DR. J. H. JACKSON, President
National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Inc.

REVISED CONSTITUTION OF THE NATIONAL BAPTIST CONVENTION, U.S.A., INC.

PREAMBLE

Whereas, it was the sense of the Negro Baptist of the United States as represented in several Baptist organizations convened in Atlanta, Ga., September 28, 1895, and known as the Baptist Foreign Mission Convention hitherto engaged in Missionary work on the West Coast of Africa; the National Baptist Convention which had been doing missionary work in the United States; the National Baptist Missionary work on the West Coast of Africa; the National Baptist Convention that these organizations should unite into one organization for the purpose of putting into effect the benevolent intentions of their constituents by eliciting, combining and directing the energies of denomination: therefore said organizations did unite and agree upon certain fundamental principles of organic rules, which as amended from time to time, are as follows:

ARTICLE I—NAME

This organization shall be known and styled as the National Baptist Convention of the United States of America.

ARTICLE II—OBJECT

This Convention by uniting Baptist churches and other Baptist organizations, such as may desire an organization of this kind, shall undertake to promote home and foreign missions: to encourage and support Christian education: to publish and distribute Sunday school and other religious literature; and to engage in whatever other Christian endeavor is required to advance the Redeemer's kingdom throughout the world.

ARTICLE III—MEMBERSHIP

Section 1. The membership of this Convention shall be representative, annual and life.

Section 2. Representative membership shall be composed of messengers from churches, associations, district conventions and state conventions all known to be in harmony with the purpose of this Convention. These organizations shall pay into the treasury of this Convention sums as are set out in sections of this Article.

Section 3. Basis of Representations. (a) Churches with 200 to 500 members, $25.00; 500 to 1,000 members, $35.00. (b) Churches above 1,000 members, $50.00 paid in as representation, not to exceed two messengers. (c) District State Convention, $50.00. (d) Associations, $35.00.

Section 4. Life Membership—Any person who is in good and regular standing in any Missionary Baptist church that is a member of this Convention may become a life member by the payment of the sum of $200.00 into the treasury of this Convention.

Section 5. Annual Membership—Any person who is a member of a church that is in good and regular standing with this Convention may become an ANNUAL member of this Convention by payment of the sum of $10.00 into the treasury of this Convention. Said ANNUAL member may engage in the discussion of the Convention but not vote.

Section 6. Associations and State conventions shall elect their messengers to the National Convention in their annual meeting preceding the Convention and certify said messenger to the secretary.

Article 3 would be so amended that section 7 would read as follows:

"Since the convention is primarily a fellowship, and since the fellowship owns the corporation, membership in the fellowship does not give to any individual member or group of members equity or special property rights in the assets of the corporations. The annual representation fees are designed primarily to carry the expenses of the convention and to help in its work in general and cannot be construed as capital investment in the corporation.

Section 8. The question of the rights and privileges of membership are settled only by the convention itself or its Board of Directors in the convention's absence.

Section 9. No member or group of members of the convention shall have the rights to use the civil courts to settle matters regarding membership rights and convention procedures. In these matters the convention itself is the supreme court from which there is no appeal. The majority vote of the fellowship is therefore binding on the individual, the convention and corporation itself.

ARTICLE IV

Voting in this convention shall be by the delegates assembled without reference to member organizations, states or sections of the country, and shall be by voice, or show of hands, or standing.

ARTICLE V

OFFICERS AND THEIR ELIGIBILITY

"Section 1. The officers of this Convention shall be a president, a vice-president-at-large, four (4) vice-presidents, and a vice-president from each of the states and territories from which messengers to this Convention may come, a secretary, four (4) assistant secretaries, a treasurer, a statistician, a historiographer, an editor, and an attorney, all of whom shall be selected at each annual meeting of this Convention and shall hold office until their successors shall have been elected."

Each of these Boards shall consist of one member from each state or territory from which messengers to this Convention may come, and eight additional members from the state or territory in which the Board is located, provided that the twenty-four (24) members of the Controlling Board and the four (4) members of the Holding Board of the American Baptist Theological Seminary, and who are appointed by this Convention according to the plan of cooperation between the Southern Baptist Convention and this Convention and by which plan said Theological Seminary is operated, shall by virtue of their office, be, and the same are hereby made members of the Educational Board of this Convention and provided further that a Board of Managers may be constituted under this section for the purpose of conducting the affairs of the national organ of this Convention, and that the status of said Board of Managers shall be the same as that of other Boards of this Convention. It shall be the duty of the statistician to gather statistical data for the denomination as represented by the Convention by procuring such statistics from churches, district associations, and state conventions participating in this Convention and from denominational schools within the domains of this Convention as will contribute to this end, and report the same to this Convention, annually.

Dear Brethren: April 5, 1886, an open letter to the Baptist clergy and laymen was issued by Rev. Wm. J. Simmons, in American Baptist, asking if we should have a National Convention to discuss questions of interest to our beloved denominations. At that time the following reasons were given:

1. To promote personal piety, sociability, and a better knowledge of each other

2. To be able to have an understanding as to the great ends to be reached by the denomination.

3. To encourage our literary men and women, and promote the interest of Baptist literature.

4. To discuss questions pertaining especially to the religious, educational, industrial, and social interests of our people.

5. To give an opportunity for the best thinkers and writers to be heard.

6. That, united, we may be more powerful for good and strengthen our pride in the denomination.

Having been solicited to write the Call by many whose names and endorsements are here unto affixed, the Call is hereby made by their advice and solicitations for said convention to meet in St. Louis, Mo., August 25, 1886, 10 o'clock a.m., in the First Baptist Church, and the pastor thereof is hereby requested to serve as a Committee of Arrangements, with power to select his associates.

Wm. H. Steward, Louisville, Ky., and Rev. R. H. Cole, 2609 Goode Avenue, St. Louis, are hereby requested to serve as a Committee on Transportation.

WM. J. SIMMONS

The chronological report in our National Baptist Minutes is hereby corrected, viz: The parties as they appear below were officers of the Foreign Missions or National Educational Conventions, as were their predecessors. Said conventions merged into the National Baptist Convention in 1886 or met co-jointly with it, or otherwise.

THE ANNUAL REPORT OF SECRETARY T. J. JEMISON OF THE NATIONAL BAPTIST CONVENTION, U. S. A., INCORPORATED 1967

Mr. President, to our distinguished Vice Presidents, other members of the official family, delegates to this our 87th Annual Session being held in Denver, Colorado, the Mile High City and one of the cleanest cities in the United States, visitors and friends of the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Incoporated. I am happy and honored again to report to you some of the workings of our great convention, and to say again, I have endeavored to be a good cooperating secretary.

It is not necessary for me to tell you that this office requires a great deal of work. To say that the work never ends would be telling you the truth. The many requests that come from all over this country and many from abroad demand a great deal of my time and energy. Many of these requests are individual and organizations seeking more knowledge concerning our activities. As your servant, I want you to know I have endeavored to answer all of the requests.

Because of my office in this great convention, I have been invited by a number of you to serve your congregations in some capacity. These engagements have been fruitful and have meant much to me. Some of them are; The Mount Zion Baptist Church, the Reverend W. J. Calvin, Pastor, Milwaukee, Wisconsin; Central Baptist Church, the Reverend Isaac Green, Pastor, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania; Bethel Baptist Church, the Reverend Charles H. Hampton, Pastor, San Diego, California; the Baptist Ministers Conference of Los Angeles and Vicinity, the Reverend P. J. Ellis, President; Dexter Avenue Baptist Church, the Reverend W. R. Haney, Pastor, Detroit, Michigan; Good Street Baptist Church, the Reverend C. A. W. Clark, Pastor, Dallas, Texas; and Canann Missionary Baptist Church, the Reverend C. B. Knox Jr. Pastor, Little Rock, Arkansas and Bishop College, Dr. M. K. Curry, Jr., President, Dallas, Texas.

It will please you to know that our convention is financial in all of the National and World Bodies in which we are affiliated. I have reference to the National Council of Churches, The Baptist World Alliance and the World Council of Churches. It is also significant to note that we as National Baptist Churches have given more to the American Bible Society this year than ever before.

Under the dynamic leadership of our Chieftain the Educational Foundation and the Retirement Fund continue to grow. The Educational Fund is now in excess of $110,000.00. While this growth is not what our President had hoped for, it is indeed a gigantic step in the right direction. We hope that in the immediate future the brethren of this convention will catch the vision and share more in this fund as well as the Retirement Fund.

Our Freedom Farm in Tennessee continues to serve a very useful purpose. It is a symbol of "freedom" and stands out as an example of what we can do when we have the inward desire. The farm through the efforts of President Jackson has yielded more than eight thousand dollars ($8,000.00) in profit for the convention.

The National Baptist Convention continues to grow each year, and we are moving along in brotherly love with deep respect for the God-given leadership that we have. The peace and harmony that prevail in our various gatherings give rise to an atmosphere in which progress can abound. The progress can be noted in the increase of delegates and the amount we are now raising from actual registration.

In closing let me say, my office continues a very fine relation with our President. We endeavor to answer all requests of our Chieftain and to be a good secretary in general.

This office was given for operation and honorarium the usual amount of $5,400.00.

Respectfully submitted,

T. J. Jemison, Secretary

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE SUNDAY SCHOOL PUBLISHING BOARD

National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Inc.
330 Charlotte Avenue, Nashville, Tennessee
D. C. Washington, Executive Director

President Jackson, Officers, Members of the Board of Directors, and Messengers assembled here in the city of Denver, Colorado, I am very pleased to submit the Annual Report of the Sunday School Publishing Board for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1967.

> "For Zion's sake I will not keep silent and for Jerusalem's sake I will not rest, until her vindication goes forth as brightness, and her salvation as a burning torch."

Isaiah's emphatic expression of determination embodies the commitment of your Sunday School Publishing Board to its chartered purpose of spreading the message of Jesus and his salvation through the publishing and dissemination of religious literature.

CURRICULUM AND PROGRAM SERVICES

Our sales statistics for the year just closed indicate that we have neither kept silent nor rested, for we have served some twenty-five thousand Churches either with curriculum materials or program services. Although this is an impressive figure, we realize that many of our Churches still buy only a part of their materials from us, while some purchase almost none. We are dedicated to the production of doctrinally sound, attractively presented and easily read materials which provide religious nurture for persons of all ages. We believe that our publications compare favorably with those of other publishers and urge you to visit our Booth here at the Convention, so that you can examine some of our offerings with which you may not yet be familiar.

We are not satisfied to rest on our laurels, for under the capable leadership of Dr. Maynard P. Turner, our Director of Publications, our materials are constantly re-evaluated and up-graded. For example, the revision of Vacation Bible School material has been in process for about 18 months. A tentative target date for publication is set for January of 1968. More than two-thirds of the manuscripts are already in the office of the Director of Publications. Eventual release of this new material will be a major advance in the offerings of our Publishing House for Christian Education.

The TOWNSEND PRESS COMMENTARY for 1968 is released in an entirely new format. It is designed for greater eye-appeal, more ease in reading, as well as to assist in greater depth of understanding. Additional teaching aids are planned for the 1969 edition.

Color has increased the attractiveness of all our Sunday School publications. Knowledge of these improvements has not yet saturated our constituency, but the response from those who have made the discovery is gratifying.

The cooperation of writers and the response of readers bid for a great future for the all new OUR DAILY BREAD. It must be examined to be fully appreciated.

The Townsend Press of the Sunday School Publishing Board is constantly adding outstanding literary works to its list of publications. We are justly proud to announce that our latest production is from the pen of our illustrious President, Dr. J. H. Jackson. The book is entitled, "Unholy Shadows and Freedom's Holy Light."

In it the author speaks out for a patriotic fraternity of all Americans under one flag and by the power and ideals and principles of the supreme law of the land. This book is a broad and objective study of the struggle for civil rights and related subjects, and should be read by every thinking citizen. Copies are available at the Sunday School Publishing Board Booth, here in Convention Hall.

Death has again broken the ranks of our Editorial staff, this time removing Mr. Charles E. Harvey, son of the late Dr. George W. Harvey, former Editor-in-Chief. Mr. Charles Harvey rendered invaluable service both as an editor and an administrative assistant, as well as serving on the staff of the National Baptist Leadership Convocation held annually at the Seminary in Nashville.

Another phase of our commitment to the vindication of Zion is the spread of Christian education among our denomination. Program services offered by the Sunday School Publishing Board include the formulation and accreditation of Leadership Education for our entire denomination. If our Churches are to make continued progress, we must have a trained membership. This goal can only be achieved through the simultaneous training of our complete constituency. The Department of Christian Education has persons available to assist you in planning programs of Leadership Education or to conduct Area Demonstration Projects, which might be held under the auspices of State or Regional Congresses or Conventions.

We were fortunate to have enjoyed the services of the late Rev. L. Willis A. Snodgrass as Director of Christian Education during the past year. We regret to announce his passing on July 14, 1967.

During the year, the Department of Christian Education issued above 42,000 Course Cards, or an increase above 2,000 over last year. Lesser increases were also reflected in the number of Leadership Education Schools held, and the number of Instructors certified. However, we still note a decrease in the number of persons receiving the second and third Certificates of Progress, as compared with those who receive the first Certificate. This is significant, because it indicates that we do not continue our courses of study so as to qualify for the higher Certificates of Progress.

The statistical report of the Christian Education Department for the past year is as follows:

Leadership Education Schools	417
Deans Certified	42
Instructors Certified	1,129
Course Cards Issued	42,100

CERTIFICATES OF PROGRESS

First Certificates	206
Second Certificates	89
Third Certificates	81
Certificates of Achievement	7

FINANCIAL MANAGEMENT

Each phase of the work of the Sunday School Publishing Board is interdependent upon the other, and we must have smoothly functioning financial management in order to provide the means with which to spread the message of Zion.

The Corporate Board, under the able leadership of Chairman W. T. Crutcher, adopted a budget of a little over a million dollars, for the fiscal year just closed. We have operated substantially within the framework of this Budget, making adjustments where required by increased material costs, federal wage legislation and other factors beyond our control, without comparable increase in income. Thus far, we have delayed increasing the prices of our materials by practising the severest internal economies; however there is a limit even to cost control, and we fear price increases are inevitable.

We look forward also to expanding our production in the near future, as an additional source of revenue. This will call for increased factory space as well as warehousing facilities. However, the Urban Re-Development Program for downtown Nashville will require us to move our production department from our downtown location, leaving only offices in our present buildings; when we build our new factory, we will then have available sufficient room for our mechanical operation. This will permit more effective scheduling of our work, with subsequent reduction of overtime and greater variety of sales' items.

PUBLIC RELATIONS

We have been far from silent in the area of public relations, for our ultimate aim is ever widening outreach and total Christian involvement of increasing numbers of persons. Our General Board Members serve as good will messengers, as do other interested persons who help interpret our programs and offerings in their own communities.

We have had the able assistance of Staff Personnel who have visited numerous states, including Georgia, Alabama, Florida, Ohio, North Carolina, Missouri, Texas, Arkansas, Kentucky, New York, Mississippi, West Virginia, South Carolina, Indiana, Wisconsin, Illinois, Kansas and Tennessee, to mention a few.

J. Robert Bradley, our Music Coordinator, had the responsibility of chairing the Committee on Music for the Baptist World's Alliance Convocation Day, July 30, 1967, in Nashville, and directed the Choir composed of representatives of choirs of all churches. During the year, Mr. Bradley appeared in Missouri, Kansas, Alabama, Illinois, Kentucky, California, District of Columbia, New Jersey, Wisconsin, Indiana, North Carolina, Maryland, Ohio, Texas, New York and Missouri.

Mr. Bradley's services are available for your state Sunday School Congresses or other Conventions, as a service of the Sunday School Publishing Board.

NATIONAL BAPTIST CONVENTION OBJECTIVES

We contributed heavily to all of the objectives of the National Baptist Convention, during the past year, giving over $21,000.00 to Convention work.

Our contributions were as follows:

We printed and distributed the NATIONAL BAPTIST VOICE at a cost of $4,291.15

We printed the National Baptist Convention Minutes and other materials at a cost of $6,150.00.

We operated the Morris Memorial Building at a cost of $7,843.00 in excess of the rental income.

We contributed $642.00 to the expenses of the National Baptist Convention Convocation, not including the services of our personnel.

In addition, we made a cash contribution of $2,500.00 to the Ten Million Dollar Educational Campaign of the National Baptist Convention.

> "For Zion's sake I will not keep silent and for Jerusalem's sake I will not rest, until her vindication goes forth as brightness and her salvation as a burning torch."

Isaiah's challenge to tell the story of salvation is as real today as when he first uttered it, and it is no easier to accept now than then. Dedicated lives, consecrated hearts, trained minds and skilled hands are required to direct, edit, produce and distribute the materials through which we speak. Skilled hands, trained minds, consecrated hearts and dedicated lives are required to hear, interpret and pass on the message contained in the materials. Therefore, the acceptance of the task of "speaking for Zion," is a two-fold responsibility:

The Sunday School Publishing Board pledges itself to produce and distribute an ever-increasing flow of usable and inspiring publications.—Will you pledge yourselves to use these materials in spreading love's message and holding high salvation's burning torch?

AUDITOR'S CERTIFICATE

We have examined the financial records of the Sunday School Publishing Board, a subsidiary of the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc., for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1967 and now submit as our report the exhibits, schedules and comments listed in the preceding index.

SCOPE OF EXAMINATION

Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances to enable us to render an independent accountant's opinion on the fairness of the representations in the statements showing the financial position of the Sunday School Publishing Board at June 30, 1967, and its operating results for the year then ended. The extent of certain procedures employed, including sampling of transactions was based principally on our review of the system of internal control and the efficiency of its functioning.

Cash in banks were independently reconciled and bank balances were confirmed by direct written communication with the depository. Customers' accounts receivable were reviewed and requests were sent to the customers for confirmation of book balances.

Physical inventories were taken by management. We reviewed their method of inventory taking, checked the extensions of their inventory sheets and checked their cost by use of ratios of prior years, raw material invoices, and consistency of cost methods employed. All major additions to fixed assets were vouchered and found to be properly classified.

Federal tax returns were examined and reconciled with the records. We made sufficient tests of the operating accounts to satisfy us that accepted accounting practices had been followed and that the transactions had been properly and consistently classified.

ACCOUNTANT'S OPINION

In our opinion, the accompanying balance sheet and related income statement fairly present the financial position of the Sunday School Publishing Board as of June 30, 1967, in accordance with generally accepted accounting standards.

Very truly yours,

JONES, ANDERSON & COMPANY
William S. Anderson

THE ANNUAL REPORT OF SECRETARY C. R. WILLIAMS OF THE NATIONAL BAPTIST TRAINING UNION BOARD

412-4th Avenue, North, Nashville, Tennessee, 37201

Sixty-eighth Annual Report, July 1, 1966-June 30, 1967 of the National Baptist Training Union Board, 412-4th Avenue, North, Nashville, Tennessee, to the Sixty-seventh Session of the National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Inc. Dr. J. H. Jackson, President, September 5, 1967, Auditorium, Denver, Colorado, T. H. Rankin, Chairman; C. R. Williams, Executive Secretary.

Dr. J. H. Jackson, our esteemed President, Officers, Members, and Friends—

"Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ."

I give thanks to God always for you because of the grace of God which was given you in Christ Jesus." 1 Corinthians 1:3, 4 RSV.

At the outset may I express my gratitude to those of you who have supported the National Baptist Training Union through your prayers, promotion, purchases, and contributions to the Isaac Foundation.

THE THEME

We salute the Chieftain and Board of Directors for presenting us the challenge in the theme: "Christian Witness in the Modern World." Our witness to the world is good news that the triune God has acted in the events of history, is acting now, and will continue to act in the lives of men and in the life of the world. Too often churches insulate themselves from the world. They seek to escape the rugged responsibilities of witnessing in the world. Too frequently persons tend to identify the work of the church with holy places, sacred times, and pious meetings only. And far too frequently the proclamation of the gospel is concealed in a confusing jargon.

This is just the reverse of what Jesus commanded. Christians are to be salt, light, yeast. Christians are to be sent out as sheep into the midst of wolves. Christians are to go into highways and the byways. Christians are to be laborers sent out into the harvest. Christians are to be witnesses in Jerusalem and all Judea and Samaria, and to the end of the earth. And EVERY church member is to be a witness.

The Department of Publications of the National Baptist Training Union Board seeks to reach all ages with relevant literature and give the thrust that will enable a Christian to interpret what has happened to him at the very depth of his personhood. One is not only to witness to truths which he firmly believes but to something that he knows, has seen, has experienced, which God has done. Thus, the Training Union offers guidance to persons who may witness through their living as well as through their words.

The writers of the program quarterlies have a strong commitment to seek to change society through changing men; to turn the light of moral revolution of this age.

OUR CHRISTIAN WITNESS

The Board continues to show a deep concern for employees in that they are paid more than the minimum wage; each is covered by hospitalization in Blue Cross—Blue Shield; each has accident insurance coverage for being hurt on the job, and each employee has a $2000.00 life insurance policy.

The Isaac Foundation gave a scholarship to Vernon Allen of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, who is a Junior in Bishop College, Dallas, Texas.

CONVENTION SUPPORT

Believing that Baptists have a rich heritage of freedom which must become RESPONSIBLE freedom, that informed Christians are better Christians and church members, that informed members of the Convention are concerned members, the department of publication of the Training Union Board has published in "black and white" in a 108 page book, pictures and words which portray the work and accomplishments of the parent body as well as every Board, Auxiliary, commission, etc, that existed in 1965. This book, A Mighy Army by Vada P. Felder, includes also the Constitution of the Convention. Acquaintance with the facts in the book will enable one not only to defend himself against those who speak in ignorance or with malicious intent but also to take the offensive in the dissemination of facts about the Convention.

How much does the indispensable book for informed and concerned members cost? As a dedicated act of cooperation, the Board presented A Mighty Army to you for $1.00 last year. But this year we have brought to this meeting five hundred (500) copies as a gift to the Convention. President Jackson will determine how the books are to be distributed. The gift of A Mighty Army is a sequel of our having given away thousands of quarterlies as a public relation gesture.

The Board served as one of the sponsoring agencies of the Third National Baptist Leadership Convocation that was held July 30—August 11 on the campus of the American Baptist Theological Seminary. All this Board needs is patronage from the churches to enable it to give greater financial support to the work of the Convention.

OTHER PUBLICATIONS

Geared to the needs of the members of the Convention are the Program resource quarterlies; HIGHROAD for adults, THRUST for older youth, COUNSELOR for the Junior High, Junior Quarterly, and the Baptist Training Union Leader, a magazine which, among many other features, includes weekly program resource for the Nursery, Beginner, and Primary Departments.

The 16 page booklet, Scouting In National Baptist Churches by Rev. Donis Myers, Sr. has been published and is now being widely circulated.

"One of the most fatal enemies of effective service," says Dr. Harry E. Fosdick, "is the belated mind" which is the mind that is behind the times, the mind that lacks the insight to perceive and the willingness to follow the forward movements of the living God. The $1.25 Baptist Training Union Handbook by Felder is designed to eliminate the belated mind, to help churches present the changeless Christ to a changing world, to help them give an effective witness in the modern world.

Word has come to the Board from many sources that some churches that do not have organized Training Unions are using the printed Quarterlies in mid-week services and with study groups.

EIGHTY-SEVENTH ANNUAL REPORT OF THE FOREIGN MISSION BOARD of the National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Inc.
Rev. William J. Harvey, III, Corresponding Secretary
At Denver, Colorado, September 5-10, 1967

President Jackson, and Messengers to the Eighty-seventh Annual Session of the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Incorporated:

We are happy to report to you that the past twelve months has witnessed a renewal of interest in the overseas objectives of the Foreign Mission Board in a most gratifying manner. The increased giving and concern by many of the regularly contributing churches, plus the addition of new supporting churches leads us to believe that renewed interest is being manifested in implementing the Foreign Mission program of the National Baptist Convention Incorporated.

As Secretary we are grateful for the encouragement we have received from our President Dr. Jackson, from members of the National Board of Directors, and Pastors across the country. This encouragement is revealed by the increased giving on the part of the churches they pastor, and for this we are deeply appreciative.

PREACHING MISSION TO LIBERIA

Since the meeting of our Board in January, the Board has shared in a Preaching Mission to Liberia in cooperation with the Liberian Missionary and Educational Convention of which Dr. Wm. R. Tolbert is President. Six Pastors, Rev. I. T. Bradley of Akron, Ohio, Rev. W. R. Haney of Detroit, Michigan, Rev. Ivor Moore of New York City, Rev. Alfred Walker of Cleveland, Ohio, Rev. Victor Wells of St. Louis, Mo., and Rev. Roosevelt Williams of Detroit, Michigan, accompanied by the Secretary of the Board, participated in a soul stirring experience as they proclaimed the Gospel in cities, towns and bush areas. In many instances they spoke through interpreters, ate strange foods and travelled many miles. In every instance the Gospel was heard gladly and altogether over 302 persons accepted Christ as a result of their efforts.

Greatest praise must be given, to the churches pastored by these brethren, for in every instance their expenses for this trip were underwritten by their local church. As in apostolic times each church willingly shared its pastor that Christ might be exalted among those who knew Him not in the pardoning of their sins.

Letters of praise and commendation have been received from Dr. Tolbert as President of the Liberian Baptist and as President of the Baptist World Alliance, praising the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc., for the calibre of men and for the Christian services rendered. Because of the sacrifices of these men and their churches, the image of our denomination has been enhanced in the Republic of Liberia.

SOUTH AFRICA

Following this Preaching Mission your Secretary travelled to the Republic of South Africa to visit with the various Pastors and Churches some of which were organized by Missionaries of the Foreign Mission Board as early as 1901. We had been attempting to obtain a visa into that benighted land for the last two years, but because of the severe racial discrimination laws we were refused. Only in the past six months have some of the laws relating to American Negroes been relaxed, so because of this we were granted a visa.

Would that we had the time to tell you in depth of some of the things we witnessed, yet you should know that the people are divided into three groups; the blacks, the colored and the whites. A colored is anyone who has any mixture of white in their blood stream in the past three generations. There are 10 million Africans or blacks, 3 million whites, 3 million colored and ½ East Indians. These people are systematically and scientifically separated by living areas, by economic salary scales, and even by health and medical facilities. Native Africans are paid 20 percent, and colored people 40 percent of what a white man is paid for the same job. Native African children can only go to the 6th grade. Colored children to the 8th Grade. Only Whites are allowed to go to college and the university.

No native may own property. They must live in 3 room houses and pay rent to the Government. They must have a pass to go to work or out of their living area. They are denied the privilege of voting, of holding elective office, of legal redress. In truth, the discrimination being practiced every day in South Africa against the Native African is far worse than anywhere on earth. Thus the churches we support and the Gospel we preach is not only one of reconciliation to God, but a Gospel of hope to a people forced to live in a type of social and economic slavery. The urgency of continued support of our Missions in South Africa is ever before us.

OUR BIBLE SEMINARY

In an endeavor to provide religious and Biblical training for our South African Ministers, a Bible Seminary was established in Leribe, Lesotho. The Republic of Lesotho is completely surrounded by the Republic of South Africa. Consequently even though Lesotho is theoretically an independent nation, it is largely controlled by the nation surrounding it. Our Seminary therefore is the only available school of its kind covering a two thousand mile area for the training of those who have been called to preach the Gospel. Discretion prevents my telling of the difficulties involved, for it is our desire to someday return to South Africa, yet the need for some Biblical training is mandatory if the Gospel is to be effectively preached in this sin-shadowed land.

At the present time we have only two adequately trained teachers and one church building which serves as a combination preaching chapel and dormitory and classroom. We need another teacher, a building to house at least 60 students, beds and educational materials. This need must be met if we are to help these people help themselves.

OUR MISSIONARIES

Our Board received unusual recognition recently through the honor bestowed on Dr. Daniel H. Malekebu by Meharry Medical College, Nashville, Tennessee. As a Fifty Year Graduate from this outstanding School of Medicine, Dr. Malekebu was cited for his outstanding humanitarian services as a Pastor-Physician at the Providence Industrial Mission, Chiradzulu, Malawi. Through the generous specific contributions of the Zion Hill Baptist Church of Los Angeles, California, Dr. Bernice Faison, Pastor and the Shiloh Baptist Church of Waukegan, Illinois, Rev. Jonathan Lightfoot, Pastor, Dr. Malekebu's fare for this emergency trip and the accompanying honors, was underwritten. Due to a chronic illness, Mrs. Malekebu could not accompany the doctor to America.

The Rev. Benjamin Stephens, Supervisor of the Suehn Industrial Mission, Suehn, Liberia, was granted an emergency furlough of three months for a much needed rest. Accompanied by his family he journeyed to Kansas City, Kansas and was a great source of inspiration and information to many of the churches of Kansas and Missouri. He returned to the Suehn Mission on August 15th to resume his strenuous responsibilities.

Miss Verlene Farmer, who had to leave the Suehn Mission due to her illness, has been recuperating nicely. Her health has improved sufficiently for her to serve many of our churches as speaker and consultant. However, a recent letter confirms the fact that she will never be strong enough to return to a Mission Station in the tropics. At the present time she informs us that she is "waiting upon the Lord to open the door for a continuing witness for Him in America." May we ever thank God for the type of spirit that she is, and for the effective service she rendered for over twelve years.

Miss Gladys East, delayed her return to the field due to the serious illness of her mother, Mrs. James East, widow of the late Secretary of the Foreign Mission Board. Yet following the operation of Mrs. East, her daughter returned to the Suehn Industrial Mission where she is serving efficiently as Principal.

The Rev. and Mrs. Rufus Prunty of the Bendoo Industrial Mission, Liberia will return to the United States for a much needed furlough after continuous service at this Mission for the past seven years.

In September the Rev. H. Douglas Oliver will begin service at the Providence Industrial Mission, Chiradzulu, Malawi; while Miss Charlotte Levi will return to Malawi.

Greetings to this convention are hereby conveyed from Mrs. M. L. Sanders and Miss Della McGrew of Suehn, Liberia, Rev. and Mrs. F. G. Downs of Nivaragua, the Rev. Eliot Ngubeni of South Africa and Mrs. Sarah Cyrus of Bendoo.

OUR MISSION STATIONS

Messengers to our Convention must keep ever before them the knowledge of the extent and scope of our missionary services. Your Foreign Mission Board supports 7 missionaries and Mission Stations in Sierra Leone, Liberia and Ghana in West Africa; Malawi in Central East Africa; the Republic of South Africa and Lesotho in South Africa. The work in these areas consists of over 200 churches with 10,000 members, elementary and junior and senior high schools serving over 5,000 students; medical clinics serving over 6,000 out patients a year; two hospitals at the Providence Industrial Mission, Chiradzulu, Malawi, and one Seminary and Bible School in Lesotho. Of the one hundred and twenty-five workers regularly employed seventeen are Missionaries from the United States. This comprises our work on the Continent in Africa.

In the Western Hemisphere, we support the Zion Baptist Mission in Bluefields, Nicaragua, Central America. This Mission supports two smaller Mission Churches: one at Pearl Lagoon and another at Tasbapoani, both in the State of Zelaya, Nicaragua. In the Caribbean area, we underwrite the L. G. Jordan Memorial Elementary School and the Prince Willim Senior High School in Nassau, the Bahamas Islands with over 800 students and 17 teachers are employed. The Board also supplements the salaries of 72 pastor-evangelists in the outer islnds of the Bahamas chain.

Through your support the physical plants of our Stations at Bendoo and Suehn, Liberia have been immeasurably improved with the addition of electricity and running water. We have made extensive renovations to the J. H. Jackson dormitory at Suehn. At the Providence Industrial Mission we have added farm implement accessories for seedbed preparation and stubble mulching. In South Africa we are assisting in the construction of a church building at Debe Neke, Kingwilliamstown District, Cape. Their original building was destroyed due to racial relocation laws.

OUR FINANCIAL CONDITION

Messengers to the Convention may receive a complete financial Statement in the Mission Herald and on the last pages of this report. The Mission Herald may be obtained at the Foreign Mission Booth, located on the Concession floor. Let it be noted however, that our income for the past twelve months exceeds by $44,529.87 the income of our first year of service. In 1961-62 you contributed to the Board $143,892.10. For the past year you have contributed $188,422.97. During this period, the Board has met all of the overseas salaries and budgets three months in advance. At this moment all of overseas obligations are paid up to September 30th, 1967. It has met eleven overseas transportation costss of missionaries returning to their posts of duty or furloughs to the United States; and in four instances this involved expensive air transportation. It has underwritten three-fourths of the cost of an African student at one of our Eastern Colleges in America, and aside from the individual support of over a hundred students on the elementary and secondary level in Africa, is also supporting five students on the college level in Liberia. Thirty students are preparing for the South African Ministry at our Seminary in Lesotho, and one third of their tuition, board and lodging is underwritten by our Foreign Missoin Board.

In cooperation with the Liberian Baptist Missionary and Educational Convention, the Foreign Mission Board continues its evangelistic work at the Bible Industrial Academy at Rossa, Liberia. The Liberian Convention supplies the evangelist-workers while the Foreign Mission Board underwrites their salaries in the amount of $3400.00 per year. This latter action was taken two years ago to preserve our equity in the Mission Station, for the fee-conditional deed requires continued operation of a religious nature to keep the property.

The Foreign Mission Board is encouraged by the fact that in the last 12 month

1. More and more of our churches are becoming Monthly Contributors. Fr the initial list of 162, we now have 311.
2. Our records indicate that 22 out of 40 states have increased their contributi to the Board for the last fiscal year.
3. Twenty-eight children on our Mission Stations at Suehn and Bendoo, Libe are being supported either by churches, circles or individuals at 17.50 p month.
4. The Zion Hill Baptist Church of Los Angeles, California, Rev. Bernilee Fair Pastor, in addition to being a $200.00 per month contributor, is underwrit the rebuilding of a Church in South Africa for $5000.00. Half of this amou has already been donated by the Zion Hill Baptist Church, and the other h will be paid in December.
5. The Emanuel Baptist Church, Rev. J. Van Alfred Winsett, Pastor, is unde writing the sponsorship and cost of transporting a Licenciate Minister and h wife and two children from Johannesburg, South Africa to America. Bo of these fine young people will enter the American Baptist Seminary Nashville, Tennessee the last of this month.

PREACHING MISSION TO NICARAGUA

All over the world native Christians are stressing the need for more evangelism. This year we answered the call from our fellow Baptists in Liberia. Yet, it must be remembered that our Board serves in other areas of the world. In Nicaragua, Central America, our Zion Mission headed by Rev. F. G. Downs has appealed to the Board for a Preaching Team to visit this area and proclaim God's Truth. We shall accept this challenge; and we are hereby issuing the call for those who would be willing to give three weeks of their time and service during the Months of January and February at their own expense, in answering this Macedonian Call from Nicaragua. Write the Secretary, and the details will be given to you.

But be advised, it will not be easy. Tropical weather with the accompanying hazards of the tropics will be your portion. Many of your sermons will be preached through interpreters; the living conditions will not always be comfortable, some of the natives will not be friendly. But the opportunity for soul saving will be stupendous and the spiritual rewards will far outshine the inconveniences. In the Name of Jesus we challenge you to share in this soul winning campaign in a foreign land. For "how shall they hear without a preacher" (Romans 10:14). Those who accept this challenge will be the living embodiment of the words of Jesus when he prophesied that "ye shall be witnesses unto Me both in Jerusalem, in all Judea, in Samaria, and unto the Uttermost Parts of the Earth." (Acts 1:8).

This then, is the Report of your Foreign Mission Board. There are those who believe that the day of Foreign Missions is past; that the Great Commission of Jesus Christ when He said, "go ye therefore and teach all nations baptizing them in the Name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost" is not relevant in these chaotic times. There are those who interpret the "Go" only in limited terms. They are prepared to go into the next street on their evangelistic errands, but not into the next continent. They believe in conversion, but only of those they meet and see and hear. Their prayers get as far as the nearest coastline, but they never put out to sea. Their Church is only within motoring distance; their gifts are only for persons they know; their Christ is a local Savior.

But it is our conviction that He who commanded us to "Go and make disciples", said what He meant; and it is the testimony of history that whenever believers have obeyed His orders, the windows of heaven have opened with converted souls wherever the Gospel has been preached. These marching orders have never been countermanded, and the Christ of God is still depending upon those of us who believe, to carry out His divine command. We need those among us who will answer the call. We need you to take to heart this Divine decree, for only then can we continue.

To tell to all the world that God is light
That He who made all nations is not willing
One soul should perish, lost in shades of night.

Help us then to:

Publish glad tidings, tidings of peace
Tidings of Jesus, redemption and release.

REPORT

President Jackson, Officers and Messengers of the Convention

Report of the 1967 session of the National Sunday School and Baptist Training Union Congress follows:

The 62nd Annual Session met in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, June 19-25. Entertainment and facilities were provided by the Baptist Leadership of that city and state. Rev. Kenneth A. Bowen, general chairman, was ably assisted by the Rev. Louis Beauchamp, president of the Wisconsin Baptist State Convention, the Rev. W. J. Calvin, the Rev. R. L. Latham, the Rev. E. B. Phillips, Mrs. Sudie Tatum, president of the Women's Convention and others. History will record this as another great and fruitful session.

The attendance exceeded that of any recent year, with 38 states represented, including the Bahamas, 2,005 organizations and 5,635 official messengers enrolled. Financial receipts were proportionately higher. Leading states in representation were Illinois, Michigan, Tennessee, Alabama, and Ohio respectively.

This was the second year's emphasis on the current four-year-theme—Christian Education and the Challenge of Change. The enthusiasm and dedication of the officers, instructional staff and the Messengers made it another milestone in a concerted effort toward a common goal—meeting present-day challenges with competence, confiedence and consecration.

Likewise, the general assembly sessions were highlighted with spiritual and impressive devotional messages, profound addresses and inspiring sermons. As usual, the official greetings of our president, Dr. J. H. Jackson, warmed our hearts. A special feature of the session was the tribute and testimonial paid Mrs. W. H. Jernagin out of respect for her many years of service to the Congress. The cooperation was overwhelming and the result reflects honor and credit on our Congress.

The 1968 session will meet in Chattanooga, Tennessee. We urge all churches represented in the Convention to send messengers to the Congress. This will enhance your program in Christian education.

Initial plans have been made for our official representation at the Baptist world conference, meeting in Berne, Switzerland, July 1968. The congress will sponsor a special tour, and we invite those who are interested to make proper contact early.

President Jackson presided during the election and the following officers were elected:

President—O. Clay Maxwell
Vice President--Dr. E. A. Freeman
Secretary—Mrs. Bessie S. Estell
Assistant Secretary—Mrs. D. G. Harper
Treasurer—Mr. J. C. Oliver

AUDIT REPORT

JUNE 30, 1967

August 23, 1967
National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc.
Assembled in Convention
Denver, Colorado

Gentlemen:

We have examined the balance sheet of the National Baptist Training Union Board of the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Incorporated as of June 30, 1967, and the related statement of income for the year then ended. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances; however we did not observe the taking of the physical inventory; we have tested the clerical accuracy, reviewed the basis of inventory pricing and by other auditing procedures have satisfied ourselves as to the validity and amount of the inventory.

In our opinion the accompanying balance sheet and statements of income present fairly the financial position of the National Baptist Training Union Board of the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Incorporated at June 30, 1967, and the results of its operation for the year then ended, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles.

Very truly yours,
JONES, ANDERSON & COMPANY
William S. Anderson

    He took the Mount of Transfiguration—Problem—Re-Entry. How would they relate what they did on the mountain when they reach the valley—getting back from the spirit world to material world. How?
    Praying at its best—sharing—struggling with problems—while on the mountain—a man was at the foot of the Mountain.
    Bring mountain experience back to the valley below. It is something wrong when we shout on Sundays and speak someone out on Monday.
    Remember life's fullest commitment and most total resolves were not made on mountain tops but in the valley. E. G., The Prodigal Son and Elijah over the prophets of Baal, and there chased by Jezebel.
    What will you do when you go back home from the Convention? This can only be known in the valley.

MARY O. ROSS SPEAKS AT THE 66TH ANNUAL SESSION OF THE WOMAN'S CONVENTION AUXILIARY TO THE NATIONAL BAPTIST CONVENTION, INCORPORATED

Dr. J. H. Jackson, A.M., D.D., National President

Mrs. Mary O. Ross, President of the Woman's Convention Auxiliary to the National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Inc.

Let Us Pray—

Father of all mankind . . . Thou knowest the inarticulate yearnings of our hearts. Thou, in thine infinite wisdom, art aware of the unanswered questions in our minds. Illuminate our inner darknesses. Help us to perceive the truth in the midst of the confused counsels of men. Give us courage to obey the truth as it is revealed to us.

We do not know what lies ahead on the long, long trail. But we believe Thou wilt be there. Help us to play the man and woman in every situation. When danger threatens, may we not waver. When temptations assails, give me strength to resist. When loneliness overtakes us, grant us the vivid sense of Thy presence . . . .

Help us all to unite in building a world where a just and durable peace shall be the heritage of all mankind. Amen.

VICE-PRESIDENT HOLLEY, OFFICERS, MESSENGERS, FELLOW BAPTISTS, AND FRIENDS:

In the name of the Prince of Peace, I greet you. From a heart of gratitude for the help you have given me, I thank you; and with a spirit of deepest humility, I address you.

"NOTHING WITHOUT GOD." This is the motto of the great state of Colorado. No other three words can express, with more exactness, the honorable position which Almighty God held in the hearts and minds of our forefathers, who braved the storms and fought their way through dangers of the wilds in order that they might have freedom of worship. This being so, may I admonish this Assembly to give prime consideration to Almighty God in every plan conceived and in every act performed at this Convention.

DENVER, the Capital City, which we have selected as the meeting site of this 66TH SESSION, is the QUEEN CITY OF THE PLAINS and the CENTER OF THE WEST. With an elevation of one mile above sea level, it is noted for its clean dry air. (This is knowledge which should be especially comforting to those of us who suffer from sinus and other respiratory disorders.) This Metropolis enjoys more than 300 days of sunshine a year. The ubiquity of cow boys, miners and other western idols give visitors a feeling of being, ever, before a television screen or at a cinemascope movie. These attractions, which we have heretofore enjoyed vicariously, may now be experienced in reality.

DENVER, today is a flourishing City. The 25 acres it spans are covered with elegant residences, highly productive trade and industrial centers and excellent recreational, educational and cultural facilities. Large colonies of Spanish-American Negroes live here.

DENVER, is by no means lagging in education. It is wealthy in public private and special schools. In higher education, there are the UNIVERSITY OF DENVER a SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY, the COLORADO COLLEGE FOR WOMEN and a SCHOOL FOR SPECIALIZATION IN MINING TECHNIQUES.

We are, indeed, delighted and honored to be guest in such a City; and we extend our gratitude to Baptist Hosts, to the Officials and to the Citizens of, both, the State of Colorado and the City of Denver for granting us this opportunity to sojourn with you and share your affluence.

have left upon the sands of time.

Footprints that perhaps another
Sailing our life's solemn main,
Some shipwrecked and forlorn brother
Seeing may take heart again.

In the homegoing of these Worthies, we bow in humble submission to the Will our Father God. We rejoice in the knowledge—

There is a land of pure delight,
Where saints immortal reign,
Eternal day excludes the night,
And pleasures banish pain

There everlasting spring abides,
And never fading flowers,
Death like a narrow sea, divides,
That heavenly land from ours.

In answer to your unvoiced question, Yes! there is enough left within me to able me to preside over this 86TH SESSION; for, despite the fact that one may e inclined toward the opposite conclusion, I actually gathered strength and moentum from each of the places I visited and all of the people I served; for, first of l, I found the Christian Cause progressing; and then I was treated with the utmost espect and dignity; and finally; I was showered, both with material and spiritual ifts.

I am happy to report, also, that our home office is rapidly expanding with inreased circulation of the "THE MISSION." We are also happy to report the we are resenting a "NEW MISSION GUIDE," at this session—Co-Authorized by Ross and Williams. (By way of commercial, it is up-to-the-minute. Be sure to get one from the Literature Table.)

Being ever conscious of the fact that, as Baptist women, we cannot afford to isolate ourselves from the rest of the world. We implore you to note some of the headlines which, this past year, have added pages to history.

Since the Dallas Session, we have found it exceeding interesting to observe the world near and far, and to listen to its people. We cannot watch television, listen to the radio, or read the news without a confrontation with the subject of War or ivil Disturbances—whether it be relative to Vietnam, the middle-, near- or farast, the Congo, the Mediterranean Area, Detroit or elsewhere. Riots, crime and othr forms of violence have claimed a frightening share of the news—in and outside f the United States. The escapades of Stokely Carmichael and Company, and the oster of Adam Clayton Powell from the U. S. Congress are news items which eflate our pride; although, we will not here discuss the merits of either. Neverheless, more cheerful notes have been sounded:

First, there is the election of Edward Brooks, from the state of Massachusetts, as the first Negro U. S. Senator since Reconstruction. The marvel of this is that the majority of the electorate of Massachusetts are of the white race.

Second, there is the election of Mrs. Robert W. Claytor of Grand Rapids, Michigan as the first Negro President of the Young Women's Christian Association of the Nation.

Third, there is the appointment of Thurgood Marshall as the first Negro member of the U. S. Supreme Court, and Fourth, there is the selection of Robert Lawrence, Jr., as the first Negro Astronaut.

Then, there have been other Negroes who were, either, appointed or elected to prominent positions in industry, business, and politics. The State of Michigan alone, has three (3) Negro Mayors—Henry Marsh, Saginaw; Floyd McCree, Flint; John Burton, Ypsilanti; and there are other states which have made comparable progress.

Further, there are certain women, who made headlines during the past year. Lurlene Wallace was elected the first woman governor of Alabama; and many are yet trying to size her up. What are her motives? At this point, only God knows. We must wait for time to tell. How about our first lady, Lady Bird? What, as the wife of the president, will be her contribution to this war-torn world?

A few months ago, an airplane swooped down at Kennedy Airport in New York, and off stepped a "woman without a country." She is Svetlana Alliluyeva, the daughter of the late Russian Premier, Joseph Stalin. She came here seeking asylum from her Godless Country. She now admits that, "nobody can get far without the love of God in his heart."

A few months ago, Mrs. Ann Pelligreno, a pilot and school teacher from Saline, Michigan, completed an around-the-world flight over the 30-year-old route of Amelia Earhart. The flight covered 28,000 miles. Upon her return, she commented: "You make your own luck by careful planning." "Everywhere we landed was a new world, and we met wonderful people."

Let us, for a moment, turn our attention to a prominent Church Woman in the person of Margaret Shannon, the newly elected Executive Director of Church Women United. As a means of introducing this profound leader, I will quote her as she was interviewed on Ecumenical Fellowship. She said: "It is my genuine belief that women are playing a very creative part in this generation. Missionaries were able to plant the Church around the world. Theologians were able to give new depths to many of our traditional concepts. Now it is time for the gifts of laymen and women. This will put new texture in the fabric of Church life, and reinforce the work of the relatively small groups which carry the responsibility of the ecumenical bodies and the inter-church conversations, as millions of women relate to other people, each touching others, in a unique way. With the gift God has given, we shall find a new excitement in responding to a high calling in Jesus Christ. We are members of the household of God, and must bear the tensions, joys, and responsibilities of family-style living."

What are these women in the news saying to us? They are telling us that we too must explore the possibility of making even more prodigious contributions to the new social order. They are telling us that, in the midst of revolution, we must be committed to the gospel, binding ourselves to each other with the spirit of brotherhood; and because of the explosive nature of this revolution, we must be imbued with a sense of urgency. We must meet, head-on, our responsibility for facing issues. This is an unparalleled opportunity for Christian to exert leadership in molding the pattern for this new social order.

YOUNG PEOPLE

Let us not overlook our Young People. In fact we cannot overlook them, as Youth has become our most treasured concern. This is evident in the fact that the age for retirement from active employment has been lowered.

Many of the factories throughout the Country are actually encouraging workers to retire at an early age. Business is in search of qualified young people to fill positions of leadership. An example is the selection of Norman A. Simmon as the first Negro president of an all white bank—Norman A. Simmons, 45, was elected president of the Guaranty Bank and Trust Company at a meeting of the Board of Directors, March 28, 1967, and thus became the first Negro in the United States to head an all-white bank. I might add, here, that the son of our Treasurer, Mrs. M. B. Gaillard has recently been elected President of The Great Lakes Mutual Life Insurance Company, one of the most rapidly growing Negro businesses in the world. We, in Detroit, have already envisioned great things of this Company as a result of Mr. Thaddeus Gaillard's election as president. Then, the vigors of campaigning for political office have become so demanding that the big winners of today are less than 50 years of age. An athlete reaches his peak before he becomes 30.

Further evidence of the high value placed on youth today is the extensive use of young people in the Peace Corps, Job Corps, VISTA and other resource development projects designed to aid the underprivileged. Of course, among us are the hippies, the cyclists, L.S.D.ers, the bearded one, the long haired, the mobsters, the looters and other rebel groups; but these are in the minority. They attract more attention because their conduct arouses, either curiosity, disgust, or fear. They have no aims or goals directed toward the common good. Here, we are reminded of the story of an old wayfarer who was approached one day by a traveler. The traveler asked him, "How fer is it, partner, to the next town?" "Five miles," said the old wayfarer. "By the way," asked the traveler, "what is the name of the next town?" "I don't know," replied the wayfarer. "How then, do you know it's five miles away," asked the traveler. "Well," explained the wayfarer, "I can read numbers; but I can't read words; and as I watch the road signs along the highway, I always know how fer; but I never know whur to." It is always more important to know where we are going than it is to know how far it is from our destination.

In all honesty, we believe that the young people of this Convention are well directed toward worthwhile goals; and we remind them, in the words of the poet, that: "The race of life has become intense—The runners are treading upon each others heels; and woe unto him who stops to tie his shoe lace."

Before we leave the subject of young people, direct your attention to the National Baptist Youth Camp at Constantine, Michigan. The main purpose to which the Camp has been devoted is the spiritual and recreational development of our youth. The Camp is open every summer for three (3) weeks; and no effort has been spared to give those in attendance the best in religious training, recreation, food and relaxation. We, the directors of the Camp, trust that the leaders of Youth groups of all of our Churches will make a special effort this year to promote plans for increased attendance next year and succeeding years. You will hear more about this at a later date. Then we urge you leaders to plan now to attend our National Leadership and Mission Conference on the Camp grounds next July.

DIVINE POWER FOR OUR ROLES AND GOALS

As Christian women, we should seek to know our roles and goals in this Twentieth Century; for the period in which we now live has been referred to as the Second Great Transition. It is a transition in science, technology, and social institutions. Therefore, as we seek to know our roles and goals in a new society, we must make sure that we are directed by Supreme Power.

What is Power? The term is probably used more today than in any other period in history. We hear the terms: Black Power, Electric Power, Water Power, Air Power, Man Power, Woman Power, Horse Power, etc.

According to lexicography, Power is: spirit or divinity; authority; control; jurisdiction; sway; dominion; and command.

Let us see what some of the great thinkers have said about Power.

One writer said: "Since nothing is settled until it is settled right, no matter how unlimited power a man may have, unless he expresses it fairly and justly, his actions will return to plague him."

Another has said: "Power will intoxicate the best of hearts, as wine the strongest heads. No man is wise enough, nor good enough to be trusted with unlimited power."

Another has said: "Justice without power is insufficient; Power without justice is tyranny. Justice without power is opposed because there are always wicked men. Power without justice is questioned. Justice and Power must therefore be brought together so that whatever is just may be powerful; and whatever is powerful may be just."

Yet another has said: "It is not possible to found lasting power upon injustice, perjury or treachery."

All of these quotes imply that power, within itself may result in devious ends such as tyranny, revolution, and eventually, destruction. To be of lasting effect, it must be coupled with instrinsic qualities of justice and love. Romans 13:1 says, "Let every soul be subject unto the higher power. For there is no power but of God. The powers that be are ordained of God." Matthew 28:18 says, "And Jesus spoke unto them, saying: All power is given unto me in heaven and in earth."

From all of this we must conclude that not by black power, air power or political power, will we be able to play our roles and attain our goals; but we must, through faith and prayer, draw from the everflowing fountains of Divine Power. God, himself, has told us: "Not by power, nor by might, but by my spirit."

What are our roles and goals in present day society? I have listed three for discussion:

1. The Edification of The Family,
2. The Perpetuation of Christian Education and
3. The Acceleration of Evangelization.

EDIFICATION OF THE FAMILY

What greater role and loftier goal can National Baptist Women have than that of lifting American family life? Edith Dean, in her book "Family Living In The Bible" said that one of the best definitions of the family was formulated in 1955, in Canada, by the Montreal Committee of Family Life and Parent Education. This is the definition: "The family is a cell of love created by the lifelong friendship between a man and woman with complete sharing of body and mind, and with, normally, the Procreation of Children. The family is not sufficient unto itself; but is dependent upon itself, and contributes to society; and while making possible the richest personality development of its individual members, it also prepares them to serve their fellowman and live with them in a broader family of humanity."

Biblical ideals as well as Twentieth Century needs are reflected in this definition. May I recommend to you, for study and discussions in your local societies, district work shops, and seminars, this subject: "STRENGTHENING FAMILY LIFE" I further, submit for study, the following statement, on marriage and family life in the United States, issued, jointly, by the National Council of Churches, the National Catholic Welfare Conference, and the Synagogue Council of America; and I quote:

"Keenly aware of the role religion ascribes to the home and family life, and keenly aware of the powerful and pervasive social conditions which threaten to undermine human dignity, and marriage and family life in America, we, the representatives of the major religions: Catholic, Jewish, Orthodox and Protestant wish to bring the teachings of our respective faiths to bear upon our society, and to join with all men of good will to create a healthier social climate in which family life in America can flourish and be strong"

"To help families to lay foundations for responsible behavior, we offer the following affirmations of our united faiths:

WE BELIEVE and unite in affirming that God, the Creator of the Universe and the father of all mankind, did create us—male and female, and did establish families as part of his Divine Plan.

WE BELIEVE and unite in affirming that our sexuality is a wonderous gift from God to be accepted with thanksgiving and used within marriage with reverence and joy."

"WE BELIEVE and unite in affirming that our understanding of God's Plan for marriage, ideally, calls for lifelong commitment, in fidelity, to a continuing supportive relationship in which each partner helps the other to develop to the fullest capacity. We are united in our belief that God is an active partner in sustaining and enriching the husband-wife relationship."

"WE BELIEVE and unite in affirming that children are a trust from God, and that parenthood is a joyous, though strenuous, adventure in partnership with God; for the procreation and nurturing of each child. Parenthood calls for the responsible use of all of our God-given talents and abilities in this venture."

"WE BELIEVE and unite in affirming that family life is the cradle of personality and character for each child, and creates an environment for the moral values of each succeeding generation, as well as the principal source of meaningful personal relations for each adult member of our society. All children need a father and mother, firmly united in love, to guide their growth into manhood, and womanhood, and to provide the emotional security that fosters development toward mature and responsible relationships between man and women."

"WE BELIEVE that the family is the cornerstone of society. It shapes the attitudes, the hopes, the ambitions, the values of every citizen. The child is usually damaged when family living collapses. When this happens on a massive scale, the community, as a whole, is crippled."

"There are no easy answers to all the complex problems facing marriage and on which we must work. We can never finish the task; neither are we free to family living in the world today, and we are aware that there are many fronts ignore it."

In America, one in every four marriages ends in divorce; and it is estimated that there are approximately 1000,000 desertions a year. The illegitimacy rate has about tripled in the past 10 years. The proportion of the population in mental institutions has about doubled since the turn of the Century. Juvenile delinquency has become a universal problem, being no longer confined to the city slums. All of these conditions demand our attentions; and I recommend that religion be brought back into the home. It can give spiritual power and equip us to meet everyday problems.

PERPETUATION OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

A virus of evil has possessed the land! This death-dealing, despiritualization plague has sickened the soul and permeated every area of humanity. Its cancerous nature is evidenced, daily, by the behavior of the many who are beguiled by the allurements of materialism. This virus is the sin which "layeth at the gate" of man's heart and prevents him from enjoying an abundant life as he stands condemned to a living death.

We have obviously forgotten the divine legacy—"It is He that hath made us and not we ourselves. We are His people and the sheep of His pasture." We have, rather, stepped beyond the bounds of God's grace; and have lifted up our souls to the might of men and machines. We have lost sight of the family altar, and have, instead, hearkened to the dictates of our own will. The heart of Civilization has been deeply scarred; and the conscience of the world has passed into oblivion. Truly the deeds of evil men have swept across the universal scene, leaving trails of moral and spiritual desolation. This brings me to the third of our roles and goals: "PERPETUATION OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION"

Let there be light in the realization that our intellectual curiosities, our academic achievements, and our scientific advancements can give, neither contentment in time, nor consolation in eternity. These have overshadowed our morality and spirituality, and have left us satiated with worldliness. Nevertheless, let us remember, and ponder into our hearts, these words of the Apostle Paul: "O wretched man that I am, who can deliver me from this living death."

Fortunately, there are some who refuse to surrender to evil; but, even they, need the light of the spirit to illumine the way. The perpetuation of Christian Education (as set forth in the 6:1 Chapter of Deuteronomy, where God decrees that we religiously educate our household), will provide the standard and direction whereby man's confidence, in himself, his fellowman, and in Godd, will be restored.

As the trend of education today is toward secularism and, even, atheism, it is our task to bring man into the right relationship with God. This is the purpose of Christian Education. Therefore, it must be perpetuated so that the world may know: "The Lord our God is one Lord, and thou shalt love Him with all thine heart, soul, and might." Men, through Jesus Christ will put their trust in Him; and by the power of the Holy Spirit, they will live as disciples of Christ within the dynamic fellowship of a genuine Christian Church.

In American Universities, there is evidence of a surprising increase in interest of students in the study of religion and theology. This observation was disclosed in an article, by Robert Michaelson, found in the March, 1967 issue of the "CHURCH WOMAN" Mr. Michaelson's article continues: "a survey of 9 state universities and 11 private schools shows that in 1965 and 1966 there were more than 13,000 enrollments in religious courses in the universities which had a combined enrollment of 130,000 students, and 10,000 enrollments in the private schools which had a combined enrollment of approximately 60,000 students. This is one out of 10 in the universities, and one out of 6 in the private schools. A New York Times survey found the same kind of growth taking place. No doubt the majority of the students of religion have only a general interest in the courses, and do not intend to specialize in them. Although, the number of students who are specializing is increasing. Unfortunately, what we see in this trend is not the typical type of evangelical zeal. What we actually see is the interest of a bright, generally, serious-minded, and sometimes deeply troubled student generation, born into the atomic age. These students grew up in the cold war, and their classmates are now involved in the hot war in Vietnam. This generation remembers Little Rock, Montgomery, Birmingham, Selma, Watts and most recently Detroit. This generation perhaps, has a greater opportunity for fullness of life than any other generation before it; but its constituents are harried by academic, parental, and military pressures. They are troubled by questions of sex, drugs, alcohol, and by what they see as the moral ambiguity—if not hypocracy—of the adult world on the questions of Sex, War and Civil Rights."

The conclusion to be drawn from this article is that fear and confusion are the real motives for this increased interest in religious study. Therefore, in the final analysis, it is the Christian men and women who must perpetuate Christian Education: and the Church is the Channel through which this must be done. Let us as Christians resolve to make our head a library and our heart God's sanctuary.

ACCELERATION OF EVANGELIZATION

The demoralizing state of our domestic relations indicates the pressing need for the Evangelist. This brings us to the discussion of the second of our roles and goals, namely, THE ACCELERATION OF EVANGELIZATION. (Evangelization means the teachings of the Gospel, or spreading New Testament Teachings).

In order that we might observe the growth of the Church, in the United States, over the 15-year period beginning 1950 and ending 1965, let us examine the following statistics.

In 1950, the population was 151 million. 86 million or 57% were Churched; the average number of members per Church were 304; there were 246,240 Church Schools with a total membership of 29,775,357; of the Church people 51,079,578 or 33.8% were Protestant, and 28,634,878 or 18.9% were Roman Catholic; 39% of adults attended church.

In 1965, the population was 193 million, an increase of 42 million. 124 million or 64% were churched (an increase of 7%); the average number of members per church were 382 (an increase of 78); there were 294,618 church schools with an enrollment of 46,856,391 (an increase of 17,081,034) 69,088,183 or 35.6% of church people were Protestant, and 46,246,175 or 23.8% were Catholic. (Note: that the Protestant membership increased by only 1.8%, while that of the Catholics increased by 4.9%. Does this not indicate that Evangelization among the Catholics is accelerating at a more rapid rate than among Protestants? Continuing with statistics, adult attendance in 1965 was 44% or an increase of 5%.

Thee statistics are discouraging when we note the slow pace of church growth as compared with the rapid increase in gambling, alcoholism, dope addiction, prostitution and other vices. (Recent statistics show there are: 86 million gamblers in the U.S., 5 million alcoholics; and 80-100 thousand dope addicts in New York City alone.)

The problems which confront Christians and the Christian Church raise this question: Can Christ deal with the chaotic conditions of this modern civilazation? To put it another way, is the Christian religion a practical means of world redemption?

Too long have we contented our selves with cozy churches, with choirs to sing to us, deacons to pray for us, ushers to serve us, and preachers to preach to us while the communities around us crumble in moral decay.

Too long have we sought service rather than opportunities to serve. Too long have we sought entertainmment rather than enlightenment. Too long have we sought gratification rather than edification. Too long have we wasted our spiritual substance while the rest of the world goes wanting. Too long have we embraced carnality, nurtured scorn, and counted sin. Too long have we fished with our nets on the wrong side; and too long have we withheld spiritual food from the sheep and lambs. Today, we are called upon to leave the one sheep in the fold while we go out to seek the ninety and nine who have been led astray by Toaism, Moaism, Buddhism, Truism, Woodiusm, Hinduism, Mysticism, and Criticism. The ninety and nine are wandering after pragmatism, skepticism and materialism. Jesus warned us against false prophets when He said: "By their works, ye shall know them."

Ours is an age of exhibition: There is a plenty of Religion; but we are short on Spirituality. There are a plenty of Churches; but not much Church. There is much importuning; but not much Praying. There are many Services; but little Service. We preach much; but practice little of what we preach. We talk much; but teach little. We address many; but reach few. We say much; but stand for little. We desire much; but earn little. In summary, we are lacking in the things of Christ and His Cause.

Are we as Christians, committed to the idea that Christ can fulfill our needs? Do we believe, that he is yet able to calm the stormy sea, restore sight to the blind, and give living water to those who thirst? Do we believe, that he is yet able to make the lame walk, and cause the dumb to speak? Do we believe, that he can give sanity to the demented, and peace to the tortured soul?

Christianity is flexible, and can solve the problems of any age. Social Security and Welfare Agencies are providing material substance, but we need Christ. Psychological research and advanced psycho-therapy have done wonders in the field of mental health; but we need Christ.

We are headed toward a Godless generation and a Christless Civilization. Gordon W. Alport points out in his book, "THE INDIVIDUAL AND HIS RELIGION," that many people are religious only in moments of crisis. The rest of the time they go along Godlessly, allowing their religion to be dormant.

It is urgent that the evangelist continue to recognize the individual's confrontation with crisis. Humanity is, forever, beset by helplessness—never without some need. No one is self sufficient. We are all dependent upon Divine guidance. These words could be a great solace to us: "Guide me, O Thou Great Jehovah, Pilgrim through this barren land. I am weak, but Thou are mighty. Hold me with thy powerful hand."

Further, it is urgent that the Evangelist take into consideration the fact that what amounts to a crisis for one individual, may not be a crisis for another. Therefore, in order to meet individual needs, specilization rather than generalization is required. The Evangelist must point out the sufficiency of God in meeting individual needs. Unlike government which operates on the theory that the will of the majority must prevail, God is able to satisfy all.

If the crisis is need of affection, God is love. If the crisis requires strength, God is omnipotent. He is the source of security and strength, but in these days of confusion and restlessness where many seem to believe that the answer lies in violent demonstrations, mob activities, robbery, drug addiction and the like, it is the Christian's task to accelerate evangelization so that men will soon learn that Christ is the answer.

It is the task of the Christian to teach that;

"If your heart is broken,
  God can mend.
If you are lonely and forlorn,
  He is a friend.

If confused and baffled,
  He can point the way,
If you just let him guide you day by day.

If your heart is sinful,
  Christ can make it clean.
He can sweeten the temper of a man that's mean.

He's a friend in trouble,
  And a shelter, too.
He is always able to bring you through."

And now this 66TH SESSION of the Convention is soon to become history; and as we sing our closing songs, offer our closing prayers, wind up our business, say our farewells, and depart from DENVER to our various homes across the country, may we, armed with supreme power, ever realize that the EDIFICATION OF THE FAMILY, THE ACCELERATION OF EVANGELIZATION, and THE PERPETUATION OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION are our duties—Let us perform; they are our roles—Let us act; and they are our goals—Let us attain unto them.

Guide us, O Thou great Jehovah,
Pilgrim through this barren land;
We are weak, but Thou art mighty;
Hold us with Thy powerful hand;
Bread of heaven, Feed us till we want no more,
Bread of heaven, Feed us till we want no more.

Open now the crystal fountain,
Whence the healing waters flow;
Let the fiery, cloudy pillar,
Lead us all our journey through;
Strong Deliverer, Be Thou still our strength and shield,
Strong Deliverer, Be Thou still our strength and shield.

When we tread the verge of Jordan,
Bid our anxious fears subside;
Bear us through the swelling current;
Land us safe on Canaan's side:
Songs of praises we will ever give to Thee,
Songs of praises we will ever give to Thee.

She thanked the National Baptist Women for their prayers. She is no longer a Foreign Missionary, having served on the field since 1959-1966. She left the mission field quite ill, but God has healed her body. We praise God, with her, for her recovery. She gave a message of praise and thanks to God, and pricked the conscience of the Women to continue to give to mission and help carry the word of God at home and abroad.
9. "How Great Thou Art" was sung.
10. Rev. F. G. Sampson, Louisville, Ky., on "The Bible for Our Times" was presented and brought a message on "The Bible—Emphasis—The Tragic Hour—the Bible as Is." He gave different translations of the Bible and other books for reading and interpretations. Rev. Sampson read for spiritual enlightenment—Dimensions of Mission. Mark 9. Our hearts were made glad with his dynamic message. The Spirit over-shadowed all.

9. Foreign Mission Outreach. Miss Verlene Farmer, in her own dynamic and spiritual manner, again pricked our hearts as to what missions mean in witnessing in foreign fields. Our hearts were set on fire. May the fire continue to burn with the zeal to support our missionaries in the foreign fields.
10. Miss Levi another foreign missionary, said hello to the Convention.
11. The Bible for our Time: Rev. F. G. Sampson.

NATIONAL COUNCIL OF NEGRO WOMEN

Airlie House Conference—September 24-27, 1967

Summary—SEVEN MAJOR POINTS

1. Basically all of our organizations were established to deal with the problems faced by black people. These problems are still with us. And the needs that our organizations were designed to serve in this general context are more relevant today than ever before. We need a greater emphasis upon this awareness of blackness. Our programs need to be sharpened more directly to deal with the confrontation around the whole question of blackness as we face it now.

2. We have agreed that a basic direction of our organizations should be to bring about the kinds of fundamental changes in society which will eliminate the "band aid," the "first aid", remedial treatment approach to problems. We work so that black men can walk in freedom and equality without crutches.

3. There is an important function that can be served best through a family organization under the umbrella of the NCNW. By mobilizing black woman power in America under one umbrella we maximize the strength of each individual organization, provide a unified voice to speak of problems, coordinate women's activities and exercise some clout against these problems.

4. We need to take a look, however, at the structure of NCNW and its affiliate relationships; to streamline them in a way as to eliminate what may now appear to be strictures reducing the effectiveness of this highpowered sisterhood-mass corporation. We must examine and look at the whole structure of relationships, streamlining it to make it more functional and more serviceable.

5. The basic functions of NCNW in relation to national affiliate organizations is to serve as a Central Resource for Research, Demonstration, Program Planning, and Program Development. We must develop and improve its capabilities to maximize its potential in functioning in these areas so that its resources can be drawn upon by the affiliate organizations as they operate and develop their programs.

6. That NCNW could serve a more innovative role by convening local convocations of women's groups to tackle problems on the local basis.

7. That NCNW can achieve maximum strength in the effect of the efforts of each member participating in an affiliate function of activities by improving its coordination of the acuvities now going on among the affiliated national organizations.

ANNUAL REPORT

CORRESPONDING SECRETARY

President Ross, Administrative family, State Presidents, messengers and visitors to the 66th Annual session of the Woman' Convention Auxiliary, National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc.——GREETINGS!

It is with a stirring sense of wonder, a deep sense of gratitude, a glowing sense of exultation, yet still greatest sense of humility that I come at this time to submit report of the office of the Corresponding Secretary.

We are often told that the first year in an office, one is idolized, during the second year, one is analyzed and during the third year, one is tantalized. This really is my second year with the responsibility for the activities of the Corresponding Secretary so I have passed the idolizing period and have geared myself for the analyzing period. Truthfully, it has been a most challenging and encouraging experience.

Please permit me again to thank President Ross, each National Officer and State President for your warm acceptance and constant enriching opportunities. Of course, it is not an easy responsibility but with New York Baptists, Cornerstone Baptist Church and the Essex County Youth House, I have absolutely no reason to fail. Working the hardest is Mrs. Beatrice J. Wells, the dedicated, young trained secretary of my church. I know she gets tired of my multiple telephone calls and requests for special letters, but she always remains cheerful and smiling.

We are fortunate to have in the fellowship of this convention some truly superior women. Confucius described a superior woman as being virtuous, wise and brave. Being virtuous, she is free from anxiety, being wise, she is free from perplexity, being brave, she is free from fear.

DENVER

My first visit to Denver was in 1954. It was a forced landing of a United Airline. Soon after leaving Los Angeles, we learned that there was a defective engine and we would go into Denver to spend the morning while our aircraft was being repaired. Since it would not be repaired, we waited for another aircraft to replace it from a hangar in Los Angeles. The day was well planned by airline officials. We had tickets for downtown restaurants, theatres and guided tours for museums schools and mountains. Really, the passengers who were not afraid, were sorry when the new plane arrived.

Even though I have been to Denver several times since that calamity opportunity, the experience then was the most cherished.

The Twentieth Century demands the best. We must not be satisfied with bad spelling, junky looking post cards, poorly typed letters, careless answers or no answers to letters and demand the attention and respect of people. Our office has handled over 5,000 communications—viz: sympathy telegrams, congratulation telegrams, general calls to meetings and very often second mailings because of new addresses or errors or the lack of readable penmanship. Every letter whether important or apparently non-essential should be acknowledged. We do not believe in file 13. (That as you know is the waste basket so designated for "Junk Mail".)

When we went to the printer to submit representation and enrollment forms the new Corresponding Secretary asked that he use one "L" in enrollment instead two. Her reason was to challenge us to use the dictionary.

How many checked? How many thought the spelling was incorrect? How many bothered to read the letters?

Do not be ashamed of your convention! Stop criticizing. Stop comparing, stop complaining. Remember the story of the lady whose husband kept talking about her church and her pastor. She got fed up with him one Sunday morning and said, "Stop criticizing our church; it may have improved since you were there. Stop comparing and criticizing our literature. It surely has a wealth of inspiration and information and I'm positive it has improved since some of our Missionary Societies read or studied from it.

The Corresponding Secretary wishes to report that we have kept the image of the Woman's Convention foremost in every segment of this great Society, namely, the N.A.C.P., the National Council of Negro Women, the United Church Women, struggling Baptist Colleges, Home and Foreign Missions and as individuals in the current fight for freedom. In such fields as crime and delinquency, the Anti-Poverty Program, Volunteers on Y. W. C. A., Urban League and numerous community research projects this office has sought to cooperate with our President and other officers in the ever encompassing drive toward human dignity for all citizens regardless of color.

In this changing society, in this world of plenty and poverty, in our communities of dope and disaster, in this world neighborhood of hatred and hunger, in our ghettos where riots and rocks cancel Sunday Church Services, Baptist women must not be satisfied eating, gossipying and entertaining. We must stop trying to be seen as important and start thinking, studying, going to our libraries, working, meditating and reviewing our mission in this society as Missionaries.

God willing, we must move fearlessly forward.

"AND I SAID TO THE MAN WHO STOOD AT THE GATE OF THE YEAR: "GIVE ME A LIGHT THAT I MAY TREAD SAFELY INTO THE UNKNOWN."

AND HE REPLIED: "GO OUT INTO THE DARKNESS AND PUT YOUR HAND INTO THE HAND OF GOD. THAT SHALL BE TO YOU BETTER THAN LIGHT AND SAFER THAN A KNOWN WAY."

SO I WENT FORTH, AND FINDING THE HAND OF GOD, TROD GLADLY INTO THE NIGHT AND HE LED ME TOWARD THE HILLS AND THE BREAKING OF THE DAY IN THE LONE EAST.

Respectfully yours,

Georgia L. Gayden
Corresponding Secretary

REPORT: CHRISTIAN SOCIAL RELATIONS COMMITTEE

The Christian Social Relations Committee has sought to implement the overall theme of the year "Enlargement through Enlightenment, Enlistment and Involvement, by making it visible in the form of buttons which are being distributed at 10 cents each and worn throughout our country. The response has been gratifying, thanks to the hearty cooperation of Mrs. I. S. Powell and her group of Ministers' Wives. Our financial report shows some improvement over last year, although we still hope to do more for our Convention.

PROGRAM RECOMMENDATIONS:

I. We recommend that this committee be enlarged into commission shared jointly by the Ministers' Wives Committee with their chairman, Mrs. Powell as co-chairman of the Commission. It would be the responsibility of the commission:

1. To explore what currently is being done by our National Baptist Women, both as individuals and missionary societies.
2. To evaluate our present local and state involvement on the basis of these findings.
3. To discover possible gaps in needed areas of Christian social concern.
4. To develop and distribute program aids to fill these gaps.
5. To make progress reports both at the adjourned and annual sessions of 1968

II. We further recommend that each local missionary society form a Christian Social Relations Committee which will relate to a similar committee in each district, association and state convention. In this way national Baptist women can create a great "ground swell" of involvement which will have a telling effect on the smallest rural hamlet as well as the largest metropolitan area; for we are all one in purpose.

Respectfully submitted,

Your committee,

Arnetta G. Wallace, Chr.
Mrs. C. F. Dixon
Mrs. A. M. Allen
Miss Florence O. Alexander

WOMAN' S AUXILIARY TO THE NATIONAL BAPTIST CONVENTION, DENVER, COLORADO—SEPTEMBER 5-10, 1967— U. S. A., INC.

ENLARGEMENT THROUGH ENLISTMENT (One Facet)

President Ross, Platform Associates, Members of this Convention . . . Firstly I wish to express my sincere appreciation to the Committee for the privilege and honor to participate on this our National program. Our Goals for 1967 are Enlargement through Enlistment, Enlightenment and Involvement. My responsibility this morning is to interpret the facet Enlistment.

We, the women of the churches connected with the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc., have gone on record as advocating the stimulation, development and promulgation of the Missionary Spirit of service and giving among all people via prayer, study of the Bible, and mission services not only at home but throughout the World. Let us begin then by taking a brief look at the kind of world in which we are living.

It does not take a genius to discern that the World is undergoing a serious and critical revolution. In fact, nowadays, anyone who keeps up with the news at all knows that ours is a changed and changing society—so much so that even though this old world "ain't what it ought to be and it ain't what it's going to be, it certainly ain't what it was." FOR ONE THING we've all witnessed our dollar bills dwindle in purchasing power to the point where they no longer even scratch the surface of our own needs—let alone those of our children! Moreover, who among us has been so little moved by change that she still manages to "get by" with radios and scrubboards when T.V.'s and washers are as commonplace as light fixtures in most American homes? Frankly—and undeniably—there has been no getting around change. Not only are we being shaken daily by racial transition and conflict in our Southland and the nation in general, but there has been no escaping the reverberations of the political and social upheaval that is part and parcel of today's world in Africa, Latin America, and Southeast Asia. More than ever before, our already shrunken world is being compressed, rocked and torn asunder by (1) ignorance, (2) poverty, (3) disease and war; as new answers present themselves to such old issues as (1) love vs. hate, (2) might vs. right, and—closer to home—(3) communism vs. the democratic way of life. What final changes, Change itself will bring, we cannot yet say BUT however gloomy the world's picture looks or may get, it is still God's World; He is concerned about it and expects us Christians to busy ourselves in an Enlistment Campaign that will reach the unreached before they completely destroy His world. THE HARVEST IS great, but the laborers are few. WHY SO FEW WORKERS IN TODAY'S CHURCH? For the answer, we turn to the Church itself.

One writer has described the Church as a "sleeping giant". Indeed its unrealized potential is staggering to contemplate. Certainly, many of us will agree that there exists in people today a vast amount of goodwill and genuine desire to further the well-being of humanity. Over and above substantial church mission work, we cite as evidence the large number of Peace Corps and Vista workers who have volunteered to serve their fellowmen. As Elton Trueblood states in his book The Company of the Committed, the desire is real and the resources are rich, but we have not found the right combination of the two. J. H. Oldham provides a reappraisal of what the Church might be in a mood that is at once candid and hopeful. In some remarks to the theologian Paul Tillich, Oldham put is this way:

> You know, Tillich, Christianity has no meaning for me whatsoever apart from the Church; but I sometime feel as though the Church as it actually exists is the source of all my doubts and difficulties.

Yes, there seems to be a lot of goodwill; yet, at the same time there is increasing resistance to the message of God's Plan. This resistance to the gospel is not unique in America though, for Europe has had a similar experience. Irrespective of class or social status this resistance to Christ's message is most obvious among the young, who for all their shortcomings are probably less hypocritical than most of their elders. According to Trueblood, then, if we are to have any clear notion of the scope of the Christian task, the possibilities of its achievement, and its probable price in human effort and courage, it is a prerequisite of our Enlistment Campaign that we understand this paradox of simultaneous goodwill on the one hand and antagonism on the other.

* May we note I Corinthians 16:9 which reads "a wide door for effective work has opened to me, and there are many adversaries." This double truth of unharnessed goodwill amid adversity is especially obvious and pertinent today, now that so many people refuse to listen long enough to know what God is saying and the forces arrayed against Christian progress are so formidable. We the members of this great Convention are called upon to help find ways to persuade the contemptuous and indifferent to listen. I regret to admit that I do not have a list of "cut and dried" suggestions as to how this may be done, but I assure you it is going to be a man size Job. But who knows but that all of us working together may not have come to the kingdom for such a time as this? HERE I AM reminded of the story of a father who wished to teach his son a much-needed lesson in co-operation. He suggested to the little boy that he go out in the yard and remove a large stone. The lad was so anxious to please his father he rushed out and tried and tried and tried. After a long while the boy came into the house. He did not say anything, but the father knew he hadn't moved the rock. "Did you move the stone?" inquired the father. "No, sir, I couldn't move it!" sobbed the boy. "Don't be discouraged, son. You have not used all of your strength," declared the father. The little boy insisted that he had, but that he just couldn't move it. "I am your father, and you have two big brothers in the next room. Have you tried adding our strength to yours? Let us see how that will work." Together they turned the stone over and kept rolling it until it was at the place of rest desired by the father. The task was too difficult for the little boy, but it was almost nothing for the father, himself, and his brothers. Is not this exactly the awareness we need today? Is not this the burden of our prayer as we face the difficult problems of the unyielding stones in our midst? There are tasks far too difficult for our individual strength. We pray for an awareness that we have our brothers and sisters to help, but we would not forget that we can add the Heavenly Father's strength to our own, if we can be big enough to confess that we need His strength.

It seems quite probable that man has become too involved in and fascinated by his progress and achievements—too wrapped up in himself, his science and technology, his creations and inventions. WHY, after all, he boasts of having the know-how to orbit the earth—as well as walk in space while doing so! This is tremendous progress, and yet he hasn't learned to live on earth in peace. And it may just be that we in Christian religion are a bit too obsessed with the wonders of what we have already done and the newness of our achievements, when the real need and task of our ministry should be rediscovering Christ, the One who is beside and ahead of us in all our discoveries.

Moreover, we need to take a fresh look at our image of work responsibility within the Church. That is, to whom should the burden of church work fall; who's business is church business? Some would have us think that only those who fall along the hierarchy of the professionally religious should work for God. Certainly, books, newspapers, and magazines help foster this view, since their religious pages for the most part features clergymen. Yet if we expect to achieve our goal for 1967 of Enlargement through Enlistment, it is imperative that we tell the World that there was no Christian hierarchy on work load when Christ gave the Sermon on the Mount, and we cannot afford one today. Jesus called upon that little group of early Christians to be the preservative of their day. A similar call has been issued to us—clergy and lay people alike. In a word, the Lord's work hinges on our believing wholeheartedly that Enlistment is the business of us all. To this end, our Enlistment Campaign must clarify the role of the Church, lest it remain a "sleeping giant" of unharnessed potential. We must make plain that it is not a repository of unchanging truth, but rather a sanctuary of open-ended searching for God's will in our lives, both individually and in the redemptive fellowship of kindred minds. For those in search of unchanging certainty, we Christian workers must proclaim that the Church offer much more: To those who will but listen, the church offers a life plan that can handle all uncertainty. Indeed, church commitment is the liberating key that frees one to live for God.

At heart, then, there can be no better starting point for a radical reappraisal of today's Church than some earnest and sustained searching after the secret of the early Church's vitality. At one time the Church was represented by a little band of dejected fishermen going back to the Sea of Galilee, and later by 120 people gathered in a simple upper room in Jerusalem. Though toddling at times, it provided the center of an enduring civilization when the dominance of Greece and Rome had come to an end. To be sure, it is a story of humble beginnings, but I encourage you to view it with reverence and gratitude—with the eyes of one seeking a tried and true design for living. In essence, I bid you see its applicability to the needs and problems of our own day. Here it is not my intention in the least to carry you back beyond "horse and buggy days" to the proposition that the Church should not have undergone change. Or, for that matter, that present day churches should do without musical instruments, because the early Church was without such. This is absurd—if for no other reason than to be consistent, I would have to advocate eliminating steam heat in mid-winter, because those before our time managed to get along without it. I am in favor of change, but it is certainly the kind of change that will incorporate the insights of the past, as it meets the problems of the present and plans for those of the future. For in all our rushing about for new things and changed things, it is good on occasion to pause and reflect, lest we lose sight of the old—the tried and true. At times we need the basic reverence and humility to reexamine old standards and values that have stood the test of generations if we are to offer others some enduring message that will win them to Christ. Our Enlistment Campaign then demands both moral and Church commitment—the two go hand-in hand; both are prerequisites for doing His work.

We note that the structure of the early Church was similar to that of a military band. Might we run our Enlistment effort the same way? Just by virtue of our being a part of society, we all have some knowledge and experience with rules and regulations. But then we Baptist are so very proud of our heritage and tradition of freedom. In fact, Baptist are so free that many of them feel perfectly free to do nothing. They join and quit when they see fit! They promenade in and out of church at will. Use example of Grand Chapter Meeting of The Eastern Star.

For the most part, the notion of enlisting church members as recruits sounds very strange to modern ears. This is evidence of how the 20th century Church has drifted into indifference and inactivity. We do as we please, whether it pleases God or not. You need not read Harvey Cox's Secular City to discover that most people are living as though there is no God. The majority of people are doing anything they are big enough to do, and it doesn't matter whose territory they are invading, the only disgrace is in getting caught.

The early Christians considered Christ as their Commander-in-Chief, and they regarded being a Christian as time spent in his service. I don't mean by service warming a bench on Sunday morning. TODAY'S Church needs more Christians who are willing to take their service to the community.

A few weeks ago I attended Home Mission Week in Glorietta, New Mexico, where I heard a young minister share some of his experiences as he had lived and worked for some five or six weeks among the hippies in California.

I do not refer to preachers only: Colossians 3:16 leads me to believe that each of us has an obligation to become involved in an Enlistment program. "As you teach and admonish one another in all wisdom" does not ask the minister alone—but all of us—to assume full responsibility for the Enlargement of the Flock. Women must have participated for Paul to have written Gal. 3:28; similarly, I Cor. 14:31 has it: "You can all prophesy one by one, so that all may learn and all may be encouraged." When Jesus said, "Follow me," He meant it as a call to all. He was not advising people to go to church or attend the synagogue; instead, He was asking for recruits in a company of danger. He was asking not primarily for vague belief, but for concrete commitment with consequent involvement. The now famous words are quite understandable if we view them as the call of a recruiting officer: "And He said to them, 'Follow me and I will make you fishers of men'; immediately they left their nets and followed Him."

Women of this Great Convention He is saying to us this very moment "Follow me". Are you willing to follow Him? Do you know Him? Do you trust Him? For those who may not yet know him? Dr. Schweitzer has these consoling words:

> He comes to us as One unknown, without a name, as of old, by the lake-side, He came to those men who knew Him not. He speaks to us the same word: 'Follow thou me!' and sets us to the tasks which He has to fulfill for our time. He commands. And to those who obey Him, whether they be wise or simple, He will reveal Himself in the toils, the conflicts, the sufferings, which they shall pass through in His fellowship, and, as a mystery, they shall learn in their own experience who He is.

Schweitzer is saying here that the only real and sure way to know God is to busy yourself in his program. The men of Galilee knew this out of simple trust, for they answered the Master's call for Enlistment even before they knew who He was Because we are ging to need all the workers we can possibly get, it's going to mean revitalizing all those old so called Xians who up to now haven't bothered to really get tight with God or to get busy with Xian work. It will mean remotivating the church members that we already have helping them to build up a new SELF-IMAGE. Christians must realize that loyalty to Christ means sharing personally in His ministry—going or staying as the situation requires. We must accept demands on our time, money, energy and personal freedom. Certainly we may find it necessary to miss some sorority meeting or bridge club date to carry on the Lord's work. But anything that hinders one from serving God lets me know that that person is already entirely too busy.

And oh how we need one another! We become trained and disciplined for service only as we are yoked together. One scripture says, "Take my yoke upon you." The company of Christ is indeed tied together by Christ's yoke. Most any child reared on the farm can tell you that no colt is normally trained alone. It is "hitched" with one already trained. Herein lies the power of the idea that only the meek—that is the disciplined—shall ever occupy the land. All of us need to steal away—to take time out to discipline ourselves—from idle chit-chat, telephone gossip, (3) T.V. or what have you, so as to commune with God. Ask Him what He would have you do in this moment. How would he have you spend your time? As Elizabeth O'Conner puts it in her book Call To Commitment, today's frustrated world is in need of SAINTS. By this she means honest to goodness, dedicated, unselfish Christians; the kind who will work whether their names ever get into the news or not, the kind who will work whether they get on program or not, we often refer to them as the cement that holds the bottom in the church. Every church has a few. This Convention has some, it could stand a few more.

These early Christians knew the real joy of total commitment. For once you find Christ, you cannot be satisfied until you have led others to Him. Enlistment then must reach out on all fronts—: (1) to the postman, (2) the milkman, (3) the janitor, (4) the garbage collector, everywhere. In the long run, we enlist each time we exemplify the Christian spirit. And if we are serious about Enlistment, we will remain serious to total commitment—even with the so-called little things. This means figuring income tax forms correctly for a change, (2) taking sick leaves only when sick, (3) borrowing money and remembering to repay, as well as a lot of other little things. FOR YOU SEE, WHAT we do speaks so loudly people will not even hear what we say.

UNDENIABLY, most of us can do better and more than we are doing to further Christian work. The trouble seems to be that too few people ever get beyond the point of looking after their own situations—(me and my husband, my son John, his wife . . . us four and no more.) There is just no point in praying "Our Father" unless we Christians can spare more (1) time, (2) love and (3) resources for our Brother. There is something contradictory about professing to love a Father that you have not seen and neglecting to help a Brother whom you have. How can we expect sinners to desire to walk in our footsteps, if the prints we leave are indistinguishable from theirs? Certainly, there is need for Enlistment. But it must bear fruit in daily commitment to Christian living. Finally keep in mind each of us is writing a gospel, a chapter each day—by the deeds that we do, by the words that we say; people read what we write whether faithless or true, so give to the world the best that you have, and the best will come back to you.

ENLARGEMENT THROUGH — ENLIGHTENMENT

The task given to me is to deal with the word "enlightenment," which is a part of your most thought-provoking Convention goal for this year's Session. As one begins the task of working with this goal, one is haunted by the fact that modern man feels himself to be enlightened—to have come of age—to have reached a level and degree of maturity and sophistication where he can stand in his own light and under his own power and assume a stance where he no longer needs the direction of the Divine.

But even as man scratches feebly upon the surface of outer space, we recognize that he has a long way to travel to be truly enlightened. Remember, Japan enjoyed ninety per cent literacy when Pearl Harbor was attacked. Hitler's Germany, which ruthlessly murdered six million Jews and countless scores of others, had a degree of scientific achievement unsurpassed at that time by any other nation. But, were these countries enlightened?

What about our nation? Our economy is prospering and we flex our muscles at the rest of the world. We look at our national gross products, our vaulted and vaunted pragmatism and say, "My arm alone hath gotten me this wealth." Affluence and the good life abounds for many while millions of others are hopelessly trapped in the cycle of poverty, sharing their crumbs, their cribs and their squalid cubicles with roaches and rats. Voiceless and often leaderless, they strike out in the only language left—that of riots. But a supposed enlightened Congress fiddles while our cities burn And our President fidgets while the "War on Poverty" is crippled because of our commitment 8,000 miles from our shores.

Be that as it may, we as a nation have reached a level of scientific prowess that, with automation and cybernetics have the capacity to solve most of the problems confronting us. Why, then can't man solve the problems of mere human existence? Someone has well said we can fly through the air like birds, swim in the water like fish, but cannot walk upon the face of God's earth like men.

Let us arrive at a working definition of the term. ENLARGEMENT means to make larger, to increase, to expand. ENLIGHTENMENT means to give intellectual or spiritual light, to instruct, to impart knowledge, to transmit—the act of increasing one's capacity to give or receive.

I submit to you that if a man is to grow by enlistment, presenting his body, lining himself up with the highest and best he knows, and commuting himself wholeheartedly and unreservedly by becoming immersed and involved, HE NEEDS LIGHT TO SEE WHAT HE HAS DONE AND TO CLARIFY HIS VISION FOR THE TASK THAT IS HIS.

Let me illustrate by turning to the baptism of Jesus. Jesus enlisted publicly when He went down to the banks of the Jordan River to be baptized at the hands of John the Baptist. He presented Himself. He was immersed because of His desire to be involved in the common lot of mankind and fully committed to the will of His Heavenly Father. ENLIGHTENMENT came "when the heavens opened and the spirit of God in the form of a dove rested upon His shoulders and His voice said, "This is my beloved Son in whom I am well pleased. Hear ye Him." FURTHER ENLIGHTENMENT came as Jesus spent forty days and nights in the wilderness and knocked the devil out in three rounds.

But what can we further say about Enlightenment?

I

IT IS GOD'S ACTIVITY INITIATED BY HIM

When God, in the beginning created the heavens and the earth and the earth was without form and void; and darkness was upon the face of the earth. He stepped out on a platform of nothingness and His spirit moved upon the face of the waters and God said, "LET THERE BE LIGHT!" And there was light and He saw that the light was good.

A. In the Old Testament, light is employed to signify the revelation of God.

1. God enlightens and saves, for we hear the Psalmist cry aloud
"The Lord is my light and my salvation, whom shall I fear,
The Lord is my strength of my life, of whom shall I be afraid?" Psalm 27:1
"O send out Thy light and Thy truth, let them lead me;
Let them bring me unto Thy holy hill and to Thy tabernacles." Psalm 43:3

2. God's word, His law is a light
"Thy word is a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path." Psalm 119:105
"The Law of the Lord is perfect, converting the soul; the testimony of the Lord is sure, making wise the simple.
The statutes of the Lord are right, rejoicing the heart:
The commandment of the Lord is pure, ENLIGHTENING the eyes."
Psalm 19:7, 8

God turns toward man and the light of His face brings him all the blessings, joy and peace.

3. The Messiah who is to come is Light
"I the Lord have called thee . . . for a light to the Gentiles that thou shouldest be my salvation unto the ends of the earth."
Isaiah 49:6

4. Light is goodness, known and practiced.
"Woe unto them that call evil good and good evil; that put darkness for light and light for darkness; that put bitter for sweet and sweet for bitter." Isaiah 5:20
Light is salvation which is to come.
The people that walked in darkness have seen a great light."
"Upon them hath the light shined." Isaiah 9:2

By contrast, darkness signifies evil, misery, punishment, perdition. Light and darkness are not two worlds statically and impenetrably opposed to each other, but light comes.

Arise, shine, for thy light is come, and the glory of the Lord is risen upon thee." Isaiah 9:2

5. God comes to man in order to cause him to pass from darkness to light: it is of this that salvation consists.

B. In the New Testament, the Light comes

Jesus is the Rising Sun, the Light that comes to save from darkness and from the shadow of death. God Himself, who is Light has become Man.

Jesus, who is the Light spoke the words of light. He is the Lord made flesh. It is in the whole of His ministry and throughout the entirety of His works that Jesus is the Light. There is no other light apart from Him. He has come for the sake of all men in order to rescue them from darkness—the world of ignorance, sin and death.

II

WHAT DOES ENLIGHTENMENT DO FOR US?

A. It helps us to renew our minds.

"And be not conformed to this world, BUT BE YE TRANSFORMED BY THE RENEWING OF YOUR MINDS." Romans 12:2

The late Holford Luccock succinctly stated that the blindness in history has been that of bringing outward remedies to inward ills. The Apostle Paul knew the massive pressures to which the Christian was exposed in the effort to remold his mind. Paul knew about imprisonment, with countless beatings, often near death, that called for a great power to resist, not change in outward shape of conditions, but a transformation of the mind that runs through the whole being, an inward renewal.

Renew is a key word in our vocabulary. We try to renew just about everything—housing, last year's clothes, teeth, hair— we strive to renew the outside but neglect the inside of man.

The Greeks had two words for renewal, "Neos and Kainos." "Neos" means new in point of time. "Kainos" means new in the point of character and nature. A newly manufactured pencil is "neos." But a man who was a sinner and who is now on the way to being a saint is "Kainos."

When Christ comes into a man's life he is a new man—a new creation. The center of his being is different, the driving power in his life is different, he walks and talks differently, he acts differently, his heart is different. His mind is different for the mind of Christ is in him. "Let this mind be in you which was also in Christ Jesus."

B. For when we possess the mind of Christ, we have Spiritual Sight.

We see life much better. Our perception and reception are clarified and corrected. We have second sight. We can see what we have missed before. Everything seems different. Dim, shadowy outlines and figures become clearer and come into sharper defined focus. We may not understand nor comprehend the process by which this transformation takes place, but we can say like the lad healed by Jesus—"Whereas I was blind, now I see!"

Once a man begins to see spiritually, things begin to happen—
—He sees fields white unto harvest and scarcity of laborers, and says
"If the Lord wants somebody, here am I, send me, send me."
—He sees possibilities rather than problems.
—He sees stepping stones rather than stumbling blocks.
—He sees potential in all the foibles, follies and fallacies of man, and for all their inherent weaknesses, short-comings and failures, he sees them as sons of God.
—He sees ways by which the credibility gap, the poverty gap, the educational gap, the racial gap, the generation gap, the status gap, the discrimination gap can be bridged and remedies made available that separated, alienated and estranged man can be made whole.
—He sees the opportunities God is making possible, even in this chaotic and confused world. Where this year, cities have been charred and burned, one who is enlightened not only says, "The spirit of the Lord is upon me," but he also says, "To give them beauty for ashes, the oil of joy for mourning, the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness . . " . . . "and they shall build the old wastes, they shall raise up the former desolations and they shall repair the waste cities, the desolations of many generations" Isaiah 61:3, 4

III

Finally, what does God expect of those He has placed in the Light?

Hold your light high, You are the light of the world. A City that is set on a hill cannot be hid. Neither do men light a candle and put it under a bushel, but on a candlestick and it giveth light unto all that are in the house. LET YOUR LIGHT SO SHINE BEFORE MEN THAT THEY MAY SEE YOUR GOOD WORKS, AND GLORIFY YOUR FATHER WHICH IS IN HEAVEN . . " Matthew 5. 14-16

Hold your light high, so those in darknes may see.
Hold your light high, so those around you won't stumble.
Hold your light high, so the works of darkness will be cast off.
Hold your light high, so men will prefer light to darkness, because their deeds are good and not evil.
Hold your light high, so generations yet unborn will praise rather than curse you for your efforts.
Hold your light high, so you might be enlarged for the sake of the Kingdom, having enlisted in the Lord's service; having been baptized with His baptism; having been endowed with all the light necessary upon your pathway.

Someone said about Jesus, "You can't prop Me up, build Me up!
"Just lift Me up, . . . And I, if I be lifted up from the earth, I'll draw all men unto Me."
"I heard the voice of Jesus say, I am this dark world's light;
Look unto Me, thy morn shall rise and all thy days be bright;
I looked to Jesus and I found in Him my Star, my Sun—
So in that light of life, I'll walk till traveling days are done."
Walk on, with your light held high!
This little light of mine, I'm going to let it shine,
Jesus gave it to me, I'm going to let it shine.
"Walk on, with your light held high!
Walk on through the wind,
Walk on through the rain,
Walk on, walk on, with faith in your heart—
And you'll never walk alone!"

INSPIRATIONAL MESSAGE

President Ross, Pulpit Guests, Official staff, messengers, and all present here today attending this the 66th annual session of the Woman's Convention Auxiliary to the National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Inc.;

Theme: CHRISTIAN WITNESS IN THE MODERN WORLD

To be a Christian, I think we ought to look into this very vital name applied only to those who know that they have definitely been born again. The people were first called Christians at Antioch. Acts 11:26.

I want to talk about the theme in three steps:

1. Christian, 2. Witness, 3. In the Modern World

Who is or can be a Christian?

My friends, it means something to be a Christian. Galatians 2:20. I have been crucified with Christ, and it is no longer I that live, but Christ that lives in me. The life I am now living in the body I am living by faith in the Son of God who loved me and gave Himself for me.

The little lad on his way to church holding his father by the hand looked up one Sunday morning and said: "Daddy, what is a Christian?" His daddy tried to explain this very vital question to his little son, and after defining what he thought to be a Christian, the little boy said again, "Daddy, have I ever seen a Christian?"

The woman at home one Friday morning answering the door bell and there stood a man immaculately dressed, spoke politely and said, "Pardon me, Lady, but are you a Christian?" And after she didn't answer, spoke politely and walked away. This left the lady of the house stunned and some what bewildered the rest of the day. At evening when her husband drove into the drive way she met him at the door, and he detected that something was wrong, and he said, "Honey, what is wrong? Why do you look so stunned?" And she related what had happened. The husband said, "Why, Honey, why didn't you tell him that you were president of your woman's missionary society, secretary of the senior choir, a worker in civic affairs, and attend church four times a week and twice on Sunday?" She looked at her husband and said, "Yes, all that's nice, but he didn't ask me that, he asked me if I were a Christian." You know some of us are somewhat like that.

The Christian life is a life in which an indwelling Christ casts out, . . . and there more quickens self, the Christian life is the outliving of the indwelling Christ. The abiding Christ in us does not destroy but heightens our individuality. We then most truly live when we can say, "Not I, but Christ liveth in me." You are truly living when Christ is the soul of your soul and the self of your self. There is no claim that could be more wonderful than "Christ lives in me;" There is no greater claim than that . . . when Christ lives in you, then you are a living witness for the Master.

To be a Christian means to live a life that is Christ centered and spirit controlled. It was no longer a self-centered life that Paul lived, but a Christ-centered one.

II. Witness: When we pause a moment and try to give to you the actual meaning of a real witness: Let me try to do. There was a terrible automobile accident just a few blocks from where I live at a busy intersection . . . one man said I was standing waiting for the light to change, and I saw this accident. Another said, I was driving into the intersection when I saw the accident and the officer turned to see if there were any other eye witnesses when a man walked up bleeding saying yes, Officer, I am a witness to what happened. You see I was driving the car that was involved in the accident. So in order to be a real witness of what God can do he has to let Christ live in him.

III. In this Modern World means we must take the modern methods with an old gospel and compel men to come to Christ.

Each one of us gathered here today must leave this building saying " I know that Christ lives because He lives in me." Yes, in this modern world wherever we go or are called to go we have this one assurance that God has already been there and is there in us, and even though we may not know all, but there is one who does . . .. To love the world as God in Christ loves it is to accept the world. Its processes and structures, its spaces and times made known or to be made known to us as God's given opportunity for faith. There are many things that we cannot change no matter how we try, but ask God for grace to accept the things we can not change and power enough to lead on to higher ground the things we can. Always remember that you are in the world but not of the world. The world ought be able to see Jesus in your life, walk, talk, and every day action.

To be a witness in this modern world we must join in with the poet of old who said:

"A charge to keep I have
A mighty good God to glorify
A never dying soul to save
And fit it for the sky
To serve this present Age
My calling to fulfill
Oh may it all my power engage
To do one thing: My Master's will."

building at 1022 Maryland Avenue. An inventory had been made of the furnishings, a copy was given to the members of the group and each room was checke Notations were made and it was noted that a few discrepancies apparently exist i the matter of ownership of a few items.

After the tour, Dr. Gayton called the meeting to order and stated the purpose fo calling the Special Session of the Board:

CUSTODIAN OF RETREAT:

After much discussion and many expressions of thanks to Dr. G. E. Stevenson, th
Board of Managers voted unanimously to appoint Dr. Stevenson as Custodian.

It was the general feeling that a committee should be formed in the Washington vicinity to explore the possibilities for appropriate occupants or activities. Dr.
Stevenson suggested Rev. R. P. Gainney and Mrs. Ethel H. Robertson. The Board added Rev. Wilma Carter, President of the Capital Convention and Mrs. Tiny K.
Leake, Eastern Director-Young People's Department. This committee is to be under the Chairmanship of the Retreat Custodian, Dr. G. E. Stevenson.

(3) Residence for Faculty Members of neighboring universities or colleges

The Committee on Occupancy was instructed to begin the search immediately.
The Financial Commitments must depend upon the program or occupants approved by the Board of Managers and the National Board of Directors.

INTERIM BUDGET:

It was suggested by Rev. William R. Harris that the heating system at the Retreat be checked by an expert. He thought an estimation of repairs should be given and the Committee instructed to secure bids before making the repairs. The members agreed and so instructed Dr. Stevenson to go forth with the investigation.

A statement of Six Hundred, Seven Dollars and Forty-Two Cents ($607.42) Tax was submitted by President Ross, which she had received from Dr. Jackson. Also, it was discovered that the previous Tax of Six Hundred, Seven Dollars and Forty-
Two Cents ($607.42) had not been paid and that we have been penalized Thirty-
Six Dollars and Forty-Five Cents ($36.45). Total Tax Due—ONE THOUSAND, TWO

NATIONAL BAPTIST YOUTH CAMP AND SENIOR RETREAT
CONSTANTINE, MICHIGAN

REPORT OF 1967 CAMPING SESSION AND GROUP CAMPING

To Mary O. Ross, President: Young People's Director, Mrs. Zee A. Barron, Southern, Eastern and Western Directors, Camp Personnel, Officers and Members of this Woman's and Young People's Convention, Auxiliary to the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc.

Greetings in the Name of the Lord and for His Cause:

I bring you greetings from our National Baptist Camp and Senior Retreat and beg to submit to you the account of my stewardship for the past camping year as your Director.

I attended the Annual 1966 Session in Dallas, Texas; the Mid-Winter Board in January which was held in Hot Springs, Arkansas. I also attended a called Camp Committee Meeting which was held in Chicago, Illinois, November 1966 which was called by the Camp Committee Chairman, Rev. Mrs. Trudie Trimm and Co-Chairman, Mrs. Sudie E. Tatum. From this meeting it was voted by the committee that the Director secure bids on the repairs of the camp of which I did, for there were several trips and labor work went into this effort. These bids were submitted at the Mid-Winter Board meeting totalling more than $60,000.00 dollars of which $50,000.00 was voted for immediate repair needs in order to meet the Michigan State Welfare and Health requirements for opening the summer camping season. On June 26, 1967 the National Leadership Conference opened at the camp and your Director served as Co-Chairman for the conference. This was followed by our regular camping session July 3rd through July 15th. Some of the Leaders remained a few days to get the experience of our camping session of which we enjoyed them and they expressed a concerned interest in our youth.

May I express my sincere thanks to all workers who gave their time and talents unselfishly during this session for without you we could not have been successful. God was good to all of us and our good deeds will be recorded by Him in Glory. May I plead earnestly that we adults continue to keep interest in and for our Youth, for they are the future as well as today's Hope for this Changing World.

THEME: "Modern Youth Called to Witness in a Changing World"

SCRIPTURE: Isaiah 43:10; Acts 1:8

Formal Opening of Convention:

Music: "His Name is Wonderful"—Mrs. Betty Johnson of Maryland. Director Barron greeted us in the name of Jesus Christ. She stated it has been eleven years since our return to Denver, "Carnation Capital of the World,"finance and distribution center and the home of so many federal agencies that it is often called the nation's second capital. We are glad to share hospitality of our good friends, Cora Robinson, R. C. Robinson, W. O. Mays, Ora V. Smith and many other wonderful workers. 1967 Convention Theme: "Modern Youth Called to Witness in a Changing World." "What is a perfect Christian witness?" you ask. Dr. L. Nelson Bell describes "The Christian gentleman" in words which he might have called "The perfect Christian Witness." With apology to him I paraphrase: A Christian Witness will be slow to lose patience, a Christian grace. A Christian Witness will look for a way to be constructive even when provoked. A Christian Witness will refrain from trying to impress others with his own importance. A Christian Witness will have good manners. A Christian Witness will think the best, not the worst of others; he will try to be as wise as the serpent and as harmless as the dove in the handing of others. Above all else a Christian Witness will exhibit the love of Christ in his heart and life. Will you be a witness for Him?

" I also bring you greetings from Attorney Patricia Trivers, who is unable to be with us, due to other business affairs."

Western Director, Miss Primrose Funches, organized our finance committee, gave directors new idea of fund raising for repairing the Camp Pool at the sum of $20,000. Drawn on it was a wheel representing each state. The sum which they have donated will be marked by their state. Noon Day Speaker, Dr. I. H. Henderson, Jr., Kansas City, Missouri, President of State Convention (Missionary) presented by Mrs. Romeo Woods. Dr. Henderson gave thoughts on the theme: Witness for Christ is the task for those who have been born again. Sharing with you from the Old Testament through study—youth grow in knowledge and wisdom. One should not yet be satisfied with present conditions. He called the attention to young people—we are not concerned with what Josiah said, but what he did while he was young. No matter what men say, we are nothing without Christ. He left with us this thought. We are not too young to separate good from evil or to die. We don't know when the Lord will call: Follow by faith. Quiet Music — Prayer "Just As I Am"

Director Barron: (Highlights on Message) Presentation Noonday Speaker: Director Barron

Noonday Speaker, Rev. A. Robb, Pastor of Canaan Missionary Baptist Church, National Youth Camp Pastor E. Flint, Michigan. Scripture: Mark 6:32—44. Refer also to John 6:9-13 which we shall find the same five Barley Loaves—Because our faith has been blinded—If you do not commit your children to Him—give Him yourself—notice where they were—mark desert spiritual climate—Johnson grass—vegetation climate—Jesus does not take away anything from you; He only asks for you to give him yourself. The boy gave all he had and it was his lunch (knowing that it was all he had). Your life doesn't amount to much but give it God. Challenge to Young People: Present your body as a living sacrifice Holy acceptable unto God. He did not only give all he had, but gave his dedication. Spoke in terms of older people picking out something between a boy and girl—laughing. This is because they have not been dedicated. Don't wait until you get old and try to dedicate your life to Christ, He wants you while you are young. Give Him your youth, mind, ability

Mrs. Corenne Watts gave thanks to Rev. Robb in behalf of us all, for such an inspiring and challenging message.

SIXTH ANNUAL REPORT OF MRS. ZEE ANDERSON BARRON
NATIONAL DIRECTOR OF THE YOUNG PEOPLE'S DEPARTMENT OF THE WOMAN'S CONVENTION AUXILIARY TO THE
NATIONAL BAPTIST CONVENTION U. S. A., INCORPORATED

Submitted at Denver Auditorium, 1223 Champa Street, Denver, Colorado

September 5 - 9, 1967

ANNUAL REPORT

President Ross, Officers and Members of the Woman's Convention Auxiliary to the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Incorporated, Regional, State and Local Youth Directors, Officers, Delegates and Friends of the National Baptist Young People's Department — Greetings.

We thank God for the opportunity to return after 11 years to Colorado's capital city, Denver, for the Forty-Second Annual Session of the National Young People's Convention.

We have remembered with a great deal of pleasure our stay in this "Mile High City," where the Great Plains meet the Rockies.

We are happy to be in Denver—the center of the West's livestock, petroleum, manufacturing and defense activities. We are thrilled to be in the "Carnation Capital of the World"—the focal point for transportation, finance and distribution—the home of so many Federal agencies that it is often called the nation's second capital.

We are glad to share the gracious hospitality of our good friends, Mesdames Cora Robinson, R. C. Robinson, W. O. Mays, Ora V. Smith and others. We anticipate a glorious fellowship in our common cause of witnessing for Christ here in Denver.

IN MEMORIAM

"In the midst of life there is death." As I was preparing this report I was notified of the sudden passing of our Youth Director of the Tennessee Regular B.M.E. Convention, Mrs. N. A. Crawford. Director Crawford was a dedicated Christian worker. According to the Tennessee women, "She put the Lord's work above her own." We shall miss her, and pray God will send us another dedicated soul to replace her.

I am sure there are others who have gone from labor to reward whose names we do not have. In memory of all our departed co-workers we pause in silent tribute and say with the poet:

It is not death to die—
To leave this weary road,
And, 'mid the brotherhood on high,
To be at home with God.

It is not death to close
The eye long dimmed by tears,
And wake in glorious repose
To spend eternal years.

It is not death to bear
The wrench that sets us free
From dungeon chain, to breathe the air
Of boundless liberty.

It is not death to fling
Aside this sinful dust,
And rise on strong exulting wing
To live among the just.

Jesus, thou Prince of life,
Thy chosen cannot die!
Like thee they conquer in the strife
To reign with thee on high.

PROGRESS ON LITERATURE NEEDS

We are thankful to God and to you for an increase in the use of The Light and The Guide. Please continue to use them. You need the information and we need to make enough to pay for the printing.

We are happy to report that we have complied with your requests and produced two new pieces of literature for the department this year. We have a Kit containing Study Guides and Program Suggestions. Please purchase the kits and begin systematic study in your Circles. I am sure you will find The Torches and all of the other program suggestions interesting, challenging and helpful.

We are also proud of the fact that we now have a Young Matrons' Devotional Magazine in the press. With the help of Director Leak and some of the dedicated matrons we have a book which we feel will meet the devotional needs of young matrons. We plan to comply with your request for a Young Matron's Handbook very soon.

Of course, The Guide contains information for all of the Circles and The Light has material for Red Circles, Y.W.A.'s and J.M.A.'s. But we promised to give you separate Guides for each Circle and we mean to do so.

The Emblem Pins are moving slowly. Please urge your youth to wear their National Emblem Pin.

The literature and the pins should be ordered from Director Funches.

Remember, Christian Friends, in order to be prepared for witnessing we must pray and we must study.

LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE

The Third National Leadership Conference with Dr. Mary O. Ross, President, Mrs. Rosa L. Kimp, Director and Zee Anderson Barron, Conference Chairman was held at Camp Constantine June 26—July 9, 1967. The attendance was small, but the interest and enthusiam were high. The conferees who attended felt "their lives were enriched"; "their visions broadened"; "their levels of leadership lifted and their sense renewed."

President Ross was present and agreed to form a National Leadership Conference Committee with Mrs. Rosa L. Kimp, our talented Conference Director as Chairman.

Several of our Youth Directors attended the Conference and gave of their time and talent toward its success.

NATIONAL YOUTH CAMP

We held two weeks of National camping, July 3—15. The 1967 theme was: "Signals For Our Times." Stop! Listen! Go! A well-rounded program of worship, study, fun, recreation, and fellowship was carried out.

We are grateful to Mr. S. E. Grinstead, Director of National Baptist Student Union for preparing the camp programs; to Camp Director Drinks; Camp Co-chairman Tatum; Camp Pastor, Rev. A. L. C. Robb and Youth Leaders: Thelma Philips, Davene Ross McKinney, Emma Phillips, and Classie Grant for their unstinted service in carrying out the camp program. Camp Mother Clara Guster was ill during the period but came up and helped us close camp.

During the camping period we were blessed with a visit from Mr. and Mrs. Everett Bates and Mr. and Mrs. Self of Ohio, Mr. and Mrs. Saucier and two cars of youth from Chicago, Mrs. Holmes and a bus load from Ohio, Mrs. Henderson and a bus load from Indiana and another bus load from Illinois.

We are not pleased with the lack of interest shown in our National Camp. We realize you have state camps, but you owe a debt of loyalty and cooperation to your National Youth Camp—which is different from any other one you may sponsor or affiliate with.

Why not follow the lead of my Directors Lula Covington and Inels Greer of Mississippi General and sponsor a camp contest? They sent three persons to camp as a result of a contest. The winners were Dorothy Hicks, Avalene Jordan and Mrs. Ethel Porter. All three of these were so inspired that they have pledged to return to camp next year at their own expense. What about you?

President Ross has a vision and a plan for the expansion and development of our program at Constantine. She promised to announce it in the Denver Session. We envision a great Baptist Assembly and Conference Grounds in the very near future.

PROGRESS ON SCHOLARSHIPS

We are glad to tell you that we are providing a scholarship for the education of a young African Student under the National Foreign Mission Board. By the next Annual Session we hope to have our Letha L. Craig College Scholarship Program initiated. This will provide a scholarship in Christian Education for some worthy American youth.

NATIONAL BAPTIST STUDENT UNION

My work as State and National B. S. U. Advisor is truly a labor of love. In addition to the B. S. U. activities with which I worked on my college campus, I had the privilege of sharing in the State Retreat held at Sophia Sutton in Prentiss, Mississippi and the National Retreat held at Florida A. & M. College in Tallahassee.

I always come away from these Retreats with my strength renewed, my feelings refreshed and the flame of hope for youth rekindled. I thank God for the dedicated Christian leadership and the quiet, but dynamic influence which Mr. Grinstead exerts over our Baptist young people.

MEETING AND SPEAKING ENGAGEMENTS

Your loyalty overwhelms me. You were so sweet to respond to my call to meet in Hot Springs during the Mid-Winter Board Meeting. The effect of our work is being felt here in Denver. You kept your promise to bring bus loads of young people.

I owe a deep debt of gratitude to the Directors and friends who invited me to share Youth Days, Women's Day and Matron's Day with them this year. I wish I could have accepted all of your invitations.

I was the guest of the Ohio Young People and Director Pearlie Sanders and assistant Director Beatrice Bates. I have never been so royally entertained; neither have I seen so many enthusiastic young people in a state convention. It took three churches to hold them and each church had an overflow crowd on the outside. One group had to perform and go outside and let another group come in. There is no end to the talent in Ohio. They sang like choirs of Angels. Mrs. Sanders, Mrs. Bates and their associates are doing a marvelous job. The State President, Mrs. Wilhelmina Cole, was as charming and gracious as ever.

I had the pleasure of delivering the Women's Day Address for President Hazel Jones and the Women of White Rock Baptist Church in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, where the dynamic, young Rev. Wm Shaw is the Pastor. A highly intelligent but dedicated Christian group of women led on by some of our national Matrons were out in full force and it was really a high day. They extended to me all of the courtesies imaginable, such as a committee to meet me at the airport, transport me, entertain me at dinner and cater to my every whim. The members of White Rock really make you feel Philadelphia in the "City of brotherly love." To add to my joy, Director Leak, Lauretta Harris, Maude Toney and Bulletin Committee came over from Washington, D. C. to see me.

Another unforgettable experience was one I shared with Director Hattie Drinks and the Senior Matrons of Union Baptist Church of Fort Wayne, Indiana, Rev. Clyde Adams, Pastor. I was royally entertained in the Drinks home by the Matrons of Union Baptist Church and the Drinks family.

The program was shared by all of the young matrons of Fort Wayne and we were graced with the presence of Indiana State President, my friend Fannie Thorpe. I left with the feeling that the matrons of Fort Wayne led on by Pastor Adams and Director Drinks are living their theme by giving "Light For A Dark World."

My speaking engagements on a local level were too numerous to mention.

7TH BAPTIST YOUTH WORLD CONFERENCE

The international youth meeting will be held at Berne, the capital of Switzerland, July 22-28, 1968. An attendance of more than 5,000 from 60 countries is expected.

We sincerely hope our National Baptist Women's Convention will send at least two delegates. The National Director would certainly like to go and carry a young woman to represent the hundreds of National Baptist Young People here in America.

The Young People's Department is sponsoring a Popularity Contest by States in order to take as many persons as possible to this Youth World Conference.

This contest has been approved by President Ross and Director Primrose Funches is in charge. The person raising the highest amount over $1,000 will be given the all-expense paid trip to the conference. The person raising the second highest amount over $1,000 will be given a round trip ticket to Berne, Switzerland.

The contest will close at the Mid-Winter Board Meeting in January 1968.

If you have not done so, please choose a contestant and give the name to Miss Funches.

If you plan to attend and would like to sing in the 1,500 voice International Choir, you should send your request for membership to:

Dr. William Reynolds
Conference Choir
Baptist World Alliance
1628 Sixteenth Street, N. W.
Washington, D. C.

Just think of the marvelous opportunity to join with voices from all the world and sing the praises of God and witness through song to the gospel of the Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

The choir will be just one of the activities. There will be Discussion Groups, Lectures, Addresses, Concerts, etc., at the Conference and tours to the Holy Land and other countries in addition. Won't you join the contest or help some youth win this wonderful trip. Remember we are called to witness "in Jerusalem, in all Judea, and in Samaria and unto the uttermost part of the earth."

1967 CONVENTION THEME

"Modern Youth Called to Witness IN a Changing World"

What is the image you have of modern youth? Do you see a boy with long hair, tight trousers and a guitar slung over his shoulders; a girl with a "mini skirt" and closely cropped hair; Do you see a girl with a "Twiggy look" or a boy with Mod clothes; Do you see a den of dope addicts or "hippies"; Do you see "a sit in" or "a love in" group of wild eyed youngsters; Do you see a "go go" crowd; Do you see a serious group marching for freedom carrying banners and slogans; Do you see a hoard of hate mongers, rioting, looting, burning; Do you see a group in uniform marching off to war in Vietnam; Do you see a normal group of youngsters on a college campus; Do you see Christian youth in a church fellowship or in a youth encampment; What do you see when you look at modern youth? Perhaps you see a combination of all of these?

Do you know what I see? I see a frustrated young boy or a young girl seeking some one with whom to identify; seeking love and understanding; seeking an answer to a question which he has not been able to actually formulate.

In this frustrated bundle of humanity I see hope. Why? Because there is a solution; there is an answer. In the eternal truths of Christianity lie the answers to the hopes of people everywhere. We are Christ's witnesses, His advertisers as well as his advertisement.

These times call for the boldness of Peter and John and the courage of David, the shepherd boy. The kind of courage we find in modern youth today. The youths who face the guns, the dogs, the billets and never cringe. Those who cry and fight for "freedom now" have the courage needed for Christian witnessing.

The Christian will speak out. He will be a witness in action as well as in words. He will never be content with witnessing in church on Sunday; he will hunt out the hard places and witness there, where it costs something.

There is a great deal of witnessing and courage in the West Point Cadet Prayer, known, loved and memorized by every graduate of West Point and I quote:

"O God, Our Father, thou searcher of men's hearts, help us to draw near to Thee in sincerity and truth. May our religion be filled with gladness and may our worship of Thee be natural. Strengthen and increase our admiration for honest dealing and clean thinking, and suffer not our hatred of hypocrisy and pretense ever to diminish. Encourage us in our endeavor to live above the common level of life. Make us to choose the harder right instead of the easier wrong, and never to be content with a half truth when the whole can be won. Endow us with courage that is born of loyalty to all that is noble and worthy, that scorns to compromise with vice and injustice and knows no fear when truth and right are in jeopardy. Guard us against flippancy and irreverence in the sacred things of life. Grant us new ties of friendship and new opportunities of service. Kindle our hearts in fellowship with those of a cheerful countenance, and soften our hearts with sympathy for those who hate and suffer." Unquote.

My Christian friends, if we put only one tenth of that prayer into practical witnessing and standing for God, what a different world we would have.

Modern youth, you are called to be Christian Witnesses. What is a perfect Christian Witness you ask? Dr. L. Nelson Bell describes "The Christian Gentleman" in words which he might have called "The Perfect Christian Witness." With apology to him I paraphrase: A Christian Witness will be slow to lose patience, a Christian grace.

A Christian witness will look for a way to be constructive, even when provoked.

A Christian Witness will not envy the good fortune of others.

A Christian Witness will refrain from trying to impress others with his own importance.

A Christian Witness will have good manners.

A Christian Witness will not be touchy, even when he feels the right of resentment.

A Christian Witness will think the best, not the worst, of others; he will try to be as wise as the serpent and as harmless as a dove in the handling of others.

A Christian Witness will not gloat over the wickedness of other people.

Above all else, a Christian Witness will exhibit the love of Christ in his heart and life. Will you be a Witness for Him?

APPRECIATION

As I close my sixth year of service as your National Director of Young People, I bow in humble submission to God who giveth us the victory, and look back with a deep sense of gratitude to the fine young people who have followed my lead.

I owe so much to so many. First of all I offer my sincere appreciation to President Ross and her staff for giving us freedom to develop and extend the work of our department. I am deeply indebted to Director Funches for her untiring work in printing and promoting sale of our literature and in devising ways and means of adding much needed finance to the department. Director Leak has been a positive source of help in the preparation of our literature and promotion of the work in the East. Our good friend and former Southern Director Watts has rolled up her sleeves as Special Worker in California and has given me the help I needed in that section. I'm sure her report justifies the appointment. I, also, appreciate the manner in which our Southern Director Irvin has gone about the revival of interest in Georgia and other Southern States. I'm grateful, too, for her efficient handling of the finance committee.

My thanks go, also, to the Junior Officers, the State, District and Local Directors; and to the Director, Dean, Secretaries and Instructors in the Christian Education Department. I know it is mad polity to call names because you may omit a very important one, but I must call a few names and apologize in front of those whom I don't call.

Some of those who do so many things to help and are due special thanks are: Romeo Woods who writes for The Light, prepares the worship programs, and serves as Dean and Associate Director of Christian Education; Beatrice Bates who writes for The Light, serves as Director of Christian Education and President of the very active Past Officers Council; Thelma Phillips who directs music and Drama at the Camp, keeps up the correspondence of the Council, serves as Chairman of the Camp Club and the Fellowship Banquet. The entire Past Officers Council furnishes leadership in all areas of our department. They also support the Camp as their special project. In fact, they are my right arm.

Special Orchids are due the Council for the idea of a Testimonial Banquet for the National Director and for accepting her suggestions that it be a Fellowship Dinner instead. To call a few more names—my thanks to Director Cooper for her untiring effort to make our Annual All States Tea—"A thing of beauty." To Director Thornton for her successful leadership in the Queen's Review; to Director Robinson for keeping the Chain Rally alive; my thanks to Editor Harris and the Bulletin Committee for working against the odds to publicize our activities. Extra special thanks to Music Coordinator Grace Taylor and the Choir. My sincere thanks to all of the Committee Chairmen, those of long standing like Grace Hooper, Lula Covington, Mary Beaver, Mercedes Walker, Jessye Bell Davis and others, and to the more recent chairmen, too. I'm equally as grateful. Bouquets are due Odevia Stanton for working so hard to put over the Sunbeam Program. Thanks, too, to Eleanor Kaywood and Pinkie Reeves for helping in so many ways. My thanks to Mrs. Franklin and her committee who sit so patiently and sell our literature—Thanks to the participants on the program, the delegates and to everybody for everything you have done to help me carry on the work of the Young People's Department.

Please continue to pray for me and I shall never fail you. I'm very sure, because "I have an Anchor and my Anchor holds and grips the Solid Rock." "This Rock is Jesus. Yes, He's the one. This Rock is Jesus, the only one."

I pray God will continue to bless and keep you one and all.

Respectfully submitted,

FIRST ANNUAL REPORT OF MRS. TINY K. LEAK, EASTERN DIRECTOR OF THE YOUNG PEOPLE'S DEPARTMENT OF THE WOMAN'S CONVENTION AUXILIARY TO THE NATIONAL BAPTIST CONVENTION U. S. A., INCORPORATED

SUBMITTED IN DENVER, COLORADO, SEPTEMBER, 1967

REPORT

President Ross, Members of the Board and Delegates to the 1967 Annual Session of the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc., Woman's Auxiliary, Director Zee Anderson Barron, Regional Directors, Primrose Funches, Correne Watts, Southern Director Elect E. L. Irvin, Officers of the Young People's Department, and Friends of the Cause, Greetings:

God has smiled upon our efforts and blessed them abundantly. Like the Psalmist of old we find ourselves singing, "Unto Thee, O God, do we give thanks . . . truly God is good."

It is with deep humility and gratitude that I come to you to present the first account of my stewardship as Eastern Director.

In Dallas, Texas, Thursday, September 8, 1966 the resignation rendered by Mrs. Bertha C. Winston of Baltimore, Maryland, as Eastern Director after twenty-two years of untiring and dedicated service was accepted by the Woman's Convention. Significantly, Mrs. Winston was elected to office in Dallas, Texas and also resigned in Dallas. It was with mixed emotions that I accepted the phenomenal position as Eastern Regional Director of the Young People's Department.

I use the term, "mixed emotions" unreservedly, for in years past I had left myself to service in this department without regard to geographical restrictions, and somehow I momentarily experienced a feeling of isolation and loneliness. However elementary it may seem, my thoughts were given to the fact that as the Director of Christian Education I was exposed to Christian friends from every region in the nation, and this was satisfying. In the seclusion of my hotel room I sought composure through prayer and I was jolted out of my state of complacency when I remembered the words written in Isaiah 55:8. "For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways, saith the Lord." It was no longer difficult for me to realize that I had long before made my vows to Almighty God, to follow Him wherever he led me, regardless of friends and acquaintances in the north, south, east or west. I was soon to understand that there was a job in youth development in the Eastern Region of this National Convention and so I have yielded to the need and the desire for a continuing growth for the work among young people in this area.

I visited with President Ross in Washington, D. C. As a newly elected officer in her cabinet, I needed to be given a stimulus to proceed in the right direction. At this time she gave me the encouragement that enhanced my opinion of her as a beautiful soul and a wise leader. Thank you, President Ross. Dialogue with other officers of the Woman's Convention has been my privilege.

I have known and loved Mrs. Bertha C. Winston for many years. To succeed her in the office which she has so ably filled is yet almost too much for me to comprehend. However, here too, the task would be impossible to accomplish had it not been for her personal belief that I could successfully carry on her work. To say the least, I shall never forget for even a moment my indebtedness to Mrs. Winston. She is now our beloved Eastern Director Emeritus. Please remember her in your prayers.

With the greatest pride I must speak of another influential person that, without a doubt, played an important role in leading up to what I consider to be one of the most memorable occasions in my life. She, too, at one time held the office of Eastern Regional Director, later becoming National Director; later still, National Director Emeritus. She has nurtured me and impressed young people the world over, and made a contribution to our Christian society that is indelible in our hearts and minds. Without her patented manner of giving assurance to young people that God's way is the only way, many of us might have faltered. I speak of and solicit your prayers for a great friend of the Young People's Department, Mrs. Etta Versa Frye.

I here and now repeat my solemn pledge of continued cooperation to my present Director and friend, Mrs. Zee Anderson Barron.

I am entirely unselfish in paying respect to Western Director Funches, who has never been too busy to express her concern in my behalf. My regard for her friendship cannot be alienated

From a youth in Alabama to the present Mrs. Corenne Watts has been a constant and welcomed friend and advisor to me. With deep affection I am expressing my gratitude to her.

To my local convention, I offer my sincere thanks to the leaders who have embraced me and given recognition to the signal honor bestowed upon me. There are many persons to whom I am indebted for their cooperation and good wishes. For obvious reasons I cannot mention each of them, but it goes without saying that my heart is swelled with the joy of knowing that we walk not alone.

ACTIVITIES

During the past year the young people of the East have functioned very well. There has been marvelous cooperation from the leadership in New England Baptist Convention, Mrs. Elizabeth Thomas, president, Mrs. Bertha C. Winston, Director of The Young People's Department.

The annual youth conference and workshop held at Pilgrim Baptist Church, in Red Bank, N. J., April 1967, was inspired by the representation of 52 churches from seven states with two conventions from the District of Columbia. It was our privilege to be sponsored as guest radio speaker at New Site Shiloh Baptist Church, Fredericksburg, Va.; to attend the Mid-winter Board Meeting in Hot Springs, Arkansas, January 1967 as Eastern Director; to represent the Young People's Department at a testimonial given our own Junior Matron's Auxiliary president, Mrs. Hazel Jones, at White Rock Baptist Church in Philadelphia, Pa.; to serve for a week in Youth Development at the Pilgrim Baptist Church, Washington, D. C.; to coordinate the Mission Study Class for the District Baptist Woman's Convention, annual session; to serve as visiting Church School teacher on several occasions; to speak at the first Youth Week observance for Mt. Jezreel Baptist Church, Alexandria, Va.

It is my pleasure to announce the representation of the Young People's Department of the recently organized National Capitol Baptist Convention of the District of Columbia, Mrs. Ethel Robertson, President, Woman's Auxiliary, Rev. Wilmore A. Carter, President, parent body. We solicit your prayers for the continued growth and strength of the NEW BODY.

In areas of contact we have sought and are still seeking the aid of state presidents, pastors, missionary societies, youth leaders, counselors and directors in putting forth more energy and dedicated efforts for stronger youth organizations in Christian missions. We are constantly reminded that the harvest is plenty but the laborers are few.

PERILOUS TIMES

We should have whole hearted belief in young Americans and young Christians. Lack of faith in young people will impede our progress in getting them to participate or even accept the concept of Christian ethics. To leaders, I say, if we lack faith in our young we weaken ourselves. We are appalled at the recent devastating riots and it is inconceivable that any segment of our citizenry, educated and nurtured in a free America, and influenced by the lofty ideals of a Christian orientated way of life, could degenerate into a lawless mob. We are shocked and dismayed at the practice of the "black power" concept. We have observed the involvement of youth in all its tenderness and we say, surely we are living in perilous times and we pause to wonder what has happened in the heart of men and women everywhere.

We have questioned the reason for the breakdown in our world society; we have questioned the reason for disrespect, lack of concern, the increase of social diseases, open rebellion, disregard for the civil law among our young people, etc., etc., etc., yet our leaders—both in the White House and in the Lord's House—tell us that we never had it so good and that they are going to show us how to build a real heaven here on earth. The young people are putting themselves in a position to make demands upon these kinds of promises Leadership is serious business. The oldder generation can help. Instead of knocking youth or fearing their judgment in learning how to live in this seemingly chaotic world, we can provide a steadying influence in their lives by the leadership we render. Confucious, the great Chinese philospher says: "Learning without thought is perilous." These are perilous times for young people, but working together the youth of the world can one day reach the goals set before mankind by the Biblical prophets; a brotherhood of nations based on true justice and peace.

ALWAYS BEFORE ME

The psalmist spoke and said, "I foresaw the Lord always before my face, for he is on my right hand, that I should not be moved" My sentiment is that of the Psalmist. Keeping the spirit of Jesus Christ within me and a vision of his face before me that I might do the work of Him who sent me, I thank God for this opportunity. I bear witness to his goodness, I will continue in His name to do my best.

THE WORLD'S BIBLE

Christ has no hands but our hands
To do His work today;
He has no feet but our feet
To lead men in His way;
He has no tongue but our tongue
To tell men how He died;
He has no help but our help
To bring them to His side.
What if our hands are busy
With other work than His?
What if our feet are walking
Where sin's allurement is?
What if our tongues are speaking
Of things His lips would spurn?
How can we hope to help Him
And hasten His return?

GREETINGS

President Ross, Officers of the Women's Convention, Directors Barron, Leak, Acting Director Ervin, Field Workers, Directors of States, Officers of the Young People's Department:

I am a debtor to you and my heavenly father; Mrs. Kimp, for the Pageant, Pauline Thomas Campbell for the honor bestowed on me by the Women's Convention and you for the way you honored me for 31 years of service in Jacksonville, Fla., where I was elected Western Director. All praise goes to the Divine Being for good health. I am indebted to President Ross who has constantly encouraged me and given me loyal support.

Finance and business is my field, and I have freely given of my experience to this department. I have had all of the printing of the books, printed and then sold them to pay the bill. I am the oldest officer.

CALLED CHALLENGED COMPELLED

This is a day of action, a great challenge to all of us in this restless age. It has become increasingly necessary to put to work the techniques and skills at our command and to get into the action . . . . be where the action is.

The thing that is most needful is to express our hope in Christ in a tangible way. Many of us had hope for a theoretical point of view, but this is a day for action. Our hope in Christ should be programatic.

It was hope in practice which enabled Queen Esther to appear before the King in behalf of her people. It was hope in God—that enabled the boys to go into the fiery furnace. It was the explicit hope that Daniel had when he faced the lion's den. It was hope in Christ that caused apostles Paul and Silas to rejoice in the Philipian jail. Therefore we who are here at this setting, let us rise up as one great army, through hope in Christ to cooperate, serve and contribute to the large program of Christ's kingdom.

The general purpose of this topic is to try to give some idea of Young People's place in building world Christianity. The material is arranged in three sections:

A. Aims to remind us of our Christian heritage.
B. Attempts to acquaint us with some of the channels that Young People had set up for effective participation.
C. Gives glimpses of results and suggests some of today's opportunities.

"Never underestimate the power of Young People."

The leader asked a group of Intermediates: "Who was the first woman missionary"?

"Sarah, Abraham's wife", replied a lad. You see, Abraham probably would never have heeded God's call to leave home to help others if Sarah hadn't urged him on. We know little about Sarah, nor have we many records of women of the Old Testament who helped their men to make headlines. A few examples will suffice however.

First on our honor roll is Hannah, the mother who dedicated her young son to God's service (1 Sam. 1:24-28).

Close to Hannah in spirit was Miriam, a nursemaid to her little brother, who became the leader of the chosen people in their days of trial. Another little maid, a captive servant saved her master Naaman.

Historians of the books of the Kings tell about a "Great Woman," whose hospitality meant much to God's prophet (II Kings 4:8-10). A woman of wisdom was Hulda, whom men gladly consulted. Among the aggressive and progressive women were Judge Deborah, who instilled courage into timid captain Barak, and diplomatic Queen Esther, whom God called to deliver His people when mere men seemed helpless.

"For he hath regarded the low estate of his handmaiden." (Luke 1:48)

"For he hath regarded the low estate of His handmaiden, for behold from henceforth all generations shall call me blessed."

When Jesus's birth was announced, a new song on a new theme was sung, a song of hope and joy for all the Young People of the world. And how they have responded to that glad song!

Women crowded around Jesus, seeking His blessing and forgiveness, He found rest in the home of believing Sisters of Bethany—Mary, who sat at his feet to learn, and Martha, who attended to his physical needs.

Despite objections from materially minded Judas, the Master accepted the tribute of a woman who anointed his feet with costly ointment. As an object lesson illustrating true giving He pointed to the widow's mite. It was neither with the approval of men leaders, nor in keeping with the social custom of the day that Jesus crossed the barriers of sex, race and religion to convert a Samaritan woman who hastened to her native city to win others to the Christian way. (John 4:28-20-29).

"GO-TELL"

Very significant it is when the end of His earthly life came, faithful women were the last to leave the cross and the first to appear at the empty tomb To Mary Magdalene and the other Mary and Salome was given the commission: "Go-Tell."

And there were Mary Magdalene and the other Mary sitting over against the sepulchre.

1. In the end of the sabbath as it began to dawn toward the first day of the week, came Mary Magdalene and the other Mary to see the spulchre.
2. And, behold there was a great earthquake; for the angel of the Lord descended from heaven, and came and rolled back the stone from the door and sat upon it.
3. His countenance was like lightning, and his raiment white as snow.
4. And for fear of Him the keepers did shake and became as dead men.
5. And the angel answered and said unto the women, fear not ye: for I know that ye seek Jesus, which was crucified.
6. He is not here: for He is risen as He said, come see the place where the Lord lay.
7. And go quickly, and tell His disciples that he is risen from the dead, and behold He goeth before you into Galilee; there shall ye see Him: lo I have told you.
8. And they departed quickly from the sepulchre with fear and great joy; and did run to bring his disciples word.

9. And as they went to tell His disciples, behold, Jesus met them saying, All Hail, and they came and held him by the feet, and worshipped him.

10. Then Jesus said unto them, be not afraid; go tell my brethren that they go into Galilee, and there shall they see me.

11. Now when they were coming behold, some of the watch came into the city, and shewed unto the chief priest all the things that were done.

Apostolic women were active witnesses in every form of Christian service, from Priscilla, associated professor in the first Theological seminary, to a certain disciple named Tabitha, (which by interpretation is called Dorcas). This woman was full of good works and alms deeds—the maker of coats and garments for the poor among the company of believers (Acts 9:36-39).

36. Now at Joppa a certain disciple named Tabitha, which by interpretation is called Dorcas; this woman was full of good works and alms deeds which she did.

37. And it came to pass in those days, that she was sick and died; whom they had washed, they laid her in an upper chamber.

38. And for as much as Lydia was nigh to Joppa and the disciples had heard that Peter was there, they sent unto Him two men that He would not delay to come to them.

39. Then Peter arose and went with them. When He was come they brought him into the upper chamber: and all the widows stood by him weeping and shewing the coats and garments which Dorcas made, while she was with them. Paul sent his Epistle to the Romans by Phoebe, "Our sister which is a servant of the church which is at Centrhea" and directs "that he receive her in the Lord, and as becometh saints and that ye assist her in whatsoever business she hath need of you."

Women disciples were with men at prayer in the upper room awaiting the gift of the Holy Spirit: women were holding a prayer meeting by the riverside when Paul joined them in his first Macedonia preaching tour.

Among these praying women was a capable business woman, Lydia, who took the preacher to her home and arranged practical details of his work. As in days of old praying women, gift-giving women, serving women, Christian mothers and grandmothers, business women, housewives, teachers, politicians—all eager to "Go-Tell," these are the women who set the pattern for our mission in world Christianity. These are the women who have been called, challenged and compelled to carry the message in this action age.

THE WORLD YOUTH CONFERENCE

1968 will be a year to remember, for the 7th Baptist Youth World Conference will be held in Burns, Switzerland . . . during July. The theme will be "One World, One Lord, One Witness." Our Convention must be represented by some of our Young People. The time is short . . . get busy now.

NATIONAL YOUTH CAMP

There is a great need at the National Youth Camp . . . You can help . . . Camp club memberships are very important, personal donations, and donations from districts and states. Each gift or contribution can be used no matter how small . . . The program of the camp is geared for both Youth, Youth Leaders and Adult Workers . . . everyone can benefit from its program.The camp needs YOU . . . you need the camp. Help . . .

"LORD, SEND ME"

To spend, though it be blood—to spend, and, spare not,
So send I you—to labor unrewarded,
To serve unpaid, unloved, unsought, unknown,
To bear rebuke, to suffer scorn, and scoffing,
So send I you—to toil for Me alone.

So send I you to bind the bruised and broken,
O'er wandering souls to work, to weep, to wake,
To bear the burdens of a world aweary,
So send I you to suffer for My sake.

So send I you—to loneliness and longing
With heart a hungering for the loved and known,
Forsaking home and kindred, friend and dear one,
So send I you, to know My love alone.

So send I you to leave your life's ambitions,
To die to dear desire, self-will resign,
To labor long and love where men revile you,
So send I you—to lose your life in Mine.

So send I you to hearts made hard by hatred,
To eyes made blind, because they will not see;
To spend, though it be blood—to spend, and, spare not,
So send I you—to taste of Calvary . . .
So send I you—Lord, here am I! Send me!
