John Killinger

Dean of Kentucky Southern College,
Louisville, Kentucky

THE THICKNESS OF GLORY

Ten sermons related to the inadequacy of language to speak of God and of the human mind to comprehend him. Dr. Killinger uses his literary and theological talents to successfully develop his thesis that "crucifixion-resurrection" is the only clue to meaningful existence. (1a) $2.75

Paul Tournier

Physician, psychiatrist, lecturer in Switzerland

THE HEALING OF PERSONS

This renowned doctor uses case histories illustrating again and again how the healing of the spirit is allied with the healing of the body. Among the contents are: Overwork and Idleness, Accepting Life, Confession, Realism, and other interesting subjects. (9h) $4.95

R. Earl Allen

Pastor of Rosen Heights Baptist Church,
Fort Worth, Texas

TRIALS, TRAGEDIES, AND

TRIUMPHS

Provocative meditations on the last words of our Lord's earthly ministry. Filled with deeply moving illustrations and sound biblical teachings, the book examines seven words before the cross, seven words from the cross, and seven words after the cross. (6r) $2.95

Standpoint

A statistical "mirror" is provided in this HANDBOOK issue. Southern Baptists can well take an honest, self-evaluative look at their countenance. Approach to the mirror should not be in a spirit of pride or self-aggrandizement. Rather, what we see must be weighed in terms of what God calls us to be and do, and in relation to spiritual hunger of lost millions of persons in our world.

Taking the areas of church activity covered by the statistics as a whole, there is cause for rejoicing and serious concern alike. Certain areas continue on a plateau, showing no significant fluctuations. Others keep moving on a very slight upward course, while some show a tendency to lose ground. In a few areas, such as those of total and mission giving, music ministry, and church building construction, notable growth trends are being extended.

Many observers, within and outside the Southern Baptist Convention, hold the opinion that Southern Baptists exert a uniquely important influence in momentous cultural, social, and spiritual tides of the day. If so, our influence must either be constructive or negative. Like Pilate of another day, we cannot shake free of our responsibility merely by "washing our hands" of it. Are we Christian enough to match our responsibility with the necessary commitment and action?

Grateful acknowledgment is made of the dedicated church and associational clerks, state convention personnel, and staff members whose efforts make the dissemination and study of denominational statistics possible.

CITIZENSHIP FOR CHRISTIANS

by Foy Valentine

Points out the inescapable responsibility of the Christian as a citizen in any democratic community. In an era of big government—local, state, and national—this book urges Christians to be informed, to be true to their principles, and to be active in community life.

TAIWAN AS I SAW IT

by Juliette Mather

This missionary author shares her impressions of the land of Taiwan and its people. In this book she tells of the country, its industry, political life, school systems, Buddhism and Taoism, festivals of the people, and the thrust of Christianity.

GREAT TEACHERS MAKE A DIFFERENCE

by Gaines S. Dobbins

The author, a great teacher himself, pays tribute to great teachers of his life and how they have influenced the course of his life. His first chapter pays tribute to his mother, a Sunday school teacher, and two other teachers who helped to set the course of his life. The other chapters describe the influence of great teachers such as E. Y. Mullins, John R. Sampey, A. T. Robertson, Charles S. Gardner, I. J. Van Ness, and George Albert Coe. This book appeals for more people in the churches to give themselves to the ministry of teaching.
