Dr. J. F. Love,
Richmond, Va.

Dear Brother:

I wonder whether you have gone yet or not, and case you have I wonder whether Dr. Ray has returned or not. It has been so long since I have had a word from there that I am wondering whether you have entirely forgotten us.

Yet I see you had a meeting and appointed a lot of new missionaries the other day, among them a man and his wife from Mexico. That is certainly encouraging. Hope we may soon have ten or a dozen more. We need them. Must have them.

I want to get into communication with Bro. Branch, and as I do not have his address, I would be glad you would supply it on the letter I am inclosing and send it on to him. Please.

May the Lord richly bless the work the coming year.

Faternally yours,

J. E. Davis
