

舊三月二十三日 丁未 (丁辰 前廿二十六分 八十八夜) Got up at 5:30 AM. Shaved & dressed. Had devotions privately with the family as usual. Studied on the last 6 chapters of the Book of Daniel until breakfast time. Went to my office after breakfast then went to the Seminary to teach but found that there were no classes because of the physical examination in the college. Attended Middle School Chapel & then went to the bank to get drafts to send to the members of the Mission. Did shopping. Looked at cloth for a suit of clothes. Got back to the house about 12:30 PM. Had dinner & went back to my office & wrote letters to the members of the Mission. At 4:15 came home & got ready to go to the Furusawais for supper. The ~~old~~ <sup>old</sup> household were there. Had a good supper. Got home about 8 PM. Read the Japan Advertiser until 9:30 PM. Well up to bed.

Had a miserable night's rest. The Japanese feast evidently did not agree with me. Got up a little before 8 AM. Had usual devotions. Before breakfast, I caught 1st period in the college L.I. Attended both chapel services. Attended to a number of matters of business. There I had long consultation with Deane Sasaki of Toon. over Naotshi Ono affair. His father seems to be in collusion with his son. Had a light lunch. Took a nap & then went to my office & read "Boss Tweed". The corruption of politics was something extraordinary in his day. After 2 PM. Williamsow & I went to the bank & I went to Maruzen to buy Roger blades. Then we walked back to Gale & Co's building. Came home. I gave an order to the tailor, Ota, for a suit of clothes. Then I came home & washed the windows in our house & the Williamsow's house. We have 39 windows. They have five window-doors. I had supper after reading the Japan Advertiser. Then I read until bedtime.

三月二十五日 日曜日
 Waked up at 5 AM.
 Did not get up until 5:30 AM.
 Shaved & had devotions privately.
 Then read "Bass Tapes" with the family came down. Then had devotions with the family.
 Went to my office & then I went to ~~my office~~ the Seminary to talk to T. Then attended the Union chapel. After chapel attended to business & had consultations. Wrote to Dr. Wainright Miss White before dinner.
 When I got back to my office I read & then Mr. Koda called to see me. Then Mr. Dasaki came & read a letter for me which came from Mr. Bess about his son whom we have dismissed from school. Then we called Mr.
 Doni & talked quite awhile. Then I was called home to meet Mr.
 Uchiyama, the father of the young man who is going to America with us. At 6 PM. The boys came from Sapporo. They stayed until 8:30 PM.

三月二十六日 日曜日 Did not get up until 7 AM. Had a good night's rest I expect to be about top last night. After devotions privately with the family we had breakfast & left at 8:50 AM. for West Park where the service was to held to-day. I walked I went by the Buildings & leave the Public Advertiser. I reached West Park about 9:40 AM. Then waited for the service. It lasted about one hour. We came home but the family were late.
 Had dinner. A Mr. Tsuchikashi called to see me. He was introduced by Mr. Mrs. Bowles of Tokyo.
 He stayed quite awhile. Then I wrote to Edwin, Resainers & Jones.
 & read awhile. Had a letter from Muroshi San this morning. He wrote in Japanese. He will work in California during the summer.
 After supper I went to Ryūko Mrs. Ojima was reported worse so I started to see how she was but found out she was better.

 4 AM Gales at 3 AM. Got up a little after 6 AM. Did not sleep well last night. My stomach is still upset. After devotions & breakfast I went to school. Taught 3 periods of Bible in the 4th year classes in the Middle Schools. Then had consultation with one or two people. Attended Devotions & then came to dinner. Went to the bank after dinner. Then came back to my office. Had a consultation with the representatives of the college student body. The call dean Torii of the college for a consultation about admitting a student who left school last year. I wish to be readmitted. Before supper a committee of graduates called to see me about another student they want to get baseball player into the school. After supper the tailor came to try on a suit of clothes for me.

五月二十八日 壬子 八時八分
 Got up about 5:30 AM. Shaved & dressed. Had devotions privately with the family. Read Bible lesson for this morning in Seminary. Then I went to Middle school chapel & also college chapel. Taught English in College. 23 at 4th period & C.I. at 5th period. Had consultation with Mizoguchi Seisei. Attended faculty meeting. Then lathed Prof. Torii, Onurad & Mizoguchi about Yoshimura San whom we decided to admit into our school. Then went to my office. After that, I began to read The Japan Advertiser. The Mizoguchi called & returned by 10 AM that I thought I had given them. Had supper & wrote letters. The tailor came to try on my new suit. He stayed until after 9 PM. I shall take a bath & go to bed soon. It is a habit now to get up at 7:30 AM I wish I could sleep later.

Got up after 6 AM. Had a good night's rest. Shaved. Washed my hair. Had devotions privately with the family as usual. Went to my office & wrote to Mr. James W. Markitt. Before Chapel. Attended both college & middle school chapel services. Then taught the 3rd & 4th periods in the college. After dinner I wrote to Mr. Sampell the Biblical Recorder, or his, Dr. Farnes & then to the Baptist Sunday School Board to get our paper & magazines changed to Gainesville, La. Had a talk with Malcolm's Sam who graduated last March. Finished writing & read over Bible lessons for tomorrow in Seminary. Then I came home. Prof. St. Madras came to supper as we had a turkey which the tailor gave us. Then I went to prayer meeting. I got home about 9:30 PM. Read the Japan Advertiser & will go to bed. We decided to ask for the ordination of Got up at 6 AM. Slept fairly well but the heavy supper was not conducive to good sleep. After the usual morning devotions & breakfast I went to school. I taught 6th and the geometry at the 1st period. Talked at middle school chapel. Expected to attend college chapel but a guest called & so I could not go. After chapel I read and looked after matters in connection with the school. I came to dinner earlier than usual. I went to the bank to deposit 2411.00. I bought a pair of 19 arters for myself. Walked back to the Prefectural Building. Took the train to Suwayama Road. Had a meeting of the Deans at 3 PM. to deliberate the program for the exercises Saturday. Then I read awhile & looked after business. I came home a little after 5 PM. Then I read the Japan Advertiser. Had supper. While we were eating the Farnes Mrs. Winters bottom came in. We gave them a simple meal. They stayed until 8:20 PM. I read

"Japan in the World To Day" by Arthur D. Brown

We have been deceived by a Chinaman. I am sorry for him.
 I read until bed time. It is after 9 PM.

Waked up about 4 AM but later went back to sleep.
 Then waked again before 6 AM.
 Did not get up until a little after 6 AM. Had a shave & dressed.
 Had devotions privately with the family. Went to Sunday school and church. Taught Bible class as usual. Then attended the morning service. Mr. Yung gave us an impromptu sermon on Mother's Day. I did not think very much of it. Some people whose mothers had died write to some other woman instead. Somehow this does not appeal to me. I could not write to my one like I could to my own mother. No one can take her place in my heart I can be kind to other women but my thoughts of my mother are too sacred to be shared by another. I do not believe I have lost my sentimental side, but I do not respond to such a gift gesture.
 Had dinner & read. Then write to Edwin. Went for a walk. Then came home & read. Mrs. Bouldin called.
 Had supper & went to bed. Then came home & read. It is about 9 PM.

called to read a letter that came from Rubeus Suore. Poor young man!

Did not sleep any too well last night. Got up a little before 6 AM. Shaved & dressed. Had devotions privately with the family before breakfast.
 Went to school. Taught 3 periods in 5th year Bible, attended middle school chapel.
 Had early dinner. Attended faculty meeting in the middle school. To discuss the matter of buying the land back of the middle school.
 It lasted about an hour. The teachers are not overly enthusiastic over the prospects of raising 423,000. Then attended to matters of business. Came home & saw the tailor. Then went back to my office.
 At 5:20 PM. I went to a baseball meeting given by the teachers wives. It lasted until 8:20 PM. He sent for us & sent us home in an automobile.
 It was a very nice affair.

五月六日 己未 Waked up about 5:30 AM Got up at 6 AM. Shaved & dressed. Had devotions privately and with the family. Read Bible lesson for P.T. class in Seminary for to-day. Went to my office after breakfast and attended to a few matters of business before I went to my class. Taught Bible in Seminary. Attended both college & Middle School chapel services.
 Then read "Japan in the World to-day" by Brown. Came to my class at college at 4th period. After dinner went to the dentist to have a tooth filled as the filling came out too deep ago. Walked back as far as Shimomachi. Read until I came home. Read the Japan Advertiser.
 Had supper & spent the hours after supper in cleaning out my study desk drawers. There are many interesting letters if only had time to receipt them It is now 10 PM so I must stop and go to bed. I bought a new straw hat for ¥1.40 to-day.

五月七日 庚申 Got up about 6 AM.
 Shaved & dressed. Had devotions as usual privately & with the family. Went to my office & found a letter from Dr. Walker. Started to answer it immediately and was making progress but was interrupted. Attended Middle School chapel & then began to write again but Uchiyama came so I had to stop again. Attended college chapel & then taught 3rd & 4th periods in college. Had dinner & went to the dentist.
 Then came back & finished my letter to Dr. Walker & wrote a letter to Dr. St. Martin at Severance Hospital.
 Had meeting of committees appointed to invite Galt buying a strip of land behind the school compound.
 It lasted until after 5 PM.
 Then I came home & studied Bible lesson for to-morrow. After that supper went to prayer meeting.

 Then attended officers meeting & talk about Redburn. I would request for a letter of recommend-dation to Fourville Seminary

Had a card from Richard Jones's father saying he would send his eldest son to see me to-day about 4 PM. Then I taught my Seminary class. Went to the meeting of representatives of churches on this island & Okinawa. Stayed there until eleven AM. Went to dentist & from his office to the store that sells milk & valises. Came to dinner. Read Japan Advertiser & the Christian Index. Then went back to my office & read until seven. Spent the evening with my family. Talked to him until 3:30 PM. He came home, the family went to the Sasaki for supper. They gave us a nice time & showed us kimono they would give us.

Got up at 6 AM, shaved & dressed. Had devotions privately & with the family before breakfast. Went to school and attended 3 lessons. Taught 1st period in College. Attended chapel services both in the middle school & college. After chapel Mr. Tomi called & we talked awhile. I wrote a circular letter to the members of the Mission telling them that I plan to turn over the Treasurer's books to Mr. Mills from June. Came to dinner. Went back to my office. Read "Japan in the World Today" for awhile. Then had a meeting of the "Lunch" at 3 PM. Went with Williamson at 3:30 PM. to see a baseball game, between servant the Imperial University of Kyushu & Hawaii. It was a good game. We lost 2-4 but it was a good game. After supper Maude & I went to visit Mr. Wada. He gave us a present. Then I came home & read until bed time. The family was married early in the year but we failed to get their present to them until to-day.

 Tried to go back to sleep but was very slow about doing so. Got up a little after 6 AM Shaved and dressed. Had devotions privately & with the family before breakfast. Then I went to Sunday School and led the Adult Sunday School opening. Then taught my Bible class. After that Pastor Yuzo preached at the morning service. After the sermon. I attended a meeting of the officers & Sunday school teachers. We decided that the Adult Department should begin at 9 AM instead of 8:30 AM. But the other department should begin at 8:30 AM for awhile. Spent after-noon in walking & sleeping & writing letters. Attended J. B. U.
 I then came home & wrote to Mrs. Turner & Lake & just.
 It is now bed time.

西四月二十三日 丙子 Got up at 6 AM. Had mosquito, but slept fairly well in spite of them. After the usual morning duties I went to the school. Taught LT at 1st period.
 Attended with chapel services.
 Read Japan Adventures partly.
 Mr. Tokunaga called to see me and asked that his son be allowed to re-enter seminar. I told him he would be allowed to enter the 2nd year class if he was willing to do the year's work over. Then I came home & had dinner. Finished reading the Japan Adventures.
 Spent most of the afternoon in health meeting of the Middle School. Then I read awhile.
 After that came home & found Uchiyama's son here. He was waiting for the tailor, but he did not come. After supper I went to school & posted my books as I received of the school. Got home about 8:30 PM.
~~I went to read~~ studied awhile before going to bed. To-night I will we sleep. Edward will graduate at Wake Forest College.
