To my Daddy

Since early days, I've loved to run and jump and just be jolly;

To swing from trees, or jump off roofs
.... and sometimes play with Holly.

But whether skating break-neck speed or making a mud pattie,

You'd always find me heading home when it's dinner time with Daddy.

As I look back, I'm awful scared that most times I didn't show,

How much I really love you Dad, But, then, I guess you know.

I love you Dad not only 'cause you've paid the bills and housed me,

But mostly 'cause you've loved and kept by being "my own Daddy".

Oh how I wish that I could say all that's down in the heart of me,

But all my heart will let me say is,
"Dad, I love you dearly".
