HISTORICAL REFERENCE

April 5, 1886, an open letter to the Baptist Clergy and laymen was issued by the Rev. Wm. J. Simmons in the American Baptist asking if we should have a National Baptist Convention to discuss questions of interest to our beloved denomination. At that time the following reasons were given.

1. To promote personal piety, sociability, and a better knowledge of each other.
2. To be able to have an understanding as to the great ends to be reached by the Denomination.
3. To encourage our literary men and women and to promote the interest of Baptist literature.
4. To discuss questions pertaining to especially the religious educational, industrial and social interest of our people.
5. To give an opportunity for the best thinkers and writers to be heard.
6. That, united, we may be more powerful for good and strengthen our pride in the Denomination.

Having been solicited to write the call by many whose names and endorsement are hereunto affixed, the call is hereby made by their advice and solicitations for said Convention to meet in St. Louis, Missouri, August 25, 1886, 10:00 o'clock a.m. in the First Baptist Church, and the pastor thereof is hereby requested to serve as a Committee on Arrangement with power to select his associates. Wm. H. Seward, Louisville, Kentucky, and Rev. A. H. Cole, 2066 Goode Avenue, St. Louis, are hereby requested to serve as a committee on transportation.

Wm. J. Simmons

The Chronological report in our National Baptist Committee is hereby corrected viz.: The parties as they appear below were officers of the Foreign Mission or National Educational Convention as were their predecessors. Said Convention merged into the National Baptist Convention in 1886 or met jointly with it or otherwise.

NOTE: Articles-6-8 At the Executive Board in Phoenix, Arizona. Adopted by standing vote.

Brother President, Officers and Members, with deep concern and prayerful consideration and a firm belief in our living Christ and Lord and further believing that there is a more beneficial way of remembering the Saints of God than naming an organization of our living Lord after a finite creature, I suggest that we give careful and prayerful consideration to the Following: That Article 10, Section 1, as recommended by a special Committee on Constitution September 6, 1968, will read as follows under Auxiliaries:

1. There shall be a Senior Woman's Auxiliary No. 1;
- A Senior Woman's Auxiliary No. 2;
- A Jr. Women's Auxiliary;
- A National Baptist Brotherhood Union Auxiliary;
- A National Baptist Ushers Auxiliary;
- A National Baptist Nurses' Corps Auxiliary;
- All Auxiliaries of the National Baptist Convention of America.

If Section 1, Article 10 is accepted, I suggest Article 9, Section 10 that it be resolved that paragraph 2 under Foreign Mission read thus: That a special day be adopted by this Convention dedicated for Foreign Mission in honor of and be known as the M. A. B. Fuller Day.

Brother President, this is suggested in honor of the great work Mrs. M. A. B. Fuller has done in the Missionary cause and that a special offering should be sent under your designation either to the Convention Treasurer or the Foreign Mission Board in perpetuating the efforts made by her.

On the M. A. B. Fuller Day a special offering across this Nation should and could be taken and forwarded under your designation.

These recommendations are offered after much prayerful thought and I hope will find sympathetic consideration.

Yours sure of Eternal Life,
Dr. P. S. Wilkinson

NATIONAL BAPTIST CONVENTION OF AMERICA

In the year 1895, on the 28th day of September in Atlanta, Georgia, three Black Religious Conventions came together and formulated a plan that would unite them into one great congregation governed by one Constitution. The name National Baptist Convention was adopted, thus making it the largest Black organization in America, with a membership numbering in the millions. This, however, was a new name but not a new organization. It had its roots as early as 1880 in the form of the Baptist Foreign Mission Convention. Also involved were two other Conventions, The American Baptist Convention and the National Baptist Educational Convention. These three Conventions would meet simultaneously in the same location and worked in accordance with each other but had separate Constitutions. Therefore, the National Baptist Convention accepts 1880 as its starting date.

In 1896, Dr. Richard Henry Boyd established an institution in Nashville, Tennessee for the Publication of literature desired by the Sunday-School of the Convention. This also has become the oldest and largest Black owned and operated religious Printing Plant in America with a standing Book order of 5,100,000 books annually.

In 1915, a Convention split occurred from which an incorporated segment was born. The Mother Convention has always been unincorporated from the days of its very beginnings. This incorporated segment also has a Publishing House located in Nashville. Even after this tragic split in 1915, the National Baptist Convention (unincorporated), is still one of the largest organizations of Blacks in the Western hemisphere with a membership of 3,500,000 people.

Each year the Convention meets in September in a selected major city. It is composed of seven boards and seven auxiliaries. The boards consist of: The Foreign Mission Board, the Benevolent Board, the Baptist Training Union Board, the Evangelical Board, the National Baptist Publishing Board, Home Mission Board, and the Educational Board. The auxiliaries consist of: The Woman's Missionary Auxiliary, the Woman's Missionary Auxiliary No. 2, the Junior Women's Missionary Auxiliary, the Brotherhood Union, the Church Ushers, The Nurses Corps and the Youth Convention Auxiliary.

The National Baptist Publishing Board sponsors a National Sunday School and Baptist Training Union Congress as a school of methods for the constituents of the National Baptist Convention of America. It is also held in a selected major city annually in the month of June. The attendance for the three day class session exceeds 8,500, requiring an extremely large facility.

The overall purpose of the above mentioned organizations according to the Convention Constitution is to do mission work in the United States, Africa, and elsewhere abroad, to foster the cause of Education and to promote the Publication and Circulation of religious literature.

3rd ANNUAL REPORT OF THE COMMISSION ON TRANSPORTATION OF THE NATIONAL BAPTIST CONVENTION OF AMERICA

Rev. M. M. Malone
Chairman

Theme: "I HAVE BROUGHT THEE MY SON" Mark 9:17.

August 12, 1975
Philadelphia,
Pennsylvania

President Sams, Vice Presidents Byrd and Price, Officers and Messengers of the National Baptist Convention of America,

Greetings:

We are happy to bring to you the 3rd Annual Report of the Commission on Transportation.

We have come from the East and the West, from the North and the South, and I am sure that each of us have breathed a prayer of thanksgiving to God Almighty for the divine protection and safety that only He can give.

As we have previously stated from the outset, that it was our objective to get the largest number of people to the Convention in the most economical way possible, to travel in groups by chartered Buses etc. all over this nation, and we have urged the people in all of our cities to organize in groups.

We have suggested to many people to take their vacation at this particular time that they may be able to attend the Convention.

This year we pioneered in connection with the Brotherhood under this Commission and chartered a plane to come to this meeting, however, there are many groups that I have worked with personally in helping them to get organized to come on regular flights.

We are still working to find a better way to reach more people — the thing that I want most is for every member of this Convention to have in his possession an "ID" card, an identification card that the Airlines will honor and give us a special rate similar to the Clergy Certificates issued by the Railroad and Bus Companies.

We will need to have the strength and weight of the Convention behind us. It will be necessary for us to know the number of people who have enrolled in this Session and then we will have some figures to negotiate with.

We have made long distance calls over the nation and have done much traveling in the interest of this Commission and the people have been hospitable and cooperative in every respect.

As you know, we had to organize for our trip to the Baptist World Congress held in Sweden this year which I will say more about later in this message.

I would like to point out again our objective, which is, "to get you to the Convention in large numbers in the most economical way possible."

We have a table now for our Commission in hopes that you will stop by and register with us that we may put you on our mailing list.

We would also like to know by what means of transportation you used to come to this meeting in Philadelphia.

We would like to broaden this Commission that we may have representatives in all of the various sections of the country. Not for me, but for the good of our Convention.

Now I would like to take a few minutes to tell you about our trip to the Baptist World Congress held in Sweden.

I've had the privilege of attending the Baptist World Congress outside of the United States three times; in Brazil in 1960, in Japan in 1970 and this year in Sweden.

This by far, was the greatest trip I've ever had. In the group this Commission led there were 22 outstanding members of the Convention and the Lord blessed us marvelously.

There were approximately 250 people from our Convention in attendance including the Choir from the St. Stephens Baptist Church in Kansas City, Missouri with Dr. John W. Williams the Pastor.

After the meeting in Stockholm our group toured the Holy land which I am sure many of you have had the opportunity to do.

Personally, I wanted to "walk where Jesus walked. We drank water from Jacob's well we were baptized in the Sea of Galilee. I washed my face in the Jordan river and collected rocks from the dead sea.

We had the ordinance of the Lord's Supper administered in the Garden of Gethsemane went on to Paris and to London and held worship service in our Hotel on Sunday in London.

We saw the "Changing of Guards" in Buckingham Palace. We did not see the "Queen" but we were not disturbed because we knew the "KING" the Lord Jesus Christ.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON ORTHODOXY
THE THREENESS IN GOD

Dr. F. Benjamin Davis

The first Sunday after Pentecost or Whitsunday is emphasized by several branches of the Christian Church as Trinity Sunday. It has rightly become a day toward which the whole Christian year leads. The journey that starts at Advent, and proceeds through Easter and Whitsunday, reaches its triumphant end on Trinity Sunday; the score or more of Sundays that follow are dated "after Trinity."

Trinity Sunday celebrates a mystery, in the sense of being beyond all human knowledge. If the last great festival of the Christian year led us to worship a God whose nature could be fully comprehended it would lead us to one who would be too small to be God. For, if the infinite can be completely understood and comprehended by the finite, then the infinite is no longer infinite. Trinity Sunday calls us to rejoice in the mystery of God.

Belief in such doctrine as the Trinity can only come after a person is convinced that such truth has been revealed by the Eternal God Himself. It is not to be expected that a person can accept the doctrines taught in the Bible as true, without being first convinced that the Bible is the Word of God. We do not claim that it is possible to prove the truth of this Threeness in God by rational argument or by evidence external to the Bible, but perhaps a few words of explanation may remove some of the misunderstandings about this, perhaps, the most difficult of all the Christian doctrines to explain and to understand.

The definition given of this doctrine is "the New Hampshire Confession of Faith, revised at certain points, and with some additional articles growing out of certain needs" as contained in the Baptist Faith and Message.¹

"There is one and only one living and true God. He is an intelligent, spiritual, and personal Being, the Creator, Redeemer, Preserver, and

Ruler of the universe. God is infinite in holiness and all other perfections. To Him we owe the highest love, reverence, and obedience. The eternal God reveals Himself to us as Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, with distinct personal attributes, but without division of nature, essence, or being. God as Father reigns. Christ is the eternal Son of God. The Holy Spirit is the Spirit of God."²

What is meant by this definition is that the Christian God is one God, not three Gods, but that in this single Godhead there are three equal persons, God the Father, God the Son and God the Holy Spirit. We must admit at once that the human reason has extreme difficulty in even understanding how this can be true, and that the doctrine could never have been discovered by unaided human reason. We must accept the doctrine only because God has revealed it to us in the Bible. But though it is difficult to understand, that cannot be used as an argument against our accepting it as true, if God has revealed it. The very difficulty of understanding it lies in the fact that it is an attempt to explain the infinite nature of the hidden mysteries of God in finite language. There are many things in the world which are true but which cannot be understood. What is the real nature of electricity? What is life? What enables a human body to turn the same food into bone, teeth, flesh, and hair? These are a few of the questions which man has never been able to answer, and probably never will, but that fact does not affect their truth. They exist, and their existence does not depend upon our understanding them. In the same way the Triune God exists and His existence does not depend upon our understanding the mysteries of His nature.

We often hear it said that there is no doctrine of the Trinity in the Bible.³ This is true if one is looking for a formulation of the doctrine of the Trinity in technical terms. It is not true if one studies the accounts of Christian experience and Christian living in the Bible. Men and women knew what it meant to be brought to the Father, by the Son, through the Holy Spirit. They understood that; it was a fact in their experience of divine grace. Jewish Christians reminded Gentile Christians, "There is no barrier between us, because in Christ we both have access in one Spirit to the Father." (Eph. 2:18)

The formal doctrine of the Trinity was eventually stated because the ordinary Christians had for many years worshiped the Triune God and experienced his power, and left Christians down through the generations and today an example of how the Triune God may be known by all of us in life and in experience, whether or not it is our duty to study technical theological language. In short, you don't have to be a theologian to comprehend and know, and to know about, "the Threeness in God." In so far as we are Christians at all, it is because of what God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit has done for us and in us. The more a believer knows about the Bible and the experiences of the early Christians, the more he automatically "lives trinitarianly."

We must notice carefully that the message of this doctrine is a message about the One God. This doctrine witnesses to the unity or oneness of God. Those men of Israel who became the first Christians never, for a single moment, doubted the age-long certainty of Israel: "The Lord is ONE." As Christians, however, they knew how much more there is in that ONE-NESS than anyone had previously imagined. This may be a poor, but I hope, not a misleading way of describing what it meant for them to think and live "trinitarianly." The fact that the Bible reveals God's nature as a Trinity, helps us to understand Him as a self-conscious, loving Being, and adds new fullness and richness to our conception of Him. A great many illustrations are given of the Trinity, all of which never do full justice to the facts. It is said that fire has qualities such as light, heat and the power to consume combustibles, so God has three ways in which His activities appears, but this is only an imperfect analogy, and does not do full justice to the persons of the Godhead. Innumerable similar analogies could be given, but they are all imperfect and in reality explain nothing.

Reflecting on the doctrine of the Trinity, we are reminded that everything we know about Jesus, and everything we know about the Holy Spirit is truth about the One God. Whenever we think of God, the Holy Spirit is truth about the One God. Whenever we think of God, the Father, we must think also of the Son and of the Spirit. As Dr. Donald Baillie put it, "The God who was incarnate in Christ dwells in us through the Holy Spirit; and that is the secret of Christian life."⁴

Maybe the Apostle John was thinking about the same problem of the relationship of Father, Son, Spirit. Meditate on these few words out of many similar ones in the Bible: "By this know ye the Spirit of God: every spirit that confesseth that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is of God." I John 4:2. "Whosoever shall confess that Jesus is the Son of God, God dwelleth in him, and he in God." I John 4:15. "Whosoever denieth the Son the same hath not the Father; he that confesseth the Son hath the Father also." I John 2:23.

This may be the proper place to present an often used Scripture, which to me seems to be misunderstood by holders of nearly all points of view the trinitarians, the unitarians, and the "Jesus Only" Christians. I am using "Jesus Only" to communicate to the popular mind. This group of Christians belong in the Unitarian Camp, so to speak. The difference is that they, in varying degrees, comprehend the totality of the Godhead in or under the Second Person of the Holy Trinity rather than the First Person.

The familiar Scripture which is misunderstood is Matthew 28:19 - "baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit." This is misunderstood. Some Baptist and others speak about baptizing in the "name of the Father," in the "name of the Son," and in the "name of the Holy Spirit." Some Pentecostals and Apostolics go so far as to ask and answer. What is the name of the Father, which is merely a title? What is name of the Son, which is merely a title? And, what is the name of the Holy Spirit, which is no name? These Christian friends come up with the idea that the name of the Father is Jesus, the name of the Son, naturally is Jesus, and the name of the Holy Spirit which is sent in the Son's name, is Jesus. Why do people have to read into the Word of God rather than just taking what the Bible says?

Jesus said, baptizing them into the name, singular. What is the name? The perfect name is declared to us by Jesus Christ, our Lord, even "the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost;" all three parts are one name: Father, Son, Spirit. In this name is united and summed up all that was taught of in the Old Testament in the names revealed to patriarchs and prophets under the Old Covenant. The "name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost," only opens in its fullness what was taught in past, and under a veil, in the names "Elohim," "Jehovah," "El Shaddai," and "Adonai."

This New Testament name comes to us from the mouth of the risen Christ, and is yet revealed by Him to those, who having known Him after the flesh, and in His divided and partial manifestations. His will is that we should know Him, and that we are partakers of His very nature (2 Peter 1:4), thus called to reveal, not in word only, but in deed and life, something of that glory which is set before us in this last most wondrous name, of "the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit."

Let us then turn to this name. (John 17:26). First then "the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit," is one name," but "into the name, of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit." For, as He said to the Scribe, "The Lord our God is one Lord." (Mark 12:29). What this name therefore declares is ONE God, in what, for want of a better word, we call Three Persons; a "Father" who eternally produces Himself in His "Son," and by His "Spirit," and who, in His very being, even as in His works, is a witness of unity in plurality, and of a giving forth out of Himself, and a communion with Himself, which to our fallen senses seems well nigh impossible. We shall see what is involved in this Three-fold Name, as we look more closely.

What then does this name declare? God is Father, therefore there must be a son, and that the Father and Son are ONE in One Spirit.

This then is the crowning name, "Father, Son and Holy Spirit," the witness that there is in God all, and more than all, that the creature can need for its salvation, a Will in the "Father," who can never change, to bless and do us good, a Word in the "Son," who is no less changeless, to make us know the Father, and a Power in the "Holy Spirit," who is Almighty, to fulfill the WILL and WORD of GOD, until through judgment all things are made new.

We need the name in all its fullness, "Father, Son and Holy Spirit." We cannot take one part of it and deny the rest, without robbing God of His glory, and ourselves of the grace which He possesses for us. Such is the name, which sums up "that which may be known of God (Rom. 1:19), revealed by Christ Himself, to those who, having first known Him after the flesh, have come in due time, through fellowship, to see and know Him in resurrection also.

Thus in different measures and in different ways in the last great name of God, the name of "the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit," revealed and opened to believers; some apprehending it as it unveils vital relationships in God; some, as it meets the needs of His creatures, who have fallen from Him.

Here is richness of faith in God the Father, and in God the Son, and in God the Holy Spirit! This seems to be a kind of progressive revelation. We characteristically believe first in a Creator, then in Jesus Christ, and then in the Holy Spirit who came into the lives of the disciples at Pentecost.

The doctrine of the Trinity rightly affirms that God the Father is the ground of all existence, all truth and all hope, that Jesus Christ the Son of God is His WORD incarnate, and that the Holy Spirit is our present comforter, guide and enabling power. However, the traditional formulas concerning the Trinity have, by making a metaphysical mystery of it, produced a vast amount of needless speculation which is today quite unprofitable to renew. The truth concerning the relations of the three "persons" in the Trinity seems far less complicated and difficult of discovery and formulation than most theologians of past centuries have believed.

Perhaps no other hymn is more popular than the so-called doxology: "Praise God, from whom all blessings flow; Praise Him, all creatures here below; Praise Him above, ye heavenly host; Praise Father, Son and Holy Ghost!" Though few Baptists are able to give a detailed definition of the doctrine of the Trinity, faith in God as Father, Son, and Holy Spirit is part of the common Baptist heritage.

Baptists believe in the Holy Trinity because the one God, the God of Abraham and Isaac and Jacob, as the Old Testament likes to call Him, has revealed Himself in Scripture as Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

However, this experience of the Trinity points to the eternal Trinity; classical orthodoxy asserts that God was always three in one. This means that although the Son became man in Jesus Christ, this is not an evolution in God, but from all eternity God was Father, Son and Holy Spirit. This assertion of the eternity of the Trinity safeguards the Christian understanding of God against all pantheistic and mystical charges.

The doctrine of the Trinity is an attempt to express the reality of God and guard it against certain obvious and historical misunderstandings.

By affirming our belief in the Trinity we reject two prevalent interpretations as inadequate and false. (1) One is Unitarianism, the assertion that there is one God, but only one, rather than three persons. The Son is not God and neither is the Holy Spirit. This view was rejected very early in the history of the Christian faith, and the Baptist interpretation of Scripture has unanimously joined in this rejection. (2) The second prevalent interpretation removing this tension in God is known as Sabellianism, which was also rejected early in the history of the Christian Church. Sabellianism asserts that there is one God and that the Father, Son and Holy Spirit are merely three modes in which this one God appears. This view has been rejected because it denies the living encounter in God.

On the other hand, the doctrine of the Trinity protects the Orthodox Faith against any form of tri or three-theism. There are not three gods, but only one. Each person in the godhead is coeternal with the two other persons.

The doctrine of the Trinity does not dispel the mystery of God. It does not explain God. It is an effort on the part of the Christian Church to protect its witness to God against misinterpretation and perversion. The theologians of the early church who had a hand in defining these doctrines were not interested in mere speculation. They were not professors of philosophy, or even theology — actually, they were veterans of persecution who had often demonstrated their willingness to live and die for their faith. They insisted on this definition of the Trinity because they saw in it the only way to preserve all the confessions of the Christian faith about God. However, in order to understand this attitude we ought to keep in mind that these confessions appear in the context of worship and adoration. It is impossible to understand any assertion of the Bible Faith and, most especially, the confession of the Trinity, apart from the worshiping and praying community which makes the confession. The doctrine of the Trinity is for the Biblical Faith not abstract metaphysical speculation — but adoration and worship of the God who has revealed Himself in His Word: Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

The doctrine of the Trinity really reminds us that God is "personal in an incomprehensible way"; and indeed it is but a hint of the "inconceivable distinctions in God himself, and especially of the paradox of the revelation to man of a God who according to His essence cannot be revealed to man."

The doctrine of the Trinity must stand for real distinctions in God, and, moreover, for the kind of distinctions on which orthodox belief has always insisted: the three Persons are not three parts of God, and yet they are not mere attributes, or shifting aspects, relative to our apprehension, or arbitrarily selected from among others, but are the eternal being of the God who has revealed Himself to us in Christ and dwells in us by the Holy Spirit. Thus, God is a Trinity in Unity, and social organism inspired by mutual love.

Thus the paradoxical Christian knowledge of God inevitably came to be expressed in the Trinitarian form: God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Spirit, three in one. Not in the sense of three successive parts played by God, or three successive phases of His being, as the Modalists of the third century sometimes said; for God was and is ever the same, and it is the same Holy Spirit who inspired the Old Testament prophets that can take the things of Christ and show them to us. Nor, again, in the sense of a symmetrical triad of Persons with quite separate functions. We do not exhaust the truth of the matter by saying that while God the Father reigns eternally on high, God the Son was incarnate in Jesus on earth, and God the Holy Spirit dwells in us. The New Testament can also speak of God the Father dwelling in Christ, and of the Holy Spirit, being given to Christ; and it can speak of God the Father dwelling in us and we in Him, and of Christ dwelling in us, and we in Him.

These revelations are not the work of three individuals, however closely united in harmonious purpose. They are the work of one God.

Let us examine the relationship of God — as Father, as Son, and as Holy Spirit. It is a relation — not of speculation or metaphysics.

It is important to recognize at once that the Trinity is, in the first instance, not a dogma of theology at all but a datum of experience. Historically the Trinity of experience long antedates the Trinity of Dogma. Hodgson's striking epigram: "Christianity began as a trinitarian religion with a unitarian theology."⁵

The threefold designation of God as Father, Son and Holy Spirit is present within the New Testament in two crucial passages of immense influence upon Early Christianity — the Great Commission and Baptismal Formula attributed to the Risen Christ which concludes Paul's Second Letter to the Corinthians (13:14) – and that these two "trinitarian" phrases worked their way into the heart of Christian thinking through frequent repetition in the worship of the Christian Churches, worship which sought to voice not what theologians presumed to be true of the Being of God but what ordinary Christians knew to be true of their experience of God.

Likewise, that the three-fold distinction was a constitutive element of Paul's most creative and central teaching, as in Romans 8, and of the Fourth Gospel in the crucial passages which places on the lips of Jesus the promise of the Counselor, the Spirit of truth, whom the Father will send in His name and who will bear witness to Him and guide His followers into all truth. (John 14:15-26; 15:26-27; 16:7-15) And these great passages in both Paul and John are, again, declarations of experience, of what was already most assuredly known to be fact in the life of the First-century Christians.

Whatever we make of the Trinity of Dogma, the Trinity of Experience remains. Indeed, the crucial question in all speculation thought about the Trinity in precisely this: whether it is legitimate indeed necessary, to recognize as true of the inmost reality of the Divine Being distinctions which are indisputably real within our experience of the Divine Being. It has been well said:

"The story of the Trinity in ecclesiastical history is the story of the transition from the Trinity of experience, in which God is self-revealed as the Father or Creator and Legislator, the Son or Redeemer, and the Spirit or sanctifier, to the Trinity of dogma, in which the three-fold self-disclosure of God is but the reflexion, as it were, of a threefold distinction within the Divine Nature itself."⁶

The doctrine of the Trinity, then is not basically an attempt to force upon Christianity credulity an unintelligible and incredible speculation regarding Ultimate Reality; it is the effort to discover what must be true of Ultimate Reality because of what our experience of that Reality tells us.

Affirmation of the Trinity and some attempt to explain it are an inevitable and inescapable corollary of Christian certitude.

s Leonard Hodgson, The Doctrine of the Trinity, p. 103.

The doctrine is demanded by New Testament faith. It is a summing-up of the New Testament experience of faith. It is not an exotic something added to New Testament Christianity by later generations.

Yet, we must begin, rightly, with an honest and humble confession of the incomprehensibility of the Divine Nature and the limitations of human speculation. The doctrine of the Trinity did not come out of the rarefied atmosphere of some professional theologians' study. It is not something a few learned doctors imposed upon the church. (a) It is the product of deep religious experience on the part of the rank and file of Christian believers. (b) The doctrine of the Trinity is, of course, beyond our intellectual comprehension.

We must conclude with the fact that the doctrine of the Trinity rightly affirms that God the Father is the ground of all existence, all truth and all hope, that Jesus Christ the Son of God is His Word incarnate, and that the Holy Spirit is our present comforter, guide and enabling power. The more we study the New Testament, the truth concerning the relations of the three "persons" in the Trinity seems far less complicated and difficult of discovery and formulation than most theologians of past centuries have believed. We must never forget that the original root of the doctrine was, in the experiences recorded in the New Testament, the mighty impact of Jesus Christ upon their lives, and the Holy Spirit, as they called this new experience or the God newly known in this experience, was indubitably new. Yet, God was one of that they were sure. These three truths, the newness of God in Christ, and in the Holy Spirit, and the identification of that God with the only true God long known as Creator and Judge, must at all cost be preserved.

REPORT ON COMMISSION ON THE CHRISTIAN MINISTRY

President Sams, Vice Presidents Byrd and Price, Officers, and Messengers to this 95th Annual Session of the National Baptist Convention of America.

Today is our finest hour to proclaim God's eternal word through three major phases of ministry, preaching, pastoring and teaching, I was touched by reading the seven worlds of the minister by Gerald Kennedy. In his book he writes about each with conviction, courage and commitment. Time will not allow me to review or speak on the full content of each, but they speak to each of us who are called of God to fulfill his Commission. Jesus came preaching, teaching and healing. The Theme of our Commission on the Christian Ministry last year was "Tomorrow Is Here" emphasizing our need for continued education. If a minister wants his continuing education to have payoff, personally and in the life of the Church, attention must be given to involving many other parts of the Church System along with the Pastor in the continuing education process. To fulfill our Christian Ministry through three major emphasis—Preaching, Pastoring, and Teaching.

I. THE PREACHER: Luke 8:1 "And it came to pass afterward, that he went throughout every city and village, preaching and shewing the glad tidings of the kingdom of God: and the twelve were with him;"

I shall begin by describing briefly the three conviations which undergirded my own ministry—viz—conversion, my calling and commitment. With these three I wish to say without any reservation I know that the Spirit of God has and is a prime mover in my life.

I believe in the Church and its necessity for the creation and maintenance of a Christian Society. My personal ministry has now extended over thirty-five years, any illusions with which I may have started with at the age of eighteen have been destroyed. I believe in the Church and am confident that it will be preserved until the end of time and that it is essential to the realization of our Lord's kingdom.

I am a Baptist preacher and certain that the most wonderful job in the world has been entrusted to me. I have no prejudice against any other profession. Some of my best friends are college professors, social workers, business men, doctors, successful common laborers with various employment. But there is no doubt in my mind that while I might trade salaries with some of them I would not trade jobs with any of them.

I have a feeling of being unworthy of God's continued goodness to me. It is my sincere belief that the Christian faith is God's answer to the human needs and human problems.

II. THE PASTOR: And he said to him, "Lord you know everything; you know that I love you." Jesus said to him. "Feed my sheep." John 21:17.

Those of us who have grown up within the Christian Church have assumed that the pastoral function is old hat. It would be a good thing if we would pause for a moment and consider how dramatically different and wonderful it really is. The years of my ministry have increased my respect for the pastoral function, and today it seems to me clearer than ever that all of our sophisticated attempts as pastor to find substitutes for it have failed and are doomed to failure. The pastor has certain temptations in his work which are very subtle and insidious. He can if he is not careful turn into a manipulator of people for some ulterior purpose. Our pastoral work is important not only for the people but for the pastor. If we are to keep the Lord's command as he said to Peter we must heed the word that He said to his apostles "Feed my sheep, Feed my lambs."

III. THE TEACHER: For this I was appointed a teacher of the Gentiles in faith and truth. 1 Timothy 2:7.

We are involved today in a reexamination of our Christian Education program, and there is much weeping and wailing among the experts. The truth is that we are not doing so well in most places and numbers are falling off. No one seems to have a clear idea as to what the difficulty is, but we are no longer riding a constantly rising crest of attendance and participation in our local churches.

It may be that we as Christians are back nearer to the task of the early days of the church than we are to the past generation. There is more demand for basic Christian teaching and for basic Christian proclamation because of the number of people who have had no indoctrination at all. In some ways the Christian minister becomes more like the Christian missionary everyday, and the missionary's task includes a larger element of teaching than that of the pastor.

The minister as he functions in these several worlds knows that he is part of the mighty fellowship called the church. Always he is the servant of Christ and one among many brethren. We are not called to be prima donnas nor are we to be exalted by lesser men. But we must not lose the sense of the splendor of our calling.

Our commission is timely and timeless through preaching, pastoring and teaching.

DR. GREEN L. PRINCE - 10th PRESIDENT OF
CONVENTION OF AMERICA

Green L. Prince was born in Princeville, Gonzales County, Texas, August 15, 1870. He was a twin brother of Dr. Samuel Prince, who served for many years as president of the Missionary Baptist General Convention of Texas, the largest of the Black Conventions in the Lone Star State. These twin brothers were among twelve children born to Samuel and Sarah Prince.

I. His Education.

Dr. G. L. Prince was educated in the public schools in Texas. He entered the Christian ministry after a career as a school teacher which lasted 29 years. During that time he served as president of Sanjo College for three years; principal of an Indian School in Muskogee, Oklahoma and principal of a high school in Tulsa, Oklahoma. In the fall of 1944 he was named president of Mary Allen College in Crockett, Texas, a school newly purchased by the Missionary Baptist General Convention of Texas. Under his administration, Mary Allen became accredited as a Junior College and later as a Senior College.

II. Elected President of National Baptist Convention of America.

Dr. G. L. Prince was elected president of the National Baptist Convention of America in Chicago, Illinois in 1933. According to an article published in the Union Review, "the convention was no more than a howling unorganized mob and order could not be obtained." He served as president for twenty three years. During his tenure, the convention became recognized and respected by churchmen all over the world. Several auxiliaries were organized, including the Baptist Brotherhood Union, the Junior Women's Convention and the Youth Convention.

Dr. Prince served as vice president of the Baptist World Alliance and travelled extensively throughout America, Europe, Asia, and Africa in promoting Christian world missions.

As a pastor, Dr. Prince served churches in San Antonio, Texas; and served as pastor of First Baptist Church, Tulsa, Oklahoma; Central Baptist Church, Muskogee, Oklahoma; Francis Street Baptist Church, St. Joseph, Missouri; Greater Zion Baptist Church, Denver, Colorado. He was at this church when elected president of the National Baptist Convention. He later became pastor of Avenue "L" Baptist Church, Galveston, Texas. He returned to Texas because of his desire to be more centrally located in seeking to render acceptable service to Baptists of the nation.

Serving for more than two decades at the helm of the National Baptist Convention of America, Dr. G. L. Prince is among our distinguished patriarchs. It was at the ripe age of eighty-six when he fell sleep, having served well in a life which spans several generations. He was an exceptional man who reflected in life, the name of bore, that of a prince.

On the occasion of his home going these wondrous words were written by Ira Clark, President of the Baptist Brotherhood:

"For every one there is a time of laying down to rest.
For some there are treasures left behind Yet others fail the test.
This prince we bid farewell today Has blessed us far untold.
His light has led us on the way Toward life's eternal goal."

THE ANNUAL REPORT OF THE COMMISSION ON

CONVENTION OF

September 11, 1975

Dr. John L. Thurston

September, 1975
Philadelphia, Pa.

President Sams, Official Staff, Messenger, Visitors from the Chaplaincy, Ladies and Gentlemen:

It is with the greatest of pleasure that we the members of the National Baptist Convention's Commission on Chaplains Endorsement make our report for 1974-75.

Since we last met in our Annual Session, which was held in Nashville, Tennessee, our participation with the Chaplains and Chiefs of Chaplains of the Navy, Army, Air Force and Civil Air Patrol, have been quite active.

THE ARMED FORCES
CHAPLAIN'S BOARD

November 14th and 15th (1975) the Chaplains Board met in Washington in a two day meeting. This meeting was held at the National War College. A welcome and orientation was given by the War College for Chaplain (MG) G. W. Hyatt, USA; Chaplain (RADM) F. L. Garrett, U.S.N.; Chaplain (MG) H. J. Meade, USAF, and Denominational and Endorsing Representatives.

Some points of interest discussed were as follows:

"Strategic Challenges of the Seventies". "Issues pertinent to our ministry in the Armed Forces", and an updating briefings of the Churches and the Chaplaincy.

On Friday, November 15, 1975 the discussion centered around qualified men for the chaplaincy and whether or not they can produce while in service. One thought advanced was, if a minister cannot produce or if he cannot click in his Pastoral Ministry as a local pastor, he will not fit into the Military Ministry. As a Military Chaplain his environment is much different as he is to follow certain rules and regulations, and at the same time, he must rub shoulders with Military Staff Members.

In another discussion it was stated that a Chaplain on Active Duty who wanted to change denomination what steps should be taken? It was concluded that the denomination the chaplain desiring to leave and the denomination he is desiring to become a part of, should get together with the chaplain in question and resolve the problem. The first denomination then must withdraw its endorsement so that the denomination which the chaplain is desiring to become a part of may endorse that chaplain therefore he will not have two endorsements.

The question of female chaplains serving in the Military Ministry arose. It was stated by the chief of chaplains, this question must be taken under serious consideration due to the fact that many of our Seminaries have accepted female students who are pursuing Theological Education simple to become Chaplains in the Military Service. The conclusion was that in the next few years there are going to be more and more female chaplains. At present there are six female chaplains serving on active duty.

The meeting of the Chaplain's Board will be held this year at the Chaplains Center in Mitscher Hall, U.S. Naval Academy, Maryland on October 17th-18th, 1975.

V.A. ADMINISTRATION CENTERS

SPECIAL MENTION OF OUR BLACK CHAPLAINS SERVING UNDER THE ENDORSEMENT OF THE NATIONAL BAPTIST CONVENTION OF AMERICA.

First I would like to mention Chaplain George B. Hamilton who is serving at the Veterans Administration Center in Dayton, Ohio, and Second Chaplain Frederick D. Terry who serves at the Martinburg, West, Virginia Veteran's Administration Center. Both of these chaplains are doing a fine job administering to the needs of those veterans who put their lives on the Altar for their country. Chaplain Hamilton and Chaplain Terry make quarterly reports of their activities to be filed in our office in Chicago, giving detail descriptions of:

- A. Staff Meetings attended.
- B. Professional Activities Off Station.
- C. Services conducted by visiting clergy.
- D. Items of interest and comments on Visual Aid and Broadcasting System, along with Religious Films in Nursing Home Care Service.

The Navy Chaplains Bulletin carries an interesting article by: Lt. I.C. Starling Jr., CHC. USN where he speaks of some of the human needs of chaplains and their calling. He says "there are certain human needs related to the way chaplains go about fulfilling their ministries.

There were four such needs selected by the writer which he holds to be inter-related and can be stated in a simple way.

- 1. The need to be accepted.
- 2. The need to be needed.
- 3. The need to be successful.
- 4. The need for a structure within which to perform his work.

I highly agree with Mr. Starling, Jr. when he says "Significant Pitfalls of our profession lie in the area of our needs; our need for acceptance can be perverted into a Mod Scramble to be accepted by everyone; our need to be needed can distort counseling into hero-worship sessions; our need to succeed can turn us into manipulators; and our need for structure can lead to the deification of our particular structure".

Having had some very fine contact with the Navy Chief of Chaplain

ADM Francis L. Garrett, CHC. U.S.N. I can't help but include some excerpts from his message which appears in the 1975 issue NAVY CHAPLAINS BULLETIN entitle "Message from the Chief of Chaplain".

Chaplain Garrett's deep concern for ministry to the total military community encompassing a great variety of faith groups led to productive enter-faith cooperation among chaplains and a more satisfactory response to the religious rights and needs of personnel. Under his leadership serious attention was given to the smallest as well as the largest denominations. As Chairman of the Armed Forces Chaplain Board, Chaplain Garrett was charged with the responsibility for the formulation of policy for approval by the Secretary of Defense in the following areas:

- A. Religious and Moral Standards of Armed Forces Personnel and the protection thereof;
- B. The Procurement, Professional Standards, Requirements, Assignment and Training of Military Chaplains, including the Reserve Components;
- C. The Procurement and Utilization of Religious Supplies, Equipment and Facilities for the Armed Forces; and
- D. The Establishment and Maintenance of Close Supportive Relationship between the Department of Defense and the Leadership of the American Religious Community".

SECRETARY OF THE
NAVY GUEST CRUISE

On December 19, 1974, I received a letter from the Executive Secretary, A. Ray Appelquist, which appears below:

The Rev. Dr. Frank K. Sims
8201 Champlain Avenue
Chicago, Illinois 60619

Dear Frank:

The Navy Chief of Chaplains has asked me to contact you regarding your availability for a two-day visit and cruise on the aircraft carrier U.S.S. Independence based in Norfolk, Virginia.

This VIP visit will take place February 19, to 21. The Navy will host the group from the individual arrivals at Norfolk airport. There will be a dinner at 7:30 p.m. on Wednesday the 19th. The Navy will return all visitors to Norfolk airport by 5 p.m. on Friday, February 21.

Transportation from the guests' home and return home from Norfolk is not provided but the Navy takes care of everything during the cruise.

The Independence is one of our newest carriers. It would provide the guests with an opportunity to see modern Navy life at sea and show something of the ministry of the chaplains of these great "floating cities."

If you cannot personally participate in this activity please select some other available representative of your communion. The formal and official invitations to participate will be sent out by the Secretary of the Navy early in January. Sometime during the first week in January, I will need to have the name of the person to whom the invitation is to be sent.

Have a blessed holiday season.

Cordially,

A. Ray Appelquist
Executive Secretary

On January 9th, also received letter from Rear Admiral Francis L. Garrett, Chief of Chaplains, Navy Department - Bureau of Naval Personnel.

January 9, 1975

Dear Dr. Sims:

I am delighted that you will be able to represent the National Baptist Convention of America on the forthcoming Secretary of the Navy Guest Cruise for Distinguished Clergymen aboard the aircraft carrier USS INDEPENDENCE (CVA-62) on February 19-21, 1975.

The purpose of this cruise is to provide an opportunity for you and other distinguished religious leaders to see at first hand the work of our naval personnel while engaged in full operations at sea. The INDEPENDENCE is representative of the milieu in which our Navy Chaplains minister. Exposure to the officers and men of this modern ship hopefully will elicit your valuable observations on how best to serve their religious needs.

The INDEPENDENCE will depart Naval Base, Norfolk, Virginia early on Thursday morning, February 20. It is suggested that you plan to arrive in Norfolk on Wednesday afternoon or evening. Please advise me of your arrival plans so we can arrange for an escort to meet you and accompany you to the ship.

The cruise will enable you to spend a day and night at sea and be returned by aircraft to Norfolk Friday afternoon. Your departure from Norfolk should be planned for any time after 5:00 p.m. Friday. Should you desire to remain overnight in Norfolk, please let me know and we will be happy to make arrangements for you.

An information sheet is enclosed that should answer any questions you may have regarding clothing and other personal needs. You will note that your authorization to travel aboard is this letter.

Short-notice cancellation of this cruise is not anticipated. However, shifting operational commitments preclude ruling out this possibility. Should this occur, I feel sure that you will understand.

I am looking forward to sharing these days with you in what promises to be an interesting and enjoyable experience.

With prayers and best wishes,

Sincerely,

FRANCIS L. GARRETT
Rear Admiral, CHC, USN

Dr. Frank K. Sims,

Enclosure

P.S. A reception and dinner has been planned for the evening of 19

February at 7 p.m. We hope you will be able to attend. Your escort will accompany you.

The invitation was most highly accepted and I joined the other distinguish Religious leaders in Norfolk Va. There were twenty of us, fifteen whites and five blacks. The experiences we encountered aboard the U S S INDEPENDENCE are too numerous to relate in this report.

On February 12, 1975, a letter coming from the Executive Secretary's office informing me of the Nominations Committees wishes.

February 12, 1975

The Rev. Dr. Frank Sims
8201 Champlain Avenue
Chicago, Illinois 60619

Dear Frank:

The Nominating Committee of the General Commission has asked that I convey to you their desire to place your name in nomination for one of the vice chairmanships of the Commission for the 1975-1977 biennium.

The Committee has noted your interest in and support of the ministry of the Commission and feels that your leadership would be helpful in the work that lies ahead.

Please let us know if you are available for this additional service.

Cordially,

A. Ray Appelquist
Executive Secretary

RELIGIOUS LEADERS VISIT THE INDEPENDENCE

The Visit was highlighted by Joe H. M. Henretzy who begins by saying, "The Need for more Ministers, Priests and Rabbis to become Navy Chaplains, especially aboard carriers, was outlined when twenty distinguished religious cleric and laymen, were the guests of Secretary of the Navy J. William Middendorf II, aboard the INDEPENDENCE.

There were twelve major denominations represented and Rear Admiral Francis L. Garrett, Chief of Chaplains U.S. Navy placed strong emphasis on the urgent need for more chaplains.

The guests also participated in two ecumenical services in the ship's chapel and before leaving the INDY they conducted services for Protestant and Catholic crew members and Reservists on active duty training.

In addition to seeing the crew in action, the guests viewed flight operations and other evolutions. Of the religious leaders visiting INDY, five have served in the Army, two in the Air Force and one in the Navy.

Worshipping God is only the start of something great. Start treating your brothers and sisters like brothers and sisters.

Dr. Appelquist has headed the staff of the General Commission for 16 years. He had previously served as chaplaincy executive and head of the program for service personnel of the American Baptist Convention for four years. Prior to 1958, he was an Army Chaplain for nine years, serving in Germany, Korea, on sea duty and at a number of U.S. Installations. In his earlier ministry, he held pastorates in Wisconsin, Illinois and Massachusetts.

He was the 12th Executive Secretary to serve this interchurch council since its formation in 1917. His tenure spanned the critical years of the Cold War and the Indochina Conflict, a time of rapid and far-reaching change for the Nation, the armed forces and the military chaplaincy. As America's largest and most representative ecumenical agency concerned with military ministries, the General Commission under his leadership committed itself to undiminished pastoral care for service people, even during the involvement in unpopular and controversial conflicts.

Dr. Appelquist's wise guidance won him the respect and appreciation of many highly placed officials in both the civilian and military sectors.

Dr. and Mrs. Appelquist have five children, Nancy, Janet, John, Mary Lou and Carla Rae. They are all young adults, now independently established.

Almost immediately upon moving to Wisconsin, Dr. Appelquist will embark on an around-the-world trip to familiarize himself with the foreign mission fields in which the Congregational Christian Churches are involved. His tour will take him to East Asia, Africa, Europe and South America. He is expected to return in time for him to be an honored guest at the Fall Meeting of the General Commission in October.

In the meantime, the Search Committee of the General Commission, in which I am a member of, chaired by Dr. John Groenfeldt of the Moravian Church, is engaged in the selection of a replacement Executive Secretary. The Committee's recommendations for staffing will be high on the agenda for the Fall Meeting in Washington.

It has been my privilege to have known and worked with Dr. Appelquist for the past twelve years. I can say without a doubt, I haven't met a finer person than Ray Appelquist. A Christian Gentleman, a man of distinction, and one who respects all those whom he labored with.

The General Commission on Chaplains and Armed Forces Personnel is losing a most valuable person. However, we wish for him all the success in his new field of labor.

ADM John J. O'Connor, CHC, USN became the fourteenth Chief of Chaplains on July 1, 1975. Chaplain O'Connor was selected for Rear Admiral in September, 1974; at the time of his selection he was serving as Senior Chaplain at the U.S. Naval Academy, Annapolis Maryland.

Chaplain O'Connor began active duty as a Navy Chaplain in 1952. His duty stations include, among others: Naval Receiving Stations, Philadelphia; Destroyer Force, Atlantic Fleet; Chief of Chaplains' Office; USS CANBERRA (CAG-2); Naval Postgraduate School, Monterey; 3rd Marine Division, Okinawa; 3rd Marine Division Vietnam (Division Chaplain); Marine Corps Recruit Training Depot, Parris Island (Depot Chaplain); Marine Corps Schools Command, Quantico; Cruiser - Destroyer Force, Atlantic Fleet (Force Chaplain); U.S. Naval Academy (Senior Chaplain).

CHAPLAIN, MAJOR GENERAL HENRY J. MEADE, Chief of Chaplains, United States Air Force, serves on the special staff of the Chief of Staff, United States Air Force.

Chaplain Meade entered active Military service in February, 1957. His chaplain assignments include tours of duty at Perrin Air Force Base, Tex.; USAF Retraining Center, Amarillo, Tex.; Westover Air Force Base, Mass.; Officer Training School and Officer Candidate School, Lackland Air Force Base, Tex.; Barksdale Air Force Base, La.; and Dover Air Force Base, Del. In 1969 he was assigned to Headquarters United States Air Force in the Office of the Chief of Chaplains, Professional Division. In 1971 he was assigned as the first Director of Ecclesiastical and Public Relations within the Office of the Chief of Chaplains. His overseas assignments include Samsun/Trabzon, Turkey; Kindley Air Force Base, Bermuda; and U-Tapao Royal Thai Air Force Base, Thailand.

In August 1972 he became Deputy Chief of Chaplains, U. S. Air Force, and in August 1974 assumed duties as Chief of Chaplains.

His military decorations include the Legion of Merit, Bronze Star Medal, Air Force Commendation Medal with three oak leaf clusters, and Air Force Outstanding Unit Award Ribbon.

Chaplain Meade is known by the nickname "Hank". His hobbies include golf, flying, and boating.

Chaplain Meade's family includes his mother, Mrs. Arthur J. Meade, and two brothers, William A. Meade and Frederick P. Meade, all residing in Brookline, Mass.

He was promoted to the grade of major general effective August 1, 1974.

Bro. President, Chairmen, Officers and Members of the Foreign Mission Board of the National Baptist Convention:

It is with much pleasure and happiness that I come today in the name of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

I want to thank you for the privilege of serving in the capacity of Secretary-Treasurer for the past 21 years and as chairmen for 5 years, a total of 26 years that I have given and served the convention through out the United States and to a large number of foreign countries. I have served as Secretary-Treasurer under three presidents. It has brought me joy, sorrow, pain, and happiness. Many experiences have been mine but you can rest assured that I have been honest and faithful in all of my dealings with your work and your property. I have given more than I have taken. I have suffered mental and undue pressures without cause, only from a lack of understanding I want to thank God and you for the support that I have received. God has revealed to me the step that I am now taking that I might clear the way for the next Secretary-Treasurer to be elected coming September 1975. Therefore I hereby submit my resignation on this date May 21, 1975 to become effective in September, 1975 with the understanding that the board and the convention will give me 30 to 60 days to turn over to the newly elected Secretary-Treasurer the properties of the board and convention.

Humbly submitted
E. Stanley Branch
Sect-Treasurer

Secretary-Treasurer

Greetings! We are again grateful for the privilege of greeting our great President, Dr. James Carl Sams, and the officers and delegates of our National Baptist Convention of America.

We are very happy at the National Baptist Publishing Board; for though it has been no easy task, a dream has come true. Your Publishing Board is now housed in a beautiful, ultra-modern structure which meets all present needs and is designed for easy expansion. We do not have the time nor the space in this report to describe our new facility, but we invite you to visit the Plant whenever you are in Nashville, Tennessee.

Too, we must take this opportunity to express thanks and gratitude to you, our constituency, for without your support and prayers, along with God's guidance, none of this would be possible.

The National Baptist Publishing Board is proud also to announce the name of our newest member, Dr. W. N. Daniel, proud pastor of the Antioch Baptist Church, Chicago, Illinois. We know that Dr. Daniel will prove to be a spiritual asset to our Board.

We are laboring hard at the Publishing Board, seeking to get your literature to you on time, for that is our primary purpose here. Please continue to pray for us and the work of the Publishing Board that we shall be able to serve your "Printed Word" needs for many years to come.

Our financial report for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1975 is as follows:

ANNUAL REPORT
of the
EDUCATIONAL BOARD
NATIONAL BAPTIST CONVENTION OF AMERICA

September 10-14, 1975

PHILADELPHIA, PENNSYLVANIA

Dr. P. S. Wilkinson, Chairman
Dr. J. B. Adams, Recording Secretary

DR. P. S. WILKINSON
Chairman

DR. W. EARL HAUSEY
Secretary-Treasurer

To our President Dr. J. C. Sams, Vice Presidents, Officers of the National Baptist Convention of America Assembled in its 95th Annual Session, Chairman Dr. P. S. Wilkinson, Officers and Members of the Educational Board, Brothers and Sisters.

Greetings:

Jesus said, "He that hath an ear let him hear what the spirit (Holy Spirit) says."

I feel that I am reporting to Saints of the Lord who understand that the kingdom of our Master is not of this world. That His kingdom is spiritual, and the responsibility of the Saints is to make disciple for the kingdom.

But can one do the job demanded of him or her by the Master unless he or she is trained?

Jesus said, "Teach them" this command brings into clear focus the need of the church related school.

Since all education is centered on some given objective, and truly the objective here is to train and develop laborers for the spiritual kingdom of our Lord. Not only must the church related school have an objective, but it must have teachers, curriculum and students. The spiritual kingdom of our Lord needs Christian institutions of higher education. The National Baptist Convention recognized the need of Christian schools, thus the Educational Board is its agency through which it supports Missionary Baptist Christian Educational Institutions.

The following schools are approved and supported by the convention. (Mary Allen College destroyed by fire February 1972, funds are being raised to rebuild same), Virginia Seminary and College, Monroe College, Mississippi Baptist Seminary, Easonian Baptist Seminary, Guadalupe College, Morris College, Florida Normal & Industrial College, Union Baptist Seminary and Liberty Baptist College.

We as leaders of the Church whom the Lord has made us "Overseer" must be more serious about the work for which the church is established in this world. Remember Brethren there is a "Judgment seat" and we must all appear and give account of our stewardship.

I have faith in God and His people to support the Educational Board. The proposed financial plan for the board is as follows:
100 Churches to contribute $10.00 per month $12,000.00

100 Churches to contribute $100.00 annually10,000.00
 10 State conventions and District associations to contribute $100.00 annually 1,000.00
 With these monthly and annual contributions added to the funds received from the parent body would give us a representative amount to be distributed among our schools.

EXCERPTS FROM ADDRESS

President's Message: "The Fullness of Christ". We have assembled here to bear the testimony before the World that we have received from the fullness of Christ and His riches of Grace, which is available to all men. One of the most important discoveries of our day is that the mission of the Christian Church is one task. Until recently, the division between "HOME AND FOREIGN MISSIONS" appeared to be necessary. The basis of the Christian Mission is not localized; but is found in every community around the World.

The Mission of the Church compels us to become involved in the problems of mankind. Quoting J. Edward Dirks "the Church needs neither to sanctify itself out of Society, nor secularize itself into society". "With freedom and hope it can share a message and perform a service in a world which it knows; as an alienated, despairing, and needy World." To share the Fullness of Christ: Our Home Mission forces have a definite responsibility within the geographic frontiers of our Land, to share the message and render service to peoples caught up in the frustrations, anxieties and Sin of a needy World.

My christian friends, our FOREIGN MISSION work is suffering today! because our own Country has become a crucially impoverished Mission Field. We cannot be considered a Mission because we lack Things. Our abundance of Things have become the object of envy for less-privileged non-Americans. It is difficult even for contemporary Americans to understand fully the extent of our material progress since 1900; when this Auxiliary was organized. Consider areas of thought and action in which the Missionary agencies of the Church must address their energy and resources. Perhaps the most obvious defection from Christian ethic can be seen in the increased CRIME rate, particularly among the young. Around the world people of every tongue and nation know the Christ-like fellowship which transcends the barriers of language, culture and custom. Through the Holy Spirit Jesus is always present among His own. "and from his fullness have we all received, grace upon grace. (John 1 16 RSV).

My Christian friends it is through the GRACE OF GOD that we feel the same Strength of Christian Fellowship here in Philadelphia tonight, that our founding SISTERS felt in Richmond, Virginia Seventy-five years ago (September 15, 1900) when the "WOMAN'S AUXILIARY NATIONAL BAPTIST CONVENTION OF AMERICA was organized and addressed itself to the task "ENLISTING, COMBINING and DIRECTING" the efforts of Women and Children of America. We may not have achieved all the Goals aimed, during the Seventy-five years gone by. We have cause for humility and regrets when we think of what might have been accomplished. Surely we have reason to thank and Praise God from whom all blessings flow, for what our CONVENTION has been permitted to achieve. We feel the strength of the fellowship of Christ throughout our Convention and rejoice in knowing that there is no higher, or fuller fellowship than that which we enjoy in the Family of God. This Fullness of the Love of Christ is the inexhaustible source of true CHRISTIAN FELLOWSHIP.

From the Address on the THEME: Christ's Responsible Church." In an Irresponsible World" must present the Plan of Salvation. Christ's church will present Christ in every Proclamation, every Sermon, every Sunday School lesson, every Missionary effort, every Baptist training Union, every Brotherhood Auxiliary, every Visiting Program will bear Witness to His Power and Presence and will express a real concern for the Lost. Christ's Church is Responsible for Obeying the Great Commission, "Go Ye therefore, and teach All Nations, Baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost: Teaching them to observe all thing whatsoever I have commanded you: and, lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the World. Amen.

The irresponsible World has brought about an increase in CRIME, DOPE TRAFFIC, Unwed mothers, the lost of human respect. If these are to be erased from society, Christ's Church must do it. Christ's responsible Church in an irresponsible World must Revive the inert Christian, must Reclaim the Backslider and give His Good-news to the Sinner. For in CHRIST'S CHURCH, the work of the Kingdom is the Primary Mission.

Missionary Workshop, Sisters Lorene Thompson, Convener, Az., Helen Jamison, Co-ordinator, La., Mable Ransom, Recorder, Tx., Willie L. Smith, Consultant, Tx. Subject: "Reaching the Unreached," Excerpts: Reaching the unreached would not be complete if we did not consider the unreached in our homes, communities, churches, jobs or on our campuses. Our homes, must, of necessity come first. Home takes in self, husband, or wife and children. Do I know for sure that Christ has first place in my life? Has He occupied first place in my life in such a way that I can say like the Apostle Paul that "I know that" I have passed from death unto life." If we put Christ first and live the kind of life we should and witness with full of God's Word and His plan of salvation, we will then begin to reach the unreached: (unquote).

9:15 A. M. Opening Session, Called to order by President, Sis. Hattie L. E. Williams, President.

RESPONSIVE READING: President: I believe we can share in relieving world hunger, also help to change some of the life styles in a world that needs a Saviour.

Members: Yes, We can have a part in relieving world hunger for so many need spiritual food as well as physical food.

President: I believe we can touch the lives of women who are estranged by poverty and the satanic evils of today.

Members: Yes, we can help our weak sisters in their hour of distress and encourage them by giving them a helping hand.

President: I believe we are committed to finding ways to deepen our faith in Jesus Christ and communicate better.

Members: The age and time tells us that we are at a significant point in our Christian movement. Let us hurry in the service of the Lord for He is on His way back to claim His own.

9:20 A. M. MUSIC: Led by Sisters: Marena Bell Williams, and Olivia L. Branch. Selection: "I Want Jesus to Walk with Me".

9:25 A. M. Bible Lesson: "We have Come this Day to Worship the Master Architect," Ps. 95. Sis. Rosa Lee Douglas. High points: (1) Our noise should be unto the Lord. (2) This morning when you got up, Did you give thanks to God? Did you read your Bible? (3) God is grieved with us and one day we will have to give account unto God. Selection.

GENERAL THEME: "Christ's Responsible Church In An Irresponsible World" Matt. 5:13; 25:35-36; Micah 6:8. Sis. Jo Anna

McCray, Az. High points: (1) We must be able and ready to meet obligations. (2) This is not a day of sleeping we must be wide awake (3) Christians can sleep in many ways, spiritually, morally and intellectually (4) We are looking out and the world is looking in. (unquote) Sis. McCray did a very good job of discussing the theme. Selection: "I'll Go." 10:00 A. M. ENABLING SESSION:

The groups assembled in various parts of the building for one hour. Session 1. Learning How to Enable Each Other. Heb. 10:23-25 Sis. Gladys White, Al.

Sermon Rev. R. E. Easley, Tx., Subject: "A Holy Church In A Sinful World" Acts. 2:46-47. High Points (1) It is truly amazing how a Holy Church can make progress in a sinful world. (2) Sin is like dust, it creeps in everywhere. (3) Sin is the principle member of many of our Churches.

Indeed our souls were set on fire while the man of God spoke to us by the wayside. "The Harvest is Plentiful But the Laborers are Few," Selection.

President Williams was presented by 1st Vice President Sis. Sarah Adams. Excerpts from President's Message Subject: "Things That Effect Us Today." (1) None of us know what tomorrow will bring, or any detail of what faces us in the future, but we know one thing, we know whose in the future. We know Christ will be there. Heb. 13:15.

(2) Family Life: We need to know what effects family life and what threatens family life. Increase in divorce rates, decrease of the influence of the Father and husband in the home. Increase in the number of working wives and a decline in family size. (3) Parents should seek guidelines from the Scripture. Eph. 5 and 6 is a good place to start. We need respect for one another. We need to communicate and share our frustrations and joy with one another. CONVENTION SONG:

THE END OF CONVENTION

1. When we come to, the close of Convention days,
 And we're left alone with our thoughts,
 And our minds run back over what's been done
 And the things the meeting taught;

And think of the call of convention days,
 The lessons they leave in our hearts,
 And the feeling there that you cannot evade,
 When your friends with you must part.

2. So this is the end of Convention days,
 The beginning of greater things!
 You'll go out in the world with its toils and strife,

With the hope that the Saviour brings,
 For we know that the Master with steady hands
 Is guiding us on our way:
 Yes we've come to the end of Convention days;
 The days spent with friends we've made.

(Tune: Perfect Day.) Composed by Hattie
 L. E. Williams, President.

After the devotional period the Advisor gave some beautiful and helpful remarks to the body. One thing he said that was very impressive, "If we don't enjoy being born, try being born again in Jesus Christ." He closed by saying, keep loving, keep smiling, and do our best that we may produce great things. In unison we repeated, Let the Words of My Mouth, etc.

Rev. Dixon, our advisor, presented the speaker of the Memorial Services, the Rev. F. D. Johnson of Chicago Ill., who was our late sister's pastor.

Rev. Johnson came forth saying, In all thy ways acknowledge God. Rev. Johnson spoke on how very interested Sister Lensey was concerning not having a Nurses Organization in her home church. She was the organizer of the one in her church. His stressing points were, Go Into The Vineyard and Work, Don't worry about the Pay of man. He closed by saying to the Nurses, Work on, Toil on, Pray on, and work until the day is done. Then He sang Sister Lensey's favorite song, "Use Me Lord In Thy Service."

What a wonderful fullment we felt, it seemed as tho Sister Lensey's spirit was there with us enjoying the same. Oh, what a special thought was brought to our minds as we thought of the times our Mother Lensey spoke to us as her children.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE
FOURTEENTH ANNUAL SESSION
NATIONAL BAPTIST NURSES CORPS AUXILIARY
OF
NATIONAL BAPTIST CONVENTION OF AMERICA
SEPTEMBER 12, 1975

To the Officers, Messengers, Co-workers, and visitors
Greetings: In the Name of Our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

Again we are privileged to assemble in another Annual Session, for this we are grateful.

This has been a very unique year. There are wars that are not called wars, violence that is not called violence. There are break-ins and break-downs. There are shortages in the midst of plenty, and what is available is so high one can hardly afford to buy.

God is good, and His mercy has been with us this year. We have attended the two board Meetings of the National Baptist Convention of America, and the National Baptist Sunday School and Baptist Training Union Congress held in Oakland Calif. and Fort Worth, Texas and presently this Session now convening in Philadelphia, Pa.

May I give expressions of deep gratitude to people that helped, National Officers, Committee Chair-persons, workers, State Presidents, District Moderators, Auxiliary Presidents, Pastors, with special thanks to Host Pastor Rev. W. E. Cook and above all to God—Our Father, Jesus Christ, His Son Our Saviour for comforting and guidance.

We have accomplished much this year, new guilds in some states for which we are grateful; yet, we have the greatest opportunity and challenge. With our units working together we have an outstanding privilege of helping to advance the Kingdom of Our God. If we put God first, make the cause of Jesus Christ primary, and allow the Holy Spirit to inspire, motivate and lead us, there is no limit to what we shall be able to do for Christ.

"Christ's Responsible Church In An Irresponsible World", is the theme selected for this Annual Session, was taken from the Book of Matthews 5:13-16; 25:35-36.

"Words of Christ" The Sermon on the Mount, Chapter 5-7, explains what true righteousness is, its cost, and its rewards. From this General Theme we choose for a Subject "Turn on a Light in the World."

True righteousness begins with the Beatitudes in these Jesus described the attitude and character of people who trust in God to make them righteous rather than trying to make themselves righteous. Next, Jesus described his followers as salt of the earth and the light of the world. As salt they are to prevent the world from rotting in sin. Matthew 5:13, quote, "You are the salt of the earth but if the salt has become tasteless, how will it be made salty again? It is good for nothing anymore, except to be thrown out and trampled under foot of men. A light, they are to lead men out of the darkness if sin. The 14th verse "You are the light of the world, A city set on a hill cannot be hidden, Of course, we are "SALT" and light only if Christ lives in us.

Jesus came to establish true righteousness, which comes about only when God is trusted. To trust God is to let him be our Lord, and when He has made us new within (by faith through Grace) our lives will show it, and turn on a light in the world. Verse 16, "Let your light shine before men in such a way that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father who is in heaven.

Jesus also would have us to know in this same chapter that it is not enough for the outward life to be regulated, the inner life must be free of hate, lust, lying, and deceit. Lights that fail; Matt. 25:8 states our lamps are gone out. Now Christian friends, there is a must to keep your light shining

Lamps must have oil (Spirit of God).
Lamps must be kept lit (Love and fellowship).
Lamps must be used (to show others the way).

Lamps must always be burning (for security).
Lamps fuel must be used (and refilled).

Nurses turn on a light in the world by Action—"steps; Never say, "Why doesn't somebody do something? You do it." Turn on one light, your light. Yours, with others, will change the world. Everyday affirm your faith in our world's future. Its greatest days are ahead. Realize the power of the dedicated one. You, one person are the guarantor of your eternal future.

The 25th Chapter of Matthew tells us about the parable of the talents and inheritance. May I say to you, use your God given talent, be faithful, keep oil in your vessel, let your light shine.

Sometimes the way gets hard, especially when you've labored long and hard, and it seems that the concern of those you labor with has gone out the window, but, you just hold the light. People may laugh at you, just hold the light. Some will lie on you but you just hold the light. There will be some dark days in your life, but you just hold the light. Into each life some rain must fall, storms may rise, winds may blow, but you just hold the light.

Remember Jesus came down, offered, hung, bled, and died, was buried, and on the third day He rose from the grave and gave us a light (of life). And I shall hold the light until all nations shall be gathered and He shall separate them. I want to hear him say, Come ye blessed of my Father, inherit the Kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world.

Eight Annual Message of President Ruby Giles Rowe

RESOLUTION

Chicago, Illinois
April 6, 1975

Life's race well run, Life's work well done
Life's crown well won, And now she rest.

Whereas, Almighty God in His infinite wisdom has seen fit to call from our midst our beloved co-worker, Sister Mattie Linsey, a worker who was crowned with noble deeds and a useful life, and attracted to herself many friends, because of her straight forwardness and willingness to serve humanity. She did not only have a personal interest in the Master's work, but supported it liberally with her means. We the National Baptist Nurses Corps of the National Baptist Convention of America feel that the uplifted Christian influence of her life will live forever.

Sister Lensey was a faithful, conscientious Charter member of this auxiliary, served as Vice President from the organizing until her expiration. She was so deeply interested in the welfare of the Nurses Corps; we the officers and members throughout the nation desire to place on record our love and esteem for her life and labor; and in view of her noble and sincere testimony which has been an example of Christian womanhood and devotion to the Kingdom's cause, we thank Our Heavenly Father for this life and for having the pleasure to work with this great woman. Her passing is a great loss to our force, we being deprived of her pious counsel, we shall always cherish her memory.

Resolved: That we extend our heartfelt sympathy to the Daughter, other relatives and friends. That we strive to emulate her admirable traits: That we deplore the loss, but bow our selves in humble submission to the will of our heavenly Father, and console ourselves by remembering that the sky remains parted and we can trace the passage and follow her within the gate. "Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of His saints.

Resolved: That a copy of this sentiment be put in our minutes, a copy sent to the family, and a copy given to our papers.

Sister, thou art gone to rest,
We will not weep for thee;
For thou art now, where often while on earth
Thy spirit longed to be.

Sympathetically Submitted,

National Baptist Nurses Corps

RESOLUTION

New Orleans, La.
December 20, 1975

To
Our late Sister and Vice President

Alberta Talbert

Whereas, it has pleased our Heavenly Father to translate from the labors of this life to the sweet rest and fellowship of the saints in heaven our dearly beloved sister in the Lord, Sister Alberta Talbert and whereas, we the members of the NATIONAL BAPTIST CONVENTION of AMERICA NURSES CORPS, desire to place on record our love and esteem for her life and labor; and in view of her noble and sincere testimony which has been an example of Christian womanhood and devotion to the Kingdom's cause, we thank the Heavenly Father for her, and feel that we should express our sympathy to her husband, daughter, mother, as well as other relatives and friends.

We Thank The Lord for the privilege of having known this fine spiritual personality, who was so interested in God's work, that she was in attendance at all of the sessions and performed all duties that was expected of her, and going beyond. She enjoyed to the fulness the privileges of its membership. She prayed faithfully for the organization and for her President, and gave her faithful support at all times.

From September 12 1969 when she was elected Second Vice President, then the general Nurses Corps Body, being helpful to one and all in every way she could. Taking on several obligations until last Tuesday when the Lord called her home. President Talbert never ceased to show an active interest in the program of this organization. She was ever willing to do her part and cheerfully assumed any responsibility which was hers.

Although she was willing to serve, Sister Talbert never sought a place of prominence. She did everything requested of her, as unto the Lord, but her spirit of genuine humility followed the example of her Lord.

making her willing to do the humblest tasks, as well as important ones, doing both well, yet not seeking recognition for the same.

President Talbert truly loved her Lord, serving in many Christian capacities other than the Nurses Corps, and it is small wonder that her unselfish and cooperative nature made for her many friends. It was a sense of shock and real loss that the news of her death came to the many friends and co-workers who had learned to love her in the Nurses Corps.

Be it therefore resolved, That though her presence will be greatly missed by her loved ones, and those to whom she had endeared herself in our organization, that they accept with Christian submission to God's will, His calling our beloved sister Talbert home. To her devoted husband, daughter, mother, other relatives and friends, we extend our heartfelt sympathy and commend them to the Divine Comforter who is able to sustain, encourage and strengthen all who call upon Him.

Resolve, further, that we ever cherish her memory and emulate her admirable traits, and look forward with joy to meeting her in the home which she knew for so many years was being prepared for her, in the Glory-land. Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of His saints. For whether we live, we live unto the Lord; and whether we die, we die unto the Lord; whether we live therefore, or die; we are the Lord's.

Resolved: That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family, a copy in our minutes, and a copy sent to the press.

Sorrowfully Submitted,
Sister Ruby G. Rowe, President
Sister Ernestine Simms, Executive Secretary

SIS. BARBARA KIGHT
President

Wednesday Morning

With President Barbara W. Kight (Belle Glade, Florida) presiding, the atmosphere of National Junior Women's Auxiliary meeting for the 1975 session was appropriately set by our musician, Sis. Mamie Taylor (Washington), as the registration period began. Beautiful and soft music permeated the meeting room (The Valley Forge) as lovely young ladies congregated for a great time.

At 9:20, the session was called to order by President Kight, who offered us warm greetings. Her remarks reflected upon the Junior Women's success in their climb since the 1970 reorganization of our group.

The revival devotion, led by Sisters Henrietta Alexander (Florida), Doloris Wright (California) and Annette White (Texas), included Psalms 113 as the scripture. Praising the Lord was emphasized. "This Little Light of Mine" was sung by everyone and prayer was sufficiently rendered as "Hallelujah" was softly sung.

After this warm flow of inspiration from these ladies, Sis. Mary Huddleton (Texas) gave us the 'Thought for the Morning' entitled "Christian Obedience to the Lord." Titus 3:1 was used as the background scripture for this most beautiful subject. Advisor Catherine Birdsong (California) then came before us with greetings and words of inspiration. Sis. Mamie Taylor then sang "Remember Me."

President Kight then led in the introductions of "Who's Who?" which was cleverly done through a song that was written by our musician. For meditation, Sis. Ann Jones (California), our director of music, rendered to us a song from our music booklet (compiled by our musician) entitled "His Name Is Wonderful."

The Bible lesson was then done by Sis. Carlote Saylos (Missouri). John 5:1-8 was used as her reference for the subject: "Rise, Take Up Thy Bed and Walk." After this most dynamic presentation, Sisters Gwendolyn M. Mitchel and Lillie Madison (Florida) sang "I'm Standing on the Promises." Afterwards, Sis. Ann Jones sang a solo entitled, "He's Real." The California delegation then brought to us a musical testimony entitled, "I'll Go." The presentation included the songs "Hark, The Voice of Jesus," "Our Lord Is Speaking To You" and "I'll Go."

Workshop cluster sessions were then assembled into groups with as many ladies as possible participating in each. The following informative sessions were presented: 1. "Bible Study"—Basic Bible Studies (Text) by F. A. Schaeffer, led by Sis. J. Eleta Taylor (Florida); 2. "Teacher Training," led by First Vice President Otharyn Rand (Oregon); 3. "Worshipful Worship," led by Rev. George Baker (California); 4. "Advisors," led by Sis. Catherine Birdsong; 5. "Music," led by Sis. Mamie Taylor; 6. "Teaching Conversational Prayer," led by Sis. O. B. Williams (Oregon); and 7. "Arts and Crafts," led by Sis. Yvonne Johnson (Texas).

After forty-five minutes, reassembly was ordered as the music workshop ended with many songs of joy and inspiration. Announcements, remarks and dismissal then followed.

Wednesday Afternoon

First Vice President Otharyn Rand presided as the meditation period set the tempo for the President's Hour. Matthew 14:16 was used as the scripture. Prayer was offered and the congregation sang "Shine on Me." Sisters Ruth Hawthorne (Oklahoma), Ola West (Louisiana) and Estella Davis (Missouri) were the leaders of the period.

The well planned supplementary program of the President's Hour centered around the theme, "Hold High the Torch." It included moments of quietness; a grand processional; meditation; songs of praises; five ladies discussing the attributes of a christian who holds high the torch; and its apex, the President's First Annual Message. This dynamic and informative message was cleverly conveyed through use of the 137th Psalms. The subject of the message was "Without A Song."

The overflowing crowd in attendance to the 'hour' gave evidence that the junior women's fire for Jesus is now an everlasting torch for the entire nation. Remarks followed after the President was showered with many gifts of offering and love. Rev. Joseph Smith (the President's pastor) then gave remarks and the benediction.

Wednesday Evening

Second Vice President Joan Lewis (Texas) presided. Prayer for street

nmission, reassembly and reports from groups took place. "While I'm On My Mission Lord," was sung. A total of 212 tracks was reported to have been handed out.

With Vice President Rand presiding, evening services continued. Texas State Junior Women gave a presentation, "The Old Ship of Zion." It included the songs, "I Don't Worry About Tomorrow," "I Don't Want to Be Lost," and "On The Battlefield For My Lord." A representative of Philadelphia then gave us welcome. Sis. Mary S. Kendall (Florida) responded to the welcome.

The ministers of the evening then came to us with the sermon. Rev. E. L. White (Alabama), with Rev. J. E. Townsend (Alabama) alternation; preached from Ephesians 4:7-13 on the subject, "If You Haven't Been Touch; Don't Go." Prior to this message, one of his members sang a solo entitled, "He Touch Me." "What A Friend" was sung after the message and an offering was taken.

We then went into the first annual queen's contest with Chairman Peola Early (California) in charge. The program underway with remarks from Advisor Birdsong. Prayer for others was offered by Vice President Lewis. Sis. Mary S. Kendall brought the words of welcome. Meditation and a song was then given by Sisters O. Rand and Addy Ward (Washington) respectively. Sisters Armita Hardeman (Texas) and Mary Crockett (Texas) gave a solo and a reading respectively. Sis. A. Jones then sang "God Is Not Dead." The queen contestants then introduced themselves as representatives of states. They were Clara Shelling (California), Betty Hooper (Florida), Larnell Burkes (Indiana), Sandy Wilson (Texas) and Everdeen Brooks (Washington).

The winner (and queen for 1975-76) is Sis. Sandy Wilson (Texas). When she was crowned, Sis. Patricia Brown sang "Give Me My Flowers" as the queen took a stroll down the aisle and up again. Presentations, remarks and dismissal then closed this evening of our historical milestone.

Thursday Morning

Holy Spirit In Mission." Acts 1:1-18 was used as his reference. Rev. Theodore Williams (Texas) served as the alternate. Sis. Mamie Taylor then sang "They That Wait." After these services, we had breakfast and reassembled into the workshop clusters again. We sang "Since Jesus Came Into My Heart." We reassembled and dismissed.

9:00—Devotion was led by Sisters Doris Moore (Florida) and Amita Hardeman. The 121 Psalm was read. "Won't It Be Grand" was sung and prayer was offered. The aim "A Call To Share The Life Of Christ"—was given by Sis. Christine Mosley (Colorado). A Bible lesson—"Salt and Light: Crying Days Will Be Over After 'While'" was given by Sis. Mary H. Miller (Florida). She used as her source of reference, Matthew 5:13-16. "This Is My Story" was then sung by the congregation.

Advisor Birdsong then brought us food for thought entitled, "Spiritual Vitamins." Sis. Emma Alexander (Texas) then sang "He Touched Me." All of the ladies then gathered to rehearse the songs that were to be sung during Dr. J. C. Sani's President's Hour. Dismissal then followed.

Thursday Afternoon

7:15 P.M.—With Vice President Joan Lewis and Sis. Henrietta Alexander presiding, the devotional period began. Sisters Estelle Davis (Kansas), Margaret Myers (Florida) and Mary S. Kendall led the services. John 17:1-5. "A Charge To Keep" and prayer were included. Everyone then sang "Where Could I Go?" and "I'm So Glad That Trouble Don't Last." The Kansas State Junior Women then presented a skit entitled, "A Concerned Neighbor." "This Is My Story" was sung after the skit.

"The Religion of the Black Slave Woman," written by our own Sister Carolyn E. Pierce (Louisiana) was presented. The skit caused everyone to show rejoicing of great fervor through shouts and tears. As everyone tried to regain composure, "What A Fellowship" was sung. We then prepared ourselves for the sermon (which had not yet had a chance to touch our hearts).

Before the sermon was delivered, a trio from Mississippi sang "The Lord Will Make A Way Somehow." Rev. C. E. Lewis (Mississippi) with Rev. J. C. Miller (California) alternating, preached from Acts 2:1 using as his subject: "A Living Church—The Holy Spirit and The Church." "Something's Got A Hold On Me" was then sung. Offering was lifted while "I Learned How To Trust In Jesus Through It All" was sung. Comments, remarks and dismissal then followed.

Friday Morning

Sisters Verde Davis (Florida), Everdeen Brooks and Sandra Wilson led the devotional services. "I'm On The Battlefield" was sung; 105th Psalm was read and prayer was offered while everyone softly sang "Remember Me." "Just A Little Talk With Jesus" was then sung.

President Kight presided as Sis. Lillie Wilson (California) gave a presentation on the watch words—"Whatever He Wills, I Will." Sis. Joan Randall (Indiana) then gave an informative presentation on "Soulwinning." She gave these suggestions for everyone to consider. 1. Begin at Home; 2. Use Open-air Services; and 3. Don't Be Afraid To Go Into The Streets. She did an excellent job. Matthew 28:19 was used as her reference.

President Kight then introduced Dr. R. H. Wilson (Texas) to us. He came with an announcement from the Foreign Mission Board. He solicited our wholehearted support through prayers and financial efforts for the work of the foreign missionaries.

Then, "Down At The Cross" was sung before Sis. Virginia Shivers (Indiana) brought us the Bible lesson entitled, "Love In Action," which was prepared by Sis. Clementine Lee (Indiana) who could not attend the session. John 13:34-35 was used as the scriptural reference. "Hints For Missionaries" was then given by Sis. Joan Lewis. "This Little Light Of Mine" was sung by everyone. Third Vice President, Vivian Lee (California) then gave us a talk on being "Unequally yoked." Her prepared worksheet was very informative.

Minister Advisor, Dr. F. Benjamin Davis, then came to us with a message from the parent body. He termed them as the ABC'S for Junior Women. They were A-age; B-backing (Taking money out that we have not put in); and C-character and constitution.

Then, resource person, Sis. Pauline Hudson gave a presentation entitled, "Growing A Christian Personality." She used Numbers 22 and 23 as her source of reference. Rev. H. S. Covington (Florida) then gave us inspirational words entitled, "The Work of the Holy Ghost In you." He then sang "All Of My Life." He also gave encouraging words to us. Remarks and dismissal followed.

Ninth Annual Message
September 12th, 1975

Brother Vice-President to my Official Staff, Mistress of the Hour, Ministers, Ushers and kind Friends, one of the happiest moments of my life is now. When I take a look back from where we came nine years ago, I thank God how He has brought me over thorns, and up the rough side of the mountains, and I am able to deliver to you this morning, my ninth annual message; what a Mighty God I serve!

Brother Vice-President, my hat is off to all of you for sending me to "World Congress" that was held in Stockholm, Sweden, and while there toured the New England States. How beautiful it was in Norway, where we spent two days. Just to look at God's beautiful country; as I have told you all before, had it not been for all of you, I could not have gone. This was my third trip across the sea, to two Baptist World Congresses, and just to think you all were the cause of it, to you all I am grateful. The God I serve is an able God, a merciful God, a good God. When I look over the house to see how many of us were in the beginning of this Usher's convention, and now look at its growth in nine years, my heart leaps for joy. The story is yet to be told where it is going. But, don't think the devil likes growth or prosperity. I am here today to tell you if you don't do anything else, let God rule your life.

THE THEME:
"CHRIST'S RESPONSIBLE CHURCH
IN AN IRRESPONSIBLE WORLD"

The word responsible means, involving obligations, or duties, expected or obliged to account for. Church when you are held responsible for something, you are held liable to that thing. God's good church here in a no good world, irresponsible world. Irresponsible means not responsible, not accountable for actions. The world with no responsibility and God's church responsible for it. You look at this world, and see its condition, the worldly things, such a dope, murders, robbery, dancing to the rock and roll music, intoxication drinks, and we try to keep up with the things of this world. We have a tendency to forget about our church, but still the church is responsible. We need to wake up, shape up for God is good to us, we all could have been off the face of the earth, but He is responsible for us, read these scriptures after you return home - St. Matthew 5:13-16, St. Matthew 25:35-35, Micah 6:8 See if you can't love each other a little more than you do, the worldly people love each other, but we hate without a cause. First thing we do, when we get angry, angry in the church at someone we leave one God's church and go to another, you only carry the same hate to that church. Stay where you are and take it, God will fight you battle.

In Matthew 5:13-16 Ye are the salt of the earth: but if the salt have lost his savor, wherewith shall it be salted? It is thenceforth good for nothing, but to be cast out, and trodden under the foot of men. In the 14th verse, Ye are the light of the world. A city that is set on a hill cannot be hid. In the 16th verse, let your light shine, before men, that they may see your good works and glorify your Father which is in heaven. This is what it takes for this Usher's Convention to go on up. Let your little light shine, not by thinking you are putting out someone else's light. Your are only only hurting yourself. Trust in the Lord, He won't fail you. He is able. Matthew 25:35-36 For I was an hungred, and ye gave me meat, I was thirsty, and ye gave me drink, I was a stranger and you took me in, naked, and ye clothed me, I was sick, and ye visited me, I was in prison, and ye came unto me. Micah 6:8 later clause, the Lord requires to do justly and to have mercy, and to walk humbly with God. The most important thought I've had was that of my individual responsibility to God. No matter how lofty you are in your department, the lowest responsibility for what your assistance is doing your part. Ushers, let God rule your life. Let us keep this convention moving higher and higher. Let us love our sisters and brothers as God has loved us. I am glad today that I can say I love everybody; as for nine years I humbly submit myself and say today;

"Have thine own way, Lord, Have thine own way/Thou art the potter, I am the clay. Mould me and make me, after thy will, while I am waiting yielded and still. Have thine own way, Lord/
Have thine own way/search me and try me, Master today/whiter than snow, Lord, wash me just now as in thy presence humbly I bow.

Thank You

HISTORY OF THE NATIONAL BAPTIST CONVENTION OF AMERICA - USHER AUXILIARY

To the President, Sister Katie Allen, Rev. S. L. Davis, Our Bible Instructor and the Constituency of this great body, visitors and friends; Greetings in the name of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, who is the author and finisher of our faith.

In the year 1966, month of September in Kansas City, Mo. during the setting of the annual session of the National Baptist Convention of America, a committee from the Convention, namely, Dr. P. S. Wilkinson, Pastor of New Light Baptist Church San Antonio, Texas, Dr. M. L. Price, Houston, Texas and Rev. S. L. Davis, Austin, Texas met with a small group of people known as Ushers, for the purpose of planting another seed for the Convention, The name of this seed was the National Ushers' Auxiliary.

After a few introductory remarks, they planted the seed in the rich soil of Faith and instructed the group to cultivate it with Hope, Love and Trust so that when it reaches maturity it will form a tributary flowing with the results of its success back into the Convention. It must be fertilized daily with fervent prayers and watered with the Holy Spirit. With very close attention and cooperation, God will give the increase of growing numerically, financially and in fellowship and a closer togetherness in Christian Graces.

To be assured that the seed would not be unattended, before they left they organized the group to be responsible for the outcome. They were named as follows: Sister Katie Allen, Austin, Texas, President, Sister Annie B. Johnson, Louisville, Ky., 1st Vice-President, Sister Dorothy Garrison, Recording Secretary, New Orleans, La., Sister Viola F. Johnson, Jacksonville, Fla., Assistant Recording Secretary, Sister Louvenia Jefferson, 2nd Assistant Secretary, New Mexico, Sister Willie Mae Young, Kalamazoo, Mich., Corresponding Secretary, Brother Charles Williams, El Cerita, Cal. Treasurer, Sister Elma Horton, Seattle, Washington, Historian, Sister Ethel Wills, Pasadena, Calif., Religious Leader.

Under this fine group the seed began to grow immediately. Branches began to appear and each year they increased in sizes and length. You can readily see the growth in numerical strength, a oneness in spirit, cooperation, gratitude, love and finance.

This growth has been working hard and untiringly for the benefit of all.

It was necessary to change some officers and add new ones in order to keep the tree pruned and growing into maturity.

It was only last year in Nashville, Tenn. our 8th Session, that they saw a new tender young bud appear in the form of Jr. Ushers Department. Under the supervision of this very fine leader, Sister E. L. Collins, from Austin, Texas, they made their presentation which was a duet by two (2) Sisters from N.Y. the Supervisor had made a presentation of a trophy to a group were praised highly for this beautiful rendition, and the President asked for other Junior Usher Boards.

Our tremendous success is attributed to our working, sharing and praying together, so much so, until we have been able to reach out and touch someone in Foreign lands.

The qualifications of a good usher representative to three (3) parables Jesus used in His sermon of the Mount, Namely "Salt of the Earth", "City on Hill, and Candle on a stand": 1st like salt—because you are in close contact with the individual; your speech should always be seasoned with grace; should add a tang of joy to the church goer instead of a tinge of drabness and you are rendering efficient service silently, inconspicuous and in a powerful and useful way. (2) like a City—because a good usher serves as a beacon light, a landmark to the church goer, and brings a sense of welcome repose in the first impression made by you. (3) like a Candle you can bring warmth, can lighten a conversation and bring an inner feeling of joy to the despondent person. Since we have brought out of darkness into the marvelous light, then we cannot help but to radiate this light and let it shine, not for ourselves, but for the kingdom of God. Since we are serving Jesus Christ, then we must do His work in the power of the Holy Spirit bringing glory to God in the Lord's House, on the Lord's Day.

Our present group consist of the following persons: Sister Katie Allen, Austin, Texas, President, Brother Charles Walker, Indianapolis, Ind. 1st Vice-President, Sister Helen Porter, Kansas City, Mo. 2nd

Vice-President, Sister Dorothy Garrison, Recording Secretary, New Orleans, La., Sister Viola F. Johnson, Jacksonville, Fla., Assistant Recording Secretary, Sister Lucille Dobbins, Financial Secretary, Sister Frankie Carter, Austin, Texas, Corresponding Secretary, Brother Charles Williams, El Cerita, Calif, Treasurer, Sister Mary K. Heard, Jacksonville, Fla. Historian; Sister Ethel Willis, Pasadena, Calif., Religious Leader, Sister Cleo McVay, Secretary to the President; Sister Ruth Davis, Austin, Texas, Musician, Brother Nelson Rowland, Ushers' Instructor; San Francisco, Calif., Rev. S. L. Davis, Austin Texas, Bible Instructor; Rev. Brandon McClellan, New Orleans, La., Assistant Bible Instructor and Sister Bertha Hutchinson, Chr. of Finance. In 1966 finance raised $300.00 and 1974 above $10,000.00. Thanks be to God for His unspeakable blessing.

Yours for Christian Service
Mary K Heard, Historian
