Send us the News From Your Church and District Association. Let Us Help You

Hoyt Ayers goes from the First Baptist Church of Auburn, Ala., to the Clayton Street Church in Montgomery, Ala.

Dr. W. B. Tatum, of the Southern Seminary office, on June 5 preached at the First Baptist Church of Pine Bluff, Ark.

President Samuel S. Hill, Georgetown College, delivered the commencement address to the Midway High School graduates at their final exercises.

Dean Floy S. Wise of Wayland College, in Texas, has been made President of the Grand Canyon College, Prescott, Arizona.

Miss Fannye Holladay, Columbia, Kentucky, who died recently, left the Mountain Preachers' Bible School half of her entire estate which amounts to $57,000.

Pastor Don Pemberton, of the Belfrey Baptist Church, Pond Creek, Ky., has been helping Pastor C. B. Stephens in a revival meeting at Grace Baptist Church, Shelbiana, Ky., recently.

The Third Avenue Church of Louisville has now passed the 1,300 mark in membership, and 604 of these have come in the last three years—309 of them by baptism—since Brother T. E. Williams has been pastor there.

Dr. O. T. Binkley stated in an address at Ridgecrest recently that he saw over a London pastor's door these words: "Lord, make my house thine, until thine shall be mine." If all our homes were so dedicated we would bear a more effective witness.

Baylor University broke all of its own records this year by graduating more than 1,000 at its recent commencement. Ground was broken for the new J. B. Tidwell Bible Department Building. President E. D. Head and Dr. Kyle M. Yates were the speakers.

J. H. Anderson, prominent Baptist layman, died at his home in Knoxville, Tenn., on Sunday morning, May 22, at the same time the sessions of the Southern Baptist Convention were being held in Oklahoma City, Okla. More will be written about him in a future issue of the Western Recorder.

Dr. E. C. Stevens, Associate Pastor of the Clifton Baptist Church, and also directing the new work at Clifton Heights Baptist Mission in Louisville, has left the Kentucky Baptist Hospital, where he has been a patient for some days, and has returned to his home, 187 Vernon, Louisville. He is up and around at this writing, though he lies down a part of each day.

A biography of Dr. Robert G. Lee, President of the Southern Baptist Convention and pastor of the Bellevue Baptist Church of Memphis, has been written by Dr. E. Schuyler English, and is soon to be published by The Zondervan Publishing House, Grand Rapids, Mich. The book is to bear a publication date in the coming fall.

Dr. Walter L. Johnson, native Kentuckian now pastor of the First Church of Fayetteville, Ark., preached in a revival recently at the First Church of Dumas, Ark. The revival resulted in 35 additions. Pastor Cecil Goff is rejoicing over the completion of a $200,000 education building and pastorium. They are now prepared to accommodate a Sunday school of 1,000 pupils.

L. C. Kelly, Clear Creek Mountain Preachers' School, writes: "For a number of years we had a four-weeks' summer school for preachers at Clear Creek Springs. We have decided to go back to that for two weeks this year, July 11-22, especially for the benefit of our former students who have not been able to come the whole eight months, and for all preachers who can come for that time."

While the First Baptist Church, Pineville, was without a pastor, Dr. T. D. Brown, Clear Creek Mountain Preachers' Bible School, has been supplying the pulpit. The brethren report they have been thriving on the spiritual food Dr. Brown set before them. Now that the Pineville church has a pastor, Dr. Brown will be available for supply work. He needs no introduction to Kentucky churches—he is one of our strongest, best men.

Dr. Othell Hand became Associate Pastor to the First Baptist Church of Yazoo City, Miss., the first of the month, and will remain there for the summer. He graduated from Mississippi College and took his Th.M. and Th.D. from the Southern Seminary. His wife is a graduate of the Seminary's School of Music. At the conclusion of the summer Dr. and Mrs. Hand will go to Richmond, Va., where he will be Director of Religious Activities and instructor in the Department of Religion at the University of Richmond.

Prof. T. Fujii (pronounced Fu-gi), of the faculty of one of the schools in Japan, has now been confined to the Kentucky Baptist Hospital for about five weeks, according to Chaplain Zech Ford Bond. He and a lady worker were picked out from among the native Japanese workers, and given scholarships to study in the United States. However, soon after Brother Fujii's arrival he developed a lung condition, so that he has not been able to accomplish much study. He intended to study at the Southern Seminary and the University of North Carolina. His physician thinks he is improving. Dr. W. O. Carver is making regular visits to his bedside and is keeping the Foreign Board and his family of a wife and four children in Japan informed of his condition.

Ronald Roberson Ordained

Bro. Ronald Roberson was ordained to the full Gospel Ministry at Campbellsville Baptist Church, Wednesday evening, 7:30, May 11, 1949.

The following brethren composed the presbytery: Roy Huston, Carl Loy, R. G. Dowell, Wm. Bread, Cova Duvall, W. O. Spencer, R. A. Slinker, Henry Mardis, Clyde Voyles, Phillip Corbin, Aubrey Dix, J. R. Young, Charles Warren, V. P. Perkins, Harvey F. Morrison, J. T. Glenn, T. S. Curry.

Rev. T. S. Curry presided as moderator. Rev. V. P. Perkins acted as clerk, Rev. R. A. Slinker interrogated the candidate, Rev. Roy Huston gave the charge to the candidate and the church, Rev. J. T. Glenn presented the Bible and Rev. Harvey F. Morrison preached the ordination sermon. After prayer by Rev. Charles Warren the presbytery laid on hands.

Brother Roberson was a member of Campbellsville Church until he completed his work at Campbellsville College. Having recently been called as pastor of the Charleston Baptist Church, Charleston, Illinois, Brother Roberson will move there upon completion of his work at Georgetown College soon.

Young Brother Roberson is one of the first ministers to go out from Campbellsville Baptist Church, where he is highly respected and loved, and all who know him, predict a great future for him in the ministry."

"Evangelism According to Christ"

Dr. Gaines S. Dobbins, since 1920 a member of Southern Baptist Theological Seminary's faculty, has written a book which many consider his greatest—Evangelism According to Christ.

In classes and in personal conversations Dr. Dobbins has all along urged that the prime need of our day is a return to the New Testament pattern in doctrine and practice. That urge is crystalized in this great, new book on Evangelism. Dr. Dobbins is the author of many widely acclaimed books, but in this latest work he goes beyond anything yet presented.

That the readers may gain a glimpse of the heart and purpose of the author, we take the liberty of quoting a few sentences from a personal note from Dr. Dobbins. He says: "Of all the books that I have been privileged to write, I would rather that this book be read than any other. It represents what for me has become a passionate concern—the recovery of New Testament evangelism. If we Southern Baptists lose our evangelistic effectiveness we shall have lost our chief claim to true greatness. Yet every pastor knows that fruitful evangelism is becoming more and more difficult.

"I have written this book in the conviction that we must make the evangelism of Jesus Himself our studied model. Twenty years of teaching Evangelism in the Seminary have gone into the development of the thesis of this book."

Dr. Dobbins adds, and we think, rightly, "As we turn to 1950, the second half of this tragic century, we must make the evangelism of Jesus our major. My earnest prayer is that the book will help make this true."

All the way through Dr. Dobbins magnifies Christ and His methods. This book will kindle the evangelistic fires in the hearts of our people and bring about, we trust, a new day. It is comforting, in this day of doubts, to read the thoughts of a great scholar who holds high the banner of a supernatural and sin-bearing Saviour, and who tells his students and readers that their chief business is the winning of lost men to Him.

Northern Baptists Move to Change Name

The Northern Baptist Convention meeting recently in San Francisco took steps toward changing its name—a name which, in the minds of some, harks back to strife-torn days of the Civil War.

A special committee's report contained a suggestion that the Convention change its name to The American Baptist Convention; but the Convention set aside the recommendation as such and voted unanimously to invite all Baptist groups within the United States to join with them in the forming of a completely new body—The American Baptist Convention.

There is no escaping the conclusion that strong feeling has centered around the two words, Northern and Southern. Though nearly all who knew the strife-torn days of the Civil War have passed on where there is no more bitterness, at least some of the old feeling was handed down. But in the main a new generation has arisen—a people thinking somewhat less in terms of North and South and more in terms of the country as a whole. Perhaps it was from this angle, in part, that the Northern Baptist Convention took steps to drop a part of its name. There is no questioning that a name like The American Baptist Convention in place of a name denoting territorial limits will have an appeal for many. It is not likely, however, that Southern Baptist churches in large numbers will accept the invitation to join in the forming of the new Convention if and when it is organized.

There are certain organic alliances into which the Northern Baptist Convention has entered which would constitute real barriers for the rank and file of our Southern Baptist churches . . . notably, the Federal Council of Churches and the World Council of Churches. The great majority of our churches favor co-operation with other religious bodies in the gaining of common objectives . . . The American Bible Society is one instance of such co-operation . . . but there is wide difference between this and organic union. Those who have tested the temper of the Southern Baptist Convntion at this point know how it feels about it.

And then, too, Southern Baptist churches already face the problem of a congested Convention. The creation of a Convention of nation-wide scope would but add to the problem of size. Our people are looking for a solution to the Convention-congestion-problem (one that will preserve our spiritual democracy, not destroy it) rather than an enlarged Convention that would increase the difficulty.

A change in name for the Southern Baptist Convention has been widely suggested in favor of a designation more descriptive of its vastly increased field of operation. But Southern Baptists are not looking for a change in emphasis.

Dr. V. I. Masters Suffers Stroke

News has just reached this office that Dr. V. I. Masters, former editor of the Western Recorder, has suffered a stroke of paralysis at his home in De Soto, Florida. He is in a hospital near his home. We do not have many of the details yet, but the readers will be kept informed as we hear. His many friends in Kentucky will be remembering him in prayer that God's presence and blessings may be with him. He is about eighty-two years of age and has been active for a man of his years since his retirement.

Southern Baptists Transact Another Year's Business in Oklahoma City Convention

Thursday Afternoon

In the absence of Dr. W. O. Carver, Louisville, the report of the Southern Baptist Historical Society was read by the Secretary H. I. Hester. The report brought in two general recommendations, the first seeking a larger membership, and the second a larger number of books, papers, manuscripts, minutes and documents which have an historical significance to be added to the collection in the Society's archives and library now housed in the Southern Seminary library.

Dr. Gaines S. Dobbins, Louisville, presented the report of the Committee on Church Organizations. During the year an Inter-Agency Council, composed of representatives from the Sunday School Board, the Foreign Mission Board, the Home Mission Board, the Baptist Brotherhood, and the Woman's Missionary Union, was formed at the suggestion of the committee and has held two meetings. The report, as presented by Dr. Dobbins, was a re-affirmation of the report of last year, and proposed that its committee be increased from six to ten members. The Convention approved the recommendations.

The work of the Radio Committee was made by Sam P. Lowe, but its report contained no specific recommendations. Discussing it were Allen W. Graves, Ramsey Pollard, and J. D. Grey, J. Marvin Adams, Middlesboro, Ky., spoke about the new Radio Building in Atlanta, purchased during the past year. "We now have our own Baptist Radio Building," said Dr. Adams. "It is the only one in the South, and we now have a place to keep our offices, our records, our studio and our equipment."

Alton Reid, Radio Secretary of Texas, spoke about low power FM radio transmission which is about to be opened by all groups. It is a ten-watt transmitter that can be installed for about $2,500 or less, and will operate like a public address system, with no time-limit on broadcasts. It will cover a radius of five miles, and the cost of maintenance about $100 a year. Sets are available today only for educational institutions, but our Southern Radio Commission has had communication with the Federal Communications Commission on this matter. Soon a decision will be made by them, which Dr. Reid anticipated would be in our favor. It is operated with the ease of a public address system.

Edwin S. Preston, President of Cumberland University, Lebanon, Tenn., talked about television, which he said was "the greatest medium of expression which has ever yet been invented."

Sam P. Lowe spoke on the new duties entailed in their audio-visual work, what ought to be produced in this field; what equipment will be needed to produce that material; and the best possible pattern of co-operation between the agencies of the SBC and the Radio Commission.

Duke K. McCall announced a total cash collection of $4,965.05 given by convention messengers toward the local expenses of entertaining the Convention.

The report of the Committee to Study the Field of Theological Education, as made by Dr. John H. Buchanan, as previously reported in the Western Recorder, with one slight change recommended by Ramsey Pollard, was adopted.

Some real excitement developed during the report by Perry F. Webb on the location of a new western assembly. The committee brought in a majority report recommending the location at Harrison, Arkansas. A minority report read by Phillip McGahey moved that Glorieta, New Mexico, be substituted for Harrison, Ark. Discussion followed by C. P. Logan, secretary of the Training Union in Missouri, who hoped that neither report would be adopted, and made a motion that the matter be tabled. His motion lost. Wayne DeHoney, of Paducah, Ky., Otto Bate and Patrick W. Murphy spoke. The minority report won, and on motion of Duke K. McCall the report as amended was referred to the Sunday School Board to study what is involved in the development of the Glorieta site, asking the said Sunday School Board to report to this convention a year hence.

Porter M. Bailes nominated Robert G. Lee, Memphis, Tenn., for re-election as President. With Vice President W. Maxey Jarman in the chair, Dr. Lee was elected by acclamation by a rising vote.

E. D. Solomon nominated Homer G. Lindsay, Florida, for vice president. Bruce H. Price nominated E. Hermond Westmoreland, Texas. J. W. Buckner, Arkansas, nominated J. D. Grey, and I. L. Yearby nominated Senator Robert S. Kerr, of Oklahoma, for the same office. While the ballots were being counted motion was made and passed that the two receiving the largest number of votes be declared First and Second Vice President. This resulted in the election of J. D. Grey, New Orleans, and Senator Robert S. Kerr, Oklahoma City and Washington, to those offices.

Hight C. Moore nominated Porter W. Routh and Joe W. Burton as Secretaries.

Wallace Bassett, Texas, made a motion to change Article XIV of the Constitution which deals with amendments, to read: "Any alterations may be made in these Articles by a vote of two-thirds of the members present when the vote is taken without regard to total enrolment at any annual meeting of the Convention, provided (1) no amendment may be considered after the second day of the Convention and (2) that an amendment shall have been presented to the Convention at the previous annual meeting before action is taken upon it."

Thursday Night

The program Thursday night was in charge of the Home Mission Board, J. B. Lawrence, Secretary.

Harold Seever, South Carolina, brought in the report of the nominees for the Board of Trustees of the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, who were elected.

Then followed an address by Dr. Arnold T. Ohrn, Secretary of the Baptist World Alliance, now of Washington, D. C.

Foreign Mission Night

(Southern Baptist Convention)

DR. M. THERON RANKIN of Richmond, Va., appealed for "something grandly heroic and sacrificial to quicken the pulse beat of our vast Baptist family" throughout the world when he addressed the Southern Baptist Convention on Foreign Mission Night at Taft Stadium in Oklahoma City, Friday, May 20.

In the words of the late George W. Truett the foreign secretary said, "It is high time for Baptists to take a great step forward," and the report of the Foreign Board stated that the advance program approved by the Convention in May, 1948, is well under way.

Four Baptists from overseas dressed in national costume represented four of the twenty-five nations in which Southern Baptist missionaries work. The Rev. Y. K. Chang of Shanghai, now graduate student at Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary, Fort Worth, Texas, outlined the advance program of the All China Baptist Convention. "We shall carry on the evangelization of our country," he said, "even if every single American is compelled to evacuate."

Akiko Endo of Tokyo, student at Woman's Missionary Union Training School, Louisville, Ky., said, "The remarkable advance of Baptist churches in Japan since the end of the war is the result of the hard work of missionaries who came back in spite of all the difficulties and shared so willingly the life of our people."

Miss Endo declared, "We want to prove to the world our decision to become trustworthy citizens of the family of nations and to atone for our nation's past sins. Problems and hardships overwhelm us but God works with us and the American Christians are our friends."

Representing Nigeria, W. Africa, Mrs. J. A. Adegbite, an honor student at Virginia Union University, Richmond, Virginia, appealed for an advance program in Christian education. "Mohammedanism and paganism have long dominated our country," the former girls' school teacher and mother of two children asserted. "But today communism is a third contender. Baptists whose mission will celebrate its centennial in 1950 must win the soul of West Africa for Christ."

South America was represented on the Foreign Mission Night program by Timoteo Gatica of Chile, who was elected in 1948 as principal of the Baptist academy and junior college at Temuco, succeeding the late Agnes Graham, its founder. Graduate student at the University of Texas, Mr. Gatica spoke for the liberating influence of evangelical Christianity in a progressive country where Roman Catholicism still claims control.

Three of the Foreign Board's 675 missionaries spoke briefly for their respective Missions: The Rev. J. B. Underwood of Baton Rouge, La., for Brazil; the Rev. I. N. Patterson of Owings, S. C., for Nigeria; and the Rev. Tucker N. Calloway of Atlanta, Ga., who spent one year in postwar Japan and expects to return in 1949, for Japan.

Dr. R. C. Campbell of Little Rock, Arkansas, pastor of the First Baptist Church, which on one Sunday in January raised $50,000 for foreign missions, gave the response of the churches to the needs for advance overseas.

Four new missionaries spoke on behalf of the Board's 43 new appointees of 1949. They were William C. Gaventa, M. D., of Tampa, Fla., under appointment for Nigeria; Virginia Wingo of Louisville, Ky., for Italy; Ernest Hollaway of Fort Worth, Texas, for Japan; and Grayson Tennison of Jredell, Texas, for Brazil.

Convention President Robert G. Lee of Memphis, Tenn., closed the session with a prayer of dedication of the Convention to the cause of world missions and the advance program.

Music for this program was furnished by the choir of the School of Church Music, Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, Louisville, Ky.

Pastors' Fellowship Conference at Oneida Institute June 20-23

By A. B. Cash, Lexington, Ky.

ONEIDA, Ky., June 11.—Fellowworkers are invited to attend the Pastors' Fellowship Conference at the Oneida Baptist Institute on June 20-23 and to share the inspiration and fellowship in store for all of us.

Plan to arrive at Oneida in time for the first session. This will be the supper meeting at 6:00 P. M. We will take care of your room and meals. Your only expense will be the matter of transportation. Oneida is on Kentucky Route 11, about 16 miles north of Manchester.

Dr. S. F. Dowis will speak each evening. He will lead in a study of the Book of Acts, conducting two periods each day. Dr. W. C. Boone will be with us to speak and conduct conferences. Brother L. O. Griffith will lead us in a study of Missions in the Bible. Brother R. B. Hooks will be on hand to discuss our program of evangelism. Other conference periods will be devoted to practical problems, led by different pastors.

We will close at noon on Thursday. We sincerely hope that you will arrange to be with us for the full time. If you find this is impossible, plan to spend part of the week with us. You can feel free to invite your fellow pastors to come with you. This invitation is being sent to a number of pastors in the territory around Oneida. We can not personally reach all of the men who should come. Please help us get the word to all. Join us in prayer for a great conference.

[EDITOR'S NOTE:—The foregoing news item was received in our office too late for insertion in the Western Recorder of June 16, so we are afraid that most readers will find the item here too late to get to Oneida in time for the Pastors' Fellowship Conference, unless they are close enough to get there for the last day.]

ORIGIN: Dixie—Years ago a bank in New Orleans issued notes in both French and English because there were so many people in that city who could read only French. On the French $10 note was printed the word dix which means 10. It was the most popular of these notes and in time was called a "dixie." The bank became known as the bank of the "dixies," and little by little, the south was nicknamed the land of dixies.—Michael Vrhovnik, Voices of Youth.

The Pastor and Church Music

By LOREN R. WILLIAMS, Minister of Music
First Baptist Church, Owensboro, Ky.

EVERY MINISTER of Music, Choir Director, Choir Member, Accompanist and anyone else connected with the music of the church is under obligation to the pastor, and he is likewise under obligation to those who furnish the music.

In most churches the quality of and the interest in the music very likely reflects the interest and leadership of the pastor. The pastor who overlooks and disregards the music of his church is in a sense handicapping himself and failing to use one of the most effective aids for King-
...m progress.

... not desirable that the pastor can take charge of the music of his church if he can possibly find a capable leader, however, in case no one can be recruited, then let him lead rather than have the music go by "default."

* * *

The pastor need not be a musician but there are advantages to be gained if he has a knowledge of hymns and church music and its place and importance in the worship, praise and teaching services.

Many of our colleges and our seminaries offer courses especially designed for pastors; and where it is possible they should take advantage of such courses. Then there are many books available on music in the worship services which would aid any pastor in gaining a knowledge of music and its importance to him and his work.

* * *

The pastor should confer frequently with those in charge of the music on the selection of hymns and special music for each service. The choice of these numbers should virtually be his. Such counsel and selections should take place early in the week if possible.

There are certain attitudes which everyone who has any responsibility for the music should have with reference to the pastor of the church. He is the pastor of the ENTIRE church program and should always be regarded as such, and music is no exception. Since he is the pastor of the entire church program of which music is no small part he should be consulted in the planning and building of every part of the music program of his church. He should be consulted in selecting all music, whether it be special, congregational or special programs.

* * *

The pastor should not be thoughtlessly criticized by the choir members even though they may not agree with all his views on how the music should be taken care of. The pastor should be included in every activity of the choir and music program. Much of the success of this phase of church work depends on the good-will of the pastor and he should have a standing invitation to attend all rehearsals and social functions of the choir.

* * *

There are many ways in which the pastor can show his appreciation for and encourage those who work with the music. He should show a personal interest in and care for the spiritual life of each of the choir members. He should avoid being too critical of his choir, and in case there is reason for criticism he should be well enough informed on music and its connection with the church to speak with authority.

* * *

The excuse "I am not a musician" should never be used by the pastor for showing no interest in the music of his church. He should attend rehearsals enough that members will be conscious of his interest in the thing which they are doing.

Nothing goes farther than kind words of appreciation for any service well done. In most instances this is about the only rewards for such service, and an occasional recognition by the pastor indictates his interest and appreciation.

The pastor will constantly be out looking for talent that can be used in the church and he should lend every help possible in the training of leaders.

The pastor should be just as diligent and prayerful in finding those who serve in the music program as he would for those leading in any other phase of church organization.

Most important of all, he should pray daily for those in charge of the music of his church. Let him see that the musicians are mentioned in public prayer. Likewise we might add that musicians should remember to pray for their pastor daily.

* * *

The pastor as leader-in-chief of the whole church program can direct the church in its attitude toward the music program. The musicians should be made to feel that they occupy an official position in the church and that they are to be of definite service to the church.

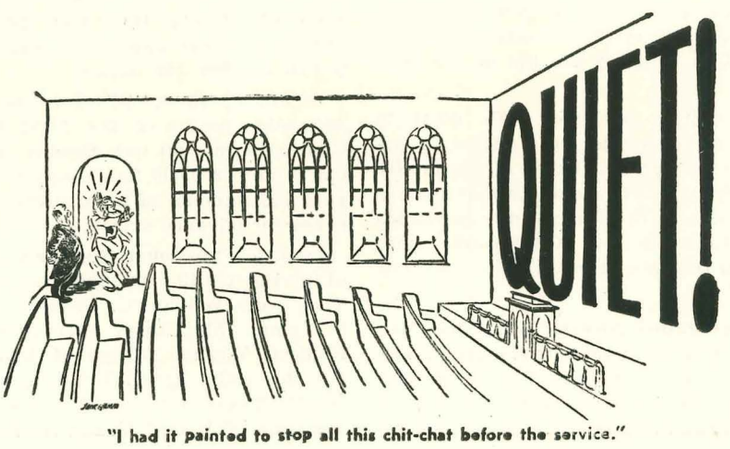

Those in places of leadership should be duly elected by the church just as other officers are elected. The pastor can be highly influential in guiding the musicians in supporting, not just the music, but every phase of church life.

* * *

The church, with the pastor as its leader, should provide the necessary physical equipment for the musicians. Never should those who give of their time and talent so freely have to furnish the equipment needed in rendering this service. The pastor should see that funds are available for music, music stands, instruments and all other necessities.

TEMPER—During a rehearsal, conductor Toscanini could not control his nerves and when the orchestra made a mistake he threw down to the floor a handsome gold watch which happened to be in his hands. The following day a delegation from the orchestra came with 2 watches: a valuable one of gold and another of inferior quality on which was engraved: "This, maestro, is for rehearsals."—Mundo Argentino.

An Invitation is Extended to All Our Baptist People

The 1949 Classes of Graduates of Southern Baptist Theological S

Radio Commission's Scope is Now Enlarged

By S. F. LOWE, Director

Two actions of the Southern Convention in its Oklahoma City session enlarged the scope of service of its Radio Commission to place it in the audio-visual field and to provide a "Year-round Baptist Hour."

First, upon the recommendation of its Executive Committee the Convention voted that the Radio Commission "broaden the scope of its functions and to serve as the central agency which shall work in co-operation with the other agencies and states in the production of audio-visual materials . . . " Thus the Radio Commission is charged with the responsibility of serving as the production agency of the Convention in the field of audio-visual aids. This involves the development of a program, the building of an organization and the securing of equipment sufficient to meet the audio-visual requirements of the Convention including its agencies, the State Conventions and the churches. Such undertaking is to be made in closest co-operation with all our Baptist leadership. A pattern of such co-operation will be effected as soon as practical.

In this same action the Convention voted that the distribution of such visual-aids shall be made by the Sunday School Board.

Again, the announcement by the Radio Commission of a "Year-round Baptist Hour" beginning October 2 of this year is of more than passing significance. A great program of gospel message and music every Lord's day, blanketing our Convention territory will render an unparalleled service. Such continuous program will build audience in a way not previously possible. The cost of such service will be substantial, and will be financed from money received through fan mail. The Executive Committee report which was adopted by the Convention carries this item concerning such "Year-round Baptist Hour:"

"In response to the Radio Commission's request for approval of a full-time Baptist Hour, we approved the request with the understanding that funds will be raised by direct approach to individuals and in no wise in violation of the Business and Financial Plan Article VI covering "Special Solicitations" and that churches or church organizations will not be used at any time as promotional agents and that no appeal for funds will be made over the radio broadcast."

The Radio Commission will seek to meet these two staggering responsibilities in the full consciousness of an unparalleled service to be rendered our Lord and His cause. We trust that our spirit will be so humble and our service so selfless that He will empower us to achieve magnificent results to His own glory. To this noble end we sincerely appeal to all our Baptist people to pray for your Radio Commission and its director both in public meetings and in private devotions.

C. E. Bryant to Direct Press Relations For Baylor University

Dr. W. R. White, president of Baylor University, announces through the Baptist Press that C. E. Bryant, for a short time publicity director for the Executive Committee of the Southern Baptist Convention, has accepted the publicity directorship at Baylor.

Mr. Bryant is an alumnus of Baylor, having graduated in 1939. He handled the publicity department of Baylor until June 1942 when he entered the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary. During the war he was elected to the editorship of the ARKANSAS BAPTIST, a position he held until he became associated with the Executive Committee of the Southern Baptist Convention as publicity director about two years ago.

In addition to publicity work, Mr. Bryant will, according to Dr. White's announcement, instruct in religious journalism. With the Executive Committee of the Southern Baptist Convention, Bryant was editor of the BAPTIST PROGRAM and THE BAPTIST BULLETIN SERVICE. He had also begun a mat service for the churches and was sending monthly news releases to around 3,400 county weekly papers.

T. Rupert Coleman to Speak on Columbia's "Church of the Air"

ATLANTA, June 18.—Dr. T. Rupert Coleman, pastor of Ginter Park Baptist Church, Richmond, Virginia, will be the preacher on Columbia's Church of the Air Sunday, June 26, 10:30-11:00 A. M. Eastern Daylight Saving Time. His subject will be "The Power of the Cross." Music for the program will be furnished by 50 voices of the Chapel Choirs of the church, directed by James R. Copeland, Minister of Music.

Dr. Coleman, a graduate of the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, Louisville, Kentucky, has been pastor of Ginter Park Church since 1934. The membership and gifts of the church have quadrupled during his pastorate, with five missionaries directly supported in addition to the regular mission program.

Consult your local newspaper for the radio stations in your area over which the Columbia Broadcasting System's programs are heard that will carry this program.

BYRON C. S. DeJARNETTE
State Secretary

In Appreciation

For our State Training Union Convention, State Department, and for myself personally, I wish to express appreciation to First, Tabernacle, and assisting churches in and around Paducah for entertaining our State Convention. Our thanks are expressed to every committee, every group, every individual, every home, and every organization in the city for any and every kind of effort put forth and contribution made to the big job of taking care of the convention and helping to make it the success that it was.

The Adult Challenge

D. E. JONES
State Approved Adult Worker

Rev. D. E. Jones, Valley Station, Kentucky, State Approved Adult Worker, who furnished the material for this column and will be responsible for it every six weeks.

"How Do We Stand?"

The Baptist Adult Union is the youngest of the Training Union family except the Story Hour. It came into being between the years of 1920 and 1930. There was a very definite felt need which caused the Adult group to find a place of service in the Training Union. It was estimated that 86 per cent of the Baptist church membership in the South was unenlisted. Most of these unenlisted people are Adults. The Adult Union was formed for the purpose of reaching and training in efficient church membership this large number of Adults who have the possibility of becoming a great powerhouse for God.

Great progress has been made in the reaching of these people. In the last quarter of last year nearly 400,000 Adult Union quarterlies were distributed; which means nearly that many members in Adult unions. In the year 1947, 93,-380 Adult awards were granted. The Adults are leading in this as well as in all other phases of Training Union work. The Adult Department of the Training Union is demonstrating beyond question, by its progressiveness and prominent place, that it is one of the Baptists' most important movements for Adult education and enlistment in all phases of church life.

The year 1948 showed in Kentucky 794 Adult Unions with an enrollment of 13,498. This is an increase of 104 units over the previous year. We are justly proud of the great progress which has been made in Adult work throughout the South and especially in Kentucky.

The Adults are coming in greater numbers each year to the Conventions and Assemblies held in the State. We were so happy with the large number of Adults in the Paducah Convention this year. We would do well now to make plans to attend one of the Training Union weeks at Ridgecrest July 7-27, and our own State Training Union Assembly at Clear Creek beginning August 13. Also, be sure and see that a goodly number of Adults attend your respective Regional Convention in August and September.

Woman's Missionary Union

MRS. GEORGE R. FERGUSON
Executive Secretary

Our Sympathy

The deepest sympathy of Woman's Missionary Union of Kentucky is extended to Mrs. James H. Anderson of Knoxville, Tennessee in the recent death of her husband.

Mr. Anderson was an outstanding Christian layman in our Southern Baptist Convention. His wise leadership, and his worthy example as a faithful steward of God's gifts, will be greatly missed among us. We join the other hosts of Southern Baptists in high tribute to one so blessed of God and so useful in His service.

Mrs. Anderson is greatly loved by the women of Kentucky. She served among us with great honor and distinction. Mrs. Anderson was formerly Mrs. Janie Cree Bose. She served with Kentucky W. M. U. as Office Secretary (1913-1917), as Executive Secretary (then called Corresponding Secretary) (1917-1925) and from this work went to be Principal of our W. M. U. Training School (1925-1930).

Our prayers and heart-felt sympathy are with Mrs. Anderson in these days of sorrow. May the grace and peace of our Heavenly Father comfort her heart! A note or card may be addressed to her at 1105 Circle Park, Knoxville 16, Tenn.

Important Coming Events

Letters have recently been mailed to Regional and Associational officers and W. M. S. Presidents containing announcements concerning the W. M. U. Conference at Ridgecrest, August 4-10, and the Kentucky Baptist Encampment at Clear Creek, August 22-26. For reservations at Ridgecrest write to Mr. Robert Guy, Manager, Ridgecrest Baptist Assembly, Ridgecrest, North Carolina. For Clear Creek reservations write to Rev. Marvin Byrdwell, Clear Creek Springs, Pineville, Kentucky. We urgently need a large representation in each of these programs.

B. W. C. members are reminded that they are needed in the excellent program prepared for them during the W. M. U. Conference at Ridgecrest. There are separate conferences for them with special emphasis on their interests. Remember also our own State B. W. C. Camp at Clear Creek, September 3-5.

Speakers at the Ridgecrest W. M. U. Conference will be Mrs. George R. Martin, President of Woman's Missionary Union; The Honorable Brooks Hays, Washington, D. C., Congressman from Arkansas, forceful Christian laymen and stateman; Mrs. J. M. Dawson, Washington, D. C., dynamic and popular leader of women; Dr. Duke K. McCall, Executive Secretary of the Executive Committee of the Southern Baptist Convention; Dr. Frank Means, Secretary for Missionary Education and Promotion, Foreign Mission Board; Home Missionaries: Mrs. Aaron Hancock, Miss Irene Chambers, Miss Pauline Cammack, Miss Gladys Keith and others. Foreign Missionaries: Mrs. Harold E. Snuggs, Miss Estelle Councilman and others; other leaders will be Miss Miriam Robinson, Teacher of Speech, W. M. U. Training School; Miss Edwina Robinson, Executive Secretary of Mississippi W. M. U. who will be in charge of the B. W. C. Conference and Miss Alma Hunt, Executive Secretary of W. M. U. who will be conference director.

State Mission Study Institute

During the W. M. U. Periods each morning at the Encampment at Clear Creek, a State Mission Study Institute will be held. We hope each Mission Study Chairman of each Region and each Association will attend and then will return to her work and conduct an Institute in her Region or Association. Announcement will be made soon as to the books and teachers for the Institute. Make your plans NOW to attend!

BOOK REVIEWS

JOHN M'COY—HIS LIFE AND HIS DIARIES. By Mary Elizabeth McCoy Hayward, published by the American Historical Company, Inc., New York. 493 pages, price $5.00.

John M'Coy was a son of a Baptist preacher, William M'Coy, pastor of Silver Creek Baptist Church, in Clark County, near Jeffersonville, Ind. He was also the brother of three other Baptist preachers—Rev. Isaac McCoy, one of the foremost of missionaries to the Indians of all time; Rev. James M'Coy, and Rev. Rice M'Coy, the latter two preachers in Southern Indiana. John M'Coy, Kentuckian, was a Baptist layman, yet having a peculiar fitness to be around whenever a new Baptist church was to be organized, a preacher ordained, or a Baptist college to be founded.

This diary begins January, 1842, at Jeffersonville, Indiana, and moves up and down the map of the Hoosier State, and into Kentucky, principally between Louisville and Franklin, Ind., though many other points of interest are involved. Historians of the future, North and South of the Ohio River, will be making many references to this volume. The diary ends with the death of John McCoy September 3, 1859. Baptists and others are referred to in his travels and correspondence. Interest naturally centers throughout on his distinguished brother, Rev. Isaac McCoy, and his own daughter, Miss Eliza McCoy, both missionaries to the Indians. Likewise interesting is the part the writer of the diary plays in the founding of Franklin College—Baptist school in Franklin, Ind. Scarcely a year has passed in the last century without having some member of the McCoy family working with the institution and enrolled as a student in Franklin College. The author of the book is herself a descendant of the McCoy family.

In 1930 The Eyncourt Press, Chicago, published JOTHAM MEEKER, PIONEER PRINTER OF KANSAS, by Douglas C. McMurtrie and Albert H. Allen. Meeker was the printer of tracts, pamphlets, books, etc., many of them for Isaac McCoy, for distribution among the Indians in the West, and many times he had to reduce the spoken language of various Indian tribes to a written language. The Meeker Diary covers the period 1832 to 1855, and is an excellent companion volume for the M'Coy volume written and compiled by Mrs. Hayward.

The first part of the book is biographical material concerning John M'Coy, as well as a history of his family. Her book contains much previously unpublished material on the American Indian Mission Association which headed up right here in Louisville. This book is to be bought for reading, but it is to be valued even more when retained for constant future reference.—George Raleigh Jewell.

Friday Morning

W. Perry Crouch, Chairman, made the report for the Committee to Study Hospital Policy, appointed two years ago on recommendation of the Executive Committee. This had a number of recommendations. Recommendation No. 1. proposed that the Southern Baptist Hospital charter in Article III be changed to mean that it shall "own and operate such hospitals and/or sanitariums as have been authorized, or hereafter shall be specifically authorized as a new enterprise by the Southern Baptist Convention." This would preclude the Trustees from launching into new hospital enterprises without first securing endorsement by the Convention in annual session.

The second recommendation required endorsement for two successive years by the Southern Baptist Convention for new enterprises. The third recommended that Southern Baptists "should not acquire additional hospitals in the immediate future." The fourth recommended as a general policy that "hospitals should be owned and operated by state conventions and local associations, rather than acquiring additional hospitals to be operated by the SBC."

The fifth recommended that all Baptist Hospitals, "whether owned by local associations, state conventions, or the SBC," to collaborate on such things as purchasing materials and supplies, "in a manner that would be advantageous to all groups, but on a purely democratic plan of co-operation."

The final recommendation was that hospitals provide chaplains, or some similar persons to carry on a spiritual ministry among the patients. The report was adopted.

Judge George B. Fraser, Washington, D. C., made a motion that Duke K. McCall be elected Treasurer of the SBC. This motion was carried.

Frank Tripp, Superintendent of the Southern Baptist Hospital, made the report for his body. He expressed a wish that the SBC will supply funds for the education of young nurses and young internes in the Southern Baptist Hospital. "Since every hospital in the city of New Orleans is accepting government funds for expansion, the Southern Baptist Hospital must pass their cost of operation on to the patients," he said.

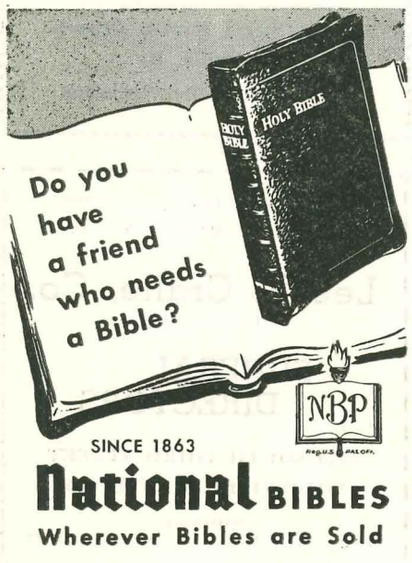

Kyle M. Yates read the list of three committees which he placed in nomination for the Committee on Committees. If space can be found these will be printed later. Likewise, Harold Seever read the report of the Committee on Boards, which also will be printed later.

The Convention voted for R. C. Campbell, Little Rock, Ark., to preach the Convention Sermon in 1950, with K. Owen White, Washington, D. C., as his alternate. The place of meeting recommended by the Committee on Time and Place was Houston, Texas, May 10-14. Roy Hollomon, Oklahoma, made an amendment that the word Chicago be substituted for Houston, in the Committee's report offered by Chairman Morris Ford. At a later time the Committee recommended Houston as the 1951 place of meeting, and the body voted to go to San Francisco instead.

C. C. Warren brought in a report of the Committee on the Oregon Petition recommending that the state be admitted, and this was approved. This includes churches in both Oregon and Washington. (To be continued)

Cubans Honor Caudill On His Anniversary

By JOHN CAYLOR

For twenty years Rev. Herbert Caudill has been a missionary serving the Home Mission Board in Cuba. Quiet of manner but definite in leadership, Herbert Caudill is the type of missionary to lead Cuban Baptists. Fellow missionaries honor him, and Cuban brethren follow him.

Mrs. J. D. Granberry and Miss Mildred Matthews report an anniversary banquet held in May at the Gran America Hotel in Havana honoring the Home Board missionary upon the completion of 20 years in Cuba.

The banquet was held by members of the English-speaking congregation, but friends from widely separated places came to pay their respects to the Caudill family. Guests, now resident in Cuba, are from Scotland, Austria, Germany, Costa Rica, Panama, and the United States.

Mrs. Granberry reports: "He was praised for his loyalty and devotion to the task of winning souls for Christ in Cuba. Gratitude was expressed to Mrs. Caudill for her tireless efforts in helping to maintain a Sunday school, Woman's Missionary Society, and an English-speaking church in Havana. Recognition was given to the little Caudill missionaries, Margaret, 15, already a teacher of

Herbert Caudill

Bible in her school; Jane, 12, a leader in her Spanish-speaking church and mission at Regla; and Herbert, Jr., three years old, a faithful member of the Sunbeam Band and of two Sunday school classes, one in English and one in Spanish."

Superintendent Caudill has varied responsibilities in connection with the Cuban work. There are 65 churches and 136 missionaries. The churches need buildings, and the missionaries need encouragement. It is a part of the responsibility of the superintendent to direct the building program. The Bottoms Trust Fund of the Home Mission Board has provided funds for the erection of a number of beautiful stone buildings for Cuban Baptist churches. There is need for money to build a dozen churches which are greatly in need of meeting-places at this time.

Contract is to be let soon by the superintendent acting for the Home Mission Board for the erection of a school building to cost $118,000.

Missionary Caudill is also president and teacher in the Baptist seminary which trains Cuban ministers.

Miss Ruth Ileene O'Dell has just been elected by the Home Mission Board as a missionary to Cuba. She is a musician of known ability, a native of Lebanon, Missouri, and graduate of Woman's Missionary Union Training School.

Miss O'Dell will replace Mrs. Frank K. Pool who has resigned her work in Cuba to return to the States. The seminary and training school students in Cuba have made great progress in music under the leadership of Mrs. Pool and the earlier teaching of Mrs. H. R. Moseley, retired.

Receipts For First Six Months of 1948-1949

November 1, 1948 to April 30, 1949

W. C. Boone, General Secretary and Treasurer

In this exhibit the name of the church and the amount contributed for the first six months of the associational year, November 1, 1948 to April 30, 1949, is given. The first column is the amount raised for the Co-operative Program. Designated amounts are included in the second column and are not subject to percentage division among the objects included in the Co-operative Program.

In some instances, church treasurers failed to give the name of the contributing church in remitting funds and credit had to be given to the association as a whole.

Carlisle Avenue Dedicates House, Ordains Two Ministers, Has 38th Anniversary

The Carlisle Avenue Baptist Church of Louisville observed its thirty-eighth anniversary on Sunday, June 11. Brother A. W. Walker has been pastor there for the last six years. Starting with thirty-eight members under the name of Jacobs Addition Baptist Church, at 1314 Berry Boulevard, on June 11, 1911, the church soon moved to a school house. They later moved to Woodruff and Carlisle Avenue. The first pastor was J. C. Boyd, who remained with them nine months. W. C. Taggert was the second pastor, and S. P. Gates the third. Looking for a "married man," they next called H. C. Garwood. The fifth was R. S. New. From 1920 to 1924 R. T. Russell was their pastoral leader.

It was in 1923 that they entered upon plans to move from the basement they were occupying, to Taylor Boulevard, next to the Masonic Lodge Hall, where the present building is situated. They were already using the Lodge Hall to accommodate a portion of their services. They entered their present quarters in September, 1923.

S. F. Dowis became pastor in 1924, and remained with them until his resignation in July, 1937, to go to a church in Atlanta, Ga., from which place he accepted his present work with the Home Mission Board.

J. Perry Carter was the next pastor. During his years with them he sold his residence to the church for a parsonage. This was the property just next door North of the church property. He resigned in 1943 to become Superintendent of Missions and Evangelism for the Long Run Association.

The church then turned to A. W. Walker, who was pastor of the young Shively Baptist Church to the southeast in the fast growing suburb just outside the city-limits.

Carlisle Avenue Church has grown and prospered under all of these pastors. They have long been one of the largest and most active fields in the entire Long Run Association, and for that matter, in the State of Kentucky.

Last year the church purchased the residence at 3540 Taylor Boulevard, and this has been filled each Sunday since with approximately 150 in classes.

A new brick bulletin board has been erected outside of the church, which will provide a place for announcements of church services, and be a roadside proclaimer of the Scripture to passing motorists. The new church building at 3540 Taylor Boulevard, and the bulletin board were dedicated on Sunday night, and at the same service Jesse Hatfield and Walter Clayton, Jr., were ordained to the Gospel ministry.

Broadway Church to Proceed With Initial Building Structure

The Appelate Court of Frankfort has given the Broadway Baptist Church the right-of-way signal to go ahead with its building program on Brownsboro Road near Chenoweth Lane, though some details of the zoning plans are yet to be decided. They plan to erect the first unit costing $180,000 which will be the permanent Sunday school quarters, and serve temporarily as a church auditorium and other accommodations. The main building facing Brownsboro Road will not be erected until later. Pastor Edwin F. Perry is rejoicing that the church is no longer stymied in its procedure. They have been marking time for a year now.

Gleanings

Mrs. William Robertson, wife of a student in the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, has been a patient in the Kentucky Baptist Hospital recently.

Mrs. Tucker Calloway has a new baby girl, born Friday, June 10, at the Kentucky Baptist Hospital. This is the fourth daughter born to Missionary and Mrs. Callaway. Brother Callaway, on furlough from his work in Japan, is now a student in the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary.

The Taylorsville Baptist Church observed Layman's Day on June 19. Pastor Warner Earle Fusselle had the men of his church take charge of the morning worship, which was called Father's Day. The evening service was a Scout Service, led by Scoutmaster Albert Stubbs. Scout Leaders from Shelbyville were present to aid in the service.

"A Monument to Christian Living"

By E. Lionel Patton, Pastor

Mrs. George Kreylich is a monument to Christian living. For seventy-three years she has been a member of the

Mrs. George Kreylich

Mother Church of North Bend Association—Bullittsburg Baptist Church, founded in 1794.

On Mother's Day, Mrs. Kreylich was awarded the corsage for being the oldest mother in the congregation. On that occasion she stated that it was in May, 1876, that she trusted Christ as her Saviour, in that very place, and also, in that place, had married in February, 1888. Throughout her Christian life she has been a member of the Bullittsburg Church.

Another interesting fact is that Rev. J. W. Campbell, for twenty-seven years pastor of the Bullittsburg Church, still worships there, the influence of his rich prayer-life pervading many of its worship services.

Gleanings

The Erlanger Baptist Church had a Vacation Bible School at its mission with 50 enrolled.

The First Baptist Church of Ludlow, Ky., Thomas H. Shelton, Pastor, had 176 enrolled in its Vacation Bible School.

Mrs. Maud Lucas Huff, 76, died in Butler, June 10. Her funeral was held in the Butler Baptist Church on Sunday, June 12.

Pastor Charles Harrison, of the First Baptist Church of New Richmond, Ohio, preached in a revival meeting with Pastor W. E. Nabers at the Independence Baptist Church, June 13 through June 24.

The funeral of James C. Anderson, 73, was held at the Visalia Baptist Church, on June 11. He died at the Booth Hospital at Covington following an accident when he fell from the top of a load of hay at his farm. His remains were taken to the Independence Cemetery.

Rev. Darrell C. Richardson performed the wedding of Miss Martha Almeda Steinfort and Albert J. Hovekamp, Jr., at the Fort Mitchell Baptist Church on June 11. The bride is the eldest daughter of Mrs. William N. Steinfort, Ft. Mitchell, and the groom is a son of A. J. Hovekamp, Sr., Covington. Young Mrs. Hovekamp attended Georgetown College. The groom served his country in overseas assignments with the Air Corps.

The funeral of Luther F. Snyder, 60, was held in the Dry Ridge Baptist Church on May 27. His remains were taken to the Williamstown Cemetery for burial. He died at his farm on Baton Rouge Road, Williamstown, following a short illness, which the coroner later said was a heart attack. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Nola Hutchinson Snyder; three sons, Harold Sydnor Snyder, Williamstown; William Snyder, Florence; and Clyde Snyder, Dry Ridge; and one daughter, Mrs. Mildred Bennett, Erlanger. He also leaves a sister, Mrs. Elzie Frakes, Dry Ridge.

Independence Has Largest Vacation Bible School In History of Church

INDEPENDENCS, Ky., June 15.—Pastor W. E. Maners served as principal of the Vacation Bible School at Independence Baptist Church, and he was assisted by thirteen workers and teachers. The school had 111 enrolled in the Beginner, Primary, Junior and Intermediate classes, with an average attendance of ninety-five. In response to the missionary teaching of the school, the children gave day by day a total of $25.42, which went to the Co-operative Program. A little more than usual was given to singing the spirited choruses, and special emphasis was laid on retelling the character stories.

Several of the business men, along with some of the friends of the church, took their cars and transported the children who were in the country to and from the school. Nine boys and girls, without any pressure, confessed Christ as their Saviour, in response to Pastor Maners' message on "Becoming a Christian."

Ground-Breaking Ceremony For Erlanger

COVINGTON, Ky., June 10.—Mr. M. Y. Rich, chairman of the Building Committee of the Erlanger Baptist Church, turns the first spade of ground for the new auditorium on June 5 as members of the congregation look on. The old auditorium has been removed and construction will begin immediately. The pastor and members of the Building Committee are standing in the front row. They are from left to right: Rev. R. Don Gambrell, pastor; Frank Houston, J. C. Williams, Frank Walker, Mrs. W. N. Carnes, Mrs. Russell Victor, Harry Garbade, Roderick Weiss, Stanley Dawson, and R. A. Connett. The new edifice will be a colonial type building with a seating capacity of 600. At present the congregation is meeting in the basement of the Sunday school building. The white building at the rear is the new Sunday school annex built last year.

Kentuckians Awarded Scholarships

DANVILLE, Ky.—Four-year scholarships ranging from $200 to $400 per year have been awarded by Centre College to sixteen Kentucky and two out-of-state high school seniors, it was announced here today. The scholarship winners are to enroll at Centre next fall.

Winners of the 18 scholarships were seniors who made the highest grades on a general scholastic examination given by Centre. To be eligible for the exam, seniors had to rank scholastically within the upper fifth of their class if it had less than one hundred students or in the upper tenth if it had more than a hundred students.

Winner of the $400 yearly top prize scholarship was Louis E. Woolery of Falmouth High School. Three seniors won $300 scholarships. They were Miss Peggy Jean Flint, Anchorage High; Robert K. Ducker, Ludlow High; and John C. Fogle, Mt. Sterling High.

Three Louisville and three Stanford residents were among 14 seniors awarded $200 scholarships. Louisvillians were Misses Norma Jean Haines and Caroline Moss, both of Louisville Girls High; and John Rinehart, Male High. The Stanford residents were Misses Julia Ann Carter, Jane Ann Dozier, and Nancy Tremaine, all of Stanford High.

Other Kentuckians awarded $200 scholarships by Centre College were Misses Sarah K. Sampson, Rose Hill High, Mercer Co.; Mary Elizabeth Gray, Connorsville High, Harrison Co.; Dorothy Jean Rogers, Bald Knob High, Franklin Co.; and Wendell Freer, Fordsville High, Ohio Co.; William W. Hawkins, Mt. Sterling High; and Frank E. Cooley, Highlands High, Ft. Thomas.

Out-of-staters awarded $200 Centre scholarships were Misses Caroline Kearney, Jellico, Tenn. High; and Joan Macrae Kennedy, Hughes High, Cincinnati, Ohio.

Parsonage Planned By High Street Baptist Church in Somerset

SOMERSET, Ky., June 15.—The High Street Baptist Church recently purchased from W. D. Gover a lot on Bourne Avenue on which to build a modern colonial-type brick house for their pastor's home.

A ground-breaking ceremony was held on the lot following the morning worship service Sunday. The congregation gathered in a body at the lot and after singing of a hymn, Scripture reading, prayer and a brief address by the pastor, the spade was put to the earth by Pastor Gerald K. Ford, S. B. Horton, chairman of the Building Committee, and C. C. Heuser, Chairman of the Board of Deacons.

It is expected that work will begin immediately on the building. The Building Committee is composed of Chairman S. B. Horton, John L. Silvers, O. H. Waddle and Jack Neikirk.

Heretofore in the thirty-five years of the church's life it has not needed a pastor's home, since T. C. Duke, former pastor who retired in January, built his own home on High Street a number of years ago.

This building program represents only one of the forward moving steps in the progressive program of the High Street Baptist Church under the leadership of Pastor Gerald K. Ford.—Somerset Journal.

Gleanings

The First Baptist Church of Somerset observed its 150th anniversary on June 8. Pastor Preston L. Ramsey has just completed his fourth anniversary there.

Rev. Ronald L. Roberson has accepted a call to be pastor of the Charleston Baptist Church, Charleston, Illinois. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Roberson, Campbellsville, Ky.

Miss Mildred Barbara Westbrook and Mr. Theodore Woods Waddle were married in a ceremony held at the First Baptist Church of Stearns, Ky., on June 4. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Eric Westbrook, of Stearns. Mr. Waddle is a son of Mrs. Jessie Waddle and the late Mr. Waddle, of Somerset, Ky. The wedding was performed by Rev. Robert E. Conley.

Glasgow Baptists Have Volunteer Day for Raising of Funds

GLASGOW, Ky., June 15.—Volunteer Day was observed at the First Baptist Church of Glasgow on last Sunday, at which time the members were given an opportunity to make a contribution toward the erection of their proposed educational building. They are seeking $130,000 to finance the new building, which will be of brick construction, covering a floor space of sixty-two by 110 feet. Other amounts are still being pledged toward the new building.

Mr. C. F. Williams Passes at the Age of 77

GLASGOW, Ky.—Mr. C. F. Williams passed away Sunday morning, May 22, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Roy Pace at Lecta. He was 77 years of age.

Mr. Williams left Glasgow some thirty years ago. He was a clerk at Bradford Bros. Hardware store for several years. He moved to Scottsville and was deputy sheriff to Allen County. Then he moved to his farm where he engaged in farming until his health failed him some months ago when he was moved to the home of his daughter.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Donnie Williams, two sons, Barclay Williams, Somerset, Ky., and Guy Williams, of California, two daughters, Mrs. Roy Pace (Lena), Lecta, and Mrs. Edd Holland (Essie), Bowling Green, one brother in Scottsville, and one sister in Bowling Green.

Funeral services were held at 11 o'clock Tuesday at Bethel Baptist Church in Allen County with Rev. C. W. Rigdon conducting the service. Burial was in Liberty cemetery.

He is also survived by ten grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren, and a host of friends and relatives to mourn his passing.—The Glasgow Republican.

Stanton Church Has a Great Revival With Donald Wells Preaching

STANTON, Ky., June 15.—The Stanton Baptist Church has just closed one of the most successful meetings ever witnessed by this writer. Revival services and Vacation Bible school were held simultaneously. Both were marvelous successes.

The Bible School had an enrollment of 112, with an average attendance of 85. There were 32 professions of faith out of the Bible school and seven others who were adults, coming for baptism in the evening services. Twenty-one, in all, were received for baptism during the meeting and four by letter. Several others are expected to come later for baptism.

Rev. Donald W. Wells, pastor of Pollard Baptist Church, of Pollard, did the preaching during the meeting. Stanton Church has been blessed with some of Kentucky's greatest preachers and evangelists, holding meetings from the beginning. Rev. R. Don Gambrell did the preaching the year the church was organized. Rev. R. B. White, Rev. Harry L. Carter, Rev. W. K. Wood, and Rev. Sam Sloan have been with us in other meetings. Brother Wells did some of the greatest and sanest preaching I have ever heard in my life. There is no wonder he and his great church have done one of the most outstanding pieces of mission work in the state of Kentucky. They have organized two new churches in near-by fields and have completed $20,000 basements in each place. Both places are full-time and self supporting. Brother Wells is planning to undertake two more such projects.

Brother Wells has given us an example of New Testament missions that could be and should be repeated by a hundred or more great churches in Kentucky. If this were actually done it would surpass all the work done by our missionaries and more than double our mission work in Kentucky. It would also give us a sense of missions far beyond anything we have ever dreamed.

The church and pastor were so pleased with the sane and simple way that Brother Wells presented the great doctrines of grace that we have invited him to hold our meeting in 1950. We expect to have the church finished by that time. The brick and much of the other materials have been bought and delivered.

Workers in the Bible school were Rev. and Mrs. Harold Cameron, of Macedonia Church, summer workers for the State Board, Miss Marsee Townsend, of Macedonia Church, Miss Edith Hall, from the Home Mission Board, and Mrs. Nannie Riggs and Miss Alma Riggs of the Stanton Church. They did their job well.—F. C. Tuttle, Pastor-missionary.

Evangelist A. C. Baker In Revival at Porter Memorial, Lexington

LEXINGTON, Ky., June 13, 1949.—Evangelist A. C. Baker of Louisville was here in a revival meeting with Pastor O'Ray Weeks at the Porter Memorial Baptist Church beginning Sunday morning, May 22, and continuing through June 5. Pastor Weeks says that Evangelist Baker is the kind of an evangelist a pastor loves to have in a revival meeting. "He carries the whole church program right with him through the meeting," said Pastor Weeks, "and thereby escapes the trap of many who just evangelist—wonderful in itself—but if all the rest of the program is left out, I am sure the results are not what they should be." Continuing, the Porter Memorial pastor said: "Dr. Baker is a fearless preacher, and one who gets results. We rejoice that we have had him."

The visible results were (and they are still coming), 73 for baptism, 7 by letter, and 2 by statement, making a total of eighty-two. Fourteen others made profession, but have not united with the Porter Memorial Church. Several hundred reconsecrated their lives to the Lord.

Lawson H. Cooke of Memphis Conducts a Layman's Revival

LEXINGTON, Ky., June 1.—The Layman's Revival, conducted by Mr. Lawson H. Cooke, Executive Secretary of the Brotherhood of the South, Memphis, Tenn., came to a close in Grace Church, Lexington, today. This lawman's revival was one of the most valuable meetings the laymen have had the opportunity of attending.

Mr. Cooke is a forceful speaker, and has many practical things for Christian men to do for their churches. The meeting was an attempt to get men to see their obligations to their local churches. Enthusiasm was high during the four-day meeting, and every one looks forward to another such meeting.

Music for the meeting was under the direction of Mr. Roy Goad, Grace Church, and the organ music was furnished by Mr. Homer Smith, of the Immanuel Baptist Church of Lexington. An all-male choir furnished much special music.—T. L. Nash, 153 Paris, Court, Lexington, Ky.

Liberty Church Makes Renovations, Has VBS And Homecoming Day

FULTON, Ky., June 13.—Liberty Baptists of Fulton County observed Homecoming Day on May 29. There was a large crowd present for the entire day's program. A highlight of the afternoon's program was the reading of the history of Liberty Baptist Church by John Marshall Rice. There were three persons present who had been members of the church for more than 60 years each: Mrs. Mary Bondurant, Mrs. John Harrison, and Miss Inez Oliver.

Liberty Church has recently installed a modern heating system, built a balcony with three Sunday school rooms, and replaced some basement partitions with folding doors.

The annual Vacation Bible School closed June 12 with graduation exercises at 11:00. The total enrollment for the school was 75 with an average attendance of 68.

The Brotherhood is sponsoring a banquet for the men of the church on June 23. The Y. W. A. will serve the banquet. —Pastor Robert Covington.

Resolutions Adopted By Arlington Women Regarding Mrs. Payne

ARLINGTON, Ky., June 12.—We, the undersigned committee of the Woman's Missionary Society of Arlington Baptist Church, wish to record the following resolution:

First—That the death of Mrs. Sallie Payne, which occurred April 11, 1949, brought sorrow to our society, and we realize that we have lost one of our most loyal workers.

Second—We thank God for the long, consecrated Christian life, which she lived among us. In her prayers at our meetings she never forgot to pray for the Southern Baptist mission work, both at home and abroad.

Third—We express our deepest sympathy to the family in the great loss they have sustained in this separation from her. Upon the authority of God's Word we assure them she is sweetly resting in the mansion her Saviour prepared for her.—Mrs. R. P. Hocker, and Mrs. H. B. Champion.

Gleanings

Pastor J. H. Maddox, of the Second Baptist Church of Hopkinsville, is assisting Brother J. H. Lyon in a meeting at his church in Greenville, Ky., which began June 13.

Rev. and Mrs. Anderson McCulley have arrived at the First Baptist Church of Madisonville, Ky., where Mr. McCulley will be the Assistant Pastor to Brother Harold D. Tallant.

Pastor Henry Beach, Jr., and the Hall Street Baptist Church program may be heard on the Owensboro radio at 7:45 A. M. on Sunday mornings.

The bulletin of the First Baptist Church of Paducah on June 12 was dedicated "in loving memory" to Mr. Perce M. Clement, who died on June 3, 1949. He was both a deacon and a trustee of the First Baptist Church.

Rev. J. B. Tallant died and was buried at Chattanooga, Tenn., on June 8. He was the father of Pastor Harold D. Tallant of the First Baptist Church, Madisonville, Ky., and of Pastor Francis R. Tallant, of the First Baptist Church, Jellico, Tenn.

Guy Allen Bockman has been elected choir director of the First Baptist Church of Paducah, Ky., where Thomas R. Brown is pastor. He is a student at Murray State Teachers College, and succeeds Wayne Johnson, who resigned on May 31, and has entered Indiana University.

The First Baptist Church of Dawson Springs organized a Baptist Brotherhood on May 10. The meeting was attended by 29 men of the church. Rev. J. H. Maddox was the speaker for the occasion and brought an inspiring message to the group, according to Pastor A. L. Meacham. Richard Peters was elected as the President of the Brotherhood.

The funeral of Andrew Rudolph, 73, was held at the Union Ridge Baptist Church, near Benton, Ky., on Sunday, June 12. The ceremony was conducted by Rev. Otis Jones. Burial took place in the nearby church cemetery. He is survived by a brother, Newt Rudolph and a sister, Mrs. Lula Jones. He also leaves two half-brothers, Henry Mathis and Reuben Mathis.

Two Deacons Ordained At Crutchfield Church

FULTON, Ky., June 12.—The Crutchfield Baptist Church, Crutchfield, Kentucky, met for the purpose of ordaining Brethren Ira Sadler and Doris Canady as Deacons of the church on Sunday afternoon, May 29. The Presbytery was composed of the following ordained ministers: Brethren J. T. Drace, George W. Archer, Orman Stegall, Leo Galey, W. D. Lowry, Melvin H. Williams, T. L. Thorpe, S. L. Price, Randal Johnson, J. W. Brown, and the following deacons: Pete O'Neal, Edward Bushart, E. L. Merryman, Franklin Pruitt, S. A. Waggener, J. H. Masters, Auda Fleming, L. C. Rudd, Royce Clark, Luke E. Mooneyham, Sr.

Pastor Joe Wilson, was elected Moderator; J. T. Drace, Clerk; Bro. Randal Johnson was elected to question the candidates, Pete O'Neal to lead in the prayer. After the laying on of hands by the presbytery the charge was given to the church and deacons by Bro. Leo Galey. The Ordination sermon was delivered by Bro. George Archer, after which the right hand of Christian fellowship was extended to the newly ordained deacons and their wives.

An elderly minister thought it advisable to marry. Calling on one of his elders to inform him of his intention, he said: "You see, I'm an old man now and I cannot expect to be here very long, so I feel that when the time comes I would like to have someone to close my eyes." "Aweel," replied the elder, "I've had twa, and I can tell ye they opened mine."—Montreal (Canada) Star.

Third Church of Owensboro Makes Relief Shipment

The Third Baptist Church of Owensboro, Ky., purchased enough clothing to fill more than 100 duffle bags. Among the people who assisted in the drive were those shown in the photograph above: Otto E. Bryant, Sunday School Superintendent; Mrs. Hilton Gore, Mrs. E. L. Mitchell, Mrs. O. N. Magruder, Miss Grace Morehead, Church Secretary; Mrs. C. L. (Pearl) Graham; and Pastor H. B. Kuhnle. This photograph was taken in the Third Church on the night before the bags were shipped.

Gleanings

Funeral services for Sam Buell, Jr., were held in Meldrum Baptist Church of Middlesboro on June 12.

The Greenup Baptist Associational Sunday School Association met with the First Baptist Church of Ashland, Ky., on Monday night, June 11.

There were nine professions of faith in the revival Brother Earl Neal held with Pastor W. T. Pepper in the Sandy Hook Baptist Church recently.

The funeral of Byron Darst, 75, Ft. Gay, W. Va., was preached by Rev. Theodore Jarrell at the Ft. Gay Baptist Church. Burial was in the Bartram Cemetery, near Louisa, Ky.

The Missionary Baptist Church of Catlettsburg had 314 enrolled in its Vacation Bible School during the first week, with the possibility that it would go larger the second week. Dewey H. Jones is pastor there.

Rev. Thomas Vaughn and Rev. Graden Sears conducted the funeral of Mrs. John S. Engle at the West Corbin Baptist Church, June 12. She died at her Masterstown residence on the Friday before at the age of 64 years.

Rev. George Williams, Jellico, Tenn., has been preaching, and Rev. D. Trosper has been leading the music, in a series of revival meetings at the Calvary Baptist Church, Loyall, Ky., beginning June 12. Rev. D. A. Clanton is pastor of the Calvary Church.

Cam Hogan, 64, died at the Evans Hospital, Middlesboro on June 8, and his funeral service was held at the Binghamtown Baptist Church on June 11, by Pastor Went Bolton. He had worked on many of the largest bridges built in the United States in recent years.

Pastor Akles Wynn led in the dedication of the Brittain Creek Baptist Church, near Harlan, Ky., on June 12. Speakers on that occasion included Pastor Roscoe Douglas, of Black Mountain Church; Pastor Jackson Jones, of Dizney Baptist Church; and Rev. Denver Wynn, son of the pastor.

The Pierce Memorial Home, 2318 Winchester Avenue, Ashland, Ky., operated for homeless girls in memory of the late Dr. W. C. Pierce, by the Missionary Baptist Church of Catlettsburg, where he was long pastor, held an open house on Monday, June 13, on the occasion of its fifth anniversary.

The remains of Private Ben Fields were removed from a military cemetery in Germany to Everts, Ky., and his funeral was held by Pastor Jackson Jones at the Kildav Cemetery, Everts. He was a son of John Fields, who survives him, as do two sisters, Mrs. Mabel Harbarger, Columbus, Ohio, and Mrs. Nancy Wilson, Lake City, Tenn.

Mrs. Nellie Thomas Dixon, 72, a member of the Unity Baptist Church, died at Ashland on June 11. She is survived by her husband, Fred F. Dixon; and ten children: Fred Dixon, Jr., Akron, Ohio; George L. Dixon, Butler, Penna.; James Dixon, Summit; Mrs. Edith Appleton, Dayton, Ohio; Mrs. Maxine Rupey, Karns City, Penna.; Mrs. Louis Layne, Miss Darlene Dixon, Raymond Dixon, William Dixon and Almond Dixon, all of Ashland.

Rev. Joseph B. Tallant, 64, who has been a Baptist minister for the last forty-five years, died at Chattanooga, Tenn., on June 8. He has held pastorates in such places as Chattanooga, Tenn, Macon, Ga., Rossville, Ga., Decatur, Ala., and Harriman, Tenn. He was the father of Pastor Francis R. Tallant, of the First Baptist Church, Jellico, Tenn., and Rev. Harold D. Tallant, pastor of the First Baptist Church, Madisonville, Ky. In addition to these two preacher-sons, he is survived by his wife, another son, Capt. Irby C. Tallant, Camp Chaffee, Ark.; and by one daughter, Mrs. Jack Fullwood, Stantonville, Tenn.

Wilmore Pastor Goes To West Side Baptist Church, Dayton, Ohio

WILMORE, Ky., June 11.—The Wilmore Baptist Church gave a farewell supper for Pastor and Mrs. John Kurtz on Wednesday night, June 8. Mr. Kurtz has accepted the pastorate of the West Side Baptist Church of Dayton, Ohio, and he and his family expect to leave Wilmore for Dayton on June 15. Mr. Kurtz has been pastor at the Wilmore Baptist Church for the past five years.

The supper was attended by 150 persons, and a musical program was presented. A beautiful silver tray was presented to him and his wife, with the name of the church engraved thereon.

SERVICE—The greatest and perhaps the only perfect gift that we can give to the world is the gift of ourselves at our best, and that means not just the skill of our hands and the cunning of our brains, but our dreams, our resolutions and most solemn promises to ourselves. What do we live for, if it is not to make life less difficult for each other. —Safety News.

Stanton Church Has a Great Revival With Donald Wells Preaching

STANTON, Ky., June 15.—The Stanton Baptist Church has just closed one of the most successful meetings ever witnessed by this writer. Revival services and Vacation Bible school were held simultaneously. Both were marvelous successes.

The Bible School had an enrollment of 112, with an average attendance of 85. There were 32 professions of faith out of the Bible school and seven others who were adults, coming for baptism in the evening services. Twenty-one, in all, were received for baptism during the meeting and four by letter. Several others are expectd to come later for baptism.

Rev. Donald W. Wells, pastor of Pollard Baptist Church, of Pollard, did the preaching during the meeting. Stanton Church has been blessed with some of Kentucky's greatest preachers and evangelists, holding meetings from the beginning. Rev. R. Don Gambrell did the preaching the year the church was organized. Rev. R. B. White, Rev. Harry L. Carter, Rev. W. K. Wood, and Rev. Sam Sloan have been with us in other meetings. Brother Wells did some of the greatest and sanest preaching I have ever heard in my life. There is no wonder he and his great church have done one of the most outstanding pieces of mission work in the state of Kentucky. They have organized two new churches in near-by fields and have completed $20,000 basements in each place. Both places are full-time and self supporting. Brother Wells is planning to undertake two more such projects.

Brother Wells has given us an example of New Testament missions that could be and should be repeated by a hundred or more great churches in Kentucky. If this were actually done it would surpass all the work done by our missionaries and more than double our mission work in Kentucky. It would also give us a sense of missions far beyond anything we have ever dreamed.

The church and pastor were so pleased with the sane and simple way that Brother Wells presented the great doctrines of grace that we have invited him to hold our meeting in 1950. We expect to have the church finished by that time. The brick and much of the other materials have been bought and delivered.

Workers in the Bible school were Rev. and Mrs. Harold Cameron, of Macedonia Church, summer workers for the State Board, Miss Marsee Townsend, of Macedonia Church, Miss Edith Hall, from the Home Mission Board, and Mrs. Nannie Riggs and Miss Alma Riggs of the Stanton Church. They did their job well.—F. C. Tuttle, Pastor-missionary.

Third Church of Owensboro Makes Relief Shipment

The Third Baptist Church of Owensboro, Ky., purchased enough clothing to fill more than 100 duffle bags. Among the people who assisted in the drive were those shown in the photograph above: Otto E. Bryant, Sunday School Superintendent; Mrs. Hilton Gore, Mrs. E. L. Mitchell, Mrs. O. N. Magruder, Miss Grace Morehead, Church Secretary; Mrs. C. L. (Pearl) Graham; and Pastor H. B. Kuhnle. This photograph was taken in the Third Church on the night before the bags were shipped.

In Memoriam

JUDGE CHARLES H. WILSON

SMITHLAND, Ky., June 15.—Whereas, God, in His infinite wisdom has called to Himself Judge Charles H. Wilson, one of our most beloved citizens and valuable and devoted church members, we wish to express publicly our appreciation for his life and work among us.

Judge Wilson will walk no more among us on religious, civic or political duties, but his spirit and influence will continue to be felt in the church, in the community and in the state: that spirit will continue to bear witness of his life here where most of us remember him as a loyal, devout member of this church, worshipping regularly in his "accustomed place." Here we remember him as one giving liberally, joyously of himself, his time and substance to all things that contributed to the Christian Way of Life. He continued in this work to the end of his courageous walk with us.

Judge Wilson had a great and understanding knowledge of the Bible and was always happy to teach it and interpret it to others. He taught his Sunday school class for many years. He was a trustee of long standing. He loved and supported the Baptist cause and all its programs.

During his lifetime, Judge Wilson had many responsibilities and official duties in this church. These he discharged with rare judgment and understanding, thereby earning for himself, honor and respect, gratitude and love from all associated with him in the church and in other phases of denominational work.

Therefore, we, the members of the First Baptist Church of Smithland, assembled on this first day of June 1949, hereby;

Resolve that with the passing of Judge Wilson, the church has lost one of its most loyal members and staunchest defenders. Because we loved Judge Wilson much we shall miss him greatly. Our hearts are grieved:

Resolved, that this city has lost a great leader, one interestd in every phase of its religious, educational, civic and political development.

And be it further resolved that we, as members of this church continually rededicate our efforts to the cause of Christianity,—in binding more closely the bonds of fellowship in Christ; in ministering to the need of people everywhere as we see and understand that need, especially to those of the household of faith.

Further resolve we that: The church expresses to our departed brother's beloved wife, Saidee Polk Wilson, and to his children and surviving brothers and sisters our deepest sympathy and prayers: We believe that the Judge's fine Christian spirit will continue to grow and flower and bear fruit in the lives of his children. May God's blessing rest upon them.

Therefore, be it further resolved, that a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family of the deceased, to the Livingston Leader and the Western Recorder for publication, and that the resolutions be spread upon the church records.—Opha T. Wilson, Secretary, Resolutions Committee, First Baptist Church, Smithland, Kentucky.

Gleanings

Pastor Henry Beach, Jr., and the Hall Street Baptist Church program may be heard on the Owensboro radio at 7:45 A. M. on Sunday mornings.

Pastor J. H. Maddox, of the Second Baptist Church of Hopkinsville, is assisting Brother J. H. Lyon in a meeting at his church in Greenville, Ky., which began June 13.

Rev. and Mrs. Anderson McCulley have arrived at the First Baptist Church of Madisonville, Ky., where Mr. McCulley will be the Assistant Pastor to Brother Harold D. Tallant.

Rev. J. B. Tallant died and was buried at Chattanooga, Tenn., on June 8. He was the father of Pastor Harold D. Tallant of the First Baptist Church, Madisonville, Ky., and of Pastor Francis R. Tallant, of the First Baptist Church, Jellico, Tenn.

The First Baptist Church of Dawson Springs organized a Baptist Brotherhood on May 10. The meeting was attended by 29 men of the church. Rev. J. H. Maddox was the speaker for the occasion and brought an inspiring message to the group, according to Pastor A. L. Meacham. Richard Peters was elected as the President of the Brotherhood.

A New Mission is Started in Henderson

The Audubon Baptist Church of Henderson has started a mission half a mile away from its own location, and the mission is meeting with marked success, says Pastor John R. Flynn. Now the parent church is anxious to erect a building for the young church.
