Familiar epistles to the Rev. Dr. Priestley, of Leeds, in Yorkshire, in which it is shewn, I. That the charges brought by him against the orthodox, are applicable to none but the people of the Doctor's own persuasion. II. That, notwithstanding his endeavors to destroy the doctrines of Christ's divinity, and the vicarious punishment of sin, the Doctor has established both, even to a demonstration. III. That what the Doctor calls rational-religion, has, according to his own account, been productive of the most unhappy and irrational consequences. IV.
