Standpoint

Statistically, 1969 was a year of ups and downs for Southern Baptists.

Among church educational organization enrollments, only Church Music showed an increase. Total and mission giving were up, yet allowances for the rise in salaries and wages nationally would account for the dollar increase in gifts. The level of real financial stewardship was at best holding its own.

In the face of this, another "so-so" year, Southern Baptists seem to be doing several things.

Some are becoming pessimistic and defeatist. Some are intensifying their rationalization of the trends, hoping thereby to cause a gnawing discomfort to disappear.

Perhaps even more, however, are continuing in an earnest way, with sleeves rolled up, to steer the ship back onto a progressive course. If hard work and enlightened use of leadership skills can provide the spark, then look out, world!

A new spirit and genuine optimism has reportedly emerged from Shaping the Seventies efforts throughout the country. Churches seem eager to try new programs and curriculum resources.

Surely, if signs have been properly read by Convention leaders, a time of fruitfulness—and statistical turnaround—is approaching.

A salute of deep gratitude is due those who helped accumulate and produce the information on succeeding pages—faithful church and associational clerks, state convention personnel, department staff members, and countless others.

Lot this down!

If you live in an area where JOT has been shown on television, your children are all familiar with this lovable little character. JOT is really just an animated dot, but it gets into all the predicaments that a young boy is capable of getting into. JOT has the capacity to feel guilt and shame for doing something wrong and the ability to convey to young audiences that it is not right to steal and lie. He also shows what it means to share, cooperate, forgive, and to do unto others as you would have them do unto you.

- JOT episodes are available from Baptist Film Centers in the following titles:
- JOT'S CUPCAKE CHASE (Lying)
 - TOY SOUNDS FOR JOT (Stealing)
 - DIRTY HANDS (Disobedience)
 - JOT HITS A HOMER (Integrity)
 - NIGHT ADVENTURE (God's presence)
 - BIRTHDAY PARTY (Sharing)
 - A LIBRARY VISIT (Responsibility)
 - THE SUNDAY SCHOOL STORY (Happiness in God's House)
 - THE PLAYGROUND INCIDENT (Do Unto others)
 - THE CREATION (The story of the Creation)
 - NOAH AND THE FLOOD (Meaning of the rainbow)
 - THE BUILDING PROJECT (Cooperation)
 - THE PAINT INCIDENT (Encouraging forgiveness)

JOT was created for use with children in the age group from 4 to 10. It effectively communicates moral teachings on a variety of subjects. Each episode is approximately 4 and 1/2 minutes in length and is a combination of full-color cartoons and exciting JOT sounds. Rental, $5.00. The Problem Solvers.

"Get Me to the Church on Time" is a song title familiar to almost everyone. When a Southern Baptist church calls for a particular filmstrip or other merchandise item for Sunday—on Saturday—Baptist Book Stores swing into a fast-paced routine they've perfected over many years of service to get that order "to the church on time." We're proud of our performance record of on-time dependability, and will continue to do our best to insure that the teaching and training helps your church requires are there on Sunday. Should we fail, we hope the blame will be mechanical—not human—error, like a broken down bus.
