Had a good night's rest. Got up just as the clock struck 6 AM. Shaved & dressed. Helped Maude about breakfast. Did not eat any breakfast as the doctor wished to take a blood test for sugar. He failed to find any diabetes, but he advised me to stay off of bread & sugar & take much exercise. I came home & ate a fairly good sized dinner after paying the quarterly bills. I paid $2.03 for groceries, 50 for meat, & 5.85 for milk & butter, & 4.67 for water & light. Went to walk & visited Rev. Keet & Mr. John Carter. Came home & read "The Desire of All Nations" by Egbert Smith. Helvis rough lead off & called at 3 PM & stayed until after 6 PM. Had supper & read "The Desire of All Nations" & listened to the radio. Much static.

It was 6 AM when we got up. Shaved & dressed. Helped Maede about getting breakfast ready. Had breakfast & devotion with the family. Studied 3 lessons.
 Went to Sunday School. Church
 Dr. Seavell preached a good sermon. Had good Sunday School lesson. It rained until late in afternoon. Had no ride.
 Tried to listen to the radio but there was too much static. Then ~~my~~ Balton & family came up & stayed until almost 10 PM. Had supper. Helmut went to the D.P.U. Mrs. B. by Maede
 & I went to church. Heard
 Rev. Jacob Gateshaus speak about his work for the Jews.
 It was after midnight when we got home. Listened to the Radio until 10 PM.

I was tired so I went to bed.

 was had. Had lunch with Selman who was formerly with the Central Baptist Church in Fairsville.
 Wrote Maude letting her I would speak for Selman
 Sunday morning.
 Attended afternoon & night sessions of the conference.

 Had devotions & breakfast with Mr. & Mrs. Smith. Read the Atlanta Constitution. Went for a walk & to the depot to find out about train schedule to Gainesville from Athens Ga.
 Came on to the Post Office met Mr. Smith & talked to quite a number of men. Then he took me to White Plains Ga. up wished to see Miss Helen Helpatrick.
 A fine drive, but we did not find her at home. She had gone to Atlanta. Had dinner with Mr. & Mrs.
 Goodwin, the Methodist Pastor.
 His wife were there. Had fine meeting with the children.
 Studied & read until supper

Showered & washed Mr. Smith as he wished to be aroused early. He wished to take the scout to Athens to see the football game between Tech & Georgia. I had breakfast with them. Read Bible & had devotions. Read Borders of Yale awhile & then the Atlanta Constitution. Made out a list of questions for the Mission Study class & left them with Mrs. Smith. Left at 10:50 AM for Atlanta but as the train was carrying people to see the Ga-Tech football match our train reached Atlanta one hour late. I caught the 3 PM. train for Gainesville. Reached Gainesville at 6 PM. Edwin was planning to meet the train at 7:13 PM. Mary Miller is here. She reached Gainesville at 3 PM by bus from Atlanta. Had paper talk to Mary. Had supper. Read letters. Took Bath.

Showered & dressed. Helped Maude about breakfast. Had devotions with the family. Then I read over the Sunday School lessons & looked at the headlines in the Atlanta Constitution. Went to Sunday School & Church. A good lesson & a good sermon. Got home about 1 PM. Had dinner & about 2:30 PM Edwin took me all to ride in his automobile. Had a good ride over the city & out to New Holland, Cherokee & then on to the river. Went back to Riverside to see the Sunday after-noon drill by the students in Riverside Academy. It was good. Got home about 6 PM. Had supper. Went to church at night. I wrote to Pella asking her if it would be convenient for me to stop off with them the last of this week or the first of next. I also wrote to Dr. C. M. Brittain about going to the Florida Convention.

 Got up at 5:30 after a very restless sleep as I was anxious to be on time in getting Mary Mettes off on the "Belle." I spent the morning in writing & paying bills for November & going to the depot to engage a berth on the train from Atlanta to Jacksonville, Fla. Stopped to see Mr. & Mrs. John Carter on way home. Took short nap after dinner, but the plumber came & waked me up. I went to town & cashed a check that Edwin gave me for board. Talked to several friends & bought apples to take home. Had supper & Maude & I paid Cash Mrs. Fee a visit until 9:15 P.M. Came back & listened to radio until 9:40 P.M.

 Got up at 6:15 A.M. Shovel dressed. Helped Maude get breakfast & then had devotions with the family before breakfast. After breakfast spent most of the morning in type writing Helen's auto biography that she is required to hand in next week as an exercise in the English work at Breunau. Had dinner & took a bath. Wrote the last page of Helen's auto biography on typewriter. Packed my grip to leave for Jacksonville & Florida. Talked to Maude until time to go to the station. Walked to station. I feel a little uneasiness around my appendix so did not eat any supper. Am now on the Audubon for Jacksonville just out of Atlanta on my way

After a fairly good night's rest reached Jacksonville at 7:30 AM took taxi to Widdle Hotel. Found room. Charged my collar. Had breakfast & went to the First Baptist Church to attend a meeting of Florida State Baptist Convention. Had a good day & met many of my old school mates both West & Seminary mates. Heard fine address on Home Missions by Dr. Brengle of Home Board. Prof. G. Watts of Home Board in afternoon. Spoke at night on Foreign Missions. Dr. Roy also spoke on the same subject. Good meeting all day long. Dismissed on the ship's home after 11 PM when I went to bed & sleep.
