REVISED CONSTITUTION OF THE NATIONAL BAPTIST CONVENTION, U.S.A., INC.

PREAMBLE

Whereas, it was the sense of the Negro Baptist of the United States as represented in several Baptist organizations convened in Atlanta, Ga., September 29, 1895, and known as the Baptist Foreign Mission Convention hitherto engaged in Missionary work on the West Coast of Africa; the National Baptist Convention which had been doing missionary work in the United States; the National Baptist Missionary work on the West Coast of Africa; the National Baptist Convention that these organizations should unite into one organization for the purpose of putting into effect the benevolent intentions of their constituents by eliciting, combining and directing the energies of denomination: therefore said organizations did unite and agree upon certain fundamental principles of organic rules, which as amended from time to time, are as follows:

ARTICLE I—NAME

This organization shall be known and styled as the National Baptist Convention of the United States of America.

ARTICLE II—OBJECT

This Convention by uniting Baptist churches and other Baptist organizations, such as may desire an organization of this kind, shall undertake to promote home and foreign missions: to encourage and support Christian education: to publish and distribute Sunday school and other religious literature; and to engage in whatever other Christian endeavor is required to advance the Redeemer's kingdom throughout the world.

ARTICLE III—MEMBERSHIP

Section 1. The membership of this Convention shall be representative, annual and life.

Section 2. Representative membership shall be composed of messengers from churches, associations, district conventions and state conventions all known to be in harmony with the purpose of this Convention. These organizations shall pay into the treasury of this Convention sums as are set out in sections of this Article.

Section 3. Basis of Representations. (a) Churches with 200 to 500 members, $25.00; 500 to 1,000 members, $35.00 (b) Churches above 1,000 members, $50.00 paid in as representation, not to exceed two messengers. (c) District State Convention, $50.00. (d) Associations, $35.00.

Section 4. Life Membership—Any person who is in good and regular standing in any Missionary Baptist church that is a member of this Convention may become a life member by the payment of the sum of $200.00 into the treasury of this Convention.

Section 5. Annual Membership—Any person who is a member of a church that is in good and regular standing with this Convention may become an ANNUAL member of this Convention by payment of the sum of $10.00 into the treasury of this Convention. Said ANNUAL member may engage in the discussion of the Convention but not vote.

Section 6. Associations and State conventions shall elect their messengers to the National Convention in their annual meeting preceding the Convention and certify said messenger to the secretary.

Article 3 would be so amended that section 7 would read as follows

"Since the convention is primarily a fellowship, and since the fellowship owns the corporation, membership in the fellowship does not give to any individual member or group of members equity or special property rights in the assets of the corporations The annual representation fees are designed primarily to carry the expenses of the convention and to help in its work in general and cannot be construed as capital investment in the corporation

Section 8 The question of the rights and privileges of membership are settled only by the convention itself or its Board of Directors in the convention's absence.

Section 9. No member or group of members of the convention shall have the rights to use the civil courts to settle matters regarding membership rights and convention procedures. In these matters the convention itself is the supreme court from which there is no appeal. The majority vote of the fellowship is therefore binding on the individual, the convention and corporation itself.

ARTICLE IV

Voting in this convention shall be by the delegates assembled without reference to member organizations, states or sections of the country, and shall be by voice, or show of hands, or standing

ARTICLE V

Dear Brethren: April 5, 1886, an open letter to the Baptist clergy and laymen was issued by Rev. Wm. J. Simmons, an American Baptist, asking if we should have a National Convention to discuss questions of interest to our beloved denomination. At that time the following reasons were given.

1. To promote personal piety, sociability, and a better knowledge of each other.
2. To be able to have an understanding as to the great ends to be reached by the denomination.
3. To encourage our literary men and women, and promote the interest of Baptist literature.
4. To discuss questions pertaining especially to the religious, educational, industrial, and social interests of our people.
5. To give an opportunity for the best thinkers and writers to be heard.
6. That, united, we may be more powerful for good and strengthen our pride in the denomination.

Having been solicited to write the Call by many whose names and endorsements are here unto affixed, the Call is hereby made by their advice and solicitations for said convention to meet in St. Louis, Mo., August 25, 1886, 10 o'clock a.m., in the First Baptist Church, and the pastor thereof is hereby requested to serve as a Committee of Arrangements, with power to select his associates.

Wm. H. Steward, Louisville, Ky., and Rev. R. H. Cole, 2609 Goode Avenue, St Louis, are hereby requested to serve as a Committee on Transportation.

WM. J. SIMMONS

The chronological report in our National Baptist Minutes is hereby corrected, viz. The parties as they appear below were officers of the Foreign Missions or National Educational Conventions, as were their predecessors. Said conventions merged into the National Baptist Convention in 1886 or met co-jointly with it, or otherwise.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS MEETING
MOUNT OLIVE BAPTIST CHURCH—2:00 P.M.

September 2, 1969

The opening song service was conducted by the Assistant Director, the Reverend Emory Johnson. Various brethren of the Board led in sentence prayers that was followed by the singing of "O How I Love Jesus."

The Board was presided over by our President, Dr. J. H. Jackson, who gave very timely remarks and solicited the cooperation of all the brethren throughout the annual session.

President Jackson called for Secretary T. J. Jemison to read the minutes of the last meeting. The minutes were adopted on a motion by the Reverend A. L. Davis, Jr., and seconded by the Reverend W. T. Crutcher.

President Jackson spoke of a mimeographed letter that was being circulated by several men who purposed to label themselves the "Concerned Clergy" of the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc., that had made certain charges against the convention. The President asked if the Board of Directors would like to hear from these men giving them the chance to present their charges. The Board members responded in the affirmative. This being the case, Dr. Jackson stated that in order to do this we would have to vote to suspend the time of the Executive Session of the Board of Directors to hear this matter. It was moved by the Reverend Charles H. Williams and seconded by the Reverend W. H. Robinson that this be done. The motion passed unanimously.

Dr. Jackson stated in the outset that these men, so self-styled as "concerned clergy" of the convention had acted without the sanction or authority of the National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Inc.

The charges in the letter were read by the Reverend Timothy Mitchell of New York and the Reverend L. K. Curry of Chicago. Illinois spoke on the accusations in the letter.

The charges were:

1. "We of the National Baptist Convention have failed to living up to our Covenant which says, To aid each other in sickness and distress."

This was refuted by the records of the convention and by many of the Board members present. The work of the convention, the Home Mission Board of the convention and thousands of individual National Baptist Pastors and churches throughout the nation are engaged in helping the needy daily.

2. "Many Black Baptists in Mississippi are now starving from the sickness on malnutrition and we have turned our backs on them as a convention."

The second charge was strongly denied by the Board members from Mississippi. The denials were given by Dr. E. E. Spencer, President of the General Baptist

State Convention of Mississippi, Dr. C. C. Coleman of Grenada, Mississippi and others from the State

3. "Millions of Black children in Biafra are starving to death and we as a denomination have said and done nothing."

The third charge was refuted by the records of the Secretary and Treasurer of the convention. The records showed that we have contributed in the last few years some $18,000.00 to such causes.

4. "Hundreds and thousands of our people are in dire distress in our cities because they carry the double burdens of poverty and discrimination, yet we have not addressed ourselves to their problems."

This charge was successfully refuted by the Reverend A. L. Davis, Jr., Civic Leader of New Orleans, Louisiana and the Reverend W. T. Crutcher, Civic Leader of Knoxville, Tennessee and others. It was also brought out that no one more than our President has addressed himself to the evils of segregation and discrimination and the segregator himself. The President of this convention has been forthright in denouncing this type of system in our American way of life.

5. "Our nation is sick from the cancer of racism, and yet poisoned carriers of this disease such as, Governor Lester Maddox of Georgia and Governor Wallace of Alabama, have not been denounced by our conventional leaders."

There again it was pointed out by the brethren that they as well as our President had denounced not only these two but all other racists who would deny anyone the basic rights to individuals, groups of individuals or a race as set forth in the Federal Constitution of this nation.

The "concerned clergy" then spoke of a Memorial Service that they were having to the late Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., and announced the speakers for the service. The time and place was also announced by the concerned clergy. To this President Jackson invited the ones who could attend to do so. Dr. Roland Smith made a statement in which he supported the stand taken by Dr. Jackson.

The charges then read by Secretary Jemison were refuted and proved false without a reasonable doubt.

President Jackson then spoke briefly on how necessary it was for all to be on their best behavior in choosing a Vice President to take the place of the late Dr. T. S. Harten. President Jackson also requested that after his message on Thursday that all would remain seated for thirty minutes and be in order before proceeding with the election of officers. He wanted to let the Holy Spirit preside over the election.

The meeting came to a close with silent prayer for those who were sick, the Reverend Owen D. Pelt, Illinois; The Reverend James H. Brown, Illinois; the Reverend F. O. Davis, Dallas, Texas; the Reverend S. D. Rose, Michigan; the Reverend M. M. Morris, Mississippi; the Reverend T. C. Spann, Michigan; the Reverend E. O. Sweat, Texas and others.

A SECOND GREAT ATLANTA SPEECH

It was in Atlanta, Georgia many years ago when Booker T. Washington the great American statesman and philosopher made the historic speech in which he told the south and the United States. "Let down your buckets where you are."

In speaking before the 38th session of the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A. Incorporated September 5, 1963, another great American addressed himself to the problem of right relationships between citizens and the nation Dr. J. H. Jackson president of the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Incorporated, emphasized the importance of cooperation between all groups in the nation instead of competition as a sure way to reduce tensions and build a stronger America He argued impressively and successfully, that with a nation blessed with the moral forces of the Federal Constitution, and with a supreme law adjustable to the changing circumstances in the nation's life, the answer to the problems of the United States were in the reach of the people of the nation and could be solved through the techniques laws, and the basic philosophy of America. He discouraged one group using another for its own promotion, and spoke out against the disregard of the sacredness of human personalities in all groups He said "We cannot build a true democracy by employing the misery of the poor to heighten and to encourage the morality of the rich. We must not victimize the weak in order to correct the failures of the strong. Poor people are as precious in the sight of God as the rich. They should not be used as a means of frightening indifferent congressmen into doing their duty Neither should the humble people of this country be used to put on the statute books of the nation new laws and new bills for the rights of men These things our statesmen should know and be inspired to do: not through pressure but by a patriotic sense of duty "

The speaker summoned all Americans to make a patriotic use of the resources of the nation as well as harnessing their own gifts to withstand the pressures and problems that confront them The speaker emphasized that all groups "must put the nation first and then begin with what they have and what they are, and work not only to gain their share in the nation's life, but to sacrifice and live in such a way as to encourage the nation's life so that the nation will be strong enough, and rich enough to subdue and overcome the negative forces of destruction, so that the creative and the positive can prevail."

The speech was a call for a stronger America and for human personalities committed enough and strong enough to grow not only in the quest of freedom, but in the administration of justice in a spirit of goodwill. This address will go down in history as one of the great directives in the meaning of first class citizenship for all Americans

A Suggestion For Political Emphasis
Adopted By The National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc.,
September 7, 1963

Because we have today more active registered voters within the ranks of our National Baptist Convention and our [illegible] we do need to say something about some of the problems of national politics

These new voters must not be left to be exploited by demagogues and to be misused or misdirected by corrupt and selfish politicians. We as religious leaders should help guide them or to assist them in this hour

Today we need to recognize three distinct groups in the political field among us

1. Those who work directly through the party as officeholders and leaders

This group must be loyal to the party and make their contribution through such loyalty.

2. There must also be staff workers who are salaried by the party. They should be loyal to the party and do their best to serve the nation well by serving well their party.

3. A third group should seek to serve the nation and the party by making the nation first and using the party only as a means of helping to strengthen the nation. This group should be able when they think it best for the nation's life to move across party lines and vote their convictions in the interest of the welfare of the nation. With so many subtle attacks on the nation's life and so many obvious weaknesses that can be concerned in party politics, America now needs a large segment of intelligent active voters who are intelligent enough to help preserve the nation's life by their vote, and help to correct party errors by supporting issues that would mean the most to citizens of the nation and to the nation itself.

Out of this group we should find a very active committee to begin working in the present national election It should do the following:

a. Withhold commitment to any candidate for the present time

b Study the issues carefully and analyze them thoroughly

c Follow the campaigns of both parties carefully.

By October 21st. this committee should as nearly as possible, pool their thinking and implement the results of their conclusions and discoveries.

In the days ahead, our political leaders will be greatly pressured by forces that may not be committed wholly to the nation's life There must be other forces that can help shape public opinion.

SOME HISTORIC ACHIEVEMENTS OF THE 68TH SESSION OF THE NATIONAL BAPTIST CONVENTION, USA., INC. IN ATLANTA, GEORGIA, SEPTEMBER 3-8th

1 The approval of a Nine Million Housing Project presented by President J. H Jackson.

2. Reported progress on the implementation of the 100,000 acres of land acquired by the convention in Liberia, West Africa for "Operation Production" or a new venture in agricultural missions

3 Approval of a cooperative loan plan to help weaker churches to secure first mortgage loans

4 As a step towards helping to ease city tensions, to seek to make more attractive farm life for those who elect to live in the rural districts

5 Approval of institutes on citizenship under the law to be carried on in our churches.

6 The creation of a Research Commission to study and to evaluate the contributions that National Baptist people have made and are making to the life of the nation and to the world

7 The convention was still unique in its fellowship and cooperation. Practically every proposition that was passed was passed unanimously, including the election of officers. The president, Dr. J. H. Jackson, announced before the time of elections that he wanted the delegates to allow the Holy Spirit to preside over the election and after thirty minutes of silence and worship, without political speeches, one delegate made a motion for the election of presidents. It was seconded, and the delegates—all of them reverently stood In the afternoon all officers were elected unanimously to succeed themselves. There was one office to be filled because of the death of Dr T. S Horton. There were two names presented—that of Dr. Sandy F Ray of New York, and Dr Julian Taylor of Connecticut. After the voting had

PROPOSITION I THE NATIONAL BAPTIST CONVENTION, U.S.A., Inc.

National Baptist Convention Co-operative Loan Plan

Several years ago the president of this convention, suggested to the Board of Directors in the Hot Springs meeting, that we should seek some method by which to aid worthy and deserving churches in the matter of loans. Today I present to you a plan for study and recommendation to the convention in the September meeting if the Board thinks well of it. The National Baptist Convention would make first mortgage loans to churches on the following conditions:

1. If the numerical strength of the church insures physical ability to pay all loans.
2. If the financial history of the church guarantees the financial strength or the stewardship ability that would make said churches a good risk.
3. If the necessary notes and papers will be signed by members who posses sufficient collateral.
4. There would be formed a special committee, whose job it would be to inspect and carefully examine all applications and the standing of all applicants. Here we would need men with business minds and experiences; some builder on whom we could rely and sufficient legal talent to guide us legally.

This kind of project should be financed by our member churches including in in their budget for the National Baptist Convention.

PROPOSITION II

Since we purchased the 85 acre farm, adjacent to our 414 acre, Freedom Farm we have had five (5) other requests to purchase farms in the Somerville area of Tennessee, and one request to build a small farm-home on a one (1) acre tract of land.

The National Baptist Convention, it seems to me, should do all within its power to do the following things:

1. Encourage in our people, the will to own land and to cultivate the soil if they are interested in farming.
2. Every state convention should give some consideration to helping to improve the rural life of our people.

There is an aspect of rural life that seems to me to be the responsibility of county, state, and federal governments. We do appreciate the consideration that the federal government is now giving to farmers in price support and to [illegible] the farmer is at a decided disadvantage. When he raises his produce he has no voice in what the price will be. This is true of his grain, his livestock, and all other commodities that he produces on a large scale. He takes his commodities to the market, he is told how much he has brought. He is not allowed even to [illegible] or measure what he sells, and frequently he does not see the weight, until the merchant gives him a written sale sheet.

But when this same farmer returns to purchase commodities, he has no voice in the purchase. he must pay the price that is written on the sales sheet that the merchant again gives him.

The farmer is a basic business man and his life must be made respectible if he is to grow morally and economically.

Poor farmers cannot purchase the necessary equipment required to run a farm for the cost of tractors and other machinery is in the class with our most expensive cars, like Cadillacs and Chryslers.

While the government does give some assistance to some farmers in the purchasing of lime and fertilizer, more of this should be done. There should be special technicians, hired by the government to aid farmers in keeping their equipment in the best possible shape. The technicians should be available for a limited number of farmers, in a given area, in a county.

The government is making available certain types of instructions for farmers through farm demonstration agents and others who serve in advisory capacities. But there is a need for a kind of medicare that veterinarians could give to the animals on the farm and other assistants that all farmers need.

We should request a committee to approach the Department of Agriculture when and if there are enough farmers who are willing to participate in this kind of program.

PROPOSITION III

Our Liberian experiment with 100,000 acres of land available to us in Liberia, West Africa

We should request the following from our United States government:

1. Make available to us the talent and experience of some person or persons who could lead us in the development of this 100,000 acres project. The financing of such a person should be done by the National Baptist Convention.
2. We should again make a serious effort to secure young talented men who would go for us and serve in this wonderful undertaking.

PROPOSITION IV

The need for annual institutes in our churches and communities on "American Citizenship Under the Law"

It is most essential that our churches, associations, and state conventions, sponsor annually, institutes on "American Citizenship Under The Law." Such vital matters as the rights and responsibilities of American citizens should not be left exclusively in the hands of our Civil Rights Organizations. They should be a vital part of our church program. Citizenship is a matter of legal rights as well as moral and social rights. Because of the fundamental legal, ethical, and social principles of American citizenship, this subject must no longer be left as the subject of mass meetings, emotional tensions, and hysteria. It must become a matter of study, discussion, reflection and understanding; therefore, it must be taught in an atmosphere that is conducive to calm, clear, and deliberate thought.

I do suggest, therefore, that the Board of Directors, would propose to the next session of the National Baptist Convention, the adoption of the proposition that our National Baptist Convention shall sponsor a series on institutes on "American Citizenship Under The Law," and that we would request our member bodies to participate in the same. We will recommend to our Sunday School and B.T.U. Congress, our Women's Convention, Moderator's Council, and Laymen's Organization, that they include this on their agenda and help make it a reality.

As churches and church leaders, we must be aware of the demands of the times and revamp and reshape our program accordingly.

On March 25-29, 1963, we tried an experiment at the Olivet Baptist Church, with an institute on "American Citizenship Under The Law," the results were most encouraging and the response has inspired the above recommendation to you.

Dr. W. T. Alexander, one of the members of the Board of Directors, was our special lecturer.

PROPOSITION V

There should be created a program that by which a most accurate history of the National Baptist Convention should be written, relating the work of the church, directly to the struggles; not only of our race, but to those of our nation, also.

There are being written stories, magazine articles, and articles in the Britannica Book of the Year of the Encyclopedia Britannica and other books; stories that misinterpret or understate the facts and principles in contributions of the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc. Some seek to discredit our organization; others would ignore it, but we must make available to the reading public our positive attitude, our efforts, and our achievements, so that generations yet unborn will not be misled from what they read in printed pages. With 6,300,000 constituents and about 35,000 churches, we should be producing an annual volume full of the facts and the true interpretation of current history as our scholars would understand and appreciate.

This would require a large budget to employ research scholars as such would be needed.

PROPOSITION VI

On the attitude of the convention on the recent law which would force clergymen to join the Social Security Program as sponsored by the Federal Government.

Some years ago the representative of this department came to our Board of Directors Meeting in Hot Springs, and spoke to us on the voluntary provision for clergymen to choose if they wish to; to file for Social Security. I recommended that those who desired might join; I, myself joined, but then it was a matter of choice. In reading a pamphlet, called "Social Security for Clergymen," by the United States Department of Health, Education and Welfare, Social Security Administration, April, 1966, we find the following statement on page 2, paragraph 1:

> The Social Security Amendments of 1967 made a basic change in the way clergymen have their earnings from the ministry covered under the social security program. For taxable years ending after 1967, these earnings are automatically covered, and are subject to self-employment contributions unless the clergyman receives from the Internal Revenue Service an exemption on the grounds that he is opposed to coverage by reason of conscience or religious principles.

"The term clergyman, for social security purposes, means a duly ordained minister, priest, or rabbi, a Christian Science practitioner, or a member of a religious order who has not taken a vow of poverty.

A commissioned or licensed minister of a church (or church denomination) that has an ordination procedure is considered to be a clergyman only if he has the authority to perform all of the ecclesiastical functions that an ordained minister of this church can perform.

It is clear from this paragraph that the government is saying, now, Social Security is compulsory for all ministers, unless it is opposed on religious principles.

I informed the representatives of the Federal Government, that we as a Baptist Convention believe profoundly in the separation of church and state. While we believe in supporting the Federal Government as citizens in every way possible, but we do not believe that the authority of the Federal Government should be extended by law over the life and thought of the church. It matters not whether such actions are designed to help or benefit the church. The ill effects of such acts grow out of the fact that the government would be encroaching upon the rights of the church. Therefore, I would propose the following statement, as the expression of the position of the National Baptist Convention, regarding any form of compulsory Social Security:

> "We of the National Baptist Convention are opposed to the recent law, passed by Congress, making it compulsory for clergymen to join the Social Security Program for the following reasons:
> 1. It is a violation of the principles of the separation of church and state.
> 2. It is an encroachment of the Federal Government upon the rights and responsibilities, peculiar to the church itself.
> 3. This opposition is not construed to mean that any clergyman of this denomination who chooses to join the Social Security Program of the Federal Government would be in violation of his pledge of loyalty to the principles of this convention."

NATCHEZ COLLEGE

We believe there is still a place for schools like Natchez College, and will be for many years to come. Therefore, every reasonable effort and sacrifice should be made to maintain and to develop such institutions.

In response to the request of the president of the General Baptist State Convention of Mississippi, sanctioned by many of his outstanding leaders, I submit the following propositions for the consideration of the Board of Directors of the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Incorporated, the trustees of Natchez College, and the General Baptist State Convention of Mississippi.

1. That instead of making a loan to Natchez College, the owners of said college will agree to sell the college outright to the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Incorporated, for a fee that can be agreed upon by both the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Incorporated and the authorized agents and owners of Natchez College. The period of this ownership shall be a duration of five (5) years.

2. That when and if papers are signed transferring Natchez College to the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Incorporated, the National Baptist Convention will also execute a legal document giving to the General Baptist State Convention of Mississippi the option to buy back Natchez College at the expiration of five (5) years.

3. The price to be paid by the General Baptist State Convention of Mississippi to the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Incorporated would be the amount that said National Baptist Convention paid for Natchez College plus a rate of interest agreed upon, and plus whatever amount of money that said National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Incorporated had invested in Natchez College plus a rate of interest agreed upon.

4. All capital improvements made by the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Incorporated would be made in joint agreement with the trustees of Natchez College and the representatives of the General Baptist State Convention of Mississippi.

5. The General Baptist State Convention of Mississippi would join with the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Incorporated in extending an invitation to all other Baptist Conventions in Mississippi owning schools to merge with Natchez College in order to make a stronger and more effective school with the highest quality of education. Said conventions would sell their properties and put said funds in a special account to be used in such a way that the schools sold could be memorialized either through naming subsequent buildings or chairs after outstanding persons or institutions that have been connected with the respective conventions throughout their history.

6. That there should be created a trustee board of at least seven (7) persons with such educational background that would fit them to help the faculty in drawing up the best possible program for the highest possible quality of education.

7. Also there should be a board of managers who would be the legal holders and managers of the property, and it would have the power to elect the trustee board referred to above. This board would be responsible for planning financial campaigns for the life and development of the school. Each convention in the State of Mississippi would have representation on this board.

8. The General Baptist State Convention of Mississippi will be responsible for financing programs such as teachers' salaries, current expenses, and the general upkeep of the property until the other conventions have joined with them in the venture.

9. The purpose of this agreement is as follows.

a. To protect the physical structure of the college such as land and buildings from falling into the hands of others.

b. To encourage the Baptists of Mississippi to invest more money to building a strong college.

c. To help create educational opportunities for many of our deserving young people who may not choose to go to some of the larger institutions of learning.

d. To help maintain and create an educational program not only in an atmosphere of academic freedom, but of religion also.

THE ANNUAL REPORT OF SECRETARY T. J. JEMISON OF THE NATIONAL BAPTIST CONVENTION, U.S.A., INC.

Mr. President, presiding officers, members of the Cabinet, delegates of the the 88th Annual Session of the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc., ladies and gentlemen.

Here we are again assembled in this historic city of Atlanta, Georgia. It has been 22 years since we have gathered together in this fashion. Before this we were here in 1895 under the leadership of the late Dr. E. C. Morris—Again in 1931 under the leadership of the late Dr. L. K. Williams. In 1946 we were led by my late father, and today in 1988 we are still moving to Higher Ground under the God given-matchless leadership of Dr. J. H. Jackson.

It makes me humbly thankful when I can report to you as your General Secretary, that your Convention is steadily growing and that your various Boards are in the best shape since the founding of this Convention some 88 years ago. You will be pleased to know that under this administration the convention has strengthened its tie with the various auxiliaries, boards, and departments.

We have as usual paid our financial quota to the World Council of Churches in the amount of 3000.00. President and Mrs. Jackson along with other men of this convention represented us at the council in Upsuala, Sweden. We have also met our quota in the Baptist World Alliance, and the National Council of Churches. Last, a close scrutiny of the Annual report of the American Bible Society revealed that the National Baptist Churches have contributed more than any religious body of our ethnic group.

Last year in Denver, Colorado we had a very large delegation present, and from all indications our delegation here in Atlanta will be even larger.

What are we doing? is a question many of you might ask. However, time will not permit me to tell all. But I feel you should know that Freedom Farm is serving a very distinct purpose in Fayette County, Tennessee. You should know that we have acquired some 65 additional acres adjoining our present land, this additional gives us 480 acres. This farm has yield from both earth and cattle some 10,000.00 to this convention each year. This farm is not only serving a much needed purpose for economically deprived families in Fayette County, and a large income for this convention, but it also shows what people can do when they have the desire to produce for themselves.

Our Educational Foundation now has better than $331,000.00, and this money is also working for the convention. Very soon we will be in the position to help our sister churches who are struggling to build. You are already aware of our transactions to help save Natchez College, and the financial assistance we are extending to Arkansas Baptist College. The Retirement Fund is steadily growing, and all of these endeavors are the direct result of the able leadership of our President, Dr. Jackson.

Let me say in a personal way that I am deeply grateful for the opportunity to serve as your Secretary in your churches and conventions.

We have been to our colleges, pleading as your Secretary, California State Convention, D. D. Livingston, Ministers Conference, F. D. Ellis, Tabernacle Baptist Church, F. Douglas Ferrell, Mount Zion in East St. Louis, C. Cedric Clanborn, Corinthian Baptist Church, Obie Mattews.

The office of the Secretary is a busy one, and receives daily request from all sections of this country. It seems that everyone wants to know more about us, and what we believe in. I have endeavored to answer each request.

Above all as I have reported to you each year—We have worked close in harmony with our President. We have tried to be a help rather than a burden.

We were given the usual $5400.00 to be used to operate this office. Thank You so very much.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE SUNDAY SCHOOL PUBLISHING BOARD

National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc.
330 Charlotte Avenue, Nashville, Tennessee

D. C. Washington, Executive Director

President Jackson, Officers, Members of the Board of Directors, and Messengers assembled here in the city of Atlanta, Georgia, I am very pleased to submit the Annual Report of the stewardship of the Officers, Board of Directors and Employees of the Sunday School Publishing Board:

"Creation's Lord, we give Thee thanks.
That this, Thy world is incomplete;
The battle calls our marshalled ranks.
That work awaits our hands and feet."

A Nashville department store used a slogan which affirms the philosophy underlying the foregoing poem:

"Harvey's—the store that will never know completion!"

True to its promise, there has been no time since its founding many years ago that some part of this store was not being remodeled; consequently, its decor is always modern, its physical facilities adequate, and its customers notice and appreciate the obvious improvement that is always in progress.

We are citizens of a world geared to rapid and constant change; we demand that what is good be made better, and that what is better be made best. Never satisfied, we then expect the best to be improved upon. The Sunday School Publishing Board has experienced a highly gratifying year in which our sales statistics showed an increase of about $30,000.00 over last year. Although rising operating costs absorbed much of the additional revenue, we are pleased that more of you are giving us the opportunity to supply more of your Sunday School and Church materials. However, we realize that if we are to continue to make progress we must be responsive to today's changing needs, and therefore during the fiscal year closed June 30, 1968, we have addressed ourselves to the task of improving our image.

The first step toward progress involves the periodic reassessment of existing strengths and weaknesses, which will indicate the areas which require additional effort if we are to achieve our greatest potential.

Accordingly, early last October at the annual meeting of the Corporate Board, we evaluated our operation and decided to seek to improve our image in product offerings, program services, public relations and physical plant appearance

OUR PRODUCT OFFERINGS

During the past year, the Sunday School Publishing Board has continued to provide interesting and easily read curriculum materials which are doctrinally sound and pupil oriented In addition, we have sought to enhance the appearance of our literature through greater use of color and pictures This "New Look" of our publications has proved extremely costly, for it has necessitated the purchase of additional printing equipment as well as more expensive papers and inks. The small price increase in some of our materials is an effort to help defray some of this additional expense

In January 1968, we acquired new typesetting machinery costing above $25,000.00, which affords greater variety of type size and style, faster productive speed and more attractive copy To complement the Offset Presses purchased previously, we have set up our own Camera and Platemaking Department, installing the necessary equipment at a cost exceeding $15,000.00. Some much needed small Binding equipment has also been added for about $1,500.00. Although the initial capital outlay for equipment has been sizeable, the eventual savings will prove these purchases economically sound Already, some of the job processing previously done outside is being done in our own plant, and for the most part, by workers already in our employ

SUNDAY SCHOOL LITERATURE

The use of color in all of our Sunday School literature is increasing, adding to the eye appeal, as we also attempt to upgrade its content. Our new resident staff member Miss Ruth A. Rackford, Director of Children's Literature, is giving serious study to each periodical in the Children's Area for the purpose of revision and improvement The results of her study are not likely to reach the field before 1970 but we desire for our constituency to reap its benefits as soon as possible At least one feature will be released in the Junior Quarterly for the first quarter of 1969—namely, "The Hymn of the Quarter" It will consist of a hymn background story adapted to the junior level, together with the text and music score of the hymn The purpose of this feature is to begin early to introduce our children to the standard hymns of Christendom and build appreciation for the great music of the church

Plans are also underway to introduce three teachers' quarterlies as soon as staff and other factors will allow Instead of one Baptist Teacher, as at present there will be a Teacher for the Children's Division, the Youth Division and the Adult Division At present the lesson exposition in the Baptist Teacher is written for teachers of adults The three new quarterlies would provide help for the teachers of children and young people These three new quarterlies would also contain professional articles and program suggestions suited to each age level.

VACATION CHURCH SCHOOL LITERATURE

The Series IA material for Vacation Church Schools is on the field. The manner in which it has been received is most gratifying The Series IB matter will be in process soon with a target date for release in time for use during the summer of 1969. The theme for the new series will be "Faith's Hall of Fame" The high quality of content and appearance will be maintained The over-all plan of the Vacation Church School literature is Series IA, B, C, and D Schools operating for two weeks each year will cover the cycle in four years Then the fifth year they will return to Series IA. Schools operating for one week will cover the cycle in eight years and not return to Series IA until the ninth year.

OUR DAILY BREAD

This devotional help for the first quarter of 1969 will present three women as writers Other lay writers will be used during the [illegible]e of the year, and if possible, one quarter will present three theological students. These steps are intended to widen the appeal of the publication.

THE TOWNSEND PRESS

The Townsend Press proudly presented, Unholy Shadows and Freedom's Holy Light, by President J. H. Jackson, in September, 1967. This publication met with wide acclaim throughout the country, receiving front page mention and favorable editorial comment in the press and other news media.

The Townsend Press Commentary and many other publications of the Sunday School Publishing Board are produced by the Townsend Press. Our latest publication, THE NATIONAL BAPTIST PULPIT for 1968, was a collection of twelve sermons by twelve National Baptist preachers. It was so well received that the 1969 edition is planned for fifty-two sermons by fifty-two preachers. We trust it will serve a two-fold purpose: first to preserve some of the works of our strong pulpiteers for posterity, and secondly, to inspire those who are preaching now.

PROGRAM SERVICES

In addition to improving the image of our curriculum materials, we have strengthened the program services, offered through the Department of Christian Education. Working closely with our National Sunday School and B. T. U. Congress, numerous State Congresses, District Associations and local Churches, we have served as the recruiting arm of our National Baptist Convention, through the formulation and certification of Leadership Education for our entire denomination. Our goal of a loyally trained constituency can be achieved only if our Churches continue to sponsor leadership schools and encourage greater member participation, so that we can make simultaneous progress. The Department of Christian Education has persons available to assist you in planning programs of Leadership Education, or to conduct Regional workshops which could be sponsored by State or Regional groups During the last fiscal year, we joined with the Foreign Mission Board and the National Baptist Training Union Board in conducting Area Workshops. Under the guidance of our Chairman, Dr. W. T. Crutcher, we held Institutes in Virginia, Maryland and North Carolina, which were well attended and mutually rewarding

The statistical report of the Department of Christian Education for last year was as follows

PUBLIC RELATIONS

Unquestionably, one of our greatest needs has been a more effective program of public relations, a system of communication which would not only keep you informed of our activities, policies and products, but would give us an opportunity to know your reaction to our efforts. Consequently, during the last fiscal year, we have invested very heavily in attempting to improve our public image.

A new Division of Public Relations was inaugurated January 1, 1969, with Mr. S. E. Grinstead, Sr., as Director. Mr. Grinstead comes to our staff with years of experience in Church and denominational work, having been the founder and National Director of the Baptist Student Union among National Baptist students across the nation. Already, the Division of Public Relations has made several spot studies of our sales and services and from data received, follow-up procedures have begun. The Director of Public Relations has shared in clinics, institutes, and Leadership Education meetings in Missouri, Tennessee, Texas and Virginia, to help inform Church leaders how to use effectively the materials we publish. A system of communication has been set in motion. This includes a bi-monthly house organ called "News," and a series of Christian Education Guidelines, emphasizing the availability and use of our publications. These free materials are distributed in a very attractive kit. The Public Relations Division has shared also in other regular channels of communication such as press releases and through writings for our regular publications.

Recently, Mr. Grinstead was one of the featured speakers at the Pan-American Laymen Evangelistic Congress in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil. On this trip, he visited fields of Baptist Work in Panama City; Cali, Columbia; Lima, Peru; Buenos Aires, Argentina; and Sao Paulo, Brazil.

The research, action, communication and evaluation techniques used by the Division of Public Relations should soon be reflected in both our sales and services.

Our Music Coordinator, J. Robert Bradley, appeared in numerous states, including Louisiana, Mississippi, Tennessee, North Carolina, Illinois, Ohio, Indiana, Alabama, Florida, Pennsylvania, Kentucky, Missouri, Maryland, Kansas and Michigan. He was invited to sing at the Pan American Laymen Evangelistic Congress, in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, and his performance did credit to our denomination and our race.

Mr. Bradley's services are available for your State Sunday School Congress or other Conventions, as a service of the Sunday School Publishing Board.

Other Staff personnel have appeared in California, Tennessee, Georgia, Alabama, Arkansas, Colorado, Utah, Texas, Florida, Missouri, Pennsylvania, Kentucky, Toronto, Canada, New Jersey, New York, Maryland, Virginia, Illinois, Ohio and Michigan.

We are appreciative of the numerous invitations extended to the Board to participate in your State Conventions, Congresses and other Meetings, for they afford us an opportunity to exchange ideas, and to demonstrate methods of using our materials to your greatest advantage.

PHYSICAL PLANT APPEARANCE

The Sunday School Publishing Board is located in the Morris Memorial Building right in the heart of downtown Nashville, Tennessee, on the very spot where our forefathers were once sold as slaves. As National Baptists, we can be justly proud to own so valuable a building, on such an appropriate site. However, ownership imposes responsibility, and the location of the Building, one block from the Metropolitan Court House and one block from the State Capitol makes it necessary that we conform with the standards set for the Capitol Hill redevelopment Area. Consequently, we found it necessary to sand blast and steam clean the entire exterior of the building and to paint all its wooden trim. Decorative aluminum fluted railings now provide attractive protection. The five original doors have been replaced with heavy aluminum doors which harmonize with the architectural design of the building, yet modernize its appearance. The entire lower lobby has been painted and the Memorial Plaques have been retouched so that the "Hall of Fame" is once again a beautiful tribute to those whose sacrifices made the building possible.

The tremendous cost of the "Face-Lifting" of the Morris Memorial Building is a contribution made by the Sunday School Publishing Board to the National Baptist Convention.

In addition, we have done the printing for the Convention, including the Minutes and other materials, and have printed and distributed the National Baptist Voice.

The attached Audit Report will show that the Sunday School Publishing Board has made a total contribution to the Convention in excess of $30,000.00 during the past year.

In this, our Annual Report, we have sought to share with you some of the problems, plans and programs of the Sunday School Publishing Board, as we strive to improve our total image.

Under the Divine Providence of God, we have thus far made significant progress, and with His continued favor, "it doth not yet appear what we shall be."

National Baptists are a Great People. Through the blessings of the Almighty God we have become that which we are, because of our Dedication, our Cooperation and our Willingness to Assume Responsibility.

The Sunday School Publishing Board pledges itself to continue the task of improving its total image. We challenge You to join with us in contributing our time, our Talents, and our Influence, believing that "IT DOTH NOT YET APPEAR WHAT WE SHALL BE!"

C. R. Williams, Executive Secretary

Dr. J. H. Jackson, our esteemed President, Officers, Members and Friends–

"Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ I give thanks to God always for you because of the grace of God which was given you in Christ Jesus." 1 Corinthians 1:3, 4 (RSV). At the outset may your Executive Secretary express his gratitude to those of you who have supported the National Baptist Training Union through your prayers, promotion, purchases, and contributions to the Isaac Foundation.

What the Baptist Training Union Board Is

The Baptist TRAINING UNION BOARD IS: an auxiliary to the National Baptist Convention for the purpose of Training its membership in the Baptist doctrine and history, in Christian living, and missionary service. Its motto is, "We study, that we may serve," taken from 2 Timothy 2:15.

On May 13, 1910, it was chartered under the name of National Baptist Young People's Union Board of the National Baptist Convention of the United States of America, with the following persons, E. W. D Isaac, Sr., P. J. Bryant, E. M. Lawrence, G. W. Goodgame, E. W. Merchant, Wm. L. Croft, J. Thomas Turner and N. H. Pius.

In September, 1939, a resolution was adopted changing its name from the National Baptist Young People's Union Board to the National Baptist Training Union Board of the National Baptist Convention of the United States of America, Incorporated, for the purpose of maintenance, establishment, support, and encouraging religious societies among the young people of the Baptist church or denomination, to have printed, or print, edit, conduct, and carry on for missionary uses and purposes, a magazine or magazines, paper or papers.

Therefore, The National Baptist Training Union Board is the Board formed by the National Baptist Convention, with a set of Officers elected by the Convention to control, operate and promote the distinctive task of training church membership.

CONVENTION SUPPORT

Believing that Baptist have a rich heritage of freedom which must become RESPONSIBLE FREEDOM, that informed Christians are better Christians and church members, the department of publication of the Training Union Board has published in "black and white," in a 108 page book, pictures and words which portray the work and accomplishments of the parent body as well as every Board, Auxiliary, commission, etc. that existed in 1965. This book, A MIGHTY ARMY, by Vada P. Felder, includes also the Constitution of the Convention. Acquaintance with the facts in the book will enable one not only to defend himself against those who speak in ignorance or with malicious intent but also to take offensive in the dissemination of facts about the Convention.

How much does the indispensable book for informed and concerned members cost? As a dedicated act of cooperation, the Board presented A Mighty Army to you for $100 last year. But this year we have set aside One Thousand copies as a gift to the President to use as he sees fit. The gift of A Mighty Army is a result of our having given away thousands of quarterlies as a public relations gesture.

Rev. W. R. Brown, a member of the Executive Committee, was a part of a team that represented the work of the Convention in the Middle West. As one of the five thousand messengers attending the World Baptist Youth Conference, Berne, Switzerland, was the Director of Publications, Mrs. Vada P. Felder (Incidentally at her own expense).

OUR PUBLICATIONS

The Department of Publications of the National Baptist Training Union Board seeks to reach all ages with relevant literature and give the thrust that will enable a Christian to interpret what has happened to him at the very depth of his personhood. One is not only to witness to truths which he firmly believes but to something that he knows, has seen, has experienced, which God has done. Thus, the Training Union offers guidance to persons who may witness through their living as well as through their words. The writers of the program quarterlies have a strong commitment to seek to change society through changing men; to turn the light of moral revolution on this age.

Geared to the needs of the members of the Convention are the Program resource quarterlies: HIGHROAD for adults, Thrust for older youth, COUNSELOR for Junior High, Junior quarterly, and the Baptist Training Union Leader, a magazine which, among many other features, includes weekly program departments.

The 16 page booklet, Scouting in National Baptist Churches by Rev. Cleon Myers, Sr., has been published and is now being widely circulated. "One of the most fatal enemies of effective service," says Dr Harry E. Fosdick, "is the belated mind which is the mind that is behind the times, the mind that lacks the insight to perceive and the willingness to follow the forward movement of the living God." The $0.25 Baptist Training Union Handbook By Felder is designed to eliminate the belated mind, to help churches present the changeless Christ to a changing world, to help them give an effective witness in the modern world.

Word has come to the Board from many sources that some churches that do not have organized Training Unions are using the printed Quarterlies in mid-week services and with study groups.

EIGHTY-EIGHTH ANNUAL REPORT

FOREIGN MISSION BOARD
NATIONAL BAPTIST CONVENTION, U. S. A., INC.

WILLIAM J. HARVEY, III
Corresponding Secretary

Submitted at Atlanta, Ga.
September 3 8, 1968

President Jackson, Members of the Board of Directors and Messengers to the Eighty-eighth Annual Session of the N B C., U.S.A., Inc

We are privileged to greet you in the Name of Him who commissioned all of His followers to "go into all the world and preach the Gospel," even Jesus Christ, our Lord. The urgency of that commission is still relevent, and it is through the Foreign Mission Board that the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc., seeks to carry out this divine injunction. As Secretary of the Board for the past seven years, we are humbly grateful for the encouragement given us by Pastors across the country who are leading their congregation to a deeper understanding of the urgency of Missions, and who are evidencing this interest through their prayers, their gifts, and their words of encouragement.

The responsibility of being Secretary is no easy task. From its inception, it has been fraught with challenging problems and weighty decisions. And yet, because of the confidence placed in us by our President and our National Board of Directors, and the efficient and sacrificial cooperation of a dedicated staff, we have been able to continue the work so nobly begun eighty seven years ago and endeavored to project a new image of our Missionary objectives.

During the past twelve months, there have been times of great joy and satisfaction in accomplishments and there have been keen disappointments and frustrations when we have moved at what seemed a snail's pace in achieving some of our objectives. Our's is a program of faith. Faith that the churches of our Convention will appreciate what we are attempting to do for the Cause of Christ, faith that they will undergrid that appreciation by inspiring some of their members to offer themselves as full-time Missionaries in foreign service; faith that they will increase their contributions to underwrite our present operations on a standard commensurate with the potential of our great Convention.

OUR MISSIONARIES

We are happy to bring you greetings from our Missionaries who are presently serving on the foreign field. Mrs. Ophelia Shepard of the Antioch Baptist Church, St. Louis, Mo., left in March of this year to serve as a Missionary Teacher at the Suehn Mission High School. Mrs. Shepard had recently retired from the St. Louis School system, and expressed her willingness to serve at least two years. Though she has had some difficulty in adjusting to the climate yet she is rendering an unusual service and is greatly beloved by the students she serves.

Miss Gladys East, Missionary at Suehn, returned to her post of duty after a nine month emergency furlough due to the illness and eventual death of her Mother, the late Mrs. James E. East. As the Principal of the Suehn Mission High School, Miss East bears a heavy responsibility, especially since the Liberian Ministry of Education has such strict educational requirements for all of the Mission Schools. Miss East has been a Missionary over twenty-five years.

After two years of unusual service as a Matron and Teacher at the Suehn Mission and also as a denominational organizer with the Liberian Baptist Missionary and Educational Convention, Mrs. M. L. Sanders of Oklahoma has returned to the United States for a much needed rest. Letters have been received by this Board from Mrs. William R. Tolbert, President of the Women's Auxiliary of the Liberian Baptist Convention, commending the constructive work that Mrs. Sanders has contributed through leadership Conferences, Missionary Society organizing and denominational representation. The organized church in Liberia has indeed profited from her indefatigable labors.

After three years and eight months (with an emergency three months leave) the Rev. and Mrs. Benjamin Stephens have also returned home for a much needed rest. As Superintendent of the Suehn Mission, Rev. Stephens has proven himself to be a truly outstanding servant of the Lord. Too much praise cannot be given to Rev. Stephens for his remarkable achievements. He is not only a thought-provoking preacher of the Gospel, but has shown excellence as an administrator, building contractor, truck farmer and mechanic. He is also an expert in poultry raising and animal husbandry. Our farm, our stock and poultry, and our building program have all prospered due to his unusual abilities in these various fields. His multiple labors exacted their toll from his strength, and he well deserves a good rest, for he has been an outstanding example of a truly competent missionary on his field of labor.

Because of the Board's inability to obtain replacements for the Rev. and Mrs. Rufus Prunty of the Bendoo Industrial Mission, Bendoo Liberia, their furlough has been delayed. For eight consecutive years this loyal couple have rendered sacrificial service. We are praying that the Lord will send us adequate temporary replacements for these deserving Missionaries.

Greetings to the Convention are hereby conveyed from Miss Della Mae McGrew of the Suehn Mission, Mrs. Sarah Cyrus of the Bendoo Mission, Dr. and Mrs. Daniel Malekebu of the Providence Industrial Mission, Chiradzulu, Malawi, the Rev. Elliot Nguberi of South Africa, and the Rev. and Mrs. F. G. Downs of Nicaragua.

OUR MISSION STATIONS

Messengers to our Convention must keep ever before them the knowledge of the extent and scope of our Missionary services. Your Foreign Mission Board supports Missionaries and Mission Stations in Sierra Leone, Liberia and Ghana in West Africa; Malawi in Central East Africa; the Republic of South Africa and the Republic of Lesotho in South Africa. The work in these areas consists of over 300 churches with a membership exceeding forty-four thousand. Our elementary, junior and senior high schools serve seventeen hundred and thirty-three students. Our medical services in Liberia and Malawi record over 19,000 treatments annually, and our Seminary and Bible School in the Republic of Lesotho now has thirty-two men being trained for the Ministry. Of the one hundred and twenty-seven workers regularly employed, fifteen are Missionaries from the United States. This comprises our work on the Continent of Africa.

Your Foreign Mission Board is greatly encouraged by the building program now in effect at our Seminary in the Republic of Lesotho, because of a gift of $2,000.00 from the Mt. Zion Baptist Church, Rev. E. V. Hill, Pastor, Los Angeles, California. The thirty-two students now studying for the Ministry are not only from Lesotho but also from South Africa where Ministerial training is denied them. Though we are presently using trained native teachers at this school, a trained Seminary graduate from America is still urgently needed to head up this work. If such a person can be found, the Rev. C. J. Briscoe of the Paseo Baptist Church of Kansas City, Missouri has pledged to underwrite the salary. We are soliciting your help in securing such a person.

Letters of highest praise have been received from the people of South Africa for the $5,000.00 received for the re-erection of a church at Ouanda, Transvaal Province, from the Zion Hill Baptist Church, Rev. Bernilee Faison, Pastor, Los Angeles, California. This is a matching program, with the members from the African Church matching dollar for dollar with personal labor and materials. The latest communication informs us that the church is nearly completed and the people are grateful for this munificent help. (Incidentally, their church was destroyed because of the racially discriminatory laws of re-location in South Africa)

At the Suehn Mission two new bungalows for teachers have been completed, a new bus has been purchased, the superintendents quarters have been renovated, the dormitories for both boys and girls have been refloored, our truck farm has been expanded, and most important of all, thirty-six souls have accepted Christ from the student body. We have received numerous reports from visitors attending the Executive Com. of the World Baptist Alliance in Monrovia, Liberia, that upon visiting the Mission they were highly pleased with the qualitative appearance of the Suehn Mission.

In the Western Hemisphere, we support the Zion Baptist Mission in Bluefields, Nicaragua, Central America. This Mission supports two smaller mission churches. One at Pearl Lagoon and another at Tasbapaani, both in the State of Zelaya, Nicaragua. During a visit to this station in May, thirteen persons were added to the Kingdom and plans for the construction of another small Mission Church are now being made. We would like to emphasize that the Nicaraguan people we serve are firm believers in self-help. And though their economy is one of the lowest in the world, yet through great sacrifice they have thus far tried to match any support given them by the Board. They have earnestly petitioned us for a missionary who has a minimal knowledge of Spanish, and we are praying that in the not too distant future we can supply that need.

We are thankful to God that also in the Western Hemisphere, namely the Bahamas Islands, the political and economic atmosphere have so changed for the better that we can rejoice in the accomplishments of our fellow Baptists. Twenty four years ago the Foreign Mission Board entered into an agreement with the Bahamas Baptist Missionary and Educational Convention to aid them in the area of education and outer island support. From a minimum budget of $4000.00 per year to a present budget of $13,920.00 these amounts represented 4/5 of the total budget of the Bahamas Mission and Education support. In addition to this, an elementary school named after the late L. G. Jordan was erected and equipped by the Board.

Today, because of a deep sense of responsibility on the part of the Bahamians plus increased Government subsidies, the L. G. Jordan Elementary and Prince Williams High Schools now have a budget which exceeds $144,000.00. The Foreign Mission Board thanks God for the manner in which our fellow Baptists have shown a proclivity for self help and self-sufficiency.

With this enlarged income, it is apparent that this group is eminently able to carry on their own work, and during a recent conference held during the meeting of the S.S. and B.T.U. Congress in Chattanooga, the Bahamas Baptists petitioned the Board to purchase the present grounds and building of the L. G. Jordan Elementary School, and stated that the only help they will need in the future relates to the outer-island ministry.

It is now the practice of every Foreign Mission Board in America and Europe, that when evangelism results in the establishment and training of the people to whom they minister, to the end that they may carry their own responsibility, then it is the duty of the Board to divert its funds and energies into areas where less developed groups may benefit therefrom. When the Bahamas Baptist needed us to aid them in the establishment of an elementary school, we met that need. Now that they are self-sufficient we can focus our energies and funds in needier areas. The Bahamas Baptists are to be congratulated for this accomplishment.

CHILD SUPPORT PROGRAM

Four years ago the Secretary of this Board inaugurated a program of individual child support at various Mission Stations on the mission field. It was found that $12.50 per month would cover a child's board, lodging and tuition. Many of our churches, along with individuals, responded to this challenge, and today forty-eight children are being supported. These children (many of them orphans) have been wards of the mission most of their lives, and this individualized support is of inestimable help to the Board in providing them with an education under Christian auspices.

Special mention must be made of the Shiloh Baptist Church, Rev. Leslie Wainwright, Pastor of New York City. Four months ago this church decided that twenty groups in the church would support twenty children for a total sum of $250.00 per month, and they have been meeting that obligation with prompt regularity. The Board says, 'thank God for Shiloh' and may other churches be led to follow such practical missionary concern.

OUR FINANCIAL CONDITION

Messengers to the Convention may receive a complete financial statement in the Mission Herald' and in this Report. The 'Mission Herald' may be obtained at the Foreign Mission Booth in the concession area. Let it be noted however, that our income for the past twelve months exceeds by $72,194.36 the income of our first year of service. In 1961-62 you contributed to the board $143,893.10. In the past year you have contributed $216,087.46. During this period the Board has met all of the overseas salaries and budgets three months in advance. At this moment, all of our overseas obligations are paid up to September 30, 1968. It has met thirteen overseas transportation costs of missionaries returning to their posts of duty or furloughs to the United States, and in every instance, save one, this involved expensive air transportation. It has underwritten the costs of two African students at Eastern Universities in America, and aside from the individual support of over a hundred students on the elementary and secondary level in Africa, is also supporting five students on a college level in Liberia. The thirty-two students on our Seminary in Lesotho are receiving one third of their tuition, board and lodging costs from your Foreign Mission Board.

In cooperation with the Liberian Baptist Missionary and Educational Convention, the Foreign Mission Board continues its evangelistic and educational work at the Bible Industrial Academy at Bassa, Liberia. The Liberian Convention supplies the evangelist-workers while the Foreign Mission Board underwrites their salaries in the amount of $2,400.00 per year. This latter action was taken three years ago to preserve our equity in this Mission Station, for the fee-conditional deed requires continued operation of a religious nature' to keep the property.

At the meeting of the Board of Directors in Hot Springs, Arkansas in January we apprised you that because of increased giving on the part of our supporting churches we were able to raise the salaries of all of our Missionaries twenty-five dollars per month. When we assumed this office the base pay of our Missionaries was $100.00 per month; now it is $175.00 per month. Words of appreciation have come from all of the Missionaries because of this raise. It is our prayer that our income will increase to the point that another raise will be possible in the near future plus enlarged fringe benefits, for it is our personal conviction that when people are willing to answer the call for overseas service, the least we can do is pay them decent livable salaries and provide them with comfortable living quarters on their field of labor.

This is where your money is going. Raised salaries for Missionaries; better living conditions; with new houses, new electricity, new running water, adequate vehicles for transportation; more children supported, more churches being built, more souls being saved.

OUR EXPANSION PROGRAM

We firmly believe that knowledgeable people are supporting people. We further believe that when more National Baptists are acquainted with the work of our Board and Missionaries on the foreign field, the more support we will receive. With this in mind your Board has appointed a Western Regional Director in the person of the Rev. Wendell T. Liggins of Denver, Colorado whose primary task will be promoting our work in the Western States of Washington, Oregon, California, Utah, Nevada, New Mexico and Colorado, where our support has been spasmodic and fragmentary. As a successful Pastor and loyal member of the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc., we feel he is eminently qualified to represent the Board and impress upon the loyal members of our Convention in these states, the necessity for utilizing the Foreign Mission Board in their concern for world-wide evangelism. We are humbly requesting that the Foreign Mission Board members from the above named states will receive Rev. Liggins with an open heart and aid him cooperatively in the promotion of Kingdom building overseas.

PREACHING MISSION TO LIBERIA

Two years ago the Board, in cooperation with the Liberian Baptist Missionary and Educational Convention, led a team of six pastors from our Convention in a Preaching Mission in Liberia. As a result of that campaign over 302 souls were led to Christ. It was a soul-stirring experience for each of the pastors who participated, and it enhanced immeasurably the image of National Baptists in the Republic of Liberia, West Africa.

Again, we are issuing the call to those whose churches would be willing to share and underwrite their Pastors for three weeks during the Months of January February, 1969, for a similar experience. The Liberian Baptists await our answer; the Liberian Christians like the Macedonians of old are saying, "come over and help us." Contact this Secretary immediately, if you are truly concerned.

Finally, my Fellow Baptists, we thank God that He has blessed us to see progress thus far along the way, and yet all of us know in our hearts that we have barely scratched the surface of our potential for real missionary service. We need Missionaries today more than we have ever needed them since we began this great work 87 years ago. The under developed areas in which we serve are composed of our people – black people, brown people, who have not had the advantages of Western civilization. We talk of poverty in our own land, but in those lands where we serve, there is not only poverty on the material level, and on the cultural level, but there is poverty on the spiritual level.

These people need God! These people are hungering and thirsting, for they know not what, and the answer can only be found in the Gospel of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. We can only turn to you, our fellow Baptists, our Pastors, and laymen, to meet this great need. Not only must we have your financial support, but above and beyond that, we need your prayerful witness that someone in your churches, dedicated to the Lord Jesus, and inspired by the Holy Spirit, will rise up and say, "Here am I, send me."

We have sought, and we are seeking to utilize every means to tell the world that the Great Commission has not been revoked, nor has the evangelistic emphasis of the Gospel been declared null and void. When Jesus gave to his churches the commission to witness both "in" and "unto" – 'in Jerusalem and unto the uttermost parts of the earth' (Acts 1 18), no individual believer can ignore its urgency. It is as all inclusive as the over arching sky; it is as vital as the atmosphere that surrounds the earth.

No matter what others may do, no matter what the Church to which we belong may do, every follower of Christ is obligated by the Imperial Command to witness Christ to all the world. This is what we are attempting to do, and this is the account of our stewardship as your Foreign Mission Board.

NATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL AND BAPTIST TRAINING UNION CONGRESS AUXILIARY OF THE
NATIONAL BAPTIST CONVENTION U.S.A., INC.
REPORT—1965 SESSION

Mr. President and Messengers assembled:

The moving events which characterized the sixty-third Annual Session of the Congress are recalled with some mixed emotions. The session was indeed historic with noteworthy and far-reaching significance. This report gives only a summary of the highlights.

Churches in Chattanooga under the dynamic and commanding leadership of Dr. L. Brooks, provided ample facilities and an unusual setting for implementing the program. In spite of some adverse and erroneous publicity regarding the inadequacy of housing accommodations, all messengers were taken care of in a satisfactory manner. The City officials and the general citizenry of Chattanooga extended a heart-warming welcome and a degree of hospitality that will be difficult to duplicate.

Registered attendance exceeded 5,000, with the following states leading in representation: Tennessee, Illinois, Alabama, Michigan, Ohio and Mississippi. Attendance in morning classes and afternoon discussion groups reflected interest and enthusiasm on the part of the messengers.

Sermons by the Rev. Kenneth A. Bowen, Milwaukee, Wisconsin, and the Rev. W. C. Williams, Leavenworth, Kansas, inspirational addresses, devotional messages and feature addresses highlighted the general assembly sessions held in the Memorial Auditorium. The absence of the Convention President, Dr. J. H. Jackson, due to other official commitments, was noted with regrets. Dr. C. H. Hampton, Vice President, extended timely greetings from the Parent Body and Dr. T. J. Jemison, Secretary of the Convention, presided during the election of officers.

The assembly was thrown in consternation and utter surprise when our venerable and respected President Dr. O. Clay Maxwell, announced during the reading of his Annual Message that he would not be a candidate for re-election. He stated that his physical condition, compounded by the impairment of his vision, was the determining factor in making his decision. At his request, Mrs. O. Clay Maxwell completed the reading of his message in a manner that was impressive and effective. High praise, tribute, and commendation were expressed to Dr. Maxwell for more than forty years of unselfish service and outstanding leadership.

As usual, the staff of officers, instructors, committee members, clerical assistants, and other workers did a commendable job through their dedication and faithfulness to duty.

Officers Elected:

This committee is to contact various churches throughout the jurisdiction asking them to observe the National Laymen's Sunday each year in connection with the National Baptist Laymen's Organization. This committee may also urge the pastor and officers of the church to invite a well-prepared laymen to speak on Laymen Sunday. Each one of the committee ought to be able to influence their own pastor to have a laymen to speak at one service on laymen's Sunday. That way, you will get more people to understand what the National Baptist Laymen mean, and it will be much easier to get those who do not participate with the laymen to join with them.

This committee will consist of all state presidents as co-chairmen. Their function will be to get the superintendent to order a few of the laymen's books along with their Sunday School literature and they must also gather information from our individual churches, districts, and states that will be helpful in promoting the laymen's work, and forward same to the chairman, and the chairman will compile same and submit copies to the president before it goes to the publishing house.

It will also be their duties to sell this laymen's work to every church and pastor, more especially those churches who are members of the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc., and above all, get as many pastors as possible to send a representative to the board meeting and to our annual session, and each committee must make sure that they know the representation fees for individuals, churches, district unions, and state, and urge each group to represent in our department.

I trust each member of this committee understands part of their duties.

Report of

THE AMERICAN BAPTIST SEMINARY AS A MISSION FIELD

When the Negro and Caucasian Baptist leaders in the Southern part of our nation decided to establish a learning opportunity for Negro preachers forty five years ago their intent may not have been a missionary one, but as it turned out, the enterprise took just that form. The design, consonant with lack of education for the Negro aspirant during those impoverished times, was remedial and in-service. The format and purpose of much of today's offering is similar.

One may speculate that Nashville was selected as the most auspicious site since it locates an educational citadel for the darker brother on campuses of Fisk, Meharry Medical College, and mammoth Tennessee A and I State University. An effective catylist for distribution of educational tools was also available in the two large Negro Publishing Boards, providing work opportunity for students and faculty in built-in Baptist facilities to supplement meager salaries and provide student work opportunities to complete ministerial training. This mutual and reciprocal correspondence doubtless proved a promising enough largesse to further justify the venture. Suffice it to say, all further aetiological speculation aside, we are still engaged in the business of educating Negro church leaders at 1800 White's Creek Pike, Nashville.

Although the years have brought understandable changes in curriculum, outlook, and philosophy, the mind-set of the average Baptist who knows anything at all about the Seminary, when the school is mentioned, immediately takes a mission twist. It is almost an unconscious act. It may be the watershed that shall nourish and nurture the school's future; it may be the final deterrent to stay the hand of those who would press the panic button.

The Women's Missionary Union of the Southern Baptist Convention clearly regards this a missions effort. The July 1967 issue of ROYAL SERVICE sets forth in missionary majesty what it calls "Products of a Great Adventure" mentioned in Mrs. Jones report.

The first to greet the President upon his inauguration was Miss Hamric representing WMU. Appearances were arranged for his verbal and musical contributions at Ridgecrest and Glorieta, not to mention a GA rally in Brownwood, Texas where he keynoted the event at which 3,000 young ladies received scepters, capes and crowns at a Queens Court rally. Where there was a realization of his educational association, it was in the name of Missions that he was presented. When addressing a session of South Carolina Southern Baptists last November, sharing the platform with Dr. Rutledge, not Duke McCall; the same missionary purpose of it all permeated. To a church audience in Gainesville, Florida while in Indianapolis, the president talked for twenty minutes to the congregation of the First Baptist Church by telephone conversation. The Lottie Moon offering was soon to be gathered in. The listener, I am convinced, sat with a missions and not an educational apperception mass guiding his thoughts.

Under Dean Louise F. Blount a strong Women's Auxiliary in Nashville was organized to foster Seminary projects. Take the missionary motivation away and the enthusiasm of these consecrated women goes with it. The O. H. Halley work grants are nurtured by the milk of missionary compassion from our Tennessee women's generous store. The Home Mission Board of the SBC provides scholarship aid to our students.

Such a "venture of faith" calls for resources not discernible by the human senses. More bafflement than astonishment, the Seminary is best described by the moth eaten adjective—unique. Her educational function is silhouetted against a kaleidoscopic sky: at once religious, denominational, intra-denominational, international, interracial, emotional, biblical, ethical, academic, coeducational, vocational—with all colors in the spectrum spewoing a residuum defying analysis, definition, predictability, or diagnosis. If you want to see a furrowed brow, ask for a terse, succinct descriptive presentation of ABT. It is similar to an armless man's plan describing an accordion.

The Seminary, for all of this owes an accreditation—at least an associate status. This was not known to the president when he accepted the position. Although we prize and make intelligent use of our association with AABC, to this day there are Southern and National Baptists who know nothing of our membership in this important association; and, alas some could not care less. And this after eight years of membership. Even the name poses an enigma. It reminds of those Yankees up North. It matters not how often it is explained that American Baptists were called Northern Baptists, when ABT was born, it all remains to many a cloudy business. The clamor to change the name goes on. When a suitable one is found, always permitting, we shall hope to use it. It should be quickly said here that the American Baptist Convention at one time had a working relationship with ABT—(Luther Smith's letter).

The modesty of the budget of ABT indicates its unsophistication. "Operation 300" smacks of "Operation Bootstrap."—Both have a noble ring, and both suggest the missionary stance. This may still hold true of the genesis of other colleges and schools, but in the case of ABT the primordial, struggling vintage was never shed. The umbilical cord between its breeding and present state as far as financial affluence or lack of it is concerned has never been cut. Confidence in churches has been its theme, and it seems, shall be 'til it is no more. A perusal of the constitution and bylaws shows it a delineation of amended action to legalize monetary upshoring. There has never been a real financial breakthrough. If one supplies the furnishings the other supplies the buildings. On this kind of foundation, fiscal responsibility was reared. This too smacks of a missionary aura. The mite box; the glasses, the penny collection, the consecrated dime, seemed to be invented to finance such enterprises.

On the Wilberforce campus many years ago an unfinished foundation exclusive a deep hole was pointed out to me. "That," said my guide, "is a building that faith will construct. We plan to call it upon its completion, Faith Hall." This startled me, for, if indeed faith had dug the hole and reared the foundation stones, who was I to deny the ultimate accomplishment. And yet, this thought form makes absolutely no sense to many Baptists.

These skeptics and doubters should spend a month or two at ABT and become undarkened. In spite of a budget of extreme modesty, the story of ABT is the story of miracles. We have needed them and have realized them. We can use some now.

Kenneth Brown former Director of the Danforth foundation visited our campus—he stated to some of us that the first requirement for a successful ABT as being its leaders' absolute, unqualified confidence in, and loyalty to the school. How true he spoke. Some of us have loyalty without confidence some deliber confidence not loyalty. A more concerned person has critical loyalty an admirable trait. That we are undergirded by a holy purpose in the name of the Lord, under God is our ground for confidence. A recognition of the need to educate the Negro pulpit is the driving motivation. That we are different from the conventional college in that we pursue a specialized goal; and the goal is the quintessence of worth and validity is our strength. We cannot overstress or repeat too often, the importance of and the need for our mission.

Several of our students are natives of what some denominations regard as their mission fields. The Pudules are from S. Africa; Eric David from Liberia the Chowbye from Calcutta; and the JangDharris from Benares by way of Trinidad, to name a few.

The Bahamas has supplied the likes of Harcourt Brown, the Colbrooks, the Symonettes; the winsome Evelyn Roker, and the scholarly George Cumberbatches. Miss Ruth Beckford from the Bahamas is now in Dr. Turnte's office as an editorial assistant at the Publishing House. These are the products of the missionary movement, representative graduates of a college conceived and founded on praying ground, in a missionary frame of reference.

The embodiment of this spirit finds its expression in the Dean of students and professor of Missions, J. Lewis Powell. His optimism exceeds even that of the President. He is Mr. ABT. He eschews reliance upon the cold mercy of figures and statistics, to their stead he constantly projects open warmth, human concern, and spiritual certainty. He understands the Wilberforce "Faith Hall" concept; sees that time is not counted by figures on a dial but by heart throbs. He as no person related to the school meets both of Kenneth Brown's requirements for a successful enterprise so vigorously and fully-total devotion, and all our personal effort. His optimism is that of the son of a father whose other son's pessimism was just as much of a syndrome. To cure both, the father placed a swiss watch in the stocking of the pessimist at Christmas; and a daub of manure into that of the Powellian dreamer. When asked what each received the pessimist acknowledged but cursed the receipt of the watch for fear he'd break it; lose it; or ruin it by forgetting to take it off under the shower. When the father made inquiry of the optimist he replies: I got a pony, but I haven't found him yet." I suppose this kind of faith produced such as Kagawa, T. Z. Koo, D. T. Niles, and other former non-Christians, whose influence has caused the missionary tide to flow back across the Pacific.

As I write these lines President Johnson is pleading for one billion dollars from the Congress to establish model cities and cut down on urban unrest and turmoil. As much as ABT needs funds, we need more the kind of faith that moved the great hearts of forty years ago: A. R. Grigg, Sutton Griggs, T. L. Holcomb and I. B. Lawrence who matched dollars with faith. There could not have been the monetary investment without an overwhelming faith in the enterprise. I plead for no billion dollars—I plead for an all-out confidence, and an all-out effort. No tongue in cheek approach or head shaking timidity is to be permitted. The spirit of the missionary and the importance of the mission must combine in total impact to meet the challenge the task presents.

While riding on a train, from an experience of ancient vintage, the importance of all expressed here up to this point can be underscored.

An inebriate approached two of us in a diner on the Lehigh's now defunct Black Diamond. What's your line? he inquired. My companion replied: Executive Secretary in the Department of Higher Education and Student Work, Board of Education and Publication of the American Baptist Convention.

Can you imagine anyone absorbing this even when sober? Then it was my two Associate Secretary Department of Missionary Personnel American Baptist Foreign Mission Societies, Women's American Baptist Foreign Mission Society, of the American Baptist Convention

As soon as the word mission was mentioned, our inebriate was brought up short and said, "I too am a missionary." It was good to know that some significance for him attached to the word, but I replied—You do not smell like one. The day of missions is not what it used to be, but I had no idea it had changed that much. I imagine some faraway nostalgic childhood memory had turned on the long lost noble remembrance, and I let him talk on, and these amazing words came from his sodden lips. "I am a missionary for the Mo Pac tracks. To urge passengers to go by way of MO PAC was the mission that was his to East Coast ticket agents. Can we match such diligence as missionaries for ABT?

He truly was a missionary—even as my companion and I contemplated anew the purpose of our MISSION in the wake of this startling revelation. Yes, even Kruschev is on record as having said it, when pressing for action: "Gentlemen, we must be MISSIONARIES in selling communism to the people." Are we no less Divine salesmen for Christ persuading people to find fulfillment by traveling on the Gospel train over the only track that leads to such? Is this not the essential job for ABT—to produce evangelists, educators, preachers, pastors, MISSIONARIES in obedience to Divine Marching Orders to BE! to THINK! to DO. to GO?

There is a story of a hard boiled churchman who would give pittance but never a contribution commensurate with his affluence. Seasoned canvassers avoided him like a plague but his membership required every member coverage. A naive and innocent boy asked for and received permission to call on the prospect. Impressed the tight wad placed before the lad three pieces of money, a half dollar, a dime and a twenty dollar bill. "Whichever of these you pick up that shall be yours and my weekly pledge." He passed over the bill as insignificant but lingered over the half dollar. Then remembering his mother's admonition about how to behave in the presence of a large and small piece of pie his Emily Post won out, eyed the dime and passed over the larger half dollar, reached for the smaller coin with the words "and I'll take this piece of paper over here on which to wrap it so I won't lose it."

Spiritual matters are sort of wrapped up in the missionary package when it comes to witnessing within the dynamics of the Christian faith. Change the words from missions to mission and the mission—but the thought form as accepted by the Christian cannot escape its redemptive fate. One now sees why the usher said to a deacon who did not believe in missions—refusing to respond to the offering appeal, when confronted with the collection plate was told "take some, its for the heathen."

The education of the Negro preacher is incomplete without a discovery of the worth of the missionary motivational forces which are basic in the dynamics of the Christian gospel; and that in very truth whether he admits it or not, his one fulfillment as a witness for Christ is due to a missionary concern that sent the evangelist forth to challenge him to join the club. And armed with nothing but the Gospel, he is sent out to face the crushing problems that bedevil mankind.

The purpose of our School is to provide seminary training for men and women heeding the vocational call to the Christian ministry, and send them out to our Baptist churches for service in the Name of Christ to redeem the times in His precious Name through the instrument of the Gospel. Those who come usually are not financially able to carry their burden all the way. They are also culturally deprived for the most part, coming from high schools whose standards are academically low, not geared to classical education or directed toward college attendance after graduation. This marks us as MISSION. There was a time when we accepted students only on the strength of an expressed desire in response to A CALL.

Some of these had not finished grammar school. This was truly MISSION. When ABT is mentioned, this is the image projected: although there have been vast changes in its program, as already mentioned. The selling job that is ours is to inform the people of the new Image—the, we hope, improved, advanced, relevant numerical (recruitment condition: academically, and enlist greater financial support).

Even as mission schools improve on the foreign field, so have we. But the element of "being served" at being kept, still clings to our name; and in some cases correctly so, although more and more our students are subjected to academic requirements, and fully pay their own way. If this were totally true, the missionary aura would still persist due to its roots and origins. Our biology laboratory, because of its locus even has a missionary smell. All of its equipment was begged for, and, of music can ever be resurrected to a high place at ABT, there is always the memory of a donated (in part) organ, and hymnals. Is this mission?

To most who enroll among the males, our chief reason for existing is to help produce good preachers. This is understood in the light of the requirements set by the Negro Baptist Church. The poor preacher will not be accepted, whatever else his endowments of excellence are. The Negro preacher must somehow pastor by preaching. The dilemma the present situation poses is that of a college and seminary trained Negro from top schools all dressed up(educationally with no place to go; and the uneducated respondent to the call to preach involved prematurely in the overwhelming responsibility of pastoral leadership for which he is woefully unprepared just the same. he has a job—and many have huge, up-to-date debt-free churches. Seeing this, our men learn how to preach; if they learn nothing else.

These men come to us, conditioned by the home town environs. "I hope to have their presuppositions about what constitutes good preaching reenforced. They feel ABT has a built-in formula, a certain contrivance to teach him to do what he feels all good preachers do—whatever that is hollet, shout, moan (play on the emotions and exhuberance of lung power). What would you do if you were the professor of Homeletics called upon to supply materials for this kind of person.

The temptation is great to express an opinion as to why these psychological factors obtain, but this was pursued on another report given three years back on "The Education of A Negro pastor in the American Culture", and I shall not yield.

Is this statement a debunking of the missionary approach? Is this a deriding of the ignorant Negro preacher? God forbid. It is a condemnation of ignorance and its consequences and an emphatic censure to those who would glorify ignorance. It is a tribute to those who founded ABT to combat ignorance, and an attempt to show why this school we all love is in truth a UNIQUE institution, whose chief worship is that it is MISSION. In every sense that Christians use the word; and that so long as there is so large a number among us who would not be touched by any enlightened influence except as they find it at ABT; we do the best we can—not apologetically, but courageously, and as fine a one as the tools in our hands will permit. We carve out for all who come to us a path upon which they can plant their feet as they respond to the call of the great commission. A staff member, no longer connected with the school once said "We don't want to be too good." I disagree. I protest. I want us to be as equipped and able in spiritual resources and heart qualities as possible, to do as fine a job as possible, with the best we can obtain as possible, to match the extravagance of Our Beloved Lord who held nothing back for us. The degree of excellence we have obtained up to now is why Vanderbilt, Colgate-Rochester, Southern, Eastern, Andover Newton, Golden Gate and other strong Divinity Schools have accepted our graduates; and have asked for more like Julius Scruggs, Vivian Salley, and Samuel Hale. If in a missionary way we have sent these fledglings out for further seasoning, and can impose that out of such as Enoch Jones, and Luther Butler Nelson and Calvin McCutcheon and Odie Hoover I. H. Henderson, Jr., to mention only a few, have come—Then may God bless and keep our MISSION.

Now tremendous forces pound ruthlessly at our gates demanding not only entrance but acceptance as well. No longer can we escape into neanderthal aloofness or irrelevance. Among other media: sleek, contemporary devices in a computered and cybernetic age call for different types of witness and expression.

Such transitional situations, with all their attendant thrusts, mark ABTS full mission field, ready for a ministry of Christian love and concern.

"Come, Lord Jesus, be our guest—Thou has done great things for us whereof we are glad."

By thy goodness and graciousness Almightly God, we have assembled here in this place On Business For The King. We have come to praise His Living Presence and to lift up His Holy Name, to be ruled by His Divine Spirit and to be strengthened for service by His Sacred Grace.

As we deliberate on our affairs, perform our tasks, and fulfill our duties here, we pray that thou will douse the flames of disorder that surround our lives, sensitize our spirits, and teach us to put at thy disposal—the purposes of our peace, the products of our mind, the fruit of our industry, the vast wealth of our land, and the resources of our total personalities.

Lord, Jesus Christ, now and always, through Thy perfect rule of righteousness, adorn our hearts with pure faith, fervent love, living hope and holy devotion. AMEN.

VICE-PRESIDENT HOLLEY, OFFICERS, MESSENGERS, DISTINGUISHED GUEST ON THE PLATFORM AND IN THE AUDIENCE, FELLOW BAPTISTS, AND FRIENDS:

Joy is of many kinds, and is often compounded of many things. Joy has no forerunner save itself and brings its own welcome and salutation. Certainly, it is a joy to greet you and salute you, and thank you for affording me this high honor of leadership and this hour to address you concerning my stewardship. My sincere thanks to each of you for the help and the happiness you have given me. May God continue to crown us with His Grace, that we may live and labor with this one end in view—the dawning of a New Day when the kingdom of this world will become the Kingdom of our Lord and of His Christ, and He shall reign forever and ever.

A SALUTE TO LOVELY ATLANTA

Without a doubt, it is a great joy for us to meet in this beautiful place, the City of Lovely ATLANTA—the most scenic and exciting city in the state of Georgia, and the Cultural and Financial Center of the Southeast. ATLANTA, as many of you know, is the Pride of the South—and, now thanks to Governor Maddox, it is the Drumstick Capital of the Nation.

Recently, there was genuine joy in reading an article compiled by the Atlanta Journal Staff, concerning Atlanta's answer and attitude to the National Advisory Commission's Report on Civil Disorder, March, 1968. In one of the series of articles entitled, "A City Responds To The Crisis", these profound statements were joyfully proclaimed publicly:

> "If a City in America has responded seriously to the report of the National Advisory Commission on Civil Disorder, it is ATLANTA.

If a City in America has tried to repeat the report in local language, it is ATLANTA.

If a City in America has heard of the Black man's plea and attempted to answer, it is ATLANTA.

But, if a City in America has needed to be pushed and prodded to these ends by its Mayor, it is also ATLANTA.

And, if ever a City in the South still needs to provide good jobs, housing, schools and—above all—acceptance and respect for its black people, it is ATLANTA.

To many Negroes in the South, ATLANTA is Utopia—where they can escape from small towns of few jobs and rural areas of no cotton. To them, ATLANTA is the chance for a better life."

Truly, we rejoice to be in ATLANTA, a city that has chosen a higher way, done more than the usual southern custom and convenience. Truly, we are proud to be the guest in a city whose present efforts indicate its sincere willingness to respond effectively to its community needs before they become [illegible] grievances. All of us here are indeed proud, pleased and privileged to heartily CONGRATULATE ATLANTA, for the marvelous marks it has made, and is attempting to make, on the pages of progress.

Yes, we are most happy to have chosen this "PROGRESSIVE PARADISE" as the meeting site of our 67th ANNUAL SESSION. The warm hospitality and good will we have received from our Baptists Hosts, the City Officials, and from all the pleasant people here, have assured us that we are welcome. We are deeply appreciative for your friendship and fellowship—in many ways the fine people of ATLANTA are living testimonies that there are those here who have in themselves the gift of joy—and to be touched by them is to be blessed of God.

This picturesque place is like a picture post card. Discover it for yourself—and you will find out that ATLANTA is not only "the home of the Braves", but her climate is ideal; her drives and the scenery utterly beautiful; her hotels are elegant and her restaurants famous, the stately homes are royal and the churches are unique in structure and heart captivating in religious decor. See her world famous institutions of learning of higher education, profitable businesses, many of which are Negro owned and Negro operated and the productive industries that serve the South and the Nation. For something different, plan a trip to see the Cyclorama, at the Grant Park Zoo, or to Stone Mountain Park, and witness some of man's most creative artistic skill and one of Nature's most exciting wonders in the world. Both of these historical sites are most interesting. Sightseeing tours are available to show us all of the places and points of interest, and acquaint us with the local customs and extend to us all of the common courtesies.

For many years, ATLANTA, has been glamourized and now, immortalized by Margaret Mitchell's, "GONE WITH THE WIND". The movie premiere here initiated the idea to call ATLANTA, "a little New York City".

Too numerous to mention are the outstanding Georgians, who with dignity and dedication, undaunted by intervals, some who have marched through her [illegible] portraits of learning, and with unprecedented performances of service, have seasoned the whole of society with a praise worthy flavor of cultural advancement, altruistic endeavors and the Spirit of Christ.

However, we must pause and mention one...the late Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.,—the Dreamer, who dreamed of a world brotherhood, and who was so privileged to go to the Mountain top and see the Promise Land of a New Heaven and a New Earth, where the children of this world would truly seek to do the Will of God among the sons of men. The Dreamer, who in the purity of his purpose and the intensity of his convictions, moving under the Divine Command of Christ, called this nation to its duty and its destiny; The Dreamer—who made this country's conscience to tremble with urgency as he eloquently expounded the alarm of the Civil Fights Revolution. Although his physical presence has departed from our midst, his spirit lives in us, his memory our souls shall ever sing:

We shall overcome,
We shall overcome Someday.
Deep in my heart,
I do believe,
We shall overcome Someday.

An ATLANTAN has compassionately and correctly commented:

"The world is a better place to live because it contains human beings who will give up ease and security and stake their own lives in order to do what they themselves think must be done. In such persons, mankind overcomes the inertia which would keep it forever in its habitual ways. They have in them the free energy with which men surpass themselves. Whenever the best things, of mankind are undertaken it is because someone, not counting the costs or calculating the consequences, is moved by love of excellency, a point of honor, the compulsion to make of the insatiable ativation to understand.

Such energy cannot be weighed by the standards of utility or judged by its possibilities. They do the brave, the noble, the divine, and the very wisest things that are done by man. What they prove, it seems to me, is that > man is no mere cog in the collective machine, but that in the dust of which he is made there is also a fire, lighted for a moment by Great Winds From The Sky— Dr. King was one of these."

May I add here, like Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., Robert Francis Kennedy, too, was one of these, who was "lighted for a moment by Great Winds From The Sky". For, he too, had made his name to be known as a passport to peace

The Great Necessity whith sent Senator Kennedy out on the open road to proclaim that a man's belief is what he does, and what he practices; compels us here to bear in mind his words of wisdom and become more in this life than a prisoner of measurement. May we let his words feed our minds:

> "Each time a man stands up for an ideal, or acts to improve the lot of others, or strikes out against injustice he sends forth a tiny ripple of hope, and crossing each other from a million different centers of energy and daring, those ripples build a current that can sweep down the mightiest walls of oppression and resistance . The future does not belong to those who are content with today, apathetic toward common problems and their fellowman alike, timid and fearful in the face of new ideas and bold project. Rather, it belongs to those who can blend vision, reason and courage in personal commitment to the ideals and great enterprises of American Society"

We, hold in our hearts a special place of tenderness for the widows and children who have suffered deeply from great violences, families that are bereft because of death caused by murder and angry spirits. We must cradle in our love those who inhabit the shadows where things are never clear, where the mind seems enveloped in a heavy fog of hate, and at the core of their hearts is the submerged torture that makes ever for restlessness and unrelieved madness. For all of these, we must pray to God for Sanctuary, Healing and Redemption

It seems to me now in retrospect that Senator's Kennedy's life reflected an ancient truth that is worthy of our daily meditation: "If a man has no high sanctities he will have low priorities. He will also miss both the heights and the depths of his existence."

HOME — A GRACE AND A BENEDICTION

Surely, God has brought me to this hour. At this moment, my heart will attempt to pour forth what it cannot hold — I must say, what a wonderfully blessed feeling it is to be home! It is ever a grace and a benediction to remember that it was here in the Red Hills of Georgia, I first "Walked with the Lord in the Light of His Word", and learned to move with reverence through all of life—always rejoicing in knowing that God's guidance will always be available to steady, the hand and stablize the heart.

In ATLANTA, and in many parts of Georgia, in sharing with and caring for people and by waiting on the Lord for the renewal of strength, He has made known to me friends whom I knew not, and brought the distant near and made sisters and brothers of strangers. Even more, the Lord has abundantly blessed me and enabled me to return to Georgia, on three separate occasions, when the National Baptist Convention in Annual Session convened here in ATLANTA, to present the joy of His goodness and the results of my humble labors — A Baby Girl, A Book, and now a Body of Women.

For all of the bounteous blessings, it is ever a grace and a benediction to pause and give thanks to Almighty God for His loving kindness and multitudinous mercy toward me. Too, I am profoundly grateful to all of you, Officers and Workers of this Convention, for your many expressions of kindness and concern. In the depth of my heart is a wordless song — a sincere song of gratitude and thanksgiving, that shall forever live in the seed of my soul. Truly, to have been touched by you is to be blessed of God. Humbly and happily, too, I thank my other dear friends, both here and abroad, and my beloved family, for confidence, consolation, encouragement and love. May God bless all of you always, for your goodness and your graciousness.

WHEN I MUST LEAVE YOU

When I must leave you
for a little while,
Please do not grieve
and shed wild tears
And hug your sorrow
to you through the years,
But start out bravely
with a gallant smile;
And for my sake
and in my name
Live on and do all things the same.

Feed not your loneliness
on empty days,
But fill each waking hour
in useful ways,
Reach out your hand
in comfort and in cheer
And I in turn will comfort you and hold you near;
And never, never
be afraid to die,
For I am waiting for you in the sky!

In addition to the preceeding activities, a short stay in ATLANTA was necessitated for personal home visitations, to attend the private funeral and to extend our sincere sympathy and love, to the widow, children, parents and family of the late Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Dutifully, I participated in the Poor People's March, in Detroit, Michigan, which was enroute to erect and sustain Resurrection City in Washington, D.C.; I was a most delightful guest at the 1968 Senior Banquet sponsored by the Spelman College Alumni Association. This dedicated group of women presented this humble servant with a Certificate of Merit Award, for outstanding service rendered in the uplifting of humanity. (A Certificate of Merit Award was also presented to Mrs. Lillie Weatherspool, our hostess for this Session, for rendering outstanding service to the whole of humanity). Joyously, I remained on this Campus for the other Commencement exercises.

Despite the endless office duties, the pressing calls to the numerous dedications and the detailed tasks and demands attending my family and friends - I have come HOME, to the state of my nativity, happy and in high spirit, with renewed determination and with great anticipation, that this our 67th SESSION will be one of the best in our Convention's history. My labors have only refreshed me to give a greater service to God and my fellowman. I have come "to sing a New Song unto the Lord", and I invite each of you to say with me:

"Show me the way, not to fortune and fame,
Not how to win laurels or praises for my name,
But, Show Me The Way to Spread
The Great Story" — That "Thine is The Kingdom and Power and Glory"

SIGNS OF THE TIME

We have journeyed for a year. I pray we have done so in patience and in prayer. Since our Denver Session, in our nation, we have witnessed days of catastrophic change and calamitous uncertainty. As we stand in the midst of unrest, unreason and unrestraint—when men's hearts are failing them in fear of events taking place in the world; when assassinations are becoming commonplace, when nation is against nation; kingdom against kingdom; brother against brother, we are asking: "WHY"?

I wonder, if we, who confess to walk in the Company of the Committed, have become so engrossed by — looting on the streets; student violence on the Campuses; crime rampant in neighborhoods; dishevled "flower children" wandering aimlessly about the nation; the build up on the battlefield; a let down in human relationships; a defiance of authority; a contagion of irresponsibility; a kind of moral delinquency no longer restrained by religious or ethical faith, as these things are now threatening not only personal serenity but public order as well, do we, too, ask: "WHY?"

Some of us, while pondering the plight of our present situations, and being deeply concerned about the fate of future generations—are asking: "has the world gone mad?" or "Is America Really Sick?" In a recent magazine article, Dr Robert E. Fitch, a noted Theologian, and outstanding authority on morality in America today, had this to say about our "Society's Sickness":

> "I think the large majority of Americans are basically sound. Yet it will take time to outline the Consequences of many years when affluent, permissive and egalitarian homes were breeding a generation of pampered little brats . . . .
> What is needed to restore health to the nation? A great majority in this country should assert its beliefs more than its has . . . Many Americans are going to have to learn, all over again, that the ultimate answers cannot be found in instant pleasure or in instant power."

The signs of the time and wisdom born of experience tell me that The World Still Moves God's Way! In many ways beyond all calculation and reflection — our lives have been, and ever will be, touched deeply and influenced by the character, the teachings and the Spirit of Jesus — He still moves in and out upon the horizon of our hearts. I say, this is not such a "sick society". It is a society constantly seized with concern. It is a deeply unsettled and bewildered society — and the reason is not merely the extra-ordinary changes. It is the rate of change that is new. In the rapidity of changes, too often, too many of us have forgotten the Sacrificial Lamb, provided by God Himself on Calvary out of an unfathomable love for His Creatures.

The poetess and profound Christian, Helen S. Rice, whose writings are dedicated to responsive hearts in her verse, points to the pathway of understanding our present predicament:

> " . . . We have grown so rich and mighty and so arrogantly strong. We no longer ask in humbleness — 'God, show us where we're wrong' . . . We have come to trust completely in the power of man-made things, Unmindful of God's mighty power and that He is King of Kings. We have turned our eyes away from His to go our selfish way, and money, power and pleasure are the gods we serve today."

I must hasten to say that these gods have given us neither peace of mind nor serenity of spirit. Truthfully, we can say we have money without mercy, power without peace and pleasure without joy.

At this hour in history, The Word of God falls afresh from the lips of Hosea. In the Holy Bible, upon which the principles of this nation once grew — and apparently outgrew — as he predicts with clarity the happenings that are now upon us. The Old Testament Prophet's emphatic statements also reveals the remedy.

> "Sow to yourselves in righteousness, reap in mercy; break up your fallow ground, for it is time to seek the Lord, till He comes and rains righteousness upon you.
> Ye have plowed wickedness, ye have reaped iniquity; ye have eaten the fruit of lies, because thou didst trust in thy way, in the multitude of thy mighty men." (Hosea 10:12-13).

What a marvelous message! History is cluttered with the wreckage of nations and individuals who failed to heed Hosea's prophetic pronouncement — "Break up your fallow ground, it is time to seek the Lord." So generations rise and fall; men continue to worship at the Altar of materialism and bow down before the mights of men; and ignoring the Sovereignty of God; the Dignity of Man and the Covenant of Brotherhood, they passionately anchor their faith in bigger bombs, larger nuclear stockpiles, and faster ballistic missiles.

In these desperate days, despite all of our darkness and distractions, I can see the light of Jesus in every wakening hour. Because I believe there is still a God, in times like these, who is well able to remove the Clouds of Chaos above us, illuminate the ignorant, lift up the fallen, console the afflicted and grant Eternal life — My ringing question is: Christians, do you know "WHAT TIME IT IS?"

YOUTH, WHAT OF THIS HOUR?

With a ball of boldness and in the might of their strength — our youth has suddenly surged to the forefront in rebellion, research, resistance, revolution and revelation; looking for authentic leadership, real imagination, true vision and an open future of hope. To draw a profile of youth today, is to draw a profile of modern man. Youth shares the predicament of all people . . . "God Works In A Mysterious Ways, His Wonders To Perform."

Everyone agrees that today's young people are different, but what are some of the facts of this difference? The simplest fact about our youth today is that there are so many of them. This, more than anything, has given them a sense of power and, in turn, an impatience to exercise it. It is also a fact that this generation of youth has a sense of conscience. Hypocrisy and injustice appall them. They are impatient with the defenders of the status quo, because they believe that, America in general and Christians in particular, can do more to make the world a better place to live. In truth, our youth is a generation that yearn to be used.

It used to be assumed that it was the privilege of the old to impart their wisdom and experience to the young, and it was their duty to listen and accept it. Another, sign of our times is a reversal of these roles. More and more, we adults are having continually to listen to this "take — over generation". The Bible, as usual, has some quite surprising things to say about this question of listening to the young. Time and again we are warned that the mere process of growing older does not guarantee an increase in wisdom. This we can well listen to today in the Book of Job. Three older men have just spoken, offering their advice to Job in his distress and misery. The young man has listened silently and then he burst out:

> "I am young, and ye are very old; wherefore I was afraid, and durst not show you mine opinion, I said, Days should speak, and multitude of years should teach wisdom. But there is a spirit in man, and the inspiration of the Almighty giveth them understanding. Great men are not always wise, neither do the aged understand judgment. Therefore I said, Hearken to me; I also will show mine opinion." (Job 32:6-10).

A favorite topic of youth to day is "the values we profess to honor and the way we actually live in this modern world". They point out that many of us are content to accept Christian standards in Church on Sunday morning while settling for something quite different in the business and social life the rest of the week. They accuse us of living by an ethics that is not genuinely Christian. They don't see the Love of God and love for our fellowmen of which we sing at worship, reflected in our conduct, in the remarks we make about other people, and races or groups we might happen to dislike. They can't understand our practice and profession that the spiritual world matters more than anything else, with the supreme priority we give o material possessions.

As I listen to some of the things the youth are saying, I catch an echo of another Voice:

> "Why call ye me Lord, Lord, and do not the things which I say?" "This people drow near me with their mouth and with their lips they do honor me; but have removed their hearts far from me."

If this is what our youth are saying in their different rebellious attitudes and revolutionary actions — that much of our wisdom is empty sophistication, a lot of our experience has simply been the hardening of our soul, and o decay in our fellowmen. If listening to or youth should remind us that it is time for attacking the wrongs of society, the ills to mankind, and the personal failings of us all, then, in Christ's name, let us listen!

YOUTH, WHAT OF THIS HOUR? We adults say to you — our world is your world, neither of us is the native nor should tend to be the stranger. Only when young and old will accept the challenge of o common future together and build their lives into o common service to mankind, will the conflict of the generations disappear and the tension become productive. It Is Time To Seek The Lord, that by His Spirit, whatever our age or experience, we may together Build Our World Anew with dedicated hearts open to new truth, hearts open to new love and wills ready to respond to the promptings of His Grace.

WOMEN AND MEN OF OUR NATIONAL BAPTIST CONVENTION, WHAT OF THE HOUR?

As women and men are caught up in the whirlwind of our urgencies and anxieties, we are compeled not only to listen attentively to our youth, but to look discerningly around at ourselves. Then, we may more fully, form some concrete ideas of what we can do now to come out of these turbulent, tensioned packed times, throught which we are passing. Without a doubt, we shall quickly come to agree — this is o time o Sowing; Searching; Appraising and of "Seeking the Lord."

The distinctiveness and the togetherness of men and women, as described in the message of Creation and Sanctified By Christ's Redemption, is still and always will be, the Corner Stone of our Society; the foundation of our Christian religion; and our aid in understanding the ways of the Prince of Peace. Therefore, the relationship between men and women must be one of o true working partnership. For, where women are seen as competitors and men regard them as a threat, conflicts arise. When conflicts arise, mutual respect often decreases.

While working through the struggles and mistakes of mankind toward the Edification of the Family; the Perpetuation of Christian Education and the Acceleration of Evangelization — for the uplifting of humanity and the fulfillment of God's purposes and the disclosure of His Glory — creative partnership of men and women everywhere and at all times is necessary, if, there is to be A Great Society in which Jesus is Relevant.

"It Is ATime To Sow", says Eugene Patterson, Editor, The Atlanta Constitution, when — "Thirty million Americans are poor. Eight million only get help from welfare programs. Eight billion dollars is being spent on them this year. And most of it is being scattered to needy people under a well meant program that has in fact turned out to discourage work and break up families. The category is tolled Aid to Families with Dependent Children.

AFDC mothers can't get the check if an able — bodied father lives in the house; thus fathers often leaves so they can get it. Until recently, an AFDC mother who worked had her earnings substracted from her check; so she was discouraged from working . . . Americans can think of o better scheme than that, but they haven't. The AFDC list swells (up 14 percen last year), while Social Security diminishes the rolls in other welfare categories — the old, the blind, the disabled.

Neither the poor nor the comfortable are happy with the welfare system. And as the plight of the poor intensifies, the short comings of other programs become clearer . . . The Economists are urging an opening of eyes to other directions . . .

ARE OUR EYES OPEN ON THIS ISSUE OF FAMILY BREAKDOWN?

ARE WE MATCHING OUR MATURITY WITH OUR MISSIONARY RESPONSIBILITIES?

There is a harvest of all things sown. For too long we have sown seeds of selfishness and unconcern for the whole of humanity. This is o Day of People, all of us are tied together in the "bundle of life"; and science and technology have bounded us together into ONE WORLD. Men and women of faith must become men and women of affairs. We cannot continue to evade the pertinent issues of the hour. Issues that are relevant to all of our cares and concern — conferences and consultations must activate, effectively, our Christian Convictions and religious commitment to the hungry, the poor, the sick, the naked and the needs of all nations. This is, THE RELEVANCE OF JESUS IN A GREAT SOCIETY. "In as much as ye have done it unto the least of these, you have done it unto me."

We, the people of God, cannot escape these empathic words of Jesus today. Presently, in simple terms He tells us to "Sow Yourselves Into The Furrows Of Life." This calls and commands us to move from our islands of self-interest and reach out as well as across to all areas of human needs. Then, we can genuinely be considerate, conscientious and concerned about freedom, justice, peace and brotherhood for all people everywhere. Cannot we see that his will not happen unless we ourselves are empty of our good deeds and honest efforts? Only true worship and consecrated work can accomplish this — certainly, helping us rededicate our lives to the highest and best we know; opening our lives, again, to the Grace that pardons our past and empowers the present and directs the disturbing day ahead.

MEN AND WOMEN IN CHURCH AND SOCIETY, WHAT OF THIS HOUR?

A searching analysis of ourselves and our situations reveal that we have lifted up our minds, hearts and souls to the might of men and machines. Now, the urgency of the hour demands that we "break up our fallow ground", and build our world anew! For too long, our scientific achievements; technological advancements and or intellectual curiosities, have outstripped our moral stamina, our spiritual quality and our religious faith. We are to be the Light of the World — but the switch must be turned on! It is "Time To Seek The Lord".

In the Opening Sermon, at the World Council of Churches Fourth Assembly, Uppsala, Sweden, July, 1968, Dr. D. T. Niles, speaking on the Assembly's Theme — "BEHOLD, I MAKE ALL THINGS NEW", reminded us that God's availability to make our world anew, is His Divine Promise:

> "The Central Committee of the WCC has held the courage and the faith to rest this Assembly on one of the divine promises, a promise which points to the future and to the end of time, and yet is a promise in the continuous present tense. For that which is promised in the complete and final fulfillment of what is already available as present experience . . . God's presence with men became history in the Word becomes flesh. The fact of God's comfort and victory in the midst of sorrow, pain and death is known fact. We are surrounded by signs to be seen of what God will accomplish now and here after."

WOMEN OF THIS 67th SESSION, WHAT OF THIS HOUR?

Despite the fumbling of our footsteps and the wandering of our ways, by which we have isolated ourselves from our brethren and proven most unworthy of Divine Love — it is good to remember that God has not left Himself without a Witness in our Lives and in our spirits. With this assurance, we must gather in our hands the fragments of our world and rest our lives, our labors, and our love in the Presence of God. In the face of great changes we have to remember that we operate from certain unchanging foundations. We believe in a God who does not change — in standards of right and wrong that do not change — in death and judgment which are inescapable — and in a Truth that is absolute, which is forever settled in Jesus Christ and can never pass away.

This hour in history challenges us, the Woman's Convention, to be Bearers of the New Possibility; the Enlarged Horizon; and the Great hope, in bringing men, women and chilren nearer the Kingdom of God and making Jesus Relevant in Our Society. With a wider compassion, vaster vision and a deeper dedication to present responsibilities and expectabilities, we can become "a kernal of grace" in our homes, missionary societies, churches, communities, Districts and State Conventions, states and in the nations. Our mission in these Tangled Times is clear and precise. While too may of us are too content to keep a trouble vigil at the bedside of the world, the Spirit of the Living Christ within tells us to " BEHOLD, HE IS MAKING ALL THINGS NEW"

Thoroughly saved, and filled to running over with His Spirit, we can know and better understand that:

- It is time to separate shadow from substance and the permanent from that which perishes and passes away.
- It is time that we Christian Sisters know there is a satisfaction in helping somebody to discover something to believe in — something to work at — to feel with wisdom and to love with understanding.
- It is time to open our Souls to the blessings which are ever flowing from a Living Lord; for our Spirits must be highly sensitized from Divine Communication.
- It is time to be Walking Prayers instead of talking prayers.
- "It is past time that we wipe the stain of violence from this land." — ROBERT F. KENNEDY.
- It is a time to stand tall and walk bravely.

God and the world today are looking for Women who know WHAT TIME IT IS — These are:

Women who are not for sale;
Women who are honest, sound from center to circumference, true to the heart's core;
Women with consciences as steady as the needle to the pole;
Women who will stand for the right if the heavens totter and the earth reels;

Women who can tell the truth and look the world right in the eye;
Women who will neither brag nor run;
Women who neither flag or flinch;
Women who can have courage without shouting it;
Women who know their message and tell it;
who know their place and fill it; who know their business and attend to it; and Women who are not too lazy to work, nor too proud to be poor — they eat what they have earned and wear what they have paid for.

Lastly, with hearts warm and urgent, we must unlock our lives from worry, wealth, war, weapons and weak welfare programs; and know "IT IS TIME TO SEEK THE LORD" — The hour has come for Mankind to unite together around a common faith and join hands in a common task; to blend the spirit of man with the Spirit of God in creative illumination and power of personality in "MAKING ALL THINGS NEW".

IT IS TIME for us WAKE UP — RISE UP — STAND UP — STEP UP — to correct what is wrong; strengthened what is weak; and uphold what is right — to BUILD OUR WORLD ANEW. Have we not come near the KINGDOM for such a time as this?

THE WOMAN'S CONVENTION AUXILIARY NATIONAL BAPTIST CONVENTION, U.S.A., INC. CORRESPONDING SECRETARY REPORT: 1968

"Today well-lived, makes every yesterday a dream of happiness and every tomorrow a vision of hope"

Sanskrit

President Ross, the official family, my own New York Presidents, messengers to the 87th Annual Session of this convention, fellow Christians and fraternal guests: It is with deep humility and divine motivation that I come at this moment to submit my second annual report as Corresponding Secretary of a glorious group of Baptist women.

Someone has very touchingly said "the human mind has done wonderful things. It has covered the air, harnessed the lightning, penetrated the secrets of life and explored space." We are proud to have some of these great minds, with the addition of spiritual power in our auxiliary. Women with spiritual perception yet, who do not fear sharpened intellectual surroundings. In such a climate as this, any worker finds the urge to strive for the highest performance in all areas of responsibility. It is a blessing to work with such a sparkling spirited president and to communicate with dedicated church women whether in person, by letter, telegram or telephone.

Of course, we understand that with blessings go boringe, with respect and selectedness go hard core rejection and status seeking critics and with people seeking a better world go people satisfied and imbued with the philosophy that "If I didn't do it, it cannot be done," or "We never did anything like this, so it may not work." The officer handles thousands of letters, multiple telegrams, hundreds of telephone calls and ever-present complaints, she has attended seminars, institutes, conferences and a variety of Baptist, interdenominational and international workshops and dialogues. The day's work really commences at 5:00 A.M. and culminates about midnight after the final directives from the executive office.

March 8, 1968, it was my pleasure to join executives of many other national denominational groups at the center for Continuing Education on the University of Chicago Campus. The meeting was a consultation on Urban Crisis. Before leaving home the sponsoring agency, Church Women United sent to each designated representative selected bibliographical material, viz: magazines, pamphets, brochures and newspaper clippings along with position papers dealing with poverty, the "Black Ghetto," riots, the Kerner report and pending legislation. The reference book was "Do Not Leaving It to the Snake" by Harvey Cox.

Among the magazine articles was an article from the Saturday Evening Post under the caption: "The Black Immigrant." In summary, this article told about a poor Negro from Mississippi going to live in Springfield, Illinois. It described the Mississippi Negro on a plantation and contrasted his life in Urban Springfield. Also it pointed out how impossible adjustment was for his children. The author states the man lived 60 miles from the Mississippi River and never saw it. Some say fire in a Mississippi bathroom would never reach the house.

The Corresponding Secretary is a black immigrant from Mississippi. She grew up in a town that today is 18 miles from the nearest railroad station and 30 miles from the nearest airport. Yet, this consultant had travelled around the world. We feel that one should not blame the other person or system for all his hard times and troubles. Surely, many plantation Negroes, inspired by God and the church have left the plantation and entered colleges, universities and landed at every airport on this great earth. Many of us come up with outdoor toilets, on muddy roads and lived in broken-down houses, but we can very well adjust to paved streets, with modern bathrooms and air conditioned offices if given the opportunity.

Jesus was deeply concerned about the bloody stalemates passing for peace and would be just as concerned about the middle class hang-up today. Were you grieved because of the forecast for a long hot summer? Well, a noted BLACK POWER advocate said she was more concerned about the long hungry winters. We seem to have two classes, nobility or nobody.

The summer 1968 is over!

The power struggle remains. Also, debates, depression, prejudice, ill-will, crime, confusion and chaos remain. There is indeed greed in the market place, immorality in high places and unemployment every place. The rich are yet getting richer and the poor getting children. Emotional instability economic insecurity and spiritual insincerity challenge every NATIONAL BAPTIST WOMAN in America today.

It has taken all this to say that I accepted the office fully aware of the scope of the responsibility and equally determined to give all within me to promote the objectives of this convention.

A very special thanks to Cornerstone Baptist Church, Brooklyn, N. Y., the Minister—Dr. Sandy F. Ray, the Secretary, Mrs. Beatrice J. Wells and Mrs. Evelyn Martin of the Essex County Youth House, Newark, N. J. With them the task was truly a joy. I am grateful to President Ross and the official family for warm acceptance and to the District, Local and State Presidents for splendid cooperation and dedicated advice.

HYMN OF PRAYER .....

DEAR LORD AND FATHER OF MANKIND

John G. Whittier

Dear Lord and Father of mankind, Forgive our foolish ways;
Re-clothe us in our rightful mind, In purer lives Thy service find,
In deeper reverence, praise.

In simple trust like theirs who heard, Beside the Syrian sea,
The gracious calling of the Lord, Let us, like them, without a word, Rise up and follow Thee.

O Sabbath rest by Galilee! O calm of hills above,
Where Jesus knelt to share with Thee, The silence of eternity Interpreted by love!

Drop Thy still dews of quietness, Till all our strivings cease.
Take from our souls the strain and stress, And let our ordered lives confess—
The beauty of Thy peace.

Breathe through the heats of our desire, Thy coolness and Thy balm.
Let sense be dumb, let flesh retire; Speak through the earthquake, wind, and fire,
O still, small voice of calm.

AMEN.

Respectfully submitted

LEADS FOR DISTRICT PRESIDENTS

When you are elected to the office of President or Chairman of your organization, you assume the responsibilities of leadership. Your first big question will be HOW, WHERE, and with WHOM to begin. Following the idea of "first things first," we suggest that you:

1. READ AND STUDY THE CONSTITUTION AND BY-LAWS.

In these documents, you will find information on:

a. The aims and purposes of the organization.
b. The other officers who were elected or appointed and their duties.
c. Who is on the Board of Directors and the Executive Committee.

Parliamentary Law provides for only two officers, one to preside and one to keep records. Other officers should be provided for in the Constitution or By-Laws of each organization. Duties of officers, board members, and standing committees should be specifically defined in the By-Laws or Manual of Procedure.

If the organization does not have a Constitution or By-Laws, you should appoint a committee to prepare one. The present trend is to use By-Laws only, omitting a Constitution.

2. KNOW THE DUTIES OF YOUR OFFICE AND YOUR OFFICERS, THE NUMBER OF STANDING COMMITTEES, AND THE SPECIFIC DUTIES OF EACH.

As a leader of your club, you must know the answers to all questions on duties, obligations, and responsibilities, for you will often be called upon for this information. You are the one who will appoint the chairmen of the different standing committees (unless otherwise specified in your Constitution and By-Laws) therefore you must know

a. The duties of each committee.
b. The areas in which it functions.
c. The qualifications of a suitable chairman

3. PLAN AND CONSULT WITH THE OTHER ELECTED OFFICERS.

Although you were elected by the members and were their choice of a leader always remember that no club or organization wants a dictator and that no group can succeed without cooperation between the President and the officers. These officers were elected because of their leadership qualities, experience, and knowledge and will be very helpful to you in your planning. In fact, they will largely determine your success.

Provide each officer with a copy of the Constitution and By-Laws. Before making decisions and appointments, meet, consult, and discuss matters with your officers.

4. SET YOUR GOALS FOR THE YEAR.

These goals must be consistent with the long range purposes of the organization. Early thought about what you hope to accomplish will prove of constant value during your term of office, and be useful when it comes time to evaluate your work.

Encouraging your officers and committee chairmen to set their own goals at the beginning of each year will also be of value. They should decide what they individually hope to accomplish.

5. MAKE USE OF YOUR VICE PRESIDENT.

By giving your Vice President responsibility, she acquires a broad view of the whole community and can encourage the organization to take its proper place and responsibility.

But—no matter what her assignment—WORK HAND IN HAND WITH YOUR VICE PRESIDENT!!! Let her be "in on the know" at all times!!!

6. APPOINT THE CHAIRMEN OF THE STANDING COMMITTEES.

In order to avoid a break in the continuity of the program, it is important to appoint a chairman for each standing committee as soon as possible after your election. Select all chairmen carefully. Appoint a chairman who has the qualifications necessary for the committee job, taking into consideration her training, abilities, attitudes, talents, and previous accomplishments. If you are not able to fill each committee job immediately, please remember that for the time being a vacancy is not a disgrace, and that you want to appoint the best person for that particular job.

A good committee chairman will:

1. Have the ability to lead and direct others.
2. Enlist the cooperation of the committee.
3. Delegate responsibilities to the committee members.
4. Be self-assured, but never dominating or dictatorial.

7. PREPARE AND PLAN EACH MEETING IN ADVANCE.

There is more to presiding at a meeting than just stepping up, picking up the gavel, and calling the meeting to order. Meetings do not run themselves. Every minute must be planned in advance in order to avoid a waste of time. Planning and checking ahead of the meeting enables you to relax and thus you create a comfortable atmosphere so that the members can enjoy themselves.

a. Check arrangements and facilities.
b. Be sure that the committee chairmen have fulfilled their assignment and duties.
c. Start and end the meeting on time if you want it to be a success and hold the interest of the members.
d. Prepare and plan an agenda (list of things to be done) and adhere to it closely to accomplish the purposes of the meeting, to insure that important matters will be given the necessary time, less important things can be covered quickly and yet nothing will be overlooked.

Give a copy of agenda to Recording Secretary, if possible. It will help her in writing the Minutes. S

8. PREPARE YOURSELF FOR THE MEETING.

Examine your attitude toward others. It is very important that you as a leader

1. Conceal your own personal feelings in all situations and towards all members
2. Be interested, attentive, courteous, honest and impartial
3. Be courageous when necessary, firm when needed, and gentle in all situations
4. Maintain a sense of humor—keep away from too serious or too stern an attitude

Your organization is as good as you make it!! It is not yours to dominate, but to lead with gracious charm and pleasing directness, thus winning goodwill and cooperation.

9. LEARN THAT:

a. You get out of any organization just as much as you put into it!!
b. The attitude of the President or Chairman affects all the members more than is usually realized!!!
c. All projects will not be successful, so expect some failures and profit from mistakes!!

THE RETIRING PRESIDENT

Some Presidents, upon retiring, never attend meetings. This is unfortunate—for with all of their valuable experience, they could be very helpful. Other retiring Presidents stay around too closely and try to "run things"—this is equally bad for since they have had their chance, they should let the incoming officers assume its responsibility of directing the organization.

A new President should treat the retiring President with great courtesy and should invite her assistance and suggestions, instead of ignoring her completely if the suggestions do not suit the incoming President, she is not compelled to use them. If a new President does not understand procedures, she should feel free to ask questions of the retiring President—there should be free interchange of ideas, and a smooth give and take.

SUGGESTIONS FOR THE RETIRING PRESIDENT

The Retiring President should

a. Hand over the organization in good order to the new officers.
   1. Pass on important papers and files
   2. Pass on recommendations for the future
   3. List uncompleted activities, and appoint a continuity committee to see that the wishes of the club are fulfilled and all plans are completed.
b. Be as helpful as possible in giving information to the new administration if asked to do so.
c. Be available—but not bothersome—for advice, guidance, and suggestions.

GREETINGS

President Ross, Officers of the Women's Convention, Directors Barron, Leak, Acting Director Ervin, Field Workers, Directors of States, Officers of the Young People's Department,

I was singularly honored when I received the call from President Ross to be the Tour Leader for the Mary O. Ross Tour to the 7th Baptist Youth World Conference which convened in Berne, Switzerland from July 22nd thru July 26th, 1966.

I'm deeply grateful to the President for this unusual opportunity to visit foreign countries and the Holy Land. This was a rededication of my life to Christ, this trip to the Holy Land for the 4th time.

I'm a debtor to the National Baptist Convention and the Women's Convention for the experiences it has been mine to receive for the 32 years I have given the convention. It has not always been easy nor a path of sunshine, often it has been necessary for me to go to "My Calvary," not for myself, but for those who did not understand me, yet in spite of difficulties, I have remained loyal and faithful. I know what it is to be criticized and misunderstood.

On Monday July 4, 1966 I left Chicago headed for another great adventure with the Baptist Youth of the world. At JFK International Airport in New York City, I was joined by nineteen people to make the Mary O. Ross Tour of 1966.

We arrived in Lisbon, Portugal on Tuesday, July 5th at 9:10 A.M. Our accommodations at the Excelsior Hotel were excellent and gave each tour member a taste of the great things that were to come. Wednesday we toured the beautiful city of Lisbon. It is one of the pleasantest cities in Europe. The tour included stops to see a Bull Ring, Modern City, Monsanto Park, Greenhouse at Edward VII Park, Museum of Royal Coaches, and Jeronimos Monastery.

Thursday, July 11th at 8:55 A.M. we boarded flight 146 for Rome. We arrived in Rome at 1:25 P.M. and were immediately transported to the Tiziano Hotel. Friday morning they took us to see St. Peter's Basilica in the Vatican, Parthean and Janiculum Hill, and the Villa Borghese.

In the afternoon the tour took us to see City Hall, Roman Forum, Trevi Fountain, Colosseum, St. Paul's Basilica outside the walls, and the Church of St. Peter in Chains containing the Statue of Moses by Michelangelo.

Saturday was a day of leisure. On this day I took the group to see one of the Christian Orphanages. The George Boardman Taylor Orphanage and Rest Home. This Home is run by the Baptist Women of Virginia. The group enjoyed the experience of seeing how our missionary dollars are helping people around the world. This tour was not included in our regular itinerary.

Saturday evening at 8:20 P.M. we boarded United Arab flight 802 for Cairo, Egypt arriving in Cairo at 1:15 A.M. We were immediately transferred to the Hotel Continental.

On Sunday we toured the Pyramids, Egyptian Museums, drove through the main streets of Cairo to Mena House, visited the Sphinx and enjoyed a ride on a camel. Rev. Wm. Citens conducted services for the group.

Monday at 7:30 A.M. we took United Arab flight 702 to Beirut, Lebanon arriving at 8:35 A.M. Our accommodations were at the Lord's Hotel. Monday afternoon the sightseeing tour began with a drive to the famous American University Campus. Then skirting Ras Beirut Sea Corniche we stopped at the Pigeon Grotto. This is a beautiful drive along bathing beaches, through Beirut "Umbrella" Pine Wood and on to Ashrafieh Hill through Surrock Palace quarter and down to the heart of the City, Martyr's Parliament squares and the Jewelry Market.

On Tuesday morning we left Beirut on tour and proceeded southwards along the main road, live with olive groves, leading to Damour from where a mountain road branches off taking you to Beiteddine with its palace of typical oriental architecture, built by Emir Beshir (1799-1840). We visited the palace and the folklore museum then proceeded on to Chtaura for lunch. After lunch we drove to Baalbek, city of the sun, and the most important historic site of the Roman period. We visited the Acropolis, the Temples of Jupiter, Bacchus and Venus, then return to Beirut via Lebanon's summer resorts.

Wednesday we took flight 065 on Cyprus Airways at 12:00 noon to Nicosia. Arrived in Nicosia at 1:00 P.M. and went to the Nicosia Palace Hotel.

Thursday, July 16th we left Nicosia abroad Cyprus Airways flight 086 for Tel Aviv. We arrived at 3:50 P.M. Our hotel accommodations were at Kfar Maccabia Hotel.

Friday, very early we started our sightseeing tour of Tel Aviv and the area. We saw cultural and commercial centers, garden suburbs and new immigrants housing projects. We proceeded to the colorful ancient city of Jaffa, and then on the Old City of Jerusalem where we were accommodated at the Ritz Hotel.

After lunch we went to see St. Stephen's Gate from where you start your walk in the steps of Our Lord, visiting Pilate's Judgment Hall, Chapel of the Flagellation, the Ecce Homo and Lithostrotos, proceeding along the Via Dolorosa up to Calvary and the Holy Sepulchre. We visited many shrines connected with the life, death and resurrection of The Lord. We proceeded to the Temple Area of Mount Moriah where stands the Dome of the Rock and El Aqsa Mosque. Then we visited Solomon's Temple and Stables, the Wailing Wall, the Golden Gate, Church of St. Anne and the Pool of Bethesda, and walked to the Damascus Gate.

On Saturday a personal friend, Owner of the Imperial Hotel royally entertained the entire group with a lovely luncheon. Mr. Dagani of the New Imperial Hotel made sure that every member of the party enjoyed themselves. I met his family in the old City of Jerusalem in 1947.

A Gold Bound Certificate from the Government of Jordan showing that we had visited the Holy Land was given to each delegate by my friend Mr. Dagani and our agency.

Saturday afternoon we continued our tour of the City of Jerusalem. We visited the Chapel of the Ascension, then the Church of Pater Noster built on the site where Jesus taught his Disciples the Lords Prayer, continued to the Garden of Gethsemane visiting the Church of All Nations and the Tomb of the Virgin Mary. We proceeded to Bethlehem where we visited the Grotto of the Nativity built on the site where Jesus was born, the Basilica of the Nativity and the Milk Grotto, drove from Jerusalem to Bethany visiting the Tomb of Lazarus and house of Martha and Mary, the Apostles' Fountain and the Good Samaritan Inn, ruins of Jericho and its old walls.

On Sunday we left the airport in Tel Aviv to board Swissair flight 333 at 2:20 P.M. for Zurich, Switzerland. We were met at the Zurich Airport and transferred to the Hotel Limmeck. On Monday we were transferred to the Hotel Volkshaus in Berne, Switzerland.

On Monday Evening, July 22, at 7:00 P.M. the 7th Baptist Youth World Conference opened in Berne, Switzerland. The Theme of the Conference was "ONE WORLD, ONE LORD, ONE WITNESS."

This year Baptists from 85 nations of the world sent representatives to this conference to work in Fellowship and to give them the opportunity to know each other and to commit their lives to a continuing worldwide fellowship.

As a Resource Leader, I had charge of a group with people from England, Czechoslovakia, Venezuela and the United States of America.

Mrs. J. C. Austin, a resource leader from Memphis, Tennessee did not attend. In her place I appointed Mrs. Romeo Woods of Missouri. Mrs. Lucille Procter of Texas, B. M. & E. Convention also served as a resource leader.

One incident that marked our experiences concerned a young girl in my group, Miss Susan P. Powe from New York. Miss Powe overheard a group of young caucasians remarking that they were glad that Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. was dead and wished they had been the ones to kill him. On my suggestion Miss Powe went to Dr. Denny, secretary of the World Youth Conference, our group accompanied her. Because of this incident Dr. Denny had a 15 minute Memorial Service for Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Dr. Billy Graham stated he would be glad to see the day, when Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.'s dream will come true "When all God's Children black and white will walk together all over the world.

The tour was a grand success and the name of Dr. Mary O. Rose is held in high esteem. Words are ineffable to express her resourcefulness and the dignity and comforts with which she arranged our tour. The group represented her with dignity, poise courtesy and ability.

I encountered many problems, and fortunately was able to solve most of them. It started with bus trouble in Beirut, Lebanon, trouble with Hotel Manager in Rome, Italy, trouble with our Hotel accommodations in Tel Aviv and had to cut the compensation to the hotel.

We were the only Negro group in the Hotel with the exception of a delegate from St. Louis and her three girls. Our table was identified by NATIONAL BAPTIST YOUTH DEPT. To our astonishment the Steward had to notify me to tell a part of my group if they were not coming to dinner, I must notify him. It was taken lightly but Dr. Denny had to announce same from platform.

Mrs. Leone May's bags were delayed in Chicago and did not catch up with us until she reached Rome. Pan American Airlines was kind enough to supply her with $50.00 in emergency upon request until this difficulty was straightened out.

Mrs. Taylor of Mississippi had to return to the United States because of her child's illness. We accomplished arrangements for her return in Rome.

Mr. Williams of Detroit was scheduled to leave London, but due to change in reservations he missed the flight and we had to rearrange his transportation to travel with the group, so that he would not be left in London alone.

Some of the members of the group were ill but everyone shared their drug supplies, and Mrs. McNair was the only member who was ill enough to need the services of a physician.

I have tried to list a few of the highlights of the Mary O. Rose Tour and some of the things we encountered. We endeavored to make it a pleasant and memorial experience to each person who accompanied us. We hope they received a Spiritual lift that will live with them forever.

Closed With A Prayer

Somehow what ever we do must have some connection with him. He dealt with the hungry, suffering, he mingled with the despised, outcast, challenged the rich, wept over cripples. He reached far back into history. lay hold on the prophets, spoke with authority. He did not hide from problems.

OPPORTUNITY

With doubt and dismay you are smitten
You think there's no chance for you son
Why the best books haven't been written.

The best race hasn't been run
The best score hasn't been made yet
The best song hasn't been sung
The best tune hasn't been played
Cheer up for the world is young.

No chance, why the world is just eager,
For things you ought create
It's store of wealth is still meager
It's needs are insistent and great
Don't worry and fret, faint hearted
The chances have just begun.
For the best jobs haven't been started
The best work hasn't begun.

—Benton Bradley

It is not what the world gives me, in honor, praise or gold
It's what I do give the world, so others do unfold.
If by my work through life I can another soul unfold
Then I have done what cannot be made good, by praise or gold.
One tiny thought in tiny word
May give a great one birth
And that thought was caused by me
I lived a life of worth.

Richard F. Wolfe

On Monday July 29th we left Zurich, Switzerland bound for London and home.

"Never Underestimate the Power of Young People."

I have spoken these words to you before but the statement is in essence one of reasons for rebellion among your people all over the world today. They are rebelling against their elders who say one thing and do another.

This is a time when the older generation must stop and look back at the younger ones and then re-examine their concept of what is right, what is just, and what is good for them.

If a child is brought up in a loving, good-example household, all the outside influences cannot change its basic goodness.

The [illegible] factor in the generation gap is that parents are afraid to trust the good judgment they have instilled in their kids.

A statement of the situation that exists in the world today will certainly begin to make God fearing people believe as the scripture says: "You must be slower to be right when you speak. You must win your case when you are being tried."

It is observation of life that helps one make his own friends. One must have confidence in what he is able to do and be ready to meet each new challenge. Lack of confidence has a basis of fear.

This is a day and age where men and women must return to Christ in order to instill in their children the love of God.

For this experience I am indebted to Dr. Ross for taking this group to view the Damascus Gate, Nazareth, The Lord's Tomb, Calvary, Garden of Gethsemane, Jaffa Gate, Pool of Siloam, Sea of Galilee, to travel the Jericho Road and to again walk up the Via Dolorosa where the Master was led.

APPRECIATION

I am deeply grateful to Mrs. Margie B. Gaillard, Treasurer of the Women's Convention, her daughter, Mrs. Benjamin J. Anderson, Mrs. Leona May, Mrs. Romeo Woods, Rev. William Givens, Mrs. Irene Sullins, Mr. Kenneth Williams, and Mrs. Pearl Anthony for their special interest in helping with problems. They extended themselves beyond and above the call of duty where my health and welfare was concerned.

Many thanks to each and every one of you.

MAY GOD ABIDE WITH US

OUR DEPARTMENT

We have no free workers. All committee chairmen, secretaries, instructors, officers, including the Dean, District Directors, and State Directors expect to be paid for their services great or small.

We are proud of our past accomplishments. For 32 years I have watched our department work under three presidents: President Layton, President Burroughs, and President Ross, also under four National Directors: Mrs. Leatha L. Craig of Georgia; Mrs. Ella Verne Frye of Washington, D.C.; Mrs. Banks of Michigan, and Mrs. Zee Barron Anderson of Mississippi.

I have been to the Foreign countries four times. I was sent three times—first by President Layton, second by President Burroughs and third by President Ross. This last trip was the fourth time and I went at the request of Dr. Ross as the Tour leader, maintaining my own expenses.

Dr. Charles Dinkins who was Director of Christian Education at our Sunday School Publishing Board had charge of our Study Courses. He issued credits for the work done by our delegates, in fact, he issues credits for all National Sunday School Congress and State Conventions, and District Conventions. The classes are held in the afternoon.

We had large delegations often about 500 Young People. When we marched in Women's Convention, there were more than 500 including Sunbeam, Red Circle, Young Women's Auxiliary, and The Matrons singing, "Hold the Fort we are Coming."

Each year promotion was made to the Seniors when the age limit was reached, with the exception of those who had been elevated to their states to State Directors, District Directors, and local presidents. We were feeders for training Young People for the Women's Convention. Today we are proud of the workers and especially those who are now working in the Women's Convention, such as, Mrs. Pearl Anthony, president Arkansas Consolidated Convention, Mrs. Nellie Saunders, who served as chairman for the Young People's Bulletin and needless to say she did an excellent job and is now serving as a State Representative in the State of Michigan, Blanche Carter, Vice-president of the National Women's Convention and President of the California Convention, Tiny Leake is now Eastern Director, Mercedes Walker, State Director for Illinois; Pinkie Reeves, State Director for Michigan; Mrs. Fannie Jones, running for the Clerk of the Supreme Court of Illinois and many others too numerous to mention.

Our scholarship meant something. At one time we had seven girls in training. Three from Michigan, two from Indiana and one from Illinois. Some were at the National Baptist Training School, Nashville, Tennessee and some were at the National Trade and Professional School in Washington, D.C.

Today one of our graduates, Miss Annice Snodgrass works at the Sunday School Publishing Board. Pocahontas Williams married a minister in Alabama and she is now a worker in Alabama. Others went to different fields of labor.—one African minister went back home after finishing the Seminary, one girl whose scholarship was paid by the Young Peoples' Department returned to her native Bahamas to teach there.

Our National Director was taken ill and the Young People paid $1,400.00 medical expenses at the Riverside Sanitarium.

Our Pantry Shower was a success for the National Baptist Training School at Nashville: each state supplied a special type of canned goods, enough to run for a school term.

Our Linen Shower for the National Trade School in Washington was a huge success.

We had at one time over $10,000.00 in cash for scholarships. We have always been responsible for the expenses of our department and raised our funds by enrollment and representation.

We also wish to thank State Directors, pastors, and workers who have been writing for the LIGHT and the material sent to Director Barron to edit and then the manuscript is sent to me for printing and publication. I have been responsible for the printing and publication of all books and also the payment of all bills. The "Guide" was revised by Director Barron and sent to me for publication.

With the cooperation of the State Directors I have been able to clear most of the bills for printing. At the close of the Convention in Atlanta, I was able to pay $500.00 on a $1,500.00 printing bill. Because of the nature of service I have been able to give the Acorn Badge Company as a worker, they wrapped and shipped all orders for me with no charge for postage on large items.

Our Special Fund was always set aside and held by the Treasurer of the Womens Convention. The Home and Foreign Mission Scholarship is paid out by the Women's Convention. At no time did money come from the treasurer of the Young People. We are a department of the Women's Convention, not an Auxiliary, therefore, permission for our projects come from the Women's Convention. The Director must have the ability to plan for both program and finances.

We launched a contest two years ago to have delegates go to Berne, Switzerland to the 7th World Youth Conference. With the permission of Dr. Ross, our Young People had two choices: one to go with the Young People's Tour under Dr. Ross or go with other parties. They chose to go with Mrs. Grace Bire Taylor. Therefore, Dr. Ross had no tickets to give—We offered three tickets as the prize and we sent a delegate to Beirut, Lebanon Youth Conference under the contest. This year there was no response to the contest.

LIKE PAUL, I have put Jesus into the Hot Spot of my consciousness. I am a new creature in the realm of Service and Fellowship and World Sisterhood. Paul knew that Jesus Christ was the greatest uplifting Power in the world. Able to raise any man or woman above the difficulties and business of life into an exalted walk with God. Therefore he wrote, "I am determined not to knowa anything among you save Jesus and Him crucified."

The fruit which the Spirit produces love, joy, peace, kindness, generosity, faithfulness, self-mastery, and patience.—Galatians 5:22, 23.

I have worked with each Director selected. Promotion and building with no other thought but the Department succeed

I organized the Lethia L. Craig Scholarship, the Ella Verne Fry Scholarship and all other special Projects, especially the African Scholarship.

At the World Youth Conference we had four Resource Leaders These leaders were selected by Dr. Robert S. Denny and the Executive Board of the World Youth Conference, and not by our Convention. Dr. E. A. Freeman, President of Sunday School Congress is a member of the Executive Board.

The Executive Committee of the Baptist World Alliance makes all programs and selects all the speakers.

Only youth appear on the program,—no adults. The youth lead the prayer. Introduce the speakers, have private conferences and listen to the lectures. Adults are speakers, resource leaders, blackboard demonstrators.

Many issues were discussed by leaders and groups worked for ways and means for Young People to move closer to God. They discussed the issues of most vital concern to the young people present so that they may return home with new visions, new ideas, and new solutions to some of the problems We must distinguish between Young People and Young Adults.

My indebtedness to the workers of the West and Workers in Finance and Women's Convention and others who have worked with me for 32 years. I wish to express my sincere gratitude. I wish to express a sense of even greater obligation to those who have given so generously of their personal counsel, and instruction I am a debtor to all Past Presidents and especially to Dr. Ross for her confidence in me and whose fellowship has been a constant and inspiring help.

Respectfully submitted.

We are happy to be in Georgia the peach State, and in its "Luscious peach of Capital, Atlanta Atlanta is a city Young in years yet rich in history. A city immortalized in Gone with the Wind and famous for the "Wren's nest" home of Joe Chandler Harris, creator of Uncle Remus. Most important of all Atlanta is the city that gave us our Negro Moses: the Architect of Negro freedom—Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr."

"Atlanta is a fun city as well as a hard working city. It is a Cultural center with its Theatres, Symphonies, Ballets, Operas and renowned educational institutions. I consider myself fortunate indeed to be among the chosen few who came under the tutelage of presidents and teachers from Morehouse and Spelman." I attribute much of the little success I've attained to the fact that I had the right "head start." The sense of moral and spiritual values; the appreciation of cultural activities—music—drama—art; The respect for the welfare of others, a deep sense of dedication to duty I learned under these men and women of Morehouse and Spelman. They influenced me so greatly that I later married a man who was a graduate of Morehouse College and Atlanta University; so you know that Atlanta is near and dear to me not only in my educational and personal life, but in my religious life as well. Atlanta has played a part " Director Barron called all of the Young Women's Auxiliary and Y.M.A. officers, and presented the Regional Directors and workers.

One may ask why are we able to carry on and live. The answer lies in the fact that Jesus is Ruleroot. She closed leaving us with this thought, for this we live, for this we die and blending strength with strength divine we bring it High—Foreign Mission hour.

Vocal Solo: Maria Cousin, Ohio

Introduction of speaker: Director Barron: Rev. L. L. Jordan, Jr., Pastor, First Baptist Church, Mound Bayou, Mississippi. Opened message with prayer: Scripture: Luke 10:1-3.

In the form of a question his theme was :What can I do? Proceed with prayer to the Lord of harvest. Go your way, I will send you forward. We are the people, turn to the observance of need, conscious of the strength and the need being great. If we could pause in a quiet place and ask our selves what can I do? Sinners must ask what can I do to be saved? Being brought up in this environment has given you a sense of responsibility in these perilous times. We must do something, not only in the Young but the adults, also, we must not let the things we see make us bitter. Do what we can to do our best. Ask ourselves the questions what can I do to make America conscience to do its best. What can I do to make the Convention better? Rev. Jordan informed us to study the 1-2 verses and make them become a part of us—Men are lost without God and need Him as their personal Savior. If you are Christians you are soldiers of the Lord—(What can I do?) Praise His Name. Tell the world, Come to His Church.

Hymn: (quoted by speaker) Give of your best to the Master—Where He Leads me I will follow. The Young People were left with a very inspiring and soul-stirring message. It left with us What can I do? An inspiring prayer by Rev. C. Chester Gage (soft-music).
