We the members of this Conference in order in order the more effectually to forward the cause of Christ in this part of the vineyard, promote Christian unity & foster Brotherly Love; and in order that these two missions may have some common rules of procedure by which to be governed do most heartily recommend the following:-

I That no missionary leave his field of labor for more than one month without consent of the mission & that no vacation be extended more than two months except in special cases.

II That a missionary in returning home shall thoroughly pack up all of his or her goods, chattels &c and shall store the same away in such a room or closet as the members of the station there present shall agree upon; and goods there stored shall not be moved unless so ordered by the mission.

III (1) That all house-rents, whether it be for a day or for a year, shall be regarded as mission money & shall be placed in the mission treasury.

(2) The case of single missionaries renting a portion of a

+ house + to occupy + boarding with such writers

~~house + renting a portion to outsiders + boarding~~ with ~~those occupying the house~~ shall not be considered an exception to the above rule. - the house rent shall (c) go into the mission treasury

In special cases there shall be no objection shall be raised to missionaries taking in boarders;

In ~~all~~ such cases nothing shall be expected to be paid into the mission treasury unless the room or rooms occupied by the boarders be needed for mission use, in which case the amount charged for boarders room-rent shall be determined by the mission.

IV That all damage done to mission property or property rented for use of Ms such as breakage of glasses, shutters, doors, locks &c + special injury done by servants * children + others shall be made good by the missionaries occupying the ~~said~~ property at the time when the damage was done

V That all necessary changes or additions to M. property shall be M. expense, but when a change or addition is simply a matter of taste it shall be done at a Missionary's own expense "

VI That all books bought with mission money be marked Mission Property

VII That charges for collecting cheques be considered Mission expenses. charges to the mission

VIII That ~~nothing~~ a copy of these resolutions be sent to the Board for their consideration

IX That nothing herein ~~suggested~~ referred to shall be considered as finding fault with any person or persons but ~~that~~ the intent is ~~that it might promote~~ to promote & encourage ~~Christian~~ unity and ~~foster~~ brotherly love.
