WR
WESTERN RECORDER
SEPTEMBER 29, 1973

Southern Baptist missionaries visit with a local Baptist congregation in Tanzania, East Africa. Churches giving together through the Cooperative Program make it possible for missionaries to preach the gospel throughout the world. Kentucky Baptists' Cooperative Program giving is listed on pages 6-13.

Staff Changes

Euin E. Hall has resigned the pastorate of the Elk Lick Baptist Church in Logan County to become pastor of the Woodland Baptist Church in Muhlenberg County at Greenville. Hall has served as pastor in Trigg, Christian, Lyon, and Logan counties, and once before in Muhlenberg. He was also serving on the Executive Board of Kentucky at the time of his leaving Elk Lick Baptist Church. He began his duties at Woodland church the first of September.

Hall

Robin C. Oldham has been named admissions counselor at Georgetown College, according to Don DeBorde, director of admissions. Oldham taught English in the Scott County school system prior to joining the admissions staff. He was an admissions counselor during the 1970-71 college year. He received his BA from Georgetown College in 1969 and his MA in 1972. Oldham is married to the former Jeana Cook of Georgetown.

The First Baptist Church, Madisonville, has called Kenneth Fendley as minister of education. The native Kentuckian has served in a similar position at the First Baptist Church, Owensboro, and the First Baptist Church, Cynthiana. Fendley has also been public relations director at Georgetown College and Mackinac College in Michigan. He has five children.

William Hodge has assumed the position of associate pastor at Florence Baptist Church, Florence. He will place a special emphasis on education while serving the Florence congregation.

We Have A Paper Shortage Also

A major portion of the space in this week's issue is devoted to the annual report of Cooperative Program giving from Kentucky Baptist churches. We do this every year because it is important to know what we are doing about mission outreach and this year we are especially happy to be able to present such an encouraging report.

We regret we cannot expand this week's issue to 24 pages as we ordinarily do when we print this report but we have little choice. The paper shortage which is critical for others is also critical with us and we simply don't have paper for a 24 page issue. We ask your understanding until we can do better.

Pastor, Thornhill Baptist Church, Frankfort

A Matter Of Choice

Matthew 7:6

Jesus fully understood the makeup of the human heart. In the Sermon on the Mount, He gave to His followers the most important teachings ever given to man. One of these teachings was the admonition to keep one's life in perspective. Everywhere we turn, we hear the voices of the world crying out to us, "Follow me, this is the way to go." For the Christian, it is very difficult to ascertain the true way. With so many subtleties around us, the word of the Lord can be overlooked.

One thing is certain, God does not call upon us to be trivial and this is why Jesus cautioned His followers. Our lives are important to each of us and especially to God. All too often, we are tempted to give our time, money, and energy to things that are really not worthy of our devotion.

We would ridicule anyone that would try to get us to worship some kind of idol. We consider ourselves modern, sophisticated, and intellectual yet the idea of such a way of life would be really repugnant.

With all of this in mind, the fact remains that we do cast our pearls before pigs, and that which is holy before dogs. The alcohol that is consumed is astronomical. People see this as an escape, but find their lives ruined by the degradation. The pills that are taken cause the pharmaceutical companies to work overtime. We take pills to sleep, to keep us alert, to calm us down, and to pep us up. Is it any wonder our young people are on drugs? The adult medicine cabinet is a virtual cache of unlimited supply. We work ourselves down physically, so that the doctor tells us to let off some activities. So what do we give up? — our church relationship!

Our lives are too precious to squander. Yet, what Jesus taught us seems to fall on deaf ears. If Christians would be more concerned for the spiritual as they are the material, we could bring the gospel to more people. ■

Baptist Student Convention To Meet In Louisville

The Kentucky Baptist Student Convention will meet in Louisville for the first time in several years, according to Don Blaylock, director of the state student work department. The move from Danville, the previously announced site, was forced by a conflict with Homecoming activities at Centre College.

Southern Seminary will host this year's meeting October 12-13. Featured will be a musical group from Mobile, Alabama, called "Truth." The rock-religious company, under the direction of John Roger Breland, has performed to an audience of over 30 million people throughout the past years.

The 250,000 miles they have traveled has brought them to such people as President Nixon, Billy Graham, Johnny Cash, and former Miss America Vonda Kay Van Dyke.

Also present at the conference will be Southern Baptist Missionary, William Marshall. Named field representative for the Middle East, Marshall lives in Nicosia, on the island of Cyprus.

A native of Frankfort, he attended Eastern Kentucky State College (now Eastern Kentucky University), Richmond, and received the bachelor of arts degree from Georgetown College.

Dale Cowling, pastor, Second Baptist Church, Little Rock, Arkansas, will also be a featured program personality. Cowling is a former director of student work in Arkansas and was awarded the "Man of the Year" Award by Arkansas BSU directors in 1968.

A POLICY WITH SOMETHING EXTRA —

Annuity Board Offers Love And Aid After Tragedy

By Larry High

Insurance is a commodity many people seldom care to think about. If they have it at all they are prone to simply write a premium check each month and send it to an agent. The feeling as one seals such an envelope is too often one of wasted money.

The Kentucky Baptist Convention is in the insurance business and wants to show Baptists this is money put to good use, not wasted. The SBC Annuity Board is responsible for offering insurance coverage to Baptist church staffs and their families.

Byrd Ison, director of the KBC annuity department, spends much of his time stressing the importance and benefits of adequate coverage for church staffs to congregations throughout the state. Ison firmly believes every church should enrol its staff members in the annuity program.

He said the board has a variety of insurance policies, one of which is designed to meet the need of any minister. He recommends church members and pastor discuss the insurance needs of the pastor when he is initially called by the church. "Everyone should get into this program just as soon as they can," he said. 'This is something nobody knows when it will be needed."

The workings of the Annuity Board were recently seen after the tragic death of J. G. Floyd, pastor of South Elkhorn Baptist Church of Lexington. Floyd had been insured by his church through the Annuity Board.

When Ison learned of Floyd's death, he immediately contacted his widow and family to offer the Annuity Board's assistance in any way it was needed.

Mrs. Floyd was later to say, "Without Mr. Ison's help and the information he gave me I don't know how I would have made it."

CHECK PRESENTED — Byrd Ison, annuity director, gives Mrs. J. G. Floyd the check from her late husband's policy.

Ison said one of the first things he does when he learns of the death of someone insured by the program is to contact the beneficiary. "We write down instructions for widows about Social Security and the assistance the board can give them so they'll know what to do," he added.

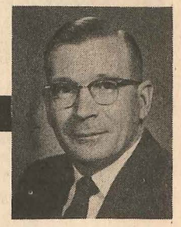
Within two months after the death of her husband Mrs. Floyd was presented with a life insurance check by Ison personally. At that time he was also able to offer his assistance once again as the family sought to build a new life.

"I don't know what Mrs. Floyd would have done without this check," Ison said, "with it, she will be able to pay off her home now if she wants."

In addition to the life insurance allotment Mr. Floyd was also enrolled in a program which provided for his sons. Mrs. Floyd will receive a monthly check to help care for the boys, ages 9 and 14. Also each boy will receive financial aid if he decides to go on to college.

Kentuckians expressed their sorrow at the death of J. G. Floyd and leading the way was the Annuity Board and Byrd Ison. The board not only issues insurance, it includes love and caring in its policies. When it is called upon, the bereaved can be assured they have found a source of help. J. G. Floyd would have wanted it that way for his family.

DALEY OBSERVATIONS



Pastors And Former Pastors Can Get Along

Last year I used an editorial dealing with the problems of adjustment for a new pastor and for the church members when a former pastor remains in the church. The advice of the editorial was that when a pastor resigns or retires and remains in the community it is better for all concerned that he move his membership to another congregation. Surely there are exceptions to this rule and several were pointed out to me in response to the editorial.

Another exceptional and most happy experience of a former pastor and his family remaining in the church he served came to my attention recently and I believe it is worth sharing. Hopefully it will help others who face this question.

When Bill Rogers resigned as pastor of Melbourne Heights Church in Louisville to become director of the Kentucky Baptist Interracial Department he and the new Melbourne Heights pastor, Frank Hawkins, discussed whether or not the Rogers family should remain in Melbourne Heights. They honestly and openly faced all the hopes and the problems involved. The result was a covenant between the two men and the decision that the Rogers family remain members of Melbourne Heights. The covenant included three areas.

First, Rogers would assume no pastoral functions unless called upon by the pastor. This allowed the pastor to ask Rogers to take care of emergencies while he was on vacation or out of town for other reasons. This worked well with both men and with the families involved. In some instances their ministry was a team approach temporarily but with the pastor assuming full responsibility as Rogers stepped out.

The second part of the covenant had to do with policy decisions of the church. The understanding was that former pastor Rogers would not involve himself in policy decisions unless his counsel was requested by the pastor. The pastor felt free then to draw upon Rogers for information and background knowledge about the church without fear of Rogers interfering with decisions the church was facing.

The last part of the covenant between the pastor and former pastor called for periodic checkups to determine how the experiment was working. The understanding was that if, in the opinion of either, the ministry of Melbourne Heights was adversely affected, Rogers and his family would quietly leave and join another church. These periodic checkups have revealed no difficulties so far and the Rogers family is still a happy part in the church.

Rogers often has Sunday appointments elsewhere in connection with his work but continues to be as active in the life of the church as he can be. Mrs. Rogers has opportunity to be more active than Bill and the Rogers' two daughters are fully involved in the music and youth programs at Melbourne Heights.

Rogers is a strong and enthusiastic supporter of his pastor. He says, "Brother Hawkins is an excellent preacher, good administrator and a competent pastor." The feeling of love and appreciation is mutual. Hawkins is happy to have Rogers and his family as members and feels the covenant experiment has worked out beautifully.

This unusually happy experience of a pastor and former pastor proves that it can be done. Rogers and Hawkins are to be commended for such integrity and maturity and so is the Melbourne Heights congregation. May the Lord give us more such former pastors, pastors and church members.

BAPTIST FORUM

WORKMAN'S COMPENSATION

Dear Editor:

As an employer of over 30 persons, I find that Workman's Compensation is possibly the least desirable of compensatory insurance, paying very little in time of need, but with premiums that incorporate factors other than the genuine risk involved with an employee in a "rated" job.

It is possible that insurance men may disagree with me; yet it is my opinion that anything connected with the political structure is excessive in cost due to legislative factors that are political in nature and which are forced on many persons and businessmen.

It is true that the cost appears to be low . . . yet what would be the cost of a simple accident policy that conforms to the benefits of WC? If I were you, I would thoroughly check this out first, before involving the State and its multi-regulated insurance which is required by law with all business, with a Church.

People And Places

Penrose T. Ecton, a well-known Baptist and long-time member of Calvary Baptist Church, Lexington, died on September 7. Ecton suffered a heart attack while addressing the Lexington Kiwanis Club. In addition to being a prominent businessman and interested in many civic and charitable organizations he had given much time and effort to his local church and to denominational agencies. He had served as vice chairman of the Central Baptist Hospital trustees and had also served as a trustee of Georgetown College.

Miss Virginia Pratt has been named to the business department teaching staff of Georgetown College. She will teach secretarial studies at the college.

Miss Pratt, a native of Hindman, Kentucky, received her BA in secretarial studies from Georgetown College and her MA in business education from the University of Kentucky.

Resolutions expressing appreciation for the life and ministry of Mrs. L. H. Veale were offered by the members of her Sunday School class in the First Baptist Church, Frankfort. Mrs. Veale taught the class for more than 30 years. She was also known and loved by many for her encouragement to young people and her counsel to all who needed her help. The resolution says Mrs. Veale "shall ever remain a fresh and abiding guide and inspiration in our minds; that the lessons she taught us will be a lamp to our feet in the years to come." Mrs. Veale left her earthly possessions to be used in the ongoing ministry of her church.

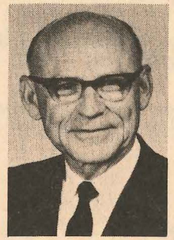
W. Morgan Patterson of Kentucky will be attending a convention-wide Baptist Oral History Workshop sponsored by the Historical Commission of the Southern Baptist Convention near Nashville, Tennessee, September 27-29. The program, under the leadership of Lynn E. May, Jr., and A. Ronald Tonks of the Historical Commission; Thomas Charleton, director of the Program of Oral History at Baylor University; and Charles Crawford, director of the Oral History Program at Memphis State University, will help participants learn the techniques of collecting oral history memoirs from important Southern Baptist leaders.

Two youth from Kentucky were employed this summer at Glorieta Baptist Conference Center in New Mexico. Situated on 2,500 acres in the Sangre de Christo Mountains, Glorieta Baptist Conference Center is owned and operated by the Sunday School Board of the Southern Baptist Convention. The Kentuckians were Debbie Calvert of Cecilia and Carol Ann Fulkerson of Sonora.

David Hazelwood was recently ordained to the gospel ministry by the First Baptist Church of Murray. He will serve as youth minister of Plainfield Baptist Church in Plainfield, Indiana. Participating in the service were H. Franklin Paschall of First Baptist Church, Nashville, and Lloyd Cornell, state director of BSU work in Hawaii and former campus minister at Murray State University. Hazelwood is a former state president of Kentucky BSU.

Bethlehem Baptist Church, Central Association, will have "Homecoming Day" on Sunday, October 14. All former members and friends of the church are invited to the 10:00 a.m. and 2:00 p.m. services, according to pastor Oliver Hawkins, Sr.

J. C. Raikes has announced his retirement from the active pastorate on September 30, 1973. Raikes is a native of Kentucky and served as pastor of four churches in Kentucky before going to the pastorate of the Dayton Avenue Baptist Church, Xenia, Ohio, where he has served for the past 10 years. He says he will be available for supply, interim pastorates and revival services. His address is 74 Tackett Drive, Xenia, Ohio 45385.



Raikes

Vernard Wallace has retired after serving as church clerk of the Trammell Creek Baptist Church, Russell Creek Association, for 44 years. Trammell Creek pastor L. M. Hamilton commends Mr. Wallace not only for his long tenure but for his carefully kept and preserved church records.

James Allen Dickey, Miamisburg, Ohio, a junior chemistry major at Georgetown College, has been named to the chemistry honors program.

Miss Ruth Burge, a senior chemistry major at Georgetown College, participated in a summer research project at Vanderbilt University on the development of potential anti-inflammatory agents. A native of Shelbyville, Miss Burge received a $1,200 National Science Foundation grant for the project. She is an honor student at Georgetown College.

Georgetown College has announced that one of its winter session courses will be a seminar in Israel and Greece. The dates are December 27, 1973, through January 29, 1974, and the seminar is open to outsiders. Those interested should write to James Heizer, Georgetown College, Georgetown, Kentucky 40324.

East Audubon Baptist Church in Louisville will celebrate its 50th anniversary Sunday, October 14. Special speaker for the day will be former pastor Herman Rowlett, with music provided by "The Joymakers." Owen Risk, church pastor, said the day's activities will include recognition of the oldest members present and a reading of the church's history.

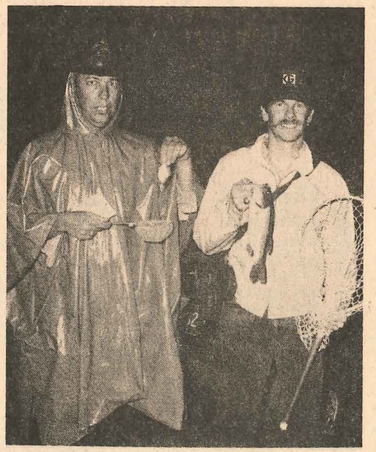
Gary W. Webb, licensed to preach by DeHaven Memorial Baptist Church in LaGrange, has enrolled in the divinity school of Vanderbilt University in Nashville. Webb is a graduate of Kentucky Southern College and was recently discharged from the U.S. Air Force.

Fishing Contest Hooks B'hood

The Shelby County Baptist Associational Brotherhood sponsored a fishing contest on September 13. A prize was offered for the largest and smallest fish caught. Twenty-two men showed up for the event even though it rained throughout the two hours of the contest.

The prize for the largest fish (one and one-fourth pounds) went to Tom Sweet, a layman who has recently moved to Shelby County. Darrell Stone, pastor of the Mount Vernon Church, was awarded the prize for the smallest fish which measured only three inches.

Jesse Baxter, Shelby County Association Brotherhood director, planned the event to stimulate interest in Brotherhood work. Baxter says the demonstration of fishing skills was not as important as the sharing of Christian fellowship. In this respect the event was considered successful in spite of the rain.



Church Mission Giving

Our Baptist people and our churches have exceeded the $4,300,000 goal for the Cooperative Program by $314,678.25. Total Cooperative Program receipts for this current fiscal year are $4,614,678.25. This is tremendous. We praise the Lord for leading our people to such response.

The Business Office has prepared the annual Report of Receipts for the Cooperative Program and designated mission gifts, listing them by associations and churches. Check your church's record of gifts. If there is any difference in your records and ours — report to G. B. Morton, Business Manager, P.O. Box 43433, Middletown 40243.

Thank you for this expression of missionary concern and for your sharing through the Cooperative Program.

Franklin Owen
Executive Secretary-Treasurer

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

LIFE AND WORK SERIES

What Is Witnessing?

Acts 6:3

Thinking that they were the victims of discrimination, some Greek-speaking widows in the church at Jerusalem began to murmur about the way in which the apostles were handling the daily distribution of food and money. Other Grecians joined them in the circulation of the charge. When the complaint of partiality and unfairness reached the ears of the apostles, without a word of rebuke they called the church together and laid before the assembly a suggested plan for the solution of this problem. The apostles recommended that the church select seven men of unquestioned integrity, in whom the members had implicit confidence, to look after the distribution of church funds and other kindred matters. In compliance with this proposal, seven reputable, competent, spiritual, and wise men were chosen and set apart as "helpers" of the apostles.

Acts 8:26-38

After the martyrdom of Stephen, the enemies of Christ in Jerusalem launched a campaign to exterminate all Christians. Conspicuous among the dispersed was Philip, who magnified Christ so effectively that the people were aroused, amazed, and attracted.

The Call, 8:26-29

Just when Philip's evangelistic efforts were most successful and the prospects for the immediate future looked most promising, the Lord called him to leave Samaria. Without a word of complaint or a single excuse, Philip obeyed the Lord promptly, without knowing the real purpose of his journey, but certain that the Holy Spirit was not leading him on a fool's errand.

The Conversation, 8:30-35

Philip reached the place to which he had been sent just in the nick of time. Presently he saw a chariot coming towards him. When the Holy Spirit commanded him to "go near, and join thyself to this chariot," Philip ran to the chariot, ready and anxious to witness for Christ. Riding in that chariot was an Ethiopian eunuch, a man of great prominence, prestige, position, pomp, possessions, and power. While wending his way homeward, this eunuch was reading aloud the fifty-third chapter of Isaiah, which delineates the sufferings of Christ. With eagerness, earnestness, and enthusiasm Philip ran to his chariot and asked the eunuch if he understood what he was reading. Philip's face was so radiant and eager that the statesman felt at once that here is one who knows.

After confessing that he did not understand what he was reading, the eunuch invited Philip to enter the chariot with him. When seated by him, Philip seized his golden opportunity by tactfully beginning with the very scriptures which the Ethiopian was reading and preached Christ to him. Believing what Philip told him, he received Christ as his personal Saviour, whereupon his sins were forgiven.

The Commitment, 8:36-40

After the eunuch believed on Christ and received salvation from Him, as they traveled along in the chariot, Philip taught him that it was the duty of every child of God to follow Christ in baptism. Having a sincere desire to conform to the expressed will of Christ, the eunuch was anxious to make a public acknowledgement of his faith and to be baptized. When they came to the place where there was ample water in which to be baptized, "they went down both into the water, both Philip and the eunuch; and he baptized him. And when they were come up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord caught away Philip, that the eunuch saw him no more; and he went on his way rejoicing." ■

Law And Gospel

Romans 3:19-28

The Bible, history, observation, and experience teach us that sin is a terrible reality in every life. The verdict of the Holy Spirit is that "there is no man that sinneth not" (I Kings 8:46).

There are vast differences between people, such as culture and ignorance, riches and poverty, morality and immorality, respectability and reprobation, but there is this feature that is common to all — the awareness that there is a gap between what they are and what they ought to be.

The Law of God, 3:19-20

God did not give the law in order to save man from his sin, but to reveal to him the fact that he was a sinner. Inasmuch as no man can keep the law of God, all who trust in the works of the law for salvation are in a condition of alienation from God and are under the wrath of God. The law is powerless when it comes to redemption and salvation. All that the law can do for man is to enable him to see how terribly sinful he is. It was never intended to save him. With multitudes believing that they can obtain salvation through their personal obedience to the law, it is a terrible shock to human pride to be informed that righteousness cannot be obtained and heaven cannot be attained in any other manner than by grace through faith in Christ.

The Righteousness of God, 3:21-26

In his natural condition man stands before God under the burden of condemnation, and under the blight of His wrath. In view of his depravity, it is perfectly clear that no man can ever attain righteousness on the strength of his own merit. Man does not have any righteousness of his own, therefore, he cannot save himself. If he, as a lost sinner, is ever to be delivered from condemnation, it is necessary that righteousness be provided for him and imputed to him. Fortunately, such a righteousness has been wrought out and provided by Christ. The righteousness which is needed to satisfy the requirements of God is supplied by the Lord Jesus.

God's perfect righteousness was made available to men through Christ's death on the cross. When Christ's precious blood was poured out on Calvary's cross, the penalty for man's sin was paid. It was made possible for God to remain just and at the same time justify any sinner who truly believes on Christ as his personal Saviour. God thus provided for poor sinners that which they never could have received from any other source. God's righteousness is imputed to the sinner entirely on the basis of his personal trust in Christ.

Justification is an instantaneous, judicial act of God whereby, on account of the merit of Christ's blood and righteousness, a penitent and believing sinner is declared free from condemnation and guilt, restored to God's favor, and considered as possessing the imputed righteousness of Christ. Men are justified freely by God's grace "through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus." This redemption gives them a new standing before God, a new condition in the sight of God, a new character from God, and a new fellowship with God.

Justification by faith, 3:27-28

Men are never justified by keeping the law, living a moral life, complying with the Golden Rule, or performing charitable deeds. Because Christ died on behalf of guilty sinners, and thereby fully met every demand of the law and completely satisfied every claim of God's holiness, any sinner who believes on Christ can receive forgiveness and salvation.

Let us ever be grateful for that wonderful righteousness which He has provided for us and imputed to us. ■

TWO KENTUCKY CHURCHES NAMED

Top 100 Sunday Schools Listed

Southern Baptists placed more church Sunday Schools than any other group on the national listing of The 100 Largest Sunday Schools compiled by Christian Life magazine.

The list includes 37 Southern Baptist churches and 80 Baptist churches of one variety or another. Forty-three of the top 50 churches are Baptist.

The SBC's largest church, First Baptist Church, Dallas, which runs only six Sunday School buses, reported an average weekly attendance of 5,676, finishing third behind two independent Baptist churches. They are First Baptist Church of Hammond, Indiana, with 139 buses and an average attendance of 7,837, and Highland Park Baptist Church of Chattanooga, Tennessee, with 18 buses and 5,756 average weekly attendance.

First Baptist Church of Van Nuys, California, whose pastor had earlier recommended abolishing the list because "it makes liars out of some pastors," finished fifth. It has 11 buses and 3,695 average attendance.

The independent Baptist church's pastor, Harold Fickett, said in March at a conference in Fort Worth, "Six out of the 10 largest Sunday Schools (on the national list) include attendance at early morning worship services as the pastor's Sunday School class." He specifically noted that First Baptist Church, Dallas, does not inflate its totals in such a manner.

Although agreeing with Fickett that such padding is improper, A. V. Washburn, secretary of the Sunday School department of the SBC's Sunday School Board, said "The list of top Sunday Schools creates excitement and proves that people can be reached.

"I don't know of any Southern Baptist church which pads its Sunday School with large, worship service type attendance," Washburn said. "Southern Baptists concentrate on lay-led Bible study, approaching laymen on their level of learning.

"Inspirational early morning services do some good, but that approach alone leaves undone some of the basic teaching elements so vital to bearing permanent fruit."

Commenting on the Baptist domination of the list, Washburn said, "The thing that ultimately creates a growing church is to center on reaching people for the Lord. If there isn't an evangelistic emphasis, it becomes purely academic. A cold, intellectual approach never attracts multitudes of people."

A breakdown of states showed Texas churches led Southern Baptist representation on the list with 13. Florida followed with six and others were scattered in nine states.

Two Kentucky churches were included in the list. Beth Haven Baptist Church, which listed itself as independent, reported an average weekly attendance of 2,372 with a fleet of 30 buses. Thomas H. Wallace is the pastor of the Louisville church.

Walnut Street Baptist Church, Louisville, is credited with a weekly attendance of 1,555. The church operates nine buses, the report says, and is served by Wayne Dehoney as pastor.

Besides the 37 Southern Baptist churches, the 80 Baptist churches on the list included 23 categorized as "independent," 15 from the Baptist Bible Fellowship, 2 from the Baptist General Conference and 1 each from the American Baptist Churches, Conservative Baptists and World Baptist Fellowship. Indiana Baptists Get Fidelity Bond Refund For Mishandled Funds

The State Convention of Baptists in Indiana, which lost more than $84,000 during the 1967-72 period because of the alleged "mishandling of funds" by a former convention bookkeeper, has recovered $50,000 of that amount from the Insurance Company of North America.

The settlement was the maximum under the fidelity bond insurance policy carried by the state convention.

Indiana executive secretary E. Harmon Moore first discovered evidence of neglected financial records on August 29, 1972, according to a report in the Indiana Baptist, the convention's statewide news publication.

Auditors set the total loss at $84,199.94, not including $11,350 in auditor's fees to reconstruct 1971 and 1972 bookkeeping records which had not been maintained or could not be located.

The $50,000 bank draft issued by the Insurance Company listed the "claimant" as "Lisolotte Sego," according to the Indiana Baptist, and noted that the payment was for "mishandling of funds."

Mrs. Sego first joined the Indiana convention staff as a secretary in February, 1961, and was a bookkeeper when Moore terminated her employment on September 29, 1972, because of "extremely poor performance related to 1971 records." (BP)
