Rev. J. M. Frost,
Nashville, Tenn.

Dear Brother:-

A telegram came from Georgetown to the Courier Journal, claiming to be authentic, that you had been called. M.M. Riley was in our office and said that he supposed the matter was genuine. I am sorry since you did not accept, and seemed to prefer that a notice had not been put in, but we feel that the college honored you and got honor unto itself, and therefore, no harm has come. I took pains to wire the paper the contradiction from Stanford, when I found that it was not so.

Yours very truly,

Dictated.
