REVISED CONSTITUTION OF THE NATIONAL BAPTIST CONVENTION, U.S.A., INC.

PREAMBLE

Whereas, it was the sense of the Negro Baptist of the United States as represented in several Baptist organizations convened in Atlanta, Ga., September 28, 1895, and known as the Baptist Foreign Mission Convention hitherto engaged in Missionary work on the West Coast of Africa; the National Baptist Convention which had been doing missionary work in the United States; the National Baptist Missionary work on the West Coast of Africa; the National Baptist Convention that these organizations should unite into one organization for the purpose of putting into effect the benevolent intentions of their constituents by eliciting, combining and directing the energies of denomination: therefore said organizations did unite and agree upon certain fundamental principles of organic rules, which as amended from time to time, are as follows:

ARTICLE I—NAME

This organization shall be known and styled as the National Baptist Convention of the United States of America.

ARTICLE II—OBJECT

This Convention by uniting Baptist churches and other Baptist organizations, such as may desire an organization of this kind, shall undertake to promote home and foreign missions: to encourage and support Christian education: to publish and distribute Sunday school and other religious literature; and to engage in whatever other Christian endeavor is required to advance the Redeemer's kingdom throughout the world.

ARTICLE III—MEMBERSHIP

Section 1. The membership of this Convention shall be representative, annual and life.

Section 2. Representative membership shall be composed of messengers from churches, associations, district conventions and state conventions all known to be in harmony with the purpose of this Convention. These organizations shall pay into the treasury of this Convention sums as are set out in sections of this Article.

Section 3. Basis of Representations. (a) Churches with 200 to 500 members, $25.00; 500 to 1,000 members, $35.00. (b) Churches above 1,000 members, $50.00 paid in as representation, not to exceed two messengers. (c) District State Convention, $50.00. (d) Associations, $35.00.

Section 4. Life Membership—Any person who is in good and regular standing in any Missionary Baptist church that is a member of this Convention may become a life member by the payment of the sum of $200.00 into the treasury of this Convention.

Section 5. Annual Membership—Any person who is a member of a church that is in good and regular standing with this Convention may become an ANNUAL member of this Convention by payment of the sum of $10.00 into the treasury of this Convention. Said ANNUAL member may engage in the discussion of the Convention but not vote.

Section 6. Associations and State conventions shall elect their messengers to the National Convention in their annual meeting preceding the Convention and certify said messenger to the secretary.

Article 3 would be so amended that section 7 would read as follows:

"Since the convention is primarily a fellowship, and since the fellowship owns the corporation, membership in the fellowship does not give to any individual member or group of members equity or special property rights in the assets of the corporations. The annual representation fees are designed primarily to carry the expenses of the convention and to help in its work in general and cannot be construed as capital investment in the corporation.

Section 8 The question of the rights and privileges of membership are settled only by the convention itself or its Board of Directors in the convention's absence.

Section 9. No member or group of members of the convention shall have the rights to use the civil courts to settle matters regarding membership rights and convention procedures. In these matters the convention itself is the supreme court from which there is no appeal. The majority vote of the fellowship is therefore binding on the individual, the convention and corporation itself.

ARTICLE IV

Voting in this convention shall be by the delegates assembled without reference to member organizations, states or sections of the country, and shall be by voice, or show of hands, or standing.

ARTICLE V

Dear Brethren: April 5, 1886, an open letter to the Baptist clergy and laymen was issued by Rev. Wm. J. Simmons, an American Baptist, asking if we should have a National Convention to discuss questions of interest to our beloved denominations. At that time the following reasons were given:

1. To promote personal piety, sociability, and a better knowledge of each other.

2. To be able to have an understanding as to the great ends to be reached by the denomination.

3. To encourage our literary men and women, and promote the interest of Baptist literature.

4. To discuss questions pertaining especially to the religious, educational, industrial, and social interests of our people.

5. To give an opportunity for the best thinkers and writers to be heard.

6. That, united, we may be more powerful for good and strengthen our pride in the denomination.

Having been solicited to write the Call by many whose names and endorsements are here unto affixed, the Call is hereby made by their advice and solicitations for said convention to meet in St. Louis, Mo., August 25, 1886, 10 o' clock a.m., in the First Baptist Church, and the pastor thereof is hereby requested to serve as a Committee of Arrangements, with power to select his associates.

Wm. H Steward, Louisville, Ky., and Rev. R. H. Cole, 2609 Goode Avenue, St. Louis, are hereby requested to serve as a Committee on Transportation.

WM. J. SIMMONS.

The chronological report in our National Baptist Minutes is hereby corrected, viz: The parties as they appear below were officers of the Foreign Missions or National Educational Conventions, as were their predecessors. Said conventions merged into the National Baptist Convention in 1886 or met co-jointly with it, or otherwise.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS—HOT SPRINGS, ARKANSAS JANUARY 18-20, 1966

resident Jackson, Members of the Board of Directors and Fellow-Believers in Christ.

Serving as your Secretary for Foreign Missions, is a great privilege, as well a great responsibility. We are grateful to God and to you for the challeng- g problems we have shared as we have endeavored to promote the Cause of hrist in distant lands. The Foreign Mission Board is your voice extended through- ut the world proclaiming the Gospel of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, not ly through preaching and evangelism, but also through the implementation of that preaching by supporting Missionaries and native workers; Elementary, Junior and Senior High Schools, medical clinics, and vocational services. We are deeply appreciative of the confidence placed in us by our great President, Dr. J. H. Jackson, and we sincerely affirm that he has been of monumental help, as we have drawn on his great wealth of experience as a former Secretary of the Board.

The present world situation is calling for a new sense of urgency in our task of world missions. In every nation where we are rendering services, vast changes are taking place. A new sense of dignity, coupled with an intense desire to present to the world all aspects of a modern nation, has caused these nations to study Missionary services being rendered through new eyes. Missionaries and Mission Stations used to be viewed with complete sympathy, tolerance and understanding. But today, any services other than those strictly religious, are required to meet certain minimal standards proscribed by the Government. Thus, Elementary, Junior and Senior High School Curricula, native teachers' salaries, dormitories and housing, medical clinics and hospitals, and vocational training are all investigated by the Governments wherein they serve.

Therefore, every Foreign Mission Board of every denomination must either meet certain basic standards in all of these areas if they are to survive, or discontinue their activities.

In former years, the Foreign Mission Board pursued a policy of expansion, not only on the Continent of Africa, but in the Caribbean, in Central America and in Bangalore, India. In each instance, the work was conducted on a minimal basis. Namely, buildings were erected, American or Native Missionaries were employed, and maintenance money was alloted on a monthly basis. In very few instances were general repairs and upkeep monies allotted. Thus, today the Board is faced with the responsibility of raising funds for major repairs, or actual replacement of buildings, plus increased salary demands for the native teachers in our Elementary and Secondary Schools. Our dormitory and housing facilities have come under scrutiny to the end, that today our Board is faced with an urgent need for increased funds to meet these run-down conditions.

Despite these pressures, the one country where the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc., through its President and Board have built up a fund of goodwill is Liberia. Our 80 year service in this country, plus the new program initiated by our President Jackson, appropriately named, "Operation Production," bids fair to open new doors of opportunity for extending the cause of Christ in that land.

At our recent meeting in Jacksonville, the Convention commissioned Mrs. Mattie Mae Davis to head up this project. Because of her 34 years service as a Missionary in Liberia, and because of her intimate acquaintance with the need for modern agricultural methods of production, she left our country filled with zeal for this new responsibility. Though retired as head of the Suehn Industrial Mission, this new responsibility had added to her horizons new zest for living, for she feels that she has yet much to contribute towards proclaiming in a practical way, the Great Commission of Christ.

Her letter recently received indicates the magnitude of the task. We are grateful indeed that our President has agreed to contribute financial support from the Convention relating to this project, for our present budget was not commensurate with our already existing obligations. Thus, this new project given to the Foreign Mission Board for direction and development, is dependent primarily upon the financial suppor. of the Convention. Mrs. Davis has indicated the acreage clearance alone for the pilot project, will cost $2,000.00. Wire fencing 1650 feet in length plus tools to erect the same, will cost $124.69, plus $88.40 for shipping charges. A one and one half ton truck with twelve feet stake body, will cost $3,600.00. If any of our churches could take this responsibility for underwriting any one of these items, it would assist the Convention, and the Foreign Mission Board in getting "Operation Production" off the ground.

A home costing a minimum of $12,000.00 is mandatory, as the operational center for this project. How wonderful it would be if 12 churches or 12 Associations could underwrite this phase of "Operation Production".

If we are to raise the image of the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc., on the foreign field; if we are to render a program of comprehensive Evangelism, we can no longer talk of what has been done in the past, but come to grips with our present day challenge. Comprehensive Evangelism means that when an individual has been introduced to Christ, our responsibility is not over; it is only started. That individual, beginning his Christian life, cannot be isolated from the world in which he lives. If he is to be Christian to the core, the influence of Christ must reach into his home, his social group, the sphere of his work, his community and his nation. This comprehensive approach means that it is not enough that the individual become a convert to Christ, with his name placed on the membership roll of the Church, we must assist him to become a Christian husband and father, a Christian neighbor, a Christian worker, a Christian farmer, businessman or craftsman.

As related to Mission policy, we need to ponder the meaning of the Prayer Jesus made on behalf of the first small band of disciples whom he had gathered together.

"I pray not that Thou shouldest take them from the world, but that Thou shouldest keep them from the evil one." Even in non-Christian lands where the Christian group is small, Christians are not to withdraw from the world, but they are to live in the world. Therefore, every aspect of their lives, all of their relationships and activities must feel the saving power of Christ. The goal of this comprehensive approach can be well defined as the "redemption of the whole of life through a Church that is deeply rooted in the life of the community."

OUR MISSIONARIES

At the present time two of our Missionaries are home on furlough, Dr. and Mrs. Daniel S. Malekebu, Superintendent of our East African Missions. Though in advanced years and in declining health, both plan to return to Malawi in March to continue the great work that they have been leading for over 35 years. From Liberia three of our Missionaries, Misses Gladys East and Charlotte Levi from Suehn, and Mrs. Sarah Cyrus from the Bendoo Industrial Mission, will return for a year's furlough. The return of two of these Missionaries will place an unusually heavy burden on the Rev. Benjamin Stephens, who is serving so sacrificially as Superintendent of the Suehn Industrial Mission, and was sent out last year. Right now our urgent need is for dormitory matrons and persons who could teach on a secondary level while these Missionaries are away earning a much needed rest.

OUR MISSION STATIONS

We are happy to report that we have begun the electrification and piped water program at the Bendoo Industrial Mission, Liberia. Fifty-four hundred dollars has already been paid on a system which will cost a total of $8,400.00.

At the L. G. Jordan Memorial School in Nassau, Bahamas, an allotment of $160.00 per month for teachers' salaries has been added to their $1,000.00 per month allotment. Because of the splendid efforts on the part of the Bahamas Baptist Missionary and Educational Convention to enlarge the work with the addition of a High School department on the existing grounds, we are prayerfully hoping that their budgetary allotment may be increased to meet the rising costs of an enlarged school. We are still supplementing the salaries of preachers and evangelists in the outer islands of the Bahaman chain.

Our Zion Baptist Church in Bluefields, Nicaragua, Central America is growing in numbers, and they are constantly requesting that Pastors from our Convention would visit this area in an evangelistic capacity. They welcome Bibles, Hymn Books and Sunday School materials.

The Rev. E. D. Ngubeni, head of our work in South Africa and Basutoland is also in the United States seeking to raise money from sources outside of the denomination to aid in the re-erection of over 15 churches which were arbitrarily torn down by the race-hating South African Government.

Would that I could go into detail concerning the racial restriction laws, the inhuman treatment of the Native South African, the ignoring of human rights and the subjugation of human dignity that our Christian brothers and sisters are facing. And yet time will not permit, save this word—they are looking to us for continued aid and assistance as they cling to the rich promises of Christ as a subjected people.

CONCLUSION

But with God as our Helper, we can do all things through Christ that strengtheneth us.

THE CASE OF REV. S. H. HERRING AGAINST THE NATIONAL BAPTIST CONVENTION

On or about the first of December 1965, the Rev. S. H. Herring, pastor of the St. Paul Baptist Church, Memphis, Tennessee, brought a suit against the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Incorporated in the Circuit Court of Fayette County at Somerville, Tennessee.

As a Board of Directors of the National Baptist Convention we owe it to Rev. S. H. Herring, The National Baptist Convention, and to ourselves to make a clear and un-compromising statement on this matter and to state our true position and recommendation.

I. THE FACTS

1. The Rev. S. H. Herring claimed that he was appointed to manage the Freedom Farm in Fayette County and to furnish the money to operate the farm for the year of 1963, but he has not until this day furnished a single contract or established the proof to sustain his claim. No one in authority to make such appointments knows anything about the truth of his claim.

Our records show that a Mr. Clarence Harris was appointed as manager and served in that capacity at $200.00 a month from April through August, and that the money to operate the farm came directly from the treasury of the National Baptist Convention, including such items as lime, fertilizer, seeds, the gas and oil, and for the tractor repairs. The two tenant farmers were responsible for working their own crops, and the manager Mr. Clarence Harris informed the president of the convention that some of the work was done through exchange, that is, he would allow the man who was working as a renter to use some of our equipment in return for labor that he would give. Some money was allotted for chopping twelve (12) acres of cotton. The other expense for chopping this amount of cotton was supposed to come from the money that accrued from the sale of strawberries and vegetables from a truck patch. The convention received no funds from these sources.

2. The Rev. S. H. Herring first made his claim to the president of the National Baptist Convention that he was manager and that the convention owed him, on Thursday afternoon after the first Sunday in September at the annual meeting of the National Baptist Convention in Cleveland, Ohio, 1963. At this time Rev. S. H. Herring was asked to furnish proof of his claims and bring the same out to the farm as soon as possible after the convention adjourned.

3. On September 25, 1963 the Rev. S. H. Herring came out to Freedom Farm in Fayette County, Tennessee and brought what was supposed to have been his report. At that time he claimed $1,077.52 for which he gave no receipts or proof. He was asked more than once in the presence of another party if this were all that we owed to him. His reply was "yes". At that time he was given a check to cover his claim for which he signed a receipt. But on the witness stand he denied knowing anything about the receipt and denied his own signature. But the records show that he cashed this check on or about the 26th of September at the Tri-State Bank in Memphis, Tennessee.

4. In January 1964, the Rev. S. H. Herring came to the Board of Directors meeting in Hot Springs and then made an additional claim of $2,000.00. At this point he was told to present this statement to the Board of Directors of the National Baptist Convention since it was their responsibility to pass on claims against the convention that could not be otherwise settled. This he did not do.

5. The Board of Directors again gave Rev. S. H. Herring a chance to present his claim at the Board of Directors' meeting in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania in June 1964. He was present in the board meeting but refused to present his claim.

6. Before the meeting of the Board of Directors in Tulsa, Oklahoma in June 1965, Rev. S. H. Herring was sent a registered letter inviting him to appear before the Board of Directors to state his claims against the farm and the convention, but again he refused.

7. He brought the suit against the National Baptist Convention in the Circuit Court of Fayette County, December 1, 1965 for the sum of $3,500.00 for his services as manager of the farm, and for $1,665.00 as out of pocket money. One of the reasons he gave, was that the Board of Directors and the President of the Convention had refused to pay his claim.

8. In the open court in Somerville, Tennessee, Rev. S. H. Herring was not awarded one penny of the $3,500.00 for services that he claimed as manager. He was not awarded $1,665.00 for the out of pocket money that he claimed. He said on the witness stand that he was in part suing for money to pay his lawyer, and that the difference between his former claim of $2,200, and the claims made in his declaration was accounted for primarily by lawyer's fee. The sum of the claims in the declaration was $5,165.00. This is $2,965.00 more than the earlier claim. This latter figure is estimated lawyer's fee, but he was awarded by the court, $1,965.00 less than the estimated lawyer's fee.

9. By his testimony and the testimony of some of his witnesses, and by documents circulated in the court room, the Rev. S. H. Herring had signed a note using the National Baptist Convention's name to borrow money from J. F. Dickinson and Company, Memphis, Tennessee. This was done without the authorization of the Board of Directors or the National Baptist Convention itself.

II. THE BOARD'S REACTION AND RECOMMENDATION

In the light of the facts as stated above, the Board of Directors of the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc., takes this firm position in reference to the case of the Rev. S. H. Herring against the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc.:

1. He is guilty of falsifying records and mis-statements in claiming he had a position as manager or superintendent of the National Baptist Convention Freedom Farm to which he was never appointed or elected by the convention, any of its agencies, its Board of Directors, or any of its officers who had the authority to do so.

2. He is guilty of the attempt to collect money under false pretense. The pretense being that he had been appointed as the manager and director of the National Baptist Convention farm in Fayette County, Tennessee, and that he had been appointed also to secure the money to operate the farm for 1963.

3. Rev. S. H. Herring is therefore guilty of discrediting and trying to bring disgrace upon the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc., for his own advancement and promotion; for the National Baptist Convention had on hand enough funds to operate the farm and some to spare, for those officials of the National Baptist Convention in charge of the farm had credit standing in Fayette County that assured the operation of the farm, and also these same officers had access to the money market to secure the necessary funds to operate the farm for twelve months or more if such were needed.

4. Rev. S. H. Herring is guilty of charging that the Board of Directors did not pay him when he did not allow the Board of Directors a chance to review the claims that he had made. A group of men of the caliber of the members of the Board of Directors are not expected to take anybody's word when claims are made against the convention. They must establish and prove these claims. This the Rev. S. H. Herring did not allow the Board to do because he knew he could not produce the evidence, but instead he makes the false claims to his lawyer and to the court that the Board of Directors knew and had refused to pay him.

5. In bringing suit against the National Baptist Convention under false pretense Rev. Herring placed himself in open conflict with the spirit of Article 3, Section 8 and 9 of the Constitution of the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc.:

> "The question of the rights and privileges of members are settled only by the convention itself or its Board of Directors in the convention's absence. No member or group of members of the convention shall have the right to use the civil courts to settle matters regarding membership rights and convention procedures. In these matters the convention itself is the supreme court from which there is no appeal."

6. Rev. S. H. Herring went to the extreme of forging the name of the National Baptist Convention on a note to borrow money from the J. F. Dickinson Company of Memphis, Tennessee. This is a dangerous thing, and could jeopardize the economic standing and welfare of the National Baptist Convention if allowed to go unchallenged.

7. For the reasons stated above the Rev. S. H. Herring by his own choice violated the rules of National Baptist Fellowship and thereby placed himself outside of that fellowship and turned to his own lawyer and the civil courts for guidance and direction. This solemn act we here and now accept, and declare and proclaim that Rev. S. H. Herring is outside of the fellowship of the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc., and will remain so until he complies with the Christian rule of reconciliation. This does not in any wise interfere with his rights as a preacher and as a pastor in his local congregation.

The National Baptist Convention is an organization of Negroes led by Negroes. The National Baptist Convention is committed to civil rights and to the freedom guaranteed under the Federal Constitution and we are committed to the American way of life, but we believe that we are now mature enough to run our own institutions, to make our own laws, rules, and regulations, and we do not need to invite lawyers or the civil courts of the land to tell us how to do it. If there be among us any Negro Baptists who do not believe in Negro Baptists, and any Negro Baptists who cannot respect Negro Baptists, and any Negro Baptists who prefer to be led by others, they would do well to join the organizations that others lead and confess their inability to lead themselves or to work with others of their own race.

THE ANNUAL REPORT OF SECRETARY T. J. JEMISON OF THE NATIONAL BAPTIST CONVENTION, U. S. A., INCORPORATED

Mr President, to our distinguished Vice Presidents, other Members of our official family, Delegates to this our 86th Annual Session being held in Dallas, Texas, one of the fastest growing cities in the United States, visitors and friends of the National Baptist Convention. I am happy and honored again to report to you some of the workings of our great convention, and to tell you that I have earnestly tried to make you one of the best Secretaries you have ever had.

Of course, I don't have to tell you, that this is a gigantic job, and that the work never ceases. The responsibilities are great, and the requests are many, but through the help of the Almighty God and your patience, I have tried to answer or fulfill them all.

The National Baptist Convention is a big Corporation and is doing a big job under the leadership of our honored and distinguished President Dr. J. H. Jackson.

You will be happy to know that the fiscal affairs of your Convention are in excellent condition. We have paid our quota in The World Baptist Alliance, The World Council of Churches and in the National Council of Churches. If you have received a report from the American Bible Society, you have noted that National Baptist Convention churches are giving more to the American Bible Society than we have ever given.

Under the leadership of Dr. J. H. Jackson, the Educational Foundation continues to grow. The money is invested and brings a considerable amount in interest each year. We can reach our $10,000,000.00 goal if we all would just do a little bit. Our Retirement Fund is continuing to grow with Mrs. D. W. Hoggard as the efficient Secretary. This money is also invested and is at work for you. Brethren, we would be wise to lay up something each month in this all important Fund. Our Freedom Farm continues to bring in to the Convention each year a sizable sum, and this is due to the unselfish efforts of our Great President. In Hot Springs this year $10,000.00 was reported from the sale of the various crops on the Farm. Not only does the Farm bring in money to the Convention but it still serves a great social need for our people in Fayette County, Tennessee. It is a symbol of "Freedom" and it speaks loudly of what can be done when we move from protest to production. Again under the far reaching vision of our President, our project Operation Production is about to get underway. We are building a $12,000.00 home there for the head of this project, Mrs. Mattie Davis, who has worked long for the Foreign Mission Board of this Convention.

I am also happy to report to you that our Convention continues to grow. We are taking in New Pastors all the time. Many have come up to this Annual Session, and in our recent Board meeting, we have had large numbers to join. It has been reported through the press and by some brethren by word of mouth, that the National Baptist Convention split, and that we are much smaller. This is far from the truth. Our Convention has had no recent split. We merely lost a few disgruntled brethren who were unwilling to follow God Given Leadership. We did not lose a single State Convention—we lost a few brethren out of some of the State Conventions which are a part of this Convention, and this does not constitute a split.

Our Mississippi Project in this past Summer was quite a success. These young College Students working under the leadership of Mrs. C. C. Coleman did an excellent job in helping our people in the State of Mississippi. This project cost approximately $2,000.00 per month. You will hear more from this project later in the program of this session. It was one of the finest things this Convention has ever done.

The Minutes for our last Annual Session have been mailed to those brethren who registered in Jacksonville, Florida. I do hope and trust that you have received your copy. If you have not received it please let me know, and I will be more than happy to see to it that you get one. We cannot say too much about the cooperation and hard work given by Dr. D. C. Washington, the Executive Director, of the Sunday School Publishing Board.

The Record was late getting to him due to the illness of the Secretaries of the Laymen and the Moderators. Then too, it is just a lot of work in getting the Minutes ready for print.

In Jacksonville, Florida we raised $81,998.14 and a recording of the disbursements is in the Minutes. This year we have a larger delegation and I feel certain more will be reported for this session.

In closing, I want to state as I have stated to you in the previous reports, my office works in complete harmony with our President. This, I feel, is the only way to work, and I have enjoyed my relationship with our leader.

This office was given for operation and honorarium the usual amount of $5400.00.

Respectfully submitted,

T. J. JEMISON, Secretary

ANNUAL REPORT

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL PUBLISHING BOARD
National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Inc.
330 Charlotte Avenue, Nashville, Tennessee

D. C. Washington, Executive Director

President Jackson, Officers, Members of the Board of Directors, nd Messengers assembled here in the city of Dallas, Texas, I am very leased to submit the Annual Report of the Sunday School Publishing oard for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1966.

"Declare ye among the nations, and publish, and set up a standard; ublish, and conceal not."

This quotation from the prophet, Jeremiah, embodies the goals toward hich the efforts of your Sunday School Publishing Board have been directed uring the past year. The ever increasing publication and timely distribu- ion of doctrinally sound, attractively presented, interesting and usable urriculum materials is the standard which we have set for ourselves in erving you, our constituents.

The word, "standard", may be thought of as something established for se as a rule or basis of comparison in measuring or judging capacity, quan- ity, content, extent, value or quality. In attempting to set up a standard, lan, we must realize that sound growth is the gradual development toward he ideal, so that our progress must be measured not solely by the heights attain, but equally by the depths from which we came.

CURRICULUM AND PROGRAM SERVICES

Since our ultimate goal is to spread the message of Jesus to the utter- ost ends of the earth, our first and most constant concern must be greater utreach, or enlarged service to larger numbers of people. This can be ac- mplished only if we have your full support in making use of our program ervices, as well as in purchasing our curriculum materials.

Our sales statistics for the year closed June 30, 1966, show that we re now supplying some literature or other materials to approximately twenty-three thousand Churches, or about six thousand more than in the previous year.

Dr. Maynard F. Turner, Jr., former President of the American Baptist Theological Seminary, has been named as the Director of Publications of the Sunday School Publishing Board, succeeding the late Dr. Jesse Jai McNeil. He brings to this position rich administrative experience, high erudition, and deep spiritual insight, and is surrounding himself with persons capable of making comparable contributions to our literary offerings.

The Department of Christian Education issued above forty thousand Course Cards, or an increase of some sixteen hundred over last year. However, the statistics of this department indicate a slight decrease in the number of Leadership Education Schools accredited, and in Instructors certified, although a larger number of Deans were certified. The Certificates of Progress awards indicate that we have about the same number of students receiving first Certificates of Progress as last year, but we note that many of these persons do not continue studying so as to qualify to receive the Second and Third Certificates of Progress.

The statistical report of the Christian Education Department for the past year is as follows:

Leadership Education Schools Accredited	406
Deans Certified	76
Instructors Certified	1,064
Course Cards Issued	40,185

Certificates of Progress

First Certificates	253
Second Certificates	1[illegible]
Third Certificates	82
Certificates of Achievement	8

The Department of Christian Education is the accrediting agency of our denomination, and if we are to have an informed Church membership, we must encourage continuous participation in the leadership education program of the National Baptist Convention, offered by our Sunday School Publishing [illegible]

[illegible]he members of the Staff of our Christian Education Department, under the [illegible]ble leadership of Rev. L. Willie A. Snodgrass, Director, are available to [illegible]ssist you in program planning or to conduct Area Workshops, upon request. [illegible]e regret that this year we are again unable to present the S. H. Vass Award [illegible]or outstanding achievement in Christian Education, but already we have [illegible]pplicants seeking to qualify for next year's Award. For further information [illegible]oncerning the requirements for this signal honor, write to the Department of [illegible]hristian Education, at your Sunday School Publishing Board.

PRODUCTION DIVISION

We are striving constantly to improve our production standards, as a [illegible]tepping stone to more efficient and economical operation of this division.

The major elements of successful production are materials, machinery [illegible]nd labor. During the past year, material costs rose rapidly; several of our [illegible]ntiquated machines which were already inadequate became inoperable, and the [illegible]carcity of skilled labor increased payroll costs. In spite of rising pro- [illegible]uction expenses, we have not yet increased our prices, although some adjust- [illegible]ent appears imminent. The more liberal labor laws which are part of our [illegible]hanging social pattern have given new opportunities for employment to our [illegible]people. These new outlets for labor have also pointed up the scarcity of [illegible]echnically trained persons, and we have been seriously affected at this point. [illegible]hile we have lost some of workers who found more lucrative positions, we [illegible]ave been forced to raise pay scales in order to maintain loyal and efficient [illegible]mployees, as well as to recruit other persons specialized in handling the [illegible]odern machinery which is a necessity to efficent production. The demand for [illegible]ore color in our work made the purchase of a new two-color press absolutely [illegible]ssential, and we are pleased to announce the recent installation of a Miller [illegible]Perfecto Press at a cost of some $90,000.00.

We believe you will appreciate the face-lifting our materials will shortly undergo, and we encourage your comments. We have also purchased additional binding equipment at a cost of almost $30,000.00, which should enable us to keep more closely to production schedules.

Improved products mean added costs, and we trust that you will be willing to share the burden with us when price increases become effective.

FINANCIAL MANAGEMENT

The Corporate Board, under the able leadership of Chairman W. T. Cr... worked closely with the Administrative Staff in outlining a proposed ... financial operation for the past fiscal year. We have operated within th... guidelines of this budget, in spite of rising operating costs, without ... parable increases in income. It is inevitable, however, that we must ... attempt to combat these increased expenses with some price increases.

We enjoy a satisfactory relationship with the Banks and our Credit... We meet our obligations on schedule, and by practising internal economie... possible, have been able to reflect a profitable operation for the year.

The attached Audit Report of the Sunday School Publishing Board, by ... Anderson and Company, Certified Public Accountants, details our financial ... as of June 30, 1966.

PUBLIC RELATIONS

We take this opportunity to thank the members of our General Board, ... other interested persons who through the year serve as "Ambassadors of ... Will" for us in their own communities. We appreciate the numerous invita... we have received to appear at your local, state and regional meetings, ... these occasions make it possible for us to interpret our program, enjoy ... interchange of ideas, and share your fellowship, as we become more complete... aware of your varied and changing needs and interests.

During the past twelve months, representatives of the Christian Edu... Department visited Alabama, Georgia, Mississippi, Florida, North Carolina, ... Arkansas, Missouri, Michigan, Illinois, Indiana, Ohio, New Jersey, New York, ... Tennessee and Virginia.

NATIONAL BAPTIST CONVENTION OBJECTIVES

During the year, the Sunday School Publishing Board has contributed ... evily to all of the objectives of the National Baptist Convention. We ... tended the President's Chicago Conference on Civic Responsibility, and ... epared a pamphlet on the subject, which is available for distribution.

We contributed almost $29,000.00 directly to Convention Objectives, as ... llows:

We printed and distributed the National Baptist Voice, at a cost of ... me $3,650.00.

We printed the National Baptist Minutes at a cost of almost $6,500.00.

We operated the Morris Memorial Building at a cost of about $8,800.00 ... excess of the rental income.

Expenses of Miss Primrose Funches, National Baptist Convention Field ... rker, exceeding $2,500.00, were paid by the Sunday School Publishing Board.

In addition, we made a Cash Contribution in the amount of $7,500.00 to ... e Ten Million Dollar Educational Campaign of the National Baptist Convention.

During the past year, the Sunday School Publishing Board has ... ught diligently to upgrade every phase of our work. We shall never reach ... rfection, for we have set up a standard of ever-improving service to you, ... ur constituents, but we here rededicate ourselves to our God-given Task, ... d with His help, "it does not yet appear what we shall be"

Gentlemen:

We have completed, pursuant to engagement for a general audit, our examination of the books and accounts of the Sunday School Publishing Board, a subsidiary of the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc., for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1966.

We have examined the balance sheet as of that date and the related statement of income and expense and the supporting schedules for the year then ended. We reviewed the system of internal control and the accounting procedures employed. We tested accounting records and other supporting evidence by methods and to the extent we deemed appropriate. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and included all procedures we considered necessary in the circumstances.

In our opinion, the accompanying balance sheet and related income statement fairly presents the financial of the Sunday School Publishing Board as of June 30, 1966 in accordance with generally accepted account standards.

OPERATIONS

The net profit for the fiscal ended June 30, 1966, decreased by $81,208.70. An analysis of the causes of this decrease reveels that the major portion was caused by an increase in the cost of manufactured goods sold. This cost increased $60,412.95. The reason for this was the increase in material and labor. The Sunday School Publishing Board is in a profit squeeze, their cost is increasing, their sales prices remaining the same.

Very truly yours,

Annual Report

of the

National Baptist Training Union Board

412 Fourth Ave., North – Nashville, Tenn. 37201

EIGHTY-SIXTH ANNUAL SESSION

of the

NATIONAL BAPTIST CONVENTION, U. S. A., INC.

Dr. J. H. Jackson, President

September 8, 1966

Memorial Auditorium

Dallas, Texas

T. H. Rankin, Chairman

C. B. Williams, Executive Secretary

"And are we yet alive,
And see each other's face?
Glory and praise to Jesus give
For his redeeming grace!
Preserved by power Divine
To full salvation here.
Again in Jesus' praise we join,
And in his sight appear.

What troubles have we seen,
What conflicts have we passed,
Fightings without, and fears within,
Since we assembled last!
But out of all the Lord
Hath brought us by his love;
And still he doth his help afford,
And hides our life above."

Illustrious President Jackson, My Brothers and Sisters in Christ —

The National Baptist Training Union Board, Dr. T. H. Rankin, Chairman, extends greetings to the Eighty-sixth Annual session of the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc., a fellowship of (according to "The National Baptist Voice") 5,970,000 constituents, 30,000 churches, and 27,000 preachers, a fellowship whose organized outreach extends to the eastern hemisphere in both Africa and Asia, to the western hemisphere not only in the United States but also in the Bahama Islands of the British West Indies, and Nicaragua of Central America.

Not "alive to see each other's face" are Dr. J. T. Gayden, the Chairman for many years, who went home in November, 1965 and the faithful, loyal, and competent office secretary, Mrs. Ruth Cannon Morton, who fell asleep in July after attending the National Congress in Charlotte, N. C. God rest their souls and bless their memories.

THE THEME

"Together We Stand" is not only the theme of this session but also the modus operandi of the National Baptist Training Union Board, an agency created to serve the Convention in the training of its members in Baptist doctrine and history, in Christian living, and missionary service," being cognizant every doctrine has its associated duty and every truth its allied task. The Board is impelled by the truth no permanence or greatness can belong to any person, however eminent, nor to any institution, however sacred, unless he or it serves the needs of people.

COOPERATION

The age in which we live requires the thrust of cooperative service. Helpfulness must be extended not only individuals from one person to another, but also through the medium of cooperative organization. "The strength of the Pack is the Wolf and the strength of the Wolf is the Pack." Yes, in unity there is not only strength but also the means of survival.

The twelfth Chapter of I Corinthians pictures the cooperative unity of human life. Paul sees human beings vitally joined and mutually interdependent as are eyes, ears, hands, and feet in one body. In the chapter that follows, he declares that only one quality of relationships can keep such members from catastrophe and that is love which is defined as sympathetic understanding and redeeming good will.

"Together We Stand" is possible when officers and members involved possess the love that "is patient and kind, that is not jealous or boastful, that is not arrogant or rude, that does not insist on its own way; that is not irritable or resentful, that does not rejoice in the wrong but rejoices in the right." The Board believes "Together We Stand" is a reality in the proportion that the Christian officers and members embody the sympathetic understanding and redeeming goodwill that "bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things."

TOGETHERNESS EXEMPLIFIED

Believing that Baptists have a rich heritage of freedom which must become RESPONSIBLE freedom, that informed Christians are better Christians and church members, that informed members of the Convention are concerned members, the department of publication of the Training Union Board has published in "black and white," in a 108 page book, pictures and words which portray the work and accomplishments of the parent body as well as every Board, Auxiliary, Commission, etc. that existed in 1965. This book, Highlights and Trends by Vada P. Felder, includes also the Constitution of the Convention. Acquaintance with the facts in the book will enable one not only to defend himself against those who speak either in ignorance or with malicious intent but also to take the offensive in the dissemination of facts about the Convention.

How much does the indispensable book for informed and concerned members cost? As a dedicated act of cooperation – "Together We Stand", the Board presents A Mighty Arm to you for $1.00.

In the conception of President Jackson, the Training Union Board paid the expenses of four representatives to the conference on Christian Civic Responsibility and Unity of the Nation which was held in Chicago, Ill., on Nov. 16, 1965.

In compliance with Dr. Jackson's request the Board wrote and printed thousands of copies of Doing Our Living Right, a 16 page booklet that has been used in the churches and by the college students who were paid by the Convention for their work for the unity of the nation this summer in Mississippi.

Parenthetically, it is the Training Union Board that conserved for our Convention the talents of the recently elected Director of Sunday School Publications, by using him as a writer in the department of publications and as one of the four representatives to the Chicago meeting mentioned above.

OTHER PUBLICATIONS

Geared to the needs of the members of the Convention are the program resource quarterlies: Highroad for Adults, Horizons for older youth, Counselor for the Junior High, Junior Quarterly, and the Keynote Training Union Leader, a magazine which, among many other features, includes weekly program resources for the Nursery, Beginner, and Primary Departments.

The 16 page booklet, "Ushering in Victorious Baptist Churches" by Rev. Donna Myers, Sr. has been published and is now being widely circulated.

"One of the most fatal enemies of effective service," says Dr. Harry E. Fosdick, "is the belated mind" which is the mind that is behind the times, the mind that lacks the insight to perceive and the willingness to follow the forward movement of the living God. The $1.00 Baptist Training Union Handbook by Felder is designed to eliminate the belated mind, to help churches present the changeless Christ to a changing world, to help them "put the old ark on a new cart" and move out of enemy territory.

Word has come to the Board from many sources that some churches that do not have organized Training Unions are using the printed Quarterlies in mid-week services and with study groups.

Noteworthy is the fact that on May 8, 1966, Dr. C. A. Garland, president of Central Mississippi College in Kosciusko, Mississippi, conferred a Doctor's degree upon the Executive Secretary of the National Baptist Training Union Board in recognition of the outstanding contribution through the literature that the Board is making to church development and Christian growth.

MORE TOGETHERNESS

As another gesture of togetherness, in this auditorium at 7:00 P.M. Sunday, Dr. C. A. W. Clark has arranged to have many of the sister churches of Dallas join us in a mammoth Baptist Training Union Mass Meeting in the Texas Roundup fashion. You and your friends should be here to gain new insights in methods and programs of the Training Union, to be edified by the dynamic preaching of Dr. A. J. Iverson of California and the melodious singing of the massed choirs.

FINANCIAL STATEMENT

The audited report of July 1, 1965 to June 30, 1966 is still in the hands of the auditor, but will be appended as soon as it is possible.

The Board served as one of the sponsoring agencies of the second National Baptist Leadership Convocation that was held July 30 – August 13 on the campus of American Baptist Theological Seminary.

SOME REQUESTS

1. As users of the quarterly program resources, the Board thanks you for the support you have given. Literature is ready ON TIME, so please order early.
2. As a Board member, along with the privilege of being state representative, please assume the responsibility of being public relations person to promote the distribution of literature in your state.
3. As a pastor, please rescue the Training Union in the church that you serve as shepherd from the death blow of pastoral indifference and the time-usurping three o'clock services.
4. As a Christian Baptist, join the "Every Member Reading Literature from the publishing Boards of the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc." Dr. W. A. Scott, Jr., Director of Promotions will need your cooperation.

CONCLUSION

"Together We Stand" must become a reality as we pray.

"Lead on, O King Eternal.
We follow, not with fears.
For gladness breaks like morning
Where'er Thy face appears,

Thy cross is lifted o'er us,
We journey in its light;
The crown awaits the conquest;
Lead on, O God of might."

1966 CONGRESS SESSION

The Sixty-first Annual Session of the National Sunday School and Baptist Training Union Congress held in Charlotte, N. C., June 20-26, will go down in history as a successful session in many ways—attendance, program, finance, human relations, and entertainment. This report will give only the highlights of a great and moving endeavor which represents the work of many hearts, heads and hands in the program of Christian Education.

Attendance: Exceeding all records in recent years, approximately six thousand messengers registered for classes and discussion groups. News media and other sources estimated the total attendance at nine thousand. Leading states in registration were Alabama, Tennessee, Illinois, Ohio, Michigan, and Mississippi, respectively.

Program: This year marked the beginning of a new four-year program and also a change in the general format of the Congress. The four-year theme, "Christian Education and the Challenge of Change," served as the basis for inspirational messages, lectures, and discussion groups. The timeliness of the theme and the change in format received very favorable commendation and served to spark the interest and participation of workers and messengers. The basic textbook for the theme, "Mission in Metropolis," written by the late Dr. Jesse Jai McNeil, will serve to perpetuate his memory as a great and scholarly Baptist.

Highlighting the general session assemblies were sermons by Dr. T. Oscar Chappelle, Dr. W. J. Harvey, III, and Dr. E. A. Freeman; official greetings by President Jackson, and the feature address by Mr. J. Sargent Shriver, Director of the Office of Economic Opportunity, Washington, D. C. All were stimulating, impressive and challenging.

To our deep regret, the Dean of the Congress, Dr. Horatio S. Hill, was unable to attend the session due to illness. Never-the-less, Dr. Charles L. Dinkins, assistant dean, was asked to assume the responsibility which he did with credit and distinction. His keynote address was rightly termed a masterpiece and set the stage for the success which followed.

The meeting of the Congress in Charlotte represented a great experience in human relations. Working hand in hand with representatives of the Chamber of Commerce, securing and utilizing the facilities of the White churches, and establishing a line of communication with the powers that be, the Local Committee brought about wholesome results that otherwise could not have been achieved.

We owe a debt of gratitude to Dr. J. Arthur White, Local Chairman, and all the members of his committee for the service rendered in providing another opportunity for the furtherance of our program in Christian Education. For them, it was a job well done.

More than two hundred workers—officers, instructors, staff personnel, and Board Members helped to make this report possible. Many of them exercise an uncommon loyalty and a dedication that go far beyond the call of duty. I have expressed to them my gratitude for their service.

The 1967 session is scheduled to meet in Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

All officers of the Congress were re-elected to succeed themselves.

Respectfully submitted,

O. CLAY MAXWELL, President

THE MESSAGE OF THE EIGHTY-SIXTH ANNUAL SESSION OF THE NATIONAL BAPTIST CONVENTION, U.S.A., INC., ON CIVIL RIGHTS

We take our stand with all loyal Americans for justice, freedom, and equality of opportunity as set forth in the supreme law of the land (The Federal Constitution).

The present plight in human relations in the United States is not due to the inadequacy of the supreme law of this land or the American philosophy of freedom, but to the fact that the nation has too long tolerated and condoned those who have violated this law and set up their own way of life. Justice has not at any time been thwarted, and the cause of freedom in any wise hindered through obedience to the supreme law of the land.

The civil order that is constructed according to the pattern, principles, and ideals of the Federal Constitution is an order of justice, freedom, and equality of opportunity. It does not advocate any form of segregation and discrimination based on race, color, or creed.

Where discrimination and segregation are found it is due to the fact that individuals and groups have strayed from the ideals and principles of this supreme law of the land. This supreme law is the source of correction for any behavior pattern or any unjust laws written contrary to the ideals and principles of our sacred constitution. Through the courts of the land individuals and groups may seek redress for all the grievances that they have because others have violated their rights.

In the civil order described above, civil disobedience is not required, and therefore is not a virtue. Historically, civil disobedience has never been used as a means of correcting unjust laws of a social order, but to overthrow that order. This was true in Mahatma Ghandi's campaign of civil disobedience against the power and political domination of Great Britain in India. This was also true when the thirteen original colonies employed civil disobedience against Great Britain the mother country. Civil disobedience then, cannot coexist with law and order. The one will destroy the other.

In the United States of America it matters not how non-violent civil disobedience may be, it is a form of lawbreaking and lawlessness, and it can never be considered a virtue in a country like the United States of America.

1. As American citizens we look with delight and appreciation on all the achievements of this great nation. We are thankful for all of the constructive efforts and the progressive strides that have been made in implementing this nation's ideals of freedom and justice. The growth and development of this great nation can be ascribed not only to the nature of her just laws, but to the freedom given to citizens to participate in building community and fellowship.

2. We admit however, that our nation has fallen short in many places in the application of the principles of its laws and there are still many problems yet to be solved. The present tensions, divisions, conflicts, and riots that have been so prevalent across this nation are due to the fact that too many citizens, individually and in groups, have elected to ignore the lofty standards of this nation and to live in disobedience and rebellion of this country.

3. We call upon all Americans to dedicate and re-dedicate themselves to the supreme law of this land, the American ideals of freedom and democracy, and to do it now without compromise or delay.

The Congress of the United States should not play politics with civil rights and parcel out the rights of Negroes bit by bit from year to year. Our lawmakers know the Federal Constitution and they know the rights of all people, of all citizens of this country, and the nation itself should be ready now to accept completely the principles of democracy. Hence it does not make sense to have a civil rights bill before Congress every few years dealing with the rights of Negroes. Negroes must be treated as all other American citizens.

4. We are in harmony with and support those methods of procedure in the quest for first-class citizenship that are sanctioned, supported, and directed by the supreme law of the land, the courts, and the enlightened concern for the rights of others as well as our own. No group of citizens should seek their rights in such a way that goodwill shall be impaired and the life of the nation jeopardized and imperiled.

5. Our opposition to segregation based on race, color, creed, or previous condition of servitude leads us to condemn all those groups that are organized for the purpose of working against any other group of Americans be they Ku Klux Klan, The American Nazi Party, or the American Communist Party. But we also condemn just as vehemently those groups of Negroes who carry on a program of revenge, hate, and bitterness against white Americans because of their previous, and for some, the present condition of servitude. For belief in segregation is a form of servitude of the mind from which people must be emancipated through education, understanding, moral growth, and spiritual insight and not by threats, intimidations and physical forces. For you cannot stampede people into moral reforms or pressure them into a life of purity.

6. We condemn the term "black power," for the following reasons:

a. It is the other side of the old coin of segregation and it renders the people who use it guilty of the same type of prejudicial thinking and feeling that they have so long condemned in white segregationists. There are too many Negroes who make use of integration as a weapon to break down segregation in the white community, but who hold on to their old patterns of segregation when it seems to benefit them or help them to do what they want to do in a bi-racial society. You cannot destroy segregation by hating and fighting a segregationist alone. Segregation is an attitude of mind, and may live in Negroes as well as whites.

b. The term "black power" is a misnomer. Power has no color, it is neither black nor white. Power is the source of energy. It is, in this context, an idea prematurely born. Some sincere people have mistaken their privilege to march with police protection and their freedom to say what they desire to say against public officials and the white community with impunity, as a sign that they are on the verge of some great new power. But power is an inner quality of one's being, a possession of life, and an achievement that can be acquired only by effort, sacrifice, growth and creative endeavors.

c. If "black power" means new political strength through the use of the ballot or new mental power through the growth, development, and use of the intellectual or the command of more of the economic resources of life, then the term does not cover a new venture or a new experience, and hence in reality is not needed. For this is the doctrine that Dr. J. H. Jackson, president of the National Baptist Convention, has been preaching across the years, for which he has been criticized by those who wanted protest without the higher venture of production. Dr. Jackson has advocated that Negroes can achieve power through the creative use of their God-given abilities without any reference to prejudice or revenge against and upon other groups. If some other civil rights leaders have now come to this conviction of the importance of production, we welcome them to this higher stage of the racial struggle which is production, on which we have long since stood.

d. "Black power" as a separatist move in contrast to and against white people, is a vain and empty gesture that is designed to do more harm than good. For if the strength of ten per cent of the population were thrown over against the ninety per cent of the population of this country, the results would be devastating and tragic. Whatever we get in this country it will be a part of, and in harmony with the power of our nation, its culture, and a part of the heritage of Western Civilization. We must be able to enjoy the blessings of growth without yielding to the temptation of using it directly or indirectly to avenge some wrong committed against us in the past and in the present.

e. The use of such a term will, and in fact, has already called out a similar separatist response in some of the nationalities and groups in the United States of America.

If we are to build a democratic society it must be done in fellowship, cooperation, and in a spirit of goodwill.

7. We reaffirm our faith in our Call for National Unity as endorsed in our annual convention in Jacksonville, Florida in 1965, and recommend that we continue to strive for the realization of the principles expressed therein with the hope that Negroes and white people, and members of all other groups in the United States will work for the achievement of first-class citizenship on every front, and for the victory of freedom and democracy in the total life of this nation. In such a venture we can be as firm as the principles of justice, and as unrelenting as the inner urge for freedom, and yet as tolerant towards others in their imperfections as we need and desire the tolerance of others while we ourselves labor to overcome our own sins and weaknesses in a brotherhood of growing but imperfect human beings.

8. While we decry and lament the recent riots that have destroyed millions of dollars worth of property and many of the sacred values of goodwill and good human relations, as well as life itself, we petition this nation to hold not an entire race guilty of what a few have done. The masses of American Negroes are not violent, and they never have been as a race. We are against riots, human conflicts, and frictions that will produce tensions that lead to bitterness, anger, strife, and finally violence and death.

9. The quality of love dictated by the Christian religion does not demand of us to call down any type of judgment upon the heads of our enemies aside from the judgment that eventuates through deeds of kindness. Note the words of the Apostle Paul: "Therefore if thine enemy hunger, feed him, if he thirst, give him drink for in so doing thou shall heap coals of fire on his head.

Be not overcome of evil, but overcome evil with good." (Romans 12:20-21).

As Christian leaders we must return to an emphasis on faith in ourselves, faith in our fellowman, and faith in our God.

THIRD ANNUAL REPORT OF THE AMERICAN BAPTIST THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

September 8, 1966, Dallas, Texas

The theme of this convention is "Together We Stand." If we at the American Baptist Seminary have a legitimate function set in the upheaval of these tremendous times, it is "to increase the harvest reconcilement brings."

We, at Nashville, have produced more than our share of civil rights leaders both of the disruptive and constructive type. The call of this hour is clear: to work for unity and harmony among and between all groups who claim the name of Jesus Christ.

We are working hard to accomplish this at the Seminary. The interracial character of our Board of Trustees and faculty has been "old hat" with us since our founding forty-three years ago. Last year a white student was enrolled for the first time in anyone's memory. We hope to enroll another one next week as we begin our forty-fourth year.

Our Garnet-Nabrit Lecture Series has featured the cream of the crop from Negro and white leadership, experts in their fields. This shall continue; our organizational pattern is now set up to provide the effective administration, hereof of the apparent paternalism which once plagued the relationship, as touching our convention and the Southern Baptists who work with us.

We hope to pass an action at this time, which will make such a relationship official. Your certification is eagerly awaited by our Southern Baptist co-workers. Dr. Hale will present the action taken and if approved will attest the validity of our will to stand unitedly behind the forces which make for goodwill and progress.

We closed a good year last May. All of our graduates are now placed in varied significant Kingdom Building positions. The introduction of a center for the care of pre-school children of campus parents; the procuring of a full time qualified Librarian; and the acquisition of a new business manager are a few of the highlights of achievement as we begin the school year.

You have helped greatly by accepting "Operation 300," the approved plan for annual giving support, which is moving along apace. We are hard at the business of enlisting one hundred more churches which will join "Operation 300," and complete the number needed to insure our share of support.

A Women's Auxiliary, one hundred strong, has been recently organized to cooperate with the administration in promoting, with time and finances, various essential projects started and anticipated. It consists mostly of Nashville women, but not limited just to them. People throughout the academic community are beginning to pay attention to the Seminary.

At Hot Springs last January, Chairman Phale D. Hale pleaded with us to "unbank the fires." It was encouraging to us to know that there was the realization of the presence of fire in our stoker. Have you discovered the spark, let alone the flame.

Forty-three years ago upon the "Holy Hill" where the finest site overlooking the "Athens of the South" contains your Seminary, it was in the heart of intrepid pioneers to educate preachers and teachers—and demonstrate brotherhood and unity in the process. This is still our task. Join us in it, and be joyful.

For: "Great is the Lord and greatly to be praised, in the city of our God;
In the mountain of His Holiness. Beautiful for situation
Whole earth is Mount Zion. We have heard of thy loving Kindness, O God in the midst of thy Temple. According to thy Name O God, so is thy praise to the ends of the earth
Thy right hand is full of Righteousness.
Let Mount Zion Rejoice; let the daughters of Judah be glad;
Walk about Zion, and go around about her;
Tell of the towers thereof.
Mark ye well her bulwarks; consider all her palaces.
That ye may tell it, to generations following—
That this God is Our God—forever and ever.
He will be our guide—even unto death!

CHARLES E. BODDIE, D. D., President

AMENDED AGREEMENT BETWEEN NATIONAL BAPTIST CONVENTION, U. S. A., INC., AND SOUTHERN BAPTIST CONVENTION ON THE AMERICAN BAPTIST THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

WHEREAS in the life of American Baptist Theological Seminary, it has now become necessary—the continued welfare of the Seminary demanding it,—that there be a more definite and mutually satisfactory basis of cooperation in the operation of the Seminary, the following agreement is entered into between the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc., and the Southern Baptist Convention.

1. There shall be one governing body to hold the property and to conduct the affairs of the Seminary. This body, to be known as the American Baptist Theological Seminary Board of Directors, shall consist of 32 members, equally divided between the two conventions. Twelve of the directors, also equally divided between the two conventions and elected from the Nashville area or within a reasonable traveling distance, shall comprise the local board or executive committee of the Seminary. Terms shall be for three years, with the privilege of re-election for a second term. One year must elapse before being eligible for election. The treasurer of the Southern Baptist Commission on the American Baptist Theological Seminary of the Southern Baptist Convention also shall serve as an ex-officio member of the Board but without vote if not one of the 16.

2. Both conventions, utilizing their own ways and means, will give financial support to the Seminary. In the case of the Southern Baptist Convention, support shall come through the Southern Baptist Commission on the American Baptist Theological Seminary. In the case of National Baptists, leadership for fund raising shall rest with the trustees named by the National Baptist Convention or other ways designated by the National Baptist Convention.

3. The Southern Baptist Commission on the American Baptist Theological Seminary shall consist of the 16 SBC members of the Board of Directors, six of whom shall live in the vicinity of Nashville and shall be members of the local board of the Board of Directors. This Commission shall receive and transmit Southern Baptist Convention funds for the operation of the Seminary. In event buildings are to be constructed with Southern Baptist Convention funds, the Commission shall supervise such construction, working in close cooperation with the Board of Directors. In event the Board of Directors does not carry sufficient insurance or conduct proper maintenance, responsibility for these items may be cared for by the Southern Baptist Commission on the American Baptist Theological Seminary.

4. All new buildings and equipment for the buildings must have the approval of the Board of Directors. Furnishings will be provided by the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc.

5. Ownership of the main campus of the Seminary will be vested in the Board of Directors with a reversionary clause in the deed providing that the buildings and grounds will revert to the Southern Baptist Convention if the school's purpose to provide theological education is changed. Townsend Hall, owned by the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc., will be leased to the Seminary directors with a like reversionary provision. (Like arrangements for leasing the main campus might be worked out by the Southern Baptist Commission, if it seems desirable.)

6. The Board of Directors and the administration of the Seminary shall abide by the Business and Financial Plans of both conventions. Any conflict or overlapping will be resolved through conferences, in consultation with the Executive Committee of the Southern Baptist Convention and the Executive Committee of the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc.

7. The American Baptist Theological Seminary Board of Directors, through the president, shall submit a budget request to the executive boards of both conventions by December 1 for the fiscal year beginning the following August 1 for the operation of the Seminary. This budget request is to be approved by the Board of Directors and/or its local board of the Seminary, and by the executive boards of the two conventions in whatever way they care for such matters.

The budget shall include all operating expenses, teachers and administration salaries; promotion; boarding department and grill, adequate insurance, repairs and maintenance of buildings, and such other operating expenses as may be agreed upon. It is understood that the reserve fund cannot be spent for any items not definitely listed in the budget. It can be used only when income for regular budget items is not received.

8. Income and expenditures through the budget shall be subject to monthly review of the local board. Semiannual reports shall be made to the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors and the president of the Seminary shall abide by the financial plans of both National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc., and Southern Baptist Convention. Conflicts between these plans will be resolved in cooperation with the executive officers of the two conventions.

9. The charter of the Holding Board shall be surrendered. Until such time as this can be accomplished legally, the membership of the Holding Board shall consist of the six SBC local Board members, two other SBC Board Members, and four National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Inc., Seminary Board of Trustee Members.

10. The president of the Seminary shall be any qualified Baptist approved by the Trustees.

11. This agreement, upon approval of the Southern Baptist Convention and the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc., to become effective at the beginning of the fiscal year of the Southern Baptist Commission on the Seminary, January 1, 1966.

Agreement approved by the Southern Baptist Convention in Atlantic City, N. J., on May 9, 1964, and amended by the Southern Baptist Convention in Dallas, Texas, on June 2, 1965.

THE REPORT OF THE RURAL LIFE COMMISSION, REV. FRED B. BLACK

The report of the Rural Life Commission, Reverend Fred B. Black, Chairman, delivered to the National Baptist Convention during its 86th Session in Dallas, Texas, September 9, 1966, 12:30 P. M.

Mr. President, Officers, Members and Friends of this great National Baptist Convention, now in its 86th Session in the beautiful city of Dallas, Texas; we greet you on this momentous occasion and hope for you the greatest session held in your history.

This Commission is still grateful to our great and illustrious Leader for the foresight, wisdom, and the vision he had in appointing this great Commission, for be ye well assured, THIS IS ONE OF THE MOST, IF NOT THE MOST IMPORTANT COMMISSION IN THIS CONVENTION. IN A FEW MINUTES I WILL TELL YOU WHY
THIS IS OUR REPORT—

1. We are leaving the farms too fast.

Look about you everywhere. What do you see? Farms deserted by our group and left lying idle. This is a sad spectacle if there ever was. It is predicted that we are to have a great Population Explosion in the very near future and we are going to have to feed these people.

Next it is predicted that bombs are likely to fall on America ANYTIME. Why do you think they have BOMB SHELTERS in all of the cities, AID RAID SIRENS —we are likely to wake up in the midst of the greatest disaster the world has ever known.

Our people are coming to the cities in droves to dwell in slums and to live on a starvation basis, when they could be living a healthy, well-rounded out life on some beautiful farm. We have taught too long "the false sense of values." It is better to be on a nice beautiful farm with every thing you need than to be in some city slum living like a rat.

Not only are we leaving the farms at a terrific rate, but we are disposing of the farms that our fathers labored so hard for. Any people who don't own a part of the land don't have any part in controlling it.

WHAT CAN WE DO TO CHANGE THIS UGLY SITUATION?

1. We can do what the convention has done. We can take some of our money out of moth balls and invest it in good old, rich farm land. There are plenty of people who would be glad to be settled on some beautiful farm.

2. Churches can invest in farms and help to settle young people on the farm.

3. Encourage young people to go to the farm. There they can raise their children in peace. School buses will pick them up at their door every morning and deliver them.

4. You can raise better children on the farm. You were raised on the farm, and so was I, and your president of this great convention. Living is good on the farm.

5. Let me sight some other advantages of living on the farm.

First, the farm isn't what it use to be. We once thought of the farm as a run down, trowed away place where it would be a good place to get away from. You would be surprised now to go back, even to the farm that you were raised on. Instead of an old run-down shack you would see a fine structure, imposing in its beauty, running water, two telephones, television, radios, bath, and as usual a storehouse with enough food to feed a small army.

6. Then there is not much danger of enemy bombs falling on the farm as it is in the industrial section.

7. Then your children are not deprived of the natural things in life. For if your child has never heard a dove call in the early morning for its mate, he has missed something; if your child has never gazed in a brook, with its myriad of colors as it chants and sing, on its way to no place, he has missed something; if your child has never gazed into the heavens and saw the moon and stars in their true light not obscured by the artificial light of the city, he has missed something. If your child has never seen the frost on the pumpkin vine and in the valley, he has missed something. If your child has never tusseled with a TROUT, tried to out-wit a BLUEGILL, or land a MUD CAT, he has missed something.

8. The Sun gets up early in the morning, on the farm, and playa hide and seek among the pines and spruces, with the fog acting as a referee, as it climbs to take over the rule of the day.

9. If your child has never stood on a country porch and watched the moon as it climbed to stately heights and drove the shadows away that lurked in dark places and you were tempted to call them monsters, but as the moon revealed they were only shadows, they have missed something.

10. If your child has never seen corn tassled, and cotton bloom and top out; if he has never seen the trees lined with moss; or the watermelon on the vine; or heard the hum of a gin as it prepared the raw cotton for the great mills that were to turn it into clothes, cloth and what not, he has missed something.

11. If your child has never been to a country church where there was no music, no choir, no form of fashion, just plain old common folks; where the preacher gave out that meter hymn and everyone caught a hold of it as though their very lives depended on it and the house would rock and roll with spiritual fervor and you could hear them singing a half a mile away and your heart would have a sudden thrill; they have missed something.

12. Longfellow gives us a pleasant view of this Rural Life when he says, it is Indian Summer. The rising sun blazes through the misty air like a conflagration. A yellowish, smoky haze fills the atmosphere, and a flimsy mist lies like silver lining on the sky. The wind is soft and dripping branches, or drop into the stream, their gorgeous tints are gone as if the autumnal rains had washed them out. Orange, yellow and scarlet, all are changed to one melancholy russet hue. The birds, too, have taken wings, and left their roofless dwelling. Not the whistle of a robin, not the twitter of an evesdropping swallow, not the carol of one sweet familiar voice. All gone. Only the dismal cawing of a crow, as he sits and curses that the harvest is over; or the chit chat of an idle squirrel, the noisy denizen of a hollow tree, the mendicant friar of large parish, the absolute monarch of a dozen acorns.

REPORT OF THE DEPARTMENT OF AUDIO-VISUAL AIDS

Auxiliary to the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc.

W. D. Thompson, Jr., Executive Director, 4015 Fair Avenue, Saint Louis, Mo.

President Jackson, Officers, Members of the Board of Directors and Messengers who have gathered here in Dallas, Texas. We are pleased to submit this our annual report on the work done by the Department of Audio-Visual Aids, for the year Nineteen Hundred and Sixty-six.

We are putting forth much effort in getting the news of what Audio-Visual Aids can and will do to help put over the program in the Sunday School, Baptist Training Union, Woman's Missionary Union, Brotherhood, Young People's Department and all other segments of the church. Churches are beginning to realize the value of the service our department is in a position to offer. As a result, they are calling on us from north, east, south and west, to come to their rescue, to give them assistance in some phase of Audio-Visual Aids. Some have secured our services in setting up Audio-Visual Departments in their church, Association, State Sunday School and Baptist Training Union Congress, and State Convention. You will find all Boards and Departments of the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc., using Audio-Visual Aids to help put over their programs.

The work is growing, thank God for it.

MODERATORS' AUXILIARY

Dallas, Texas, September 7, 1966

Wednesday Afternoon—100: P. M.

Meeting was called to order by the President, Dr. J. L. Vaughn. After a fine fellowship devotion of scripture and prayer, the President made his opening remarks. All moderators present brought greetings from their work. Dr. Vaughn asked the Enrollment Chairman, Dr. J. L. Simmons, to set his committee to work and enroll all Moderators with $5.00 each. All Associations with $35.00 each were also to be enrolled. The following moderators enrolled with their associations, and some gave their personal enrollment of $5.00 (See report).

The next order of business was a general discussion on the task and work of each moderator. We all witnessed a very beautiful presentation and were helped greatly by the discussion. After the song, "Go Preach My Gospel," visitors were presented. These visitors brought greetings and encouraged our work. We closed our meeting with a hope that all moderators of the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc., would represent and enroll with $5.00 each, and represent their Association with $35.00. This would be a great help to our President, Dr. J. H. Jackson, in carrying on the great work of the National Baptist Convention. We do have a great leader to lead us on.

THURSDAY MORNING—10:00 A. M.

Devotion was led by Rev. Thomas, Rev. B. A. Babar, and Rev. J. C. Cook. Rev. Thomas sang and Rev. Cook read the Scripture lesson, John 3:1-12 and offered prayer. President Vaughn came forward and announced the opening of the house for business. He called for the report of the enrollment committee. Dr. J. L. Simmons, chairman, reported $1,080.00 collected. This report was approved and adopted. The treasurer made his report and the body adopted it. The committee on recommendations read their report. Dr. J. L. Vaughn, President; Dr. R. R. Freeman, Vice President; Dr. C. H. George, First Vice President; Dr. C. M. Murdock, Second Vice President; Rev. J. S. Lacy, Recording Secretary; Rev. D. L. O'Neal, Corresponding Secretary; Rev. W. J. Long, Assistant Secretary, and Rev. J. L. Simmons, Finance Chairman. This report was adopted. It was moved and seconded that Rev. G. W. Conner be enrolled with the other moderators. Motion adopted. Next in order was the President's Annual Address. Song, "Go Preach My Gospel." Dr. C. H. George was asked to present our President. He came forward with well chosen words and presented Dr. J. L. Vaughn for his address, text Psalms 46:1-8. This was a beautiful message well fixed and well delivered. He urged us to keep the Baptist faith and be faithful. The address gave us a great fellowship together. After the address, the choir sang a song. Many complements and a lovely offering were given. Dr. S. D. Ross was asked to bring greetings from his work. This was also a fine message, and was enjoyed by all. Meeting then closed for dinner.

Thursday Night—7:00 P. M.

Devotion was led by Dr. L. M. Turner and others. Dr. J. S. Lacy (Alabama) was asked to present Dr. W. J. Long for the sermon. Rev. Lacy came forward with credit to Alabama and himself. He presented Dr. W. J. Long (Alabama) to preach and Dr. S. D. Ross (Michigan) as alternate. Dr. Ross read the Scripture and offered prayer. The choir sang. Dr. Long chose for his text 2 King 11:41. This was a great sermon with power and very well delivered. After the sermon, the choir sang. An offering of $18.00 was taken. The minister made his closing remarks and $4.00 was added to the offering, making a total of $22.00.

MINUTES OF THE BOARD OF MANAGERS—FOREIGN MISSION RETREAT

MAY 20, 1966

The emergency call meeting of the Board of Managers of the Foreign Mission Retreat was held on Friday, May 20, 1966 at 11:00 A.M. at the Retreat, 1022 Maryland Avenue, N.E., Washington, D. C., Rev. M. L. Gayton, Chairman, presided. Rev. Aaron Mackley, assisted with the presiding.

Present were: Rev. M. L. Gayton, Rev. Aaron Mackley, Rev. Edward Thomas, Rev. W. H. Waller, Rev. Chas. Lee, Rev. Wilbert C. Cole, Mr. D. G. Thompson, Mrs. Margery Gaillard, Mrs. Mary O. Ross, Mrs. Georgia Gayden, Rev. G. E. Stevenson.

Excused: Mrs. Susie C. Holley, Rev. Gainney, Rev. C. T. Murray, Mrs. Wilhemena Cole.

Substitution: Mrs. Lavina Franklin representing Dr. Murray (President, Vermont Avenue Missionary Society.)

Devotions: Rev. W. H. Waller read for us Scripture: Psalm 158. Prayer was given by Rev. Wilbert C. Cole.

Purpose of this special meeting: The notices for this meeting went out from the office of the Chairmon of the Retreat Board of Managers, Rev. M. L. Gayton. As Rev. Gayton opened the meeting, he stated that something must be done now in the matter of the Retreat and the representatives from the Woman's Convention, the Foreign Mission Board and the National Capital Convention were meeting to hear the report from the staff and determine future steps. Our chairman then presented Dr. W. J. Harvey, Corresponding Secretary Foreign Mission Board for a statement on the purpose of this call meeting.

Statement of Purpose: Dr. Wm. J. Harvey. Dr. Harvey spoke a length about the budget presented at the Sept. 27th meeting of this Board and accepted by the personnel of the Retreat. He further stated he thought enough funds were issued to clear all debts. However, recently he has received bills for insurance, taxes, building violations, etc. Also, that $2,000 had been borrowed by the National Capital Convention to be used on the Retreat and a project is planned to reimburse the board by June 30, 1966. In general it was felt that too much Foreign Mission money was going to the Retreat.

Questions: 1. Where are we? 2. Where do we go?

We must have a budget, have it followed and find some solutions for the multiple Retreat problems. According to members present, the Retreat staff had signed the September 27, 1965 budget as submtted.

Dr. Mackley announced the "International Luncheon" at which a "Humanitarian Award" will be given Mrs. L. B. Johnson. The affair will be held May 28, 1966 at the Washington Hilton. (Special project of the National Capital Convention)

At 2:00 P.M., Chairman Gayton called the Board of Manager's session to order for the final deliberations.

Staff Report: Mrs. Sarah W. Coleman and Mrs. Eunice Baker were presented. Mrs Coleman asked Mrs. Baker, Finance Director to give the report. The board requested the amount of finance received since September 27th and how it was spent. Mrs. Baker read the amount from the Woman's Convention, $3,200 and the Foreign Mission Board, $3,797. She was asked to report the donations received from Churches and/or other sources. At this point Mrs. Coleman interrupted and said "I will never tell you what we receive. We do not get enough money to pay office help to keep those records, we put much of our own money and time here." She also said, "I'm telling you now, you asked us to match what you give us, but I'm old, tired, people don't want to hear me speak any more and we can't raise money like we use to." "We are sick, tired and need more money, so do whatever you wish."

Mrs. Baker: "We need office help and I'm ready to stop but you will have to pay all you owe me."

The staff reported they did not sign the budget.

Complaints: It was observed that no reports of program nor finance had been submitted to the Foreign Mission Board nor the Woman's Convention from the Retreat staff. When asked about this, the staff replied: "You don't give us enough money to compile nor release reports. We need secretaries."

Staff dismissed.

Executive Session: Dr. Chas. S. Lee stated, "since we cannot increase the budget, since we cannot operate within the present budget and since the personnel at the Retreat have stated they are ill, tired and ready to give up; we must make some recommendations today."

Recommendations:

1. We the Board of Managers of the Retreat recommend to the Board of Directors of the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc., that the operation of the Retreat be suspended until a suitable program is worked out for the continued operation and use of the Retreat to the best advantage and/or benefit of the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc.

It was moved by Dr. Lee and the motion passed.

2. We recommend that the personnel be given severance pay.

Dr. Harvey moved that the Foreign Mission Board continue the present salary allotment to Mrs. Sarah Williamson Coleman.

President Ross moved that Rev. Aaron Mackley and a committee from the National Capital Convention confer with Mrs. Eunice Baker on what equitable settlement pay for services for the five years would be. This would be a severance pay conference. The motion was seconded and passed.

Building Violations: Dr. Harvey will seek to secure an extension on the grounds that we are securing bids for cost of reproval of violations.

Inventory of Retreat: The majority of the members were aware of the constant statement of Mrs. Coleman and Mrs. Baker that they had put much of their money into the Retreat (House). Thus, Dr. Harvey moved that the National Capital Committee do the following.

A. Secure an inventory of the facilities at 1022 Maryland Avenue, the Retreat and

B. Be empowered to recommend security measures to the Retreat Board of Managers.

Motion seconded and passed.

The Board of Managers of the Retreat adjourned at 5:00 p.m.

Note: Next meeting will be held in Charlotte, North Carolina before the meeting of the National Baptist Convention, Board of Directors.

Respectfully submitted,

GEORGIA L. GAYDEN, Assistant Recording Secretary

12. Song: "I Need Thee Every Hour."
13. Lectures:

(1) Stewarship, Mrs. L. S. Weatherspool—Title: Maturity is Responsibility. She admonished us to go back and teach our people to teach Stewardship.

(2) Better Music in the Church, Mrs. Harriette T. Dyer. She gave origin of the three fundamentals of music as Rhythm, the beat; Tune or Tone; and Structure. Music: God of Grace and God of Glory.

(3) Home Missions—(Poverty and Affluence). Text: Need is our Neighbor. How am I a neighbor? Who are the Poor? Why are they poor? In 1963 there were 190,000,000 people of whom 34.6 were classified as poor; 4.9 no tie to family, 2½ million, 65 or over; 15 million children were among them, one-fifth million children were the poor; one-half (approx.) poverty-stricken and three-seventh built-in disadvantage. More than 4 million received aid. 10 million—a man was the head of the family. In 1961, the Federal Government asked for support for dependent. Only 18 states took advantage of it which meant that two-fifth received help; three-fifth what happened? 2½ million women, 2½ million adults, 52 65 or more; 30% living in poverty, two-fifth elderly have incomes poorer than poverty. . . . .

(4) Offertory—"I Gave My Life to Thee."

15. Remarks, Dr. M. K. Curry, President of Bishop College. He invited us to a reception at Bishop College, Saturday from 2 to 4 P. M.

THIRD SESSION

Friday, September 9, 1966—8:00 A. M.

16. The Mission Study and Christian Leadership Training Class was opened by its Director, Mrs. Blanche Carter.

17. Under the direction of Miss Daisy Young, "Jesus Is All the World to Me" was sung.

18. Sentence prayers were uttered with a musical background.

19. Lectures:

(1) Worship materials and methods for missions—Mrs. J. M. C. Amos Chism, Dallas, Texas. Topic: How to put your society on wheels. (1) Get it organized. There is power in organization. Do committee work, such as courtesy, etc. (2) Drive in your own lane. (3) Worship Committee. They took notice of them who have been with Jesus. It's not the load, but how we carry it.

(2) Stewardship—Mrs. L. S. Weatherspool, Topic: (1) Resolving our loyalty; (2) Property, Work, and Leisure. Resolving our loyalties: Know what comes first. Inclination to be self-centered; tempted to let our means become the main thing; our desire to keep up with the Joneses. Giving: Christianity is a giving religion. What is giving? 1. Give self. 2. Giving on a stewardship basis. PRINCIPLES OF GIVING: 1. Worshipful; 2. God taken into consideration in giving; 3. Systematic; 4. Proportionate—give according to the way God has prospered you. I Peter 4:10, 11.

20. Music: Solo—"I'd Rather Have Jesus"—Mrs. Ethel Houston, Pasadena, California.

FOURTH SESSION

Saturday, September 10, 1966—8:20 A. M.

27. The Director Called the meeting to order.

28. Devotion consisted of a song: "Where He Leads Me I Will Follow," directed by Miss Daisy Young and sentence prayers with Close to Thee played as a background.

29. Lecture by Mrs. J. C. Amos Chism, Devotion
Lecture by Mrs. L. S. Weatherspool, Stewardship
Lecture by Mrs. Harriette T. Dyer, Church Music
Lecture by Miss Jean Luckey, Home Mission

The task: Go home and use the inspiration. One person can make a difference. You can be that person.

30. Music: "He Leadeth Me."

31. Mrs. Carter expressed appreciation for all instructors with a standing ovation.

32. The Bible, Rev. Sampson: Rev. 1, 2. John wrote to the seven churches to encourage them. Paul bragged about his suffering to God and we complain many times when we have to suffer. The purpose was to show Christianity will triumph; Savior of the world. Ephesus: Williams' translation: I have somewhat against you. You have left your first love. You don't love me any more. . . .

33. Solo: "Stand By Me," Mrs. Jackson, Mt. Lebanon Baptist Church, Louisville, Kentucky.

On January 19, 1966, the President of the Woman's Convention assigned the responsibilities of the office of the Corresponding Secretary to the Assistant Recording Secretary after the Memorial Services for our late Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Esther Walker Tyree, of the Shiloh Baptist Church, Columbus, Ohio.

The Assistant Recording Secretary joined President Ross, the officers of this convention and Baptist Women of America in fond memories of Mrs. Tyree.

As Chairman of the Literature Department, I depended greatly upon her cooperation and smiling moral support. Her encouragement will always be cherished in my most abiding memories.

Today, after seven full months of carrying out her duties, the Interim Corresponding Secretary has come to submit an evaluation of these services. Subjective, though it may sound, this has been seven months full of challenges, opportunities, awakening and surprises. Perfection is impossible, however, it has always been my feeling that one should not accept any job that one does not really feel the urge to strive for top job performance; a good relationship with the Administrator and a constant search for avenues of building good morals within the Administrative family. To this end, I have constantly prayed for Divine Guidance.

There are many women in church and church related organizations, but there are still very few church women.

Paul reminded the Christians at Rome in Romans 12—to renew their Christian Behavior. As the newest member of the Official Cabinet of this Convention, one senses the need for our 20th Century Church women to heed Paul's admonition. One also heeds the admonition of the great Anthropologist, Dr. Margaret Mead. Dr Mead reminds us of what she calls Christian Women's greatest sins namely: Being ignorant where knowledge is available, failing to seek knowledge even though we have the means, failing to believe that the truth will make us free, failing to use with wisdom and dedication what we know and failing to demand to know all that can be known.

President Ross and I have enjoyed twenty-one years of fruitful friendship. She is deeply dedicated, divinely motivated, has dynamic courage and a serene depth of faith. However, she will work one to death.

The office of the Interim Corresponding Secretary has handled nearly 4,000 letters, many cards, telegrams and telephone communications. On March 18th and 19th, we joined our Recording Secretary, Treasurer, National Director of Young People and many members of the Youth Camp Board in Detroit at the beautiful office of our National President. The Recording Secretary, Treasurer and National Director of Young People will back me up in saying, we worked on program, policy, projects and procedure until we were both tired and starved.

SPECIAL THANKS

A special voice of thanks I must express to the Minister and members of Cornerstone Baptist Church, Brooklyn, New York. Especially to Mrs. Walls the church secretary; to the Minister's Wives, Women's Auxiliary, and friends of the Empire Baptist Convention and to the clerical staff of Essex County Youth House, Newark, N. J. The staff at Youth House usually say, "Oh don't tell me, here comes that Baptist MEMOS again and no pay. All we get are depreciated flowers or rotten bananas."

Madam President, Official family, fellow messengers here assembled in Dallas, I humbly and with deepest sincerity greet you this afternoon. It has been an enriching opportunity for larger service

Dedicated to our Youth

Crabbed age and youth cannot live together;
Youth is full of pleasure, age is full of care;
Youth like summer morn, age like winter weather;
Youth like summer brave, age like winter bare
Youth is full of sport, age's breath is short;
Youth is nimble, age is lame;
Youth is hot, and bold, age is weak and cold;
Youth is wild, age is tame.
AGE, I do abhor thee; YOUTH, I do adore thee.

ANNUAL ADDRESS OF MARY OLIVIA ROSS, PRESIDENT THE WOMAN'S CONVENTION AUXILIARY TO THE NATIONAL BAPTIST CONVENTION, U.S.A., INC. DALLAS, TEXAS, 1966 DALLAS

Here's a community of more than a million people. It's economy is highly diversified. It has drawn its population from all sections of America, and from many foreign lands. It is a community of cosmopolitan tastes, whose own satisfaction requires a wide range in entertainment, in sports, in food, in culture.

A manufacturing, financial and distribution center with a metropolitan population, Dallas is also a center for scientifically oriented industry in the electronics and aerospace fields and ranks high in cotton, oil and consumer goods production and distribution The city also houses one of the Nation's principal banking and insurance complexes.

Among the city's educational institutions are Southern Methodist University, University of Dallas, Bishop College, Dallas Theological Seminary and Graduate School of Theology, Baylor University's Colleges of Dentistry and Nursing and Southwestern Medical School of the University of Texas.

On November 22, 1963, John Fitzgerald Kennedy, Thirty-fifth President of the United States was assassinated in Dallas by Lee Harvey Oswald. A bronze bust of the late President, the first permanent memorial dedicated in Dallas since his death, stands in front of a center for the mentally retarded.

Madam Vice President, Platform Associates, Officers, Delegates, Fellow Baptist and Friends:

After twenty-two years, we are privileged to return to Dallas, Texas for the Sixty-fifth Annual Session of our Woman's Convention.

It was in Houston, Texas that through God and you, I was elevated to the office of First-Vice President of this Convention. Since I am now president, Texas you need not concern yourself further.

How good and how pleasant it is for us to dwell together this week in Dallas This City seems to have everything this Convention needs for holding one of it profitable sessions.

We are inexpressibly grateful to President Johnnie Amos Chism of the Woman's Department of the Texas Baptist State Convention. President M. E. Colvin of the Woman's Department of the Texas Baptist Missionary and Educational Convention, and the good women of Dallas and of course to Dr. Caesar Clark for the painstaking preparations made for our comfort, our convenience and perhaps a crowning session here in Dallas I have known since last May that Dallas would be ready and waiting for our arrival. So now, Dallas, we are here!

IN MEMORIAM

Since our Jacksonville Session, the Lord has called home our Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Esther Walker Tyree, and some of the loved ones of our officers and workers.

'I'd like to think when life is done
That I had filled a needed post
That here and there I'd paid my fare
With more than idle talk and boast;
That I had taken gifts divine,
The breadth of life and womanhood fine.
And tried to use them now and then
In service for my fellowmen."

Yes, they had finished the last rehearsal, but the play was just beginning.
The years of training were over, but the eternal work was about to start.
They had just been born to life.
The real life.
Life that's going to last.
Life eternal.

They who have fallen asleep since our last Annual Session are:

Mr. L. S. Gaillard, husband of Mrs. Margery B. Gaillard, Treasurer of our Woman's Convention;

Mr. William Ross, son of Rev. and Mrs. Solomin D. Ross of Detroit, Michigan; Niece of Mrs. Susie C. Holley, Vice President of our Woman's Convention;

Mrs. Josie A. Brown, State President of the North Mississippi West State Woman's Convention and a member of our Hospital Supplies Committee;

Mr. Everett Grimes, husband of Mrs. Willa M. Grimes, President of the Wolverine Women's State Convention of Michigan and Chairman of our District Conventions Committee;

Reverend J. H. Bruce, husband of Mrs. Faye E. Bruce, Chairman of our Scholarship Committee;

Mrs. Abbie White, President of the Metropolitan District Association, Member of the United Church Women of Michigan and Chairman of the National Crusade Committee of our Woman's Convention;

Mrs. Sandy F. Ray, wife of Dr. Sandy F. Ray of Brooklyn, New York.

Their memory shall live on the hearts of those they leave behind; and their works do follow them. May their souls rest in peace.

Thanks be to God for those officers and workers in this Convention who have been so helpfully involved in the ongoing program. I am deeply grateful to all who have served and I am especially grateful to those of you who have served above and beyond the call of duty.

MY LEADERSHIP STEWARDSHIP

This marks the Sixty-fifth Session of our Woman's Convention, and my fifth year as President. So there have been only three presidents in sixty-five years.

Assembled here to celebrate our Sixty-fifth Anniversary, it is only natural that some of our thinking would be retrospective as well as prospective.

As we retrospect, I am reminded of the story told of a Princeton University professor, who for thirty years had taught oaring. Upon retiring, he was asked what he had gotten out of teaching ten men to pull a boat, for thirty year—going forward and looking back—to which the professor replied: "I had rather be affiliated with ten men who are going forward and looking back, than to be affiliated with ten thousand men who are looking forward and going backward." Thus momentarily we shall look back over sixty-five years of Baptist Women's work, as these women have "MOVED FEARLESSLY FORWARD FACING THE FUTURE."

Yes, it was in nineteen hundred sixty-one (1961) we lost, by death, our intrepid, dynamic and beloved leader, Dr. Nannie H. Burroughs. Our Woman's Convention found itself at the Red Sea. The sea was one of wonderment, of fear, of doubt and of debts. Our Foreign Mission Retreat owed a balance of twenty-five thousand five hundred dollars ($25,500); and our National Youth Camp and Senior Retreat owed a balance of forty-five thousand ($45,000); both of which had to be paid in a very short time. We faced no established office and equipment for Convention operation; no literature department of our own; and questions on the part of some, as to the Convention's equity in the property of the National Trade and Professional School and certain Convention Publications.

The newly chosen leader, carrying out the unexpired term of Dr. Burroughs, admonished the women of the Convention in these words, "Go over this Jordan and inherit the land which I will give thee." This crossing, said she, must be done through stronger Christian Faith, Christian Education, Denominational Integrity and Better Human Relations; but, despite the sociological, economic and spiritual problems of the Nation and of the World at that time, we moved forward fearlessly and forcefully.

Today we have paid the twenty-five thousand, five hundred dollars ($25,500) balance on the Foreign Missionary Retreat and have spent forty-four thousand, five hundred dollars ($44,500) on the National Youth Camp and Senior Retreat at Constantine, Michigan, and have spent thirty-three thousand dollars ($33,000) on repairs and up-keep. Deeds to both properties have been presented to the Parent Body. Today we have established a new Missionary Study Quarterly—"THE MISSION"—which, has a distribution of one hundred and twenty-eight thousand (128,000) copies annually. The Mission came into being three years ago without any capital, but today it is very near the point of making some clear money for our Convention. This publication belongs to our Woman's Convention. Today the Woman's Convention has a headquarters in Detroit where you will find an established Convention Office. I believe, to your liking. There you will find one (1) full time secretary; and one (1) part-time secretary, who works on The Mission accounts Today we enjoy fellowship with the Women's Missionary Union of the Southern Baptist Convention; the Women of the American Baptist Convention; the North American Baptist Women's Union; the Women of the Baptist World Alliance; the National Council of Negro Women; and the United Church Women of the National Council of Churches of Christ in the United States of America. The president of this convention is Vice President of the United Church Women of the National Council of Churches.

Today our hearts rejoice also because we have made glad the heart of our Missionary, Mrs. Mattie Mae Davie, in Monrovia Liberia, West Africa, by having sent her a Jeep Wagoneer for her transportation and work in the Bush Country of Monrovia Liberia, West Africa. Today we further rejoice that in national governmental affairs, the president of the Woman's Convention has had invitations to White House Conferences from the late President John F. Kennedy in July, 1963; and President Lyndon B Johnson in June, 1966; and has served on National Women's Committee on Civil Rights and is presently serving on the National Citizens' Committee on Human Relations as WICS in (Women in Community Service), Incorporated.

From the foregoing statements concerning our Convention, you may be the judge as to the extent of our Convention's progress in the immediate past five (5) years. (For a more detailed account, you may read in the recently published convention highlights) "Gems of Rarest Rays Serene" (Highlights of the Convention during her Sixty-five Years) Whatever your decision is, there remains much more to be done than has been done already.

OUR YOUNG PEOPLE

How often we criticize our young people for what we call 'going astray'! Yes, it's true that the crime rate is high among young people, and that juvenile delinquency is prevalent in most of the cities in the United States. However, there must be causes for these effects, which we say so much about. Are we not guilty of saying too much about effects and doing too little about causes?

In his Thesis for a Masters degree, Mr James C. Meredith said, "youth should be considered a product of the society from which he is generated. Therefore, the writer strongly feels that when youth is unemployed or when youth is tried and convicted of crimes, he is not solely responsible for the crime. Society should share the blame. There is a question in the writer's mind, then, as to whether youth is paying for the crimes committed by society and whether some other element of society should also be tried, convicted and sentenced for the crimes for which youth is convicted."

Is it not important to know the problems of our youth? They are certainly deeply rooted—some embedded forces of four hundred years ago. Do we stop to consider how many of these youths, especially among Negroes, have never known love? They live in ghettoes and often on welfare. No, they do not appear to be afraid of police; for many youths are hungry, unwanted, and no place to live, which is worthy to be called home. They know there is something better than their plight. Often they go in search of that something, but they most often cannot find it. There is hope for many of these youngsters. Somebody must become concerned about them and become committed to the task of saving them.

An interesting article concerning young people appeared in an important magazine, under the caption—"The Truth About Today's College Student's"—"[illegible] at Berkeley. . . student sit-ins" at Wisconsin . . . drug-taking at Harvard; such incidents stir widespread alarm about the "new breed" of youngsters emerging on United States campuses." But that is only one part of the story.

A close look at the Nation's campuses turns up another picture of college students today A picture that is far different, and more encouraging than that suggested by day-to-day headlines

In one school after another, the "typical" student is described as hard working, usually under intense pressure to get grades that will enable him or her to get a good job, enter a good graduate school, or simply, to escape the draft.

Relatively few, it is found, have time to join in fun-making or demonstrating. Despite their skepticism, many are pictured as being deeply idealistic.

OUR FINEST GENERATION

Campus sources tell of fairly widespread experimentation in drugs, but describe "hard core" cases as being rather few. Similarly, while sex is being talked about more freely, than ever before, sexual promiscuity is not seen as favored by most students. Most educators appeared to share the view recently stated by President Johnson: "Our young men and women in the Peace Corps, Vietnam and Community Action Poverty Programs, have established themselves as the finest generation in history of this Nation."

I believe most of us will agree that we, today, have become a Youth Oriented Society. Young people are largely responsible for adults taking a new look at many of today's national and international vital issues. This gives adults an opportunity to enter into dialogue on the war in Vietnam and many other concerns in our national life and international interests. Whether the future looks rosey for young people has a prophetic mission.

The Church must be concerned that youth shall move with confidence into a whole new world, a world of skills, understanding and refinement. The Church must be concerned about how our government is spending seven hundred fifty million dollars ($750,000,000) on the training of youth. The Church must encourage it's youth to ask the questions: Who am I? What is it I want to be? Where am I going? What must I do to obtain my goals? Then the Church must help them.

Does it interest our missionary societies, our districts and our states conventions that the prediction is that by 1970, one out of every three persons will be under thirty-five (35) years of age? Is this not a challenge to the Church?

The Woman's Convention is, as usual, grateful to the leadership of our Young People's Department for the dedicated leadership it is evincing. This is with reference to, Mrs Zee A. Barron, Director, and her three assistant directors, Mrs. Bertha Winston, Mrs. Corrine Watts and Miss Primrose Funches.

The president of this Convention recommends that the young people's leadership will take a new and critical look at it's program in the light of the purpose of the department, as well as in the light of the necessary preparation for a higher level of social, moral and spiritual living.

DAYS AHEAD

Where shall we go from here? We live today at the very beginning of a new age, which some of us are struggling to understand the meaning of. It is a certainty that a world-wide civilization is emerging. We do not know what all of this will mean for the future political, economic, social and religious patterns of mankind; but we do know that Christians are called to continue to witness amidst every change and despite every change. Christians must continue to lift Him up by living as a Christian ought. Let the world in you the Saviour see—then men will gladly follow Him who once taught: "I'll draw all men unto me."

Our Convention's Historian, Mrs. E. A. Wilson, in a report on the organization of our Woman's Convention stated, and I quote: "In our Convention's beginning, sixty-five (65) years ago, eighteen states were represented by thirty-eight (38) women Only a few of the women who have contributed so materially to the support of this work were present and their combined efforts netted fifteen dollars ($15.00). The motto selected for that meeting was "WOMAN, ARISE! HE CALLETH FOR THEE" As I think of women today in the mission and ministry of the Church, it is in the spirit of this motto of sixty-five years ago, and so appropriate today, that I challenge you, as we move forward to new and unchartered seas.

As Christian lay-women, we are a part of God's whole people. By our profession of faith, we are inextricably involved in His Mission of reconciliation and love in His World. We are called to be on His Mission both with Him and for Him.

The revitalized family life in our Nation today, the regulated freedom in our Nation and World, and the exercise of renewed faith in oneself, faith in people, faith in the need for the work which engages us, faith in great movements, and faith in the living God, are all a part of the Unfinished business of the church and of community.

REVITALIZED FAMILY LIFE

What about the family? Have not the economic changes we chronicle, put unaccustomed spaces between the members of the family, raised uncharted shallows in their relationships? Who can say now what the family is coming to be, except that many families certainly aren't much like the families we like to remember we were, and try to fool ourselves that we are, and wish we could be ahead What kind of a family will be able to construct when identities and functions of husband and wife and of father and mother refuse to stay settled in familiar patterns, when relationships among family, school, factory and church shift constantly, when studies suggest that even related adults have less influence than before on children's developing personalities while the children's contemporaries have more Will homes reduced in their educative, cultural and economic functions, become only dormitories? What set of ideals for the family can possibly fit the variety of developments?

You no doubt read last June the article in United States News and World Report on—"How Women's Role In The United States Is Changing." It said in part, and I quote: "America's housewives after years of staying home, suddenly are going to work in droves. Girls find a career no longer unimportant. Result: A big shift in the economy and in homes too.

No longer are women looking ahead, as they did in the years after World War II, simply to a homemaking career. Women's daughters, it seems, are postponing marriage or combining it with a job. Today as a result, America's birth rate is declining and women's share of jobs in the United States continues to increase."

Did the article say anything specifically about Negro women and Negro families? Yes, it called attention to the fact that, of the total Negro population of twenty million, nine hundred and forty-four thousand (20,944,000) in 1965, slightly more than half (fifty-two percent (52%) were females. About two-thirds (⅔) of both females and males were under thirty-five (35) years of age. More than one of three Negro Women, eighteen years of age and over, was widowed, divorced, or separated from her husband in 1964.

There were four million, four hundred and forty thousand (4,440,000) Negro families in March, 1964. The average Negro family had four and three-tenths (4.3) members. Nearly one-fourth (¼) of the Negro families were headed by a woman. Then it said: "families most apt to be living in poverty are those headed by a woman or those with a large number of children."

As Dr. O. C. Maxwell reminded us in his message to our Sunday School and Training Union Congress, assembled at Charlotte, North Carolina, "For the low income Negro family the mother's function is that dictated more by necessity than through choice. More married Negroes than white women are in the labor force, even though they have pre-school age children, and like their husbands, occupy the lowest paying jobs; and often are not enrolled in the social security insurance program. In many communities, Day Care Centers for pre-school children are not available. In many other communities the doors are closed to Negro children. This, of course, affects greatly, the stability of the Negro family.

The Negro woman must give more attention to her boy's lack of training. There are today too many men without manhood; too many men without maturity; too many men without morals; and too many men without simple manners. Negroes are graduating twice as many girls as boys. There is a demand for better trained men. Yes, the Negro family must produce men of the calibre Sam Walter Foss Spoke about:

"Bring me men to match my mountains,
Bring me men to match my plains,
Men with empires in their purpose,
And new eras in their brains."

The Negro family must add to our society more strong men, brave men, and respectable men. This begins at home. The image of the Negro man must be raised. This begins at home. Family life must be strengthened; for out of the family must come women and men who must shape and guide the destiny of our Nation and of the World.

Happy families, much the earlier, bring into being a community that is heavenly.

This situation moves me to say that there must be more sterling cooperation between husbands and wives. When this is done, society will soon attain unto the standard the apostle set in his letter to the young Churches at Rome, Corinth, Ephesus, Colossae, and other centers of the emerging Christian fellowship. This family conduct was characterized by righteousness, purity, justice, holiness and other qualities reflecting the nature of God and His son Jesus Christ. "Love your wives even as Christ also loved the Church; and gave himself for it."—Ephesians 3:25—"Husbands love your wives, and be not bitter against them." "Children, obey your parents in all things; for this is well pleasing unto the Lord." "Fathers provoke not your children to anger, lest they be discouraged."—Colossians 3:19-21.

Edith Dean tells us that Jesus' Life was an acted parable of family love and loyalty. For thirty years, He lived with His family in Nazareth. The world family never occurs in His teaching, but His emphasis on the family is everywhere evident; in His love of God the Father; in His reverence for motherhood; in His tenderness toward little children; in His many references to sonship and brotherhood; and in His love of home.

REGULATED FREEDOM

Of late, much is being said about Freedom, and the saying is by many different people. It is perfectly in order to ask: Have all these people the same definition for Freedom? What improvement in their social, economic and even their political status do they aim to accomplish by this freedom? How far do they intend to carry this freedom in promoting the brotherhood of man and the fatherhood of God? Do they plan to employ this freedom in obtaining a large measure of education, moral status and religious terpitude than they have present? Were we to strive together for this freedom, and together implement it; no longer would there be need to complain about having been denied our rights.

As the president of the U. S. addressed Howard University, June 4, 1965, he made this significant statement: "It is the glorious opportunity of this generation to end the one huge wrong of the American Nation and, in so doing, to find America for ourselves, with the same immense thrill of discovery which gripped those who first began to realize that here, at last, was a home of freedom."

Another most encouraging statement from President Johnson is, and I quote: "Every American has the right to be treated as a person. He should be able to find a job, educate his children, vote in the elections and be judged on his merits as a person. This is the fixed determination of our party and our Nation. So long as I am your President, I intend to carry out what the Constitution demands—and justice requires—equal justice under the law."

The president of this Woman's Convention is certainly grateful for the great, grand and glorious privilege of participating in the White House Conference, June 1, 2, 1966, which engaged in discussions, "To Fulfill These Rights."

Your Woman's Convention president made her conference group understand that she was there representing millions of Church women denominationally and interdenominationally as well. She urged, however, that after study, some two thousand, four hundred (2,400) of us at the conference, would return to our communities highly resolved to be involved in the necessary measures, in the implementation of these rights.

Have you written to your Congressman or your Senator urging him to vote for the passage of the Civil Rights Bill of 1966 and the four additional resolutions?

A total of twenty-three Courageous Freedom Fighters have paid with their lives at the hands of cowardly assassins since the drive for full citizenship began gathering momentum in 1956.

You recall I am sure, that at the same time astronaut Gene German could walk in space some thirty-three thousand (33,000) miles with complete safety; Freedom Fighter, James Meredith was unable to stroll six miles in his native land without becoming the target of a cowardly assassin.

Roy Wilkins, in a newspaper article on June 18, said: "rights are in sight. We are almost inside the twenty yard line in the Civil Rights Fight." He, however, warned against complacency. We must keep up the fight. We shall be eternally grateful to Rosa Parks, Arthurine Lucy, and Vivian Malone and other Freedom Fighters.

Women, however, acerding to recent statistics, are losing some grounds in the matter of voting. Women currently out number men in the United States population by some three million, seven hundred and fifty thousand (3,750,000), but in terms of registration and election day turnout their failure to use their vote converts them into a minority.

In some nations of the world, women are becoming prime ministers and acquiring a big vote in legislative bodies.

The United States House of Representatives, however, has only ten women members at present, compared with seventeen a decade ago. Six times as many women proportionately, sit in Sweden's Parliament as in the United States Congress.

It was in America that women once made their biggest strides toward "equal rights" with men. It is common knowledge that the right to vote came nationally in 1920 with passage of the Nineteenth Amendment placing the United States well ahead of most nations in this field.

Women, use all of your influence to get qualified voters to vote. If they are not qualified then help them to qualify. "Woman, Arise: He Calleth for Thee."

RENEWED FAITH

We often misunderstand faith. Not many of us go as far as the small boy's definition. "Faith is believing what you know isn't so." Many think of faith as something that is somehow against knowledge. For some it is, "a leap in the dark."

The root of faith is inner conviction. Faith goes with freedom of spirit, not servitude.

In the broadest sense faith is trust in a world that is not seen and willingness to act upon this. In this sense it belongs to all man's life and everywhere it's necessary foundation.

So faith is the vision of the unseen, the trust in it, the surrender to it. Through faith the unseen world, the world of order and truth of beauty and love, of mercy and rightousness, breaks through everywhere in life.

Women must arise and move fearlessly forward with a renewed faith in the days ahead—a faith that will not shrink though pressed by every foe; that will not tremble on the brink of any earthly woe—faith in one's self; faith in the work which engages you; faith in one another; faith in any movements for good and certainly a renewed faith in Almighty God.

The faith we need for our present and future tasks will enable us to look together at the field about us; and listen together with a new ear attuned to new problems, as we enter further into new eras of thinking and action. Looking together and listening together should lead us into laboring together. Faith helps us to Look together, Listen together and Labor together.

TOGETHER LET US LABOR

As Longfellow said in his Psalm of Life, "we must Learn to Labor and to Wait. I should like to see us women work together, that this Woman's Convention, like the Christians on the Day of Pentecost, would enjoy the experience of being all of one accord and in one place.

Wealthy Hornsinger Fisher once said, woman has long known her individual power, but does not yet know her corporate power.

Another writer puts it this way:

One woman can be influential,
One hundred women can be helpful,
One thousand women can be powerful,
One million women can be invincible.

What do you think three million women working together can be?

Let us labor together, that our denominational schools shall be respectfully supported; that our National Youth Camp and Senior Retreat at Constantine, Michigan will match any first-class Camp and retreat: that our Bath House at Hot Springs, Arkansas would rate second to none in this country; that our Missionary Retreat at Washington, D. C., will serve the highest possible good for our denomination as well as our Nation's Capitol.

Let us work so close together that the Freedom Farm at Memphis, Tennessee will not only yield farm produce and add to our denominational economic stability, but that the farm will help to lift the people of the community to higher levels of social, moral and spiritual, as well as to economic productivity. Let us labor together that all of our churches will support fully the use of materials published and distributed by our publishing house.

Let us labor together that our National Home Mission Program would so arouse us and really so stab us awake that our churches and communities would most hastily inform and transform and reform their communicants. May we labor together that our over-seas missions would be so strengthened that our African sisters and brothers would rise up and call us blessed.

Let us labor together to the end, of sending field secretaries among our Women's Constituency of the National Baptist Convention.

Shall we not loabor together so that we could all honestly and truthfully say, as Abraham said to Lot, "let there be no strife between us, for we be brethren;" and as Ruth said to Naomi, "whither thou goest I will go, where thou lodgeth I will lodge. Your people shall be my people . . . and Thy God, shall be my God." Let us labor together that we shall be willing to take a critical look at ourselves and really see whether or not we are instruments of Oneness or Togetherness in our own local Churches, in our District Associations, in our State Conventions, in our National Baptist Convention, in our own denomination, and in the struggles for National Unity as well as for One World. Have not our labors together been too long on the lips and too late in the living?

Harris Franklin Ralls in his book, "The Christian Faith and Way," says: "The Christian Way" is one of cooperation. Individual toil is not enough, we must plan and work together for a common good. This rule applies to Church and community and nation. Today it is clear to all how absolutely necessary this is among the nations of the earth." We must learn to work together. Woman, Arise: He Calleth For Thee.

Very often in our Churches we sing, "We've Come Thus Far By Faith, Leaning On The Lord." Do we mean it, or are we just singing? Do we live by our faith or is it something we simply talk about?

Sojourner Truth, a woman of great faith once said, "If one man can turn the world upside down all by himself, all the women working together can turn it rightside up again." Now that they want to do it, the men had better let "em." On another occasion when her friend Fredrick Douglass became discouraged, tears flowed from his eyes and it seemed that all hope fled, she said, Fredrick, is God Dead? Another way of asking that question is, don't you believe that God lives?

Isn't it comforting to us in times like these to know that God is not dead but that he LIVES? Can we not together lift our hearts and voices saying, "I know in whom I believe and am persuaded that He is able to keep me against that day?

"The Christian faith rests on an event: God has entered the history of mankind and changed its course. Jesus Christ has died on a cross and is risen from the dead so that in Him we may have life. The first step of the new born Church was proclamation, and this proclamation must go on until all men have heard what was done for them, once for all, nineteen centuries ago.

To be vocal does not mean only to preach a sermon. It means that if we live our faith, occasions will occur for a word of witness to be spoken, occasions when we shall have to explain why we take a certain stand on matters of common concern. Our faith implies a total view of life, in the home, on the job, in public affairs: if we live our faith, people will be aware that our standards are different from theirs. WOMAN, ARISE: HE CALLETH FOR THEE.

In the lines of a hymn of sixty-five or more years ago, I close this Fifth Annual Message:

O CHURCH OF GOD, DIVIDED

O Church of God divided, and rent by endless strife!
Thy warring sects obscuring the way, the truth, the life;
A stricken world, disparing, is calling unto thee;
O Church of Christ's evangel, what shall thine answer be?

Disperse thy warring factions, And bid them conflict cease;
Lift high the fallen standard of Christ the Prince of Peace;
One Lord, one faith, one spirit, one God of all proclaim;
Go forth O Church united, to conquer in His name! AMEN.

FAMILY PLANNING—YOUR CHRISTIAN RESPONSIBILITY

As a Christian woman and a leader in your community, it is your responsibility to your family, your church, your people and your country to learn about, advocate and practice family planning. The National Baptist Convention believes that family planning is the most effective way for married couples to achieve responsible parenthood and a happy, stable family life. Family planning is especially important in this age, when we face the mounting problem of overcrowded homes, communities, cities and nations, and when it is impossible for children to receive the attention and care they deserve unless they are wanted and planned by couples who are able to care for them.

The National Baptist Convention believes, furthermore, that family planning is one of the essential requirements without which the Negro people cannot realize their full potential nor gain the status in society for which they long, and to which they are entitled. We believe that many of the severest problems facing Negroes today stem directly from overly large families, and that these problems cannot be solved until all Negroes have the opportunity to learn about and practice family planning through acceptable methods of birth control.

To help you better understand family planning, the National Baptist Convention has prepared these questions that will serve as a guide:

What is family planning? Family planning is the way a couple may plan exactly the number of children they want, and space them as far apart as they want, by using a reliable, safe and acceptable method of birth control.

Is birth control safe? Yes! The medically-approved methods of birth control available through your doctor or your nearest Planned Parenthood Center, are completely safe. They will not cause any disease or discomfort. However, some unapproved birth control devices can be harmful—so it's important to obtain birth control only through a doctor or Planned Parenthood Center.

Is birth control an abortion? No! Birth control is a means of prevention conception—before the male sperm and the female egg have united. It is not an operation or an abortion.

Is birth control expensive? No! Most methods cost only a few dollars a year. Needy families can obtain birth control at less cost, or free if they cannot pay, from their Planned Parenthood Center.

Is birth control legal and moral? Yes! There are no laws against birth control. Ministers of all faiths have upheld the morality of birth control, saying that it is just as ethical to control human reproduction as any of nature's other forces.

Does birth control help marriage? Yes! Birth control is essential to a truly happy marriage because it removes the fear and burden of unwanted pregnancies. It permits couples their God-given right of expressing mutual love when they wish, while still being able to plan and space their children as they wish.

Is birth control effective? Yes! Used properly, the approved methods of birth control are almost 100 per cent effective in preventing conception.

What are the approved methods? There are several. The most popular methods today are the pills (tablets taken by mouth which safely prevent your body from making eggs) and the IUD (a small plastic coil which is placed in your womb by a doctor and will prevent conception as long as it remains in place; it can be left safely in the womb for years, or even indefinitely). Other effective methods are the "foam" which you use immediately before the marriage act, and the diaphragm with jelly or cream, which requires fitting by a doctor.

Are there any methods that don't work? Yes. Two so-called "birth control methods" are widely used but almost totally ineffective. These are the suppository (which doesn't work because it melts too slowly) and douching (helpful for cleanliness, not birth control.)

What is Planned Parenthood? Planned Parenthood is a national health organization that provides education about family planning and offers birth control information and services to needy families who cannot afford to get this assistance from private doctors. There are 150 Planned Parenthood Centers in the U. S. in all major cities.

Where may I obtain more information about family planning? You may obtain books, films, pamphlets and other information about family planning and birth control by writing Planned Parenthood-World Population, 515 Madison Avenue, New York, N. Y., 10022.

FORTY-FIRST ANNUAL REPORT—WESTERN DIRECTOR OF YOUNG PEOPLE'S DEPARTMENT OF WOMEN'S CONVENTION

Auxiliary to the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Incorporated

DR. PRIMROSE FUNCHES, Western Director

Made in Dallas, Texas—1966

WORTH

It is not what the world gives me
In honor, praise or gold;
It is what I do give the world,
So other do unfold.
If by my work through life I can
Another soul unfold,

Then I have done what cannot be Made good, by praise, or gold.
One tiny thought in tiny word
May give a great one birth,
And, if that thought was caused by me,
I lived a life of worth.

GREETINGS

Madam President, Officers and Members of the Woman's Convention Auxiliary to the National Baptist Convention, Incorporated, Directors Barron, Winston, Watts, Officers of the Young Peoples' Department, Delegates, Friends:

I am deeply appreciative to God for another year of service, and to have the privilege of humbly submitting this my thirty-first Annual Report of the Young Peoples' Department.

THANK YOU

A special vote of "Thanks" to Mrs. Pauline Campbell and her Committee, each participant and especially to all the Young People for the testimonial that was given me last year in Jacksonville, Florida for my 30th year Anniversary. Also to Mrs. Rosie Kemp for the beautiful pageant that was written and directed by her.

IN MEMORIUM

The Almighty God in His wise providence has once again invaded our ranks and taken from us some of our workers; among those our beloved Corresponding Secretary of our Woman's Convention, Mrs. Esther Walker Tyree. We bow our heads in humble submission to the will of God.

If death should beckon me
With outstretched hand
And whisper softly of "An unknown land"
I shall not be afraid to go,
For though the path I do not know
I take Death's Hand without a fear,
For He who safely brought me here,
Will also take me
Safely back,

And though in many things I lack
He will not let me go alone
Into the "Valley that's Unknown"
So I reach out and take death's Hand
And journey to the "Promised Land!"

TO YOUNG PEOPLE

I would like to chat with you as a friend about Young People.

You know you are surrounded by people but you are really alone.

During the days you have recognized and enumerated the problems of a changing world and the Youth of today. I have come to tell you I have found a resting place - a ground of strength, and I come to commend that resource to any Young person who may be seeking something worth while.

I have not come to lament human mistakes and conflicts now. Only the dead are unaware of human conflicts. I have found water in a thirsty land. So, like Paul, who was presented to the Church, and one of the most learned men of his day, had to be spoken to in person by the Overlord and Master. "Why persecutest thou me" Then he asked the question: "What wilt thou have me to do?"

"I am forgetting the things of the past and I press forth to the mark of the high calling in Christ Jesus."

And now we begin our Task. There is a burning need for something cold and refreshing which cannot be replaced with worldly thinking. Perhaps you are trying to find this something with worldly pleasure. As you continue your task, you are desperately performing and gathering the strength of life without purpose—without a goal—days without direction—each individual in the audience, and all the love and conflict and struggle, ailments and defeats of the world today.

We must press forward in Christ if we must, press forward continuing our task, developing Young People. This is not a one day job nor a one person responsibility. It is the Church's responsibility, not the world's. As you face the problems of your church and community, face them with honesty but without despair. You must wait only on His word as to your position and it must be taken without thinking of the popularity or unpopularity of the position taken, preoccupied with the glory of our love in the new day.

One World Breakfast in America, lunch in France, and Dinner in Jerusalem.

Would you be happier as Young People considering the cruise of this world, or in the joy of knowing, whom I have believed.

As you continue your task, Christ must be real to you or you will not go far in the Church of the world. Indeed, you will have a very short life and die young. Dope and Alcohol are causing these things to happen in our world today. If you draw the blind so God cannot see, you can soon die.

The world changes from fad to fad and from fashion to fashion.

You are being shaped—your thoughts, your actions, your destiny. While you watch and cannot help, you are with everybody and yet empty.

Another man felt empty. Mark says he was a rich man, Matthew added, he was a young man. Luke tells us he was a ruler of the Jews. He came to Jesus once and asked the question: "Good teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?" All of us want life full, life abundant, eternal life. Remember Paul lost the strength even though he knew what was right.

Paul's intellect—free will, yet he was not free

The spring of service and of Divine Grace is enclosed in man. True life can only come in Christ, and alive only in us as we are in Christ and Christ in us.

UNCERTAINTIES OF LIFE

Riches—friends—enthusiasm—poverty—enemies—depression. Learn how to be content

You must need surrender to something. You can come to Christ—the door is open. The opportunity is established by Almighty God. Only you can decide how to continue your task!

As long as there is enslaved one man who should be free, as long as slums and ghettos exist, as long as any person, goes to bed hungry at night, as long as the color of a man's skin is his prison, there must be a divine discontent.

This sounds like a paradox, but it is not. We as Christians have two responsibilities. One to proclaim the Gospel of Jesus as the only answer to man's deepest needs. Two, to apply as best we can the principles of Christianity to the social conditions around us.

Not only does the Christian follow Christ and learn of Him, but he also must act. The world judges the Christian by his life, not by his belief. His acts are an indication of his faith.

LITERATURE

All of our books were not sold, because they were past dated. Our new books are now ready and here at the convention for your convenience. Directors! Now that you have asked for this literature please purchase it, they are prepared especially for you, to be used in your work.

THE WORLD YOUTH CONFERENCE

The youth committee of the Baptist World Alliance is still weighing a decision as to the meeting place for the 7th Baptist Youth World Conference. Cities in Switzerland and Austria are being considered. The date for the Conference is July 22-28, 1968. The theme of the conference program will be "One World, One Lord, One Witness."

It is my sincere desire to see some Young People from this Convention attend this Conference. This is very possible if we begin working now to this effect.

CORRESPONDENCE

Community Development Office, Post Office Box 20,
Issele Uku, Nigeria, West Africa
20th July, 1968

Miss Primrose Funches, 4030 South Parkway, Chicago, Ill., U.S.A.

Dear Miss Funches:

I hope I am not taking you by surprise in this correspondence. You have not heard from me for quite some long time since now. I am still alive and am doing fine. I have been very much occupied with arduous duties. Things are not too bad with me and my family. You will pardon me for not writing all the time. How are things with you? Hope fine. My prayers are for your uplift and welfare.

I am writing to you for a special purpose. I trust you will be good enough to help me in this great matter. I have a young girl here who is already in the commercial school but can not continue for lack of funds to do so. My hands are full with the assistance I am giving to other pupils at school. I am asking you to help me find a means to help this helpless girl finish her course at school. I will appreciate what you can do to help Maria Njoagwu get on.

I have not forgotten the happy days we had the privilege to spend together on Missionary journeys to Arkansas and other places. You were of good help to me during my days at the American Baptist Theological Seminary in Nashville, Tennessee. Thanks for it all. My family joins me in sending you our best regards of the season. May the Lord ever guide and keep you.

Be always with pleasure at your service.

Sincerely yours,

(Rev.) Robert N. Ugbolue

RECOMMENDATION

I humbly and prayerfully recommend that we adopt this girl as one of our main objectives of our Young People's Department to financially assist her in completing her education.

CONCLUSION

As I begin to grow in my Christian experience, I have tried to keep uttermost in my mind a Scripture verse which has been a guide post along my life's pilgrimage.

Proverbs 3:6—"In all thy ways acknowledge Him, and He shall direct thy paths."

As I look back over my life, I marvel at the way God has led me step by step for 31 years—as a worker and National Director in the Great Convention.

Now I can say with the song writer, B. B. McKinney—

My heart, my life, my all I bring to Christ
Who loves me so. He is my Master, Lord and King
Wherever He leads, I go.

Madam President, Officers, Messengers to the 65th Anniversary Session, Ministers and Friends—Greetings:

"In all thy ways acknowledge Him and He will direct thy paths."

It is with thanksgiving and gratitude that we come to give an account of our stewardship. To every one of us is given a trust, a life to live, some work to do, an opportunity to serve and a chance to witness for our God.

We come with courage, spirits high, and souls uplifted; because God has led us safely through another year. We have passed through dangers seen and unseen, disappointment and sorrow, but by God's great hand and His great mercies, He has led us here for which we are grateful.

We thank you for the privilege to serve. We have tried to fill all duties that the office required with dignity and honor.

Respectfully submitted,

(Mrs.) Margery Brawley Gaillard, Treasurer

FIFTH ANNUAL REPORT OF MRS. ZEE ANDERSON BARRON, NATIONAL DIRECTOR OF THE YOUNG PEOPLE'S DEPARTMENT OF THE WOMAN'S CONVENTION AUXILIARY TO THE NATIONAL BAPTIST CONVENTION, U. S. A., INCORPORATED

Submitted at Dallas Memorial Auditorium, 717 South Akard Street, Dallas Texas

September 6-11, 1966

REPORT

President Ross, Officers and Members of the Woman's Convention Auxiliary to the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Incorporated, Regional, State and local Youth Directors, Officers, Delegates and Friends of the National Young People's Department—Greetings.

The Forty-First Annual Session of the National Young People's Department finds us in the Second largest state in the union—the Paradoxical State of Texas and in the now world famous city of Dallas.

I say the State is Paradoxical for these reasons. Its motto is Friendship, its Flower the beautiful Blue bonnet and its Bird—the sweet singing, harmless mocking Bird. And yet, contrary to the qualities of friendship, beauty and harmlessness that we find in the Motto, the flower and the bird, we had a Texas man so cruel, so criminal, so unfriendly that he assassinated the President of the United States here in Dallas. In that one act he placed a question mark behind the motto-Friendship and a Stigma on the name of Dallas that can never be removed.

The state is Paradoxical because in the fair capital city of Austin, on the campus of a great institution of learning dedicated to the uplift of mankind, we had another Texas man so heartless that he stood in the tower of that great hall of learning and destroyed the lives of 14 innocent, helpless individuals.

Despite these paradoxes, we are happy to be in Dallas and in the Lone Star State of Texas that has produced great statesmen, great religious leaders—our own Director Emeritus, Frye to mention one; great educational leaders and one of the greatest Presidents of all times. We are glad to be here, because there is still friendship here. You are our friends—our Sisters and Brothers in Christ, and we are laborers together with God in this great cause of bringing about the brotherhood of man and the fatherhood of God.

We know that fellowship is friendship which gives and takes. There can be no real fellowship without mutual sharing of the pleasures and responsibilities of keeping friendship alive. One might as well try to draw money from a bank without first making a deposit as to expect the Joys of fellowship without making an investment in friendship. As Christian friends we join with you in Christian Fellowship this week in Dallas.

IN MEMORIAM

While St. Francis of Assissi was hoeing his garden, he was asked what he would do if he were suddenly to learn that he was to die at sunset that day. He said, "I would finish hoeing my garden." As we begin this Annual Session we pause in silent tribute in memory of all of our Co-laborers who have finished hoeing their gardens."

LITERATURE AND PINS

I am happy to report increased interest in and use of our literature. I still hope and pray that all of you will require the use of our official magazine THE LIGHT in your societies. Purchase a copy of the GUIDE and give it to a Christian friend who can organize a Junior Circle in her church.

I shall be eternally grateful to my friends who have served as writers for THE LIGHT. We could not have kept our promise to give you a devotional magazine had it not been for the loyal, support (without compensation) of the following persons: Dr. Emmett Stringer, Mrs. Beatrice Bates, Mrs. Romeo D. Woods, Rev. Edward V. Hill, Mrs. Sarah Coleman, Mrs. Florine Green, Mrs. Ora V. Smith and Mrs. Bertha C. Winston. We sincerely hope others of you will join our writing staff. It will be a labor of love—so worth while.

The Emblem pins are becoming more popular. One local Mississippi Director ordered 30 for her Youth Day and several others have made smaller orders. Our young people feel obligated to wear Sorority and Fraternity Pins, if they are "Greeks." Why can't we show them the necessity of wearing the emblem that would identify them as members of a great society of Christian Young People.

SCHOLARSHIPS

We have asked our Scholarship Chairman, Mrs. Toney, to bring some suggested guidelines in order that we may activate the Leatha L. Craig Scholarship Fund this year. We have also requested that the money earmarked for Scholarships be used for that purpose. I am sure you will lend your cooperation in this endeavor.

WORKSHOPS, CONFERENCES AND INSTITUTES

According to the Programs I have received, there have been a few more Training Institutes held. This is very gratifying because I repeat we cannot grow, if we do not know. We must study to show ourselves approved unto God, workmen that need not be ashamed.

The Second National Leadership Conference was held at our camp in Constantine, Michigan, July 3-9, 1966, under the direction of Pres. Mary O. Ross, Mrs. Rosa L. Kimp and your National Director.

I am happy to report that among the attendants were 7 Leaders of Young People. They were Mesdames Thelma Phillips, Valdeenia Simons, Sudie Tatum, Julia Childs, Leola Hardaway, Hattie Drinks and Louise Roberts The Sessions provided information, inspiration, fellowship and the "in-depth training" needed by dedicated leaders of Young People. We hope more of our leaders will attend the National Conference next year.

MEETINGS AND SPEAKING ENGAGEMENTS

I want to express my appreciation again to the Officers and Youth Leaders who attended the Planning Session during the Mid-Winter Board Meeting in Hot Springs. Your presence was evidence of your dedication and unselfish interest in the cause. Mrs. Loucille Proctor, General Chairman of the Local Host Committee of Dallas was present to receive our requests and make plans for the royal entertainment which we are enjoying at this time.

INCREASED ENROLLMENT

We see the fruits of our efforts to have more Young People present and involved in our meetings. Thank you for bringing the Sunbeams, Red Circle, Y. W. A., J. M. A. and even the boys and young men. Although we have not officially declared the young men as members, we do welcome them; for we are all "laborers together with and for God" and the boys complete the "togetherness." Keep on working for a large enrollment. Perhaps one day the Parent Body will decide to hold our Session in August, so it will be convenient for our School and College folk to attend.

Among the many Speaking engagements filled was a most enjoyable one in Milwaukee, Wisconsin. Mrs. Sudie Tatum, Gen. Chairman of Missions at the Greater Galilee Baptist Church, Dr. E. B. Phillips, Pastor and her mission women had me as their Woman's Day Speaker on September 26, 1965. Some of our most loyal workers are members of Greater Galilee and other churches in Milwaukee. I am glad to greet them and find they are as dynamic at home as they are in the National. It was a "great day" for Youth. I was thrilled to see all of the circles parading and performing. I am deeply grateful to Dr. and Mrs. Phillips for sharing the gracious hospitality of their home and to all of my Milwaukee friends for courtesies extended. In the words of Mrs. Phillips—You are all "Top Shelf."

NATIONAL BAPTIST YOUTH CAMP

In March Dr. Mary O. Ross held a meeting of the Executive Committee of the Woman's Auxiliary and the Camp Board in Detroit. At this meeting we decided not to conduct the regular Youth Camping Period this past summer, but keep the Camp open for Conferences, Day Camps and Weekend Retreats. This was done in order to have time for necessary repairs and bring the Camp up to Michigan Camping Standards. With your help we hope to have the Youth Camping period in 1967. You will hear more about this.

Camp Director Drinks will make a detailed report in this meeting. Suffice it to say here, that Director Drinks with the assistance of volunteer Camp mother Clara Guster were on hand throughout the summer to accommodate the many groups that came to use our facilities. We are so grateful to "Aunt Clara" who gives of her time, skill and service without compensation to help "Cousin Drinks" whenever she calls. These two carry the burden of work in your stead.

We also express our deep appreciation to all of the local, district and State directors, the Pastors and Churches that patronized us this summer.

FOUNDERS DAY

We closed the National Leadership Conference with a Founders Day Celebration, July 9, 1966, spearheaded by Reverend Mrs. Trudie Trimm, National Camp Committee Chairman. Several bus loads of interested persons came—saw—and were convinced that "God's Gift"—The National Baptist Youth Camp and Senior Retreat must be kept open and supported. Rev. Mrs. Trimm, Pres. Ross and all of us were gratified by the responses made on "Camp Founders Day."

NATIONAL BAPTIST STUDENT UNION

Again in April it was my good pleasure to share in the 21st Annual National Baptist Student Union Retreat held in Nashville, Tenn. We offered greeting and congratulations to the Founder Mr. S. E. Grinstead and the "B.S.U'ers" on your behalf and pledged $25.00 for the Department to help the cause.

It is significant to note that the B.S.U. Retreat's Scriptural text was: "We are laborers together with God." So you see all of our Baptist units are in one accord and "Together We Stand."

PLANNING MEETING IN DALLAS

In June I had an experience which in the language of Pepsi made me "come alive." The Local Host Youth Entertainment Committee, with Mrs. Loucille Proctor as General Chairman invited me to Dallas to help plan for this meeting. Yes, they do things in "a big way in Texas." They gave me the "Red Carpet treatment"—Welcoming Committee at the Airport—Yellow Roses—Orchids—Cadillac transportation—Hotel accommodation, Reception, Dinners—"the works." On Sunday afternoon I spoke for them at the Great Good Street Baptist Church, Dr. Caesar Clark, Pastor. National Vice President Blanche Carter, the powerful Texas President Johnnie Amos, Mrs. E. C. Estell, Mrs. Florine Green and others too numerous to mention were there to help make my Joy complete. I just loved every moment and love everybody who contributed to my happiness during this planning occasion.

I went from Dallas to Charlotte, North Carolina to attend the National S. S. and B. T. U. Congress where I conferred with many of our National workers. The high light of the Congress was the "Youth Rally." The Dramatic Pageant—"Rebellion" written by our friend the dynamic Pauline Campbell was a most moving and challenging dramatization of the great "Youth Rebellion" now in progress throughout the world. Our own Music Coordinator Grace Burt Tayor made the "rafters ring" and "our hearts sing" as she directed the massive Youth Choir.

1966 CONVENTION THEME

Our Convention Theme expresses the sentiment of our great National Baptist Family and the hope of the ecumenical movement throughout Christendom. "Together We Stand—Young Laborers with and for God." Our Scriptural texts are Psalm 133:1—"Behold, how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity" and I Corinthians 3:9—"For we are laborers together with God: Ye are God's husbandry, Ye are God's building." Yes, we have come to fellowship as Laborers together with God. We are his husbandry—in other words—we are managing God's business. We are his farmers cultivating his land. Furthermore, we are his building—not made by hand—our Maker and Builder is God, and we are built in His own image. Hence, we belong to God as His fellow workers. We are joint promoters—Laborers together with and for God.

Marcus Aurelius, emperor of Rome, who was born A.D. 121, said, Quote: "We are made for cooperation like feet; like hands, like eyelids, like the rows of the upper and lower teeth. To act against one another then is contrary to nature, and it is acting against one another to be vexed and turn away," unquote.

Yet the frailities of man—suspicion, jealousies, hatred, intolerance and greed blot out the vision of the fulfillment of God's promises to mankind through our living together harmoniously, peaceably, and cooperatively. We all know and quote the phrases: "In unity there is strength"; "A city or house divided against itself can not stand." "United we stand, divided we fall." Yet often we ourselves are guilty of blocking progress by permitting a selfish wish or an imagined peeve to keep us from co-operating to our fullest degree.

The poet Emerson wrote and I quote: "No one can cheat you out of ultimate success but yourself." Unquote. My friends, an uncooperative individual is constantly cheating himself as well as the group of which he is a part. You can only give your best when you are working harmoniously with others; therefore, you can only achieve greatest success through cooperation. Do you know it is not the way he kicks but the way he pulls, that makes a mule useful and the mule can't kick and pull at the same time; neither can a church or mission society member. And then, too, my friends, the fellow who is pulling the oars usually hasn't time to rock the boat

When I reflect over the scripture: "Oh how good and how pleasant it is to dwell together in unity," I think of one of Aesop's Fables. Aesop tells us of a certain man who was unfortunate enough to head a very quarrelsome and uncooperative household. After countless unsuccessful attempts to reconcile the members of his family by words, he determined to teach them the important lessons of harmonious living and cooperating one with another through an object lesson. "So he called his sons, bade them lay a bundle of sticks before him. Then having tied them up into a fagot,, he told the lads, one after another to take it and break it. They all tried, but tried in vain. Then, untying the fagot, he gave them the sticks to break one by one. This they did with great ease. Then said the father: "Thus, my sons, as long as you remain united, you are a match for all your enemies; but differ and separate, and you are undone."

My Christian friends, our great National President, Dr. Jackson—like the wise father in the fable—is setting an example of unity in this session. For the first time in history the Young People will meet with the Parent Body on Friday evening and all Auxiliaries will present a united front at this time. Yes, "Together We Stand"—Laborers with God, and all of the devils in hell can't do us any harm.

Christians in these days of frustrations, turmoil, strife, wars and rumors of wars; in the midst of sin, corruption, injustice, prejudice and inhumanity of man to man, we must continue to teach and preach by precept and example that God is not dead. Yes, some of the College Professors and students are saying "God is dead." One of the popular Beatles startled the Christian world recently when he said—Christianity is declining and that the Beatles are more popular than Jesus now.

These are not new declarations, they are not new fears. You remember the utter depression of the two Emmaus—bound disciples who plodded along the road after the crucifixion of their Lord. They thought their Lord was dead. You know the story. As they walked and talked the scripture says—"while they communed together and reasoned, Jesus himself drew near and went with them." They didn't even know he was with them. Their eyes were not opened until they sat down to break bread together.

Yes, every Christian knows that God lives. We know it because He lives in our hearts. He walks with us, and talks with us and tells us we are His own and the Joy we as Christians share—no shaggy haired Beatle or college heretic will ever know.

I share the opinion of the group of young singers representing the 50 States and many foreign countries who appeared recently in a T.V. Program—"Up With People" that "we have the power to win now and build a new tomorrow together."

APPRECIATION

This marks the Fifth Anniversary of my service as National Director of Young People. These have been anxious, but pleasant years. I want to thank all who have helped me carry on the great tradition of Christian Youth Growth and Development started by my predecessors. We have been able to extend the work in some ways not heretofore attempted. We have some tangible evidence of this such as; our magazines—THE LIGHT and THE GUIDE, THE EMBLEM PIN, the ACCREDITATION of the Study Course and active Leadership of our National Youth Camp. In addition to these I have represented you in National and World Youth Conferences and Alliances, and I have tried to provide some needed spiritual and intellectual guidance for our great Youth Department.

I offer my sincere appreciation to President Ross and her staff, to all of the State Presidents, to Regional Directors Winston—Funches and Watts, to State, District and local Directors, Junior Officers, Committee Chairmen Directors and Teachers, Writers and everyone who has cooperated in the planning and execution of five years of dedicated service to Christian youth.

"Together" we face the future. After 41 years—What?

I pray God will bless and keep you, shower His richest blessings upon you one and all and give you peace.

Respectfully submitted,

Zee Anderson Barron, National Director
