Standpoint

The future can be claimed only a breath at a time. Only in the providence of God can we continue to sow and reap. One wonders just how much time Southern Baptists and other evangelicals yet have to share and magnify the gospel of redemption. How awesome is the commission, and our responsibility, in the precarious world situation.

Statistics reported in this HANDBOOK issue tend to confirm the concern of many who are calling for a renewed vitality and effectiveness in Southern Baptists' witness. The churches still report growth and numerical success in particular areas. On the other hand, trends of lessened rate of increase, or even actual decreases, are quite evident. How much longer will Southern Baptists show increases in levels of giving and at the same time experience slowdowns in educational enrolments, baptisms, and additions by letter?

Certainly, there is every reason for the denomination's churches to quickly gird themselves for a gigantic awakening. The divine compulsion, as ever, confronts us wherever we turn. The sad bleating of millions of lost sheep throughout the world should be pounding in our ears. Our individual sense of inadequacy and need for spiritual renewal must propel us into the mainstream of God's purpose.

Deep appreciation is expressed for church and associational clerks, state convention personnel, department staff members, and others whose faithful and efficient work is involved in making this HANDBOOK a reality.

Significant Effect on Statistics Caused By Revised Procedures

Certain procedures for processing denominational statistics have undergone major revision and are reflected for the first time in some of the 1965 figures reported in this volume.

Contrary to the practice in previous years, no estimates were included for particular enrolments or other figures not reported by a church. In cases where a church failed to report an enrolment in 1965 for an organization which had been reported the previous year, efforts were made to verify (by correspondence) the omission. If churches failed to respond to the verification attempt, the omission was taken to be valid. This policy of using only those figures actually reported by churches resulted in a significant downward adjustment in the following enrolments: Training Union, Woman's Missionary Union, Brotherhood, and Music Ministry. Sunday School enrolment was affected only slightly, compared to the four above. To a significant, but unknown degree the decreases shown by these enrolments are due to procedural revisions. Estimated "real" or true change in the enrolments cannot be determined at this time.

Figures for such items as Vacation Bible School enrolment, baptisms, and additions by letter were not affected by the change in procedures.

Another revision involves churches who fail to submit any report for three or more consecutive years. Previous to 1965, churches were "dropped" upon their third year of not reporting. Beginning in 1965, such churches will be included in the count of churches but considered as "inactive." No portion of the last-known record of the church will be included in other statistics. The number of such "inactive" churches will be indicated at appropriate spots in this and future Handbook volumes.

Because of the revised procedures, the 1965 figures specified above are not conceptually comparable to those of earlier years. Any comparisons involving these figures should be made with caution and with a full awareness of effects caused by the procedural changes.

CHURCH LOCATION CLASSIFICATIONS USED IN VARIOUS SUMMARIES THIS YEAR

Open Country church—one located in a rural area such that (1) it is not immediately adjacent to an incorporated township or city, (2) it is likely surrounded by land not used for urban purposes, and (3) a sizable portion of its member families reside in the surrounding non-urban area.

Village—incorporated or unincorporated place (1) having less than 500 population, (2) surrounded by open country, and (3) not adjacent to a town or city.

Town—place having a population between 500 - 2,499.

City (2,500 - 9,999 pop.) church—one located in a city with 2,500 - 9,999 population or its suburbs whose member families (sizable portion) work in a city.

Areas in city having population of 10,000 or more

Downtown—central business and main retail store area (see A at left).

Neighborhood—residential and industrial areas between the central business area and the suburbs (see B at left).

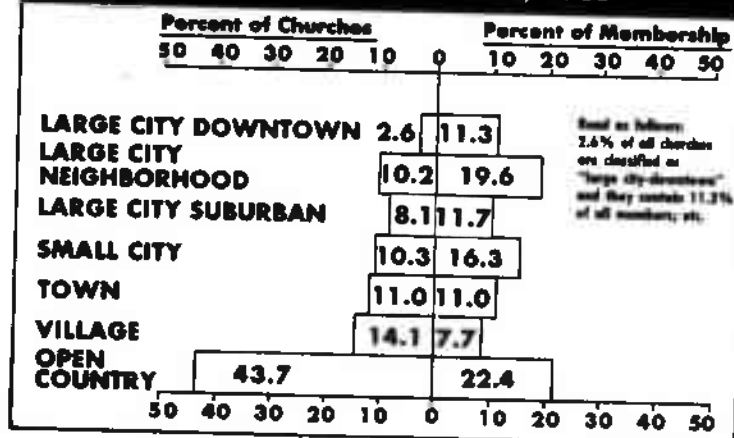

Suburbs—outlying areas usually adjacent to neighborhood or older areas of city; often new residential areas at edge of city which may or may not be within the city limits (see C at left).

Note: Many figures shown are affected by changes in determining church location classifications in 1964 and 1965.
 Note: Churches in newly organized Utah-Idaho Baptist Convention were formerly in Arizona Baptist Convention.
 Note: The comparison of the 1965 figure with that of 1964 does not indicate a true change. The difference in the two years' figures represents the combined effect of a slight downward adjustment (due to revision in the handling of incomplete reports) in the 1965 figures and an unknown "real" change (increase or decrease).

Note: Many figures shown are affected by changes in determining church location classifications in 1964 and 1965.
 Note: Churches in newly organized Utah-Idaho Baptist Convention were formerly in Arizona Baptist Convention.
 Note: The comparison of the 1965 figure with that of the preceding year is shown in the "one country" column. The "two years" figures represents the combined effect of a sizable downward adjustment (due to revision in the handling of incomplete reports) in the 1965 figure and an unknown "real" change (increase or decrease).

 Note: Many figures shown are affected by changes in determining church location classifications in 1964 and 1965.
 Note: The comparison of the 1965 figure with that of 1964 does not indicate a true change. The difference in the two year's figures represents the combined effect of a sizable downward adjustment (due to revision in the handling of incomplete reports) in the 1965 figure and an unknown "real" change (increase or decrease).
 Note: The comparison of the 1965 figure with that of 1964 does not indicate a true change. The difference in the two year's figures represents the combined effect of a sizable downward adjustment (due to revision in the handling of incomplete reports) in the 1965 figure and an unknown "real" change (increase or decrease).

Note: Many figures shown are affected by changes in determining church location classifications in 1964 and 1965.
 Note: Churches in some original Utah-Idaho Baptist Conventions were formerly in Arizona Baptist Conventions.
 Note: The comparison of the 1965 figure with that of 1964 does not indicate a true change. The difference in the two years' figures represents the combined effect of a sizable downward adjustment (due to revision in the handling of incomplete reports) in the 1965 figure and an unknown "real" change (increase or decrease).

Note: Many figures shown are affected by changes in determining church location classifications in 1964 and 1965.
 Note: Churches in newly organized Utah-Idaho Baptist Convention were formerly in Arizona Baptist Convention.
 Note: The comparison of the 1965 figure with that of 1964 does not indicate a true change. The difference in the two years' figures represents the combined effect of a membership downward adjustment (due to revision in the handling of incomplete reports) in the 1965 figure and an unknown "real" change (increase or decrease).

Note: Many figures shown are affected by changes in determining church location classifications in 1964 and 1965.
 Note: Churches in newly organized Utah-Idaho Baptist Convention were formerly in Arizona Baptist Convention.
 Note: The comparison of the 1965 figure with that of 1964 does not indicate a true change. The difference in the two years' figures represents the combined effect of a sizable downward adjustment due to revision in the handling of incomplete reports in the 1965 figure and an unknown "real" change (increase or decrease).

*S.B.A.'s dropped from 1941.
 *Figures include statistics from the churches as well as college and hospital Y.W.A's.
 *Reported membership in 1915. Some churches have changed.
 *Inactive churches are included for the first time. "Inactive" refers to those still affiliated with the Convention, but who have not submitted a report for three or more years.

Will a marriage fail or succeed?

For a young marriage to succeed, the factors surrounding it have to be favorable. This "success forecast," adapted from one by Lee G. Burchinal of the U.S. Office of Education in Journal of Marriage and the Family, shows how the circumstances can affect the outcome.

	poor chance of success	maybe	best chance of success
AGE	both 17 or under	she 17, he at least 20	she at least 18, he 20 or over
EDUCATION	both dropouts	she a dropout, he a high school graduate	both high school graduates; he has postgraduate training
PREGNANCY	premarital	immediately after marriage	delayed at least a year after marriage
LENGTH OF ACQUAINTANCE-SHIP	less than 6 months, no engagement period	at least a year, with 6-month engagement or "understanding"	several years, with 6-month engagement or "understanding"
DATING EXPERIENCE	limited, went steady almost right away	some before meeting mate	played the field, went steady before
PERSONALITY	immature, limited interests, poor social life	mixed	mature, competent, lots of friends
REASON FOR MARRYING	impulse, "wanted to"	she preferred marriage to career; previously both may have had plans to go on with education	no post high school ambitions, marriage and family really desired, want independence
PARENTS	both low in income and education	mixed	middle-class or above
PARENTS' ATTITUDE	strongly opposed, try to interfere	resigned acceptance or mild opposition	backed the marriage once decision made, help offered without strings attached
MONEY	dependent on relatives	almost independent, even if near hardship level	enough income to stay above hardship level
RESIDENCE	live with in-laws or relatives	live part of the time with relatives	have own place

Quarterly Review

Learn the value of telling secrets in this dynamic book by a Swiss physician and psychiatrist.

Secrets

by Paul Tournier

Keeping a secret is the first step in becoming an individual; telling it, the second step, is even more important. Those who never give of themselves remain individuals. Those who tell their secrets—voluntarily—forge a link with others and become persons. An excellent book for pastors, teachers, and parents. (5k) $2.00

CHRIST SPEAKS

THROUGH HIS FIRST SEVEN WORDS . . .

SEVEN FIRST WORDS OF JESUS

by J. Winston Pearce

We often think of, and analyze the "seven last words" of Jesus. Dr. Pearce feels that we should also study seriously Christ's "first seven words." Among the chapters are "My Father's Business"; "Not of Bread Alone"; "Away with You, Satan"; and "The Time Has Come at Last."

THROUGH THE LORD'S PRAYER . . .

THE OTHER DIMENSION

by Ralph L. Murray

The Lord's Prayer is probably as familiar as the "pledge of allegiance" to most Americans. Still, there are unexplored depths in these simple, but powerful words. Here are nine brief meditations that "speak" to the needs of twentieth-century Christians. (26b)

THROUGH EVANGELISM . . .

THE THEOLOGY OF EVANGELISM

by C. E. Autrey

Defines the doctrine of evangelism for seminary students and pastors. Chapters include "The Doctrine of Motivation," "The Doctrine of the Church," and "Doctrines of the Evangelistic Message." (26b)
