey for registration be made in order that they may give direct support to The Retreat.

IV. I further recommend that Retreat Guilds be organized throughout the National Organization.

THUS ENDS THE REPORT OF THE RETREAT FOR FOREIGN MISSIONARIES

NATIONAL BAPTIST YOUTH CAMP & SENIOR RETREAT

September, 1964 Report

President Mary O. Ross, Young People's Director, Mrs. Zee A Barron, Officers and Delegates of The Woman's Convention Auxiliary to The National Baptist Convention, Inc.

Greetings:

We are priviledged by the Heavenly Father to come before you to submit the following rreport as your National Camp Director, a project of the Young People's Department, auxiliary to the Women's Convention.

It is well to pause a moment and count our blessings. On January 18, 1964 you on your own accord and will elected me at the Mid-Winter Board in Hot Springs, Arkansas, as your Camp Director. I have not been unmindful that the honor, the priviledges and responsibilities that accompany such task. It is with humble praise, humility and thanks to God for His guidance, and to as I am remindful as I make this report. Nothing could have been accomplished without you and the support that you gave me.

1. An average of four (4) trips per month were made to the camp-site a total distance of over six-thousand (6,000) miles for the eight months (8).

2. I prepared for the first Board meeting which was held at the Camp-site on April 3, 1964 of which representatives from six (6) states were present. A very successful meeting was held and chaired by the National Young People's Director, Mrs. Zee A. Barron.
3. Prepared for the Annual National Baptist Camping Session which began June 29th through July 12, 1964.
4. CAMPING PERIOD:
52 week-day Campers, 166 Group Campers, 1 Registered Nurse, 12 Counselors and cooks, 10 visitors, 6 Ministers and 2 couples for a period of one week each from Chicago, Illinois. A total of 4 converts accepted Christ for Baptism. (See Financial Statement of Campers and Group Campers.)

1964 REPORT

President, Dr. Mary O. Ross, Y. P. Director, Mrs. Zee A. Barron, Southern Director Mrs. C. Watts, Eastern Director, Mrs. B. Winston, Western Director, Miss P. Funches, Officers and Members of This Our Women's Convention, Auxiliary To The National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Inc.

Greetings:

We are priviledged to come before you to submit to you the following condensed report of the years' work as your National Director of the National Baptist Youth Camp and Senior Retreat, located at Constantine, Michigan. I have not been mindful that the honor, the privilcdge and responsibility accompany such a task. Nothing could have been accomplished without God and you giving me the support you gave me. I am most grateful for that.

1964 Report as follows:

1. Traveled a distance of 8000 miles (12 months) year of 1964.
2. Prepared for the first Board Meeting which was held April 3, 1964 at the camp site at which 6 states were represented. A very successful meeting was held.
3. Set up the schedules for the Annual National Baptist Camping Season which was June 29th thru July 12, 1964, of which 52 week-day campers, 166 group campers, and 2 couple vacationers attended the Camp. Out of the week-day campers 4 accepted Christ for baptism.
4. Set up a Fall Camping Program: As follows:
   1—Conferences, 2—Retreats & Seminars, 3—Hunting & Trapping of all Wild animals, 4—Fishing, 5—Skiing at (Little Valley Ski Area).
5. Ordered all water drained from Motel area, farm house, boys dormitory and barn by the plumber, Mr. W. H. Meyers at Constantine, Michigan. In visiting the Plumbers' office I was informed and instructed that there was a well that furnished water for the boys dorm., but when he began shutting off the water he found that the pump and pipes of which the Women's Convention purchased from him in 1960 for the opening dedication was missing. Also he instructed me that if the barn was cleaned and all live animals removed it could be taken out of the barn structure and the health board would permit us to use the boys dormitory. (A written statement is accompaning this statement from the plumber Mr. W. H. Meyers).
6. Sheets, pillow cases and towels of ½ linen closet has been stamped and all contents of the Camp are found in the Inventory Books of which one is for the President, the Director and caretaker total number of books (3),
7. Had 2 extension phones removed from Motel area and farmhouse and placed in the Director's bedroom at a saving of $60.00 during off camping season. If you desire a private business phone you may have this service by asking the Telephone service Company. I have secured all rates.
8. Had the large floor lamp in living room repaired.
9. Have secured all camping Information, Rules & Regulations that is governed by the Health Board of Lansing, Michigan in order to obtain the 1965 Camping License.
10. Secured the service of the Indiana City-Wide Laymen to sponsor a general Clean-Up, Close-Up Day and prepared 1 dinner meal for the working men. Window screens were removed and stored inside the Motel area. Garbage cans cleaned, Lawn furniture was neatly stored away, Gutters & Eaves of the Mansion House cleaned. Cot beds were removed to their proper places. All this was done by the Laymen October 31, 1964.
11. Purchased a used Refrigerator for the Mansion House Kitchen.
12. Repaired completely the cooking stove in the kitchen of the Mansion House.
13. Secured the service of the Michigan State Patrol men for the camp twice per week.

Amount of $57.11 was turned to Camp Committee at Annual Session.

NOTE:

A Special Committee of the Board of Management met October 24, 1964 at the Camp Site and pledged to buy a furnace for the Mansion House. Our President's Room is now being occupied by the caretaker due to the much needed furnace in the caretaker's living quarters. Out of these pledges there has been $758.98 donated and is now deposited in the People's Trust and Savings Bank, Fort Wayne, Indiana ear-marked for that purpose.

May I thank each worker, Counselors, Directors and our most Illustrious President Dr. Mary O. Ross for your fine cooperation and I pledge to continue to serve you with all of my determination.

DIRECTORS EXPENSE FOR 1964

CHRISTIAN UNITY

The term Christian implies the likeness of Christ. Definition of Unity means State of being One. So, we, who are professed Christians should seek to become more like Him, in order to become "One" in purpose and Christian relationships.

Baptist women (our chosen faith) should seek this unity with church women of other faith and races of which should be our goal for 1965. We should bind a stronger tie between United Church Women, Women's Union of North America and with Women around the World. This will be one way of "Lifting Our Sights".

The Work of Christ in the hearts and lives of these our new found sisters (Women of Other Races) are continuing to make a new humanity, a new race in the World—in other words, a New Christian.

Doors are opening wider each day and we (Negro Baptist Women) must not allow an opportunity presented to pass us by.

What Shall We Do?

We must enlist every Church Woman.
We must be ready to face challenges.
We must be willing to pay our way and get off the begging wagon.

Some things we must admit that in many cases other Women have done more for us than we have done for ourselves in the area of Christian Social concern, and Public Relations toward helping us to achieve our goals. Baptist Negro Women have been silent too long, and have allowed others to fight our battles—while we have been satisfied to sit quietly (May I use the Language of the Streets) Playing it Cool. There is neither conservative nor liberal—neither Protestant nor Catholic—neither rich nor poor—neither Negro nor White—neither male nor female for we are all one in Jesus Christ.

In him all diversities are held together, we belong together and together belong to God, drawn together by the love of Christ and eager to manifest the wholeness of his church.

We, would understand more clearly the unity we have in him and the diversity of thoughts and actions. We, are called to express in order that his lordship may be known in the whole world.

Let us pray that Unity in Missions be answered in part by our willingness in each place. Act and Speak together as the occasion requires for the task to which God calls.

MRS MARY O. ROSS, PRESIDENT

August 26, 1964

Dear Friends and Co-Workers:

Here is a proposed budget for our Convention for 1964 and 1965. We hope it is at least a beginning toward what we want and what we hope to achieve through constant work and devotion.

The Committee feels the budget, as presented, is far too small for an organization the size of ours, and the potentials we have. It also feels that if we seriously raise this amount stated in the budget for 1965, this Board will have a basis for expansion and increases which surely must come if we are to take our place beside other Christian National bodies in America. To this end we submit the present proposed budget for your consideration.

Prayerfully yours,

THE BUDGET COMMITTEE

Susie C. Holley, Chairman
Margery Gaillard, Convention Treasurer
Eunice Baker, Foreign Mission Retreat, Executive Secretary
Zee Anderson Baron, Director, Young People's Department

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY—NATIONAL BAPTIST CONVENTION, U.S.A., INC. 1964 RESOLUTIONS—DETROIT, MICHIGAN

WHEREAS, realizing that our era has ushered in many enormous changes in the external patterns of human living, and that because of these changes, women's traditional duties have been forced into a different pattern, we, here assembled take cognizance of the increased responsibility of Christian women, and do hereby resolve:

1. That inasmuch as the outside world has invaded our homes, and has taken away from them many of the tasks that have for so long belonged to us in the job of home-making and child-rearing, we do now reaffirm our concern:
   A. To deepen the personal human relationship within the home;
   B To be alert to the health needs of our families, not only thru the teaching and practicing of cleanliness of body and mind within the home, but also by active participation in community projects geared to the health and safety of our youth.
2. That because the world of today and tomorrow belongs to the trained man and woman in every field of activity, we strive diligently:
   A. To provide the fullest opportunities for good general education with standard facilities, integrated enrollment and curricula, thoroughly trained staff;
   B. To give increased support to programs of Christian Education, within the local church, the community and the denomination, emphasizing especially, denominational and interdenominational Missionary Institutes and recruiting funds and students to keep open the doors of Church related schools and colleges.

C. Encourage greater use of our denominational and interdenominational literature in our Missionary Societies with special emphasis on The Missions, The National Baptist Woman, The Church Woman and the graded interdenominational study books on the 1964-65 themes, "Spanish Americans" and "New Nations."

D. To sponsor Career Conferences within our local Churches and Districts, to train our youth in Christian ethics and nurture by: encouraging them to consider Christian vocations as a career and preparing and disseminating literature and other information on Christian vocations.

3. That in order to render our work more effective, we seek to become an integral part in the life of our community, becoming the scattered church at work, wherever we find ourselves. To this end, we resolve to unite with others in endorsing and implementing laws to meet today's massive and perplexing problems in:

A. Civil and Human Rights—
Civil Rights—Those given to us by laws
Human Rights—Those that are God-given

B. Education—Adequate, Integrated

C. Housing—Freedom of Residence—Open Occupancy—
Freedom to Live Where One's Tastes and Economic Power Permit

D. Employment—Justice demands:
(1) Equality of opportunity to use one's talents to capacity in significant work.
(2) open policy in placement,
(3) up-grading on the job

E. The Ballot—"The 1964 election in the midst of world and national crises is very important to every citizen of this nation. The decisions Christians make regarding their choice of candidates for public office should be determined primarily by the stand these candidates and their parties take on the leading issues. Hence Christians must:
(1) be informed
(2) register and vote
(3) vote intelligently

4. That we strengthen our ecumenical ties through more active participation both individually and denominationally, in United Church Women, by:
A. Attendance and official representation at regular and general meetings;
B. Incorporating within our local Mission Societies the program of United Church Women;
C. Sponsoring activities that will foster and interpret to our church and community the project, Assignment: Race.

5. That we join the United Nations in observing this as the International Cooperation Year—Freedom from Hunger—by taking a more active part in the Church World Service program of United Church Women.

6. That we increase our efforts in behalf of all the department of our Women's Convention, aware that "no chain is stronger than its weakest link." Such effort will involve:
A. Prayer for wisdom and guidance;
B. Personal offering of time, talent, energy;
C. Sacrificial giving;
D. Moral and Spiritual support.

7. That in this time of national and international unrest, we redouble our support of Home and Foreign mission enterprises that God's love and power may permeate our world.

8. That we pledge our continued loyalty to the Parent Body of our National Convention, and unite with the other auxiliaries in the carrying forward of the work of God's Kingdom.

9. That the Woman's Convention through the appropriate committee express to the Mayor and other public officials of Detroit; to the various Church and Civic organizations; to the hostess groups, our appreciation of the many courtesies, the warm fellowship and the splendid facilities we have enjoyed during this 63rd Annual Session.

10. Finally, that we rededicate ourselves to our Christian task at home and abroad, striving with renewed fervor to be approved workers with and for God.

Respectively submitted,
RESOLUTIONS COMMITTEE

THIRD ANNUAL REPORT OF MRS. ZEE ANDERSON BARRON, NATIONAL DIRECTOR OF THE

Young People's Department Of The Woman's Convention Auxiliary To The National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Incorporated

Submitted At Cobo Hall, Detroit, Michigan

September 8-13, 1964

President Ross, Officers and Members of the Woman's Convention Auxiliary to the National Baptist Convention U. S. A., Incorporated, Regional, State and Local Youth Directors, Officers, Delegates and Friends of the National Young People's Department.—

Greetings!

I thank God for giving me the opportunity to greet you in this 39th Annual Session of the National Young People's Department. I count it a privilege to come and give an account of my Stewardship as National Director of Young People.

I am happy that we are meeting in this historic, industrial city of Detroit—the home of our National President and many of our outstanding workers across the years.

Space will not permit me to call the names of all of our loyal Detroit Workers, because the list is long, but I must mention that dear, dedicated Soul, Mrs. Georgia Jackson. I worked with her as a Red Circle girl, a Y. W. A. and Junior Matron. You and I owe a great debt of gratitude to "Mrs. Georgia" for her help in the early development of our department and for her contribution as Director of The Queen's Revue and as Chairman of Finance. I am glad to be here in "Georgia Jackson's home."

1964 CONVENTION THEME

We have chosen as our Theme: "Christian Youth In A Changing World: Challenged, Concerned, Committed."

We are living in a changed and a changing world. Change affects all aspects of human life today. It presents itself in the sciences, in the arts, in philosophy, domestic, professional, social, economic and religious activities. It doesn't matter where you go or what you do, you face change. As C. C. Morrison once said—"the only permanent thing today is change."

The idea of a changing world is not disturbing to young people. They are challenged by change.

Youth is the age of challenge, the age of daring. This attitude is not new. The example was set by Jesus himself. He was dauntless, young and brave. Jesus had the courage to meet all kinds of challenges. He met a social challenge by turning water to wine and by feeding 5,000 with a little boy's lunch. He had the wisdom to avoid traps set for him and to settle arguments. You remember the incidents—"render unto Caesar the things that are Caesars"—and "he who would be greatest of all let him be servant of all." Jesus had the courage to meet Satan's challenge with the greatest rebuff in sacred history—"Get thee behind me Satan."

Another example of daring which youth might follow is that of David and his challenge of the giant Goliath. When everyone was running away; afraid to face the giant, David, the little shepherd boy, said to Saul—"thy servant will go and fight with this Philistine!" Nothing but a brave youth would have faced a giant with no weapon save a sling shot.

We shouldn't wonder then at the courage with which our present day youth are meeting the challenges of Freedom. They are facing police dogs, clubs, water hoses, chains, bullets and even death itself.

Young women are facing challenge like the beautiful Esther who through her boldness frustrated Haman's plot and saved her people. Yes, even in our world youth have the courage to say—"If I perish, I perish." The glory of youth today as in days gone by is their strength.

Christian youth are meeting the challenge of stewardship in this materialistic age. This challenge is hurled in Mark 10:21 and Luke 18:22. "Sell all that thou hast and distribute to the poor." Young people today are meeting that challenge which is given to a privileged few.

We have Protestant, Jewish and Catholic Youth giving up the luxury and the security of their homes and families and going into the deep South to share the poverty, the insecurity, the peril and danger of their less fortunate brothers. We have these young people giving of their wisdom and knowledge to teach the illiterate sons and daughters of the South the hidden mysteries of the written and spoken word.

We have Christian Youth accepting the challenge of The Peace Corp Program and going into all the world—teaching all men. They, too, are challenged by the cause of World Missions which faces us here in our department.

Christian youth are not only challenged by the age in which they live and the circumstances they face—they are also, deeply concerned about the hunger and poverty found in the world today. They are concerned about the ignorance that exists. They are concerned about the inequalities. They are concerned about the injustices. They are concerned about the hate of mankind for man. They are concerned about the lack of unity and brotherhood. They are concerned about the lack of Christianity in the world today. Christian youth have learned that we love God and keep his commandments only when we love the children of God and that whatsoever is born of God overcomes the world.

This deep concern leads Christian young people to make a commitment. This deep concern causes each one to search himself to see what one thing he lackest. Christian youth may find the answer in Mark 10:21—"One thing thou lackest . . . take up thy cross and follow me."

The crosses of youth are many. There is the cross of lewdness and immorality, the cross of greed, the cross of envy and hate, the cross of pride, the cross of selfishness, the cross of man's inhumanity to man, the cross of irresponsibility, the cross of indifference, the cross of prejudice, the cross of ignorance, the cross of hunger and diease, the cross of strife, the cross of injustice, the cross of immaturity, the cross of sin against the Holy Ghost. Yes, there is a cross for every youth. What is your cross? What is the one thing thou lackest?

I admonish you Christian Youth of the National Baptist Family to go thy way—give up this one thing; take up thy cross, lay it at the feet of Jesus; commit your life to Him; for he is able to keep it against that day. Say with the hymn writer—"I have decided to follow Jesus—no turning back, no turning back."

I warn you, the "Cost of Following God" is great. It has always been great.

"It cost Abraham the willingness to yield his only son.
It cost Esther the risk of her life.
It cost Daniel being cast into the den of lions.
It cost Shadrach, Meshach and Abed-nego being put in a fiery furnace.
It cost Stephen death by stoning.
It cost Peter a martyr's death—
It cost Jesus His life.
Does it cost you anything?"

ACTIVITIES

Since we met in Cleveland last year, I have engaged in many activities that have created good will and extended the service of the National Young People's Department. I shall mention a few that I consider of prime importance.

MEETINGS ATTENDED

In January I attended the Mid-Winter Board Meeting in Hot Springs, Arkansas. We held a brief but beneficial meeting with the Directors and Junior Officers who were present. Together we outlined the program for this September Session in Detroit.

In April I attended a very important National Youth Camp Board Meeting and planning conference held at Camp Constantine, Michigan.

In April it was my happy privilege to attend the National Baptist Student Union Retreat held in Nashville, Tennessee and deliver the Alumni Breakfast address in the Historic Andrew Jackson Hotel.

I attended the National S. S. and B. T. U. Congress in Pittsburgh, Pa. in June. At this time I held conferences with National Youth Camp Personnel and Workers in the National Young People's Department. As a result of some of the conferences Director Romeo Woods and I held with National Congress Officials, we have completed all requirements for the accreditation of our Christian Education Department. All who take our Study Courses this year will receive credit from the National S. S. and B. T. U. Congress.

SPEAKING ENGAGEMENTS

I appreciate the large number of invitations I received to deliver Woman's Day, Youth Day, Convention and Commencement Addresses. I am sorry that it was not possible to accept all of your invitations. I enjoyed all of those that I did accept.

I especially enjoyed the hospitality of the East Mississippi Convention, Mrs. V. A. Hendricks, President, and Mrs. Mary Beaver, Youth Director. I was guest speaker on Youth night during their Annual Session. They are really "going places" in East Mississippi.

I had the unusual privilege of serving as Guest Speaker and giving a pictorial report of my visit to the Beirut Conference and the Holy Land for my own Mississippi General Woman's Convention, Mrs. E. D. McGowan, President, Mrs. Lula Covington and Mrs. Inels Greer, Youth Directors.

It made me very happy and humbly grateful to be so signally honored by two of my own State Conventions—two that helped to make me whatever I am.

In June I had the rare privilege of serving as Guest Speaker for the Annual Negro State 4-H Club Short Course which was held at Alcorn A. & M. College, Alcorn, Mississippi. These boys and girls and the Home and Farm Agents are doing a fine job of "making the best better".

COORDINATED YOUTH CAMP PROGRAM

The National Baptist Youth Camping Period from June 29 through July 11, 1964 at our beautiful Camp in Constantine, Michigan was a rich, challenging experience.

Young Campers from Wisconsin, Michigan, Indiana, Illinois, Iowa, Ohio, Arkansas engaged in a program of Worship, Fun and Fellowship.

Our Camp Theme was: "Called To Witness". "Jesus Calls" was sounded each day for Reveille at 7:00 A.M. and Taps at 10:00 P.M. The Camp Theme Song: "I'll Be A Witness" was not just sung it was lived.

You know Christian friends, Jesus gave us this example of witnessing. He provided disciples who were to be his witnesses. They were to preach the word by their lives and their testimony. Jesus didn't seek to promote his cause in the usual way. He organized no government, army, corporation, school or church. He wrote no book nor formulated a philosophy. He undertook to bring the kingdom into reality in the world simply by the work of witnessing.

As a result of our witnessing through Bible Study, discussions, prayer chains and "Walks with God" in His great out of doors, one Camper was converted and called to witness. The Directors, Counselors and Campers felt that the salvation of one soul without the aid of a minister of the gospel was justification and reward enough for the time, energy and money spent at Camp Constantine this summer.

The Counselors to whom we are indebted for volunteer service were: Mrs. Sudie E. Tatum, Wisconsin, Missions Instructor, Mrs. Maude Toney, Wisconsin, Recreation and Special Programs, Mrs. Mozelle Chaney, Ohio, Camp Musician, Art and Crafts, Mrs. Arie Saucier, Chicago, Guest Musician, Mrs. Clara Guster, Indiana, Bible Study, Art and Recreation, Mrs. Mattie Barnes, Ohio, House Mother, Arts and Crafts, Mrs. Beatrice Kimble, Wisconsin, Counselor and Cook, Mrs. Lula Childs, Wisconsin, Counselor, Art and Recreation, Mrs. Emma Phillips, Ohio, Worship, Music and Bible Study, Mrs. Cleo Roberts, R.N., Michigan, Camp Nurse and Worship Leader, Mr. Floyd Russell, Custodian, Transportation.

The Camp Administrators were: Dr. Mary O. Ross, National President, Dr. Clyde Adams, Chairman of Camp Board, Mrs. Hattie Drinks, National Camp Director, Mrs. Tatum, Associate Director and Hostess, Southern Director Corenne Watts, Camp Program Director, Mr. S. E. Grinstead National B. S. U. Director, Camp Program Consultant and National Director Zee Anderson Barron, Co-chairman of Board and Coordinator of all Camp Program Activities.

My friends, I thank God the good news of our National Baptist Youth Camp is spreading; the needs are being felt and Christians are answering those needs.

We didn't have a Camp Pastor nor a boys' counselor this year but the Lord sent us some visitors to camp and He sent them on the closing day, when we were having testimonials from the young campers. They were telling what camp had meant to them. There was such an outpouring of the Holy Spirit as those young Christian Campers witnessed, that a visiting deacon from Indiana came forward and volunteered his service as boys' counselor next year. That God-sent counselor is Deacon Martin of East Chicago, Indiana.

Almost simultaneously some other visitors came from Illinois and were so touched after they witnessed what had happened without benefit of clergy that a minister from Illinois, the outstanding Rev. Kilgore, volunteered to serve as Camp Pastor next year and to work for the improvement of the Camp.

We had another visitor who became so impressed that she volunteered to serve as Publicity Agent for the camp. She is Mrs. Grace Johns of Chicago.

My Christian friends, we left Camp Constantine determined to keep on witnessing; keep on Shining, and keep on working for our National Baptist Youth Camp. Won't you help us? Remember, the least you do will be precious in His sight.

EDITING LITERATURE

All of the "spare time" I had left was spent in editing and preparing for the publication of two very much needed pieces of literature. I thank the good Lord that I have been able to keep some of my promises to Him, to you and to myself. Some of my promises have become deeds. We now have on the market a New Guide for Christian Young People of our Department.

We also have available for the first time A Mission Study and Devotional Guide which I labeled—"The Light." This magazine or Quarterly will replace the Topic Cards that were once published by our Department.

I am deeply grateful to Mesdames Beatrice Bates of Ohio, Romeo Woods of Missouri and F. C. Green of Texas for making history by preparing the first material for our quarterly.

I sincerely hope these initial efforts will inspire others to give of their time and talent to the preparation of Christian Literature and help us to send out "The Light."

DEPARTMENT EMBLEM AND PIN

We are also very proud of the fact that we now have for the first time a Departmental Emblem and Emblem Pin. The design was created by your National Director and our Secretary of Enrollment Earline Anderson and drawn by Coahoma Junior College Art Instructor, T. W. Richardson.

My friends, if you will recall I told you in my first Annual Report that the "Past was but a Prologue", that we had had a glorious past but it was but an introduction to what we must become. We are proud of our achievements this year, but we are not satisfied, there is so much work to be done that I repeat in the language of the Washington taxi driver—"Past is Prologue—means you ain't seen nothing yet."

PROGRESS ON NEEDS

We have made some progress on two of our expressed needs: The Youth Camp and Youth Literature, but we have yet to work on the third one—Scholarships. I hope we can go forward with plans to give scholarships to worthy Christian Young People. I would like to have the Scholarship Committee meet, secure whatever consultant service is necessary and really activate our scholarship program. Let us give at least one scholarship next year.

Our "Tag Day" has not been as successful as it should be. Money from Tags goes to our National Youth Camp. Our immediate need at Camp is to get our Swimming Pool in order, prepare the boys' dormitory for use next summer, and bring our kitchen equipment up to standard. Won't you double your Camp donations and help us meet these needs?

We have a great need of new organizations. Let us redouble our efforts to enlist new members. The harvest is great, but the laborers are still too few. We are thankful for the new organizations that are joining us this year for the first time. I charge each of you to bring in at least one new society next year.

One of our objectives is to hold Youth Conferences and Institutes. I am afraid this phase of our work is lagging, too. Let us as Directors hold more work conferences and Institutes. You will find that new interest will be stimulated, your local organizations will be revitalized and the National work will be strengthened as a result of such activities.

The Call To Service

There is great need of the larger service on the part of each one of us. Are you willing to "Take Your Place"

Somewhere the world has a place for you
That is all your own;
Somewhere is work that your hand can do,
And yours alone.
Whether afar over land and sea
Or close at your door may the duty be,
It calls for your service full and free
Take your place!

Somewhere the world has bitter tears
Your smile might dry;
Somewhere burdened with doubts and fears,
The hopeless sigh.
There are steps that falter, weary, weak,
For strong, brave arms they vainly seek;
Will you pass them by on the journey bleak?
Take your place!

Somewhere the world has a desert spot
Your toil might till;
Somewhere a life whose loveless lot
Your love might fill.
If the place that waits be high or low,
Question not, cry not, onward go!
The world's great battle needs every blow—
Take your place!

APPRECIATION

I want to express my sincere appreciation to President Ross and the Senior State Presidents for providing the leadership, the guidance and the cooperation we needed to carry forward our program this year.

My heartfelt thanks go to My National Associates for going the second mile. I am deeply grateful to Western Director Funches who permitted us to add to her many duties the supervision of our printing, the handling of the sale of literature and pins and the printing and distribution of Tags. Southern Director Watts has accepted with a smile the added responsibility of directing the program activities of our National Youth Camp. That has been a blessing to me. Eastern Director Winston sustained an injury from an accident which kept her indisposed for quite a while this year, but we are happy that she is on the go again. Despite this, she has been very helpful in the planning of our National Program.

My thanks go also, to the State and District Directors, the Officers, Committee Chairmen, the Writers, the Directors and Instructors of the Study Classes, the program participants, our guests and all who have cooperated in the planning and execution of the Young People's Work this year.

MY COMMMITMENT

Although the responsibility is great, my concern for Young People and my interest in their development cause me to accept the challenge they present and pledge anew my dedication, untiring efforts and loyal consecrated service to the further development of the National Young People's Department.

"My heart, my life, my all I bring
To Christ who loves me so,
He is my Master, Lord and King,
Wherever He leads I'll go."

"It may be through the shadows dim,
Or o'er the stormy sea,
I take my cross and follow Him,
Wherever He leadeth me."

"If others stop to count the cost,
For fear of earthly treasures lost,
I'll count it gain to die for Thee
Send me, O Lord, Send Me."

I Pray God's richest blessings upon you one and all.

Respectfully submitted,

ZEE ANDERSON BARRON, National Director

THIRTY-NINTH ANNUAL REPORT OF THE WESTERN DIRECTOR OF YOUNG PEOPLE'S DEPARTMENT OF WOMEN'S CONVENTION AUXILIARY TO NATIONAL BAPTIST CONVENTION, U.S.A., INC.

Made in Detroit, Michigan—1964

THIRTY-NINTH ANNUAL REPORT

Primrose Funches, Western Director

Isn't it strange that princes and kings
And Clowns that caper in sawdust rings
And common folk like you and me
Are building for eternity?

To each is given a bag of tools,
A shapeless mass and a book of rules
And each must fashion, 'ere life is flown,
A stumbling block or a stepping stone.

Madam President, Officers and Members of the Woman's Convention, Auxiliary to the National Baptist Convention, Inc., Director Barron, Winston Watts, Officers of the Young Peoples Department, Delegates, Friends:

In the language of Bishop Sheen, "I am frightened that I have been your Western Director for thirty years, and I am thrilled to have been your servant."

I have had the full cooperation of the Department. When I was elected in Jacksonville, Florida, September, 1936—twenty-nine years ago. At that time we were meeting in one room or basement, with less than 25 elected delegates. Our next meeting was in Los Angeles, California. I challenged the East and the South for a Loving Cup, which was given the section that raised the highest amount of money over one hundred dollars. The west reported two hundred dollars which was considered the largest amount—and we won the cup.

I was not present in the Woman's Convention when I was elected. At that time, our present President, Dr. J. H. Jackson, was Corresponding Secretary of the Foreign Mission Board, and I was employed by the Board.

The growth of this Department has been phenominal. We were growing under the leadership of Leatha L. Craig of Atlanta, Georgia. When she expired, at our meeting in Dallas, Texas, Etta Versa Frye of Washington, D. C., who was serving as Eastern Director, was elected National Director because of seniority. We then established the Leatha L. Craig Scholarship Fund. Then we organized at the request of President Layton.

The Finance Set-Up:—Emulating the Woman's Convention—the main purpose was to train Young Women for future leadership. Our All-States Tea, was used for education, and since then has been transferred to the Camp. We had women who love the work and pushed hard.

The West had only three or four states that represented. I went to work and built the West. It was when Director Frye was elected that Mrs. B. C. Winston was elected Eastern Director, and Mrs. Corrine Watts, Southern Director. Up until that time, we had only three Directors to the Department—National, Western and Eastern.

We are proud of all the young women that have served in this department and some that were trained here are now working in the Women's Convention, and some of them are State Presidents.

From the beginning we had tremendous success, and we were able to send a number of young women through the National Baptist Missionary Training School, located in Nashville, Tennessee and the National Trade School of Washington, D. C., some of whom are full time Christian workers now, at home, in other States and abroad. One, to my knowledge, is employed by the Sunday School Publishing Board of the National Baptist Convention, Miss Anice Snodgrass.

We had at one time above $10,000.00 in our scholarship fund. Our Queen Revue was the source for Scholarship, and States like Indiana reported as much as $800 at one time. Our totals for Scholarships was always $5,000 in each session.

In the words of Nannie H. Burroughs, 1959—"We wish to make it quite clear that it takes money to run a service organization and those who desire to be affiliated should see to it that they share in the financial responsibility of the organization." Representation without intellectual and spiritual qualification is useless, and a reflection on the organization.

I have been delegated to represent this Department by the Convention in foreign lands on three occasions. First, to Copenhagen, Denmark, in 1947, then to London, England in 1955, and to Beirut, Lebanon in 1963. Three times I have visited the Holy Land, and walked where Jesus walked on three occasions, and for this unusual opportunity, "I am a debtor."

I am indebted to the Convention. I know what it is to be abused and to be criticized, persecuted, tried, disrespected, because all of these things have been done to me. Nevertheless, I have remained faithful to God and to His Cause. "The reward is not given to the swift but to be that endureth to the end."

I voted for Mrs. Zee A. Barron of Mississippi to be National Director of our Young People's Department, and I have enjoyed working with her. I really could not assume more work than I am now engaged in at the present time.

We need the fullest cooperation of each Director and worker to perfect this organization. Not a new one—but this one that the Pioneers had a vision and organized. Our responsibility is to train Young people (Young Baptists), and every Program and Department is important. Whatever your assignment is, do it well. Each part makes the whole of everything. Money is a part of God's Program.

I am especially pleased with the West. Every State is well organized and is functioning and cooperating to the fullest. My Young People are taught to be a booster—a knocker never gets anywhere. No one person is indispensable. Always some one else can do the job.

Our Literature: We have now on hand Literature for our Department, and Official Pins. We have the Guide for Christian Young People, The Sunshine Band Guide, Handbook for Directors, Leaders and Counselors Guide. We have the following Study Books: "The 7 Teen Years," by Brown, "The Teacher and The Young Teens," by Louise Griffiths. We look forward to having more literature. We are very proud of our Study Book, "The Misson" by Dr. M. O. Ross, and I hope we will soon have a Young People's page in the Baptist Woman.

Home Missions: Our Home Mission Board, under the leadership of Dr. C. P.

Harris, needs workers. America First for Christ. Each year Home Mission Prayer Week begins May 17th. Organize your Young People and share in prayer with people all over America, and take an offering and send it to the Board, at 701 South 19th Street, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

Foreign Missions: Under the leadership of our new Secretary, Dr. Wm. J. Harvey, III, a new outlook on Foreign Missions has been formed, and we are being elevated to Missions and higher way. Audio Visual Aid has been added. Repairs have been made, and a new building added. You can help by joining the Christmas Drive, or becoming a monthly regular contributor. Dr. Harvey needs missionaries that will dedicate their lives to foreign service.

American Baptist Theological Seminary: The Seminary has taken on new life under the leadership of Dr. Charles Buddie. We have a number of young women registered there in training for Christian service. We have set up a $1,000 scholarship for worthy young women who desire to further their training. Make application to the school, American Baptist Theological Seminary, 1800 White Creek Pike, Nashville, Tennessee.

Finance: Our Finance Department is growing. The success of it depends on you. We must give to Missions and Education. Our National Camp needs finance. We must help.

We can join the Food Shower and Linen Shower. Contact Mrs. Hattie Drinks, 1315 Francis Street, Fort Wayne, Indiana, Camp Director. Inquire about the needs—help supply them through your cooperative effort.

We must have workers—not shirkers. This part of our program helps to train our young people in the importance of knowing how to live. It is not enough to have freedom out, one must know how to use it. We need one thousand young women that will give $2.00 each now for the camp.

Its purpose is to give Young People between the ages of 15 and 24 rootage for growing Christian Character and building Christian fellowship. A new day has dawned. They are the ones who must make secure the foundation and lead the church tomorrow.

To help prepare Young People for an all over Christian Program:

Mission—Recreation
Training in Worship—Social Action
Church Music—Race Relations

BEYOND THE SUNSET

GONE

We think today of the love ones we used to know

"They never quite leave us
These friends who have passed
Through the shadow of death
To the Sunlight above;
A thousand sweet memories are holding them fast
To the place they blessed with their presence and love.

Miracles

He turned the waters into lands,
Moulded mountains with His hands.
He painted green the leaves of trees;
He painted blue the endless sky
And placed there birds with wings to fly.
I shuddered when I stopped and thought
Of all the miracles He'd wrought.
My problem seemed so small to bring
Before so powerful a king.

But still I ventured forth to ask
For guidance with my little task.
I found that He will answer all.
To Him there is no big or small.

In conclusion—I wish to thank the women of the convention for the confidence placed in me for 29 years. It was a great privilege to serve under Mrs. S. W. Layton, Dr. N. H. Burroughs and Mrs. Mary O. Ross. These great women have been an inspiration to me and a great influence in my life. My first trip to Denmark was under Mrs. Layton's leadership, second, under Dr. N. H. Burrough and third, Dr. Mary O. Ross.

"For what is your life? It is even a vapour, that appeareth for a little time, and then vanisheth away"—James 4:14.

INFLUENCE

God wants an original contribution from every soul. Influence is the power every soul has within it, the possibility of offering something definite and distinct which no other soul could offer. Christian personality is inseparable from Christian influence. To ask, what is your life? is but another way of saying, How much influence do you really have? Now, that raises this question.

What is Influence?—Influence is the power of making a difference and it is so in this life, that every individual soul possesses a certain power to make a difference. Scientists tell us that nature itself is a circle of cause and effect. The sun draws the vapor from the seas, the clouds store it, the wind wafts it, it falls in showers on the thirsty earth and flows in rivulets and streams back to the sea again; thus the streams of influence from your life flows into the life next to yours and thence to others, and on and on till it has encircled humanity to meet you again one day at the judgment bar of God, bearing the interest of the years. Yes, every life, every human life, is a circle of blessings for good or it is a circle for evil. Why does this evil exist? God made nothing bad. When He created the world and completed it, He said, "that it was good."

Influence is like the blood stream coursing round the body. If that stream is pure, the circle means health, vigor, strength, and life, but if the stream is poisoned the very same circle spells sickness, pain, weakness, and death. And thus it is just as the influence of the blood stream affects the body as it circles, so does the influence of every individual personality fall at last upon all humanity. Young People, watch your life's influence.

Not for the joys that we have known,
Not for the past that has been sweet,
Today we kneel, God, at your feet.
We kneel, though tired and alone,
To thank you for the mystery
Of Hours to come; and that the fire
Of youth still burns . . . For the desire
To meet the years that are to be!
The road may be a rugged one
We may know poverty and pain,
And find it hard to rise again
Beneath the weight of tasks undone.
We may find loss and sore distress,
And disappointments may be ours—
But still, through sunshine, snow and showers,
We'll find a dream to cheer and bless!
And—with a drifting, keen delight,
Our eager, searching eyes may see
The flame that lights an autumn tree . . .
We may be sure that stars, at night,
Will shine for us when all the way
Is hard to go—that there is mirth,
To veil the sorrows of the earth . . .
So, Father, not for yesterday—

Do we give thanks . . . although it made
Our hearts and souls know rapture's thrill.
For, God, tomorrow waits us still—
Ah, may we meet it unafraid!
The past is done—its tapestry
Is background for new scenes that shift.
Today we thank you for the gift
Of all the years that are to be!

PRIMROSE FUNCHES

THE ANNUAL REPORT OF MRS. BERTHA C. WINSTON, EASTERN NATIONAL DIRECTOR OF THE YOUNG PEOPLE'S DEPARTMENT OF THE WOMAN'S CONVENTION AUXILIARY TO THE NATIONAL BAPTIST CONVENTION, U. S. A., INC.

Submitted at Cobo Hall, Detroit, Michigan, September 8-13, 1964

REPORT

To Our Beloved President Ross, Officers and Members of the Woman's Convention, Directors Barron, Funches, Watts, State and Local Directors, Young People's Officers, Delegates and Friends of the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc:

Today I am grateful for the privilege to greet you in the beautiful city of Detroit, Michigan, the home of our most illustrious President of our Woman's Convention, and many of our faithful workers of the Young People's Department. Already we have observed the tremendous welcome, the beautiful Cobo Hall, with its picture windows, looking out upon the Great Lakes, letting in the refreshing breeze, bringing health and happiness to all. All of this but deeply confirms more fully our own belief that there is a way of life known only to those to whom religion has become a vital reality.

I am especially grateful to the state and local directors of the Eastern Regional Division for their fine response to the call of their National Eastern Director. We have the largest representation from the East we've ever had: Ohio, Pennsylvania, New Jersey and New York, conventionwise, Maryland leading numerically,—this we count a greater step forward than in many years.

Our Theme: "Christian Youth In a Changing World—Challenged, Concerned, Committed."

We are living in a world of changes. Be not deceived—a new chapter is being written in history. It is imperative that we adapt ourselves to the changes of modern life, and interpret what is going on now in the world. An honest look at our world, cannot ignore the hostile forces, that by their nature tend to crowd out our way of life. We are in a world where we have to fight and contend not against flesh and blood, but against the powers of evil in this world. Life is an arena full of competitions. It is said that "mankind is on the march" but really it is on the run. This is a revolutionary age which means a changing of ideas, institutions and social beliefs.

One unchanging idea is the rise of the underpriviledged people of the world. To free people who have no hope for education, no release from burdens and no relief for ill health. They are eagerly seeking, demanding, yes, fighting for the right to pursue those agencies through which these things may be acquired.

We are living in a world where what goes on in South America makes a difference in the U.S.A. The price of the dollar in London has a direct relationship to those working in American factories. In Herman Hagedorn's book, "The Bomb that Fell on Hiroshima at Pearl Harbor" appears these words: "Lay your ear to the earth and listen, it is the conscience of America Speaking. It fell on America too. There is one power greater than the Atom, that one is the soul!"

"God is working His purpose out,
And the time shall surely be,
When the earth shall be filled
With the glory of God;
As the waters cover the sea."

How may our young people use change to strengthen their witness as Christians?

Mental attitudes, communications media, changes in technology, changes in music and art forms, development of suburban communities, changes in the make up of the cities—all of these things must be considered in finding more effective ways to spread God's word to implement physiological change and moral outlook.

The well springs of Christian attributes are found in the life and teachings, work and death and personality of Jesus Christ.

Guide Lines for Fellowship and Future: The Sermon on the Mount—The Golden Rule

We may live in two worlds of "East" and "West" but we have only one planet to do it in. The separation of "East" and "West" is over and new history opens rich in quality, majestic in scale. Mr. White, made that statement in his book "The Next Development of Man." I agree with him whole heartedly. It is up to us to see that the Golden Rule and those admonitions in the Sermon on the Mount are put into action.

The Road Ahead

The Salvation Army offers a wish that I concur: The next mile of the journey may have twists and turns, the guideposts are clearly marked. While there may be occasions when you find a sign reading—ROAD UNDER CONSTRUCTION—DRIVE SLOWLY—We trust you will not find signs reading—ROAD AHEAD CLOSED—BRIDGE WASHED OUT. Actually the sign ahead is clear—PLEASE DRIVE CAREFULLY.

My Activities

I have attended many meetings where I have had the opportunity to extend the work of our National Convention. Talking to young People's groups and speaking to many adult groups.

I have set apart several Young People's Departments and Matrons' Organizations in various churches.

We have tried to influence the churches of the eastern region to become more active in our National Program. Many letters were sent throughout the East and many answers were received of pledges of support and attendance at the meeting in Detroit. These are more encouraging evidences of increased interest in our work.

In November, I attended a Conference on Social Welfare held at the Lord Baltimore Hotel, Baltimore, Md. The topic discussed was "Civil Rights." While in conference the news came of the late President Kennedy's assassination. He was a champion for the rights of the underpriviledged. Imagine our consternation and grief—but I think most of us left with a greater determination to carry on the fight he so nobly started. He is the hero of today's and tomorrow's youth.

In December, I had the happy privilege of being invited by Miss Luckey, at the instigation of President Ross, to participate in the conference and workshop on the "Diversity in American Life." This conference was held at our National Retreat in Washington, D. C., December 9th to 12th. This was more of a laboratory experience in living and working together for four days. Exchanging experiences and listening to the many fine speakers on the various phases of Diversity in American life was a living experience we can never forget. Much information can be passed on to our young people in fitting them to live together in our present day society with better understanding.

I have been invited and "have spoken on many Woman's Day occasions. Conducted workshops in the East.

In May I served as co-chairman of May Fellowship Day for the United Council of Church Women. All activities have been gratifying experiences in which I have been happy to have shared.

We, as of old shall continue to support the work of our National Baptist Convention. Long ago I was challenged by the late President Willie S. Layten, also the late President Nannie H. Burroughs. I became concerned and committed to the cause. They had a vision of a great youth army working for the cause of Christ. We cannot let their vision perish. We too see it and follow on.

Challenged

Today youth is facing the challenges life is presenting. Health, Education, Jobs, challenges to peace, underpriviledged nations of the world, Peace Corps and what have you? Problems arise everyday, yes every hour and decisions must be made wisely and intelligently. Youth must be taught to make the right choices and decisions.

Concerned

Only those concerned about what's going on in the world about them can hope to win in the affairs of life. We must know to help. We have to be concerned to aid.

Committed

Since life is a challenge, living is also a challenge. Let youth accept these challenges knowing youth has a task to perform, a purpose to fulfill. That these tasks must come, burdensome though they may seem, with a life committed to Christ they can be met with courage. For can He not open doors no man can shut, and close doors no man can open? Rise up and go forward, knowing that GREAT CHALLENGES ARE COMPLIMENTS FROM GOD.

When David met the challenge of Goliath, David was a small lad, representing a great God. He said, "I come to you in the name of the Lord." I suggest to you the formula of David in Psalm 37:45. "Delight thyself also in the Lord and He shall give thee the desires of thy heart. Commit thy way unto the Lord, trust also in Him, and He shall bring it to pass."

I like the sentiment of the verses by William Ernest Henley in his poem "Invictus:"

Out of the night that covers me
Black as the pit from pole to pole,
I thank whatever gods may be
For my unconquerable soul

In the fell clutch of Circumstance
I have not winced nor cried aloud;
Under the bludgeonings of Chance
My head is bloody, but unbow'd.

Beyond this place of wrath and tears
Looms but the horror of the shade,
And yet the menace of the years
Finds and shall find me unafraid.

It matters not how straight the gate,
How charged with punishments the scroll.
I am the master of my fate;
I am the captain of my soul.
