Rev. J. E. Davis,

Box 667,
El Paso, Texas.

Dear Brother Davis:-

At a meeting of the Foreign Board on yesterday the following action was taken:

"That Mr. Clarence Dixon Boone and wife, now associated with our Mexican Baptist Publishing House, El Paso, Texas, be appointed missionaries of this Board, with the usual allowance for children."

I am glad to pass this information on to you and I hope the action will be welcomed by Brother Boone, whose services we have much appreciated and whom we will be glad to have associated thus more intimately with our work.

I hope you are feeling better. Let me advise that you keep in touch with your Doctor and have him watch symptoms and, on his advice, take the best care of yourself that you can.

Yours fraternally,

Corresponding Sec'y.

Dear Brother:

I have received yours of the 12th, but the copy of Evangelistic Sunday School Lessons has not yet arrived. I think that we need this series of lessons in our Spanish work very much and in fact was planning to get different brethren to work on these lessons as soon as possible, but as they have already been gotten out in English perhaps it would be easier to translate them than to write them up ourselves.

My doctor insists that it will be impossible for me to continue in this place carrying this heavy responsibility and I am at loss to know just what to do or say. I had been hoping to hear from you before now but I suppose you have been very busy attending state conventions and especially since you have all the work to do at the present time. I shall write to you in a few days giving in detail what may seem to me to be the best course to pursue under the circumstances.

Wishing you a merry Christmas and a happy New Year, I am,

Yours sincerely,

J. E. Davis
