AR. SSB 109

THE BAPTIST ARGUS

ILLUSTRATED CHURCH AND HOME WEEKLY

EDITORIAL DEPARTMENT

529 THIRD AVENUE
LOUISVILLE

1.02.08

Dear Dr. Frost:

I think Mr. Rowland has made a mistake. I have not read the book & so do not know how far he is off in this case. His pronouncement is wrong, the will have to modify or retract. The Argus takes issue with his position this week.

I am glad you have gotten out this book & put the fore down. It ought to do good permanently.

Bell did us a great piece of work at the Seminary. There is nothing doing in Louisville these days. Come & rouse us up.

Yours

J. H. Eastburn

THE BAPTIST ARGUS

ILLUSTRATED CHURCH AND HOME WEEKLY

EDITORIAL DEPARTMENT

AR 558 109

529 THIRD AVENUE
LOUISVILLE

1.00.00.

Dear Hester Frost:

I am through, from the first, the chapter on "Holy of Holies" The Chapters before that are good reading, but, of course, the matter is more in common with the thinking of the brotherhood. I think I have a little over fork the thoughts that we do not commune with each other. In a great & true sence we are "one in Him" as we commune. But I wish to express what I feel about the "Holy of Holies" chapter. I am thinking of how we could put upon the S.S. Board an express command from the S.B.C. to get out this chapter & the one on "Baptism of Christ", in neat track editions, & see that the state boards put them into hands of every Baptist family in the South. If we cd. get that done, also the crucial chapter in Dr. Mullins' "Axioms", a new Baptist Era wd. dawn. I am thinking of giving public notice in Argus that I will offer a resolution to that effect in Hot Springs. That is a great chapter. Yours

J. H. Prestridge