Eldred M. Taylor, Superintendent of Missions and Evangelism for Kentucky Baptists since June, 1951, has resigned to accept the pastorate of the First Baptist Church, Somerset, Kentucky. (See story on page 16.)

GLEANINGS FROM THE FIELD

Kentucky Graduate

►Dewey C. Smith, Mayfield, was among the 166 candidates for degrees and awards at New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary during commencement exercises May 16. He received a diploma in Christian theology.

Cupid's Deadly Darts

►Pastor F. E. Howard, Newton Creek Baptist Church, Kevil, and Mrs. Howard have announced the engagement of their daughter, Ora Frances, to Mr. William Neff Hibbs, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Hibbs, Vine Grove, Ky. Miss Howard attended Western Kentucky State College and the Bowling Green College of Commerce. Mr. Hibbs is a student at Western Kentucky State College. The wedding will take place August 31 at the Vine Grove Church with the father of the bride officiating.

►Announcement has been made by Mr. and Mrs. Rollin Turner, Montpelier, Adair County, Ky., of the engagement of their daughter, Miss Nancy Jean Turner, to Mr. Walter Terrell Randall, the wedding to take place in Columbia, Ky., June 14 at 7:30 o'clock. Miss Turner is a member of the senior class this year at Eastern Kentucky State College, Richmond, Ky. Mr. Randall, familiarly known as "Terry," is a son of Dr. and Mrs. H. Collins Randall, Columbia, Ky. He is a Junior in Georgia Institute of Technology and is captain of the Georgia "Tech" basketball team. Before going to the Georgia school three years ago he was a member of the team of Adair County High School, and was one of the most successful high school athletes in Kentucky. His mother, Mrs. Estelle Pittinger Randall, is president of the Kentucky W. M. U.

Pastoral Changes

►Richard M. Shields resigned from the pastorate of Double Springs Church, and is now pastor of Muldraugh Hill Church, near Lebanon.

►Lyle W. Lee is the new pastor of Blue River Island Church, Salem Association. He is native of Indiana. He and his wife and baby girl live at 131 Fuller Hall, Southern Seminary.

►Marion E. Smith recently resigned as pastor at Green Ridge Church in Logan County, Kentucky, to accept the pastorate of the Barren Plains Church, Springfield, Tenn. During his three years at Green Ridge there were approximately 56 additions to the church, and a lovely brick church and Sunday School department were constructed. The Barren Plains Church has just concluded an excellent revival with 46 professions of faith, 11 rededications, one by letter, one surrendering to special service, and numerous requests for prayer. Nat Phillips, pastor of Little Hope Church, was evangelist.

►On April 27, LaVerne Butler ended an eight-year pastorate at the Keck Avenue Baptist Church in Evansville, Indiana, to become pastor of the Little Union Church of Spencer County, Kentucky, and to resume his studies at the Southern Baptist Seminary. When he went to Keck Avenue in July of 1950, it was a mission church, consisting of seven families, meeting in the basement of an unfinished building. Since that time he has led the church in three separate building programs, including the rebuilding of the church after a fire in 1951. The church entered its third educational unit last November, and can now accommodate 600 in Sunday School. More than 525 people have united with the church, the present Sunday School enrollment is 548, total offerings have exceeded $175,000, and the total value of the church property is now $160,000.

Revival Fires

►Pastor W. W. Johnson conducted a revival at the Second Church, Marion, during April 13-23.

►H. Mac Johnson, Jr., pastor of Forrest Avenue Church, Gadsden, Ala., was with Pastor Roy A. Hamilton in a revival at Immanuel Church, Louisville, April 20-27. Pastor Hamilton says that there were 26 decisions in all, 12 for baptism, 5 by letter and 9 rededications, and "the teaching by Johnson was superb, down to earth, and soul-gripping." Immanuel's own minister of music, Herschel Creasman, led the music and Deryll Homberg, Erlanger, was the soloist.

Youth Activities

►Unusual response to two youth activities has been experienced by the Campbellsburg Baptist Church, John D. Redden, pastor. April 13-20 was Youth Week in which 30 high school students participated in all the regular church activities including business meeting, teachers' and officers' meeting and regular Sunday worship services. April 21-25 was observed as Vocational Guidance Week with the use of the Training Union study courses. Average attendance for the study was 74. Training Union enrollment for Campbellsburg has grown from about 20 to 100 within one year. Pastor Redden reports that these youth activities have produced a genuine revival spirit in the church.

The Forward Program at Hodgenville

By Pastor D. PERRY GINN

"The Loyalty Dinner was the turning point," spoke a layman recently as several members of First Church, Hodgenville, were discussing the life of the church. His reference was, first of all, to the success of the Forward Program campaign which the church conducted last fall.

And he was right, for the Loyalty Dinner was the key factor which brought success in the campaign.

But the layman also had reference to the basic spiritual life of the church, for the Forward Program brought a great surge of spiritual power into the Hodgenville Church. The church has learned through its own experience the reality of God's promise in Malachi 3:10 that He would pour out His blessings upon those who are faithful in the matter of financial stewardship.

The Hodgenville church had some tremendous spiritual problems which demanded attention. There was a divisiveness in the fellowship which for many years had sapped the church's spiritual energy. In addition, there was another serious problem which blighted the church's life and witness, and the church also had never seriously faced its stewardship responsibility.

During 1954 and 1955 the monthly treasurer's report revealed that the church income was behind its expenditures for fifteen of the twenty-four months, and by the end of 1955 it amounted to almost $1,000. The church courageously determined to face and deal with these three serious problems, and when it did so there naturally developed a great deal of tension within the fellowship. And it was the Forward Program of Church Finance, and particularly the Loyalty Dinner, which did much to eliminate the tension, bind up the wounds, and fill the church with new spiritual power.

The Forward Program proved itself to be a channel of tremendous spiritual blessings, and had there been no financial gains, the program would still have been more than worth all the energy and cost it required. In the judgment of many long-time members, the church now has a greater stability than ever before, and this judgment is borne out by the history of the church. The divisiveness is gone, and there is a deep sense of fellowship and co-operation among the members. And the church has a new unity of purpose which has intensified its desire to honor and glorify the name of Christ, not only in the local community, but throughout the world as well. And the Forward Program played a large part in making the church united and strong.

The purpose of the Forward Program is to aid the local church in developing a greater stewardship consciousness based upon Biblical principles, and this purpose was accomplished at Hodgenville. The 1956 church budget called for $562.83 each Sunday, excluding the Sunday School offering, which was designated for the building fund and amounted to approximately $120 each Sunday.

For 1957, the church adopted the unified budget plan and set a budget goal of $800 each Sunday, and attained the goal. Using the Forward Program, the church set a budget goal of $1,090 each Sunday for 1958, and with the economic recession and all, the offerings for the first sixteen Sundays of 1958 have averaged approximately $1,070 each Sunday. During the campaign 491 members signed pledged cards, and 257 of them pledged to tithe. Approximately 21 per cent, or $12,000, of the budget is for World Missions through the Cooperative Program. In addition, the church designated $2,000 for the Foreign Mission Board for the support of missionaries, increased its support of the Associational Mission program, and included several other items in its missionary budget. In all, approximately 28 per cent of the budget is for World Mission causes outside the local church. On the local level, the church has been enabled to enlarge its educational program, improve its music program, reduce its debt more rapidly, enlarge its local mission efforts, and strengthen all areas of the church's work.

God has richly blessed the Hodgenville church, and the Forward Program of Church Finance was one of the chief instruments through which He poured out His blessings. Other churches would do well to allow themselves to be blessed in the same manner.

Carver School to Stay Separate Institution

LOUISVILLE — (BP) —Booz, Allen and Hamilton, Chicago management consultant firm, has recommended that Carver School of Missions and Social Work here continue as a separate institution, and not be consolidated with any seminary.

Carver School is operated by the Southern Baptist Convention on a campus next door to that of Southern Baptist Theological Seminary in Louisville.

The recommendation was one of about 20 the management consultant firm presented after completing a survey of Carver operations. The report was presented to Carver trustees.

Trustees went on record that "Carver School is absolutely needed in denominational life." It should be devoted, they said, to advanced missions and social work.

Trustees elected a new chairman of their board, B. L. Williams, Jr., pastor, First Baptist Church, Johnston City, Ill. He succeeds John Sandidge, Louisville attorney.

J. Herbert Gilmore, pastor, Deer Park Baptist Church, Louisville, was elected vice-chairman. Mrs. E. M. Nuckols, Louisville, was re-elected secretary.

George A. Carver, son of the Southern Baptist educator for whom the school is named, has been elected president ad interim of Carver. He will serve until the trustees elect a permanent president.

►A Simultaneous revival effort in the Southwestern Association of Baptists in Ohio had as its director Brother Sam Sloan, pastor of Pollard Church, Ashland, Kentucky. All 17 churches of the association participated with the results of 188 baptisms, 57 transfers by letter and 171 rededications. Sloan, in addition to serving as director of the campaign, was the evangelist for the Southern Hills Baptist Church, where F. C. Tuttle is pastor. The Southern Hills church is only three and one half years old but already has a seven room modern parsonage, three acres for a highly desirable church site and a fine church building with a 250 educational capacity. The church, located in Hamilton, Ohio, was built for the most part by the pastors and members of the church.

►A. O. Allison, a pastor for many years in Southeastern Kentucky, spent several days at Clear Creek Baptist School the week of April 13, where he spoke in chapel, sharing with young student preachers many experiences of an older minister. Brother Allison is now retired and living at Ashland.

►C. E. Autrey, professor of evangelism at Southwestern Seminary, gives two soul-winning messages for the TALKING BOOK ministry of The Braille Evangel, Fort Worth. A 12-inch LP record carries the messages, "What Will You Do With Jesus?" and "The Grace of God." This is one of 12 records planned for the 1958 evangelistic emphasis of The Braille Evangel ministry. Beyond the braille publications is the larger opportunity for evangelism among the blind, because a large majority of them do not read braille, reports Editor Edwin Wilson. He claims that during the year The Braille Evangel talking book ministry will be aimed at 25,000 blind people who await the light of Christ's message of salvation. Readers are asked to forward the names and addresses of unsaved blind people in their community to The Braille Evangel, Box 69999, Fort Worth, Texas.

A NEW LEADER COMMISSIONED

June 1, 1958

Moses, God's great leader of the Israelites, had brought them out of the land of bondage and through the wilderness and was now about to leave them. He could not take them into the Promised Land on account of his previous disobedience to God. The Israelites had become attached to Moses, had learned to trust his judgment and to follow his leadership even though they repeatedly murmured against him. But now the time had arrived when it was necessary for a change of leadership. A change of command is usually a delicate affair, but it is especially hazardous when the army is in the field and the enemy is on guard.

I. The Choice. Numbers 27:18-20.

Realizing that the time of his own departure was near at hand, Moses was very solicitous about the future of God's work. He was vitally concerned that a capable and qualified successor be named before he left the scene of action. As an evidence of his unselfishness, freedom from jealousy and nobility of soul, Moses earnestly besought God to provide a leader who would honor Him and be a great blessing to His people. In answer to his prayer, Moses was divinely instructed to ordain Joshua as his successor, and to charge him to be faithful in the performance of his numerous duties.

We do not know much about the early life of Joshua. His name is a worthy and significant one, meaning "Jehovah is salvation." The relationship between Moses and Joshua was beautiful and significant. At the first Joshua is seen as the servant of Moses, loyal to his leader, a most trustworthy and valiant captain. One of his conspicuous characteristics was his unswerving loyalty to Moses, God's appointed leader.

Years of training in the ranks of God's forces prepared Joshua for the position of successor to Moses. Association with Moses for forty years afforded Joshua sufficient practical experience to qualify him for the leadership of Israel. When he assumed leadership, he had proved himself to be a man of faith, a man of steadfastness, and a man of spiritual integrity. He had great faith in God and displayed remarkable devotion to Him. He was a man of decision. There was never any wavering, hesitating or delaying when the way of duty had been made clear to him. He is one of the few Old Testament characters against whose name

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

By H. C. Chiles

there is no reproach.

II. The Call. Joshua 1:1.

For a month the people had been mourning over the death of Moses, so the time had arrived for them to cease their mourning and to proceed into Canaan. Therefore, God very definitely called Joshua to particular service for Him. God said, "Moses my servant is dead; now therefore arise, go over this Jordan." Separation, service and satisfaction were involved in this call from God. He was told to cross Jordan, to lead the Israelites into the Promised Land, and to enjoy the marvelous blessings that were in store for them there.

III. The Challenge. Joshua 1:2-4.

A principle of vast significance is set forth here. God is very generous, and His gifts are beyond calculation. But His gifts must be received. While God gave all Palestine to the children of Israel, only so much of it as their feet trod upon actually became theirs to enjoy.

In meeting the conditions attached to possessing the land, God was their enabler. As in all of God's dealings, it was all of grace. God promised that He would go with them and drive out all of their enemies, if only they would believe Him enough to take Him at His word and act accordingly. All they needed to do to possess the land was to cross over the Jordan and to occupy it. These glorious promises which God gave to Joshua were calculated to strengthen him and to challenge him.

IV. The Companionship. Joshua 1:5.

God promised Joshua a blessed companionship. Although Moses had been taken away from him, God was still with him. Therefore, he was assured that he would have the same protection and power that Moses had. "As I was with Moses, so I will be with thee."

In this companionship there was complete victory. When God said, "I will not fail thee, nor forsake thee," He was promising both His presence and His power to Joshua. He was promising to enable him to do all that would be required of him. With the duty there inevitably comes the power to discharge it, for God will never fail His own.

Al Parks has accepted the call of the First Church, Montgomery, Alabama, to become minister of education. Mr. Parks went to Montgomery June 2, after serving as minister of education for three years at the Southside Baptist Church of Jacksonville, Florida. Dr. J. R. White is pastor of First Baptist in Montgomery. Al is a graduate of Georgetown College and Southern Baptist Theological Seminary. He served as educational minister at Crestwood Baptist Church, Frankfort, while in Georgetown College and at 23rd and Broadway Baptist Church, Louisville, during his Seminary days. He is married to the former Doris Scarce of Finchville, Kentucky. They have one son, Thomas Ray, age 4.

CHILDREN ROWDY? DON'T PULL YOUR HAIR!

They will quietly enjoy these Broadman recordings for children. Made of break-resistant vinylite, these records have vocal arrangements with piano accompaniment. Words of songs are printed on record sleeves for children to learn quickly. Each album includes a pamphlet with suggestions for using the records.

►First Baptist Chapel, Frankfort, of which Herman Marx is the pastor, has just experienced one of the most spiritual series of meetings in many years. The Chapel is the child of the First Church, Frankfort, of which Dr. Fred T. Moffatt is the pastor. Edward J. Minars, Franklin County associational missionary, was the evangelist, and Vernon C. Taylor, Valley Station, was the song leader. There were 21 confessions of faith; 9 were received by letter; and 4 rededications.

►The First Baptist Church, Raceland, Ky., some weeks ago entered the ground level of its new building and a dedication service was held. Since the new space was added two new classes have been added along with full departmental work being done for the first time at Intermediate and Young People's level in Training Union. Roof is on the new building, and when completed will have a Fellowship Hall, pastor's study, eight classrooms, four assembly rooms, kitchen and utility space. Richard Miller is in his second pastorate there in this four star church.

THE WORLD OF BAPTISTS

W. L. HOWSE TO GET HONORARY DOCTORATE

JACKSON, Tenn. (BP) — W. L. Howse, Jr., director of the education division, Baptist Sunday School Board, Nashville, will receive the honorary LL. D. degree at Union University here June 3.

Howse, a native of Fayetteville, Tenn., is an alumnus of Union. His son, Bill, is a student at Union now.

HOUSTON BAPTIST SCHOOL POTENTIAL SAID TO BE GREAT

HOUSTON — (BP) — A $3,000,000 building and operating fund during 1959 and on-campus students by 1961 are goals for a new Baptist college in Houston, Texas.

Because of Baptist growth and the number of potential college students, Houston Baptists expect the college to have the largest enrollment of any Southern Baptist college by 1975.

A Houston college committee is now completing arrangements for a 200-acre campus site with no cost to Baptists. A 380-acre tract located on a freeway 13 miles from the city is being purchased by Union Baptist Association.

One hundred and eighty acres of this amount will be sold for development. Profit from the sale is expected to pay for the remaining 200 acres for the college campus, Union Association leaders said.

NEW MIAMI BEACH HALL ALMOST READY TO OPEN

MIAMI BEACH (BP) — The new convention hall here where Southern Baptists will hold their 1960 session is nearing completion and will be initiated with another church convention—that of the Protestant Episcopal Church.

Termed the biggest hall in the South, it will have an over-all floor area of 200,000 square feet and seating space for 15,000 persons. The new structure will be one of the most serviceable public buildings in the country.

The 70-foot high auditorium will have 10 rooms for meetings and exhibits apart from the main area—108,000 square feet of unobstructed space.

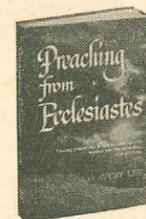

18 NEW MISSIONARIES BRING TOTAL TO 1,204

Among the 18 young people appointed missionaries by the Southern Baptist Foreign Mission Board at its semiannual full meeting in April was the first professionally trained hospital administrator ever sent out by the Board. He is Rev. James C. Ware, who will work with the new Baptist Hospital in Guadalajara, Mexico.

Three medical doctors were also appointed in April. Dr. Hal B. Boone will serve in Tanganyika and Dr. Joanna Maiden and Dr. L. C. Smith will both go to Nigeria.

These 18 appointments brought the total number of active Southern Baptist foreign missionaries to 1,204.

Eldred M. Taylor Accepts Pastorate of First Baptist Church, Somerset

Eldred M. Taylor, Superintendent of Missions and Evangelism of the General Association of Kentucky Baptists for the past seven years has resigned in order to become pastor of First Baptist Church, Somerset, Kentucky. His duties have included the supervision of 90 state missionaries, the conducting of numerous conferences on local, associational and state level, the promotion of the Southern Baptist Program of Evangelism in Kentucky and other valuable services. The very popular state Evangelistic Conference conducted each year in January has also been planned by Taylor.

The new pastor has a rich Baptist background, his father having been a Baptist deacon and his mother a Sunday School teacher and church organist. He is a native of Kentucky having been born in 1921 on a dairy farm outside Owensboro.

Taylor attended William Jewell College, Liberty, Missouri, for three years. He completed college work at Eastern State College, Richmond, Kentucky, where he earned a B. S. degree and earned the B. D. degree from Southern Seminary, Louisville. He entered mission work in 1947 when he became Associational Missionary for Tate's Creek Association, Richmond, Kentucky. After one year he was elected Superintendent of Missions for the Daviess-McLean Baptist Association where he had served three years when the election to his present position took place.

His experience also includes pastoral experience in Missouri and Kentucky. He has served as interim pastor of St. Matthews Baptist Church and Eighteenth Street Baptist Church in Louisville. He is the author of several tracts and has been frequently invited to appear on the program of the annual meetings of the Kentucky Baptist General Association.

Mrs. Taylor is also very active in church work, serving presently as a superintendent of Beginners work in Sunday School and a counselor for the Girl's Auxiliary, a youth missionary organization. The Taylors have two daughters, Jeannie Caroline, 9, and Jacqueline Sue, 7.

►Dan Stone, pastor of McKinley Ave. Baptist Church, Harrisburg, Ill., recently assisted Pastor William Carter in a ten-day revival at Sorgho Baptist Church, Stanley, Ky.

Youth Week Pastor Receives Brother

A typical Youth Week was observed by First Baptist Church, Whitesburg, Pine Mountain Association, April 27-May 4. There were fifty young people and Intermediates who held Youth Week Offices. The highlight of the week was the profession of faith made by Jerry Stansbury, the brother of the Youth Week Pastor. Two came for baptism, one by letter, and one for dedication.

Rev. Clel B. Rodgers, pastor of the church, states, "The week was of most value in the spirit of togetherness created by the young people's sincerity and effort to express their concern for consecrated leadership in the church. This proved a challenge to the adult leadership, and gave us two of our greatest Sunday worship services."
