INTRODUCTION

For the first time in the history of its publication, dating back to 1921, we are presenting the Southern Baptist Handbook in larger form—a policy which is not of our choosing, but which has been forced upon us by many weighty considerations. For one thing, the cost of printing the Handbook in the small, handy pocket-size volume heretofore used, is more than double its cost in the present form. In the second place, many things called for in the Southern Baptist Handbook could not be included in the small, pocket-size edition heretofore issued, for want of space—the list of ordained ministers, alone, for example, would have doubled the size of the little volume. The extra labor required to boil down and abbreviate much of the information presented was in itself staggering. So that finally we have been forced to follow the forms used in all the other statistical publications of our day, and adopt the enlarged form (though it will perhaps be slightly reduced in size in 1930).

In the meantime the Southern Baptist Convention has ordered the publication of a volume to be known as "Board Reports," or some such title. Following the annual sessions of the Convention, of course, comes the publication of the Convention Annual, as heretofore. This has brought to Dr. Hight C. Moore, one of the distinguished recording secretaries of the Southern Baptist Convention, the idea that, as soon as it can be arranged for, the Southern Baptist Convention ought to make the fiscal year of all our general boards and institutions end with the calendar year and then publish a Southern Baptist Convention Quarterly, the first issue being the Board Reports, published in March; the second being the Convention Annual, published in June; the third being the Southern Baptist Handbook, published in August; the fourth being a joint publication called the Campaign Arsenal, or some such title, to be gotten up by the State Convention Boards and the Executive Board of the Southern Baptist Convention and brought out in October—this last publication to contain state convention data from all the states, as well as full data bearing upon all Convention causes. These four volumes, under the suggested plan, are to be uniform in size, capable of being bound into one volume, and selling for $2.00 the year or 50 cents the volume. It is believed and hoped that each state Convention will subscribe for sufficient numbers of this proposed Convention Quarterly to make it possible to secure regular periodical mailing rates and thus save thousands of dollars.

Also, it is believed that this plan would make it possible for each State Convention Board to put into the hands of all the pastors of each state complete and official information upon every phase of the state and southwide work of Southern Baptists, at a nominal cost, and would be the best possible investment for the State Boards. If adopted, the plan would, of course, do away with the present heavy expenses falling upon our Southwide Boards, in the publication of the Board Reports and the Annual. We believe the proposed plan is worthy of our serious consideration and also some definite experimentation—and for this additional reason the present enlarged form of the publication of the Southern Baptist Handbook has been adopted.

A glance at the Table of Contents also indicates a slight change in the arrangement of the materials of the Handbook. Instead of Parts I and II, as heretofore, we have divided the 1929 Handbook into three parts, as follows:

"Part I: The Book of Survey—The Progress of the Main Denominations of the United States in the Decade of 1916-1926."

"Part II: The Book of Numbers—A Detailed Survey of the Work of Southern Baptists in 1926."

"Part III: The Book of Directories—The Directories of the Southern Baptist Convention, the State Conventions, the W.M.U. Conventions, the Religious Journals, the Ordained Ministers, etc."

With the enlargement of the form of the Southern Baptist Handbook, we hope it may have an enlarged circulation and a greatly enlarged usefulness.

THE AUTHOR.

CHAPTER I

CHURCH AND POPULATION GROWTH IN UNITED STATES 1916-1926*

The 1926 "Census of Religious Bodies," conducted through the Bureau of the Census, Department of Commerce, Washington, D. C., has made possible a very interesting comparison between the growth of the general population of the United States and the growth of the membership of all the churches and church organizations in the nation. It is true that the figures for the general population, as used in this comparison, are estimates made by the Bureau of the Census and not quite so accurate as the statistics covering the Census of 1910 or the one for 1920. Nevertheless, for all practical purposes, and particularly for the present comparison, we esteem the Government's estimates of the population to be entirely trustworthy.

Four things in particular interest us in this comparison between the growth of the general population of the United States and the growth of the membership of all the churches of all denominations:

1. What and Whence is the Population Growth?

To begin with, we are interested to know what is the population growth during this decade (1916-1926), what sections, if any, show greatest growth, and whence came the forces which account for this special growth.

A study of the accompanying table ("Population Gains, 1916-1926") indicates quite clearly that the Western States (with the notable exception of California) showed the least population gains in the United States during this decade. Of the seven states where the population showed actual losses, for example, five were Western states, one was a New England state (Vermont), and one a Southern state (Mississippi). The five Western states marked for a loss of population are Kansas, Nevada, New Mexico, North Dakota, and South Dakota.

The states which led in population gains for this period, however, are not confined to any one section of the nation. The following states, for example, each showed over one million gain in population, viz.: California, Illinois, Michigan, New York, Ohio, and Pennsylvania. The states ranking second in their population gains during this decade were as follows: Florida, Indiana, Massachusetts, Minnesota, New Jersey, North Carolina, Virginia, and Wisconsin—all of which states showed gains in population ranging from 325,000 to 730,000.

Some of our people will be interested especially in the population growth of the South (including all the Southern Baptist Convention territory). On this point, we note that two states in the bounds of the Southern Baptist Convention (Mississippi and New Mexico) showed losses in population during this period. In spite of this fact, however, the population of the Southland (Southern Baptist Convention territory) increased from 36,208,041 in 1916 to 40,239,043 in 1926.

TOTALS	102,017,312	117,130,817	15,113,505	—14.8%

This indicates a net population gain for Southern Baptist Convention territory amounting to 4,031,002, or 11.1 per cent, which is 3.7 per cent below the gain for the nation.

Coming now to the gains and losses for the United States as a whole, we find, according to the estimates of the Bureau of the Census (and set out in the accompanying table), the population of the nation passed from 102,017,312 in 1916 to 117,130,817 in 1926. This indicates a net gain of 15,113,505, or 14.8 per cent, for this decade.

As to the sources of the growth of the population, as here noted, it may be said that migration, natural growth and immigration account for most of it. All three of these causes, for example, were distinct factors in the great population gains in California, Illinois, Michigan, New York, Ohio and Pennsylvania; whereas the seven states showing losses in population undoubtedly lost through migration to other states.

2. How Far Has Church Growth Kept Pace with the Population?

(Summary of Religious Growth, 1916-1926)

Upon this point, the gratifying information is that the growth of church membership in the United States (all denominations considered) and also all other phases of church life has far outstripped the population gains of the nation during the decade here reviewed. The Bureau of the Census, for example, gives us the following summary of religious growth in the United States during the decade of 1916 to 1926:

Items	1916	1926	Number Ten Years' Gains	Per Cent Ten Years' Gains
Religious Bodies	236	214	18	8.40
Local Churches	216,710	221,982	5,266	23.23
Church Members	41,926,954	54,924,076	12,998,122	30.20
Total Contributions to all Purposes	$ 329,808,888	$ 814,271,520	$ 486,681,634	147.67
Value of Church Property	$1,674,660,642	$3,842,877,183	$2,168,216,541	129.19

The figures covering church membership as here presented, however, should be reduced somewhat in view of the fact that they include the entire Roman Catholic population. Deducting the Roman Catholics nine years of age and under (the non-communing age), therefore, we have left 39,668,582 church members in the United States in 1916, which number had increased to 51,834,226 in 1926. That is to say, while the population of the United States had a net gain of 15,113,505, or 14.8 per cent, from 1916 to 1926, the membership in all the churches had a net gain of 12,265,644, or 30.9 per cent, or about twice the percentage of gain made by the population. On the other hand, the gains made in church contributions amounted to approximately 150 per cent, while the gains in the value of church property made during this period ran up to 130 per cent.

One of the many remarkable facts set out in the accompanying table ("Ten Years' Gains of Church Membership") is that church membership showed a decline in this period (1916-1926) in only one state in the Union (Maine); whereas, in many of the states there were overwhelming gains. The following states, for example, made very noteworthy gains in church membership:

California gained	674,145
Illinois gained	835,581
Michigan gained	606,592
New Jersey gained	643,601
Ohio gained	574,703
Pennsylvania gained	1,097,523
Texas gained	496,894
New York gained	2,480,743

The South's Gains in Church Membership

In this connection it may be asked: What were the gains in church membership in the Southland (bounds of the Southern Baptist Convention) in the decade from 1916 to 1926? The answer, gathered from the accompanying table, is as follows:

Church members in Southland, 1916	14,596,491
Church members in Southland, 1926	17,571,317
Ten years' gains of church members	2,974,826
Percentage of church membership gains in South	20.3%
Percentage of population gains in South	11.1%
Percentage of church membership gain in U. S.	29.98%

3. What of the Growth of the Unchurched Masses in the United States?

Our next question deals with the vital question of the unchurched masses in the United States. State by state, for example, how many people were there in the United States in 1916, outside of all the churches, unaffiliated with any sort of church organization? In the decade here reviewed, did this multitude of unreached, unchurched masses in the United States actually grow and enlarge, in spite of all the gains of all the churches? If so, how much and in what states? What percentage of the people of the United States was unchurched in 1916, and what percentage was unchurched in 1926?

The answer to all these questions is presented in the accompanying table ("Ten Years' Growth of Unchurched Population"). For example, precisely twenty of the forty-eight states show a decided reduction of the number of persons not affiliated with any church. This fact is so important, and vital that we can afford to pause and call the roll of these states. They are as follows:

Alabama reduced her unchurched population	14,312
Kansas reduced her unchurched population	164,880
Louisiana reduced her unchurched population	84,480
Massachusetts reduced her unchurched population	44,590
Mississippi reduced her unchurched population	198,808
Missouri reduced her unchurched population	123,276
Nebraska reduced her unchurched population	7,304
Nevada reduced her unchurched population	32,951
New Hampshire reduced her unchurched population	1,836
New Mexico reduced her unchurched population	27,875
New York reduced her unchurched population	1,450,822
North Dakota reduced her unchurched population	177,095
Oklahoma reduced her unchurched population	16,198
Oregon reduced her unchurched population	31,527
Pennsylvania reduced her unchurched population	5,970
Rhode Island reduced her unchurched population	28,856
South Dakota reduced her unchurched population	104,768
Utah reduced her unchurched population	9,115
Vermont reduced her unchurched population	26,712
Washington reduced her unchurched population	96,506

*Figures include total Roman Catholic population.

TOTALS	60,090,457	62,634,926		2,544,468
% Total Population	58.91%	53.48%		Net gain	4.23

Before giving all these twenty states full credit for reducing the number of the unchurched masses in their midst, however, it must be noted, by comparison with the table above showing the population gains and loss- that in many cases the migration of the unchurched masses to other states accounts for the reduction of their number in these particular states here listed.

It should also be noted, that in spite of all these large reductions, the number of the unchurched masses in the United States actually grew from 60,090,457 in 1916 to 62,634,925 in 1926, indicating a clear net gain of 2,544,468 for the decade.

The situation, however, is not quite as alarming as it would seem. For, while the population has grown to the extent of 15,113,505 in the decade (1916-1926), the unchurched masses have made a gain of only 2,544,468. Not only so, but, while 58.91 per cent of the people of the United States were unchurched in 1916, only 53.48 per cent of them were unchurched in 1926.

Unchurched People in the South

It will be interesting to note how far all these facts apply to conditions in the South. The accompanying table ("Ten Years' Growth of Unchurched Population") presents the following facts about the unchurched population of the South:

Unchurched population in the South (S.B.C. territory), 1916	21,611,586
Unchurched population in the South (S.B.C. territory), 1926	22,667,525
Increase in unchurched masses in South	1,055,939
Per cent of increase in unchurched masses	4.8%
Per cent of population growth in South	11.1%

Will our people in the South frankly face this situation: That, while the churches are making great gains, we have a million more unchurched people in the bounds of the Southern Baptist Convention than we had ten years ago; and that, while Mr. Churchman in the South is gaining on Mr. Unchurched, it will require Mr. Churchman almost another ten years to overhaul Mr. Unchurched and down him on his own 50-yard line. The situation in the South and in the nation looks encouraging, but the unchurched still have a 53.48 per cent advantage.

4. How many Separate Religious Bodies Are There and What of Their Growth?

In taking up the closing inquiry of this chapter, we cannot do better than to present here the actual findings of the Bureau of the Census, with the understanding that all the detailed figures set out in the table which follows are "preliminary" and subject to slight corrections.

"The report for 1916 included statistics for 260 denominations, 19 of which are not shown at this census. Some have joined other denominations and their statistics are included with them, others are out of existence, etc. There are 32 denominations shown at this census not reported in 1916. All of them are not new, however, as a number were created by divisions in denominations which were shown as units in 1916."

CHAPTER II

CATHOLIC AND NON-CATHOLIC GROWTH IN THE UNITED STATES

A second vitally interesting and revealing fact has come to light in the report of the Bureau of the Census in its presentation of the 1926 "Census of Religious Bodies": The overwhelming gains of the non-Catholic churches of the United States, as compared to the gains of the Roman Catholic churches.

For some years now it has been quite the fashion with some magazines, and even the daily press, to regale the public, ever and anon, with more or less serious articles bearing the suggestive if not alarming titles: "Disintegrating Protestantism in America"; "Protestant Churches Show Great Losses"; "The Dry Rot of Protestantism," etc., etc. One would think, to judge from the prominence of the writers, the frequency with which they return to the same subject, and the large space and serious attention accorded their articles by the daily papers, that undoubtedly there was some basic fact back of all this discussion.

One does not go far in looking over the reports of the Bureau of the Census dealing with 1926 census of religious bodies, however, until one has a real awakening and a complete disillusionment upon this whole question. For one learns, as noted in the preceding chapter, that the churches as a whole in the United States are growing much faster than the population; that the non-Catholic churches are growing twice as fast as the Catholic churches; and that the writers who have been regaling the public with the so-called failures of Protestantism have in fact done nothing more than make a sorry attempt to express their dearest wishes, or to maintain their precious positions as highly-paid propagandists.

Over against this puerile propaganda we propose to place the main facts disclosed in the reports of the Bureau of the Census, bearing upon this question, and to let the facts themselves speak their own unmistakable message.

1. Splendid Roman Catholic Gains

Not only so, but we wish at the outset to call attention to the large and noteworthy gains made by the Roman Catholics in the United States. There is no warrant in the facts set out in the report of the Bureau of the Census, to even attempt to set at naught, or to discount the great and worthy gains made by the Roman Catholic people during the past ten years. On the contrary, it is only by properly evaluating the gains of the Roman Catholics that we can understand and appreciate the super-gains of the non-Catholic churches during this period.

What, then, have the Roman Catholics been achieving these past ten to twenty years? What are the great tasks which they gave themselves to with such commendable zeal and steadfastness? Where have they made their greatest gains? What tangible results of their efforts may be tabulated and set out before us? In briefest outline, the following table, "Roman Catholic Achievements," will, in our judgment, give the answer:

ROMAN CATHOLIC ACHIEVEMENT

There are several distinct revelations in this table: "Roman Catholic Achievements" (although it necessarily omits their publication work and other notable features which cannot be set down in tabular form). For not only is there presented here distinct and noteworthy gains in ministers, churches, church members, church houses, pastors' homes, value of church property, gifts to local church expenses and to missions and benevolences, but there is presented here the outline, at least, of one of the greatest achievements in educational and philanthropic work known to the whole world.

2. Comparison of Catholic and Non-Catholic Growth, 1916-1926.

We now pass to a consideration of the comparative growth of the Catholic churches with that of the non-Catholic churches, as presented in the reports of the Bureau of the Census for 1916 and 1926, respectively. Necessarily, the comparison must be limited to the membership gains of the two groups.

Strange enough, this comparison seems never to have been presented heretofore. At least, I have been unable to come upon any such a detailed, state-by-state presentation of the matter as I am giving herewith. The reader is, therefore, asked to note (1) the past ten years' growth of Roman Catholics, state by state; (2) the growth of non-Catholics (including the Jews), state by state, for the same period; and (3) the comparative growth of Catholics and non-Catholics, state by state. If there is a more interesting, vital and altogether revealing comparison to be made between two religious groups in America, we have never come upon it. We ask particular attention to the third table, "Comparative Growth of the Catholics and Non-Catholics," for in this table the whole story is told.

*These figures cover whole Catholic population and should be reduced 15% for children 9 years old and under who are not communicants.

3. Roman Catholic Growth in the South

As is quite well known, Roman Catholic forces in the South are, next to those of Southern Baptists, the strongest single religious group in the South (we refer here particularly to the eighteen states in which Southern Baptists work, as set out in the accompanying table, "Catholic and Non-Catholic Growth in the South."

The following Southern states, for example, are the strongholds of Roman Catholicism, viz., Arizona, Southern Illinois, Louisiana, Maryland, Missouri, New Mexico, and Texas, especially all of Southwest Texas. It is interesting, therefore, to compare the growth of Roman Catholics with that of the non-Catholics in this particular section—one part of which is strongly Catholic while the other part is predominantly non-Catholic. Here are the figures:

CATHOLIC AND NON-CATHOLIC GROWTH IN THE SOUTH 1916-1926

*Southern Baptists work only in the South one-fourth of Illinois and, accordingly, we have counted but one-fourth of Illinois' two religious groups. Lately also Southern Baptists have begun work in Arizona, so that we are counting the total membership of the two religious groups in this Catholic state.

Protestant Growth in Catholic Strongholds

Perhaps the most striking and altogether surprising thing revealed in the foregoing table ("Comparative Growth of Catholics and Non-Catholics"), however, is the fact that the non-Catholic Christians of the United States are fast outgrowing the Catholics even in those states which are accounted Roman Catholic strongholds. In the comparison which follows, for example, we list the eleven states which have more Roman Catholics than all other church members combined; and along with these we list, with a star, nine other states where Catholics have almost as many as all others or have by far the lead over any other denomination. What are the comparative growths of the Catholics and non-Catholics in these Roman Catholic strongholds? The following table will, we believe, tell its own story. Here are the facts:

CHAPTER III

TEN YEARS' GROWTH OF THE NEGRO CHURCHES, 1916-1926

A third remarkable disclosure set forth in the 1926 Census of Religious Bodies relates to the growth and present standing of the negro churches in the United States. Confining ourselves to the decade of 1916 to 1926, let us notice six outstanding features of the growth of the negro churches in the United States:

1. Growth of Negro Church Organizations

We can best get a bird's-eye view of the situation, perhaps, by first noting the growth of the negro church organizations. Briefly summarized, the main facts are as follows:

In 1916 there were 19 distinctly negro denominations, whereas in 1926 there were 24.

In 1916, moreover, there were negro churches affiliated with 21 white denominations, whereas in 1926 there were 30 white denominations which included negro churches in their numbers.

During this decade the total number of negro churches passed from 39,592 in 1916 to 42,586 in 1926, a net gain of 2,993 negro churches.

The gains in negro church members were equally striking, for while the total negro church membership in the United States in 1916 stood at 4,602,805, by 1926 it had reached 5,203,487, a net gain of 600,682, or 13.05 per cent; whereas the growth of the entire negro population of the United States (1910-1920) amounted to only 635,368, or 6.46 per cent. We know of no people who have excelled this achievement.

The total contributions of the negro churches, for all purposes, at home and abroad, moreover, mounted up from $18,529,827.00 in 1916 to $43,024,259.00 in 1926, a clear net gain of $24,494,432.00 for the ten years, which is practically 150 per cent net gain for the ten years.

As a part of the contributions of the negro churches, we note also that the value of their church property increased from $86,809,970.00 in 1916 to $205,782,628.00 in 1926, a net gain of $118,972,658.00, or about 135 per cent, for the ten years, which means that the negro churches of America put an average of $11,897,265.80 into new and remodeled church houses every year for the past ten years! Truly this is a remarkable record—for any race or any people!

2. Growth of Negro Church Members

This brief summary of the achievements of the negro church organizations in the United States, during the decade of 1916-1926, will doubtless help us to appreciate a detailed study of the remarkable growth of the church members of the negro churches. State by state, we present, in the accompanying table ("Growth of Negro Church Members"), this interesting and engaging part of the story.

*State shows losses.
These figures cover scattered groups in several states where few or no Negro churches are found.

In seven of the states it will be noted there were decided losses in negro church membership, viz., Arkansas, Georgia, Kentucky, Mississippi, Montana, South Carolina, and Tennessee. In all these cases, however, the losses were due to one cause—migration of the negro population—and not to any failure of the negro churches. So that what was loss to the seven states just mentioned was entirely offset by the gains of the following states, viz.:

Illinois gained	87,496
Indiana gained	28,821
Michigan gained	37,762
New Jersey gained	32,382
New York gained	70,622
Ohio gained	70,476
Pennsylvania gained	68,860

As already noted, the total net gain of negro church membership in the United States (1916-1926) was 600,687, or 13.05 per cent, as compared to a total net gain of 636,368, or 6.46 per cent, to the entire negro population of the United States, an achievement not surpassed by any other racial group or any other body of Christians in America.

3. Comparative Growth of Negro Population and Negro Church Members

As throwing still further light on the remarkable growth of the negro churches, as indicated in their increasing membership, we present herewith in parallel columns the last known negro population statistics, state by state, and the latest report of the Bureau of the Census on the negro church membership. Unfortunately we do not have any very reliable estimates of the negro population, state by state, since 1920; whereas, the latest reports of the membership of the negro churches is for the year 1926. Attempting to use these figures as comparable will necessitate adding the probable growth of the negro population for the six years dating from 1920. With these allowances in mind, let us note some interesting facts in the accompanying table:

Probable negro population in U. S. in 1926	10,868,577
Negro church members, all faiths, in 1926	5,203,487

*We have no reliable estimate of Negro population by states since the 1920 Census; hence we use the figures for that year and add the probable growth for the six years following 1920.

4. Negro and White Church Members Compared

It is perhaps a well-known fact that the negro population of the United States is not growing as fast as the white population, at least for the last decade for which we have accurate statistics (1910-1920). For while the negro population, as has just been noted, increased from 9,827,763 in 1910, to 10,463,131 in 1920 (a net gain of 635,368), this gain was not in keeping with the growth of the white population of the United States. So that the percentage of negroes in the total population of the United States in 1920 was actually less than it was in 1910, the percentage being 9.9 per cent for 1920, as compared to 10.7 per cent for 1910.

This raises the very interesting question: How does the growth of the membership of the white churches compare with the growth of the white population, on the one hand, and with the growth of the membership of the negro churches, on the other hand? Perhaps we can best summarize the answer to these questions as follows:

White population in 1916 (estimated)	91,808,623
White population in 1926 (estimated)	106,262,240
Net growth of white population, 1916-1926	14,453,617
Percentage of white population growth, 1916-1926	15.7%

Negro church members in U. S., 1926	5,203,487
Net gain of negro church members	600,687
Percentage of gain of negro church members	13.05%

From this summary two facts are outstanding: (1) The growth of white church members during the ten years (1916-1926) was 32.06 per cent, as compared to the growth of 15.7 per cent for the white population for the same period, while (2) the growth of the negro church members was 13.05 per cent, as compared to the growth of 6.46 per cent for the negro population. In both cases the gain of the churches, white and colored, in the United States, was over twice the gain of the population, and the respective gains are about equal. The negro churches, however, come out of the decade with this distinct advantage, that while their church gains almost wholly covered the entire negro population gains, the white churches, in spite of their large gains, fell behind the gains of the white population by 2,486,216.

The accompanying table ("Church Members: Negroes and Whites in the United States, 1926") not only gives the latest known comparative statistics, state by state, covering both the white and colored church membership of the United States, but it gives the additional interesting information that of the 54,495,822 total church members in the United States in 1926, 49,292,405 (90.45 per cent) were whites and 5,203,487 (9.55 per cent) were negroes. In this connection it is interesting to note that the white population comprised 90.1 per cent of the total population of the United States in 1920, as compared to 9.9 per cent for the negro population.

5. Negro and White Church Members in the South.

We have been at some pains to ascertain the facts about the comparative standing of the negro and white church members in the several states within the bounds of the Southern Baptist Convention. In the accompanying table ("Church Members in the South: White and Colored") we are presenting the results of our studies. The table shows an utterly different situation as compared to that of the nation as a whole. For example, in the United States, as we have just seen, 90.45 per cent of all church members, in 1926, belonged to white churches; whereas, in the South (Southern Baptist Convention territory) only 75.38 per cent of the church members belonged to the white churches. On the other hand, in the nation as a whole, only 9.55 per cent of the church members belonged to negro churches; whereas 24.62 per cent of the church members in the South (Southern Baptist Convention territory) were negroes.

To state the case another way, there were 5,203,847 negro church members in the United States in 1926; whereas 4,362,806 of these were here in the South. There are other points of especial interest in the table presented herewith—such as the standing of the negro church membership in the several states, etc.

6. Baptist Leadership Among the Negroes

It has long been known that Baptists are far in the lead of all denominations among the negroes. It will be surprising to some to learn, however, that Baptist leadership among the negroes is being challenged and cut down, to some extent, in the last two decades.

Three things, apparently account for the failure of the Baptists to hold and sustain their former overwhelming leadership of the negro church forces. In the first place, the Methodists, Presbyterians, Lutherans, Catholics, and Congregationalists are spending vast sums, year by year, in aggressive programs of evangelization, education and social betterment of the negroes. They are, on the whole, winning multiplied thousands from Baptists homes to these other denominations.

In the meantime only the Northern Baptist Convention, among the white Baptist denominations, is making any serious attempt to aid the negro Baptists of America; the Southern Baptist Convention, apart from its attempt to help establish and maintain the (negro) American Baptist Theological Seminary, has done nothing worthy of attention for the negro race within the last twenty years.

In 1918, or earlier, a third disintegrating movement for Baptists set in among the negroes of the United States—wholesale migrations to the North, East and West. A careful study of the population tables already presented in this chapter reveal how very serious have been the losses, to all the denominations, and to the Baptists in particular, from the migrations of the negro population.

Nine Negro Methodist Denominations

Referring again to the gains of the Methodists among the negro population of America, it may be interesting to present here the (1926) statistics of the nine negro Methodist denominations of the United States. We should bear in mind, however, that large numbers of negro churches affiliate directly with the (white) Methodist Episcopal Church and are not noted in this summary. The forces of the nine negro Methodist bodies in 1926 were as follows:

Negro Methodist denominations	9
Churches	11,913
Church members	1,221,988
Church houses	10,867
Pastors' homes	3,182
Value of church property	$69,044,110.00
Total contributions, 1926	15,180,917.00
Sunday schools	10,865
Enrolled in Sunday schools	776,636

Negro Baptist Forces in United States

The accompanying table ("Negro Church Members: Baptists and Other Faiths"), however, make it quite clear that Baptists still have a distinct and commanding leadership among the negroes of the United States. Summarizing the facts set out in the accompanying table, for example, we note the following situation in 1926:

Total negro church members in U. S., 1926	5,203,487
Baptist negroes	3,196,623
Per cent of negro church members who were Baptists, 1926	61.43%
Negroes belonging to all other churches	2,006,864
Per cent of negro church members affiliated with non-Baptist churches	38.57%
Total Baptists (white and colored), 1926	8,440,922
Negro Baptists, 1926	3,196,623
White Baptists, 1926	5,244,299

CHAPTER IV

GROWTH OF BAPTISTS AND OTHER MAIN DENOMINATIONS IN THE UNITED STATES, 1916-1926

Only once every ten years, may we know, with reasonable certainty, the comparative growth of the various denominations in the United States. For many of the smaller denominations never publish their own statistics; also many of the minor groups in the larger denominations, like the Baptists, Methodists, etc., make reports of their statistics only to the Bureau of Census every ten years. For this reason it is practically impossible to ascertain either the actual or the comparative progress of the various religious bodies in the United States, except by reference to the reports of the Bureau of the Census.

For this reason, it is all the more necessary and important, as well as vital and interesting, that we get a clear understanding of these reports of the Bureau of the Census as they pertain to the religious life and progress in the United States.

In the summary which follows, therefore, we present, first, the ten years' growth of the Baptists as the leading non-Catholic denomination in the United States; and then we compare with the Baptists the records of the ten other main denominational bodies, compiling the figures in each case from the reports of the Bureau of the Census and letting them largely speak for themselves.

1. High Points of Baptist Growth

In the accompanying table ("Ten Years' Growth of the Baptists of the United States and the World") will be found some surprising and many vitally interesting things. Let us note, for example, the following:

Baptist Sunday school growth, counting all groups of Baptists together, did not keep pace with the growth of the churches, the gain of the churches being 2,254, with 1,287,609 increase in the number of church members, whereas there was a net gain of only 236 Sunday schools, with 810,142 additional pupils enrolled.

The Baptist Young People's Unions had a splendid gain, the number of unions increasing during the ten years by 12,303, or about 46 per cent, while the young people enrolled in these organizations had a net increase of 313,821, of 31,382 every year of this decade.

While the number of church houses did not increase very much (only 487 for the ten years), there were 2,760 additional pastors' homes built and a sufficient number of the church houses rebuilt entirely or remodeled throughout to bring about an amazing increase in the value of church property. The statistics indicate, for example, that Baptist church property in the United States had a net increase of $295,709,538 (about 139 per cent) for the ten years (1916-1926), or $29,570,953 a year for this entire decade.

The contributions of Baptists, both to local church work and to the great causes of missions, education and benevolences, likewise had over 100 per cent net gain during the ten years. The proportion of these gifts going to missions, education and benevolences remained about the same throughout the decade; that is, practically $4.80 were given to local church work to every $1.00 that was given to missions.

The number of Baptist schools and colleges showed a net gain of only eight for the ten years, but the number of students and the property and endowment of the schools and colleges showed a hundred per cent net gain or more. Hospital property, on the other hand, increased from $2,000,000 to more than $15,000,000 in the ten years. Likewise the orphanage property had a net gain of almost three hundred per cent.

Altogether it is the best and most encouraging record which the Baptists of the United States have made in any decade in their history. A summary of this record is presented in the accompanying table:

2. Membership Growth and Standing of Main Denominations

We next present in the accompanying table ("Ten Years' Membership Gains of Main Denominations," etc.) the comparative growth and standing of the main denominational groups in the United States as of the year 1926.

Numerical Standing of Main Denominations, 1926

Arranged according to their numbers in 1926, it will be seen that the 12 main denominational groups in the United States stood as follows, in 1926:

1. Roman Catholics 15,814,253
2. Baptists 8,440,922
3. Methodists 8,070,619
4. Lutherans 3,066,003

TOTALS—16 (139 groups)	37,054,923	48,160,690	8,211,767—21.83%

*Only "communicants" are here counted among Roman Catholics.

All baptized Lutherans in the United States, both infants and adults, are counted in the government figures.

Numerical Gains of Main Denominations

Arranged according to their total net gains during the ten years under review (1916-1926), the respective records were as follows:

1.	Roman Catholics, net gain	2,450,710
2.	Lutherans, net gain	1,498,467
3.	Baptists, net gain	1,287,609
4.	Methodists, net gain	904,168
5.	Episcopalians, net gain	766,265
6.	Presbyterians, net gain	369,658
7.	Holiness Churches, net gain	285,739
*8.	Campbellites, net gain	267,344
9.	Mormons, net gain	144,232
10.	Reformed Churches, net gain	89,580
11.	Congregationalists, net gain	72,460
12.	Adventists, net gain	31,202
13.	United Brethren, net gain	27,951

*We do not use the designation "Campbellites" with any intended disrespect or animus, but because we know of no other designation by which we can group "the Disciples of Christ" with "the Churches of Christ."

Percentage of Net Gains of Main Denominations

If we now view these main denominational groups from the standpoint of the percentage of their respective gains during this decade (1916-1926), a wholly different line-up appears, as follows:

1.	Holiness Churches had	137.6 %
2.	Episcopalians had	70.1 %
3.	Lutherans had	60.73%
4.	Mormons had	31.19%
5.	Adventists had	27.2 %
6.	Roman Catholics had	18.33%
*7.	Baptists had	18.00%
8.	Campbellites had	17.31%
9.	Reformed Churches had	17.00%
10.	Presbyterians had	16.39%
11.	Methodists had	12.61%
12.	Congregationalists had	8.95%
13.	United Brethren had	7.59%

*Baptist membership gains during this decade were cut down seriously by certain known errors and inflations in the number of Negro Baptists in 1916.

3. Baptists Lead Methodists by 370,303 and More

For years now it has been the custom of Dr. H. K. Carroll, the great Methodist statistician, to publish a yearly report of the churches of the United States, in which he seems always careful to bring his own denomination out well in the lead of all non-Catholic bodies. We have publicly called attention to the fact that some parts of Dr. Carroll's figures were based upon estimates which were misleading so far as Baptists were concerned. It will be of particular interest therefore to notice how the government figures smash Dr. Carroll's estimates to pieces and incidentally leaves the Baptists where the 1910 Government Census left them—well in the lead of all non-Catholic bodies in America.

Attention should be directed to the fact that we have not included the German Baptists (Dunkards) in the Baptist group below. Why or by whom they were formerly dissevered from the Baptists, while Baptists were made to pack and carry for the "Free Will Baptists (Bullockites)," with 36 members in the whole United States, and the "Two-Seed-in-the-Spirit Predestinarian Baptists" (who are simply one of the many kinds of "Hardshell" Baptists or Primitive Baptists"), with 304 members in the whole nation—just why or by whom this arrangement of Baptist bodies was ever effected no one seems to know. Certainly we can find no ground for such grouping and classification. Leaving out the German Baptists (Dunkards), however, it will be noted that, in 1926, Baptists were 370,303 in the lead of Methodists; whereas, if these be included in the Baptist group (as I hold they should), then Baptists were 528,551 in the lead of the Methodist group in 1926.

The 23 Baptist Bodies

The 23 Baptist bodies here reported are not 23 Baptist "denominations," but only 12 denominations at most. But here is the list:

Northern Baptist Convention	1,[illegible],966
Southern Baptist Convention	3,524,378
Negro Baptists	3,196,623
General Six Principle Baptists	293
Seventh Day Baptists	7,264
Free Will Baptists	79,592
United American Free Will Baptist Church (Colored)	13,396
Free Will Baptists (Bullockites)	36
General Baptists	31,601
Separate Baptists	4,803
Regular Baptists	23,091
United Baptists	18,903
Duck River and Kindred Associations of Baptists (Baptist Church of Christ)	7,[illegible]
Primitive Baptists	61,374
Colored Primitive Baptists	43,978
Two-Seed-in-the-Spirit Predestinarian Baptists	304
Independent Baptist Church of America	222
American Baptist Association	117,858
Total, not including German Baptists	8,440,9[illegible]
Brethren, German Baptists (Dunkers):
Church of the Brethren (Conservative Dunkers)	128,392
Old German Baptist Brethren	3,036
The Brethren Church (Progressive)	26,026
Seventh Day Baptists (German, 1728)	144
Church of God, New Dunkers	650
Grand total Baptists in the United States, 1926	8,599,170

The Nineteen Methodist Bodies

The 19 Methodist bodies here listed are not 19 Methodist "denominations" in the usual meaning of that word, but perhaps not over 10 denominations at the outside. The list follows:

Methodist Episcopal Church	4,080,777
Methodist Protestant Church	192,171
Wesleyan Methodist Connection (or Church) of America	21,910
Primitive Methodist Church in the United States of America	11,[illegible]
Methodist Episcopal Church, South	2,487,694
Congregational Methodist Church	9,691
Free Methodist Church of North America	36,374
New Congregational Methodist Church	1,229
Holiness Methodist Church, Lumbee River Conference	459
Reformed Methodist Church	390
African Methodist Episcopal Church	545,814
African Methodist Episcopal Zion Church	456,813
Colored Methodist Protestant Church	533
Union American Methodist Episcopal Church	10,169
African Union Methodist Protestant Church	4,086
Colored Methodist Episcopal Church	202,713
Reformed Zion Union Apostolic Church	4,538
Reformed Methodist Union Episcopal Church	2,265
Independent African Methodist Episcopal Church	1,003
Total Methodists, 1926	8,070,619

Growth and Gains of the Two Bodies

Summing up the Government's figures for the Baptist and Methodist groups, we find the following facts reported for 1926:

1926 Baptist bodies	23	Baptist members	8,599,170
1926 Methodist bodies	19	Methodist members	8,070,619
Baptist lead over Methodists, 1926			528,551
1916 Baptist bodies	21	Baptist members	7,[illegible],[illegible]
1916 Methodist bodies	17	Methodist members	7,[illegible],[illegible]
Baptist lead over Methodists, 1916			121,364
Ten Years' Gains of Baptists		(15.28%)	1,312,231
Ten Years' Gains of Methodists		(12.63%)	905,044

4. Comparative Growth of Sunday School Enrollment of Main Denominations

Another important phase of religious life and development in the United States is found in the Sunday school work carried on by the main denominations. In the accompanying table ("Ten Years' Sunday School Gains of Main Denominations") we present the true test of Sunday school growth and development—the comparative gains in the enrollment of the Sunday schools of the eleven great denominational groups in America.

Standing in the Number Enrolled in 1926

Judged by the numbers enrolled in 1926, the Sunday schools of the United States stood as follows:

1. Methodists had enrolled 7,257,499
2. Baptists had enrolled 5,161,596
3. Presbyterians had enrolled 2,205,600
4. Lutherans had enrolled 1,401,269
5. Campbellites had enrolled 1,387,207
6. Roman Catholics had enrolled 1,250,828
7. Congregationalists had enrolled 670,958
8. Episcopalians had enrolled 537,804
9. Reformed Churches had enrolled 608,873
10. United Brethren had enrolled 442,822
11. Mormons had enrolled 200,647

Rank in Net Gains in Sunday School Enrollment

Judged by the total net gains in Sunday school enrollment during the decade (1916-1926), however, the record of the denominational groups here listed stood as follows:

1. Baptists gained 810,142
2. Lutherans gained 297,719
3. Campbellites gained 176,710
4. Methodists gained 135,684
5. Episcopalians gained 105,602
6. Presbyterians gained 58,166
7. Mormons gained 29,057
8. Reformed Churches gained 13,478
9. United Brethren lost 29,092
10. Congregationalists lost 70,363
11. Roman Catholics lost 681,378

Percentages of Gains in Sunday School Enrollment

Perhaps a truer test of actual gains in Sunday school enrollment of the main denominations during the decade under review (1916-1926), however, is found in the percentages of gain (and losses) of the respective denominational groups. Listed according to this standard, the denominational groups stood as follows in 1926:

1. Lutherans had a gain of 26.97%
2. Episcopalians had a gain of 24.43%
3. Baptists had a gain of 18.17%
4. Mormons had a gain of 17.34%
5. Campbellites had a gain of 14.59%
6. Reformed Churches had a gain of 2.72%
7. Presbyterians had a gain of 2.70%
8. Methodists had a gain of 1.90%
9. United Brethren had a loss of 6.16%
10. Congregationalists had a loss of 9.49%
11. Roman Catholics had a loss of 35.26%

The record as a whole is presented in the accompanying table:

TEN YEARS' SUNDAY SCHOOL GAINS OF MAIN DENOMINATIONS IN THE UNITED STATES, 1916-1926

(Note: Sunday school enrollment includes officers and teachers and pupils.)

Denominations	Sunday School Enrollment		Ten Years' Gains and Losses

Presbyterians (9 groups)	2,147,434	2,205,600	58,166	+ 2.70%
Reformed Churches (4 groups	495,395	608,873	13,478	+ 2.72%
Roman Catholics	1,932,206	1,250,828	Loss 681,378	—35.26%
United Brethren (3 groups)	471,914	442,822	Loss 29,092	— 6.16%
TOTAL 11 (82 groups)	20,178,778	21,025,103	846,325	+ 4.19%

5. Comparative Gains in Church Property of Main Denominations

Still another interesting development in modern church life in the United States is the nation-wide church building movement. For this movement, as will be seen in the accompanying table ("Ten Years' Gains in Church Property of Main Denominations"), embraces all denominations and covers all sections of the United States. Just how phenomenal is the movement is indicated in the fact that the value of church property (including the church houses and grounds and also the pastors' homes) of the eleven main denominational groups in the United States increased from $1,756,097,646 in 1916 to $3,887,970,497 in 1926, which is a net gain of 121.39 per cent, or $2,131,872,951. That is to say, these eleven main denominational groups placed an average of $213,187,295 each year of the decade (1916-1926) into new and remodeled church buildings and pastors' homes. Only the Congregationalists and Episcopalians fell below a hundred per cent gain in the value of church property; all the other nine great denominational groups went well above one hundred per cent gain, while the Campbellites, the Lutherans, the Mormons, the Baptists and others far exceeded one hundred per cent gain.

The question is often asked: What denominations are putting most money into church buildings and pastors' homes? The answer is clearly set forth in the accompanying table. Listing the denominations according to the net gains of the value of church property during the decade now under review (1916-1926), we find the following standing:

Standing of Denominations in Total Gains of Church Property

1. Roman Catholics gained $537,541,660
2. Methodists gained ..... [illegible]
3. Baptists gained ..... 295,709,[illegible]
4. Presbyterians gained 276,392,366
5. Lutherans gained ..... 207,[illegible]
6. Episcopalians gained 165,828,293
7. Campbellites gained 91,368,680
8. Congregationalists gained 89,789,944
9. Reformed Churches gained 54,824,500
10. United Brethren gained 17,697,348
11. Mormons gained 11,766,573

Per Capita Rank of Denominations in Church Property

A truer perspective and a better standard by which to judge the church building achievements and standing of the main denominations, however, may be seen in the table following, which deals with the per capita valuation of church property of the main denominations. According to this standard, the various denominations stood as follows in 1926 (odd cents are not counted in this table):

1.	Congregationalists had	$206.00
2.	Episcopalians had	188.00
3.	Presbyterians had	187.00
4.	Reformed Churches had	163.00
5.	Methodists had	93.00
6.	United Brethren had	87.00
7.	Lutherans had	84.00
8.	Campbellites had	77.00
9.	Roman Catholics had	61.00
10.	Baptists had	60.00
11.	Mormons had	31.00
	Average per capita for eleven bodies	86.00

6. Comparison of the Contributions of the Main Denominations

There remains still another vital phase of the life and work of all denominational groups in the United States—their gifts to the work of the local congregations, on the one hand, and to the missionary, educational and benevolent work of the denominations, on the other hand. What progress has been made along these lines in the decade of 1916 to 1926? Have the increased gifts for missions, education and benevolences kept pace with the increased contributions for the support of the local church work of the various congregations? Which denominations have made the largest net gains in contributions for local church work and which have made most notable gains in their gifts to missions, education and benevolences? Finally, which denominational groups have made the largest per capita increase in their gifts to missions, education and benevolences? These and other vital questions are answered in the three tables which follow.

Comparison of Gains of Contributions for Local Church Work

We may begin by pointing out the respective standings of the various denominations according to their net gains in contributions for local church work, as follows:

1.	Methodists gained	$64,123,517
2.	Baptists gained	47,149,141
3.	Presbyterians gained	38,760,933
4.	Roman Catholics gained	28,714,864
5.	Lutherans gained	26,567,079
6.	Episcopalians gained	19,087,767
7.	Campbellites gained	14,230,143
8.	Congregationalists gained	10,412,936
9.	Reformed Churches gained	4,998,717
10.	United Brethren gained	3,392,187
11.	Mormons gained	1,731,090
12.	Adventists gained	1,097,051

Of course, this analysis does not tell the whole story, nor even the most vital part of it, since it does not touch the per capita gifts of the various denominational groups. But it does quite clearly indicate the very large increases in the gifts of the various denominations for this purpose. In fact, as the accompanying table clearly shows, the gifts of the twelve denominational groups here considered, increased from $334,593,317 in 1916 to $592,858,831 in 1926, which represents a net increase of $258,265,514, or 77.18 per cent, for the ten years, or an average net increase of $25,826,551 a year for the ten years.

Comparison of Gains in Contributions for Missions, Education and Benevolences

Standing of Main Denominations as to Total Net Gains

How do these gains in contributions for local church work compare with the increases in the gifts of the main denominations for missions, education and benevolences? The answer is found in the table which follows ("Ten Years' Gains in Contributions to Missions, Education and Benevolences, etc."). Listing the denominational groups in accordance with the next increases for these denominational causes, we have the following order:

1.	Methodists increased	$17,141,055
2.	Baptists increased	10,868,836
3.	Lutherans increased	10,106,719
4.	Roman Catholics increased	9,403,167
5.	Presbyterians increased	8,715,550
6.	Adventists increased	4,327,224
7.	Episcopalians increased	3,192,431
8.	Campbellites increased	2,116,066
9.	Reformed Churches increased	1,891,534
10.	Congregationalists increased	990,080
11.	United Brethren increased	427,783
12.	Mormons increased	415,701
	Total increase for 12 bodies	$69,596,136
	Per cent of increase in gifts to missions, etc., for 12 bodies	99.87%
	Per cent of increase in gifts for local church work	77.18%

The Comparative Per Capita Gifts for Missions, etc.

But the acid test of all giving for all causes, and for missions, education and benevolences in particular, is the per capita gifts. In the table which follows, therefore, we are presenting the per capita records of the several denominational groups, both for 1916 and 1926, in their gifts to missions, education and benevolences. These records place the several denominations in an entirely different rank from the one just noticed, as may be noted from the following line-up:

1.	Adventists gave	$39.49
2.	Presbyterians gave	8.66
3.	Reformed Churches gave	5.73
4.	Episcopalians gave	4.84
5.	Congregationalists gave	4.40
6.	Methodists gave	4.35
7.	Lutherans gave	3.75
8.	United Brethren gave	3.26
9.	Baptists gave	2.27
10.	Campbellites gave	2.01
11.	Mormons gave	1.28
12.	Roman Catholics gave	1.22

here considered, increased from $334,593,317 in 1916 to $592,858,831 in 1926, which represents a net increase of $258,265,514, or 77.18 per cent, for the ten years, or an average net increase of $25,826,551 a year for the ten years.

Comparison of Gains in Contributions for Missions, Education and Benevolences

Standing of Main Denominations as to Total Net Gains

How do these gains in contributions for local church work compare with the increases in the gifts of the main denominations for missions, education and benevolences? The answer is found in the table which follows ("Ten Years' Gains in Contributions to Missions, Education and Benevolences, etc."). Listing the denominational groups in accordance with the next increases for these denominational causes, we have the following order:

1.	Methodists increased	$17,141,055
2.	Baptists increased	10,868,836
3.	Lutherans increased	10,106,719
4.	Roman Catholics increased	9,403,167
5.	Presbyterians increased	8,715,550
6.	Adventists increased	4,327,224
7.	Episcopalians increased	3,192,431
8.	Campbellites increased	2,116,066
9.	Reformed Churches increased	1,891,534
10.	Congregationalists increased	990,080
11.	United Brethren increased	427,783
12.	Mormons increased	415,701
	Total increase for 12 bodies	$69,596,136
	Per cent of increase in gifts to missions, etc., for 12 bodies	99.87%
	Per cent of increase in gifts for local church work	77.18%

The Comparative Per Capita Gifts for Missions, etc.

But the acid test of all giving for all causes, and for missions, education and benevolences in particular, is the per capita gifts. In the table which follows, therefore, we are presenting the per capita records of the several denominational groups, both for 1916 and 1926, in their gifts to missions, education and benevolences. These records place the several denominations in an entirely different rank from the one just noticed, as may be noted from the following line-up:

1.	Adventists gave	$39.49
2.	Presbyterians gave	8.66
3.	Reformed Churches gave	5.73
4.	Episcopalians gave	4.84
5.	Congregationalists gave	4.40
6.	Methodists gave	4.35
7.	Lutherans gave	3.75
8.	United Brethren gave	3.26
9.	Baptists gave	2.27
10.	Campbellites gave	2.01
11.	Mormons gave	1.28
12.	Roman Catholics gave	1.22

CHAPTER V

THE STEWARDSHIP CRISIS OF THE CHURCHES OF THE UNITED STATES

In spite of the tremendous increases in the contributions of all the larger denominations in the United States, noted in the preceding chapter, we now call attention to the fact that the churches of all denominations, if we may except only the Adventists, have come face to face with the gravest stewardship crisis in their history. Three things in particular have contributed to the inauguration of this crisis. Let us consider them in order:

1. The Amazing Increase of Wealth in the United States

The increase of the wealth of the United States, in recent years, is difficult to believe and practically impossible to adequately present, or even to properly illustrate, in the space allotted to this chapter. At best, therefore, we can give but a few outstanding examples and illustrations which may suggest that which is impossible to portray.

National Wealth Increasing Nearly Ten Billions Annually

The National Industrial Conference Board, in its Bulletin of June 15, 1928 (page 142), presents the estimated wealth of the United States as follows:

In 1912	$186,300,000,000
In 1913	190,713,000,000
In 1914	189,823,000,000
In 1915	197,771,000,000
In 1916	251,761,000,000
In 1917	355,674,000,000
In 1918	395,021,000,000
In 1919	424,998,000,000
In 1920	471,030,000,000
In 1921	312,292,000,000
In 1922	320,804,000,000
In 1923	336,625,000,000
In 1924	331,437,000,000
In 1925	356,177,000,000
In 1926	342,471,000,000
In 1927	336,175,000,000

In spite of the fluctuations here noted, it will be seen that in 15 years the national wealth of the United States rose from $186,300,000,000 to $336,175,000,000, a net increase of $149,875,000,000, or almost $10,000,000,000 a year for the past fifteen years. Nothing like this is known to the history of organized governments. What is of especial interest to us, in this connection, however, is that 46.52 per cent of this $149,875,000,000 of increased wealth, or $68,721,850,000, came into the pockets and purses of the Christian forces of America! That is to say, the wealth owned by the Christian people of the United States has had a net increase of $68,721,850,000 within the last fifteen years, or an average annual increase of $4,581,405,666! And this is apart from and altogether extra of the annual income of the Christian people, and also is extra of the wealth which the Christian people of this nation owned prior to 1912!

Hundred Years of Amazing Increase of Wealth

Nor can it be said that this amazing increase of wealth in the United States is a development of recent years, due to America's peculiar position and her participation in the World War. On the contrary, and in spite of all the wars and other vicissitudes which have come upon this nation, and in spite of the full measure of economic and financial disasters which have also come upon this nation, for a hundred years now there has been the most continuous and the most amazing growth of wealth in the United States to be found anywhere in the world or perhaps in all human history. "The Manufacturers' Record"* thus summarizes the story of the past hundred years:

"As late as 1830, or but 97 years ago, there were only 23 miles of railroad lines in operation in the United States; this had increased by 1840 to 2,818 miles. We now have over 250,000 miles of main line, with an aggregate of about 400,000 miles of track.

"The area of the country in 1830 was 1,792,000 square miles. The area of continental United States is now over 3,000,000 square miles, to which might be added the area of Alaska, the Philippine Islands, Hawaii, and Porto Rico.

"We had a population in 1830 of 12,866,000 people; today (1927) we have a population of over 118,628,000.

"As late as 1850 the total wealth of the United States was given by the census as $7,136,000,000, an amount largely exceeded by at least two states in the South at the present time and compared with a total of about $450,000,000,000 of wealth of the country in 1927.

"The amount of money in circulation in 1830 was $87,344,000. In 1925 it was $7,533,000,000.

"Federal expenditures in 1830 amounted to $24,585,000, as compared with $7,551,000,000 in 1925.

"The development of our postal business is illustrated in the total postoffice revenue which, as late as 1830, was only $1,919,000, as against $599,591,000 in 1925.

"Our total foreign trade, exports and imports, in 1830 amounted to $134,000,000, the exports in that year exceeding the imports by $9,000,000. In 1926 the value of our exports and imports amounted to $9,239,000,000.

"The increase in the number of farms has not been in proportion to the marvelous expansion in many other lines of activities, although the increase in the value of farms has been very great. As late as 1850 we had 1,449,000 farms; in 1925 we had 6,372,000. The value of farm property in 1850 was $3,967,000,000; in 1926 it had reached $56,913,000,000.

"The value of farm animals rose from $544,000,000 in 1850 to $4,675,000,000 in 1926.

"The production of wheat in 1839 was 84,823,000 bushels and of corn 377,532,000 bushels, or a total for these two grains of 462,000,000 bushels. In 1926 the production of wheat was almost ten times that of 1839, or 832,000,000 bushels, and the production of corn a little over seven times as much as the yield of 1839, the total of wheat and corn being 3,477,000,000 bushels.

"In 1830 the country produced 732,000 bales of cotton. In 1926 the yield was 17,977,000 bales.

"In 1830 the total production of coal in the United States was so triflingly small that it amounted to only 286,000 tons, and one naturally wonders how the 12,000,000 people of that day managed to get along with so small an amount. But the iron of that day was produced by charcoal and a large part of the manufacturing interests used wood for fuel. Against 286,000 tons of coal in 1830 we mined 663,000,000 tons in 1926.

*Volume XCII, No. 14, October 6, 1927.

"Petroleum had not been discovered in 1830, but in 1926 our petroleum wells yielded a total of 766,000,000 barrels.

"Of pig iron the entire country produced in 1830 only 165,000 tons. In 1926 it made 39,373,000 tons.

In 1850 the total value of our manufactured products was $1,019,000,000. In 1925 the value was $62,705,000,000.

"The accompanying summary shows a few outstanding facts put in tabular form, in order to impress our readers with some of the striking figures which we have quoted.

Steady Advance During Last Five Years

This same magazine, under date of June 28, 1928, presents the story of the last five years (for which we have definite and dependable figures), showing the same amazing and ever-increasing wealth of the people of the United States:

"The figures recently issued by the National Industrial Conference Board estimate the wealth of the country as of 1927 at $336,176,000,000. Of the total wealth distributable by states, the estimate for the South in 1927 was $75,063,000,000, as compared with $71,375,000,000 in 1922, while the total amount for the country as a whole, distributable by states, was $330,199,000,000 in 1927, as compared with $314,719,000,000 in 1922.

Present Prospects of Still Larger Increases

Moreover, there is every indication of still larger gains in the growing wealth of America in the near future.

Here is a summary, clipped from the "Literary Digest" of January 6, 1929, which tells its own story:

"An opportunity to compare 1928 with the two preceding years is given by the Boston "News Bureau" and "The Wall Street Journal." Out of a long column of statistics we quote a few of the more significant items as they appear in the Boston daily:

	1928	1927	1926
Railroad gross income	$6,161,000,000	$6,206,237,873	$6,451,418,183
Passenger automobiles produced	4,044,000	3,092,783	3,976,640
United States bank clearings	$ 636,379,000	$ 555,151,413	$ 523,773,772
Failures	24,100	23,146	21,773
National debt	$17,493,408,877	$18,036,352,451	$19,074,685,337
Merchandise exports	$5,116,000,000	$4,864,806,773	$4,808,660,235
Merchandise imports	$4,086,000,000	$4,184,378,182	$4,430,888,366
Wheat, bushels	902,749,000	878,374,000	831,040,000
Total crop values	$8,456,052,000	$8,522,560,000	$7,793,480,000
World gold production	$ 412,000,000	$ 400,987,213	$ 399,981,749
United States gold stock (November 30)	$4,128,242,496	$4,370,267,721	$4,492,429,489
Pig iron produced, tons	39,200,000	36,565,645	39,372,729
Building (37 states)	$6,680,000,000	$6,303,055,000	$6,300,915,000
Electric kilowatt hours	88,400,000,000	80,205,474,000	73,791,000,000
Income tax collection	$2,180,000,000	$2,195,506,998	$2,172,127,321
Cigarettes produced	106,000,000,000	97,176,607,484	92,096,973,926

And while much, far too much, of the growing wealth of America is still in the hands of a few, even this condition is being rapidly changed. The following summary of the income tax report covering the fiscal year ending August 31, 1927, for example, discloses the fact that, while the number of those having incomes of a million dollars or more had a ten per cent increase during the year, there were also 121,000 citizens who paid income taxes for the first time. "The Herald-Tribune's" report summarizes the situation as follows:

"The average net income of the American citizen who fills out an income-tax blank each year is $5,291.36, according to a preliminary report of income taxes paid the Government up to August 31, 1927, made by D. H. Blair, Commissioner of Internal Revenue. The term 'net income,' it is explained, is not indicative of average annual earnings of the individual, but that portion on which he pays tax after deducting allowances permitted by law.

"Fourteen individual Americans had incomes of $5,000,000 or more annually in 1926, whereas but nine ranged between $4,000,000 and $5,000,000, according to the report.

"More than 5,000 persons reported gross incomes of between $60,000 and $70,000, representing revenue at 5 per cent on $1,000,000 or more. There were 3,381 in the $70,000 to $80,000 class, while 142 represented themselves as making between $750,000 and $1,000,000.

"There were 115 in the $1,000,000 to $1,500,000 class; forty-three in the $1,500,000 to $2,000,000 group; thirty-three between $2,000,000 and $3,000,000, and fourteen between $3,000,000 and $4,000,000.

"Returns of individuals reporting income for 1926, and paying during the last year, numbered 4,075,542 out of the total of some 120,000,000 of United States citizenry. The net income of these taxpayers was $21,565,176,326, and they paid a tax of $727,479,426.

"More than 121,000 citizens with an income of $376,326,208 began to pay the Treasury a part of their earnings during the calendar year of 1927. The average tax collected by the Government is reckoned at $178.50, and the average rate of taxation 3.37 per cent."

The vast increase in building contracts awarded in the United States within the past few years is but another of the many indications that the people of this nation are in the midst of an amazing and continuous flow of prosperity. The record of construction work in the United States during the past six years is thus summarized by the National Industrial Conference Board:*

*See the Conference Board Bulletin of March 15, 1928, p. 213.

In 1923, $3,990,484,000 in construction contracts awarded.
In 1924, 4,479,307,000 in construction contracts awarded.
In 1925, 5,821,068,000 in construction contracts awarded.
In 1926, 6,148,503,000 in construction contracts awarded.
In 1927, 6,083,950,000 in construction contracts awarded.
In 1928, 6,396,877,000 in construction contracts awarded.
Net gains for six years, $2,405,393,000.
Average annual net gains, $401,232,166.

Savings in the United States, 1913-1926

The latest definite statistics at hand covering the savings of the people of the United States (perhaps the truest test of its growing wealth and the growing distribution of this wealth among all classes) is clipped from the "Information Service" of the Federal Council of Churches. It presents the following remarkable and reliable summary of the thirteen years (1913-1926):

"The prosperity of those who are able to save something out of their income is reflected to a large degree by accumulated savings and by the trend of annual savings. The National Industrial Conference Board has published figures along both of these lines.

"The accumulated savings in building and loan associations increased from $1,360,000,000 in 1914 to $6,280,000,000 in 1926. These savings represent the total assets of such organizations. For life insurance companies the increase was from $4,640,000,000 in 1914 to $12,850,000,000 in 1926. These savings also represent the assets of the companies and are equivalent to the policyholders' equity. The savings accounts in all classes of banks increased from $8,710,000,000 in 1914 to $24,700,000,000 in 1926.

"The annual savings in life insurance companies, as reflected by the total premiums paid each year, have climbed steadily upward from $673,000,000 in 1913 to $2,383,000,000 in 1926. The variation in annual savings in building and loan associations has reflected to a greater degree changing conditions of prosperity, but they increased from $54,000,000 in 1913 to $495,000,000 in 1926."

Summary of Present Outlook

In 1927, the output of automobiles and allied products was $4,000,000,000, bringing the total number of motor vehicles in the United States up to 23,125,000, which is 80 per cent of the total automobiles in the world.

The "New York Times" is authority for the statement that $16,700,000 of new life insurance was written in 1927.

The "United States Daily" (February 6, 1929) reported that the net earnings of the railroads in the United States for the year 1928 was $100,000,000 more than for the year 1927.

The "World Tomorrow," in its issue of July, 1928, gives the following summary of what the United States sells abroad (exports) year by year:

What America Sells Abroad

"The following table shows the relative amounts of various products sold by American concerns abroad. The figures do not include goods manufactured in foreign factories of American companies:

Commodity	Value of Exports (1926)	Proportion of World Output from U. S. A.
1. Petroleum and products	$556,000,000	70

American Investments Abroad

In addition to what America sells abroad, we must take note of the large sums of American money which are being invested in other nations, if we would understand the present amazing and growing wealth of this nation. According to the best authorities, America had the following investments in other nations in 1927:

In Europe	$ 2,500,000,000
In Latin-America	4,210,000,000
In Canada	2,825,000,000
In Asia, Africa, etc.	870,000,000
Total foreign investments	$10,405,000,000

American Wealth Versus World's Wealth

President Coolidge, in an address in Kansas City, in 1926, estimated that the wealth of the United States did not stop short of $400,000,000,000. But taking the more conservative figures of the National Industrial Conference Board ($336,175,000,000), we are still confronted by five stupendous facts:

(1) The United States today has about the same wealth as, and could purchase outright, the following nine great nations: Belgium, Great Britain, France, Germany, Austria, Italy, Japan, and Russia.

(2) The wealth of the United States is growing faster than the wealth of all these nations combined.

(3) About 46.52 per cent of the population and the wealth of the United States belong to the churches of the various denominations—a sum which does not fall short of $156,389,610,000, or about $4,000,000,000 more than the combined wealth of Great Britain ($130,000,000,000) and Japan ($22,500,000,000).

(4) This staggering sum of wealth in the hands of the Christian forces in America, as we saw above, moreover, is growing, in recent years, at the rate of more than $4,500,000,000 a year!

(5) In addition to his $4,500,000,000 of increased wealth, year by year, the most competent authorities tell us that the American people have an annual income of $90,000,000,000, of which amount $41,868,000,000 belongs to the Christian people of the nation.

Confronted, therefore, with an increased wealth amounting to more than $4,500,000,000 a year and, in addition, an annual income of more than $41,-900,000,000, is it any wonder that the 52,000,000 and more of church members in the United States have been staggered by the stewardship problem which has confronted them in recent years? On the other hand, we believe that it would have been little short of miraculous had not this untold and unbelievable increase of wealth and income have brought the Christian forces of America face to face with their greatest stewardship crisis.

2. The Nationwide Orgy of Spending and Wasting the Growing Wealth of Our Country

The second factor in the present stewardship crisis of the churches of the United States is the nation-wide orgy or mania of lavish spending and profligate wasting of the growing wealth which has come to our people. The church people, no less than the worldly people of the United States, appear to be in the grip of a nation-wide frenzy of riotous living and profligate spending. There appears to be no end to the immeasurable craving of the people for more, and yet more of everything, and no limit to their ability to spend and to waste and to keep on spending and wasting every cent they can earn or borrow, or steal. The Lord's cause, well, it has been shunted aside or backed into a far corner, to wait the time when we shall own the whole world.

The "Nation's Business" (magazine) for June, 1929, estimates that the tourists of the United States, going abroad this summer, will spend $3,000,-000,000, to say nothing of the amount which will be spent touring the various sections of the United States.

"Collier's Weekly" estimated that the nation spent perhaps $1,500,000,000 on Christmas charities and good cheer in 1928, including $300,000 on Santa Claus whiskers; turkeys, $120,000,000; neckties, $100,000,000; jewelry, $165,-000,000; plum puddings, $7,500,000; gifts and bonuses, $250,000,000; charities, $250,000,000, etc.

The tobacco used by the people of the United States, in one form or another, is beyond all belief or comprehension. The "United States Daily" (August 28, 1928), however, sets out the figures for the last fourteen years, as follows:

Years	Cigars Number	Cigarettes Number	Tobacco, Chewing and Smoking	Snuff, Pounds
1914	8,707,625,230	16,427,086,016	412,505,213	32,766,741
1915	8,030,385,603	16,756,179,973	402,474,245	29,839,074
1916	8,337,720,530	21,087,757,078	417,235,928	33,170,080
1917	9,216,901,113	30,529,193,538	445,763,206	35,377,751
1918	8,731,919,141	36,959,334,804	417,647,509	35,036,561
1919	7,889,407,423	38,104,736,310	376,959,091	34,895,173
1920	6,966,028,022	50,448,541,689	414,877,746	38,605,173
1921	7,822,534,617	45,065,323,004	329,611,871	32,196,676

1922	7,266,868,812	50,058,250,357	368,563,368	38,597,050
1923	7,704,694,199	60,878,295,907	362,539,213	39,662,314
1924	7,298,240,360	67,900,196,738	370,557,690	38,917,164
1925	7,018,150,120	75,925,054,791	371,788,250	37,520,110
1926	6,953,552,035	84,967,206,342	376,176,881	38,440,167
1927	7,045,870,737	92,985,586,762	361,607,797	38,151,993
1928	6,884,215,599	100,592,285,843	348,698,315	41,451,577

It is estimated that the tremendous and unbelievable tobacco bill here listed for 1928 ran up to more than $2,031,000,000.

Other main items of our annual expenditures are as follows:

For chewing gum	$ 100,000,000
For candy, etc.	1,000,000,000
For theatres and movies	2,000,000,000
For "beauty bills" of women	1,825,000,000
For soft drinks and ice cream	1,000,000,000
For furs, etc.	350,000,000
For Easter hats, etc.	400,000,000
For jewelry, etc.	450,000,000
For sports (baseball, etc.)	2,750,000,000
For horse racing	2,250,000,000
For automobiles, etc.	14,000,000,000
For public schools	2,171,844,689
For maintenance of life insurance	3,000,000,000
For all hospitals (1923)	259,000,000
For all colleges, etc.	187,200,000
For charity and relief	256,700,000
For doctors' services	550,000,000
For foreign relief	215,000,000
For all church work—at home and abroad	814,371,529
For crime and its punishment	13,000,000,000

"And if to the above list we added Federal Attorney Buckner's estimate of the national bootleg trade at $3,600,000,000 a year, a sum in excess of the annual budget of almost every other country in the world, we should have a total of over nine billions annually spent for luxuries in this country."

The government of the United States itself sets the pace of extravagant expenditures, as the following summary of Congressional appropriations in 1928 clearly shows:

"Item	Amount
Public debt interest	$670,000,000
Sinking fund	514,623,000
Veterans' Bureau	686,461,000
Postal service	776,974,000
Navy	392,617,000
War Department	334,703,000
War pensions	250,000,000
Civil pensions	19,950,000
Road construction	85,577,000
Refund of internal revenue taxes	173,000,000
Shipping Board	13,688,000
Rivers and harbors	118,629,000
Settlement of alien property claims	50,000,000
Public buildings	54,315,000
All other activities, including the Executive Office, Congress, the judiciary, the executive departments, the independent establishments, payment of judges, etc.	518,304,000"

—"New York Times," June 7, 1928.

"We are commercializing even our sports. College football has now become 'big business,' closing the season last year with 15,000,000 in attendance, gate receipts of $30,000,000, with many magnificent stadiums costing millions more.

The Army-Navy game in Chicago attracted a throng of 110,000, with gate receipts of approximately $800,000, not to mention the enormous sums spent in carfares, automobiles and festivities connected with the game and the celebrations that followed. The Tunney-Dempsey prize fight cost over $3,000,000.

"Recently in this country $7,000,000 was spent on a mansion with 121 rooms for one family. A larger amount was spent for a winter residence in Florida by an absentee citizen; $600,000 was spent for a diamond necklace; $20,000 for a hat; $1,000 for a hatpin; $75,000 for opera glasses; $30,000 for an automobile. Recently 330 Italian cars have been imported at a cost of $16,000 each. We puffed away ninety billion cigarettes last year and nearly two billion dollars in tobacco smoke. One earnest Christian man has just spent $500,000 for a playhouse for his six children!

"The most characteristic example of American luxury may be found in the record of expenditures on Park Avenue, New York, as estimated and officially stated by H. Gordon Duval, President of the Park Avenue Association. The 4,000 families who live on this avenue between 34th Street and 96th Street spend a total of $280,000,000, or $70,000 per family during the year. They spend for women's clothing $50,000,000 a year, or $192,000 a day; for liquor, according to the reported, $15,000,000. They spend $26,922 a day for yachts. $11,536 a day for flowers. A father spends $25,000 a year for a single debutante daughter. The women and girls in this section on an average each spend yearly $6,250 for clothing, $2,000 for furs, $500 each in beauty shops, $900 for hats. The paltry five millions that these four thousand families give to 'charity' is only one-tenth of what the women spend on clothing alone. And a large proportion of these people are professed Christians.

"Stuart Chase thus sums up some of our appalling totals of waste in this country:

"Of our 42,000,000 workers gainfully employed, one-quarter are forced to devote themselves to needless or harmful things not in the production of true wealth, but to the 'illth' of vice and crime, harmful drugs, quackery, adulterated food, speculation and gambling, super-luxuries, militarism, etc. Six million employees, or 15 per cent of our man-power, are diverted to the production of luxuries. For every seventy cents spent on education, we spent one dollar on advertising, a total of $1,284,000,000, employing 600,000 workers. With six million workers idle on a given working day, with a total loss from lack of scientific management equivalent to the work of five million employees, and from lack of industrial co-ordination to four and a half million more; with several millions diverted to the production of harmful things, Mr. Chase estimates a total waste of fifty per cent of our man-power.

"In the waste of our natural resources we are witnessing 'the rape of a continent.' Only 15 per cent of our available water power is now used. Three-fourths of our oil has been wasted to date. Our original 800,000,000 acres of virgin forests are already reduced to 138,000,000, and are fast disappearing. Of our coal, we are wasting 750 million tons a year, of our water power, 50 million horsepower, of oil, one billion barrels, of natural gas, 600 billion cubic feet, of lumber, 5 billion cubic feet annually.

"Yearly there are upwards of 25,000 fatal accidents in industry, 700,000 accidents causing four weeks' disability or more, over 2,000,000 causing more than one day's disability. Probably three-fourths of these could be eliminated. There are in the United States almost 5,000,000 persons over 10 years of age who can neither read nor write. Of 28,000,000 children between the ages of 5 and 18, only 16,000,000 are regularly at school, while 12,000,000 are not. Only one child in 54 gets a chance to go to college, and this opportunity is often trifled away by the sons of privilege."*

Now when it is known that this orgy of lavish and inexcusable spending of the great wealth of the nation has not only kept up since 1920, but has grown with every passing year—grown in fact, faster, than our great wealth has increased—it can be seen how great and how alarming is the stewardship crisis which has come upon the churches of the United States.

3. In the Face of Greater Needs, and Greater Opportunities, Also Greater Wealth and Greater Numbers, the Main Denominations Are Actually Giving Less for All Causes, Save Their Own Local Church Expenses, in Most Instances.

In order that we may have the actual facts before us, touching this very grave matter, we have secured permission of the Institute of Social and Religious Research to make use of certain tables prepared by Mr. Chas. H. Fahs in his recent publication, entitled "Trends of Protestant Giving," covering the contributions of all the main non-Catholic religious bodies of America for the past ten to twenty years. A careful examination of the records of all these denominations, presented in the tables which follow, show four outstanding facts, viz.:

1. A Steady Downward Trend of Giving to Missions and Benevolences Since 1920 or 1921.

Note the records, as follows:

In 1920 Congregationalists gave	$ 6,044,118
In 1927 Congregationalists gave	4,382,962
In 1924 Lutherans gave	12,110,121
In 1927 Lutherans gave	17,969,677
In 1920 Northern Methodists gave	23,382,355
In 1927 Northern Methodists gave	18,674,088
In 1920 Southern Methodist gave	11,479,054
In 1927 Southern Methodists gave	8,461,273
In 1922 Northern Baptists gave	10,417,504
In 1927 Northern Baptists gave	6,373,982
In 1921 Southern Presbyterians gave	5,894,232
In 1927 Southern Presbyterians gave	5,380,916
In 1920 Northern Presbyterians gave	17,059,144
In 1027 Northern Presbyterians gave	15,749,508
In 1921 Reformed Churches in America gave	1,292,216
In 1927 Reformed Church in America gave	1,182,126
In 1920 Southern Baptists gave	14,037,611
In 1927 Southern Baptists gave	7,904,799

2. In Practically all Main Denominations the Per Capita Gifts to Missions Have Declined, While the Per Capita gifts for Local Church Work Have Increased.

Look at these records:

In 1920, Congregationalists gave $7.48 per capita for missions, etc., and $18.48 for local church expenses; whereas, in 1927, they gave only $4.78 per capita for missions, etc., and $23.91 to local church expenses.

In 1924, the Lutherans gave $4.02 per capita for missions, etc., and $14.86 for local church expenses; whereas, in 1927, they gave $4.39 per capita for missions, etc., and $16.66 for local church expenses.

In 1920, Southern Methodists gave $5.06 per capita for missions and benevolences and $9.05 for local church expenses; whereas, in 1927, they gave $3.21 per capita for missions and benevolences and $10.66 for local church expenses.

In 1922, Northern Baptists gave $7.67 per capita for missions and benevolences and $14.94 for local church expenses; whereas, in 1927, they gave $4.58 per capita for missions and benevolences and $20.27 for local church expenses.

The pamphlet is for sale by the Institute of Social and Religious Research, 240 Park Avenue, New York City, N. Y. The price is ——.

In 1921, Southern Presbyterians gave $14.84 per capita to missions and benevolences and $15.69 to local church expenses; whereas, in 1927, they gave $12.24 per capita for missions and benevolences and $22.35 for local church expenses.

In 1920, Southern Baptists gave $4.46 per capita for missions and benevolences and $0.62 for local church expenses; whereas, in 1927, they gave $2.10 per capita for missions and benevolences and $8.63 for local church expenses.

3. The Combined Record of the Eleven Main Denominations (see Table XVIII) tell the same Story—Steady decline in the gifts to missions and benevolences and a steady increase in the gifts to local church expenses.

4. "Counting the 1913 value of the dollar and the 1913 per capita gifts for total benevolences of these eleven denominations as norms, the increase in per capita gifts for total benevolences did not compensate for the decreased value of the dollar during 1916, 1917, and 1918. Since 1919, even with the decreases that followed the peak year, 1920, the per capita gifts for total benevolences have been markedly in advance of those necessary to compensate for the decreased value of the dollar as compared with the norms of 1913."*

5. This Record is Made in the Face of the Greatest Needs and Opportunities and the Greatest Wealth and Numbers Which These Denominations Have Ever Known.

Who can show us the way out of the present stewardship crisis in America? Here are the records which tell us, beyond a peradventure, that we are face to face with it this hour.

*Through 1906 statistics are taken from the annual reports of the American Baptist Missionary Union, the Woman's Baptist Foreign Mission Society, and the Woman's Baptist Foreign Mission Society of the West. From 1907 to 1923 statistics are taken from a study made by representatives of the Advisory Committee of the Finance Committee of the Northern Baptist Convention, and from 1924 to 1927, they are from the annual reports of the American Foreign Mission Society and the Woman's American Baptist Foreign Mission Society.

†In the case of the Protestant Episcopal Church the sum given is that of expenditures for foreign missions, and of the proportionate home administration expenses. To these items as given in the reports of the National Council there have been added expenditures for work in the Philippine Islands, classified by the Protestant Episcopal Church as a domestic mission.

SOME EXPLANATIONS AND INTERPRETATIONS

Some interpretations and explanations seem necessary to a proper understanding of the foregoing summary of the statistics of Southern Baptists, covering the year 1928:

Churches: In 1927, we showed a loss of 448 churches as compared with a loss of only 58 churches in 1928; and, perhaps, even this loss would have been wiped out if we could have secured complete reports. The fact is, however, that in 1927 we secured practically complete reports from all our co-operating associations, save 50; whereas in 1928 we were unable to secure any sort of reports from 153 of our district associations, and many of the reports sent in were sadly and seriously incomplete.

Ordained Ministers: The number of ordained ministers among Southern Baptists continues to mount up, year by year, the net gain during 1928 being 674. We are using every means known to us to correct our list of ordained ministers, although we are sure that many needed corrections will never come to our attention. It is astonishing how little help and co-operation, in this important task, we are able to secure from the ministers themselves. Our records here show, for example, that practically 1,000 of our ministers change their fields of work every month in the year upon the average; whereas fewer than 500 of the 12,000 preachers making these changes can be persuaded to write us a postcard and notify us of the change. Moreover, when one of our preachers dies, no one, as a rule, thinks of letting us know about it; they do not even let their own state Baptist papers know about it. As a result, we are doubtless now carrying the names of 500 or more preachers who have been "with the Lord" for years.

Baptisms: In the number of baptisms, our reports show 183,020 for 1928, which is a falling off of 14,135, as compared to the record of 1927. Nevertheless, this is not a bad record.

Church Members: The net gain of only 32,144 church members, however, is a poor record considering the fact that we baptized 183,020 new members into our churches last year. We have made some effort to come upon an explanation of this anomalous fact—for this condition has obtained with us for several years. Three things appear to give the explanation: (1) Many of our churches have adopted the rather severe, if warranted, method of simply erasing large groups of members who have moved away and gotten out of touch with the local church concerned; (2) others of our churches continue the honorable custom of expelling members right and left (one prominent city church set adrift 640 members in 1928); (3) still others (and the number is very great) do not keep complete records of the thousands who join our churches on "the forthcoming of letters"—these members being dropped from the lists of the dismissing churches but never added to the lists of the receiving churches—in many such cases the clerks of the receiving churches never even write for letters of dismission for such members.

Sunday Schools: The number of our Sunday schools shows a loss of 157. Of course this is not correct, but we were powerless to change the figures, because of the poorest Sunday school reports we have had to deal with in the nine years of our experience. We do not think there has been a loss of even 50 Sunday schools; but we cannot attempt to hunt down the facts until later, when we will go to each church involved.

Sunday School Enrollment: Partly due to the reported loss of 157 Sunday schools; partly to a known falling off of Sunday school enrollment in some states, and partly due to the poor Sunday school reports we had to deal with this year, we show only 17,086 net gain for 1928, in the Sunday school enrollment, as compared to 96,712 gain in 1927.

The B.Y.P.U. Work: Both in the number of B.Y.P.U.'s and in the membership of these organizations, Southern Baptists show splendid gains over the past years; the figures standing as follows: Gain in the number of B.Y.P.U.'s during 1928, 1,970; gain in the number of young people enrolled, 20,374. That is to say, we now have 22,850 B.Y.P.U. organizations, and 600,564 young people enrolled.

The W.M.U. Work: We were unable to secure complete reports from three of the states of the South; but we found a net gain in W.M.U. organizations amounting to 3,858 for the year 1928; whereas, the gain in contributions amounted to $397,097.91.

Church Houses and Pastors' Homes: In spite of the loss of 58 churches during 1928, the number of our church houses shows no gains or losses, there being 21,491 church houses among the 24,274 co-operating churches. That is to say, we still have 2,783 co-operating churches among Southern Baptists which do not have houses of worship of any character. The number of our pastors' homes, on the other hand, shows a net gain of 118 during 1928. The total value of church property also shows the good healthy gain of $10,700,727.00 for the year 1928. This gain, however, is not quite up to the gain in church property during 1927 ($11,174,387.00).

Contributions—Local and Denominational: For four years now, the contributions of Southern Baptists have shown a steady gain for all local church purposes and a steady loss for all missions, education and benevolences. These same general conditions obtained during 1928, in spite of the fact that several individual states showed decided improvement. For example, the gifts of Southern Baptists for all local church purposes in 1928 made a gain of $581,537.05, or considerably over a half-million dollars; whereas the gifts to all missions, education and benevolences showed a net loss of $440,863.48. If we could somehow reverse this order, even for one year, it would make a world of difference in our denominational work and outlook. It remains to say, that the total contributions of our people, for all purposes, in 1928, showed a net gain of $140,673.57.

CHAPTER V

THE SOUTHERN BAPTIST SUNDAY SCHOOL TASK—ITS CHALLENGE

(From an address by the author before the Sunday School Workers' Conference of the South held at Memphis, Tenn., May 13, 1928)

The Sunday school task of Southern Baptists presents a threefold challenge to us at this time: It is the challenge of a good beginning; the challenge of a great opportunity; and the challenge of a glorious prospect. Let us try to catch the full significance of this challenge—in retrospect, circumspect and prospect.

Thank God, much has already been accomplished in this wonderful task! Thank God the more, that nowhere else on earth and at no time in the history of Southern Baptist work, where the opportunities for Southern Baptist Sunday school advancement so great as now! Thank God most of all, that much yet remains to be done; that "the best is yet to be," and that as certain as God's Word stands and his gracious love and Providence continue to be vouchsafed to our people, we are going out into a future as full of glorious prospects as the day is full of light!

I. THE CHALLENGE OF A GOOD BEGINNING

No one seems to know definitely how or when the great work of teaching the Word of God to the masses of our people in the Southland first took hold of our fathers in the faith, or how it first began to express itself in the life and work of the churches, the district associations and the state conventions. We hope some day to assist some worthy author in the task of digging out and putting in order this engaging and alluring story which as yet remains unwritten. But we have recently had occasion to study the progress of Sunday school work, not only among Southern Baptists, but among the other denominations in the South, covering the last twenty years; and we confess to one of the most gratifying and inspiring surprises we have come upon in many a day. Here are some of the outstanding and encouraging facts which have come to us from the Sunday school achievements of Southern Baptists during the past twenty years.

Sunday School Situation in 1906

Total population of the Southland, 1906		29,340,199
Southern Baptist Sunday School enrollment	(3.78%)	1,112,682
Enrollment of all other denominations	(16.36%)	4,769,794
Unenrolled in any sort of Sunday School	(79.86%)	23,457,823

Sunday School Situation in 1916

Total population of the Southland, 1916		35,174,507
Southern Baptist Sunday School enrollment	(5.19%)	1,826,167
Enrollment of all other denominations	(19.14%)	6,752,930
Unenrolled in any sort of Sunday School	(75.67%)	26,596,410

*The statistics throughout this paper are taken from the reports of the Bureau of the Census.

Sunday School Situation in 1926

Total population of the Southland, 1926		41,584,077
Southern Baptist Sunday School enrollment	(6.23%)	2,590,127
Enrollment of all other denominations	(19.05%)	7,923,273
Unenrolled in any sort of Sunday School	(74.72%)	31,070,677

Summary of Twenty Years' Sunday School Growth, 1906-1926

Growth of total population, 41.07%, or an average of 2.05% each year.

Growth of Southern Baptist Sunday school enrollment, 132.8%, or an average of 6.6% a year.

Growth of Sunday School enrollment in all other denominations, 66.1%, or 3.3% a year.

Growth of population not enrolled in any Sunday school, 32.4%, or 1.6% a year.

Comparison of Southern Baptist Sunday School Growth with Others, 1906-1926

Annual Southern Baptist Sunday School growth	6.6 %
Annual growth of all other Sunday Schools	3.3 %
Annual growth of total population of Southland	2.05%
Annual growth of population not in any Sunday School	1.6 %

TWENTY YEARS' SUNDAY SCHOOL GROWTH BY STATES 1906-1926

Note: As many will be interested in seeing how Southern Baptist Sunday School growth has taken place by states, we are giving the detailed figures herewith.

MARKED ADVANCE DURING PAST TWELVE YEARS, 1916-1928

A careful examination of the figures just presented, however, will show that the most marked advance in Sunday school growth known to any denomination in America has attended the efforts of Southern Baptist Sunday school workers during the past twelve years. It is perhaps not generally known, that since the coming of Dr. I. J. Van Ness to the leadership of the Sunday School Board, twelve years ago, Southern Baptists have had a net gain of 3,005 Sunday schools and a net gain of 1,012,137 in Sunday school enrollment. That is to say, throughout the last twelve years, in spite of the temporary losses occasioned by the World War, Southern Baptists have had a net gain of over 250 additional Sunday Schools and 84,345 additional Sunday school pupils for every year of this period—a record which no two main denominations in America have excelled.

The detailed figures setting forth this unique achievement are presented herewith.

*TWELVE YEARS OF SOUTHERN BAPTIST SUNDAY SCHOOL GAINS, 1916-1928

In the twelve years Dr. Van Ness has been in the leadership of the Sunday School Board's work.

Years	Sunday Schools	Enrollment
1916	18,394	1,784,992
1917	18,134	1,835,811
1918	17,648	1,759,208
1919	17,686	1,836,936
1920	19,584	1,926,610
1921	20,150	2,147,654
1922	20,936	2,220,035
1923	20,601	2,381,717
1924	21,570	2,536,953
1925	21,760	2,691,829
1926	21,147	2,683,331
1927	21,556	2,780,043
1928	21,399	2,797,129
Twelve years' gains	3,005	1,012,137
Average annual gain	250 plus	84,345

Truly, Southern Baptist Sunday School workers have the challenge of a great beginning!

II. THE CHALLENGE OF A GREAT OPPORTUNITY

With such achievements in the past, how may we properly appraise, or adequately present, the surpassing opportunities of the present? In the space allotted to this paper, how may we even call attention to the manifold and marvelous advantages and opportunities with which God has surrounded us, and sought to crown us, here in the Southland?

*These are our own official statistics of the Southern Baptist Convention and other statistics from the statistics of the Bureau of the Census both for 1916 and 1926.

For one thing, as we have just seen, He has given us the inspiration, the high hopes and the solid encouragement of a good beginning, of unmatched achievement in Sunday school work, which our fathers in the faith and our Sunday school leaders of yesterday and today have wrought for us. It is a goodly heritage, such as no Baptist group in the world today enjoys!

Again, with Southern Baptist Sunday school workers, the day of pioneering, the day of experimentation, the day of carefully testing out plans and methods, the day of demonstrating the wisdom and worth of our distinct lines of attack—this day is past with us. We understand our task now! We know the value of our plans and methods! The lines of our conquering campaign are all established! Henceforth we are out on the march! And, please God, we will remain in the vanguard of the world's Sunday school army, until he calls us hence!

Southern Baptists, moreover, have the greatest Baptist Sunday school field in the world today—the Southland. Counting negroes and whites, one-half of the Baptists of the world live here in the Southland, in the bounds of the Southern Baptist Convention. Of the 7,398,980 negroes in the South who are not in any Sunday school, three-fourths of them are Baptists or Baptist inclined. And of the 23,671,697 white people in the South not now in any Sunday school, at least 6,000,000 of them are distinctly inclined toward the Baptists, being not only Baptist possibilities, but Baptist probabilities in the truest sense. Let us pause here, therefore, to get a bird's-eye-view of the outstanding facts about this richest, ripest, most opportune Sunday school field, for Baptists, in the world today:

Southern Baptist Sunday School Field

(The following summary is based upon statistics of the Bureau of the Census covering the year 1926.)

The Sunday School Population of South, 1926

Total population of South in 1926		41,584,077
Total in white Baptist Sunday Schools	(6.23%)	2,590,127
Total in all other Sunday Schools	(19.05%)	7,923,273
Total not in any Sunday School	(74.72%)	31,070,677

Southern People Not in Sunday School, 1926

Total Southern people not in Sunday School		31,070,677
White people (includes Indians and Mexicans) not in any Sunday School	(76.2%)	23,671,697
Negroes not in any Sunday School	(23.8%)	7,398,980

Total Unreached White Sunday School Possibilities

Southern White people not in any Sunday School		23,671,697
These unenlisted millions include the following groups:
Adults, 25 and up	(41.3%)	9,776,521
Young people, 17 to 24	(16.8%)	3,976,945
Intermediates, 13 to 17	(9.2%)	2,177,800
Juniors, 9 to 12	(9.5%)	2,248,395
Primaries, 6 to 9	(8.7%)	2,059,568
Beginners, 3 to 6	(5.8%)	1,372,910
Cradle Roll, 0 to 3	(8.7%)	2,059,568
Total persons in the South without any sort of church connection		22,959,387

Southern Baptists, however, not only have the richest, ripest, most opportune Sunday school field in the world today; we have one of the largest, best trained, most thoroughly united Sunday school forces to be found anywhere. For, in addition to the large corps of highly trained specialists of the Sunday School Board and the various state and associational organizations, we have literally thousands of pastors, assistant pastors and great laymen who have caught the vision splendid and who have gone out to build magnificent houses for worship, instruction and social fellowship, and to gather together the great masses of our people by the multiplied thousands, in order to teach them the Word of God.

Best of all there are unmistakable signs that God is graciously and wondrously opening his hand of blessing upon our efforts. Otherwise how may we account for the fact, noticed above, that in spite of all the losses and crosses of the World War period and the still more trying years of 1920, 1921 and 1922, the numbers of our Sunday schools have continued to grow at the rate of over 250 a year, while the enrollment has continued to show a net gain of more than 84,000 a year, for the past twelve years? Even in the trying year of 1928, while Northern Baptists lost 8,294; Congregationalists lost 28,615; Episcopalians lost 4,054; Northern Methodists lost 43,892; Southern Methodists lost 48,314; Southern Presbyterians lost 11,111; and the Reformed Church in America lost 17,708, God spared us to report a modest gain of 17,086, after dropping some 20,000 which belonged to non-co-operating Baptist churches.

Surely God has given us the challenge of a great beginning and brought us forth to meet the supreme opportunity for doing Sunday school work to be found in any Baptist group in the world today!

III. THE CHALLENGE OF A GREAT PROSPECT

"What, then, shall we say to these things? If God be for us, who can be against us?"

If God has given us the inspiration and high hopes of a good beginning; if he has enabled us to work out wise and beneficent plans for Sunday school advancement and started us out upon a victorious march; if he has graciously provided us with the richest, ripest, most opportune Sunday school field in the world today; if he has enabled us to build here in the Southland one of the strongest, most united and best trained army of Sunday school leaders and workers in America; and if, above all, he has showered upon us the unmistakable tokens of his favors and blessings; if God has graciously given us all these things in order to bring us to this hour of great opportunity; how shall he not with all these things, enable us to go outward, onward and upward to the still greater things which he has prepared for us? If, with the meager resources we had in the beginning and the untried plans which we were forced to use, we have witnessed 132% growth in the enrollment of Southern Baptist Sunday schools in the past twenty years, what may not the future hold for us, if God be still gracious, before the good year of 1950 shall roll around?

Let us rejoice that ours is the privilege of living and serving in such a time as this, and with such a challenging and glorious prospect ahead of us:

"To be alive in such an age!
To live in it!
To give in it!
Rise, soul, from thy despairing knees.
What if thy lips have drunk the lees?
The passion of a larger claim
Will put thy puny grief to shame."
Let us say with Evan Roberts of Wales:
"While the fire of God is falling,
While the voice of God is calling,
Brothers, get the Flame!
While the torch of God is burning,
Men's weak efforts overturning
Workers, get the Flame!

"For the world at last is waking,
And beneath his spell is breaking
Into living Flame,
Our glorious Lord is seeking
Human hearts to rouse from sleeping
Fired with heavenly Flame."

CHAPTER VI

THE B.Y.P.U. WORK OF SOUTHERN BAPTISTS

J. E. LAMBDIN, SECRETARY AND EDITOR

FUNDAMENTAL PRINCIPLES IN B.Y.P.U. WORK

The B.Y.P.U. Department, in all of its editorial and promotion work, observes certain fundamental principles, as follows:

1. B.Y.P.U. a church organization. The B.Y.P.U. is strictly a church organization. Every church should establish, promote, and control its B.Y.P.U. department. All general officers and leaders should be elected by the church, and the election of all others by the unions approved by the church. As a church organization the B.Y.P.U. seeks to train its members to participate in all church activities.

2. B.Y.P.U. a denominational organization. The B.Y.P.U. sets itself whole-heartedly to the task of training its members in doctrine and in active participation in the world-wide missionary program of the Southern Baptist Convention.

3. B.Y.P.U. a training organization for young Christians. Training comes through study, worship, expression, and activity. The B.Y.P.U. seeks to enlist all the young members of the church, beginning with the Junior department, and to train them individually in all the duties and privileges of church membership. This statement implies that the B.Y.P.U. does not seek the unsaved for its membership. This is true. It does not. The program material and activities of the B.Y.P.U. are for the development of young Christians. If it is necessary for children below the age of nine to be present at B.Y.P.U. time because their parents are working in the B.Y.P.U. department, a children's story hour, educationally and religiously correct in method and content, should be conducted for them. Not enough of these children are Christians to justify the name Baptist Young People's Union, nor the program of training of the B.Y.P.U., which presupposes Christian experience.

An adult organization, called the Baptist Adult Union, is provided for those above the age of thirty.

The B.Y.P.U. Department, in all its literature, is true to this concept of the B.Y.P.U.

A CHALLENGING NEED

The B.Y.P.U. long ago passed the experimental stage. It is recognized as one of the most potent forces in the world today for the development of Christian youth. The glory of it is that it is inside the churches and entirely in their hands. They can do with it what they will. The challenging need is that each church shall supply for its young people in the B.Y.P.U.'s the most talented, consecrated and highly trained leadership available. We commend the General B.Y.P.U. Organization as the best instrument known for finding and developing that leadership. An efficient General Organization can enlist and train in the Senior B.Y.P.U. and Baptist Adult Union all the leaders needed.

WORK OF THE B.Y.P.U. DEPARTMENT

Editorial Work

Six periodicals are edited—three quarterlies carrying program materials for Juniors, Intermediates and Seniors; two quarterlies carrying program helps for Junior and Intermediate leaders; and the Monthly B.Y.P.U. Magazine for the promotion of every phase of B.Y.P.U. work. Program material for Baptist Adult Unions is also carried in the Magazine. A complete record system for all unions and the General Organization is published. Materials for daily Bible readers' courses are also supplied. Wall Standards of Excellence, A-1 awards, Bible reading awards, and diplomas and seals for all the study course books are prepared and issued free. Sixty-five free tracts, covering every phase of B.Y.P.U. principles and methods, are edited and distributed by the department. Special literature is prepared as needed.

Promotion Work

The Southern Baptist program of B.Y.P.U. work is promoted through all our literature and through field work in co-operation with the state B.Y.P.U. forces. Several special means of approach to the churches and associational B.Y.P.U.'s might be mentioned.

1. The Monthly B.Y.P.U. Magazine. This magazine gives us a fresh approach to the young people and leaders every month. Through its columns we actively promote standardization, better methods, better programs, better social life, soul winning, enlargement, associational work, Bible reading, denominational loyalty, stewardship and missions, and guidance in choosing life work. It is practical and inspirational in its appeal.

2. Special Literature. A special poster for distribution to all the unions, which outlines a Calendar of B.Y.P.U. Activities for 1929, was published in December. This poster presents a program of activities which insures that every B.Y.P.U. following it will be training its members in church membership. The keynote for the year is Stewardship, in keeping with the work of the Convention. Another special poster is prepared and distributed to promote Annual Southwide Study Course Week, beginning the second Sunday in March each year. This special literature is supplied free to all the state B.Y.P.U. secretaries.

3. Field Work. The field workers of the B.Y.P.U. Department co-operate with the state B.Y.P.U. departments in conducting training schools, associational and local B.Y.P.U. revivals and enlargement campaigns, conventions and assemblies.

4. General B.Y.P.U. Organization. The B.Y.P.U. Department is promoting the establishment of the General B.Y.P.U. Organization in every Baptist church in the Convention. It is the plan we advocate to solve the problems of leadership, grading, enlargement and efficiency. Our book, A General B.Y.P.U. Organization, is the standard textbook on the subject for which we give credit. We also publish free literature on the subject, and a general Standard of Excellence. Our churches everywhere are rapidly coming to this plan.

5. Associational B.Y.P.U. The development of the associational B.Y.P.U. is our plan for establishing B.Y.P.U. in every Baptist church. The associational B.Y.P.U. develops a force of volunteer workers in the association who can conduct training schools, enlargement campaigns, conventions and institutes.

6. Correspondence. A huge volume of correspondence with B.Y.P.U. workers in the churches is carried on by the B.Y.P.U. Department, and thousands of free tracts and other helps are sent out. In this way hundreds of our churches that cannot be reached by our field workers are helped.

SOUTHWIDE CONFERENCE TO BE HELD

The first Southwide Conference for B.Y.P.U. Workers will be held under the auspices of this department, in Memphis, December 31, 1929-January 1, 2, 1930. This will be for pastors, educational directors, state B.Y.P.U. officers, associational and city officers, Senior and Intermediate officers, Adult officers, General officers, and Junior and Intermediate leaders and sponsors. The program will be planned for the benefit of the workers of the churches, and will help all the state forces to project a greater program of B.Y.P.U. work in all parts of the Convention territory.

GAINS FOR THE YEAR

Organizations

Statistics compiled by Dr. E. P. Alldredge show 22,850 unions, with a membership of 500,564. This is a gain of 1,970 unions and 20,374 in membership.

Literature

For the past year the output of the Senior Quarterly was 1,048,000; the Intermediate was 516,000; the Junior was 532,000; the Intermediate Leader was 37,400; and the Junior Leader was 32,800. This shows a loss over the previous year of 42,000 for the Senior; a gain of 51,000 for the Intermediate; 20,500 for the Junior; 1,700 for the Intermediate Leader; and 4,100 for the Junior Leader. The Monthly B.Y.P.U. Magazine had a circulation of 185,600 for the year, a gain of 20,100 over last year.

Three thousand five hundred thirty-three A-1 unions were reported in 1927, and 3,534 in 1928.

ACCREDITED B.Y.P.U. STUDY COURSES

1. B.Y.P.U. Administration Course. The B.Y.P.U. Department of the Baptist Sunday School Board has a splendid course of studies to offer for B.Y.P.U. directors and general officers, all Senior officers and committees, pastors, and Junior and Intermediate leaders. The books are as follows:

"A General B.Y.P.U. Organization"—J. E. Lambdin. Cloth, 60 cents; paper, 40 cents.

Beginning with January 1, 1929, instead of the seal, Senior B.Y.P.U. Administration, given for the completion of the book, Senior B.Y.P.U. Administration, by Flake, a new seal marked, "Proficiency in Senior Methods," is granted to all holders of the B.Y.P.U. Administration diploma who have completed both the Senior B.Y.P.U. Manual and Senior B.Y.P.U. Administration. The Administration diploma will still be granted for the completion of the book, A General B.Y.P.U. Organization, by Lambdin.

"Junior and Intermediate B.Y.P.U. Leaders' Manual"—Ina Smith Lambdin. Cloth, 60 cents; paper, 40 cents.

The beautiful B.Y.P.U. Administration diploma is given for the completion of A General B.Y.P.U. Organization. It carries spaces for seals on the other books.

A mastery of these books means a thorough technical preparation for leadership in all grades of B.Y.P.U. work and in the General B.Y.P.U. Organization.

TRACTS AND PLAYS

Free tracts on every phase of B.Y.P.U. work are published and distributed by the B.Y.P.U. Department. These are also supplied to the state B.Y.P.U. departments for free distribution. These are put up in convenient packages as follows:

1. Envelope of free Helps for General Officers.
2. Envelope of free Helps for Senior Officers.
3. Envelope of free Helps for Intermediate Officers and Leaders.
4. Envelope of free Helps for Junior Officers and Leaders.
5. Envelope of free Helps for Associational B.Y.P.U. Officers.
6. Stewardship packet, containing tracts on "Stewardship of Life," "Stewardship of Money," "Choosing One's Life Work," "Treasurer and Missionary Committee," and a Stewardship Pledge.
7. Envelope of free Plays.

All the tracts and plays are listed in the B.Y.P.U. catalog, which is sent free upon request.

CHAPTER VII

*THE W.M.U. WORK OF SOUTHERN BAPTISTS

REPORT OF W.M.U. CORRESPONDING SECRETARY

By Kathleen Mallory

Forty years ago Woman's Missionary Union was the guest of Memphis Baptists just as it is this year for its annual meeting. Upon that very auspicious occasion large interest centered in the report concerning the W.M.U. offering of the preceding Christmas: great was the rejoicing because it reached $3,315.26, thus making possible the sending forth of three women missionaries as an "over-and-above" response to Miss Lottie Moon's appeal for two for the Pingtu field. When Mrs. Una Roberts Lawrence was collecting data for her biography of Miss Moon she found the following-stirring words, written by that tireless missionary just forty years ago:

"I plead for expectation. The only thing that binds God's arm is our lack of expectation." So said one speaker in Memphis in support of his resolution that $150,000 should be raised in the next Convention year for foreign missions. Missionaries plead for expectation! Expect that he will send "Thirty Seed Sowers" to Shantung: pray for it, work for it, and soon it will be an accomplished fact. Three of the thirty have been sent this year—now for the twenty-seven more!

Expectation in Prayer

Strength to ring out such a challenge came to Miss Moon not only because of her first-hand knowledge of the need for the additional missionaries but also because she knew, even as on his inauguration President Hoover "told the world," that "Where there is no vision the people perish," and she must also have remembered the words of Jesus: "All things whatsoever ye pray and ask for, believe that ye receive them and ye shall have them." Certainly the women members of the Woman's Missionary Union already believe in prayer as the dynamic of missions and will increasingly train up their young to expect "believing prayer" to be answered.

That prayer played a power part in the achievements of the Ruby Anniversary will be humbly seconded by the anniversary chairman. However, I want to give thanks also for the power thus generated in behalf of missions near and far and to entreat all who will to covenant to pray "for others" at least twenty minutes a day, even as we believe the members of the Intercessory League of Shut-ins will continue to do.

Visible proof of W.M.U. faith to pray is seen in the decided increase over the 1927 record as to the number of organizations observing the three seasons of prayer. For state missions there was special prayer by over 10,000 of our organizations; for home missions,

*Taken from the reports of the Baptist Woman's Missionary Union of the South, as these appear in the 1928 Annual.

by over 11,000; and for foreign missions last December, by over 12,000. In noting the gradual progression, it adds a note of expectancy to realize that for each season almost half of the "praying bands" were among our young people.

The treasurer's report will set forth the amounts contributed during those prayer-seasons but, remembering the Christmas Offering as perhaps the center of attraction in the W.M.U. meeting forty Mays ago, there is a radiant gratification in knowing that on April 16 the Foreign Mission Board had received from our 1928 December Lottie Moon Christmas Offering $218,784.55. Thus is realized the Master's promise, for the increase has been more than "sixty-fold."

One definition of the word expect is "to keep in view." Even so, day by day does the Calendar of Prayer remind us of S.B.C. missionaries on home and foreign fields. Fortunate is it that ROYAL SERVICE could secure as editor of the Calendar pages Mrs. Maud R. McLure, who from her fifteen years in the W.M.U. Training School feels for the missionaries when they, like Jesus, say from experience: "The laborers are few. Pray ye therefore."

Expectation in Study

Next to prayer might appropriately come study as a means of broadening the vision. Isaiah speaks of those who "err in vision": humanly speaking, the surest way to see aright the ever expanding horizon of the coming Kingdom is to study missionary programs and books. Unquestionably this was the policy pursued by thousands of Union members and organizations during 1928. For instance, they gathered in 23,197 mission study classes, nearly two-thirds of which were for adult women. Through these classes and otherwise there were awarded 132,335 small seals and 2,507 seals of other grades. One of the best meanings of expectation is "foresight"; such was the unselfish but also wise motive which found immediate fruition in the awarding of 206 honor certificates for the teaching of classes. Farsighted also were the 29 women who during 1928 completed the Advanced Mission Study Course, 13 of the 29 being from the one state of Virginia. Other states which also showed an increase over 1927 in such students were Ga., Ky., N. C. and Tenn., the increase for the entire Union being 10.

The year's advance over the 1927 record in mission study classes is also decidedly encouraging, being over 13% and having been largely due to the fact that only six states held fewer classes than during the previous year. Two states—N. C. and Okla.—show a gain of more than half as many classes as in 1927. Perhaps the best evidence of the expanding influence of such study is found in the fact that the 1928 record shows a gain (2/63) in the ratio of classes as compared with the number of organizations.

Just here it seems imperative to sound a note of warning because in 1928 there was an 11% loss over 1927's awarding of seals other than the small ones. Only four states advanced in this line: Ky., Miss., N. M. and Tex., the gain in N. M. being six-fold.

As for the small seals the general Union showed an increase of 2,277, whereas Miss. awarded over twice as many as in 1927. Good gains were also shown by eight other states. Lest anyone should think that it is not the "W.M.U. habit" to take the tests and win the seals, please make note of the fact that last year the Union averaged a small seal to every third woman and one to every fourth young person in W.M.U. organizations. Encouragement is also found in the 18% gain in honor certificates, the leading states being Arkansas with four times as many as in 1927 and Alabama with nearly five times her record of that year. Decided gains were shown too by eight other states. Isn't it fine that expectation includes the idea of contemplation and that mission study inevitably enhances one's contemplation of God's work and world?

An invaluable asset to mission study is leaflet literature. The W.M.U. Literature Department will render its own excellent report but by consulting the statistical tables of our headquarters it will be seen that leaflets and pamphlets—831,545—were furnished the state W.M.U. offices for free distribution.

Another choice by-product of mission study is the White Cross Work for S.B.C. foreign hospitals. The states which particularly emphasized it in 1928 were Oklahoma, Missouri, Kentucky and Virginia.

Expectation in Efficiency

In all the foregoing observations as to prayer and mission study there has been the recurring thought that both are integral to the purposes of the Union's Standards of Excellence for its graded organizations. Few indices as to W.M.U. progress are clearer than is the fact that societies for the women as well as the young people are aspiring to higher grading. For instance, the total number of organizations reaching only about four points—2,341—on their respective standards is less in each instance than the number reaching the three higher grades. Observe these higher grade records: Class C, with a total of 2,394 of which 1,285 are women's organizations; Class B, with a total of 2,984, there being 1,617 among the women; and Class A-1 with a total of 3,372 of which 1,145 were Women's Missionary Societies, the 1928 record as to each of these three higher grades as well as the Class D record showing marked increase over that of the corresponding grades in 1927. "Can you beat it for astonishingness" (to quote from a popular magazine writer) when you are told that Woman's Missionary Union has one in every three of its organizations reaching at least Class D, with one in every nine attaining the A-1 grade? The year's gain in A-1 organizations was 476. The A-1 ratio of 1 in 9 for the Union in general is also maintained by the individual states of Georgia, Kentucky, Mississippi and South Carolina, being surpassed by District of Columbia, Maryland and Virginia with their astonishing 1 in 6 average. In the foregoing record of 3,372 A-1 organizations are included at least 890 in the 178 A-1 S.B.C. churches, of which 52 were in Virginia, which gave Miss Lottie Moon to the mission enterprise. Did her challenge to expectancy envision such church enlistment? The only regret about the A-1 churches' record is that, even as in 1927, there are four states which have no such manifestation of missionary efficiency. However, each of the 14 "standard states" except one shows good increase over its preceding year's record, Alabama and Mississippi having more than twice as many A-1 churches as in 1927, with Illinois trebling its record.

Like expectant leaven these 179 A-1 churches are in the "whole lump" of 1,570 churches which in 1928 maintained Full Graded W.M.U.'s. In achieving this, the Union gratefully acknowledges that each state except one increased its Graded Unions of 1927, the victory in N. M. being two-fold.

Good gain is also shown in the number of S.B.C. churches—1,617—which lack only one W.M.U. organization to make them fully graded. There are 2,162 churches with three of our organizations, 3,112 with two and 5,080 with one, the "grand" total being 13,541 S.B.C. churches which have one or more W.M.U. organizations. Undoubtedly our Union waiteth "for the earnest expectation" of dauntless missionary organizers who will thus enlist the more than 10,700 remaining Southern Baptist churches!

Expectation in Stewardship

The marked increase over 1927 which is shown in the treasurer's report is not wholly due to the enthusiasm and sacrifice of the Ruby Anniversary, mighty factor though it was. Deeper down was the inground principle of Christian stewardship and the increased practice of tithing. This year the record was secured from all but two states as to the number of tithers—58,536—fourteen of them indicating how many were women—45,964—and how many were younger people—12,574. Comparing these totals with the membership records, it was found that every sixth W.M.S. member is a tither and that every sixteenth one of our W.M.U. young people is being "trained up in the way" the Union thinks they "should go" as stewards. The tabulation appended to this report will show that the average in 8 states is above that of the general Union, the record being exceptionally fine in District of Columbia, Florida, Illinois, Kentucky, New Mexico and Texas.

Expectation in Enlistment

Forty years ago in Memphis the young Union rejoiced in its recruits: even so does history repeat itself today, the record showing an increase in total organizations over the preceding year of more than 100 times the ruby 40, the increase being 4,264, which was a gain of one-sixth. However, the gain in Oklahoma was twice as good. In the total number of organizations—30,415—it is encouraging that more than half—18,787—are among the young people. May expectation soon materialize in there being four times as many W.M.U. organizations for the young people as for the women.

Another big task is to prevent loss through neglect of any society, the actual loss of the general Union being 2,141 organizations in 1928. Anticipation of "better days" is had in the fact that last year there were net gains as to total organizations in Georgia and Illinois and there were proportionately very slight losses in Alabama, Florida, Oklahoma and Tennessee.

As for new organizations—6,405—the results were so fine that one may "expect almost anything" this year. For instance, the number of new young people's organizations—4,974—is almost the coveted four-fold of those for women—1,431. Georgia, Oklahoma and South Carolina organized more than twice as many as they did in 1927, while 6 other states did almost equally well. The gain shown by the general Union is over one-third.

No finer heritage could come from the Ruby Anniversary than its enlistment and fostering zeal. By happy simile one is reminded that of all the precious stones the ruby excels in its ability to retain the warmth which comes from being rubbed. In this new era of W.M.U. activity may there be manifested the willingness to "keep on enlisting and fostering" W.M.U. organizations for southern Baptist women and young people, the present enrollment of which has passed the half-million mark—523,736—of which more than half are women.

Expectation in Service

The report of the Personal Service Committe shows that there was much "Christlike living in one's own community" during our anniversary year, thus proving that its emphasis upon increase in members, organizations and gifts was an impetus also to personal service. The committee's report is all the more gratifying in that it was made along different lines than heretofore. To use an automobile phrase—"the new in service"—is to "report only the number of societies conducting or helping in the various activities rather than as formerly the number of visits, etc. made possible through such activities." I heartily commend this new plan of reporting because I believe that it will result in more definite direction of such service through the Personal Service Committees of the societies.

Expectation in Introspection

My psychology professor warned against constant introspection but recommended it for occasional "checking up." Accordingly, you will find an appended table, showing the comparative records along many lines as made by the states in 1927 and 1928. Everybody knows with Shakespeare that "comparisons are odious" unless their sole purpose and expectation are to show tendencies which if correct may produce finer results. Therefore, many hours were spent on the appended tabulation: every state is requested to study in each instance whether or no it raised its own record over what it was in 1927. The point is not that a state ranks tenth, for instance, but did it rank above or below tenth in 1927 or did it "stand still." For example: 9 states advanced in ranking as to new organizations, 7 as to A-1 churches, 4 as to total organizations, 2 as to A-1 societies, 6 as to mission study classes, seals and Full Graded Unions and 8 as to honor certificates. Introspect as to your state and then confidently "expect 'greater things" because you and your co-workers will "attempt 'greater' things for God."

Expectation in Co-operation

The treasurer's report shows that W.M.U. organizations give loyally through the S.B.C. Co-operative Program. The word "expect" carries the meaning of "likelihood" and of "well-grounded hope": how fine it will be if next May the treasurer's report shows that "there was a reason" for the anticipated 10% increase in W.M.U. contributions to the S.B.C. Co-operative Program.

Personally, I want to express thanks for the co-operation which has been accorded me in my work with the various states and in general, wishing that I might call the entire roster. However, I must mention the helpfulness of Mrs. Cox, Miss Mather, Miss Winfield and the other local members as well as all others on the W.M.U. Executive Committee and the Council and the general and state Ruby Anniversary chairmen, remembering withal the regular and occasional field workers and the daily efficient co-operation of the Birmingham office force.

Grateful also am I for the privilege of attending the Toronto meeting of the Baptist World Alliance and for the "days afield" in Georgia, Kentucky, Mississippi, Alabama, Virginia, New Mexico, Tennessee, South Carolina and Louisiana. Several days were also spent in hospitable "House Beautiful" and in sessions of the S.B.C. Promotion Committee.

Co-operation was experienced to a marked degree in the editing of ROYAL SERVICE. The contributing editors and the printers have faithfully "lived up to their contracts," while many voluntary articles have been secured through the state leaders and the women missionaries. In expressing thanks for all such co-operation, I would not forget the individuals, committees and organizations that in 1928 increased the ROYAL SERVICE list by 2,940, bringing its total up to 78,352. In this achievement every state had a worthy part, the anticipated goals being attained by Georgia, Illinois, Maryland, Missouri, New Mexico and Virginia. Each state is "expected" to do likewise in behalf of the 82,000 goal for this calendar year of 1929.

Expectation in Hope

Paul speaks of his "earnest expectation and hope." The "heart" of the meaning of the word "hope" is "sanguine expectation." Remembering that the word "sanguine" means "blood-red," one does not marvel that Paul, the apostle who daily "took up his cross" and who "determined not to know anything save Jesus Christ and him crucified," had the hope of faith in addition to "reasonable" expectation. As one thinks of his missionary "faith and works" one also gives thanks for the tireless, though overworked S.B.C. women missionaries, calling in loving memorial the names of Mrs. John Lake of Canton, Mrs. E. A. Jackson of Rio de Janeiro, Miss Hazel Andrews of Yangchow and Martha Dawes of Tsinan. Even so do we feel the Union's loss and Heaven's gain in the home-going of Mrs. James Pollard and Miss Alice Armstrong of Baltimore—two women who more than forty years ago dauntlessly served in the organization and fostering of Woman's Missionary Union. As a secretary I also keenly miss the help which came through co-operation with Miss Lizzie Savage of Virginia and Mrs. J. G. Jackson of Arkansas.

When one contemplates the overwhelming loss through the ill-fated Vestris one gains hope because of the help which the Margaret Fund is rendering the remaining sons and daughters of the lamented Jacksons. Also do we rejoice in all the manifold helpfulness of that very missionary fund.

Thus the year's record has been brought to your attention. Why? Chiefly that you and I may accept the challenge of Miss Lottie Moon—"Expectation!"—and that henceforth the Ruby Anniversary may live on in the "blood-red expectation" of "the hope that is set before us."

REPORT OF YOUNG PEOPLE'S SECRETARY

BY JULIETTE MATHER

Recently the Research Committee of the National Geographic Society announced an additional grant of money to continue the support of the Solar Radiation Expedition in South West Africa. The scientists are attempting to "take the daily temperature of a sunbeam." With thousands of dollars, years of scientific thinking and superior equipment for this purpose, surely it is not unbecoming for us to devote a few moments to measuring the progress of our young people's activities in the missionary education organizations of Southern Baptist churches. It is gratifying to discover that the number of all our organizations shows a steady increase: Sunbeam Bands, 6,746; Girls' Auxiliaries, 5,296; Royal Ambassador Chapters, 2,931; Young Woman's Auxiliaries, 3,814; a total of 18,787 young people's organizations in W.M.U.

No doubt it is disconcerting to our scientists on their mountain top in Africa to have any cloudy moments invade their "sunshine search." It is truly perplexing to realize that out of this noble number of organizations many are not reaching as high a goal as they should for A-1 reports are obtained from only 754 Sunbeam Bands; 620 Girls' Auxiliaries; 369 Royal Ambassador Chapters; 484 Young Woman's Auxiliaries; this total of 1,227 A-1 organizations should be greatly enlarged by the close of 1929. Enlarge will still be the watchword, for our number of churches having full graded missionary education organizations should pass above 1,570. We honor the 179 churches whose mission organizations are all A-1. It can be done anywhere if there is sufficient interest in missions and young people.

A factor in lifting the tenor of our missionary education activity to a finer grade of efficiency will be found in the increasing numbers of camps and conferences provided by states or associations and districts for G.A.'s, R.A.'s, and Y.W.A's. Reports which include records from 16 states indicate 19 R.A. Camps, 26 G.A. and 15 Y.W.A. Camps in various states with totalled enrollment of about 2,260; the camps are in addition to the 64 mission classes at summer assemblies which reached more than 2,000 young people These classes at assemblies are largely from missionary texts rather than from methods books and manuals but the camps afford opportunity for both types of teaching becoming blessings in double measure to the young people. Because of the Baptist World Alliance meeting and a brief trip subsequent to it I attended only assemblies in Missouri and Oklahoma and camps in the same states with the addition of Arkansas and South Carolina. Ridgecrest Y.W.A. Camp had 325 young women and leaders present last summer; R. A. Camp enrolled some forty-five boys.

Week-end house parties and conferences in other than summer months are growing in popularity, Missouri adding a delightful Y.W.A. house party to Arkansas' and Kentucky's established ayatem of G.A. and R.A. conferences. This first Missouri house party had 250 young women in attendance and the period of information and inspiration was well worth while. The G.A. and R.A. conferences appeal to the best interests of the teen-age girl and boy and are proving highly beneficial personally and in expanding kingdom interests.

Another feature of missionary education work which is developing well is the city or association Y.W.A. Council; 32 are reported meeting quarterly for the stimulation in exchange of ideas and the enthusiasm of large meetings and special speakers. It was good during the year past to meet with Ocoee Association in Chattanooga, Shreveport, La., Norfolk and Roanoke, Va., Nashville, Tenn. and Greensboro, N. C., Y.W.A.'s on such occasion. A few G.A. and R.A. Federations are also being promoted.

Here the progress in ranking systems for R.A.'s and Forward Steps for G.A.'s can be publicly recognized, giving additional incentives to meeting the requirements for the several grades. The ranking system for R.A.'s has been in effect for a couple of years but the Forward Steps for G.A.'s added this past year has been referred to as "the biggest help at all" in encouraging the study and retaining of mission facts. City and associational Y.W.A.'s have found mission study weeks together interesting; the organizations in New Orleans, La., Oklahoma City, Okla., Greensboro, N. C. and Birmingham, Ala., planning together and letting me serve as teacher for their enthusiastic and large classes, the women or G.A.'s also bravely asking for an afternoon class the same week.

Many mission study classes are held in the individual organizations, for our young people report 7,829 classes held with 60,397 seals awarded those who successfully passed the examinations offered. The Y.W.A. course of study calls for five books before the awarding of the large Y.W.A. seal so it is interesting to note the 143 such marks of distinction sent out in 1928.

Our Woman's Missionary Union has sponsored for three years now a Tithing Story Contest, the states providing awards for each grade of missionary education. For the Y.W.A.'s a keener interest is developed through the southwide competition. The interest in the contest will no doubt be greater in this year as more will have learned about it, but tithing messages are reaching the hearts of our young people in some way and 12,577 tithers are reported from our organizations. It is hoped that the contest will increase interest in the study and consequently in the practice of tithing.

The Grace McBride Y.W.A.'s have been growing in number and earnestness of activity during 1928 and 15 report now.

Our college Y.W.A.'s also are proving that they realize that world visions are necessary for college young women; 77 such organizations report with 41 A-1. The Honor Roll of College Y.W.A.'s is viewed with keen interest and real appreciation for it marks good serious planning and performance of programs, mission study and the other correlated activities of Y.W.A. During the year it was my privilege to visit some of the colleges in South Carolina, Arkansas, Tennessee, Louisiana, Oklahoma, Mississippi and North Carolina.

College Y.W.A. Bulletin has carried programs and working suggestions out to the college organizations all this year. We hope to introduce this summer a new Y.W.A. magazine which will be even more attractive than the College Y.W.A. Bulletin. The plan is for it to be a printed monthly with personal appeal as well as organizational value. All Y.W.A.'s are watching eagerly for it. World Comrades grows in its number of subscriptions reaching its goal of 15,722 for last year and setting a new aim of 16,450. Alabama, Arkansas, Georgia, Missouri, New Mexico, Oklahoma, Tennessee, Texas and Virginia starred for passing their goal quotas in subscriptions last year. More and more the value of World Comrades is being appreciated as an agency in girdling the world with friendliness and Southern Baptist homes where there are children are desiring the magazine for its broadening and uplifting influences.

Mrs. R. K. Redwine has been invaluable in planning the Y.W.A. programs appearing in Royal Service; and Mrs. Irvin Lawrence has helped with College Y.W.A. programs. She and Miss Hannah Reynolds, Mrs. Albert Thomas and Mrs. C. S. Marks have served as program editors for World Comrades. I am thankful for them all and for the friends of artistic ability and the missionaries who have contributed stories for World Comrades' success.

Greeting a radio audience on his birthday Thomas A. Edison suggested that his efforts be considered proof of his affection for his friends. Will you not interpret my efforts in that light also? I find my heart most grateful to all the many who have received me into their homes, welcomed me at camps, assemblies, colleges, and contributed to my pleasure and expedition in travel by using their cars for my transportation. The state leaders know that my endeavor would be of but little avail without their excellent plans for my work when coming to their state and our fellowship sharing of the whole task which gives the strength born of unity to each; my heart rejoices for this harmony of workmanship. I could not fail to mention especially Mrs. Cox's thoughtful hospitalities and the stimulating conferences with her, Miss Mallory's generous counsel, Miss Winfield's constant "genius for helpfulness" and the willing assistance of the office force in Birmingham. And may it not be that wherein I have failed to render the best service, even the Father will recognize the effort as proof of devotion to his Kingdom's work?

BAPTISTS AND OTHER FAITHS IN THE SOUTH IN 1926

The following table, based upon the finding of the Bureau of the Census, and covering the year 1926, sets out very clearly the Home Mission task of Southern Baptists:

STATES	Total Baptists White and Colored	All Other Faiths	Unchurched Masses
Alabama	672,800	544,370	1,308,831
Arizona	8,380	144,708	291,022
Arkansas	290,057	333,250	1,281,741
District of Columbia	55,245	183,626	289,009
Florida	213,406	315,659	788,695
Georgia	814,180	536,004	1,788,778
Illinois	246,187	3,111,767	1,912,979
Kentucky	427,041	624,463	1,472,706
Louisiana	255,951	781,057	881,583
Maryland	51,618	706,428	822,222
Mississippi	451,467	349,262	989,889
Missouri	280,357	1,300,921	1,916,865
New Mexico	10,007	205,540	172,590
North Carolina	651,971	754,912	1,450,963
Oklahoma	194,939	386,144	1,761,391
South Carolina	456,412	416,391	953,215
Tennessee	435,977	582,094	1,449,608
Texas	759,964	1,520,550	3,032,147
Virginia	553,398	618,965	1,346,226
Totals	6,820,357	13,415,512	22,911,069

Note 1. The total population of the South in 1926 (including the Baptists, other Faiths, and the Unchurched as outlined above) was 43,047,938. Since Southern Baptist work in Illinois is confined to the Southern one-fourth of that state, we must deduct 2,915,821 from the "Unchurched" of Illinois, leaving the Southern Baptist Home Mission field with 42,132,938 souls.

Note 2. About 26% of our Southern people are under ten years of age. This would leave us with 17,922,855 in 1926 who were ten years old and up, without any church connection; and this number has passed the 18,000,000 mark in 1928!

Note 3. The states of Alabama, Georgia, Mississippi and South Carolina have more Baptists, counting all varieties, than persons of all other faiths combined; while Arkansas, North Carolina, Tennessee and Virginia have almost as many Baptists as all others. On the other hand, the proportion of the Baptists to other faiths in Florida, Kentucky, Louisiana, Oklahoma and Texas has shown a very distinct gain for the Baptists in the past ten years.

*It is very difficult to arrive at the number of church members among Catholics, Lutherans and Anglicans (Episcopalians); and the figures here set down are meant to cover their entire baptized membership. We do not attempt to deduct the large numbers from all these groups who are "fallen away" or who do not now practice their faith.

There are 250,000 or more "preparatory members not in full connection" included in this list of Methodist members, which should be deducted from this total.

GREAT BENEFACTIONS OF 1928

"American stewards of great wealth rained millions into the coffers of philanthropy during 1928, the grand total, according to incomplete tabulations compiled by the John Price Jones Corporation, reporting to the Associated Press, reaching the amazing sum of $2,330,000,000. This is more than $100,000,000 in excess of the sum given in 1927, and more than $600,000,000 in excess of the total philanthropies of 1921. Nearly 500 lump sums of $1,000,000 or more were given to religious, educational, scientific, social, and a variety of other causes. The spirit of national gratification is practically universal in columns of comment. The Philadelphia Inquirer, for instance, says that the moral of all this giving can not be too strongly emphasized. "It is that the most prosperous people in the world are also the most generous. We work, and we work hard, not for money itself, but for the good that may be done with it. We have been accused by some misanthropes of being a nation of money-grabbers, but back of our industry are the joy of achievement and the satisfaction of accomplishment." The steady increase in the vast enterprise of philanthropy is shown in the following table:

Year	Total Benefactions
1921	$1,719,000,000
1922	1,787,760,000
1923	1,858,310,000
1924	2,008,320,000
1925	2,068,570,000
1926	2,182,680,000
1927	2,312,700,000

"The largest benefactions were those of Payne Whitney, who bequeathed $60,000,000 to libraries, hospitals, and other institutions. Of this nearly $26,000,000 went to create a trust fund to promote educational and scientific progress. New York Hospital received $18,632,000; the New York Public Library received $6,210,725; the medical colleges of Cornell and Yale Universities each received $2,823,057, and the Croton Preparatory School, $1,129,222. There were also other smaller benefactions. Next in size were the Rockefeller donations, totaling about $30,000,000. The Laura Spelman Rockefeller Memorial voted $5,000,000 to the Great Smoky Mountains National Park, $1,000,000 for the teaching of religion in the University of Chicago, and $2,000,000 for Brooklings Institute, Washington. John D. Rockefeller, Jr., gave between $4,000,000 and $5,000,000 for the restoration of the historic town of Williamsburg, Virginia, $2,000,000 to the City University of Paris, and a like amount for a museum in Jerusalem. The Rockefeller Foundation gave $3,500,000 conditionally to Cambridge University, England. The General Education Board promised $3,000,000 to Harvard, and $1,416,666 to Cornell. There were numerous smaller donations. As the rest of the report is summarized in the New York Times:

"'Many of the largest contributions went toward the assistance of education and allied research. George C. Booth of Detroit gave $6,500,000 to Cranbrook Foundation for an educational and cultural center. Edward S. Harkness was reported to have given $3,000,000 to Harvard; James G. Cutler left $2,650,000 to the University of Rochester; Chauncey M. Depew left $1,000,000 to Yale. Yale also received $1,000,000 from Abram E. Fitkin of New York. Julius Rosenwald promised $2,000,000 to the University of Chicago. A. P. Giannini gave $1,500,000 to the University of California; Leonard D. and Arthur J. Baldwin of East Orange, New Jersey, gave $1,500,000 to convert Drew Theological Seminary into a university.

"'M. C. Taylor of New York gave $1,500,000 to Cornell University; Mr. and Mrs. Albert D. Lasker gave $1,000,000 to the University of Chicago. The Charles M. Hall estate gave $2,000,000 to Harvard for education in the Orient. Mrs. Annie C. Kane of New York gave $1,000,00 to Columbia, and the same amount to the Home for Incurables. James Ward Packard gave $1,200,000 to Lehigh University. Edwin Webster Sanborn left $1,500,000 to Dartmouth College, to which the F. Augustus Schermerhorn estate gave $1,158,000.

"'John J. Raskob gave $1,000,000 to create the Bill Raskob Foundation for poor children and orphans. R. R. Fogel left $1,500,000 to the Pacific Hebrew Orphan Asylum and Home Society, San Francisco. Fred J. Fisher of Detroit gave $1,000,000 to the Little Sisters of the Poor. Milton S. Hershey gave $2,000,000 to be used in the construction of a Community Center in the town of Hershey, near Harrisburg, Pennsylvania.

"'One of the largest benefactions to hospitals was that of $5,000,000 left to St. Luke's Hospital here by the late Mrs. Mary Ann Fitzgerald. Uri T. Hungerford gave $2,500,000 to the Charlotte Hungerford Hospital at Torrington, Connecticut. Mrs. John I. Kane left $1,000,000 to New York Orthopedic Dispensary and Hospital. The New York Public Library will receive the principal of the $1,300,000 estate of the late John R. Slattery.

"'Felix M. Warburg gave $1,000,000 to the American Jewish Joint Agricultural Corporation for the establishment of Jewish agricultural colonies in Russia. The late Morris Schinasi, cigaret manufacturer, bequeathed $1,000,000 for the erection of a hospital at Magnesia, Asia Minor, where the donor was born. Mr. and Mrs. George Blumenthal gave $1,000,000 to the Metropolitan Museum to acquire art treasures.

"'Julius Rosenwald gave $2,000,000 to the Rosenwald Fund, bringing it to more than $20,000,000, all of which must be spent within twenty-five years for the betterment of humanity.'"

SUNDAY SCHOOLS OF THE WORLD

1928

Increase in the fact determined by a careful compilation of the statistics showing the Sunday school membership throughout the world. A statistical survey is made every four years by the World's Sunday School Association for presentation at its quadrennial Convention. The following compilation was completed for the tenth convention, which was held at Los Angeles, Calif., July 11-18:

SUNDAY SCHOOL MEMBERSHIP OF THE WORLD

1924-1928 Increase	9,146	68,821	254,014	337,611

*Estimate. Since U. S. census data is not available figures are the same as reported to the Ninth Convention, Glasgow, 1924. From definite reports received there is evidence of an increase [illegible] in the U. S. A.

Since the figures for the United States and Canada are the same as reported in 1924 it will be seen that the increase is from those countries in Europe and in non-Christian lands where the World's Sunday School Association has placed its twenty-four field secretaries.—Presbyterian Magazine for March, 1929.

BAPTIST CHAPLAINS

(Taken from American Baptist Year Book 1928)

BAPTIST CHAPLAINS' CLUB

Organized in Buffalo, N. Y., June 28, 1926.

OFFICERS

President
Chap. L. J. Velte, Rutherford, N. J.
Secretary-Treasurer
Chap. C. A. Carman, Galesburg, Ill.

The foregoing Officers together with Chaplains W. S. Booth, Rutherford, N. J., and S. A. Derup, Plainfield, N. J., constitute the Governing Board.

Object. To cement the fellowship of Baptist ministers who served as chaplains in the great war and those now in service; and to secure the co-operation of the churches in the work of our chaplains now in service. Also to secure and guard legislation relative to the chaplains' work.

Eligibility. Baptist ex-chaplains and chaplains now in service are requested to send their names, rank, and name of units, stations, or ships, where last served, or now serving, to the Secretary.

White, Richmond, Corresponding Secretary; Mr. F. T. Crump, Richmond, Treasurer; Miss Katherine Harris, Richmond, Young People's Secretary. The W.M.U. of Virginia meets in Bristol, October 29 to November 1, 1929.

ROSTER OF ORDAINED MINISTERS

We are presenting herewith the full list of our Southern Baptist ministers, with all corrections to August 1, 1929, which have come to our attention in any way. There are more names on this list than any list yet published; and yet we dare say there are perhaps 200 not yet included, because we were not able to learn the facts. We will thank our editors in particular if they will have the kindness to note, in their columns, all ministerial changes from week to week; and we will likewise take it as a great favor if all our ministers will notify us by post card when they change their fields of labor and particularly when they change their post office address or even their street address.

CLASSIFICATION OF ORDAINED MINISTERS

In the roster of ordained ministers among Southern Baptists we are attempting to observe the following classification, viz.:

P. stands for Pastors or Assistant Pastors
E. stands for Evangelists
D. M. stands for District or Association Missionaries
S. M. stands for State Missionaries and State Workers of all types
H. M. stands for Home Missionaries
F. M. stands for Foreign Missionaries
T. stands for Teachers in Christian Schools
P. S. stands for Presidents or Presidents of Schools or Colleges
Ed. stands for Editors
S. H. stands for Superintendents of Hospitals
S. O. stands for Superintendents of Orphanages
S. S. stands for State Executive Secretaries
D. S. stands for Departmental Secretaries
C. S. stands for General or Corresponding Secretaries
St. stands for Student Ministers

We will thank the brotherhood to help us correct this classification. Use a post card and address E. P. Alldredge at 161 Eighth Avenue, North, Nashville, Tenn.
