¹Includes 580 nonreporting churches. Nonreporting refers to those still affiliated with the Convention but who have not submitted a report for three or more years.

²Includes Campus BYW as well as church statistics.

³Includes small amounts of income from fees, rentals, etc.

⁴1985 data.

⁵Not a state convention but to be shown as part of SBC statistics.

⁶YBS statistics based on YBS reports or UCL statistics with the exception of Puerto Rico which is exclusively from UCL.

⁷Data influenced upward by instructions making 1986 reports of many Alabama churches not comparable with their 1985 reports and with 1986 reports for other state conventions.

⁸The above summary of statistics for churches is based on collaborative input of churches, associations, state conventions, and Convention Executive Committee offices. A specific church's relationship to an association, a state convention, or the SBC is determined solely by each of these respective autonomous Baptist bodies.

⁹*41 churches and missions transferred to the newly formed Canadian Convention of Southern Baptists (see page 6)

⁹A Japanese ethnic religion. Shinto declined rapidly after the Japanese emperor surrendered his claim to divinity (1947); a revival of cultic emphasis in recent years has had chiefly literary significance. Shinto does not survive well outside Japan.

¹⁰Buddhism has produced several renewal movements in the last century that have gained adherents in Europe and America. Although persecuted in Tibet and sometimes elsewhere in Asia, it has shown greater staying power than other religions of the East. It also transplants better.

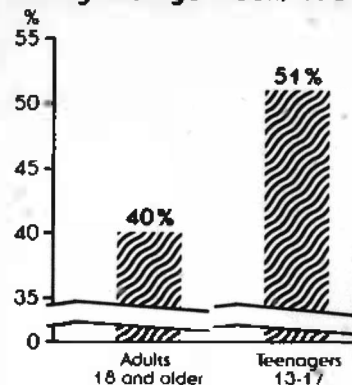

¹¹Hinduism's strength in India has been enhanced by its connection with the national movement, a phenomenon also observable in the world of Islam. Modern Hinduism has developed several renewal movements that have won some adherents in areas outside traditional Hindu territory.
