Baptists And Federal Aid to Education

By CHAS. W. POPE

Tennessee Baptist schools are at the crossroads of destiny! Baptists are justly proud of their schools. They have a glorious history of faithful service. Some of them meet the high standards of high accrediting agencies; they emphasize Christian principles and stress Christian character; they are indispensable to the progress of our denomination.

But, a crisis has been thrust upon our schools and colleges! Their future usefulness is at stake. Recently a bill providing for Federal aid to education passed the Congress. Federal aid to education means higher educational standards by providing funds for better buildings, improved equipment, and higher salaries for faculties of schools which qualify for this aid.

Baptists, because of their historical position on complete separation of church and state, cannot accept Federal aid for denominational schools. This means that Baptists must provide the funds for raising the standards of their own schools or allow them to be relegated to the level of mediocrity. The latter course would mean that the great majority of Baptists would cease to patronize their own schools. BAPTISTS MUST PRESERVE THEIR TIME-HONORED PRINCIPLES! To hold the respect and patronage of our people Baptist schools must keep pace with educational progress. Shut out from Federal aid, will Baptists support their own schools? We believe they will.

The Christian Education offering in June will offer a new test to Baptist loyalty! It is the only offering for Christian education during the entire year. It is a part of the Cooperative Program system. Let's do something worthy for our schools! Let's show them when they stand by our great Baptist principles that Baptists will stand by them!

Discussion of Current Events

CURRENT ISSUES are debatable matters which have a present interest. Communism is an example. But a discussion on a theme which has an absorbing interest for some makes no appeal to others.

Current issues may be educational, or social, or economic, or religious. Religiously speaking, some of these issues are: Regeneration versus formalism; salvation by grace versus salvation by works or grace plus works; the inspiration, trustworthiness and authority of the Scriptures versus rationalism; and sound Bible doctrine and practice versus liberalism and unionism.

Some who profess great interest in current issues are bored, or disgusted, or angered by the discussion of such themes as those just indicated. But the real hope of mankind rests upon these deeper and more basic things. At the bottom and in their ultimate effects, these things are greater than all secular issues and even moral issues.

Certain current issues have not been discussed by us. Either we felt that they were not within our province, or that we were not sufficiently informed, or we have seen far abler men discuss them without our being able to reach a conclusion. Why should "smaller fry" undertake it?

Baptist and Reflector believers in majoring on primary things. Hence, it discusses religious issues more than anything else. Yet it is not altogether devoid of discussion of admittedly current issues of present interest.

The other day we decided to investigate. We took up the volume of 1948 Baptist and Reflectors and counted the number of times we editorially discussed such current issues that year. We found that we had done this an average of three times a month. In addition, articles along the same lines were carried.

Yes, Baptist and Reflector discusses current events.

When Orthodoxy Dispenses Heresy

THE SOUND Baptist brother who sells books may thereby send out some unbaptistic material.

For instance, he may recommend and sell as the best edition of the Bible the Scofield Reference Bible. Scofield is sound on most evangelical terms, but he is heretical on the church. Some of his prophetic interpretations are true while the others will not stand the test of accurate exegesis. Some of his notes are right and some of them are wrong. Also this brother may sell still other books which in some particulars are not true to the Baptist faith.

But the excellencies of these various books sufficiently exceed their deficiencies to justify the distribution of them in order to get the good features to the people. Presumably, the reader will know how to eat the banana and throw away the peeling, or eat the corn and throw away the cob.

A seller of books cannot stay in business and sell only those books which plumb the Baptist line all along the line. Neither the number of such books nor the income from them is sufficient. So where the good points adequately outnumber the bad points, he is warranted in selling books which do not in all particulars ring the Baptist bell, provided the failure to ring it is not too marked and dangerous, as, for instance, when the wrong plan of salvation is presented.

However, this brother and his supporters are honor-bound to be fair to the Baptist Sunday School Board and its book-stores, which may at times sell certain books which may not be Baptist in all particulars. Let him not criticise the Board and its stores for doing the same thing which he does, and for the same reasons.

Christian Education

TEXTBOOKS in mathematics, history, science and so on are not, in themselves, either Christian or unchristian. But those who teach these subjects ought to be Christians and so teach as to leave a Christian impress.

There is a vast difference between Christians teaching academic subjects in loyalty to "the faith once delivered to the saints" and non-Christians teaching them in such a way as to undermine that faith. The Christian teacher does not so instruct as to slur, or depreciate, or undermine the revealed faith but so instructs that that faith is upheld and respected.

The teachers in our Baptist schools in Tennessee are loyal Christians. Skeptics or other unbelievers are not produced by them.

O. E. Sams, a former president of Carson-Newman College, once gave a definition of a Christian school which we believe cannot be excelled. He said that the Christian school is one "which conforms its curriculum to the Word of God instead of conforming the Word of God to its curriculum." Our Tennessee Baptist schools are in this class.

June 26 is Christian Education Day. The gifts of our people on that day go toward paying the tuition of Tennessee Baptist preachers in these Baptist schools. Heretofore these contributions have not been sufficient for this purpose. Let them be made sufficient this year.

On June 26, or on the nearest convenient Sunday, let our people respond worthily to this exceedingly important enterprise. And remember that such gifts are not extra to but included in the Cooperative Program.

A Digest of Religious Thought

By RUSSELL BRADLEY JONES, Contributing Editor, CHATTANOOGA, TENNESSEE

Significant Trends

Southern Baptist Home Missions

Those who are keeping abreast with world movements today might consider the following trends as significant in the religious world: (1) formation of the World Council of Churches; (2) overtures toward organizational unity among closely related church bodies (3) emergence of "religious" political parties with important influence in European countries; (4) influence of the state in prohibiting or controlling religious liberty and churches in Spain and the countries behind the "Iron Curtain," (5) postwar missionary extension despite growing uncertainties; (6) tremendous relief and reconstruction efforts in Europe and the Orient by American church groups; (7) uncertainty of released-time programs for religious education caused by the adverse decision by the Supreme Court in the McCollum case; (8) gradual abandonment of racial segregation by church groups heretofore serving races separately; and (9) growth of American churches to the highest ratio of population in history—53 per cent.

So far as Southern Baptists are concerned, I think the most significant trend is a re-emphasis on evangelism.

(Dr. Lawrence has analyzed the situation well.—R. B. J.)

Antidote Worse Than the Prison

Scottish Rite News Bulletin

The M. Rev. John J. Swint, Bishop of the Roman Catholic Church State at Wheeling, West Virginia, addressed some 200 persons at Huntington, West Virginia, on January 28, 1949. According to The Huntington Advertiser, "he defined secularists as those people who want and believe in a complete separation of Church and State, of religion from government." He termed the Roman Catholic School the "greatest antidote against secularism." If one will study the social, political and religious conditions in those countries where the Roman Catholic Church State is dominant, he will agree with Thomas Jefferson, who wrote, on December 6, 1813, to Baron Alexander von Humboldt, who had just returned from Mexico, after investigating conditions: "History, I believe, furnishes no example of a priest-ridden people maintaining a free civil government. This marks the lowest grade of ignorance, of which their civil, as well as religious, leaders will always avail themselves for their own purpose."

On May 29, 1823, Thomas Jefferson declared, in a letter to Michael Megear on Home and Foreign Missions: "Were the Pope, or his holy allies, to send in mission to us some thousands of Jesuit priests, to convert us to their orthodoxy, I suspect we should deem it as a national aggression on our peace and faith."

On the question of secularism, President Grant expressed the philosophy of our free institutions in September, 1875, as follows:

"Let us labor . . . for the security of free thought, free speech, a free press, pure morals, unfettered religious sentiments, and of equal rights and privileges to all men, irrespective of nationality, color or religion—leave the matter of religion to the family circle, the church, and the private schools supported entirely by private contributions. Keep church and state forever separate."

(Indifference may doom us.—R.B.J.)

Death on Parade

The Reader's Digest

Here are some things that we can do: Restore simplicity to our funerals. Limit the duties of the undertaker to care and preparation of the body, furnishing the coffin and arranging the details of the burial.

Do away with the public funeral and wherever possible take the funeral service out of the undertaker's chapel. Hold only a simple religious service at the home or church and again at the grave.

Have a separate, and later, memorial service if desired. War-memorial services have shown that absence of the body actually enhances rather than detracts from the spiritual significance of the gathering. Without the presence of the body, the living are freer to recall the deceased as he was in the full vigor of life.

Keep the coffin inexpensive. Death renders us all equal. During the last war, generals and privates were buried in identical coffins. We, too, can restore democracy to our burials.

Exclude costly and elaborate floral tributes. Devote the money saved to the welfare of the living.

Finally, keep the memorial erected at the burial place simple, dignified and inexpensive. Many of us gain comfort by meditation and prayer at the place of burial—even though we know the spirit has gone. But in memorials, as in coffins, the fact that some of us attain more riches than others should not be paraded after death.

Let us resolve now to take the management of our funerals out of the hands of the professional showmen and be guided instead by the dictates of common sense, good taste—and our Christian faith!

(The morticians won't like this, but it makes sense to me.—R. B. J.)

With Disgust

The Christian Index

What has become of the American sense of decency? Have our moral standards collapsed completely? Is there any effort toward a recovery that will come before it is too late? These are some of the questions that come to mind as the daily papers report the news. We have not recovered, nor will we forget, President Truman's vile remark concerning a newspaper columnist. We thought he would have the decency to apologize. Instead, he expressed himself as pleased with public reaction. Now comes the account of Actor Robert Mitchum's release from prison. He is the Hollywood character who spent 50 days behind jail bars on a marijuana conviction. Was he disgraced? Just the opposite for, according to the papers, he "was greeted by a cheering crowd." We remember that upon his arrest he said something about his career being "ruined." But Mitchum's opinion of his public was too high. His pictures continued to draw at the box office. His fans greeted him at the jail with cheers.

These are sad days through which we are passing. Will we mend our ways before the American civilization is added to the long list of those which decayed amid moral ruin?

(Will we?—R. B. J.)

Four Baptist D. P. Families To Live in Tennessee

By CHARLES R. GAGE

Displaced Persons Representative Southern Baptist Relief Committee, 601 South Olympia, New Orleans, La.

FOUR BAPTIST displaced families have been approved by the Southern Baptist Displaced Persons Representative for resettlement in Tennessee, it was announced yesterday.

These families represent eight people. D.P.'s are coming from Austria, Germany and Italy.

Persons sponsoring these families in Tennessee are: Mrs. R. Z. T. Anthony, Memphis, 1; Mrs. Cynthia A. Jones, Jellico, 1; Dr. R. Paul Caudill, Memphis, 1; and Mr. J. B. Cook, Memphis, 1.

There are approximately 9,000 Baptist displaced persons in Europe for whom the Southern Baptist and Baptist World Alliance relief Committees feel a special responsibility. The present Displaced Persons Act passed by the 80th Congress of the United States provides for the entry of 200,000 displaced persons into this country in a two-year period. In order to come to the United States, D.P.'s must have sponsors who are willing to assure our government that the D.P.'s will have jobs and homes without displacing Americans and that inland transportation for the D.P.'s will be provided. (Ocean transportation from Europe to the United States is provided free of charge by the International Refugee Organization of the United Nations.) Sponsors must also assure the government that the D.P.'s will not become a charge on public funds.

Displaced persons are available in almost every job classification and are qualified as plumbers, electricians, carpenters, cabinet makers, nurses aids, domestic servants, etc. If you are able to offer an opportunity to some of our Baptist displaced persons, contact the Southern Baptist Displaced Persons representative, 601 South Olympia, New Orleans, La.

Loyalty to The Church

By WALTER SIMMONS, Sunday School Supt.,
Hardeman Association, Bolivar, Tenn.

CHURCH MEMBERS perhaps have never fully learned the meaning of Loyalty to their church. We are loyal to our vocation or to a society or perhaps to our wives and husbands, but just how loyal are we to our church or our Creator?

Surely, when we unite with our Christ if we are as loyal as God requires of us, we would attend every service of our church.

When one is loyal to his church, he comes nearer measuring up to the standards of perfection in all walk of life than those church members who are disloyal to their church.

Moreover, the loyal church member can always be counted upon to carry forward all phases of the general church program gladly.

Where our church members are found loyal to their church, they are reaping a bountiful harvest and are as the first church at Jerusalem filling people with the Holy Spirit and going out into the highways and hedges and getting others for Christian service.

The church was instituted by God for the purpose of promoting his kingdom on earth, and we as members of the church face a grave responsibility as well as Jesus expects great things of us in the high calling of a church member.

Jesus put a good deal of stress during his earthly ministry on telling his disciples to be loyal to him and carry out this every command.

The Apostle Paul was primarily concerned in his epistles, thirteen of them in all, if not fourteen, in admonishing his church members to be faithful to the churches of which he was instrumental in establishing.

Let us as Baptists resolve that we, as the apostles of old and all the great of God in the past centuries, beginning now, will be 100% loyal to our church.

The Young South

SEND ALL LETTERS TO AUNT POLLY

149 Sixth Avenue, N.

Nashville 3, Tennessee

The young gardeners in this picture are having lots of fun. I wonder if they have learned as much as you and I have about plants and gardens. Their garden is planted in nice, straight rows, isn't it? And I don't see a single weed!

I wonder if the sparrows have been helping to keep the weeds and insects out of their garden. You know, many people consider sparrows a nuisance, but they are really very valuable. In One western state (Iowa) it was discovered that the sparrow family eats about 875 tons of weed seed there each year! Someone has suggested that if all the sparrows were removed from Iowa, within ten years there would be very little plant life left.

The flicker is another feathery friend of farmers. Mr. Flicker's long, sticky tongue is especially adapted to capturing ants. Once two flickers were examined and about three thousand ants were found in the stomach of each. Ants leave eggs on plants, so it is a good thing to get rid of the ants. The flicker helps to do this.

Since our last bird column, I've learned a lot more about some of our little feathered friends.

Did you know that the feathers of birds are kept oiled by oil glands, so that their bodies will not get wet? Feathers protect birds from cold, heat, and rain.

Here is a good fact for us to remember when winter comes again—did you know that no matter how cold it is, a bird will not freeze as long as it has food?

Birds live a short but fast life. One article I read recently said that the body temperature of a bird is 103 to 110 degrees. A bird's heart beats about 140 times a minute—so fast it cannot be counted when the bird is flying.

It seems that birds are as individual as people. They have certain habits or peculiarities which make them stand out as different from other bird families.

The meadowlark is a clever bird. If he sees you approaching, he looks at you, then turns around so his black and yellow front cannot be seen, and moves away.

Another clever bird is the morning dove. When this dove is approached, he flaps over the ground with one wing dragging, pretending that it is badly wounded.

Father Wren amuses me—often he builds a nest for himself, besides the one he and Mother Wren have together.

Did you ever wonder how a chimney swallow's nest stays in place in a chimney? Well, I found one good explanation in a magazine recently. The writer of the article I read said the chimney swallow glues its nest to the chimney walls with glue that comes from the bird's own mouth. Twigs are also glued together for a nest.

Perhaps some of my Young South friends can tell me firsthand whether that information is correct. If you know anything about a chimney swallow's habits and home, will you write and tell us about them?

What about your other bird friends? Have you learned some things which you'd like to pass on to your Young South friends? All of the things I've told you today are not things which I learned by experience. Many of my facts have to be gathered from my reading. However, the facts are carefully chosen from folks who ought to know what they are talking about! I have to depend on you to help me check my information. How about another letter from you?

Can You Read? Do You?

MARY CHRISTIAN, Mission Study Chairman

Should someone ask you, "Can you read?" you no doubt would think she was joking. If you found she was serious you might feel insulted and reply, "Of course I can read."—Well, do you?

The quarterly report blank sent to the Tennessee associational mission study chairman includes the question, "What is the big need in mission study in your association?" Without exception, each chairman who answered this question replied, "To get the women and young people to read."

Each earnest Christian desires to grow in Christian grace and knowledge. Just wishing never made it so and never will. Effort has to be put forth. Continuous study, daily practice of Christian teachings, principles, and ideals must be followed faithfully. There is no finer way to deepen spiritual desires, enlarge visions, stir to action than through the development of well planned habits of reading. Current books that emphasize Christian ideals and present world peoples and their needs, enlarge horizons and deepen sympathies.

If you read and enjoy a book, your enthusiastic discussion of it with family and neighbors will arouse their interest. Soon they will be reading it, and others will want to do the same. Books that are studied in mission classes as well as general background books should be passed on to others to read.

The number one problem facing the religious world today is that of Religious Liberty. Baptists are keenly interested in this topic. Each one needs to be alert to these dangers and problems and know Baptist policies and plans. Current books that present this question comprehensively and fairly are:

SEPARATE CHURCH AND STATE NOW, J. M. Dawson, R. R. Smith, $2.50

AMERICAN FREEDOM AND CATHOLIC POWER, Paul Blanshard, Beacon Press, $3.50

RELIGIOUS LIBERTY, Cecil Northcott, Macmillan, $2.00

CO-OPERATING SOUTHERN BAPTISTS, J. B. Lawrence, Home Mission Board, paper 50c, cloth $1.50

Only the latter one might be used in a class, but the others are on the Missionary Round Table Reading List for women as well as in the Brotherhood List.

Have you read THE ADVENTURE OF PRAYER? It is by Donald Campbell, Abingdon-Cokesbury, $1.25. Though not a mission study book it is one of the excellent, new books on prayer that will make one who prays want to pray more and one who does not pray want to start praying. Young people and adults both will enjoy it.

THE LONELIEST JOURNEY, by Frances I. Jackson, Westminster, $1.50, is a modern female "Pilgrim's Progress," Dr. J. E. Dillard says. It is an account of a woman's conversion from her doubts and struggles to victorious living. While not a mission study book, it could well serve as a supplementary book in the field of community missions.

There are two books on the American Negro and race relations each mission hearted woman or man will want to read. Whether he or she agrees with the authors or not, one of these is JESUS AND THE DISINHERITED, by Howard Thurman, Abingdon-Cokesbury, $1.25. Dr. C. M. Coalson, a pastor in Jacksonville, Florida, says, "This is a most profoundly disturbing little book. With completely devastating logic the author probes the depth of the soul and tears to shreds all rationalization of the unbrotherly conduct of the powerful toward the weak. It is a tragedy for religion that radio and secular press are attempting more for betterment of race relations than are the churches." IN THE LAND OF JIM CROW, by Ray Sprigle, Simon and Schuster, $2.50, is the other one. It is written by a newspaper reporter out of his own experiences. Read it and see if his findings would be true in your community. This is not a mission study book either though it may be included on the Missionary Round Table list.

TRIUMPHANT PERSONALITY, by Robert Clyde Yarbrough, Macmillan, $2.00, is excellent to give the High School or College graduate. Old and young alike will be helped by it, though, for it suggests paths to great and noble living, discussing such topics as "Making the Most of What You Have," "Learning To Handle Trouble," "Refusing To Give Up," etc.

Books that Sunbeams will enjoy this summer are THEY ALL BEGAN TO SING, by Margaret T. Applegarth, Broadman, 25 cents and GOD IS LOVE IN ANY LANGUAGE, Mrs. Clyde V. Hickerson, Broadman, 25 cents.

Order all these books and any others you want from your Baptist Book Store.

A NEW REGULATION. The general rule of Baptist and Reflector has been to publish obituaries and obituary resolutions 200 words free and all words over that for 1 cent each and non-obituary resolutions for 1 cent a word straight. The paper finds it necessary to change this as follows: Obituaries, obituary resolutions and non-obituary resolutions 200 words free and 5 cents each for all additional words. The same rate applies to all three kinds of such material. Even then, publication is below cost. Kindly send payment with material or tell us to whom to send statement, otherwise we will have to condense the material to 200 words.

According to Mr. George Sprouse, who is 80 years old and who served as clerk of the church for 25 years, the Baptist Church at Station Camp, Bledsoe Association, was organized in 1717. Bro. The present building is 82 years old and large enough to partition off for four Sunday School rooms with curtains for two other Sunday school rooms.

The first School of Missions was held April 10-15. Also this year the first Training School was held in which there were 53 enrolled and 27 awards earned. The teachers for the school were Pastor J. L. MusKelley, Associational Missionary C. S. Penuel and Mrs. Penuel.

In Memoriam

Martin

William Henry Martin, Jr. was born September 28, 1923. He was killed in action in France, July 31, 1944, age 20 years, 10 months, and 2 days.

During his high school days at Lascassas he served as captain of the basketball team and president of the Class of '43. Following graduation he answered the call of his country to active military service and in quite rapid succession took his training, served in Africa, Sicily, and France. Only a few days before his death he was awarded the Purple Heart for wounds received while in combat in Sicily.

Surviving are his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Martin; a brother, Ben; and a sister, Mrs. J. W. McBroom, all of Lascassas.

Bill, as he was known by all his friends, was a member of the Lascassas Baptist Church. A typical American youth, one who loved and enjoyed life to the fullest yet bravely gave it in the service of his country. His mortal remains have been interred in the cemetery at Murfreesboro, Tennessee, there to await the resurrection morning.

Pure was thy life; its bloody close
Hath placed thee with the Sons of light,
Among the noble host of those
Who perished in the cause of Right.

—Bryant
—A. C. Barrett

Johnson

In memory of Bro. L. O. (Tillie) Johnson who departed this life July 3, 1948.

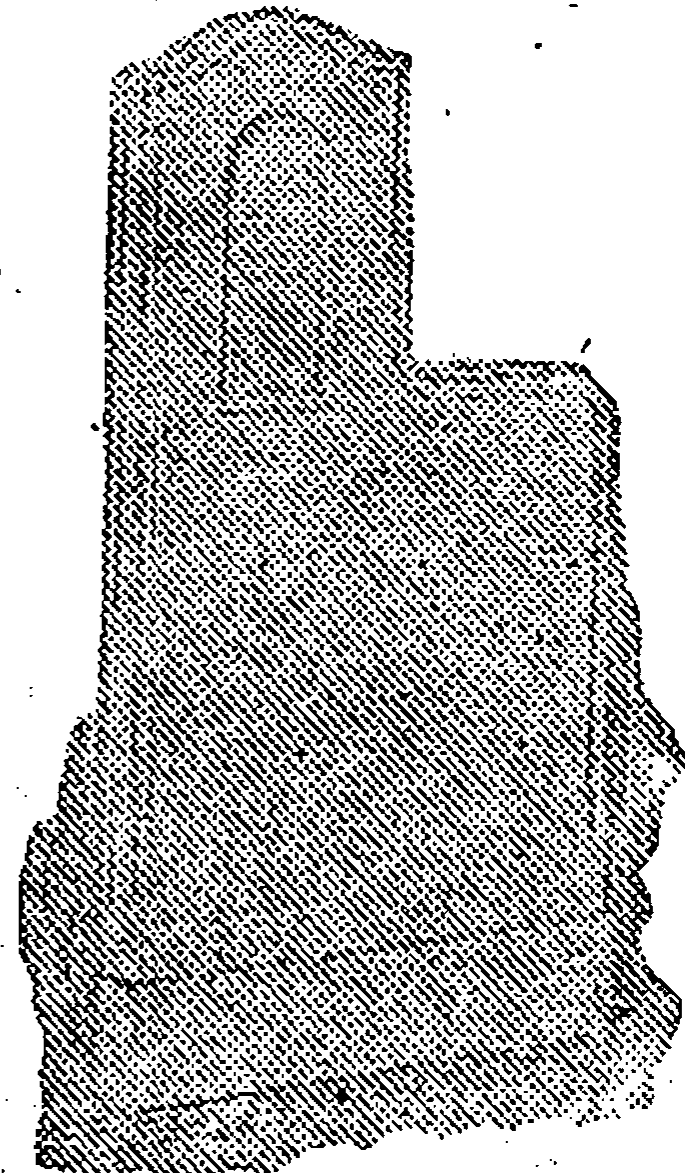

He was the oldest deacon in the Maynardville Baptist Church, a consecrated Christian, and enjoyed reading the Baptist and Reflector and other Baptist literature.

Bro. Johnson was always interested in building up his community, and most of all his church was foremost in his heart. He was a friend of all and an enemy to none. We miss his presence and his deep spiritual prayers. His Christian life was an imitation to do right to all those who knew him. May God bless his good family and bring them together again.

—W. D. Hutton, his pastor

The Brotherhood of Woodbury Baptist Church, Cecil L. Atchley, pastor, met Tuesday, May 10. A. Roy Greene, state president, brought a message on "The Need of God for Men."

BETWEEN THE RIVERS

HOMER A. CATE, Shelbyville, Tenn.

The Barton's Creek Baptist Church, Wilson County Association, Buford M. Bull, Pastor, has broken ground for their new mission church. It seems to the writer like a wonderful thing for a rural Church like this one to build a Mission Church.

Carl J. Giers, Pastor, First Baptist Church, Chattanooga, is the evangelist in a series of Revival meetings at First Church, Murfreesboro, Griffin Henderson, Pastor. The Meeting began May 9. Wallace Carrier, Pastor, First Baptist Church, Rockwood, is leading the singing.

On Monday morning, May 9, the First Baptist Church, Shelbyville, Homer A. Cate, Pastor, had a ground breaking service for the Big Springs Memorial Church Mission. Fine progress is being made and within a short time the Church building will be up. Size of structure is 36'x50'.

The First Baptist Church, Gallatin, Clyde C. Bryan, Pastor, has reached a new high in Sunday School attendance even with their new Church in process of construction. Their new Kilgen Pipe Organ is being installed in their lovely new auditorium, which will be ready in the not-too-distant future.

Gaye McGlothlin, Pastor, Immanuel Baptist Church, Nashville, did the preaching with fine results in a recent Revival at Judson Memorial Baptist Church, Nashville, Herbert Barclay Cross, Pastor.

A wonderful promotional meeting was held on May 10 at First Baptist Church, Nashville, in the interest of Christian Education. Dr. C. W. Pope, spoke on "The Relationship of the Christian Education Day offering to the Co-operative Program," and Dr. T. L. Holcomb spoke on "Christian Education." It is hoped that every Association will vigorously promote Christian Education Day in June (last Sunday suggested) toward the goal of having a special offering in every Church or Sunday School toward the most neglected of our Four Special Offerings in our Cooperative program system.

Missionaries Are Prepared for the Fall of Shanghai

By Secretary Baker J. Cauthen

(From Dr. Cauthen's monthly report, written April 30)

The fall of Shanghai is now an imminent possibility. Nationalist armies declare they will defend the city strongly, but there seems little evidence of any preparation for a fight. The Navy has offered transportation to all Americans who wish to leave. They still have small vessels at Shanghai which can be used to take people to the ships in the Yangtze.

Missionaries In Shanghai

Missionaries in Shanghai are: Dr. and Mrs. Frank H. Connely, Dr. and Mrs. J. B. Hipps, Dr. Robert F. Ricketson, Rev. W. W. Lawton, Dr. and Mrs. B. L. Nichols and three children, Dr. and Mrs. Glenn Morris, Misses Roberta Pearle Johnson, Irene Jeffers, Harriette King, Martha Franks, Josephine Ward, Thelma Williams, Elizabeth Gray, Inabelle Coleman, Olive Lawton, Kathryn Bigham, Lorene Tilford, Marie Conner, Catherine Walker, Gladys Howell, and Dr. and Mrs. B. J. Cauthen and two children. Emergency provisions have been made within the city to take care of all these people if it should be necessary during time of fighting. We stand in greater danger of rioting and looting than we do of actual fighting in the city.

In Communist Territory

As this report is being written the Communist armies have taken Wusih and Soochow and are nearing Kunshan. Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Jackson and Mrs. P. W. Hamlett, our missionaries in Wusih, are still there. I talked with Miss Blanche Groves by long distance telephone the day before Soochow fell and she told me she, Miss Sophie Lanneau, Miss Ola Lea and Miss Jenell Greer were remaining by their own choice. Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Johnson are in Kunshan and intend to remain there as the Communists come in.

Rev. Stockwell Sears, Rev. Charles Cowherd and Miss Pearl Johnson are still in Tsingtao where the situation is unchanged. Dr. A. W. Yocum is still in Chengchow and we were able to receive letters from him through the mail until last week when the drive began in the Yangtze valley.

Plans in South China

We have forty-five missionaries and eighteen children in South China. When emergencies begin to prevail in that section, those who are in uncertain health or have furloughs due soon will undoubtedly return to America. Because of the number of missionaries who have little children in South China there will be considerable shifting in time of crisis.

We are working toward placing any of the people who feel they must leave South China, but believe they should not return to the States, in Hongkong, Macao, Saigon and Bangkok. Dr. G. W. Strother left last week for Bangkok to survey the possibilities of placing people in that city and in Saigon should the need arise. He will remain in the Bangkok-Saigon area until the China development comes to definite form and will be there to assist any people who need to transfer to those cities.

Necessity of Remaining Among Chinese

To send a large number of new missionaries back to America in time of emergency would likely result in losing the staff to missionary work. To enable them to remove to places of security where they can continue the study of the language and work among Chinese people may result in having a staff ready to continue to serve whatever opportunities are available.

The Lord has a way of extending his work in times of distress. We should not forget that the Hawaiian Mission was born in the last China evacuation. The Lord may make possible new mission undertakings as a consequence of our present China emergencies.

November 1, 1948 through April 30, 1949

Below, we give the Semi-annual report of receipts for the first half of the Convention Year, 1948-49. The arrangement of reports follows the usual order of grouping churches in associations and reporting all gifts in three classes, namely, Cooperative Program, Designated, and Foundation. Please note that gifts which did not reach our office before May 1 are not included here.

Cooperative Program gifts for the time indicated above amounted to $674,785.51 as compared with $624,191.80 for last year, or a gain of $50,593.71.

Total gifts for the first half of 1948-49 amounted to $1,038,146.54.

A true picture of an important period . . .

INTERBIBLICAL HISTORY

by W. Hersey Davis
and Edward A. McDowell

A Source Book of Interbiblical History is indispensable for an understanding of the history immediately preceding the coming of Christ and the introduction of the Christian movement.

All the necessary material from Josephus, the Apocrypha, and the histories of Polybius and Livy are brought together in the original wording. It is arranged in chronological order so that the student may read the continuous story in all its more important phases. On the broad margins in bold type the topic of the section is indicated along with the dates.

In this one volume the reader will find all the important data necessary for understanding the many and significant events that transpired between the writings of Malachi and Matthew.
