

The Fall - 3

Account of Man's Primitive Condition - innocent - at peace with God - living on fruits - untroubled - none of the mental but with capacity for immortality

Salient points -

1. Temptation comes like a serpent -
2. Succeeds at first by exciting our curiosity - craving to taste evil - element of mystery - 3. Unbelief in God's goodness finds entrance and quells man's enjoyment - distinct loss -
4. One taste spelled ruin -
" " alters our attitude towards God - " " alters our attitude towards life - 5. The first result of sin is shame - 6. God provided covering to make it possible for him to be in God's presence 7. Sin's effects extend on to other generations -
8. There is always a way back to God

Creation - 1, 2

Scientific purpose or method not in mind of author or readers -

Truths - there has been a creation - God wills

1. There has been a creation - all things -
+ fashions all things -

2. Man, the chief creation - for his make all the other things were made - all else preparatory -

Man is born to God because he is like him -

Man alone among God's works can enter into & approve of God's purpose in the world -

Collyer Simon
mark 10
Warren a bro.
Tulane
Come here in 49