Dear Brother:

I thank you for your prompt reply to my former letter. I did not get the pass I wanted but got some special concessions that will help me some. Perhaps later on I can get what I want.

I am sending you by mail a copy of our latest book "Efigies Bautistas". I want you to see what we can do here in our Publishing House.

I had hoped before this to send you a copy of the report I made to the Mission with some special requests which you must consider and which I hope you will consider favorably. I have put in quite a good deal of time on this and feel that something must be done. In a few days I hope to have time to write you extensively.

For the present I want you to see the book and put it where other people can see it. We have other books almost ready for the bindery. We are getting back to normal, though of course everything costs more than before the war.

May the Lord lead you and bless you abundantly.

Yours sincerely,

J. E. Davis
