HISTORICAL REFERENCE

April 5, 1886, an open letter to the Baptist Clergy and laymen was issued by the Rev. Wm. J. Simmons in the American Baptist asking if we should have a National Baptist Convention to discuss questions of interest to our beloved denomination. At that time the following reasons were given.

1. To promote personal piety, sociability, and a better knowledge of each other.
2. To be able to have an understanding as to the great ends to be reached by the Denomination.
3. To encourage our literary men and women and to promote the interest of Baptist literature.
4. To discuss questions pertaining to especially the religious educational, industrial and social interest of our people.
5. To give an opportunity for the best thinkers and writers to be heard
6. That, united, we may be more powerful for good and strengthen our pride in the Denomination.

Having been solicited to write the call by many whose names and endorsement are hereunto affixed, the call is hereby made by their advice and solicitations for said Convention to meet in St. Louis, Missouri, August 25, 1886, 10:00 o'clock a.m. in the First Baptist Church, and the pastor thereof is hereby requested to serve as a Committee of Arrangement with power to select his associates. Wm. H. Seward, Louisville, Ky., and Rev. A. H. Cole, 2066 Goode Avenue, St. Louis, are hereby requested to serve as a committee on transportation.

Wm. J. SIMMONS

The Chronological report in our National Baptist Committee is hereby corrected, viz.: The parties as they appear below were officers of the Foreign Mission or National Educational Convention as were their predecessors. Said Convention merged into the National Baptist Convention in 1886 or met jointly with it, or otherwise.

NOTE: Articles 6-8 At the Executive Board in Phoenix, Arizona. Adopted by standing vote.

Brother President, Officers and Members, with deep concern and prayerful consideration and a firm belief in our living Christ and Lord and further believing that there is a more beneficial way of remembering the Saints of God than naming an organization of our living Lord after a finite creature, I suggest that we give careful and prayerful consideration to the Following: That Article 10, Section 1, as recommended by a special Committee on Constitution September 6, 1968, will read as follows under Auxiliaries:

- 1. There shall be a Senior Woman's Auxiliary #1;
- A Senior Woman's Auxiliary #2;

- All Auxiliaries of the National Baptist Convention of America.

If Section 1, Article 10 is accepted, I suggest Article 9, Section 10 that it be resolved that paragraph 2 under Foreign Mission read thus: That a special day be adopted by this Convention dedicated for Foreign Mission in honor of and be known as the M. A. B. Fuller Day.

Brother President, this is suggested in honor of the great work Mrs. M. A. B. Fuller has done in the Missionary cause and that a special offering should be sent under your designation either to the Convention Treasurer or the Foreign Mission Board in perpetuating the efforts made by her.

On the M. A. B. Fuller Day a special offering across this Nation should and could be taken and forwarded under your designation.

These recommendations are offered after much prayerful thought and I hope will find sympathetic consideration.

Yours sure of Eternal Life,
Dr. P. S. Wilkinson

WEDNESDAY MORNING SEPTEMBER 10, 1969

St. Petersburg, Florida

Inasmuch as the National Baptist Convention of America, acting pursuant to the Constitution, through its Executive Board did accept recommendations from the President and a special committee, to wit, that the National Baptist Convention of America adopts a retirement and annuity program underwritten by the Inter-America Life Insurance Company of Dallas, Texas.

And inasmuch as the program provides that the Convention pay $6.00 annually of the total premium of $18.00 annually to provide $1,000.00 death benefit to age 65 and $500.00 death benefit to age 85 with equal amounts to the beneficiary and the Convention;

Now therefore be it resolved, that effective in this session, article 3 Section 2 of the Constitution now reading "Each church shall register with $1.00 per member (Minimum of $25.00), this shall be amended to read $35.00 Minimum. This action is taken to provide some of the funds necessary for the Convention to underwrite this program.

REPORT OF CORRESPONDING SECRETARY

Rev. Robert H. Wilson, St. Petersburg, Fla.

September 1969

President Sams, other officers and fellow-members of the National Baptist Convention of America; Greetings in the name of our Lord, Jesus Christ, God's Son.

Having been elected to the office of Corresponding Secretary at the Convention in Detroit, Mich. in 1958, today marks the eleventh time that I have stood to give an account of my office. I thank you for the opportunity of serving more than a decade, and praise God for any good done.

As in past years, I have through 1968-1969 sought to discharge my constitutional duties and perform any other tasks requested of me by the President of the Convention. I have not restricted my interests nor my efforts to serve to the mere definition of constitutional duties. I am content now to be judged by the record as to the effectiveness of my efforts.

Funds for the Convention have been forwarded to treasurer John Francis with copies of the transmitted letters sent to President Sams, or brought here and reported directly to the finance committee.

A statement of expenses incurred in the operation of my office has been submitted to the President and the committee on accounts.

Humbly submitted,
Robert H. Wilson

PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS

National Baptist Convention of America

Dr. J. C. Sams—President

SEPTEMBER, 1969

To the Vice Presidents of the National Baptist Convention of America, Dr. B. O. Byrd, Dr. Moses Price, Official Family, Messengers, State and National Guest, our many friends, Christian Sisters and Brothers in Christ Jesus:

At the close of the session last year in San Antonio, Texas with our dear beloved brother Dr. P. S. Wilkinson and the members of the New Light Baptist Church, many things have found their fulfillment in time and we have all to thank God for. We enjoyed one of our most outstanding experiences there with our brothers and sisters in Christ.

In February we sojourned to Phoenix, Arizona and shared another great experience with Dr. Hall and our National Senior Women's President, Sis. Fannie Thompson, the pastor, and membership of each church in that area. Too much can't be said about the State of Arizona. They are among the most courteous group of Christians that it has been mine to share with. We can fulfill the purpose of Christ when we have this type of togetherness and unity that is found among us.

Greetings

God in His unlimited mercy and grace has again allowed us to meet face to face in this our 89th session of this our National Assembly; for which we have all to thank Him for. It is known very well among us as believers, He has brought us, His children, from a mighty long way. We have come thus far by faith. The journey has not at all times been smooth, but we are here. Misfortunes, seen and unseen, have attended our way. Loved ones have passed on to the great beyond, troubles in the home life, church life, problems with our children, problems in our cities and states, our nation and the world. All have been ours to encounter. We have not always known which way to go, but thanks be to God, who has shown us the way, here we are today. It may be helpful if we sit quietly long enough to hear the voice of our Master when He asked the question in the forest land, to one of His senior prophets, Elijah, "What doest thou here Elijah?" In other words, "What are you doing here Elijah?"

We have gathered here in the "sunshine city of America" St. Petersburg, Florida, in the State that is better known as "the playground of America," in the State that has as its heritage the Rocket Space Center at Cape Kennedy which has sent the first men to the Moon, and now the American flag stands in the deep sand of the Moon, with its stars and stripes as the true evidence that man has been there. This is nobility to the highest degree in every man's thinking. But men of the Earth, "what doest thou here?"

The question is not asked for the sake of the Almighty, but for man. Look at yourself. It is like a parent and his child. Your child may be outside playing in the sand and finally gets into mischief. You begin to think "where is that child?" You walk to the door and see him doing something that he has no business. "What are you doing Sonny?" Nine times out of ten he will jump and say "nothing!" You see him and know what he is doing, but you want him to become conscious of what he is doing.

Today's World

Today, we find ourselves members and citizens of a lopsided society, one that seems to have lost its equilibrium. We share today a philosophy that has caused a short circuit in the lines of communication man with man. Our line of brotherly love has been broken. Respect one for the other, decency, true character in manhood and womanhood has diminished. Children of our today's world have lost respect for parents, teachers, and even ministers of the Holy Calling to the Gospel. Where there is a broken wire you will see sparks protruding indicating live wire. This is true in human lines, in our home life, in institutions of learning, high schools, colleges, and universities; presidents, trustees, teachers, preachers, and everyone who is trying, and has tried across the years, to build the highways and the lines of communication so that we might restore in every person the ability to care for other's well-being.

It must be made known that the better ways of life didn't just leap in their places; for behind every building there is a builder. Behind every productive farm there is a farmer. Behind every evangelistic church there is an evangelist. Behind every shoe there is a shoemaker. Behind every creature, there is the Creator!

The old saying of our fathers of yesterday "nothing from nothing leaves nothing!" Young people, remember God has been as good to you as He has been to anyone else in His world. If you want to be somebody you have to get up, get ready, get out, and get. You can't do it by sitting around crying and demanding what rightfully belongs to another. We need to get away from so much Welfare help. You have never known a nation to get very far which has to operate on welfare and government handouts. We the Black people of America must check our location and answer the question of our age, "What doest thou here Elijah?" Am I here because I am lazy, unconcerned about life and the many opportunities she has to offer?

Our Convention

We, the called believers of Jesus Christ, the witnesses of Jesus Christ, are different. We are not of the world, although we are in the world. It is to be remembered that we have been called out of darkness into the marvelous light of the glorious gospel of Jesus Christ.

Jesus first called us when he said, "Come after me and I will make you fishers of men." "Come unto me, all ye that labour, and are heavy laden and I will give you rest." "Take my yoke upon you and learn of me; for I am meek in heart: And ye shall find rest unto your souls. For my yoke is easy and my burden is light."

It is my thinking that we spend too much time attempting to prepare our individual programs that we give too little time in the program that has been given by Jesus, the Great Commissioner. Foreign Missions, Home Missions, Evangelism, and Education are all included in the Great Commission: "Go preach, go teach." This is all of it.

I want to discourage every missionary, every pastor, and every helper of ever doing anything concerning the ministry with the question "what am I going to get?" Your question should be "how will the folk benefit from the trust that God has put in me?" For if you give them what they need, you have a promissory note signed by the President of the Universal Bank of Heaven. "I will supply all your needs. Do my will, keep my commandments, ask what ye will in my name and I will grant it unto you."

I said to you last year in San Antonio that if the Lord would help us we were going to Jamaica and start plans for re-opening the school. Dr. Branch and your President did just that. Today the school is open with a strong faculty and administrative staff and more than 475 students enrolled with a bus for transportation. We went to the bank and set up a system that makes sense for real honest business. My brothers and sisters if you could have seen those people of slave backgrounds as we have, coming out of the valleys and mountains with bunches of bananas on their shoulders and across the backs of donkeys for ninety cents a day would make your heart sob.

I realize that we still have poverty here in America, but it's not the same as our brothers and sisters in other countries. It is also worthy of taking note that when the Master called missionary Baptists He did not send us only to our own people, but He said, "Go ye therefore, and preach the gospel to every creature: he that believeth shall be saved, he that believeth not shall be damned." We are indebted to every creature: white, black, yellow, and brown alike!

We have the personnel, we have the know-how, and we have the money and the time. To quote a statement made by one of the officers of the Second Missionary Baptist Church, "Let us not become so busy doing church work until we forget about the work of the church."

Auxiliary Bodies In The Work

I do want to thank you for your loyal support during my first year as your leader and president. This is no honor that comes to your president, but to you. You broke all records last year in San Antonio. We had the pleasure of giving more to the causes than any year during the history of our Convention. This can only be a continuous reality as God can find in each of us a zest and zeal to be honest in all we do in his name. Don't come up year after year, and you know you have people who have never been able to account for what has been entrusted in their leadership. Don't do anything for God because you are afraid of someone putting you out of your office, but do it because it is right to do.

I want to give God special thanks for allowing Sister Fannie Thompson to head our Senior Women's Convention. As soon as she was elected she came to her president and had me to know she wanted to do what was right the way God would have her to do it. I am in a position to say to you today that that department made last year its banner report. I am only saying to each of us to do what is right. If you will be fair in your report to God and this Convention, He will never leave you and I will never leave you at any session until I know everything and everybody has been treated rightly. Always remember, the causes come first. We need more money for Christian Education and the causes of Mission.

I want to thank you for having accepting the Benevolent Board's recommendation to be underwritten by Allstate Insurance Company. Some of us live too long and too well to find ourselves in the condition that we are often found in. Brothers and sisters we are not going to be young all our days. We grow older every year, whether we admit it or not. If you don't need all you get this week, you will need it next week. Pastors, give a little thought to your wives while things are going well with you; for it makes no difference which church it is, they don't call wives, they call the preacher. Now you tell me what church, after the pastor has gone to his reward, will say, Sis. Sams you don't have to worry, as long as you live we are going to take care of you and you can remain in the pastorium? It is only common sense that a man makes provisions for his wife. If he should leave first she is going to have to live elsewhere I think it is foolish to have two or three cars for two people and not one house.

What Doeth Thou Here Preacher?

I don't want to say what this preacher said if he had an answer, but I believe he would have said, "Lord I am here because I am afraid. I am here because I was chased here by war-like men from the voice of a wicked woman." He became afraid. He lost courage, lost faith. His line of communication was broken. You may run, but you can't hide. I can hear my God say, "Come on out!" Do you remember where you were? On Mt. Carmel. Did you call me? Did I answer? What are you doing here? I want to run, but not out of fear but of love.

A father speaks to his son: "Wherefore I put thee in remembrance that thou stir up the gift of God which is in thee by the putting on of my hands. For God hath not given us the Spirit of fear; but of power and of love, and of a sound mind.

Brother President, Staff Members, Messengers, Ladies and Gentlemen:

We the members of the Commission on Chaplains and Armed Forces Personnel are proud to make our Annual Report at this time. For we believe that we have some concrete examples as well as pertinent information.

First of all, we have tried to keep ourselves abreast with the work of the Chaplaincy by attending the schedule meetings in Washington, D.C. where we take a part in the Business of the General Commission and participate in dialogue. We also listen to top ranking Chiefs of Chaplains make their reports from the various branches of the Armed Forces. Some who were flown in from European Installations and other far away bases for these important meetings.

We are happy to say that we attended the 1968 Fall Meeting (October 16th thru October 18th) and the 1969 Spring Meeting (March 11th thru March 13th).

Our Spring meeting was held in the Chaplains Memorial Building and the closing session was held at the Capitol Hill Hotel. One of the important features of this meeting was pertaining to the Outline of The New Plan.

- (a) Hereafter, there will be an Annual Basic Membership Fee of $100.00 requested for all constituent denominations, without regard for the number of chaplains on active duty.
- (b) No denominations shall be assessed for more than 300 chaplains on active duty.

DR. FRANK K. SIMS MAKES TRIP TO GREENLAND, LABRADOR WITH "USAF"

Having been invited by Chief of Chaplains, Major General USAF Edwin R. Chess to join his party which consisted of the following:

1. Rabbi Morris Lieberman, Baltimore Hebrew Congregation, 7401 Park Heights Avenue, Baltimore, Md.
2. Monsignor James J. Markham, Military Ordinariate, 30 East Fifty-first Street, New York City.
3. Dr. William R. Vivrett, Christian Churches (Disciples of Christ) 222 S. Downey Avenue, Indianapolis, Indiana.
4. Frank K. Sims, National Baptist Convention of America, 8201 South Champlain Avenue, Chicago, Illinois.

AFHCE PERSONNEL:

Chaplain, Major General, Edwin R. Chess
Chaplain, Colonel, John F. Graff
Chaplain, Colonel, Thomas M. Groome, Jr.
Mr. A. Eugene Steward

COMMAND PERSONNEL:

Chaplain, Colonel, John F. Albert HQ SAC of Westover Air Base, Westover, Mass.
Chaplain, Colonel, B.C. Trent, HQ ADC of Andrews Air Base, Baltimore, Maryland
Chaplain, Lt. Col. Adlai C. Holler, HQ 1AF of Westover Air Base, Westover, Mass.

For a point of information, I would like to state that the Chaplain's Commission is an Incorporated Civilian Religious Agency, maintained by Thirty-five member denominations. Since 1917, it has been a permanent conference on the coordination of standards and support for the Chaplaincy and the Religious Programs for Armed Forces personnel and veterans.

I consider the trip to Thule, Sondrestrom, Greenland, Goose Bay Labrador and Westover, Mass. Air Force Installations one of the high points of my affiliation with the General Commission on Chaplains and Armed Forces Personnel. Not only was it a pleasure, but a honor as well. My visit to these installations; meeting Chaplains, Chief of Chaplains, having the privilege to confer with them about their religious activities and the scope of their ministry to the service men, their wives and children do not represent our commission alone, but the five day tour was mainly to represent the National Baptist Convention of America Unincorporated and the interest our convention has manifested in the work of the Chaplaincy and Armed Forces Personnel.

As we visited the various installations we were briefed on the religious activities through the media of lectures, movies, slides, charts and blackboard diagrams. In Thule Greenland, we were given a tour by Special Bus up in the mountains where one of the largest radar plants is located. There we were shown through the different sections which are located in the mountain as well as on the surface of the mountain. The operation program was shown to us, especially how objects thousands of miles away in outer space were picked up on the screen and recorded. We were told how enemy threats by air could be detected and relayed to the headquarters in Denver and the Pentagon in Washington.

Our party consisted of twelve clergymen and command personnel. On two occasions I was called upon by the Chief of Chaplains, Major General U.S.A.F. Edwin R. Chess to speak to the group about the interest our communion had in this most unique ministry, and the financial support we are contributing.

This trip demonstrated the ecumenical faiths as well as races. Although I was the only Black Minister in the party, there was never a difference made between the other ministers and me. At every Base I was respected highly and every courtesy was extended to me by all the Chaplains and Officers.

I am happy to report to this session of our convention my impression of the religious work outlined in the various Air Force Chapels. With all sincerity and pride, I must say the spiritual needs of the men and their families are being adequately met by the Chaplains. For they are dedicated men, with a deep personal interest in their work and in the people they serve. Their motto is a challenging one: "BRING GOD TO MAN AND BRING MAN TO GOD." This is not only true of an Armed Force Chaplain, but also true of every divinely called minister in Civilian life as well.

Dear Frank:

Recently I had an occasion to recommend to the Air Force that you and some other Commission representatives be asked to travel with the Chief of Air Force chaplains on one of his regular tours to visit certain of his chaplains.

These periodic tours involve about four or five days, usually from Monday to Friday. The Chief is accompanied by one or two of his staff members and four or five civilian chaplaincy endorsing officials. The purpose is to pay courtesy calls on commanders and look in on various chaplaincy programs in operation at four or five locations. The trips can cover any section of the U.S., plus out of the country sometimes.

This is just a confidential alert to the fact that you should be receiving such an invitation in the next few weeks. I hope that your schedule will permit you to join the group since these things are important for the future. The Chief's party travels by plane and all food and lodging are supplied by the Air Force. It is a pleasant and profitable experience.

EBENEZER'S PASTOR MAKES TRIP TO GREENLAND, LABRADOR WITH USAF

Dr. Frank K. Sims returned to Chicago this week with a glowing account of his tour of Goose Air Base in Labrador, and Sondrestrom and Thule Air Bases in Northern Greenland. Dr. Sims, pastor of Ebenezer Baptist Church, 4601 South Vincennes Avenue, Chicago, Illinois and a member of the General Commission on Chaplains and Armed Forces Personnel, traveled to these installations with Hon. Edwin R. Chess, Chaplain, Major General USAF, Chief of Chaplains.

Dr. Sims, an official representative of the National Baptist Convention of America, traveled to these bases with a party of 12 including clergymen and command personnel for the purpose of inspecting the chapel installations serving the U.S. Armed Forces in Labrador and Greenland.

During the trip of the USAF Party between July 7th-10th he had the privilege to speak in the Chapels and talked with countless servicemen who are stationed in the far away lands.

Greatly impressed with services as outlined in the various Air Force Chapels, Dr. Sims agrees that the spiritual needs of the men are being adequately met.

They departed from Andrews AFB in Maryland on July 7th and returned on Friday, July 11th.

Last year Dr. Sims was accompanied by Dr. John L. Thurston of New Covenant Baptist Church and Rev. Joseph Wells of Mt. Pisgah Baptist Church on a tour of Air Force Bases in Europe.

In addition to command personnel including Col. John F. Albert, of Westover; Col. B. C. Trent, Lt. Col. Adlai C. Holler, and Lt. Col. John J. Fader, Dr. Sims traveled with Rabbi Morris Lieberman, Baltimore; Monsignor James J. Markham, New York; Dr. William R. Vivrett, Indianapolis, Indiana; Major General Edwin R. Chess, Col. John F. Graf, Col. Thomas M. Groome, Jr. and Mr. A. Eugene Steward.

Dr. Sims and Dr. Thurston are planning to visit the Madrid-Torrejon Base in Spain to confer with Ch. Lt. Col. Conrad Gaffney, USAF.

The commission is an incorporated civilian religious agency maintained by thirty-five (35) member denominations. Since 1917, it has been a permanent conference on and support for the Chaplaincy and the Religious Programs for Armed Forces personnel and veterans.

Assistant Secretary of Defense
Honorable Adam Clayton Powell
House of Representatives
Washington, D. C. 20515
Dear Mr. Powell:

The Secretary of Defense has asked me to respond to your recent letter concerning visits of black clergy to areas where substantial numbers of black Armed Forces personnel are stationed, especially Vietnam.

You will be pleased to know that there are more than five hundred black and white chaplains in Vietnam. These dedicated Men of God, representing many denominations, provide an adequate spiritual ministry to all Armed Forces personnel without regard to race or color.

Most civilian churches have established liaison with the Armed Forces through their Ecclesiastical Endorsing Agencies. In addition, Armed Forces Chaplains Board policy provides opportunity for these agents to visit at military installations throughout the world.

Since the military situation in Vietnam precludes visitation of large numbers of civilian clergy, the denominations have cooperated by sending only Endorsing Agents or their authorized representative.

Should the Reverend Dr. Frank K. Sims, Chairman of the Commission of Chaplaincies of the National Baptist Convention, desire to visit chaplains and constituents of his Church in Vietnam, the Armed Forces Chaplains Board will be pleased to assist him in every way possible.

Your interest in the spiritual welfare of our Servicemen is appreciated.

The Honorable Adam Clayton Powell
House of Representatives
Washington, D.C. 20515
Dear Congressman Powell:

Received your letter and the copy of the letter you received from the Assistant Secretary of Defense and wish to thank you for same.

Having a fair knowledge of the number of Black Chaplains who are serving in all branches of the Armed Forces Services, I seriously doubt that a sizable number of black chaplains are included in the five hundred chaplains in Vietnam, which the Secretary mentioned in his letter.

However, this information can be obtained from The General Commission on Chaplains and Armed Forces Personnel, 122 Maryland Avenue, N.E. Washington, D.C. 20002. The Reverend A. Ray Appelquist Executive Secretary, Lincoln 7-8310.

Since, Reverend Thurston and I are the two active members of our commission from the National Baptist Convention of America, we would be happy to make the trip to Vietnam to visit not only the black men in service, but to speak to both black and white.

VISIT TO THE MADRID-TORREJON AIR BASE IN MADRID, SPAIN

(August 11, 1969)

Each year during the month of August, Dr. John Thurston and I arrange our vacation to include visits to some European Military Chaplain's Installation, which we have found to be rewarding, talking with Post Chaplains about their ministry to service personnel and dependents. For August—1969—Vacation Visit, we chose Spain. We knew that there was a very large Air Base just a few miles from Madrid called Madrid-Torrejon Base.

In talking with Rev. A. Ray Appelquist, Executive Secretary of the General Commission on Chaplains and Armed Forces Personnel at Headquarters in Washington, located at 122 Maryland Avenue, N.E., he thought the idea was good, so he immediately forwarded a letter to Chaplain, Lt. Col. Conrad Gaffney, USAF Hq. 16th Air Force, Office of the Command Chaplain which stated in parts:

"Dear Chaplain Gaffney:

Three clergymen from the National Baptist Convention of America will be traveling in Europe in August. Two of these men, Dr. Frank K. Sims and the Reverend John Thurston, are denominational representatives to the General Commission.

On previous trips overseas these men have been encouraged to visit Military Installations and talk with Post Chaplains about their ministry to service personnel and dependents. We hope that it will be possible for them to see something of the Chapel facilities and program at Madrid-Torrejon.

I am enclosing a copy of a biographical data sheet for Dr. Sims. It may be of interest to note that Dr. Sims is accompanying the Chief of Chaplains, Edwin R. Chess, on a trip to Thule in July."

Dr. John Thurston and I took time out from our vacation to fly from Paris, France to Madrid, Spain on August 11th. At the Madrid-Torrejon Base and was received warmly by Chief of Chaplains, Lt. Col. Robert R. Wilson who was acting in the place of Chaplain Lt. Col. Conrad Gaffney who had been transferred to the States.

After being introduced to Chaplain Wilson's Staff we were briefed on the various duties performed by these men. They were as follows:

Ch. Lt. Col. Robert R. Wilson	Presbyterian
Ch. Maj. W. M. Campbell	Sr. Catholic
Ch. Maj. E. W. Barcome	Catholic
Ch. Maj. Wm. Theiss	United Church of Christ
Ch. Capt. Charles Freivett	Baptist

A Staff Luncheon was prepared for us. After meeting the staff we were escorted to the dining room and served a most delicious meal.

We were shown the Chapel and all its facilities. It is a very large chapel, so arranged that each denominational chaplain holds his own services in the same building, but at different hours.

Observing the Protestant Worship Service, it was interesting to note that their Sunday Morning Worship is divided into four parts namely:

1. PRAISE
Organ Prelude
Call to Worship
Invocation
Hymn
2. CONFESSION AND FORGIVENESS
Prayer of Confession
Silent Meditation
The Words of Assurance
The Lord's Prayer
3. AFFIRMATION AND INSTRUCTION
Responsive Reading
Gloria Patri
Scripture (Selected)
Anthems
4. DEDICATION
Hymn—Announcements
Offering—Prayer of Dedication and Instruction
Hymn—Benediction—Postlude

The rest of the afternoon was spent driving around the entire base stopping at various posts, meeting personnel in charge. We were shown through the High School where more than fifteen hundred students were in the process of registering for the Fall Session.

One of the high points of this visit was that of meeting Black Service Men from the States. Some from Alabama, Arkansas, Ohio and California. They expressed their gratitude for having Black Pastors from the States being interested in them. Not only did we meet and talk with Black Service Men, we also conversed with White Service Men from the United States.

Dr. John L. Thurston and Dr. Frank K. Sims enroute to Europe. They were Passengers on the New Beautiful, Luxurious Queen Elizabeth the 2nd, along with some two thousand, eight hundred passengers and crew members.

Disembarking at LeHavre France. Drs. Sims and Thurston traveled through France and Spain by Train and plane.

Dear Reverend:

John L. Jackson, a serviceman from your parish has been assigned to this unit in Viet Nam. It is my thought that you and your people would appreciate this information. Although he is a great distance from home his spiritual and moral needs, as they may be, will be met. At least weekly he will be offered religious services in whatever his faith may be.

He has been assigned to an infantry unit that is responsible for the safety of Saigon. Oftentimes he will be called on to make sacrifices he never had to face in civilian life. Because of his work and discomforts i.e. long patrols, watching guard at night, not always a hot meal nor the best living conditions, he may be faced with sudden thoughts of not being home. Your parish and their thoughts of him expressed by letter and some small packages occasionally will do much to brighten those thoughts. Even the Parish Sunday bulletin would probably mean a great deal to him.

Whatever way your people can let their fellow parishoners know someone in the U.S. cares will be a contribution to the efforts of peace over here.

Sincerely
Chaplain William F. Peterson

Dear Chaplain Peterson:

Thanks for your letter informing us of John L. Jackson who has been assigned duties in Viet Nam.

It was very kind of you to take time out of your crowded ministry to let us know about John. We have already sent him a letter, which we hope will mean much to him to know that we are concerned about his well being.

I am a member of the Commission of Chaplains and Armed Forces Personnel from my communion; The National Baptist Convention of America Unincorporated, and I have just returned from two important visits to Chaplains Installations. The first one in Greenland, and the second in Spain, the Madred-Torrejon Air Base. I hope to visit Viet Nam in the future.

Dear Mr. Jackson:

I received a very nice letter from Chaplain William F. Peterson telling me about you having been assigned to a unit in Viet Nam.

He was very much interested in you and wanted us here at Ebenezer Baptist Church to know you are there, and that your spiritual needs as they may be, will be met.

We understand from Chaplain Peterson that your assignment requires a deal of sacrificing, discomforts and long hours of patrolling during the dark hours of night.

You may rest assure we shall be praying for you. We will not only make mention of you from our pulpit here at Ebenezer, but in the Annual Meeting of the National Baptist Convention of America, convening in St. Petersburg, Florida next week. We shall also make known to that body your assignment and solicit their prayers.

Very truly yours,

State of Maine
Maine State Prison
Thomaston, Maine

June 6, 1969

Dear Sir:

A Chaplain position is vacant at Maine State Prison. We would appreciate it if you could inform interested colleagues.

Our salary schedule for Chaplain I is starting: $6890; 6 months: $7228; 1 year later: $7592; 2 years later: $7892; 3 years $8372. Qualified and experienced applicants with appropriate backgrounds can possible be started at levels higher than starting subject to the approval of the Personnel Board. There may also be opportunities for conducting services at local churches as long as this is consistent with the prison program. It presently is since our services are at 9 A.M. and the outside congregations meet at 11 A.M.

The preferred specifications as defined by our Civil Service Board are:

"Be fully ordained as a minister, priest or rabbi, and have ecclesiastical endorsement by his denomination, with a minimum of one and one-half years of pastoral experience plus three months of clinical pastoral training in an institution accredited for this type of training; and graduation from an accredited four-year college or university plus graduation from an accredited seminary."

We have the part time services of a priest who is attached to a local Catholic parish. Catholics represent about a third of the prisoner population. The Protestant Chaplain is the only full time clergyman, but local pastors visit individual inmates.

We consider our institution to be a progressive one and seek to maintain high professional standards of custody and treatment. The Deputy for Care Treatment is a Clinical Psychologist. The Deputy for Custody and Supervision is a retired Marine Colonel who has been Commandant of the U.S. Naval Prison at Portsmouth. Our employee turnover rate is low and morale is considered high. Inmate attitudes are generally positive. We point out these things not as a recruiting pitch, but as considered fact.

The community of Thomaston, where the prison is located, is in a peaceful area of low population density. It is a pleasant place to work, live, and bring up children.

We invite applications from qualified persons.

Sincerely,
ALLAN L. ROBBINS, WARDEN

REPORT OF COMMISSION ON THE CHRISTIAN MINISTRY

President Sams, Officers, and Members of our National Baptist Convention of America:

GREETINGS

We are pleased to present our 1969 Report of your Commission on the Christian Ministry.

C. A. Holliday, Chairman

"LORD, WHAT WILT THOU HAVE US TO DO . . . Here, NOW?"

The question raised is not designed to be presented as a sermon, yet if it provokes any one of us to seek to fulfill our Christian ministry through new forms of ministry other than a church building centered worship service. I am of the opinion that the Holy Spirit will guide us to fields of service where men are waiting to hear a word from the Lord—Let us not kid ourselves about the age in which we live. When our local churches are measured by the growth attained by transfers, by letter, and Christian experience and our death rate excels our new converts, the Christian church has failed in fulfilling its mission as is set forth in the Bible. When the church was young, believers were steadfast in their missionary zeal and soul winning fervor, and the Lord kept adding (to their number) daily those who were being saved (from spiritual death). The Christian ministry is faced with the greatest challenge since the days of Jesus' earthly ministry.

"THE CHURCH CREATIVE" MUST SEEK NEW FIELDS OF SERVICE

We must answer to the call of education: "Be prepared"

1. The Chaplaincy.
 2. Clinical psychology in various institutions.
 3. Many of our urban churches today demand that their leaders have some formal theological training in an accredited Seminary.
 4. Pastoral care, special training in counseling, etc.
- We live in a world of rapid change, change in the forms, methods, and values of life. There is in us a great ambivalence toward this change. We can be fascinated participants in the contemporary developments and movements that are producing change, and yet we can also draw back and be afraid of leaving the old ways and values and fear the new which only gradually reveals its characteristics. This ambivalence is especially true of church life and is naturally reflected in the attitudes of both clergy and laity.

Your committee wishes to set before you these general areas of our most urgent concern:

BIBLICAL ASSERTIONS ABOUT THE WORLD:

1. The world is created, sustained and judged by God.
2. The world is the object of God's love and concern.
3. The world is the sphere of God's liberating and renewing activity.
4. The world is the proper location of the Christian life.

BIBLICAL ASSERTIONS ABOUT THE CHURCH:

1. The church is made up of those called to witness in the world that "Jesus Christ is Lord." Lord of each of our lives . . .

2. The church exists not for its own sake, but for the sake of the world . . . to be love lived out, to be the agent of God's reconciliation.

3. The church IS mission; it does not send missionaries; it is itself sent.

4. It's "essential" forms are few. Most of the church's forms are "prudential"; i.e., to be used only so long as they serve the mission, to be discarded and replaced when they cease to be useful.

5. The church's mission is the business of all who constitute it, not merely of a few called "Clergy." Indeed, since the world is the location of the Christian life, and more missionaries are needed, the laity must join hands and heart to fulfill a true witnessing church. The clergy are those set apart "for the equipping of the saints for the work of ministry." (Eph. 4:12.)

6. The church is called to give up its life to the world, like its crucified Lord, who said, "I came not to be served, but to serve, and to give my life a ransom for many."

FACING THE CHALLENGE:

1. Changes in patterns of life in our century (urbanization, secularization, automation, etc.) are so vast, radical, and rapid that the church cannot be faithful to its mission if it clings to old forms as if they were sacrosanct. It must learn new languages and new ways.

2. To venture into new missionary structures necessitates the courage (a) to risk, and (b) to fail. Mark 4:1—When Jesus failed in reaching all he began again. There is no "playing it safe."

3. The present parish structure of the congregation may well continue as a viable form, but it must be more open, pliable, and mobile. Its worship, study and fellowship must be REAL training for REAL mission. It's "scattered life" in the world is to be effective, its "gathered life" must be deepened and permeated with a new spirit.

4. Evangelism cannot longer be interpreted as "getting them in" but rather "getting us out" to be the "Christian presence" in the concrete structures of human life.

5. We cannot arrange a renewal of the church. To paraphrase a familiar scripture, "Not by campaigns, nor by promotion, but by my spirit, saith the Lord." But we can be open to the Spirit, and by the power of the Spirit, try and test both old ways and new, and by the wisdom which is the Spirit's gift "hold fast to what is good."

HISTORIAN'S REPORT

REV. MARVIN GRIFFIN

RELEVANCE OF BLACK HISTORY

AND

BLACK THEOLOGY

By Marvin C. Griffin, Historian

Strong demands for black studies are being made by militant students across the length and breadth of this country. "Mr. Charlie" may not like it and many moderate blacks may be embarrassed by it, but the cry is louder than ever and predictions are that the demands will become increasingly louder and stronger. These programs can no longer be denied to interested students, both black and white. Their demands must be heard.

Many institutions have hurriedly inserted in their curriculum a department of black studies. They have discovered to their dismay, that there is a shortage of faculty and literature available. This situation exists because of the prolonged deliberate practice of the white community to conceal and distort the historical record of blacks in this country and in the world.

Several years ago I was in Boston, lodging at the Parker House Hotel. I asked the bell captain where was the monument to Crispus Attucks, a black man, who was the first to fall in the American Revolution. He looked at me in bewilderment. He had never heard of the man or the monument. I went into one of the stores, a short distance from the Hotel, and asked the manager. He said, "Sir, I grew up in Boston. I attended the school here; I have never heard of Crispus Attucks, or a monument here erected to his memory." Then, I inquired of a policeman nearby. He, too, gave a similar answer and suggested that I go to a library about a block away. I did so, and the librarian consulted a book on Boston monuments. We discovered that the monument was located in Boston Common, just a few blocks away. I went there and saw this tall and impressive monument and read the inscription honoring the memory of Crispus Attucks, but most people who came to the Common—come and go without becoming aware of Crispus Attucks and his contribution to the freedom of this Nation.

The need for black history stems from the fact, that though blacks have been present and have made signal contributions, they have largely been ignored in the history of the Western White World.

"If American history had been written as it happened in the first place, we probably wouldn't have today's black-white confrontation," says Rep. James H. Schever (D. New York), who presented a bill on Negro history and culture in Congress to create a Commission on Negro History and Culture.

The most popular portrait of the black man has been the picture given from the Southern view. The assumption that the black man was happy as a slave and the closer he could be kept to slavery the happier he and the white man would be. In large measure the North adopted the Southern view in the Nation's attempt following the Civil War to win back the loyalty and support of the defeated confederacy.

William L. Katz, author of "Eyewitness: The Negro in American History," says, "We have to pledge to teach the truth, to let the chips fall where they may . . ." He admits that the black man was deliberately pushed out of American history. Historians searched until they found the records left behind by white Americans but they did not search for the papers and letters about and by the black man. Katz says further, "We tried to bind up the wounds of the Civil War by using Negroes as band-aids."

One of the significant contributions of the unfinished freedom revolution is that it is redeeming the time, redeeming a past that has long imprisoned the praiseworthy contributions of black people. The happenings have been bound by bigotry, chained to degradation by prejudiced historians and distorted by chroniclers who could see only the works of white men, whites who conceived of blacks as being less than persons . . . both sociologically, legally and theologically. . . . The black was conceived of as being 4/5 of a person . . . as E. Franklin Frazier points out in his book "Black Bourgeoisie."

We do well to consider some hidden sources of black history. One of the classics of American autobiography is Frederick Douglass' "My bondage and My Freedom," published in 1855. It is unexcelled in its crystal clear insights into slave society. It is written from the slave's point of view. Douglass does not stop at recording his sufferings and his protests, as most of the slave authors do. He analyzes perceptively what slavery did to children, mothers and fathers, to slave families, and what it did to owners, overseers, masters and their families. This book marks the beginning of a sociology of slave society.

Most books dealing with heroes of the black Baptist family are out of print and were not included in the white man's outstanding libraries.

Let us consider some of the fallen heroes of yester-years among black Baptists in this country.

Prominent among stalwart Baptist leaders and among the founders of this Convention is Rev. William J. Simmons, D. D., L. L. D., of Kentucky. He is remembered as one of the noblest spirits of the Baptist family. Through his influence the American National Convention was organized in 1886, which is one of the roots in the formation of the National Baptist Convention. He was founder of the Baptist higher educational work in Kentucky and was a representative of the National Baptist Publication Society, Philadelphia. He died in 1890.

Rev. L. M. Luke, D.D., of Texas, held various positions among Baptists in that State. The most effective work done there was in the educational field as financial agent of Bishop College, Marshall, Texas.

Rev. E. K. Love, D.D., of Georgia was one of the most active and prominent preachers among the Baptists of the country. For many years he was hailed by Baptists everywhere as the leader of Georgia Baptists. As a former President of the American National Convention, President of the Missionary Baptist Convention of Georgia and Pastor of the First African Baptist Church, Savannah, Georgia, the oldest and at that time, the largest Negro Baptist Church in the world, he held a commanding position. He died April 12, 1900, leaving a splendid record.

Rev. R. DeBaptist, D.D., Illinois, was a potent factor in the development of the work among Negro Baptists. He was one of the best known and best loved preachers of his day. A deep thinker and splendid systematizer, he was invaluable to the denomination in gathering and reporting statistics. He was a Statistician and Counselor.

Rev. W. H. McAlphine of Alabama, organizer, and first President of the National Foreign Mission Convention, which was organized in 1880. He was instrumental in the development of the missionary spirit among black Baptists and contributed much to the success of the National Baptist Convention in the mission fields of Africa. He was president of Selma University in Alabama. He was one of the few organizers of the old Foreign Mission Convention honored at the Quarto-Centennial Jubilee of the Convention in Chicago, September 1905. He died several days later.

Professor Gregory Hayes, A.M., educator and orator, dedicated his life in the upbuilding of Lynchburg Theological Seminary and College, Lynchburg, Virginia, of which he was the distinguished President. He died in 1906.

Rev. J. W. Carr, D.D., prominent as a national evangelist, was pastor of the large and prominent Second Baptist Church of Indianapolis, Indiana and succeeded Rev. F. K. Love as Pastor of First African Baptist Church in Savannah.

Professor William L. Cansler, A.M. of Nashville, Tennessee, was a prominent laymen, teacher in Nashville public schools, Trustee of Roger Williams University and Secretary of Tennessee Baptist State Convention for 20 years. He resigned his position as teacher in 1898 and became chief clerk in the mailing department of the National Baptist Publishing House and was later appointed Auditor of the Publishing Board. In 1899 he was elected secretary of the National Baptist Convention, succeeding William H. Steward, who resigned after serving in that capacity since the first session of the Convention. Professor Cansler died in 1907.

Dr. S. E. Smith, D.D., organizer and counselor, was one of Kentucky's splendid sons, enjoyed signal honors on the National Councils of the denomination. As an organizer and church builder, he made an outstanding record. He died August 5, 1907. Soon after accepting the call to Second Baptist Church, Columbus, Ohio.

Professor William Roseborough was a native of Texas and a product of Bishop College, Marshall, Texas. He was a national talented musician. Dr. I. Toliver, famous evangelist, used him as his associate in evangelist meetings. He compiled "Celestial Showers," a splendid collection of gospel songs, and National Baptist Anthems which was published by the National Baptist Publishing Board. He served as musical editor and manager of the musical department of the Publishing Board. He died in 1903.

Rev. J. J. Blackshear, A.B., D.D., of Roger Williams University, was a distinguished preacher and orator of national prominence. He was a teacher in Houston Baptist Academy, Houston, Texas, and dean of the Theological Department of Guadalupe College, Seguin, Texas. He died in 1907.

Rev. M. Vann, a national Baptist officer and preacher, a graduate of Roger Williams University, was superintendent of Missions in Tennessee. In connection with Rev. R. N. Countee, the founder of the Bible and Normal Institute, Memphis, Tennessee, he rendered invaluable service to that institute as a supporter and as a Trustee. In 1892 he was elected president of the American National Convention. He was pastor of First Baptist Church, Chattanooga, Tenn. He died in July 1897, one week after his election as President of the Tennessee Baptist State Convention.

Dr. Charles L. Price, D.D., was a strong educator. He was President of Selma University, Selma, Alabama. For eleven years he administered the affairs of the State University, in Kentucky. He gained an enviable reputation as a theologian and instructor and inspired a new breed of young Baptist preachers. The editor of the American Baptist said concerning him: "He was an earnest, faithful and untiring worker, and his judgment was clear and discerning. The National Baptist Union (Review) editor said, "Dr. Price was an amiable character, a strong, brave, manly hero, a man who honored God and served his people faithfully to the end." He died August 17, 1905.

Rev. W. T. Dixon of Brooklyn, New York was indeed one of the "Fathers of Israel." Dignified in bearing, mild in disposition and a wise counselor, all who knew him believed in him as their friend. It is splendid proof of his greatness that he was the beloved and honored pastor of the large and influential Concord Baptist Church of Brooklyn for nearly 50 years. Though he lived his years in the far north, away from the great mass of his people, he exposed their cause throughout the country. As president of the New England Convention, for years his influence and power were widespread. He was a staunch supporter of the National Baptist Convention. He died June 22, 1909.

These all died in the faith, and left enduring records, and in dying they passed the torch to another generation; they left the glorious work for the Baptist family to carry on to its fullest fruition. They belong to that cloud of witnesses that look down upon us today as we consider our task as winning witnesses for the Master.

Black theology is a theology which takes seriously the reality of black people—a life of suffering and humiliation. Theology is God-talk—talk that is based on experience with God. History is the record of human happenings. Black history is the servant of Black Theology. It is the record of the divine revelation encountering black people.

"Black Theology realizes that it is man who speaks of God; but when that man is black and lives in a society permeated with white racist power, he can only speak of God from the perspective of the socio-economic and political conditions unique to black people. Though the Christian Doctrine of God must logically precede the doctrine of God, Black Theology knows that black people can only view God through black eyes colored with brutalities of white racism. To ask them to assume a "higher" identity by denying their blackness is to require them to accept a false identity and to reject reality as they know it to be." (From "Black Theology and Black Power," by James H. Cone.)

Black theology affirms the blackness of black people. It tells of a divine human encounter in which God has said, "Yes" to black people and "No" to white racism. It affirms the fact that blackness is beautiful because it is the handiwork of God.

This is the mystery of our history that God has said "Yes" to black people and black people have said "Yes" to God, even while under the yoke of bondage at the hand of cruel white racist task masters. . . .

Black people were slaves in Egypt, oppressed so hard they could not stand; deprived and depressed, weak and heavy laden, barefoot and without shoes, yet they dared to sing—

"You got shoes, I got shoes
All God chillun got shoes—
When I git to heaven gonna put on my shoes
Gonna shout all over God's heaven—
Heaven, Heaven, Everybody talking about heaven
ain't goin there.
Heaven, Heaven, gonna shout all over God's Heaven."

"The Relevance of Black History and Black Theology" should be recognized by the black and white church as useful tools in the ministry of reconciliation as we seek to work out our salvation with fear and trembling.

RECOMMENDATION

That the Convention strongly urge the churches to provide courses in black history and institute black studies programs to stimulate and strengthen growing black awareness in ourselves and others, supported by knowledge of the unique contributions of black people in the history of America and the world. REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON SOCIAL JUSTICE

E. E. JONES, CHAIRMAN

CONQUERS OF SPACE—UNCONQUERED

President Sams, Vice Presidents Byrd and Price, Officials of the National Baptist Convention of America, My sisters and brothers in the Lord. We have been brought together here in Saint Petersburg, Florida in one of the century's greatest years. The year that man landed on the moon. The ink that will pen history's pages will be too black to be erased by frivolous findings of the future. The ink wells will run deeper for years to come as historians, philosophers and scientists of various sorts continue to write off of the edges of their note pads.

It is a great year for America. Man has taken complexed television and made its outcome so simple that even kindergarten children viewed with eagerness, and enthusiasm the moon walk of thousands of miles away. America has grown taller as her prestige increased around the world. Great reverence and respect is being paid to Collins, Aldrin and Armstrong for performing a modern miracle in a turbulent world.

A smiling president Nixon took the advantage of the hour and went orbiting through Asian countries to remind them, it is time for them to pat us on our backs, because we have conquered space, thus, American leadership in the world is without question.

As America elevates her ego and smile sneakily, she must not forget that she hasn't yet arrived. Mountains of poverty, deserts of discrimination, the frigid winds of war, must all be reckoned with.

Flying in space has amazed the world, but the splash down did not wash out poverty. 24 billion dollars is not a small amount to spend on flying. However for most politicians ANY amount of money is too much to spend easing and erasing poverty. Our congressmen find it so difficult to support, "the poverty program" or any poverty program, because they say the money gets in the wrong hands. What they are saying is, the wrong hands are the Negroes' hand. However, it does not raise a question of personal ethics when our congressmen salaries are boosted and expense accounts are padded, unless however, this is done by the Black statesman from Harlem, but the rule does not apply to the statesman from Connecticut, when it is interpreted by many white Congressmen. It is the familiar ring of the old adage, "if it is white it is right." The new ring is if it is right, then it is right."

For 19 months a South African White doctor walked around with a black man's heart in him. The black man was buried in a cemetery where only black people are buried. His heart was buried in an all white cemetery. I could elaborate much on this, but let the dead rest. However there is a great note of urgency to the Christian Church in Dr. Bliagberg's death. Newspapers declared that a new heart would not save Dr. Bliagberg, for all other systems of his body had worn out, and the only way he could have lived would have been for all systems, organs, cells and tissue to have been replaced. This is impossible. What it amounts to is, salvaging the lives of numbers of people to make one run. Equality is achieved at death, "it is appointed unto all men etc."

II. SO CALLED REFORMS:

Our nation has come to a new peak in spending. Inflation is here. We are but a half step from a depression. The cost of living is out of sight. Interest rates are hiked (not since 1929 have they reached such a scale). The government is advocating an extension (now have 6 months) on the Surtax. The president has called for a 75% cut back on federal construction. This also means that this is another way of saying Black People will remain in Ghetto's. This means 3 out of 4 people will become unemployed while prices continue to mount, thus making three (3) out of (4) people poorer. We must never forget the white man's rule on the Black man's employment, "last hired, first fired." The people mostly affected by cut backs and cut offs are Black people.

Across America some good occasionally slip out of Congress. Stores are compelled, as well as banks and other lending agencies to inform their customers of yearly interest rates. Stores have compounded money by extorting through untold interest rates and we have been the victims. Stores are charging between 12 and 18 cents on the dollar for goods that are too high to begin with.

The honest truth of the matter is interest rates have always cost us (Black) more. On house, land, automobile, etc. God is pulling the cover back now. All of our years we have known inflation. Others are just beginning to feel what has become a part of our way of life.

The White man has stolen the most of the little unfair salary, he has paid us. The house that he stayed in until a Negro moved into the community is often sold to another Negro at twice the price and the highest interest rate possible. My personal word is don't race to buy these old run down houses and church house. Let them stay there until the price is right. The nation should now realize the devastating economic that has been with Negroes down through the years.

A few weeks ago President Nixon went on television and talked about a welfare program, that is no more than the resounding refrain of conservative race haters. In this "Old Program" of legalizing hate, the word "Work" is mentioned. Black people have always worked, they just haven't always been paid." Often Negroes have been branded lazy, shiftless and no good; not being paid is no incentive to work.

Nixon's plan is to fix it where welfare recipients can work and thus relieve suffering and poverty. While we must recognize work to be honorable and just, we also know that Mr. Nixon is simply employing rhetorics, just to appease the fancies of die hard segregationist. Let us do some simple thinking. How can a people as a whole be lifted when they are being fired at a more rapid rate than they are being hired? How can the poor be hired when black people with college educations are being turned down on jobs where whites with less than a high school education are being hired and upgraded.

City halls, politicians and labor unions are being instruments to keep Negroes out of certain skilled crafts. The irony of it all is these unskilled persons are so skilled that already they are doing everything on the white man's job. Call the plumber, a white man answers in the office, a black man does the work, a White man receives the pay. You may say the Black man ought to own his own business. He must first be licensed, this is another story. At city hall he is discouraged, because he is told he failed a certain test. After several years of trying and finally passing a test that he probably passed the first time, the Union looks at him ugly. There is a constant cry "Use Union Labor." He is left on the outside.

We are willing to work. We must work. But we must be paid. We are not going to work at slave driving, back breaking work for nothing. Pay us!

Ministerial groups bring pressure to bear in the area of employment. They go down town representing us as a group and demand good jobs and decent salaries for our people. In case you don't know there are but two ways to make a break through in this nation. (1) Register and vote and (2) guard your money.

BE AWARE OF WORDS AS "LAW AND ORDER" WELFARE PROGRAMS. THEY ARE DESIGNED FOR THE PURPOSE OF KEEPING NEGROES DOWN.

To really put icing on the cake Mr. Nixon is calling for reforms that puts the welfare program in the hands of the states and provide more local controls. Today it is the welfare program, tomorrow it will be the schools. Then we will be back where we started. Local control of government funds in essence would place the Black Americans into a kind of concentration camp. Not the Black man alone, but America cannot afford to go back. Conquering space is not prestigious enough for America's survival; our hatreds, our hypocrisy must become undesirable mistakes of yester-year.

III. THE DANGER OF THE NEW MILITANTS

Every black man across America should realize our fight for equality will be a life long job. Not a one of us can wake up any given morning and feel that America has arrived and chaos that has blanketed our nation is gone forever. This is a life time fight. Don't be dismayed, every morning you've got to put your boxing gloves on, today you fight. Since we know we must fight, it would be well to know the fighting styles of our enemies. We must carefully watch what punches we have thrown, that were most successful. One thing any half thinking soldier realizes is you cannot win against an enemy fighting each other in your own camp.*

The danger of this new militant is: No, I and foremost, it has left God out. Let me be blunt and extremely truthful, there is no succeeding with God. Check the record. This is not theory; this is factual. Black Americans must stop killing each other week after week over 75c. Black America must find a unit that is rapidly slipping away. Every one of us must realize that positive work will bring us to our goal. We have not done well since Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. was assassinated. Dr. King made mistakes, but the one mistake he did not make was to leave God out of the movement, because he realized GOD IS THE MOVEMENT. Go back and check the record and see what kind of punches he used. He used the power of prayer and love. I have walked with him, not to the extent that some of you have; I have joined hands with him and others while tears rolled down our cheeks as we sang:

WE SHALL OVER COME . . .
GOD IS ON OUR SIDE
GOD WILL SEE US THROUGH

We do not want to live in the past, nor do we want the present to sweep us past rationality. Black Americans must not seek prolonged wars fought mostly with our mouth. We are in need of victories. Talking alone, nor talking loud will relieve poverty, slums police brutality and all second class citizenship. Black America must ~~realize~~ her strength. We cannot win our war with fire bombs and hate. BUT WE CAN WIN VICTORIES by (1) REGISTERING AND VOTING (2) CAREFUL AND SELECTIVE BUYING (3) CREATING WITHIN OURSELVES A DESIRE TO RISE FROM THE ROCKING CHAIR OF COMPLACENCY AND BE SOME BODY.

CLIMAX:

Injustices are still with us and they shall be for a long time. But, we are indebt to the oncoming generation to pave a better street than the one we are creeping upon. Our destiny is total equality. This I hope is, Not any better but no worse. We must get there. Black America must stop and take stock. These one room country church houses have been the echoing place where God has used many an unskilled and unlearned preacher to declare thus saith the Lord. You have sold the righteous for silver and the poor for a pair of shoes" (Amos 2:6).

Others are looking for a place to speak of injustice; others are looking for someone to speak of injustices to. God has so ordained that the preacher would be a conscious prickler of the world.* No preacher can preach the Gospel of our Lord without realizing at some point he is going to be unpopular. We must not hide our faces to the evils in our community. We must meet them head on. Every man here may not know the intricates of getting before the Mayor and city council of your town; limited education may hinder you from knowing about how you may benefit from certain government rights, you may not ever see the governor of your state, you may not have thousands to preach to but you do have a message; tell what God has put on your heart to say about the wrongs of your community. Don't be afraid of the White church, tell it in your Pulpit, (Aunt Jane works for the pastor of the church down town, Old deacon works for the Judge, the Mayor, the Councilmen, the little girl). The news will get down there, Uncle Tom is still in business with the white haters. You tell them God said, "I hate, I despise, your feast days, and I will not dwell in your solemn assemblies.

Though ye offer me burnt offerings and your meat offerings, I will not accept them: Neither will I regard the peace offerings of your fat beasts. Take thou away from me the noise of thy songs; for I will not hear the melody of thy viols. But let judgment run down as waters and righteousness as a mighty stream.

"I do not say that there are not others.

The fight for equality already has been long and hard. At times it appears we have not even reached the half way mark. Often there are frustrations caused by individual and groups who want no more out of the movement than personal recognition. I am not an advocate of moderation by a long shot, but one little slogan I have coined is, "there is no short cut to quality." The moon walk I repeat will not by a magic wand: remove the internal maggots of racial hatred; tramp out the rat and disease infested ghetto in America; stop our white brother from hogging up all of the best jobs; stop blacks from being the last hired and the first fired; put bread into the mouths of starving malnourished babies; cause one man to respect another regardless of the color of his skin; cause black educators to lose their jobs in the redistricting of schools. We need not make another step on the moon until some steps have been made here. I know that many of your bodies have grown weary. Much of your hope has faded with this new administration. I know that many of our young people have decided that we older folk are too slow. Don't run off and leave us, but rather grab Grandmother's hand, your speed and her toils will help regulate your steps. Our feet may ache my brother, but our souls will rejoice, for we must walk together, Children don't get weary.

"Space has been conquered but, the conquerors are yet to be conquered

This convention go on record as opposing the appointment of Judge Clement Haynesworth to the Supreme Court of the United States of America because of his attitudes toward Negroes and integration. Many of his integration decision as a judge in South Carolina were reversed by the Supreme Court of the United States. We feel he cannot unbiasedly make such constitutional decisions as will come before the Supreme Court; We further recommend that a telegram stating our position opposing the appointment of Haynesworth be sent to Sen. Mike Mansfield, the majority leader in the senate.

RESOLUTIONS

1. That the National Baptist Union review carry a Caption encouraging registering to vote and voting.

2. That each state convention and individual church support financially the Southern Christian Leadership Conference headed by Rev. Ralph Abernathy.

3. That Pastors and other community leaders go to work on school boards and courts to hinder the abolishing of all black schools.* Integration is a two way street. Transport some white high school students into the Black Community.

*And the removal of black educators from top positions to be replaced by whites.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON ORTHODOXY

by Rev. E. L. Elmore

THE CHURCH

The Church of Christ, in its largest signification is the whole company of regenerate persons in all times and ages, in heaven and on earth (Matt. 16:18; Eph. 1:22, 23; 3:10; 5:24, 25; Col. 1:18; Heb. 12:23).

The term Church frequently occurs in the New Testament. It may be found there more than a hundred times. The word thus translated means Congregation or assembly, but it does not indicate the purpose for which the congregation or assembly meets. Hence it is used Acts 19:32, 39, 41, and rendered Assembly. In every other place in the New Testament it is translated CHURCH.

In its application to the followers of Christ it is usually, if not always, employed to designate a particular congregation in the latter sense in several passages, as, for example, when Paul says, "Christ also loved the Church, and gave Himself for it; . . . that he might present it to Himself a glorious Church not having spot or wrinkle, or any such thing." Eph. 5:25-27. In these places and several others it would be absurd to define the term "Church" as meaning a particular congregation of Christians meeting in one place for the worship of God.

In answer to the question, What is a Church? It may be said, A Church is a congregation of Christ's baptized disciples, acknowledging Him as their Head, relying on His atoning sacrifice for justification before God, depending on the Holy Spirit for sanctification, united in the belief of the Gospel, agreeing to maintain its ordinances and obey its precepts, meeting together for worship, and cooperating for the extension of Christ's kingdom in the world.

If this definition of the term Church is correct it is manifest that membership is preceded by important qualifications. These qualifications may be considered as moral and ceremonial. All moral qualifications are embraced in Regeneration, with its attendants Repentance and faith.

It is obvious that the purpose of the Church organization can be carried into effect by regenerate persons alone. Those who become members of a Church must first have exercised repentance toward God and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ. They are called to be saints, and must walk worthy of the vocation wherewith they are called.

Baptism is the ceremonial qualification for Church membership. There can, according to the Scriptures, be no visible Church without baptism. An observance of this ordinance is the believer's first public act of obedience to Christ. Regeneration, repentance, and faith are private matters between God and the soul. They involve internal piety, but of this piety there must be an external manifestation. This manifestation is made in baptism. The penitent, regenerate believer is baptized into the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. There is a visible symbolic expression of a new relationship to the three persons of the Godhead—a relationship entered into in repentance, faith, and regeneration.

OFFICERS OF THE CHURCH

It cannot be said that officers are essential to the existence of the Church, for the Church must exist before it can appoint its officers. After this appointment, if in the providence of God, they should be removed by death, it might effect the interests, but not the being of the Church. It has been well said that "although officers are not necessary to the being of the Church, but are necessary to the well being of the Church.

Paul referring to Christ's ascension gifts says: "And he gave some, apostles; and some, prophets; and some, evangelists; and some, pastors and teachers; for the perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ." Eph. 4:11. 12. Apostles, prophets, and evangelists filled extraordinary and temporal offices. There are no such offices now. Pastors and teachers, the same men, are the ordinary and permanent spiritual officers of the Church, while the office of Deacon has special reference to the secular interest of the church.

The work of pastors is referred to by Paul when he says, "If a man desire the office of a bishop, he desireth a good work" 1 Tim. 3:1. It is indeed a good work—the best work on earth. A bishop was the pastor of a Church, and not over a district, province or state or states. The New Testament, so far from encouraging a plurality of Churches under one pastor, refers in two instances at least to a plurality of pastors in one Church. (See Acts 20:28; Phil. 1:1.) The bishop-pastor's work is to feed the flock of Christ. Feed the old ones, young ones, the intermediate ones, the weak ones and the sick ones, to preach, administer the ordinances—Baptism—Lord's Supper.

DEACONS

The office of deacon originated with the increase of the multitude of members in the Church. The main work of the apostles was preaching, and he could not administer to the secular need of the members and at the same time give proper time to preaching. They said that it was not reasonable to leave off preaching to serve secular purposes. They advised the Brethren to look out among them seven men of honest report, full of the Holy Ghost and wisdom, whom they might appoint over the secular matters so that they might continue to give their time to the ministry of the word. This was done, and the Church began to grow with much speed.

THE DEEPER MEANING OF THE CHURCH:

The foregoing is for the most part the visible view of the Church. But, let us see a deeper meaning: Christ did not organize the Church, as seen in the above. He formed it after a night of prayer on a mountain, and in the morning He called unto Him his disciples, Luke 6:12-16, and of them He chose (12) twelve to be with Him, which gave form to the Church. These He trained for probably three years. They became His body (Church). Fifty days after the Passover, ten days after He ascended with a host that looked like a cloud, and entered heaven He sent the Holy Ghost (Spirit) upon that body which He had formed, and that body became a living-active body, like Adam when the Lord God breathed the breath of life into him. (See also, Matt. 10:1-4; Mark 3:13-21.)

The Church therefore cannot be defined in merely human terms, as an aggregate of individuals associated for social, benevolent, or even spiritual purposes. There is a transcendent element in the Church. It is a great company of persons whom Christ has saved, in whom He dwells, to whom and through whom He reveals God (Eph. 1:22-23). As God could be seen only through Christ, so the Holy Spirit can be seen only through the Church. As it was the image of the invisible God, so the Church is appointed to be the image of the invisible Christ, and the members of Christ, when they are glorified with Him, shall be the express image of His person.

Let us remember it is not a humanitarian organization resting on common human brotherhood, but a supernatural body, which traces its descent from the second Adam, and which manifest the power of the Divine Christ. There was little or no organization at first. Christ Himself did not organize the Church. This was the work of the apostles after pentecost. The Germ however existed before. Three persons may constitute the Church, and may administer the ordinances.

JESUS BUILDS HIS CHURCH:

Matt. 16:18. Jesus said, "Upon this rock I will build my Church. The Church is known as the bride of Christ, Rev. 21:9 "Come hither, I will shew thee the bride, the lamb's wife. (See Rev. 21:2; 22:17; Also John 3:29 He that hath the bride is the bridegroom, but the friend of the bridegroom which standeth and heareth him, rejoiceth greatly because of the bridegroom's voice: this my joy therefore is fulfilled.

75TH ANNUAL REPORT
OF THE
HOME MISSION BOARD
OF THE
National Baptist Convention of America

ST. PETERSBURG, FLORIDA
SEPTEMBER 9-14, 1969

Dr. J. C. Sams, President, Jacksonville, Florida
The Rev. Luke W. Mingo, Chairman, Chicago, Illinois
The Rev. O. B. Williams, Executive Secretary, Portland, Oregon
To our President, Dr. Sams; The Chairman of the Home Mission Board, Dr. Mingo; Officers and Members of the National Baptist Convention of America:

Another year is ending, and I bring to you my second annual report. Having been chosen as your Executive Secretary, I am painfully aware of the times in which we live. We are a part of a generation that is confronted by some of the most crucial issues ever known to man. There are threats and disturbances everywhere. During this decade many devout men of great concern for the betterment and survival of mankind have been cut down in their usefulness of life. This is a decade I am sure each one will always remember. Much talk now is centered around the coming of a "New Age." People are talking of their places in the "New Order" of mankind, and their being the forerunners of the "New Brotherhood."

The Astronauts have made their safe return trip from the moon. What a trip! "A small step for man, but a giant step for mankind," by Neil Armstrong. To those of us who are the "Called out"—preachers, pastors, missionaries and witness bearers, shall we continue to make small steps in our Missionary efforts for our Great God? Let us renew our efforts. If we are going to be like our Saviour, who emptied Himself for us, we must empty ourselves for the salvation of souls, helping the needy, relieving the burden of the depressed and contributing to the struggling churches across our nation. Let us take note, my brethren; what good is it for a man to say, I have faith, if his actions do not prove it? For as the body without spirit is dead, so faith without works is dead. So our prayer is: "May God grant us deliverance from the rhetoric of peace when we personally are not willing to do the things which make for peace, to love, to forgive, to wisely use all gifts and resources for the good of mankind, and to permit the invasion of the Holy Spirit in the lives of each of us so that it may be reflected in our homes, in our schools, in our communities, in our churches, and between all men of all races." "No man really lives until he wishes for others what he wishes for himself."

Now will you pledge to be a regular contributor to our Home Mission Board so our work may grow and our gifts to the needy may increase.

Humbly Submitted,
Rev. O. B. Williams,
Executive Secretary of the National Home Mission Board

Dear Brethren:

Greetings in the name of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. This is to let you know that I received your letter also the check of $100.00. Thank you very much. It was heartedly appreciated and will be used for the purpose it was sent. Pray for us in our struggle.

Again I say thanks for the donation. Pray for us,
Yours in the Bonds of Calvary,
Rev. Peter Bethely, Pastor
Mt. Pleasant Baptist Church

Dr. Williams:

I received your letter a few days ago which brought to me a most pleasant surprise. The check for $200.00 made me look to see if I was seeing right. I thank you for thinking of us in our struggle for financial aid. This will enhance our endeavor to support the Home Mission Board.

Yours in Christ,
Rev. M. T. Somerville
Enon Baptist Church
Media, Pa.

Dear Rev. Williams:

The general church join me in thanks to you and all of those who made it possible to send to our church's building fund treasury the sum of $100.00 which is a fine aid to us at this time as I am assured that you are aware of our struggle.

I was not able to join you at our Winter Board meeting last month, and neither will I be able to see you at the Congress in June, but if it is in keeping with the will of God, I shall meet you at the Annual Session of our National Convention in St. Petersburg in September.

Again, may I say thanks for the fine contribution.

I remain Yours for the Cause of Christ,
Rev. M. D. Brown, Pastor
Greater Providence Missionary Baptist Ch.
576 Third Street
Newark, New Jersey

Dear Pastor Williams:

The St. Mark Baptist Church wishes to thank you and your staff for the donation to us during our disaster. It was highly appreciated and very much needed. Forgive us for taking so long to respond with this note.

Your in Christ,
Rev. E. C. Wilder, Pastor
Mrs. Addie Ward, Church Clk.

Rev. O. B. Williams:

"As each has received a gift, employ it for one another, as good stewards of God's varied grace." I Peter 4:10.

Well, gentlemen, you certainly made contact with us. The $100.00 you sent us was urgently needed. We humbly thank you for your donation.

We are sorry that it has taken us so long to write you, but our pastor has been gravely ill. However, by the prayers of the saints, and the grace of God, he has made a tremendous recovery. And also, we have moved from our old address of 1614 Florence Blvd., to 1624 North 24th Street.

Gentlemen, again, we thank you for encouraging us to continue to strive for our ultimate goal.

Your in Christ,
Miss Janis P. Parker, Church Clerk

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE EDUCATIONAL BOARD NATIONAL BAPTIST CONVENTION OF AMERICA

SEPTEMBER 10-14, 1969

ST. PETERSBURG, FLORIDA

DR. P. S. WILKINSON, Chairman

REV. PRESTON ALLEN, SR. Recording Secretary

DR. W. EARL HAUSEY, Secretary-Treasurer

To our President Dr. J. C. Sams, Vice Presidents, Officers of the National Baptist Convention of America Assembled in its 89th Annual Session. Chairman Dr. P. S. Wilkinson, officers and members of the Educational Board, Brothers and Sisters Greetings:

Grace, Mercy and Peace from God our Father and Jesus Christ our Elder Brother.

I truly count this a distinct privilege and above all a divine blessing to come before you to make my first annual report as Secretary-Treasurer of the Educational Board of this great Baptist Convention. First, permit me to say thanks to each pastor and church, non pastors, and laymen for the financial support, and sincere words of encouragement to me as I assumed this responsibility a year ago.

Permit me to say that I respect your intelligence that you are fully aware of the struggle of the church related schools to keep their doors open and function as educational communities. The world needs Christian institutions of higher education. This National Baptist Convention recognized the need of Christian schools, thus this Convention created a creature and named it the Educational Board, and assigned to this board the responsibility of appealing to the constituency of the convention to contribute to its aim and objectives to support the following schools, namely: Mary Allen College, Virginia Seminary and College, Conroe College, Mississippi Baptist Seminary, Easonion Baptist Seminary, Guadalupe Baptist Seminary, Morris College, Florida Normal & Industrial College, Union Baptist Theological Seminary and Liberty College.

I am an optimist, and I am optimistic about the support that this board will receive in the future.

As you recall in my message at the mid-winter board I proposed the following:

100 Churches to contribute $10.00 per month	$12,000.00
50 Churches to contribute $ 5.00 per month	3,000.00
10 State conventions and district associations to contribute $100.00 annually	1,000.00

With these monthly and annual contributions added to the funds received from the parent body would give us a representative amount to be distributed among our schools.

The 1968-69 Report of the Secretary-Treasurer of the National Baptist Publishing Board of the National Baptist Convention of America

Again, we are indeed grateful to God for the opportunity to greet you, the members of our National Baptist Publishing Board and the National Baptist Convention of America, and to offer this, our report for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1969.

May we first give homage to the esteemed Board members of the National Baptist Publishing Board, without whose cooperation, assistance and prayers, we could do nothing.

At the Publishing Board, we are continuing to write, produce and provide for you, our constituency, God's printed Word. We are endeavoring, with His help to improve our literature, both in appearance and content, so that you will continue to gain more knowledge of His Word and so that these books may reach many more of God's people.

We are indeed thankful that we were able to replace several pieces of obsolete equipment this year. Most especially are we thankful that God has blessed us to purchase a new two-color offset press. This will contribute greatly to you in receiving quarterlies that will appear attractive as they are informative. We are proud to report that all of the departments are continuing to move forward with one ultimate goal—to provide for you the best of service.

We ask that you allow us at this time to express our profound appreciation to you all for the opportunity to serve you. We thank you for that honor and shall continue, with God's help, to do our utmost to deserve your continued support.

Our financial report for the year ending June 30, 1969 is as follows:

RECOMMENDATION

Brother President—
I would like to recommend that we, the Convention consider working out a report blank or form to adequately facilitate the financial reports of our convention. Thus enhancing our work and making it possible for a more adequate and efficient auditor's report.

PROPOSED RETIREMENT PLAN for THE NATIONAL BAPTIST CONVENTION OF AMERICA

Submitted by

INTER AMERICAN LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY
400 N. ST. PAUL DALLAS, TEXAS 75201

June 1, 1969

To: The National Baptist Convention of America
Dr. James Carl Sams, President

Gentlemen:

We submit herewith our retirement plan for your approval.

Inter American Life Insurance Company is an inter-racial company with its main office in Dallas, Texas. The Company has a reinsurance contract with Connecticut General Life Insurance Company.

We propose to have premiums collected by the Convention's Benevolent Board. Inter American will pay for secretarial cost to keep the records and handle all correspondence relating to this plan. Inter American will pay for all material to be used to promote the plan and all mailing costs.

Through our computer system, our company will report monthly the status of each person in the plan. Our company will report yearly the cash available on each individual yearly account for each member for retirement.

If there are any questions, I shall be pleased to have a representative made available to you at anytime.

Very truly yours,
Rev. John J. Sass
President

History

The company commenced business as Oak Cliff Life Insurance Company in Dallas, Texas in 1957. Its name was changed to Inter American Life Insurance Company in 1967.

The company's business is run by an inter-racial management team and company policy is made by an inter-racial Board of Directors. (See list of Officers and Directors which is a part of this presentation.)

Because the National Baptist Convention of America will be dealing directly with the company, no agent's commissions will be paid and this saving is passed on to the policyholder.

Advantages of the Inter American Plan

Retirement Plan

1. The policy making Board of Directors of Inter American is made up in part of ministers who understand and are aware of the problems of their fellow ministers.

2. Inter American is the only insurance company to our knowledge operating today which is completely integrated.
3. Retirement Benefits under our plan are much greater than under any other plan because Inter American pays no commissions and gives the extra benefits to the policyholder.
4. Retirement Benefits will be increased by dividends from Inter American.
5. Election of options may be made at time of retirement including all cash in a lump sum, or part cash, part annuity, etc.
6. There are no additional charges of any kind.
7. Inter American pays the expense of administering the plan in the designated office of The National Baptist Convention of America.
8. An eligible person may join at any time and make changes in premium payments without additional charge.
9. Each policyholder may choose either the $25 per month, $30 per month, $50 per month plan or any premium he desires to pay. $25 per month is the minimum that may be applied for. The benefits payable are shown in the tables printed hereinafter.

Life Insurance Plan

1. Low Group Term Premium of $1.50 per month for $1,000 on the life of the insured until age 65 and $500 of term insurance after the age of 65. (The same benefits are also payable to the Convention at no extra cost.) Additional coverage may be secured at the rate of $1.00 per month per thousand to a maximum of $5,000 per insured.
2. The death benefits are payable in lump sum or monthly payments as chosen by the beneficiary.
3. Beneficiary may be changed by the insured at anytime.
4. If a policyholder becomes totally disabled before reaching the age of 60, insurance premiums are waived until coverage ceases.
5. If employment is ended for any reason, the policy is convertible to an individual policy at regular rates regardless of physical condition.
6. Dividends, when earned, increase death benefits.
7. No physical examination will be required for persons under 69½ if employees, ministers, and educators are willing to join the plan within a period of eighteen months. Policies will take effect within 30 days of receipt of application.
8. The National Baptist Convention of America will pay $6.00 annually of the premium for each person joining the plan.

Retirement Plan

1. All Ministers, Educators, and salaried church employees are eligible for the retirement plan. All other lay people who are members of the Church are eligible for the annuity portion of the retirement plan and the Inter American Church Member Life Insurance Plan.
2. Retirement may take place at the policyholder's option anytime between the ages of 60 and 75.
3. The following options may be chosen at anytime up to the date of retirement.
 - A. Life Annuity—Payments are made monthly to the individual after he retires until his death. There are no payments after death.
 - B. Ten Year Certain and Life Annuity—payments are made monthly to the individual after he retires until his death with a guarantee of payments for at least 10 years (120 months). If the individual dies in 2 years, for example

8 years of payment would be made to his beneficiary. This same arrangement is available with a 15 or 20 year guarantee of payments.

C. Survivor Annuity—payments are made to the individual until his death and then are continued to his widow for the remainder of her life.

D. Ten Year Certain Annuity—payments are made monthly to the individual but for a maximum of 10 years. If he dies in less than 10 years, the balance of the payment is made to his beneficiary.

E. Cash Lump Sum—In lieu of monthly payments, the individual can elect to receive a cash lump sum. Also, he can elect to receive part of his accumulation in cash and part as an annuity in monthly payments under any of the above options.

4. If the policyholder dies before retirement the beneficiary will receive the face value of the insurance policy and the cash value of the annuity.
5. If the policyholder dies after retirement, the beneficiary will receive the face value of the insurance policy and the death benefit under option selected at the time of retirement.
6. All death benefits are payable under any of the options set forth in paragraph 3.
7. A policyholder who becomes totally and permanently disabled may elect to receive a lump sum equal to the cash value or an income beginning at once under any of the options described in paragraph 3.
8. At the termination of employment, prior to retirement the policyholder will receive a paid up retirement benefit, or his cash value, if elected.
9. An annual individual statement will be supplied each policyholder without cost.

Aims of the National Baptist Convention of America

1. The National Baptist Convention of America has advised Inter American Life Insurance Company that it is recommending that its member churches provide retirement protection for their pastors. The minimum program recommended costs $312 yearly. This is only $26 per month. As an example of benefits for this premium, a 40 year old pastor entering the program and retiring at age 65 will receive $120 per month or a lump sum of $16,375. In addition, he will be covered by a $1,000 life policy in the event death occurs before age 65, and $500 thereafter. The amount of monthly benefits to be received upon retirement can be proportionally increased by larger annual deposits.
2. The Inter American Life Insurance Company has been advised that the National Baptist Convention of America intends to deposit a minimum of $5,000 per year in a Retirement Fund to be used to supplement the retirement benefits of persons enrolled in this program who have participated in this program a minimum of 5 years. A basic monthly benefit of at least $100 will be provided to those persons enrolled in this program whose benefits are less than a $100.

HOSPITALITY

To the pastor, Reverend Frank Cubby and members of Galilee Baptist Church; Citizens of St. Petersburg, Florida. Since being in your city, it is quite easy to see why Your City has been chosen by so many as a place for Retirement. The setting is heavenly, with the Gulf as a back-drop to the Greenery surrounding you, together with the Tropical Weather that governs the atmosphere. It seems to us who are not from this Section, that you have been most beautifully arrayed. We would feel cheated, were it not for the words of our Master that states, "Your heavenly Father knoweth what things ye have need of." Our stay here has been a fruitful one largely because of your Christ like Service. We the members of the Woman's Auxiliary to the National Baptist Convention of America have been blest of God through you. As we take our leave of your fair city, of your Churches and Homes, President Thompson and the Women's Auxiliary should like this Prayer from us to you be a bond between us. I quote, "May the Lord Bless You, May the Face of the Lord shine upon you and give you Peace. Done by the orders of the Convention."

Mrs. Luke W. Mingo, secretary

THE WITNESSING CHURCH

Today we have recognized more than ever before of the turmoil of this age of anxiety, frustration and semi-chaos. We are caught amidst the vice of materialism and notoriety; war, strife, envy and bigotry are rampant. This age is one of challenge, our search for knowledge without God is one of frustration and despair. Space gadgets, missiles and rockets are not the answer we seek for the quest of strength needed. Let us look at the phraseology of the Theme: Consider first the word Witnessing. In as much as a witness is one who testifies of what he has seen, heard or experienced personally. Witnessing is therefore the act of giving a substantial testimony; in order to determine the validity of a matter or case knowledge is required.

What is a Church? A Church is a congregation of baptized believers in Christ associated by covenant in the faith and fellowship of the Gospel; observing the ordinances of Christ; governed by His laws, and exercising the gifts, rights and privileges invested in them by His word. It is a group of people called out of the world and dedicated to God through Jesus Christ as Mediator. The Church in the ideal sense is always a witnessing church. Where there is no witness, there is no Church, for the church is made up of people who are witnessing for Christ. There in is a sense in which the church itself is a witness. It must not cease to answer the description as the body of Christ.

In the expression, "Witnessing Church," we have not only the Christian Vocation, but in the area of spiritual economy, we have the personality and the position. The Church is the personality of Christ, and Witnessing is the job or position of the Church, both individually and collectively. In order to substantiate that fact, let us read Acts 1:8, "And ye shall be witnesses unto me both in Jerusalem, and all Judea, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth. We are Missionaries and witnessing is our Mission; In Judea, national-mission; In Samaria, International-mission; and unto the uttermost part of the earth, World or Universal-mission. Therefore the Church is commanded by Christ to witness wherever there is a man in need of Salvation.

In the apostolic commission we are commanded to go into all the world and give our testimony of the power of Christ to Save, and of our Faith in Him as Saviour, and of the wonderful working of His love, spirit and power in our lives: For this He has promised to be with us always, even unto the end of the World. Are you playing your role as an important part of the Church of Christ? Are you doing all that is in your power to see that the Church, where you are a member; is not just merely a nominal Church? but a church that is fulfilling the purpose of its existence, giving testimony to a sin sick world that is substantial and convincing. In order for a Church to be a Witnessing Church, It must not lose its Christ-like Identity as the separated, the called out, and a peculiar people of God.

NOW IS THE TIME FOR DECISION

To our president, officers, and all assembled, I am thoroughly convinced that as we seriously consider the subject for this symposium. "Now is the time for decision" I voice the sentiment of all local presidents throughout America when I say that our subject is very appropriate, and a challenge to every Christian missionary woman.

When we consider the meaning of the word "Decision"—we find that it comes from the word "Decide," which means the cutting off of doubt; free from wavering; it means to be determined. In other words, when one is determined, he forms a conclusion by making up his mind. The term "Now" means at the present time; and under the present circumstances. Now is the time for us to make up our minds in this Space age. We marvel at man's marvelous intellect to go to the moon; and yet on earth human life is growing cheaper each day, as professed Christians, we are so void of love and compassion for one another. If we really accept the fact that Now Is The Time For Decision, we will let God's word be a reality in our daily living. He has promised to use and bless His Word. It shall not return unto Me void, says Isaiah 55:11b. The Holy Spirit is hindered where there is no knowledge of the word of God. Use God's word on sinners and the Spirit will do the rest. If we carefully consider the 7th chapter of Matthew verses 7-12, we are given a familiar formula that will prove most helpful in helping us to accept that "Now is the time for Decision." Here we are admonished to "Ask," "Seek," and "Knock." Also in this formula He says, "If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children, how much more shall your Father which is in Heaven give good things to them that ask Him? One of the most significant foundations for Christian living is found in this important verse, "Therefore all things, whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them, for this is the law and the prophets. Whether we wish to accept it or not, here lies the answer to some of our basic problems that form the so called "Generation-Gap." Our young people today are bold, forthright, frank and honest in having us know that they want to see a Sermon rather than hear one. Now is the time to decide to stop talking our religion, and start living it. Studying the word is positively necessary; living a Christian life is also necessary if we can accept the third foundation, which is a New Heart. No scientific achievement has attracted more interest in our day than the transplanting of a human heart. No doubt in future years we will see people walking around whose blood is sent streaming through their bodies by the heart of another person. "The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately corrupt; who can understand it? Jeremiah 17:10 Jesus tells us the symptoms of this condition: Out of the heart come evil thoughts, murder, adultery, fornication, theft, false witness, slander. (Matthew 15:19) Looking down the ages, the Apostle John tells us of God's revelation: "All the Churches shall know that I am He who searches mind and heart, and I will give to each of you as your works deserve. (Revelation 2:23) What Christ offers is not a healed heart, but a New Heart. His work is one of Creation, not Medication.

David sensed this when he prayed, "Create in me a clean heart

O God, and put a new and right spirit within me." (Psalms 51:10)
 Finally our task in this time of Decision is to win souls. We have to keep fighting on this Christian Battlefield. If we could accept these challenges, each of us would become rededicated by admitting that the real light of the Christian gospel is not burned in a church building; but, living out the Christian experience is done in homes, on school campuses, in parks, and playgrounds; on highways, on the streets and wherever we find ourselves. Because Now Is The Time For Decision, let us decide at this moment to atune our hearts with the lines of the song writer who said: "I have decided to follow Jesus, No turning back—No turning back."

GOD GIVE US COURAGE

God, give us courage as we rise to sing. Courage to follow Jesus Christ our King: Into a world that cries out in need; Bringing it love through every word and deed!

Problems and fears, decisions to be made, They dim our lives and make our courage fade. Help us to face with purpose, each new day. Seeing it clearly, Thou wilt point the Way—To turn fear to Faith—To turn anxiety to Hope—To turn tension to Inner-Peace! Shall we Pray—Come, Holy Spirit, help us to be reborn. Fill us with power and our lives transform.—Give us the Courage now, to do Thy Will, in each new day Thy purpose to fulfill.

HISTORIAN'S REPORT

President Thompson, officers and members of the Woman's Auxiliary to the National Baptist Convention of America.

We are truly grateful to a loving and all powerful God, for permitting us to assemble again in this our great convention. Many things have happened during this past year, the first, being that our beloved president, Dr. M. A. B. Fuller, decided to hand over the reins to a younger woman, we will always keep a warm spot in our hearts for her, who for 40 years served faithfully and well as president.

President Fannie C. Thompson, who walked beside Sister Fuller for 10 years has already shown that she is a capable, Christian leader, and intends to build on the sound foundation already laid. Being a Floridian myself, I must mention how proud the entire State of Florida is at having our Sister Gladys C. Vaught, elected first Vice President. We know that she can and will be an asset to both President Thompson and the Convention, and together with the other officers the Woman's Convention will accomplish much good for Christ.

Since our meeting last September in San Antonio, Texas it has been our privilege to journey to the far west, Phoenix, Arizona in February, where a grand session of the mid-winter Executive board was held. From Arizona we made our way to Chicago, Illinois, in June where a great host of workers met in our National Baptist Sunday School and Baptist Training Union Congress, during which the Executive board met to make the program for this session. Our next step is to the Baptist World Alliance in Tokyo, Japan in 1970. Our Convention is growing every day and we are asking every sister to help keep it growing. Let each of us pledge anew to do all the good we can, for Christ and His Kingdom.

STATISTICIAN'S STATEMENT

To the Woman's Auxiliary of the National Baptist Convention of America: The President, Sister Fannie C. Thompson, is depending on me as your statistician to present significant information of the convention. Through unselfish devotion and courage, Sister Thompson's sacrifices have known no bound as she works for the upbuilding of God's Kingdom. It is her wish for us to keep the auxiliaries alive in our local and district societies; and that your report be sent to the statistician by June 1st each year.

I urge all presidents to procure their data for tabulation annually, so that the work may be complete in every way. I am hoping and praying that we will not fail our president because she needs the support of all the auxiliaries.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Mrs. Fannie C. Thompson

The Challenge of Christian Missions in A Space Age: 1st Timothy 4:14, 15.

The great forces of our World today have as their ultimate aim, the conquering of space beyond the earth. Their concept is so deep-rooted that there is no possible avenue being unused, and there has gone out the determination to start early searching for and discovering youth who have scientific inclinations, giving advantage of chance for development. This has alerted every mother and father to be on strict notice of any inclination in the realm of science by their children, harboring within their breast the desire to have their child as it grows, develop into one of; if not the world's greatest, the eyes of the world are in search for any one, regardless of race, creed or color, who can possibly add to the wealth of knowledge already at hand. This makes for unified interest in what is believed to be the most important trend of this space age.

But the Church of God, which has survived the onslaughts of evil from every area of God's earth is still calling for unified interest in its growth and development. The forces of the church should lead in the conquest of not outer-space, but the space within where men must learn more about God and His Will, and must constantly keep searching for any one who can give more light on this age-old project.

There must be religious scientists who will acclaim God's law above any other, and who will endeavor to formulate plans whereby the youth of our land will be able to realize God's power and importance. There must be an awakening trend toward the road that leads to the Church, to God and whatever can be strengthened to make us love our neighbor as ourselves. Christian Mission in our world today faces a world of changes, Christianity and provincialism are incompatible. The Christian person endeavors to perceive the world as a single unit, and to minimize the existing barriers that are partly natural and partly artificial. Yet day after day, week after week, and year after year, our minds are bombarded with claims upon our loyalties that would limit our horizons. Obligation to our local churches, the cry for economic success, claims of national pride, and pressure for military supremacy all constantly confront us and become powerful centers of interest. What are some of these forces, tensions, and trends today in the midst of which the Christian faith must voice its conviction? "A Missile perspective," of this earth would allow us to free our minds of the limiting barriers of life and to search for New Dimensions. A Christian minister, to effectively preach the gospel of Christ and make his witness today, must know as much as he can about human life and patterns of living throughout the Nation and the world. Thus, the witness of his own inner experiences will be greatly enriched and Christian mission involvement more effectively communicated.

There is too much complacency among us in the belief that our material life will grow, as our capabilities force them to grow. The idea that man can be successful if he is capable, with or without God, has proven a great calamity to the world today. Nations must, while turning toward outer space, also hold fast to the inevitable fact that "The earth is the Lord's and all that is in it," there can be no secure peace nor prestige unless man recognize the supremacy of God, and leads his children in that belief.

FAMILY LIFE

First there must be a remodeling of the ties that bind families. With each going his separate way, and in many cases the children going as they please, there has arisen a wall of selfishness, distrust and non-cooperation right in the best of our homes today. If we could go back to the assembling together for meals, begun with the sacred blessing from God; if we could enlighten each family to their responsibility in the religious training of the members of their families; if parents could not only pray for the safe delivery of their children and the health and strength of mothers in that trying hour, but keep on praying that God's guidance will influence them each step of the way in the life and growth of their children, if parents would not only be interested in what is accomplished in each work day that will enhance the material benefits of home, but will become just as interested in what happens on the Lord's day, that will influence the child toward loving and serving God in the way that will give him spiritual growth which is the basis for living, we will have conquered.

A WITNESSING MISSION

A second generation missionary stood talking with an African pastor in one of the "Mushrooming" cities which are now more typical than jungles on the dark continent. A man with ragged clothes and a small cloth bundle approached timidly and ask them: "Can you help me find my brother? He told me that if I would come to the city, I could get work as he has. I have come a long distance on the train from my village. He said he would meet me at the station, but he has not come. For two days I have waited without food or money. People told me to come to you, that you would help me. My Christian friends, this is the plea of millions around the globe today, men and women without food or friends, without home or hope. Uprooted in a world they never made, a world which frightens and bewilders, they confront the terrors of automobiles, skyscrapers, and race prejudice. In their search for adjustment to a technological society, for jobs in factories or mines, they have abandoned the social, psychological, moral and spiritual security which they knew in the family, the caste and the tribe. Despite the efforts of most governments to meet basic material needs, there will always be room for private and personal compassion. People of the world still turn for help from the followers of Jesus Christ, who came not to be ministered unto, but to minister.

And above all, the cry comes to the Church with symbolic urgency: "Can you help me find my brother?" Men are often socially and spiritually lost, even in the midst of physical security. Here is the ultimate aim of the Christian mission: the ministry of reconciliation and love. Of course the church exists for worship and education and fellowship among its members. But unless these purposes flourish within a world neighborhood, unless they provide a dynamic incentive for service, unless they reach out continuously and spontaneously to others, they are sterile and treasonable to the Lord of all.

FACING THE CHALLENGE

How much of the fault lies in the attitudes and practices of American Christianity? We affirm our belief in "the One God, Maker and Ruler of all things, Father of all men, the Source of all goodness and beauty, all truth and love." Yet every day we put our lives into separate compartments and try to hide the key:

These things write I unto thee, hoping to come unto thee shortly: But if I tarry long, that thou mayest know how thou oughtest to behave thyself in the house of God, which is the Church of the living God, the pillar and ground of the truth. 1st Timothy 3:14-15

It is embarrassing even to admit that the God of Sunday morning worship is also Lord of the office, the grocery store, the golf course, the kitchen. To many people, Christianity—if it presumed to guide our words or deeds in these places would be not only an irrelevance, but an impertinence. Does the ultimate end of our quest result in man's intelligence and ingenuity? Can the world through imperfect creatures find the answer that shall be lasting, undeniable, and secure? With man's feeble and limited ability that's often hindered by disease, pestilence, sickness and finally death, can the present age be served by the attitude of status quo? Will yesterday's solution be the answer for this space age? Jesus, the express image of truth and God, challenges us to a worthy consideration in the words He spoke when He said "I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me." (John 14:6b)

Amid the difficulties and challenges of a changing world and the new winds blowing in the Church, the spread of the gospel is hampered also by inadequacies of missionaries and mission leaders. Contrary to some glorified popular impressions, the workers are quite human, subject to weakness, error, and failure. In spite of these limitations, the Missions Cause can and does move forward even in Times like These.

A TRIP TO THE MOON

As we face the great challenge of Christian Missions in our world today, we must remember that it maybe alright to go to the moon. But the love of God in the hearts of men is much more important. Yes, Christian women must be witnesses to the facts concerning Christ, so far as we know and have the power and opportunity. Except for the Christian Church, the name of Christ would surely disappear. And it came to pass, while He blessed them, He was parted from them, and carried up into heaven. Luke 24:51

A few days ago the world joined America in the history making event of landing two men on the moon; upon their return, President Nixon not only put the red carpet out for the Astronauts, but, he killed the fatted calf and held the high price feast. Men from all parts of the world were invited to share in the great celebration.

This was all fine and good, but I would like to get on a world network today and tell men everywhere, about the first Astronaut. The one who made his space ship out of a pillow of cloud, with the remote control in his hand. Without flame or smoke, He went on back home, a home beyond the moon, a home eternal in the heaven. He had a safe landing. My Christian friends, we are challenged today to tell men on the mountain, tell them on the highway, tell them everywhere, that Jesus, Astronaut number one will soon return on the same space ship, and He will have a perfect splash down. Will you be ready to meet Him?

RESOLUTIONS FROM YOUTH AUXILIARY TO THE PARENT BODY

St. Petersburg, Fla.—September 1969

President Sams, Dr. Byrd and Dr. Price, to our Youth President Rev. Sutton and our supervisor Rev. E. Pleasant and official staff and members of the National Baptist Convention of America, we the National Baptist Youth Convention resolve the following:

1. We resolve to have a National Baptist Youth Convention chorus, consisting of delegates from our Youth Auxiliary.

2. We also resolve that the program made up by the Parent body, and other important communications pertaining to the Youth Convention be sent to the district and state counselors at an appropriate time.

3. We resolve that the Youth Convention be closer to the Parent body, preferably in the same building.

4. We resolve that young men hair cuts be appropriate to a Christian youth including the natural hair look worn to our convention, and also young ladies should wear an appropriate length of dress including mini skirts.

5. We further resolve that the workshop held this year was an inspiration to all. We would like for the workshop to become a permanent part of the National Baptist Youth Auxiliary of America.

Humbly submitted,

The Resolution Committee of the National Youth Convention of America

NURSES' CORPS AUXILIARY OF
NATIONAL BAPTIST CONVENTION OF AMERICA
ANNUAL ADDRESS

By

PRESIDENT: RUBY G. ROWE

To the Vice Presidents, Officers, Messengers, Co-Workers and Friends of the Nurses' Corps Auxiliary of the National Baptist Convention of America:

GREETINGS: in the name of our Lord and Christ. We come before you at this time, with a deep concern and a great compassion for the Nurses' Corps of this Convention and the work of the Kingdom in our time. Let us forget yesterday for it is past, make use of today for it is present, tomorrow never comes. We do not know what the future holds for us, but I do know HIM who holds the future.

Let us take time to thank Our Heavenly Father for permitting those of us who have come across the many miles with HIS Hand of mercy over us another twelve months, for there are some of whom have ceased to travel this way and witness this assembly today.

We have attended two Board Meetings, one in Phoenix, Arizona and the other one in Chicago, Illinois. Several members of the official staff attended the Mid-Winter Board held in Phoenix, Arizona, and many sent in their representations. We wish to pause here to thank our President Ex-Officio, Dr. J. S. Sams for the loyal support given to the Nurses' Corps at the Mid-Winter Board, which was an inspiration. We are also grateful to God for the progress made by our Field-Workers as many of them along with our officers attended the board meeting in Chicago, Illinois and assisted in the planning of the program for this Session now in progress. May we congratulate and thank our new Florida State President, Mrs. S. W. Grimsley and a field worker who has labored untiringly. And, to all of you my gratitude to you is beyond expression. In coincidence with the General Theme of the Convention, let us elaborate on Witness Constantly: Every Christian is to be a witness. You are too. "Ye shall be witnesses unto Me," were among the Christ's last words before HIS Ascension (Acts 1:8). In fact, this is the God-ordained method by which the story of the Gospel is to be carried forward. Now witnessing is a simple thing. God has not asked us to do something difficult. But you have a part too, and a vital part. God will not force you into acceptance of HIS plan. He awaits the assent of your willingness. Your part is to desire earnestly the operation of HIS plan in your life. You are to "present" yourself. He suggests in (Romans 12:1), I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God which is your reasonable service.

Witnessing simply means telling what you have seen and experienced. Before we accepted Christ, we were sinners, lost and helpless. Christ fulfilled HIS promise and today life is glorious for us and it is all because of HIM.

Since witnessing is merely telling the story as the world is full of sin-sick folk who are burdened, God wants to lift the burdens, but the sinner must turn to Christ. Church Nurses, here is an opportunity as a witness, as you tell what Christ has done for you. You will awaken a desire on the sinner's part to know the same forgiveness and peace. God will do the work, but HE plans to work through you.

There are various ways of witnessing. Your life is a great potential for God, if it is seen that there is something wonderfully different about you. Then, you will be silently witnessing everywhere you go. If the Lord's presence is clearly seen in your actions and attitudes, it will not be long until others will be convicted of their need for the Lord too.

To the Florida State Nurses:

We the nurses of the National Baptist Convention wish to express ourselves to you for the very fine manner in which you manifested your hospitality to us. Your generosity in your manner of service to all was superbly enhanced.

Each day you gave us something to look forward to, and we would wonder what was the next surprise. It was always a pleasure to see your smiling faces, for they shined as the radiant sun rays.

The Florida Orange Juice that was served each morning gave us just the vitamins we needed for the day's journey. How refreshing and delicately to the last drop. We shall never forget the Orange Sip. Being reminded of the wonderful Orange State, you gave us each an orange tree plant.

Our thanks to Mrs. Shirley Grimsley, as a new comer to our auxiliary for her outstanding hard work. The total of 2,126 miles you traveled proved to be successful ones. We feel you shall be greatly rewarded. May the Lord ever guide and protect you as you go about His work.

May we say to all of you, we pray God's Blessings upon you each and every one. We are sure your state is proud of you as we are.

So again we repeat our many, many thanks to you for being so very nice.

Mrs. Ernestine Simms

To the National Nurses as a whole, may I say I look forward to your smiling faces each year. Your smiles and encouraging words give me a double determination to try to give to you my best every year. If there are any mistakes that I've made, they were not done intentional.

Please accept all mistakes for the LOVE I have for you.

SPECIAL from your secretary Simms
