REVISED CONSTITUTION of the National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Inc.

PREAMBLE

Whereas, it was the sense of the Negro Baptist of the United States as represented in several Baptist organizations convened in Atlanta, Georgia, September 28, 1895, and known as the Baptist Foreign Mission Convention hitherto engaged in Missionary work on the West Coast of Africa; the National Baptist Convention which had been doing missionary work in the United States; the National Baptist Missionary work on the West Coast of Africa; the National Baptist Convention that these organizations should unite into one organization for the purpose of putting into effect the benevolent intentions of their constituents by effecting combining and directing the energies of denomination; therefore, said organizations did unite and agree upon certain fundamental principles of organic rules, which as amended from time to time, are as follows:

ARTICLE I—NAME

This organization shall be known and styled as the National Baptist Convention of the United States of America.

ARTICLE II—OBJECT

This Convention by uniting Baptist churches and other Baptist organizations, such as may desire an organization of this kind, shall undertake to promote home and foreign missions; to encourage and support Christian education; to publish and distribute Sunday school and other religious literature; and to engage in whatever other Christian endeavor is required to advance the Redeemer's kingdom throughout the world.

ARTICLE III—MEMBERSHIP

Section 1. The membership of this Convention shall be representative, annual and life.

Section 2. Representative membership shall be composed of messengers from churches, associations, district conventions, and state conventions all known to be in harmony with the purpose of this Convention, such sums as are set out in sections of this Article.

Section 3. Basic of Representations: a) Churches with less than 200 members, $10.00. No church will be allowed more than 10 delegates for $10.00 each. Churches with 200 to 500 members $25.00; 500 to 1000 members, $35.00; Churches above 1,000 members $50.00 paid in as representation. b) State Conventions, $200.00, not to exceed two messengers and $50.00 for each additional messenger. c) District State Convention, $50.00. d) Associations $35.00.

Section 4. Life Membership—Any person who is in good and regular standing in any Missionary Baptist church that is a member of this Convention may become a life member of this Convention by the payment of the sum of $200.00 into the treasury of this Convention.

Section 5. Annual Membership—Any person who is a member of a church that is in good and regular standing with this Convention may become an ANNUAL member of this Convention by the payment of the sum of $10.00 into the treasury of this Convention. Said ANNUAL member may engage in the discussion of the Convention, but not vote.

Section 6. Associations and State conventions shall elect their messengers to the National Convention in their annual meeting preceding the Convention and certify that said messenger to the secretary.

Article 3 would be so amended that section 7 would read as follows:

"Since the convention is primarily a fellowship, and since the fellowship owns the corporation, membership in the fellowship does not give to any individual member or group of members equity or special property rights in the assets of the corporation. The annual representation fees are designed primarily to carry the expenses of the convention and to help in its work in general and cannot be construed as capital investment in the corporation.

Section 8. The question of the rights and privileges of membership are settled only by the convention itself or its Board of Directors in the convention's absence.

Section 9. No member or group of members of the convention shall have the rights to use the civil courts to settle matters regarding membership rights and convention procedures. In these matters the convention itself is the supreme court from which there is no appeal. The majority vote of the fellowship is therefore binding on the individual, the convention, and the corporation itself.

ARTICLE IV

Voting in this convention shall be by the delegates assembled without reference to member organizations, states, or sections of the country, and shall be by voice, or show of hands, or standing.

ARTICLE V

Dear Brethren: April 5, 1880, an open letter to the Baptist clergy and laymen was issued by Rev. Wm. J. Simmons, an American Baptist, asking if we should have a National Convention to discuss questions of interest to our beloved desecration. At that time the following reasons were given:

1. To promote personal piety, sociability, and a better knowledge of each other.
2. To be able to have an understanding as to the great ends to be reached by the denomination.
3. To encourage our literary men and women, and promote the interest of Baptist literature.
4. To discuss questions pertaining especially to the religious, educational, industrial, and social interests of our people.
5. To give an opportunity for the best thinkers and writers to be heard.
6. That, united, we may be more powerful for good and strengthen our pride in the denomination.

Having been solicited to write the Call by many whose names and endorsements are hereunto affixed, the Call is hereby made by their advice and solicitations for said convention to meet in St. Louis, Mo., August 25, 1880, 10 o'clock a.m., in the First Baptist Church, and the pastor thereof is hereby requested to serve as a Committee of Arrangements, with power to select his associates.

Wm. H. Steward, Louisville, Ky., and Rev. R. H. Cole, 2600 Goode Avenue, St. Louis, are hereby requested to serve as a Committee on Transportation.

WM. J. SIMMONS

The chronological report in our National Baptist Minutes is hereby corrected, viz: The parties as they appear below were officers of the Foreign Missions or National Educational Conventions, as were their predecessors. Said conventions merged into the National Baptist Convention in 1885 or met conjointly with it, or otherwise.

Jemison was presented to read the minutes of the last meeting (New Orleans, Louisiana). The minutes were adopted upon a motion by the Reverend W. T. Crutcher and seconded by the Reverend A. L. Davis, Jr., the motion carried.

The Chairman of the Historical Commission, the Reverend E. T. Caviness was presented to make a report and to make a recommendation. The Commission recommended that a Library-Museum would be established (built) in honor of and named for the President of the National Baptist Convention, Dr. J. H. Jackson. The Library could also be used to preserve other Baptist history and the work of past Presidents of the Convention. The Reverend O. B. J. Burton made a statement praising the Commission for its far sightedness and offered the motion to adopt the Commission's report and recommendation. The motion was seconded by the Reverend C. C. Coleman and the motion passed unanimously.

President Jackson called to the attention of the Board the matter of the Stewardship Program, and felt this type of giving would be better than raising the regular representation fee as the constitution provides. President Jackson also suggested that the Constitution of the convention would be printed other than in the Minute Book. This was suggested because he had noted some section of the constitution had been omitted from the Minutes. A motion to have this done was made by the Reverend J. T. Weeden and seconded by many. The motion passed.

President Jackson expressed appreciation for Dr. D. C. Washington's work as Executive Director of the Sunday School Publishing Board and presented some recommendations and some words of advice for the Corporate Board of the Sunday School Publishing Board. The recommendations were read by Secretary T. J. Jemison. The recommendations were approved on a motion by the Reverend A. L. Davis, Jr., and seconded by many. (Recommendations are herewith attached)

THE SECRETARY

THE ANNUAL REPORT OF SECRETARY T. J. JEMISON TO THE 91ST ANNUAL SESSION OF THE NATIONAL BAPTIST CONVENTION, U.S.A., INC.

CLEVELAND, OHIO

Mr. President, presiding officer, other members of the official family, delegates and friends who have come to the 91st Annual Session of the National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Incorporated, meeting in the city of Cleveland, Ohio.

This convention hall and the city of Cleveland, Ohio hold special and precious memories for me, for it was in this hall and in this city my late father, Dr. D. V. Jemison was elected President of this convention in 1941. You will pardon me if I make my report to you this morning with mixed emotions. For in 1941 when my whole family came to this city I was just a mere student in the theological department of Virginia Union University. My father and Mother have since gone home to take the long sleep. Then too, the brother that always sang with me just before my father's annual address, the Reverend E. Lloyd Jemison, has also gone to the silent city, and our oldest sister joined him shortly thereafter. However, God has been good to those of us who remain and I am extremely grateful to be your secretary and to serve you and my denomination in this way.

As a convention, we continue to show steady growth and progress. We have grown since our last annual meeting by adding sixteen new churches and reclaiming nine. The progress of the convention, under the dynamic leadership of our President, Dr. J. H. Jackson, has been unparalleled in the long eventful history of this convention.

The growth of the Educational Foundation is encouraging, while it is not what it should be, we can see definite growth. The Retirement Fund continues to grow under the Chairmanship of Mrs. Isabel E. Hoggard. Many are answering the appeal of this Fund, and if you as ministers would just realize it, this Fund is primarily for your welfare. The Educational Foundation has better than $141,850.35 and the Retirement Fund has in excess of $150,000.00. The function of the Retirement Fund is to take care of ministers when we come to the age of retirement or to help our families after we have passed. Many should invest into this fund before it is too late.

The Educational Foundation as you know is to provide funds for struggling Baptist Colleges, Universities and churches. The more we give the more we assist.

We have kept our affiliation with other bodies current by paying our obligation for the fellowship of membership. We are strong as a body in the Baptist World Alliance. Our President is held in high esteem by this body. He serves on the Executive Committee. We are recognized members of the World Council of Churches and the National Council of Churches in the United States. We have paid to Baptist World Alliance, $2,500.00; to the World Council of Churches, $3,000.00; to the National Council, $3,000.00. While we are a part of these respective bodies for the fellowship, the Board of Directors of this convention has reserved the right of this convention to speak for itself and itself only when it come to policy statements on issues considered controversial.

The Stewardship Loan Program launched recently by this convention under the guidance of President Jackson, has received a great degree of cooperation. The advance report that will be heard in this meeting will be more encouraging.

portunity will be given during this meeting for further reports from Conventions, Associations, Churches and individuals. These funds will be used to make loans to churches in need of repairs, rebuilding, etc., many large gifts have already been received in advanced. The Olivet Baptist Church of Chicago, Pastored by President J. H. Jackson has already sent in $10,000.00. This single gift alone should serve as a stimulant for all of us to do our best in giving what we can.

The minutes of the Convention have been mailed to you as in the past. We hope you received your copy before you left home. However, if you don't find one on your return, please call it to our attention by sending us a post card with your name, address and city and state as to where you live. We will send you your copy without delay.

We are always indebted to Dr. D. C. Washington for his splendid cooperation in helping us get the minutes prepared and printed for you. Without his understanding and Christian spirit, we would not be able to get the minutes to you. For often we are late with the copy.

As in the past, we are happy to report to you, we have worked in complete harmony with the President of this convention and all other officers, members and friends. We have endeavored to be a good secretary.

We were given the usual amount of $5,400.00 to operate the office for the year.

Thank you—Your Secretary

T. J. Jemison

ANNUAL REPORT

of the

Sunday School Publishing Board

NATIONAL BAPTIST CONVENTION, U.S.A., INC.
330 CHARLOTTE AVENUE, NASHVILLE, TENNESSEE

D. C. Washington, Executive Director

President Jackson, Officers, Members of the Board of Directors, and Messengers assembled here in Cleveland, Ohio, I am very pleased to submit the Annual Report of the stewardship of the Officers, Board of Directors and Employees of the Sunday School Publishing Board:

The Sunday School Publishing Board has passed yet another milestone as we journey onward and upward in the accomplishment of the work to which we are committed, the task of "Telling the Good News."

The Auditor's report indicates that we have been blessed with a financially profitable year. We have produced timely, well-written curriculum materials for all age levels, Church and Sunday School supplies, devotional and worship aids, missionary tools, guides for laymen's groups, Bible Commentaries, and leadership training aids, as well as the Baptist Standard Hymnal and the Gospel Pearls.

Your generous patronage and wide acceptance of these materials has made it possible for us to improve our literary offerings, and has provided funds necessary for increased program services.

All businesses must of necessity be concerned with paying the expenses of their operation; and the Sunday School Publishing Board is no exception. However, unlike most businesses, our greater concern must be how much we have given, not how much we have received; how many are yet unreached, rather than how many we have served. The success of our investment must be measured in terms of the information, inspiration and spiritual identification which you, our constituents, receive from our efforts.

It is our responsibility to make available the capital necessary to provide the materials, machinery and labor which can translate an editorial idea into a Bible Lesson Quarterly which you can use in your Sunday School. It is our further responsibility to process the sale and distribution of the finished product so that it reaches the largest number of persons. During the past year, we have distributed nearly three million pieces of Sunday School literature to Churches in every state of the union and in many foreign countries. Our sales increase of about six percent over last year reflects service to about twenty-five hundred new Churches. In addition, our program services statistics show an increase in the number of Leadership Education Schools accredited, and in the quantity of materials distributed.

The Sunday School Publishing Board strongly supports the objectives of the National Baptist Convention. During the year just closed, we operated the Morris Memorial Building, for the Convention, at a cost of some $25,000.00 above the rental allocation for the space occupied by the Sunday School Publishing Board. We printed and distributed the National Baptist Voice, at a cost of $8,242.00, and printed the National Baptist Convention Minutes and other Convention materials at a cost of $4,596.00, for a total direct contribution to the National Baptist Convention, USA, Inc., of $26,960.13.

In addition to the Executive function, the Sunday School Publishing Board conducts its work through six organizational divisions: the Editorial Department, Christian Education and Program Services Division, Production Department, Sales Division, Public Relations Office and Fiscal Management Division. The following pages contain capsule reports of the work of these departments.

We take this opportunity to thank you for your loyal support during the past year, and to urge you to join with us in the glorious task of "Telling the Good News!"

Proclaim to ev'ry people, tongue and nation;
That God in whom they live and move is love;
Tell how He stooped to save His lost creation
And died on earth that man might live above.

Publish glad tidings,
Tidings of Peace;
Tidings of Jesus,
Redemption and release."

Assembled in Convention

Gentlemen:

We have examined the financial records of the Sunday School Publishing Board, a subsidiary of the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc., for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1971, and now submit as our report the exhibits, schedules, and comments listed in the preceding index.

SCOPE OF EXAMINATION

Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances to enable us to render an independent accounting opinion on the fairness of the representation in the statements showing the financial position of the Sunday School Publishing Board at June 30, 1971, and its operating results for the year then ended. The extent of certain procedures employed, including sampling of transactions was based principally on our review of the system of internal control and the efficiency of its functioning.

Cash in bank was independently reconciled and bank balances were confirmed by direct written communication with the depository.

Customers accounts receivables were reconciled to ledger balances and written confirmations were mailed to all accounts of $100.00 or more and to a selected number under $100.00.

Physical inventories were taken by management. We reviewed their method of inventory taking, checked the extensions of their inventory sheets, and checked their cost by use of ratios of prior years, raw material invoices and consistency of cost method employed. All major additions to fixed assets were vouchered and found to be properly classified.

All notes payable were confirmed by communicating directly with the holders. Accounts payable were reviewed and requests for confirmation were sent to a representative group of accounts selected by us.

Federal tax returns were examined and reconciled with the records. We made sufficient test of the operating accounts to satisfy us that accepted accounting practices had been followed, and that the transactions had been properly and consistently classified.

AUDITOR'S OPINION

In our opinion, the accompanying balance sheet and related income statement fairly presents the financial position of the Sunday School Publishing Board as of June 30, 1971 in accordance with generally accepted accounting standards.

Very truly yours,

JONES, ANDERSON & COMPANY

Messieurs:

We have examined the balance sheet of the National Baptist Training Union Board of the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Incorporated as of June 30, 1971, and the related statement of income for the year then ended. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and accordingly included such tests of accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances; however, we did not observe the taking of the physical inventory. We have tested the mathematical accuracy, reviewed the basis of inventory pricing and the auditing procedures and have satisfied ourselves as to the quantity and amount of the inventory.

In our opinion, the accompanying balance sheet and statements of income present fairly the financial position of the National Baptist Training Union Board of the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Incorporated at June 30, 1971; and the results of its operation for the year then ended, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles.

Truly yours,

AN APPRAISAL
OF
"A BLACK THEOLOGY OF LIBERATION" IN THE LIGHT OF
THE BASIC THEOLOGICAL POSITION
THE NATIONAL BAPTIST CONVENTION,
U. S. A., INC.
BY

DR. J. M. JACKSON

President

National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Inc.

September 7, 1971

PART I
THE NATIONAL BAPTIST CONVENTION, U. S. A., INC.

We begin with this statement of faith: "God is a spirit; and they that worship Him must worship Him in spirit and in truth." (St. John 4:24.) We do not know all the qualities of things spiritual, and we cannot analyze the spirit into component parts. However, we know that spirit cannot be weighed in scales made by human hands or measured in terms of inches or feet. Neither can spirit be defined in terms of any material substances, and the most gifted artist cannot put on canvas a true picture of what spirit is. Whatever is spirit must be approached by the power of spirit or the soul forces in man. Our concept of God is spirit, and our approach to Him must be in spirit and in truth.

Jesus revealed God as spirit and as creative force, and as life-giving and life-sustaining power; and because of His all inclusive nature, God to us is Father.

Our acceptance of Jesus Christ as our personal Savior is based on His message from the Sermon On The Mount, His personality and life force that He sheds in the gospel writings and through the revelation of truth that comes to us in all of the epistles of the New Testament.

We are drawn to Him by His divine character and by His redemptive love and mercy, and the goodness and justice through which and by which His kingdom is built—and by His sacrificial life, death, and resurrection, all sinners are invited and made welcome into His eternal kingdom.

In the light of these facts the invitation that He extends for salvation is to all men. That is why we preach "WHOSOEVER WILL LET HIM COME."

The Need For The Universality of The Gospel

The need for the universality of the gospel grows out of the universality of the sins of all mankind.

But now the righteousness of God without the law is manifested, being witnessed by the law and the prophet:

- Ever the righteousness of God which is by faith in Jesus Christ unto all and upon all them that believe for there is no difference:
- For all have sinned and come short of the glory of God;
- Being justified freely by His grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus;
- Whom God hath set forth to be propitiation through faith in his blood, to declare his righteousness for the remission of sins that are passed through the forbearance of God.
- To declare, I say, at this time his righteousness: that he might be just, and the justifier of him which believeth in Jesus.

—Romans 3:21-26

In the light of the truth revealed above, there are no pure races and no superior nations in the sight of God. There are no individuals who can by their wisdom, their knowledge, their rank, and their possessions win for themselves salvation or liberation from the sins that do so easily beset all the children of men.

The Universality Of God's Plan of Redemption

God's knowledge of this universal imperfection of man, and God's concern for all are some of the reasons why He included all men in the plan of salvation and in the scheme of redemption. The writer of the Fourth Gospel gives to us the divine motivation for human redemption:

For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.
—St. John 3:16.

The mission of Jesus Christ into the world was not to condemn the world or to set one race over against another, or to liberate one race by leaving another in chains:

For God sent not his son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved.

—St. John 3:17.

Only those who refuse him, only those who reject him, fall under the shadow of condemnation by their own choice and by their own acts.

The Theology That We Reject

Any theology that denies or negates the above principles falls outside of the theological tradition of the National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Inc. Any theologian, be he black or white, that limits the redemptive effort of Jesus Christ to any race, to any color, to any nationality or any rank or group in society denies and negates the positive principles of redemption as discussed above.

Racial discrimination and any form of racial segregation cannot be supported in the light of the principles of redemption as stated above. There is no revealed truth that teaches us that God is white or black. God is a spirit. National Baptists was founded and organized by Negro Christian leaders, and they themselves refused to restrict their message to their own race and their own nationality. They have not written a creed of exclusiveness against other races or nationalities. What we say against white segregationists by the gospel of Christ we must also say against members of our own race who insist on interpreting the gospel of Christ on a strictly anti-white and pro-black foundation.

National Baptists' Theological Position And Civil Rights

Our idea of God inspires us to work for the establishment of social justice for all the citizens of the nation. We participate in the struggle for first class citizenship under the guidance of the supreme law of the land. From the teachings of the eighth century prophets and the message of Jesus, we believe God is on the side of the right, the just and the good. Our faith encourages us and our theological position allows us to feel a sense of obligation to help break the chains of all those who are oppressed.

PART II

AN APPRAISAL OF

"A Black Theology Of Liberation," By Professor James H. Cone, Associate Professor of Theology, Union Theological Seminary, New York, N. Y.

Professor Cone has dedicated two hundred and forty-nine pages to his thesis that he seeks to prove, and to his conviction that he most positively and clearly shares. The author displays a wide range of acquaintance and a profound knowledge of theological thought. He has not willfully sought to leave out the great themes of Christian theology. He has included them. He has not embraced naturalism or theistic naturalism or humanism.

In the very first chapter he begins with the content of theology and speaks the truth when he says:

"Christian theology is a theology of liberation." [p. 1.]

He embraces the sources and norms of theology and deals with revelation with clarity.

He makes no attempt to bypass the subject of God or to render man less than a creature who needs salvation.

Christ is also a conspicuous part of his moving discussion, and the Christ of his theology recognizes and gives due regard to the historical Jesus.

It is further significant that the author here relates all of the great Christian themes to a specific historic struggle.

Some Weaknesses

The outstanding weakness of this brilliant theological work on the part of Professor James H. Cone is his attempt to relate divine concern, and to reduce all of the great historic theological truths of the Christian religion to the historic conflict between blacks and whites.

The author's thesis and his purpose both circumscribe him and render all of his basic conclusions too narrow to accommodate and to properly appreciate and appraise the universality of the Christian gospel of liberation.

For him liberation means simply the liberation of blacks from the oppression of whites. One would assume from the author's argument that if the day ever comes when blacks are totally liberated from the oppressive deeds of whites, the Kingdom of God would be at hand.

The author overlooks that aspect of liberation that has to do with the individual's victory over the temptation and the demonic forces within man that must be conquered before he can be considered totally liberated.

With his thesis and his commitment to the revolt of blacks against whites—the black revolution, he reduces, and maybe he is forced to reduce: revelation, Jesus Christ, and God Himself to a level of blackness. Although the author admits that the only way to have Christian theology is that it must be Christ-centered. But when one reads A Black Theology of Liberation, one must conclude that the entire document is black-centered. But the author seems to avoid this pitfall by making or reducing both Jesus Christ and God to blackness. At one point he says:

"People who want to know who God is, and what He is doing must know what black people are and what they are doing... Knowing God means being on the side of the oppressed, becoming one with them and participating in the goal of liberation. We must become black with God." (p. 124.)

The author does not at all times use black or blackness as a symbol. Sometimes he means physical blackness. He says in another place:

"Even some black people will find this view of God hard to handle. Having been enslaved by the God of white racism so long, they will have difficulty believing that God is identified with their struggle for freedom. Becoming one of his disciples means rejecting whiteness and accepting themselves as they are in all their physical blackness. This is what the Christian view of God means for black people." (p. 125.)

Some Personal Reflections

1. A Black Theology of Liberation can easily be interpreted as a gospel of hate of blacks against whites.

2. It could become required reading for those who wish to crusade in a violent manner against the so-called white establishment. The author says:

"Speaking for the black community, black theology says with Eldridge Cleaver, 'we shall have our manhood. We shall have it, or the earth will be leveled in our attempt to get it.'" (p. 34.)

3. Professor Cone in his conclusion could well defeat all of the constructive efforts in better race relations in America, and could write off the past achievements in rights as of little or no value.

4. He not only polarizes blacks and whites in this country, but he freezes polarization and leaves little or no latitude for future harmony to be achieved.

5. To assume that the total so-called black experience deals only with the confrontation with whites overlooks many other areas of that experience, part of which is accounted for the great institutions of the Negro church and other achievements of Negroes without bitterness or hatred against people of other races and groups.

If the Negro church accepts the point of view and the leadership of A Black Theology of Liberation, then black people will become the outstanding proponents of racial segregation in the United States of America.

Busing of Students and the Business of Education

By

Dr. J. H. Jackson, President
National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Inc.

September 7, 1971

The law and the provision for busing students from one community to another is an effort to overcome de facto segregation in education, or to achieve racial imbalance in student population. As the law of the land, there is an obligation to obey this order until said law is amended or changed. To resist and disobey federal law encourages and teaches a form of rebellion that tends to weaken our form of democracy, and in the long run, defeat the purpose both of the federal government and our local leaders. Busing seems to be (in the minds of those who advocate it) the best way to achieve some degree of integration in education in a situation where communities are still segregated by residential pattern.

While busing is a method by which some alibis and excuses of some who oppose integration can be eliminated or weakened, it does not actually solve the problem. As one learned educator has said, "a bus ride is not integration."

We must admit that busing does not change the segregated pattern of the respective communities involved and does little or nothing to change the real estate pattern and other elements in our society that contribute to segregated communities. America must solve the problem of her segregated communities before she can successfully solve the problem of segregation in education.

The responsibility for segregated residential communities is not, and cannot be laid at the door of school children. This is the responsibility of adults, and I question seriously the wisdom of having children in the fore-front of this battle.

The most important subject and object in education is the child—and the most important things in a child's early life are his home, his community, his playmates, his school, and the church that he attends. If these are close enough together to form a united front for the child's life and early experience, this combination will tend toward an integration of the forces that play upon the child and hence will tend to contribute to the integration of personality. But when these institutions are so far apart the child's experiences are divided, and such division may contribute to a division and a disintegration of the child's character and life. We should avoid any methods, programs, and procedures in the training of children that would leave them victimized and penalized by the methods we adopt.

With the laws established by the federal government outlawing segregation and discrimination in education, we need the leadership and guidance of teachers and educational administrators in the implementation of the laws in such a way that the best interest of the students would be served. The leadership of politicians and pressure groups cannot make the constructive educational contribution in this context as well-trained teachers can, for they know more about the needs and the psychology of children than many others who have so often taken the leadership in the matters of correct educational procedure.

We would recommend:

1. That the teaching profession in America will be given its rightful place in the leadership of educational thought and in the training of children.

2. We would further recommend that teachers will at all times be salaried according to their rank in society, and because of their significant contribution in the educational field.

3. Churches and civic organizations must take a more active part in helping teachers and all of the leaders of young people to make their best contribution without intimidation and embarrassment.

4. I do not recommend that we as a group take a stand with those who are against busing or with those who are for busing. Our position should be that in the light of the facts before us, school busing is not, and cannot be the solution to the problem of integration. There is an answer, and that answer must be sought by all Americans in all honesty and in all frankness. We should keep in mind that the child comes first, and any solution in which the child does not win, and win now, is not the right solution. And any solution that leaves deep divisions and conflicts in the American community and in the American national life, is not the answer. Busing is an attempt, but this attempt must not be considered ultimate and final. We are still looking for a solution.

A RECOMMENDATION ON THE AMERICAN DEPARTMENT OF POLICE

BY
Dr. J. H. Jackson
September 7, 1971

The police department is an American institution designed for the protection of safety and security of the American people. The men in this institution come from many different segments of the American community, and from many different races and nationalities. They need to be well-trained in psychology, social thought, and community problems. Along with our firemen, our police department become the first line of defense when we retire without any private provisions for the protection of our homes and the lives of our families. Without this force, law abiding citizens would be exposed to the vicious attacks of those who have little or no concern for the rights of others.

Because of the nature of the work of the policeman it is essential that they be honest, dedicated, and patriotic. We regret that from time to time undesirable persons are found in the ranks of our police force. Such men should be apprehended, removed with promptly, and when their evil designs and tendencies are made known, they should be removed as quickly as possible. As armed men, policemen must be trustworthy and avoid at any time using their authority and their equipment to brutalize innocent, helpless, and unarmed people.

We oppose any attempt on the part of any element of our society to damage or to disqualify this whole institution by one single term. "POLICE BRUTALITY." There are individuals, as we have said above, who sometimes fall below the code of ethics of our police force in our respective communities. But there is no organized and planned conspiracy in our police department that would justify attaching the term "POLICE BRUTALITY" to the whole department.

We regret that the wave of assaults against our law enforcement officials, here and now express our sympathy to the families of all of those who have been honorably in the line of duty.

We would invite all of our citizens, young and old, to refuse to join with element that will create a climate and a condition that renders a community exposed to threats and dangers because of their actions.

It is better for people who feel that their rights have been violated to submit the matter to the courts of the land than to seek to avenge themselves through the use of fire arms or any form of violence.

RESOLUTION ON THE PENTAGON PAPERS

Presented to
The 51st Annual Session of the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc.
September 10, 1971
Public Auditorium, Cleveland, Ohio

Rev. Charles Walker
Nineteenth Street Baptist Church
Philadelphia, Pa.

Implications of the Theft of the Pentagon Papers

The fact that an American citizen working at a very high level of government with access to very sensitive material thought it his duty to make this material available to the general public, points up again the division in which our country finds itself during very critical times.

The fact that an employee of the United States government who has been given the highest type of security clearance and placed in a position of great trust and responsibility, feels that he is compelled, by some moral or other motivation, to betray that trust, signals a situation in our governmental structure which is ominous in its implications. When men who at one moment thought it their duty to expend every effort to conquer the so-called enemy make a right about face and consider their duty to discourage further pursuit of the war and go to great lengths to protect this policy, we have a dilemma.

For an American to think it his duty to expose the highly sensitive government operations with the knowledge that he will be severely censured in some corners and praised in others further accentuates our present dilemma.

It would seem that if a people's survival as a free nation is threatened that that people would unite to face and to eliminate this threat. In two world wars this country has united its forces and stood as one in opposing those forces which would threaten its peace and tranquility, as well as the peace and tranquility of the world community.

Such unity of purpose and determination is not the case and has not been the case since the knowledge of our Vietnam involvement has been public knowledge.

Our country stands divided on this issue today and this division touches every area of American life from the White House to the very lowest levels of government; every area of public information as well as the most humble household.

No segment of our national life is free from the oppressive doubts and fears which this protracted involvement represents.

The divisions are significant enough to suggest that there are no doubt, some very serious flaws in our approach to this American dilemma.

II

Remedial Action

It has been suggested (and quite appropriately, we think) that the United States government reassess its method of document classification. We feel that it is the citizen's right to have access to all information which does not impair the government's ability to conduct foreign policy and sensitive negotiations.

It has been the expressed opinion of men who have served in government that our system of classification is too restrictive for a free society. The labels of "secret," "Top Secret," and "Confidential" have lost their significance because of irresponsible use.

Overclassification serves no useful purpose except to lengthen the distance between a government and its people. Overclassification increases the credibility gap by leaving many unanswered questions which need not be left unanswered.

We, therefore, call upon congress to find a legislative solution which will restrict the number of persons with the authority to classify government documents. We further call upon our government to re-evaluate our system of secrecy to determine if it is consistent with our ideals as a free and open society. We call upon the congress to limit the appropriations voted by congress for the whole document secrecy operation in order to keep it within manageable limits.

III

The Convention's Position on the Freedom of Press

A free and open society is impossible without a free press. The deception and misappropriation of powers in government can easily go unnoticed except that it is a press unhampered by government restrictions to expose it.

The press must never become a tool of the government but must remain the voice of the governed. To censor the press by government decree is inconceivable without concept of a free and open society and a direct violation of the Amendment of the United States Constitution. Censorship of free speech or press is the signal of curtailment of individual liberty.

We feel that the espionage act gives the government the necessary tools to protect its sensitive operations from undue exposure. Congress has repeatedly rejected the idea of giving the president the authority to prohibit by decree, the publication of information relating to national defense that might be useful to the enemy.

We call upon our government to be vigilant in following the principles of separation of powers and to exploit the various powers given each to bring to some sensible conduct of our foreign and domestic policies, in order to restore peace, harmony and tranquility to our people.

RESOLUTION ON LEGALIZED ABORTION

At the June meeting of the Board of Directors, the National Baptist Convention U.S.A., Inc., held in Little Rock, Arkansas, the following resolution on forced sterilization was adopted:

"To stipulate forced sterilization under any circumstance as a requisite for receiving any form of local, state or federal government aid is not only religiously and morally indefensible, but is legally and constitutionally dangerous. It sets a precedent and raises the possibility of governmental interference and control in the most private areas of human life. The National Baptist Convention

U.S.A., Inc. goes on record in opposition to any legislation or executive orders which affect the same.

A related but far more complicated matter is the issue of legalized abortion. Medical authorities are not unanimous in their opinion as to just when that combination of cells from male and female, by the process of growth, constitute a human person. Religious authorities sound the note of the sheer marvel and miracle of the whole spectre of birth and the sacredness of life. They affirm the source of life to be God and acknowledge Him alone as sole creator. They inquire then whether one has assumed the prerogatives of divinity when he attempts to arrest that process which Jehovah has begun. Legislative authorities approach the subject with fear and trembling for they quiver at the awesome prospects of an aroused and irate electorate.

But the issue persists and will not be put down. National Baptists owe it to themselves and to their brothers of other or no persuasion to set forth principles for thought which will serve as basic guidelines for action. We take then the following position.

First: We categorically reject legalized abortion as a means of birth control for any people. We recognize a sensitive and serious danger here for Afro-Americans, because of the prevalence of poverty among our people, a growing acceptance of restricted reproduction is to be noted. Now it is true that those birthing have not only the right to be born but they have also the right to live well. But we must not be misled with believing that the problems of poverty in our land is basically a matter of numbers. It is not! Poverty persists because we perpetuate an improper distribution of more than ample resources, and restrict the opportunities of some for the production of required goods.

Second: We reject legalized abortion as an option provided people who would seek a license for and remove all liabilities from wanton promiscuity.

However, we do conceive of circumstances under which legalized abortion may be countenanced. When the mental and physical health of mother and/or child is seriously threatened during the pre-natal period, abortion may become an acceptable consideration. It must always remain first a consideration which is finally embraced only after all other avenues and possibilities have been thoroughly explored. Abortion must never become an easy option. And where pursued its basic thrust must be the paradoxical preservation of life rather than the ending of life.

A BASIS FOR STEWARDSHIP GIVING ABOVE THE PRESENT REPRESENTATION FEE

January 4, 1971

By

President J. H. Jackson

1. Churches that may represent with $10.00 shall be asked to contribute $125.00 annually above representation fee.
2. Churches that represent with $25.00 shall be asked to give to the convention $250.00 above representation fee annually.
3. Churches that represent with $35.00 shall be asked to give $500.00 above representation fee annually.
4. Churches that represent with $50.00 shall be asked to pay an additional $1,000.00 in the convention annually.

Group I

If there were 10,000 churches that would give $125.00 annually, the total sum would be $1,250,000.00.

Group II

If 5,000 churches would give $250.00 annually, the income would be $1,250,000.00 a year.

Group III

If 2,500 churches would give $500.00 annually, the total would be $1,250,000.00.

Group IV:

If 1,250 churches would give $1,000.00 annually, the total income would be $1,250,000.00.

The total in this program above operating expenses would be $5,000,000.00.

If we decide to recommend this Stewardship Program to the convention, it would mean that we would continue to carry on the projects that we have already undertaken, such as building the Retirement Program, building the Educational Foundation and supporting the work of all of our boards.

If each pastor could lead his church into this stewardship venture, I would suggest that the income from the first year would be used to begin making loans to our churches at a reasonable rate, and beginning with the smaller churches in the denomination. It is within our power then, to begin making loans to worthy churches of the National Baptist Convention, USA., Incorporated, within twelve (12) months if each pastor and each group of churches do their best to bring in their quota.

The second year our funds could be used as follows: (1) to set aside a reserve fund so that the convention could make emergency loans to its boards, and the board could pay the interest to the parent body; (2) Some funds could be allotted to improvement of our National Baptist Voice and to an enlarged program of our historical department; (3) To help in the implementation of our Liberian project.

The next three years the funds could be used to help complete our quota for Educational Foundation and Retirement Program.

The Laymen And Our Stewardship Program

We would invite our laymen to visit and work with officers and lay people in our various churches urging upon them to assist their pastors in accepting and working this program.

The Women's Convention And Our Stewardship Program

Should we not now seek to have the Women's Convention join us in a unified effort to reach the goals that we have stated above? Should not the major financial goals of the Women's Auxiliary be the strengthening of the financial structure of the convention for the realization of the goals about which we have spoken?

In our Board of Directors meeting in 1968, we suggested some preliminary things that we could do now to help our struggling churches:

1. "Some churches that are strong enough might help other less fortunate churches in some form of loan.
2. "Individual or groups might become interested in investing in first mortgages among our churches.

Some Topics For Discussion

1. Is such a program possible?
2. Do we have the resources?
3. Is this a basic and urgent need for the churches of our convention?
4. Has the time come for us to shoulder this responsibility?
5. Is it wise to wait any longer, and to depend on others to do for us what we should do for ourselves?

Some Recommendations On The Corporate Board Of The Sunday School Publishing Board And Of The Board Itself

By
President J. H. Jackson

January 11, 1971

Because of the relationship of the Corporate Board to the Sunday School Publishing Board, and

Because of the relationship of the Sunday School Publishing Board to the Publishing House, and

Because of the relationship of the Sunday School Publishing House to the economic and financial strength of the National Baptist Convention, USA., Incorporated, and

Because the National Baptist Convention, USA., Incorporated needs to know at all times both the financial strength of the Sunday School Publishing House—its assets and liabilities, including what it needs, what it owes, etc., and

Because the Executive Director of the Sunday School Publishing Board must be free to carry out the work of the National Baptist Convention, USA., Incorporated, and

Because he must be assured of the support, the concern, and the cooperation of the Board of Directors and the National Baptist Convention, USA., Incorporated, I offer the following recommendations:

1. That all members of the Corporate Board of the Sunday School Publishing Board will be first presented to the Board of Directors of the National Baptist Convention for their study, evaluation, and approval; then said members may be offered to the National Baptist Convention, USA., Incorporated in its annual session through the usual form.

2. We recommend and encourage the closest type of fellowship between the Corporate Board of the Sunday School Publishing Board with the Executive Director in his efforts to best serve the needs of the convention as a whole.

3. We strongly recommend that the Executive Director will be related to the Corporate Board and to the entire Sunday School Publishing Board as a fellow-worker and servant of the National Baptist Convention, but not as employee to employer.

4. In the event that the necessity arises for a loan on the part of our Sunday School Publishing House, the Board of Directors of the National Baptist Convention will feel its responsibility to cooperate with the Executive Director, the Publishing House, and the Publishing Board in these matters.

5. The Corporate Board will at no time be empowered to make loans for the Sunday School Publishing House unless said authority is given to it by the Board of Directors or the Executive Committee of said board.

If there is sufficient time, and if the finances involved are of unusual proportion then it may be necessary to submit such a request to the parent corporation.

The committee reviewed carefully the various functions and aspects of the work of the Woman's Convention as it relates to the Foreign Mission Program. Harvey, III, to meet with this committee at a convenient time during the session of the National Sunday School and B.T.U. Congress in Little Rock, Arkansas, June 21-26, 1971.
2. Seek to secure representation from the Woman's Convention to the Foreign Mission Board to better facilitate the program of Foreign Missions.
3. That all contributions for Foreign Missions work be channelled through the Foreign Mission Committee of the Woman's Convention and that for the Woman's Convention.

Respectfully submitted,

THE TENTH ANNUAL ADDRESS

OF

PRESIDENT MARY O. ROSS

We turn aside from the tasks which consume our thoughts as we pursue our ends, to expose ourselves to the Spirit of the Living God. Now we prayerfully ask:

Open unto us, O Lord, the movement of Thy Precious Presence, that we may have light for our darkness; courage for our fears; hope for our despair and peace for our turmoil.

Open unto us, O Lord, the storehouse of Thy Grace and Goodness, that we may have joy for our sorrows; strength for our weaknesses; love for our hates and wisdom for our confusion.

We offer Thee the treasures of our lives, to the end that we may be touched by Thy Spirit and sensitized by Thy Love. Understand us, O Lord, in our searching and lead us, O Lord, in all the ways we take, lest our footsteps stumble and we lose our way. Be in us and about us, forever and ever. Amen.

Vice-Presidents, Holley and Carter, Officers, Young People, Committee Chairwomen, Convention Workers, Distinguished Guests on the platform and in the audience, Dedicated Messengers from across the lands, my fellow Baptists and my faithful friends:

By the grace and sustaining strength of Almighty God, I am happy to greet each of you assembled here in our Seventieth Anniversary Celebration. How good it is to celebrate the many past seasons of achievement and spiritual prosperity; and to be reminded of the numerous ways by which God's richest blessings have abundantly watered the roots of our souls—giving us manifold strengths; creating miracles in the midst of our every movement, and guiding us into New Paths of worship, witnessing and wonderful works, for

His Name's Sake. For these chronicles of blessings, may we always remember to lift our hearts to God, with thanksgiving and praise, for the many seen and unseen paths and bypaths, through which we have triumphantly come.

From the private regions of my heart, tonight, comes a great stirring of humility, thankfulness and gratitude. I am deeply appreciative for the high honor of leadership and fellowship this courageous, contagious and consecrated Convention has afforded me. Humbly and hopefully I serve, always, under the Divine direction and protection of God, in Whom I trust. I am thankful for the privilege and the pleasure to spread my life in every dimension of its measurements, attempting to help to solve some of the pressing problems about us that often stagger the mind and paralyze the heart. Often, I recall with gratitude, love and thanksgiving, the wholehearted participation, prayers, praises and patience I received from the Distinguished, Dedicated and Dynamic Officers and Workers of our Convention. What a blessedness it is to work, witness and wait on the salvation of the Lord with you. What a joy it is to feel our way into each other's presence, hearts and minds, and in that feeling to sense the strength which comes from the shoulder that touches and the heart that cares. To have this fellowship with you is to be truly blessed of God.

Too, I give thanks unto God with my whole heart for my family and my dearest friends. I count one by one, much that has come from them to make me glad. I remember with gratitude the friendly greetings from you who passed me in the daily rounds, whose smiles deepened my faith in ordinary kindness. I remember with simple delight the thoughtful telephone calls and the lovely letters of encouragement, that so often quelled the upheavals in my heart, and helped me to lift up my head and be of good courage. I remember, yes, happily I remember, and I give thanks unto God with my life.

Proudly We Praise Cleveland, Ohio

With interest, inspiration, enthusiasm and joy, we proudly praise and salute our progressive Host City, Cleveland, and the pleasant State of Ohio. We are, again, happy to return to the Buckeye State and feel the warmth and welcome of your hearts as well as the lifting love of your kindness and friendship. These to us, are pronounced declarations that your lively spirits still trumpet the glory and tenderness of God. May each of you continue to walk under the Mantle of our Master, until your every smile becomes a hymn and your every deed becomes a prayer.

Without a doubt, it is a profound privilege to be the Guest in this historic metropolis. We are deeply grateful for the kind invitation to come and have fellowship with you on our 70th Anniversary. May our every movement here bespeak His Living Presence.

The spotlight of the world has been focused on the City of Cleveland for many seasons and for many reasons, since Cleveland was incorporated as a village in 1814. The city was named for Moses Cleaveland, a surveyor for the Connecticut Land Company. In 1831, a newspaper printer changed the spelling of Cleaveland to Cleveland, so it would fit a headline better.

Cleveland is the largest city in Ohio, and ranks eighth in population among the cities of the United States. It is one of the leading manufacturing, trading, and cultural centers of the midwest. Situated on Lake Erie, at the mouth of the Cuyahoga River, Cleveland is midway between Chicago and New York, in the northwestern part of its state. It lies near the center of industrial North America, within easy range of raw materials and markets.

Cleveland has an intense and diversified cultural life, focusing on an unusual concentration of museums, and educational institutions. The five principal museums were started by individual citizens and are supported independently, without subsidies from the public. Interest in music, theatre, and sports runs high. The city has many fine parks and is surrounded by a suburban park system preserving the woodlands for which Cleveland was nicknamed the "Forest City."

From its early days, Cleveland has attracted immigrants from many foreign lands and Americans from all over the nation. The result is a population of many ethnic, racial, religious and socioeconomic stands. Negroes have lived in Cleveland since its early decades and never have faced segregation in public schools. In the interest of racial harmony and neighborhood stability, private biracial organizations have been formed in Cleveland. The Cleveland Community Relations Board, created in 1945, was the first such group in the U.S. formed by a municipal ordinance, to investigate interracial complaints. This board has done much good in airing functions and seeking solutions. Thanks be to God. In 1967, Carl B. Stokes, a Democrat, was elected Cleveland's first Negro mayor. Congratulations!

Highlighting any list of things to see and do in Cleveland would be a trip to its excellent art museums, educational and research centers and to the Karamu Theatre. No visit would be complete without viewing the city from Terminal Tower. Cleveland's tallest building, which rises 708 feet over the downtown section.

Our hearts are deeply touched by your hospitality, your history and your happiness. We are thankful to all of the wonderful men and women who worked so untiringly for the success of this 70th Anniversary Celebration, in your Great City. May God pour out upon you a large measure of His Living Spirit. May the principles, the programs, the prayers and the praises we impart here, help each of us to be worthy messengers of God's tidings, and sharers of His peace.

IN MEMORIAM

Out of the pain of night watching removed
 Into the sleep that God gives His beloved,
 Into the dawn of a glad resurrection,
 Into the house of unbroken affection,
 Into the joy of the Lord to cease confessing
 Death in disguise is His angel in blessing.

Adding Life to Years

This year, in the early part of June, a circle of concerns caused me a great stirring of anxiety. The streets of my mind were crowded with thoughts of the renovation of our Youth Camp and Senior Retreat in Constantine, Michigan; the daily duties and difficulties that our office demands, which included at this time, the distribution of The Mission for the Third Quarter; the pertinent and preparatory work for this Significant 70th Anniversary Celebration; plus the outward complexities and inward turmoils prompted by the serious illness of my Beloved Mother, who resides in a distant city. Holding fast to my faith, I centered my soul in meditation and prayer. For I believe that faith envelopes life and charges it with energy that sustains and holds. To me, it is the Breath of God that becomes in all living things, the breath of life. A self-confrontation bade me to depart in quietness, for a time of searching and of appraisal.

While waiting patiently in His Presence, the Lord, through one of His Light Bearers and one of my dear friends, gave guidance and granted me a most gracious gift. I was instructed to "get yourself together, immediately, to go to the Hawaiian Islands for a brief period of relaxation, restoration and reflection." Shortly, I was winging my way across the Pacific Ocean, assured by United Airlines that the skies would be friendly. Beholding the grandeur of God's wonderful world from above the clouds, I knew for a certainty that there is in God strength sufficient for our needs, whatever they may be.

Arriving in Hawaii, my mind and mood were captivated by its tropical beauty. To be in the midst of this paradise—where glittering silver-blue water foams and floats onto sandy beaches—where languid pools play hide and seek with hidden palms—where mighty volcanoes stand watch over fertile fields of fruit and flowers—and where the sun seems to shine endlessly—helped me to feel the lift of my spirit to heights of understanding and clarity. It enabled me to walk in the strength of a faith restored and a dream that has come to life. It made me resolve to continue to give when there is no more to give, and to hold fast, sometimes against all odds, to the belief that God is a Way-Shower, and that His guiding Light surrounds me and will always make my way clear.

Hour after hour, I sat silently in the serenity of renewed strength, yielding my spirit to His Spirit, and watching the people's participation on the beach—taking sun baths, riding the surf, swimming and swinging in the beautiful blue waters of the ocean, and enjoying all the colorful comforts of the Islands—thereby, adding years to their lives. Suddenly, it was revealed to me how equally anxious, and how just as busy, we ought to be Adding Life To Years. At that moment, I fully realized why the Lord had made this period possible. Here, under His Divine directions, I received the subject for my address for the 70th Anniversary Celebration of our Woman's Convention; my 10th Anniversary as President; and my 25th Anniversary as a member of the Official Family of this great Convention—"Adding Life To Years."

A New Style of Living

"The world is full of people who are making a good living but who are not living good."

To Add Life To Years is to move with reverence through all of life, always seeking and finding, always building and rebuilding, always repenting and rejoicing; and to walk in the light of God's love even while darkness invades, envelops and surrounds us. In many ways, many of us live our lives as mere bystanders. Often we can easily realize that we are several steps removed from the real experiences of living and abundant life. Hence, we creep through our days just existing and reacting to our world as if our faith were in magic, rather than in our Lord and Master, Jesus Christ. When will we learn that life is a battle to be won, an achievement to be consummated and a mystery of God to be unravelled? Therefore, to Add Life To Years, we must become "new creatures in Christ," and redirect as well as rededicate our lives to A New Style Of Living. By this, I mean that we must lay our lives bare before Almighty God, for a new manifestation of His Grace—that He might help us in gathering up all the fragments of our lives to see, if for us, there can be some great healing and wholeness in our broken, bruised and bleeding world; to still our tempests and give to us the quiet trust that God is our Father, and we are His children, living under the shadow of His Spirit. A New Style Of Living is not only appropo for some of us, but is mandatory for all of us, especially for our churches and conventions.

Again, A New Style Of Living which will Add Life To Years, says emphatically to this generation, "Live as though Christ died yesterday, rose this morning, and is coming back tomorrow."

May we consider three of the demands in which A New Style Of Living may regenerate our lives today—(1) "Don't Wait—Participate," (2) "Going the Extra Mile," (3) "Keeping Your Hand in the Hand of The Man."

Don't Wait—Participate

"As each has received a gift, employ it"
—1 Peter 4:10

As we stir up the Gift of God within us, our lives will expand in new directions. All of us have more to give than we realize, and all of us are needed. Our purpose in life is to express, to grow, to discover and use the God-given talents and abilities that are uniquely ours. We are fulfilling God's plan and purpose, if we just live our lives to the fullest and best we know how. We must do the things that are at hand to do with a willingness of spirit. We are to contribute in some way, every day, to the betterment of everyone's life around us. This is the best way to expand our lives and broaden our horizon—thus, Adding Life To Years. Every one of us, without exception is capable of being an instrument of God's love. In fact, it is our chief mission in life to apply divine love to every area of human concern. Two-thirds of the world does not know Jesus Christ as our Lord and Savior. One billion never even meaningfully heard His name, let alone His claim upon their lives. One billion-six hundred million people go to bed hungry every night. A New Style Of Living means Don't Wait—Participate—"Make the most of your fleeting years on earth. They count for eternity."

Acting responsibly to the slogan—"Don't Wait—Participate," Mrs. Ben Benjamin of Los Angeles, is waging a war on poverty, single-handedly with paperback books. She decided to do more than think or complain about slum conditions that challenged her Christian responsibility. So she contacted the principal of a school in the Watts area and gave him a check to buy over one hundred paperback books.

With the help of friends, and school officials, sparked by her initiative, the number of books contributed to depressed area schools, soon exceeded seven thousand. "Those children can't get out of the ghetto now," she said, "but they can sure read themselves out. Once they learn reading is a pleasure they'll be motivated to learn."

Such a program could be duplicated everywhere there is need—if enough of us care. The Lord gives countless opportunities for us to share His blessings with others. He expects us, as a "committee-of-one," to take the necessary first step.

A unique project called "Foster Grandparents" is giving new hope to two groups of people—young children in institutions, and lonely men and women over sixty years old. In five New York homes for foundlings and orphans, qualified men and women are given a two-week course in the needs of neglected children. The "Foster Grandparents" are then entrusted with a child to visit five days a week. The project director made this comment on their success, "No child can grow and function in a healthy way in society without being helped by a loving, aware adult. And a society filled with hopeless older people is in trouble."

It is heartening to reflect that the Lord made each of us in such a way that our keenest satisfactions are those that arise from trying to fulfill the needs of our fellow human beings. May God always enliven our existence by involving us with the dire needs of other people.

Do you recall the headlines of a newspaper which read: "Woman Dies While Twelve People Look On!" The cries of a drowning woman were ignored by a dozen people who stood by, watching, after her car plunged into the Great Miami River, in Ohio. A witness said the fifty-year-old motorist, stranded on the roof of her car, kept screaming: "I can't swim." None of the twelve spectators responded. This woman's death dramatizes a frightening trend in the United States. More and more people, so-called Christians included, are electing to observe disaster from a safe distance.

May God grant us a new manifestation of His Grace and teach us to dare to become actively involved when the physical or spiritual well-being of our sister or brother is at stake.

"Don't Wait—Participate"—urging involvement now, is the slogan of the Cleveland, Ohio, Community Volunteer Services recruitment campaign for Federal employees. Sponsored by the Federal Women's Program Committee, the program recruited over 80 employees, from 17 different agencies, in 12 short weeks. Over 30 agencies in the Cleveland area are benefiting from the after-hour skills of Federal employees ranging from professional to clerical placements.

Eager to spread their experience, the Women's group would be willing to guide and assist any organization interested in establishing a similar program. Inquiries should be sent to: Mrs. Mary Jones, 1240 East 9th Street, Cleveland, Ohio 44199.

Proudly we praise the following persons who have caught the Spirit of the Master, and dared to follow Him closest in distinguished services of duty, dedication and deportment. They adhered to the admonition, "Don't Wait—Participate":

Mrs. Claire Collins Harvey, National President of Church Women United, Elected to this position at the C.W.U. Ecumenical Assembly, Wichita, Kansas, April 1971).

Mrs. Harvey, a fourth generation Mississippian, granddaughter of a slave, a brilliant, dedicated woman, returned to her home in Jackson, to be greeted by an enthusiastic press and people for the national honor which she brought to Mississippi. A Distinguished Citizen Award was presented to her by Mayor Russell Davis at a meeting of the Jackson City Council.

Church Women United, a great ecumenical movement, could not have chosen a woman more worthy to lead it. Character, talent and commitment to God and humanity are the outstanding attributes of the gracious Claire C. Harvey. Over a period of years of service to her community and state, as well as the church, she has endeared herself to all who know her. It is a delightful pleasure to salute her and Church

Women United, and wish them God's richest blessings in their efforts to build a better and more peaceful world, and thereby Add Life To Years.

For raising the human aspiration of others to the first level of priority in their own lives, Miss Dorothy Height and Mr. Sam Grais received the Distinguished Service Award, at the 1971 National Conference on Social Welfare. Presentation of the awards was made at the General Session of the 98th Annual Forum in Dallas, Texas, May, 1971.

Miss Height was honored as a career person in the social welfare field. She has played one of the most effective roles in the "struggle for peace, justice, freedom and dignity for all people." She is presently the Director of the Office of Racial Justice of the YMCA in New York City, and Chairman of the NCVA committee on national priorities. The dynamism of Miss Height has been a leading force in the YWCA for nearly 20 years, in the development of that group's efforts in the area of social justice. She is also President of the National Council of Negro Women, and as such, has been a member of the President's Commission on the Status of Women and many other Federal Planning groups.

Mr. Sam Grais was honored for his outstanding contribution as a lay person spanning most of his adult life. His commitment has included the chairmanship of the Ramsey County Welfare Board in Minnesota for the past 17 years; President of the Minnesota Welfare Association; consultant to the Bureau of Family Service and the Minnesota representative to the White House Conference on Aging. His determined effort made possible the raising of general assistance standards in his own community; and effective legislation for family planning.

Miss Eartha M. M. White, of Jacksonville, Florida, whose volunteer service spans 70 years, received a standing ovation when she was introduced as a new Board Member of the second annual National Center for Voluntary Action, Board of Directors Meeting in Washington, D.C., April 27, 1971. Miss White is 94 years old, and very active in her community, city and country seeking financial and moral support for voluntarism.

Are You Adding Life To Years by doing something constructively or creatively voluntarily?

"Don't Wait—Participate." With these words high on the horizon of their memory, 600 delegates to the first National Committee on Household Employment, met at the Marriott Motor Hotel in Washington, D.C., and spoke freely of how they have suffered rock-bottom wages and personal indignities. America's 1.7 million household workers—two-thirds women—have a meager income of only $1,800 a year—fully $600 less than President Nixon's proposed minimum income for the unemployed. The delegates emphasized that they have no job security, no paid holidays or days off for sickness, no workmen's compensation or unemployment benefits, and no pensions since most are not covered by social security.

As outlined at the conference, the needs of the household workers can be summed up as the Three P's—pay, protection and professionalism. Only three states—Massachusetts, Wisconsin and New York—include domestic workers in their minimum-wage legislation. Even more important to many domestic workers is the desire to be treated with respect. In quest of respect, the new movement rejects such traditional labels as "maid, servant and domestic." Nor do household workers like being called by their first names. Nevertheless, only rudimentary beginnings have been made in the crucial field of organizing for better pay and better status.

Is this nothing to the church? You have an opportunity to participate in this struggle—in your communities. Will you?

It is a commonplace remark that our lives are surrounded with so many pressures, predicaments and perspectives that our spirits are often crowded into corners, and we do nothing more than exist from day to day. Many of us think that because we can not do everything in coping with the problems of life, we need not do anything. No matter how limited our range of action may be, we must do what we can. Don't Wait—Participate! This applies in a special way to the complicated and growing problems of our modern world. Out of the deep places of our hearts flow the issues of our Christianity by which we live. Our religion is not only what we believe, but what we do, and what we practice. Living is giving, sharing and caring. To discover this is to say "yes" to Life and to our life. Let the following lines serve as a reminder:

"I am only one, but I am one,
I can't do everything but I can do something,
And what I can do, that I ought to do,
And what I ought to do,
By the Grace of God, I will do."

Going the Extra Mile

"I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me drink, I was a stranger and you welcomed me."

—Matthew 25:35

In these desperate days Christians must extend themselves beyond the call of duty. Christ says, "Go the extra mile."

All around us we see great stretches of unrelieved human misery. Where do we hang our hearts of concern? No one can escape the nightmare vision of the Bengali victims of East Pakistan's civil war. A quarter of a million Bengalis are dead, and another 6 million or more have been driven into desperate exile. Confidential messages from U.S. diplomats in Pakistan disclosed the following incident:

"It seemed a routine request. Assembling the young men of the village of Haluaghat in East Pakistan, a Pakistani army major informed them that his wounded soldiers urgently needed blood. Would they become donors? The young men lay down on makeshift cots, needles were inserted in their veins—and then slowly the blood was drained from their bodies until they died."

Emptiness, pain and fright characterizes the half-life of the Bengal refugees. Despite the Indian Government's attempts to care for the helpless refugees, thousands of them die each week from malnutrition, disease and exposure. Recently, cholera has claimed the lives of many men, women, and children. Even in a world jaded by war and wanton atrocities, suffering and death on this scale still come as a sickening shock. I can hear the Master saying, "In as much as ye have done it unto the least of my little ones, ye have done it unto me."

Christians—where do we hang our hearts of concern? Our world is a neighborhood, waiting to be made a brotherhood.

Take note Christians—former members of The Beatles, an internationally famous, rock-pop group, gave a benefit concert in New York City, August, 1971, and all the gate receipts, plus an expected income from a record album and film of more than $2 million, will be given for the immediate relief of refugees in East Pakistan.

Our Christianity must be lived as well as professed.

In the midst of so much that surrounds many of us with security—our hearts and minds are bewildered, harrassed and distressed because of the vast number of people in this country who are living on the ragged edges of life, for whom, each day are only added moments of madness and torture. Our Christian responsibility compels us to examine, anew, the network of our relationships by which we all are bound in the bundle of life. Where do we hang our hearts concerning Drug Addiction?

Today the drug problem in our nation has touched all parts of our society—the old, the young, the rich, the poor, the black, the white, the educated and the unlettered. In a current magazine article, entitled "Drugs, Man and Society," is stated that "Drug misuse is increasingly growing and is a pressing problem in the United States. Hundreds of thousands of Americans have endangered their lives through the inappropriate use of drugs of all kinds. More than 100,000 of these Americans lead totally unproductive lives because of their addiction to narcotics." We are often reminded of the fact that 60,000 addicts steal millions of dollars a day and contribute more than $350 million per year to organized crime for illicit drugs. Our hearts are burdened by the knowledge that many of our little children—eight, nine and ten years old must go searching, daily, for eleven and twelve year old dope pushers. Some of us are not aware of the fact that often this juvenile dope traffic is conducted in many of the classrooms and corridors of our schools.

Most unfortunate is the fact that a large number of our servicemen are returning home from the Vietnam War on crutches—the crutches of dope addiction. A recent study to date on the problem of drug abuse among U.S. military forces, conducted by Chicago's U.S. Representatives Morgan F. Murphy and Robert H. Steele, cites that almost 50,000 American fighting men are addicted to heroin. According to Rep. Steele, "the soldier going to Vietnam runs a far greater risk of becoming a heroin addict than a combat casualty." President Nixon was moved to the point of labeling the use of illicit drugs—both here and by GI's abroad—"A problem of the highest priority" and "A national emergency," adding that it is a special problem with the returning veterans.

The roll of addiction mounts daily in terms of crime, broken bodies, broken homes and untimely deaths. Where do we hang our hearts of concern? In many instances, we are compelled to Go The Extra Mile in our homes, in our communities and in our country to help erase the blight of the illegal drug problem. With faith in God and a sincere sense of concern, we can help. Let us look about us and make ourselves available in whatever way we can.

Too many individuals who could be of tremendous value in God's plan and to the welfare of humanity, are prevented by the tragic fact of racism—be it Black Racism or White Racism. The late Whitney Young, in his book Beyond Racism, defines racism as the assumption of superiority and the arrogance that goes with it. Mr. Young characterized white racism as a disease that is tearing America apart. He says that Black America, which was created in slavery by the code of racism, is now forgetting its own identity. "Black people are no longer satisfied with the crumbs from the white man's table; for black people know that our blood, sweat and tears are on every dollar bill that swells our giant economy—the same economy that relegates black people to the bottom of the ladder in jobs, income, housing, and in all areas of life. Here in America the blacks want their share and they want it now. We are tired of 350 years of promises. Mr. Young's book urges us to work toward building an open society.

The issue of Racism faces each of us. The blacks and the whites of our nation are called upon now—to look at the dead places in our lives, which we have watched die because there was no nourishment given to them, and spread the radiance of our spirits into the Covenant of Brotherhood. Again, blacks, in many cases and in many places, will be called upon to Go The Extra Mile. Only as we mature spiritually will we be able to help America truly be a Gospel Land and a Bible Country—the “land of the free and the home of the brave.”

Lest we forget, our concerns ought to include the termination of segregation within the church itself. As we work for the kingdom, remember: “There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female: for ye are all one in Christ Jesus.”

Where do we hang our hearts of concern about family planning and child welfare in general? Along with other concerned citizens of America, we congratulate ourselves upon the added scientific knowledge on Missions to the Moon—but, should we put our major emphasis upon exploring the heavens when there’s so much hell on earth: legalized abortion? the plight of migrant workers? increased crime rate? mass murders? unemployment?

May God grant us a new manifestation of His Grace to redirect our lives and teach us how to reorder our purposes, that we may gladly Go The Extra Mile to refocus, reshape and redefine our world. You must make the first move; it’s up to you; it’s up to me—to all who bear His Mark.

You are the person who has to decide,
Whether you’ll do good or toss the chance aside.
You are the person that makes up your mind,
Whether you’ll lead or linger behind,
Whether you’ll try for a goal that’s afar,
Or just be content to stay where you are.
Take your world and make it wonderful.
There is much you can do.
Just think it over—it’s all up to you—
To Go The Extra Mile!

Keeping Your Hand in the Hand of The Man

“We will walk in the name of the Lord our God for ever and ever.”—Micah 4:5

The Jesus Revolution is captivating our country. The new rebel cry is: “Jesus Is Coming.” Growing numbers of our youth are singing:

Put your hand in the Hand of the Man
who stills the waters;
Put your hand in the Hand of the Man
who calmed the sea.
Take a good look at yourself
and you’ll see other’s differently—
Put your hand in the Hand of
The Man of Galilee.

In 1966, former Beatle John Lennon casually remarked that the Beatles were more popular than Jesus Christ; now the Beatles are shattered, and a former member of this group is singing, “My Sweet Lord.” The young followers of Jesus, are displaying an uncommon freshness to this movement—a buoyant atmosphere of hope and love. It is a startling development for a generation that has been constantly accused of “tripping or copping” out with sex, drugs and violence. Now, embracing the most persistent symbol of purity, selflessness, and brotherly love in this history of western man, they are affire with a Pentacostal passion for sharing their new vision with others.

Earnest young men and women badger businessmen and shoppers on Hollywood Boulevard, in Dallas, in Detroit and in Wichita, "witnessing for Christ" with breathless exhortation. Christian coffeehouses have opened in many cities, signaling their faith even in their names. "Christian Houses" are multiplying like loaves and fishes, for youngsters hungry for homes. Many of the houses are reaching out to the troubled with round-the-clock telephone hot lines. Bibles abound; they are well thumbed and often memorized. Some of the converts seem to enjoy transplanting their new faith into everyday life, like those who answer the telephone with "Jesus loves you" instead of "hello." To many their love seems more sincere than a slogan, and deeper than the fast-reading sentiments of the flower children. The extraordinary sense of joy that they are able to communicate concerning the love of God might be observed by many Christians who go about with torn-up faces and ugly attitudes.

Thanks be to God for the new courage and the new conviction of our youth. Christian adults, can our youth see Jesus in you?

The Commentary on the Jesus Movement in the lives of our youth is but an answered prayer. Have we not prayed and asked God to let loose His Spirit in the land, and to bring into a sharper focus the Gospel of Jesus Christ in our lives? Always there is and will be the Eternal Spirit in our midst—making crooked paths straight, rough places smooth, tired hearts refreshed and dead hopes stirred with the newness of life.

Do you condone or condemn this Jesus Movement that many of our youth have embraced? Let us listen to our youth with our hearts, and help them to hang on to Jesus Christ. May they keep their hands in His Hand.

In Christ all things hold together. Our spirits and our minds must be disciplined to stand at attention in the presence of this fact. Although our days are crowded by events which are sometimes cruel, sometimes heartless, sometimes meaningless or sometimes full of joy and richness—we must keep our hands in the Hand of God. Despite the many fumbings of our footsteps, despite all the wanderings of our ways—it is good to remember that God has not left Himself without a witness in our lives.

On our 70th Anniversary let us not be weary in well doing. As we have opportunity, let us do good unto all mankind. Let our legacy to the future be the Fatherhood of God, the brotherhood of man; faith in a better tomorrow and genuine Christian love. With our hearts lifted wholly unto God may we say sincerely "For me to live is Christ, and to die for Him is gain." Our religion must become a Crusade for Christ in all our meetings for fellowship; in all our hospitality to the sick, the poor and the stranger; in all of our attitudes, activities and words.

May we Keep our hand in His Hand and abide under the shadow of His Almighty Spirit. May we know for a certainty that only what we do for Christ will last. May we never forget that loving-kindness is greater than pretentious ceremonies and that a noble deed is a step toward God.

Lastly, I simply charge each of you to correct what is wrong—strengthen what is weak—and uphold what is right.

Live and know that there is still Strength in Goodness, an Invincibility in Integrity and a Mighty Power in Righteousness. We are half way up the mountain, so, don't worry about tomorrow . . . add Life To Years—for today is ours.

DON'T ASK ME ABOUT TOMORROW

I don't know about tomorrow,
I just live from day to day.
I don't borrow from its sunshine
For its skies may turn to gray.
I don't worry about the future.
For I know what Jesus said,
And today I'll walk beside Him
For He knows what is ahead.
Many things about tomorrow
I don't seem to understand—
But I know who holds tomorrow.
And I know who holds my hand.

SOME
and REPORTS

ANNUAL REPORT

President Ross, Officers, and Members of the Woman's Convention Auxiliary to the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc., Regional, State and Local Directors, Officers, Delegates of the Young People's Department and Christian Friends:

I thank God for the privilege of greeting you in this Forty-Sixth Annual Session of the National Young People's Department. I feel humbly grateful for the opportunity of making my Tenth Annual Report as National Director.

A SALUTE TO CLEVELAND, OHIO

We are happy to return to Cleveland, Giant of Industry and Trade, the largest city in Ohio, and in the 1960 census, the 8th largest city in the United States.

It is interesting to note that in 1796 Moses Cleaveland stopped at a small Lake Erie trading post and laid out a town which he named after himself—"Cleaveland". The "a" in Cleaveland was dropped in 1832 to shorten a newspaper's masthead. Cleveland with the new spelling was incorporated as a city in 1836. The event was celebrated by the Great Lakes Exposition in 1936-37.

In Monumental Park, better known as Public Square, you will find statues of Moses Cleaveland, the founder, and Tom Loftin Johnson, a reform mayor who served from 1901 to 1909. Not far from the square is the first planned Civic Center in the United States.

The main shopping center in downtown Cleveland, as some of you know, is on Euclid Avenue east of Public Square. This avenue was known as "Millionaire's Row" when it was lined with the mansion's of the city's industrial leaders.

Some outstanding early residents of Cleveland included: President Garfield, John Hay, President McKinley's Secretary of State, Marcus A. Hanna, Political leader, John D. Rockefeller, founder of Standard Oil and Cleveland's petroleum refineries, and Newton D. Baker, Secretary of War in World War I.

As historic and prominent as these early residents were, we Negro Baptists are happy to be here because Cleveland has as its Mayor our distinguished "Soul Brother", Carl Stokes.

We may forget that Cleveland is a leading Mid-Western center of Education and Culture, that its Symphony Orchestra, Museums of Art, Public Libraries, Private, Parochial, Primary and Secondary Schools; its 8 Colleges and Universities with Western Reserve as the oldest and largest, are all outstanding; we may forget that Cleveland is one of the largest ore markets and steel making centers in the United States; that it has famous daily newspapers, including foreign language daily papers; that it has 12 F.M. and 8 A.M. radio stations and 3 television stations; we may even forget transportation facilities are adequate. We may forget all of that but not one man or woman, boy or girl will forget that a black man, Carl Stokes, is the honorable Mayor of Cleveland. All of us are bursting with pride.

We proudly salute this progressive, modern city and look forward to a pleasurable stay under the guidance of our hostesses, Directors Bizzell and Bates.

IN MEMORIAM

Again our ranks have been invaded by the grim reaper, Death. As usual, Wednesday morning's program will memorialize those who have gone to claim their reward.

We mourn the passing of Mrs. Harriet Holmes, former District Director of Ohio, and Mrs. Goldie Henderson, member of the Past Officers Council and former Director of Indiana, who helped us lay the foundation for the Christian growth we are experiencing in the department. Mrs. Leola Comer, member of the Past Officers Council, former State Director, has our sympathy in the loss of her husband. Our beloved Director, Corenne Watts, lost her sister recently. I didn't get the news in time to inform you, so please express your love and sympathy to "Aunt Corenne" during this session.

We say to all of our friends who are bereft of loved ones:

"They are not dead they have but passed
Beyond the mists that blind us here,
Into the new and larger life
Of that serener sphere.

They have but dropped their robe of clay
To put their shining raiment on;
They have not wandered far away—
They are not "lost" or "gone".

Though disenthralled and glorified,
They still are here and love us yet;
The dear ones they have left behind
They never can forget."

It was September 4-9, 1962, in Bethesda Baptist Church of Chicago, Illinois, that I made my first report and pledged to "Give of my best to the Master" and lay my all on the Altar of Service for the continued development of the Young People's Department. If you will recall, I told you that—"The Past is Prologue"; that the glorious past was but an introduction to what the department would become.

Let us look back now on almost a decade and see if I have kept my promise and guided the department "fearlessly forward". I say almost a decade because (to be technical) I was elected in January of 1962, but made my first report in September, so the decade will be rounded out in January. At any rate, let us recapitulate.

A DECADE OF PROGRESS

Ten years ago the expressed needs of our Department were:

1. A National Youth Camp
2. Literature
3. Scholarships

Let us review these in the order listed.

NATIONAL YOUTH CAMP

I thank God that under the dynamic leadership of President Mary O. Ross, our National Baptist Youth Camp has been paid for and this past camping season saw many recent improvements. We have two new cabins, one for girls and one for boys. The motel, farmhouse and mansion have been repaired, the grounds have been improved and we can at last stick out our chests with pride.

We held two weeks of youth camping and one week of Adult Conference this summer. We had 45 happy campers to spend the camping periods and several bus loads of youngsters and adults to hold day camps and week-end retreats. It was a great thrill to see the highway patrol cars lead the chartered Trailway and Greyhound busses to the camping grounds and to watch the campers moving around playing ball, spreading picnic lunches on the lawn, or to go inside and find groups engaged in worship programs.

One of the groups was the "Harriet Holmes Bus" from Cleveland, Ohio. Mrs. Holmes had planned the trip but passed to the great beyond before time to make the trip. Her husband Dr. Holmes, Mrs. Elizabeth Macklin and others carried out her plans and brought a bus load to spend the day. A very touching memorial service for Mrs. Holmes was held in the spacious Mansion living room which is used for assembly. Mrs. Harriet Holmes was one of our most dedicated youth workers and a loyal supporter of the camp. We shall miss her presence but her spirit and good works will live on.

Our Camp Director, Mrs. Hattie Drinks, has prepared a complete statistical report for you.

As Program Director, I would like to express my sincere appreciation to the workers who did all in their power from singing, praying, teaching to scrubbing, cleaning, swimming, horseback riding and playing ball to make our camping period successful and enjoyable. Those who are due special bouquets are first of all President Ross (who worked as hard as anyone), Director Drinks, Mrs. Myra Taylor, Miss Wilson, Mrs. Thelma Phillips, Mrs. Emma Phillips, Nurse Macer, Mrs. Julia Childs, Mrs. Pinkie Reeves, Junior Counselors David and Mark McKinney, Mrs. West, our cook, and her assistant Mr. John Drinks, who gave us a big helping hand, and two Counselors from Chicago who rendered invaluable service as Cabin Counselors.

As I visited conventions and societies I found new interest and enthusiasm in the camp. I believe the period beginning August 6, 1972, will be a banner one for our National Baptist Youth Camp.

LITERATURE

When I came into office ten years ago we had no literature produced by our department. Today, thank God and some talented, dedicated writers, we have the following:

1. A Devotional Magazine - The Light
2. A pack of Study Guides
3. A Guide for Leaders of Christian Young People
4. A Red Circle Manual
5. A Sunbeam Manual
6. A News Bulletin
7. Printed Worship Programs

These publications were made possible by the following persons who gave of their fertile minds and God-given talents free of charge. The writers for The Light across the space of 10 years have been Mrs. Romeo D. Woods, Mrs. Beatrice Bates, Mrs. Ora V. Smith, Rev. Emmett J. Stringer, Rev. O. D. McGlothlin, Sr. Rev. E. P. Burton, Mrs. Carolyn Ealy, Mrs. Ethel T. Fallin, Mrs. Bertha C. Winston and Mrs. Florine Green.

Three dedicated, loyal workers have given of themselves for the Cause of Youth and produced three of our Manuals. Mrs. Carolyn Ealy Edited The Red Circle Manual, Mrs. Ora V. Smith Edited The Mirror, Supplement to the Red Circle Manual, and Mrs. Odavia Stanton Edited The Sunbeam Handbook. We thank God for these unselfish Christians.

National Director Barron Edited The Light, The Guide and The Study Guide Packs. Director Barron and Miss Earline Anderson designed our Emblem Pin. We are deeply grateful to Director Funches for promoting and selling our literature.

We are indebted to Mrs. Kaywood and her Committee for the Printed Worship Programs, and to Miss Lauretta Harris and her Committee for the News Bulletins.

I take the time and space to mention these by name because no group but a group of Baptists would be required to render such service free, and no group but a group of dedicated Baptists would perform such service free. I hope we can soon afford to give our writers at least an Honorarium, as other denominations and some Baptists do.

Other progressive innovations were:

- Instituted Divisional Lecture-Discussion Groups
- Accreditation of Christian Education Department
- New Courses added

Youth Directors' and Counselors' Workshop and Dinner
 Director Bates and Dean Woods have worked untiringly to make our Christian Education Department "Top Shelf". They have added vitalizing features each year.

Organized District Counselors and Directors

Initiated "Bunk In" and "After Hours Social"

The traditional Sunrise Retreat has continued to be a high point in the Annual Session.

Our Youth Choir

Under the matchless leadership of Mrs. Grace Burt Taylor has held the "No. 1 Spot" on our program through the years.

Such Special Features as:

Honors Luncheon

The Queen's Revue

All States Tea

Directors' Chain Rally

That are also a part of our history have been continued and improvements made to strengthen them.

Our enrollment and finance have increased steadily.

SCHOLARSHIPS

I am saddened over the fact that the pledge to offer scholarships to worthy students has not been kept. Our finances have not been sufficient. We made a promise to one of our girls and were not able to keep it. It handicapped the young lady and embarrassed us. However, I am encouraged by the assurance that our financial report last year exceeded any other year and if that is true this year, we shall be able to give a substantial scholarship. I want the Scholarship Committee to pursue it and work out an active plan. We must keep our promise and give a scholarship each year to some worthy young person.

COMMITTEES

The other weak link in our chain has been the failure of Committees to function up to potential. I think we need to re-examine the purpose and results of our Committees and arrive at a solution for making them more effective. Director Fallin, the Coordinator, the Chairmen and Co-Chairmen need to get their heads together, contact the membership and come up with something that will bring in more money through the Committees.

ACTIVITIES

Board Meetings

It was our privilege to meet with a large number of Directors,

Officers and Counselors in the Mid-Winter Board Meeting in Hot Springs. We made plans which are being carried out in this Annual Session.

We haven't words adequate enough to express our appreciation to you who come to Hot Springs and help us prepare for these Annual Sessions. We couldn't succeed without your help.

I also attended a special Executive Committee Meeting held by President Ross in Little Rock, Arkansas, during the National Sunday School and B. T. U. Congress. At this meeting plans for the National Program and the 70th Anniversary were made.

BAPTIST STUDENT UNION

Some of the most stimulating and most rewarding experiences are always those related to the Baptist Student Union. I work as local, state and national advisor.

The most active and most productive religious organization on our campus is the B.S.U.

One of our Coahoma graduates became President of the State B.S.U., and a present student of C.J.C. became Vice President in the State Retreat held at Sophie Sutton Mission Assembly, Prentiss, Mississippi.

The National Retreat was held at Southern University, Baton Rouge, La. There again our Coahoma students played leadership roles.

I repeat, the B.S.U. continues to be a relevant link between the School, Church and Community. The B.S.U. is the Church at work with college students.

The work of the B.S.U. on our campus is further felt by the number of members who have answered the call to the ministry from our ranks at C.J.C. We are proud of the fact that five young men who were and are leaders of the Coahoma B.S.U. have answered the call to preach. I'm humbly grateful that I had a small part in creating the environment, in "planting" and in "watering".

SPEAKING ENGAGEMENTS

The Lord has been good and I have been able to speak for several Youth and Senior Societies and Conventions this year. Each one rolled out the "red carpet of welcome".

Among those visited were: The Young Matrons of Union Baptist Church, Fort Wayne, Indiana; Rev. Clyde Adams, Pastor; Mrs. Hattie Drinks, Director; Mrs. Patricia Moore, Program Director. These and other friends gave me a grand time.

I attended the Illinois Baptist State Convention, held in Joliet, Illinois. Mrs. Sallie Price Robinson, President; Mrs. Rose Cooper, Secretary; Mrs. Mercedes Walker, General Youth Director; Mrs. Valdeenia Simons; Mrs. Mary Johnson and Miss Fannie Jones. Area Directors; Mrs. Emma Price, Barbara Anderson, Lauretta Bebee and other good friends gave me a royal welcome. Illinois "showered" me with flowers and tokens of love.

My friend Thelma Phillips was kind enough to drive me from Fort Wayne, Ind., to Joliet, Ill. My cup of gratitude runs over for such love and devotion.

It was also my pleasure to attend the Alabama State Convention held at Selma University. Mrs. A. M. Wilson is the esteemed President; Mrs. Ethel T. Fallin, Young Matrons' Counselor; Mrs. Zelma Slaughter, Youth Director; Mrs. Frances Belser, Sunbeam Counselor; and Mrs. S. J. Autrey, Crusaders' Counselor.

I was happy to greet "Cousin", Director Corene Watts, Virginia Jackson, Kathryn Fitch and many other friends and co-workers at the Alabama Convention. Alabama went all out with flowers and gifts of love and affection.

Another pleasurable visit was made to the Women of Zion Baptist Church of Denver, Colorado; Rev. W. T. Liggins, Pastor; Mrs. Isabel Sanderson, Program Chairman; Mrs. Viola Garlington, General Chairman; Mrs. Louise Liggins, Minister of The Day, Mrs. Esther Nash, President of the Woman's Auxiliary, Western States Convention, and Mrs. Delores Graves, Hostess, were most gracious. They were joined in extending western hospitality by Mrs. Ora V. Smith, Rev. and Mrs. W. O. Mays, Rev. and Mrs. Acen Phillips, Mrs. Violet McKenzie, Assistant Youth Director, Mrs. Cora Robinson, Mrs. Onnie Giddings, a group of Colorado Young People, and many other good friends. I shall always cherish the silver loving cup as well as memories of the banquet, dinners and Airport Breakfast Denver gave me.

Quite recently I had the opportunity to speak for the Youth and Seniors of New Hope First Baptist Church of Greenville, Mississippi; Rev. J. H. Kimble, Pastor; Mrs. Eliza S. White, Program Chairman.

I think excerpts from a letter which I received from a young lady following my visit to Greenville will give you some idea of the worth of such visits. I quote: "The Youth were impressed by your message, and it added greatly to their Christian desires to press forward to do a better job as Youth in the Church". "We listened with great interest in your work with Youth in the National Baptist Convention and we were more than impressed". "We would like some literature that would help us continue in our Youth Department". "Please send us any helpful information." Unquote.

Such expressions as those quoted above help you "keep your hand in the hand of the Man of Galilee" and give you the comforting knowledge that you are on the right path and that your labors are not in vain.

1971 CONVENTION THEME:

"New Paths For Youth — The Christian Remedy"

Even a decade ago we could not point out many paths in education, business and industry or politics that were open to youth.

But in this year of our Lord 1971 there are many New Paths for Youth in all areas of living.

In the area of Education the doors of all public schools and colleges are legally open. Youth may enter and pursue any career he chooses and come out with a quality education. Many new fields are open in the Vocational-Technical Area and small as well as large colleges are offering preparatory courses for these New Paths.

New Paths are open in the Area of Educational Administration. In addition to Principals and Presidencies of schools, we have at least three big-city School Board Presidents, Dr. Benjamin Mays of Atlanta, Mr. Isaiah E. Robinson of New York, Mr. Robert D. De Frantz of Indianapolis, and Mrs. Arnold R. Pinkney of our host city Cleveland. Black Mayor Gipson of New Jersey made the most progressive and innovative step of all, when he appointed a 17-year-old black youth to the New Jersey School Board. These are just a few of the New Paths in the Area of Education.

A few weeks ago a group of business experts met at the University of Indiana to give information and counsel on jobs, problems of profit motives, etc., to a Junior Achievement Company. This Junior Achievement Company is a vehicle giving youth opportunity to operate a small business. It operates in the evening after school. Each Company gets a sponsorship from Corporations and Adults who guide and counsel them. They are taught how to make goods the community needs as well as how to make a profit. This Junior Achievement Company bridges the gap in Business and certainly is a New Path for Youth.

We have a panel of successful business women who will discuss New Paths for Women in Business and Industry on Thursday, so I won't deal with that question.

We also have a Panelist who will discuss New Paths for Women in Politics. As far as Paths are concerned, we have many new paths open.

We have Mayors and Vice Mayors of Cities, even in my home state Mississippi we have Black Mayor Evers. We have elected officials in national, state and local government, and new positions opening at every election. The 18 year old vote gives opportunity for youth to enter many, many, New Paths in Politics.

In fact, there are few closed doors now to men or women. Just recently a young girl tried out as a big league baseball player in Pittsfield, Massachusetts. We already had them as Umpires; so young people it is up to you to choose the way you would go.

Show me thy ways, O Lord; teach me thy paths.

Psalms 25:4

... I count not myself to have apprehended; but this one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind, and reaching forth unto those things which are before,

I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus.

Phillipians 3:13-14

Is there no balm in Gilead; is there no physician there?
Jeremiah 8:22a

The 1971 Convention Theme is based upon the Scriptural texts above.

In these significant seventies when we have made such a giant step for science in the Apollo 15 moon flight, we need to examine ourselves and see why we are retrogressing in morality. Our young people are being led astray. They are becoming drug addicts, alcoholics, murderers, rapists, thieves, gamblers and parents of illegitimate children. They are proclaiming God is dead. What can we do? What is the Christian Remedy?

In anguish we cry out with Jeremiah, the weeping prophet—"Is there no balm in Gilead?" "Is there no physician there?"

In Jeremiah's day balm came from a tree. They extracted 40 to 60 drops a day. This made the balm very precious.

Jesus Christ is the balm we need. In 1 Peter 2:24 we find—Jesus bore His body on the tree and by His stripes we are healed. The blood of Jesus is the precious balm and the Holy Spirit is the physician. The blood of Jesus cleanses us from all sin; it soothes and heals just like a balm. If you are down in the depths of sin, iniquity, poverty or what have you, there is room at the Cross for you. All you have to do is turn your eyes in simple faith, ask Him to show you the way—to lead you in the right path and trust Him to lead you out of troubled waters; to lift you from all despondency.

Jeremiah was unique in that he preached to himself as well as to the people. At times he was miserably discouraged, overwhelmed, sick, because his people had turned away from God, but he was a man to whom God could speak. He had courage and delivered the message God gave him with conviction, power and compassion.

Today there is need for prophets of God speaking in love and in words of denunciation. Our Nation is spiritually sick. America needs a revival. Yes, "there is a balm in Gilead to heal the sin-sick soul". "There is a balm in Gilead to make the wounded whole". All we have to do is accept His healing power.

If we would forget the things which are behind and reach forth unto those which are before, if we would walk in the paths of our Lord, the paths of peace, we must pray with the poet:

MAKE THY WAY MINE

Father, hold thou my hand;
The way is steep;
I cannot see the path my feet must keep,
I cannot tell, so dark the tangled way,
Where next to step. O stay;
Come close; take both my hands in thine;
Make thy way mine!

Lead me. I may not stay;
I must move on; but oh, the way!
I must be brave and go.
Step forward in the dark, nor know
If I shall reach the goal at all—
If I shall fall.
Take thou my hand.
Take it! Thou knowest best
How I should go, and all the rest
I cannot, cannot see:
Lead me: I hold my hands to thee;
I own no will but thine;
Make thy way mine!

APPRECIATION

As I close I want to express my sincere thanks to President Ross and her Official Staff; to my Regional Directors: Miss Funchess, Mrs. Watts, Mrs. Leak and Mrs. Fallin, for their unstinted support and whole-hearted cooperation across this first decade. I'm humbly grateful to Mrs. Frye and Mrs. Winston for their words of encouragement. I want to express my profound gratitude to the State, District and Local Directors; to the Present and Past Officers, Members, Director, Dean, and Instructors, the Committee Chairmen and Committees, especially The Reflections Luncheon Committee, Musicians, program participants, and everyone who helped to make my path smoother and who contributed to the success and progress of our National Young People's Department.

We have come this far by faith, leaning on the Lord. Let us keep joined in heart and hand and "keep our hands in the hands of the Man of Galilee" as we begin the second decade, and we cannot fail!

God bless and keep you all.

FIFTH ANNUAL REPORT
OF

Mrs. Tiny Kelen Leak
Eastern Regional Director
Young People's Department
of the
Woman's Convention
Auxiliary
to the
National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc.

Submitted in

Cleveland, Ohio
September, 1971

President Ross, Vice President Holly, Officers of the Woman's Convention, National Directors Barron, Watts, Funches and Fallon—Officers, Members and Friends of the Young People's Department, Ladies and Gentlemen—Greetings!

It is a grand privilege to be able to fellowship here in the City of Cleveland, Ohio as a State is neither East nor West nor South. It just sits where it is, and never shouts to make itself heard—it just speaks on in its calm, flat unregional, unaccented, uninflected voice. But what it says in that voice has been a warm "welcome" through its City of Cleveland as our annual session convenes.

We are happy to be here in Cosmopolitan Cleveland, and for certain we know that our experience here this week will be long remembered.

ACTIVITIES 1970-71

Baptist Convention, Washington, D.C. and Vicinity

Our Annual Session was inspirational in October 1970. Our Leadership Enrichment Classes were highlighted and strengthened by the splendid work of the staff of teachers and guest speakers whose work we were asked to coordinate. Presidents Robert L. Rollins and Gladys Parham were accorded great recognition for the kind of leadership that they projected into the program of the annual session. Their addresses electrified all who were privileged to have heard them. The District Federation of Young People presented a favorable Echo Program to the Woman's Auxiliary.

BOARD MEETING
NEW ENGLAND BAPTIST MISSIONARY CONVENTION
NEWARK, NEW JERSEY

AND

PLANNING SESSION FOR THE
ANNUAL CONFERENCE AND WORKSHOP
BALTIMORE, MARYLAND

These meetings produced support of the Woman's Auxiliary, the Parent Body and our Youth Counsellors for the work of the Young People's Department of the New England Baptist Missionary Convention.

ANNUAL BOARD MEETING—HOT SPRINGS, ARKANSAS

In January 1971 we were in attendance at the business meeting of the Board of Directors of the Woman's Convention held in the Bowman Little Theatre in the Baptist Bath House. Members of the Young People's Department were in splendid attendance in support of Director Barron and her proposed program. Mrs. Beatrice Bates, our Director of Christian Education, N.B.C. Youth Department, was also our official representative from the Ohio Baptist to extend a hearty welcome in advance for all to assemble in Cleveland, Ohio in September for the Annual Session of the National Baptist Convention.

Attention was focused on the Youth Camp and Senior Retreat in Constantine, Michigan. Other matters of business will appear in the Official Convention Journal.

Again Mrs. Wills Grimes and her Committee must be commended for the beautifully executed Winter Wonderland Dinner at the prestigious Arlington Hotel.

FIFTEENTH ANNUAL YOUTH CONFERENCE AND WORKSHOP

Our work this year was so rewarding and so inspiring for the response we received that words are indeed inadequate to express our gratitude.

Our Fifteenth Annual Workshop sponsored by the Young People's Department—New England Baptist Missionary Convention was held at the Providence Baptist Church, Rev. Roland C. Lamb, Pastor and Germantown High School, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, Friday and Saturday April 16-17, 1971. Using the Theme: I . . . Believe

God Is Not Dead, the Lord blesses us to have bus loads of young people from each State along the Eastern Seaboard and Atlantic Coast Line that made up our New England Convention.

The City of Philadelphia was handicapped with a transit strike, but in spite of it there were nearly 1500 persons in attendance. We must bow to my Associate Director, Ruth Wells, Workshop Dean, Naomi Boyer, and the local committee for the magnificent service rendered in preparing for the masses of young people who attended this Workshop. An invitation is now extended to all who will find it convenient to do so to join us next year in Springfield, Massachusetts. Third Baptist Church, Reverend Paul Fillilove Pastor, will be our host church with State Director Ruby Jackson serving as our hostess. It is our wish that these young people will avail themselves of any opportunities possible to also attend our National Annual Sessions to share their Christian experiences with their peers from other areas. May God bless these efforts!

TESTIMONIAL BANQUET
HONORING MRS. BERTHA C. WINSTON

Eastern Director Emeritus Bertha Coleman Winston was signally honored by concerned citizens of Baltimore, Maryland. This befitting testimonial was a heart felt, elaborate, encouraging and appreciative experience. This Director was invited to bring the keynote message. It was an honor to serve on behalf of our eminent predecessor. May her years be longer yet to enjoy more fruits of life.

CONVENTION—ANNUAL SESSION
BOSTON, MASSACHUSETTS

Presidents Mary J. Hackney and Dr. B. F. Johnson were at their best for this year's meeting. Delegates and messengers were uplifted to hear the sermon delivered by our esteemed Dr. J. H. Jackson, President, National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc. Reverend Samuel White of Stamford, Connecticut delivered the inspirational meditation for the Young People's Department.

IN MEMORIAM

DEATH IS THE GOLDEN KEY THAT OPENS THE PALACE OF ETERNITY—Milton

To die is to join in happiness to a risen and resigning Lord, and to feast with Him at His table on the bread and wine of His blood.

To die is to enter a city and be hailed as a child of its King. The grace has lost its victory and death has lost its sting.

To die is to rise in power, from the husk of earth-sown wheat.

To die is to rise in glory, from the dust of the incomplete.

Death fills the hand with fresh cunning and fits it with perfect tool.

And grants to the mind full power for the tasks of its greatest school.
Death gives new breath to the runner and wings to the imprisoned soul.

To mount with a song of the morning towards the limitless reach of its goal.

Since our last fellowship my beloved husband, Mr. Edgan Leak, who for many years unselfishly supported me in all of my National Baptist Convention endeavors has passed on. He taught me so much and he left me so much to remember. This that are hard to bear are sweet to remember after all, when one depends absolutely upon God to sustain and strengthen the heart and mind. My husband's death without doubt has brought about the most frustrating period of my life, but I yet am able to earnestly give thanks to our Father for all of His timely blessings—even death. For death is but another promise fulfilled and for all others who have felt human grief, I pray for their spiritual relief.

Allow me to thank you over and over for the kindnesses accorded me during last November—Director Barron, the Young People's Department, President Ross and the Woman's Auxiliary. Flowers, telegrams, gifts and cards were too numerous to list in this report, but the overwhelming response to my dearly beloved's home-going will remain forever in my memory. God bless you all.

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever: PSALM 23.

OUR DIRECTORS

Please remember those whom God has blessed to remain with us. National Director Emeritus, Mrs. Etta Versa Frye, 502 Railroad Street, Box 383, Hearme, Texas 77858 and Eastern Director Emeritus, Mrs. Bertha Coleman Winston, 1500 Madison, Baltimore, Maryland. Remember all others who are not able to join us at this time but who may have served us well when able to do so. For all of them we must pray!

THEME

NEW PATHS FOR YOUTH—CHRISTIAN REMEDY

So much confusion, so many conflicts, so much divisiveness, too many untimely addiction deaths, so much emphasis on the generation gap, so many losses due to wars, so many broken families, so much attention given the communal way of social involvement, so much theft, so much destruction to private property, so little respect for life or limb, so little regard for the welfare of the elderly, so much use of the hand gun, so much focus on riot control and violent demonstrations, the terrible memories of the assassinations of the turbulent sixties, so much corruption in government and law enforcement, so much research energy give to Ecology, space explorations, so much mystery yet attached to defiant diseases of the body and mind, all leads to the fact that each of us are individuals created in the likeness and image of our God. While we are affected by our social problems in masses we are as but one in God's sight. This age of computerization tends to place everyone in the same group. The Social Security system addresses itself in the same manner—yet we are singled out as individuals when ever the proper time comes for record to be processed. This is also the way our records in heaven is recorded—As Individuals. So little interest is expressed in seeking the Lord's way for ourselves that we forget too quickly our only solution to a new and better life is the Christian way of living as the remedy for the solution to the perplexities of life we are now faced with. The answer then—to the development of New Paths for growth is the example set by our Savior Jesus Christ.

THE FORCE OF PRAYER

By William Wordsworth

Oh! there is never sorrow of heart
That shall lack a timely end,
If but to God we turn, and ask
Of Him to be our friend!

GREETINGS

President Ross, Officers of the Women's Convention, Directors Barron, Leak, Fallin, and Watts. Field Workers, Directors of States, Officers of the Young People's Department.

The Women's Convention is celebrating its 70th Anniversary this year. It has been my great pleasure to be able to say, "I have worked faithfully through 32 of those seventy years." The rewards have been gratifying. I have lived to see young women who started out as Sunshine Band Leaders go all the way to Officers of the Women's Convention and State officers and State presidents.

A TRIBUTE TO CLEVELAND, OHIO

In 1947 in Cleveland, Ohio where I was selected as the first delegate to represent the Young People's Department at the Baptist World Alliance in Copenhagen, Denmark. Dr. W. H. Jernigan was the tour leader. This was my first experience in visiting Europe and the Holy Land. We found the land was barren—no vegetation at all, only olives and pomegranate trees were found—unlike today—it is a land of plenty; but to me it was a grand and glorious experience—never to be forgotten.

I pledged to the Women's Convention on my return, I would never embarrass them and I would always remain loyal and faithful.

I pause here to pay a special tribute to Mrs. Wilhemia Cole and all the women who now live that made a special contribution to my growth and development and bless those who have gone to receive their reward. Mrs. S. Willie Layton, Dr. Nannie Helen Burroughs, Mrs. Viola T. Hill, Mrs. Jessie C. Mapp and many others. Those were the GOLDEN DAYS. I would like to pay a special tribute to Dr. Mary O. Ross, who has always felt love and care for me and appreciated my service. I am the oldest elected officer of the Convention. I am a debtor to the Women's Convention. I have been delegated five times to Europe and my last trip around-the-world culminated my dream of going to Africa, the continent that I had worked so hard to help by raising funds for the missionaries under the foreign mission board—Secretary Dr. James E. East, Dr. J. H. Jackson and Dr. C. C. Adams.

I also, shared in training missionary workers in America. I worked as a field representative for 31 years. I went from one state to another organizing mission drives, educational programs for the National Baptist Training School in Nashville, Tennessee and the American Baptist Theological Seminary. I was also Promotional Secretary for National Baptist Convention with headquarters at the Sunday School Publishing Board and Business Manager for the Mission Baptist Training School, where we developed the new farm, at the same time developing the Young People's Department.

When I was elected, we were meeting in a small room of a church basement. Lethia L. Craig was National Director. We had about ten delegates. At the death of Mrs. Craig, Mrs. Etta Versa Frye was elected the National Director. On the retirement of Mrs. Frye, Mrs. A. A. Banks was elected Director and upon the resignation of Mrs. Banks, Mrs. Zee Anderson Barron was elected. By request of President Layton, I was asked to develop the Finance and Business Department of the Young People and to organize committees and this has continued thru Miss Burroughs and Dr. Mary O. Ross; until last year when Mrs. Ethel T. Fellin was elected Southern Director and Mrs. Holley, the Vice President was made Supervisor of the Young People's Finance Department.

Visits

During the years of 1970-1971 my visits were very few due to my physical condition. I was guest speaker at the Arkansas Baptist Young People's Convention in Little Rock, Arkansas, The Baptist State Convention in Chicago and Women's Day speaker at the Providence Baptist Church in Chicago.

Literature

As Promotional Secretary for the Literature of the Young People's Department, it has been my job to see that the manuscripts submitted were in first class condition for the printer proof read his copy and manage the sale of all books printed. This year two new books were printed—THE MIRROR, Supplement to the Red Circle Handbook and SUNBEAM FRIEND HANDBOOK for Sunshine and Sunbeam Band Leaders, as well as the "NEW LIGHT" which is published every year.

Each person who takes books on consignment is personally responsible for those books until she has completely paid for them or returned them.

In the morning, prayer
is the key that opens
to the treasures of God's mercies and blessings.

The decade of the 70's promise to be the most progressive for the black man in his struggle for equality and economic progress. God gives you certain attributes, characteristics, talents, and then He says, "If you use what you have, I'll increase it, but if you don't use it, you'll lose it." The black youth of the 70's is using his talents and they are increasing every year.

I am proud and thankful to God that I have lived to see the day when Our Youth have a sense of fine direction, self-acceptance and a goal worth working for. They are using goal-seeking mechanisms, education and courage to overcome problems and old customs. It is as if I were a mountain climber, who has almost reached the top, as he looks upward he can clearly see his goal.

Today's youth and those who come on in the 70's will see the threads of deception, deceit, and decay falling by the wayside and the seeds of understanding, self-confidence, courage and esteem taking their place.

Change has taught black youth that he "is somebody" not because he has a big car, education or a fine home; but that he "is somebody" because God created him in His own image. The man with faith, trust, and confidence in himself and what he wants to do and goes on to prove it—he is using the talents that God gave him.

The decade of the 60's saw man conquer space and place a man on the moon. Let us hope that the decade of the 70's can show us the way to peace in the world and true democracy in America. Negro Americans must use all the means at hand to make this a better world to live in.

The black man and woman will climb to new heights during the 70's. In all fields of life the steady growth of the minorities will be seen.

DESIRE! to be a part of the whole will inspire many a person to find a way to conquer the obstacles of his day. He will be striving for the finest standards possible. He will not settle for seconds. Parents will demand the best trained teachers for their children, patients will demand first class medical care from their doctors and citizens will begin to demand better politicians.

Black Americans made substantial progress in jobs, income, education and housing between 1960 and 1970. We intend to increase them in the 70's. Today the Negro is turning more and more toward economic goals and toward the ballot box as the most effective way to achieve his goals.

Negroes are registering and voting in massive numbers. The results can be seen by the number of black officials that we have today. Black mayors, representatives and congressmen will be looking to see that the laws and goals won in the 60's will be implemented in the 70's. Having determined that he as a black man is entitled to his share in the AMERICAN DREAM has set about to develop self-reliance, imagination and a keen desire to succeed.

"Ask and ye shall receive, seek and ye shall find.
Knock and it shall be opened unto you."

(Luke 11: 9)

The 1970 black youth is seeking, he is knocking and the door is opening.

Life owes me nothing. One clear morn
Is boon enough for being born;
And be it ninety years or ten,
No need for me to question when.
While Life is mine, I'll find good,
And greet each hour with gratitude.

Respectfully yours,

DR. PRIMROSE FUNCHES

ANNUAL REPORT

President Ross, officers, members of the Women's Convention, Auxiliary to the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Incorporated, Director Barron, Regional Directors, State and Local Youth Directors, Officers, Delegates and Friends of the National Baptist Young People's Department.

We greet you today under many titles that are competing as descriptive captions for our era. We say we live in an atomic age, the space age, the crisis age confronted by two alternatives: mass suicide or world community.

We are living in an age when men the world over are looking for peace and happiness, but we cannot find peace and happiness for ourselves by searching for it directly within the confines of our own little world. A self-centered life is a life of loneliness and disappointment.

One of the perils to modern man is HIMSELF. Man has made spectacular progress in practically every field; but he has been most tardy in the moral and spiritual growth that would enable him to live with his fellowman. As Christians, where do we stand in reference to the ebb and flow of the tide of history and in regard to the problems that challenge the best in man.

The majority of today's solutions will have direct bearing on our response as Christians, deeply affecting the Church and its Mission. "We must shift from the come Church to the go Church". A page of history has been turned. World conditions, National vicissitudes, and even altered patterns within christian groups are waiting new and dramatic Chapters where unity and togetherness exist.

CLEVELAND, OHIO

We are extremely happy to be in the State of Ohio, the City of Cleveland.

Soon after the American Revolution the United States began to expand westward. The first state to be built up entirely outside the original 13 Colonies was Ohio. Standing at the gateway to the rich Northwest Territory, Ohio became a state in 1803. Continuous development of Ohio's many natural resources is fulfilling its Motto—"With God All Things Are Possible."

The abilities and energies of the people of Ohio have contributed much to the state and to the nation as well. Seven Presidents of the United States were born in Ohio—Ulysses S. Grant, Rutherford B. Hayes, James A. Garfield, Benjamin Harrison, William McKinley, William H. Taft and Warren G. Harding. Another President, William H. Harrison, served in the Ohio Legislature and was a resident of the State at the time of his election.

In Ohio we will find many schools of higher learning such as: Ohio University, Oberlin College, Bowling Green State University, Kent State University, Miami University, Central State College and many, many others.

We thank you for inviting us here to share the works of God on earth.

IN MEMORIAM

"I cannot think of them as dead who walk with me no more;

Along the path of life I tread, They have but gone before.

"The Father's house is mansioned fair, Beyond my vision dim;

All souls are his, and here or there, Are living unto Him."

Co-workers and Friends who have gone home since we met in New Orleans, Louisiana, are sleeping in a land beyond the river.

They are with us in heart and memory. We may think more continually of them now than we did when they were on earth. Their example influences our lives; the words they spoke to us still instruct and inspire us. The gravitation of our hearts is toward Heaven where our treasures are.

NEW PATHS—THE CHRISTIAN REMEDY

As a Christian, I have viewed the New Paths from a high vantage point. I know in order to walk New Paths we must be able to change gear.

Our dedicated President, who has an eye for the future, is now ready for us to begin our new walk. As we walk the New Paths of Righteousness, we must listen to the words of Jesus echoing down the corridors of time "what does it profit a man to gain the whole world and lose his soul."

If there ever was a time we need and must walk New Paths, it is now.

The word WALK means to move along at a moderate pace by placing one foot on the ground before lifting the other. In order to walk in a christian manner we must lay aside every weight that so easily beset us and run with patience. Remember, there are those standing on the side lines, seated in the bleachers, who are watching our walk. They must see the oneness of humanity, love, meekness, goodwill and concern for others. They must see us bearing Crosses rather than seeking Crowns.

They should see fair play everywhere in Action. They must see us walking like an army, making music like an Angelic Choir laboring together like ants before winter and loving each other like an ideal family.

Remember, this path is a divine lamplighted path. David asserts: that thy word is a lamp unto my feet and a light unto my pathway. This light is a satisfying light, it satisfies the soul, mind, conscience and above all, the heart.

I would like to admonish us to continue our walk on the lamplighted path traveling toward a city where there will be no night, no sorrows, no heartaches, and no misunderstandings.

As we grow older in age facing the sunset of life, there will be signs along the path saying if you are tired, burdened with sorrow, oppressed, bruised in heart, shattered in nerves and eyes filled with tears JUST COME ON HOME.

A WORD TO OUR YOUTH

Don't sell the American system short. Before you let any one attack it, ask him to show you something better. We all know that a virus has been spreading across our land and even throughout the world in recent years—the virus of pessimism.

Those afflicted with it see everything as being wrong, and nothing as being right. They call for change and even revolution. They would sweep aside knowledge, order, and decency.

The fact is that they offer nothing in place of the world we have today. Instead of improvement, they would create void, a primitive past—a political vacuum, an economic destruction plus social chaos.

This will not happen if those of you who have the future, seize it with the optimism it deserves.

Now, I know we are far from perfect. It is because we are beneficiaries of the best system ever devised that we are more aware of our internal imperfections.

There must be a desire to right the wrongs—to correct inequities—to make the whole system work better.

Remember, our standard of living is incredibly higher than any other country. Our freedom of thought is infinitely greater. Our spiritual strength is unshackled.

The fire brands light their torches, and they try to make us believe our country is sick. Yes, America has proved to the world that she has imperfections—but the mainstream you enter today is robust, and this land through which it flows is healthy.

As youth, you must continue to work on the imperfections; but don't forget you cannot build a better world without God.

Have not I commanded thee, "Be strong and of good courage; be not afraid, neither be thou dismayed: for the Lord thy God is with thee whithersoever thou goest." Joshua 1:8

President Ross, Officers, Members of The Women's Convention, Auxiliary to the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc., Regional, State, District and Local Youth Directors, Messengers, and friends of the Young People's Department of the National Baptist Convention.

It is indeed a blessed privilege to give to you my first Report of my activities in the Far West. Perhaps some thought I had finished my task after serving our Convention from 1944-1946 as Southern Regional Director. Not so. At the age of 12 I gave my heart to God. He fashioned its depths and strengthened and lengthened its cord. It became the sanctuary of God, and He guided my mind into understanding through the most beautiful words: "My Jesus, as Thou wilt: O may Thy will be mine; Into Thy hand of love I would my all resign, through sorrow or through joy, conduct me as Thine own, and help me still to say, "My Lord, Thy will be done." So I entered upon my duty in the far West with appreciation of the Attendant responsibilities of the office, and with anxiety: lest my abilities fail to keep pace with my eagerness to render service you expected, and in which you are entitled. I accepted this responsibility with pride, but also with a sense of humility.

I realize fully the great obligation of this task, and cherish the opportunity. I am truly aware of the magnitude of the office, and will continue to do my utmost to discharge my duties with credit to those who confide in me as their connecting link to the Young People, or your Regional Director of the Young People's Department in the Far West. With the help of God, the cooperation of the Official Leadership of Conventions, State Presidents, State Directors, District and Local Presidents and Directors of the Young People's Department, and all of those who desire to have a part in the fulfillment of our Lord's purpose for mankind as together we will serve . . . realizing each have a great commission as we face our changing world with its confusion, its futility, its insecurity and its divisions. It is needless to reiterate the state of affairs which we are experiencing through the universe. We all are affected. To some, this realization creates sympathy to the cause of Christ. To others, it creates a state of dilemma to the extent that humanity has become a beast-like creature and has turned one upon the other; thus causing civilization to regress spiritually. Never before have the followers of Jesus been put to more severe tests collectively and individually. Social unrest and political tension is the ordeal of our day. Jesus has the answer for both individual and universal problems. There are was everywhere, avarice, gluttons, suffering, sin, fear and faultlessness. Science is at its highest peak. Science can do much by revealing the facts and forces of nature, but cannot heal the World's sorrow. Literature can work wonders in training the mind, but cannot reach the conscience and heart. Medicare and surgery can help the body, but have not learned a remedy to make a man well in spirit. Wars will cease when the Gospel has taught men not to have and rival one another. Greed can be cured only with Grace. Law must be vitalized by love.

Christ had a sense of urgency about his work. The life and work of Christ reflected at all points the compelling responsibility he felt to do the will of God. "I must work the work of Him that sent me." . . . Our young people of the Far West are the same as everywhere else. Making demands on the new Society religiously, politically, and socially crying in the loudest tone, "Use Us, or lose us." The evil thinkers and evil doers voices cry out "Follow us." The early Disciples were much like the young people today—impulsive—unreliable Peter, sceptical Nathaniel, doubting Thomas, Pre-occupied Martha, impractical Mary, ambitious James and John and in each of these Jesus saw a person with spiritual needs and potentialities. For each He made Himself available: to each He supplied help as He said, "I came that they may have life and have it more abundantly." (John 10:10)

Our praises and gratitude to the young people who are now fighting in these great battlefields throughout our world, and for those who are wounded in battle, and for those who lost their lives in the fight and great struggle for freedom:

We bow our heads to the will of God, the Father of us all, and say to ourselves:

Is there beyond the silent an endless day?
Is death a door that leads to light? We cannot say
The tongueless secret look in fate . . . we cannot know
we just watch and wait.

To my delight North and South, the East and West were brought closer together in reality through visitations by our National Officers, Dr. Ross, Sister Susie L. Holley, Mrs. Margery B. Gaillard, Mrs. Z. A. Berron, and other dignitaries en route to the Orient and around the world.

An account of my activities:

Guest of the California Baptist Women in a Retreat at Camp Mo. Ho. Ho., Fresno, California. Santa Cruz, Seaside, Monterey, Fresno, San Francisco Oakland, Berkeley, Richmond, Stockton, Sacramento, Bakersfield, San Luis Obispo, Riverside, San Bernardino, Banning, Los Angeles, Las Vegas, Nevada and other cities.

Worked with the Ministers and officers of the several State Conventions, Western Baptist, California State and Golden State Convention.

I have been the guest speaker at many of the Churches and have worked with the various District Directors and Officers in the various State Conventions. Participated in Workshops, organized Young People and have been the guest speaker at many Women's Day meetings.

Have conducted Inter Baptists Convention Conferences, "Winter Wonderland program, Sweethearts and Showers of Blessings. Have continued to attend The National Baptist Congress, National Baptist Board Meetings at Hot Springs yearly.

I have made many visitations outside of California, Detroit, Michigan, Fort Lauderdale, Florida, Lake Wales, Florida and Cleveland, Ohio.

I served Released Time Christian Education . . . Los Angeles Council of Churches.

I have enjoyed meeting and making new friends and meeting new challenges.

It is my desire to continue:

To walk among those who are standing cold and indifferent heeding His call

Just places to go in the strength He has promised, seeking the lost where sin's dark shadows fall

Places to walk where the Spirit may lead me

Places to stand and His message proclaim peace for the troubled heart, rest for the weary, blood for their cleansing, tho' crimson the sin.

Places to walk where there's sadness and sorrow, hearts that are broken by sin and its shame

Places to tell how He broke every fetter

Places to stand in His wonderful Name

Places to walk where sin reign triumphant

Daring for Jesus to a standard to raise

Pointing the lost to the cross where He suffered

Telling love's story and singing His praise.

Just places to walk with the meek and the lowly

Places to gather in fellowship sweet

Places to worship the One who redeemed me

Places to kneel at His nail scarred feet

Places to walk where faith must be tested

Places to trust Him each step of the way

Places to prove that His love never faileth

Places to suffer and a place to pray.

Humbly and Prayerfully submitted

Report submitted in Cleveland, Ohio, September, 1971

It's as old as man himself, yet as new as this moment or the next.

It's everchanging and somehow ever constant.

It's stronger than any wall ever built.

It overcomes politics and national barriers.

It can't be blinded by strange customs or blocked by foreign languages.

It has been written about and analysed by wise men,

Yet it has never been defined, and never will be.

You can't see it or touch it, yet it is everywhere.

It survives weakness and neglect, thrives on thoughtfulness.

Its possibilities are infinite, its strength limitless.

It's what makes man human, that makes life worth living.

It's friendship.

Just as friendships can come in many different ways, these Ministers and Churches have in many different and delightful ways expressed their thoughtfulness and assistance:

The Moderator's Auxiliary Report

Cleveland, Ohio

September 1971

To The National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc., I come as Secretary of the Moderator's Auxiliary to make our Annual Report to you, the Parent Body. We have had a very inspiring session and the Moderator's are all in accord with the program of the Parent Body. Many of our Moderators did not represent through the Moderator's Auxiliary. Many paid their representation fee to the Finance Committee. There were more than three hundred Moderator's in attendance to the 91st Annual Session.
