5/20/45 [redacted] When Johnny Comes marching Home. Is [redacted] 66:18

Some will not come back.

What He will be like?
(not a boy-(or girl)-) older + more mature - serious -
Some wounded - crippled - blind - empty sleeves -
Some cynical + hardened -
Some bowed in sin - drunken - immoral - dissipated.
Some clean, strong, ready for life -
Some with a mighty faith - miracles -

What will he find here -?

Busy people - hard pressed -
Cold, formal church members -
Prayerless homes -
Pleasure mad people - (Derby)
Hungry hearts -

What we can do for him?
Be clean, reverent, Christian - Pray - consecration
Give him a genuine welcome -
Give him a real place to serve -
Give him an atmosphere that will be conducive

Lincoln's Gettysburg Address - "not died in vain"

5/20/45 [redacted] [redacted] [redacted] 4

He Comes:

1. Convinced that the war must be last war - Civilization cannot stand another war -
2. Shaken by the tragic experiences he has encountered
3. Disillusioned as to the innate goodness of the human ra
4. Determined that his world will not demand his childre for war
5. Sensitive to the clamant need of the world for help -
6. Looking to the Christian church to solve the problem

Do we have the answer? Yes! Jesus Christ -

He is the
- only basis for world unity + brotherhood -
- only hope for true peace
- only source of adequate dynamic -
- only Saviour from sin -

If Harry Truman - go down in history as greatest presid let him call the nation back to God -

"If my people ---

"seek ye first the Kingdom of God -

Live clean - obey God - win others -

How can you go on in sin? "If I regard iniquity in my heart. --" Ps 66:18

"for their sakes I sanctify myself"
