God give us men

God give us men! A time like this demands strong minds, great hearts, true faith & willing hands.
Men whom the lust of office does not kill;
Men whom the spoils of office cannot ~~buy~~;
Men who possess opinions & a will.
Men who have honor, men who will not lie;
Men who can stand before a demagogue,
And damn his treacherous flatteries without winking.
Tall men, sun-crowned, who live above the fog.

In public duty & in private thinking;
For while the rabble with their thumb-worn creeds
Their large professions & their little deeds
Mingle in selfish strife - lo, freedom weep,
Wrong rules the land, and waiting justice sleep.
