3. 22 THE GOSPEL OF JOHN

"I assure you," said Jesus, "that unless a man is born of water and from spirit he cannot enter the kingdom of God. That which is born of the flesh gives birth to flesh and spirit gives birth to spirit. You are surprised that I told you that all of you must be born again. The wind blows where it likes, you can hear the sound, but you have no idea where it comes from and where it is going. So it is with the Spirit who tells how a man is born by the wind of the Spirit. How on earth can things like this happen? So you are a teacher of Israel," said Jesus, "and you do not recognize such things? I assure you that I am telling you something we really know and we are not lying. We have actually observed, yet men like you do not have evidence. Yet if I have spoken to you about the Spirit and you will not believe me, how can you believe that you will believe me if I tell you about the Father? No one has ever been up to Heaven to see the Father. The Son of Man who came down from Heaven. The Son of Man who was lifted above the heads of men—as Moses lifted up the serpent in the desert—so that any man who believes in him may not perish but have eternal life. For God loved the world so much that he gave his only Son into the world so that everyone who believes in him should not perish but have eternal life. You must understand that God has sent his only Son into the world to pass sentence upon it, but to save the world. Any man who believes in him is not judged at all. Any man who does not believe in the Son of Man who has been sent into the world—he will not believe in the character of God's only Son. He will not believe in the character of God's only Son. Judgment—that light has entered the world and men have preferred darkness to light. Who does this? He who does this hates the light and does not come to the light so that his deeds may not be exposed. He who does this is the one who is the child of darkness."

How Does The World Look Through Your Eyes?

Legal Process In Action

By Herschel H. Hobbs

"I will hear thee, said he, when thine accusers are also come. And he commanded him to be kept in Herod's judgment hall." —Acts 23:35

When the tribune, Claudius Lysias (v. 26), sent Paul to Caesarea, he wrote a formal letter to the Roman procurator Felix (vv. 26-36). He told how Paul had come into his hands. But note in verse 27 he claimed to have rescued Paul from the Jewish mob "having understood that he was a Roman" citizen. He said nothing about planning to whip Paul before learning of his Roman citizenship. The tribune wanted to appear in a good light before his superior. In effect, he said that since Paul could hardly get justice in Jerusalem, he was sending him to be tried by Felix.

When Paul first appeared before the procurator he was asked of what Roman province he was. Learning that he was from Cilicia he knew that he was under the jurisdiction of his superior, the propraetor of Syria. So while awaiting the arrival of the Jews who would appear against Paul, Felix put him in "Herod's judgment hall."

This reads, literally, "in Herod's praetorium" or palace. The word "praetorium" originally meant the camp of a general. But it came to mean the palace of the governor (Matt. 27:27). When in Jerusalem

Pilate lived in the palace of Herod the Great.

The point of this is that Felix did not put Paul in prison. Until he was convicted he would not be so treated. Did Paul live here all during his imprisonment in Caesarea? This corresponds to his living in his own rented quarters in Rome (Acts 28:30). As bad as Roman justice appeared at Jesus' trial, Rome was famous for her system of jurisprudence. And though Felix was a ras-cal personally, he lived legally by that code.

Neither the church nor the state shall control the other. But they have mutual responsibilities. The church should produce the kind of Christian character which makes good citizens. The state should provide the proper atmosphere in which the church can do its work.

In this case the state protected Paul from his enemies. And though in the overall scene in Caesarea there are black spots, still as a citizen Paul often used his position to advantage as he preached the gospel of Christ.

Pulpit To Pew

By Jim Griffith

In filling out an application for membership in an exclusive club, a young man came to the part of the questionnaire where he was asked, "church preference?"

Pondering the question for a moment, he carefully wrote in: "Gothic."

This is similar to an incident of a few years ago when a woman replied to the question of "church preference" with the answer: "I usually prefer red brick."

In filling out such a questionnaire concerning church preference, there are all kinds of possibilities. I know a great many Baptists who say: "church preference?" — "Sunday morning only."

Others, if honest with God and themselves, would have to reply: "church preference?"—"Seldom."

Even so, as spiritually noncommittal as these answers are, they are not as bad as that most widely used reply to "church preference" which is not a sweet but a short: "No."

How Great God Is

Psalm 93; Psalm 85:5-11

By Cecil G. Cochran, member
Fifth Avenue Baptist Church, Knoxville

The subject is much too big. The best intellect of man could hardly scratch the surface and I will be able to do much less. The world could scarce hold the books that could be written on this subject. The song you have just heard, a great tribute to God, fails to give God full justice. Man is at a distinct disadvantage in considering the greatness of God because man's intellect is far too small to comprehend the full extent of God's Greatness. It is hoped that we will become more humble as we think together on the greatness of God.

Some of God's Accomplishments

He spoke a Universe into existence. He C R E A T E D—He made something from nothing. Webster's definition for "create": "To cause to come into existence; to produce out of nothing". In all of man's history he has never created a single thing; nor is he likely in the future to create anything. Perhaps God's greatest and crowning work was the creation of man which he did in His own image, but possessing a will of his own. I would think that if God ever had a worry it was over His creation of man. I believe the Scripture tells us that God at one time repented that he had made man. Of course, the reason for this was the sin of man and his neglect of his main purpose—"to glorify God".

He sent His son into the world incarnate with man. This, the greatest of all acts of love, was His gift to provide a means of salvation for sinful man.

God has permitted man to say that He (God) was dead or that He did not exist in spite of God's "handwriting" on everything good that man comes in contact with, including the very life that man lives, and the air that he breathes.

God has permitted man to take credit for most achievements man has made. Examples would be man's explorations into space and science where man has been able to come up with amazing results. It should be emphasized, however, that man's achievements were permitted and made possible by the will of God.

God's greatness is reflected in His mercy, lovingkindness and understanding of man and all his problems. He is the author of freedom and the giver of every good and perfect gift. He can hear the petition or desire of one of his children even if he were a million light years away. He is omnipotent, omniscient and omnipresent.

How proud we should be as Christians to have for our Heavenly Father the God of the Universe.

WITHOUT CHRIST

THERE IS NO CHRISTMAS

Mississippi Convention Plans New Assembly, Commends Board

JACKSON, Miss.—The Mississippi Baptist Convention voted here to build a new assembly to replace one destroyed by Hurricane Camille two years ago, commended the Southern Baptist Sunday School Board and its executive secretary "for the excellent manner in which they are performing their duties," and adopted statements on gambling and the so-called prayer amendment.

The resolution commending the Sunday School Board in general terms was adopted instead of a much stronger resolution submitted by a Jackson pastor specifically endorsing and commending the board for revising a unit on race relations in a church training quarterly for teenagers.

By a vote of 365-218, the convention's messengers approved a two-year study by its assemblies committee which had recommended that the convention re-establish its assemblies program and construct a $2.5 million assembly at Gulfshore Baptist Assembly grounds, Pass Christian, Miss.

The report called for construction on the new assembly to begin as soon as the necessary funds are available in accordance with constitutional requirements. About $500,000, most of it from insurance settlements on damage to Gulfshore Assembly following Hurricane Camille, is now in hand.

In another action, the convention approved the report of its resolutions committee commending "the Sunday School Board (of the SBC) and its executive secretary, Dr. James L. Sullivan, for the excellent manner in which they are performing their duties."

Earlier, David T. Cranford, pastor of Southern Hills Baptist Church in Jackson, had introduced a resolution commending Sullivan and the board specifically for revising the quarterly, "Becoming", "so as to deal with the question of race relations in a more responsible and redemptive manner." Cranford's resolution by procedure was referred automatically to the resolutions committee.

In making the committee's report, Chairman John McCall, pastor of First Baptist Church in Vicksburg, Miss., said that the committee had not seen the quarterly in question, and that the decision to revise it was "an executive, editorial and administrative one," which could not adequately be dealt with by the convention.

Statements submitted by the convention's Christian Action Commission on gambling and on the prayer amendment were also approved.

In other action, the convention adopted a record budget of $4.6 million, an increase of $335,000 over the 1971 budget. The total includes an operating and capital needs section of $4.3 million, plus a $300,000 "advance section" to be distributed to designated causes after the base budget is met. In the operating section, $1.3 million, or 31 per cent, is allocated to Southern Baptist world mission causes.

In the report of the convention's Education Commission, chairman Harold Kitchens of Kosciusko, Miss., said that a year-long study by his commission of charges made last year of alleged "immoral conditions" on the campuses of four Baptist schools were entirely false. (BP)

Belgian Baptists Cite Increased Growth Rate

NIVELLES, Belgium—Belgian Baptists in 1971 have recorded a 40 per cent increase in the number of baptisms over last year, according to Southern Baptist Missionary Rudolph M. Wood.

There have been 21 converts this year, compared to 15 in 1970.

Wood noted that the increase in baptisms was entirely within national churches of the Belgian Baptist Union. Neither of the two English-language congregations in the union reported any additions.

"No special reason for this increase can be cited," Wood said. "Special efforts have been made, but direct results cannot be attributed to them."

The Belgian Baptist Union is composed of eight churches and four mission points, including the two English-language churches, with a total membership of 301. (BP)

Personally

By James A. Lester

A layman in Tennessee has done a good thing, and one for which we are grateful. He was concerned that the members of his church have available to them information which appears in each week in Baptist And Reflector. He gave wings to this concern by making provision personally in order that the church might be enroled in our Every Family Plan for a period of time. Thank you, Mr.

——! A few hundred more laymen like you, concerned that the ministries of Tennessee and Southern Baptists be presented regularly to Tennessee Baptist churches, and we would be well on the way to reaching our goal of 90,000 subscribers for Baptist And Reflector by 1974, our Convention Centennial Year.

And, perhaps there are other laymen who would do the same thing now? We hope so. Your news-journal costs, through the Every Family Plan, half the price of a first-class stamp, each week. I believe it to be worth much more than this, because I believe in the ministry of a denominational paper belonging to a Baptist State Convention.

Two Baptist Churches Damaged In Bombings

BELFAST, Ireland—Two Baptist churches here have suffered structural damage as a result of bombings in the immediate area where the churches are located.

A devotional service had just ended at Cliftonpark Avenue church, and the congregation was singing the final hymn when a bomb exploded. Most of the windows were blown in and glass was scattered widely over the church. Apart from shock, no injuries were reported.

J. F. Bradley is minister at Cliftonpark church, which is located close to the Crumlin Road, Oldpark area of the city. The parsonage is also located in the troubled area.

At Antrim Road Baptist church, the pastor, R. C. McMullan, was holding a committee meeting in the manse, next door to the church, when a bomb exploded. Here also the main damage was to the windows in the church building and to the pastor's residence.

None of the churches was directly attacked. They suffered the fringe damage of the explosion. Apparently, it has not been the policy of the bombers to attack church property, except where halls are used by soldiers, according to a report in European Baptist Press Service. (BP)

Scripture Sales Soar, Thai Baptists Report

BANGKOK—Thailand Bible House has sold over three million portions of Scripture in 1971, a 50 per cent increase over 1970, according to Ronald C. Hill, Southern Baptist missionary press representative.

In this first year under a Thai secretary, the Bible House has gone almost a million copies beyond its goal. Secretary Boonkrong Pitakanon reported that many types of scriptures are completely out of stock.

Many of these portions are being sold in schools on the invitation of teachers and administrators.

Boonkrong cited a new awareness and zeal within Thai Baptist churches. He said that most of the scriptures have been distributed by volunteers from the churches.

Attractive new formats for the Bible portions, including cartoon books of Bible stories, have also boosted sales, said the secretary. Two other recent publications, the Revised Old Testament and the Complete Popular New Testament are expected to receive a warm welcome from Christians, Boonkrong predicted.

Stepped-up financial support from various denominations and increasing use by Roman Catholics of scripture portions distributed by the United Bible Societies of Thailand and Laos were cited as further encouraging signs. (BP)

Expect Great Things

Tennessee Baptists are in a new year in their convention life which could, hopefully, be a high-water mark in Convention history. During 1971, we regrouped our strength financially, after 1970, which was a year to cause concern as we struggled to pay for our work together. Last month, we approved a budget which could be an index to our determination to, as a state convention, expand our ministries.

One of the miracles of Baptist life is that God continues to bless and use us despite our unworthiness, and our many failures to attain our maximum potential. Buried somewhere in these miracles is the fact that despite ourselves, and our oft-times expressed independence,—our pitting of so-called liberals against so-called conservatives,—that we still hold together and move forward. If God didn't lead Baptists, we would have been out of business a long time ago. Selah.

We haven't solved all of our problems, and won't by the time Our Lord returns. We are committed firmly to stay in the business of Christian education. Each year that passes makes this commitment more difficult to fulfill. Somewhere, we must find additional funds for support of our institutions. To do this, we may have to discover that our colleges are in fact quasi-public institutions, operating under state charter, and cannot, in fact, be operated as churches; retaining, however, the distinctive Christian witness.

Tennessee Baptists are committed further to a hospital ministry. This, too, is an expensive ministry, but it certainly is involvement in a witness for Christ in the world in which we live.

A most important part of our witness is that done through our Program of State Missions. We cannot siphon off monies from this area, curbing expansion, for many years without a slowing down of our entire program. This we had better remember.

This, therefore, is a significant year. For the Christian every day is significant and important because in any given day our opportunities for Christian witness pass with the ending of that day. What we are and who we are is reflected in our commitment to our Lord daily.

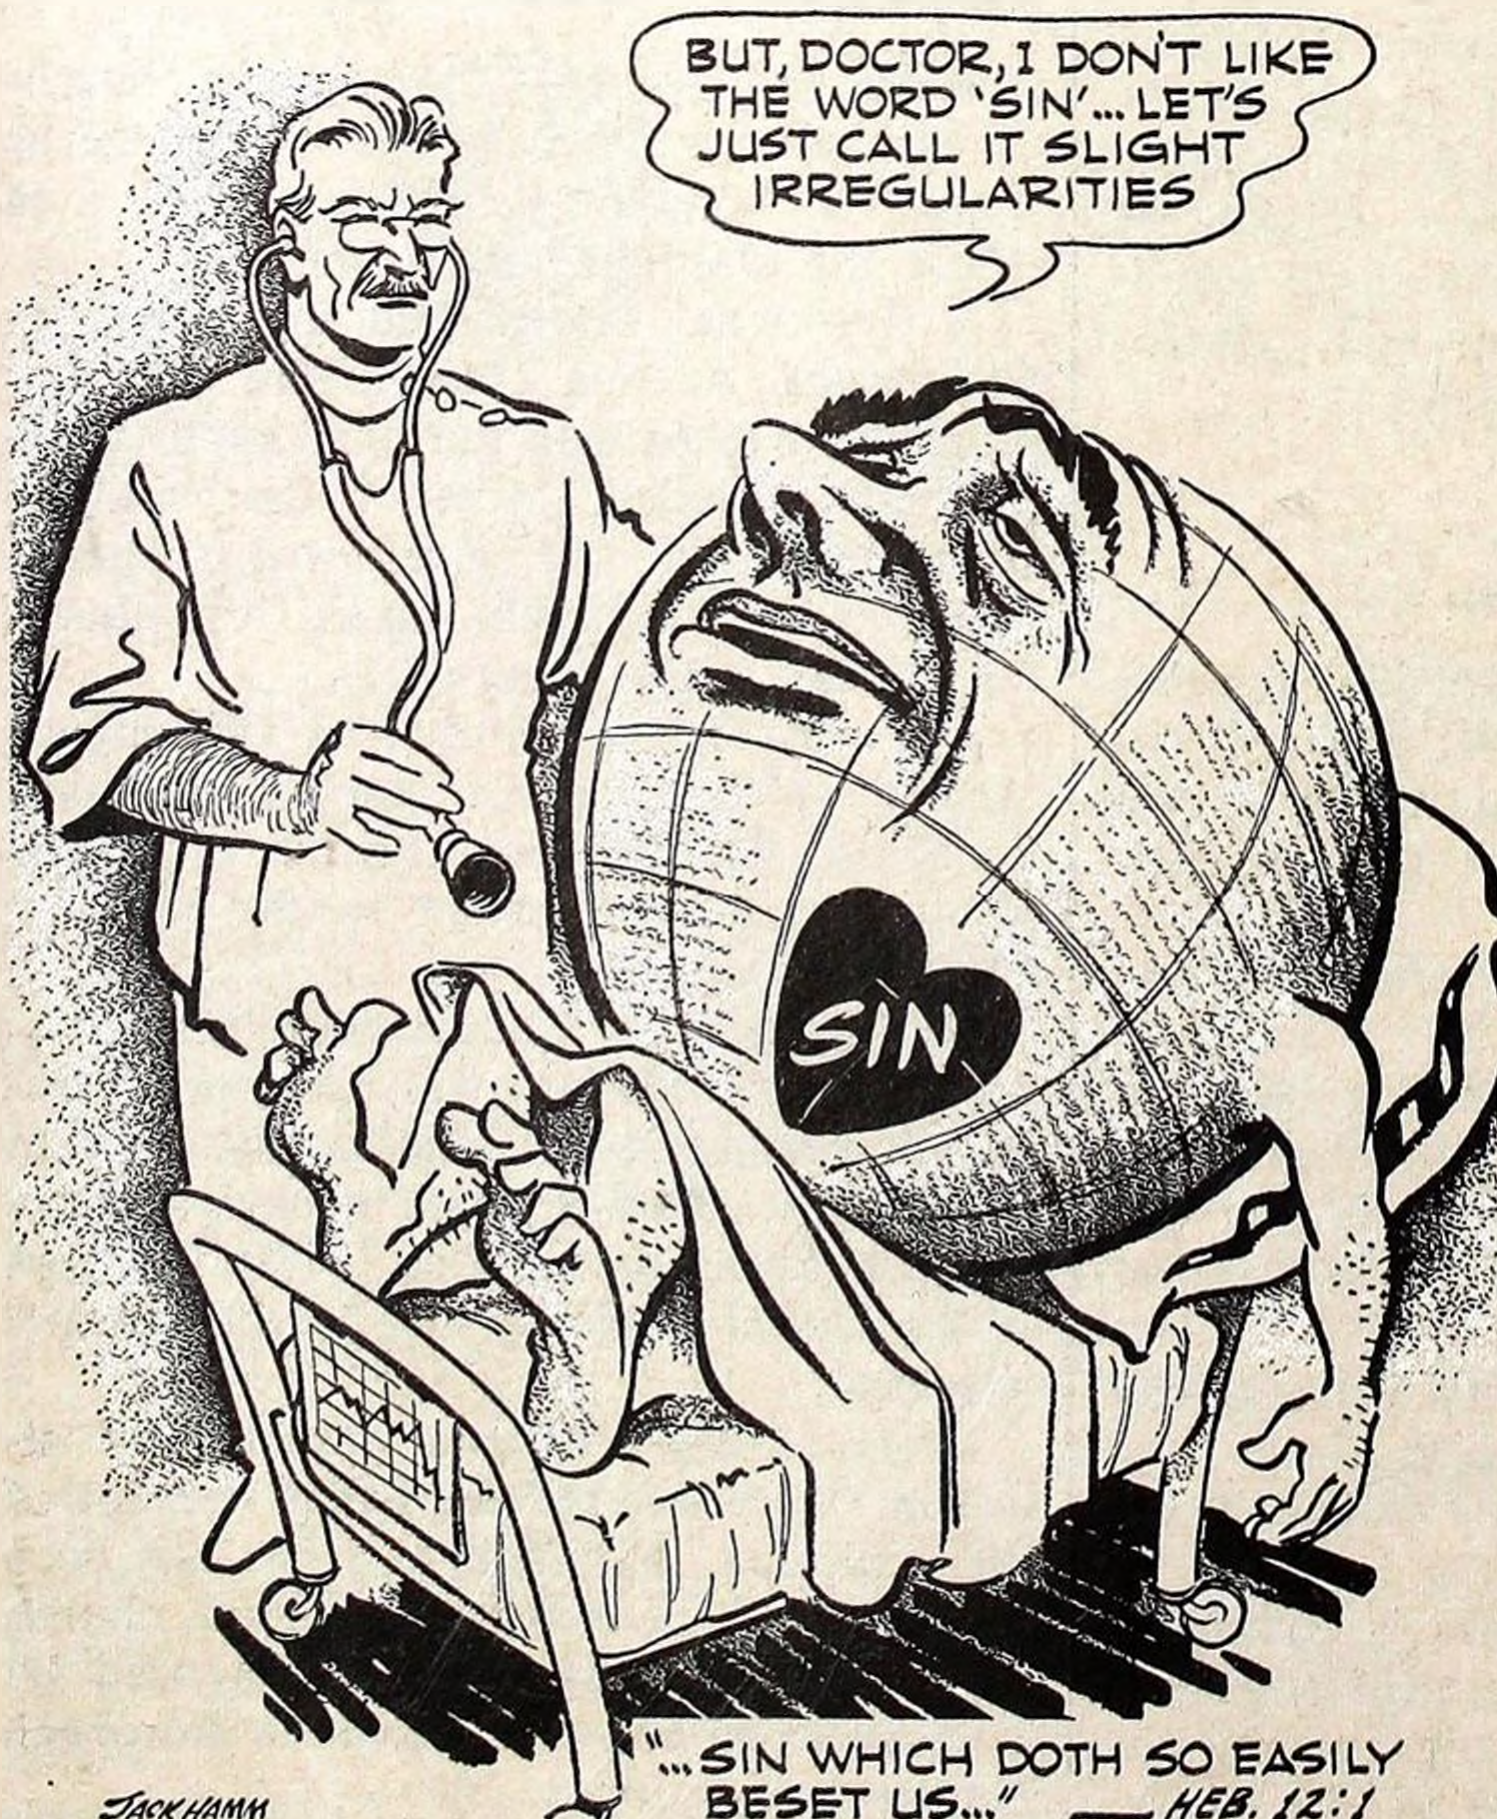

W. Fred Kendall, the beloved executive secretary-treasurer of the Executive Board, told that group last week this year is one which "... could well set the pace of the Tennessee Baptist Convention for the next 10 years." Let us remember prayerfully what Kendall said, and, in an attitude of prayer, renew our commitment to the collective ministries of Tennessee Baptists—because Christ died for our sins and we are compelled to tell the world that Christ is the answer for the sins of the world!

Evangelism Conference

The annual conference on Evangelism is planned for January 17-18. This time is a high point in Tennessee Baptist Convention life. Tennessee Baptists have a heart. This Evangelism Conference could well be the pulse-beat of this heart. A Convention on its knees, in prayer, will be a Convention moving forward.

This, therefore, is a plea that Tennessee Baptist pastors and churches plan now for men, women, boys and girls to attend these conference sessions, scheduled for the Belmont Heights Baptist church, Nashville.

HEART TROUBLE

'Time Of Testing,' Kendall Tells Board; Significant Actions Are Approved

By James A. Lester, Editor

The Executive Board of the Tennessee Baptist Convention held its annual meeting in Brentwood last week, and heard Executive Secretary W. Fred Kendall term the session "... one which could well set the pace of the Tennessee Baptist Convention for the next 10 years."

In an unusual luncheon address to the Executive Board on Thursday, Kendall reminded Board members that the year would be one of transition, "which is always a time of testing,"—tests of what people are made of, their purposes, faith, and convictions. This was an obvious reference to the announcement made by Kendall in November that he would retire December 31, 1972, as executive secretary-treasurer of the Executive Board.

Kendall reminded the board that this is a "... time for genuineness and reality in religion," calling for maximum dedication, and really "being what we are supposed to be." He warned that the times in which we live are ones which provide tests as to whether "we are big men standing tall, or little men casting long shadows," and cautioned against an ersatz religion.

The executive secretary called for a recovery of the Spirit of God, cautioned against political maneuvering, and challenged the Executive Board and Tennessee Baptists to make their work as genuine "as we know how to make it, and not to undermine it by selfish motivations."

In official actions, the Board approved a recommendation that funds above the Co-operative Program budget goal for the past fiscal year be divided $59,848.91 to the Tennessee Convention, and $29,919.97 to the Southern Convention. Total involved was $89,768.88.

A significant action of the Board was approval of the transfer from the State Missions General Fund of $100,000 to the Executive Board Building Fund to apply against the debt on the Executive Board building in Brentwood. As of December, a $395,000 debt remained against the building.

The Board approved transfer of Mrs. Jesse Meek from the Church Training Department to the Sunday School Department of the State Missions program as director of Preschool work.

Other actions were:

Approval of the sale to Murray Ohio Manufacturing Company of a road right of way on the western edge of Executive Board property in Brentwood, up to a maximum of 40 feet parallel to the boundary, at $100 per front foot;

Granted Christmas bonuses to Executive Board servants. One had been granted in 1969, none in 1970, and this one was approved for 1971;

Approved a recommendation that $10,000 be transferred from unspent allocated department budget funds to purchase equipment.

The Board approved commendation for the Knoxville Police Department for action taken to combat the drug problem in that city, and asked for an ad hoc committee of inter-faith members in the associations to mount opposition against any legalization of pari-mutuel gambling.

A plaque listing names of former presidents of the Convention was dedicated Friday and placed in the foyer of the Executive Board building.

Cash Is Making Film On Life Of Christ

NASHVILLE—Country music singer Johnny Cash has made a film on the life of Christ entitled "In the Footsteps of Jesus."

The film, scheduled for release some time in 1972, was made in Israel using Israeli actors predominately. June Carter Cash, the singer's wife, plays the role of Mary Magdalene. Production cost of the film, estimated at $250,000, is being personally financed by the singer.

Cash said that the reason he wanted to make the film was "because I think that Jesus was the most misquoted, misread, and misunderstood man in history. I just want to make a movie about the only Jesus I know. I want to tell his story in my words."

"For seven years I was addicted to drugs and nearly died, but then turned to Jesus," Cash explained. "My wife and mother helped me stop what I was doing. I turned to the words of Jesus and stopped taking the pills and drugs."

He added that the script is based entirely on the Bible.

Shipboard Conversions Reported In Indonesia

BANDUNG, Indonesia—Unusual evangelistic response aboard the nuclear-powered aircraft carrier USS Enterprise has been reported by R. Keith Parks, Southern Baptist Foreign Mission Board area secretary for Southeast Asia.

Parks, who is spending this year in Singapore, spoke at a called meeting of Southern Baptist missionaries in Indonesia.

According to Parks, the Enterprise made two recent stops in Singapore. During the first visit, several Christians among the 5000

Southwestern Receives $750,000 Anonymous Gift

FORT WORTH—The board of trustees for Southwestern Baptist Theological seminary meeting here for semi-annual session heard reports on the seminary's work, including announcement of a $750,000 gift.

The $750,000 contribution is the largest single gift in the history of the seminary, according to Robert E. Naylor, president of the seminary.

A friend of the seminary, who asked that the name of the donor not be disclosed, made the contribution.

Income from the fund has been designated to be used exclusively to pay the cost of construction of a children's building, including its equipment and furnishings. The building is to be named the Goldia D. and Robert E. Naylor Children's Building.

In major business, the trustees elected a new chairman, granted tenure to three faculty members, promoted another, and voted to participate in a Texas Baptist urban strategy program.

The board also voted to request Assistant to the President John Earl Seelig to reconsider his resignation and to remain on the seminary staff. Seelig had earlier announced his resignation to accept a position as administrative assistant to the president of the Fort Worth Corp., here.

In response to the board's request, Seelig said that he had reconsidered his resignation and decided to remain with the seminary as assistant to the president.

The trustees elected Ralph Smith, pastor of Hyde Park Baptist church in Austin, as chairman. Elected vice chairman was Dr. Louis Gibson, a medical doctor from Corsicana, Tex.

Three faculty members were granted faculty tenure: John J. Kiwiet, professor of historical theology; Farrar Patterson, assistant professor of preaching; and Larry L. Walker, assistant professor of Old Testament. Jay N. Boo Heflin, instructor in Old Testament, was given faculty status and elevated to the position of assistant professor.

The board's building committee reported four buildings with 32 units in the J. Howard Williams Student Village, in addition to a new home for the president, were nearing completion. Occupancy of the student housing units is anticipated for the spring semester. (BP) crewmen made a prayer covenant with members of Singapore's International Baptist church.

Seven men agreed to meet for prayer at seven o'clock every morning—"till Jesus comes, or till the ship gets back to California," one of them was quoted.

Within three weeks, 37 other men were converted and five were called to preach, so the seven praying sailors told their Baptist prayer partners in Singapore, Parks said. (BP)

SBC Home Mission Board Names Bingham, Sapp To Key Posts

ATLANTA—The Southern Baptist Home Mission Board elected Robert E. Bingham of Atlanta and James Sapp of Washington to key positions on its executive staff here.

Bingham was named executive assistant over the program services section of the agency; Sapp was elected director of the Division of Communication.

Bingham, a native of Kansas City, currently is minister of education and administration at Wieuca Road Baptist church in Atlanta. A member of the Home Mission Board of Directors since 1967, he currently is second vice president of the board.

Sapp, currently director of correlation services for the Baptist Joint Committee on Public Affairs in Washington, will succeed L. O. Griffith who is retiring as director of the Division of Communication.

Both Sapp and Bingham assumes their positions effective Jan. 1.

As executive assistant, Bingham will provide administrative supervision for the program services section in undergirding all the work of the board. His responsibilities also include providing staff leadership in public relations planning and furthering financial support.

A graduate of Kansas university, Lawrence, Kan., he has done graduate study at Furman university, Greenville, S.C., and at Union Theological seminary, New York City. Before coming to Wieuca Road Baptist church in 1960, Bingham was minister of education at First Baptist church, Greenville, S.C., and educational director at First Baptist church, St. Joseph, Mo.

Sapp, a Tulsa, Okla., native, will direct and correlate the work of the Communication Division, which includes art services, editorial services, audio-visual services, library services, picture services, and missionary education.

Before joining the staff of the Baptist Joint Committee on Public Affairs in 1964, Sapp was director of program development and promotion for the Southern Baptist Brotherhood Commission, Memphis. Sapp was previously a staff member of the First Baptist churches of Atlanta, Raleigh, N.C., Memphis, Columbia, S.C., and Austin, Tex.

A graduate of Oklahoma Baptist university, Shawnee, he has done additional studies at Duke university, Durham, N.C.

He is an accredited member of the Public Relations Society of America, and a charter member and past president of the Baptist Public Relations Association. (BP)

Northwest Baptists Resolve On Race, Church-State Issues

YAKIMA, Wash.—During sessions described as "more like a revival than a convention," the Northwest Baptist Convention here adopted resolutions expressing regrets over the withdrawal of a Southern Baptist study unit on race relations, urging churches to reach all people regardless of race, and reaffirming church-state separation guarantees of the U. S. Constitution.

The convention also adopted a budget of $349,950, and authorized a committee to make an in-depth study of the convention's constitution and recommend any changes the committee felt should be made. No guidelines were given the committee.

In resolutions, the convention expressed "regrets" concerning "an executive action of the Southern Baptist Sunday School Board in recalling 160,000 copies of the church training quarterly 'Becoming', because it contained a picture of a black teenage boy talking with two white girls."

The convention's resolution claimed the action had prompted "an adverse effect on the progress of good relationships between the races." It pointed out that "many churches and individuals of the Northwest are seeking to apply the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ in a ministry of reconciliation, and to help break down racial barriers."

Another resolution reaffirmed belief in, and commitment to, the Constitution of the United States, and its protections guaranteeing separation of church and state through the First Amendment.

Next year, the convention will meet in North Bend, Ore., Nov. 14-16. (BP)

North Carolina Baptists Reject Immersion Test

CHARLOTTE—North Carolina Baptists refused to amend their Convention constitution to exclude churches which have members who have not been baptized by immersion.

A constitutional amendment introduced by Gastonia pastor M. O. Owens got a majority vote, 1245 to 1078, but failed to get the required two-thirds majority needed for passage.

The amendment would have restricted messengers to the annual convention to those coming from churches which have immersed members only.

All churches affiliated with the North Carolina convention baptize by immersion, but several accept members who have been sprinkled or baptized by other means in other denominations without rebaptism, convention officials said.

Messengers to the convention also rejected a constitutional amendment which would have restricted consideration of government-funded programs for convention institutions to approval by the convention in annual meeting. Messengers voted against the amendment, preferring instead to stick

Chicago Jesus Movement Leader Plans Berlin Wall Prayer Vigil

CHICAGO—Southern Baptist evangelist Sammy Tippit, a leader of the Jesus movement in Chicago, is in Germany where he hopes to bring the Jesus movement to both sides of the Iron Curtain in East and West Germany.

Tippit and six others plan to march across the country, from Munich to Berlin, climaxing their efforts with a Christmas prayer and fast vigil, and a rally, at Checkpoint Charlie, the main artery into East Berlin from the Western sector of the city.

Tippit, who recently was arrested in Chicago and charged with "disorderly conduct" for witnessing and passing out tracts in Chicago's night club district, said he had obtained permission to erect a cross and hold a one-week prayer vigil near Checkpoint Charlie. The city attorneys in Chicago dropped the charges against Tippit after numerous protests were lodged on a freedom of religion basis.

Murray Bradfield, who works with Tippit in his Chicago street ministry called "God's Love in Action," is already in Germany making arrangements for the march across the country and for the Berlin Wall prayer vigil, Tippit said in an interview just before leaving.

"We are praying that Christians in the West will become aware of many of the conditions that our brothers and sisters in Christ are going through behind the Iron Curtain because of their stand for Christ, and that it might spark a bit more of a revival in the West," Tippit said.

Climaxing the trip will be a Jesus rally at Checkpoint Charlie on Christmas day, Tippit said. Bradfield will stay in Germany afterwards to set up a branch of "God's Love in Action," but Tippit will return Dec. 27 to speak at the Illinois Baptist state youth evangelism conference.

Tippit said that the Jesus revolution is not as widespread in Germany as in the United States, but it was catching hold. He spoke earlier this year at a meeting of the European Baptist Convention pastor's retreat, the English-language organization of Baptists in Europe. (BP) with the present arrangement which permits the convention's General Board to rule on programs involving governmental funds.

In approving several resolutions, the convention deplored the recent action of the Southern Baptist Sunday School Board in withdrawing the church training quarterly Becoming from distribution.

The resolution expressed "deep regret and disappointment" to Sunday School Board officials James L. Sullivan and Allen B. Comish for the action.

The Convention approved a record budget of $7,750,000 for 1972, an increase of $400,000 over the current budget. (BP)

New Convention President: Profile of TBC Leader

Courtney Wilson, pastor of the First Baptist church of Hendersonville, for the past 13 years elected president of the Tennessee Baptist Convention at the group's annual meeting in Gatlinburg held Nov. 9-11, is a native of Paducah, Ky.

Wilson is no stranger to denominational service. He is serving currently as a member of the Convention's Executive Board as well as a member of the Board of Trustees of Belmont college, Nashville. At the time of his election as president, he was serving as first vice president of the convention. He is also moderator of the Nashville Baptist association. He has served as vice president of the convention's Pastors' Conference and is the immediate past president of the Hendersonville Ministerial association.

He is a graduate of Union university, Jackson, with the bachelor of arts degree, and Peabody college, Nashville, with the master of arts degree.

Wilson served his country in the United States Air Force for three and one-half years during World War II as a flight engineer.

He has served formerly as pastor of Fairview church, Newbern, Smith Fork church, Statesville, and Woodbine church, Nashville.

Last year Wilson was awarded the Service to Mankind Award by the Hendersonville Sertoma Club. He is also a charter member of the Hendersonville Rotary Club.

Mrs. Wilson is the former Betty Roberts of St. Johns, Newfoundland. They have four children: Jerry, 24; Sylvia, 21, a senior at Carson-Newman college, Jefferson City; Philip, 17, a senior at Hendersonville High school; and Laurie, 16, a junior at Hendersonville High school. The Wilsons also have two grandchildren, Amy, four and Jennifer, one and one-half years of age.

A certificate of appreciation is presented to Richard Lee Johnson at tea given in his honor by the staff of the East Tennessee Home on Sunday afternoon, November 21.

The certificate stated, "Given in appreciation for twelve years' faithful service as Superintendent of the East Tennessee Home at Chattanooga. Christlike in compassion for children." Johnson retires at the end of the year.

once upon a time...

More than 400 years ago, the New World was a mission field with tremendous challenges against overwhelming odds.

Aren't you glad the Christians of that time didn't give up?

Today, we realize that the Whole World is and always has been, a mission field. The challenges are still there and the odds are even greater.

Thanks be to God—Southern Baptists aren't giving up!

Annual Report Of The Treasurer Tennessee Baptist Convention

By W. Fred Kendall, Treasurer

The Treasurer's annual report covers the complete fiscal year of the Convention and includes all funds received on or after November 1, 1970 through October 29, 1971. Funds received after October 29, 1971 will be included in the next report.

Churches are listed alphabetically and by associations. Only those churches which gave are listed. Institutions of the State Convention have reported funds sent directly to them. The church is given credit in the reported and designated column. Reports of chapels and missions are included with the sponsoring church. Church Treasurers will please compare this report with their records, and if there are differences, please report it to this office at once.

Nov. 1, 1970—October 31, 1971

	Nov. 1, 1969- Oct. 31, 1970	Nov. 1, 1970- Oct. 31, 1971	Gain
Cooperative Program	5,539,105.88	5,764,768.88	225,663.00
Designated & Reported	2,057,435.25	2,405,122.05	347,686.80
Total Gifts	$7,596,541.13	$8,169,890.93	$573,349.80

This has been an excellent year in stewardship response. Note the gain of $225,663.00 over last year in Cooperative Program giving. This is a gain of 4.07%. The designated and reported gifts showed a large gain also, which is 16.90%. Much of this was in the greatly increased mission offerings. Note that the Lottie Moon offering passed one million dollars for the first time in history. The Golden State Mission offering also showed a very fine increase. The Mother's Day offering for the Children's Homes was also at a new record high. Let us pray that 1972 will be an even better year revealing the faithfulness of the stewardship of our possessions.

The number one commentary on Billy Graham's recommended youth reading list

(DECISION Magazine)

THE NEW BIBLE COMMENTARY: REVISED

Edited by D. Guthrie, J.A. Motyer, A.M. Stibbs, D.J. Wiseman

Features: 1328 double column pages. 9 1/4" x 6 1/4". Succinct introductions, thorough outlines for each book of the Bible. Cloth $12.95

"... written by men who believe the Scriptures, recognize them as inspired of God, and are seeking to understand what God is saying to men. We recommend the volume to preachers, Sunday School teachers, and others seeking up-to-date scholarly material written by men of known conservatism."

—BAPTIST RECORD

THE NEW BIBLE DICTIONARY

Edited by J.D. Douglas

An entirely new and up-to-date dictionary of the whole Bible. Over 2,300 articles, maps, sketches, outlines and photos. 1424 pages, Cloth $12.95

"... loyal to the Bible, and provides a wealth of information ... an invaluable aid to teachers, ministers, and others."

—SOUTHWEST BAPTIST THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

"A masterpiece ... up-to-date and relevant. Every professor of Biblical and related courses, every Biblical student, every Sunday School teacher, every religious leader, and every layman or laywoman must be a user of this volume—it fills a vacuum! Destined for wide acclaim and acceptance."

—D. W. DEERE, Golden Gate Baptist Theological Seminary

CALL TO COMMITMENT

By W. R. White
Baylor University, Waco, Texas

Basic Passage: Luke 9:23-62
Focal Passage: Luke 9:23-24, 46-48, 57-62

The most dangerous ideology in the world has the largest and most committed constituency. We refer, of course, to communism. It does not have in its membership a majority of those it controls. Unfortunately its adherents are all committed. Furthermore, they are fanatical in their devotion. It is so tragic that those who are not communists have very few committed individuals in their number.

A passive acquiescence to anti-communist views is the prevailing mood in most of the world.

True Christianity full of zeal is the only hope, not only against communism but other deadly forms of secularism. We could wipe out communism but will still have plenty of evils left to damn us. Positive Christianity with a serious commitment must replace the ills that menace us.

Are you really committed positively and wholeheartedly to any thing? To what? Unless you are, you are not really living, you are just existing. Life at its highest and best is commitment to the highest and best.

Commitment Is Self-crucifixion

It is not what we deny but whom we deny that counts. The most persistent problem to full discipleship is "self". Self must be kept on a cross or it will wear the crown.

It is the hardest thing to deny. It gets on the throne every time you do not watch it. True repentance and dedication require a dethroning of self and an enthroning of Christ. It is then that we take our hands off our lives and place them in the hands of our Lord.

True Measure Of Greatness

Jesus says that we must become as a little child to qualify for the kingdom of God. We must be like Paul, willing to be less than the least of the saints in order to be fully committed.

Humility is so essential to the deepest devotion and the highest quality of service. It gives a beauty and winsomeness to our commitment that attract to Christ.

The Acid Test Of Commitment

Passive assent to a challenge is easily diverted. Real, true commitment of depth is very stubborn and difficult to budge. Most Christians are easily upset or diverted as to their persistent, consistent loyalty.

Jesus did not encourage any prospective disciples in thinking that following Him was a bed of roses. One man glibly said to Jesus, "I will follow Thee whithersoever Thou goest." Evidently he did not realize what the cost would be. The Lord made it clear that the beasts of the earth and the fowls of the air had better comforts and resting places than the Son of Man.

Some of those Jesus called were not frank and forthright in refusing but began making excuses. One man said that he had

United Methodist Board Votes Cut In Budget At Mission Meeting

The United Methodist Board of Missions meeting in Minneapolis voted cuts in budget and personnel and adopted resolutions on Pakistan and the World Council of Churches.

Directors of the agency approved a $34,474,474 budget for 1972, a 5.8 per cent cut from the 1971 figure. They also reported that the missionary force in 1972 would be 950, a drop of 450 since 1969.

A "limitation of funds" and the "increased strength" of churches in mission lands were given as major reasons for the decline.

The board asked the President to cut foreign aid to Pakistan in an effort to produce a negotiated settlement of the troubles in the country's eastern area. It also urged massive help to India to aid 9 million East Pakistani refugees who sought refuge there.

A vote of confidence in the World Council of Churches was unanimously adopted also.

to first go and bury his father. Jesus suggested that following Him was so important that he could well leave that responsibility to others who were spiritually lifeless. However, the man could have made following Jesus first. No doubt Jesus would have gone with him to the funeral for comfort.

Sometimes there is an urgency about following Christ. One man wanted first to go bid his family farewell. Jesus suggested that having put our hands to the plow, it disqualifies us for the kingdom to look back. The commitment must take precedence over all other ties. Jesus very likely sensed that the man's tie to his family would cause him to falter. There do come times when nothing should delay the beginning of true discipleship.

THE SECOND COMMANDMENT

By T. B. Maston

"And the second is like unto it, Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself" (Matt. 29:39, KJV).

First notice that love of neighbor is not "the first and great commandment"; it is "second." Wherever right relations to God and man are found together in the Scriptures, the former is stated first. There should never be any question about which is "the great commandment in the law" (v. 36).

What did Jesus mean when he said, "The second is like unto" the first commandment? It could be that he simply meant that the second, like the first, was a commandment of love. But there is also a possibility that he meant that the second was like the first in importance. These are the two great commandments. According to Mark, Jesus said, "There is none other commandment greater than these" (Mark 12:31, KJV).

The lawyer had only asked Jesus for the great commandment. Why did Jesus add, possibly after a pause for emphasis, "A second is like it" (RSV)? It could be that Jesus recognized that the lawyer and his friends particularly needed the second.

A more likely explanation, however, is that Jesus believed that these commandments belonged together. One was and is incomplete without the other. No one can love his neighbor as himself who does not love God supremely. One who loves God with his total personality will love his neighbor. John says, "If a man say, 'I love God,' and hateth his brother, he is a liar" (1 John 4:20, KJV).

Baptist Men Propose Four Conferences

Four international meetings in four years are included in plans of the men's department of the Baptist World Alliance.

David Wong of Hong Kong, chairman of the department, announced a schedule of meetings beginning with a Pan-American Baptist Men's Conference at Cali, Columbia, July 17-22, 1972.

The Cali conference will be primarily for men from the Western Hemisphere, but men and their wives from all the world will be welcomed, Wong said.

A similar regional pattern is planned in successive years with the thought that greater numbers of men can participate in "world" meetings in their particular area rather than farther away.

Other meeting sites under consideration are Jerusalem, Israel, November, 1973; Hong Kong, October, 1974; and Stockholm, Sweden, July, 1975.

The meeting in Stockholm will be held in connection with the 13th Baptist World Congress and will be worldwide in its scope. (EBPS)

School Prayer Drive

Far From Dead, Says Group

WASHINGTON, D.C.—An organization advocating prayer in the public schools said here that it intends to urge all candidates for office in the 1972 elections to "endorse the civil right of free school prayer."

Citizens for Public Prayer, a coalition of groups which campaigned on behalf of the recently defeated "Prayer Amendment" to the U.S. constitution, said the issue is far from dead.

Father Robert G. Howes, a Catholic priest who is coordinator of the group, saw a few hopeful signs in the debate surrounding the amendment which came to a House of Representatives vote Nov. 8.

He noted a majority (240 members of the House voted for the amendment, which required a two-thirds majority to pass. Father Howes cited opinion polls in which he said, the American public overwhelmingly favored prayer in the schools. (RNS)

Church Robberies Increase

NASHVILLE—A rash of armed robberies at churches here are causing many congregations to review security measures in handling congregational offerings.

Baptist, United Methodist, Roman Catholic and Unitarian churches have been hit. Police officials say investigations have not uncovered any direct links between the incidents, but a detective said a trend toward church robberies is growing.

"I despise having to lock church doors, but it looks like we may have to," said the Rev. Robert H. Spain of the Belle Meade United Methodist church.

Until recently, locked church doors in the South were almost unknown. Mr. Spain regretted that church buildings are no longer "off limits" to thieves and robbers.

Recent robberies here took place when buildings were in use.

An outbreak of armed holdups began in early November when two armed men wearing masks entered the First Baptist church in suburban Donelson while worship was in progress. They ordered six persons counting Sunday offerings to hand over the money. About $1100 was taken.

Purses were rifled in the Belle Meade church choir room during services.

Two masked bandits, one armed with a shotgun, attempted to steal $600 in cash during a bingo game at Christ the King Catholic School. Two parishioners were wounded during the abortive holdup.

At the Unitarian church, three armed men took purses from a dozen women attending a kindergarten board meeting. Small amounts of money and credit cards were stolen.

The Donelson Baptist church has changed its locks and installed safety devices. It is setting up security measures covering the tabulation of collections. (RNS)

It has increased also its services to agencies of the Southern Baptist Convention by counseling and assisting in investing reserve funds for the agencies, Berry continued.

The board's president is head of the Nashville-based Oman Construction Co. Re-elected as vice-president was L. B. Stevens, Nashville.

Griffith, Cummins Are Honored For 35 Years' Mission Work

ATLANTA—The Southern Baptist Home Mission Board paid tribute here to two of its division directors who are retiring at the end of the year after more than 35 combined years of service.

The board honored L. O. Griffith, director of the Division of Communication for the past 12 years, and Geo. W. Cummins, director of the Division of Chaplaincy for the past 10 years.

Engraved plaques and resolutions of appreciation were presented to Griffith and Cummins during the board's administrative committee meeting here. Home Mission Board Executive Secretary Arthur B. Rutledge expressed appreciation for their "work and their devotion to Christ."

Griffith, a native of Kentucky, has spent the last 20 years of his life promoting communication of the mission work of the board. He joined the board staff in 1951 as director of promotion from a position as assistant to the state executive secretary in Kentucky.

"The Lord has given me so many unique mission opportunities," Griffith said. "I don't plan to retire. I plan to do some of the things I've been wanting to do—I used to supply and preach in revivals; I'm far behind on my preaching."

In earlier years Griffith served more than 20 years in pastorates in the Kentucky mountains. He obtained his start in communications there with a camera photographing mountain people eager to have their children "in pictures."

In 1959 he became the first director of the board's newly formed Division of Education and Promotion, renamed the Division of Communication in 1966. From three departments and five staff members in 1959, the division has grown to four departments, nine staff members and 21 office workers, artists, technicians, and writers. In proportion to the staff, the work of the division has also increased.

"The growth isn't because of what we did," Griffith modestly said, "but because Southern Baptists made funds available to do these things. So many people have had a part of everything I've been privileged to do. The results have come because of prayers and support of others."

A graduate of Georgetown college in Georgetown, Ky., and Southern Baptist Theological seminary, Louisville, Griffith was honored by Georgetown college with a doctor of divinity degree in 1955.

As director of the board's Division of Chaplaincy for the past 10 years, Cummins has travelled all over the world, preaching on military bases, in hospitals and prisons.

He said he plans to continue preaching, visiting military bases, and leading revivals, with hopes to continue to spread through these efforts "the principles of the chaplaincy."

Like Griffith, Cummins is a graduate of Georgetown college and Southern seminary, and received an honorary doctorate from Georgetown college. He also received a doctor of laws degree from Atlanta Law School.

Cummins assumed his position as director of the chaplaincy division in 1961. Previously, he was the division's associate director for six years. Before coming to Atlanta, Cummins served as superintendent of western missions in Salt Lake City, Utah, and as associate missionary in the San Diego, Calif., County Association.

In 1942, Cummins went into the U. S. Naval Reserve. Also, as a chaplain, he has served in hospitals, correctional, and industrial situations.

Today there are 3500 active chaplains—or missionaries, as Cummins calls them—working throughout the world. "Their basic objective," he said, "is to render a spiritual ministry to people wherever they are found." Chaplains and military personnel have started about 80 per cent of the English-speaking churches around the world, Cummins said.

Since he assumed responsibilities of the division, the two-man staff has grown to six, working with each phase of the chaplaincy—military, institutional, hospital and industrial—in addition to an associate director.

Assuming the vacated positions will be James M. Sapp, director of correlation services, Baptist Joint Committee on Public Affairs, as director of the Communication Division; and James W. Kelly, former chief of chaplains of the U. S. Navy, as director of the Chaplaincy Division. (BP)

Evangelical Methodist Church Founder Is Dead At 94

ABILENE, Tex.—Dr. J. H. Hamblem, founder of the Evangelical Methodist church, died here Nov. 9 at the age of 94.

He and a group of Southern clergymen organized the denomination in 1946 among congregations which did not go along with the 1939 union of three groups which merged to form the Methodist (now United Methodist) Church.

Hamblem said then he was displeased with the denomination's "modernism."

The Evangelical Methodist church had about 3,000 members at its founding. Its leaders estimated the "potential membership" at 500,000. Today, the denomination has about 10,000 members in some 150 congregations. Its headquarters are in Wichita, Kan.

Hamblem was a clergyman for more than four decades. He is survived by his widow and a son. (RNS)

Charles L. Norton, left, secretary, Church Training department, Tennessee Baptist Convention, congratulates Thurman Prewett, director of education and promotion, Shelby County association, for leading the association to earn the Distinguished Achievement Certificate, the highest recognition awarded an associational organization. Norton noted that only seven associations in the Southern Baptist Convention have earned this award.

CHILDREN'S HOMES

A YOUNG SINGER

By James M. Gregg
Executive Director

"The night was cold and the wind was blowing up a storm. Conrad Cotta, an esteemed citizen of a little town in Germany, was playing his flute while his wife, Ursula, was preparing supper. Suddenly they heard a sweet but weak voice singing outside, "Foxes to their holes have gone, every bird into its nest; but I have wandered here alone, and for me there is no rest." Hearing a light knock at their door, they opened it and saw a half-frozen, ragged lad who asked for charity in the name of Christ.

"Come in, young man," said Mr. Cotta, "we'll give you some food and a place to stay tonight." He seemed such a worthy teenager that they prayed about the matter and decided to treat him as their own son. They sent him to school, and he later entered a monastery. There he found a Bible which he read eagerly and from which he learned the blessed way of salvation.

Unable to keep the good news to himself, he spread abroad the word that "justified by faith" we can have "peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ." Little did Conrad and Ursula know, when they took that young singer into their home in the name of Christ, that they were nourishing the great champion of the Reformation; for that poor lad was none other than MARTIN LUTHER!"

It could well be that some boy or girl whom we receive into one of our Homes, in Jesus' Name, will live a life of service and dedication to God as meaningful as Martin Luther.

Thank you, Tennessee Baptists, for your prayers and financial support. If we can help you, please write me at P. O. Box 647, Brentwood, Tennessee 37027.

GOD FULFILLS HIS PROMISE

Dr. Charles Ausmus, Pastor
Lincoln Park Baptist Church

Luke 1:68-79, 2:29-32

Luke alone of the gospel writers lists the five great hymns. The songs of Zacharias and Simeon form our lesson.

PRAISE. These hymns are an expression of praise from grateful hearts. They praise God for all his promises, his gifts, his deliverance, and most of all that now at long last the promised Messiah is here.

These songs of praise are steeped in Old Testament phraseology and doctrine. It seems that the Psalmist of old and some of the great prophets speak again. We can certainly gain a better understanding of the Messianic promise and the universal mission of our Lord. Let us note too that God's house, God's people were involved in this scene. Is God's house, his church, his people as deeply involved today in bringing to fulfillment God's promise?

PROMISE. The promise was made to the fathers by the prophets, since the world began: the promise concerns Christ and his coming to bring salvation, deliverance, and redemption to his people. Jews and Gentiles are both included in the promise. Spurgeon remarked that "every page of the Bible is a door through which we scamper into the fields with Jesus." Jesus said "Search the scriptures—they testify of me."

Through the long periods of Old Testament history, God at frequent times made the promise, and renewed the promise of the Messiah. In Genesis he is the seed of woman which would bruise the head of the serpent. In Exodus he is the Passover Lamb. In Numbers he is water from the rock. In Deuteronomy he is the one like unto Moses. In Psalms he is the good shepherd, in Proverbs he is the wisdom of God, in Job the daysman. Isaiah made the promise that Christ would be the wonderful Son of God, virgin born, the Prince of peace, the suffering servant, and the means of salvation. God promised Abraham that through his seed all the nations of the earth would be blessed. He is promised as the royal seed of the House of David. Solomon promised Christ as the rose of Sharon, the lily of the valley, chiefest among ten thousand, and the one altogether lovely. Malachi called him the "Son of Righteousness" which would rise with healing in his wings. We have Christ's own authority for the fact that he is the key to all the Old Testament promises, profiles, and pictures. In Luke 24 "Beginning at Moses and the prophets he expounded unto them in all the scriptures the things concerning himself—all things must be fulfilled, which were written in the Law of Moses, and in the Prophets, and in the Psalms concerning me."

Both Zacharias and Simeon realized that the advent of the Christ was a fulfillment of God's precious promise. He hath visited and redeemed his people. He hath raised up a horn of Salvation. God has kept his oath to Abraham and his promise to the fathers through the holy prophets. The dayspring from on high hath dawned. "He has never broken any promise spoken, He will keep his promise to me." One of our great hymns is entitled "Standing on the Promises of God." On his promise let us firmly plant our feet and fasten our faith.

PREPARATION. God's promise across the centuries carried with it the eternal plan and the preparation to put that plan into action and bring it to consummation. The preparation really began before the foundation of the world in the divine council of heaven. The preparation was carried out through the call of Abraham and the making of a people for God's own use. The preparation was made through the House of David and the Tribe of Judah.

But more particularly we have here the preparation to be wrought in the life and ministry of John the Baptist. He was the chosen forerunner, sent by the Lord to prepare the way for the Saviour. Verse 76 declared "And Thou, child, shalt be called the prophet of the highest; for Thou shalt go before the face of the Lord to prepare his ways; to give knowledge of the way of Salvation." John preached and baptized and prepared a people, ready for the reception of the Lamb of God when he came. Simeon praised God that salvation had been prepared for all people.

PERFORMANCE. In the words of Zacharias God is now performing the mercies promised to the fathers by the holy prophet. God has now visited his people. God is now bringing redemption and deliverance to his people. He has raised up a horn (strength and power) of salvation. God now performs to save us from our enemies and from the hand of all that hate us. This last phrase probably refers to national deliverance from the foot of the oppressor—for they had experienced slavery now for long periods of time. Since God now performs his promise, his people can serve him without fear, they are to be free in Christ.

The performance reaches a high spiritual peak in reference to living and serving in holiness and righteousness. The salvation

He Never Did Preach

By Jonas L. Stewart
Executive Secretary-Treasurer

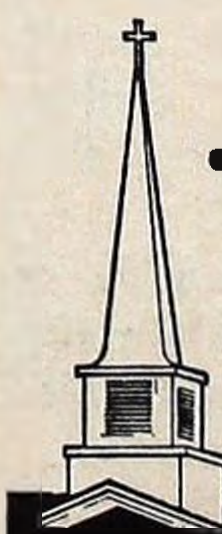

He relates a very vivid account of God's call to preach. But like many others with such a call, he never did preach. He kept putting it off and making excuses. The years passed and the guilt of a misspent life kept nagging at his soul. Much sooner than he had expected he was too far along in years to respond to the call.

This one found a way to make up for much of his neglect. God had blessed him with a farm, a home, some investments and savings. He communicated with the Tennessee Baptist Foundation and requested a representative to call. Information was obtained for preparing a Christian will for himself and his wife. They willed everything to each other with provision that at the death of the survivor the income will go to the college that he should have attended in preparation for the ministry. He said, "Maybe it will help others to take my place and be the preacher I was supposed to be."

experience is described as remission of sins, which is personal instead of national. The promise is fulfilled, the light has come to all who sit in darkness. Mine eyes have seen Thy salvation, a light for the gentiles and glory for the people of Israel.

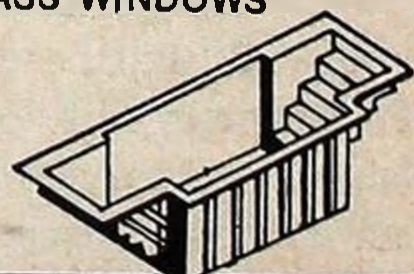

PEACE. These people lived under the yoke of bondage and slavery. There had been wars and rumors of wars. In the heart of every man is a bitterness and every heart knows its own bitterness. Without Christ there is unenlightened ignorance, unconquered sin, and un comforted sorrow. But now blessed be the God of Israel peace has come, peace is available to Jew and gentile. It is the peace of deliverance, the peace of redemption, the peace of salvation, the peace of light and hope. Through the fulfillment of his promise, and in Christ we can have that "peace that passeth all understanding."

From the Executive Secretary

By W. Fred Kendall

I have just had a very great experience in attending the fifty-third annual meeting of the Advisory Council of the American Bible Society. This was the first time that it has ever been held outside of New York City. It met here in Nashville for two days and many denominational leaders were invited to attend as guests.

The American Bible Society majors on the translation and circulation of the scriptures into every possible nation on the earth. The whole Bible or portions of it have now been translated into more than 1400 languages and dialects. Many scholars are employed by the Society to train native translators. Some outstanding linguists are among this number and they have done a tremendous job.

Last year there were about 170,000,000 Bibles or portions of the scriptures put into circulation. The demand for the Bible today is phenomenal. The calls come from all over the world. Work is now being done on translations which will make the Bible available in the languages of eighty percent of the world's population. The demand staggers the imagination.

One of the things which concerns the American Bible Society is the fact that support from the churches has been declining for several years. Southern Baptists are now the largest supporter of its work. Individuals also give it large support.

Next year a regional office will be established in Atlanta, Georgia for all of the southeast. Mr. Edward Cunningham whose office is now in Lexington, Kentucky and who works with Southern Baptists will be in charge of that office. The American Bible Society renders great service to the churches and denominations through the many materials it makes available.

We have already passed by National Bible week and the Sunday when special emphasis is given to the Bible. We can still make every effort to get the Bible into every home and into the hands of every person. We heard some wonderful stories about the great success of the circulation and of the phenomenal growth of Bible study everywhere in homes and in special groups.

In the weeks ahead I will write some more about this great service and the ways we can work to circulate the Bible. While we were in session the announcement was made that the translation of the New Testament, "Good News For Modern Man" had passed the thirty-one million mark. This is the greatest sale in all history of any paper

Affluence Is No Guarantee Of College Potential

A "surprising number" of youngsters in affluent suburban schools—25%—are not college material and should not be encouraged to aim for college, Dr. James T. Hariot, director of the Psychodiagnostic Laboratory of University of Rochester Medical Center, said.

The child with an average IQ is in trouble in college-oriented suburban schools, the child psychologist observed.

"I tell parents who come to see me that if they've got an average kid and they live in the suburbs, they're in trouble because such students have no way to show they are successful in school. . . . After a while some of these kids develop weird approaches to life because they spend 40% of their time in a frustrating environment."

Too many affluent parents accept no alternatives to college, points out Dr. Hariot. Their expectations are reflected in the kind of school systems they create and pay for, schools which glorify college and, by implication, classify kids who are not college material as "dummies."

The intense pressure on average youngsters in these schools produces self-doubts and tensions which may make them drop-outs from family, school and society, the psychologist warns. "The more affluent the school, the bigger the problem for average kids."

London Court Rules Single Item Of Obscenity Can Convict Journal

LONDON—Under a new ruling, the British Court of Appeals has said that a single item of obscenity in a magazine or newspaper can subject its editors to an obscenity conviction.

The modern British and American doctrine of judging a work as a whole for obscenity would apply only to books, not to periodicals, the decision read. According to the court, it made no sense to judge a magazine as a whole unit, and that the editor of a magazine or newspaper could cut out offending items from the periodical.

Glorieta Baptist Assembly Features Calendar Weeks

NASHVILLE—Glorieta Baptist Assembly will conduct four weeks of conferences on a calendar week basis during 1972, according to Bob Boyd, director, assembly division, Southern Baptist Sunday School Board.

"This schedule is to be on an experimental basis," Boyd said. "Beginning on Monday night, the conferences will close on Saturday at noon instead of the traditional Thursday night through Wednesday noon schedule."

"We hope to make our conferences more accessible for laymen as well as busy pastors," Boyd added.

"It is conceivable that a pastor could attend a week long conference and not have to arrange for a single supply preacher."

Glorieta conferences to be held on a calendar week basis include: Church Training Youth Conference, June 4-10; Church Training Leadership Conference, Church Training Youth Conference, Vocational Guidance Lab and Workshop for Workers with Mentally Retarded, June 11-17; Sunday School and Church Training Leadership Conference, June 18-24 and Sunday School Leadership Conference and Workshop for Workers with Mentally Retarded, June 25-July 1.

Oil Flows, Church Grows For Baptists In Ecuador

By Stanley D. Stamps

As I entered the Sunday morning worship service of First Baptist Church, Quito, Ecuador, my ears were caught off guard by the sound of "To God Be the Glory" being sung in English.

I had occupied the pulpit of this church a few years earlier as pastor of its Spanish-speaking congregation. Now the present pastor began making announcements—in English.

The pastor, William P. May, is a fellow Southern Baptist missionary with the task of ministering to the capital city's growing English-speaking population, now estimated at over 3000. May and his wife, Marilyn, are from Miami, Fla.

Most of the families in the congregation are North Americans connected with major oil companies, oil field service operations and pipeline companies. The church, constituted in February 1970 with 16 members, now has a membership of 44 and sometimes has an attendance of 70.

Bible Study In Homes

I was to see four added that morning. Mrs. Lewis Zeigler and two of her daughters, Teresa and Cindy, presented themselves for membership by transfer of letter from Woodland Acres Baptist Church in Tulsa, Okla. Another daughter, Lisa, came upon profession of faith, the first such decision to be made in the life of this young church.

Not unlike many other men whose families were in the congregation, Lewis Zeigler was out on the job that morning. He works as a technician on the giant trans-Andean oil pipeline, which when completed some time next year will pump 250,000 barrels daily from Ecuador's oil-rich eastern jungle regions to the Pacific terminal at Esmeraldas.

Quito's First Baptist, using the building of the Spanish-speaking University Baptist Church, meets for Sunday School in the educational annex while the other congregation worships in the sanctuary. At the close of the Spanish service, the English-speaking congregation moves in for its worship service. The arrangement works well.

Besides Sunday School and morning worship there is a Wednesday night Bible study in members' homes. A youth coffee house is held in the apartment of missionary journeyman Pat Stooksbury, who is organist for the congregation. A bus provides transportation for families who had to leave their cars behind in the States and still have difficulty giving instructions to taxi drivers.

Ministerial Student Fund

Among the church's special projects are a scholarship fund for Ecuadoran ministerial students and the provision of expenses for a small boy from the Indian community of San Jose de Cocotog to attend the Baptist Primary School.

800 Members In Church, Revival Results in 1061 Professions

ALAMAGORDO, N.M.—When the 800-member First Baptist church of this 22,000-population city sponsored a revival led by Richard Hogue of Houston, there were more professions of faith in the revival than there were members of the church.

A total of 1061 professions of faith were recorded in the revival, according to the pastor, Jack Stricklan.

Stricklan said he had checked with New Mexico Baptist leaders, and that all indications are that the Alamagordo revival had the largest response of any local church revival in New Mexico Baptist history.

The revival also broke attendance records in New Mexico Baptist history, with 1594 present in Sunday School on the final Sunday. Only a month earlier, a revival at Hobbs, N.M., resulted in a new record of 1577 persons in Sunday School. (BP) a foreign setting, the church is faced by a special set of problems, the greatest of which is frequent turnover in membership. Most families are here on a short-term work contract—two years or less. Another problem is locating new families soon after they arrive and drawing them into the church. Difficulties with the language and fear of getting out at night pose problems for some; the man of the house is frequently away on the job for weeks at a time.

Fellowship with Christians of other denominations presents a unique problem which First Baptist has handled with wisdom. Members are received in the same way Southern Baptist churches receive members. But those of other evangelical denominations are eligible for associate membership, entitling them to most of the privileges of regular members. Eight persons in the congregation hold associate membership.

Being pastor of a church whose members and prospects are scattered over the northern half of a city of nearly 600,000 inhabitants is not without difficulties. Nevertheless, May approaches his ministry much as any pastor would. Preaching, teaching, visiting and counseling occupy his work day, and there is the added responsibility of helping orient newcomers to the foreign setting.

"My goal for the church," says May, "is to see it self-supporting, to have its own building and to call a pastor from the States." Already the church pays its own bills, has a building fund, contributes to local missions, and pays half the rent on the Mays' apartment. His salary is provided by the Foreign Mission Board.

Bible Society Council Sets $9.7 Million Budget

In its first meeting in history held outside New York City, the American Bible Society Advisory Council set a proposed budget of $9.7 million for the coming year. The goal, which will be presented for approval to the Board of Managers for the Bible Society, was one of the reports heard in the Nashville meeting.

Messengers also learned of a decrease in income from the denominations during the first 10 months of 1971. Receipts from churches and denominations totalled $980,865, as of Oct. 31, down about $160,000 from the same period last year. Southern Baptist Convention support increased during the period, however, with $189,042.00 contributed to the Bible Society. This reflected an increase of approximately $5000 over last year's receipts.

For the past seven years, the SBC has led all other denominations in the amount of financial support given the American Bible Society.

Most of the advisory council meeting here was devoted to presentation of plans and programs to the representatives of the participating denominations, with small group sessions devoted to advising the Bible Society on its work. Porter Routh, executive secretary of the Southern Baptist Convention Executive Committee, brought greetings to the council.

Four Royal Ambassadors from the Nashville area were asked to serve as pages during the sessions. They included Tim Trinkle, Gary Nugent, Ricky Culpepper, and Ricky Franz.

J. B. Avery, Baptist Lay Leader, Attorney, Is Dead

J. B. Avery, Jr., former member of the Executive Board of the Tennessee Baptist Convention, died in Jackson November 28. He was 55 years old.

Avery, a native Tennessean, was raised in Crockett County and had been a member of First church, Alamo, since his boyhood. He served the church as deacon, Sunday School superintendent, teacher, and choir member.

He had served in the State Legislature and was a practicing lawyer in Alamo until his death. He was a graduate of Baylor university, Waco, Tex., and Vanderbilt Law School, Nashville.

Avery is survived by his widow, his parents, Judge and Mrs. J. B. Avery, Sr., Alamo, three daughters, and three grandchildren.
