LOUISVILLE: FRIDAY, JULY 19, 1923. Prof. Park and the "New Theology."

Prof. Edwards A. Park, of Andover Theological Seminary, has issued a pamphlet in the past few days giving a somewhat elaborate statement of the creed of the Seminary with which he has long been connected. He thinks it high time that Andover should stand squarely on the record as to the question, "Can Andover afford to have the Andover chairs be legally occupied by persons who teach the new views?" He states just what the theological teachings of the institution have been, and what they are required to be, according to the very terms of the charter. He next specifies four articles of faith as essential to the integrity of the Andover creed, viz., the Bible as its religious and moral teachings as entirely trustworthy; all the moral actions of every man before God are governed by the Divine Spirit as opposed to the divine law and are sinful; the atonement made by the Son of God, in taking upon himself the office of high priest, and offering his blood as a sacrifice for all men; his sacrificial pains and death being inflicted by the Father, and being substituted by the Father for the actual punishment of believers; and the present life is the only state of probation. The Professor argues that a man, to hold a position as teacher in the Seminary, should not only believe the truth in general, but that he should hold and teach it just as it is formulated in the text. To all of which we most gladly and heartily assent. We are glad that Prof. Park has taken this manly and straightforward course. The Seminary and the pulpit should be more carefully guarded than they are these latter days. Simple learning, broad and accurate linguistic scholarship, a general acquaintance with ecclesiastical history, and the mutations of religious thought, should not be the prime prerequisites in the theological professor, no more than intellectual brilliance and the ability to declaim should be the prime requisites in the preacher. Both the Seminary and the pulpit are supposed to have a creed. If they have none, then both God and man can dispense with them. The object of both is to educate men in the truths of the Bible, to train them in the absolute knowledge of God; and for a purpose, that of the Seminary being to fit men called of God to preach the truth, that of the pulpit being to fit men by the preaching of the truth for effective Christian service. In order to the maintenance of the integrity of the creed of either Seminary or pulpit, it is essential that those who occupy them shall be in harmony with the creed. If they are not, they should get out. If they do not get out of themselves, but remain and antagonize the faith of which they are the avowed representatives, then they should be helped out. At all hazards, the integrity of our creeds must be preserved intact and entire.

EDITORIAL VARIETIES.

The Baptists and Methodists at Arlington, Ky., are to have a debate, the former to be represented by Rev. T. H. Pettit.

Rev. J. J. Stewart, that correspondent, address him for the present at Bardonia, Va.

The architect is changing the plans of Chestnut Street Baptist church so as to make the front of pressed brick instead of stone.

Of the contributions made to pay off the debt on the Broadway church, Louisville, Rev. Geo. W. Horton gave $5,000, Rev. W. C. Hill, $2,500, $2,125, and others gave lesser amounts, which, added to some private subscriptions, Dr. Pritchard had previously secured, pays the debt in full.

The Hopewell Baptist church, Compton county, Ala., has passed resolutions of disavowal against all other Baptist churches that accept the doctrine of "Alms-Consecration," or endorse the missions work. The church declares the doctrine unscriptural and of evil tendency, and will refuse no aid in fellowship who holds it.

J. T. Hertz, Md., J. F. Hertz, Ok. Ok.

Will some of our correspondents please call us something more about this "Alms-Consecration"? Is it the same as this modern sanctification that we hear so much about?

The Minutes and Members Meeting, of Salem Association, will meet with Valley Creek church, Hardin Co., Ky., Tuesday, July 24th, at 10 o'clock.

For further information, from Rev. J. E. Kennedy, of Owen county, Mo., on the 12th. He physicians then considered his case very favorable.

Dr. J. L. Burrows is expected to preach in the Broadway church, this city, on the 25th Sunday in this month.

Rev. J. J. Burnett, of Tennessee, a graduate of the Seminary in the class of 1882, has accepted a temporary call to Greensburg, Ind. Preaching in a flourishing little city of about 6,000 people. The church has about 250 members, well organized and active.

Bro. D. T. Hale, Md., (father of the pastor at New Liberty and Danville), passed through this city with his family the other day on route for New Liberty where they will make their home. Bro. H. has been journeying for the last two years in Arkansas, but previously in Alabama and Mississippi.

The Gray's bookers will represent the Pitts Point Academy at Pitts Point, South Carolina, Ky., the first Monday in September. They will have two boarding houses, one for boys and one for girls, with a backpack connection. They will also run a bank from Belmont, on the L. & N., railroad to Pitts Point.

The emperor of Japan has taken the liberty to take up his residence in Okinawa. He has appointed a commission to devise methods for the suppression of the liquor traffic.

THE SABBATH SCHOOLS.

Philadelphia, Pa. The pastor's patient preached morning and night to good congregations.

Brookings—Pastor preached morning and night. At the close of the morning service $2,000 was raised, which, added to what had previously been raised, is about enough to rebuild the church of God. In working off this debt Dr. Pritchard has done a grand feat. We shall have to look for increased prosperity in this church.

Clatsop—Pastor preached morning and night to good congregations.

But—Pastor preached. Report two to this week. The new church, which had previously been raised, is about enough to rebuild the church of God. In working off this debt Dr. Pritchard has done a grand feat. We shall have to look for increased prosperity in this church.

Portland—Pastor preached morning and night at Fifth-street church at 8 o'clock.

Rev. E. F. Gill preached at Fifth-street church in the morning and at Fourth-street church at night.

Rev. W. E. Cole reports his Sunday-school membership and Male in a growing condition.

Rev. T. B. Webster preached at night at Eleventh and Market. He continues the meeting there every night this week assisted by Bro. J. E. Wright.

Rev. W. H. Strickland, of Greenville, S. C., accepts the call to the Edgemoor church, Nashville.

Rev. A. E. Owen, of Virginia, wife of Dr. L. Owen, has received a letter from the Board of Bishops (Va.) College. It was one of the most beautiful pieces of work pointing to the South as the land.

Rev. W. C. Owen, D.D., LL.D., President of Baylor University, Texas, has a book in press titled, Life and Social History of the South. This book is to be published by Scribner.

It is stated that Dr. Duncan will come from Cincinnati to Rochester, N. Y. He will commence his labors in the latter city September 1.

Rev. E. M. Dudley preached a strong temperance sermon at the Baptist church Sunday morning. It made a deep impression on his audience.—Georgetown, Texas.

Mr. Spurgeon having been represented in the Richmond Convention as saying that he would rather be a cannibal than a non-communicant Baptist, the editor of the Central Baptist wrote to him to know if he had ever made such a statement. The following is his reply, dated June 20th.

Dear Sir: I am not in the habit of speaking disrespectfully of non-communicant Baptists, for I have a full conviction of their sincerity and of the value of their work. I would sooner be a cannibal than a non-communicant Baptist. I never thought of, or certainly never said, as you say, that I would rather be a cannibal than a non-communicant Baptist. I have not the slightest objection to be one of the latter. Yours truly, E. M. Dudley.

Our esteemed brother, Rev. H. C. Wickham, of Allegheny, Ky., is visiting friends in Missouri. He is a man of culture, "an able minister of the Gospel," and a man of high character. We are sure our brethren will enjoy his preaching wherever they can get an opportunity to hear him.—Central Baptist.

The Palmetto-street church, Mobile, is without a pastor.

The Peace Baptist Herald is to be moved to Austin.

Rev. H. Woodruff has closed his connection with the colored Normal School of Indiana and has moved to Chicago to preach.

Bro. W. B. Wiggins, of Wake Forest College, and son of Dr. W. M. Wiggins, of blessed memory, has decided that God has called him to preach the Gospel. We understand that Bro. Wiggins, after spending much time at Wake Forest College, is now the Secretary at Louisville.—Baldwin Baptist.

Dr. Landrum's work in New Orleans is encouraging. Recently, two young men were received as baptists. The church subscribed $100,000 to liquidate its debt.

President Dudley has undertaken to raise $100,000 for Georgetown College. This should be easy, considering the wealth of Kentucky and the great value this college has already been to the State.—Times Baptist Herald.

Rev. J. H. Hambrick, Ministerial pastor at Vicksburg, has resigned, to take effect July 1st.

Where open communion has prevailed, Baptists have been least prosperous and least numerous. Compare, for instance, Baptist strength and growth in England and America.—Georgetown, Texas.

The Tronmont Temple church, Boston, numbers 1,253 members. During the three years' pastorate of Dr. Ellis, there have been 887 additions and a net gain of 128.

President Arthur has four sisters who are Baptists.

Dr. Gwin, of Atlanta, is to preach the commencement sermon before the University of Mississippi.

All the churches in Chicago, except one or two, have repairs to be made. They are to be completed during the summer months. Immanuel church (Dr. Lorraine's) is to have a Sunday from Dr. Manly and one from Dr. E. M. Dudley. Dr. Lorraine being absent in Europe.

Archbishop Willard died at St. Martin's, Conn., July 6th.

The writer has attended 150 more morning prayers at the Springfield Baptists to assist in the preaching work, "against this unloading of European burdens we have a right to take up our cross and fight the Roman proscriptions for other nations in Europe."

Not in 25 years has there been such a religious awakening in Yale College as now.

Our Fishermen.

Why do we keep the dogs from catching the fish? We have a dog named "Duke" who is a fisherman.

It is estimated that there are 1,200,000 tons of fish in the Chesapeake Bay. The fish are being caught by the Chesapeake and Potomac rivers.

"You have been weeping, I perceive, my daughter. What has happened to you?" Little Mary, who had just returned from school, replied in a low and subdued manner...

"What were you reading, Mary?"

"In the New Testament, mother, where it tells all about Jesus, and how he died for our sins, and how he rose again."

"Mother, will not God hear me if I pray to him to give you a heart to love and serve Him?"

"Mother, will not God hear me if I pray to him to give you a heart to love and serve Him? I did not pray so when I was a child, but I pray that God would help me to keep my good resolution, and that I may love God with all my soul and all my strength."

Yes, Mary, God can and will hear the lowest whisper of prayer from sincere and contrite hearts.

Yes, Mary, God can and will hear the lowest whisper of prayer from sincere and contrite hearts. He is ready to forgive your sins when you humbly confess them before Him, and ask his mercy, as I overheard you in your little room last night before you retired. No doubt that was the one time when your heart was so afflicted by the sufferings of Christ this morning. My child, you can never make me happier than when you draw near to your Heavenly Father and Friend. He will bless you in it."

World that all little children would read, understand, and feel and act as if they were the children of God.
